(Canadian Press) Hillsville, Va., March 16.—Prospectors are another desperate fight, perhaps the last encounter in the pursuit of the band of mountain outlaws who on Thursday night shot the human fabric of a court of justice, in resulting one of their number from the outlaws of the law.

Reports have come down the mountain that the outlaws have recruited a big band of desperadoes, and with the legal posse reinforced by scores of mountaineers, today is likely to witness a desperate battle in the mountain fastnesses. Five human lives have already been sacrificed.

Sidna and Floyd Allen, two of the chiefs of the band, who assassinated the judge, the prosecuting attorney and the sheriff, are in captivity, both wounded severely.

Sidna Allen's wife is dead, shot in a pitched battle with a posse in the mountains, helping defend her outlaw husband.

(Special Saturday Cable to the Times) London, March 16.—The suffragettes every day do fresh window smashing. Over 100 women have been committed for damage estimated at not less than $50,000.

As to the British hold on cable, the postmaster general says the alleged monopoly has no real foundation. Active competition exists, and is likely to. Thirteen Atlantic cables began and ended on British territory. In case of emergency the cables are completely in control of this country as if it actually owned them.

The Yellow Letter A Fascinating Mystery Story By WILLIAM JOHNSTON

It was only a minute of suspense and yet the effect on my nerves was indescribable. I wanted to scream like a hysterical girl; I wanted to run, forward or back, it made no difference; I wanted to do something, anything—anything but stand there and wait in the darkness.

As I ran breathlessly behind him, hoping to arrive in time to help him in his capture, I saw the man ahead halt and turn. Instinctively I knew he was about to shoot again, and, raising the revolver I had been carrying all the while, without even trying to aim I fired in his direction just as I saw the flash from his revolver.

As we looked and listened I heard a sharp crack, like the breaking of a twig that had been stepped on. The sound, so far as I could judge, came from the other path, apparently a hundred feet away from the cottage. I turned to see if ready to spring at any instant. At most unconsciously my hand went into my pocket and brought out my revolver. I felt that affairs were rapidly approaching a crisis.

As we listened, another sound came to our ears. At first indistinct, it quickly took the rhythm of footsteps hurrying along the path, a man walking rapidly, decided. The hurrying footsteps came nearer and nearer. Davis now was crouching like a runner about to make a bounding dash.

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

THE very sweetest lady I know, that dear, unselfish aunt, in fact, on whose prayers I place my best hopes of Heaven, "I don't suppose I need to identify her further to anyone who has a mother—has a regular habit of saying at Sunday dinner 'This morning in church I thought—'

What she thought may have been the advisability of dying my light blue house gown dark blue next winter, or it may have been a recollection that we had forgotten to call up Aunt Maria to ask her couldn't get at our Sunday Chit-Chat, but it is always at astonishing variance with the subject of the sermon.

And yet the author of these verses, as I said before, the very sweetest lady I know, now if she thus betrays the presence of secular thoughts at a time when one should be thinking only of sermons and devotions, what about the rest of us? Truly it is an appalling thought.

How often do you listen straight through to a sermon over half an hour in length, and not go off on a single irrelevant train of thought? Perhaps I'm more inattentive or rattle-brained than most, but as for myself, I will frankly admit that I could scarcely hold a dozen such occasions in a lifetime.

Some years ago, I used to attend a fine old church which was quaintly and beautifully finished in natural beech. Said the minister's wife one day to a group of us, "I think the architecture of this church is beautiful. When I am not especially interested in the sermon, I just love to sit and look up at those great beams."

And she was the minister's wife, the first lady of the church, with a convincing reason, say two or three of them, if anyone ever had, for listening to every word of the sermon. On most of these I sat under another dear, good woman admits frankly that she plans all the children's clothes in church.

What are you going to do about it? May I offer two or three little suggestions? My first is not to have any sermons over half an hour long, preferably nearer the fifteen minutes mark. A wicker shortening of one's devotions, you say? I don't see it that way. I think we could listen to a fifteen minute sermon through and surely that's better than hearing a few words of a longer discourse.

Another is for ministers to talk instead of preach. As I say, there have been sermons where the minister has talked to me. Where, as with a minister who seldom raises his voice; never sets oratorical or audient, but just talks as if he were talking right to me, whereupon I feel in courtesy bound to listen to him just as I would to anyone who was talking to me. Presumably when we go to church we are dedicating a certain amount of time to honoring and worshipping God, and time spent in selfish secular thoughts is stolen from this dedicated time. Perhaps if we bolstered up our resolutions to really listen, by that point of view we might do a better.

Here's a good luck to you—and me.

HERON ISLAND CAKE. One and a half cups of sugar, one half cup butter, two eggs beaten separately, then together, one cup of milk, three cups of flour, one teaspoon cream of tartar, one half teaspoon of soda or 1 1/2 teaspoons baking powder, one large cup fruit. Flavor with vanilla. Bake in a loaf.

PRUNE WHIP CAKE. Make a sponge cake of three eggs, one cupful of sugar, one cupful of flour, two cupfuls of baking powder and a half a saltspoonful of salt. Bake in two round pans. For the filling, chop fine one cupful of stewed prunes. Beat the whites of four eggs to a stiff froth, add one tablespoonful of sugar and the prunes. Spread half of this on one layer of cake, put on the second layer and the remainder of the prunes and whipped cream on top.

SOUR MILK CAKE. Half cup butter, one cup sugar creamed, two eggs beaten, three fourths cup sour milk, one teaspoonful vanilla, grating of nutmeg, two level cups pastry flour (1 1/2 cups).

La MARQUISE de FONTENOY The New Private Secretary of Premier Asquith—The Drummonds a Noted Family in British History

(Copyright, 1912, by the Brentwood Company.) Eric Drummond, whom Prime Minister Asquith has just appointed to be his private secretary, is the next heir to his unmarried and reclusive brother, the fifth Earl of Perth, seventh Viscount Strathallan, hereditary Thane of Lennox, and chief of the great Scottish Clan of Drummond.

That to his wife, to whom her sister, the duchess, abandoned the greater portion of the paternal inheritance, Eric Drummond is very well off, but his chief brother is in straitened circumstances and two years ago was obliged to offer for sale Strathallan Castle, his ancestral home in Perthshire, which is now in the possession of Sir James Roberts, an Alpaca manufacturer, who, on receiving a lottery, became smitten with social aspirations and the desire to appear as a great Scottish land owner and laird.

The first Viscount Strathallan was the Hon. William Drummond, of Cromlix, youngest son of John Drummond, second Lord Maitland. He served King Charles II., was taken prisoner at the battle of Worcester by the Roundheads, from whom he escaped, and he made his way to Russia, took service with the Czar who, in course of time, appointed him governor of Smolensko and a general of his army. After the restoration in England, he returned to Scotland, became member of parliament for Perthshire, was imprisoned owing to some misconception of his political principles, and then the mistake was remedied by knightship. Eventually he became general of the ordnance, succeeded to his father's honors as third Lord Maitland and in 1688 was created first viscount Strathallan, and Lord Drummond of Cromlix.

The fourth viscount was commander-in-chief of the Young Pretender's forces in Scotland, and was killed at the battle of Culloden. His younger brother, Andrew, was restored to the dukedom of Buccleuch and founded the Drummonds Bank at Charing Cross, which is flourishing to this day with the Duke of Northumberland as one of its chief partners. Owing to the role played by the fourth Viscount as a Jacobite, his three descendants were attainted, and the three subsequent viscounts were merely titular. One of them distinguished himself in the War of Waterloo. The eighth viscount, after some years spent in China as chief of the English settlement of Canton, returned home with a fortune, became member of parliament for Perthshire, secured a reversal of the attainder, and the restoration of the family honors.

Married Mrs. Field. Malvina Drummond, who married the widowed Mrs. Marshall Field, of Chicago, and whose little boys by her first husband are heirs to the great fortune of their Chicago grandfather, is descended from this fourth Lord Strathallan, the Duke of Buccleuch, and is the heiress of the present Lord Strathallan.

The Drummonds can claim blood relationship to some of the great nobles of Europe, for Malvina and Eric Drummond, like the latter's half-brother, Lord Perth and Strathallan, are descended from that Mary Stentice, of Stobhill, who married Sir John Drummond and bore him the first Viscount of Strathallan. Moreover, a daughter of the first Lord Drummond was the great-grandmother of James I., Scotland's first king. Moreover, a daughter of the first Lord Drummond was the great-grandmother of George I., and another of the first Lord Drummond was the great-grandmother of George II., and another of the first Lord Drummond was the great-grandmother of George III.

