ISN'T DEAD.

London, Sept. 10.—Advices from the Soudan show that the report of the death of the Khalifa Abdullah, the leader of the Mahdists, was untrue.

CANADIAN EXPORT TRADE.

London, Sept. 10.—The imports into Great Britain from Canada increased 31 per cent during August, as compared with August of 1895. The imports from Canada for eight months increased £1,400,000, or nearly 30 per cent.

VERY MILD.

London, Sept. 10.—Following is the text of the unanimous note from the various embassies at Constantinople sent to the Sultan on Aug. 27: "We regret the events. They ought to cease immediately; otherwise they will bring prejudice upon Turkey and your dynasty."

RATE OF DISCOUNT RAISED.

London, Sept. 10.—The Bank of England has increased its rate of discount 1-2 per cent to 2 1-2. This is the first time the rate has been changed in two years, and was brought about by the heavy withdrawals of gold during the past three weeks.

TALK OF CARVING TURKEY.

London, Sept. 10.—It is stated by a man who has occupied a high official position, and who has been interested in the eastern question for more than half a century, that the partition of Turkey is today more within the region of practical politics than it has been at any one time since the battle of Navarino.

SIXTEEN TO BE SHOT.

London, Sept. 10.—A number of officers in the Greek army who deserted from their commands and joined the insurgents in the Island of Crete, recently returned to Athens and gave themselves up to the military authorities. Decrees have been signed condemning sixteen of them to death. The executions of the condemned men will take place at Nauplia.

ARMENIAN PRISONERS RELEASED.

London, Sept. 10.—The Constantinople correspondent of the Times telegraphs that many Armenian prisoners were released yesterday, and that those who had sought refuge on ships in the harbor have been allowed to disembark. The Government is inclined to grant amnesty to those who took part in the recent rioting.

France will shortly sign a commercial treaty with Turkey, after which the Porte will negotiate for similar treaties with Austria and Italy.

JAPS HAVE AN EYE ON AUSTRALIA.

London, Sept. 10.—A dispatch from Melbourne says that Mr. Coote, ex-member of the Tasmanian Parliament, has just returned from Japan, and he says that the Japanese are looking to Australia as an outlet for their surplus population. Mr. Coote says that the general talk among military men is that in the event of ill-feeling Japan would send men-of-war to seize territory, and develop a large portion of Northern Australia.

TELEPHONING ACROSS THE ATLANTIC.

London, Sept. 10.—London papers make much of the alleged discovery of Kildeschewsky, the Moscow electrician, who claims to be able to make practicable telephonic communication between London and New York. The inventor says he has been asked to test the invention over an Atlanic cable. The managers of all the cable lines deny any knowledge of this Russian inventor and make light of his alleged discovery. Preece, the chief Government electrician, declares the whole story is wildly improbable.

THE EXPLORER AT HOME.

London, Sept. 10.—Dr. Nansen, the Arctic explorer, arrived at Christiana, Norway, yesterday afternoon on board his vessel, the Fram, and was given a great national reception. The Fram was met by a small naval squadron, and a fleet of 70 passenger steamers, and escorted up the fjord. All along the shores the buildings and shipping were profusely decorated with flags and bunting, and as the explorer's vessel passed up the cannons of the warships boomed and the crowds gathered along the banks cheered. Dr. Nansen proceeded to the royal palace, where he was given a hearty welcome by King Oscar and the Crown Prince. In the evening a state banquet was given in his honor.

THE IRISH CONVENTION.

London, Sept. 10.—Mr. John Redmond, in addressing the National League at Dublin denounced the recent Irish convention held in that city as a sham. Not a single Parnellite, he said, was there, while the Healy followers were absent. Nobody would pretend to guess the exact number who would support Mr. Healy, but he believed that it was fair to say that nearly half of the anti-Parnellite members of the House of Commons might be regarded as Healyites, and probably the proportion in the country was the same. He did not desire to be disrespectful to the Irishmen in America or elsewhere abroad, but he denied to them the right to dictate the policy of Irishmen in Ireland. Among the well-intentioned American delegates, there were not three who were known to him as taking any part in Irish affairs in America. The same might be said of other foreign delegates. He applauded the work which the Tory Government had done for Ireland during the past session of Parliament, and he compared it with the barren record of Mr. John Morley, formerly Chief Secretary for Ireland.

LABOR'S PARLIAMENT.

London, Sept. 10.—At yesterday's session of the British Trades and Labor Council, Mr. J. H. Wilson, M.P., of the National Sailors' and Firemen's Union, moved: "That this congress condemns the Government for persistently refusing to carry out the fair wages resolution passed by the House of Commons on Feb. 13, 1891, and especially condemns them for retaining upon their list of contractors and extensively employing certain notorious 'blackleg' firms, whose true characters are perfectly well known; and that the parliamentary committee be instructed to take whatever steps they may deem necessary to have these firms struck off the list of Government contractors, or required to pay the trade union rate of wages current in the London district." The motion was adopted.

CHAMBERLAIN RIDICULED.

London, Sept. 10.—A report of an interview with the Right Hon. Joseph Chamberlain, Secretary of State for the Colonies, who is now in Aemrica, has been cabled and published here, wherein that gentleman says that the statement made in London dispatches, published in the United States, that his recent eulogy of Mr. T. M. Healy, to whom he alluded as the greatest living Irishman, is ridiculed by the newspapers as mere nonsense.

The Westminster Gazette sarcastically comments upon Mr. Chamberlain's statement, saying: "We must confess that we are charmed with Mr. Chamberlain's naivete, especially when he adds proudly that 'the English are not that kind of people.' We think Mr. Chamberlain is hardly justified in his boast, whatever he may have meant. Both the English and the Irish are just that kind of people."

FRANCO-CANADIAN CONNECTION

London, Sept. 10.—Direct steamship conection has been established between France and Canada by the Franco-Belgian Company, in which Belgian, French and English capitalists are interested. The company will work in connection with the Compagnie du Chayeurs du Nord, which will supply communication with the leading French ports. The vessels of the line will make bi-monthly trips between Montreal, Bologne and Antwerp in summer and monthly trips between St. John and Halifax and the same ports in winter. New vessels, of the fast class, will be built of 2,500 tons' capacity and of a speed of at least ten knots an hour. While the vessels are being built the service will be supplied by the Holme line. Information received from London states that a deposit of $25,000 has been made to guarantee the service.

SPAIN HAS HER HANDS FULL.

Madrid, Sept. 10.—Fifteen hundred troops embarked on board the steamer Montserrat for the Philippine Islands yesterday.

Official advices from Manilla say that the Philippine Islands' rebels, who were entrenched at Cavite, have retreated into the interior, burning the houses along their line of march.

A Cabinet Council was held yesterday, at which Admiral Beranger, Minister of Marine, demanded a credit of 35,000,000 pesetas, for the purpose of defraying the expenses of prosecuting the war in Cuba for the month of September.

The members of the revolutionary junta in Madrid, who have been proved to be in correspondence with the rebels and with refugees in Florida and New York, have been sent for trial before a summary court-martial. They include noted lawyers, the professor of penal law in the Havana University, the president of the College of Music and two wealthy merchants.

Labor's Parliament.

Better System of Public Education Needed.

Old Age Pensions for Municipal Employes, and Other Advantages Advocated.

Edinburgh, Sept. 10.—The British Trades Unions Congress today resumed its sessions. The National Union of Gas Workers and General Laborers of Great Britain and Ireland presented the following resolution: "That in the opinion of this congress, where grants of public money are given for educational purposes, there should be also public control; and that our present system of state education, based as it is on commercialism and being out of harmony with the economic forces which are working towards collectivism, does not supply the educational needs of the nation; and therefore it is imperative that our educational system should be completely remodelled on such a basis as to secure the democratic principle of equality of opportunity, and by the introduction into every state school of the best results of educational science to make it possible for English children to obtain such training—physical, intellectual and moral—as may tend to make them worthy citizens of a co-operative commonwealth. We therefore instruct the Parliamentary committee to urge on the Government the need for introducing an amended measure on the lines indicated by this resolution."

After the motion had been amended so as to leave the Parliamentary committee a free hand to deal with future educational proposals, the measure was adopted in substance.

The National Municipal Labor Union then submitted the following resolution: "That this body of trades unionists of the United Kingdom wish their Parliamentary committee to consider advisability of at once moving the Government to bring in a bill making it compulsory for all municipal bodies to adopt some practical scheme of old age pensions for their employes."

The motion was adopted.

The Operative Stone Masons' Society submitted the following motion: "That in the opinion of this Congress the time has arrived when political differences among trades unionists should cease to be a barrier in uniting us on the one broad platform of the workers' interests in the Imperial Legislature of this country, and we instruct the parliamentary committee to submit the following questions to the trades unions:

"First—Are your members willing to subscribe one penny per quarter to a fund for the purpose of contesting seats and supporting bonafide trade unionist candidates for Parliamentary honors pledged to neither of the old political parties, viz., Tory or Liberal.

Second—The fund to be under the direct management of the election machinery worked from the center of the parliamentary committee. The payment of members and other details to be worked out by the committee.

"Third—In the event of a sufficient number of replies being received to guarantee the raising of funds for the above purpose as would warrant the committee taking steps to bring about the results indicated, they are to give notice when the first subscription becomes due."

The resolution was defeated. The same organization submitted a resolution to the fact that the time for the duration of the Congress sessions shall be extended for a fortnight; but, it was also defeated. The Congress upon the motion of the National Federation of Watchmakers, Jewelers, etc., adopted a motion that the Congress gives its entire support to the movement in favor of the total repeal of the plate licenses.

No Compromise.

Spain Must Either Conquer or Abandon Cuba.

The Rebels Are More Than Holding Their Own.

London, Sept. 10.—The Times publishes a lengthy letter from its Havana correspondent dealing with the state of affairs in Cuba, in the course of which he says:

"Careful study for the past four months convinces me that, despite serious losses, the rebels are holding their own against the troops. The wealthy agricultural districts are completely under rebel control, and the whole sympathy of the islanders is with the rebels. Even Havana, which is more Spanish than any other town or district, is permeated with animosity towards Spanish rule, and is honeycombed with intriguers on behalf of the rebellion.

"It is quite false to call it a color struggle. In the fighting ranks of the insurgents, the proportion is 70 per cent of whites to 30 per cent of negroes.

"Another fallacy of the rebel contention is that Spanish misrule originated the rebellion. The crisis in the sugar trade was much more formidable in fomenting the revolt. The struggle is prolonged by the facility with which the insurgents obtain ammunition and stores of all kinds from abroad, and, from every town in Cuba, under the noses of the Spanish officials, with impunity, the seizure of contraband being most rare.

"It is now too late to compromise by granting reforms. The Cuban insurgents will now accept full autonomy as the price of yielding their arms. I say this advisedly, after a careful examination of the situation from all points of view. Spain will be compelled to conquer or to abandon the island. This irreconcilable attitude of the rebels is largely due to the wholesale execution of the rebels after summary trial. These drastic measures only increase the hatred of Spain without deterring recruits from joining the rebellion.

"Another reason is the hopeless prospect of any rehabilitation of Cuban credit, while the island is under Spanish dominion. Taxation must be heavily increased to pay the burdens of the war. Hence the people with vested interests prefer the risk and uncertainties of independence coupled with the earnest hope that at no distant date Cuba will become a state of the American Union."

ONTARIO DRUGGISTS.

Toronto, Sept. 10.—The annual meeting of the Ontario Society of Retail Druggists was held yesterday. The officers' report showed that the society was in a flourishing condition, about seven-eighths of the entire body of druggists in the Province being paid-up members. A proposal to take steps looking to the inauguration of a Dominion organization was well received. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, G. E. Gibbard, Toronto; vice-president, L. W. Youmans, Belleville; secretary, J. T. Pepper, Woodstock. Among the executive are: R. Ferrah, Galt; W. T. Strong, London; J. Auston, Simcoe; J. E. D'Avignon, Windsor. It was decided to place the annual fee at $5.

GUELPH VS. HAMILTON.

Hamilton Times: This morning arrangements were made with Guelph to begin the Canadian cup series here on Monday. Games will be played every day, either in Hamilton or Guelph, until the series of twelve is completed. Another pitcher will likely be secured, the management and the players being determined, if possible, to win the greatest honors by defeating the champions.

CANADIAN LEAGUE DISBANDED.

The Hamilton-London game scheduled for yesterday was called off, and the Canadian League disbanded for this year. The League's usefulness was gone when the pennant race was over, and it would be unprofitable to finish the season. The future of the League is doubtful, but the probabilities are that it will be re-established next year on the same basis. None of the teams have made a pot of money, but all, except Galt, have cleared expenses. The standing of the clubs is:

	Won.	Lost.	P.C.
Guelph	20	14	.588
Hamilton	16	17	.485
Galt	12	14	.466
London	14	17	.452

THE HAMS AND LEAFS.

Although the Alerts have disbanded and the Canadian League broken up, the Hamilton and Guelph teams are going to have a special series between themselves. The first game is on Saturday. The Hams have withdrawn their protest against Guelph.

FLYS.

After trying all of the second basemen in sight, Anson is convinced that there is no one like Fred Pfeffer.

The season closed at Milwaukee, Kansas City and St. Paul yesterday.

Detroit News: The Toronto farm has cost the Pittsburg management $5,000 this season, so far.

Joe Corbett pitched his first full game since he became a member of the Orioles against Louisville Tuesday, and held the Colonels down to six hits.

Detroit News: Fisher has filled in a nice hole in the catching department of Detroit. He has been putting up a very fast game behind the stick. His batting yesterday was a feature of the game.

Callahan performed a trick that will stand as a record-breaker for some time to come. It is very seldom that when a man is sent in to bat in place of a weak hitter that he makes a safe one. Callahan, however, poked out the ball for four bases when every one of the bags were occupied.

The collections taken up on Monday at the ball game in St. Thomas amounted to $174 23.

