Devotion to the Holy Ghost

"The just receive not only the gifts, but also the Person of the Holy Ghost," says St. Thomas of Aquinas. "It would be an error against faith to say that a Christian, in a state of grace, possesses only the gifts of the Holy Ghost, and not the Holy Ghost Himself." Now, the Holy Ghost being the invisible Love of the Eternal Father and the Eternal Word, can be for a moment supposed not to return love for Love is a mere matter of taste or convenience on the part of anyone, or that love and most ardent devotion to God's Own Love is but a work of supererogation, and may be taken up and practised or put aside and neglected! Is it not written of the First and greatest Commandment: "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God?" Then take upon yourself this duty—this obligation—using whatever form of expression that will best help you, providing it be approved by His Holy Church.

God, who is a pure Spirit, existing without a body like unto ours, is every-where. All things are subject to His Power; all things are known and seen by Him; all things to Him alone owe every moment of their existence. In Heaven God is present glorifying His elect, who, when upon earth, returned love for Love. In hell God is present in the power of His justice, bestowing upon the lost souls that which is their due; these, when upon earth simply despised God's gift of Himself in all His Love. On earth God is present to the just (to all who are free from deadly sin) as a Friend, a Guest, a tender Father, a Sure Guide, a Divine Comforter, a most generous Benefactor, as our Sanctifier and Divine Love Himself. All this He is to us, or rather would be, were we to permit Him—were we to notice Him, if only from time to time, and pay at least the same attention which we would show to our nearest and dearest upon earth. This is not shown to Him. Hence the darkness of mind, or mental blindness among men; hence that touchy selfishness on the one hand, and on the other the coldness, hard-heartedness, and even cruelty which exists in ever so many hearts. Hence again, those ever-recurring waves of unbelief and immorality which flood the world, destroy innumerable souls, and bury them beneath the black waters of their untold iniquities.

To be devoted to the Holy Spirit of God is to have an ever-ready ear and eye directed to His abiding Presence within us. To practice devotion to the Holy Ghost is but to express our esteem, wonder, astonishment, admiration, and love towards the Love of the Eternal Father and Eternal Word who deigns, in His infinite mercy, love, and compassion, to come through the merits of Jesus Christ to be our true Friend and Benefactor, an abiding Guest and Sanctifier, and the Consoler in all our griefs, unworthy though we be. Every act of devotion to the Holy Ghost is an act of divine worship, an act of faith, hope, and charity, attention and respect for His Presence, a hearkening to His voice, and a doing His most Holy Will. How necessary and how practically useful is this devotion to Him; by it we return thanks to Him for His gifts, we make reparation for sins committed against Him, the Holy Ghost, while we sanctify our own souls.

Monsignor Benson in Private Life

Mr. Gabriel J. Pippet, whose name will be familiar to all who have read those delightful verses of the deceased prelate incorporated in "A Child's Rule of Life," as the illustrator thereof, lived for some time at Hare Street House, Banterford. He says that Monsignor Benson was a very genial and simple man, who took a great and active interest in all that appertained to his chapel, house and garden. He was always anxious to give his active assistance and was always full of good ideas and practicable schemes. He would work with untiring energy at alterations and improvements, and would draw out plans and designs for nearly everything in which such plans and designs could be of assistance in properly carrying out the thing to be done. His energy while at work was a white hot enthusiasm, which would not permit him to walk to anything he had to do, but made him run—positively run. And this enthusiasm he carried into everything he undertook to do. If he were playing with children he played heart and soul, as though that were, and had been, his sole occupation in life. Watch him sewing tapestry, and his whole mind would be bent on the work as the business of life that mattered. In writing it was just the same. He wrote with such an almost ferocious energy that it would not have surprised you to see the paper scorch beneath his pen, and the whole bent of his brain was occupied with the teeming thoughts that seemed to leap and bubble from the inkpot on to the paper. And when he prayed—the world forgetting—Ah! that was indeed the real and earnest work of life beside which all else sank into nothingness.

