

MUST CONSULT DOMINIONS ON ALL TREATIES

Premier Meighen Starts Conference at London by Declaration of Principles.

CANADA SUPREME WITH UNITED STATES

Advice of Dominion Must be Accepted as Final in All Questions There.

London, June 27.—(By Grattan O'Leary, Staff Correspondent, the Canadian Press)—A declaration of Dominion rights by Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, Premier of Canada, setting out what, in his judgment, should constitute an adequate voice for the dominions in the foreign affairs of the Empire was today debated at length by the conference of Prime Ministers.

His Four Points

It is understood his four points were as follows: First—That on all questions of foreign policy which more directly concern the British Government, such as matters arising in connection with Palestine, Mesopotamia and the Middle East the governments of the dominions should be kept thoroughly and constantly informed.

Second—That upon all questions of foreign policy affecting the Dominion as a whole the Dominion Government must be consulted. Third—That the British Government should enter into no treaties or special alliances without consulting with, and the advice of the Dominions, and that all such treaties, even when entered into, be subject to the approval of the Dominion Parliament.

In every British Dominion there is an Irish element of the population in hearty sympathy with Ireland's aspirations.'

A settlement of the strike of coal miners in the British Isles has been reached.

Premier Meighen starts the Premier's conference by his declaration of Dominion principles.

It is expected that Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen will be present at the meeting between Lloyd George, DeValera and Sir James Craig.

The miners and mine owners met Premier Lloyd George tonight to discuss this point.

No definite agreement had been reached when the adjournment of the conference between the coal mine owners and miners with Premier Lloyd George took place at midnight tonight.

The Premier refused to pledge the subsidy of $10,000,000, withdrawn recently until he had consulted with the members of his cabinet. This he will do tomorrow.

The conference will meet again in the morning. The numbers of the miners executive say that unless the subsidy is granted a settlement of the coal strike is impossible, in which case, stoppage may continue for another three months.

Quebec, June 27.—In spite of appeals for conciliation, the strike of the Quebec police and firemen continued at midnight tonight, with but little prospect of settlement.

The city apparently is determined to fight the men and had warrants sworn out before Magistrate Choquette tonight for the arrest of some twenty strikers, including the President of the Union, Wilfrid Gariepy, and a seventh, to be chairman, agreeable to both parties to the dispute.

It also provides that the finding of the board be retroactive. It is confidently expected the mills will resume operations this week.

The arrests were made under the Municipal Strike and Lockout Act passed by the Quebec Legislature at the last session, which makes strikes illegal.

At the meeting of the strikers held tonight the men seemed prepared to return to work for an increase of $1 per week for police and 75 cents for firemen, provided the city would not make any victims and providing also that the city would not oblige them to work with a number of police who remained on duty and who the strikers regard as unfriendly to their cause.

At midnight a conference was being held at the City Hall. Abbes Laberge and Bellisle, the union chaplains, and Gaudais Hebert, a labor leader, were conferring with the mayor and aldermen with the hope of reaching a settlement, but the city authorities said a determined front and indicated an intention to resist any proposal that would not make any victims and providing also that the city would not oblige them to work with a number of police who remained on duty and who the strikers regard as unfriendly to their cause.

GOVERNMENT WILL GRANT A SUBSIDY

Conference Between Men, Operators and Premier Lloyd George Later.

London, June 27.—After a meeting between the coal mine owners and the miners held at the Board of Trade today, a virtual agreement on the wages question, the chief cause of the strike in the mines, which has been in progress for six months, was reached.

The agreement is subject to the government's granting a subsidy to the miners.

NEW BRUNSWICK LIQUOR SEIZED NEAR HOULTON

Two Hundred and Seventy-Four Quarts Caught in Raid on Fast Auto.

Bangor, June 27.—Friends of the Deacon Rum should warn him to keep away from Mars Hill. If his disciples, Omar Masse and Camille Rossignol had steered clear of that wide awake Aroostook border town last Saturday they might have reached Bangor with 247 quarts of first aid for the thirsty. But they trundled their Buick roadster right down the main street of the village, where it was sighted by Deputy Collectors Whitton of Mars Hill, and McPhetres, of Bridgewater, and Deputy Sheriff Graves of Mars Hill, all of whom gave chase in an Essex car that wheels along without much fuss.

Carried 247 Quarts.

Lots of Buick roadsters pass through Mars Hill, but not many of them carry 247 quarts of live waters, as this one did, with the cargo piled up so anyone with half an eye could see it. It was worth following, this chariot piloted by Masse and Rossignol, and so the chase was no loafing match. Over a maze of back roads that are not much better than screeches upon the face of nature the Essex pursued the Buick, the fugitives keeping close to the border and at times skipping over into the dominions of King George but finally turning back again to Houlton, where right in the village centre they were headed off and captured.

Some Bottles Smashed.

Of the 247 quarts in the car 112 had been smashed by the wild ride over bumpy roads, 235 surviving intact. Of these 225 quarts 68 were found to be divided between Dutch gin and Scotch whiskey. The liquors had been purchased in Blue River, N. B., at $22 a case of 12 bottles, and would have commanded about $80 a case in Bangor, the officers say.

Provincial Members Pay Income Tax

Court Holds that Cabinet Ministers and Members Are Liable for the Assessment

Ottawa, June 27.—Salaries of ministers in the provincial governments and the members of provincial legislatures are liable for income tax. This is the judgment of Hon. Mr. Justice Audette, of the Exchequer Court, delivered today in the test case of the King vs. Hon. J. E. Caron, minister of agriculture for the Province of Quebec, in giving judgment.

Mr. Justice Audette says that he fails to see any ground on which the defendant should be treated with discrimination as regards the other citizens or public of Canada in relation to liability for the income tax.

FARMER WINS MEDICINE HAT BY HUGE LEAD

Meighen Candidate Defeated by 2,500 to 5,000 Majority is Estimate.

MEDICINE HAT CITY FOR FARMER

Over 3,000 Out of 4,000 Voters at Central City Exercised Their Franchise.

Medicine Hat, Alta., June 27.—Sixty-nine polls give Gardiner 4,077; majority with 79 polls to hear from.

Medicine Hat, June 27.—A National Progressive is to succeed the late Hon. A. L. Sifton as representative in Parliament of Medicine Hat constituency. Robert Gardiner, candidate of the United Farmers of Alberta, today defeated Colonel Nelson Spencer candidate of the Meighen Government by a majority which it is estimated will run between 2,500 and 3,000 in the by-election necessitated by the death of Mr. Sifton.

A Hard Fight

The campaign was fought hard on both sides and a great many public meetings were held. Hon. T. A. Cresser, Dr. Michael Clark and H. A. Wood, President of U. F. A. were among those who spoke for Mr. Gardiner while Colonel Spencer was supported by Senator Robertson, Minister of Labor, H. H. Stevens, M. P. Spencer candidate of the Meighen Government by a majority which it is estimated will run between 2,500 and 3,000 in the by-election necessitated by the death of Mr. Sifton.

Four thousand names were on the Medicine Hat city lists and more than 2,000 votes were cast. Three quarters of the constituency's voters were registered at rural polls and it has been stated that there are in the riding 5,000 members of the United Farmers of Alberta and the United Farm Women.

Medicine Hat city has a large industrial population and the Labor Party endorsed Gardiner. There was no Liberal candidate, and much speculation existed during the campaign over the disposition of the Liberal vote.

Readcliffe, an industrial suburb of Medicine Hat, was one of the few points to record a Spencer majority giving him 108 plurality.

