

THE ACADIAN.

WOLFVILLE, N. S., NOV. 17, 1893.

Thanksgiving.

The recommendation again comes to us to observe a day of thanksgiving for the blessings of the past year. It is worth while to note that it is a recommendation rather than a requirement.

The general observance of the same day is desirable, and all should be content to leave the fixing of that day to the government controlling the affairs of the nation, and should cheerfully respond to the call, when made, and present their united offerings of praise to the great Giver of all good.

We can give nothing else to God except our thanks, and that is a sacrifice well pleasing to him.

It is, however, to be regretted that many fail to make suitable acknowledgments for their past mercies. "Let the people praise Thee," is the language of the Psalmist. But he thought not only of their obligations, but of the blessings that would come to them through the divine favor.

They who give no heed to the invitation to the service of praise suffer spiritual loss, they give countenance to the irreligious spirit of the age, and may be held responsible for many of the evils resulting therefrom.

The most ardent willing enough to feast upon roast beef and turkey when thanksgiving day comes round. To them that is what the day is for. To many that is the proper way of observing it. To others it is only a holiday—a day with the holy out of—all religious features are eliminated and lost.

There is abundant cause for thanksgiving. True, some cannot perceive it. Occasionally one may be found who thanks himself only for what he enjoys. To him indeed it is the result of industry, prudence and skill in the management of his affairs. This view is as narrow as contemptible.

Who can command the clouds and the sunbeams? Who can control the natural influences, that may promote or hinder the growth of the tender blade? Who has power over winds and waves? Who can give vigor to his own right arm, or preserve himself from the attacks of disease and death? With all any man can do he is absolutely and helplessly dependent upon the favor of Heaven.

We have been spared the terrors of fire and flood, that have brought havoc and ruin to thousands of homes in other lands. Throughout our wide Dominion there has been peace and prosperity. Business interests have not suffered with us among others on this continent and elsewhere. Those who toil in factories and mines have been fairly contented and prosperous, while tens of thousands in other lands have been compelled to suffer many and grievous ills. Of course some grumble about the hard times. They would under any circumstances. This is their habit—the language of their nature—a nature perverted, selfish and ungrateful.

To us, our own country is our nearest country—leaving out homes, woods and townships. How is it with our own country?

Upland farms yielded less hay than usual, but diked lands did well. Other products of the farms were fairly good. Oats were of a superior quality, potatoes are abundant, their quality superior and their market value above that of average years. The yield of apples has been smaller than usual, but they have had a ready sale at remunerative prices. Even if the products of the farm do not bring much money into the pocket, they may bring to the family that for which money must be spent by thousands. Flour is termed "the staff of life," that is abundant and cheap, thanks to the providence that has given us our western granaries, and the Great Canadian Pacific Railway.

Upon the whole the farmer gets good prices and all the rest, along with him, cheap food. For our temporal blessings, we should be thankful to the Giver of "every good and perfect gift."

Our spiritual blessings are many and far exceed in value all else we may enjoy. Let there be the spectacle of a people united in the worthy service of praise. Let thanks ascend to God from the hearts of the people contented with their lot, and happy in the enjoyment of blessings that many may covet but can never possess.

Town Council.

An adjourned meeting of the town council was held Tuesday evening, Nov. 14th. Present, the Mayor, cons. Thompson, Starr, G. W. Borden, C. H. Borden and E. W. Sawyer, and the Recorder.

The com. appointed to get estimates for lighting the town, submitted the following report:— Your com. have to report that they have had a conference with the managers of the Acadia Electric Light Co., and find that they will undertake to erect and maintain as many lights as the town may require within the limit of their wires at the rate of $8 per annum for lamps of sixteen candle power. The said lights to be kept burning from dark until 12 o'clock, midnight. Your committee have also looked carefully over the streets and in their opinion it will require about 45 lights of sixteen candle power to light the town properly.

Letter from Hogtown.

DEAR EDITOR:—While reading your interesting paper, I have never noticed any communication from this quiet place, but as a number of interesting events have taken place, interesting to some at least, I make bold to write to you. I will not at this time, stop to describe the place or people, although some of them are well—to say the least, unique, and there are some hard characters among them. A while ago one house was burglariously entered two or three times and money, jewelry, and a gold watch and other articles stolen. A few days ago another resident put some tools by the corner of the house and in the evening "Poor Bill" went out to hang up de shovel an' de hoe" and lo! and behold! dey wasn't dar—stole! A very few weeks ago I heard one very prominent citizen accuse another of "robbing him of 'aud and stealing money" and he told numbers of people of it and I guess he is going to make it worm for him. Then this week the same person was charged by another man with stealing fruit from his orchard. He has mislead large quantities of fruit from his orchard, and he has been silyly watching and has caught the villian at last. He demands twenty dollars as indemnity or he will put him where the dogs won't bark at him. Perhaps the same person committed all the thefts. If so, I suggest that he be lynched. Yours truly, H.