At home he lived by rule—never broken except under the strongest pressure. Mass at eight, prior to which he recited a portion of the Divine Office. Breakfast (in silence) at nine, during which, although he ate sparingly enough, he positively devoured his correspondence, of which there was always a plenty. Then the newspaper till ten. And even in his reading he showed another facet of his most-aided nature. He read with amazing speed, and remembered what he had read with amazing accuracy. From ten to one he would spend in top-speed, and after a quarter of an hour's Divine Office, lunch would be taken. After lunch, with a piece of tapestry in his hand—he seldom sat still and talked only—he would talk—and talk, delightfully. The afternoon was spent in manual labor—gardening when the weather permitted, or carpentering or carving. Tea at four, followed by more writing till 7:30; then the Office again and dinner. Frequently after dinner he would read aloud—either from some favorite author or from his own particular MS. then in progress. He read with charm, and what is more, with sympathy, and very quickly to boot. At 9:30 the bell was rung for night prayers; spiritual reading and Compline followed, after which he would finish the Office for the day. A full day—in which no minute could be counted as wasted. And yet, full as it was, he found time to make frequent visits to the chapel, and was at all times accessible to penitents desirous of confessing. A full life, indeed, and a beautiful one.—The London Universe.

Body of Father Maturin

The body of Rev. Basil W. Maturin, M. A., of Oxford, England, one of the victims of the Lusitania was identified in Queens-town, Ireland, recently by means of laundry marks and papers. Father Maturin came to this country to preach the Lenten sermons at the Church of Our Lady of Lourdes, New York, and was returning home when death overtook him. He probably died in the discharge of his sacred duty as did that other noble priest on the Titanic.

Father Maturin was one of the most illustrious converts given to us since Newman's conversion. He was born in 1847 of an old French Huguenot family long settled in Ireland; his father was the Vicar of All Saints, Grange-gorman, while his Aunt was the late eccentric, Lady Wilde, mother of Oscar Wilde. Father Maturin graduated from Trinity College, Dublin, and after his ordination as a minister of the English church he entered the Society of St. John the Evangelist, commonly known as the Cowley Fathers. He was always Superior of his order to take charge of the Church of St. Clement, Philadelphia, where he remained ten years, rivalling Phillips Brooks as a popular pulpit orator. In 1897 Anglicans were staggered by learning of his reception into the Church by Father Pope, S. J. He was ordained priest in 1898, and has been the only rival Father Vaughan has had in London pulpits.

Father Maturin was the author of "Discourses on the Passion of Our Lord," "Practices of the Spiritual Life," "Self-Knowledge and Self-Discipline," "Laws of the Spiritual Life" and "The Price of Unity." English-speaking Catholics have suffered a great loss in the death of Father Maturin.

The Coptic Rite

The Coptic Rite is the rite or liturgy used by the Copts or Egyptian Christians, says "Truth." Most of these hold the Monophysite heresy that our Lord had only one nature, the human nature being completely swallowed up in the Divine. This heresy was condemned by the Council of Chalcedon (A. D. 452), after which the Copts separated from the Catholic Church. However, they have retained (like all Eastern schismatics) a validly ordained priesthood, and therefore a valid mass and valid sacraments. In their belief they differ little from Catholics, except that they hold the aforesaid heresy with regard to our Lord's nature and do not recognize the authority of the Holy See.

They say mass in Coptic, the language of ancient Egypt, which is otherwise extinct (the vernacular or the modern Egyptian is Arabic). In recent years many Copts have given up their heresy and returned to the Catholic Church. They are allowed by the Holy See to retain their Coptic liturgy and customs, and have a hierarchy of their own under the Pope. These latter are known as the Uniat or Catholic Copts.

The late Pope Pius X never belonged to the Coptic or any other Oriental rite, but always to the Latin Rite. The title of "patriarch," which is very common among Eastern bishops (both Catholic and schismatic) is also borne by the bishops of the two Western Catholic Sees of Lisbon in Portugal and Venice in Italy. It is now purely an honorary title.

