17-Year-Old Girl Convicted of Manslaughter In Slaying Man She Refused To Marry

NEW YORK, June 18—Convicted of first degree manslaughter by a jury of fathers, Dorothy Perkins, 17-year-old bobbed blonde, who worked for a newspaper as an advertising clerk, was in jail today awaiting sentence. At a convivial Valentine party in her Greenwich Village home during a scuffle with her father over a pistol, she shot Thomas Templeton, a young bachelor, whom she had refused to marry. It was the state's contention that she was trying to shoot her father, who objected to her relations with Mickey Connors, a forty-year-old truck driver, now in jail for wife beating. The father wanted her to marry Templeton. When the jury returned its verdict, after deliberations of two hours, during which some jurors argued for a first degree murder conviction, the defendant fainted. She was led from the courtroom sobbing for her mother. The jury refused to recommend mercy. Sentence will be imposed Monday. The maximum penalty for first degree manslaughter is imprisonment for 10 to 20 years. The minimum is within the discretion of the court.

THIRTY INJURED IN ELEVATED CRASH

Train Collides With Another Standing Still—Thousand People in Panic.

NEW YORK, June 18—Thirty persons were injured, but none were killed, when two elevated trains of Jerome avenue line crashed near the Yankee stadium last night. The first train had been halted in a block signal and was struck in the rear by a train whose motorman apparently failed to see the signal. The rear car of the first train was telescoped and two other cars were derailed. Both trains were jammed with a rush hour crowd estimated at about 1,000 persons and panic followed close upon the collision. Every window in both trains was splintered by the crash and flying glass was said to be the cause of many of the injuries. Passengers were thrown from their seats and many were trampled in the rush for exits.

MOTORMAN JAILED

The stopping of a motorman to pick up a glove, was held responsible for the accident. Morris J. Ryan, motorman, told District Attorney McGeehan that he dropped his glove and stooped to pick it up. Consequently, he said, he had his eyes off a train that had halted ahead of his own. He was arrested on a charge of criminal negligence.

Stevens, Vancouver, Minister of Trade and Commerce in the Meighen government, at the annual picnic of Ward Four, Toronto, Conservative Association at Queenston Heights yesterday.

At present in Canada, continued Mr. Stevens, there were three outstanding problems, facing the country. They were unemployment, transportation and debt or taxation. As things now stood Canada was drifting in an alarming way. The country's very social, economic and political life was threatened, and its great natural resources were not being developed in the interests of Canadians, but, on the contrary, were being exploited by others. The railways

HON. H. H. STEVENS. were not receiving nearly sufficient tonnage, and the burden of taxation was increasing at an alarming rate.

GREAT BRITAIN SPECULATES AS TO APPOINTMENT

High Qualifications Are Necessary For Post

BYNG'S POSITION

Reasons For His Retirement Considered to Have No Political Aspect

By HERBERT BAILEY. British United Press.

LONDON, June 18—Who will be the next Governor-General of Canada? This is the question that is beginning to excite official and social circles here. Some time must pass before any decision is made, inasmuch as Lord Byng's term does not expire for another 14 months and because protracted consultations will have to take place between the home and the Dominion governments and the King. Officials here have already formed definite views as to the qualifications necessary for the important and responsible post.

PRINCE HENRY NAMED

The name of Prince Henry is again being mentioned and it is noteworthy that he alone of all the Princes will be present with his august father when the latter opens the new Canada building on Monday, June 20, while his interest in all things Canadian has been patent for some time past.

MAY BE MONEY

No significance is attached here to Lord Byng's declining to accept another term as Governor-General of Canada after his five years of office expires next summer. The grounds of refusal are believed to be purely personal and the question of finance may enter into the situation.

Lord Byng is not a rich man, and it is known that he has often to dip in his own pocket to defray the expenses of his office. The Colonial Office points out that there are no political reasons affecting his decision, and it is also evident that having been once Governor-General of the Dominion of Canada he cannot accept a post in any small part of the Empire, while the major posts are all filled.

HARBOR BRIDGE TALKED AGAIN AT CITY HALL

Breeze Over Award of Ferry Work Marks Committee Meeting

LOWEST BIDDER DID NOT GET CONTRACT

Avenue Paving Discussed Once More—Overhead Crossings Get Notice

Criticism of the action of the Commissioner of Harbors and Ferries in not awarding the contract for the tail shaft of the ferry steamer Ludlow to the lowest bidder was voiced this morning at a committee meeting by Mayor Potts.

Commissiooner Bullock reported that the tender of the Saint John Iron Works of $270 for the tail shaft of the ferry steamer Ludlow had been accepted.

Commissiooner Bullock said the reason the tender had been given to the Saint John Iron Works was because they promised delivery in four days and the other tenders specified delivery in two weeks.

His Worship said he did not think the service would have suffered by waiting.

Commissiooner Frink asked what would have happened had all specified two weeks delivery, and Commissiooner Bullock said the award would have gone to the lowest tenderer.

Commissiooner Harding said he felt the commissiooner had been justified in accepting the bid.

Mayor Potts—"Isn't this a terrible state of affairs?"

Commissiooner Harding—"It is. We ought to have a harbor bridge, for the ferries both are going to decay."

Mayor Potts—"Mr. E. Scully ran an election on this issue 15 years ago and since that time has filled many offices, but seems to have forgotten the bridge. Why doesn't he have me imposed if the contractor does not deliver the shaft in four days?"

Commissiooner Bullock—"There is no penalty but I expect delivery tomorrow."

Mayor Potts—"If it is not delivered in four days I for one will not vote to pay the bill."

Commissiooner Harding asked the views of the council on the raising of the ambulance fees. The fee now was

Assessment Filed at City Hall; Tax Discount Date Fixed Soon

E. M. Olive, chairman of the Board of Assessors, reported to the Mayor this morning that the assessment for 1925 had been filed with the common clerk and the council will at its next meeting fix the discount date for the year. His Worship said the date should be as early as possible as it would be a great deal to carry an overdraft in the bank. The overdraft this year was not so heavy as it was at the same date last year.

The total assessment is $1,756,105.87, and is collected from the following sources:

Real Estate, $947,804.83; personal, $220,966.45; income, $483,229.70; special, $64,607.69; banks, $22,456.88; super tax, $107,411.30.

The Board of Assessors announced this morning that no claim for adjustment would be considered by them on this year's taxes unless there had been filed with them the sworn statement required by the law.

Mayor Potts said he questioned if it were the intention of the city to make the service pay and he felt there should not be any charge made.

Commissiooner Harding said he would look into the matter further.

DOUGLAS AVENUE

Mayor Potts asked Commissiooner Frink what he proposed to do about Douglas avenue paving.

The commissiooner replied it was his intention to carry out the order of the council as soon as he could.

Commissiooner Harding asked why not build the overhead bridge now.

Commissiooner Frink said it was felt in the interest of economy that the bridge should not be built at present.

Mayor Potts thought if the overhead bridge was constructed the cost should be borne by the C. P. R. and the Power Company, who were paying $4,500 a year to guard the crossing. In his estimation an overhead was needed much more at Mill street.

Commissiooner Frink said he thought the most dangerous spot in the city was the Gilbert's Lane crossing.

Commissiooner Wigmore said he had always been opposed to the city paying any part of the cost of the overhead bridge, and he felt the Provincial Government should pay a part of the cost of making the Chesley street approach.

He understood the city would have to finance the work and then recover from the C. P. R. and Power Company their share.

His Worship said he did not think the service would have suffered by waiting.

Commissiooner Frink asked what would have happened had all specified two weeks delivery, and Commissiooner Bullock said the award would have gone to the lowest tenderer.

Commissiooner Harding said he felt the commissiooner had been justified in accepting the bid.

Mayor Potts—"Isn't this a terrible state of affairs?"

Commissiooner Harding—"It is. We ought to have a harbor bridge, for the ferries both are going to decay."

HARBOR WORK HERE DEPENDS ON RAILWAYS

Success of Negotiations With C. P. R. and C. N. R. to Effect Harbor Spending

$750,000 AVAILABLE FOR IMPROVEMENTS

Courtenay Bay Dredging and New West Side Pier in Prospect

Special to The Times-Star.

OTTAWA, June 18.—Commodore the $800,000 combined in the main estimates this year and the $250,000 in the supplementary estimates tabled in the House yesterday, there is a total vote of $750,000 for improvements to Saint John harbor this year.

Several phases of that harbor situation are being considered, and when Hon. Dr. James H. King, Minister of Public Works, deals with the $250,000 vote in the House he will make a comprehensive statement as to the plans.

RAILWAY PARLEY

Most of the work involved in the $250,000 vote is to be determined by the success resulting from present negotiations between the Federal government and the Canadian Pacific and Canadian National Railways.

View to co-operation in the provision and utilization of water front facilities both of West Saint John and on the east side. If that co-operation can be secured it is understood that the government will assign considerable of the money to dredging in Courtenay Bay. It will also pay attention to another pier which is being used when proper protection is afforded.

