SOME SMASHED AT SPRINGBANK

Neat Little Craft Rode Swollen River Until They Met Their Waterloo at Pumphouse.

Torn from their moorings at the foot of Dundas street by the sudder and unexpected rise in the River Thames, nine power launches, ranging in value from $150 to $350 each, were swept down stream and over the Springbank dam to be smashed to pieces this morning.

The owners of the missing boats are Richard Tuttle, John Blythe, Frank Fenech, Frank Vita, Mr. Taylor, own er of the new craft, "Hoot Mon," Bert Trebilcock, Fred Forbes, Roy Garrett, Gordon Finchamp, and Mr. E. B. Dawson, owner of a motor canoe, Alexander Campbell, of Kincardine, Was Found Unconscious by Citizens.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Kincardine, May 20.-The sudder death of Alexander Campbell (known as Lorne Sandy) was a surprise to his friends all through this district. The cause has been decided to be a fall on the sidewalk which fractured his skull. Some citizens picked him up and took him to his home on Mechanics' avenue. He lay unconscious for hours, and when he gave no sign of returning to consciousness, it was deemed advisable to call a docor, but it was found that there was no hope of recovery, and death came quietly. The funeral will be on Wedesday to Kincardine Cemetery.

The board of health appears to a quandary over the action of Mr. Wood, regarding the placing of quarantine card on his premises which Mr. Wood claims was unneces sary. About three weeks ago Mrs. McDougald arrived in Kincardine with her two children, the younge one, about 4 years old, appeared to b ailing, but having had a long ride by train, the boy was thought to be tired He played with other children The father and mother with thele hildren stayed over night at Mr. Murloch's. A neighbor, Mrs. Wellwood, ook the child on her knee. The next day a doctor was called, and found that the boy was suffering from scaret fever, and reported the case to the pard of health. In the meantime the McDougald family had moved into heir own house, which was promptly juarantined. So, also, was the house f Mr. Murdoch, because the sick child had stayed there over night. The house of Mr. Wellwood was also quarantined, because of Mrs. W. takng the child on her knee. Then fol owed that of Mr. Wood, because roungest girl had been seen playing ompleted and expects to open up next ith the Murdoch children.

Mr. Wood objected to the whole ousehold being quarantined because his little girl was seen playing with the Murdoch children. He was willfrom publi ng to absent himself gartherings, but claimed that his bustness had to be attended to, and that an injustice was done to him, and an injury to his business by placing the red card, intimating scarlet fever There was no scar fever in the house when the card was put on, there has been ne scarlet ever since, and the loss and injury onsequent upon him has to be borne y the house placarded, and not by the oard of health. Mr. Wood asks w! he board of health should be so ressive on Durham street, and nient on Broadway in a case mallpox, where the board allowed dog belonging to the smallpox patients to go out and in the house, to be foudled and caressed by them, and allowed the dog to wander anywhere nd everywhere over the town,

The case of infection taken by son of the Rev. Mr. Ferguson is said to have been carried by the dog since Methodist minister, stated to the the case treated as chickenpox in the boy has seveloped into smallpox ag with smallpox, the sympath he congregation was centred in the nanse, and many visits were paid thereto, and dozens who sat with the sick boy should, it is claimed, have been quarantined more than the whole amily of Mr. Wood.

From Distant Towns and Cities Men and Women Are Attracted to This Store for Ready-to-Wear Apparel

Listed far above the commonplace by originality of treatment, Smallman & Ingram ready-to-wear garments can be bought with assurance, even when the most inexpensive are chosen. All have the charm of clever designing, the little distinguishing touches in trimming which women want embodied in dresses to place them in a class apart from the usual ready-to-wear models. Men too, nowadays, are looking for the exclusiveness and individuality which are notable features with our Men's Tailored Suits, representing the highest achievement in ready-to-wear clothing.

Many new things are shown this week for the holiday trade, and many visitors will come to see. We cannot tell you half the newcomers in our famous ready-to-wear and millinery salons, but ask the women, and men too, who appreciate the art of dress, to remember that we can provide for every hour of their day.

At this season we direct your attention to a smart group of Cream Serge Skirts, (with the new high waist line), plain or hair line stripes, $3.75 to $8.75.

Also full length Cream Serge Coats, plain or hair line stripes, with fancy sailor collar, $12.75 and $13.50.