A players' benefit game is to be played between the Alerts and Arlingtons on Saturday afternoon. There will be competitions in base-running and long distance ball throwing.

"Pud" Myers, a Hamilton ex-baseball player, fell and broke one of his ankles in that city Wednesday afternoon. He was removed to the City Hospital.

The Alert players will have a benefit game at Tecumseh Park on Saturday with the Arlingtons. They will try for the long distance throwing and the base-running records.

The Alert players will scatter after Saturday. Of the new men Snyder remains in the city, where he has a position; Mertsch and Clark return to Michigan, and Humphrey and Strowger go back to Toronto.

Albert Woods, late of the Alerts, has been signed to pitch for the St. Thomas Y. M. C. As.

BOWLING.

THE TOURNAMENT OVER.

The great tournament of the Western Ontario Bowling Association is over. For the past three days the London Club's grounds have been the scene of lively operations, but today, like a calm after the storm, the place has lapsed into a state of quiet and rest. Those who participated in the contest (especially Mr. J. S. McDougall and Secretary Edmund Weld, who have both worked and played) will doubtless for the next week have ringing in their ears such phrases as "We're laying two shots now, John," "Oh, it's a beauty," "It's too hard," "When we play this end we'll have a bowl," "Take all that green," "Come in there," "Just draw up in there, colonel," "Look at it coming," "Now Sandy, we have to get down to business." One thing is certain, no better weather ever favored a tournament, and this added much to the success of the whole affair. London simply was not in it for the championship trophy, and was an easy victim in the consolation match. The local club did more effective bowling in the singles and doubles. As the matter now stands, E. T. Lightburn, Toronto Victorias, will have the pleasure of gazing on the Labatt trophy for the next year at least, while the other members of his rink—F. Lightburn, Kenneth Cameron and A. H. Baines—may play with their own bowls which they have won in the contest as a bonus. Dr. Wood's (Mitchell) rink—S. A. Hodge, J. Dougherty and Dr. Burritt—will now be permitted to receive the cards of their many friends who will call to congratulate them on the handsome silver salvers they won in the consolation. Messrs. J. S. McDougall and E. Weld, London, will parade with the assistance of the silver-headed walking canes, while Messrs. Hodge and Dougherty, Mitchell, will drink from pewter mugs, with glass bottoms. The former pair won first in the doubles and the latter pair took the second prize. In the final of the singles, Dr. Wood, Mitchell, was generous enough to default to S. A. Hodge, Mitchell, and he has for a prize a pair of Taylor's best bowls.

The officers of the club are to be congratulated on the eminent success of the tournament. The following are the final scores:

SINGLES—THIRD ROUND.

F. L. Sawyer, Mitchell, 15, vs. J. H. Brown, London, 9.

J. Stevenson, London, 13, vs. Dr. Wood, Mitchell, 16.

SINGLES—FOURTH ROUND.

R. G. Flemming, Chatham, defaulted to F. L. Sawyer, Mitchell.

T. Blakeney, London, 10, vs. Dr. Wood, Mitchell, 15.

W. K. Pearce, Seaforth, defaulted to S. A. Hodge, Mitchell.

J. Dougherty, Mitchell, 11, vs. J. McDougall, London, 16.

SINGLES—SEMI-FINALS.

F. L. Sawyer, Mitchell, 10, vs. Dr. Wood, Mitchell, 15.

S. A. Hodge, Mitchell, 15, vs. J. S. McDougall, London, 12.

SINGLES—FINALS.

Dr. Wood, Mitchell, defaulted to S. A. Hodge, Mitchell, making Hodge the winner.

DOUBLES—SEMI-FINALS.

Barnes and Cameron, Toronto, 13, vs. McDougall and Weld, London, 15.

Hodge and Dougherty, Mitchell, 15, vs. Pritchard and Weld, London, 5.

DOUBLES—FINALS.

J. S. McDougall and Weld, London, 15, vs. Hodge and Dougherty, Mitchell, 14.

After the tournament A Beddome, London, and H. B. Travers, St. Thomas, challenged J. S. McDougal and Ed. Weld, of London, to a special contest of five ends for a stake. Beddome and Travers were a cinch for McDougall and Weld.

THE WHEEL.

SPOKES.

Tom Butler won the half-mile open professional bike race at Manchester, N. H., yesterday in 1:04 3-4.

SANGER DEFEATS BALD.

Watertown, N. Y., Sept. 10.—In the bicycle races at the Jefferson County Fair here yesterday, W. C. Sanger and E. C. Bald raced a mile for a purse of $1,000. Sanger won easily in two straight heats, his times being 1:59 3-5 and 1:59 4-5.

GRAND REFORM FOR WOMEN.

New York, Sept. 10.—Miss Fowler, daughter of the late Prof. L. N. Fowler, the phrenologist, is quite an authority in England on matters pertaining to the elevation and education of her sex, particularly along the lines of physical training and dress reform. Above all, she is an enthusiastic wheelwoman, and regards the bicycle as one of the blessings of the nineteenth century.

"I know as a positive fact," said she, "that cycling for women is one of the grandest reforms for them that has ever been started. Some women have hugged the idea that men admired small waists, and that one must lace tighter than her common sense or comfort would dictate. But the programme of women's companionship with men has changed.

"The cycling costume is healthful because it is loose and unrestricted. It is the key to hygienic reform in women's dress. I believe it can be made becoming without being in the least masculine or unwomanly.

"In all reforms, many at first are liable to run to extremes, but in time things will settle down and women will keep within their strength. Some think that morality is menaced through the freedom given girls. I think this is the last country to suggest such a thing, for girls are here trained to look after themselves, to take responsibilities early, and if they do not know how to take care of their morals while on their wheels, they will not know how by giving up the bicycle."

THE KENNEL.

THE C. K. C. OFFICERS.

A large and very enthusiastic meeting of the Canadian Kennel Club was held in the Dog Show Building, Toronto, on Tuesday. President H. Bedlington occupied the chair, and a large number of members from various points all over Canada attended. A strong feeling appeared to exist among the members in favor of a renewal of the old reciprocity arrangement which formerly existed with the American Kennel Club. Mr. H. H. McCrae was appointed solicitor to the club.

The following officers were elected by acclamation: President, Mr. H. Bedlington, Toronto; first vice-president, Mr. G. B. Sweetnam; Toronto; secretary-treasurer, Mr. H. B. Donovan, Toronto; vice-presidents, Mr. R. Gibson (Delaware), Mr. James Lindsay (Montreal), Mr. P. G. Keyes (Ottawa), Mr. G. B. Bruce (Calgary); executive committee, Messrs. Leslie Gault (Montreal), Dr. J. S. Niven (London), A. Murdock (Hamilton), A. A. Macdonald (Toronto), R. McEwen (Byron), L. A. Klein (Quebec), C. A. Stone (Toronto), R. W. Boyle (Toronto), T. A. Carson (Kingston), H. P. Thomas (Belleville), F. T. Miller (Trenton), A. Gibb (Montreal); auditors, A. A. Macdonald and J. G. Kent (Toronto).

The secretary-treasurer's report showed that the registrations in the stud book numbered 4,146, that of the past year being 247. The financial statement is good. The cash balance is $117.

Good Camping Weather—Slurs on the 21st Refuted—The Regimental Orders.

This was a busy day at camp, and from the time reveille sounded until the men were dismissed, they were on the "go." The general arrived last night with his suite, and is expected to form high opinions of the men's appearance. "There is a vast difference," remarked one of the officers of the Twenty-first Battalion, "in the men, even in one day. I don't believe No. 1 district ever had a more able-bodied set, and I can say positively that it never had a body of men who were more anxious to learn. Speaking for my own battalion, I might say that, considering the circumstances we were placed in, our battalion is by long odds the best in the field. We only had ten days' notice to prepare for and come into camp, and at that time we had twenty young farmers, who hardly knew a ton-gun from a pea-shooter. We had to drill these for seven consecutive nights, and when we marched into camp we received many compliments and words of praise."

"Is it so that there are a great many Americans in the Twenty-first? There is a rumor around the camp that to his fact alone the Twenty-first might attribute its fine appearance."

"You may say for me," replied the officer, with concealed indignation, "that it is an unqualified lie. We have no Americans in this battalion. Each man is a born and bred Canadian. They are as good, if not better, than any other class of men in the world."

"Are there any American musicians in the band?" was the next query.

"None. We have a good band, but the trouble is that the regulations only allow us three men to a company, which would make a small band, indeed. On account of this we are obliged to pay a few others to come with us."

Major Gillett has been complimented several times, not only on the good music, but on the general appearance of the men.

HEALTHY MEN.

"How do you find the men?" asked a reporter of one of the surgeons.

"You may say," he replied, "that there are about twelve hundred men here, and all the sick men that I know of were the two from the Twenty-first Battalion. There are only four in the hospital: Pte. F. Freeland, R. R. C. I.; Corp. A. Charman, R. R. C. I., tonsilitis; Pte. Herman, Twenty-first, bilious colic, and Pte. Robinson, Twenty-first, faintness. There is not much the matter with them, except Freeland. The men are all in the best possible condition, physically, and," he added with earnestness, "very intelligent." Sergt. McCulloch is in charge of the doctor shop.

GOOD TIME FOR CAMP.

Several officers in different battalions were asked for their opinions regarding the time of year for camp. All seemed to approve of the present season, because it was cool, and, as a rule, dry. Many of them remembered the sweltering hot days of June, 1894, when they returned from the first parade, fatigued for the rest of the day. It is cool at nights, but that is the only objection.

"It was a decent thing on the part of the new Government, of which, by the way, I was not a supporter," remarked one of the officers, "to give us a choice of camp this fall or next spring. No. 1 district chose the fall, and, in consequence, only had a short notice. The present Government is doing a great deal more for the volunteer and soldier than the last Government did."

THE COOKS.

"There are cooks and cooks, but it is safe to say that both variety may be found at camp among the 50 cooks employed. Each cook is allowed a scullery maid, and this enviable position usually falls to the lot of some old soldier, who goes to camp for the glory of it. Some cook on stoves, while others use the fire trench. All these cook shops are in parallel lines, and to go along this line is an amusing sight. There are some stoves much older than the oldest man in camp, and twice as rusty. They cook everything from porridge down to fat mutton broth.

REGIMENTAL ORDERS.

Capt. Hemming, commanding No. 1 Company (Wolseley Barracks), has issued the following orders for today:

Officer of the day—Second Lieut. Reid, Twenty-sixth Battalion.

Next for duty—Second Lieut. Anderson, Thirty-fourth Battalion.

No. 1—The undermentioned officers having been attached to the corps opposite their names for the camp, are struck off the strength from today, with permission to rejoin after camp: Capt. Dunlop, Twenty-second Battalion; Lieut. Burritt, Twenty-second; Second Lieut. Lindsay, Thirtieth; Second Lieut. Lindsay, Twenty-second; Second Lieut. Magee, Twenty-second.

No. 2—Second Lieut. Betty, Twenty-first Battalion, having joined his corps for the camp, is struck off the strength from today, with permission to rejoin after camp.

No. 3—All men of the Royal Regiment of Canadian Infantry are strictly forbidden to be absent from their lines until after 1:30 p.m., daily, without special permission from the officer commanding their corps.

No. 4—The following will be the non-commissioned staff for the brigade camp at London: Sergt.-Major Munro, No. 1 Company, sergeant instructor of musketry; Sergt. Gregory, No. 1 Company, sergeant-major; Quartermaster-Sergeant Kennedy, No. 1 Company, quartermaster sergeant; Sergt. Burke, No. 1 Company, supply clerk; Hospital Sergeant McCulloch, No. 1 Company, brigade hospital sergeant.

CAMP NOTES.

One of the features of the camp this morning was an officer of the Twenty-first shaving himself in the open air, half-dressed. He was without even a shirt, and his comrades wondered at him, as they gazed at him, clad in great coats, and huddled near the fire.

Special attention will be paid to the cleanliness of the camp in future. Throwing bits of paper and the like will not be permitted, as it has a tendency to make the place look unsightly.

The canteen of the Twenty-first Battalion is strictly a temperance affair, and is largely patronized on that account. The officers are of opinion that in camp there are sufficient other temptations without liquor.

AN AWFU' DEPTH.

An old worthy named Sandy one day visited an old schoolmate in the same line of business as himself, namely, a grave digger. On arriving he found his friend at the churchyard digging a grave. After the usual greetings the visitor, noticing the unusual depth of the grave, remarked: "Man, Geordie, ye dig your graves awful'deep." "Ay," assented Geordie. "I always dig them ten feet." "Ten feet," exclaimed Sandy. "That's an awfu' depth. I only dig mine four feet." After a pause Sandy exclaimed: "Man, dif ye ken, Geordie, oor folks will be hauf roads to heaven before yours are oot o' the grund."

Old Time Inebriates Give Their Experiences Here.

To an Audience in the Y. M. C. A. Building—Their Treatment Indorsed.

A very interesting meeting was held in the Y. M. C. A. parlor yesterday afternoon. Ex-Mayor Cowan occupied the chair, and Mr. C. R. Sayer acted as secretary. Others present were Rev. Robert Johnston, Rev. Dr. Daniel, Dr. Eccles, Dr. McTaggart, Mr. James Greenaway and Mr. A. H. Dixon. The meeting had been called for the purpose of examining into the efficacy of Dykes' cure for intemperance. Some one-time confirmed inebriates, who had tried the cure, were also present, and afforded the investigators the opportunity of seeing and hearing for themselves as to the change that the treatment had made in their cases, all of the patients having been treated by Dr. McTaggart.

One man, well known in the city, who had been addicted to excessive use of liquor for twelve years, took the cure six weeks ago. All craving or desire to drink left him in two days, and has not since returned. When asked if he had ever been "a hard case," he said, "No, I have never been arrested."