It is pointed out by government officials that if the two companies are induced to work together on this general plan of providing larger port facilities at Saint John important economic can be effected in the harbor.

PRESBYTERIANS DECLINE ANY CO-OPERATION

Confidence Shattered, Declares Moderator of Continuing Church at Toronto

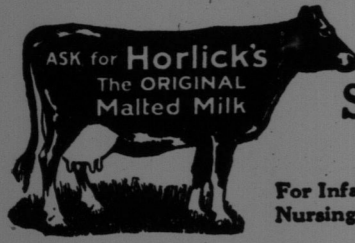

LOYALTY MESSAGE TO KING APPROVED

Wesleyan, Published at Sackville, to Remain Official Organ in N. B.

TORONTO, June 17—Declaring that the wrongs from which the continuing Presbyterian church is suffering are still in process, with thousands of its members "dispossessed and homeless" in the matter of a place to worship, Rev. Dr. E. Scott, of Montreal, Moderator of the General Assembly of the Continuing Church, stated in an interview with R. E. Knowles, journalist and former Presbyterian minister, that the confidence of the Presbyterians was shattered, and that without such confidence there could be no real co-operation with the United Church.

Dr. Scott made these observations in relation to his reluctance as moderator of the assembly yesterday to accept the motion of Rev. Dr. Johnson, of Calgary, for co-operation with other Christian churches, particularly with the United Church. Dr. Scott suggested that the "offending party" must first "turn and repent" and added that "forgiveness is one thing," and "trust and confidence" another.

LOYALTY MESSAGE O' K'D—The General Council of the United Church of Canada this afternoon approved of messages to be sent to His Majesty the King and His Excellency the Governor-General, declar-

OUR POLICY: We believe that the ultimate success of a SHOE STORE depends upon the confidence of the public in receiving good value and good service. One of the first principles involved in a progressive business is that the advertiser must have faith in trustworthiness of his goods, advertise them just as they are and exactly as the purchaser will find them. Only honest advertising with honest goods back of it will create permanent trade. This store believes in its advertising, first, because it believes in its shoes. Second, because it considers it a duty to extend courtesy to a customer. Third, because no transaction is considered closed until the customer has tried and tested the value and not found it wanting. The confidence of the public is of more importance here than the simple exchange of money for shoes.

SAINT JOHN, N. B., JUNE 18, 1925.

HON. MR. FIELDING.

Public opinion throughout Canada will give approval to the plan by which a substantial annuity is to be provided for Hon. W. S. Fielding, whose health forbids further active participation in parliamentary work.

trallans," it says, "not without reason, will look upon the visit as confirming a sort of unofficial alliance against the yellow races in Asia."

It proceeds to speculate as to the effect upon Japan, saying that that country possesses a crop of jingoes as numerous and offensive as the like crop in the United States, and that they are certain to link up the South Pacific situation with the American immigration law and the California disturbance over land ownership by Japanese.

GETTING TOGETHER.

That something more than sentiment is required in order that Canadian unity and co-operation may be increased and existing conditions bettered, is the view expressed by the Toronto Globe in the course of an article on Canadian conditions.

A PROTEST.

An American fleet of fifty-three war vessels, including eleven modern battle-ships, is to start on July 1 for a friendly visit to Australia and New Zealand.

The Monetary Times advocates a compromise in the matter of tariff, saying that free traders on the one hand and the high protectionists on the other must come to see that moderate views must prevail.

Comparative quiet reigns in the Cape Breton area, but unfortunately as yet there is no substantial evidence of progress toward the one essential—agreement to begin work.

The date for the provincial election is not yet announced, but it probably will be set immediately after the result of the Nova Scotia contest on June 25.

on June 24 at Washington, and with that recorded and the Nova Scotia verdict known, a few weeks will doubtless find New Brunswick electors at the polls.

Odds and Ends

"You never know what you'll find among the odds and ends." From "Notes by a Wayfarer."

The Walker

The walker has no axe to grind; he sniffs the air for new adventure; he lingers in old scenes; he gleams in old fields.

He drives no sharp bargains with Nature, he reads no sermons in stones, he reads no books in running brooks.

Answers (The Sailor).

The following bright answers to questions were given at a recent school examination:

What other minerals exist in England besides coal and iron? A. Lemon-ade and ginger-beer.

What did Wolfe do at Quebec? A. The wicked beast made war on Little Red Riding Hood.

St. Andrew is the patron saint of Scotland; the patron saint of England is the Union Jack.

What is "below par"? A. The eldest son.

The Colossus of Rhodes was a great explorer; he discovered land in South Africa.

Joan of Arc was a French peasant named Maid of Orleans for her bravery and patriotism.

A fable is what you get in a room full of people when all the windows and doors are shut.

An Irish bull is a male cow.

People in Iceland are called Equinoxes.

Queen Elizabeth was called the Virgin Queen because she knew Latin.

Evolution is what Darwin did; Revolution is a form of Government abroad, and Devolution is something to do with Satan.

The Land of Liberty (London Daily News).

It may have been ill-advised of Miss Jewell Barker (of Louisiana) to wear white cycling knickers if her neighbors were offended at them; but that the outraged neighbors should proceed to seize and thrash Miss Barker's unfortunate father seems a thing so removed from justice, from logic and common sense that the mere European imagination boggles at it.

There is nothing strange to our experience in the apparition of young ladies in cycling knickers. We may not approve them; but we do not for that reason proceed to assault their fathers. We think it is the young lady's own affairs, a matter of taste and not of law or of morals.

All such cases go to convince the European sceptic that he will flee from the outworn tyrannies of Europe only to fall, in the land of the free, into a bondage of which the little finger is thicker than his old tyrant's loins.

CHINESE ASK CLOSURE.

LONDON, June 17.—A Renter despatch from Shanghai says a committee of students, merchants, teachers and laborers have formed an emergency organization which has sent circulars to all parts of the country requesting the closing of shops, factories, schools and government departments as an expression of opposition to imperialism.

Other curious items of bird life have been reported recently. A pair of robins found a way into a box room in which was a Noah's Ark. Going in two by two they evicted Noah and his animals, scattering them over the room, and brought up a happy family of their own.

Another case was that of a pair of wrens which built in the undercarriage of a farm wagon which went daily on its work, but the hen bird unconcernedly laid her eggs and sat on them. Yet another pair built on a railway track and went with it when it was moved from its siding.

Curious Places Chosen For Nests

In Hyde Park, London, a moor-hen built herself recently a nest in which she duly laid four eggs. A heron which was presumably too lazy to build a nest and lay eggs, took an early opportunity to possess herself of the moor-hen's home, which she enlarged, and in doing so upset an egg into the water. This was retrieved by a park-keeper who had seen what was going on. When the heron moved off the nest for food and exercise the moor-hen slipped on again. And so this Box and Cox episode of bird life has gone on. One hopes that the rightful owner will be in possession when the hatch-out comes off.

Other curious items of bird life have been reported recently. A pair of robins found a way into a box room in which was a Noah's Ark. Going in two by two they evicted Noah and his animals, scattering them over the room, and brought up a happy family of their own.

AN IMPORTANT CHANGE IN POLICY

STUDEBAKER herewith announces the discontinuance of the custom of presenting a new line of automobiles each year. Instead of bringing Studebaker Cars dramatically up-to-date once in twelve months, we shall keep them up-to-date all of the time—with every improvement and refinement made available by our great engineering and manufacturing resources.

This policy not only directly benefits present Studebaker owners, but it also enables purchasers of new cars to obtain models that are always modern—without the necessity of waiting for annual changes, and without the danger of their new cars becoming obsolete.

BACK of this new policy is an amazing story—of interest to

HAIG CANNOT PROMISE TO VISIT MONCTON

Field Marshal Cables Tour Arrangements Will Be Made in Canada

BOYS SENTENCED BUT GIVEN FREEDOM

Several Implicated in Thefts Are in Court at Railway Town.

MONCTON, June 11.—Colonel S. B. Anderson, city clerk, has received the following from Field Marshal Earl Haig in response to an invitation for him to visit Moncton after his arrival at Ottawa: "Please convey to citizens and ex-service men of Moncton my thanks for their kind invitation. Definite arrangements will be made after arrival."

Should Earl Haig decide to visit Moncton a company of returned men will form a reception party. It is possible that the city will tender an address also. Earl Haig will leave England on June 19, and is expected at Ottawa on June 25.

SENTENCE SUSPENDED.

In the police court this morning a youth who was arrested Saturday on the charge of stealing money from George Leblanc's store, was given one year's suspended sentence in the reformatory.

Magistrate MacDougal said that he was taking into consideration the fact that the young man had been truthful and confessed to having taken part in the thefts. The fact that this was his first appearance in court was also favorable. He must report to the chief of police once a month.

A boy, 16, charged with stealing tools, from the building occupied by L'Evangeline, this afternoon admitted the theft. On account of his tender years the magistrate imposed a sentence of six months' suspended sentence.