OTTAWA VALLEY NEEDING RAINS

Ottawa, June 27.—With scarcely a drop of rain in the Ottawa Valley district since the last day of May, the crop situation is becoming more serious every day, and a heavy rain should come at this late date of the year to save the crops from being ruined.

Hay is now well under way with a fair yield in the Ottawa district, which according to Mr. E. S. Archibald, director of the Experimental Farm, is one of the few districts in the province where the crop might be classed as "good."

BRIGANDS OF SPAIN STILL IN EVIDENCE

Wearing Provincial Uniforms They Collect from the Touring Motorist.

VARYING SUMS ARE EXTORTED BY THEM

No Use to Argue, Pay and Look Pleasant is Only Course Open to Traveller.

London, June 27.—Not the least picturesque and interesting institution in romantic Spain is the official, uniformed, Government brigand, writes the motoring correspondent of the London Times. The brigand on the highway from north to south is held up, I should imagine, far more frequently in 1921 than was his grandfather in 1821. These are no "Don Quixotes" who waylay him; he and his car are not seized and borne away, after a needless struggle, into a mountain fastness, whence he is invited to dispatch urgent letters to rich relatives advising them, under pain of receiving by registered post an ear or a thumb, to hand the property of the writer, to land £10,000 to "a man carrying a bunch of violets."

Is Resplendent Person.

The modern brigand is generally a most resplendent person in a cocked hat, and a very smart uniform, wearing sometimes a sword, always carrying a rifle; the other fellow wears any old thing. He is turned out simply anyhow, and his only marks of distinction are a vast sombrero and a heavy black cloak. Then his methods are crude and theatrical, and his organization often very poor. His plan may be a desperate coup which may fail, and in its collapse, drag him and his entourage into prison, or he may be careless, to the contrary. The desperado in the shilly cocked hat never fails, and the only person upon whom the shadow of the prison gates may fall is yourself. If you put up any sort of resistance or rashly decide upon flight, your fate, if not so expeditious, may not be unlike that of Don Quixote's victims. You will certainly be boarded and lodged free for some time to come.

Varying Extortions.

Two or more of these brigands are ambushed in a species of rustic police station on the boundary of every province, and you fall into their hands with the helplessness of any tender foot. Their official position is that of tax-collector, and their duties are to make the motorist in odd sums varying from two to five pesetas for the privilege of entering the erstwhile kingdoms of Castile, Leon, Navarre, and so on. To repay this "tax" at Driving License, a special permit to drive your particular car into every corner of Spain, or the receipt for the sums deposited with the Government for these things is quite useless.

"Yes, Senor," said one charming robber yesterday, in reply to my protest. "I see, you tell me you have paid for the right to import your car into and drive it in Spain. But I read nothing in all this about the province of Leon. It will be necessary to pay also to require to see your passport and all your papers."

A little further on I unconsciously left the province of Leon and entered another. Out dashed a black-visaged old lady with an enormous red flag and, standing in front of my car like a roadblock, with both arms stretched out to arrest my flight, screamed piercingly for her male conspirators who were lurking in a cottage. This time I said one word only, "Quanto!" Like a shot the largest brigand (who had on a sort of cap of Liberty made of scarlet wool) replied "Five pesetas," and held out his hand to receive him the ransom which dropped, perhaps temporarily, into his trousers pocket. That was the beginning and the end of the business.

JAPANESE PACT SCHEDULED FOR TODAY'S MEETING

British Premier Makes Long Statement on Foreign Policy of the Empire.

NAVAL PROBLEMS STILL UNDECIDED

Irish Question Will Not be Discussed Until De Valera States Intentions.

London, June 27.—The British Prime Minister, Mr. Lloyd George, again today addressed the Imperial Conference lengthily on foreign affairs. The meeting was held at 11 o'clock in the afternoon owing to Mr. Lloyd George's other engagements.

The representatives of the overseas Dominions put many questions to the Premier. Consideration of the agenda evoked differences of opinion as to how the matters for discussion should be grouped. The secretary finally drafted a list of subjects in accordance with their relative importance, and these will be taken up later.

Treaty Talk Today

It is the belief that if Mr. Lloyd George is prepared to discuss the Anglo-Japanese treaty will be opened tomorrow morning by the Prime Minister himself or Lord Curzon, secretary for foreign affairs.

Informal conversations in the conference disclosed varying opinions as to whether the Anglo-Japanese treaty should be taken up separately or in conjunction with naval defence, or whether there should be grouped together with the Japanese Alliance, disarmament and relations with the United States.

As this is a matter still undecided, there may possibly be a still further postponement of the discussion until the Premier has had time to consider the list drawn up by the secretary and decide upon the procedure.

No Resolutions

No resolutions were adopted today either on the subject of foreign relations or the agenda, and no official communiqué was issued. Presumably nothing will be divulged concerning the Anglo-Japanese Alliance will be very protracted unless the conference should adopt the idea, which has been mooted in some quarters, of issuing a temporary solution by renewing the alliance for another year, until it is seen whether it will be possible to bring about a conference on the whole Pacific problem and naval armaments in which Great Britain, the United States, Japan and China would join.

Ireland

The question of Ireland, it is understood has not been brought formally before the conference, and as it is still unknown whether a meeting in London of Sir James Craig and De Valera will be brought about, nothing can be decided regarding those who will be invited to attend.

MUST CONSULT DOMINIONS ON ALL TREATIES

Premier Meighen Startles Conference at London by Declaration of Principles.

CANADA SUPREME WITH UNITED STATES

Advice of Dominion Must be Accepted as Final in All Things There.

Premier Meighen, in his address, combated a statement by Premier Massey, of New Zealand, that the Imperial War Cabinet had advised the King and that, therefore, the continuation of the war effort would give the dominions a greater voice in the empire's foreign policy than a mere conference such as that now being held.

The Canadian premier argued that the dominion ministers in the Imperial War Cabinet did not advise the King, but by consultation with the British Cabinet merely help influence the advice which the latter gave to the sovereign. In this respect, Mr. Meighen is probably not prepared to go as far as Premier Massey, or even Sir Robert Borden or Hon. N. W. Rowell, who, it will be remembered, have practically advocated that the Dominion Cabinets advise the king direct.

Sees Difficulties

Premier Meighen apparently sees difficulty and danger in this, while the Empire as a whole, under which guarantee would be secured that the advice of the dominions of all matters exclusively affecting them be taken.

Asked by a member of the conference, where or how he would draw the line between questions affecting the empire as a whole and those which Britain alone was concerned, Premier Meighen replied that the matter would have to be left to time and experience.

Discussions which ensued have not yet been made public, but it is not unlikely that a full statement will be issued tomorrow.

Dempsey-Willard Fight Reviewed

On July 4, 1919, at Toledo, O., Fight Was All Over in Third Round.

Jack Dempsey played the accompaniment of Jesse Willard's swag song on July 4, 1919, at Toledo, O. It was all over in the third round. Jess got $100,000 for the performance, many times the amount he earned in a whole career. Dempsey got $27,000.

The champion fell down and got up so many times in the first round that he had to be helped to his feet. He fell and failed to hear the bell. This was on the fifth lunge between Willard and the floor.

The going seemed fairly on the seventh count, but Referee Pecord continued chopping the air over Willard. When he had finished he informed Willard that he had been knocked out and the champion left the ring, only to have his manager come running after him with the information that the fight had been stopped.