India A Wonderland

Father Huysman, P. F. M., has been long enough in India to know the country thoroughly, and he considers it a veritable wonderland. He says it is studded with ancient fortresses, gorgeous temples and all sorts of highly architectural structures, which one never tires admiring. Most of the Hindu temples are the same in form and in shape; big towering masses, very broad at the bottom, with two sides, front and back, longer than the rest and running up like a pyramid to end with a crest, the whole covered with all sorts of pagan emblems. Generally the principal structure is in the middle, and it is surrounded by walls and galleries and other minor towers which form a tremendous assembly of accessories, awe-inspiring and forbidding like the religion it represents.

No European or unclean human being can even penetrate within the sacred precincts of those terrible abodes. There are besides, in various places of India, real fortresses, built ages ago, and these with the others testify to the highly national and religious spirit of the Hindu, which is marvelous indeed, or at any rate, has been so in past ages. Many of those buildings are ruins and abandoned, owing, I suppose, to the weakening of the old spirit; but there are quite enough yet of them to show what it was and how glorious old pagan India has been and still is.

Many Troubles Arise From Wrong Action Of The Liver.

Unless the liver is working properly you may look forward to a great many troubles arising such as biliousness, constipation, heartburn, the rising and souring of food which leaves a nasty taste in the mouth, sick headaches, jaundice, etc.

Mr. Howard Newcomb, Pleasant Harbor, N.S., writes: "I have had sick headaches, been bilious, and have had pains after eating and was also troubled with a bad taste in my mouth every morning. I used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, and was cured. The best price I can give is not enough for them."

Milburn's Lax-Liver Pills are 25c per vial, 5 vials for $1.00; at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

A witness called in the investigation of the short-circuiting of the Subway, in which a woman lost her life and more than a hundred persons were overcome with smoke and fumes, described the situation as follows: "Then stygian darkness ensued, momentarily interrupted by fitful gleams of weird electricity that rose and fell with ghastly effect. Men stood riveted to the spot, women screamed in abject terror, and pandemonium reigned. To increase the realism of living death that seemed to be enshrouding the sepulchral aspect of the place, a demoniacal guard of barbarous foreign countenance and accent, in guttural tones, ordered the transoms closed. I knew the end was nigh, and with calm indifference devoid of hope awaited the last gruesome catastrophe." The name of the witness is withheld.

BEWARE OF WORMS.

Don't let worms gnaw at the vitals of your children. Give them Dr. Low's Pleasant Worm Syrup and they'll soon be rid of these parasites. Price 25c.

"What do they mean by the horns of a dilemma?" "Two autos, I suppose, honking at you at once."

Could Not Bend Down On Account of Backache.

Mr. J. A. Lubnicki, Dauphin, Man., writes: "It is my pleasure to write you in regard to Doan's Kidney Pills which I have been using for some time for kidney trouble, which used to affect me back so that at times I could not bend down, nor could I walk straight. I consulted about your pills from your Almanac, and I bless the happy hour I thought of buying this medicine. One stick, a druggist persuaded me to buy Doan's Kidney Pills, saying they were just as good, in fact he guaranteed they were. I yielded to his advice, and what was the result? I had bearing down pains in my back for five days, so I took the balance of the pills unused to the druggist, and told him to give me Doan's Kidney Pills as they would stop the pain. In 15 hours at the outside. He told me he was sorry I did not use more of the pills, and lengthen the time to walk straight. I told him there is no need of writing with Doan's Pills, they go right to the spot. The substitute for me." Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale in boxes for $1.25 at all dealers or direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont. When ordering direct specify "Doan's."

New Lieut. Governor.