The house of Drummond dates back to the time of the first Viscount of Strathallan, who was a Scottish nobleman, who went to Scotland in the train of Edgar Atheling and his sister Margaret, who afterwards became the wife of King Malcolm Canmore. Edgar and Margaret were fleeing from William the Conqueror when a storm drove their vessel on the Scottish coast and it is said that it was mainly due to the skillful navigation of Maurice that the vessel was able to land in safety at St. Margaret's Hope, which is now becoming under the name of Routh, the greatest of the British islands, and converted into another Portsmouth as regards defences, docks and arsenals. For his services, the Hungarian was rewarded by King Malcolm, who gave him land in the Shires of Dumbarton, Strirling and elsewhere and created him Thane of Lennox.

Lord Perth, although he is de jure Earl of Perth, and is popularly known as such, nevertheless votes at the election of Scottish representative peers at Holyrood or at each general parliamentary election, as does the eleventh Viscount Strathallan, instead of as a fifth Earl of Perth, having failed, perhaps on the score of expense, perhaps, too, through mere indifference, to take the necessary steps to establish his legal and official title to the earldom.

There is no doubt, however, about its belonging to him, although he is merely collaterally descended from the first and second Earls of Perth. Scotland is perhaps the only country in Europe where collateral descent is admitted in opposition with primogeniture, and this solely in the case of the older one, and Lord Perth is indebted for his Viscounty of Strathallan also to collateral descent, not being lineally descended, paternally or maternally, from the first viscount.

Romance There, too. The Earldom of Perth has furnished even more material to romance than the Viscounty of Strathallan. It was created by James I., of England, and VI., of Scotland, at the beginning of the seventeenth century, with remainder to his heirs male whatsoever. He was succeeded by his brother, John, Thane of Perth, and by his son, John, Thane of Perth, who followed to St. Germain, where he was called "the Duke of Perth," while Louis XIV. of France bestowed upon him the French dukedom of Melfort. The dukedom of Perth was never recognized by the English crown, and the earldom of Perth was established in Perthshire, Scotland. The duke had two sons, James and John Drummond, the elder of whom, wounded at the battle of Culloden, is said to have escaped on board the French frigate "La Bellone," and to have succumbed to his wounds soon afterwards in France. There was much evidence, however, to show that he took refuge after the battle in a Durham village, married a collier's daughter and left several children, the representative of whom was able, at the beginning of last century, to purchase a barony of the high court of Edinburgh that he was the nearest heir to the earldom of Perth and that it was lack of funds that prevented him from legally establishing his contention. He died not long afterwards.

It would take too merely columns but pages to describe how the Drummond estates, including Drummond Castle, were restored in 1783 to James Drummond, who was believed to be the nearest male heir of Lord John Drummond, younger son of the chancelor of James II., and now, having no sons, these estates went to his daughter, married to the nineteenth Lord Willoughby d'Eresby, thanks to which they are today in the possession of the latter's lineal heir in the male line, the Earl of Ancaster, and his American wife, daughter of the late W. L. Brewster, of New York, and how the Earldom of Perth was revived, and the attainder removed, at the special instance of Queen Victoria, in favor of George Drummond, who thereby became fourteenth Earl of Perth, and sixth Viscount of Strathallan, and is the present Viscount Forth, committed suicide, after being cashiered for cowardice in the Crimean war, and his son in turn, George Lord Drummond, died in New York, where he had been earning his living as a ticket-chopper, also as a porter, in poverty, leaving a daughter excluded from the succession to any of the family son's war, and his son in turn, George, when last heard of was earning her living as waitress in a Brooklyn restaurant.

Impatience of delay is one of the symptoms of Americanism, and it exhibits itself in many ways, much to the astonishment of the more phlegmatic inhabitants of the globe. The annual meeting of the New Brunswick Forest, Fish & Game Protective Association will be held in Keith's Assembly rooms on Monday night next at half-past seven to the members for business matters, and at eight o'clock to the public. An interesting programme will be carried out.

Class E. Oak will give an address on forest, fish and game protection in Maine which has about the finest system in force today. Thos. Allen, Superintendent of the Tobique Salmon Club, will make a few general remarks.

J. A. Knight, of Halifax, chief commissioner of the N. S. Game Commission, will outline the system of game protection. Dr. Harry Gore of St. Andrews, a thorough sportsman, will give an address on angling.

Among those coming to St. John to attend this meeting are: W. B. Dickson, Gen. D. Prescott and H. W. Woods, M. P.'s; T. G. Loggie, deputy superintendent and John F. Collier, domain inspector. Several more M. P.'s are expected, and some of the chief fishery and game wardens will most likely be on hand. A musical programme is being arranged.

As figures will be given by one of the speakers, based on the results obtained in Maine as to what the immense value of the fish and game would be to the province if properly developed and systematically protected. Merchants and business men, as well as sportsmen, are asked to attend. The meeting will be in form of a smoker and there will be refreshments.

THE COAL STRIKE

The British parliament must now take action in the matter of the coal strike. The government has done all in its power to bring the mine owners and men to an agreement, but its efforts have proved futile.

PREPARING FOR THE FRAY

A Liberal convention for Kent will be held at Rexton next Tuesday, to select three candidates for the next provincial elections. The Richmond Review, in an article on the political situation, describes the outlook for the Liberals as a bright one.

HELPING THE FARMERS

The following explanation by the Halifax Recorder of the Nova Scotia government's farmers' loan bill will be of interest in connection with the appeal to the Flemming government to take similar action.

"It has been the custom of loan companies to lend on the security of farm mortgage not more than fifty per cent. of the value of the property. As a general rule, a man purchasing a farm by means of this half value loan, would have no money to stock it or purchase farm tools.

"The Halifax Recorder says:—'Mr. Borden says he is getting weary of criticism. Doubtless, those who are set to gain a nation for the profit of a class usually hear the voice of protest often than they would wish. Let's cheer him up, however. The worst is yet to come.'

"If in the meantime there is no war, Mr. Borden and his colleagues may discover a naval policy some time during the present year. Several members of the cabinet will go to London to look around, but they will not be able to elude the vigilance of the Nationalists, who will have the last word.

An interesting experiment in practical education is thus described in a paragraph in the Bangor Commercial:—'Opportunity Farm or Poor Richard's Cottage has just been established as a boys' institution at New Gloucester by F. Forrest Pease. There on a farm of twenty acres, surrounded by 1,000 acres of timberland, the boys will be taught principally farming. Lads may enter the home between the ages of 10 and 15, and upon his discharge each boy will receive a certificate showing his earning capacity. The proposition is not unlike the George Junior Republic, which have been successful in other states.'

The Chatham World, Conservative, is not well pleased with the Valley project. It says:—'Northumberland, Kent, Gloucester and Resigouche will not benefit one dollar by this expenditure, but their representatives say not one word against it. Premier Flemming professes to believe that the interest on the guaranteed bonds will be paid by the forty per cent. of receipts from the road, but no practical railway man regards his prophecy as trustworthy. The valley will get the railway and the north shore will help to pay the interest on the guaranteed bonds.'

Sydney G. Beckley, well known here as a singer, arrived in the city yesterday. After leaving here he returns to the Old Country and it was reported here that he had been drowned. He is enjoying the best of health.

A reception held in the Protestant Orphan's Home on Thursday evening last was well attended. Following a very enjoyable programme by the children, addresses were given by His Worship Mayor Frink, T. H. Estabrooks, Rev. Gordon Dickie, Rev. H. A. Cody and Dr. Thomas Walker. Refreshments were served.

Last night's storm was one of the worst that has visited St. John for some time. The rain fell in torrents. The street car service was partly demolished. One car went off the track in King street East. The C. P. R. liner Virginia, which was to sail last night, remained in port until today on account of the storm. The Boston express was delayed half an hour by a small washout on the C. P. R. near Grand Bay. The cellars of several city stores were flooded.

Perfect Coffee Every Time

Unlike common coffees, RED ROSE has the same rare flavor when it reaches your table as it had when it left the roaster. For it is sold only in airtight tins, hence none of its strength or flavor is lost.

Our new process crushes this coffee into grains of uniform size and takes away the chaff which makes most coffees bitter. Thus Red Rose Coffee is as easily made as Red Rose Tea, and pours clear without any "settling." For a "full-bodied," bright, brisk coffee we commend

ST. PATRICK'S DAY

We greet thee, St. Patrick, our glorious Apostle, Our hearts filled with pride at the sound of thy name;

Though far from Old Ireland, her valleys and her mountains, Our love and devotion are ever the same.