Rev. Robert Johnston suggested that he was a moderate drinker. The man thought he might be called so, and afterwards stated that for five years he daily drank ten or twelve glasses of whisky. Since forming the drinking habit he had never before been five weeks without liquor, although he had frequently tried to quit.

"Have you had liquor offered you since you quit?" asked Mr. Greenaway.

"Yes; I was at a threshing the other day, where there was lots of liquor. They wanted me to drink, as it was dusty work, but I had no desire for it. Just a few days ago I was playing quoits with some friends, who brought liquor with them. My friends drank, but I did not want to at all."

Chairman Cowan knew the patient, and said he was thoroughly reliable.

A young physician, who does not live in London, was the next case. He made some startling admissions. He had been a hard drinker for a few years, latterly taking as much as a pint of whisky before breakfast, and if he could not get whisky he would drink diluted alcohol. He began drinking beer, of which for five years he took a great quantity, using daily twenty or thirty glasses. Beer finally was not strong enough, and he changed to the use of whisky. Two years ago he began drinking before breakfast. On Aug. 9 he started to use Dykes' cure, and since the fifth day had felt not the slightest desire for ...

"Do you not think you could have quit merely by the exercise of self-will?" asked Mr. Johnston.

He was answered in the negative. The patient had made numerous attempts, but found the craving was too strong. He gained 3 1-2 pounds the first week of abstinence.

Dr. Eccles questioned him along scientific lines, and concluded that the young man had shown evidences of being a very hard drinker.

Another young Londoner, who had been drinking for ten years, quit six weeks ago, and after five days lost all desire to drink. In the past he had quit for two or three weeks, and even two or three months, but never without a craving. He now could sleep soundly and eat heartily. He was known to most of the gentlemen present, who expressed great pleasure in his change.

A fourth patient was too diffident to appear, but a letter from him was read by the chairman, which stated that the writer had been a hard drinker for many years, and that Dykes' cure had removed all his desire to drink. He considered it a safe and speedy cure. The chairman said the man would be nearly 60 years of age, and that he had known him for 40 years. Another gentleman present said he had been informed that the patient had not drawn a sober breath for years.

Numerous testimonials from patients and prominent men who were familiar with the cases were on the table. Dr. McTaggart read a few of them. One was from a man 75 years old, who said Dykes' cure enabled him to do what he could never do before and that was to refuse a drink. Some wrote after two years' abstinence.

The following motion was read by Rev. Robert Johnston and seconded by Rev. Dr. Daniel: "Having heard the experience of the persons who have take the Dykes cure for intemperance, the committee is satisfied that in these cases the habit of confirmed drunkenness has been cured, and the appetite for strong drink removed up to the present time, and we are willing to be referred to for information by any who desire it."

The above motion was carried unanimously.

Mrs. Seleste Coon, Syracuse, N. Y., writes: "For years I could not eat many kinds of food without producing a burning, excruciating pain in my stomach. I took Parmelee's Pills according to directions under the head of 'Dyspepsia or Indigestion.' One box entirely cured me. I can now eat anything I choose without distressing me in the least." These pills do not cause pain or griping, and should be used when a cathartic is required.

FINED FOR BATHING.

Quotes Almanac, Constitution and Blackstone, Without Avail.

Eau Claire, Wis., Sept. 10.—Darius Bresee, land owner and capitalist, about 60 years of age, was convicted by a jury in the municipal court of violating a city ordinance against bathing in the Chippewa River in daylight. Fine and costs amounting to $18 were imposed, and paid by Mr. Bresee from a large roll of bills.

He made a speech, showing by the almanac that he went in after sunset, and quoted from the constitution of the United States, Blackstone, Webster's dictionary, a treaty between the United States and Spain, and the ordinances of 1787, which declared the Mississippi and Chippewa Rivers forever free.

The jury declared that they must find a verdict of guilty, but as Bresee is an old citizen and is noted for his generosity to the poor, they recommended him to the tenderest mercy of the court. Bresee declares the prosecution was a piece of spite and an outrage.

THERE is not a more dangerous class of disorders than those which affect the breathing organs. Nullify this danger with Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil—a pulmonic of acknowledged efficacy. It cures soreness and lameness when applied externally, as well as swelled neck and crick in the back; and, as an inward specific, possesses most substantial claims to public confidence.

It is stated that the progeny of a single pair of house sparrows, if not molested for ten years, would be more than 200,000,000,000.

At the present time there is more steel used in the manufacture of pens than in all the sword and gun factories in the world.

A rug only four feet square, but which had 576 stitches and knots to the square inch, was lately sold in London for a sum equal to $10,000 of our money.

Town and Country.

Thomas J. Humphrey, Birr, has received a medal from the executive committee of the World's Fair for his display of cheese at the World's Fair. Mr. Humphrey was living then in Oxford county, at which place the cheese was made. He also received a diploma. Mr. Humphrey is now the cheese-maker for the Proof Line Road Company.

While playing ball at Belmont on Saturday, Wallace Dinnan, of Westminster, had a mishap that will lay him up for some time. While he and a companion were running to catch a fly ball, they came together with such force that both were thrown to the ground, and Dinnan sustained a fracture of the shoulder. He was taken at once to the office of Dr. Meldrun, where his injuries were attended to.

STRATHROY.

Advertiser Agent, J. D. Meekison

Strathroy, Sept.10.—The marriage of Miss Alice Murray, daughter of W. H. Murray, to Mr. J. D. Meekison, took place last evening at the residence of the bride's parents, Oxford street. Rev. T. G. Jordan officiated. The bride was attended by two bridesmaids, Miss Janey Meekison, of this town, and Miss Jean Gunn, of Ailsa Craig; while Mr. Wm. Pool and Mr. Bert Murray, brother of the bride, suported the groom. A dejeuner was served to about 50 guests, after which Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Meekison left on an eastern trip.

Mrs. S. A. Sullivan and Mrs. Chas. Sullivan, of Belleville, are guests of friends in town.

Mrs. D. Meekison and children, of Napoleon, Ohio, are visiting Mr. A. Meekison, Front street.

The quarterly meeting of the Young Peoples' Union will be held in the parish room of St. John's Church on the 9th inst., at 8 p.m. A good programme is being prepared.

A harvest service will be held in the Baptist Church on the third Sunday in September.

The Band of Hope in connection with St. Andrew's Church will soon begin its work for the winter season.

Last evening a garden party was held at Sutherland's school house, con. 4, under the auspices of the Epworth League.

Miss Macdonald, of London, is the guest of Mr. W. H. Murray, Oxford street.

RIDGETOWN.

Ridgetown, Sept. 9.—The council held a regular meeting last night, and transacted routine business. A sum of $15 was voted to pay the expenses of committee to canvass the township for assistance in re-establishing the Diamond mills.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Scane, a daughter.

Mr. Robert Dodman continues very ill.

A good many people from Ridgetown and Howard purpose attending the Scotch games at Dutton on Sept. 11, the fact that the Governor-General is to be present being an added attraction.

Thomas Syers, Thamesville, delivered a load of flour to a local baker here yesterday. Ridgetown's loss is Thamesville's gain. Rebuild the mill.

The prospects of Messrs. Cawthorpe rebuilding the mill are growing less every day. It looks now as though the people do not want it bad enought to pay $2,500 for the rebuilding, which is what Messrs. Cawthorpe ask.

GLENCOE.

Glencoe, Sept. 8.—Mr. Stanley Luckham, Warwick, has arrived in Glencoe, to take a position in his brother's store.

The St. John's annual church picnic took place yesterday to the residence of Mr. R. Coad, Ekfrid. The day was delightfully fine, and everything contributed to give those who went a good time. The attendance was large, and a most enjoyable time was spent by all.

THAMESVILLE.

Thamesville, Sept. 9.—The fall fair should have been placed a fortnight earlier this year. All products are at least that much ahead of the usual time, and many usually shown will be gone too soon this year.

Ensign Green, who is superintendent of the children's work in the Salvation Army, will hold a children's meeting in the barracks tonight.

R. C. Coates is able to be about again.

MUNCEY.

Muncey, Sept. 8.—The officers of the Muncey Tecumseh Agricultural Society have decided to hold their annual exhibition on Oct. 13 to 15, on the central school house fair grounds, No. 4, side line, about two and a half miles from the beautiful village of Middlemiss.

Mr. John L. Case has put up a neat bill stand for the Wood Green Methodist Church, Bear Creek, and gave it an A1 coat of paint. He is an excellent workman, but he is minus "a better half."

The other night the good ladies of St. Paul's Church, Lower Muncey, had a harvest home social, which was well attended. A real young people's time was enjoyed around the hall outside at 10 p.m. Rev. J. A. Ball, the new clergyman, opened the social and then went home, not being used to our way of conducting a social. The entertainment came to an end at 1 a.m.

Corn cutting is in order now. The crop is good.

The threshing is about done on the reserve, and seeding is in full swing.

We have no hesitation in saying that Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial is without doubt the best medicine ever introduced for dysentery, diarrhea, cholera, and all summer complaints, sea sickness, etc. It promptly gives relief and never fails to effect a positive cure. Mothers should never be without a bottle when their children are teething.

Today at Ottawa.

Proposed Statue to the Hon. Alex. Mackenzie.

Chinese Immigration and the Alien Labor Law Discussed.

The Premier Says the United States Act Must Be Withdrawn, or Retaliation Must Ensue.

Ottawa, Ont., Sept. 10.—In the House, the following chairmen of committees reported last night: Railways, Sutherland; Banking and Commerce, Lister; Agriculture, Bain.

When General Cameron was given a pointer to send on his resignation as commandant of the Military College, it was in the nature of a communication from Gen. Gascoigne, and was marked "Private." Sir Charles Tupper contended yesterday that in order that all information might be before the House and country, this letter should be brought down.

The Minister explained that the communication was a private one, and it was held to be inadvisable to publish it.

Mr. Laurier said the matter rested wholly in the hands of Gen. Gascoigne, the Government having no control over it.

QUESTIONS.

Mr. Henry was informed by Mr. Mulock that the Government had under consideration the advisability of establishing a free postal delivery in Brantford.

Mr. Dyment was informed by Mr. Blair that Superintendent Boyd of the Soo Canal had leave of absence for one month previous to the late election. His salary went on during his absence.

Mr. Boyd was electioneering for the Tupper Government.

Mr. Beattie was informed by Mr. Tarte that the Government had under consideration the improvement of Port Stanley harbor.

THE CHINESE QUESTION.

A large portion of the session was taken up discussing the Chinese question, introduced by Mr. Maxwell, of British Columbia, who moved for copies of all petitions or memorials presented to the Government on the subject of Chinese immigration. He blamed the late Government and Mr. Onderdonk for the introduction of this pest on the Pacific slope. He made a strong speech against the admission of Chinamen.

Mr. Fraser, of Guysboro, took the ground that we were all children of one common Father, and that it was against the genius of the British constitution to exclude any man because of race or color from Canadian soil.

Sir Henri Joly said he had promised Li Hung Chang to put the Chinaman's side of the question before the House, and that at the proper time he would do so.

BRANDING CHEESE.

Mr. McLennan, of Glengarry, moved the second reading of his bill to amend the Dairy Produce Act, so as to provide for the registration and branding of all Canadian cheese for export, with its date and place of production. He supported the measure in quite a lengthy address.

Mr. McMillan, of Huron, indorsed the measure as necessary to the success of Canada's cheese trade in British markets.

The second reading passed.

RAILWAY EMPLOYES.

Mr. Maclean, of East York, moved the second reading of his bill for the better protection of the employes of railway companies and others. The bill was introduced last year and slaughtered.

Mr. Laurier agreed that the measure should be well considered. Col. Tisdale opposed it, and Dr. Sproule supported the bill. Mr. Lister said that Dr. Sproule had admitted that the late Government had been under the thumb of giant railway corporations; but the new railway committee was not. The bill was referred.

ALIEN LABOR BILL.

Mr. Taylor moved the second reading of his Alien Contract Labor Bill, and wanted it referred to a select committee. Its object was to protect the Canadian laborer.

Mr. Laurier acknowledged the importance of the bill, but thought that if the United States could be prevailed upon to withdraw its act this measure need not be made law.

Sir Charles Tupper agreed with Mr. Laurier, and urged the mover to withdraw the bill.

After further debate Mr. Laurier said if, by correspondence which had taken place, the Government came to the conclusion that nothing more was to be expected from the American authorities, and they persisted in maintaining on their statute book this unfriendly law, then there would be nothing left but for Canada to adopt a similar course. The sentiment of the House appeared to be very strong. The only thing now to done was to learn whether the American law was to be maintained. If it became necessary to pass such a law in Canada its terms should be word for word with that of the United States. There could be no complaint in that event. Retaliation was to be deplored, but there were occasions when retaliation became a necessity on the part of a nation, which represented its own dignity. (Hear, hear.)

NOTES.

The Canadian Bankers' Association is in session here.

Today the Premier will announce the name of the Minister of the Interior in the present Government. By almost unanimous consent the only name is now mentioned, namely, that of Clifford Sifton, the present Attorney-General of Manitoba.

Smoking will in future be prohibited in the Commons' Chamber. There is a smoking room, and members smoke in the party assembly rooms.

Mr. Broder gives notice of motion in favor of recognizing the services of veterans of 1837-38.

From what can be learned at the Customs Department, the smuggling operations in the St. Lawrence are pretty well killed through the vigilance of the officers.

While here yesterday, Robert Bickerdike, president of the Montreal Board of Trade, began an agitation for the erection of a monument in honor of the late Premier, Mr. Alexander Mackenzie. It is desirable that the Government take the matter up, and erect in a suitable position in the capital city a fitting monument in memory of the late Liberal leader.

The House adjourned at 11:30 p.m.

Sir Oliver Mowat, as Minister of Justice, has decided that a number of contracts for militia clothing and other things made by the late Government are illegal, and they will, therefore, be annulled. He has also decided that in cases where an office is abolished the officer is not entitled to superannuation allowance.

The Toronto Fair.