OTHERS IMPLICATED.

Three other boys were arrested this morning charged with receiving money, knowing it to be stolen. They admitted receiving the money. His Honor gave them suspended sentences of six months each. They are to report to the chief of police every month.

Weddings

Darrab-Stevens.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized in St. John's Baptist church Wednesday morning at 6 o'clock, when Miss Florence Gertrude Stevens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Stevens, 190 Sydney street, became the bride of John Leonard Darrab, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Darrab, all of this city. Rev. Joseph B. Ward solemnized the marriage with nuptial mass. Miss Nellie Colohan presided at the organ and sang the Ave Maria during the mass.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in her gown of white Canton crepe, with veil and orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of ophelia roses and lilies-of-the-valley. She was attended by her sister, Miss Dorothy Stevens, who wore a stunning gown of powder blue and smart French model hat of grey and carried pink carnations.

P. Darrab, young brother of the groom, was his best man and the ushers were Cyril Stevens, brother of the bride, and Donald Young. After the ceremony the wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents. The bride donned a handsome ensemble costume of navy and sand with chile blue hat of a lighter shade and a cocoa fox fur, the gift of the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Darrab left on the Governor Dingley for a short honeymoon trip to Boston and other cities. They received many beautiful gifts. On their return they will reside in Rothsay for the summer.

Anderson-Smallwood.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at Holy Trinity Church, St. Martins on June 17, when Rev. A. E. Dickinson, rector, performed the ceremony for John W. Anderson of New York and Ella S. Smallwood, of Leicester, England. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson will reside in St. Martins. They have received many good wishes for happiness in their wedded life from friends throughout the province.

Gillies-Marr.

NORTON, N. B., June 11.—A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at the Baptist parsonage at 8 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, June 11, when Rev. Saunders Young united in marriage Mrs. Elizabeth Marr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Havelock Patterson, of Stewarston, Kings county, to Clinton Gillies, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gillies, of Bellefleur, Kings county. The bride was very prettily dressed in navy blue with grey hat, gloves, shoes and stockings to match. The happy pair left by automobile for a tour through the Maritime Provinces.

After the reception and luncheon Mr. and Mrs. Thompson departed amid showers of rice and confetti for a wedding trip to Charlotte-town, the bride's traveling costume

IRVING BERLIN DENIES ENGAGEMENT

Miss Elin Mackay and (inset) Irving Berlin. Both Irving Berlin, king of razzle composers, and Miss Elin Mackay, daughter of Clarence Mackay, the multi-millionaire president of the Postal Telegraph, have denied the published announcement of their engagement.

The report along Broadway was that Miss Mackay had gained special dispensation of the Pope for marriage to Berlin, a Jew. Following this report it was published that Berlin's plaintive "What'll I Do" song was written while he was saddened by Miss Mackay's absence in Europe. "Somebody is trying to harm me with false rumors," Berlin said when told of the report. Only a few weeks ago he was reported engaged to Constance Talmadge, the screen star.

Berlin started his career as Iszy Baline, a Russian immigrant, acting as a singing waiter at "Nigger Mike's" and other places along the Bowery. Then he began to compose airs, although he couldn't read music. "Alexander's Ragtime Band" was his first big hit. Since then he has made millions.

being of navy satin with sand and blue hat. Many beautiful gifts were bestowed on the happy pair. The groom's present to the bride was a necklace of pearls and to the organist a gold piece. On their return they will reside at Kierstead Mountain, where the groom is a well-to-do farmer.

Ings-Hickman.

DORCHESTER, N. B., June 11.—A pretty wedding of one of Dorchester's most popular young ladies took place on Wednesday at noon in Holy Trinity church, Rev. George Freeman officiating. Alice Mary, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John H. Hickman, to Ralph Royden Ings, son of Colonel and Mrs. A. E. Ings, Vancouver, B. C., in the presence of many guests from Saint John, Moncton, Amherst, Sackville and Port Elgin. The bride, who was given away by her brother, William Hickman, looked sweet in an ensemble costume of beige pleated georgette dress and cocoa colored coat with fur border and hat of beige mohair and velvet. She carried a bouquet of ophelia roses and lilies of the valley. The matron of honor, Mrs. Joseph D. Hickman, sister-in-law of the bride, looked very smart in a beige and tan printed crepe frock and carried a lovely bouquet of pink roses and maiden hair fern. The little flower girl, sister of the bride, wore a dainty batik printed frock of pale green crepe de chine and bandeau of flowers and carried an old-fashioned bouquet.

The groom was attended by Stewart Jones, of Moncton, Messrs. Gerald Teed, of Saint John, and Harry Hickman, ushers. Mrs. D. W. Douglas, of Amherst, aunt of the bride, wore an ensemble costume of crepe black satin.

During the signing of the register "O Perfect Love" was sung by the choir. The church had been very prettily decorated by friends of the bride. After the ceremony a reception was held at the bride's home, which was decorated with beautiful flowers. Mr. and Mrs. Ings left by motor on their wedding trip. The beautiful wedding presents and telegrams of congratulation testified to the high esteem of the bride and groom.

McGinnis-McDonald.

The wedding of Miss Helen Winifred McDonald, daughter of Mrs. Annie and the late Thomas McDonald, and Harry T. McGinnis, son of Mr. and Mrs. John McGinnis of City Line, took place yesterday morning at the Cathedral at 6 o'clock. Nuptial mass was celebrated by Rev. T. M. Nichol. Mr. and Mrs. McGinnis left for a trip to Boston, New York and Montreal.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle, William L. Walsh, wore an ensemble suit, with hat to match, and an Isabel fox fur, the gift of the groom. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Margaret Walsh, who wore fawn Canton crepe, with hat to match, and a cross fox fur. The groom was assisted by Joseph Hayes. A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's mother, 23 Clarence street. Many beautiful gifts were received.

Maine Governor Wants Advertising and Rubbish Swept Away

Calls on Heads of Communities to Help Boost State for Tourists.

PORTLAND, Me., June 11.—

Removal from the roads of advertising signs, rubbish and random brush, to make the highways of the state more attractive to summer visitors, is urged by Governor Ralph O. Brewster in a letter which he has sent to the chairman of the Portland City Council, mayors of other Maine cities, and the chairmen of the boards of selectmen of every town in the state.

"A million people will come to Maine this summer, drawn by our recreational beauties of our state which have been placed within your care."

letter to the city and town heads.

"They will spend nearly $100,000,000 within the confines of our state and help, directly or indirectly, the welfare of every citizen of Maine. We are properly concerned that they should enjoy the time they spend with us here in order that they may return for longer and longer stays and bring their friends behind them and finally, in many instances, become permanent residents of our State.

"They do not come to Maine to read our sign boards or to see the rubbish heaps which sometimes exist along our roads, but they come to enjoy the marvellous beauties of nature which are here spread out with such a lavish hand.

"In the 500 communities which you represent you comprise the entire organized territory of the State of Maine, and if, in your community, nature is not marred by the desecrating hand of man, we shall be sure that Maine is growing ever more beautiful and attractive to our visitors from all over the wide world."

"With this in mind," the Governor continues, "I am enclosing an abstract of the laws relating to the guardianship of our roads from signs and rubbish and random brush, and shall personally appreciate whatever service you can render to the State of Maine in preserving the great trust of the natural beauties of our state which have been placed within your care."

Russian Crown Jewels Valued At Nearly Hundred Million

By FRANK GETTY, United Press Staff Correspondent.

NEW YORK, June 11.—How the Emperor and Empress of Russia adhered to the traditional formalities created by their predecessors, when wishing to withdraw any of the crown jewels from their vaults in the Winter Palace at St. Petersburg, now Leningrad, was told in an exclusive interview with the United Press by Pierre Cartier, head of the New York branch of the famous Paris Jewellers.

M. Cartier, who is perhaps the only man in the United States who has viewed the Russian crown jewels, politely differed from the Soviet government in its contention that the gems, which were displayed to the diplomatic corps at Moscow this week, illustrate the extravagance of the late Czar.

"The crown jewels were the property of the Czar, but of the State,"

M. Cartier explained. "When the Empress wished to wear one of the many sets which were closely guarded in the vaults of the Winter Palace, she would send a lady-in-waiting, or a mistress of the wardrobe, to fetch what she required. The gems were signed for, and returned after they had been worn.

"The Czar could not dispose of the crown jewels as he saw fit; he could not sell them nor give them away. They were a legacy. They belonged to the State, just as the British crown jewels, which anyone may see by visiting the Tower of London, belong to the British Government."

While visiting the Russian capital before the war, M. Cartier was permitted to enter the vaults beneath the Winter Palace and view the crown jewels. He said it would be impossible to give an accurate estimate upon their worth, but that probably it is between $66,000,000 and $100,000,000.

GUARDS STOP RIOT IN FRENCH HOUSE

One Deputy Lands Kako Blow on Confere and Melee Begins.