That first round was awful. But it prepared everybody for the worst and no one was surprised when Willard was knocked out. Dempsey opened the fight by accepting some taps on the face. Then he hauled off and busted Willard in the stomach with a dazed expression over his head. Dempsey then landed several blows to the jaw and Willard dropped to the floor for six counts, only to fall again with a blow that greeted his nose.

As he got up a second time he turned the going so hard that the fight struck him twice and he fell on his hands and knees.

Arising once more, Willard was knocked out by Dempsey's punch to the face. Again he got up and once more he was knocked down.

Somewhat the giant ground, suffering through the second round, he was nothing more humiliating than a fall partly through the ropes. Dempsey dropped to the floor when the third round opened. Willard was groggy and weak, with one eye out of shape and everything gone wrong. His seconds threw the towel into the ring and called it a day.

THE NEAR EAST WAR.

It is perhaps an encouraging sign that the world is taking little or no interest in the belated Greek-Turkish war. It may be that the people of Europe are tired of conflict and stories of conflict merely because they have had a surfeit of war for the time being and that nothing will arouse their jaded appetites. Or it may mean that war is becoming a less impressive and less fashionable way of settling disputes.

But it is evident that the meeting of the Greeks and Turks—if they ever do meet—will not inspire any such patriotic and sentimental feelings as would have been the case before the great struggle. The "Cross above the Crescent" appeal has lost all its old-time force and there is something akin to cynicism apparent when any reference to the religious aspect of such a conflict is made nowadays.

The world has become palpably tired of the Christianity of the Greeks as opposed to the Manomandantism of the Turks. This in itself is a step forward. When we begin to see war and war's motives in their true perspective we begin to ascertain how little Christianity has to do with it and how much human greed, selfishness and materialism intervene in the causation and waging of conflicts between nations.

There is No Security.
There is also the question of security at home. We have among us large numbers of disabled soldiers, demobilized and lured to violence and destruction by war. We have extreme left, shell-shocked lunatics and the usual percentage of criminals. Our lives are not secure under such circumstances. To make the country secure it is necessary that every person shall be handcuffed and not allowed to leave the house without a passport and then only on hours strictly limited by curfew on the pain of being shot at sight."

Shaw proposed to declare that the keynote of Lloyd George's policy is security. "I have done without security all my life and I have never had less of it than when all the cowards in Europe were fighting for security. I know that security is impossible and that nobody but a hopeless idiot, or a person condemned to Parliament for the term of his natural life (much the same thing) could, for one moment, believe it to be possible."

AMERICAN, GERMAN AND FRENCH TO GO

G. B. in Characteristic Outburst Plays Lloyd George and His Government.

London, June 27.—"Mr. Lloyd George has declared war on America," is the startling opening sentence of a letter which George Bernard Shaw has written to the Daily News. Shaw finds this declaration in the Prime Minister's speech to the Imperial Conference, where Lloyd George said:

U. S. Fleet Must Go.

"This," says Shaw, "is conclusive there can be no security for the British Empire until the American fleet has followed the German fleet to the bottom of the sea. The Japanese fleet will no doubt be happy to assist in the operation, but as there can be no security for Australia, whilst the Japanese fleet exists, it too, must, perhaps subsequently. Thus our western programme, beginning with Ireland, includes two first-rate wars within the next twenty years."

But what about the eastern programme? It is clear that the question that France, now once more up to her eyes in military glory, should be allowed to maintain a formidable naval armament and a range of fortified harbours within gunshot of our shores, actually nearer than Ireland. How can we sleep in security under such circumstances?

from London that twenty-five years' progress in the development of the use of oil has been made in the Old Country. In many industries where coal alone was hitherto used oil is now being employed successfully. It is notable that the development of the oil resources of this country corresponds well with this extension in the use of the fuel. Increased demand for oil will hasten the solution of such problems as that of how to transport economically oil from the Mackenzie River field.

VANISHED PROFITS.

Big industries which were the subject of a couple of years ago of inquiries on the allegation or suspicion that they were making enormous and unjust profits are now in severe financial difficulties. For example, the meat packing industry of the United States was charged with taking many millions of improper profit from the public and in consequence of investigation legislation was enacted bringing it under certain measures of federal control and restricting its operations. Now the meat industry is facing disaster. The Federal Reserve Bank of the United States is advising with J. P. Morgan and other financiers with a view to the raising of a $50,000,000 credit to save the industry.

INQUEST INTO DEATH OF MRS. GREEN THURS.

Sheriff Foster Empanels Jury to Enquire into Somerville Tragedy.

VICTIM LEAVES SEVEN CHILDREN

Byron Ross, Who Was Driving Car Which Struck Her, Did Everything Possible.

Hartland, N. B., June 27.—A coroner's inquest into the death of Mrs. Gordon Whitman Green of Lakerville, who died last evening from injuries sustained when she was struck yesterday afternoon at Somerville, across the St. John River from Fredericton, by an automobile driven by Byron Ross, son of Dr. D. W. Ross of Fredericton, will be held on Thursday, June 30th.

Sheriff Albion Foster, who is also coroner, is conducting the inquest and a jury who had been summoned viewed the remains this morning before they were removed from here for burial. The inquest was then adjourned until Thursday morning, when a large number of witnesses will be in attendance.

Leaves Seven Children.

Mrs. Green, who was 35 years of age and the mother of a family of seven small children, the youngest of whom is only two months old, left her home at Lakerville yesterday with some friends who came along in a car to go to the memorial service for the soldiers of the district in Hartland, and the journey was made as far as Somerville without incident. The car was then stopped alongside of the road a short distance from another car which was facing in a different direction, while some minor repairs were being made. Several of the women in the car got out to cross the road to a place to sit down and Mrs. Green, following them when she was struck by the Cadillac car driven by Mr. Ross and knocked down.

Members of the party afterwards said that the car driven by Mr. Ross was apparently running about twenty miles an hour as it passed along the road by the stalled cars and Mrs. Green, as she walked around the rear of the car in which she had been riding, was unaware of its approach.

Brought to Hartland.

Mrs. Green suffered a broken leg, a fractured hip, a broken arm and nose, and it was also thought at the time that her neck was broken. There were also multiple bruises as well as lacerations. It was about 1.30 p.m. that the accident occurred and the unfortunate woman was brought to Hartland by Mr. Ross in his car for treatment by Dr. L. D. McIntosh and she died at his office at 8 p.m.

George W. Pugh Was Hit By Lightning

Injuries Sustained While He Was Milking Cow in the Barn.

Fredericton, N. B., June 27.—Geo. W. Pugh, of Nashwaakias, was struck by lightning and rendered unconscious early on Sunday evening during an electrical storm which swept down the St. John River valley and over Fredericton and vicinity and was marked by one especially severe shock. Mr. Pugh was in one of the barns on the dairy farm conducted by his father, Geo. L. Pugh, and was milking one of the cows. He was knocked over by the shock and rendered unconscious, while his brother, Rap Pugh, who was also in the barn, was also knocked over by the shock. The father, who was also in the barn, was uninjured and he hurried to the assistance of his sons, at the same time summoning Mrs. Pugh from the house. They did what they could and Ray soon revived, the shock having struck him on the ankle and not appearing to injure him otherwise, but it was three-quarters of an hour before George resumed consciousness. This morning it was said he had rested well and appeared to have almost completely recovered.

