THE NATIONAL REPRESENTATIVE.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT. FOURTH PARLIAMENT—FIRST SESSION.

THURSDAY, May 8. CARRYING OF FIREARMS. Mr. McDONALD (Pictou) introduced a bill to continue until next session the Act for the Better Prevention of Crime, having special reference to the district of Mont-

On the motion for the second reading of the bill to amend and consolidate the various Acts relating to the carrying of firearms, Mr. BABY explained the provisions of the bill.

Mr. LAURIER contended that the travelling expenses of the inspectors would be more than counter-balance the savings effected by the reduced number of inspectors.

Mr. KAUBACH advocated the adoption of some measure instead of the imperial gallon, a large trade existing between the Dominion and the United States.

Mr. MILLIS said that the true object of the bill was to dismiss a number of officials.

Sir JOHN MACDONALD said that the present Administration did not pretend to have the hardware to place $50,000 or $60,000 on the estimates to reward public friends.

Sir JOHN MACDONALD—I must ask that this matter be taken up at a later date.

Mr. MACDONALD—I trust my hon. friends do not mean by that, that the opinion of Parliament will not be taken on the subject.

Sir JOHN MACDONALD said it was for Parliament to decide that.

The House adjourned at 10.40.

MILITIA AND DEFENCE. The bill to further amend the acts respecting the militia, was read a third time and passed.

The House went into committee on the Supplementary Estimates for 1880.

On the item $5,000 grant to the Ontario Exhibition to make it a Dominion exhibition, the distribution of which sum is to be apportioned in a way satisfactory to the Minister of Agriculture.

Mr. LAURIER objected to the grant on the ground that it could not benefit the entire Dominion, and that it could not be expected that farmers and stock raisers in the far west would go to Ottawa and compete for petty prizes.

Sir JOHN MACDONALD said the Ontario Agricultural and Arts Association to make a grant, and he was persuaded that the exhibition would be of a Dominion character.

On the item, $37,500 to provide for a nine months' subsidy to a line of steamships between Canada, the West Indies and Brazil.

Sir JOHN MACDONALD said this vote was intended to open up trade with Brazil. The Government had been assured by the Brazilian Consul that if this Government were to subsidize a subsidy, the Brazilian Government would provide an equal portion of it.

Mr. GARTWRIGHT—How many steamers would this require? Sir JOHN MACDONALD—It is expected that there will be three substantial steamers engaged on the route.

On the item, $25,945. The expenditure to the 31st of April was $25,975, and to date $25,825.

On the item, $1,500 or 2,000 tons burden.

Mr. GARTWRIGHT—What are the possibilities of trade with Brazil? Sir JOHN MACDONALD said a very interesting memorandum had been prepared by Mr. Darling, of Montreal, on which he considered would be the chief subjects of international trade.

On the item, $1,323 a.m.

THE "WATER STAIRS."

In dealing with Mr. Mackenzie's boasted scheme, Sir John simply belabored over and over the same point. It was, said Sir John, a scheme for building a railway and water-works, by the way, said Sir John usually pronounced "mud."

THE ONTARIO ELECTIONS. The Issues to be Decided by the People at the Polls in June.

MR. MEREDITH'S MOTION. MR. MEREDITH brought the whole question of the expenditure to a direct issue when he moved in amendment to a motion to go into Committee of Supply (Votes and Proceedings, 1879, p. 135) as follows:

"That the ordinary expenditure of the Province for the year 1878, under the administration of the late Mr. Sandfield Macdonald, being an increase of the rate of less than twelve per cent. for the four years; while the like expenditure has increased from $1,174,000 in the year 1871 to $2,109,923 in the year 1878, under the administration of Mr. Blake, and the present administration, being an increase at the rate of more than twenty per cent. for the seven years; that the ordinary revenue of the Province was $2,077,304 in the year 1868, and $2,217,588 in the year 1878; and that the House regards the continuous and rapid increase in the ordinary expenses of Government as excessive and unnecessary in view of the almost stationary character of the revenue, and is of opinion that, unless more strict economy be observed in the general outlay, a resort to direct taxation in order to avoid the accumulation of a heavy debt be rendered inevitable, and the existence of our present system of Federal Government imperilled, a result which would be most disastrous to the best interests of the whole country."

Mr. MEREDITH arrived at his figures by deducting what is known as the extraordinary from the ordinary expenditure in each year, thus:

Table showing ordinary and extraordinary expenditures for various years from 1868 to 1878, including details for Public Buildings, Capital Expenditure, and Provincial Aid.

In this method of dealing with the expenditure Mr. MEREDITH excluded, (1.) Expenditure for public works and buildings which is so-called capital expenditure, and does not, as is claimed, fairly enter into a comparison of the ordinary or current expenditure.

(2.) Payments on account of trust funds, such as municipalities and land improvement funds, which is really not an expenditure of an ordinary character, but should be deducted from Crown Lands revenues.

