POLICE SECURE CLUES TO AMERICAN ANARCHISTIC PLOT

Assassin Received Money From Brother at West Seneca, N. Y., Under Assumed Name.—Czolgosz Could not Tie Handkerchief.

Cleveland, September 22.—Investigations made to-day by Police Detective Schunk reveal the startling possibility that a plot to assassinate President McKinley was laid a year or more ago, before he was elected for his second term, and that it may have been laid in the peaceful precincts of Orange Township, where the Czolgosz family lived.

One of the strong elements in the belief of the Buffalo and secret service detectives that there was a plot, has been the fact that the handkerchief with which the assassin concealed the hand in which he held his weapon, was a woman's handkerchief. What is more important is that the handkerchief was tied about the hand, in a way that he, it is claimed, would not have been able to tie it himself, no matter how skillful he might have been with the other hand or how much time he might have taken to tie it.

The fact that Czolgosz had money impelled the detectives to try to learn where he got it. To-day his brother, Waldeck Czolgosz, confessed to having sent it to Leon under the name of Frank Snyder at West Seneca, N. Y.

In his search for clues to-day, Detective Schunk learned from the neighboring farmers that the Czolgosz boys, Leon and Waldeck, have been readers of Socialistic papers for several years. John D. Knox, an aged farmer, who lives in the vicinity of the former Czolgosz farm, said to-day:

"The two boys, the one that shot the President, and Waldeck, used to come to my house and talk to me about their socialistic papers. They brought their papers to me and tried to get me to read them. Once when they were here during the last presidential campaign, they got to talking about President McKinley, and one of them said: 'If he is elected he will be shot before he serves out his term,' and then went on: 'I'll serve John Roosevelt the same way, if I get a chance. They talked violence all the time, and I was glad when they went out of the neighborhood.'"

"Almost every night there was a crowd of people from the city at their house. They used to come over the farm from the electric road, so we could not see them, as we would have if they had come by the road. The back of the farm extends to the railroad, and the visitors used to go back and forth that way instead of by way of the road. Sometimes there would be quite a crowd of them."

It is said that Leon's father, sister and brother, are going to Buffalo shortly, and the police believe when they confront Leon that he will break down and reveal all that is now a mystery in regard to the shooting of the President.

REPORTED DUTCH UPRISING BY BOERS IN CAPE COLONY

Kitchener Reports Death of Col. Murray, the Scout Leader—Heavy Losses at Vlakfontein—Boers Release Sheepherders' Trek Captives.

London, Sept. 23.—A most alarming letter from Cape Town is published to-day by the Daily Express. The writer says:

The Boers are overrunning Cape Colony. They are on both the coast lines and within 40 miles of Cape Town. Even the intelligence department does not know how many colonial rebels have taken up arms in the last fortnight. The town guard of Cape Town has been ordered to hand in the machine rifles and ammunition, ostensibly because they are wanted at the front. Martini rifles have been seized out instead.

In conclusion the writer declares that the "Dutch element in the colony is in revolt and it is useless to disguise the fact."

London, Sept. 22.—In Boer circles in Holland it is asserted that everything is prepared for a Dutch rising in both Cape Colony and Natal.

Lord Kitchener's latest despatches, although they contain good news as well as bad, have done little to reassure the public concerning the state of affairs. The loss of Lieut.-Col. Murray, a brother of Lord Mansfield, is keenly felt. There is little doubt that further details will show it was a serious affair.

Lord Kitchener announces that the Buffalo river is flooded and that there is no change in the situation in Natal. The latter fact shows that Gen. Lytton has not yet succeeded in interfering with the movements of Commandant Gen. Botha. P. J. Botha, whose capture Lord Kitchener reports, is a brother of the Boer commander.

According to the latest advices from Cape Colony the situation there is very serious, owing to the sympathy and aid which the Dutch are giving the Boer commandos. The British find it difficult to obtain news of Boer movements. Gen. French's task is described as the hardest allotted him during the whole course of the war. At Pretoria the strength of the Boers in the field is now estimated at 11,000. If these figures be correct, the Boers must be constantly getting recruits. Their supply of arms and ammunition seems to be inexhaustible.

In London the speech of President Loubet, when proposing the health of the Czar at the luncheon which followed the review at Bethany, is regarded as an indication of no intention on the part of the Russian Emperor to intervene in South African affairs. Even in Paris reflection seems to have convinced many papers that there was very little in the words of M. Loubet and beyond a confirmation of the Franco-Russian alliance little has been achieved by the visit of the Russian sovereign.

COL. MURRAY KILLED.
London, Sept. 22.—The War Office has received the following from Lord Kitchener, dated Pretoria, Sept. 22: "Kritzing, while endeavoring to force a passage of the Orange river near Hershell at 1 o'clock Friday morning, rushed the camp of a party of Lovett's scouts. He failed to cross the river, but the scouts lost heavily. Lieut.-Col. Hon. Andrew Murray and Capt. Murray, his adjutant, were killed. Deeply regretted the loss of Col. Murray, who, throughout the war, had led Lovett's scouts with great gallantry."

Under cover of darkness the Boers managed to carry off a gun. They were promptly followed up, and the gun was recovered in a smart engagement in which Kitchener lost two killed and 50 taken prisoners.

Lord Kitchener also reports that the British captured by the Boers in the ambush near Sheepherders' Nek, Sept. 17, have been released, and that the British casualties in the recent Vlakfontein engagement, when the Boers captured a company of mounted infantry, and two guns, were one officer and five men killed, 23 men wounded and six officers and 190 men taken prisoners. He announces that these prisoners have since been released.

He further reports the capture of two commandos—one consisting of 55 men under Commandant Koops, who were taken, together with their entire transport west of Adenburgh, and the other consisting of 54 men, including P. J. Botha, who were taken with 48 wagons and their belongings 45 miles southeast of Carolina.

RAN OVER

B. F. Scaman Formerly of Raleigh Township Met With a Fatal Accident in Wetaskiwin Alberta.

(Special to The Planet.)

Wetaskiwin, Alberta, N. W. T., Sept. 16.—B. F. Scaman, a former resident of Raleigh Township, met with a fatal accident on Saturday, Sept. 14th inst.

While assisting to hold a team, frightened by a train, and hitched to a binder, he was in some way knocked down and ran over. The driver wheel of the binder passed over his hips and abdomen.

Medical aid was summoned, but in a few hours he passed away. His daughter Rebecca, and his wife, were at his bedside.

His body was interred in Wetaskiwin cemetery. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. A. R. Robinson, also formerly of Raleigh.