PARIS, June 11.—Guards quelled a riot in the Parliament building Wednesday after Deputy Franklin Doulon had knocked the Communist Deputy Doriot senseless with a blow from his fist.

During the uproar a squad of Communist Deputies smashed the glass door behind which the chamber committee on foreign affairs was hearing Premier Painleve's report on his trip to Morocco. Painleve had requested that his report be withheld from the public, but the Communist members refused to pledge themselves to silence and were expelled from the sitting.

Doriot led the attempt to force a way into the committee room. When other communists came to his assistance the guards were called. They expelled the Communists from the building.

ARE YOU FAT? EAT LETTUCE

HERE are some simple facts worth remembering: Vinegar renders beets indigestible. Use lemon juice instead. In nutritive value the parsnip excels all other root vegetables. It is best prepared by stewing or steaming. Carrots, turnips and parsnips are chiefly valuable for their fresh juices, which contain mineral salts. Sweet apples will leave the stomach in one and one-half hours after they are eaten; sour apples in two hours. Colds are caught at the dining table more often than from draughts. Baked potatoes leave the stomach three hours after they are eaten; mashed potatoes in two hours. Children should be trained early to make use of sweet fruits instead of cane sugar.

EVEN ROCKS WHO DISLIKE TO CARRY ONE ARE GLAD TO PUT UP WITH AN UMBRELLA WHEN IT RAINS.

Lettuce furnishes salts and vitamins. It is especially effective in the diet of those who are fat. Such persons should eat large quantities of lettuce at the beginning of every meal. As dressing use lemon juice only. Wrong eating and wrong drinking aggravate ill-temper, while correct eating and correct drinking facilitate improvement in one's disposition.

Adventures of the Twins

By OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON.

WHY THE KNIGHT LOST HIS LADY. "And now," said Mi O' Mi the Story Forest. "His greediness shall be his undoing. I shall tell you what happened to Algard the Knight, after he had stolen the golden horn from the good little fairy who had befriended him." Nancy and Nick pulled up their chairs closer, the better to hear. "Algard figured it out this way," said Mi O' Mi. "If the magic wine in the golden horn could give him such strength after a single draft, the more he drank of it the stronger he would become. Then none could defeat him at the jousting match and he would win the Lady Alys, whose colors he wore. "For Algard had noticed that the golden horn filled instantly to the brim again, the minute he had emptied it. "So when the little man on the green mound in the forest reached up his hand for the golden cup, Algard only clutched it tighter and put spurs to his horse and rode away into the forest. "Please," begged the fairy. "Never" cried Algard. "The cup is mine now. Go and tell your master. "So off trudged the fairy to the Ruler of the Forest and told him what had happened. "So be it," said the Ruler of the suddenly looked stern and frowning. "One by one he defeated his adversaries at the match and Lady Alys' colors waved victoriously on his arm. Then he rode quickly to her castle to claim her hand. "But when Lady Alys saw him riding into the courtyard she screamed and ran frightened to her tower-room. And all the servants and maids-in-waiting rushed away with terror-stricken faces. "What is all this?" demanded Algard, setting a page by the shoulder. "Why do they run?" "My lord looks so stern," faltered the boy. "They are afraid." "Algard rode to the moat and looked in. It was true. He had changed so that he did not even recognize himself. "Seizing the golden horn he threw it furiously into the water. Then he rode away, never to return." "Then what happened?" asked Nancy. "Nothing," answered Mi O' Mi. "Algard died a lonely old man. He could have conquered the world, but he had no wish to. He had learned too late that strength can be a blessing or a blight. The strength he had come by unfairly had ruined him for it had caused him to lose the Lady Alys, the only person he loved." "Please tell another story," begged Nancy. Mi O' Mi laughed. "What a greedy little girl!" he said. "You are as bad as Algard." To Be Continued.

PHYSICIANS TELL OF ADVANCES MADE IN FIELD OF MEDICINE

Quebec M. D.'s Address a Feature—Convention Discusses Formation of Local Societies—Visitors Royally Entertained By North Shore Colleagues

CAMPBELLTON, N. B., June 17.—The address by Dr. P. Calixte Dagneau, of Quebec City, prominent surgeon and professor at Laval University, on treatment of tuberculosis of the kidney, was the outstanding feature of the opening day of the convention of the New Brunswick Medical Society, which began its two-day session here today.

More than fifty doctors from all parts of the province were here for the meeting, many of them accompanied by their wives. Entertainment was provided for delegates, including a motor trip up the Matapedia Valley.

TENDERED DINNER

A dinner was tendered in the evening to the visiting physicians at the Chateau Restigouche, when there was a large gathering.

BANQUET SUCCESS

The banquet which closed the programme for today's session was highly successful. Dr. Murray of Campbellton presided and following a toast to the King, the presiding officer called upon Dr. Fleming, the president, to say a few words.

Dr. Fleming expressed his appreciation of the work of the local committee and declared that in his experience no more promising meeting of the society had ever been held and that he considered Campbellton an ideal place and the Campbellton people ideal hosts.

Dr. Dagneau of Quebec, called upon, opened his remarks with several humorous anecdotes and concluded with commending all concerned upon the success of the dinner.

Dr. Abramson, of Saint John, in summing up the day's activities said that apart from the business aspect of the session, the thing that impressed him was the unsurpassed beauty of the country in which Campbellton is placed and said that without a doubt we have here one of the most favored spots of Canada as regards natural attributes.

Dr. Melvin, chief medical officer of the province, and Dr. Desmond, Provincial Deputy Health Officer, repeated the sentiments already expressed by the various speakers and said that they felt they were expressing the conviction of the assembly as a whole in saying that this year's meeting of Campbellton would be listed as one of the most successful and entertaining in the history of the society.

Dr. L. Murray followed and complimented Dr. Pinault and the Campbellton committee on the efficient way in which they were running off the programme.

HISTORICAL SKETCH

Dr. Pinault entertained the gathering with an historical sketch of the Baie Des Chaleurs country. He reminded his listeners that just across the river from Campbellton took place the last battle of the Seven Years' War between France and England. Truly this is a district rich in historical data and the speaker hoped that the visiting delegates would carry away with them a good impression of the North Shore of New Brunswick.

Dr. L. M. Curran stressed and complimented the men in charge of the entertainment part of the programme and declared that as selection and variety it was indeed successful.

The chairman then called upon several other of the delegates and the consensus of opinion was that too much could not be said in praise of the conduct and successful character of the day's proceedings. The banquet terminated the day's programme.

After adjournment of the afternoon session the attending doctors were entertained by way of a motor trip up the Matapedia Valley. A picnic lunch was served along the shores of the Restigouche River during the course of the drive. The scenic beauties of the widely famed Matapedia valley were spoken of in flattering terms by the visitors. The recently constructed highway through the hills from Campbellton to Matapedia village was at the same time a source of admiration and enjoyment to those who were viewing it for the first time.

FEATURE ADDRESS

The feature address of the afternoon's session was delivered by Dr. Calixte Dagneau, of Quebec, on the "Clinical Symptoms of Tuberculosis of the Kidney." He said that the germ of tuberculosis when present in the system was ever circulating and very often arrested or settled in the kidney tract. The signs and symptoms of such a condition were described, the significant signs stressed frequently, he said, was always to be regarded suspiciously and was an early indication of trouble in the kidney. Findings under the microscope were all important, but pain itself was not always significant and a general pain over the kidney region was usually muscular in origin.

FAVORS OPERATION

Surgical removal of the affected kidney in the case of tuberculosis usually effected a cure, however, he said. The general medical treatment for ordinary systemic tuberculosis would often prove successful and in the case of both kidneys being involved this was the only resource. The operation for such a condition was a comparatively simple one and should be recommended the speaker maintained. Pathological specimens were exhibited by the lecturer and served to forcibly illustrate his remarks.

PAPER DISCUSSED

In the discussion which followed the early treatment of suspected cases of tuberculosis was stressed and particularly when the kidney was involved. Questions pertaining to the subject were asked by several of the delegates and Dr. Dagneau in his replies confirmed his conviction that early operation was advisable when a positive diagnosis was made and if this was contraindicated, then a general rest cure was best.

Asked whether animal injection tests were to be relied upon in diagnosis of T. B. kidney, the doctor said that for this condition the tests were of doubtful value. Dr. Dagneau was loudly applauded by his instructive address and words the Middle Ages to the present time and the gradual evolution of modern methods, as knowledge and clinical technique were gained.

The history of cancer was traced from the earliest knowledge of its significance to the present time when extensive bureaus of research have been established to get to the bottom of the cause and treatment of this dreadful enemy of mankind.

Medical knowledge had made great strides in the last 50 years and had facilitated the diagnosis of many doubtful conditions, Dr. Fleming said. He expressed the hope that the time was not far distant when international co-operation on the part of medical bodies would insure and set up conditions of ideal hygienic standards the world over.

A vote of thanks was extended to the speaker for his interesting address and, in seconding the vote of thanks, Dr. Pinault said a few additional words on the subject.