(3.) The $50,000 paid in 1871 for the relief of the Old and Sageday in Ontario, which is an item that did not appear at all in the accounts of 1868—in fact an entirely new service—and which might properly, for the purpose of comparing 1868 with 1871, be deducted from the expenditure of the latter year. Then again the refunds in 1868 were only $13,229.30, while in 1871 they amounted to $26,822.

This expenditure is not of an ordinary character, and is in fact a deduction from the Crown Lands revenues. It represents sums paid as deposits on lands which are not sold eventually, sums allowed for deficiencies in quantities, and such like items. Strictly the expenditure should have been deducted on both years.

The Refunds in 1878 amounted to only $11,568.75, though in the abstract they are placed at $36,148.29. This, however, is by including a refund of $24,579.54 on Municipalities and Land Improvement Funds.

As to the Revenue in 1868, it was $2,260,176.40. Account Municipal Loan Fund, $134,963.85. Account Provincial Loan Fund, $68,178.56. $2,363,318.81.

REVENUE IN 1878. Dominion Subsidy, $1,323,569.42. Territorial Revenue, $45,191.02. Public Interest, $7,999.76. Interest, $16,251.46. Education, $4,380.91. License, $75,229.85. Law Stamps, $66,291.82. Casual, $20,292.56. Alms Tax, $51.04. $2,217,986.73.

The deductions from 1868 were made because the sum in question were of an exceptional character as compared with 1878. Mr. MEREDITH'S motion was voted down by the following Reformers:

- Lyons (Algonquin), Appley, Calvert, Baxter, Bishop, Chisholm, Clarke (North), Clarke (Wellington), Cole, Crooks, Currie, DeLoach, Finlayson, Fraser, Gibson, Graham, Grant, Harcourt, Hardy, Hargrave, Hay, Hunter, Lamb, Lyon (Algonquin), Lyon (Halden), McLane, McLeod, McMahon, Clarke (Wellington), Master, Cole, Crooks, DeLoach, Finlayson, Fraser, Gibson, Graham, Grant, Harcourt, Hardy, Hargrave, Hay, Hunter, Lamb, Lyon (Algonquin), Lyon (Halden), McLane, McLeod, McMahon, Clarke (Wellington), Master, Cole, Crooks, DeLoach, Finlayson, Fraser, Gibson, Graham, Grant, Harcourt, Hardy, Hargrave, Hay, Hunter, Lamb, Lyon (Algonquin), Lyon (Halden), McLane, McLeod, McMahon.

THE PUBLIC ACCOUNTS. On the 12th February Mr. Cameron moved, "That in the opinion of this House it would be in the public interest to have the Public Accounts and Departmental Reports printed as soon as possible after the expiration of the year to which they relate, and to have the same circulated immediately upon being printed, whether the House shall be in session at such time or not; and that it be an instruction to the Committee on Printing to consider and report on the best method of accomplishing this end."

After an amendment by Mr. SINGLTON, Mr. MEREDITH moved that the Public Accounts for 1878 be placed in the hands of the people before the ensuing general elections. This was voted down by the following Reformers:

- Lyons (Algonquin), Appley, Calvert, Baxter, Bishop, Chisholm, Clarke (North), Clarke (Wellington), Master, Cole, Crooks, DeLoach, Finlayson, Fraser, Gibson, Graham, Grant, Harcourt, Hardy, Hargrave, Hay, Hunter, Lamb, Lyon (Algonquin), Lyon (Halden), McLane, McLeod, McMahon, Clarke (Wellington), Master, Cole, Crooks, DeLoach, Finlayson, Fraser, Gibson, Graham, Grant, Harcourt, Hardy, Hargrave, Hay, Hunter, Lamb, Lyon (Algonquin), Lyon (Halden), McLane, McLeod, McMahon.

MR. MOWAT'S TACTICS. In several circumstances "independent" candidates are running, and our friends look out for them. In one or two, so-called Conservatives are running against the duly chosen candidates of the Conservative party, and these are equally dangerous. There is no doubt that Mr. Mowat, conscious of his weakness in a fair stand-up fight, is secretly encouraging this "independent" and "Conservative" dodge, hoping to profit by it. Here is proof of our statement:

In East Grey Mr. Mowat has called himself a Conservative, is running against Mr. LAUDER. Mr. ROBEK has a friend named Mr. JEROME FAREWELL, and between the latter and Mr. Mowat the following correspondence passed:

THORNHURST, May 27th, 1878. DEAR SIR,—I, as a Conservative dissatisfied with my member, Mr. Lauder, venture to write this letter to you. East Grey, as you no doubt know, is very strongly Conservative, and any Reformer running the straight party ticket stands but little chance of election. As a Reformer, I would be a better man for your Government than Mr. Lauder, wants the seat, but you are not a Reformer, although a number of your Conservative friends will vote for him, and if we can get the solid Reform vote no doubt he can be elected. If you wish to see the Reformers, do so by writing to leading Reformers in the riding, and suggest to them the plan of not electing Mr. Lauder, but electing me in his stead. I will be glad to see you, and will keep private any information you see fit to entrust me with. I remain, your devoted friend, JEROME FAREWELL. Hon. O. Mowat, Toronto.