Tis true, from the land of our birth we are exiles; And why not? When one glances over the record of the present provincial administration, a record of numerous pledges unfulfilled and flagrantly violated, is there any cause to wonder at the buoyant spirit which has lately taken hold of the Liberal party leaders?

The weakness of the present provincial administration is readily discernible from several viewpoints, but none is more visible than the sham political humility so lately displayed by Premier Flemming in his appeal to the Liberals to put aside their political affiliations and support his government.

Does any reasonable person suppose for one moment that if Mr. Flemming and his followers felt they had sufficient strength without the Liberals, they would make the desperate appeals for support from such quarters as they are now making. In 1908 a large number of honest Liberals were induced to give their approval to Messrs. Hasen and Flemming. They have since had just cause to regret their act. No such appeal as that made during the campaign of 1908 can have any effect in the coming election.

Now France and Spain are in trouble again. They cannot agree over Morocco.

Moncton as well as St. John is asking authority to reduce the taxation on improvements.

The close of each week finds the forward movement in St. John gathering force. The outlook is bright.

The opposition have got Premier Flemming emphatically on record in regard to the extension of the Valley Railway to Grand Falls. That is something gained.

Hon. Mr. Maxwell declares that the construction of the new bridge at the falls, to cost about $335,000, will soon be begun. There should be busy times in and around Fairville next summer.

The King and Queen have cancelled all foreign visits. This is an indication that the present year is fraught with difficulties, and that King George desires to be in constant and close touch with his advisers.

The Halifax Recorder says:—'Mr. Borden says he is getting weary of criticism. Doubtless, those who are set to gain a nation for the profit of a class usually hear the voice of protest often than they would wish. Let's cheer him up, however. The worst is yet to come.'

If in the meantime there is no war, Mr. Borden and his colleagues may discover a naval policy some time during the present year. Several members of the cabinet will go to London to look around, but they will not be able to elude the vigilance of the Nationalists, who will have the last word.

An interesting experiment in practical education is thus described in a paragraph in the Bangor Commercial:—'Opportunity Farm or Poor Richard's Cottage has just been established as a boys' institution at New Gloucester by F. Forrest Pease. There on a farm of twenty acres, surrounded by 1,000 acres of timberland, the boys will be taught principally farming. Lads may enter the home between the ages of 10 and 15, and upon his discharge each boy will receive a certificate showing his earning capacity. The proposition is not unlike the George Junior Republic, which have been successful in other states.'

The Chatham World, Conservative, is not well pleased with the Valley project. It says:—'Northumberland, Kent, Gloucester and Resigouche will not benefit one dollar by this expenditure, but their representatives say not one word against it. Premier Flemming professes to believe that the interest on the guaranteed bonds will be paid by the forty per cent. of receipts from the road, but no practical railway man regards his prophecy as trustworthy. The valley will get the railway and the north shore will help to pay the interest on the guaranteed bonds.'

Sydney G. Beckley, well known here as a singer, arrived in the city yesterday. After leaving here he returns to the Old Country and it was reported here that he had been drowned. He is enjoying the best of health.

A reception held in the Protestant Orphan's Home on Thursday evening last was well attended. Following a very enjoyable programme by the children, addresses were given by His Worship Mayor Frink, T. H. Estabrooks, Rev. Gordon Dickie, Rev. H. A. Cody and Dr. Thomas Walker. Refreshments were served.

Last night's storm was one of the worst that has visited St. John for some time. The rain fell in torrents. The street car service was partly demolished. One car went off the track in King street East. The C. P. R. liner Virginia, which was to sail last night, remained in port until today on account of the storm. The Boston express was delayed half an hour by a small washout on the C. P. R. near Grand Bay. The cellars of several city stores were flooded.

"Your mother's awful generosity," said the New Boy. "She knows I hate to take my collier over, so she gives me a nickel every time I take it."
"How often do you take it?" queried the Other Boy.
"Three times a day."
"Get!" sighed the other in hopeless envy at such wealth. "Fifteen cents a day! How do you ever spend it all?"
"I don't! She takes care of it for me. And when there are enough nickels to make a dollar, she it."
"Hands it over to you?"
"No. She buys me another $1 bottle of collier oil."

FIRE ON TUGBOAT. Fire broke out this morning about half past two o'clock on the tugboat "Alice R." lying on the western side of the I. C. R. Pier, and an alarm from box 154 brought the fire department to the scene. It required about three-quarters of an hour's work to extinguish the blaze.

HE MAY HAVE IT. Horatio Eslow, of the staff of John Labaree & Co., has a photograph of 1877 which he thinks may be the oldest in the city. He gave the Times the information today in response to a query in the Telegram of this morning asking the date of the oldest St. John directory. John H. Buckle, curator of the Metropolitan Art Museum of New York, asks for the information.

UNFORTUNATELY INCORRECT. A rumor that Frank Compton of Hampton had received a letter from W. E. Hunter, I. C. R. driver who disappeared from his home in St. John, dated from September, Ont., was heard this morning. Mr. Compton was communicated with by long distance telephone and said that he was well acquainted with Mr. Hunter and would be very glad to hear from him, but he had not done so, and had no idea how the rumor had originated.

DEATH OF WILLIAM CLEARY. A well-known resident of North East passed away last evening at his home, 25 Beattie street, in the person of William Cleary, aged seventy-four years. He had a great many friends in that section of the city and was respected and liked. For some years he was in the employ of Scott & Lawton as engineer, and he had also been with the I. C. R., but for several years he has not been able to work, owing to an accident which happened to him some time ago. Six sons and one daughter, Miss Margaret, survive. The sons are Hugh, John, Patrick and Joseph, of this city, and William and Frank in the states. The funeral is to be held on Monday next.

ANOTHER LOCATION FOR THE DRY DOCK IN PLANS HERE TODAY

There is still some uncertainty as to the exact location of the dry dock in Courtenay Bay, but an alternative plan prepared by government engineers in Ottawa, which shows the dock located at the head of the bay, has been received in the city. As far as is known this site has not been definitely approved, and it is not certain as to whether the dock will be placed there or on the original site beyond the Munition wharf. The location as shown on the new plan is at the extreme northern end of the bay to the east of the Munition wharf, and would be covered by water at high tide and which would have to be reclaimed by filling in. It is said to have the advantage of being almost entirely beyond the limits of private property, and could be taken by the government without cost. At the northern end the plans encroach on the property owned by the G. T. P. Development Co., and this is said to be the only private property which would be included.

WELL PLAYED BY WEST SIDE AMATEURS

The drama "My Lady Darrell" was presented yesterday afternoon and last evening in St. Patrick's Hall, Charlton, by clever amateurs. At both performances large audiences were in attendance and their appreciation of the excellent work of the players was expressed in no uncertain manner. Miss Jessie McSorley, who took the leading role gave an especially clever interpretation and during the evening was the recipient of a handsome bouquet. The specialties given between the acts included a vocal solo by Master A. Moore, choruses by Misses Viola and Irene John, Miss Jessie Wetmore was the pianist, J. McCausland acted as stage manager and Fred J. Joyce was the business manager. The cast of the play was as follows:—The cast of characters was: Alice Paisy, (laterwards Countess of Darrell)—Miss Bessie McSorley. Viola Vaughan—Miss Helena O'Reilly. Lady Darrell (Roy's Mother)—Kate Cripps—Miss Mollie Tobin. Martha Paisy, Mother Cripps—Miss Susie Murphy. Lord Roy Darrell—Wm. Pyne. Geo. Vaughan (alias Count Jura)—Curtis Orens. Armstrong Dale—James Keleher. Sir Geoffrey Rawdon—Wm. Quigg. Captain Wyndham, Job Trotter—Fred Joyce. Jos. Paisy—Walter Ring. Toby Bruce—Dalton—Harold Keleher. Sergeant A'Raet—John O'Brien.

BODY IS FOUND NEAR FERNHILL

George McAdoo, Painter, Lay Dead—Probably Succumbed to Storm Last Night. Partly frozen, and lying in a field nearly opposite Fernhill, the body of George McAdoo, a painter aged about thirty-five years of age, was found about eight thirty o'clock this morning by Richard Stackhouse, a driver in the employ of O. S. Dykeman & Co. The clothing was water-soaked and he had evidently been lying in the field during the storm last night. The finding of the body came in a rather roundabout way. A farmer who came to town yesterday purchased some goods from the Dykeman Company and, not having a wagon, could not come into town beyond the Marsh Bridge. This morning Mr. Stackhouse was taking the goods out the Marsh Road to where the farmer had his sleigh. To transfer the goods from the wagon to the sleigh required some heavy lifting, and to facilitate matters, he decided to go into a nearby field and secure a couple of pieces of deal. While looking for the deal, he almost stumbled over the body, which was lying face upward.