Dr. Addy moved the vote of thanks.

LADIES ENTERTAINED

NEW CANADIAN FLAG DISCUSSED IN HOUSE

OTTAWA, June 17.—No action will be taken respecting a Canadian flag without the "full sanction of Parliament," said Premier King in the House this afternoon, in answer to questions as to the Government's intentions regarding a Canadian flag.

Mr. King said that the committee had been created for the purpose of only considering appropriate designs and the report of the committee would be made to Parliament.

FIVE HORSES PERISH IN CAPITAL BLAZE

FREDERICTON, N. B., June 17.—Five horses were lost in the fire which totally destroyed Robert T. Baird's stable here tonight. There was some insurance. The stable is located near the C. P. R. employes and had already got beyond control, the whole of the inside of the stable being ablaze.

HOUSE BACKS MOVE TO STABILIZE MONEY

Meighen Protests Asking Parliament Action on Committee Say-so.

OTTAWA, June 17.—Suggesting that Canada should recommend to the League of Nations that action be taken by all the nations in the League to bring about stabilization of price levels through control of currency, the banking and commerce committee of the House of Commons today brought down its report.

Hon. Arthur Meighen, Opposition leader, protested that Parliament should not be asked to commit itself to making a recommendation to the League on the suggestion of merely a committee of the House. It was a subject on which the Government should have some policy and should itself take its stand. He asked if the Government was willing to let the suggestion go to the House, when the Government apparently had given no serious thought to the matter. On the point of whether the recommendation should be submitted to countries outside the League of Nations, Mr. Meighen thought that perhaps it was implied rather than a new and enlarged League of Nations.

DESTROYS DRUGS OF $1,500,000 VALUE

New York Official Does Away With Accumulation of Seized Dope.

NEW YORK, June 18.—Narcotic drugs seized by the police during the last year, and valued at street pedler's prices at more than $1,500,000 were destroyed this week by the property clerk at police headquarters under the supervision of Dr. Carleton Simon, special deputy police commissioner.

Besides the drugs, which include cocaine, morphine, heroin, and other habit forming narcotics, a number of opium pipes and layouts, in some instances worth considerable sums, were consigned to the furnace in the basement of police headquarters.

Dr. Simon said that the destruction of the drugs was mandatory under the state law, and because there was no means of determining whether the drugs had been adulterated they could not be used in city hospitals or other institutions.

He explained that the drugs were seized in 1,316 parcels by detectives of the narcotic division, working separately from the federal narcotic men of Agent Ralph Oylar.

ARRESTS 2,732

Dr. Simon said that 2,732 arrests were made during 1924 and 97 per cent. of these arrests resulted in convictions. While a considerable number of persons arrested were charged with using or possessing narcotic drugs Dr. Simon said that the percentages of convictions for selling narcotics last year amounted to 99. In only very rare cases have persons arrested charged with peddling escaped conviction.

Though the amount of drugs destroyed represents a large sum, Dr. Simon said that three years ago drugs worth $3,000,000 at street prices, were seized and destroyed.

SAYS TROOPS WENT ON CALL FROM N. S.

Premier King Says Federal Government Had Nothing to do With Matter.

OTTAWA, June 17—John Evans, Progressive, Saskatoon, read a telegram in the House of Commons this afternoon from representatives of a meeting of 1,300 persons in Saskatoon denouncing the Federal Government for sending troops to Cape Breton. Premier King replied that the Federal Government had had nothing to do with the sending of troops.

The troops had moved under a statute which permitted the Attorney-General of a province to summon military aid. He added that the Minister of Labor was on the scene and it was hoped that negotiations which he would institute would prove beneficial to the situation there.

That the Canadian Mother May Have Quick and Ready Information On Feeding Her Child

BORDEN'S EAGLE BRAND MILK

In the following charts and data we provide the Canadian mother with the necessary information she may require for the use of Borden's Eagle Brand Milk for her child. You will note that the directions provide for a child from three days of age through until the child is 24 months old.

In addition to the directions for feeding Borden's Eagle Brand Milk, the mother should read carefully the suggestions which should be adopted in connection with the use of Borden's Eagle Brand Milk. The Borden Company Limited is proud of the fact that it has been helpful in the raising of many, many Canadian infants into sturdy boys and girls and men and women who are a credit to their country. For further information, do not hesitate to write direct to The Borden Company Limited—Montreal.

IMPORTANT—In preparing feeding mixtures it is imperative that all utensils, bottles, nipples, etc., should be sterilized in boiling water before using. Use a dry spoon in removing contents from the can, and in measuring be careful to pour from can to spoon, allowing the milk in the spoon to level itself. Repeat this procedure with every spoonful measured, using the same spoon every time. This will insure accurate measurement and produce the best results.

DIET FOR CHILD DURING THE SECOND YEAR

Usually after the twelfth month, the mother should select a diet schedule. Every new article of food should be carefully prepared, and given at first in very small quantities. All meals are to be given regularly, with nothing between meals. With many children this expansion of the diet list is attended with considerable difficulty. They are thoroughly satisfied with milk, and refuse all other form of nourishment. In such cases, withhold the milk until the more solid articles of food have been eaten. If both are given at the same time, the child will prefer the milk and when he has finished drinking it he will refuse the solid food. The following diet schedule will permit the mother to select a suitable meal from the foods listed. It is never advisable to make a change in diet during very hot weather.

NOTE: One teaspoonful of EAGLE BRAND CONDENSED MILK added to one ounce of boiled water results in a mixture equivalent in nutritive value to whole milk. Whenever the word milk appears in the following diet, EAGLE BRAND should be diluted accordingly.

12th to 15th MONTH—FIVE MEALS DAILY 15th to 18th MONTH—FOUR MEALS DAILY 18th to 24th MONTH—FOUR MEALS DAILY

7 A.M.—Oatmeal, barley, or wheat jelly, one to two tablespoonfuls in 6 or 8 ounces of milk. Stale bread and butter, or rusk and butter.

9 A.M.—The juice of one orange.

11 A.M.—Scraped rare beef, one to three tablespoonfuls, mixed with equal quantity of bread and moistened with beef-juice. Or a soft-boiled egg mixed with stale bread-crumbs; a piece of rusk and 6 or 8 ounces of milk.

3 P.M.—Beef, chicken, or mutton broth, with rice or stale bread broken into the broth. Six ounces of milk, if wanted. Stale bread and butter or rusk and butter. Many children at the above age will take and digest apple-sauce and prune pulp; when these are given, milk should be omitted.

6 P.M.—Two tablespoonfuls of cereal jelly in 8 ounces of milk; a piece of rusk. Stale bread and butter.

10 P.M.—A tablespoonful of cereal jelly in 8 ounces of milk.

The following suggestions have proved to be helpful when properly used with bottle feedings, and they may be used in conjunction with Eagle Brand Condensed Milk.

Always pour the milk from the can into the spoon—allowing it to level itself but not run over. You can readily understand that by dipping the spoon into the can you get more than a level spoonful, because of the milk that adheres to the bottom of the spoon.

When you have added the milk to the water stir thoroughly. After opening, it is safe to leave the milk in the original can.

We recommend that you cover the can tightly with an inverted cup, and keep it in a cool, clean place.

ORANGE JUICE

When baby is four months old, give one teaspoonful of strained orange juice, diluted with equal quantity of boiled water, one daily before feeding time. Gradually increase the amount until you are giving the strained juice of a half of an orange undiluted, once daily before feeding time. Orange juice may be continued until child is old enough to eat other fruits as well as oranges.

OATMEAL JELLY

When baby is five months old, add one teaspoonful of oatmeal jelly to each feeding. Gradually increase the amount until you are adding three tablespoonfuls of oatmeal jelly to each feeding. To make oatmeal jelly add four ounces of oatmeal to one pint of water; boil for three hours in a double boiler, and add enough water so when cooking is completed a thin paste will be formed. This while hot is forced through a strainer to remove coarser particles. When cold a semi-mass will be formed. Oatmeal jelly may be continued until child is old enough to eat well cooked whole cereals.

CONSTIPATION

Oatmeal water very often relieves this condition. To make oatmeal water add one heaping tablespoonful of oatmeal to one pint of water, and boil for three hours in a double boiler. This will make a little more than half a pint of thick gruel to which add one pint of water that has been boiled. After straining mixture through fine strainer, you should have a little more than a pint of whitish liquid. This should be used with each feeding instead of the plain boiled water. If you find that this makes bowels too loose, dilute oatmeal water with plain boiled water.

Barley or rice water may be used instead of oatmeal water. If necessary two to three drops of plain cod liver oil may be given twice daily added to the morning and night feedings.

DIARRHEA

Give nothing but plain boiled water for twenty-four hours. Then start feeding with barley water, or rice water, to which has been added a little salt to improve the taste. If these feedings are retained, and bowel movements lessened, small amounts of very weak regular feedings may be started and gradually increased according to baby's condition. If your baby does not improve after trying the above suggestions, consult your doctor at once.

