Unable To Lend a Hand To Turkey

Germany and Austria Need All Troops A STORMY INTERVIEW

Turks Upbraid Germans For Abandonment Just at Time When Capital is in Danger—Trying to Patch up Differences

Paris, April 15—A special despatch to Le Temps tells of a stormy war council presided over by the Grand Vizier, Prince Said Halim, just held in Constantinople, to decide upon measures necessary to repel the allies' attacks.

General Von Der Goltz told the council the German government would certainly make an important loan to Turkey soon. During his recent visit to Berlin, he said, he impressed upon the military authorities the urgent necessity of organizing another Austro-German invasion of Serbia, but confessed that he was unable to obtain assurance that this would be done.

"Germany and Austria," said General Von Der Goltz, "cannot now withdraw a single battalion in order to aid Turkey."

Therese von Pasha and Talat Bey bitterly reproached Von Der Goltz with Germany's abandonment of Turkey to the mercy of the allies, at the moment when the Turkish capital was endangered.

Talat Bey cried: "It only remains for us to conclude a separate peace." The Grand Vizier begged Talat Bey to remain calm, and asked General Von Der Goltz and Limon Von Sanders, what guarantees Turkey had that she would not be attacked by Bulgaria at the moment the allies' operations in the Dardanelles took a favorable turn.

General Limon Von Sanders replied that Germany had promised to strengthen the defenses of Constantinople and Chatzale lines, so as to support German diplomacy and hold Bulgaria back.

He urged Turkey to do her utmost to prevent the forcing of the Dardanelles, until the Austro-German fleet had secured a big victory over the Russians, thereafter, he said, they would be able to effect a junction with the Turkish army and crush Serbia.

SICILIAN IN: HER ARRIVAL MARKED BY CLOSURE CALL FOR WORKMAN

The Allan liner Sicilian arrived in port this morning about 12:30 o'clock and docked at Sand Point about ten o'clock. She had on board three passengers and 710 tons of freight, the most of it tea. Nothing eventful occurred during the voyage. The steamer encountered fair weather and made the run in twelve days.

A workman on the Sicilian had a narrow escape from drowning this morning. He was unloading the slings on the deck and sending them down a slide to the shed. He lost his footing and fell towards the side of the steamer. As he was going over the side he fortunately caught hold and succeeded in working his way back to safety. He continued working apparently unconcerned, but laughingly remarked to some bystanders that it was a close shave.

OFFENSIVE OF GERMANS AND AUSTRIANS NEAR USZOK PASS SMASHED IN BLOODY BATTLE

TEN AUTO TRUCKS CARRY AWAY LOOT OF TRAIN ROBBERS

Old Horse-back Raid of Ban d'Isa Superseded FAST FREIGHT TRAIN HELD UP

Petrograd, April 15—The Austro-German offensive at Kozhova, northeast of Usok Pass, has been completely smashed, the Russian War Office announced today, in a seventeen hour battle on Tuesday night, and on Wednesday the attacking Teutonic troops suffered terrible losses.

They charged the Russian positions seven times with the bayonet only to be driven back each time, leaving large numbers of dead before the Russian line. The night fighting was the fiercest that has marked the Carpathian campaign. Twelve the Austro-German forces penetrated the Russian advance trenches, only to perish from the Russian bayonet thrusts while heavy artillery fire swept the ground behind them and prevented the approach of reinforcements.

STILL NEARER FOR ITALY

London, April 15—A special to the Times from Rome says: "The situation here is undoubtedly critical now, for the first time, there is reason to think Italian intervention is imminent."

"Though there is no official confirmation of the report that Italy has finally tabled her demands for concessions from Austria-Hungary, there is good cause for believing that this has been done, and that these demands go far beyond what Austria-Hungary could possibly accept."

"The question now is whether they form the maximum programme or whether they constitute an actual ultimatum. Austria will probably interpret the Italian communication as a basis for bargaining, but the possibility of eventual agreement seems hardly to be considered."

FRENCH REPORT TELLS OF GAINS

Paris, April 15—The French War Office reports: "Near La Bolelle our heavy artillery completely wrecked German shelters and trenches."

"In the Argonne, near Fontaine-Aux-Charles, a local engagement took place from trench to trench in which we gained the advantage. Our artillery over the Germans at this point is becoming more and more pronounced."

On April 14 the day following our artillery's repulse of a counter-attack at Les Esparges, made by the enemy detaching from Coulbers, the Germans bombarded our positions, but did not attack.

The extension of our front at the Ally wood, already reported, was maintained against a counter-attack. Our progress rendered us masters of the principal German trench, and to the north of this trench also gained for us a section of ground 400 yards long and 300 yards deep.

"Near Fay-En-Haye a bombardment was carried on but not followed up by an infantry attack."

In the forest of Le Port after having won in the course of the 18th part of the German lines, we maintained our gains yesterday and stopped a counter-attack by machine guns.

"In Alsace, to the north of La Lauter, we made progress amounting to 1,500 metres in the direction of Schaeffer-Ribkopf."

SCHR. ADONIS IS IN TROUBLE

Towed into Liverpool Almost a Wreck WAS FROM ST. JOHN

Started For Ireland With Cargo of Deals But Storm King Willed Otherwise—Worst Ever, Says Captain Brown

Halifax, N. S., April 15—Tossed about in a fierce gale for more than a week the schooner Adonis, Captain Brown was towed into Liverpool this morning almost a wreck. The schooner is badly strained and sails, decked and rolling are gone. She is otherwise damaged.

The Adonis sailed from St. John on March 28 and soon after leaving port ran into a heavy sea which gradually increased in fury. During the first day that the gales raged part of the rails were ripped away. Heavy seas rolled up and time and again the schooner, heavily laden with deals was awash. The heavy sea quickly cleared the deck and as the big combers began to break over the vessel the life boats and the railing soon were cast into the sea. The cabin was flooded with water and all the supplies were soaked.

Several shots were fired at the train crew covered while the cars were loaded. Ten automobile trucks were in waiting and were filled with stolen goods.

Engineer Goss, who was running the train, escaped and ran down the tracks with the robbers firing at him. He reached the engine and started it, running to the Suspension Bridge, eight miles away, and secured a posse of detectives and was back to the scene within half an hour. Hundreds of armed men began scouring the country for the robbers, but none of them has been arrested.

Several shots were fired at the train crew. The stolen goods were worth thousands of dollars. The stolen goods were sent to this city.

ST. JOHN NEWS SENT TO SOLDIER BOYS IS DEEPLY APPRECIATED

High School Principal Gets Letter of Acknowledgment For Work of Pupils

A work deserving of commendation and praise has been that which has been in progress since early in the year among the pupils of the St. John High School, who have been forwarding to the old country bits of news of local and provincial interest in what might be termed semi-monthly publications.

Placed in books measuring nine by fifteen inches, with forty pages, four columns to a page. These are then sent forward every fortnight for the men from St. John and New Brunswick overseas. Up to the present they have been sent in care of Lieut-Col. H. F. McLeod, O. C. the 12th Battalion, and a letter received today by W. J. S. Miles, principal of the High School, from that officer, dated at Shoreham Camp, England, conveyed hearty thanks on behalf of himself, his officers and men. The letter follows:

Dear Sir— I beg to acknowledge with the gratitude of all ranks, your books of clippings from the school children of St. John. They were and are greatly appreciated by us all. Many of our men have gone, and it is with the greatest sorrow I report that a very large percentage of the 12th, fighting with the Princess Patricia, have been killed or wounded.

Major Guthrie has gone, and each day more so. I trust my turn may come soon. It is not just as we wished. We thought to go as a unit—but we are giving the best we all possess. And though one likes to fight side by side with officers and men one has lived with and loved, we are ready for any opportunity to do our part for liberty and empire.

Convey to the kind thoughts of ones at home our deep appreciation of all they are doing, and pray that we may be equal to all that Canada hopes for her sons.