Mr. Stackhouse's above named friend, identified the man walking on the road last yesterday afternoon, but did not think anything of the matter at the time. He was employed as a painter with Robert Magee and was well-known. He is survived by two brothers and two sisters. The brothers are Matthew and Jeremiah, both of this city. Mrs. Jones of Rosedale, Mass., and Miss Elizabeth McAdoo of this city, are sisters. Two half brothers, William and Robert of this city, also survive. The news of the finding of the body spread rapidly about the city and it was thought for a time that it was the body of William J. Hunter, missing I. C. R. engineer who disappeared from his home in Waterloo street about two weeks ago. Terminal Agent E. E. Rose was hearing of the news, went out to the scene in an I. C. R. locomotive to ascertain if it was correct.

CHIEF CLARK IS IN LIVERPOOL TODAY

One Empress Docks Here, The Other Reaches English Port. The Royal mail steamship Empress of Ireland, Captain Foster, arrived in port this morning from Liverpool via Halifax, and docked at her berth at Sand Point. The liner gives the island land this afternoon, but did not come up on account of the storm. The Empress brought 133 passengers—28 sailors, 42 second cabin and 72 first class. Twenty-seven of her passengers landed at Halifax. Captain Foster reports having had a very good trip across, with the exception of one or two bad days. Besides her passengers the Ireland had a large general cargo. At Halifax 2000 bags of mail and 647 baskets of parcel post were discharged. Most of the passengers will go forward to the west by special trains sometime during the day. They are of different nationalities, and are a good healthy looking lot of seafarers. The Empress will take on a double supply of coal at this port, enough to last her for return trip to St. John. The Empress of Britain, which sailed last week arrived in Liverpool this morning on an overcoast. Chief of Police Clark, who is on board, will probably return home on the next steamer leaving Liverpool having in custody Patrick Fitzpatrick, who is being brought back to stand trial on the charge of defrauding the C. P. R. and the Dominion Express Company.

OCEAN LIMITED EARLY ON ROUTE

Summer Time Change on Intercolonial Railway on June 2. The summer change of time on the I. C. R. will not affect on June 2, when the famous Ocean Limited will be placed on the route between Montreal, St. John and Halifax, with the addition of a train from the Sydney and P. E. Island in anticipation of an early rush of summer tourists. The time schedule is expected to be practically the same as last year, which means that the "Limited" will leave Montreal at 7:30 p. m. reaching Lewis at midnight, and arriving through passengers the opportunity of seeing the famed Matapeia Valley during the earlier hours of the morning and a view of the Restigouche River and the blue waters of the Baie des Chaleurs. The beautiful valley of Westworth, N. B., will be seen in the more relaxing light of early evening, and the train will reach Miramichi at eight o'clock, connecting with the through-night express for the Sydney and arriving at Halifax at ten p. m.

To Commemorate St. Patrick's Day We Will on Monday Next Distribute Free 2,500 Blocks of Genuine Irish Turf. Our usual custom for a number of years past on St. Patrick's Day was to distribute free 2,500 pots of Genuine Growing Irish Shamrock. This year we have made a departure and have for our friends a quantity of Real Irish Turf. Nearly everyone has heard of Irish Peat but how many have ever seen it? The Turf was cut, stacked and dried for us in one of the numerous bogs in the county of Down, of which the chief town is Downpatrick, where it is believed that the remains of the Patron Saint of Ireland "St. Patrick" are interred within the walls of the venerable Cathedral of Down. We have the Turf neatly put up in boxes, having printed on the cover a view taken for us in Ireland and also containing a copy of a Declaration as to the genuineness of the Turf. See our window display of Irish views.

BARBAROUS CUSTOM OBTAINS IN FRANCE

Reconstructing Crime' Fearful Operation STRIKING EXAMPLE

Man Made to go Through Form of Killing Mother and Step-father - Paris Dress News - A Man Who Makes Nice Novel Living Out of Affliction

(Times' Special Correspondence) Paris, March 15.—The barbarous legal custom in France of "reconstructing the crime," in order to serve the ends of justice...

Yvonne Berthelot gave herself up to the police immediately after her crime. Her explanation of the crime was plausible. She did not, she says, mean to kill her mother. Her stepfather had pestered her with his threats of a revolver into her hand without a thought of the danger to her mother.

What folly to keep all those notes in your pocket! Give them to me, and I will give you a note in my bag, where they will be safe. Such was the renegade agent's address to a man who had been arrested by the police.

After waiting a very long time in vain, the cat-brother opened the envelope, and to his dismay that there was a single note in it. He hurried out of the cafe in which he had been sitting, hat in hand, and sped to the hotel, to meet with another cruel surprise.

Still another outrage has been committed by armed anarchists in a motor-car, and it is believed that this crime is the work of the same gang who attacked and robbed Gaby, a bank messenger, recently, and who murdered Policeman Gardier.

Early the other morning armed burglars broke into the office of M. Tintant, secretary at Postoffice, near Paris. They attempted to open the safe, but failed, and then tried to carry it off in a motor-car.

At two o'clock in the morning the car was driven up to M. Tintant's premises. The occupants climbed a wall and broke into the office, but were unable to complete their work as M. Tintant was roused from sleep.

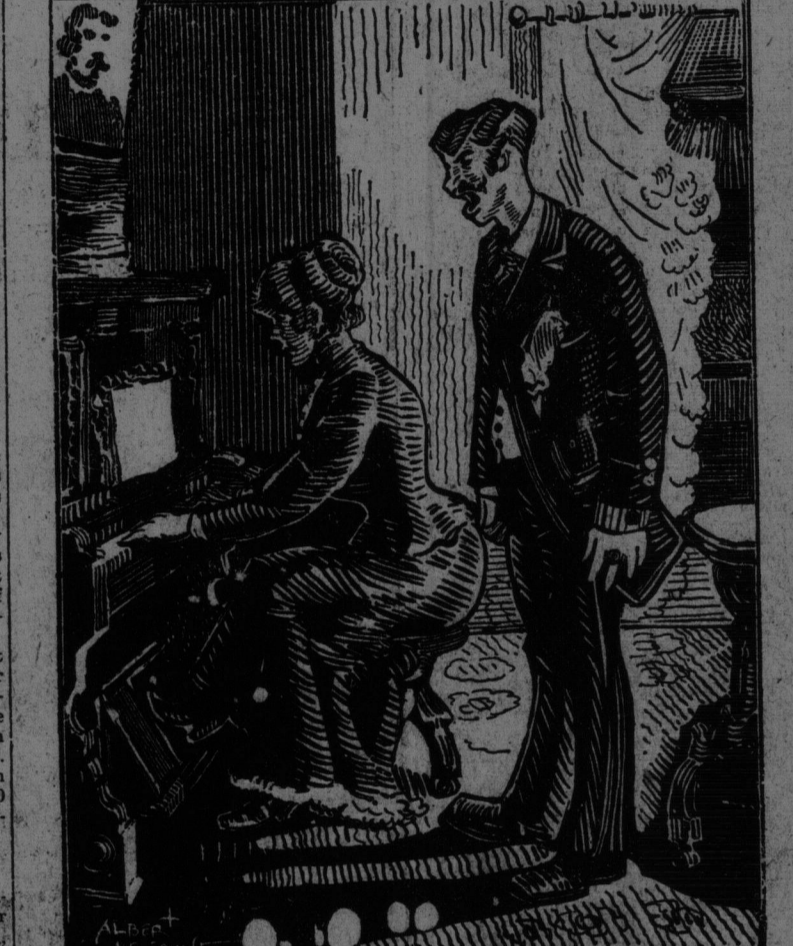

Was it not Oscar Wilde who declared that there was no earthly trouble which could withstand a piece of yellow satin? The color sensitive are going to be happy this year. Yellow—beautiful, shimmering golden yellow—is to be the vogue.

There is deep meaning in these different shades, according to the "Cri de Paris." For instance, Indian yellow speaks of Del-Break's yellow convulsions up memories of the negotiations over the Congo; while Moroccan yellow is the hope—the hope—of young France, of winners of gold and 50 per cent profit.

Fortune in Afflictions The "cul-de-jatte" does not exist in New York and there is not even a name in that city and the head of the gang a man named Garnier, were chiefly concerned in the outrage, but the messenger, but five of them were concerned in it.