BARLEY WATER

Obtain the very best barley flour. Add one rounded tablespoonful to one pint of water. Boil for thirty minutes, strain, then add enough water to make one pint.

RICE WATER

Add one tablespoonful of rice to a pint of water. Boil three hours, adding water from time to time so that you will have one pint of rice water at the end of the three hours.

LIME WATER

It is seldom necessary to use lime water with Eagle Brand Milk but should there be undigested particles of food in the bowel movements (which seem to be otherwise normal) or should there be vomiting of large curds shortly after feeding—or colic—it would be then advisable to try lime water. Obtain freshly prepared lime water at the Druggists, of which add 1 to 2 teaspoonfuls to each feeding.

COLIC OR VOMITING

These conditions may be due to over feeding, or constipation. Reduce quantity of food and use constipation formula, or lime water formula, as given above.

This rise, coming on top of yesterday's two point advance, is regarded in the street as proof that the recent liquidation was due only to the hasty selling of frightened speculators and not to any serious block in the merger negotiations. The preferred shares were also strong, rising 1 1/2 to 106 1/2. Other leaders to receive attention during the early trading this morning were Atlantic Sugar unchanged at 27 1/2; Abitibi off 1/2 at 71; Brompton unchanged at 22; Consolidated Smelters off 1/4 at 83 1/2; Howard Smith preferred unchanged at 20 1/2; Detroit United Railway unchanged at 4 and Mackay likewise the same at 128 1/2. Winnipeg Ralls appeared in a small lot transaction at 44 1/2, off 1/4. The balance of the list was neglected.

Morning Stock Letter NEW YORK, June 18.—The trend of the market is only upward, although changes in the majority of stocks are small and it is only special stocks that have any radical changes. The market seems to be a good sized short interest in the market, but at the same time, while the market has not been active as active as it was in the advance last fall and early this year, the market is leaning on creeping upward steadily. In considering the market, the investor should remember this: There are no other danger signals, however, and money remains easy, having passed an income tax payment date with scarcely a ripple. Advance exportation is soon in crude oil prices. The statistical position of the oil industry is quiet, although standard oils issues, Texas Co., Pac. Gen. Pete and A.D.O. are likely to work higher, again. In the tobacco group, Cons. Clear, although a very dangerous stock, looks like a buy for a turn. Gas stocks look higher again, mainly Standard Gas. Still bullish on rails, which we have recommended; Reading, D.L.W., L.V. and R.

Brokers' Opinions NEW YORK, June 18.—Hornblower—"We expect higher prices in utilities, oils, rubbers and specialties. It is still a trading market, but sufficiently broad in tone to furnish excellent possibilities for securing profits on the constructive side." Block Maloney—"Stocks are acting well, and the best issues may be bought on small recessions. As we have recently pointed out, rails should do better. They are behind the market." Hutton—"A conservative purchase on its earnings and one who continues to favor for speculative possibilities is E. X. T." Clark Childs—"Trading has turned somewhat dull, but the market boasts an excellent undertone on the little reactions."

Current Events NEW YORK, June 18.—Ann. Pete estimates domestic crude oil output last week at 2,250,000 daily, off 69,350 daily from previous week. E. I. Dupont de Nemours & Co. shareholders meet today to vote on increase common stock from $100,000,000 to $150,000,000. Westinghouse Air Brake regular quarterly dividend $1.50. American and Foreign Power Co., year ended Dec. 31, last reports net income after charges, $2,753,606. Amounts to 49 cents a share on common. Bank England rate unchanged at 4 per cent. MONTREAL, June 18.—Present indications are that the consummation of the Asbestos merger will be announced Monday or that negotiations will be started from another angle.

LEAGUE OPENING Fair Vale and Rothesay Teams Will Meet Tonight—Opening of New Grounds.

Tonight, at 7.15 o'clock, will witness the grand opening of the new Fair Vale baseball diamond and also the official opening of the Rothesay-Fair Vale Baseball League. Hugh H. McLellan, owner of the grounds on which the diamond has been laid out, will throw the first ball and declare the league open. A large crowd is expected to witness the opening of the grounds and the ball game. Fair Vale and Rothesay ball enthusiasts have been putting in some strenuous practice for the past two weeks, and when these two teams clash tonight the fur will probably fly.

Northrup, a newcomer to the Fair Vale ranks, will hurl, with Higgins on the receiving end. The probable battery for Rothesay is Thomson and Short. George Stubbs of Fair Vale will call the strikes, and George Gallagher, of Rothesay, is slated to umpire on the bases. As yet no trophy has been put up for competition in the league.

INCREASE CHINESE IMPORT. WASHINGTON, June 18.—Imports into the United States from Hongkong, China, during the first quarter of this year totaled $4,688,520, an increase of nearly $1,000,000 over the same period last year, according to the Department of Commerce. Marked increases were recorded in shipments of tin, rice, human hair and firecrackers.

TELLS WHY RED CROSS APPEALS

Organizer Sets Out Position of Society in Relief Work

Comments Answered in Re-counting Activities and Detailing Manner of Work. By Mrs. M. Lawrence, provincial organizer, Red Cross Society. No question is asked more often than, "Why does the Red Cross appeal?" And few questions are answered more decidedly by the inter-rogator, who without listening to the Red Cross itself, replies with the assertion that the money contributed for Red Cross purposes during the war has been deflected from its proper channels and has been used for health and nursing services. Like many other questions this is a provocative one and tends itself to discussion. Like many other places Saint John local Red Cross donated its money to those health measures which became the peace time policy of the Red Cross and for which its councils were in favor. The fifty per cent of unit humanity that was revealed when it became imperative to depend for safety and existence on the man power of the Empire and the Dominion, must be the answer to any enquiry as to the necessity for an intensive campaign for sound bodies and sane minds.

ALL THROUGH CANADA. Everywhere throughout the Dominion where the Red Cross established one finds the local branches today engaged in some form of welfare work. In Saint John the local organization has endeavored to make its special care the men and the families of the men who returning from overseas or from home service, have been unable to cope with the problem of making an adequate living, or who have for some reason fallen on evil days. Many of these men were not skilled workers; the whole condition of labor situation, and the undeniable fact that war makes flotsam and jetsam of human beings—"the aftermath of war," we say—these things are among the reasons why some men have fallen out of step in the procession of life and endeavor. Many of these men who inter-posed their bodies as a rampart against disaster, have married; certain promises were made to them as to their future quite independent of their ability or capability, and today those promises have to be redeemed; their children should be given every chance. Cold and hunger and illness should not be the echo from the recruiting speeches of the war days.

HUNDREDS OF APPEALS. The local Red Cross theoretically deals only with soldiers and their families. As a matter of fact following out the ideals of Red Cross, it takes, or tries to take care of those who have no claims on any organization, religious or otherwise. A careful investigation is made and if there is any possibility of handing the applicant to his own church community or to a fraternal or social body wherein he might be at home and among friends, this is done. Always, however, any present necessity is relieved and investigated. During the five months from December 1st, 1924, to April 30, 1925, the local Red Cross was asked for help by 400 individuals—and remember, that in the majority of cases represented families, or an average of three persons. Of these requests 42 were asked for by organizations, religious to whom they properly belonged. This left 448 which were cared for by the local Red Cross.

CASES INVESTIGATED. Following investigation of each case operation is sought with the Associated Charities, whose records are illuminating, showing, as they do, the necessity for definite assistance, a necessity that often has its roots in conditions so deep-seated as not to be upturned in a generation or more. Much of this work reveals the need for extended welfare visits, for home nursing knowledge and for a greater realization generally of what Junior Red Cross can do for the children. Much of the knowledge obtained is confidential, as the Red Cross part and parcel of the family life one enters into the home. Much of the assistance comes under the heading on the files "emergency," and this covers a field that may include a meal, or entire outfit for a burned out family. The records, taking them generally, show that during the time covered, the cases are listed as maternity and layettes, clothing groceries, meals (emergency); lodging (emergency); coal, doctor (other than maternity); work (secured for); rent (arranged for); fire relief (emergency).

OTHER MATTERS. This list does not, of course, include the Christmas baskets that were sent to 21 families, through knowledge obtained from the Associated Charities; investigations re pensions, transportation which was arranged for, or hundreds of letters necessary to establish identities, to locate missing members, and a thousand other details. It does not include furniture, baby carriages, beds and bedding, and all sorts of things possible only in a Red Cross supply department, and all making for at least a measure of comfort and happiness to both the recipient and to the Red Cross, whose motto is "Stick to Your Case, No Matter Where It Leads You." Already it has been said that theoretically the Local Red Cross devotes itself to maternity cases and to the securing under certain conditions, of an attendant physician. This very often means clothing for the baby and mother with necessary extra comforts in addition to the fee for the services of the doctor, a fee that is nominal and in no way pays for a care that is given cheerfully and willingly when Red Cross rings up and says: "Another case, Doctor."