Raider Was Chased By Britishers

TEN WERE AFTER HER

Succeeds in Evading Them and Probably is Back to Base After Dropping Bombs on English Towns—Little Damage

London, April 15—Successfully evading a squadron of ten British military aeroplanes speeding in pursuit, a German Zeppelin which attacked towns in the industrial district about Newcastle last night, dashed out over the North Sea early this morning. Though the British aeroplanes were on the wing within ten minutes after the first alarm, none of them came close enough to the Zeppelin to attack her, and it is believed that by this time the Zeppelin is safe again at its station in Belgium.

A Newcastle despatch says that the Zeppelin had a narrow escape at Crumlington, but the rapidly with which it was moving saved it. Eight shells were fired at it from the guns at Crumlington, and three burst very close to the ship.

Though the London papers declare the Zeppelin raid "another abortive attempt to terrify England," the attack was the longest that has yet marked German aerial operations over English territory. For nearly five hours the Zeppelin sped from town to town, inland as well as coastal. It is estimated that about sixty-five bombs were dropped upon Elyth, WallSEND, Crumlington, Weth, Seaton, Burn, Hebburn, Bedlington and South Shields. Reports from the raid districts up to noon stated that only three women and one man had been injured, none seriously. Little damage is said to have been done.

Fredericton, N. B., April 15 (Special) - Bills relating to the town of Woodstock and Bathurst engaged the attention of the N. B. Municipalities Committee this morning. The St. John bills relating to tax exemption and the proposed plebiscite, were not considered. The corporations committee this morning considered the bill to amend the act respecting the South West River Drying Co. A sub-committee composed of Messrs. Jones, Frensch, Carson and Glazier was appointed to take up with the promoters of the bill and the management of the company the question of reaching some agreement as to the time when the drive shall leave what is known as the "Bathurst" Base on the Southwest Miramichi. The bill names June 1, while the company wish to have the time left open to the management's best judgment, taking into regard conditions as they exist.

The bill to increase the borrowing powers of Gloucester county on temporary loans from $50,000 to $60,000 was supported by Mr. Gilbert, solicitor for the municipality. Messrs. Hachey, Wilson and Hochland, representatives for Gloucester, opposed the bill and declared that there would be no reason for seeking additional borrowing powers if the delinquent taxes were properly collected. Chairman Munroe said a telegram from Mr. Stewart of Gloucester who is ill at his home, protesting against the passage of the bill, on the same grounds. The committee decided to recommend that the bill do not pass.

"What because of the Audacious, Doctor? Did you hear anything more over there than we hear here?" "Well, the thing was kept secret, but I have no doubt that she was lost; they tried to tow her in. Huff, of Montreal, traffic expert of the Laurier-Union Paper Co., who appeared to protest against the proposed increase in freight rates on pulp and paper, at the recent freight rates conference by the railway commission today. When the war is over, Mr. Huff said, the demand for pulp and paper will be enormous. VON TIRPITZ BLAMED FOR ACTS OF PIRATES

Chancellor Opposed But Something Had to be Done to Make a Showing

London, April 15 - The Rotterdam correspondent of the Daily Telegraph says he has obtained information through German dependable sources, that the German Imperial Chancellor, Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg, was still opposed to submarine warfare on merchant shipping.

The correspondent goes on to say that the scheme originated with Admiral Von Tirpitz, the minister of marine, that the opposition to it was led by the chancellor, and that for a considerable time the proposal was keenly debated. "The chancellor's view," says the dispatch, "was that the trivial successes gained would not be commensurate with the detrimental effect on neutral countries. Admiral Von Tirpitz urged that something must be done to show the German people that Germany still possessed a sea power."

"After a prolonged debate, the Emperor supported Admiral Von Tirpitz, but the chancellor's views will have strong support. The real disappointment of the German people with the submarine campaign is due to the fact that no troop ships have been sunk."

They are polite and affable to the citizens and have become very popular with the people of Amherst.

AFTER PROROGATION WHAT? Parliament will prorogue today. The scandalous revelations made before the fringe of the muckers which ought to be investigated. The Financial Post of Toronto, which is not a party paper, but a representative of business interests, makes the following statement which cannot well be ignored by Sir Robert Borden.

"There is much to be done yet in the way of investigation. Only the little things have been investigated so far. There are well authenticated rumors of rake-offs going to middlemen, ranging from $50,000 to $100,000 on some of the bigger contracts. One important Canadian manufacturer of the highest reputation was unable to get an order until he agreed to give a middleman, who had a pull of some kind, a percentage which will amount to well over $50,000. The late Lord Strathcona once said that if he had not sent Fred Taylor—now Sir Fred Williams—Toronto to Ottawa to watch his interests, the equipping and despatching of the Strathcona Horse to South Africa would have cost him several hundred thousand dollars more."

In order to divert public attention from such statements as this the government has made charges against Hon. Frank Oliver, and the former Liberal government. Sir Wilfrid Laurier promptly rose in his place yesterday and called upon the government to prosecute any and all cases of wrong-doing it could discover, and Hon. Frank Oliver made an effective reply to the charges made against him. The Borden government cannot shield itself by any such pedantic dodge as an attack upon its predecessor in office.

THE EMERGENCY

The Standard quotes a statement by Sir Wilfrid Laurier in January, 1914, in which Sir Wilfrid said the German peril had disappeared and asked: "Who speaks today of an emergency?" The views held by Sir Wilfrid Laurier on this subject in January, 1914, were evidently the views of the Borden government as well as those of the fact that when the war broke out in August of the same year it was impossible to put the cruisers Niobe and Rainbow into service for a considerable time because they were not at all in a fit condition for active service. As a matter of fact, in January, 1914, and for some time before that, the apparently growing friendliness between Britain and Germany was the subject of comment not only in Canada, but in the British press. What has been revealed since the war broke out came as an amazing surprise in England as well as in Canada. Had the Borden government believed there was an emergency they would have had the Niobe and Rainbow ready for active service, and when the senate rejected the Borden naval bill they would have immediately appealed to the country. They did neither, and thus proved that, like Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and practically everybody else, they saw no emergency. Actions speak louder than words, but in this case inaction was the real evidence that the Borden government did not believe until the war actually broke out that there was a real emergency.

HAVE WE COME TO THIS?

The Frederick Gleason has declared his political creed. It is one that must bring the blush of shame to every honest Conservative. It practically says that it is perfectly proper for public officials to take everything they can get from people who are doing business with the government. Such an open and brazen confession of faith must have shocked even the party friends of that reprobate newspaper. Discussing the case of W. H. Berry, and the charge that he received for his own personal use from people having business with the government, while he was a government official, sums ranging from $1200 to $5,000, and Commissioner Chandler's refusal to investigate the charges. The Gleason makes a savage attack on Mr. E. S. Carter, and then says: "If, as Mr. Carter says, some lumbermen on the North Shore sent some deals and boards and shingles to his friend and political emissary, Mr. W. H. Berry, at the time he was building some fine barns at Oak Bay, and otherwise improving the value of his property, what has that to do with the public? It has never been shown that the public receives anything that has been done in that direction. If a banker on the North Shore made the now famous Willard a money contribution—we do not know that he did—whose business it is that if the public interests have not been touched in any way? What the lumbermen or the bankers or others who, according to Mr. Carter, appeared to have an exceptionally warm feeling for Mr. Berry and his welfare may have expected, becomes merely a joke on them if they did not receive anything in return from the public resources; and the howl and the grovel of the lumbermen is that they did not. In fact, it has been admitted on all sides that the alleged generosity of the donors was wasted. Commissioner Chandler would have been wasting valuable time and incurring a good deal of useless expense had he accepted the Carter bluff seriously." The Gleason's charge that Mr. Berry was a "political emissary" of Mr. Carter is of course intended to mislead the readers of The Gleason, but they know very well that it is right for every man of the highest integrity, except Mr. Carter, appear to have an exceptionally warm feeling for Mr. Berry and his welfare may have expected, becomes merely a joke on them, if they did not receive anything in return from the public resources.