FABLES IN SLANG Series of 1912 -- BY GEO. ADE

THE NEW FABLE OF HOW A FAMILY JUMPED OUT OF CLASS B INTO THE KING ROW

The young Shipping Clerk Used to Turn the Music for Miss Livingston, Who Looked to Him Like Mary Anderson and Sounded Like Adeline Patiti

(Copyright, 1912, by George Ade) One day there was a side street Quartet consisting of Papa and Mamma and Gordon and Ethel.

The estimable Stroke Or of this Domestic Combination was a Graduate of one of those Towns in which the Occidental Hotel faces the Depot and all Trains are met by a Poplar Drayman wearing a Black Sweater.

It was a proud Morning for Gordon and Ethel when they saw all the Pictures and learned that they had been named in the Social Status which entitled him, at the Age of 25, to gain admission to an exclusive Club of 500 Members, the oldest of every Non to serve as a sort of willow tree in the garden.

Therefore, when he was yanked out of his 24-cylinder Car and stood up before the Magistrate, charged with running over the People and sneering up the Boulevard, the whole Reading Public was thrilled.

As a matter of Fact, she was not pulling down any Ribbons at Beauty Shows and was not in the Park on the Grand, but she stood in the reach of Massage Cream.

When Ethel was large enough to take down the main Floreograph, it seemed that their only chance to make an impression on the huge and callous City was to die and then hold up a line of Street Cars while the Hearse and the five Carriages moved slowly in the direction of Calvary.

So they went along for Years, riding for more Heat, trying to find a good Maid and experimenting with new Carriage combinations to make what is known as City Life.

They were simply four scrambling Units in the Great Anti-Hill; four tiny Tadpoles in the main Floreograph. It seemed that their only chance to make an impression on the huge and callous City was to die and then hold up a line of Street Cars while the Hearse and the five Carriages moved slowly in the direction of Calvary.

When he was used in the Courts by a Victim who wanted a final look at his Money, the Reporters came around and he was so stiff-necked and defiant that all of them referred to him as the Millionaire Promoter.

It was easier to be this kind of a Millionaire than to stand for a South. Every day the man was conqualed with Millions, and who never will be Caught until the Tin Box is opened in the Probate Court. Then the Widow will get ready to take Boarders.

As soon as Father was hauled as a Millionaire was up to Mother to join a new kind of Club and have a Handle put on her Eye-Glasses. She would practice in her Room for Hours at a time, gripping the Rocking Chair with both Hands and trying to get the men red Bostonian words of "A" as in Land.

He Efforts were not in vain, for one named Garnier, were chiefly concerned in the outrage, but the messenger, but five of them were concerned in it.

Facts of Interest in View of Present Coal Trouble in Prussia

GERMAN NEWS LETTER

Proposal That Girl Must Have House Training Before Marriage is Permitted—A Ball at Which no Man Was Permitted—Fighting White Slave Traffic

(Times Special Correspondence) Berlin, March 15.—In the present crisis it is important to recall the action of the Prussian government in 1903, when 200,000 miners struck work in the western coal fields.

The strike was preceded by a series of attempts on behalf of the government to bring pressure to bear on the owners to negotiate with the miners.

REVOLUTIONIZE THE INTERNAL COMBUSTION ENGINE'S WORK

Maxim Gorki Writes on the Persian Problem—Royal Dresses to London Museum Exhibition—News Letter From Empire Metropolis

(Times Special Correspondence) London, March 15.—The rapid progress made in the adaptation of the internal combustion engine to the use of maritime propulsion gives food for reflection on the possible modifications of ship-type which is likely to follow its introduction, and the developments of strategy and tactics which these involve.

The German marine office has already plans for a battle-cruiser which will be able to make the journey round the world without putting in anywhere to replenish her fuel supply.

The Internal Combustion Engine's Work RAPID PROGRESS

HE COULD NOT WALK OR SLEEP

But Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured Him

Quebec Postmaster's Remarkable Recovery is the Talk of the Whole Country Side

Rumpleville, Megantic Co., Que., March 15.—(Special)—The remarkable cure of Mr. Achille Vachon, the well-known merchant and postmaster here, is the talk of the whole country side.

From the second day after starting to take them I rested better, and before I had finished the box I was in excellent health.

"I was troubled with kidney disease," Mr. Vachon says. "I got so bad I could not walk, while my sleep was broken and I could not rest. It was then I started for Dodd's Kidney Pills.

"I can publish this statement for I recently Dodd's Kidney Pills are." Dodd's Kidney Pills always cure blood to fall. Gored kidneys make pure blood and pure blood will cure nine-tenths of the ills to which the flesh is heir.

I have no decent word to utter That fits the present Price of butter.

One more interesting speculation is induced by the mention of aviation, and by Mr. Churchill's assurance to Mr. Burgoyne that experiments with the hydro-aeroplane are proceeding. It is within the bounds of possibility that we shall see in the future a veritable war of "wild-ducks"; a vessel which can swim on the surface of the water, dive beneath it, or soar above it. It is a theme worthy of Jules Verne; but it is hardly more impossible of realization than aviation or submarine navigation seemed twenty years ago.

Maxim Gorki, the celebrated Russian writer, has sent the following letter to Frederick Whelan, honorary secretary of the Persia committee, on the action of Russia in Persia.

"I am of opinion that the actions of the Russian government in Persia are nationally harmful to the Russian people, quite apart from the fact that they are inhuman in relation to the Persian people. I am doubtful whether it would be possible to secure of courts-martial and by executions means of Russian commercial markets for Russian capital and I am convinced that the Russian government is creating, by its senseless brutality, a new and irreconcilable enemy in Persia for the Russian people. Moreover, the conduct of the Russian troops in Persia is serving to strengthen the power of orthodox Islamism, which rejects the creative ideas and principles fostered in Europe, and in this way the Russian government's actions (Continued on page 13; sixth column)

The Topp, Tasty Toast

Food science has taught us that there is much body-building nutriment in the whole wheat grain which we do not get in white flour. The only question is how to make the whole wheat grain digestible. That problem has been solved in the making of the shredded whole wheat wafer.

It is the whole wheat, steam-cooked shredded, compressed into a wafer, and baked—the maximum of nutriment in smallest bulk. Many people prefer it to ordinary bread toast. Heated in the oven to restore its crispness it is delicious for luncheon, or for any meal, with butter, potted cheese or marmalades.

"ORANGE LILY SAVED MY LIFE"

These words or expressions having the same meaning are contained in hundreds of the letters I have received during the past year. Many were from women who had suffered agonies from falling of womb, others from women who had escaped dangerous surgical operations, as the tumors and uterus had been removed by the action of Orange Lily; and others who had suffered from suppressed menstruation, leucorrhoea, painful periods, etc. For all these and the other troubles known in general as Women's Disorders, Orange Lily furnishes a positive scientific, never-failing cure. It is applied direct to the suffering organ and its operation is certain and beneficial. As a final actual proof, its merit, I hereby offer to such absolutely free, a box worth fifty cents for ten days' treatment, to every suffering woman who will write for it. Send no money. MRS. FRANCES E. CURRAN, Windsor, Ont.

Captain Admunden, the Norwegian, relied almost entirely on dogs. He had four teams of thirteen each constantly in use, and many resting or in reserve. Dog meat was also the staple article of food. His men used skis generally for walking.

THE YELLOW LETTER

Just as I reached the spot he had lighted a match. He lifted it to see my face, and as he did so I saw that the woman lying there apparently lifeless was indeed my Louise.

Overwhelmed with anguish and remorse, I flung myself beside her, entreating her forgiveness. The other man, who had been roughly seized, exclaimed: "She has only fainted."

"She's shot! She's killed!" I cried. "I shot her when she was only fainting," he cried angrily. "Help me carry her over there by the window."

Together we lifted her and bore her gently to the side of the cottage, where we laid her on the ground. Joy surged in my heart as I saw and heard that she was still breathing; joy that was not even abated when I saw by the window light that my companion was some other than Hugh Crandall.

But then all other thoughts were driven out of my head by the sight of a thin stream of blood trickling down the sleeve of Louise's automobile coat.

"I tell you she is shot," I cried, all my anguish coming back anew.

With trembling hands I helped Crandall cut away her sleeve, dressing all the time to see and know the worst.

"It's only a scratch," said Crandall, with a sigh of relief.

Across her rounded arm was a reddening gash where the bullet had cut its way through the tender flesh. While my hand told me that Crandall was right, that it was only a flesh wound and not in the least dangerous, in my heart I still felt little better than a murderer. Three inches to the right, and the bullet from my revolver would have killed her heart for ever.