We avail ourselves of this earliest opportunity to extend our cordial congratulations to Hon. Augustine Colin McDonald, the new Lieutenant Governor of our Province, who was sworn into office here on Monday afternoon last. We feel sure the appointment will meet with general approval throughout the Province, as Mr. McDonald has a most honorable public and private record, and has had an unusually long parliamentary career. Mr. McDonald was first elected to the Local Legislature in 1870, for the third district of King's County. In 1873, on the entrance of this Province into Confederation, he was elected a member for King's County to the House of Commons. He was re-elected in 1878 and 1882. He was subsequently elected in 1891 and 1896 sitting until 1900.

Mr. McDonald is a son of the late Mr. Hugh McDonald, who came from Inverness—shire, Scotland, and settled at Three Rivers, His Honour was born at Panmore on June 30 1837. He married Mary Elizabeth sixth daughter of the late Hon. John Small McDonald. Mr. and Mrs. McDonald have a family of sons and daughters.

His Honour was sworn in by Chief Justice, Sir William Wilfrid Sullivan, in the Legislative Council Chamber on Monday afternoon, in the presence of a distinguished audience. The commission was read by Mr. P. K. Bennett's assistant Clerk of the Privy Council of Canada and is as follows:
George V. by the grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, etc.
To Augustine Colin Macdonald, of Montague, in the Province of Prince Edward Island, gentleman and to all to whom these presents shall come.

Know ye that we, reposing special trust and confidence in the prudence, courage, loyalty, integrity and ability of you, the said Augustine Colin Macdonald, do appoint you to be Lieutenant Governor over the Province of Prince Edward Island, one of the Provinces of our Dominion of Canada during the will and pleasure of our Governor General of Canada.

And we do hereby authorize and empower and command you the said Augustine Colin Macdonald in due manner to do and execute all things that shall be long to your said command, and the trust we have reposed in you, according to the several powers, provisions and directions granted or appointed you by virtue of the Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, passed in the thirtieth year of the reign of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, called and known as the British North America Act, 1867, and of all other statutes in that behalf and in this our present commission, according to such instructions as are herewith given to you and heretofore annexed, or which may from time to time be given to you in respect of the said Province of Prince Edward Island, under the sign manual of our Governor General of our Dominion of Canada, or by order of our Privy Council for Canada and according to such laws as are or may be in force within the said Province of Prince Edward Island.

And we do hereby further appoint that so soon as you shall have taken the prescribed oaths and entered upon the duties of your office, this our present commission shall supersede our commission under the great seal of Canada bearing date the first day of June, one thousand nine hundred and ten, appointing His Honour Benjamin Rogers to be the Lieutenant Governor of the Province of Prince Edward Island. In testimony whereof we have caused these our letters to be made patent and the great seal of Canada to be hereunto affixed. Witness, etc.

At our Government House, in our city of Ottawa, this third day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifteen and in the sixth year of our reign.

By Command (Sgd.) LOUIS CODERRE, Secretary of State.

Several weeks ago, said the Minister of Militia on the 2nd of the erection of a plant for the manufacture of toluol, the new high explosive used in shells, was undertaken in the Dominion of Canada. The plant was not expected to be ready for about four months, but so rapid was the progress made that now it can be inspected under working conditions. He was rejoiced to find that toluol was being turned out at the rate of 800,000 lbs. per month. This takes the record for both construction and production amongst factories for the manufacture of high explosives. Arrangements are now also so far forward that shortly the Dominion will be able to turn out one million pounds of gun cotton a month. For a long time the production of cordite has been by the million pounds.

That the Canadian government in taking over the operation of the Transcontinental Railway is going to adopt strictly business methods and handle all the traffic that can be obtained going either east or west, is seen by the fact that arrangements are now being made for securing a large amount of rolling stock and other equipment. With the good crop prospects in the west this year and the likelihood of an unusually large crop of grain to be carried eastward. Hon. Frank Cochrane has asked Hon. W. T. White, Minister of Finance for a very considerable sum to purchase the necessary equipment. In spite of the difficulty of borrowing money just now Hon. W. T. White consented. The Transcontinental will therefore, next fall, provide largely increased facilities for transporting the crop and the revenues of the road will be that much greater. It is understood that a close agreement for exchange of traffic will be arranged between the government and the G. T. P. with its eastern terminal now at Winnipeg.