The "Witness."

The Montreal Witness is now offering the remainder of the present year free to new subscribers for next year as an encouragement to give that valuable paper a trial. The Witness, both Weekly and Daily, has during the year, adopted what it declares to be the model form, with neat, small, convenient pages, being enabled, by the possession of one of the most complete printing presses ever built by the Hoes, of New York, to vary the number of pages at will. The paper enters the press at two places, on roll broad or narrow as required, and the newspapers come out at lightning speed folded, pasted and cut. Besides the improvement in form, there is a remarkable improvement in typography, the type being set by the wonderful Linotype machine, which attains the speed of five men, and casts a new type face every time. The proprietors invite visitors to Montreal to see these machines. The picture element has so greatly developed in the Witness, that it may now be fairly called an illustrated paper. The Witness has moved to the busiest corner in Montreal, the junction of Bleury and St. Peter streets with Craig street, and has a spacious building there which is in some respects as fine a newspaper office as is anywhere to be seen. The price of the Daily Witness is three dollars, and of the Weekly Witness one dollar, while the little pioneer paper, the Messenger, costs only thirty cents.

Good Words for Canada.

The Chicago Interior remarks: "We are not so anxious to annex Canada as we are to see some of her good ideas transplanted to this side of the border. Throughout the whole extent of her vast western dominions you will not find an outlaw, or hear of a case of lynchings. It is not because she has to deal with a class of frontiersmen so different to our own western states, but because she has laws and executes them. You can go nowhere, not even in the fastness of the Rockies or the isolation of the Selkirk, without finding the scarlet uniform of her Mounted Police. You are made to realize that you are in a land of order, and that your person and property are under the care of the commonwealth. In too many of our own communities, we are fast relaxing into that barbarism in which private revenge becomes the miserable substitute for public justice. In so far as we do this we are centuries behind our age."

A Fourth Tunnel Under the Alps.

It was in the early years of the present century that Napoleon constructed his wonderful military road over the Sunplon—a highway forty-one miles long. Since his day the discovery of powerful explosives and the application of compressed air for working drills have enabled engineers to solve the problem of mountain barriers in a more effective and expeditious way. They pierce the barrier instead of crossing it. Already the Alpine range has been done at Mont Cenis, St. Gothard and the Arlberg is now to be undertaken at the Simplon. The bore will be twelve and a quarter miles long, will be finished for a single line of rails in five and a half years, and will cost a little over ten million dollars. Provision is made for widening it for a second line of rails at a cost of three millions more.

The "Canadian Magazine" for November.

The "Canadian Magazine" for November contains a rich variety of contributions, some of them of remarkable and world-wide interest. Wm. Ogilvie, F. E. G. S., furnishes the third instalment of the account of his remarkable 3,200 mile journey, "Down the Yukon and Up the Mackenzie," and it exceeds in interest his previous articles. Allan Eric, of the Institute of Jamaica, contributes a well-illustrated and entertaining article on "Banana-growing in Jamaica." W. D. Le Sueur writes forcibly and gracefully on "State Education and 'Ims'," in reply to Mr. Ewart, Q. C. Edward Meek condenses "Phebe's" as a principle dangerous to the nation, and holds that in consequence of the declining influence of Congress, and the increase in the power of the President and of the people, Caesarism is likely to prevail in the United States. The article is a remarkably thoughtful and striking one. J. L. Payne tells us how a young couple may win a home of their own. "The Battle of the Eclipse," an illustrated article by E. B. Wiggan, "The Old Bastille of Paris," by H. S. Howell, are both vigorous, and even thrilling, articles. Other articles are "The Canadian Club Movement," by W. S. Safford Evans, "Beowulf, the English Homer," by Prof. Horning, of Victoria University, "Mirage in Western Canada," by Mrs. John Fleher, and "Peculiarities and Illustrations of Wit," by Dr. T. V. Hutchinson. Agnes Maule Machar (Fidelis) contributes a patriotic poem, "Thermopylae," which is likely to be one of the poems that will live. The fiction in this number is bright. "The Canadian Magazine" begins its second volume with a reputation both in America and Europe, which must be pleasing to Canadians. Published by the Ontario Publishing Co., Ltd., Toronto. $2.50 per annum.