32 WERE KILLED.

Bucharest, Roumania, Sept. 21.—The express for Vienna collided this morning at Palota with a petroleum train, killing eight persons and injuring nine. The petroleum train, which dashed into the rear of the express, was descending an incline at the time. Eighteen petroleum cars were set on fire, and the express train was completely destroyed. Later reports indicate that 32 persons were killed in the collision between the Vienna express and the petroleum train at Palota, instead of eight, as at first stated.

FERRY BOAT BLEW UP.

Parkersburg, W. Va., Sept. 21.—A gasoline ferry boat, running between Elizabeth and Palestine, on the Kanawha River, blew up this morning. Several dead and injured are on the way to this city on a special train. Later—The explosion occurred at 10 o'clock, just after the boat had started with a load of passengers from the morning train at Palestine. Those seriously and perhaps fatally burned are—William Webb, captain of the boat, Parkersburg; A. S. Woodward, Harvey Thorn, H. H. Hopkins, all of Palestine. The rest of the passengers jumped into the water and escaped with slight injuries. As everyone has not yet been accounted for, some may have been drowned. The boat was the A. C. Barney, and was propelled by gasoline, which escaped and ignited.

MRS. MCKINLEY

Her Frail Condition is now Causing Much Alarm to Friends.

Canton, Ohio, September 21.—Mrs. McKinley was one of the first at the house on Market street to arise to-day. She said that she had enjoyed a good sleep and that she felt better than at any time since the fateful night in Buffalo, when her husband was shot. To Dr. Rixey she expressed a wish to take another drive to-day. On their return from the drive Dr. Rixey said:—

"I do not feel so confident as earlier this week. Mrs. McKinley's grief is crushing her, though she is bearing up bravely and doing as well as could be expected under the circumstances. However, too much encouragement should not be taken at this early day."

When Mrs. McKinley first looked out of her window to-day she saw the guards on patrol in front of her house. Directing a maid to call Dr. Rixey, she asked him to have the guards removed.

"I do not need them," she said. "They are unnecessary."

Therefore, five minutes later, the only sentinel on duty was a gardener from the White House, who was raking the broad lawn of brown leaves.

SUEING DOCTOR

Alex. Darrach, of St. Thomas, is Very Hot Under the Collar.

Alex. Darrach, was, on the recommendation of Dr. Wilson, the defeated Liberal candidate of East Elgin, appointed Collector of Customs at St. Thomas. Mr. Darrach was a very warm friend of Dr. Wilson's and very active in his political contests. Recently he has been removed from office for certain irregularities. Mr. Darrach has entered suit against Dr. Wilson, claiming that the Doctor owes him $4,500, moneys advanced. Interesting developments are expected.—Record, (Liberal)

POLICE COURT DOINGS.

James Ion appeared at the Police Court this morning charged by his wife with being drunk. It appears from the evidence that Ion has been drinking steadily for about three weeks. He said this morning that he had just received a good position in Walkerville, and if the Magistrate would let him go this time he would get put of the city.

Ion is an old offender. He has appeared in the Police Court on seven different occasions charged with various offenses, such as fighting, drunkenness, and using abusive language. The Magistrate remanded him for a week for sentence.

Jones, of Ridgeway, who was remanded a few days ago charged with indecently exposing his person, was brought up again and fined $5 or 21 days in jail. He will serve the time.

MONDAY, SEPT. 23.

TREES ARE SO BEAUTIFUL.

"I want to see the trees, they are so beautiful." This is what the dying President said when the nurse sought to arrange the pillows so that the light would not shine into his eyes. The room in which Mr. McKinley lay dying looked out upon the handsome grove which surrounds the Milburn residence, and his last view of the earth was a vision of beautiful, stately trees, rustling leaves, and waving branches. The dying President's remark was another of those touches of nature which make the whole world kin. For long the tendency on this continent was to destroy the beautiful in nature. Wild beasts were shot for their flesh or their fur, wild birds for their feathers, trees were slaughtered everywhere in response to the demand of a cold commercialism for lumber. But times are changing. Wild life is being preserved, streets are no longer bare of trees, public parks are everywhere, and reforestation is a practical science.

As originally created, this continent was marvelously beautiful; as spoiled by civilization it had fair for a time to become utterly ugly. It is an evidence of a better spirit that agencies for preserving the beauty of the earth's surface are now so numerous and so active. Human nature is wondrously susceptible to environment. It is not too much to hope that human nature will be the better if its surroundings are beautiful.

A LIBERAL BOGEY.

The Globe, on the very doubtful authority of The Winnipeg Free Press, says that the government of Manitoba has introduced direct taxation, though one of the chief cries against Greenway was that his government was drifting towards the same thing. This, the Globe thinks, is significant for Ontario, especially as Mr. Whitney has for many months been warning the people of the Province that the finances were steadily pointing towards direct taxation.

We are by no means satisfied, however, that the Conservative government of Manitoba has resorted to direct taxation, and if it has we feel entirely what bearing that has on Mr. Whitney's course. He has nothing whatever to do with Manitoba, nor does the policy of the government of that province in any way affect him. It is true that he has accused the Ross Government of drifting towards direct taxation; but he is not alone in the opinion that that is where they will pull up. Even the Liberals admit that unless there is a change in the financial management of the province there will soon be no other alternative. No one now believes in the famous surplus, and The Globe does not add to the strength of its argument when it asserts that the government is not financially hard up. As a matter of fact, it has had considerable difficulty for years past in making ends meet.

Salt Rheum

You may call it eczema, tetter or mill crust. But no matter what you call it, this skin disease which comes in patches that burn, itch, discharge a watery matter, dry and scale, owes its existence to the presence of humors in the system.

It will continue to exist, annoy, and perhaps agonize, as long as these humors remain.

It is always radically and permanently cured by which expels all humors, and is positively unequalled for all cutaneous eruptions.

and the subterfuge to which it resorted to blind the people to the real condition of the finances were not always very greatly to its credit.

DANGEROUS SUGGESTIONS.

"I wish that the policemen in Buffalo who seized the pistol of the scoundrel who shot our adored President, had taken the butt of the weapon and dashed the man's brains out on the spot." T. De Witt Talmage.

Rev. Dr. Naylor, in McKinley's church in Washington: "If I had been in Buffalo I would have blown the scoundrel to atoms."

Such utterances being expectorations of two metropolitan divines go a very long way towards explaining the lawlessness prevailing in many parts of the United States, properly comments the Ridgeway Standard. There is never any occasion for acting in such a manner. To do so would be to descend to a level with the murderous assassin.

WHY WE CHEER.

Don't err, it isn't the Duke of York alone the nation cheers, says the Toronto Star, but the throne and the people behind it—the beef-eaters, the sturdy men, those who have made the little island great.