LOYD GEORGE'S OFFER

Public opinion, ever ready to endorse the easiest course, will probably regard the British Premier's invitation to the rebel leader, De Valera, as a wise move. It is all very well to hold out the olive branch, but any one who deals with the leader of a bunch of cut-throats does so at his own risk. It does not promise very well for any very satisfactory outcome when we read that the rebel leader "will attach some very sharp conditions to his acceptance of the invitation, one being for some more binding guarantee for his and his colleagues' safety."

ANOTHER UNION HEARD FROM

The latest Union to be heard from is the N. B. Teachers' Association, which has published notices warning teachers not to apply for any vacant school position without enquiring of the Association as to the reasons for the vacancy. It seems that the teachers at Fredericton High School recently applied for increases in their salaries, the idea no doubt being that as the cost of living comes down, their chances of getting a "rise" would certainly not go up. Their applications were turned down, they all resigned, including the Principal, who went into the thing, he said, just to help the other fellows out—to add weight and tone to their applications in fact. The Board of School Trustees, to the intense surprise of the teachers, promptly accepted the resignations, and now the teachers find themselves left out in the cold, and would like to get back. The Board has advertised for new teachers and the Association's reply is the warning referred to. The Board cannot possibly re-engage the teachers who resigned, without stultifying itself in the eyes of the public, and if it has the slightest backbone about it, will not do so. It is pretty nearly time that some of these holdup artists get what is coming to them. Men who deliberately throw up their positions as a threat, in the vain supposition that they are indispensable and cannot be replaced, should be given very clearly to understand just where they get off. In this particular case the teachers got off themselves; and having done so to serve their own ends, should be left to face the consequences of their act.

IMPORTANT EXPERIMENTS

The American share of the remnants of the German navy is now being destroyed in a manner that gives an opportunity to realize the power of aeroplane attack. In the first test a submarine placed 50 miles from the coast was promptly found and destroyed by bomb planes. The experiment may go far toward settling a question that is now disturbing the navy, the efficacy of surface ships when exposed to attack from aeroplanes. It is reported that experiments conducted some years ago in the British navy demonstrated that all the ships in the action would have been sunk had real rather than imitation bombs been used.

SPEEDING MOTORISTS

Unquestionably there are motorists whose habit of speeding along country roads is attended with risk of their own lives—about which nobody cares—and with danger to other users of the highways, which is a matter of public concern. It is altogether desirable that these reckless drivers should be kept in check, desirable indeed that they should be very severely punished, not simply by the imposition of a small fine, but by confiscation of their cars for aggravated offenses. At the same time it is wholly undesirable that motor users in general should be pestered on flimsy excuses, and put to the annoyance and expense of attending court and submitting to the imposition of a fine. And it is to be feared that the present method of rounding up offenders against public order in the way of driving cars is leading to an abuse of authority. The conscientious motorist who traverses the highways at a moderate rate of speed, who realizes that he is not endangering himself or others, and who, secure in this knowledge, takes no steps to protect himself against prosecution, stands no chance whatever in the face of the sworn testimony of one whose livelihood depends upon the number of charges he may be able to bring, and the convictions he can secure. Admittedly there are offenders against the regulations governing motor traffic who are deserving of punishment. It must be admitted with equal justice, in view of the many protests which have been received, that there are others who have been wrongly convicted, but who have submitted to fines because of their inability to produce evidence on their own behalf, and because of the distaste for publicity which might be involved in an appeal. Unless present methods of enforcement of these regulations are marked by better judgment, they are likely to fall into disrepute.

Fighting Sky

There is no Liberal candidate in the Medicine Hat by-election. In the 1000 dozen by-elections there have gone only three or four Liberal candidates, and only two have been elected. Mr. King boasted about fighting every position, but seems to have seen fighting shy.—Toronto Mail and Empire.

Something Queer

At an intramural football match between French and Irish teams the French forwards were so rough that they were warned officially. An amazed referee asked more asks: "Can such things be? If the day has come when a group of Frenchmen can be too rough for an Irish football team, we can look for Pancho Villa to entertain at afternoon tea, Lenine to become a director of Rockwells, and Babe Ruth to start on an habitual course of bumping the ball."—Vancouver Province.

At the Age of 65

Ottawa is greatly stirred up over a reorganization of the Post Office and Customs Departments by which several hundred employees over the age of 65 are to be retired as unfit for efficient service. This action is being publicly denounced as unnecessary, cruel and generally undesirable. The position taken is, of course, that many men past 65 are doing as good work as they ever did. And it is a fact that everywhere in the world men past 65 are to be seen holding the most important positions. The vigor that most civil service positions. On the other hand, some of the big business institutions which have a regular vigor, some are old long before 65 and others keep young long after they are 65. It would seem very hard to discharge civil servants who are efficient at the age of 65 simply because they have attained that age unless they are given a pension sufficient to support them in comfort. It is stated that they are only given a small retiring allowance and that as at the age of 65 they are not able to secure employment in commercial life, they are left a pitiable position.—Montreal Herald.

Fine Links

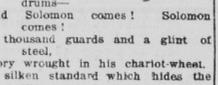

The man in the rainbow stockings was trying to play golf. The difficulty was, of course, to hit the ball. It was so much easier to hit the ground. He hit that every time. The turf flew in all directions. Swish! Swoosh! Plop! More evocations. Something was wrong somewhere. He couldn't be his stockings. It must be the links. He turned helplessly to his opponent. What do you think of these links? he exclaimed. "What do I think of 'em?" gasped his opponent, wiping a bit of soil from his lips. "Pout. Best I ever tasted."

GRAND BALL A BEAUTIFUL AND BARBARIC SHOW

Recalled Old Glories of Famous Lansdowne House.

ALL THE NOTABLES PRESENT AT FETE

One of the Few Great Entertainments Given in London This Present Season.

London, June 27.—Lansdowne House, one of the great mansions of London, now occupied by Gordon Selfridge, formerly of Chicago, was the scene recently of a ball which recalled some of its old-time glories. Few dances on a great scale have been given in London this season, and the "Selfridge House Ball," as the function is being called, attracted a good deal of attention. One society correspondent in the Evening News, writes as follows:

Was Beautiful Pageant. "The ball was a beautiful and barbaric pageant. Fairy columns, transparent and luminous, guided the guests past glowing brackets and incandescent garlands to the portico of the historic mansion where the mighty and fashionable all seemed gathered. The rooms were cleared and two only were set aside for dancing. Lady Curzon arrived early and soon afterward Lord Curzon himself came from his duties at the Imperial Conference and walked through the corridors with Princess Alice Lady Athlone smiling upon his arm. Then Lady Desbrough turned up and Lord D'Abernon, and one caught sight of Lord Beatty in many ribbons, looking brisk and nautical. He danced a lot with Miss Julia James.

Prince Arrives on Scene. "The place was packed when a fresh complexioned youth strode up the steps with a few friends and an unassuming look in the crush of the pierrotting pairs. It was the Prince of Wales, and almost immediately after him, gallant and laughing, the King of Spain. King Alfonso might not have turned up, for he has been far from well. A polo ball struck him in the head and really hurt him, but the rest had revived him, so off he went to the ball, and let us hope he is none the worse. Princess George of Greece arrived a little later and Mrs. Chamberlain about the same time, and what a fine frenzied night it was. Medals gleamed on many breasts and jewels sparkled upon the bosoms of the fair, and the entire ballroom seemed to be revolving, so interlocked were the dancers. At the side, in pince-nez, stood a grey-haired gentleman deferential and amused. Mr. Gordon Selfridge himself, and alone, seated in an alcove, watched, fascinated, the dearest old ringleted lady, Mrs. Selfridge's mother, well over eighty, but as fresh as the youngest in the room."

