be convened by the Directors at such times and in such places as they may think fit.

Extraordinary Meetings how convened by Stockholders.

X. If at any time it shall appear expedient to any five of the Board of Directors or to any five or more Stockholders of the said Company holding in the aggregate one fifth part of the Capital Stock of the said Company, to call an extraordinary meeting of the Proprietors at large, it shall be lawful for them by writing under their hands at any time to require the Directors so to do, and such requisition shall fully express the object of the meeting so required to be called, and shall be left at the office of the Company, upon receipt whereof it shall be the duty of the Directors forthwith to convene a meeting of the Stockholders, and if the Directors shall fail to call a meeting within fourteen days thereafter, it shall be lawful for the said number of Directors or the said Stockholders so qualified as aforesaid to call such meeting by giving public notice thereof as hereinafter mentioned: Provided always, that no extraordinary meeting shall enter upon any business not set forth in such requisition and notice. 5 10 15

Proviso.

Notice of Meetings.

XI. Fourteen days public notice at least, of all the meetings, whether ordinary or extraordinary, shall be inserted at least in one newspaper published in the said City of Toronto, and by mailing at the Toronto Post Office, circulars addressed to the said several Shareholders respectively, which shall specify the place, the day, and the hour of such meeting, and every notice of an extraordinary meeting shall specify the purpose for which the same is called. 20

Quorum for General Meetings.

XII. In order to constitute a meeting, whether ordinary or extraordinary, there shall be present eight or more Stockholders, holding in the aggregate two hundred shares, and the Shareholders present at any such meeting shall proceed in the execution of the powers of the Company by this Act authorised. 25

Chairman at Meetings.

XIII. At every meeting of the said Company, one or other of the following persons shall preside as Chairman, that is to say: the President, or in his absence the Vice-President, or in his absence the Managing Director, or in the absence of all three, one of the Directors present, who shall be elected by a majority of the Stockholders present, and that such Chairman shall not only have a deliberative vote in all matters before the meeting, but also, in addition, a casting vote in case of equality. 35

Adjourned Meetings.

XIV. Every meeting of the Stockholders may be adjourned from time to time, and no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which such adjournment took place: Provided always, that it shall and may be lawful for the Directors to submit to any meeting, whether ordinary or extraordinary, the interim regulations agreed on by the Directors. 40

Proviso.

Proviso.

Cases in which Office of Directors.

XVI. If any of the Directors at any time subsequent to his election become bankrupt or insolvent, or cease to be a holder of twenty shares in the Capital Stock of the said Company, then, and in any of the cases 50 aforesaid, the office of such Directors shall become vacant, and thenceforth the person in respect of whom the office of Directors shall so have become vacant shall cease from voting or acting as a Director. tors shall become vacant.

XVII. If any Director of the said Company die, resign or become disqualified or incompetent to act as a Director, or cease to be a Director by any other cause than that of going out of office in rotation as aforesaid, the remaining Directors if they think proper so to do, may elect in his place, any Stockholder duly qualified to be a Director, and the Stockholder so elected to fill up any such vacancy shall continue in office until the first yearly meeting after such vacancy, and the Stockholders then present shall elect a new Director, who shall hold office for the same period as the Director would have done, whose death, resignation, or disqualification caused the vacancy. Occasional vacancies among Directors, how supplied.

XVIII. And with respect to the exercise of the powers of the Company:—Be it enacted, that the Directors shall have the management and superintendence of the affairs of the Company, and they may lawfully exercise all the powers of the Company, and amongst other powers to be exercised by the Directors they may use and affix or cause to be used and affixed the seal of the Company to any document or paper which in their judgment may require the same; they may fix the salaries of all officers; they may make and enforce the calls upon the shares of the respective Stockholders; they may declare the forfeiture of all shares on which such calls are not duly paid; they may appoint the times and places of holding ordinary and extraordinary meetings; they may allot and divide among the assurers upon the participation scale, so much of the profits realized from that branch, and at such times as they may think fit, and may also declare and cause to be paid or distributed to the respective Stockholders any dividend or dividends of profits, in proportion to the shares held by them at such times and seasons as they shall think proper, or add the same to the paid up portion of the Capital Stock; they may make any payments and enter into all contracts for the execution of the purposes of the Company, and do and perform all other matters and things necessary for the transaction of its affairs; they may generally deal with, treat, sell and dispose of and exercise all other acts of ownership over the lands, property and effects of the said Company for the time being, in such manner as they shall deem expedient and conducive to the benefit of the Company; they may from time to time appoint and displace all such officers, agents or servants as they shall deem requisite for the management and care of the property and affairs or for the efficient exercise of the powers of the said Company, they may make By-laws for the regulation of the affairs of the Company, but all the powers so to be exercised shall be exercised in accordance with and subject to the provisions of this Act in that behalf, and the exercise of all such powers shall be subject also to the control and regulation of any general meeting specially convened for the purpose, but not so as to render invalid any Act done by the Directors prior to any resolution passed by such general meeting. Powers of the Directors. Calls. By-laws.

