The Assembly and the Country.

The position of affairs in the House Assembly brings to the electors of St. John for solution a practical question that can not be winked out of sight or its consideration even postponed. Whatever other parts of the country or other journalists may feel or think on the subject, as a St. John journal, devoted specially to St. John interests, The TRIBUNE is bound to examine the proposal to change the Government of the Province, in its bearing upon the constituencies of the City and County of St. John. We are brought face to face with the question, "Would St. John interests be safer in the keeping of Michael W. Maher and Aaron Alward than in the hands of the men who now administer the Government of the country?" Looking at the record of those whom we have named, on the School question,-knewing, as we do but to protest against their acts. The that in the matter of Sectarian Schools Government are undoubtedly in a critical these men are thoroughly in favor of the principle which has just been condemned in Westmoreland, -knowing the wishes of two thirds of this constituency to be in hostility to the views of Messrs. Meeting of Nova Scotians in Boston. Young's Hotel for the purpose of talking the matter over with a view to ultimate organization. One gentleman explaired at length the project as it had presented tself to the minds of some. It was the design to form a society which any conveniences could be added, if desired. Nova Scotian might join by paying two dollars, for which he would receive handsome certificate, to hang up in his house or place of business, thus introducing himself, as it were, to all visitors. and at the same time it would serve as a bond of union between Nova Scotians. A of public business, leaving them no option headquarters could be used as a sort position, and if they are saved it will be by those who owe them no favors but who place principle high above mere personal zation would be comparatively small. Already a historical lecture on the different counties of Nova Scotia had been promised by a prominent gentleman, and an amateur concert had been suggested. Other lecures and entertainments could be given with much advantage to the exchequer of the society. It was claimed that the new ciety would not interfere in the least with the Benevolent Nova Scotia Association already organized, but on the cor trary would be an advantage to it by making Nova Scotians better acquainted with each other. In regard to the organization it was proposed to gentleman for President, and eighteen others for Vice-Presidents, to give characr., found so much pleasure, it is inter- ter to the society in the eyes of the com le abroad, but the real

INAUGURATION OF THE CHURCH TEMPER-ANCE UNION .- A meeting of members of the Church of England who advocate temper ance principles has been held at Manches ster. The meeting resolved itself into general committee to organize and spread throughout the kingdom a Church Tem perance Union, whose object shall be, first, to promote personal abstinence amongst Churchmen as an example to assist in reclaiming the intemperate and stopping drunkenness in the nation; secondly, to aid in promoting all sound legislation for regulating the sale of intoxicating liquors.

Fifty Cents for a Wife. [From the Boston Traveller, March 4]

A funny looking specimen of humanity has been perambulating several of our streets for a few days past and going into our warehouses and informing the clerks CHOICE ENGLISH CONGOU TEA. For that he was very much in want of a wife, that he had been trying for a long time and had not succeeded. He seemed terri bly in earnest and was willing to pay any one who would recommend him.

When asked what price he was willing to give he said fifty cents. He had on a somewhat ancient-looking hat, with the crown more or less jammed, Received and for sale by JOHN CHRISTY. pants tucked inside of them, and his hair was long and matted and had the appearance of not having been combed for the or less tattered, and he really looked as if he needed just what he was in search of. He said he resided near Tufts College, and could give a wife a real good home on a farm. Take him all in all, he was the farm. Take him all in all, he was the funniest looking specimen that has moved around these parts.

be sure to ask for W. H. ATKINSON'S Co-Partnership. Champion Plate Polish THE Subscribers have this day entered into a Co-Partnership, as SOAP and CANDLE MANUFACTURERS, under the style and firm Logan & Stewart.

WHICH will save considerable time and trouble, and will be found invaluable, as it will clean the article from dirt or grease, as well as produce a most brilliant polish.

The Proprietor can, with the greatest confidence, recommend his "Champion Plays Polish" as an article superior to anything of the kind ever offered to the public. One trial of it will ensure constant use: and as it saves so much time and labour, besides producing a very lasting polish, Housekeepers will find it worth their while to use "Atkinson's Champion Plays Polish," for cleaning and polishing all kinds of silver and plated goods.

This article is done up in fancy boxes, of different colcurs, at seventeen cents each.

The Halifax "Citizen." Tri-Weekly, $2 50 in advance. Weekly, 1.00 "

ESTABLISHED IN 1863. V THE combined circulation of the Tri-Weekly and Weekly CITIZEN is now over 5000, considerably larger than that of any other paper published in the Province, and thus the best medium for advertising. This statement we are prepared to prove by our books, and challenge contradiction. Terms of advertising as follows: Per square of 12 lines, first insertion,......$1 00 observation of the second of t six months, 12 60
Commercial Cards, not exceeding 12 lines, one year. 20 00 One year, and the with those desiring more space, or inserting advertisements for a long period. The above rates are for the Tri-Weekly only. If the Weekly be desired in addition one-half must be added to those prices. If Weekly only, price the same as Tri-Weekly. To Merchants and others desiring to obtain reliable reports of the Halifax markets, we can confidently recommend the CITIZEN. It being in fact the only paper issued in Halifax which publishes a regular Commercial Review. Several other journals have attemped it, but have allowed it to drop. In its shipping reports the CITIZEN has always been acknowledged to be in advance of any journal published in the Maritime Provinces, and this has given it a circulation specially large among the persons advertisers most desire to reach. Merchants, Shipowners and men of means generally. It contains more rending matter than any other Halifax Tri-Weekly or Weekly, and wis the largest paper published in the Province. All orders to be addressed to the Mannager CITIZEN PURLISHING COMPANY, LOCK Drawer, No. 9, Post Office, Halifax, N. S. Liberal arrangements made with those desir-A PPLICATION will be made to the Legislature of New Brunswick, at its next ression, to obtain a charter for the construction of a line of Railway from a point on the Western Extension Railway, near Harvey, to a point on the New Brunswick and Canada Railway, near Canterbury, in the Country of York.