We look at the Duke, and past him away down the long avenue of British history. We cheer because Wellington won at Waterloo; we cheer because the maimed, glorious Nelson fell and every man did his duty; we cheer because of Alfred the Great, the with a soul that wanted to reach out and love the whole world; we cheer because of Alfred the Great, the road maker and burner of pancakes; we cheer because of Cromwell, the old-time rough rider; because of Shakespeare, the poet for all time, and Milton, his brother in immortality; because of Byron and Tennyson, Burns and Gladstone; we cheer because of her whom we loved, our Queen, his grandmother; because of our King, whom we respect, his father.

The arches, the great guns, the hats doffed, courtiers on their knees, the cheers, are not for the Duke alone, but in honor of the great part of the little island that he represents, and in whose history he may some time take a vital part as King.

The royal souvenir edition of the Ottawa Citizen has reached this office and it is a gem. Profusely and handsomely illustrated on toned paper and containing 28 eight-column pages of excellent reading matter, it is an issue that well deserves the enormous circulation it is securing. The Planet—itselt somewhat of a leader in the matter of artistic special numbers—doffs its bonnet to The Citizen and heartily congratulates everyone concerned in its magnificent publication.

The census returns showing a preponderance of males in the west indicate that Horace Greeley's famous advice: "Go west, young man," was taken literally, and the young women stayed at home.

SHY ON THE PLUNK QUALIFICATION.

Kingston Whig.
The Ottawa Citizen nominates a number of the editors of Ontario for seats in the senate. The Hamilton Herald adds: "Men of light and leading all, but not a millionaire among them." Is that a bar? The men of wealth are not always the wisest and the best.

LEST HE FORGET.

Kingston News.
Sir Wilfrid Laurier has lost his memory. He has forgotten that it is his turn to answer Mr. R. L. Richardson's last letter. When the Cooke inquiry was on Sir Richard Cartwright said that his memory was bad. It is a pity that two members of the cabinet are afflicted with the same thing.

MRS. MCKINLEY'S CONDITION.

Canton, O., Sept. 20.—Mrs. McKinley's condition is favorable this morning—more favorable than at any time since the return from Washington. Last night she had considerable rest, the house and adjacent streets after 11 o'clock being kept as quiet as possible by a small military guard. It was hoped by the attending physicians that she would be able to leave her home today, and to give attention to some matters calculated to take her mind from the depressing incidents of the past week. Those about her take a very hopeful view. Mrs. McKinley went to the cemetery about noon, and spent some little time at the vault in which the casket of the late President lies. She bore the trip bravely.

Baby's Ailments

The interesting statements of Madame Sampson-Livinski, how Ozone cured her babe.

Baby's food is hard to keep these hot days. It ferments, through vigorous germ life, and when it reaches baby's stomach it won't assimilate or allow itself to be assimilated. Instead, it forms gases, sour liquids, and causes bowel disorder. Mothers should sterilize baby's food with Powley's Liquefied Ozone or else give it in doses diluted with water or milk after feeding. Just read this letter:

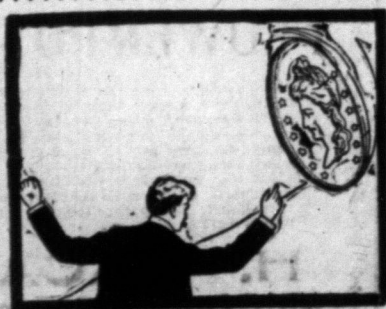

"My baby was nearly a skeleton from indigestion, and I could not get anything to stay on her stomach, and I had given up hope of raising my darling, when by mere chance I was advised to try Powley's Liquefied Ozone. I had not given her the Ozone for two days when all vomiting ceased, and in one month I scarcely knew my child, so great was the change. It is now two months since I first started giving her the Ozone, and her picture is proof of the work it has done. Mothers who desire their babies to live would profit by giving them Ozone. Any mother wishing to verify this can do so by calling or writing to my address, 391 Church Street, Toronto, and find living proof."

—Signed, MADAME SAMPSON-LIVINSKI, 391 Church St. Toronto.

Ozone is oxygen in stable, liquid form. It rectifies any organ of the body that is not working properly. It destroys germs of disease. Unlike other preparations of like object it can be taken internally freely. It is especially adapted for baby's ailments. Many a baby will live through this summer, thanks to Powley's Liquefied Ozone.

Consult our physician about your case. Write full details and you will get a specialist's advice free. Your letters are absolutely confidential. Address the Consulting Department, The Liquefied Ozone Co., 229 Kinzie St., Chicago, U.S.A.

Caressing in Public.

"THE woman who bestows her caresses in public," says Ella Wheeler Wilcox, in dealing with a letter from a husband who considers his wife too demonstrative, "is like the woman who wears diamonds at breakfast, or goes shopping in an evening gown. A demonstrative nature, coupled with loyalty, is a jewel of rarest price for a man to possess in a wife, but he wants it set in the gold of good sense, and clasped with good taste. I do not believe in a love which hides itself from all observers, nor do I approve of a love which displays itself to crowds in public places."

"I think when the heart is full of genuine emotion it must express itself at times in a look, a word, an act, irrespective of place or surroundings, which indicates the source from which it came. The man or woman who is always cold or indifferent to another before people cannot be an ardent or genuine lover in private. Something is lacking in the nature that never reveals itself in the least degree in the presence of a third party. But men are exceedingly sensitive to public opinion, in these matters particularly, and the wife who continually offends good taste and her husband in such a case must lack tact and refinement. It is a peculiar difference in the masculine and feminine mentality that a man reverts having the public share in the least his domestic happiness, while a woman glories in it. The moment outsiders say, 'How in love with you she is!' a man's affection for a woman lessens; while a woman's increases when the world says, 'How he adores you!'"

Some Unique Advice.