The Minister of Finance Ottawa, received the other day through the Governor General a cheque for $100,000 from Huntley B. Drummond of Montreal to be used for the purpose of providing about one hundred and twenty-five maxim guns, it being understood these are to be in addition to those to be provided by the Militia Department for the use of the Canadian Expeditionary Force.

The British Industries Fair recently held in London was so successful that the Board of Trade has decided to hold another next year. There were three hundred overseas buyers of which thirteen were Canadian. There was only one Canadian exhibitor, but he expressed satisfaction with the results he obtained. Harrison Watson, the Trade Commissioner for the Dominion government, will probably recommend Canadian manufacturers to participate next year.

Sir Charles Davidson, late Chief Justice of Quebec has been commissioned by the Dominion Government to continue the inquiry into the purchase of war supplies. The inquiry will probably be held at Ottawa, and everything will be done to make it thorough and effective. The appointment of a man of Sir Charles Davidson's judicial standing and experience will ensure that while the investigation will be thorough there will be no findings not entirely supported by the evidence produced. It will also be a guarantee that there will be no shielding of any person who has defrauded the government.

In the Newfoundland Legislature the Government recently introduced a measure permitting exports of colliery pit wood from Labrador for a period of ten years to Britain and France, as a war measure, based upon reports of the commission sent from England last autumn to Newfoundland and Canada to investigate their resources in this regard and levying a dollar per cord as export duty.

A memorandum recently issued by the Militia Department Ottawa states that up to the present time nearly 50,000 officers and men have been despatched overseas by the Canadian Government. It is anticipated that by the first of July, the number will reach approximately 70,000. More than 500 nurses have also gone forward. The recruiting, enlistment, and organization of additional forces is steadily proceeding, and is the more necessary by reason of the very heavy casualties which have been sustained by the Canadian division during the last five or six weeks in the fighting near Langemarck and its vicinity. The gallantry, resourcefulness and tenacity of the Canadian troops during these battles, says the memorandum, have never been surpassed.

The monthly statement of the Ottawa finance department shows the expenditure on the larger public works throughout the country as $2,327,252 during May as compared with $1,040,854 for May last year. By continuing large works like the improvements at Quebec, the Welland Canal, etc., the government is providing much employment and helping business conditions in the country. The expenditure on current account was $5,780,212, an increase of $275,000. For the first two months of the fiscal year the net debt was increased $24,195,415 and now stands at $432,317,630. Temporary loans total $87,733,333 and are due of course, chiefly to the war. The revenue for the first two months of the fiscal year shows an increase of nearly $200,000 over the same period last year. This is due to the war taxes.

Progress of the War.

London, 2.—The battle for Przemysl, which is proving one of the most stubborn and sanguinary of the war, continues with unabated fury. Both sides have poured reinforcements into the field, and with attacks and counter-attacks the losses in men and material are piling up to an unprecedented extent. To the southeast, simultaneously with the battle, the Germans are making another effort to break through the Bzura lines toward Warsaw, but whether this is a serious attempt to capture the Polish capital, or only a diversion to prevent the Russians from sending more reinforcements into Galicia is not disclosed. On the Gallipoli Peninsula the British and French lines have been subjected to severe attacks by the Turks, all of which, according to the British report issued this evening, have been repulsed. There, as in France, trench warfare is being followed, but in this case the Allies have the support of their fleet, which in day time is able to search the Turkish trenches and prevent the Turks from coming out into the open, and also support the Allies' attacks. So far as France is concerned the most important fighting in progress is to the north of Arras, where the Germans and French are contending for the possession of the sugar refinery at Souchez, which both claim to hold, and on the outskirts of Le Pretre forest, where the battle for the trenches has been continuous for weeks.