Farmers' Day at the Toronto Industrial.

Lord and Lady Aberdeen Present—A Number of Notable Exhibits.

Toronto, Sept. 10.—Yesterday was "Farmers' Day," and was under the auspices of the Patrons of Industry and various live stock asociations at the Fair. There was a very large number of country folk on the grounds, and the attendance was the second largest this year. Among other bands present today were the I. O. O. F. Band, of Cleveland, Ohio, and the Seventh Fusiliers, of London. Lord and Lady Aberdeen were in attendance yesterday, and viewed the parade of prize horses and cattle in front of the grand stand. Following are among some of the notable exhibits:

ROSSLAND, B. C., MINERAL EXHIBIT.

Crowds continue to linger round this exhibit as if the great enchanter dwelling in the rich lumps of ore drew them.

The ore, arranged in different piles, certainly looks very tempting, and Mr. A. W. Ross informs us that a larger and richer shipment is on the way, and will be on hand tomorrow.

Each specimen of the ore displayed is labeled with the name of the mine it was brought from, and to those interested and acquainted with minerals the stones speak for themselves.

Mr. Hugh Ross, son of Mr. A. W. Ross, leaves this week for Rossland, B. C., so that he may obtain a thorough knowledge of all the branches of mineral formation and mine-making.

At the exhibit are specimen copies of the Rossland Miner, and to the energy of this paper Mr. Ross is under obligation in the way they collected and forwarded such a large and representative collection of the Rossland ore.

Visitors who are coming to the Fair this week will find this most interesting exhibit in the Canadian Pacific and Northwest building, and this exhibit alone will amply repay them for their visit.

SOMETHING NEW.

The Bowmanville Cycle Wood Rim Company have a very interesting show in the cycle building—a sure proof that the bicycle has come to stay, and that wood rims will figure in the make-up of the future wheel. The staying qualities of the wheel are now conceded by all, but for some time back it has been somewhat a doubtful question about the wood rim. The controversy has now been settled. The Bowmanville Cycle Wood Rim Company have a rim on the market which is superior in many respects to the old rim, and has the advantage of being lighter. The wood rim will not warp or split, and these qualities perhaps account for the fact that thousands upon thousands have been sold in the old country, where this company own the patent. They are fast becoming the popular fad these days; so if cyclists would be up to the times, their trouble will be rewarded if they examine the rims of the Bowmanville Cycle Wood Rim Company.

WARDEN, KING & CO.

In the stove building the most interesting exhibit to the general public, and certainly the one highest in merit, is the exhibit of the Warden, King Company, of Montreal and Toronto. The name of this concern is so closely associated with the very highest art in heating, that anyone examining their exhibit has the satisfaction of knowing that he has high-water mark before him in this department. The Spence Daisy heater is well named, being a thing of comfort and beauty. This interesting and very useful exhibit occupies a large space near the western entrance of the stove building. The great popularity these heaters have gained is well merited. The system of heating a house by hot water circulating through radiators has proved infinitely superior to that of hot air or steam, and is not only cleaner and requires less attendance, but—what is of much more importance—is the healthiest system of heating known. Special care is used in the material, construction and manufacture of these heaters. The firm's Toronto representative, Mr. J. R. Fairbairn, will be found in attendance at the exhibit.

DOMINION PIANOS IN DEMAND.

The Dominion Organ and Piano Company, of Bowmanville, have in their own building, at once the most attractive display, and the best show of their world-renowned instruments that they have ever exhibited. The uniform courtesy extended to all by those in attendance at their pavilion is the common talk of the exhibition, and the unanimous verdict of all who have seen their beautiful exhibit is that it was a genuine pleasure to pay them a visit. The excellence of their instruments, the solidity of construction, durability, and richness of tone, and the fine finish of their work, have put the Dominion at the very top of the list of Canadian manufacturers, and is a just source of pride to all Canadians. The quick-speaking touch of their instruments in some respects has no equal, and in no regard has it a superior. The excellence in touch is due to skill and care on the part of the action regulator, and of these only the most skillful and expensive are employed. The company have for some time back been unable to fill orders promptly on account of the pressure required to manufacture as fast as the demand, and the reason they did not have an exhibit in London last year, and will not have one this year, is the same cause, orders being ahead.

GUELPH BOY MURDERED.

Slain by Natives of Alaska in a Trading Dispute.

Guelph, Sept. 10.—Two years ago Robert Thomas, son of J. J. Thomas, foreman for the Bell Organ and Piano Company, left for San Francisco to join a ship on a whaling cruise northward. Early in March of this year Thomas, in company with several others left Herschell Island, off the coast of Alaska, en route for the Alaskan gold fields.

While trading the natives turned on Thomas and his companions, and in the melee which followed Thomas was fatally shot and several of the white men were wounded, while others of the party escaped.

The news of the murder reached Guelph yesterday, five months after the occurrence. It was conveyed through the influence of Rev. I. O. Stringer, a recently arrived missionary, by way of the northern mission station.

The chief recreation of the King of Greece is doing general farm work.

She Read Li's Head.

Miss Fowler Tells of the Mandarin's Character.

Bumps Tell Why the Grand Old Chinaman is Great.

New York, Sept. 10.—Miss Jessie A. Fowler, daughter of the late L. N. Fowler, the phrenologist, who is herself a phrenologist of experience, has made a careful study of the head of Li Hung Chang. Miss Fowler saw the great Chinese statesman in London, just before his sailing, and was much impressed with the peculiarities of the odd old mandarin's bumps. At her home in West Orange, yesterday, she said as the result of her findings:

"From a phrenologist's point of view, Li Hung Chang's head is one typical of the great Chinese race, but it is better than the common run of those I have examined. Some physiognomists say he is what he is because of his nose. A phrenologist says he is what he is because of his head.

"He is broad over the brow, which indicates excellent perceptive, receptive or observing faculties. He takes in at a glance whatever passes before him. He is intensely practical, and is not inclined to waste time, money or influence on anything. He makes everything answer its purpose.

"He is exceptionally high in the crown and superior portion of his head, which everyone can see by examining his portrait without his cap. This peculiarity gives him great perseverance, remarkable tenacity and strong resisting power. He is not easily turned from his purpose or crushed by opposition.

"He is broad over the ears, hence shows executiveness, tactfulness, reserve force and a full degree of diplomacy.

"Along the post-lateral line of the circumference, where the center for cautiousness is, we find a large prominence, hence he should be known for his prudential way of looking at people and things.

"He measures a subject before he commits himself, and is able to draw out other people rather than be drawn out himself.

"His acquisitiveness is fully represented, and inclines him to hold together rather than to scatter, to accumulate rather than squander, to appreciate property rather than to waste it."

EVERYTHING BACKWARD IN CHINA.

The dressmakers are men, and the women carry the burdens.

Books are read backward, and any notes are inserted at the top.

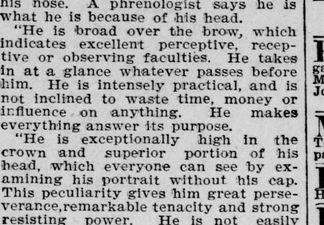

The spoken language is not written, and the written language is not spoken.

The Chinese surname comes first, and they shake their own hand instead of the hand of the person introduced.

White is used for mourning, and bridesmaids always wear black, and instead of being young maidens are old women.

The men wear skirts and the women wear trousers; the men wear their hair long, while the women coil theirs into a knot.

The Chinese do everything the wrong way, according to our views. Their compass points to the south instead of to the north.

JOHN CAMERON, President and Manag. Dir.

London, Thnrsday, Sept. 10, 1896.

Lord Aberdeen's Tour.

The Governor-General has begun his trip through Ontario, and will visit a large number of places which up till now have never been honored by a call from the representative of her Majesty.

On Tuesday Lord and Lady Aberdeen had a warm reception from the citizens of Toronto, when they visited the exhibition in that city. Their reception at St. Thomas promises to be even more cordial. Tomorrow they attend the great Caledonian gathering at Dutton. On Saturday morning they go to Windsor, and spend the forenoon. The afternoon will be spent in Chatham.

The vice-regal engagements for next week include Sarnia on Monday, and London on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

The Western Ontario tour of their Excellencies will be continued in the following two weeks.

The Governor-General intends to visit as many places as possible while their local fairs are in progress.

It is evidently the intention of her Majesty's representative to see the people of the country and the products of their industry. In this way he may become possessed of much information that will be of great value to him when he returns to his duties in Britain as a promoter of schemes for the advancement of the Empire.

We feel assured that Canada has and will continue to have no warmer friend than the present Governor-General. He has shown his faith in Canada by investing his means for the development of the Dominion and interesting many old country friends in our resources.

The six Conservative aldermen of St. Thomas who refused to aid in the civic reception to the representative of the Queen and his wife, are feeling pretty small today. Discourtesy shown to the Governor-General cannot hurt him, but it places those who show it in their proper class.

Railway Revelations.

An investigation by the Interstate Commerce Commission into charges of rate-cutting by Western railroads, at Chicago the other day, brought to public attention come remarkable confessions of sharp practices by railroad systems. President A. B. Stickney, of the Chicago Great Western Railroad, gave the most startling testimony. He accused rival roads of instituting the investigation by the commission as a means of compelling him to live up to the terms of a pooling arrangements among all the roads belonging to the Western Traffic Association. He admitted that by means of a grain-buying company, organized by the railroad company, his road has been able to secure the largest share of the grain-carrying trade, and that he had refused to divide his surplus, over the share alloted by the pool managers, with the other roads. Addressing the attorneys of these roads at the investigation President Stickney is reported to have said:

"You charge the Kansas and Nebraska farmer 13 cents to haul his grain 200 miles. You charge the grain dealer 6 cents to haul that same grain twice as far to Chicago. I tell you it is that kind of business that is making anarchists west of the Missouri River.

"Here is the trouble: I have been acquainted with this northwestern country for 35 years. In all that time there has never been a year that the corn crop was moved until after the corn was in the hands of the dealers who had the rate. Once the farmer is compelled to sell his grain, then you fellows cut the rate for the dealer. There is in Kansas this year 240,000,000 bushels of corn. Not over 25,000,000 bushels has been moved so far this year. The farmer, the small dealer has not the rate. He is compelled to sell, and then you fellows make the rate for the purchasers, and the corn moves."

The railroads in the alleged pool number twenty-five, and several officials of different roads made admissions of rate-cutting. Although the testimony taken can not be used in criminal prosecution of those who gave self-incriminatory evidence, under the law as recently interpreted by the Supreme Court in the Brown case, the newspapers are freely commenting upon it, pending official action concerning the pool and other abuses by the commission.

The Tupper tire is undoubtedly punctured. The first division proved that.

"Doodlecrats" is another name coined out of the the present presidential campaign in the United States. It is applied by the Bryan Democrats to the Gold Democracy.

A Unique Campaign.

Though the Presidential election day is nearly two months off, the campaign is now proceeding with a vigor probably unexcelled since the famous Lincoln-Douglas battle which was fought on the eve of the civil war 36 years ago.

There are no fewer than six candidates for the Presidency. One is put up by the Republicans; one by the regular Democratic convention, which declared for the free coinage of silver; one by the Democrats who favor the gold standard; two by separate wings of the Prohibitionists; and one by the Socialists. While the minor organizations will cut into one or other of the two great political organizations, it is not believed that the voting for these parties will materially change the vote for either McKinley, the Republican nominee, or Bryan, the candidate of the regular Democratic and Populist conventions.

* * * *

Many and far-reaching changes have taken place within the last few days, and there is expectancy that more may come. Bryan, the silver-tongued advocate of silver, has returned to his home in Lincoln, Neb., where, amid the assembled thousands, he once more formally accepted nomination. Since the Chicago convention in July, this the youngest man ever put up for the Presidency has delivered over 100 public addresses. He has made a pilgrimage from the far West to New York and back again, talking in great centers of population and in the country districts. His friends say that everywhere the common people have heard him gladly, and that there are thousands of converts to the standard of free silver as a result of his speeches. His political enemies concede that he has drawn the crowds. At Chicago, on Labor Day, he addressed the greatest open air meeting of workingmen which ever assembled in the West, many thousands listening to him. But the opponents of his theories declare that the masses flock to hear him out of curiosity and are not convinced by his logic. Election day alone will show whether they are right or wrong. No matter what the result may be, it is evident that Mr. Bryan is a believer in publicity, and that he is a marvelous debater. No two of his speeches are alike, and yet they are all on one topic—the money question and its relation to the workers. All other matters, he declares, are in this campaign subordinate to this issue. Mr. Bryan is about to start on another tour eastward, with New York as his Mecca. He will speak in Tammany Hall on the 29th of this month.

* * *

Mr. McKinley, the Republican nominee, is pursuing a different line of tactics. He has declined to become an itinerant orator, but he keeps distributing chunks of political wisdom from his home in Canton, Ohio, visiting pilgrims of every rank and condition affording him the opportunity, and the newspapers, by reporting his speeches in full, lending very effectual aid.

* * * *

This money question is demoralizing both political parties, but the Democratic organization seems to be the greater sufferer. Many influential Democratic papers have bolted the Chicago platform. Leading members of the party all over the country follow suit. The feeling is so strong that probably one million votes will be polled for General Palmer, the octogenarian Illinois Democrat, who was put up as Presidential candidate by the Gold Democratic Convention held the other day. It is difficult to say whether Bryan or McKinley will be most helped or hurt by the appearance of these kickers against the regular Democratic convention. In some States, the gold Democratic vote will give the victory to the Republicans; in others, it is believed that it will aid the Bryan democracy.

* * * *

The indications are that the Eastern States, including New York, will go solidly for McKinley and the gold standard. The vote in Vermont, the other day, showed that the Democrats are demoralized in New England, and that McKinley will much profit by the slump in favor of the gold standard. In the South, if the Arkansas election is any indication, the Democrats will carry everything before them. While in Vermont the Republicans increased their majority from 20,000 to 38,000, in Arkansas the Democrats beat the gold standard men by over 60,000, their ordinary majority being about 30,000.