5th Century Wei Buddha

Boston, June 28.—Much interest centered upon a wonderful Buddha with the cryptic smile recently added to the extensive Salada collection here. Weddings

Harned-Meister. Miss Wendolyn F., daughter of Mr. L. B. Meister, 135 Water street, and Edward J. Harned, carpenter, 61 Water street, both of the West Side, were married last evening by Rev. Dr. J. A. Morrison, at the clergyman's home, Grand Bay. The groom was a member of the original 26th battalion.

Arseneau-Cusack. A pretty wedding was solemnized in the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception yesterday morning, when George Alexander, only son of Mrs. John Arseneau, West Side, was married to Catherine Anna, daughter of Mary and the late Edward Cusack, 293 Waterloo street. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Helen Cusack, and Mr. William McDonough acted as best man. The bride and groom left on the morning train for a trip through the province.

Steele-Armstrong. A quiet wedding was celebrated at 7:30 o'clock yesterday morning in the Douglas avenue Christian church, when Miss Edna Armstrong, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Allison Armstrong, of 16 Main street, was united in marriage to Percy J. Steele, a prominent and popular business man of North End. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. George Steele, father of the groom, assisted by Rev. J. C. B. Appell. The witnesses were Miss Josephine Armstrong, sister of the bride and Professor Douglas Steele of Charlottetown. Mr. and Mrs. Steele left on a wedding trip to Montreal and Quebec. Upon their return they will reside in John Street. They will have the best wishes of a host of friends.

Kimball, of Dana street, Cambridge, on Tuesday evening, June 14, at eight o'clock at the home of her parents. Rev. Mr. Paddock, rector of St. James, church, Cambridge, performed the ceremony; the single ring Episcopal service was used.

Miss Sibyl Olive, sister of the bride, attended as maid of honor. Her gown was of yellow satin, the face trimmings being caught up with French flowers. She carried yellow roses. Ernest Kimball of Cambridge, brother of the groom, was best man. Chester S. Coombs of Boston played the wedding march.

After a wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Kimball will reside in New York.

Warren-Reid. Moncton, June 27.—The Presbyterian manse was the scene of a pretty wedding Saturday afternoon when Miss Annie C. Reid, of New Glasgow, N. S., was united in marriage to Charles Warren of Hampton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. A. Ramsay, pastor of St. John's church. The bride is one of New Glasgow's popular young ladies and the groom is a valued employe of the C. N. R. bridge department. After a brief honeymoon through the province Mr. and Mrs. Warren will reside at Hampton.

The lunch car conducted by Percy Ritchie on Lutz street was gutted by fire between two and three o'clock yesterday morning. The loss will probably be four or five hundred dollars.

In the Cathedral yesterday morning, with nuptial mass, Miss Josephine Fitzgerald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Fitzgerald, of Western Bay, Newfoundland, was united in marriage to Edward McDonald, of Port Morris, N. S. Rev. W. M. Duke performed the ceremony. Mrs. David O'Keefe, sister of the bride acted as bridesmaid and Frank Garnett was best man. The bride was given away by Len Holland, the bride and groom left last night for Port Morris, where they will take up their residence. Many beautiful presents, chiefly cut glass and silver, were received by the bride, testifying to the esteem in which she was held.

MEIGHEN WILL BE AT MEETING WITH DE VALERA

All Dominion Premiers Likely to Have a Seat at the Conference.

CONFERENCE MAY COME THIS WEEK

England is Expecting Much Good to Result from the Meeting.

London, June 27.—(By Gratton O'Leary, Staff Correspondent of the Canadian Press Ltd.)—In the event of Eamon De Valera accepting Premier Lloyd George's invitation to visit London for a peace conference, it is altogether probable that the dominion premiers, now in London, will be invited by the British premier to participate in the negotiations. In the Sunday Observer, J. L. Garvin, one of the leading British political writers, strongly urges such a step, and it is significant that in a letter to the Irish Women's Franchise League, published here Saturday, Premier Smuts of South Africa declared that "when the opportunity presents itself the dominion premiers will offer such advice as they think fit."

Knew Offer Coming. It is believed that when Premier Smuts wrote the letter he was aware that Mr. Lloyd George was about to make the offer, which was tendered to Prof. De Valera on Saturday.

Premier Meighen spent the weekend in the country and could not be reached last night, so it is impossible to say what his views on the matter are. Up to the present his opinions have been those of the entire conference, namely, that the Irish question being more directly a matter for the parliament and government of Great Britain it was not the task of the dominions to interfere. In the present case, however, this obstacle will not exist in as much as the conference would be invited to take part in the negotiations by Lloyd George himself. If Mr. De Valera accepts the invitation the coming week in London may well be one of the most momentous in a century of British history.

Trotsky Sees War Between Britain and U.S.

London, June 27.—A naval war between the United States and Great Britain as a result of maritime rivalry will occur in 1924, according to a prediction made by Leon Trotsky, the Bolshevik minister of war, in addressing the third international at Moscow, Friday, says a despatch to the Daily Herald, the labor organ, from Moscow.

"A swollen gourmand," was Trotsky's description of the United States, while he declared that Great Britain was losing her position of world significance. "The pound sterling has been vanquished by the almighty dollar."

Village Now Without Services of Police

Ratepayers Vote Against Provision of Pay for the Chief and His Men.

Corwall, June 27.—The village of Massena is now without a police force. As a result of the refusal of the taxpayers to vote an appropriation of $18,000 for the upkeep of the force in March last, some citizens have seen to it that officers carried on for a time through other funds. At that time rumors were current that members of the force were in league with bootleggers, and the appeal was turned down.

A second attempt to secure the appropriation to keep the town free from crime resulted in another defeat today, when a special election for the purpose was held. While the result was very close, 199 for and 208 against, the trial was a failure, and the village board had nothing to do but discharge Chief Demo and his three patrolmen. The prospects are that the village will be without police protection until the regular village election next March, as there is no provision in the law under which a force can be maintained in Massena after the vote taken today.

The vote of the appropriation of $3,300 to pay the salary of the village engineer, Mr. Stevens, was also defeated by 293 to 164, but the engineer will be retained and paid out of the general and street funds, the board members feeling that it is in the interest of economy to keep him. As a result of the police being discharged, the Fourth of July celebration this year has been cancelled by the promoters.

Making History.

INFANT MORTALITY in past ages has been something frightful, something almost beyond belief, and even today it occupies the time and the mind of leading physicians in all countries. The death rate among infants is being gradually reduced through new methods of hygiene, new preventatives and new remedies for infants. This reduction in the death rate has NOT been accomplished by adapting the precautions taken and remedies used by adults. Rather has it been to keep clear of the old methods, and choose after long research the precautions and remedies specifically applicable to infants.

This being so, is it necessary for us to caution mothers against trying to give her baby relief with a remedy that she would use for herself? Will she remember that Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for infants and children?

Children Cry For Fletcher's CASTORIA

Of Course You Love Your Baby.

You love it because of its very helplessness, because it can't tell you what is the matter when it feels bad. It can only cry and look to you for help. But the more you love baby, the more you want to help baby, the more you ought to realize what a wonderful remedy Fletcher's Castoria is. It has been used for babies' ailments for over thirty years.

An experienced doctor discovered Fletcher's Castoria especially for babies' use. It is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrup. Doctors who know what is safe and best for babies have only good to say of it.