In these nervous modern days, when "depression," "prostration," "melancholia," "rest-cure," and "Wells Mitchell" are household words in so many families, this concise bit of advice concerning depression and low spirits will interest many. It is from the letters of Sydney Smith, clergyman, social philosopher and wit:

"Feston, February 16, 1839.
"Dear Lady Georgiana—Nobody has suffered from low spirits more than I have done—so I feel for you.
"1st—Live as well as you dare.
"2nd—Go into the shower-bath with a small quantity of water at a temperature low enough to give you a slight sensation of cold, 75 degrees or 80 degrees.
"3rd—Amusing books.
"4th—Short views of human life—not further than dinner or tea.
"5th—Be as busy as you can.
"6th—See as much as you can of those friends who respect and like you.
"7th—And of those acquaintances who amuse you.
"8th—Make no secret of low spirits to your friends, but talk of them freely—they are always worse for dignified concealment.
"Attend to the effects tea and coffee produce upon you.
"10th—Compare your lot with that of other people.
"11th—Don't expect too much from human life—a sorry business at the best.
"12th—Avoid poetry, dramatic representations (except comedy), music, serious novels, melancholy sentimental people, and everything likely to excite feeling or emotion not ending in active benevolence.
"13th—Do good, and endeavor to please everybody of every degree.
"14th—Be as much as you can in the open air without fatigue.
"15th—Make the room where you commonly sit gay and pleasant.
"16th—Struggle by little and little against idleness.
"17th—Don't be too severe upon yourself, or underrate yourself, but do yourself justice.
"18th—Keep good blazing fires.
"19th—Be firm and constant in the exercise of rational religion.
"20th—Believe me, dear Lady Georgiana, 'Very truly yours,'
"SYDNEY SMITH."

This mixture of gastric, psychic, social, hygienic, philosophic and religious advice is most striking.

Slips of Authors.

Even experienced writers sometimes make the characters do astounding things. When Anthony Trollope pictured Andy Scott as "coming whistling up the street with a cigar in his mouth" he proved that he could never make personal experiment of the double feat of smoking a cigar and whistling a tune. Robinson Crusoe also performed a most wonderful feat. When he decided to abandon the wreck and try to swim ashore he took the precaution to remove all his clothes, and yet by some strange magic, of which the secret has been lost, the author makes him, when in this condition of Nature, fill his pockets with biscuits.

The great Shakespeare had a trick of introducing the most glaring anachronisms. For instance, he makes a clock strike in ancient Rome at a time, more than a thousand years before clocks were invented, when such an event would certainly have been the eighth wonder of the world. Quite regardless of the evidence of geography, he transports Bohemia to the seaside; and he introduces a printing-press long before the days of Gutenberg. He calmly introduces a billiard table into Cleopatra's palace, and makes cannon familiar to King John and his Barons. Thackeray was no mean rival to Shakespeare in vagaries of this kind; but in his case they appear to have been the result of pure carelessness and forgetfulness. The most flagrant case, perhaps, is where, after burying Lady Kew and effectively dismissing her from the story, he brings her to life again to help him out with his plot; and in other cases his capacity for mixing up the names of his characters is confusing, considering the number he introduces. Emile Zola, in spite of his carefulness, makes the astonishing statement in one of his novels ("Lourdes") that the deaf and dumb recovered their hearing and sight, an event which savors very much of the miraculous.

WEAKNESS OF MEN AND WOMEN

Could we read the hearts of every man and woman, what a load of sorrow and despair would be disclosed. Indigestion and Blood Diseases have caused more physical and mental weakness than all other causes combined. They strike at the foundation of manhood; they sap the vital forces; they undermine the system, and not only do they often disrupt the family circle, but they may even extend their poisonous influence into the next generation. If you have been a victim of early sinful habits, remember the seed is sown, and sooner or later you will reap a harvest. If your blood has been diseased from any cause do not risk a return later on. Our New Method Treatment will positively cure you and you need never fear any return of the disease. We will give you a guarantee bond to that effect. We would warn you sincerely against the promiscuous use of mercury, which does not cure blood poison but simply suppresses the symptoms.

WE CURE OR NO PAY.

Don't let your life be drained away, which weakens the intellect as well as the body. There is no room in this world for mental, physical or sexual dwarfs. Our New Method Treatment will positively cure you of all Blood Diseases, Rheumatism, Varicose Veins, Stricture, Urinary Discharges, Gleet, Kidney and Bladder Diseases, Cuts and Operations. No detention from business. Everything confidential. Consultation Free. Book Free. Question Blank Free for Home Treatment.

GROWTH OF THE EARS.

It is asserted that it never stops until death.

The systematic examination of more than 40,000 pairs of human ears in England and France has resulted in some interesting conclusions. For one thing, it is ascertained that the ear continues to grow in the later decades of life. In fact, it appears never to stop growing until death. If one will take the trouble to look around in any assemblage of people, as at a church, he will discover that the old folks have ears considerably larger than those of the middle aged. A woman who has small, shell-like ears at 20 years of age will be very apt to possess medium sized ears at 40 years and large ears at 60.

Why ears should go on growing all one's life any more than noses is a mystery. There are a good many other points about them that are instructive, their shape being markedly persistent through heredity. An ear will be handed down, so to speak, from father to son for generation after generation with comparatively little modification. Some authorities on otiology assert that criminals are very apt to possess a peculiar kind of ear, which is recognizable by an expert in such matters.

There is probably nobody in the world who has a pair of ears perfect, matched. In most people the two differ perceptibly not only in shape, but also in size. Frequently they are not placed precisely alike on the head. The age of a person may be judged with great accuracy by the ears, which after youth is past assume an increasing harshness of contour. A pretty woman whose first youth has departed may not show the fact in other ways, but these telltale features will surely tell the story of the flight of time. Then there is the little wrinkle that comes just in front of each ear during the thirties, a fatal and irremediable sign. Near the top of each ear just within the dark turned edge and slightly toward the back will be found, if one feels for it, a small lump of cartilage. This is a remnant of what was originally the tip of the ear when, ever so long ago, that organ in our remote ancestors had a point on it. Most of the spots today have pointed ears, but in human beings the upper edge of the organ has in the course of ages been folded over so as to cover the real tip.

THE TOILET ROOM.

A few drops of ammonia in the water often it already and help to remove stains from the hands.
Soft wash leather with which to rub the face after washing helps to keep the complexion smooth and white.

Just a dash of eau de cologne or toilet vinegar thrown into the water before washing will make it much more refreshing when one is hot and tired.

A lotion recommended for ordinary face is made from a pint of rosewater, half an ounce of pulverized borax and an ounce of strained lemon juice. Bathe freely with it.

Keep a basin of oatmeal on the washstand and after washing the hands dip them in the meal. The skin will be kept white and smooth and less liable to chaps by this process.

Almond meal, oatmeal and orris root in small bags placed in the bath water a few minutes before you place yourself therein will render the water milky and will have a softening and whitening effect on the skin. Bran or starch in the water is also good.

Two Passengers' Distastes.
A lady of truly masculine spirit, accompanied by a small poodle, is said to have failed badly the other day in an attempted reformatory movement. She entered the smoking car of a suburban train and sternly refused when approached by the conductor to go into another car, objecting that her presence would keep the other occupants from smoking.

One thick skinned wretch, however, in response to the claims of refinement and reform, began to enjoy his accustomed cigar, which was suddenly snatched from his lips, with the remark in a high treble: "If there is anything I do hate, it is tobacco smoking."