She opened her eyes and stared at me in a puzzled way.

"Why, Harding, dear," she said in feeble surprise, "are you here—here with Mr. Crandall?"

"If a World-Wide Strike. Then a World-Wide Coal Famine!"

Can you afford to leave your Coal Bins empty now when the opportunity offers of filling them at regular prices?

Later it may not be a question of price, it may then be a question of "is it possible to secure Coal at any price?"

The prices are the regular prices, for Broad Ove, Pictou Egg, Winter Port and Pictou Coke.

Edison Phonograph

The Edison Phonograph is not only the greatest musician of all the ages, it is all the great musicians of the present day—playing all of the greatest music ever written.

You select your program to suit your audience when you own an Edison Phonograph. The songs you love best, sung by the singers who sing them best—your kind of music, rendered as only the Edison can render it—as true to life as the original.

The Edison tone is pure, smooth, subdued and true, because of the rounded, button-shaped sapphire reproducing-point, which gives exactly the right volume of sound for the home. And the sapphire point is permanent—lasts forever. No changing needles, no scratching or wearing of records.

And the long-playing Amberol Records render every composition completely. No cutting out of important parts. No hurrying. And besides all this, the Edison Phonograph is the instrument on which you can make and reproduce your own records in your own home.

There are Edison dealers everywhere. Go to the nearest and hear the Edison Phonograph play both Edison Standard and Edison Amberol Records. Get complete catalogs from your dealer or from us.

"I helped her to her feet and assisted her into the cottage, where I piled some cushions that were lying about and made her comfortable. The noise of our entrance made no impression on the drug-stuffed man who lay on the other side of the room, but Davis and Crandall crossed to where he lay and examined him closely.

"The Samaria Remedy Co., Toronto, Ont.: 'Will you please send me book on drink also circulars relating to your valued remedy for the drink habit. I wish to hand these to a friend who is going to run through drink. You will remember that I have taken your remedy, and I find it all you claim it to be. It can be given with or without the patient's knowledge. It removes the craving for drink, builds up the system and restores the nerves. Drink becomes distasteful and even nauseous. Drink is a disease, not a crime. One drink of whiskey always invites another. The inflamed nerves and stomach create a craving that must either be satisfied by more whiskey or removed by scientific treatment like Samaria Prescription. HE FORTELS A GREAT CHANGE IN RELIGION

Rev. Dr. Eakin Says Too Much Emphasis is Given Salvation From Sin to Detriment of Salvation for Service

Convocation Hall, in Toronto, was thronged for the university sermon by Rev. Dr. Eakin. The new religion formed the theme. Based on the public forgiveness of Mary of Magdalen, the sermon vigorously sledge-hammered the traditional conception of Christianity.

Dr. Eakin declared a greater reform than that of the reformation was rapidly coming in the viewpoint of Christianity. President Eliot of Harvard University was severely criticised for his declarations on the true conception of religion, and the religion of the future. He said that the religion of the future would comprehend persons of good-will.

Too much emphasis had been placed on salvation from the penalty of sin to the detriment of the bigger thing, the question of salvation for service. Christ taught that God is trying to express Himself through humanity. The tragedy of sin was that it prevented that expression.

All that Christ taught about God was that He was kind, and that it was a duty to love God and one's neighbor. It was mere cant to look upon the modern Magdalene as the typical sinner. Like the critics who quailed when challenged by Christ to throw the first stone, the typical sinners were the icily regular and splendidly null persons who were anguished by their own selfishness, and there was no selfishness so selfish as pious selfishness.

"The idea that salvation means an ultimate residential elysium in which you will enjoy the luxury of doing nothing at all is not Christian," he said. "Salvation is the liberation of one's soul from the thralldom of sin for the freedom of service. Christianity was a religion of service. It has been said that God and one man would serve for the establishment of a religion, but it required God and two men to establish Christianity."

There was no heaven in the future for the man or woman who did not aim at helping to make a heaven here. It was not necessary to have all one's intellectual difficulties solved with respect to Christian dogma. All that was necessary was to find out what you did believe in Christ's teachings and act on that and it would tax all your activities.

For sheer power of the human spirit, there was no man ever comparable with Jesus. All that was necessary in fulfilling His gospel was what appealed personally to each one and to express it in the individual life, remembering that no person was saved who did not in spirit become a Savior too.

ZAM-BUK DOES CURE PILES

Mrs. C. Hanson, wife of the proprietor of the Commercial Hotel, Poplar, B.C., suffered from piles for years. Went to doctor after doctor in vain. Finally went to Spokane and had an operation. Twelve months afterwards she was as bad again. She says, "One day I read about Zam-Buk and thought I would try it. The first one or two boxes gave me more ease than anything else I had tried, so I went on with the treatment. In a short time I began to feel altogether different and better, and I saw that Zam-Buk was going to cure me." Well, I went on using it, and by the time I had used six boxes I was delighted to find myself entirely cured.

If you suffer from this painful ailment, or from eczema, ulcers or any skin disease, don't waste time. Try Zam-Buk. See all druggists and stores.

A BOOST FOR MODERN METHODS In some respects the old days were perhaps more to be desired than the present. Before we got to wanting wealth and comfort, we were content with our lot. I have no great desire for them today. I am glad I live today.

Old-fashioned winters I recall—the winters of my youth. I do not now recall that it was fun in those days when I woke to learn the water pipes were frozen and the fire was out.

To win once more the old-time joys I don't believe I'd care, a fact I can't deny. Old-fashioned winters had their charms, a fact I can't deny. But after all I'm really glad that they have wandered by.

We used to tumble out of bed, like firemen, I declare, and grab one's clothes and hike downstairs and finish dressing there. Yes, brag about those days of old, but of them as you will, I sing the modern methods that have robbed them of their charm.

I sing the cheery steam pipe and the upstairs snug and warm. And a spin's that free from shivers as I robe my manly form.

MEALS ONLY GUIDEPOSTS A well-known Fourth avenue banker was sitting in a downtown restaurant eating mush and milk. "What's the matter?" inquired a friend. "Got dyspepsia." "Don't you enjoy your meals?" "Enjoy my meals?" mumbled the indignant dyspeptic. "My meals are merely guideposts to take medicine before or after."—Pittsburg Post.

A MESSAGE TO MEN

WHO ARE WEAK AND AILING

The failure of medicine, of quacks, and even of other so-called electric belts is no argument against Dr. McLaughlin's Electric Belt. No other treatment, no other belt is in the same class with it. Everything else may fail, but Dr. McLaughlin's Belt will cure. It HAS cured thousands who tried other remedies without success.

DR. McLAUGHLIN'S ELECTRIC BELT

This is a message to men. It is to men who want to feel like men, to look like men and act like men. This is to men who lack courage, whose nerves are shaken, whose brains are muddled, whose confidence gone, spirits low and easily depressed, who are backward, hesitating, unable to venture because they are afraid of failure, who want somebody to decide for them, who are weak, puny and restless. It is to men who have part or all of those symptoms and want new life, new force, new vigor.

is no longer an experiment. It is hailed by thousands with loud praise because it has cured them. "It cured me. I am well and strong as ever. What more could one ask?" writes a man with a heart full of gratitude.

Do not be in error. This grand appliance is like no other. It is new. It has all the good points that are known in electricity. It gives a powerful current, but does not burn or blister, because my special cushion electrodes make the current a warm, gentle glow, which exhilarates and relieves at once.

Dear Sir,—I am fully satisfied with the result of your Belt. It is fully as good as you claim. It has made a new man of me. I have gained both weight and strength. Every word turned out to be true. I could not believe at first myself that your Belt was as good as it is. My friends tried to make me believe that your Belt was no good, but I was strong-headed and got your Belt. After wearing it for seven weeks I knew that the Belt was good, and in two months' time I was completely cured. Now all my friends believe in the Belt, but none stronger than I do. I have recommended your Belt far and wide.—ALEX. McDONALD, Dumfries, N. S.

Dear Sir,—I had great pleasure in writing to you that, after a fair trial of your Belt, it has accomplished wonders in so short a time. The indigestion is gone, and I can eat a good, hearty meal now (what I have not done for a long time), and the pain in my back is about gone. In fact, I feel a new man, and will say that I am well satisfied with my bargain.—JOHN BEATTIE, Miss. Ont.

Dear Sir,—You will excuse me for not writing before, but I was in the lumber woods, and did not return until this month. Yes, sir, my back is all right. It is better and stronger now than it has been for thirty years. It is a permanent cure. My head don't bother me; nerves are strong; I am better all over. You can use my name to certify that your Belt is all you claim for it.—GEORGE STANLEY, Perth, Victoria Co., N. B.