Don't neglect your baby. Get a bottle of Fletcher's Castoria and give baby a few doses of it. See how the little one smiles at you as if trying to thank you for helping it. Soon you will learn to depend on Fletcher's Castoria, made just for Infants and Children, and of course you would not think of using anything for them that was not prepared especially for Infants and Children. So keep it in the house.

Mrs. Eatman Again Is Well And Happy

St. John Woman Has a Splendid Appetite, Perfect Digestion and Says She Sleeps Better Than in Years.

"No matter how long I talked I couldn't say the good about Tanlac I think it deserves," said Mrs. Carie Eatman of 50 Sheriff St., St. John, N. B.

"From the time I had the flu until Tanlac built me up I was in such an awful run down condition I had no appetite, and the little I ate soured and formed gas which bloated me up so tight I would have to loosen my clothing to get relief. I never got more than an hour's sleep at night without waking, and I got up in the morning feeling limp and lifeless.

"I thank my lucky stars I tried Tanlac, for it has made a different person out of me and benefited my digestion so that nothing disagrees with me, quieted my nervousness and made me feel better, brighter and happier than I have been in years. In my opinion there is no medicine that does as much good for people as Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold in St. John by The Ross Drug Co., and F. W. Munro and leading druggists.

Presentation To Mrs. D. P. Chisholm

Address and Purse of Gold for Faithful Service from St. Monica's Society.

Since appreciation of faithful and efficient service as President of St. Monica's Catholic Ladies' Benefit Society was shown yesterday when a presentation was made to Mrs. D. P. Chisholm who, in that position, has held the esteem of all members. The final meeting of the society took place at the Knights of Columbus Hall, Mrs. M. Bohan offered felicitations to Mrs. Chisholm and congratulated her upon having been made president of the Catholic Women's League.

After routine business, Mrs. Chisholm made an address voicing the thanks of the society to Miss Moran who has been for ten years its capable treasurer. Conveners of standing committees were also thanked, especially Mrs. W. E. Scully who has accomplished such splendid work as head of the charity committee. Mrs. Chisholm spoke appreciatively of Mrs. D. C. Dearden's services as secretary and referred in words of praise to Miss Amelia Haley who held that position for a number of years.

The secretary, Mrs. C. D. Dearden, then read an address to Mrs. D. P. Chisholm and a presentation was made to the president of a purse of gold. Mrs. Chisholm made a reply thanking members for their thought of her and for their loyal support during her years of office.

The charge was Mrs. M. Bohan, in tea being served, the committee in

WHO SAID

"It is Magnificent, But It Is Not War!" These are the words of a man who served through the Crimean war, one of the bloodiest wars in the history of Europe, and a war which is noted for the number of men who were needlessly sacrificed through the carelessness of those planning the campaign against the Russians.

The man was Pierre Francois Joseph Bosquet, a general in the French army and later a marshal of France.

The phrase quoted was uttered by Gen. Bosquet as he is said to have witnessed the charge of the Light Brigade—that heroic attempt of the British soldiers to dislodge the Russians at Balaclava, which has been immortalized in the poem of that name by Lord Alfred Tennyson.

As is generally known, the charge of the Light Brigade was ordered through a mistake on the part of some of the commanding officers. The result was that the cavalrymen who took part in the charge were almost all killed. Gen. Bosquet's admiration for the gallant Britishers was unlimited.

F. O'Neill, Mrs. Atkinson, convenor. Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. J. H. Doody and Mrs. Richard Sullivan. Members of the executive service.

Fond Mother—"Oh, Reginald! Reginald! I thought I told you not to play with your soldiers on Sunday."

Reginald—"But I call them the Salvation Army on Sunday."

but at the same time he was greatly affected to think that such a fine body of men must be lost, needlessly.

Gen. Bosquet was born in the department of Landes, France, on November 8, 1810. At the age of 19 he entered the Polytechnic School, in Paris, and in 1833 joined the French army as a sub-lieutenant in the artillery.

The rise of Gen. Bosquet was rapid. In 1847 he was made a colonel, and the year later saw him made general of a brigade, and six years later general of a division. In the early part of his career Bosquet saw considerable service on several Algerian campaigns.

That when the Crimean war broke out in 1854, he was named to command the second division of the French forces. In the Crimean war, Gen. Bosquet participated in the battles of Inkermann, the Alma, the Malakoff and at Sebastopol. At this latter engagement he was injured so seriously that his retirement from the army was made necessary. Following his retirement, he was made a senator of France and was thanked by the British Parliament.

Picture Theatre At Montreal Burned

Audience Escaped But Two Men Injured When Water Tower Crashed.

Montreal, June 27.—The Midway Theatre, a moving picture house on St. Lawrence Blvd., was completely destroyed this afternoon by fire which was caused, employees of the place think, by the ignition of film waste in the operating room. The loss to the building and its contents is estimated at $40,000. The fire broke out just after the afternoon performance had begun and when there were about one hundred people in the house. Soon after the alarm was given smoke was seen to emerge from the operating room.

Audience Escaped. The audience, however, left the building quietly. Every fire station in the city was called for help, but the theatre was entirely consumed by the flames in less than an hour. A huge water tower being dragged by a motor to the fire struck the wall of the Merchants Bank building in the heart of the city and rebounding hit a telegraph pole. The pole in falling dropped into the crowd which had gathered to see the tower go by. Matthias Guilbault was hit on the head and suffered a fractured skull and J. H. Boyle was badly injured in the back and knee. The tower was wrecked.

Later she went on a vaudeville tour and while playing in Los Angeles was seen by Al Christie, who engaged her as leading woman for his comedies. Then George Loane Tucker engaged her to play the lead in "The Miracle Man."

This is going to be a special week with the Imperial. And from this Betty Compton feature, the Wednesday-Thursday change of bill will be marked with Mary Miles Minter's sweetest and dearest of all pictures entitled "All Souls' Eve"—a dream of love in film. Then on Thursday after the schools are dismissed for the holidays the Imperial's third fairy playlet "Jack and the Beanstalk" will be put on by the 35 wonderful children of the theatre has already introduced to the public. This miniature extravaganza will be much better than its predecessors. Friday and Saturday Douglas Fairbanks will appear in his latest triumph "The Mark of Zorro." Saturday afternoon and evening a special telegraphic wire on the stage will give the Dempsey-Carpenter fight by round.

Betty Compton At The Imperial

"Miracle Man" Star Proves Big Drawing Card—On Again Today.

Betty Compton's first starring picture "Prisoners of Love" is being shown at the Imperial again today. It attracted very large summer business yesterday.

Miss Compton has been before the public professionally since she was a child. During her school days in Salt Lake City her father purchased a valuable violin for her and placed her under the tutelage of the best instructor available.

When she was but fourteen years old her father died, and she resolved to help care for her mother by playing the violin in the orchestra of a small vaudeville and motion picture theatre. She continued going to school in spite of the fact that she had to play every night and at two matinees each week.

After a few months she found her opportunity to take to the stage. A vaudeville team failed to arrive at the theatre and the manager asked Betty if she could play from the stage as a special number. She had no frocks that were suitable for such an appearance, and suggested to the manager that she arrange herself in the ragged garb of a street musician. Her first effort as a public entertainer met with instant success.

South End Fans Were Disappointed

Royals Refused to Allow St. Peter's to Have Moore as a Pitcher.