FOUND DYING

Michael Meeney Was Discovered the Roadside Near Mitchell. [Special to he Advertiser.]

Mitchell, May 20.-Michael Meeney, aged 75, was found in a helpless condiion beside the road near Dublin yesterday, and died in a short time. Deceased was a ditcher, and worked all through the district. He was of intemperate habits, and it is supposed had been Bouquets, which drinking on Saturday and some time Saturday night got into the creek, which runs through the village. He managed to crawl out and went a short distance and lay down beside a building, where he remained until he was discovered.

Dr. Armstrong, coroner, of Mitchell, was called, and on viewing the body and leavning the circumstances under which

Imperial House

London, May 20 .- Arthur J. Balfour, the former premier, speaking today at the annual meeting of the Victoria League of the Empire, said he believed that at no distant date a scheme for an imperial parliament would be matured, by which Great Britain and her self-governing colonies would be united into one. The whole trend of events, he said, was to bring closer the widely-scattered parts of the empire. He was a profound believer in the truth that local patriotism properly understood was no obstacle to a 'arger patriotism.

Lieut.-Gen. John Wimburn Laurie "Cured the Piles, That I Know"

There is no lack of evidence to rove that Dr. Chase's Ointment is ositive cure for piles. It is pleasant to think of the dreadful sufering caused by this wretched disbut it is satisfactory to know that there is a cure, for all who will avail themselves of it, in Dr. Chase's Dintment. Mr. Dan Stewart, Gabarouse Lake.

N. S., writes: "For about two years I had itching piles. Last summer Inesday, May 22, at 3 o'clock, on the linesday, May 22, at 3 o'clock, on the lineses. ### [Entered at London Postoffice for ransmission through the mails as econd-class matter.] LONDON, TUESDAY, MAY 21. THE POWER SITUATION.

The Toronto News continues its atthe hydro-electric service, alleging waste, incompetence and an "air of It gives the power project that as the great majority of small electric light should be transferred to their shoulders by over-charging the and the "Come to Ontario" campaigns. ratepayers at large for water-pumping and street lighting. The News

"The News still maintains that the public ownership of electric power would have been in a stronger position today if the province had bought out the Electrical Development Company and the city the Toronto Electric Light Company, thereby eliminating all private competition."

The inefficiency of local management cannot be fairly charged against the The city of Toronto alone is responsible for that. But the refusal of the Ontario Government to pur- minister medical benefits under the Government, with the unanimous sanction of the Legislature, covenanted not to compete with the Electrical Development Company. The latter invited and secured capital on this understanding. The public power project was virtually, if not technically, a breach of faith, but the Government could have maintained its honor by making such an offer for the company's property as would protect investors. It peremptorily refused to consider a proposal of sale from the British bondholders. Mackenzie and Mann came to the rescue of the company in self-defence. As heavy bor rowers in the British money market they could not afford to permit any default in the interest on bonds held in Great Britain in a great Canadian

The city of Toronto behaved more magnanimously than the Government. It offered to buy out the Toronto Electric Light Company at a figure considerably above par. The company declined, and accepted a still higher offer from certain interests supposed to be controlled by Mackenzie and Mann, so that the Toronto Electric shareholders had little complaint. The owners of the London Electric were not so fortunate. With a capitalization of $406,200 they were offered $100,-000 by the city for their franchise, poles and wires, and they would still have been liable for their bonded indebtedness of $102,500. Both in repaign was partisan. Had the Specta- attempted in the old world. for been more attentive it would have noticed that some of the movement's best friends were Ontario Government officials and Conservative newspapers.

Now, at least in a measure, our Hamilton contemporary by its discovery "that in Middlesex County, Ont., what a warm summer our neighbors the dearth of farm labor has led to an will have! abandonment of grain-raising in favor of stock-raising" correborates this journal. For at no time and in no article printed during the campaign has The Advertiser stated that the land of Middlesex was not used for the raising of stock. The last census. Middlesex decreased more than three thousand in ten years, and this in spite of the fact that many families moved from the city of London intothe adjacent townships.