NOTICES OF THE WISDOM OF THE KING

Rev. James Bennet, ST. JOHN, N. B.

FVIDENCES of deep and serious thought throughout the volume."-Belfast News Letter, Jan. 24, 1871. "Succeeds well in seizing on the salient points of the words of the Royal Preacher, and in bringing them home to present duty."—Glasgow Daily Review, Feb. 6, 1871. "Characterized by directness of aim, sound sense, and right appreciation of the sacred writer's meaning."—The Preachers' Lantern, (London), Feb. 1871. "It is a good book of sterling value."-The British and Foreign Ecclesiastical Review, April "His Book may be recommended as worthy o take a place in the Homiletical Literature of coclesiastes," - British Quarterly Review, April "The production of a highly cultivated mind.
... We have read several works on Eccleiastes, and well remember the pleasure with which years ago we perused the 'Royal Preacher,' but for fine criticism, comprehensiveness of thought, striking illustration and unostentatious.yet eloquent and forcible style, The WisBOM OF THE KING, we think, surpasses them all."
—St. Croix Courier, March 6, 1871. "The volume is not an unworthy companion of Dr. Buchanan on the same book."—The Homilist (London), April 1971.

milist (London), April 1971.

"A series of charming Essays. . . . Each chapter branches out into innumerable topics of a secondary and collateral nature, giving to the work a boundless diversity enriched with stores of ethical as well as of spiritual wisdom, evincing at once acute observation of social life and of human character, and containing the noblest lessons for practical guidance. Our author's style is remarkable for its free, unconstrained flow, almost collequial at times, but invariably signalized by elegance. force, adaptation to the subject, and not seldom by originality of thought in combination with terseness and beauty of expression . . There is about it a freshness, as well as a fullness of practical teaching, rarely to be met with in ordinary Biblical commentaries."—Londonderry Standard, Feb. 15, 1871. "This is a bright, breezy book, both interesting and instructive. We can most conscientiously commend this book generally, as one of the most sprightly, attractive and instructive works of its kind that has fallen under our observation."—Boston Evening Traveller, May 8th. 1871 servation. 6th, 1871.

"Every portion of the work indicates ex-tensive scholarship and mature thought."— Belfast Northern Whig. April 8th, 1871. DARRELS Howland's Flour: 100 do Snow Flake Extra, now landing.

"So plain yet so suggestive, so practical yet so profound are these Lectures that while you read them you feel their deep ruth and reality; that you are in contact with realities both visible and invisible; what you are in close contact with the beating heart of nature and humanity, and that all their life and hope flow full and free from God alone."—Fredericton Head Quarters, March 1st, 1871.

"We were not prepared to find him writing in such a finished style and issuing such a volume as 'the result of certain preparations made for an evening lecture to his congregation.' If all his pulpit perfermances are equal to these, his people have reason to rejoice in the Providence which guided his steps to them."—
Exangelical Witness, May.1st 1871.

Evangelical Witness, May let 1871.

"This is a remarkably thoughtful, solid book! Mr. Bennet is evidently at home in Metaphysics and Ethies, and he is a shrewd observer of human nature in its ordinary manifestations; consequently he ranges over the lessons of the Preacher with a power of illustration which shows his mastery of the subject. The style is close and direct, and yet so lucid, that any reader may understand every sentence in the volume. . It will, we doubt not, take its place, as it ought to do, among our household expositions of this treatise of observation and Jewish wisdom."—The Presbyterian (Philadelphia), May 20, 1871.

POLICE OF THE KING has but to be known to be prized as a work that the world will not willingly let die."—Saint John Telegraph and Journal.

"The Wisdom of the King is well worth."

"THE WISDOM OF THE KING is well worth careful reading. Indeed you cannot read much of it at once. There is a constant play of fancy about the thoughts, and often the very words, that is admirably suited to the Scripture book, of which this is an exposition, but which demands such constant attention on the reader's part that he gets tired, for he does not know where it is to end. The style is compact, lucid, often sparkling and epigrammatic, the sentences cut sharply, but with a poetic fullness of original all lustration that redeems them from all hardness."—Halifax Monthly Record, (Church of Scotland).

"Each chapter is so well done, so lucid, yet concise in its exposition, that it is sometimes d flicult to determine which is the best and most interesting.—Stewart's Quarterly, St. John. A few copies of the above work may be had at Messrs. McMillan's, Chubb's, Barnes's,