The Star Course.

The second lecture of the above course, under the auspices of Acadia Athenaeum, is to be given in College Hall on Saturday evening by Ella S. Yovitcheff, costume lecturer, of Bulgaria, on the subject: "The Czar and the Jews."

Mr. E. S. Yovitcheff was born in Bulgaria in 1850. He came to America in 1869, working his passage over and, in the eight years that followed, paid his own way through Whitman Academy, class of 1873, and Hamilton College, from which he was graduated with high oratorical honors in 1877. Immediately on his graduation he returned to Bulgaria and joined the Russian army in the war against Turkey. The fifteen subsequent years were spent in active patriotic efforts to advance the interests of his native country. He became successively Clerk of the Supreme Court, Chief of the National Library and Museum, (at this time being a contributor to the Encyclopedia Britannica), Postmaster-general, etc. He also lectured extensively and was actively engaged in editorial work. He was editor of the "Patriot," editor and proprietor of the "Patriot," both influential Bulgarian papers, and was successively several foreign papers. His Americanized ideas, however, proved too advanced for the present tyrannical regime of Bulgaria, and, after suffering personal indignities, imprisonment, confiscation of his paper and other property, and extortions of the most unjust description, he was compelled to flee for his life. He is now in America as a political refugee.

Horton Landing Items.

Rev. W. C. Brown, a former pastor, occupied the Methodist pulpit on Sabbath last. Mr. Wright is expected back next week and will fill his appointments on the 25th inst.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. McMillen and Mr. Alphonso Patterson spent Sunday in Halifax. Mr. Patterson was visiting his brother Alfred, who leaves this week to spend the winter in Orange Free State, Southern Africa.

There has been considerable business about the pier these last few weeks. The schooner "Star" landed a large quantity of coal and fuel last week. The most of this was for Mr. Alphonso Patterson; the rest was for parties in Hantsport and was sent from here by rail. Messrs J. S. Taylor and F. G. Curry loaded a small schooner with apples for Parrabero and other towns across the basin. At present Mr. F. G. Curry has a cargo of soft coal discharging.

Mr. Chas. Patterson's brother is at work in the neighborhood. Mr. John Stewart is running it this season. Sheriff Guest of Yarmouth spent Sunday at Acadia Villa. He has a son at the school.

Mr. F. C. Denison's house has been recently painted. The colors have been tastefully selected and look well. Mr. Ogilvie, our genial blacksmith, is rapidly showing himself a thorough workman, and is getting a good share of the work of the place. His reputation as an excellent horse-shoer is quickly spreading.

Several students have recently joined Mr. Patterson's school. There are forty-seven in attendance at present. The Presbyterians intend holding a Tea-meeting and Fancy Bazaar in Evangelical Hall on Monday, Nov. 20th.

Hantsport Items.

Mrs. Anthon Newcomb is visiting her daughter Mrs. H. Edwards of Annapolis. Mr. William Falker and family have moved to Barwick where they intend to make their home.

Mrs. Frank Dodge and family have returned home after a sea voyage. Miss Sadie Shaw of Wolfville has been visiting in the village.

Rev. G. D. McDunald of North St. church, Halifax, and Rev. P. S. McGregor exchanged pulpits on Sunday last. In the Methodist church on Friday last a very interesting lecture was given by Mr. Stanton a returned missionary from Japan.

Mrs. A. Gunn is visiting at Pagwash. Mrs. John Fullerton who has been visiting Mrs. George Fullerton for the summer, returned to Boston last week.

Mrs. John Chisholm left on the 25th to join her husband in New York. She was accompanied by her grand-daughter Beulah Barker.

Mr. Richard Shaw, son of the late Rev. David Shaw, of Pictou, who has been in California during the past thirty years, was visiting friends in Hantsport accompanied by his wife.

The founder is busy putting up furnaces for Mr. Bathurst. His two styles King and Queen, seem to be exceedingly popular, and orders are coming in every day. About $3000 worth of machinery was shipped this week besides.

Mr. Cromby the leader of the C. O. C. work of the E. Y. P. U., resigned on Monday last. The Rev. P. S. McGregor is appointed leader in Mr. Cromby's place.

We claim of "Fragrant Almond Cream" that it is ahead of any "Cream" in the market for the relief and cure of chapped lips and hands, and rough skins, etc. Delightfully perfumed. Try it, only 50c. Drugstore.