London, June 3.—With the capture of Przemysl, which occurred at an early hour this morning, the Austro-German armies achieved the main object of the great thrust which they commenced against the Russian lines in western Galicia just a month ago today. They have yet to drive the Russians farther back and establish themselves in easily-defended positions which will enable them to detach forces for operations against Italy and the Allies in the west. When the Russians captured Przemysl they were pressing the Austrians across the Carpathian Passes. Then on May 3rd came the news of a great Austro-German thrust into Galicia. There was still hope in the allied countries, however, that a Russian counter-offensive would hold the invaders off, but this proved ill-founded, and this morning the Russians had to give up the city which earlier in the war, had cost them so dearly to win. Of what booty the Austro-Germans have captured with the fortress there is no estimate, but it is fairly certain that the Russians, having lots of time to get away as many men and as much material as possible and destroyed the guns and ammunition that remained.

London, June 4.—With the fall of Przemysl, although this does not appear to be the limit of their efforts against the Russians in Galicia, the Germans have again turned their attention to the western front, and simultaneously from Flanders and the province of Artois, France, come official reports of their attacks on positions recently captured by the British and French. They have succeeded in recovering some trenches taken by the British northeast of Givenchy, and have stormed the Chateau in the village of Hoozee, part of which the British still hold, although for a time the British were compelled to evacuate the building which they had captured Monday night.

For some time it has been reported that the French were slowly driving out the Germans from strong positions north of Arras and were, in the words of an officer just returned from the front, "punching a hole in the German line." To stop this movement, and also to relieve their troops who, according to the British account, were suffering very severely from British attacks and through their own counter-attacks, the Germans have despatched a lot of new troops to the Arras Ypres line and apparently are making an effort to take the initiative.

It is not believed here that any of these new detachments have been brought from the eastern front, as all accounts indicate that the Austrians and Germans are still vigorously attacking the Russians who are falling back to positions between Przemysl and Lemberg. The Russians are endeavoring to hold the line formed roughly by the Lower San, the Wisla and Dniester rivers, where there are strong natural positions which are covered partly by the great marshes of the Dniester. In Eastern Galicia the Russians claim successes. These, however, are denied by the Austrians. There has been no change on the Austro-Italian frontier, where the Italians in minor engagements have captured a number of positions, but have not as yet come into contact with the main Austrian forces.

Amsterdam, via London, June 5.—The Telegraaf's Bruges, Belgium, correspondent reports that there has been heavy fighting on the road from Menin to Ypres, with severe German losses. The Allies, it is said, repulsed all attacks. The hospitals at Courtrai, Roulers and Thourout are full of newly wounded men, and long convoys of wounded are coming from the Yser line to Bruges, according to the correspondent. London, June 5.—Telegraphing from Rotterdam the Daily Mail correspondent says: It is significant that the fall of Przemysl has been followed by the closing of the Belgian frontier, which always heretofore has preceded heavy movements of troops from one front to the other across Germany.

London, June 6.—The Allies, in their offensive on the Gallipoli Peninsula on June 4, captured and held two lines of Turkish trenches along a front of nearly three miles. In Mesopotamia the British forces have received from the Turks the surrender of Amara and taken more than 2,000 prisoners, thirteen guns, a gunboat, barges and steamers. The pursuit of the Turks, who were dispersed into the marshes, continues.

Paris, June 6.—German attacks of unusual violence were made yesterday in the region north of Arras, northern France. The French war office announced today that the German offensive had broken down everywhere, with heavy losses to the attackers. The statement follows: In the region to the north of Arras the enemy undertook yesterday evening a very violent effort to re-capture the positions which he had lost recently. The whole of the front from Albain to Neuville, and particularly the sugar refinery at Souchez, underwent a bombardment almost continually, to which our artillery replied energetically. Five German counter-attacks were launched on the slope of Chapelle-De-Lorette. The counter-attacks have been incessant in the wood to the east of the road from Aix-Neulette to Souche. The German offensive was overwhelmed everywhere and we maintained all our positions, inflicting heavy losses on the enemy. Between the Aix-Neulette-Souchez road and the Albain-Souchez road we took several trenches of the enemy in which we made about thirty prisoners.