The West, it is believed, will favor the silver candidate. This leaves the Northern Middle States as the chief fighting ground.

* * * *

The campaign has developed some strange features. Bryan is the choice of both the regular Democracy and the Populists for the Presidency. If both these bodies could fuse effectively, and poll as big a vote jointly as was recorded for them separately in 1892, their ticket would secure the indorsation of the solid South and the solid West, and win the Presidency. But there are difficulties in the way. The silver Democrats, with an eye to party interests in the East, chose Mr. Sewall, a rich Maine man, as their candidate for the Vice-Presidency. The Populists selected Tom Watson, a clever Georgian, for that position, and they demand that Sewall retire. They say their party will go to smash, and that its influence in supporting the Presidential candidate will be destroyed, if they do not have this recognition. But Mr. Sewall declines to retire, even though his own son is stumping Maine in opposition to his father and his running mate. Thus, it is somewhat difficult to estimate the strength of the new combination. Calculations are further complicated by the flirtation which the Republicans are promoting with the Populists in some States. In New York and other northern States, Populists are execrated by the McKinley press and orators, but in such States as Texas the Republican convention has entered on a dicker to secure the support of the Populists and the gold Democrats! With such deals as these, with a campaign of education—of literature distribution and speech-making—of unlimited expenditure of money on the part of the Republicans, such as has never before been witnessed in the United States; with the hopeless split of the Democrats and the breakaway of silver Republicans, there is plenty of room for guessing as to the result of the voting on the first Tuesday of November.

After 1896, of which more than two-thirds is gone, there will not be a leap year till 1904. It is a critical era for some people.

Honest Trade.

Canada's trade with Great Britain continues to increase. This is most gratifying. If we send good products to the old land, we will obtain the highest market prices. But there must be honesty in marketing, or all will suffer

Great Britain has a wide field in which to choose, and she will not stand imposition of any kind.

Already the Hamilton Spectator has wearied of its attacks on Lord and Lady Aberdeen. It penitently notifies the health inspector that it desires its reserve supply of dead cats to be moved off the premises.

HOW VICTORY CAME
Hamilton Herald.

Mr. Paterson won in North Grey on the day that the Canada won the international yachting trophy. Mr. Patullo won in North Oxford on the day that Gaudaur won the world's sculling championship. There seems to be some connection between Grit victories and Canadian international triumphs.

A proposition is on foot to erect a statue to the honor of Kaiser Wilhelm, of Germany, at Berlin, Ont.

The Canada Bridge Company has completed the bridge over the Otter Creek in Bayham and the Bambury bridge in Southwold.

Rev. F. J. Steen, M.A., of Berlin, has been appointed a professor in the Montreal Diocesan Theological College by the Bishop of Montreal.

Mr. W. J. Mallagh, secretary of the Y. M. C. A. at Paris, has resigned his position there to take charge of a similar work in Kingston.

The Chatham Banner says that the report of the ruin of the bean crop in Kent is an unfounded rumor, and one calculated to do injury to the business.

Mr. J. Brodie, cheesemaker, of Mapleton, has had a very successful year, having made 150 tons of cheese, and 10 1-2 tons of butter. The quality was fine and first-class prices were secured.

Charles Solleder, of Chatham, who, as the result of a sunstroke last summer, had to be sent to the asylum, died there the other day and his remains were taken to Chatham for interment. He was about 25 years of age.

Mrs. Finklestein, aged 80, died in the Berlin jail on Monday as a result of starvation. She had been committed to jail a few weeks ago for lunacy, after having tried to cut her throat with her son's razor. During her term in jail she refused to eat.

The hand of affliction has been laid very heavily upon Mr. Arch. McKay, M. C. R. engineer, of St. Thomas. Within a few months death has claimed his father, wife and babe, and on Sunday night his son, Arch. H., aged 9 years and 4 months, passed away from the effects of diphtheria.

Samuel Wellman, the Wallaceburg contractor, who eight years ago is said to have absconded with $900, the property of his partner, Mr. Martin Martin, and who was a few days ago arrested in Petrolea by Major Coogan, has been committed for trial by Magistrate McDougall.

Joseph Major, an Anderdon farmer, was convicted some months ago of selling liquor without a license and was fined $50 and costs, and all his liquor seized. He pleaded poverty and was allowed to go on paying $15 down and promising to pay the rest as soon as possible. He has not paid a cent and a warrant has been issued for Major's arrest.

The Teams for the Great Baseball Match Between Aldermen and School Trustees.

It is sincerely to be hoped that the rain does not again spite the ladies who are working so unselfishly for the Y. M. C. A. by a second visit tomorrow. The great baseball game between the aldermen and school trustees will start at Tecumseh Park at 4 o'clock sharp, by Umpire Tom Gillean's watch. The stands should be filled to overflowing, as people may never have the chance of seeing such a performance again. A black-board has been borrowed from one of the schools for scoring. The teams will line up as follows (subject to slight changes):

PROFANATION OF THE SABBATH.

Chas. Houghton Avey Up for Selling Cigars on Sunday.

The Police Court lasted only a few minutes this morning. Charles Haughton Avey, son of Wm. Avey, was charged with selling cigars on Sunday. An action had been brought against Mr. Wm. Avey, of the Metropolitan Hotel, a week ago, for having sold cigars on Sunday, Aug. 30, but it was dismissed on the ground that it was the son who sold them, and the latter was brought up today.

Mr. P. McPhillips appeared for defendant. He said that under the act his client could not be convicted. It was not only a prosecution, but a persecution. The case against the young man's father had been dismissed, and he did not see why this should not be so, too. It was not a case of much importance.

Chief Williams said it was a question of so much importance that they were called upon to suppress the sale of goods on Sunday.

The police magistrate thought the whole question was largely a legal one, and even if Mr. Wm. Avey had been proven guilty he would have deliberated before giving his decision. He laid the case over for a day or two, and the chief will consult the crown prosecutor, Mr. McKillop.

Wm. Carroll, from Belleville, was arrested for drunkenness and vagrancy. He said he was making for St. Thomas. The police magistrate advised him to get right out, which he promised to do.

NORTHEAST STORM

Does Considerable Damage on the New England Coast.

Boston, Mass., Sept. 10.—The northeast storm of wind and rain which swept the New England coast last night had not passed this morning, although the force is somewhat less. Considerable damage has been done along the water front. Many cellars were flooded and wharves and low-lying streets were swamped. Reports from New England coast cities indicate that considerable damage was done to shipping.

New London, Sept. 10.—The Sound steamer City of Worcester, of the Norwich and New York Transportation Company, was disabled off Saybrook early this morning and was compelled to lay to. She left New London at 1:30 for New York somewhat later than usual. When off Saybrook she became disabled, and signalled to the freighter Mohawk, of the New London Steamboat Company, which was near at hand. The Mohawk remained with the disabled steamer all night. A passing tug brought word to this city, and at 9 o'clock the City of Lowell steamed out to the City of Worcester to tow her in. At 10 o'clock the two boats had not arrived.

For the Sake of Others a Grateful Woman Praises Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Napanee, Sept. 7.—The wife of Mr. Wm. Crabbe, a well known and highly respected farmer living near Chambers Postoffice, not far from this place, has for a long time been an acute sufferer from kidney disease and weakness peculiar to her sex. Some time ago, despairing of cure, as a last resort, she procured a single box of Dodd's Kidney Pills. She now says that every woman who suffers as she has suffered should know that she experienced relief from the first few doses, and that the second box was all that was required to make her as strong and well as ever before in her life.

Ready for Tomorrow.

A Great Stir at the Western Fair Grounds.

Exhibits Will be in Readiness for the Opening Tomorrow—Programme Outlined.

The Fair Grounds were today invaded with a rush. Exhibits of all kinds poured in all day long, and the exhibitors and assistants were busily engaged in arranging their display to the best advantage. In the live stock department, the new buildings elicited expressions of pleasant surprise at the wonderfully improved accommodation.

All day long the greatest hub-bub has continued, but out of all the confusion and disorder the semblance of the Western Fair as visitors see it gradually appeared. Every department but the live stock will be in readiness for the opening of the gates to the public tomorrow morning at 7 o'clock. At 2 p.m. the judges and awarding committees commence their duties and place prizes.

School Children's Day, Saturday, will no doubt see the most delighted crowd of any that will attend the Fair. All the departments will be in full swing. The Moorish acrobats, Sie Hassan Ben Ali's troupe of Beni Zoug-Zoug Arabs, numbering a dozen, and the funny people, Tom, Frank and Tony, with their novel aerial comedy acts, will make their first appearance, and greatly astonish and amuse the little ones.

The ring events will be the trotting, 2:50 class, and running, half-mile heats, for Provincial bred horses.

On Monday, Citizens' Day, the great Fair will be in full blast. Pawnee Bill's celebrated Wild West Show will give their first performance in the afternoon. The Arab acrobats and the aerial comedians will repeat their programme of Saturday.

In the evening all the special features will be supplemented by a grand display of fireworks. The grounds will be beautifully illuminated by means of colored lights, simultaneously changing colors.

All the specal attractions will be repeated on the three following days. The speeding events will be stallion trotting, 2:35 class, and running, three-quarter mile heats.

On Tuesday, Germania Day, fast horses will be on the track in the trotting race, 2:30 class, and running, five-eighths mile heats.

The first parade of the prize-winners in the horse ring in front of the grand stand will take place on Wednesday, Farmers' Day. The track events will be trotting, running and pacing, open to farmers.

On Thursday, International Day, the famous Detroit Commandery No. 1 of Knights Templar will give an exhibition of military movements. The speed programme will be: Pacing, 2:50 class, and running, half mile, open.

Friday, Sept. 18, will be Stock Breeders' Day. The full list of special attractions will be put on for the last time. Prize-winners will receive their checks, and on Saturday, Sept. 19, the Fair will be closed to all but exhibitors and those having business on the grounds, and the hub-bub of today will be repeated.

ONTARIO BUTTER MAKERS

Next Convention to be Held in St. Marys—Satisfactory State of the Business.

Toronto, Sept. 10.—A board meeting of the Ontario Creameries' Association was held here Tuesday night, those present being the president, Mr. D. Derbyshire, Brockville, who presided, and Messrs. J. S. Pearce, London; John H. Croil, Aultsville; Wm. Halliday, Chesley; L. Wenger, Ayton; John Sprague, Amelliasburg; James Carmichael, Arva; Mark Sprague, Amelliasburg, secretary; and R. J. Graham, Belleville, treasurer. It was resolved that the next annual convention be held at St. Marys on the 13th, 14th and 15th January, 1897, and the speakers were arranged for the occasion.

It was suggested that a deputation from the association should meet the Hon. Sidney Fisher, Minister of Agriculture, and urge upon him the desirability of better refrigerators on the Canadian steamships, so that the butter sent to England might arrive in good condition. The board also discussed the advisability of having some competent person watch the English market to see how the Canadian butter compares with the best Danish butter, and if it is inferior to ascertain the reason of its inferiority. The reports presented were of the most encouraging nature.

It was shown that, owing to the great improvemtnt in the quality of Canadian butter, the demand had caused an increase of 100 per cent in the quantity exported in 1895 over that of the previous year up to the present time. The quantity exported was over 300 per cent over the corresponding period of last year.

TURKISH TEMERITY.

The Protests of the Powers Produce Little Effect.

Constantinople, Sept. 10.—The protests of the British and Italian embassies at the deportation of Armenians has had but little effect.

The Turkish Government has sent a circular to its ministers abroad, saying that in view of ensuring the maintenance of order here it has been decided to send to their native countries all unemployed strangers, and the provincial officials have been instructed to watch all such persons and prevent their return to Constantinople.

Commissions have been sent to the ports of landing to establish the identity of all the deported, and a constant watch will thereafter be kept upon their movements. Measures will also be taken to keep out of the Turkish Empire the emissaries of the Armenian revolutionary committees who are working in Bulgaria and elsewhere.

LIFE SAVED.—Mr. James Bryson Cameron writes: "I was confined to my bed with inflammation of the lungs, and was given up by physicians. A neighbor advised me to try Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, stating that his wife had used it for a throat trouble with the best results. Acting on this advice, I procured the medicine and less than half a bottle cured me; I certainly believed it saved my life. It was with reluctance that I consented to a trial, as I was reduced to such a state that I doubted the power of any remedy to do me any good."

Li's Idea of Indians.

Expected to Find Squaws Looking Like Pauline Johnston.

His Excellency Astonished at Manitoba's Wheat Fields.

Kennay, Man., Sept. 9.—On board Li Hung Chang's special Canadian Pacific train at Brandon.—There was a very large gathering of people eager to catch a glimpse of the Chinese viceroy, and as the blinds of his apartments were not drawn, all the crowd had a good view of his Excellency. The Canadian Pacific Railway Telegraph Company had provided on board the train a special expert operator, who received this evening from the viceroy several important cablegrams for prompt dispatch.

Brandon, Man., Sept. 10.—The trip from Winnipeg was much enjoyed by his Excellency the Viceroy. The magnificent wheat fields of the Portage plains, with harvesters at work, greatly interested his Excellency. At Portage la Prairie the train did not stop at the station, but at the water tank half a mile beyond. Two of the bright young Portage ladies, not to be outdone, conceived the happy idea of wheeling to the train. Earl Li, from his car window, saw them on their bicycles and ordered his attendants to have them admitted. He told them through his interpreter that they were very charming. Of one well-known young lady he asked her age. She told him she was 20.

"Are you married?" the Earl asked, and receiving a negative reply the Earl solemnly shook his head, as if to say, "She should be."

The viceroy appears to be eagerly anticipating the sight of the Indians in the Canadian Northwest. Just before reaching Brandon he sent for your correspondent and inquired if he would be certain to see any pretty Indian ladies. The reporter expressed the fear that his Excellency might be disappointed. Then, turning to Dr. Hoorsey, the Canadian Government representative, he asked: "Is there not any more like the one whose picture you showed me?"