For a time the offender was motionless; then, graver rising, amid the curiosity of the assembled smokers, he took that little poodle out of the lady's lap and gently threw him through the window, sighing, "If there is anything I do hate, it is a poodle."—Chicago Tribune.

Equal to the Occasion.
"Colonel," she said when they were alone on the steamer. "Father tells me you are a man who never fails. He says when you undertake to carry a point you carry it; that if you are sent to raise a siege you raise it, and he says he has been if you were sent out to find the north pole you would hold the flag on it."

"Yes," said the bluff old soldier replied, "that's me, and when I want to get out of a corner I escape. Excuse me; over there's a friend of mine that I want to see on particular business."

Thousands to Win a $50 Cup.
Yachting is the most expensive sport in the world. It costs more to win a mug offered for a yacht race than to carry off a prize offered for competition in any other sport. Yachtsmen will spend thousands of dollars and take endless trouble to win a $50 cup. No heavy prizes are raced for in yachting, and in this country the most successful yacht of the year will fall a long way short of winning enough to pay her expenses.

The Pilgrims.

Nothing verbal could be much more delicious than Joseph H. Choate's definition of the dinner of the New England Society of New York as "those gatherings of an unhappy company of pilgrims who meet annually at Delmonico's to drown the sorrows and sufferings of their ancestors in the flowing bowl and to contemplate their own virtues in the mirror of history."

No Guarantee Given.
"What is the matter with those weather bulletins of yours?" asked the man who complains about what can't be helped.
"My dear sir," answered the weather prophet, "those are merely predictions, not promises."

Unappreciative.
"You find spring water a very great advantage in dairying, I presume?"
"Oh, I don't know," said the milkman; "the average person buying milk doesn't know the difference between spring water and any other kind."—Detroit Journal.

ON FIRE.

An exploding lamp; the clothing in a blaze; a paragraph in the paper telling of horrible suffering from burns. Tragically in this form moves a man to tears.

But for women who are daily being consumed by the smoldering fire of disease there is little sympathy. Inflammation, with its fierce burning, ulceration, eating into the tissues; the nervous system almost shattered by suffering; these are only part of the daily agonies borne by many a woman.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription puts out the fire of inflammation, heals ulceration, and cures female weakness. It tranquilizes the nerves, restores the appetite, and gives refreshing sleep. "Favorite Prescription" is the most reliable put-up medicine offered as a cure for diseases peculiar to women. It always helps. It almost always cures.

When I first commenced using Dr. Pierce's medicine," writes Mrs. George A. Strong, of New York, "I was suffering from female weakness, a disagreeable draining, bearing-down pains, and in that way for two years, and I began taking your medicine. After taking one bottle I began to feel better. A box of four bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cured me of all my troubles. Now I feel like a new person. I can't thank you enough for your kind advice and the good your medicine has done me."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, paper bound, is sent free on receipt of 31 one-cent stamps to pay for the postage and mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

The Hot Air Balloon.

It is related that the hot air balloon had its origin in a petticoat. Mme. Montgolfier had washed her garment, intending to wear it to a great festival the next day, and hung it over a chafing dish to dry. The hot air swelled out its folds and floated it up into the air. The lady, in astonishment, called her husband to see the sight.

He at once grasped the idea and was not long in producing the hot air balloon.

An Odd Perquisite.

One of the most curious perquisites in connection with English coronations is the right of one of the peers to claim the bed and bedding used by the heir apparent on the night preceding the coronation. In olden times this was a perquisite of considerable value, as the "bedding" usually consisted of richly embroidered coverlets of velvet or silk, with priceless hangings of cloth of silver and gold.

Wall Sizing.

In making sizing dissolve half a pound of glue in a little hot water. Then pour on nearly a gallon of boiling water, stirring carefully all the time so that it may mix well. A little of this added to ordinary whitewash prevents the white from rubbing off on dresses, etc. Brushed with wall hot over a wall that is to be papered, it makes the paper stick better. A wall that has been whitewashed should be brushed over with hot vinegar before papering, or the paper will not stick.

Earning a Spanking.

A lady who had company to tea reproved her little son several times, speaking, however, very gently. He at once grasped the idea of the punishment and said sharply: "Jimmy, if you don't keep still I'll send you away from the table!"

"Yes, that's what you always do when there's company and there are not enough cakes to go round!" was the reply of the little youth.

The Australian aborigines are not the only users of the boomerang, nor were they the first to use that missile. The Egyptians knew all about it, just as they seem to have known all about everything else.

Blase.

"Papa, what does it mean to be blase?"
"My boy, it is getting tired of all the things that are not worth living for."—Life.

This is what philosophy amounts to, "to do it, but you should not."—Aitchison Globe.

It is said that one-tenth of the world is still unexplored.

BEFORE NIGHT.

It is the hour when faints the long gold day,
That hour when all the great world seems to rest.
The low wind sleeps, the lilies lily away
And drops the dew into the rose's breast.

Now the last weary swallow wheels on high,
A flash of silver on the gray light;
Soon the first star shall gleam in the still sky
And earth be clasped by the cool arms of night.

Now the round notes of restless birds are dead,
Peace on the scented land and shimmering sea;
Now sorrow fades as fades the sunset red,
And with the tender night comes peace to me!

—Klauser Norton in Harper's Magazine.

AS ESOP MIGHT HAVE TOLD IT.

A Story of a Clever Trick Played by Two Ravens on a Puppy.

A Jerseyman, writing home from southern Alaska, tells the following: "I happened to see with my own eyes the other day a clever trick played by a pair of ravens, which carried me back to old Esop and his fables, for here as I gazed was one of the venerable tales acted out in real life.

"A silly little pup was playing about when he came upon a nice, tasty bone. I was watching him worry the bone and was enjoying the pleasure he seemed to get out of it, when down dropped two ravens. They wanted that bone. It stuck out all over them, their desire, and their eyes shone with the lust of conquest.

"They fluttered about for some time, but the pup, paid no attention. He wouldn't be fooled, and I could scarcely keep from laughing to see how adroit the ravens were and how stubborn the pup was.

"Finally the raven sneaked behind Jo and scuttled quietly up until he was perhaps two feet from the pup's tail. The other raven remained in front, fluttering here and there, just enough to keep the dog's attention on him. When the raven in the rear had gained a proper position—that is, had crept close enough—the wily old bird in front began to jump up and down. I was bewildered at first. I couldn't make out what the birds were up to for the longest while, and when the jumping process began I was more mystified than ever until the dog, distracted by the jumping process, stopped worrying the bone and looked up. Then I realized with a gasp that the two birds were up to something pretty close to human. I confess I scared me a bit; it made the birds seem diabolical, and I found myself wondering how the immortal birds of this feather running through my head.