"There is no farm desertion, but methods to altered circumstances," Teufelsdroch to say about this? says the Spectator. In the nine counties of the London district, Bruce, Elgin, Essex. Huron, Kent, Lambton, Middlesex, Oxford and Perth, "altered circumstances" happens to mean that the rural population has been depleted to the extent of 46,022 persons in ten years. We venture to say that as a result of this emigration at least one million acres of land have ceased to be tilled, and have reverted to pasturage. The editor of the Farmers'

Advocate, a high authority, says: "Taking the literal meaning of the word, 'abandoned,' I do not think there are any abandoned farms in cases where farms have been aban- the Beach or the Woodbine would try doned so far that the families have to get there later on, moved off them, while another man, already with more land than he can profitably work, is using them for grazing purposes. A farm may not be technically 'abandoned' when its owner goes West and sells out his holding to a neighbor, who because of scarcity of help is unable to properly work the new land but the fact remains that but one family is supported from the soil which once proved ample for two."

Fewer persons are cultivating the soil; fewer persons are living from the soil. People cannot live by beef alone. One steer, the experts say, requires four acres of grass in a season; four acres of land would produce food for many families; the cost of living is high in the cities. What true son of Ontario will not join in the demand that the Government face these "alered circumstances," instead of idly watching the tide of new life flow into fields that need it not more than those tacks on the Toronto management of of this God-favored province? There are evidences that in the past two or three years the tide has turned in Ontario's favor. There are distinct colonization movements from Great Bricredit for reducing the rates to pri- tain and the United States, and an invate users of electric light, but says crease in the area of intensive cultivation and scientific fruit-growing. householders use gas and oil lamps in Now is the time for loyal sons of Ontheir homes, no portion of the cost of tario to get together, and give more momentum to the "Stay in Ontario"

A DOCTORS' STRIKE.

Unless its demands are granted, the British Medical Association, which includes all but a small minority of the physicians of the United Kingdom, will strike against the insurance act The act, which seeks to provide free medical attendance for every worker, man or woman, earning under $800 a year, allows a physician's fee of six shillings yearly for each insured peron. ## Gaelic Enthusiasm of Thomas Coates, The Thread King

Not long ago, "the abhorred fury with the shears," as Milton calls the most repellent of the three fates, cut the thread of Thomas Coats' life. This latest scion of the great spool house of T. and T. Coats, of Paisley, was rather eccentric in his habits. His most prominent trait was generosity to the poor. He used to keep a yacht in readiness to go to sea at a moment's notice, not because he needed the yacht (for although he was at one planted from a Southern family to the time a keen sailor, of late years he North, "please have Mammy Johanna had never taken a cruise), but simply because he could not bear to deprive kitchen for thirty years. ART OF SHOPPING

The shops are very festive just now, and shopping is not only a pleasure but a snare. Now that there are more frills and furbelows, there are naturally more incidental expenses. Although extravagance is deplorable, it is necessary to spend a considerable sum to be really well quipped for the summer season. What that specific sum should be is not clearly defined, and it depends a great deal upon each individual. Some women wear their dresses hard and others can make them do duty for a considerable period. There has been a great deal written recently about the growing extravagances of women. One of the reasons for this growing extravagance is that women as

It is to purchase the Frank property, the Porter property, and others on the Welling-ton road, south of the river, and cunning east to the L. and P. S. R. tracks, and erect on this site the Western Fair buildings, the Western Univers-Talbot St. Church Entertained ity and Collegiate Institute, and reserve'a portion of the Frank property along the London and Port Stanley Railway for factory sites. With all these interests united, it is thought that the proposition could be easily inanced, and beneficial results come to the city. "There has been an agitation for some years for a new site for the Western Fair," said the citizen in question. "The Western University authorities will in the near future be compelled to procure a site and erect buildings. The time for a new Collegiate is not far distant. There is already a demand for factory sites along the London and Port Stanley Railway. Why not make on job of the whole affair? whole affair?

The Property. The Property.

"The Frank property contains about 35 acres, and between the Wellington road and the London and Port Stanley tracks there is a tract about 40 acres in extent. The Porter property also contains about 35 or 40 acres. There is other land available in that vicinity. The city could secure from 100 to 150 acres of property which is nothing more of property which is nothing more nor less than farm lands at the present ime. It could be secured at reasonable rates, and the whole proposition can be financed without much difficulty. On that site could be erected a large number of the finest buildings, and it would be a great credit to the city of London. The butchers renting stalls in the ovent Garden Market House entered vigorous objection at the meeting of the city council on Monday night against the action of the city in raising the rent of the stalls from $10 a aonth to $200 a year. No. 3 commit ee will look into the matter. "We will have to quit the place !

the council insists upon us paying that exorbitant rental," said Mr. G "With the high cost of meat and high rents it is almost impossible or us to make a living. The market is a fairly good place of business or certain days, but there is not sufficient siness to pay such rents."