URGENT NEED. The criticism of "unnecessary assistance" is heard, just as Red Cross is told that it is "benighted" in its sympathies. Perhaps this is so. What, however, is to be done in the case of a man who is out of work, is not sufficiently damaged through war service to receive a pension, whose four or five children,

RECORD BREAKING SCORING FEATS IN BOTH MAJOR LEAGUES

Effort Is Being Made To Keep Up Local Interest In Harness Racing

TOTAL OF 322 HITS SCORED IN TWO DAYS' PLAY

Detroit Tigers Tally 13 Runs In One Inning

NEW YORK, June 18.—Mid-June, when major league pitchers are supposed to be warmed up to their summer tasks, finds record-breaking scoring feats appearing daily. On Tuesday American and National League players pounded out 174 hits, including ten home runs. Yesterday, they added 148 blows to the total, eight homers being registered. In the past three days two American League teams have scored thirteen runs in one inning, Philadelphia against Cleveland Monday, and Detroit against New York yesterday.

Batting Rampage

Before the sixth inning of the game at the Yankee Stadium had ended yesterday, three New York pitchers had tried to pitch without getting anybody out, six Tigers had made base hits, one of them a booming home run, with the bases full, by the manager himself. Seven Tigers had walked, eleven runs had been scored without a putout being made, every Detroit had been tallied in all, every Detroit had scored at least one, and even George Dauss had sent a triple into left center.

Mackmen Win Game

Slim Harris pitched the Mackmen to a 10 to 3 conquest over Cleveland getting three singles himself. The White Sox, and the Red Sox divided a double header at Boston, five to three, and seven to 1. Zachary engaged in a pitchers' battle with Bush at Washington, and the champions got a 2 to 1 verdict over St. Louis. Manager Harris of the Senators hit safely for the 23rd consecutive game.

Giants Lose Another

The Cuban League, was in rare form and the Reds beat the Giants 1 to 0, although Bentley pitched well too. The Pirates captured their sixth straight game, with Yde on the mound, and overcame the Dodgers 5 to 3. Brooks, of the Phillies, inserted home runs into Chicago's five to four victory over Philadelphia.

Along The Sport Trail

By RAY HANSEN

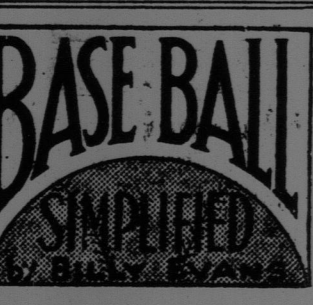

THE DEPARTURE of Clarence "Quip" Moore to Milltown to participate in the Border Town League will have a dual effect on local fans. They will be delighted to learn that this popular player has landed a permanent position with the Milltown team, but will regret that he will not be on hand to help the local professional teams when they are pitted against some of the fast barnstorming clubs from the States. Moore is exceptionally popular with both the fans and players and all will unite in wishing him unqualified success. He should be a valuable addition to the Milltown team as he is a fast man on the bases, a hard and consistent hitter and a classy fielder.

LOCAL FANS will be interested to know that Big Chief Bender is now associated with Eddie Collins of the Chicago White Sox. In the old days on the Athletics the great Indian pitcher and the star keystone sacker were bosom friends so it is only natural to see the Big Chief back in the fold as a coach.

THE COMING BOUT between Mickey Walker and Harry Greb should be a thriller. The former's welterweight title is so secure that he is going out of his class to get into a bout which offers him a good sized roll of bills. Greb is one of the most popular boxers in the game due to his willingness to meet all comers. He can hardly be considered a great fighter although it must be conceded that he is a game one with considerable natural ability. His style is contrary to all orthodox forms of boxing and according to all reports he takes very little care of himself. Despite this he is a consistent winner. He is clever and always willing and in a short fight can hold his own with any man in the ring today. Walker is one of the hardest hitters and best body punchers in the game. He may weaken Greb by this style of attack, but before he does it may be taken for granted that he will see gloves flying at him from all angles. The outcome of the fight will depend largely on Greb's condition. If he is in proper shape to keep right after Walker and avoid the body punches he certainly stands a good chance to win, but if he absorbs many of the welter king's terrific left hooks and is slowed up he will in all probability be knocked out.

WELL, SILAS E. RICE is away with his string of race horses and his first appearance will be on the Chatham track. All those interested in harness racing will eagerly await the result of this meet so as to get a line on the horses which are to be campaigned on the big circuit.

THE SAINTS baseball team of the local professional league has certainly had all the breaks against them so far this season. First sore arms crippled their pitching staff, then along came the flu and put the finishing touches on it. On top of this Joe Dever was incapacitated and ten one of the star players "Quip" Moore, was signed by Milltown. As a result acting manager Dick O'Regan decided to postpone last evening's game and is now working to reorganize the club for Saturday afternoon's game. While it is true the attendance has been small at the games this has largely been attributed to weather conditions and lack of some incentive to attract the fans. With warmer weather and the prospects of some fast professional clubs coming here the pro. game is due for a big boost.

Are there any special methods used by major league umpires in guiding them as to what actually constitutes an infield fly, when there are runners on first and second or first, second and third and less than two out?

MAJOR LEAGUE UMPIRES have no set instructions to guide them as to what constitutes an infield fly, when there are runners on first and second or first, second and third and less than two out?

A certain hit ruled an infield fly by one umpire might not be so regarded by another umpire. An infield fly is merely a fair fly ball, other than a line drive, that in the opinion of the umpire can be handled by an infielder. The umpire should reach his decision as quickly as possible on an infield fly and immediately let the team in the field as well as the base-runners know his judgment on the play. If he doesn't believe the fly ball can be handled by an infielder, he remains silent. If he believes simply that it is an infield fly, he calls it an infield fly. The calling of an infield fly automatically retires the batsman, protects the runners and permits them to advance at their peril as on any other fly ball. After the umpire rules a fair fly ball an infield fly, it makes no difference who handles the ball. If an outfielder should make the play and miff the ball, it would not matter. Once the hit was ruled an infield fly, that settled it, the batsman was out.

MILLTOWN WINS

Defeats St. Stephen in Opening Game of Border League—Groves Winning Pitcher.

ST. STEPHEN, June 18.—With Groves keeping the St. Stephen pros down to seven bingles and being given erroneous support by his team-mates, Milltown capped the opening game of the Border League, 4-2, in spite of "Lefty" Carruthers' 13 strikeouts. Carruthers was also found for seven hits. Milltown scored three runs in their first inning on two hits and some bad fielding by the locals. Another run in the third session and two in the same frame for St. Stephen completed the scoring. The locals made a strong bid for a win in the ninth, but in spite of two hits were unable to score.

Soft Ball League

In the second game of the Men's Softball League on the West Side Playgrounds, last night, the Assumption team won from St. George's team by a score of 29 to 16. The batteries were: For the Assumption team, Russell and Joyce and for the St. George's team, Sewell and Richter. When did Johnny Conlon hold the bantamweight championship?—F. R. S. "TACK" DALTON IS WINNER IN LEAGUE GAME

Scores Victory For St. John The Baptist Team

Getting a college degree and twirling his team to a well-earned victory all in the same day are rather widely different feats, but young "Tack" Dalton turned the trick yesterday. After grabbing a certificate in Latin telling him he was a Baccalaureus Artium and ready to plough his way through a cruel, harsh world, Dalton journeyed a hundred miles to his native town and polished off the day's routine by enaring the Trojans on the North End grounds last evening before the largest crowd of the season by the score of 9 to 3. Thrown in for good measure was eleven strikeouts and a clean single.

Gaining in Race. The result gives the St. John The Baptist outfit a position in the league standing that makes matters rather cramped at the top and some hectic sessions are now expected.

Although Dalton pitched steady ball outside of one bad inning, young "Tack" Dalton who opposed him, suffered but little in comparison. Dalton pitched fine ball all the way, but withheld support by his teammates at critical moments, robbing him of a chance of victory. The Trojans made eleven errors and they came when air-tight support was needed. Kerr, at third, being the worst offender.

Score Four Runs. The Saints started out fast by scoring four runs in the first two innings. In their half of the fourth the Trojans fell short by one run of tying the score. Kerr, next up, angled and took second on Murphy's error. Wiley was hit by Dalton and Moore walked. With the bases plugged, "Wally" Fraser hit to Noel, who caught Kerr at the plate, Bartlett drove a hot one to Noel, who fumbled and Wiley scored. Bartlett being the second out. With the count three and two on him, Eddie Cox whipped one past short and two runs ambled over. There, the rally ended.

One of the Breaks. The break of the game came for the Saints in the first of the sixth. O'Toole was safe on Kerr's error. O'Toole went to third and Fitzgerald took second when Fraser muffed one. Murphy, who caught Kerr at the plate, muffed by Walter Fraser and Dalton chucked up No. 3. Callaghan hit into a double play, ending the agony. From then on the Trojans were hopeless. Three great catches by Walter Bartlett, three more by Dalton, and two by Fraser. The Trojans' shortstop's throw was low to Cox and O'Toole was safe. Cox slung the ball wildly into the stands. Bartlett, who caught Dalton, muffed by Walter Fraser and Dalton chucked up No. 3. Callaghan hit into a double play, ending the agony. From then on the Trojans were hopeless. Here's a chance, Miss Freckleface, to try a remedy for freckles, with the guarantee of a reliable concern that it will not cost you a penny unless it removes the freckles; while if it does give you a clear complexion the expense is trifling.