"Gradually the jumping bird drew nearer and nearer to Jo. Alas, for the pup's innocence! I heard his breath as the sable charmer flopped closer and closer to Jo's smutty nose. Suddenly Jo's jaws clicked. Almost at the same instant there was a flutter, a plunge from the rear, and the bird behind the pup had the bone.

"It was done so quickly that my eyes could scarcely follow it. When the raven in front got too near, Jo raised his head from the bone and snapped at the bird. He missed the raven and, forgetting the bone and everything else, made a plunge for the bird. Then the raven in the rear got in his work.

"Of course the moment the rear raven had succeeded the light cavalry that had been demonstrating in front flew off. The raven behind the pup was weird. As the bird in the rear grabbed the bone he let out a hoarse yell, precisely like laughter, jeering, taunting laughter. I could hear them, as they flew across the bay from Ketchikan, laughing and laughing as they went.

"Poor Jo! It took him an instant to realize what had happened, and when he did you need not wonder that he was flushed. It was a mean trick, but a sure joke on Jo, just the same."

How Erin Was to Capture America.
There can be no question that the emigrants from our shores are physically of a more vigorous and fertile average than those who stay at home. We once had a striking reminder of this. Very many years ago we had the pleasure of a long interview with a Roman Catholic priest in the poorest part of County Galway. He was very frank and plain spoken, but we made him to only one of his remarks. The chapel he served was poor and primitive in the extreme. "Look at these peasants," he said, "whom you saw in chapel this morning. Barefooted and humble as most of them are, they are bodily as sound as a bell. Go into any of your churches in England and you can hardly hear what is going on for coughing. You heard not a single cough this morning. What is the result? These vigorous, healthy people go out to America and marry there. They have families of from 15 to 18, while the home bred Yankees have only two or three. America is ours as sure as fate!"

The Blood in the Brain.
Too much blood in the brain is a frequent cause of headaches. Pains are felt all over the head, the face becomes flushed, the temples throbbing and strong light or noise causes excruciating pain. In cases of this kind the sufferer should be careful in diet and should not eat meat often than once a day.

The little blood in the brain is a frequent cause of headache. It is recognized by dizziness, noises in the ears and pains on top of the head. The best stimulant is a cup of strong tea or coffee or bowl of soup. People who suffer with these headaches should sleep with their heads low.

Getting on in Years.
"Oh!" gasped the beautiful woman as she fell back, clutching at her heart and permitting the telegram to flutter to the floor.

Her fashionable guests rushed forward, crying: "What is it? Has your husband met with an accident?"

"No—no," she moaned; "it is from my son-in-law. I am a grandmother!"

A Rare Laid.
Of all the curious kinds of lace, especially old lace, the most curious is that which is called point lace. It is very rare and was made of human hair. French collectors say it exists in the present day only in their cabinets. It was confined to the early part of the sixteenth century.

Don't parade your troubles before the world. Bury them as a dog does old bones and growl if anybody offers to dig them up.

THE VERDICT.

The Daily Planet suggests the following as the wording of the verdict of the Schley court of enquiry:

"We find that the Navy Department planned that Cervara's fleet should be destroyed by Admiral Sampson. We find that God willed otherwise and that Admiral Solley was in command. Praise be to God! It is doubtful, however, whether giving the praise in that way would satisfy Sampson.

THE EDITOR WILL SING.

"The copy in Memphis this week is going to be Giraffe Giraffe. We never was much of a singer, and always much less of a contralto. The voice which we inherited from our grandfathers' black-wheel cart as it sang, unregarded, through the new ground, has been coarsened by political debate with gold-bugs and imperialists and convulsed with attrition.

We are not, at our age, to sing in public on the stage. But times is hard, and our town is dry as a powder horn, and if the Lyceum management will agree to furnish us a mug of sure enough good liquor for the turn, we'll sing the drinking song, 'See How Hit Sparkles,' etc., and see to it that the newspapers give it a good send-off. Guttridge, so well and favorably known by our customers, will manage this department and will be pleased to show you through the stock.

Carpets, Draperies and Rugs

These Larger Facilities for selling, while important, do not interest you as will the exceptional excellence and wide variety of our new stock of carpets, rugs and curtains. Warren Martin interested the young people in their Sunday school with a blackboard temperance lecture in the afternoon and Dr. Thomson was greeted with an overflowing house at night. HOW TO SLEEP WELL

Attitude of the body has a potent influence on sleep.

Success on Heart, Lungs and Stomach.

The attitude of the body in sleeping has a direct influence upon the heart, lungs and digestive organs.

The carriage of the body while awake is also largely affected by its position during the third or more of the day spent in sleep.

One should always sleep on the right side. The body should be extended to its full length and the head thrown well back. The left arm should be thrown as far back as possible, thus expanding the chest.

When one lies on the left side an unusual weight comes just over the heart, which should, of course, be set as free as possible.

Never sleep with the arms extended above the head or the limbs drawn up, for this interferes with the circulation. It is also a mistake to lie on the stomach, for this tends to cramp the heart and digestive organs.

The lower the pillow the better. High bolsters hold the head at an unusual angle. Many people are made round-shouldered by using too high pillows. The habit of sleeping with the head at such an angle is soon acquired. To cure one's self is well to reduce the height of the pillow gradually.

It is not enough to ventilate the sleeping-room at night and in the morning. Draughts of air should pass through it freely throughout the day and all night long. Draperies and hangings about the bed should be done away with, as being likely to collect germs, which it is difficult to remove. If one is afraid of draughts a high folding screen may be placed above the head of the bed.

The rule of simplicity should hold for all the furnishings of the room. The room should be comparatively cool for a person of normal health, but the bed should be provided with plenty of warm coverings.

Stand-up Treat.

One of the most absurd of all foolish customs is that of inviting a crowd of friends or strangers to walk up to the bar and "take something at my expense."

Men do not buy other things, either useful or ornamental, in this way—why should they make an exception of this poisonous draught, which is the cause of most of the crimes which curse the land, and which fills the community with poverty, mourning and woe?

Some one has sensibly said: "Now boys, if you want to be generous and treat each other, why not select some other place besides the liquor shop? Suppose as you go by the postoffice you remark, 'I say, my dear fellow, come in and take some stamps! These stamps will cost you no more than drinks all round. Or go to the haberdasher's and say, 'Boys, come in and take a box of collars.' Walk up to the grocer's, free and generous and say, 'What kind of coffee will you have?' Why not treat to groceries by the pound as well as liquors by the glass?"