"If a banker on the North Shore made the now famous Willard a money contribution, whose business is that, if the public interests have not been touched in any way? What the lumbermen or the bankers or others who, according to Mr. Carter, appear to have an exceptionally warm feeling for Mr. Berry and his welfare may have expected, becomes merely a joke on them, if they did not receive anything in return from the public resources."

In other words according to the peculiar-political morality of the Frederick Gleason it is merely a joke when a government official, who ought to be a man of the highest integrity, accepts large personal gifts for his own use from persons doing business through him with the government. What do decent Conservatives think of this confession of faith? What would be the condition of affairs throughout Canada if every public official had his hand out for personal contributions from everybody doing business through him with the government? If anything would prompt the government and Commissioner Chandler to probe thoroughly the charges made by The Gleason it would surely be the article in The Gleason. What have they to say about it? Do they endorse or repudiate the doctrine that it is right for every man doing business with a government to be bled by public officials?

CIVIC TAXATION

Mr. Townson of Toronto does not appear to have shed a flood of light upon the question of assessment in his address last evening. He made it clear that they are not satisfied in Toronto with their assessment system, and the chief merit he found in the St. John system was that it attempted to make everybody pay taxes on everything they had. He was of the opinion, however, that the tax on personal property in St. John was out of all proportion to the tax on real estate.

It may be observed that if the Toronto system is not satisfactory to Toronto it would probably not be satisfactory in St. John. One valuable outcome of last night's meeting was the decision to appoint a committee to consider the whole question of taxation from the standpoint of the retail merchant, and to co-operate with the board of trade in a general and thorough study of the whole subject. If the united business interests of St. John thoroughly study the question, and insist upon a revision of the assessment system their wishes will prevail. It goes without saying that so long as the citizens generally content themselves with growling about the taxes and making no effort to study the general question of taxation, or to secure an equitable system, nothing will be done. The present year should not only see the appointment of a commission by the city council, but should be marked also by a careful study of the whole subject by business men and their hearty co-operation to enable the commission to produce satisfactory results.

Hon. Mr. Murray made the amazing statement in the legislature yesterday that the portion of those patriotic potatoes purchased but not shipped across the Atlantic are being handled by brokers in Cuba. He adds that culls and affected stock were sold in St. John. The answer he gave to the inquiry makes it more evident that this whole matter of the patriotic potatoes should be thoroughly investigated.

It is rumored that the fund collected from the lumbermen, has paid back 50 per cent of the amount to the various contributors. He had been $20,000 and $30,000. The rumor says that an arrangement was made to pay the lumbermen 50 per cent down, and that they are to accept 40 per cent more at a later date as final payment. This leaves 10 per cent and all the interest in the hands of Mr. Teed, who also told the Royal Commission that he had reserved $1,000 for his own trouble. Mr. Teed appears to have come out of the affair very well financially, if this rumor should prove to be correct.

Guard the Tongue. You would not think of taking your neighbor's life or wounding him with any physical weapon. But you perhaps do not realize that when you say an evil thing about your neighbor you are wounding him more grievously than you could possibly wound him with gun or dagger. You may be killing his reputation, which may be a worse calamity to him than killing his body. It is strange, indeed, that the terrible habit of wrong-doing is so easy and so widespread. It is hard to understand the peculiar pleasure which many people seem to feel in saying unkind things about others. Bad as it is simply as a breach of good neighborliness and good citizenship, it is unspeakably bad from the standpoint of Christianity and the teachings of Christianity's founder.

Given Away. Young Van Winkle waited nervously in the drawing room for Julia to appear. He had been sitting there twiddling his thumbs for half an hour. Finally a step was heard in the hall, and he rose to his feet expectantly. But it was not Julia. It was her maid.

"Maud," said the impatient young man, "what keeps your mistress so long? Is she making up her mind whether she will see me or not?" "No, sir," answered the maid, with a wide smile. "It's her mind, with a's making up."

PRINCE OF WALES COURT-MARTIALED

Saved German Prisoner From Being Shot as Spy

LATER FOUND TO BE RIGHT

But British Discipline Demanded Reprimand for Prince—Severe Censure For His Royal Highness

London, March 31.—(Correspondence)—The Daily Telegraph publishes the following: The Prince of Wales recently saved a German prisoner taken at St. Eloi from being shot as a spy under circumstances that led to a court-martial inquiry to investigate the charge made by Major Deane against the prince, that of committing an act gravely violating military discipline.

The prince was sent with despatches to Major Deane, the officer commanding at a village near St. Eloi. On the prince's arrival he saw a German being led off to be shot as a spy. Asking the reason, the prince was told that the man had been found in the British lines wearing a British officer's overcoat and that he was trying to make his way back to the German lines when captured. No intention of spying. The prince spoke to the German in his own language, and learned that the man had become detached from a German patrol, and was simply endeavoring to regain his own lines when he was taken prisoner. He had taken the coat, he said, from a dead British officer, as he had lost his own, and had no intention of acting as a spy. The prince believed the man's story and asked the British lieutenant in charge of the firing squad to send the German to the local prisoners' camp and to have his case inquired into. The lieutenant declined to do this on the ground that his orders were to shoot the prisoner. The prince, however, persisted that the German should be sent to the prisoners' camp, and pointed out that there was every probability the man was not a spy.

The Experience of One Who Knows and Places Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills First

It is not difficult to secure a medicine that will effect movement of the bowels. To cure Constipation and the complications which arise from it is another matter. I suppose during my life I have used nearly all the best-known pills, as I have been subject to Constipation and digestive troubles. A friend recommended Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and I am honestly saying that of all the pills I have tried nothing has suited me better—no gripping—action always insured, and fine for the kidneys. This is how I have found them after a thorough test, and you may use this statement if you like."

GERMANY TO STOP SALE OF DISTILLED LIQUORS

"Schnapps" to be Unobtainable Until the War is Ended.

Berlin, April 15.—It is learned from a reliable source that the imperial government will soon issue a decree prohibiting the sale of distilled liquors in Germany. "Schnapps" the traditional drink of the German workman, is to be unobtainable until the war is ended. The decree which is to enforce this proposed sweeping measure is being worked out now. The order is not to be a temperance measure, but is made necessary to conserve the supply of alcohol. Fearing a possible shortage of potatoes, from which products of the spirits are distilled in Germany, the government proposes to make the new order "work both ways." No opposition is looked for against the order when it comes up for the sanction of the Reichstag at its next session.

TRIED TO LURE THIS BRITISH STEAMER TO HER DESTRUCTION

The Imperial Merchant Service Guild have received the following interesting report from a member serving in one of the fast cross-channel steamers, and they deem it desirable that publicity should be given to it as a warning to those commanding British merchant vessels:

"It is very pleasing to see that the British ships are holding their own against submarines. The Germans in charge of these craft must have the surprise of their lives when they see ships head for them at full speed. On last Friday night, whilst on a voyage from Southampton for St. Malo, and when about mid-channel we were slowly overhauling a steamer carrying full regulation lights, but a very powerful stern light made me suspicious. (I must mention we were only carrying side lights.) When about two miles distant, the steamer started calling us on Morse lamp; but we did not answer. After a short interval 'wait assistance' was sent out very slowly. The dots were long and the dashes very long; in fact just like a foreigner would signal.

"We switched off our lights and turned around to steam away from her. We noticed other steamers in the distance. If a ship was really in distress there would be rockets fired, blue lights

Cleaner Rugs IN LESS TIME

With Smallest Effort By The Torrington Way

Dirt hasn't much chance around Rugs and Carpet Squares where a TORRINGTON Model "K" Cleaner is used; the brush gathers in the surface dirt, and at the same time three strong sucking bellows take up the fine, introduced dust and dirt embedded in the nap.