London, June 8.—King George sent the following telegram to Lieut. Warfield: "I most heartily congratulate you upon your splendid achievement yesterday in which you, singlehanded, destroyed an enemy Zeppelin. I have much pleasure in conferring upon you the Victoria Cross for this gallant act. Lieutenant Warfield is a Canadian. He made his first flight at Hendon less than four months ago, and joined the flying squadron at the front only a month ago. His is the honour of being the first aviator to bring a flying Zeppelin to earth."

New York, June 8.—Four German submarines were captured in the Firth of Tay, East coast of Scotland, in a recent raid, according to officers of the liner Cameronia, which arrived from Glasgow today. These undersea craft made a raid upon the Firth and passed under the Tay bridge. They were caught on their return in nets spread by the port authorities. The submarines were kept entangled 82 hours, said the Cameronia officers, after which they were allowed to come up. The crews were found to be exhausted and surrendered immediately.

Between 600 700 reservists the first extensive shipment since Italy's declaration of war, sailed from New York for Naples last week on the steamer Principe, Di Udine to enlist for service. Canadian Italians will go to the war. Official news was received in Toronto on the 2nd, calling upon all Italian naval and military officers to return home at once, and asking all reservists over 20 years of age to hold themselves ready to join the colors. At the last census there were 5,000 Italian army reservists in Canada.

The use by the Germans of dogs as despatch carriers is shown in connection with the discovery of a nest of spies on the Canadian lines in France. Wounded Canadians now at Cardiff relate how they found that a coffee house near the firing lines, which was largely patronized by the Canadians and other soldiers of the Empire, was kept by spies. How the information regarding the movement of the troops became known to the enemy was forced out of a boy, who disclosed that a dog was used to carry the messages. This dog had been noticed wandering about and was even petted by the Canadians. The messages were hidden under a false coating of hair.

Abegweit

The Indian 'Abegweit'—named after the waves of the early French explorer 'La base de belle Isle'—low and beautiful island; and the Islander's 'Garden of the Gulf' is sobriquet as eloquently descriptive of Prince Edward Island today as when they were first followed on this provident spot situated in the Gulf of St. Lawrence, Prince Edward Island is separated from the shores of New Brunswick and Nova Scotia by the Straits of Northumberland. From tip to tip the Island one hundred and thirty miles, while the width varies from two to thirty miles. The surface is gently undulating. There are no mountains and no forests to speak of, but the lack of forest does not mean that the country is bare; for copses and clumps of trees are visible on every hand, giving a charming variety to the agricultural scene, and wild birds of woodland are still to be found. The 'Island' as its people love to call it—for where else in all America can be found its duplicate—is in summer a garden of perfect beauty fanned by cooling breezes from the Ocean, with mile after mile of sandy beaches. Invading the land and moulding the red cliffs into fantastic shapes is the ever restless sea. Everywhere are verdant fields, prosperous farms and comfortable homes. Arms of the sea cut into the land in all directions, forming landscapes and seascapes of surpassing loveliness.

The north shore of the Island has a character of its own. For many miles high sand-dunes act as a barrier to the sea. This combined with an unbroken beach of hard white sand permits of surf bathing that would be hard to equal.

Numberless trout streams furnish sport for the angler, and deep sea fishing is easily obtainable. In season brant, wild geese, plover, snipe, woodcock and other game birds are plentiful, and good bags are not difficult to secure.

The summer climate is perfect. Singularly free from extremes, the days are never hot and the nights are always cool; while the glorious fresh air excellent food and a good appetite induced by the breath of the sea, are factors in creating a happy frame of mind and a comfortable bodily state.