This ought to be thought a strange way of showing friendship, but would it not be better than to offer to friends a maddening, poisonous, deadly draught?

Suppose a man should keep a den of rattlesnakes, and allow men to come and be bitten at sixpence a bite. Would it be a sensible thing for a man to invite all his friends in to be bitten at his expense? Is it worth our while to turn our friends into brutes, maniacs, and murderers, and their homes into hells of trouble and distress, by giving them "something to drink at my expense?"

Pungent Odors for Insects.

Most insects have a strong dislike for pungent odors. Ants can be kept away from the pantry often by spreading mint leaves about, and it is rarely that they or any other insect will bother the spice boxes or cabinet.

This knowledge of their weakness should be utilized in the case of wasps in the household. It has been found that even moths dislike a pungent odor. It is the odor of the camphor balls that keeps them from the clothes packed away for summer wear, and it is the odor of the cedar wood that makes them avoid chests and trunks of this material.

The ordinary odor of cinnamon, cloves, ginger andorris root will also repel them, and if one mixes these ingredients and sprinkles them in with the clothes in summer little trouble will be experienced from moths. This mixture is superior to the camphor balls because the less disagreeable odor which attaches to the clothes after being packed away for a time.

Temperance Joke.

Many a man has lost his sight by sitting in a bar room looking for work.

Joy and temperance and repose stand the door on the doctor's nose.

It is said of a young man who attended a certain church and gave once when the collection plate came around, that he smoked three five-cent cigars the same day.

A correspondent from South Dakota writes: "We have had only one saloon in our town for a year past and that is now closed. The proprietor was converted last Sunday night in the Methodist Church and has since poured all his beer and liquor in the street."

We have the same thing to be done in other places.

No Liquor Needed.

Alcohol is no longer held to be a specific in the treatment of the lungs and in typhoid fever. Work is now going on in Germany, and will shortly be published, demonstrating that alcohol helps the deadly diphtheria poison to do its work, and helps it in a most marked degree, and physiologists generally, whatever individuals may say, are gradually coming to the conclusion that the long-vaunted "action of alcohol on the heart" can be better brought about by the action of other drugs.—Prof. Woodhead.

NARROW ESCAPE

He Fell one hundred and Five Feet and was only slightly hurt.

New York, Sept. 21.—After a fall of 105 feet from one of the iron girders of the new East River bridge, Emmett Knight, 18 years of age, survives, with the surprisingly slight injuries of a broken arm and bruises on the body.

Knight was carrying some tools to a workman on the bridge, and began to walk along the girder, when his foot slipped, and he plunged downward, a sheer fall of one hundred and five feet, to the street. He landed in a pile of sand. When assistance reached him he was conscious. He was taken to the hospital, and the doctors found that he was only slightly hurt.

COMING TO TERMS.

The demands will be voluntarily settled down by the United States embassy from the large sums first asked, while the foreign office intimates that it will readily concede reasonable payments for losses of property and for personal inconvenience.

QUIET SUNDAY

Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York Spend one in the Capital.

Ottawa, Sept. 23.—Sunday was quietly spent. The royal party drove to Christ Church Cathedral for the morning service. It had not been expected that the Duke and Duchess would go to church, and consequently not a large number of people saw him. Rev. Henry Kitson, the rector, preached the sermon, and when the offering was taken up the Duke and Duchess each put in sovereigns. The two gentlemen who took up the offering promptly took the coins from the plate, and in their places put five dollar bills. After the service, when the Duke and Duchess were entering their carriage, cheers were called out and given by a number of the people.

BURNED IN SILO

He met Death in Trying to Save the Life of His Companion.

Napanee, Sept. 21.—Ezra Pixley, with some other men, was engaged (this morning) in filling with corn a silo on the farm of Wm. Rutledge, two miles from Sydenham, when flames suddenly burst out of the silo. In the first excitement the other men forgot about Pixley and A. Dunn, who were in the silo. Pixley, however, gallantly assisted Dunn out of the silo, but gave up his life in doing so. Dunn threw a ladder to him, but he could not reach it. Pixley was 45 years old, and leaves a wife and family. Mr. Rutledge, owner of the barn, was seriously burned as a result of attempting to subdue the flames.

Kingston, Ont., Sept. 21.—Mrs. Ezra Pixley was in Kingston this morning when she received a telegram announcing her husband's tragic death by being burned to death in a barn, near Sydenham. She left immediately for home.

T. A. AT WORK

as Assumed his Duties as Special Plans Correspondent—His First Specials.

Ex-Mayor T. A. Smith is, taking genuine interest in his new duties as special European correspondent of this great home journal and has set about his literary obligations with characteristic energy.

The Planet has just received its first two "specials" from the enterprising T. A. The first is designated to the editor and is, to say the least, somewhat suggestive.

Under an exquisite colored lithograph of a bridge scene in Venice, whence he writes under date of Sept. 9, Mr. Smith says:—

This is the celebrated Bridge of Sighs, where in olden days they took delight in rushing editors over and playfully cutting off their heads, but could not play football with them as they had no lead.

The second "special" is not quite so personal in its allusions, but equally entertaining. It reads:—
Swan Hotel, Cygne, Lucerne, Switzerland, Sept. 12.

I hope this finds you in good health and able to do a little kicking.

I am now at Lucerne among the snow-capped Alps and I find it decidedly cold. I will remain here for a few days and take in some side trips, among others a trip up the celebrated Rigi.

Regards to all,

KILLED MAN IN A CHARIOT

Jackson, Mich., Sept. 21.—The jury in the case of Frank R. Biery, after consideration of twenty-four hours, placed itself on record as justifying homicide as a result of charivari proceedings by a verdict of not guilty. Biery was married at his home, ten miles northwest of here last spring, and as it was a second venture of both parties the event occasioned excitement in the quiet village. On the night following the wedding a crowd of neighbors originated an old-fashioned charivari party, with the usual accompaniments of horse-play and unparliamentary racket. Biery ordered them to desist, and upon their failure to do so opened a promiscuous fire with his artillery, a horse-pistol about two feet long. Archie Whitehouse, a charivariist, was struck and killed by one of the bullets fired. No attempt was made to disprove the facts of the shooting. The jury this afternoon rendered a verdict of not guilty.

STRUCK BY A TRAIN

Niagara, Ont., Sept. 21.—About six o'clock this evening, while a procession escorting Hon. G. W. Ross, from the park to the steamer, was moving down King street, a horse attached to a democrat wagon, occupied by Samuel Shearer and Stewart Claus, became unmanageable and backed the wagon upon the railway track in front of a southbound train. The engine struck the wagon, demolishing it and throwing both the occupants to the ground. Shearer escaped uninjured, but Claus was badly cut about the face and head, although it is not thought he is seriously hurt. The train, a special, was that which had conveyed the Premier and his party from Niagara Falls to Niagara-on-the-Lake.