Last evening the South End baseball diamond was the scene of an argument that was most interesting to the large number of fans who had gathered to witness what many thought would be the best game of the season on these grounds. However, the unexpected happened and the largest crowd of baseball enthusiasts ever collected to witness a South End League game directed their steps homeward, many of them arguing whose fault it was that the game was not played. A short summary of what occurred is here given as recorded by one of the onlookers. The game was scheduled to be played between the St. Peter's and Royals, and the latter team started the argument by "kicking" against the opposing team's choice of pitcher. Their claim was that "Dinty" Moore, the man selected to shoot the "old pill" over for St. Peter's, was a member of the senior team in the City League and that he had pitched a shut-out game against one of the City League teams at the beginning of the season, and the latter team started the argument by "kicking" against the opposing team's choice of pitcher. EDMONTON IS GATEWAY OF NORTHWEST

Entry Point of Yellowhead Pass Traffic to and from Coast.

HAS BECOME GREAT RAILROAD CENTRE

Coming Development of Coal Deposits Expected to Provide for Its Future.

OUR NORTHERN EMPIRE, No. 5.

Edmonton, near the foothills of the Rockies, is said to be the gateway of the Northwest. This is a distinction shared by Calgary. The southern part of the Northwest is contributing section to the latter city, the outlet of the Kicking Horse Pass, while Edmonton is the entrepot of Yellowhead Pass traffic to and from the Coast. The latter pass is recognized as possessing some advantages over its rival for heavy traffic, such as its summit is some 2,000 feet lower. The greatest advantage of the plains that the passenger trains with 16 coaches and the freight trains with over 40 cars crossing the plains pass through the mountains without additional locomotive power. The Yellow Head pass was an old route of the Hudson's Bay Company, and the story is told that Lord Strathcona once expatiated with an engineer locating the C. P. R. for the route selected. He said: "That route is impossible." "Then," replied the engineer, "we will accomplish the impossible."

Great Railway Centre.

This city has become a great railway centre. Two rival lines—the C. P. R. and the G. T. R.—connect it with Calgary, and these lines, together with the Canadian Northern, connect it with Winnipeg. Four local lines run north—to Peace River, and another to Athabasca. Two were built to the Coast on practically the same route—the G. T. P. and the Canadian Northern. Since the Government has adopted both these lines, one is found sufficient for the traffic and the rails of the other are being taken up. West of Winnipeg, these competing lines go to Port Arthur, and two of them run almost side by side for 600 miles through the prairie regions, for Port of Spain, Superior to Sudbury. One wonders if one mile of these duplicate lines would ever have been built if the Government pocket-book had not been open to the taxpayers.

Surrounded by Farms.

Edmonton is the centre of a great farming district—south, east and north. The period of doubt as to soil and climate has passed away. The arid region, for practically the whole of the United States boundary, where for lack of fodder, a great slaughter of cattle has more than once taken place, is now a rich and fertile region. The papers report that over 400 square miles of wheat has been sown in the Peace River district this spring—a district a few years ago referred to as belonging to the Arctic circle. An Eastern man could scarcely credit the statement that one Edmonton County farmer takes milk from 8,000 farmers. Placing the average at ten cows per farm—the result would be 80,000 cows. This company owns the Edmonton City Dairy, turns out a carload of butter every second day, sold under Dominion Government test. The dairying interests of Alberta are very great. The output of milk and milk products last year were, per Government report, estimated at worth 34 millions of dollars. Over 6,000 tons of butter were produced in 53 creameries.

Edmonton is underlain by seams of coal.

There are several mines in or about the city. They have no dip, being about horizontal. The upper seam is 250 feet below the surface. The price to consumer is about $7 per ton. This coal contains about 10 per cent of ash; volatile matter, 33 per cent; carbon, 38 per cent, and moisture 19 per cent. The latter is a disadvantage. On exposure to the air, the moisture evaporates and the coal disintegrates. Now, percentage of carbon reduces its heat units. The mountain coal being subjected to great pressure has less water, is more firm and well adapted for locomotive purposes. The price has risen last year seven million tons of coal. The coal deposits cover hundreds of miles and are almost inexhaustible.

Suffered From Boom.

About ten years ago, Edmonton suffered from a plague of boosters. Real estate soared to fabulous figures. An illustration: three lots of land went from $1,000 to $100,000; from that figure were sold for $20,000, and when the bubble burst were sold for taxes. They are now owned by the city. The city fathers were induced to embark in street paving, sewerage schemes and tram lines far beyond any necessity even today, creating a bonded debt that has since been a loadstone. That such had been the natural advantages of the city—surrounded by a deep black loam soil, coal mines, and a favorable trading and transportation situation, it has continued to grow and has almost overtaken the setback created by the speculative craze. Today rents are high and houses difficult to get on any terms. It is a city of homes. Strutting back from the banks of the Saskatchewan amidst a forest of poplars are ten thousand homes. Domestic life is here at a premium. The coming generation enjoy plenty of room, air and sunlight. Children reared in noisome tenements only to escape their foul surroundings to play in greenery—as is too much the case in the older cities of Canada—are here unknown.

The number of large and imposing hotels is a surprise to an easterner.

To Abandon Lighthouse.

The United States government virtually has decided to abandon the Barret lighthouse, one of the famous ocean lights along the Atlantic coast, and erect a steel tower with a lightship station, the New Jersey State Board of Commerce navigation was told in a report submitted by Robert F. Enrie, of Beach Haven, a member of the board.

The lighthouse was practically demolished last winter by storms, and Mr. Enrie said it was being maintained only as a relic because of the sentiment for its retention by residents of Ocean County living nearby.

Breezy Session of Common Council

Lack of Estimates of Cost Criticized—Want Inspector on Spruce Lake Work.

Permission was granted the New Brunswick Telephone Co. to lay a number of underground conduits at yesterday's meeting of the common council. A number of retaining walls were ordered constructed and several matters of routine business disposed of. Commissioner Frink wanted some information about the inspection of the work being done at Spruce Lake and he also got a little heated over some criticism over estimates for work to be done.

J. E. Marshall, construction superintendent of the New Brunswick Telephone Co., appeared and explained the proposed underground work in Duke and Carleton streets, Haymarket Square and Rothery Avenue and after hearing him the recommendation of Commissioner Frink to allow the work to proceed, also some later at Brussels street at Hanover and Brunswick streets.

They Wanted Estimates.
 Commissioner Frink moved that a timber wall be constructed on the property of Mr. Retallick, corner of Rodney and Ludlow streets, West. Commissioner Thornton objected to no estimate of cost being submitted and moved the item be referred back for such estimate. Carried.

Commissioner Frink moved that a temporary timber retaining wall be constructed at the corner of Marsh street and Haymarket Square to remedy a filling in of the street at that point. The question of cost was raised and the commissioner said it might cost $70, it might cost $100, or it might cost $42. Commissioner Thornton expressed the opinion that if the engineering staff was not able to furnish estimates for these jobs it might as well be done away with. To this Commissioner Frink retorted that the council must place some department in him as head of the department and stated he was not bringing these matters in in a spirit of child's play. The motion carried.

In the matter of the application of George McArthur the city engineer reported that the wall was not on the street, and no liability existed. Commissioner Frink explained that this was a cellar wall and had a building on it and moved that no action be taken. Carried.

Many Want Sidewalks.
 Commissioner Frink reported that he had a large number of applications for sidewalk installation and repairs and moved the citizens be asked to send at once to the commissioner of public works any requests of this nature they might have in mind, as he wished to get the whole list tabulated. This motion was lost, only the mover and Commissioner Bullock voting for it.

On motion of Commissioner Frink the matter of allotting the Rockwood Playgrounds and the framing of rules and regulations was handed over to the Playgrounds' Association.

