THE EGYPTIAN WAR.

We regret to say that recent dis- patches from the Soudan confirm the truth of our paragraph last week, which announced that Khartoum had been captured by the Mahdi, and General Gordon killed by a traitorous pacha.

Under date of February 12, Wol- seley telegraphs from Korti as follows: After the British had completely sur- rounded the enemy's position, about seventy miles above Merawi, on Tues- day morning, Earle commanded the Black Watch Regiment to carry the works at the point of the bayonet. The Regiment responded gallantly. The pipers struck up and with cheers the men moved forward with a steady- ness and valor which the enemy were unable to withstand, and which called forth expressions of admiration from Earle. From loopholes in the enemy's works rifle puffs shot out con- tinuously, but the Black Watch kept bravely advancing. They scaled the difficult rocks in their path, and drove the rebels from their position at the point of the bayonet. Unhappily, Earle fell at this point as he was lead- ing the troops to victory. Meanwhile the cavalry pushed beyond the scene of conflict and captured the enemy's camp three miles below this. The manoeuvre was accomplished before the Black Watch carried the main position. While the main attack was being conducted two companies of the Staffordshire Regiment were di- rected to seize a high rocky hill which Arab riflemen were stoutly defending. The British sprang boldly to work, but the enemy clung desperately to the position, and disputed the ground inch by inch. The Staffordshire men drove the enemy from the hill. This brought the battle of Eli Keliakam to a close. 600 Arabs were killed in this battle. The Rebels lay dead in heaps. The number who escaped from the field was very small.

A copy of an official document ad- dressed to "the faithful" by the Mah- di, has been found in a deserted Arab camp near Dulka Island. The docu- ment states that the Prophet took Khartoum by storm on the 26th of January, that he had killed the traitor Gordon and captured his steamers. The British war office still believe Gordon to be safe at Khartoum.

Entrance Examinations.

The high school entrance regula- tions have recently been revised by the education department with a view to secure increased efficiency on the part of both public and high schools. The following is a synopsis of the changes:

The subjects of examination remain as before, but the details under some of the heads have been altered. In writing, a special paper will be set of a practical nature, and marks will be assigned on most of the other papers for writing and neatness. In draw- ing, half the marks assigned to the subject may be awarded as the result of the examiners inspection of the candidate's drawing book. Next July the examination on history will be confined, as hitherto, to the out- lines of English history. In subse- quent examinations the outlines of Canadian history are prescribed, in addition to those of English history; and candidates are expected to have a general knowledge of how England, Canada and Ontario are governed. The literature selections from the Royal and Canadian series of readers are those hitherto prescribed; but new selections have been made from the old Ontario series. After December, 1885, the selections will be from the fourth book of the series of readers now being prepared by the education- al department; some of which selec- tions will be changed each half year. In reading, a general knowledge will be required of vocal expression, with special reference to emphasis, inflec- tion and pause. The passages for each examination in this subject will be selected by the department, and the candidate will in addition be ex- pected to satisfy the examiners that he reads intelligently as well as intel- ligibly. Of the marks assigned for composition, a maximum of about one-third may be awarded on the papers in history and English litera- ture. One feature of the regulations in regard to the subjects of examina- tion is, that full details have been given of the course to be followed by the teacher. The values of the dif- ferent subjects are now as follows:—

Reading	50
Writing	50
Orthography and orthoepy.....	50
Literature.....	100
Arithmetic.....	100
Grammar.....	100
Composition.....	100
History.....	75
Drawing	50

As before, one-third of the maxi- mum of the marks on each paper is also required.

As in the case of the fourth book and spelling paper for December, 1884, the value of the correct answer to the questions set on each paper will exceed the maximum prescribed above, except in writing, reading, and orthography and othoepy; but the papers will be so constructed that a well prepared candidate may obtain the prescribed maximum within the given time. The object of the pre- ceding regulation is to allow the de- partmental examiners to present a greater variety of questions, and thereby to enable the candidate to show more readily than heretofore whether he is in a condition to bene- fit by a high school course.—News.

Scott Act Notes.

A meeting for the formation of an association for the better enforcement of the present license laws preparatory to the coming into force of the Scott Act in these united counties, was held in French's Hall, in Brock- ville on Thursday, the 12th inst. Owing to the extremely cold weather, the attendance was not so large as an- ticipated. The meeting was called to order by Rev. T. G. Williams, who moved that Jas. Miller, Esq., reeve of Edwardsburg, be appointed chairman and that B. Loverin act as secretary. Mr. Miller, on taking the chair, briefly explained the object of the meeting, and called upon Rev. Mr. Williams to present a draft of the rules and by- laws of the proposed organization (the draft having been ordered to be prepared at a former meeting). The rev. gentleman gave a verbal report of the steps necessary to be taken, and moved a series of resolutions, which may be summarised as follows:—

Members to be elected after the first meeting by ballot.

5. The funds of the township or- ganization shall be raised by volun- tary contributions, one half of which shall be paid over to the county or- ganization to meet current expenses.

6. There shall be a consultation committee of 5 each appointed by the county and township organizations who shall with the officers have full control of all matters relating to the working of the association.

On motion of A. W. Mallory, sec'd by Jas. Bissell, the following were named as officers of the general as- sociation:—

THE FARMERSVILLE REPORTER.

Scared Out of a Wife.

You see we had to be awful quiet so that the old man wouldn't hear.

I was now ready to get into bed, so I put the light out and picked up my boots thinking to put them in a more convenient place; when down went one of my feet through a pipe hole, which had been covered with paper, up to my very hip.

Now one part of me was up stairs, while the longest part was in the kitchen.

As my leg was very long it reached a shelf which was occupied by dishes, pans, coffee pots, etc., and turning it over down it went with a tremendous crash.