The action quite equals that in a $30.00 to $60.00 Electric Vacuum Cleaner—at a fraction of the cost. There are no wires to connect, no bills for current; and a is easier to empty, with its forever tight nozzle that is instantly released. A big wire frame bag with an open throat empties clean at a tap.

The secret of the TORRINGTON'S success lies largely in the big, wide-opening bellows, so arranged that they never cramp (the cloth can't pinch or wear through). Then come its roller bearings and perfect steel driving mechanism, with a brush that fairly "blasts" in doing its work, and the result is a perfect high-grade cleaner.

CHILDREN'S ARMS NAILED TO WALL

Princess Patricia Sergeant Tells of Atrocities

TURNS ONLY WHAT HE SAW

Wounded Kicked in the Face—Old Woman and Children Used as Screen For Advance—No Quarter Given

Toronto, April 15.—"In Vermeille, a village we went into that had just been evacuated by the Germans, searching in some of the houses we came across children's arms nailed to the walls in the shape of a cross. Unless one of our officers is present we now take prisoners, as who could spare them after what we have seen?"

Sergeant Kenneth Watson, of the Princess Patricia's, wrote this in a letter from Splatt Hospital, Cardiff, just received by his brother, P. Watson, manager of the Watson Manufacturing Company, of Brantford. Other references to German atrocities contained in his letter, which reads in part:

"I can now write you decent letters, as I am now free from the censor.

"It will give you some idea of the trenches and the fighting. We go into the trenches at night, after a march of about seven miles over cobble stone roads, from our billets, going in the file we crawl over the ground. Star lights are sent up by the enemy continually, then we have remain perfectly still until they die out, and we go in. I have never been in a trench that had not have from one to three feet of water in it. We are in for forty-eight hours, sometimes ninety-six. It rains continually, sometimes turning to snow, with bitter winds. After you have been in a few hours your cup of misery is complete, you don't care what happens, after that a continuous rifle fire is kept up all night by the enemy. Desolation at Daybreak.

"Day breaks on a scene of desolation. The dead lie in thousands in front of us, unburied, all French killed in early December, they slowly rot, the water draining into the trenches, poisoning the water in which we stand, which accounts for the front line water life, as it really is, the latter characteristics are the same as the former, in however the shells have made thousands of holes, from a few feet to forty feet in diameter. These are full of water, and are very dangerous, as they are plastered with it. The food is smeared with it. We have to be continually cleaning our faces, and the shells start coming over; we crouch down in the water, as they burst all around us.

Peril for Future Farmer.

"Luckily the mud behind the trenches is semi-liquid, and many do not explode that will be left for the plowman, who, after the war is over, will have to plough the land, he will strike it with his ploughshare and will pay the penalty. There are two kinds of shells, one rather soft in its flight. This we call Weary Willie. The other we call the 'coal box', and is much more dangerous than the former. Rifle fire is, of course, continuous, and the shells are fired from a very short in length. In some places the German trenches are only thirty yards away, the shell fire becomes impossible to stand, hand grenades or hand bombs are used by both sides. These emit explosive and most poisonous gases, which makes every one deadly sick.

Miraculous Escapes.

"I seem to have been spared miraculously so far. Over and over again, men on each side of me have been killed. Once a bullet took my hat away. Another time I was examining a flask bullet struck it, knocking it into a hundred pieces. It saved my life, for it deflected the bullet, which otherwise would have gone through my mouth. The night I was carried out, the water on the surface in the trench had risen to my chest and I could stand on my feet no longer. For six hours I sat in the water, until it became dark enough so that I could be taken out on a stretcher. I am afraid 'luckily' I am not dead. He was in the charge of the snipers, and would be killed if captured. He was absolutely fearless, and if he had not come would have come through with honors.

Kicked Wounded in Face.

"The German atrocities are awful. I have seen them kicking our wounded in the face. It was the night of February 14th that the Middlesex were cut up, and I had carried a despatch to their colonel, and from where we stood you could see them gouging them in the face as they lay wounded on the ground. Once they attacked, using an old woman and children (Belgian prisoners) as a screen. There were no prisoners taken that day, and the woman and children were saved. Tommy Atkins a Wonder.

"The British soldier is wonderful in his stamina, endeavor and fighting ability; there is none like him. I only hope that the Canadians who have just gone to the front can emulate him. I can't call our regiment a Canadian one, as 90 per cent are ex-British officers and soldiers.

"Visitors are allowed in the hospital twice a week. Women swarm by the hundreds. I am swamped with oranges, apples, cakes, pies and everything else imaginable, but I am free from that complaint. Carried five pounds soda with me at the front and never used it once. Now do not send any more socks, as one cannot carry them."

TORTURED BY CONSTIPATION

"Fruit-a-lives" Cured Paralyzed Bowels and Digestion

St. Boniface de Shawinigan, Que., Feb. 2nd, 1914.

"It is a pleasure to me to inform you that after suffering from Chronic Constipation for 3 1/2 years, I have been cured by 'Fruit-a-lives'. While I was a student at Berthier College, I became so ill I was forced to leave the college. Severe pains across the intestines continually tortured me and, it came to a point when I could not sleep down at night, and my digestion became paralyzed. Some one advised me to take 'Fruit-a-lives' and at once I felt a great improvement. After I had taken four or five boxes, I realized that I was completely cured and what made me glad, also, was that they were acting gently, causing no pain whatever to the bowels. All those who suffer with Chronic Constipation should follow my example and take 'Fruit-a-lives' for they are the medicine that cures."

MAGLOIRE PAQUIN.

"Fruit-a-lives" are sold by all dealers at 50c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c, or sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa.

The house went into committee and took up further consideration of the bill relating to motor vehicles. The bill was amended by striking out the clause fixing the maximum speed, allowed at twenty miles an hour, and leaving the speed to the discretion of the driver who would be responsible for any accident arising from reckless driving. The bill was also amended to allow a car to be operated by a "bona fide member of the family or household" of the owner as well as the "wife, son or daughter of the registered owner."

The house went into committee, with Mr. Stewart (Northumberland) in the chair, and agreed to a bill incorporating Clair waterworks a company, with amendments.

It was agreed not to press amendment.

Hon. Mr. Baxter gave notice of motion for Monday due the appointment of a committee composed of Hon. Mr. Baxter, Hon. Mr. Murphy, Mr. Carter, Mr. Tilley, and Mr. Stobie (Northumberland) to revise the rules of the house and report at the present session.

The house adjourned at 6:45 p. m.

The Belgian Relief Committee of New York received a gift labeled prosaically "No. 78" sent by Mrs. William R. Smith of Augusta, Me. In the package were four pairs of wristlets and a slip of paper on which was written in a trembling hand: "Katie by a woman nearly 90 years of age." Mrs. Smith, whose 80th birthday will occur April 15, received a handsome engraved certificate of thanks from London W. Bates, vice chairman of the relief committee.

A. O. SKINNER PRESIDENT

RECENT DEATHS

Meriel Frances Blythe.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Magee, Mecklenburg street, will sympathize with them in the death of their youngest daughter, Meriel Frances, which took place at home yesterday. She was only fifteen years of age and was a bright disposition and was much liked by her fellow pupils at the High school. She had not been seriously ill long. The funeral will be held from the home tomorrow afternoon at 2:30.

David E. Raynes.

Many will learn with regret of the death of David E. Raynes, of Fairville, which occurred yesterday at the General Public Hospital after an illness of six weeks. He was an employe in the office of the City Engineer, and was one of the most popular men in the city. He was forty-nine years of age and leaves a wife and two sons. He was a member of the St. John's Episcopal church. The funeral will take place tomorrow.

Mrs. James A. Belyea.