"The rental is exorbitant," declared Mr. R. Anderson. "The question could not have been carefully considered or no such change would have been made. If you wanted the butchers out, why did you not say so? This is a poor way of doing business. When ou have to pay $200 a year for a room 12 by 16 feet, it is costing you somehing to do business. The city reeives $4,000 a year rental out of the building, and that is sufficient, should think." On motion of Ald. Ashplant, the

OPENING AT GUELPH POSTPONED OWING TO DOWNPOUR OF RAIN Ty Cobb Persuades the Striking Players to

Manager Bowerman's Players Spent an Idle Day Waiting on the Weather---Conditions This Morning Were Not Favorable to Contest Today---New Infielder Coming.

The place where Brother Noah first got his inspiration to build the ark has been located. It is now known as Guelph, Ontario (see map), and as a locality upon which old Jupiter Pluvius loves to linger it cannot be beat. Living in Guelph is like residing in a shower bath with the tap turned on full blast. It is calculated that there are more umbrellas in Guelph than all the rest of Ontario combined, likewise more snakes and frogs and toads and other creatures that thrive on rainy weather. Guelph is also noted for possessing a ball team that occupies the cellar position of the Canadian League, and thereby hangs a tale. Manager Bowerman's hired help journeyed to the place of so much rain yesterday morning on the futile errand of engaging Manager Needhan's ball tossers in a friendly argument which was started in London last week. Old Jup. Pluv. also picked on yesterday as a day upon which to cut loose, and as a result the prearranged affair between Guelph and London was postponed in order that the rainmaker could have the day to himself. It was the third time that the opening game at Guelph was called off on account of rain, and the inhabitants have just about given up hope of ever seeing another Canadian League contest played there. The reports this morning are not favorable to a contest this afternoon, and it looks as though today's game will be called off also. The grounds represented a miniature lake last evening, and the heavy rain during the night did not improve matters. HAGGERTY RELEASED.

Manager Bowerman did not join the team last evening, but he is expected some time today. Haggerty is the only catcher at present with the team, and he will be let go as soon as the team returns to London on Thursday. Haggerty was released on Saturday evening by Manager Bowerman, but later Reske's injured knee became worse, and it was decided to take the Boston man on the trip to Guelph and leave Reske in London.

An infielder from Chicago named Quigley will report to the Tecumsehs in Guelph today. He is a second baseman, and comes with a strong recommendation. It is likely that he will be played at the second sack if Nichols does not show any improvement over his work on Saturday. Manager Bowerman is also casting about for a catcher, the team's claim to Burke, of Lowell, being rejected by Secretary Farrell, who claims Lowell registered his acceptance before London did.

The local management are trying to get permission to put up a big sign on Dundas street near The Advertiser Building. This sign will be in the form of a baseball, and will be hung out over the street every day there is a ball game in London. It will also let the fans know whether a game is postponed or not on a Cause and Effect.

What makes the Difference in the Cost

of a Suit?

Why $18? or why $35?

Wool is the basis of cost, and the difference in the price of wool makes the first big difference in the cost-of the completed garment. The difference in pattern or weave does not entail much more cost at any time, for popular patterns soon appear in the cheaper woollen

Australian or "Botany" wools, termed Merinos, and Crossbred wools are the grades used in making the better class of men's garments such as are tailored by Semi-ready.

Botany wools range in price from 40 cents per pound to 80 cents. The prevailing price in Bradford, where all our wools are bought, now averages 60 cents a pound.

Crossbred wools range from 27 cents to 39 cents per pound.

Cheaper wools, the kind we do not use at all, can be bought at 20 cents per pound. So that the cost of fine wool is three and four times the cost of coarse wool.

There is little difference in the cost of work when it is done by machinery, so that the whole difference in the cost of a suit lies in , the quality of the wool and the other fabrics and materials used in the tailoring of the suit.

An $18 suit is of necessity made of cheaper wool than the $35 suit.

The relative fineness is as 80 to 40 in good wools, and as 80 to 26 in the fine and the coarse wools.