XIX. All policies, contracts, securities, deeds and writings touching or concerning the said Company shall be signed and executed by the President of the said Company (or in his absence by the Vice-President) by the Managing Director and the Secretary, or in case of the absence or death of the President, Vice-President and Managing Director, then by any three of the Directors of the said Company and the Secretary. President or Vice-President, Manager, Director or Secretary to execute Policies.

XX. The Directors shall hold meetings at such times and places as they Meetings of Directors.

shall appoint for that purpose, and they may meet and adjourn as they think proper from time to time and from place to place, and at any time three of the Directors may require the Secretary to call a meeting of the Directors, and in order to constitute such meeting there shall be present at least three of the Directors, and all questions, matters and things considered at any such meeting shall be determined by a majority of votes, and no Director except the Chairman shall have more than one vote at such meeting, but the Chairman in addition to his vote as one of the Directors shall have a casting vote as Chairman in case of equality, and that at any such meeting or meetings the President or Vice-President, or in their absence the Director appointed by a majority of Directors present shall preside.

Informality in appointment not to invalidate proceedings. XXI. All acts done by any meeting of the Directors or by any person acting as a Director shall, notwithstanding it may afterwards be discovered that there was some defect or error in the appointment of any person attending such meeting as a Director or acting as aforesaid, or that such person was disqualified, be as valid as if any such person had been duly appointed and was qualified to be a Director. But it shall not be competent for a Board consisting of a less number of Directors than were present at the time to alter, repeal or amend any matter or thing so done.

Shares to be transferable. Proviso. Proviso. XXII. The shares of the said Capital Stock shall be transferable, and may be from time to time transferred by the respective persons so subscribing or holding the same; Provided always, that no such transfer shall be valid until sanctioned and approved of by the Directors and duly registered in a book or books to be kept for that purpose by the Secretary; and provided also, that after any call has been duly made as aforesaid, no person shall be entitled to sell or transfer any share he may possess until he shall have paid all calls for the time being due on any share held by him.

Power to increase Capital Stock. XXIII. It shall and may be lawful for the said Company at any time hereafter, to increase its Capital Stock to a sum not exceeding two hundred and fifty thousand pounds, by issuing from time to time as may be expedient, additional Stock for such amounts as the convenient conduct of the business of the Company may require.

Forfeiture of Shares for non-fulfilment of calls. Proviso. XXIV. For the better enforcing the payment of any calls as aforesaid, if any Stockholder for the space of thirty days next ensuing such call shall neglect or refuse to pay his rateable share, he shall forfeit the sum of ten shillings for each share, and in case he shall continue to refuse or neglect for the space of sixty days, it shall be lawful for the Directors to declare the share or shares of such Stockholder forfeited, and such forfeited shares may be sold at a public sale by the Directors, after such notice as they may direct, for the most money that can be got for the same, and the moneys arising therefrom shall be applied for the purposes of this Act. Provided always, that in case the money produced by any sale of shares be more than sufficient to pay all arrears and lawful interest thereon, and the aforesaid penalties for non-payment, together with the expenses of such sale, the surplus of such money shall be paid on demand, to the owner, and no more shares of a defaulter shall be sold than shall be deemed necessary to pay such arrears, interest, penalties and expenses.

Shares to revert in certain cases. XXV. If payment of such arrears of calls, interest, penalties and expenses be made before any share so forfeited and vested in the Company shall be sold, such share shall revert to the party to whom the same belonged before such forfeiture, in such manner as if such calls had been duly paid.

XXVI. In all actions or suits for the recovery of such arrears or calls, it shall be sufficient for the Company to allege that the defendant being an owner of such shares, is indebted to the said Company in such sums of money as the calls in arrear amount to, for such and so many shares, whereby an action hath accrued to the said Company by virtue of this Act, and on the trial it shall be only necessary to prove that the defendant was owner of some shares in the undertaking, and that such calls were in fact made, and that notice was given as directed by this Act, and that it shall not be necessary to prove the appointment of the Directors who made such calls, nor any other matter whatsoever.

for calls.

Allegations and proofs.

XXVII. Before any person claiming any part of the profits of the said undertaking in right of marriage, shall be entitled to receive the same or to vote in respect of any shares, an affidavit containing a copy of the register of such marriage shall be made and sworn to by some credible person, before any one of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace, or before the Mayor or Chief Magistrate of any city, borough or town corporate, in any foreign country, and shall be transmitted to the Secretary of the said Company, who shall file the same, and make an entry thereof in a book kept for the entry of the transfer of the shares as aforesaid, and before any person claiming by virtue of any bequest or will, or in the course of Administration, shall be entitled to any part of such profits or to vote as aforesaid, the said will or the probate thereof, or the letters of Administration shall be produced and shown to the said Secretary, who shall file and enter the same as before mentioned, and in all cases where the right to any such shares passes from the proprietor by any legal means, other than a transfer and assignment thereof as aforesaid, an affidavit shall be made and sworn to, stating the manner in which such share has passed to such other person, and the same shall be transmitted to the Secretary, who shall thereupon enter and register the name of such new proprietor, and the production of such register shall be prima facie evidence in all Courts of law and equity of the persons whose names shall appear therein being such Shareholders, and of the number and amount of his shares.