The death of Amanda, widow of James A. Belyea, occurred at Public Landing yesterday. Mrs. Belyea, who was in her 85th year, is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Alfred Craft, of the West End, Mrs. Fred Hyland, of British Columbia, and Mrs. Samuel Aylt, at home. Also surviving are two brothers and two sisters: John Lyon, of Kingston, Alonzo Lyon, at home; Mrs. O. Craft, West End. The late Mrs. Craft was a member of the Episcopalian church. The funeral will take place tomorrow.

Mrs. D. A. Vaughan.

The death took place last evening at her residence, 219 Duke street, of Mrs. Deborah Anne Vaughan, wife of D. A. Vaughan, of the Acadia Box Factory, St. John. She was sixty-five years of age, and was born in Belleisle, daughter of the late David Hatfield of North End. She had lived for many years in St. Stephen and for a few years in Truro, N. S. Besides the husband there are left one son, C. J., of the Canadian Express Company, and one daughter.

RETAIL MERCHANTS CLOSE SESSION

Important Resolutions

The net result of the convention is that the retail merchants of the province have got down to the recognition of the fact that they have many interests in common and that they ought to stand together. They will then soon be able to teach the public the buyer, that the proper person to undertake merchandising is the trained man who knows what it is he is selling to them. The retailer is on the spot and can be called to account if the goods he delivers are not up to the standard and it is he who will have to suffer in the end for the sale of 'rotten stuff.' These words were spoken by E. M. Trower, of Toronto, Dominion secretary of the Retail Merchants' Association, at the close of the two-day convention yesterday.

That, too, seemed to be the feeling of all the delegates. The convention was looked upon as highly successful for a first gathering. Frederick was 'decided upon as the place for next year's gathering but the date was left to the executive.

The following officers of the local branch were elected: President, A. O. Skinner, St. John; first vice-president, Dr. E. O. Stevens, Moncton; treasurer, William Hawker, St. John; secretary, N. C. Cameron (re-elected). At the afternoon session resolutions were adopted relating to amendments to the Canadian retail act, adoption of daylight saving plans, unfair treatment of members by commission agents, and of Canadian rails at lower prices in United States, and discrimination by manufacturers in favor of catalogue houses.

The secretary, N. C. Cameron, submitted his first annual report reviewing the progress made since the first branch was organized in October last.

E. M. Trower, Dominion secretary, addressed a public meeting in the evening on the business tax under the Ontario system as it affects retailers. Referring to the St. John assessment law he said it was one of the best examples he had ever seen of an act intended to make everybody pay taxes on everything they have. He thought it was connected and well thought out and that it could be replaced only after careful study and long deliberation. He spoke bitterly of certain conditions in Toronto, saying that the Socialists and municipal ownership are ruining the city.

A. H. Wetmore, George Kierstead and Fred McCar took part in the discussion which followed.

On motion of T. J. McPherson, the appointment of a committee to study assessment matters and to co-operate with the Board of Trade in the matter was authorized and the city council was urged to appoint an assessment commission as provided for in the charter.

A vote of thanks was tendered to the speaker on the motion of H. E. Armstrong, seconded by F. W. Daniel.

An orange or an apple eaten before breakfast is said to be the best cure for dyspepsia, and it is certainly the best remedy for the multitude of ailments and troubles which come with the spring. The juice of oranges and lemons is invaluable in case of fever, while tomatoes, strawberries, currants and cherries are excellent remedies for some liver and gastric complaints. Figs, raspberries, strawberries, currants and cherries are all nutritious as well as cooling and purifying to the system.

WENT DOWN LIKE THE WHEAT FALLS

Many Germans Killed in Attack Near Albert

TREMENDOUS GUN FIRE

Kaiserites Showed Magnificent Courage as They Went to Death, Shoulder to Shoulder, Before Murderous and Accurate Fire

(Montreal Gazette)

North of France, April 12—The German attack near Albert, Saturday and Sunday, was undoubtedly intended as a counter-stroke to the French success in the Argonne and, which carried with it a menace to the great fortress of Metz.

The battle opened Saturday with the blowing up of some of the French trenches by German mines, more particularly in the wood of Thoyval, which is situated some four miles north of Albert. Toward nightfall several encounters with the bayonet took place in which the Germans left many dead on the field.

All through Saturday night, and particularly from 12:45 to 4 o'clock in the morning, the battle raged in earnest. The commanding was the most violent that had been experienced in this sector since the fighting at La Boisselle two months ago. So tremendous was the firing of guns that it merged into a continuous thunder. In this artillery duel the powerful French guns prevented the German reinforcements from pushing forward an assault.

As always the German attacking troops showed magnificent courage. Again and again, in shoulder-to-shoulder work the men were launched forward with their "hoochs" as they charged, sounding the roar of some ferocious beast of prey, but their cheering was soon drowned by the deafening rattle of the French rifles and machine-guns, which, favored by the clearness of the night, poured an accurate and devastating fire into their ranks.

"They fell," said one who took part in the affair, "like wheat before the sickle, but as one line of them went down another took its place, only to suffer the same fate. This massacre—for it was nothing less—went on for some hours. The ground in front of the French trenches at this moment is piled high with German dead and lying in thick swaths.

On Sunday morning this cannonade slackened off a little, only to become as violent as ever about 4 o'clock in the afternoon. At the moment of writing this artillery duel is diminishing in intensity. One can hardly imagine the French lines hereabouts being broken. Along yesterday's battlefield, for example, from Thierpval to Cappy—in all, six to seven miles—so great was the quantity of artillery in action, that if gun had been placed alongside gun, there would have been no space between them. It would have been one unbroken line of these modern weapons of destruction from end to end of the fighting line.

"What adds to the value of this German reverse is the fact that the French losses were comparatively slight.

YOU may imagine your present tea purchases as satisfactory, but unless you are using "SALADA", you are not getting the best for your money.

TO MEET COMPETITION OF THE PANAMA CANAL

Railroads Turn on Shippers Who Order Freight That Way—Boost Inland Centres

Washington, April 15—That transcontinental railroads propose to meet competition via the Panama Canal by making rates that will divert freight to points just east of Pacific coast terminals for distribution was made clear in hearings before International Commerce Commissioner Clark on the adjustment of rates in so-called back-haul territory.

Charles Donnelly, representing the Great Northern and other transcontinental roads with terminals at North Pacific coast points, served notice on the claim of the carriers.

"If the construction of the Panama Canal," he said, "has lowered rates to coast points to a degree that will make our Pacific coast terminals useless machinery so far as transcontinental traffic is concerned, we have the right to make rates that will send the freight to an intermediate point for distribution. If rates to Seattle prevent us from competing in the transcontinental trade we have a right to make a rate that will send that freight to Spokane for distribution in that competitive territory. And we propose to support that right before any court or commission."

Mr. Donnelly supported the railroad's proposal to cut the rates in back-haul territory by reducing the terminal rate which forms a part of the back-haul charge. Representatives of San Francisco, Tacoma, Portland, Seattle and other Oregon and Washington seaports, and Attorney Mann, for San Francisco, declared that the proposal would give to interior points approximately the same rates enjoyed by the seaport terminals and would overcome the natural advantage of water competition.

Sunday, May 16, will be celebrated as "Health Sunday" in Springfield, Ill. On that date the Illinois State Medical Society will be meeting in Springfield and have been asked the co-operation of the Ministerial Association. About 20 pulpits will be filled on the date by prominent in the medical profession.

GAVE COSTLY RING FOR BELGIAN RELIEF

Chicago Woman Deeply Moved by Appeal For Noddy—Surgon Emphases His Pockets

Chicago, April 14—Chicago society is agog over the unprecedented contribution at a meeting for the relief of Belgium held by Madame Despege, wife of the Surgeon-General of the French army, when a prominent woman living on the Lake Shore Drive, took a costly ring, richly set with diamonds and emeralds, from her finger and graciously offered it to the cause.