"My case has certainly been a very serious one, and one of long standing. I had latterly and so long been unable to do any work at all. Your Belt has worked wonders in my case, as I am working steady now. It is well known here that it is your Belt that has put me on my feet again, and no doubt will be the cause of other sales for you."—WILLIAM J. BYERS, Nipissing, Ont.

"Your Belt has certainly done me a great deal of good in every way, and I shall always recommend your Belt to any one I know that is in need of it."—ROBERT DICK, Kimberley, Que.

"I write to let you know that my health is very good. My back is about cured. The benefit I received from the belt is well worth the price I paid for it. The advice alone is worth the money twice over. My friends tell me that I am looking fine. I tell them I don't know whether I am looking fine or not, but I can tell them that I am feeling fine. I shall speak well of what you have done for me with your Belt and advice. Wishing you every success, I remain, yours very truly, W. H. BELDING, Chance Harbor, N. B.

I know no better way to prove my confidence in the wonderful curative power of my Belt than to cure you before I ask my pay. Can anything be fairer than that?

PAY WHEN CURED

Every weak man wants to feel young again! Such is the wish of the broken-down man, and it may be gratified.

Be Sensible With That Corn

Don't pare it. That merely removes the top layers. And that form of home surgery is dangerous. A slip of the blade means infection. And that means blood poison, sometimes. A chemist has discovered a way to end corns. This discovery is embodied in our B & B wax—the heart of a Blue-jay plaster. Apply this little plaster and the pain ends at once. Then this B & B wax gently loosens the corn. In two days the whole corn, root and all, comes out. No pain, no soreness. You completely forget the corn. There is no other way to do this. That is why Blue-jay is the only treatment used by folks who know. It has removed already fifty million corns. Let it deal with yours.

NEW LONDON PLAY MAKES HIT AT ONCE

Ninety-Eight-Point-Nine Proves To Be Uncommonly Clever Farce

DEATH OF A GENIUS

Bourne Could Turn Out Three Act Play, as Poi Boile, in 24 Hours—Oscar Hammerstein's Troubles—Masagni Pack's Hippodrome

(Times' Special Correspondence) London, March 8.—Everybody in the theatrical world in London is wondering who wrote the play curiously entitled "98.9," pronounced according to English arithmetic, "Ninety-Eight Point Nine," produced this week by Robert Lorraine at the Criterion. The authorship was supposed to be kept a mystery till eight days after the first performance, but the secret was revealed in this correspondence a week ago. The play was written by Chester Bailey Fernald.

The only trouble with "98.9" is that its first act is clever and witty that the other two acts cannot possibly keep up with it, though they are more crowded with entertaining scenes and ingenious business than nine out of ten of the farces one sees on the stage today.

The story is that of a masterful young man who carries on a courtship with a charming girl already in love with him, though he does not know it, with such whirlwind methods and such brazen effrontery that he well-nigh alienates her affection. It is only after he gives up the fight and acknowledges himself beaten that she takes pity on him.

The last act takes place in an upper room of a country cottage which the young lady wanted to buy, and which the young man had brought her here to see. Her idea had been to brick up the windows of what had been the nursery so that she could use it as a studio when she painted pictures. His idea was that the room should be used for exactly the purpose for which it had been intended. He filled it with all sorts of wonderful toys, decorated it with frescoes picturing processions of children and ornamented with such titles as "Multiply and Replenish the Earth," "The More the Merrier," etc., and then tempted her curiously to see what the "studio" was like.

It turned out, however, that his idea of a woman's noblest sphere and her idea of mere so far apart, as he had supposed. That is the underlying motive of this farcical comedy or love-comedy, which kept the audience continually rocking with laughter and was honored with many curtain calls for the company at the end.

Sudden Death of a Genius
There is, by the way, a tragedy attached to the next play after "98.9," that Lorraine was to have produced. It is called "The Other Side of Love," and the author, who had been assisting in the production of "98.9," died suddenly in a hospital here on Saturday, after only a few days' illness. He was Harold Bourne, an amazing sort of man, who really belonged to Murrer's "Vie de Bohème," instead of this grey, steady-going London of today.

Although probably under thirty, he was the hero of more adventures by lead and sea than would be believable in a work of fiction. Whenever he lavished dramatic invention on him in an embarrassment, he would hunt up a typist and dictate a play, making it up as he went along. It was his boast that he had written a three-act play, complete, in twenty-four hours, and that he never took more than an evening to dictate a sketch. The strange thing about it was that the plays thus turned out were always or nearly always, melodramatic. They were so full of ideas and ingenious effects that managers used to buy them outright for a modest amount, but each down with the intention of turning them over to a sedate playwright who would put into them the show-guesses that poor, marvellous, generous, open-handed Bourne would not bother himself to supply.

But there was a real dramatic invention in him than in a dozen ordinary playwrights, and it is safe to say that in the next two years many of his ideas will find their way to the footlights without his name attached.

It is only fair to Lorraine to add that he bought "The Other Side of Love" at an advance on royalty, and if Bourne had lived to put more work into it, he had promised the results, as far as a comic judge from reading the MS., would have been such that the author would not have had to sell further work at absurd cash prices.

It was so bad I could not sleep at night, so I went to a druggist and told him I wanted something for my cold and he advised me to try Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup which I did, and after taking one bottle I was completely cured. # COAL Better Than HARD COAL

What You are Really Interested in is the Amount of Heat You Can Buy for a Dollar

A dollar invested in good soft coal at St. John prices will furnish more heat than an equal investment in Hard Coal. This must be true or manufacturers would use hard coal for steam. Granting this then, why is it that every one does not use soft coal in the home? Is it not on account of the SOOT? Also because most soft coals require poking and breaking up to keep them burning.

If You Could Get a Soft Coal as Clean as Anthracite, One That Will Not Cake Over or Coke When Burning, Don't You Think it Would Be the Ideal Household Fuel?

BROAD COVE COAL

Broad Cove is Known as the Soft Coal Free From Soot. It Does Not Mat Over or Coke. It is used in Ranges, Furnaces and Heating Stoves without fear of the soot trouble so common with all other soft coals. It will not cake over or cokes when burning—every lump burns by itself. Broad Cove gives you the quick sharp blaze of a wood fire, and then a glowing bed of burning coals—perfect for toasting or broiling.

The Game in St. John.

One of the good sports which has survived the changes of years and lost nothing of its good qualities promises to be given an impetus in St. John next summer. This is the game of quoits. While the devotees are not heard from so often as the baseball men, they, nevertheless, are less enthusiastic in their interest in the sport.

There will probably be at least three teams in a proposed league. The Mount Pleasant players have a strong adversary in the Newman Brook team which is not active for honors, and it is expected that the Algerians of West St. John will be in the race; and there may be others.

Wrestling

Frenchman Won.

Ottawa, March 15.—Raymond Cassez, French wrestler, again proved too much for John Abo, German, in a short but spirited match in the exhibition park to night. Cassez won by his tremendous rushes, which seemed to baffle the German. Both falls were won by Cassez with a belly hold, the first in fourteen and a half minutes, and the second in twelve.

Highly talented, lightweight champion of Australia, who is to visit the states in the summer, is out with a challenge to meet "Wolcott." The Australian title holder has yet to show that he is in the same class with Tom Jones' wonderful batter. He recently had his troubles in defeating Fitz Picato of San Francisco. Picato is only a fair second-rater. Australia has not produced many good fighters during the last few years.

It is a terrific game they go against, and although they get as fair a chance as the limited season permits, the difficulties they must surmount are numerous and formidable.

Of the fifteen who go back, one gets another chance in some succeeding year.

Walah Is In It.

The "Boston American" of Thursday prints a picture of a bowling artist well known to local followers of the game, Archie Walsh, who lived in St. John, his native city, in his younger days, but who for some years past has been residing in East Boston.

Walsh is entered in the American's championship bowling contest in which there are 232 men participating, and he is known as the "fast bowler." When in St. John a little while ago he showed local admirers of the game a few points which caused their eyes to open at the size of the numbers after "his strings."

Basket Ball

A fast game of basket ball was played last evening at Hampton between the Y. M. C. A. team of St. John and the Hampton team. D. Scribner acted as referee. Much credit is due to H. Brooks who put up a strong forward against the able opposition of W. McGuire. The teams lined up as follows:

Y. M. C. A. Forwards. Hampton. C. Malcolm..... Brooks. Robinson..... A. Seely. McGarry..... H. Scribner, Capt. Guards.

McCoyle..... M. Scribner. W. McGuire, Capt. R. Bovard. Two good games of basket ball were played in Andover last night. In the first game the Andover girls defeated the Florenceville girls, two to nothing. In the second match the Florenceville boys won by a score of six to two.