MOST OLD FOLKS REQUIRE A HEART AND NERVE TONIC

After middle age little sicknesses and ailments seem harder to shake off than formerly, as the heart action becomes weak and uncertain and the nerves are not as steady as they were in the younger days.

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS

Mrs. M. O'Connor, Whitestone, Ont., writes: "I have been troubled, most of my life, with shortness of breath, palpitation of the heart, and fainting spells. I was advised, by a friend, to try Milburn's H. & N. Pills, which I did, and at once found relief, and I have never had a really bad spell since. I am 80 years of age and I always keep them in the house, and feel that with their help I will see many years yet. I always recommend them to anyone who is suffering from heart trouble." For sale at all druggists and dealers.

Yesterday In Parliament

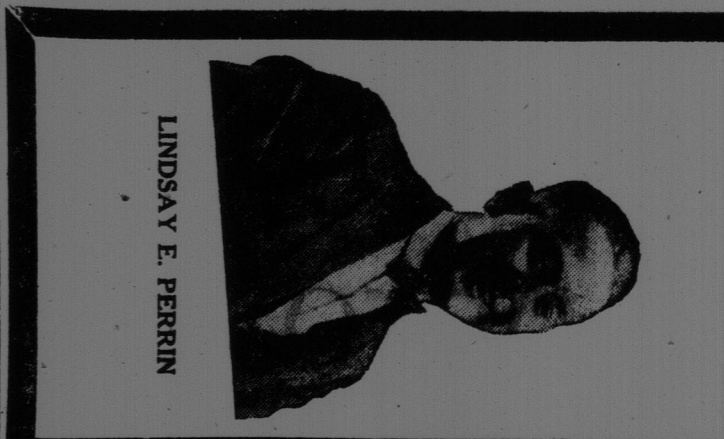

THE SENATE gave second reading to the bill providing for the reimbursement of Home Bank depositors.

Arcanum Members Make Presentation

About 26 members of the Saint John Council Royal Arcanum made an automobile trip last evening to the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Bradon on the Brandy Point Road and partook of an excellent supper. During the evening H. A. Porter, on behalf of the council, presented to Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Clawson two very nice club bags. Mr. and Mrs. Clawson are leaving shortly to reside in Florida and much regret was expressed at their coming departure. They expressed their appreciation of the gifts and the kind words which had been spoken. The evening was spent very pleasantly.

The Arlie Marks Players have already established a reputation for themselves in this city. Don't miss their good shows.

GEORGE S. ENOS IS SEVERELY HURT

Imperial Electrician Thrown to Sidewalk and Skull Injured

Doctors Await X-Ray Report, But Hope Fracture Has Not Been Sustained.

George S. Enos, chief electrician and moving picture operator of the Imperial Theatre staff, was quite seriously injured, the full extent not yet known, when thrown from an iron lighting standard located on the pavement in front of the Imperial about 10 o'clock this morning, when he was affixing the white globes, which were being cleaned. James S. Martin, an assistant operator under soldier civil re-establishment plan of vocational training, who was holding a ladder for Mr. Enos, narrowly escaped being struck with the falling iron.

SOON IN HOSPITAL

The injured man was hastened to the hospital within a minute after his fall, the ambulance driver having seen the accident from the Sydney street station. Policeman Andrew Duffy assisted the driver. At the hospital the patient's lacerated scalp was temporarily dressed and later his skull radiographed to ascertain if there had been any fracture. At the time of writing there was no report of the results of the X-ray, but it was thought the condition suggested there was no break. If so, it was regarded as miraculous how he escaped for he was precipitated backwards to the cement sidewalk, striking on his head and the weighty cross-arms of the iron standard with five lamps and globes attached crashed partially on his body. The glass was shattered.

Mr. Enos did not lose consciousness and gave directions as to his handling. At 2 o'clock this afternoon word from the hospital was that he was sleeping. He has been with the Imperial for a number of years, is a native of Campbell, is married and resides in Waterloo street.

A later report from Dr. A. E. Macaulay was that Mr. Enos was resting well and that there were no outward evidences of a fractured skull.

FAIRVILLE BAND IS WINNER OF BANNER

Mission Workers and Leaders, at W.M.S. Meeting, Commended For Gaining of Honor.

The banner won by the Louise Lewin Mission Band of the United Church, Fairville Methodist, at a convention of the N. B. and E. L. branch held in Fredericton has been placed in a conspicuous place in the church. The band won the honor for all round efficiency and the praise given by Arthur Long, the leader, was very gratifying to the people of the church, especially to the members of the W. M. S. under whose auspices the band was organized. Its name commemorates the late Miss Louise Lewin, daughter of Mrs. Richard Lewin of this city and an earnest worker in the band during her short life.

Much pleasure at the honor conferred on the band was expressed at a meeting of the W. M. S. yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Dane Crosby, the new president, was in the chair and extended congratulations to Mrs. Long. Mrs. Crosby gave a brief account of the very successful branch meeting. Plans were made to hold a picnic meeting at the home of Miss Ella Lowery at South Bay. In a short devotional period Mrs. James M. Rice, past president, assisted the president. The banner won by the band is of pink corded silk, with heavy gold fringe and measures five by two and a half feet.

MANY WERE THERE

Four Churches Represented in Combined Service in Centenary Hall.

Centenary hall upstairs was well filled last evening for the first large attended mid-week service since St. Andrews, St. David's, Central Baptist and Centenary combined for worship during the three summer months. In singing of familiar hymns, thrown on the screen by the large spot light from the gallery controlled by Harry Boyer and prayers by members of the respective churches made a fitting introduction to a thoughtful address given by Rev. J. Sutherland Bonnell, of St. Andrews. He took for his subject, "The Need of the Rediscovery of the Meaning and Power of Prayer." He said that people were not praying earnestly enough and if they did pray, they often failed to open the door where their answers awaited admittance. Miss Elizabeth Robertson played the piano for the hymns.

As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram," said The Times reporter to Mr. Hiram Hornbeam, "I know a town where there are nineteen widows living in one street."
"Any danger sign out?" queried Hiram.
"I don't quite catch your drift," said the reporter.
"Don't you think," asked Hiram, "that single feller orto git some warnin' afore he turned that corner?"
"The widows," said the reporter, "are very charming."
"That makes it . . . . ."
"You seem to imply," said Hiram, "that a single man in that street would be pursued. Isn't that a reflection on the ladies?"
"No reflection," said Hiram. "No, sir--at aint no reflection--it's human nature."
"Would you say," said the reporter, "that if you were called from the scene of your earthly labors Mrs. Hornbeam would at once set out on a man hunt?"
"I've heard her say," said Hiram, "that hev'n's some experience with me she wouldn't marry the best man livin'. I aint aiming to throw no temptation in her way, though--fer quite a spell yet. I've heard it said women was feeble-minded--yes . . . ."

FORESTERS TO ELECT TODAY

Delegates Enjoy Sail Up River as Saint John Courts' Guests

Further Reports Submitted This Morning--A. P. Sherwood, Veteran, Welcomed.

Election of officers and delegates to the supreme court of the Independent Order of Foresters will be the chief items of business coming before the concluding session of the High Court of New Brunswick I. O. F., this afternoon in the Orange Hall, Germain street. The morning session was devoted to hearing reports and other routine business with the High Chief Ranger, Duncan G. Lingley in the chair and with delegates present from every court in the province. In many respects, it was said, this convention has been the most successful in years and delegates attending were highly optimistic over the future.

TRIP ON RIVER.

Following a business session last evening, the delegates and their friends enjoyed a sail up the Saint John River on the steamer "Hampton." An orchestra was on board and music and dancing were enjoyed in addition to an informal entertainment programme by Roy Knorr, Robert Carson and L. J. Johnston. The delegates on this trip were the guests of the subordinate and companion courts of Saint John.

This morning the report on constitution and by-laws was presented by M. N. Cockburn K. C. St. Stephen and was accepted. The report on the finance committee, as presented by M. E. Grass, also was accepted after consideration. A report on the state of the order was presented by L. F. Clarke. This was considered and the committee asked to bring in a report at this afternoon's meeting. The report of the memorial committee, as presented by Mr. Cockburn, who is a member of the supreme council, was adopted. Many favorable comments were made about this report.

The High Chief Ranger and the High Secretary, E. J. Todd, in their report as delegates to the supreme council in 1921 said the sessions were very busy ones, all uniting for the advancement of work. The recommendations of the finance committee, of which Mr. Lingley was appointed a member, were all adopted by the Supreme Court and the constitution and laws thoroughly revised.