"The ring," she developed, was a wedding present and had graced her finger for some thirty years. But so moved was she by the appeal of Madame Despege, that she thought only of its value in helping to relieve the suffering of the Belgian people.

"This exceptional philanthropist was not the only giver. A noted surgeon went through every pocket, turning each one side out and handing over his last cent to the emsaries. It is the plan of the committee to place the ring on sale with some local jeweler.

The scene of the rich outpouring was the drawing room of Mrs. George W. Leland's home, where scores of men and women prominent in the city's business and social life gathered.

RETIREMENT OF CHIEF JUSTICE OF NOVA SCOTIA

(Amherst News) The retirement of Chief Justice Sir Charles Townsend from the bench on Saturday was of special interest to Amherst people, for Sir Charles was born in Amherst seventy-one years ago, and a very important part of his life was spent in his native town.

He was a son of the late Rev. Canon Townsend, rector of Christ Church, Amherst, where he was born on March 22, 1844. He was educated at King's College, Windsor, where he received his B. A. in 1872, and was called to the bar in 1876, practicing in Amherst. He was created a knight of the Order of St. Michael and St. George in 1881, and became a member of the law faculty of King's College in 1884.

He was appointed chief justice of Nova Scotia in March, 1907. His lordship on April 1, 1917, married Laura, fourth daughter of J. D. Kinney, who died in March, 1884, and secondly, Margaret, daughter of the late John MacFarlane, and niece of the late Hon. Securus MacFarlane and Wallace. He has three sons and two daughters. Sir Charles' mother was a daughter of the late Hon. Alexander Clewley, Master of the Rolls.

Sir Charles Townsend studied law in Amherst with the late Senator Dickey, who, in his day, was regarded as one of the ablest lawyers of the province, and who had a very large and lucrative practice. His practice in Amherst, where he, in early life, became a leader of the bar, was large and varied. Very soon after his appointment to the bench by his industry and attention to business and the soundness of his opinions he acquired the confidence and good-will of the bar of his province, and in respect of the higher courts before whom his decisions came under review. Throughout his career as chief justice, he was prompt in the delivery of judgments after cases had been heard.

NEWS OF SASKATCHEWAN Regina, April 15—The daylight saving plan has been inaugurated here again this year, and the citizens have taken to the new time much more readily than last year. Citizens are to be seen in large numbers taking advantage of the extra-hour of daylight in improving their home premises. Advice from other centres throughout the west would seem to indicate that the practice of saving one hour of daylight in the early morning is growing in popularity.

The Regina Board of Trade has passed a resolution calling upon the Saskatchewan government to take action to secure the standardization of the laws of the western provinces. At the present time there are many variations in laws affecting the conduct of inter-provincial trade. The Canadian Bar Association is also giving its aid to the move.

The proposed legislation for the restriction of the sale of liquor in Saskatchewan has been approved by the ministerial association and a resolution to that effect has been sent to the government. An interesting statement just prepared by the government shows that the area occupied here in Saskatchewan has increased from 2,838,484 acres in 1901 to 28,642,980 acres in 1911. In 1901 Saskatchewan was sixth among the provinces from point of occupied land, whereas in 1911 it had attained first place with more than 6,000,000 acres more than any other province in the dominion. From the standpoint of the value of the occupied land, Saskatchewan held sixth place in 1901, but had reached second place in 1911. The average value of occupied land in 1901 is given as $7.82 an acre, whereas in 1911 it was shown to be $21.10. These figures go to show the remarkable development

A Million Corns Went Last Month

Last month, a million corns were ended in this easy, simple way. And every month a million more go like them.

To each corn was applied a little Blue-jay plaster. In every case the corn pain ended there.

Then the was in the plaster—the B & B was—gently freed the corn. In 48 hours nearly every corn came out, without any pain or soreness. A few stubborn corns required another plaster.

That's the story of some seventy million corns ended by this invention. It will be the story of your corns in 48 hours if you treat them in this scientific way. Your friends will testify to that.

If you don't do this, in all probability, those corns will stay for years.

THE LORD MAYOR'S MOTTO

Sir Wm. Tholme, when Lord Mayor of London, said: "My motto for womanhood is, 'The better the cook, the happier the husband.'"

There is no nobly reason why wives should not, nowadays, perfect themselves in the gentle art of cooking. Instruction in the very best is open to those who accumulated experience of centuries is theirs to command and culinary helps such as have never been available before, are brought within the reach of the narrowest purse.

Take, for instance, the delicious H. P. Sauce, introduced only a short time ago from England. The different choice flavors of Oriental fruits and spices are perfectly blended in this new and delightful sauce. It is a most useful and perfect H. P. Sauce at her elbow, will make a certain success of the little stews, ragouts, and hashes which are so much of a puzzle and trial to the inexperienced cook.

BRITISH LEADER REPORTS ON NEUVE CHAPELLE

Tribute to Canadians and Criticism For Some of The Army Officers

London, April 14, 1915 p. m.—The British parliament reassembled today and simultaneously, Field Marshal Sir John French's report on the British victory at Neuve Chapelle, about which there have been many rumors, was published.

Field Marshal French's report goes into the details of the operations of the British expeditionary force during February and March, and while he pays the highest tribute to General Sir Douglas Haig, who was directly in charge of the operations at Neuve Chapelle, and refers to the battle as a "success and victory," he has some criticism for other officers, although he does not mention them by name.

He refers, for example, to a "considerable delay after the capture of the Neuve Chapelle position," and says: "I am of the opinion that this delay would not have occurred had the clearly expressed order of the general commanding the first army been more carefully observed."

He also says: "The difficulties enumerated might have been overcome earlier in the day, if the general officer commanding the fourth corps had been able to bring his reserve brigades more speedily into action."

On the whole, Field Marshal French's report seems to indicate that the British troops engaged succeeded in carrying all the ground it was intended to take at the time, but that, with a more effective artillery fire in some sectors, and better handling of the reserves, even more might have been gained, with less loss.

The British losses, which total more than 12,000, are very close to the estimates recently published; so they create no surprise. The German losses, according to this report, numbered several thousand dead, 15,000 wounded and many prisoners.

The commander-in-chief repeats his tributes to the services of the aviators and the Red Cross workers, and gives a very good word for the Canadians part of whom, Princess Patricia's Light Infantry, took a considerable hand in the fighting, while the rest of the contingent held important trenches during the battle.

London, April 14—In a glowing tribute to the Canadian forces the commander-in-chief says: "All the soldiers of Canada serving in the army under my command have, so far, splendidly upheld the traditions of the empire, and will, I feel sure, prove to be a great source of additional strength to the forces of this country."

CANAL BOAT JOFFRE'S DREAM

The barge will be towed from canal to canal and General Joffre will spend his time fishing and observing the landscape with Mme. Joffre. The whereabouts of the barge will be kept a secret.

IN PARLIAMENT

Sir Wilfrid Invents Conservatives to Press Charges of Liberal Wrong-Doing

Ottawa, April 14—Liberalism's determined efforts to unsear wrong-doing and press for clearer and more business-like standards in public life, threatens to be even more far-reaching than the startling revelations at the public accounts committee.

Tonight, Hon. Dr. Roche, minister of the interior, speaking for the government, launched two charges against Hon. Frank Oliver, his Liberal predecessor in that department. He intimated further that a careful reading of departmental budgets during the whole of the Liberal regime, was being undertaken with the purpose of meeting the present governmental revelations with misdoings in the past.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier rose immediately at the conclusion of Hon. Dr. Roche's comments. Having alluded briefly and sympathetically to the introduction of his own name in the Ferguson reports, and stating that he was ready at any time to defend the good name which I believe I have been able to preserve through a pretty long public life, the Liberal leader met the ministerial threat with a direct and urgent challenge.