Hockey

Ottawa, March 15.—Tommy Smith, Ed. Murphy and Billy Hague of the Moncton team, are back in town. The Ottawa hockey team will leave for New York this afternoon, taking Cyclone Fred Taylor along. They will play Quebec in both Boston and New York.

before the Unity Club of Manchester, N. H., next week, has been promised a date with Battling Nelson. Alger has already met the Hegewich idol once and was credited with having the best of the milling. Benny Shay, the New Bedford promoter, was in this city yesterday and wanted to get Brooks to meet Matty Ballwin at his club on March 25, but "Fighting Terry" was unable to accept his offer.

Scottish Champion is After McFarland. Johnny Connolly, the Scottish lightweight champion, may meet Paeky McFarland of Chicago at New Bedford on April 2. Eddie Mack's mixer has already signed articles and Benny Shay is now after the stock yard whirlwind. Connolly is a very classy mixer and it is confident that he would be able to give McFarland a stiff argument.

Jeanette Claims Title. New York, March 15.—Joe Jeanette, the clever negro heavyweight, has claimed the title of the heavyweight championship of the south in consequence of his victory over Dewey at Chattanooga, Tenn., at the Long Acre A. C. The referee stopped the fight in the seventh round to save Dewey from a knockout.

Fitzsimmons Sued. Chicago, Ill., March 16.—The trouble between "Bob" Fitzsimmons, former heavyweight champion, and John Taylor, a United States boxer, was settled yesterday, when Taylor filed two suits for $25,000 each against the champion.

The Harvester Sold for $50,000. C. K. Billings has bought the Harvester, 201 for $50,000. Only a few harness horses were ever sold for more than $50,000. The highest price on record is $125,000, paid by J. Malcolm Forbes, of Boston, to Senator Leonard Stanford, in 1891, for the two-year-old colt, Arion, 2:07 3/4, by Electioneer, out of Manette, by Nutwood, 2:18 3/4. Arion, 2:12, was sold in 1898 by Charles W. Williams, of Independence, Iowa, to a syndicate made up of W. P. James, now president of the American Trotting Association; Budd Doble, John W. Conley, Fred I. Moran and another.

Through advice from Milwaukee, where The Harvester was owned by the estate of the late August Ullian, Ullian, 2:12, was sold in 1898 by Charles W. Williams, of Independence, Iowa, to a syndicate made up of W. P. James, now president of the American Trotting Association; Budd Doble, John W. Conley, Fred I. Moran and another.

Mr. Billings intends to ship the champion stallion to Russia next month in company with Ullian, 1:38 3/4, for a series of exhibitions in St. Petersburg and elsewhere, it is understood that his new owner will later use the fast horse for stock purposes. Mr. Billings owns a small but select band of brood mares, headed by the windmill champion, Lou Dillon, 2:01, and has lately shown an interest in breeding trotters. He selected The Harvester as a mate for Lou Dillon two years ago, but changed his mind and bred her to Moko.

The Harvester was foaled in 1905 at Donnell, Ky., where he was bred and raised by L. W. Harkness of New York. The colt was sold by auction, undeveloped and, it was said, unbroken, in February, 1905, in Madison Square Garden, New York, for $9,000 for him and turned him over to Ed Geers, who drove him to the fall of that year and won the Kentucky Futurity with him. He lowered his record to 2:06 3/4 at four-year-old, and at five set the mark at 2:01, which is the fastest time on record for a trotting stallion. He has never been beaten but once. Horsemen expected to see him trot in 2:00 or better last season, but he trained out and could not equal his record. He will now go into the hands of a new trainer, Charles Tanner, who drove Ullian to his record of 1:38 3/4.

Baseball Had to Break in. When the ambitious young bush leaver says good bye to his parents and walks to the depot with populace fighting for the honor of carrying his bag he begins to feel the big league atmosphere filling his lungs.

Day by day the folks back home watch the papers, waiting for the led to break into the headlines.

Alas, the pity of it! How slender is that chance.

In the last ten years 3,200 bushers have been tried out at the spring training camps. Less than 200 have succeeded. Fifteen out of every sixteen go trailing back to the minors, unhonored and unused.

It is a terrific game they go against, and although they get as fair a chance as the limited season permits, the difficulties they must surmount are numerous and formidable.

Of the fifteen who go back, one gets another chance in some succeeding year.

JOE DELAHANTY

Popular outfielder of the Toronto baseball club of the International League, who has been given his unconditional release, after some years good service. He is said to have several offers from other Canadian baseball leagues.

Should President Murphy want Gandil and succeed in getting him, there are two men in the International League who would be "showed up" and that, regardless of whether he was a success or not if Gandil was a hit, then Edward Harrow, president of the league, and John Dunn, manager of the Baltimore Orioles, would have the laugh on Geo. T. Stallings, manager of the Buffalo club, and on one other manager in the league. Should Gandil fall, then Stallings and the unidentified leaguer would have the laugh on Harrow and Dunn. They say the deal is still on for Joe.

Not Lako, the new Providence manager, says the Greys will get the best seven teams hustle this year.

Frank P. Parke is of the opinion that more "bone head" plays are pulled off regularly in the National League than in the south.

"Slim" Sallee, of the St. Louis Cardinals, has come out with the statement that Johnny Hayes, a clever Cincinnati outfielder, gives him as much if not more trouble than any left-hander that faces him.

Some Bostonian has invented a new plate to be worn on the shoes of baseball players, and he has sent a sample to President Drayton, who refuses to endorse or invent the invention.

The famous fallaway slide which Manager McMurrow has so well perfected among the Giants, is said to have been first used successfully by Mike Kelley, the famous $10,000 beauty. Fred Pfeffer, an old-time ball player, says that Kelley could slide into a base just as gracefully as Ty Cobb. It was when "King" Kelley first introduced the trick into the game that the slogan, "Slide, Kelley, slide" was originated.

Mike Doolin is anxious to try for the job in Pittsburgh. Manager Fred Clarke, when asked about it the other day, said that Doolin would be given a chance to show his ability as a first baseman.

Mr. Brown is back-back in the fold of the Chicago Cubs. He said he wouldn't sign at all, but he was only kidding. He has not only signed, but he has put it down in black and white that he will play the next three years in Chicago.

BRIGHT ANSWER. (Tattler.) The Indignant Customer (who has ordered chicken-and-ham pie)—Look here, waiter, what's the matter with this pie? There's no chicken in it! The Waiter—Well, sir, you wouldn't expect to find a dog in a dog biscuit, would you?

THE LONGEST COUGH ON RECORD (London Standard.) The tiger came toward me howling and grunting, and when he got opposite the screen he gave one of those fearful coughs which only a man who has been exposed to such a beast can appreciate. It was eleven feet long.

OPERA HOUSE 3 NIGHTS AND SAT. MATINEE Beginning Thursday, March 21. THE SEASON'S COMEDY TRIUMPH

A. G. Delamater Announces The Eminent English Character Actor WILLIAM HAWTREY

MARRIED IN THE MAKING Have you ever noticed that half the troubles of the young housewife are of her own seeking? She will take the new little bit of cold roast beef or mutton, hash it, mix it, stew it, spread as much as two hours in turning it into a tough, colorless, over-salted or over-peppered dish. She is anxious all the time she is cooking it, most anxious of all, as the husband, upon whom she has wasted all her endeavors, tries to make light of the failure, and blies his tongue in an attempt to repress the wish that she had left the meat cold, and merely set it on a clean dish, with a sprig or two of parsley and a garnish, and a bottle of H. P. Sauce as a relish.

But young housewives learning wisdom, hundreds and thousands of them, have wasted all her endeavors, tries to make light of the failure, and blies his tongue in an attempt to repress the wish that she had left the meat cold, and merely set it on a clean dish, with a sprig or two of parsley and a garnish, and a bottle of H. P. Sauce as a relish.

H. P. Sauce sells in bigger and bigger quantities every week. Cold meat is coming back to its honored place in the homey little family—and not only so, but the housewives have discovered that a little H. P. is a rich, thick sauce, not hot, but piquant and fruity flavored; it is made of the choicest tropical fruits and spices and pure malt vinegar.

When you must hash, or mince, or stew, just see for yourself what a difference is wrought to the dish by the addition of a teaspoonful of this delicious sauce, but be sure it is H. P.