Then Dr. Hoorsey had to explain that he had showed his Excellency a picture of Pauline Johnson, known in Canada as the Indian recitationist. From this picture the viceroy had formed his idea of Indian ladies. The whole party are thoroughly enjoying themselves. His Excellency tonight announced that he wants to spend 24 hours at Banff. He is very anxious to see the famous scenic resort of the Canadian Pacific line. The special will arrive at Banff on Friday morning, and leaves there Saturday morning.

His Excellency the Viceroy received a dispatch from the Japanese consul in Vancouver, extending him a reception and other courtesies. His Excellency was pleased to receive such a mark of respect from the Japanese, and immediately wired his thanks and acceptance.

It was learned this morning that the treatment of the Washington police when they refused to carry the viceroy's chair, still rankles in the old gentleman's feelings. He was correspondingly pleased, however, at the courteous treatment of the Toronto policemen, and wired today to Col. Grasset for their names, and they may expect a souvenir shortly.

A CONSERVATIVE BOYCOTT.

The St. Thomas Aldermen Refuses to Prepare an Address for Lord Aberdeen's Visit.

St. Thomas, Sept. 10. — A special meeting of the city council was called Tuesday night to consider the presentation of an address of welcome to Lord Aberdeen, who arrives in the city on Thursday night. The mayor, four Reform and one Conservative aldermen attended. Six Conservative aldermen absented themselves. There was not a quorum present, and nothing could be done.

As a consequence the Governor-General will receive no address from the city council in St. Thomas. His Excellency will arrive at 8:20 p.m. on Thursday in his private car from Toronto. From 9 to 10 p.m. he will hold a reception at Alma College. On Friday morning he will be presented with an address from the Board of Trade and be driven around the city. Lady Aberdeen arrives from Hamilton on Friday morning, and will address the Woman's Art Association, who will present her Excellency with an illuminated address. At 11 a.m. Friday their Excellencies leave for Dutton.

Upon the Icy Wastes of the Arctic.

Jackson's First View of Nansen—Strange Meeting in a Strange Spot.

London, Sept. 10.—Henry Fisher, botanical curator to the University College Museum, Nottingham, and the botanist of the Jackson and Farnsworth Arctic expedition, now entering upon its second winter on Franz Joself land, reached Gravesend on Saturday with four companions by the expedition's supply steamer Windward.

Mr. Fisher said: "On June 17 we had just finished dinner in our quarters at Cape Flora when, suddenly, Lieut. Albert Armitage, R.N.R., our astronomer, put his head in the window and shouted: "How many of you are here. I see a man on the ice floe."

"Mr. Jackson arose and immediately said: 'Whoever it is, I'm off.' We then scrambled for our telescopes, and Lieut. Armitage and I, who had good glasses, suggested that the stranger was Dr. Nansen.

By the time that Mr. Jackson met the stranger they looked like two specks in the distance. After watching the stranger still more carefully we definitely concluded that he must be Dr. Nansen. He was wearing ski and was jumping from one ice hummock to another in a marvelous manner."

Mr. Jackson's letter is addressed to A. C. N. Farnsworth, and continues the story. He wrote:

"Approaching nearer, we noticed that he was as black as a stoker and that from head to foot his clothes were covered with grease.

"We shook hands warmly, and the following conversation ensued:

"Jackson—I am awfully glad to see you.

"Nansen—So am I to see you.

"Jackson—Have you a ship here?

"Nansen—No. My ship is not here.

"Jackson—How many of you are there?

"Nansen—I have one companion in the distance there.

"During this time I was looking steadily in his face, and in spite of his long, black hair and smoke-black skin, I thought he was Dr. Nansen, whom I had known in London. So I exclaimed, 'Are you not Dr. Nansen?'

"'Yes, I am Nansen,' was his reply.

"'By jove!' I answered, 'I am really, awfully glad to see you.' Then we again shook hands still more heartily.

"'I thank you very much,' said Dr. Nansen. 'It is very kind of you.'

'When we reached headquarters it was midnight but as light as noon.

"After Dr. Nansen and his companion (Lieut. Schott-Hansen) had a bath, were shaved and had their hair cut, our photographer took their pictures, and they dined with us."

SHE SAVED HERSELF.

And Broke the Impact of That Wild and Rushing Cyclist.

London Telegraph.

A lady protected herself against the rushing advance of a cyclist in Brompton road, London, in an original and commendable fashion. The cyclist was rushing along at his best pace, and the lady was crossing the roadway. Instead of making a detour to avoid her, the man simply rang his bell and rushed on without abatement of speed, considering that he had done his duty to society.

Pedestrians on the footpath and business men on their perches saw that a collision was inevitable. So did the lady, who braced herself for the ordeal and resolved on offensive tactics. Giving her body—not by any means that of a pigmy—a rapid swing, she brought the strongest and most padded part of her figure into contact with the front wheel of the machine, and the bicyclist himself, and sent them both sprawling into the roadway. Then, giving her skirts another swing, just to prove that she had suffered no damage, she finished her journey across the road, and turned round and laughed with others at the unhappy cyclist as he picked himself up and the disjecta membra of his once perfect machine. He made his way to the curbstone, where he sat down to contemplate the damage, and finally put the thing on his shoulder and carried it away.

BRYANSTON.

Bryanston, Sept. 9.—Anniversary services were held in connection with the Methodist Church, Bryanston, last Sabbath. A platform meeting in the interests of the Sabbath school was held in the morning, at which addresses were delivered by Revs. G. H. Thompson, a former pastor, and J. H. Kirkland, minister in charge. In the afternoon and evening the pulpit was occupied by Rev. Mr. Thompson, who preached earnest and eloquent sermons to large and deeply interested congregations. The choir of Siloam Methodist Church rendered valuable help at all the services. On Tuesday evening a harvest home supper was given by the ladies of the congregation. Tables were spread in the hall and abundantly supplied with all the luxuries of the season. After supper the company adjourned to the church crowding it to the doors. A choice programme was rendered by talent from London, mostly connected with J. H. Chapman & Co.'s drygoods establishment. Dr. Laing, of Granton, occupied the chair with his usual ability and tact. The net proceeds of the anniversary services will be sufficient to completely wipe out the debt remaining on our comfortable and commodious place of worship.

A PROUD MAN.

The editor moves in a vortex of conflicting interests, and perhaps fails, now and then, accurately to gauge the motives of the people with whom he comes in contact, but he invariably gives fair play and can recognize good work. He puts his mind and physique into his own duty, and fills a position of great responsibility honestly and fearlessly. He is zealous for his party, works unstintingly, for many good objects, and bears himself like a Saladin against shams. He has one vanity—he is proud of the place he occupies. He has the spirit of John Black, who envied no one. "You are the only journalist that forgets that I am Prime Minister," said Lord Melbourne to that press man. "How so, my lord?" inquired Black. "Because you never ask a favor of me." "I have no favor to ask," Black retorted. "You are the Prime Minister of England, but I am the editor of the Morning Chronicle, and I would not change places with the proudest man in England—not even, my lord, with you!"—Gentleman's Magazine.

GOLD GOES UP.

London, Sept. 10.—The Bank of England has raised the selling price of bar gold 1-2d to 78s. This was due more to the pressure of Russian and Austrian inquiry than to any American demand.

S. & J. THE WEATHER TODAY: Generally fair and warm. S. & J.

Our business is great because our wares are good and our prices low.

Fresh As a Daisy

We refer to our new fall stock, not to any person. Just the same, those persons who attire themselves in goods from our stores will be as faultlessly dressed as any daisy ever was, and will look quite as fresh. We have already to hand a most attractive assortment of Dress Goods, which those who know what's good and fashionable will be pleased to buy on sight. True, the stock is not yet complete, but there is sufficient to supply present demands. This year, anticipating a very great demand, we have made heavier importations than usual, and the variety of French, German and British stuffs is most inviting.

Pay as you go and your cash will take you further.

New Jackets and Millinery

Jackets—no end to them. Coming in every day. The most fetching ever brought to London. Of course we lead in Jackets and Cloaks, which everyone knows. Those desirous of seeing the new fall styles should lose no time. Many are buying now—those who by experience know that delays are dangerous. The most popular materials are Beavers, Curled Serges, Boucle Tweeds and Friezes. Short three-button Coats, large sleeves, star collar are in great demand.

Walking Hats are the popular thing just now. They are walking out of our popular Millinery Department in great numbers. We have to hand a large importation and more are coming. We have aimed at a greatly increased custom this fall, and already it is coming.

TEXTILE BUCKSKIN stands on its merits. It also makes sleeves and skirts stand out in puff and flare of fashion. It is the best interlining at the price. 25c a yard.

Don't You Remember Long Ago?

As the years roll on we more and more recall the events of the past. School days, with their tasks and chores come back again to us in memory, but with the glamour and enchantment of distant views. The old school and church, the boys and girls we romped with, father's voice, mother's smile, the joy of the holiday—no pleasures of the present can compare with those enjoyed in the days now locked up in the eternity of the past. In a similar way we recall the old time tested friend of the past—Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor—that never failed us then and is just as sure to serve us now. Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor is sure, safe

—Mr. Frank McLaughlin, who has been visiting his parents at No. 634 King street, has returned to his home in Detroit.

—Mr. Charles McHugh, of John street, has taken out a permit for a brick veneer cottage on John street, to cost $700.

—The new street railway barn in the East End has been completed, and all the cars will be under roof tonight for the first time.

—Mrs. Thos. E. Parke, of Ontario, Cal., formerly of this city, is visiting her parents in Westminster, and friends in the city.

—Orders of the strictest nature have lately been received by the C. P. R. employes in this city forbidding the use of liquor while on duty.

—Miss Florence Buckhurst, of Melbourne, Australia, and Mrs. (Dr.) Hicks, of Fort Wayne, Ind., are visiting Mrs. Alex. Purdom, 256 Burwell street.

—Merchant tailors requiring something neat in fall announcement folders should see the newest designs at The Advertiser Job Department. Prices away down. 'Phone 175. 8u

—The city engineer and the mayor will be installed in their new downstairs offices next week. All the city offices will then be on the ground floor, except the school board's.

—Chatham Planet: "Ald. John Flook is in the city. The business in hand now is to prepare the city's defense against Granolithic Contractor Graham, of London, who has entered suit."

—It has been found necessary to hold the Aberdeen reception next Thursday evening in the City Hall instead of at Mrs. Hyman's residence, owing to the large number who purpose attending.

—Misses Jarvis, Dempsey, Peel, London; Misses Carlyle, White, McKenna, Woodstock, are delegates at the second biennial conference of the Young Women's Christian Association of Canada, being held in Hamilton.

—Mr. Bert Little, son of Mayor Little, has returned to Toronto University. He is secretary-treasurer of 'Varsity Rugby Club, and must be present during the month of football practice that precedes the college opening.

—W. Bro. C. A. Kingston, of St. John's Lodge, No. 209a, A., F. and A. M., of this city, yesterday received from Grand Secretary Mason a commission naming him grand junior deacon of the Grand Lodge for the year, dating from July 15, 1896.

—Mr. Samuel P. Ayers and wife, of Chicago, are visiting London friends. Mr. Ayers is a graduate of the G. N. W. telegraph office here, and like most Canadian boys, has moved to the top on the other side. He is one of the leading members of the United Press' Chicago staff.

—The police commissioners held a meeting in the police magistrate's room at the Carling street station this morning to deal with the case of P. C. Campbell, who had been sent in off his beat by the patrol sergeant on Monday night last for inability to perform his duty. The commissioners decided to reduce him from grade 1 to grade 2.

—Henry Bush and his wife had another lawsuit yesterday. The old man seems bound to have his way about things, and the old lady is built the same way. The fuss yesterday was about the old man breaking one of his wife's window screens, and the old lady retaliated by breaking the lock on his stable. It came up before Squire Peters, who reserved his judgment.

—The First Hussars Regiment, with headquarters here, has been furnished with an entire new equipment, and will, from this time out, use the standard drill of the English army. The Minister of Militia has approved of a proposition to allow intending officers to qualify at the Wolseley Barracks here, instead of going to Toronto, so that in all probability a course of cavalry instruction will be commenced at the barracks about the end of this month.

—Windsor Record: "Wm. Scott, the London man who spread alarm on McDougall street the other night by walking into Lawson's grocery and asking for a knife, is again in trouble. The police are now convinced that he is a man that should be cared for. On Monday night about 11 o'clock Hugo Kretschman was taking a quiet snooze in the Essex House office when Scott, who was nosing around, 'touched' him. When Kretschman awoke he was minus his ticker. Scott was at once arrested and locked up, and sentenced to six months in the Central."

—Another of the old residents of Forest passed quietly away last Saturday evening, Mr. Arch. McFadden, who died at his home on Ontario street. The news of his death was a surprise to all, as he was down town two days before. He had been in delicate health for some years, and succumbed to a severe attack of bronchitis. He settled in Forest 24 years ago, being one of the earliest settlers there. His wife died 28 years ago. Five children survive him, viz., Mrs. Fred. Wichman, of London; Mrs. Laing, Lansing; Mrs. David Scott, London; Mrs. John Kay, Forest, and John McFadden, Cleveland, all of whom were here to attend the funeral.—Forest Free Press.

THANKS.

The collection by the local branch of the Council of Women for the relief of the women of Armenia is completed. The sum received will be handed over to her Excellency the Countess of Aberdeen, general president, to be forwarded by her to the Duke of Argyle, general treasurer of the Armenian fund. We warmly thank the ladies who collected, and those who gave, and especially the friends who, knowing of our work, sent generous donations unsolicited. SOPHIE W. MACKINNON, Treasurer of Armenian Fund.

ON THE MARKET.