"I," said he, "there has been such wrong in the conduct or record of the government, over which I was entrusted to preside, I do not know it. I urge, however, that the government enter upon its task with all the power it possesses; that it make diligent search over all the years; that it prosecute any and all cases of wrong-doing in the past; that it compel restitution to the public treasury, affecting the public purse, that it deal with all offenders as they may deserve, and that it proceed with its task in the spirit of strict justice and fair play."

Hon. Frank Oliver met the scathing report of Commissioner T. R. Ferguson of Winnipeg, on western land deals under the Liberal administration, with distressed criticism. The ex-minister pointed out that the Ferguson report was only two years in his search for scandal, and has drawn from the public treasury nearly $200,000, or at the rate of $80 per day. The best he has done was to review a number of cases which the Conservatives, when in opposition, were listed in parliament five or six years ago, and to bring down in the dying hour of the session, several thousand estimates had been passed, several thousand pages of evidence and partisan findings which did not disclose a single charge of graft against any member of the former administration.

Hon. Dr. Pugsley said the government's sole reason for launching the charges at all—had already been the ghostly and shaming disclosure affecting Conservative members of parliament, affecting the government itself, concerning such war supplies as boots, binoculars, bandages and bad horses. It was a low plan to take and not in accord with what the Canadian people has a right to expect. The government's way of meeting the terrible exposures of wholesale sleazebagging in the furnishing of the equipment for Canada's soldiers had been to meet the charges with a wall of silence, to meet specific wrong doing in the immediate present by ancient history, or, indeed, the alleged ancient romance.

Reviewing the alleged misdoings under the late government, Mr. Pugsley pointed out that most of the cases drawn to the attention of the minister and over-looked by the government, were those of Mr. Oliver, but to his predecessor, Hon. (now Sir) Clifford Sifton. Were these charges referred to in these columns, against Sir Clifford Sifton, the man the Conservatives had followed in 1911, the man whom they had repeatedly supported, the government that the guilty shall not go unpunished.

The amendments offered to the Dominion Elections Act by the minister of justice are in every way desirable, and greatly needed. When this legislation is secured election trials will be greatly hastened. Most important is the amendment which provides that a protest once started must go through the courts even though the petitioner withdraws from the case. It is hoped that this will prevent the creditable saw-offs that have been in the past so frequently disgraced our political life.

THE WEEK IN PARLIAMENT

(Maritime Baptist) To all lovers of their country the progress of events at Ottawa is not an edifying spectacle. The batteries were—Senators, Moore and Williams; Pirates, McDonald and Powers.

Protests Gains.

Chicago, April 13.—Manager Schally of the Buffalo Federal team wired a protest today against the Brooklyn victory of Saturday on the ground that Catcher Land, after surrendering his place on the base lines to another runner, resumed his part in the game illegally. Gilmore said he would await a letter from Schally before taking action on the protest.

Sunday Baseball.

It now appears improbable that any bill legalizing Sunday baseball will be passed by the legislature of New York this year. The rules committee made its final report on all measures in the committee that had the McElroy Sunday Baseball Bill, and it was not reported out. It would have permitted free games and those to which admission was charged.

AQUATIC

Canadian Henley

Toronto, April 13.—Special efforts will be put forth by the Canadian Association of Amateur Oarsmen this year to have a large number of United States competitors at the Canadian Henley at St. Catharines. The dates for the National regatta were also fixed for Friday and Saturday, Aug. 6th and 7th. The United States National regatta will be held the following week at Springfield, Mass.

The Duluth Boat Club

The Duluth Boat Club will be asked for an entry in the eights. The Zenith City crew will be en route to Springfield at the time of the Canadian Henley and will be asked to stop at St. Catharines. Various rowing clubs in St. Paul, Philadelphia, Boston, Baltimore, New York and elsewhere will be commencing as many representatives as are possible. In spite of the fact that scores of Canadian oarsmen are either at the front or preparing to go, the dominion will be largely represented in the United States National Regatta as usual.

In Ritchie Guilty?

San Francisco, Cal., April 13.—Willie Ritchie, former lightweight boxing champion, is suffering from an inflated head. He has a mean, nasty disposition; he dances like a novice and is money-mad.

This, at least, is the opinion of Miss Josephine Steffen, Willie's sister, and until two weeks ago, his dancing partner on the eastern stage.

And that is not the only reason Miss Steffen had for throwing up her job and returning to San Francisco. She charges that though Willie got $1,200 a week, there was no payday for her; that he held her so tight during their dances that he nearly cracked her ribs, and that he finally brought about a climax when he struck her in the face during an argument in a dressing room.

"Willie was all right until he got to New York and was given a popular decision over Freddie Welch," declared Miss Steffen. "Then he became so different. Success seemed to go to his head. He changed the speech he made as a part of our act and talked about nothing but his burning desire to bring the lightweight championship back to the glorious land of the free."

WRESTLING

Taylor and Cutler

Saskatoon, Sask., April 12.—Jack Taylor, champion of Canada, and Charlie Cutler, claimant of the world's title, who have met twice previously this season, once in September in Saskatoon, when they wrestled 90 minutes without a fall, and once in Winnipeg in November, when Taylor was on a foul, have been re-matched for a title bout to be held in Saskatoon on May 24.

Mrs. Thomas Bridges, Gorrie, Ont., writes: "I was so bad with a cold I gave up work, and I wasted four weeks being unable to do anything. I thought the cold was turning to bronchitis, so I changed my medicine to Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. I used three bottles, and they completely cured me, and I am as strong as ever. I highly recommend it to all sufferers."

MORNING NOTES OF THE WAR

A large Turkish force attacked British possessions at Kurma, Ahwas and Siaba about March 12, and information has just reached London concerning definite results. It says that the enemy was badly defeated.

A Zeppelin raid was made last night on English towns with bombs dropped at Choppingham, Wetherby and Seaburn. For the most part little damage was done, as the bombs fell in the outskirts of the towns.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES

Canada's new war loan of $25,000,000 is already over subscribed in the London market.

The general store of Clifford Atkinson, at Kouchibouguac, N. B., was destroyed by fire yesterday. The loss is between $500 and $1,000.

The Albert county poisoning case against John Downing is not expected to reach the jury before Saturday next. Thirteen persons were killed instantly, and twenty-seven others injured when a street car in Detroit collided with a freight train yesterday.

Baron Wiborne, new viceroy of Ireland, arrived in Dublin yesterday and was given a hearty welcome.

Mayor Don M. Roberts of Terre Haute was yesterday sentenced to six years' imprisonment on a charge of connecting him with a election conspiracy.

DRINK MORE WATER

IF KIDNEYS BOTHER

Backache or Bladder Trouble

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy, the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's noxious waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcleaning kidney trouble while it is, only trouble.

Bank Manager Says Everything Possible Should be Done to Encourage Boy Scout Movement—Every Boy Should Enrol

(Montreal Financial Times)

C. W. Rowley, manager of the Bank of Commerce at Winnipeg in a recent newspaper interview, declared that everything possible should be done to encourage the Boy Scout Movement in Canada. It is gratifying to know that a man of Mr. Rowley's influence and capabilities is espousing such a good cause. There is no doubt that our boys should be trained in the field, and their manly qualities cultivated. We all hope, for brown and manhood as at present exists will never arise again; but there is still a higher and more noble function for the rising generation to be fulfilled in due course and no expense or effort should be spared to bring the boys—all the boys—under the worthy fresh-air discipline of the Scout Master. A certain apathy has been noted since the novelty of the earlier movement has somewhat worn off. The "movement" has not that spontaneous encouragement expected of the average father, despite the distinguished sponsorship of the Duke of Connaught. It is true that the Boy Scout association of Canada is more than physical enough. It should be growing like a house afire under the stimulus of the present patriotic fervor. Every boy in Canada, rich or poor, should have a scout uniform, and when he grows to maturity he will have a better appreciation of the niceties of life—those little things which really constitute the gentleman. Even the boy who sits behind his father's chauffeur would be improved by a course of Boy Scout training. And the improvement would be more than physical

"Does your husband never lie to you?"