CUT HIS THROAT

Suicide of a Well-to-do Ontario Farmer of Clairville.

Toronto, Sept. 21.—Thomas Dobson, of Clairville, a well-to-do farmer, committed suicide this morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Kelham, of Etobicoke township, where he had been visiting. Dobson had recently been suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism and this, coupled with worrying over the loss of a horse and buggy, which were stolen a few weeks ago, is thought to have led to unbalancing his mind. Mrs. Kelham was attracted to the orchard by a dog barking, and found her father lying dead with his throat cut from ear to ear. By him was a sharp butcher knife, with which Mrs. Kelham had a few minutes before been cutting savings. Dobson leaves a widow and grown-up family.

ANARCHISTS

Armed With Shotguns Twenty of Them Stand Guard Over Their Publishing House at Spring Valley.

Spring Valley, Ill., Sept. 22.—Twenty Anarchists, armed with double-barrelled shotguns and 1,000 rounds of ammunition, are standing guard over the office of L'Aurore, the notorious Anarchist publication which expressed joy at the murder of President McKinley and satisfaction over the announcement of the assassin Czolgosz that he was an Anarchist. Meanwhile fully 2,000 citizens of adjoining towns have sent word to the authorities here that they are ready and extremely anxious to start at a moment's notice for the city and assist in exterminating the Reds. Tomorrow a committee will wait on General Manager Dalzell, of the Spring Valley Company, who resides in Chicago, and insist that he discharge every known Anarchist in his employ. The anarchists and their sympathizers threaten to hold a mass meeting tomorrow evening. If they persist in this plan a riot is almost certain to ensue, and there can be one ending, for the patriotic citizens will be reinforced by outsiders, who will come prepared for business.

THE CAT

Mr. Fisher Advocates the Adoption of Stern Measures to Stamp out Anarchy.

Editor Planet,
Dear Editor,—Please kindly give annexed insertion in Planet of to-day and get public opinion on the subject. Anarchy appears to be somewhat comparable to guttering or robbing from the person with great violence which was very prevalent in England some forty years—more or less ago. These robberies were so common that the unprotected citizens scarcely dare to leave their homes after nightfall. The remedy which soon reduced the crime was by giving the court judge the power to order the use of the cat of nine tails at different stages of their imprisonment, which was done and laid on heavily by a good stout turnkey. CHOKED BY A PIECE OF MEAT.

Sebewaing, Mich., Sept. 21.—Fred Heiman, aged 58, was choked to death last evening, while endeavoring to swallow a piece of meat during the supper hour, at the American House. He retired to a rear porch, where he was noticed to be choking. A physician responded to the telephone call, but the man was dead before help arrived. An inquest was held before Coroner Sprigg and a verdict rendered as above.

The Renewal a Strain

Vacation is over. Again the school bell rings at morning and at noon, again with tens of thousands the hardest kind of work has begun, the renewal of which is a mental and physical strain to all except the most rugged. The little girl that a few days ago had roses in her cheeks, and the little boy whose lips were then so red you would have insisted that they had been kissed by strawberries, have already lost something of the appearance of health. Now is a time when many children should be given a tonic, which may avert much serious trouble, and we know of no other so highly to be recommended as Hood's Sarsaparilla, which strengthens the nerves, perfects digestion, and aids mental development by building up the whole system.

An amusing trial occurred here last Saturday before Magistrate Wilson, in which a young Frenchman sued a farmer for overtime worked, for his wages, the defence being that he had not given notice of his intention to leave. Being asked if this were so, the plaintiff replying in the affirmative, the lawyer remarked, "Then you took French leave." On being asked his reasons for leaving he replied that he liked meat with his bread, the former being furnished only on Friday, when his religion prevented him from eating it, so he decided to leave. He won his case.

Men's Economical Clothing

"Economy," said the maker of sentences, "is going without something you do want in case you should some day want something which you probably won't want."

But everybody knows better in this practical age. Economy isn't going without, it's open-eyed spending—buying where money goes farthest in quality and good looks.

With this big factory and the outlet of our three stores, we are in a position to buy most economically, because most largely. And our side of the counter shares freely in the economy.

Theatrical

A very amusing criticism appeared in The Washington Evening Times when Mr. Reeves Smith appeared there in his successful play, A Brace of Part-ridges, which will visit us shortly, wherein he plays two parts viz., Arthur and Alfred Parttridge.

Like many another former dramatic offering, the piece calls for the playing of two parts by the same man, and, like many another comedy, the prevailing idea is mistaken identity, yet the theme is handled so delicately and so uniquely that it is received with renewed assurance of affection. This is due to the excellent work of the gentleman with the international name, Mr. Reeves Smith is an good actor as if he really were two fellows, as he may be in any event both Reeves and deserve praise. If they are only one they are congratulated, if he is they, their make-up and acting is most similar, and yet both deserve the same credit. It is hoped they can divide the commendation as the salary they receive, if they are really they and not be so much for Reeves-Smith be singular or plural.

The London Free Press of Sept. 21, speaks of Mr. Reeves-Smith as being unquestionably the best actor in London or anywhere.

A treat in store for Chatham Audiences on Saturday, Sept. 28, when Mr. Reeves-Smith brings his celebrated London and New York success to the Grand Opera House.

George Frothingham, the well known comedian of the Bostonians, which appears at the Grand Opera House on Oct. 17th, is one of the few singers who have been content to accept a position in a brilliant group of entertainers and remain a star in a stock company rather than tempt fortune in touring alone. Mr. Frothingham is pleasantly remembered through his long connection with this company, and in grotesque roles he has no superior. As Friar Tuck in Robin Hood, and the lovelorn tailor in The Serenade, he constantly provokes laughter by his whimsical methods. Mr. Frothingham will be heard here with the Bostonians in the presentation of "Robin Hood."

Walter Whitehead, under the management of Stepmann Bros., opened his season at Bridgeport Conn. Sept. 14, in Heart and Sword. The cast worked hard and did well with the story, which has many earmarks of success. Its theme is interesting, and it was handsomely staged and adequately costumed. Mr. Whitehead won much applause in a general role. Laurence Evarit and William Mack fairly divided the honors of supporting company, and Kate Bonetant and Lella Walsman were also successful.—The New York Dramatic Mirror.

Walter Whitehead, in Heart and Sword, is booked for the Grand at Chatham, on Oct. 25.