The girls had not yet retired, and I could hear them laugh fit to split their sides.

I felt awful ashamed, and was scared until my heart was in my throat for I expected the old man every moment.

I extracted my leg from the con-founded hole just in time, for the old lady looked into the kitchen from the room door, and asked "what's all this noise about?"

The girls put her off as best they could and went to bed, while John was strangling himself under the cover to keep from laughing aloud.

We soon went off into the land of dreams, with the hope of waking early. I wish I could tell you my dreams, but it would take too long.

One moment I would fancy myself beside Sadie, sipping nectar from her heaven bedew'd lips, the next I would be flying from the old man, while he would be flourishing his cane above my head.

This all came to an end by John giving me a kick.

On waking up and looking around I saw John's eyes as big as my fist, while the sun was beaming in at the window.

What to do we could not tell, for we heard the old man having family prayers in the kitchen.

John looked out of the window and said we could get down over the roof. "Get out and dress as soon as possible," he said.

So in my hurry my feet got fastened in the bed clothes, so out I went, head foremost, turned over and down the steps until I struck the door which was fastened with a wooden button, and it giving way out I rolled right in front of the old man.

He threw up both hands and cried "Lord save us!" for he thought I was the devil.

The old woman screamed until you could have heard her a mile.

I was so scared and bewildered that I could not get up at once. It was warm weather and I didn't have anything on but a shirt.

When I heard the girls snickering, it made me mad, and I jumped up and rushed out of the door, leaving the greater part of my shirt on the old iron door latch.

Off I started for the barn, and when I was half way through the yard the dog set up a howl and made for me.

When I got into the barn yard I had to run through a flock of sheep, and among them was an old ram, who backed off a little and made for me. With one bound I escaped his blow and sprang into the barn, and began to climb up the logs into the mow, when an old mother hen pounced upon my legs and picked them until they bled.

I threw myself upon the hay, and after John had slid down the porch into a hog-head of rain water, he came to me with one of my boots, my coat and one of the legs of my pants.

He found me completely prostrated. Part of my shirt, my hat, one leg of my pants, vest, stockings, necktie and one boot were left behind.

I vowed then and there that I would never go to see another girl, and I'll die before I will.

COUNTY ITEMS.

From our Exchanges.

Gananoque has 23 manufactures. The new English Church at North Augusta was opened last week.

Rev. D. Winter is conducting revival services at Toledo and Prof. Tupper is teaching a singing class.

It is announced that races will be held in Kingston on the 24th and 25th inst., when purses amounting to $500 will be given.

Report says some of the Lansdowne people have had great sport fox-hunting lately, and succeeded in bagging a fair quantity of game.

The Scott Act petition in Kingston has been signed by more than the required number. Business men will not be sorry to see the Act carry in Kingston.

Perth hotelkeepers have adopted a scale of prices to meet the Scott Act. The rates now are meals 40., lodging 40c., shed for one horse 10c., two horses 15c.

Recruits are being added nightly to the Gananoque Salvation Army which numbers 150 members. The attendance is large and great interest is manifested.

No trace has yet been found of the boy lost at Gananoque. A reward of $100 is offered for information leading to his recovery.

There is a young lady in Mallorytown who, failing to obtain health from the physicians, is now undergoing the treatment known as the faith cure.

Mr. Harris, of Ottawa, has decided to build a large hotel at North Bay, to be used as a summer resort. The building is on the shore of Lake Nipissing.

The Prescott Messenger appears to have done well last year in the way of receiving Government support, having received no less than $6141 for printing, and $81 for advertising.

The Rev. Mr. Krupp, of Frankville nearly met with quite a serious loss. It appears that he drove from Toledo after holding services there in the evening and leaving his horse standing at the door stepped into the house for a light. Upon coming out he found his horse had left and immediately started in pursuit. The next morning a neighbor found the horse back of the village in a hole. It had pounded itself so as to make its future usefulness doubtful.

The 12th.

We republished from the Recorder a paragraph stating that the next 12th of July would be celebrated in Brockville. Some of the brethren here thought this implied that Farmersville and other lodges would go to Brockville, and they desire us to say that the celebration will be held in Farmersville. This is as it should be. Farmersville is the natural focus of things throughout the county, and it is only natural that Orange lodges should gravitate towards this common centre.

Accident.

A serious accident happened on Monday afternoon to A. N. Sherman, who runs the planing and turning mill in this village. It appears, he was running a ripping saw, and by some means his mitten caught in the saw, drawing his hand under the teeth, and lacerating the inside of his hand in a fearful manner. Fears were entertained at first that amputation of the thumb and fore finger would be necessary, but we learn from Dr. Cornell (who made an examination this a. m.) that this will not be necessary, and that there is a fair prospect of Mr. Sherman retaining the use of his hand.

Whitehurst.

It is our sad duty to chronicle the death of Mr. Albert Eyre, who died of inflammation of the kidneys, at Leroy, N. Y. He is the son of Henry Eyre, of Bellamy's station, and brother of Mr. Geo. THE STEVENSON PIANO.

The following is an unsolicited testimonial as to the merits of this excellent Piano:—

To Stevenson & Co.:

Dear Sirs,—As a matter of justice I wish to give my unsolicited recommendation of the Stevenson Piano. The Stevenson Company warranted the Piano for a term of years. They have thus far more than fulfilled their contract. The Piano in our Parlor in Albert College delights all musicians who test its fine qualities. After the instrument had been in use a few weeks, I gave a willing testimony to its many excellencies. Now, after nearly two years of constant use, my opinion has not changed, except for the better. The true test of a piano is in using it one or two years. The Stevenson Piano has borne that test. I am more than satisfied.