There are fluctuations in wool prices in England. The prices now are fairly high. There is a pound of wool or more in every yard

In a first-class retail tailor shop, where skilled labour is employed, the cost of making and trimming a suit ranges from $14 to $18. Some coatmakers are paid as high as $12 for making a coat. In these shops a Semi-ready suit at $30, or one of the same quality of cloth and workmanship, will cost $45 to $50.

In an immense business like Semi-ready Tailoring, with an organization extending from the Wool Exchange in Bradford, England, to the Farthest West point in Canada, every basic of economy and quality, is studied and Semi-ready suits at $15 to $35 are the best value you can possibly buy at the label price.

ranks of the American League is no more. The first strike in the history of baseball, which was started by the Tigers on Friday with their ultimatum to Ban Johnson to reinstate Ty Cobb, and brought to a climax by the walkout of eighteen players at Shibe Park on Saturday, was settled this afternoon. A personal appeal by President Frank Navin, of the Detroit baseball club, to his players to save him by President Frank Navin, of the Detroit baseball club, to his players to save him from financial loss ended the insurrection, the men agreeing to play the regular scheduled game at Washington tomorrow. In deciding to stand by Navin and pull him out of the hole in which they had unwillingly placed him, the players went against their own inclinations. Before the final meeting, in which it was decided to give in, the expressed intention of the men was to go to the last ditch. Mr. Navin, however, painted his position so strongly, told of the money and effort spent to gather his present club and to house it in its new park, that he won a victory over the rebels.

Ty Cobb, who all through the strike occupied the unique position of battle flag, begged his team mates to consider the owners first and himself afterward. He pointed out that they had actually done practically everything they had set

I beheld all these details at a glance, although at the time I scarcely realized any of them, my entire horrified attention being riveted upon the scene of death revealed. The table, which I had previously touched, extending crossways the cabin, was uncovered, but contained plates, cups, a large bottle half filled, and some scraps of frozen food. The bodies of two men, one with a cloak over his shoulders, occupied the bench within three feet of me. The one nearest had fallen sldeways and hung there, his arm hooked across the back of the bench, his long, black hair dangling over his face; the other sat with head bowed on the table, his features hidden by his arms, but the gold rings in his ears plainly showing. Directly opposite these two, sitting bolt upright in a chair, eyes wide open, staring straight at me, was a third. My God! it was De Nova! No words can ever retell the struggle I made to control myself, the struggle I made to control myself, the smoking torch shaking in my hand, and casting its miserable flicker over that charnel house, every limb trembling like aspens, my eyes staring into the shadows. My very violence of fear angered me; what had I to be afraid of? How could these poor frozen bodies injure me? Newed to the endeavor. I stepped for these poor frozen bodies injure me? It was intensely dark within, every window and porthole shrouded, only the harrow door-opening permitting the slight glimmer of the moon to touch the edge of the black interior. I wrapped across the threshold, feeling as if the leg air grasped me with actual fingers, yet resolute to learn all, and confident no other there would ever venture it. There were no steps, the main-deck leading directly aft, and I shuffled blindly ahead, groping my way in the dark with extended hands, my heart pounding like a trip-hammer. I touched an overturned bench with my knee; my fingers explored the back of a heavy chair having a carven top, and then came into contact with a bare table, heavily ridged along the edge. Seemingly this stood (cossways of the cabin; and I felt cautiously along it, a deeper cowardice gripping me with every hesitating step forward in the dark. Suddenly I touched

"Well, lads, it startled me all right, but we cannot afford to give up this ship to dead men. De Nova, take Kelly with you, and try to discover something on board with which to make a flare. There ought to be plenty of dry stuff in the galley. Not a word to the woman about what I found aft."

The rest of us hacked away, while they were gone, at the ice concealing the front window shutters, and partly uncovered one. But we could get no purchase upon it from the outside, and no one volunteered to venture within. I kept them all busy, however, the hard work and sense of command combining to restore my own nerves to a normal condition. When the delegates met President W. K. George, of the company, informed the representatives of the munot consider any guarantee of less than $15,000 a mile. The road would cost $25,000, the twelve miles costing altogether $300,000. At $15,000 a mile, the corporations would guarantee but $180,000 of the total cost, having all the assets as a protection. The company were willing to build the line on that basis. In addition, they would go to the Government to secure a charter to extend the line to Port Burwe! They wanted to have the line in oper ation in two years' time.