Covent Garden Market was not so largely attended this morning as on Thursday last. The chief commodities offered were garden stuffs, butter, eggs, and poultry. The fruit supply does not seem to get any smaller, and apples sell for almost anything—20 cents to $1 per barrel. This latter price is obtained for large Alexandras, some of which measure fifteen inches in circumference. Plums are selling for 25, 35 and 40 cents; dealers say they will be dearer on Saturday. In peaches, eight-quart baskets sell for 25 cents, and twelve-quart baskets for 40 cents. Grapes are seen everywhere at 1 1-2 to 2 cents per pound, and 20 cents per peck.

Potatoes remain steady at 40 to 45 cents, and meet a ready demand.

Butter was plentiful and down again—price, 14 cents for crocks, and 15 to 16 cents for rolls. The enormous influx of last Saturday brought down the price, and as the supply is so large it will probably be some time before any advance takes place. The best creamery is the only kind worth shipping.

Eggs were offered in larger quantities than for some time past. Mr. Higgins, a buyer for a London, Eng., house, says that eggs are getting a little scarce. There will be, he says, a good demand for them from now out. The export trade in eggs promises to be good. This year, Mr. Higgins says he can export all the eggs and chickens he can buy. The price of eggs by the basket is 12 and 14 cents per dozen, but in larger lots 11 cents is the prevailing price.

Hay was plentiful at $8 per ton.

The General in Camp.

An Informal Inspection of the Whole Premises This Morning.

A Concensus of Opinion That the Whole Organization Could Not be Improved Upon.

The men in camp this morning presented an excellent appearance. They had received orders last evening to see to it that every man was presentable this morning, and every man did accordingly.

Last night Major-Gen. Gascoigne, commander-in-chief of the forces in Canada, arrived with his suite and paid the camp a visit this morning. The inspection was an informal one, but nevertheless a thorough one. The general, in company with Lieut.-Col. Smith, D. A. G., and the staff, went over the entire field and through all departments of the camp. Every company on the ground was put through its drill, while he stood by and watched the movements of the men and judged the efficiency of the officers from that.

The general has expressed himself as exceedingly well pleased with the condition in which he found everything, and had nothing but words of praise for the men and the cleanliness prevailing at the camp. He complimented Lieut. Betty very highly on the manner in which he instructed the men. This is the first camp the general has visited here, and expresses himself as well pleased with the organization.

The Thirtieth Battalion were the first to receive instruction with the Lee-Enfield rifles, and were put through this morning by the following instructors: Sergt. Davis, Col.-Sergt. Cooper, Sergt. Dunlevy, Corps. Beaumont, Blake-Foster, Smith, and Ptes. Davis and Moore. The men were put through the firing exercises, which include firing, standing, kneeling and lying down. Every available man will be employed to instruct the "green" corps in the musketry exercises. The attached officers detailed for this duty are Second Lieut. Macbeth, Twenty-sixth Battalion; Second Lieut. Phelps, Twenty-fifth Battalion; Lieut. Reid, Twenty-sixth Battalion; Second Lieut. Anderson, Thirty-fourth Battalion; Second Lieut. Moore, Twenty-sixth Battalion.

TOMORROW'S ORDERS.

The following orders have been issued for tomorrow:

Field officer for the day—Major Mutrie, Thirtieth Battalion.

Next for duty—Major McQueen, Twenty-second Battalion.

Sanitary officer tomorrow—Assistant Surgeon Rice, Twenty-second Battalion.

Next for duty—Surgeon-Major Casgrain, Twenty-first Battalion.

No. 1—The buglers of the various corps in camp will report to Sergt.-Bugler Walsh, R. C. R. I., on the brigade ground daily, immediately after the "fall in" has sounded.

"MOBILIZATION" INSTRUCTION.

The military authorities are doing their utmost to perfect the men in every way, and are being encouraged by the aptitude and eagerness of the men to learn.

The following communication has been received from headquarters at Ottawa addressed to Lieut.-Col. Smith, D.A.G.: "With the approval of the honorable the Minister of Militia, and the sanction of the general officer commanding, Capt. Lee, R.A., of Kingston, will deliver a lecture on "Mobilization" at London camp on the evening of Sept. 17. You are requested to notify the officers under your command, and if possible they should be induced to attend."

A GRANTON SENSATION.

The Village Jeweler, Campbell, Leaves Suddenly—Desires to be Thought Honest.

The Advertiser Granton correspondent writes: "The town is in a furore of excitement over the discovery that our watchmaker, J. A. Campbell, had left suddenly. A great many regret his absence from the fact that he forget to leave behind him their watches or other valuables that were entrusted to him for repairs. He came hither from Guelph some months ago and as he proved himself to be a good workman a great many entrusted him with their work. It is believed that he has twelve or fourteen watches belonging to customers in his possession. He got a consignment of silverware from W. J. Reid & Co., of London, which he sold off last week at whatever he could get for it, saying, in explanation, that he could not get the proper price for it, and that he was ordered by the firm to sell it out for what he could get, and retain ten per cent of the proceeds for his trouble. He left a letter asking people not to believe him dishonest and that he would return before long and square everything up; also a letter written by him to a girl in Toronto complaining of despondency and saying that she might not hear from him again; also a card from this same girl to him, asking him to wait for her, and other matter only understood by themselves. The girl's address is 109 Trinity street."

W. J. Reid & Co. were seen as to the above, and stated that Campbell owed them a very slight sum for goods furnished, and that the story that he was selling on commission was untrue. They received word that he had left the place, but they were not concerned, as the amount involved was not worth bothering about.

'Twixt Love and Duty.

Elder Semple was greatly pleased at his friend's complaisance. He gave Joris full credit for his victory over his national prejudices, and he did his very best to make the concession a pleasant event. In this effort he was greatly assisted by Mrs. Gordon; she set herself to charm Van Heemskirk, as she had set herself to charm Madame Van Heemskirk on her previous visit; and she succeeded so well that when "Sir Roger De Coverley" was called, Joris rose, offered her his hand, and, to the delight of everyone present, led the dance with her.

It was a little triumph for the Elder, and he sat smiling and twirling his fingers and thoroughly enjoying the event. Indeed, he was so interested in listening to the clever way in which "the bonnie woman flattered Van Heemskirk" that he was quite oblivious to the gathering wrath in his son's face and the watchful gloom in Bram's eyes, as the two men stood together, jealously observant of Capt. Hyde's attentions to Katherine. Without any words spoken on the subject, there was an understood compact between them to guard the girl from any private conversation with him; and yet two men with hearts full of suspicion and jealousy were not a match for one man with a heart full of love. In a moment, in the interchange of their hands in a dance, Katherine clasped tightly a little note, and unobserved hid it behind the rose at her breast.

But nothing is a wonder in love, or else it would have been amazing that Joanna did not notice the rose absent from her sister's dress after Capt. Hyde's departure; nor yet that Katherine, ere she went to rest that night, kissed fervently a tiny bit of paper, which she hid within the silver clasps of her Kirk Bible. The loving girl thought it no wrong to put it there—she even hoped that some kind of blessing or sanction might come through such sacred keeping; and she went to sleep whispering to herself: "Happy I am! Me, he loves! Me, he loves! Me only, he loves! Me forever, he loves!"

CHAPTER V.

"My dear Dick' I am exceeding concerned to find you in such a taking—a soldier who has known some of the finest women of the day moping about a Dutch schoolgirl! Psha! Don't be a fool. I had a much better opinion of you."

"'Tis a kind of folly that runs in the family, aunt. I have heard that you preferred Col. Gordon to a duke."

"Now, sir, you are ill-natured. Dukes are not uncommon; a man of sense and sensibility is a treasure. Make me grateful that I secured one."

"Lend me your wit, then, for the same consummation. I assure you that I consider Katherine Van Heemskirk a treasure past belief. Confess, now, that she was the loveliest of creatures last night."

"She has truly a fine complexion, and she dances with all the elegance imaginable. I know, too, that she sings to perfection, and has most agreeable and obliging manners."

"And a heart which abounds in every tender feeling."

"Oh, indeed, sir! I was not aware that you knew her so well!"

"I know that I love her beyond everything, and that I am likely so to love her all my life."

"Upon my word, Dick, love may live an age—if you don't marry it."

"Let me make you understand that I wish to marry it."

"Oh, indeed, sir! Then the church door stands open. Go in. I suppose the lady will oblige you so far."

"Pray, my dear aunt, talk sensibly. Give me your advice; you know already that I value it. What is the first step to be taken?"

"Go and talk with her father. I assure you no real progress can be made without it. The girl you think worth asking for; but it is very necessary for you to know what fortune goes with her beauty."

"If her father refuse to give her to me——"

"That is not to be thought of. I have seen that some of the best of these Dutch families are very willing to be friendly with us. You come of a noble race. You wear your sword with honor. You are not far from the heritage of a great title and estate. If you ask for her fortune, you offer far above its equivalent, sir."

"I have heard Neil Semple say that Van Heemskirk is a great stickler for trade, and that he hates every man who wears a sword."

"You have heard more than you need listen to. I talked to the man an hour last night. He is as honest as a looking-glass, and I read him all through with the greatest ease. I am sure that he has a heart very tender and devoid of anger or prejudice of any kind."

"That is to be seen. I have discovered already that men who can be very gentle can also be very rough. But this suspense is intolerable and not to be borne. I will go and end it. Pray, what is the hour?"

"It is about 3 o'clock—a very suitable hour, I think."

"Then give me your good wishes."

"I shall be impatient to hear the result."

"In an hour or two——"

"Oh, sir! I am not so foolish as to expect you in an hour or two. When you have spoken with the father you will doubtless go home with him and drink a dish of tea with your divinity. I can imagine your unreasonable felicity, Dick—seas of milk and ships of amber, and all sails set for the desired haven. I know it all, so I hope you will spare me every detail, except, indeed, such as relate to pounds, shillings and pence."

It was a very hot afternoon, and Van Heemskirk's store, though open to the river breezes, was not by any means a cool or pleasant place. Bram was just within the doors, marking "Boston" on a number of flour barrels which were being rapidly transferred to a vessel lying at the wharf. He was absorbed and hurried in the matter, and received the visitor with rather a cool courtesy. But whether the coolness was of intention or preoccupation, Capt. Hyde did not notice it. He asked for Councilor Van Heemskirk, and was taken to his office, a small room, intensely warm and sunny at that hour of the day.

"Your servant, captain."

"Yours, most sincerely, Councilor. It is a hot day."

"That is so. We come near to midsummer. Is there anything I can to oblige you in, sir?"

Joris asked the question because the manner of the young man struck him as uneasy and constrained, and he thought, "Perhaps he has come to borrow money." It was notorious that his Majesty's officers gambled, and were often in very great need of it; and although Joris had not any intention of risking his gold, he thought it as well to bring out the question and have the refusal understood before unnecessary politeness made it more difficult. He was not therefore astonished when Capt. Hyde answered, "Sir, you can indeed oblige me, and that in a matter of the greatest moment."

"If money it be, captain, at once I may tell you that I borrow not and I lend not."

"Sir, it is not money—in particular."

"So?"

"It is your daughter Katherine."

Then Joris stood up and looked steadily at the suitor. His large, amiable face had become in a moment hard and stern, and the light in his eyes was like the cold sharp light that falls from drawn steel.

"My daughter is not for you to name. Sir, it is a wrong to her if you speak her name."

"By my honor, it is not. Though I come of as good family as any in England, and may not unreasonably hope to inherit its earldom, I do assure you, sir, I sue as humbly for your daughter's hand as if she were a princess."

"Your family! Talk not of it! King nor kaiser do I count better men than my own foregoers. Like to like; that is what I say. Your wife seek, captain, among your own women."

"I protest that I love your daughter. I wish above all things to make her my wife."

"Many things men desire that they come not near to. My daughter is to another man promised."

"Look you, Councilor, that would be monstrous. Your daughter loves me."

Joris turned white to the lips.

"It is not the truth," he answered, in a slow, husky voice.

"By the sun in heaven, it is the truth! Ask her."

"Then a great scoundrel are you, unfit with honest men to talk. Ho! Yes! Your sword pull from its scabbard! Strike! To the heart, strike me! Less wicked would be the deed than the thing you have done."

"In faith, sir, 'tis no crime to win a woman's love."

"No crime it would be to take the guilders from my purse if my consent was to it. But into my house to come, and while warm was yet my welcome, with my bread and wine in your lips, to take my gold a shame and a crime would be. My daughter than gold is more precious."

There was something very impressive in the angry sorrow of Joris. It partook of his own magnitude. Standing in front of him, it was impossible for Capt. Hyde not to be sensible of the differences between his own slight, nervous frame and the fair, strong massiveness of Van Heemskirk. And in a dim way he comprehended that this physical difference was only the outward and visible sign of a mental and moral one quite as positive and unchangeable.

Yet he persevered in his solicitation. With a slight impatience of manner, he said: "Do but hear me, sir. I have done nothing contrary to the custom of people in my condition, and I assure you that with all my soul I love your daughter."

Claimed to Have Been in Gaelic, With Bagpipe Accompaniment.

A Great Gathering of Men of Celtic Origin in Canada.

Mr. Alex. Fraser, of this city, was unable to take part in a great gathering of Gaelic-speaking residents of Canada at Toronto on the Civic Holiday, but with others he sent a letter of regret. A banquet was held in the evening, in which many leading men participated. Alex. Fraser, president of the Toronto Gaelic Society, presided, and a Gaelic federation for all Canada was indorsed. Petrolea, Guelph, Hamilton, Montreal and Penetang societies had previously voted in favor of such a union, for the promotion of Gaelic as a living speech, the study of Gaelic customs, manners and institutions, and of Celtic antiquities, literature and art.

PRINCIPAL GRANT.