The Island has 274 miles of railway owned and operated by the Canadian Government under the name of Prince Edward Island Railway. The highways have a reputation for general excellence and a driving tour of the island is one of the most pleasant experiences and an enjoyable means of thoroughly appreciating its many attractions.

Accommodation for summer visitors is provided by numerous hotels, bungalows, private homes and farm houses at surprisingly reasonable rates. The hospitality of the Islanders is proverbial. There is an absence of conventionalities and the perfectly natural life that may be led is not the least of the charms of the Garden of the Gulf. Assuredly the Island is an ideal spot for a summer sojourn.

Browning Accidents

Max Perry of Tignish and Max Provost of Norway were drowned last Wednesday while overhauling their herring nets in about twelve feet of water in front of Joseph McInnis' factory, Sea Cow Pond, where both were employed. It seems that both men were taking the fish out of the nets and putting same in the dory. They had already made one load to the shore and were preparing to leave with another load when it is surmised the dory being overloaded capsized, throwing both occupants into the water and they being unable to swim sank to the bottom never to rise again. Just as the dory was seen to sink several boats fishing in the neighborhood hurried to the scene of the accident but too late to be of any help to the unfortunate men. After much grappling both bodies were found and taken to the shore. After working over both for several hours it was evident that life was already extinct. Both men were well known fishermen. Provost was eighteen years old, unmarried and was a son of Max Provost also a longshoreman. Max Perry was forty years old and leaves a widow. He was the son of Peter S. Perry a well known farmer on the outskirts of Tignish, R. I. P.

Royal Birthday Honors

The list of honors conferred on the occasion of the King's birthday is a long one. Following these names is a long list of officers of the army and navy who receive promotion in or appointment to the Order of the Bath, chiefly for services in connection with the organization of various departments, such as recruiting and training of the Territorials and the new armies, naval construction, equipment and transport which have demanded special attention since the outbreak of the war. Had Two Doctors. No Result.

WAS CURED BY THE USE OF DR. FOWLER'S Extract of Wild Strawberry.

In dysentery the discharges from the bowels follow each other with great rapidity, and sometimes become mixed with blood.

Never neglect what at first appears to be a slight attack of diarrhea or dysentery, but surely set it. Cure the first symptoms by the use of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry.

Mrs. Martin Farrar, Doherty Corner, N.B., writes: "I can very strongly recommend Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry for dysentery and summer complaints."

There are a number of preparations on the market, but only one is called "Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry."

"All her hair got burned up."

"Good heaven! Was she burned?"

"Naw, she wasn't there. She don't know it yet!"

Her Baby Had Dysentery.

Had Two Doctors. No Result.

WAS CURED BY THE USE OF DR. FOWLER'S Extract of Wild Strawberry.

In dysentery the discharges from the bowels follow each other with great rapidity, and sometimes become mixed with blood.

Never neglect what at first appears to be a slight attack of diarrhea or dysentery, but surely set it. Cure the first symptoms by the use of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry.

Mrs. Martin Farrar, Doherty Corner, N.B., writes: "I can very strongly recommend Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry for dysentery and summer complaints."

There are a number of preparations on the market, but only one is called "Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry."

Price, 35 cents.

At the Yarmouth Y. M. C. A. Boys' Camp, held at Tusket Falls in August, I found MINARD'S LINIMENT most beneficial for sun burn, immediate relief for colic and toothache.

Mrs. Justwood—Have you any good farmers' eggs?

Mary Ovington, Jasper, Ont. writes:—"My mother had a badly sprained arm. Nothing we used did her any good. Then father got Hagyard's Yellow Oil and it cured mother's arm in a few days. Price 25 cents."

"What's the matter? Been run over by a motor?"

"No, I tried to hang some pictures and stood on some dictionaries on a table and they slipped from under me."

Mrs. Newed (to her husband)—I cook and cook, and cook for you, and what do I get? Nothing!

Mrs. Newed—You're lucky. I always get indigestion.