The Aylmer delegates did not ca to guarantee $15,000 a mile, and thought they should be called upon to pay but $7,000. The other representatives thought this was out of question altogether.

Naming the Amounts. After some discussion, it was decid d to leave the matter of arranging the amount each municipality should pay to the committee from the mu nicipalities. The basis of assessment and population was agreed on as the proper standard.

Paralysis and weakness left me.

"I am now well again and attend my store every day. I say, 'Thank God for 'Fruit-a-tives.'"

"It depends altogether on the attitude of Aylmer," said Mr. T. H. Purdom, K.C., to The Advertiser. "The other municipalities have agreed to guarantee $15,000 a mile. The Aylmer representatives did not wish to agree to that amount, but the others desecure Aylmer's consent. If Aylmer will come in on a basis of population and assessment and pay their share of the guarantee, there is no question but that the road will be built. ## DRESSED HOGS SOLD AT $11.50 TO $12.00

Vegetables Were Slightly Lower in the Local Market This Morning.

There were no oats or hay sold on the market today-in fact, the only offerings
on a small market were dressed hogs
and green vegetables.
The price of dressed hogs ranged between $11 50 and $12 per cwt.
. Vegetables were slightly cheaper, radishes, green onions and lettuce being sold at 30c per dozen bunches. Rhubarb was quoted at 25c per dozen, and asparagus at 75c per dozen.
The price of live hogs yesterday was $8 50 per cwt, but there was not a very large sale, and another shipment will be made tomorrow, when the same price as yesterday is expected to prevail.

"At the bottom there is a whirlpool A deputation from Chatham, headed and both boats went under the water and were swirled around at a mile-aminute clip. They crashed into each other and against the apron of the dam, and really they seemed to me to be like things alive fighting for their lives. There they went under and remained down, and a few seconds later they were a mass of splinters. I felt sorry to see the pretty craft smashed so ruthlessly, but At the last meeting of Kilwinning at the pump house we could do nothing even with a boat, owing to the proximity of the dam, in the way of rescuing them. took the dip like ducks. He had to Dr. Nesbitt, he said.

Lindsay assured the commissioners his efforts to get the bank started were not due to any anxiey to get his commissions for the sale of stock. He admitted going to Ottawa for subscriptions and saw Wm. Calvert, ex-M. P. for West Middlesex, and other members of Parliament. He said a letter fom Travers requesting him to see some of his influential friends and ry and arrange to have the finance department forego usual formalities, and accept a certified deposit in one of the other banks for $250,000, without drawing against it for 30 days, in lieu of deposit, did not reach him until he returned to Toronto, and was never acted upon.

Although the minutes of the organization meeting showed that he represented by proxy over 1,800 shares, Lindsay declared that he did not think he voted. If ballots were produced, showing that he voted, he would say that he voted. Otherwise he would say that he did not. He expressed surprise on learning that he and Travers controlled the organization meeting, and that Travers by proxy only represented 1,333 shares. He did not think he had nominated any officers at the organization meeting. In fact, he had so little recollection of the meeting that he would not admit having nominate anyone unless confronted with nomination papers, which he

Lindsay coming in and ers' Bank bills, as a result of a privat arrangement between Lindsay and himself. Lindsay declared that he had not handed the doctor the money. Neither had he any private arrange nent with Dr. Nesbitt, he reiterated He had never heard of anyone paying or Dr. Beattie Nesbitt's shares until fter the organization meeting, when Cravers asked him to bear half of it having it deducted from his comdission, and he refused. The commissioner questioned Linday closely as to why he had draw the $5,000 in bank bills for Travers ufternoon, and after banking hours and also as to whether there had no een something said which would lead nim to believe there was a crooked deal on foot. Lindsay declared that hing had been said.

A BIG AUDIENCE HEARD SCHOOL CONCERT

Splendid Programme of Friday Night Was Repeated.

The concert given by the publi chool children Friday night was reeated last night in the Grand to acommodate those who were unable to get seats on Friday. Last night an other large house greeted the children, and greatly enjoyed the choruses and drills. Solos were given by Mrs. Edward Wyatt and Mr. Edward Webster. The most popular numbers on the programme were "The Festival of Na-"The Dear Little Shamrock," and the Scotch and Irish dancing by Misses Comber, Charlton and Walker. The accompanists of the evening were strung out.