GILBERT'S GROCERY

GERMAN GETS INTO HANDS OF POLICE

Allowed His Tongue and His Curiosity to Get Away With His Wisdom

As a result of curiosity a German who ventured into the police court this morning to find out what would be the fate of two Austrian companions, is now in the toils of the police. He was standing outside the rail when he was politely asked to step inside. He seemed to realize that he had stepped into a trap, but as there was no alternative he complied. He was locked up.

Last night, in the vicinity of the Union station, it is said, he made a remark to two Germans who would treat the Englishmen when they came to this country. He attracted considerable attention in similar remarks and when a patrolman happened along he seized with the crowd and got away. He was recognized in the court room this morning. It is not likely that he will be given another opportunity to air his views until the war is over.

POLICE COURT

Owing to this being city court day all the police cases which came before Magistrate Ritchie this morning were set aside until either tomorrow or Saturday, with the exception of those two men arrested on drunkenness charges, who were fined $8 and 20 months.

James Peck, arrested on charge of assaulting a disorderly house in North street, pleaded guilty and was remanded.

Two Austrians taken into custody for creating a disturbance in Mill street, were sent back to jail.

Marcus Paddelkaris was remanded on a charge of chasing Costes Venetouris with a knife and threatening to do him bodily harm.

John Shaw, charged with stealing a pair of ladies shoes from a house in King Square, also was remanded.

PORKERS BRING IN $130.82 FOR FUND

Ten Young Pigs, Gift of J. M. Burden, Fattened by Col. Armstrong's Men and Sold

A gift of $130.82 to the Patriotic Fund, acknowledged by Secretary-Treasurer C. B. Allan, is the outcome of the unique contribution of J. M. Burden, of Lone Water farm, Westfield, some time ago sent to the care of Col. B. R. Armstrong, at Partridge Island, ten young pigs, on condition that his artillerymen fatten them and have them sold, and the proceeds given to the fund. The fattening was well accomplished, and then Kane & McDonald, without charge, undertook the rest. They looked after the selling, and as a result handed Mr. Allan $130.82 today.

Mr. Allan also acknowledges receipt of $10 from Stanley G. Olive.

APRIL BRIDES

Godsoe-Thorne

A pretty wedding ceremony was performed last evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Elias S. Thorne, 40 Handing street, Fairville, when their daughter, Miss Hattie E. Thorne became the bride of Clarence Godsoe, Rev. Rev. R. Hayward officiating. The wedding ceremony was performed in the presence of a gathering of friends. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Carl B. Cunningham, cousin of the bride. The bride was becomingly attired in pale blue duchesse satin trimmed with rosebuds and shawl lace.

After the ceremony an enjoyable supper was served at which about sixty invited guests were present. Many handsome remembrances were received, including checks from the bride's father and uncle. Mr. and Mrs. Godsoe will make their home at 40 Handing street, Fairville.

Calvin-Hayward

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's father, F. B. Hayward, 44 Garden street, when his daughter, Leota A., was united in marriage to A. Bruce Calvin, of Grand Bay, on Wednesday afternoon, April 11. The bride looked charming in a dainty dress of point lace over white silk, as she embraced the drawing room leaning on her father's arm, while Miss Gertrude McHarg played the wedding march. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. W. Thompson in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends of the bride and groom. The popularity of the bride was evidenced by the large number of beautiful and useful presents received. Mr. and Mrs. Calvin left on the evening train for a short wedding trip before taking up their residence at Grand Bay.

TOMORROW

Judgment in the case regarding alleged violations of the Lord's Day Alliance Act was to have been given by Magistrate Ritchie in the police court this morning, but owing to the absence of J. G. Spearlakes, one of the defendants, from the city, he did not do so. He will give judgment on Friday morning.

DeB. CARRITTE DEAD; CITY IS SHOCKED BY NEWS

Prominent Citizen Ill Only a Few Days With Pneumonia—Passed Away Early This Morning

News of the death of one of St. John's best known business men, deBlavier Carritte, gave a shock to many friends this morning. He had been ill only about a week at his residence, 76 Colburn street, where death occurred about 11 a. m. today. Mr. Carritte was a prominent citizen, carrying on business here for many years and meeting with success in his activities. He was highly esteemed by social and business acquaintances, and held in general respect. Much sympathy will be felt for his wife, who has only recently been sadly bereaved by death in her family circle, as well as for the other members of the family.

Besides his wife, who was formerly Miss Mary E. Robinson, daughter of the late James and Maria Robinson, of this city, to whom he was married in 1888, Mr. Carritte is survived by one son, Roy, three brothers and two sisters. The brothers are Clarence P. and Douglas P. in New York, and John Primrose in Detroit, and the sisters are Mrs. John T. Reid of Brookline, Mass., and Mrs. S. E. Gram of New York. The funeral arrangements have not yet been completed.

Mr. Carritte was a native of Nova Scotia, having been born in Amherst, on March 14, 1866, a son of Thomas W. and Susanna J. Carritte. His early education was received in St. John, to which city his family removed in 1870. In the service of Robert Robertson & Son he gained his first industrial experience. This firm was at the time the largest ship chandlers and outfitters in the city. For three years he remained with that firm, after which he went to New York, and was engaged there for some five years in the hat manufacturing business, and later conducting business in the metropolis as a dealer in naval stores, a branch of which he established in St. John.

In 1888 Mr. Carritte organized the Provincial Chemical Fertiliser Co., of which he has been president, and the business developed into one of the most successful and prosperous in eastern Canada. In 1898 he established the Welcome Soap Co., and promoted a branch in St. John's, Newfoundland, some two years later. In 1899 the Carritte Paterson Manufacturing Co., of Halifax, was founded by him and he became president with this company, meeting with marked success. He also did business in his own name. These varied activities showed Mr. Carritte to be of an enterprising nature, taking advantage of business opportunities, while all who had dealings with him know that he was of upright character, fair and just in his relations and giving confidence to those with whom he dealt. His loss will be keenly felt.

Mr. Carritte was a member of the Independent Order of Foresters and of St. George's Society. The funeral will be held on Saturday at 2:30 p. m. from his late home in Colburn street.

THEY WANT TO GET AWAY

Army Service Corps Sergeant Pat H. Ino Sang

Reference was made a few days ago in the Times to the eagerness with which the call of Lord Kitchener for more men was received by the volunteers in St. John. For some months they have been anxiously listening for the message which will mean their going across to take their part in the empire's struggle, and now their anxiety has given way to expectancy, and the arrival of every big ocean liner in port causes fluttering of hope within them.

The same spirit is manifest in all the units which have been in training for any length of time. The boys of No. 5 Co. C. A. S. C. are restless at their continued stay here, and have been urging their views to the tune of "Hurry, hurry, let the old flag fall" in a lament penned by Sergt. J. C. Bond of that unit, which runs as follows:

We've been stationed here since last October.

We've marched through the city every day.

Now we think we ought to cross the ocean.

To try and earn our dollar ten a day.

It's a shame, we think, to take the money.

Even soldiers seem to have a heart.

All we want or ask of General Sammie is to put us on the boat and let us start.

Chorus

We won't leave St. John till fall.

If in the thought in the minds of all.

We like to be her, but then we fear

We'll just reach France in time to cheer.

Oh powder we'll not smell at all.

If in St. John we stay till fall.

So give us a chance; send us to France;

We'll never kill the Germans here.

BRITISH CONSUL DOES NOT KNOW ABOUT IT

New York, April 12.—Sir Courtenay W. Bennett, British consul general here, declares that the consulate has no knowledge of requests for workmen to be sent from this country to Great Britain, to take the places of those who are at the front.