"The Gael in Canada" was the toast intrusted to Rev. Principal Grant. He proposed it in fervent words that warmed the hearts of his hearers. Scotland was dear to them all, but Canada was dearer still. He was not only one of the Gael in Canada, but from his youth up he had known what was the metal of the Gael. (Cheers.) From Cape Race to the far Pacific the Gael was true to his traditions, to his God, to his country, to his honor, to everything that made life dear. (Cheers.) As a youth he lived in Pictou, Nova Scotia, where the population was almost entirely Gaelic. In every country, also, of Nova Scotia, the Gael not only made for physical prosperity, but for intellectual development and moral worth. (Cheers.) The same was true all over Canada. Dalhousie College was founded by a splendid Celt and had received great benefactions from Alex. McLeod and Geo. Munro. McGill was founded by a Gael, and the munificence of Sir Donald Smith, and W. A. Macdonald, representative Gaels, made it in its physical departments one of the best equipped in the world. Queen's was founded by the Gael, when he discovered that there was no university in Ontario open to him on equal terms, and who scorned to accept education on any other. Westward still was the Gael of Zorra, and those other Highland districts of Oxford. It was a Zorra man who, during the Fenian raid, said: "They may take Toronto, and Hamilton, and London, but they'll never take Zorra." (Loud cheers.) Away across the Rockies, in the names of the Mackenzie and Fraser Rivers, one reads the names of their Gaelic discoverers. (Cheers.) In politics it was the same. The ablest Premiers in the past had been Macdonald and Mackenzie. (Cheers.) The present Premier, too, was a Gael—(loud cheers)—not Scotch, but a French-speaking Gael. The great mass of the French were Celtic, therefore they claimed Laurier. (Cheers.)

HON. GEO. W. ROSS.

Hon. Geo. W. Ross devoted his few remarks to a genial chaffing of his fellow-Gaels. They had heard the bagpipes, to which Adam and Eve had danced in Paradise in the days of their innocence.

A Voice—Who played the pipes?

Mr. Ross (in apparent surprise)—Why, the angels. (Loud applause.) Continuing, the Minister said he was glad that he could appreciate and understand the Gaelic, which contained much in its literature of the purest kind of poetry.

In closing, Mr. Ross paid a high tribute to the Gael in the feminine. There was, he declared, amid loud applause, no sweetness so refined as the nectar of her lips, nor any children so dear as those that grew from Scottish mothers.

NEW RENDERING.

Mr. Archibald Blue gave this new rendering of the old song:

"Should Gaelic language be forgot
An' never brought to mind;
For she was spoke in Paradise
In the days of Auld Lang Syne."

He said the bi-lingual tongue, whether Gaelic or French, was a distinct advantage, for no man could so clearly express himself as men who added one or both of these to English.

A STALWART NOVA SCOTIAN.

The "Celt in Peace and War" was briefly spoken to among others by Hon. Duncan C. Fraser, the stalwart Nova Scotian M. P. The latter was in fine fettle. He began by telling his audience that they had not cheered the good sayings of the night as they should have done. Then he launched out into a passage of exhortation. "Dear me," said he, "revive the Gaelic, is it? Listen while you are asked in beseeching tones to speak the language of your forefathers. Ha. In my country I can travel 50, 100, 300 miles, speak all day and stay all night and hear nothing but the Gaelic. (Cheers.) Revive the Gaelic. It is too dear to us to let it die. (Cheers.) Today the Gael had no small place in the development of Canada. This was a better Parliament than the last, for 10 per cent of its members spoke the Gaelic—(cheers)—although not in the House, still among themselves. He had upon one occasion silenced a garrulous member in the House with a torrent of Gaelic. (Cheers.)

OLD MAN'S CHILD-BRIDE.

Washington, N. J., Sept. 10.—A wedding of an unusual nature took place at Belvidere. The principals were William Rowe and Miss Hannah Lozaw, both of Washington. The groom is 71 and the bride has just turned 17. Rowe walks on crutches, and is bent nearly double from the effects of rheumatism. He gets a big pension, and is quite well off. He has been paying attention to Miss Lozaw since she was 11 years old. The young bride's parents express indignation over the marriage.

"Turn Her Adrift!"

Pitiable Condition of a Canadian Girl in Buffalo.

"In a Whole City Full, Home She Had None"—Heartless Suggestion of the Police.

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 10.—The authorities here do not know what to do with the case of a Canadian girl and her fatherless babe. She has been in turn rejected by all the officials and there seems nothing for the girl to do but drown herself, unless taken in hand by private charity. The case is not uncommon, though more than usually conspicuous.

Olive Glenny is the name of the unfortunate young woman, and she came here from Canada and obtained employment as a domestic about a month ago. She remained at her place until her child was born, when the superintendent of the poor was called upon to take charge of the young mother and babe. He sent her to the General Hospital to convalesce, and when she was out she began to look for work, but in vain, so her case was reported to the superintendent of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children.

He found out that the girl was a Canadian, and referred the matter to Inspector DeBarry to deport the girl. This, DeBarry said, under the law he could not do, as Miss Glenny had entered the United States regularly as a domestic servant. He referred the case again to Superintendent of Poor Rehm, but he refused to take charge of it, saying that if he did, every girl in Canada who got into trouble would be over there for care and nursing. She was a Canadian, and this country was not bound to take care of her. He thought she ought to return to Canada. This the girl refuses to do.

The police have been invoked, but they say: "Turn her adrift."

The woman who has taken care of Olive and her babe for the past few days, says she hates to do that, because it would drive the girl to suicide.

GOLD IN CANADA.

More Valuable Discoveries in the West.

Vancouver, B. C., Sept. 8.—Two more big strikes have been made in properties owned by Canadian and American capitalists, close to Vancouver. A third is a wide vein, running about $1,000 to the ton in free milling gold, in the Golden Cache group in the Lillooet district. The gold can be seen by the naked eye. At the Van and a group, Cascade Island, another vein has been struck, assaying as high as $1,000. Phillips Arms, near Vancouver, and on the Gold Stream near Victoria, rich claims are being developed. Owing to these rich finds the American and English capitalists are looking for smelter sites in Vancouver.

Mr. J. C. McLagan, of Vancouver, B. C., told a good story to the World's young man. He says the story is absolutely true. "You know, said Mr. McLagan, "before I came east I had to visit my mother-in-law, who lives 53 miles from Vancouver. I went out to visit her two weeks ago last Sunday, and they had a couple of ducks for dinner. After the ducks had been killed there was found in the crop of one of them $2 80 worth of floating gold. The ducks had been picking in a soggy spot on the premises. This seems queer, but it's absolutely true. Gold seems to be so plentiful there that the ducks can't even pick in the mud without devouring gold nuggets."

In the Berleoy hills, Dauphiny, there is a fountain which emits an inflammable gas during the greater part of the month of July, but during no other time during the year.

SIX KILLED.

Warsaw, Ind., Sept. 10.—There was a frightful accident Tuesday afternoon to a coaching party of young people which started out from Warsaw, Ind. When about five miles north of that city the horse took fright. They backed the wheels of the tally-ho over an embankment, and the people, horses and vehicle were rolled down a hillside in a mangled mass. Six persons were killed and four injured.

Those killed are: James Fitzhugh, Frank Meiser, Mary Coneiffe, Francis Conin, Agnes Levi, Edward Smith. The injured are: James Holloway, fractured skull; May Morrall, broken ribs; Frank Donohue, driver, internally injured; Victor Brice, leg broken.

THE MANITOBA WHEAT CROP.

Winnipeg, Sept. 10.—The Nor'-Wester editorially says: "The thresher, which, after all, is the only reliable authority on the Manitoba wheat crop, is causing more or less disappointment in various portions of the Province. The yield to the acre develops less than was hoped and believed would be realized a few weeks ago, and the general belief now is that the figures named by the Nor'-Wester, 20,000,000 bushels, as probable yield of Manitoba, will not be reached. The harvest, however, is not a bad one; the grade will average about that of last year, and the quantity, while possibly less than 20,000,000, will still be a good crop."

After her sentence she poured forth a tirade of epithets at the authorities, Mr. McKillop and Miss Higdon, and said she would sooner go to the Mercer for life than live in London for a month.

WANT TO BE POLICEMEN.

Application for positions as Western Fair special policemen are coming in to Chief Williams, thick and fast. According to police regulations no one can be accepted over the age of 35 years. This will bar a great many who have made application. The chief does not know just how many men will be required. So far, there are about 160 applicants, of all shapes and sizes, to say nothing of color, race and condition. On Tuesday a colored man about 70 years of age, asked to be numbered as one of "the finest," and seemed much disappointed when his services were declined.

WILBUR OPERA COMPANY TONIGHT.

Manager A. E. Roote could make no more welcome announcement than the coming of the favorite Wilbur Opera Company, who are booked for appearance at the Opera House for one week, commencing tonight. Everything about the organization is new this season, and the performances are fin de siecle and up to date in every sense that the term implies. Of course the great attraction this year, as it was last, is the living pictures, which are acknowledged the best in existence. Notwithstanding the enormous amount of time, labor and capital devoted to the living pictures, the operas have not been slighted in the least. If anything, they have been elaborated for the coming season, and presented with a perfection of detail. Manager Wilbur has this year revived the beautiful marches and entrancing drills which were formerly such a feature of his productions, and reproduced them with an entire new set of costumes, and with marvelous light effects. Twenty-four girls are used to perform these military evolutions, which will be given several times during the coming week.

No one need fear cholera or any summer complaint if they have a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial ready for use. It corrects all looseness of the bowels promptly, and causes a healthy and natural action. This is a medicine adapted for the young and old, rich and poor, and is rapidly becoming the most popular medicine for cholera, dysentery, etc., in the market.

THE TOBACCO HABIT CURED.

In the interest of the masses, for whom these reports are compiled, the United States Health Reports have examined and investigated many preparations having for their object the cure of the tobacco habit, but among them all we have no hesitancy in giving the editorial and official endorsement of these reports to the remedy known as "Uncle Sam's Tobacco Cure," manufactured by the Keystone Remedy Company, at 218 La Salle street, Chicago. They are distributing literature this week all through the city, and in the light of our examinations and tests of "Uncle Sam's Tobacco Cure," we are but performing a duty we owe the public when we indorse the same, and stamp it as the crowning achievement of the nineteenth century, in the way of destroying a habit as disgusting as it is common (For Only $1) hence we earnestly advise you to read full particulars, and if you have not seen circulars to call at W. S. Bryers Bark-well's, wholesale and retail agents for Canada, 268 Dundas street, London. w

LETTERS TO THE "ADVERTISER."

VETERANS OF 1866.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

Being in accord with the following circular, which speaks for itself, I will cheerfully receive any donations handed me and forward them to the parties in trust, acknowledging receipt of same to contributors.

ARCHD. McPHERSON.

Guelph, Aug. 25, 1896.

Col. Archd. McPherson, London, Ont.

Sir,—In compliance with the direction of the executive committee of the officers and men of the Thirtieth Battalion, who were on service during the Fenian Raid, held here on the evening of the 20th inst., I am authorized to inform you that with regard to the movement at present in progress, under the management of Mr. J. P. MacMillan, who is most enthusiastic in the interests of the volunteers in an effort to obtain a suitable recognition from the Government for their military services in '66, it is the desire to create a fund in order to meet the expenses incidental thereto. Up to this, besides assuming a very large amount of work in furtherance of the matter, including extensive correspondence with the officers and men now located in various parts of both Ontario and Quebec, taking up much of his time, he has been meeting the expenses of printing, postage, and traveling from his own private resources. As it is not the wish of the corps that he should be obliged to be out of pocket in this way, it is most desirable that all who are interested would contribute voluntarily what they could conveniently spare for the purpose. Aware that you have the interests of the veterans at heart, and you would rejoice to see the matter accomplished to their satisfaction, I take the liberty of asking you to kindly call a meeting of the officers and men of your district belonging to that force and procuring their contributions towards the fund suggested. By each paying what he can conveniently spare, however small it may be, yet in the aggregate it will enable Mr. MacMillan to carry on the movement to a final issue without an unnecessary strain upon his own personal finances. As it is his intention to leave shortly for Ottawa it will be necessary to lose no time in sending on such contributions as may come to your hand and which will be thankfully received and duly acknowledged. I have the honor to be, dear sir, yours respectfully, N. HIGINBOTHAM, Lieutenant-Colonel Commanding the Thirtieth Battalion in '66.

There is nothing to prevent anyone concocting a mixture and calling it "sarsaparilla," and there is nothing to prevent anyone spending good money testing the stuff; but prudent people, who wish to be sure of their remedy, take only Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and so get cured.

The thimble was originally called the "thumb bell" because used upon the thumb, instead of upon the finger, as at present.

Worms cause feverishness, moaning and restlessness during sleep. Mother Graves' Worm Exterminater is pleasant, sure and effectual. If your druggist has none in stock, get him to procure it for you.

CHARGED WITH MURDER.

Cobourg, Ont., Sept. 10.—The grand jury yesterday brought in a true bill against Arthur Prentiss, charged with the murder of an old man named Lingard near Port Hope in May last.

G. T. R. BRAKEMAN KILLED.

Welland, Sept. 10.—James Kemp, a brakeman on the Grand Trunk, formerly of Hamilton, but recently a resident of Fort Erie, was killed yesterday morning at Welland. He fell off the cars, alighting on his head and sustaining injuries which resulted in his death almost instantly. The deceased was about 25 years old, and unmarried.

TO BE LASHED.

Windsor, Sept. 10.—Alex. De Cursey has been sentenced to 23 months' imprisonment and 12 lashes for attempting to assault Flora Bloom, a 10-year-old orphan girl. The first installment of six lashes will be administered during the first year of his imprisonment and the second in the second year. The last installment must be administered at least ten days before he is released. This is the first time in his eighteen years' experience that Magistrate Bartlett has been called upon to sentence a man to the lash.

Ayer's Hair Vigor tones up the weak hair-roots, stimulates the vessels and tissues which supply the hair with nutrition, strengthens the hair itself, and adds the oil which keeps the shafts soft, lustrous and silky. The most popular and valuable toilet preparation in the world.