Commissioner Frink was given authority to lay a concrete sidewalk in front of the premises of the Purty Ice Cream Co. on Stanley street, and to pay for the work and to call for tenders for a concrete retaining wall on Main street from Murray to Harrison streets. It was decided to defer action on the replacing steps from Murray street to Main for a report from the engineer on the possibility of grading the street.

Leases Granted.
 On motion of Commissioner Jones the request of the Marine and Fisheries Department for some additional land at the Little River Hatchery was granted at a rental of $5 per year, the lease to be for five years.

On motion of Commissioner Bullock A. J. Muller for $15 per year. Commissioner Thornton reported that he had an offer from the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen to lease the old city hall, West Side, and to make the necessary improvements and to bring in a recommendation. Commissioner Frink wanted to know whether there was an inspector on the Spruce Lake job. Commissioner Jones said there was no man with the title of inspector, but there was a man on the job all the time and the city engineer was out every day. There had been, he said, inspectors on the Losh Lomened job, and all knew the result. In his opinion the city was amply protected.

On motion of Commissioner Frink it was decided to have the city solicitor define the liability of the city in connection with retaining walls.

Hospital Inmates Enjoy Band Concert

St. Mary's Band Renders Delightful Programme at East St. John Institution.

A delightful concert was rendered last evening for the pleasure of the patients at the East St. John Hospital, by St. Mary's Band under the direction of Bandmaster Williams. The concert programme was a varied one and every number opened thoroughly enjoyed. The outpatients gathered on the steps of the hospital, and the shut-ins gathered in rooms where they could hear the band most advantageously.

The boys from the Industrial School were invited to attend and they gathered in their scout uniforms, on the lawn where the band was stationed.

It was a most thoughtful act on the part of the band in providing the concert, and Superintendent Parris expressed the appreciation of their kindness, and in behalf of all connected with the institution thanked them for the pleasant musical evening afforded to all.

Show-Down Called For By Power Co.

New Schedule Goes Into Effect Wednesday—Expect Tie-up of Car Service.

The directors of the New Brunswick Power Company met yesterday forenoon to take under consideration the report and recommendation of the Board of Conciliation, which heard evidence in the dispute between the company and the local division of the Amalgamated Association of Street Railway and Electric Workers.

The Decision
 The directors decided that the company could not accept the report, but must issue a schedule of rates and conditions similar to those posted on May 10 per cent. of the power house and linemen, and twenty per cent. on almost all other employees. The men recently engaged by the company for car barn and track work duties will not be asked to accept any reduction, as they are now being paid at the market rate, according to the vote of the directors.

Must Control Affairs
 The directors at yesterday's meeting expressed a desire to put the company on a thoroughly commercial basis, in order to give a better service to its patrons and whether this service is to be performed by employees engaged as individuals, or employees engaged as a union, is a matter of indifference to them. It was the feeling of the meeting that the company must have control of its employees, and see that adequate service is rendered, and that the interests of the public and the company are alike properly safeguarded.

Wage Reduction Posted
 The wage reduction has been posted in the car barns with the notice they will go into effect on Wednesday morning. The notice posted says that all employees who desire to stay with the company on the new wages and conditions will report for duty as usual on Wednesday morning. Manager Thomson does not anticipate any difficulty in filling the ranks of employees on the proposed schedule, which he regards in keeping with the general wage schedules paid by other employers of labor.

Position of Union
 The executive of the union met Manager Thomson yesterday afternoon at four o'clock, and the company's position was placed before them. President Ira Parris, of the local union, stated last night that there would be a mass meeting of the union members this afternoon and evening to consider the conciliation board's report and the schedule presented by the company. He was not in a position to say what the men would ultimately do, but he felt they would stand by the recommendations made by the board.

Cars and Power
 The opinion was freely expressed last evening that there would be no street car service on Wednesday, and probably not for a few days thereafter.

Manager Thomson informed the Standard last evening that he was in a position to keep the power and car plants in operation, providing the city authorities are alive to their responsibilities to the public and furnish protection to the company's plants from outside interference should there be any develop.

A. summer camp. The club attendance in June was over 85 per cent and the membership is 92. Messages were received from Rotarian Dykeman and Paterson, from the Edinburgh convention.

Southern United Baptist Meetings

Convention Opened in Ludlow Street Baptist Church—List of Delegates.

The first meeting of the Southern United Baptist Association of New Brunswick was held last evening in the Ludlow Street Baptist church, West St. John. This meeting was the first one of seven which are to be held this week in this church. The Moderator, D. C. Chaffey, opened the meeting with devotional services. The Rev. E. Bosworth, who is in charge of the Grand Ligne Mission, which is about twenty-four miles outside of Quebec, spoke on the great success that the mission was meeting with and the numbers of converts that the church was receiving daily.

Western Missions
 The subject of "Western Missions" was next spoken of by the Rev. A. L. Tedford of the Tabernacle Baptist church. Mr. Tedford talked of the great work that was before the churches in bringing the masses of immigrants to the proper conception of the Christian faith. He told of the difficulties encountered in holding services for the people with the small staff of clergy who were in the western provinces in the wilder districts and the great unsettled stretches of land, where, perhaps, only one or two might live, and how hard it was to look after these people spiritually.

E. Clyde Parsons rendered very beautifully the hymn "Hold Thou My Hand." The choir, which rendered beautiful music, was under the leadership of James Edwards and Miss M. E. Mullin was the organist.

William Smith Received Food

Report That Man Found Dead Sunday Had Starved is Unfounded.

The body of William Smith, who was found dead in St. McIntosh's barn Sunday morning, resting in Brown's undertaking rooms, West St. John, awaiting word from the deceased's sister, who resides at Stoneham, Mass. Mr. McIntosh sent a telegram to the sister on Sunday.

Exception is taken to the report that Mr. Smith died of starvation and had not received any food during the last few days of his life. He had been offered food by Mr. McIntosh, but refused the hospitality and insisted on sleeping in the hay-loft. He had been receiving food regularly, also tobacco, and had his meals on Saturday. Mr. Smith was about looking for work on Saturday and did not show any signs of illness. Mr. McIntosh expected to get the man work yesterday, and on going to the barn Sunday morning, intending to tell him about it, Mr. Smith appeared to be asleep and there was no signs of a struggle. As the unfortunate man had been always well provided with food, it is thought that this death was caused by heart trouble.

American Tourist Travel Started

Few Parties Arriving to Date, But Heavy Traffic is Expected After Glorious Fourth.

Although it is somewhat early for American tourist traffic as yet, several cars from across the border have already made their appearance in the city. Two cars arriving in evening bore the Pennsylvania and New Jersey license plates.

The hotels do not expect any heavy traffic until after the "glorious Fourth" from then on for the remainder of the summer it is anticipated tourist travel will be quite brisk. The exchange rate should prove a drawing card, although the opportunity of inhaling of liquids more potent and refreshing than water, would, if they were available, have an even more decided effect on making every American motorist firmly purpose to "see New Brunswick first" this year.

King Square Is Most Attractive

The horticultural effects secured by the city's gardeners in the plots on King Square this summer have attracted much favorable comment. The smooth and verdant lawns, and the trim and well kept flower beds have been little short of a thing of beauty, and the recollection of them will doubtless prove a joy for ever.

At the beginning of the season the delicate yellow of the daffodil was to be seen in pleasant contrast to the delicate greenings of the awakening leaves and grasses, as the season progressed the bright scarlet of the tulip mingled with sister blooms of purest white. These harbingers of Spring