DEPARTMENT OF THE ATTORNEY-GENERAL, Toronto, June 3rd, 1878. MY DEAR SIR,—Thanks for your letter about East Grey. The policy you suggest is not an item that did not appear at all in the accounts of 1868—in fact an entirely new service—and which might properly, for the purpose of comparing 1868 with 1871, be deducted from the expenditure of the latter year.

As to the Revenue in 1868, it was $2,260,176.40. Account Municipal Loan Fund, $134,963.85. Account Provincial Loan Fund, $68,178.56. $2,363,318.81.

AMERICAN CONSULS ON ENGLISH TRADE. FOLLOWING the report of the American consul at Bradford, on English trade, comes a similar report from our old acquaintance, Col. Smecher, now United States consul at Manchester. These reports and leading articles throughout Ontario—the Ottawa House alone excepted, where Mr. CARSWRIGHT still continues to wall. The farmer who tore his hair because the National Policy, for which he foolishly voted, has not raised the price of his oats; and the oat-miller who suspended operations because oats and become scarce, have either migrated to Dakota, or, as KENZIE'S paradise, or are down among the dead men. That artisan who used to get eleven pence of weak sugar, and but lately only got ten for his dollar, is either silent, or has been silenced. The patronage which he derived the impending necessity of allowing his children to run about barefoot, owing to the increased price of shoes under the tariff of 1871. No vote, 1873, 11,128. 1874, 13,323,569.42. 1875, 14,451,191.02. 1876, 7,999.76. 1877, 16,251.46. 1878, 4,380.91. 1879, 75,229.85. 1880, 66,291.82. 1881, 20,292.56. 1882, 51.04. $2,217,986.73.

The deductions from 1868 were made because the sum in question were of an exceptional character as compared with 1878. Mr. MEREDITH'S motion was voted down by the following Reformers:

- Lyons (Algonquin), Appley, Calvert, Baxter, Bishop, Chisholm, Clarke (North), Clarke (Wellington), Cole, Crooks, Currie, DeLoach, Finlayson, Fraser, Gibson, Graham, Grant, Harcourt, Hardy, Hargrave, Hay, Hunter, Lamb, Lyon (Algonquin), Lyon (Halden), McLane, McLeod, McMahon, Clarke (Wellington), Master, Cole, Crooks, DeLoach, Finlayson, Fraser, Gibson, Graham, Grant, Harcourt, Hardy, Hargrave, Hay, Hunter, Lamb, Lyon (Algonquin), Lyon (Halden), McLane, McLeod, McMahon.

He was a Reformer, and yet invited Conservatives to unite with him in forming his Cabinet, and he was invited to do so. Mr. Mowat, however, wants no coalition at all. Officers in the ranks of the Opposition are expected to enlist as full private under Col. Fraser and Major Mowat. They are in fact to surrender their own dignity, their own position and their own independence, in order to strengthen the weakest of the Opposition. What the Cabinet wants is brains; and Mr. Mowat is quite willing to borrow them from the Opposition so long as the faithful sit in the high places, and their friends enjoy a monopoly of the patronage. Hence the National Policy has lapsed into the obscure back-ground, and its advocacy has ceased for the time being. It is not to be revived.

Did it not strike Mr. Mowat that he was using a two-edged weapon on Saturday night? Is there nothing to prevent a union between the parties, why not let both become Liberal-Conservatives? During the term of the present Dominion Government, there would be a union between the parties, why not let both become Liberal-Conservatives? During the term of the present Dominion Government, there would be a union between the parties, why not let both become Liberal-Conservatives?

And yet, if people had appreciated the American situation, and duly considered the temporary nature of the American market, they would have foreseen that keenness of competition would resume its old course, and with great rapidity. The American civil war came to a conclusion. The American yearly exports over greatly for the last five years, show how impossibly the American market is a source of blinding ignorance must have misjudged the situation. They are as follows:

Table showing American exports for various years from 1874 to 1878, including values for 1874, 1875, 1876, 1877, 1878, and a total of $779,705,219.

The United States have contemporaneously with a change in their policy, have been largely against them, paid off hundreds of millions of war debt, placed their paper currency on a par with gold, and have Treasury notes, which are in circulation, in a different case. This different position of the two nations naturally leads many thinking Englishmen to compare the two nations. England has long been to encourage the free introduction of all raw materials, with a view of manufacturing the same and selling them abroad. This is all very well when England has a monopoly as workshop of the world. But what is to be done when the producers of raw materials convert their own manufactures at home, and substitute these manufactures for exportation in place of raw materials, finding in England a market for their goods, and to other countries? It is clear you can only have commercial monopoly, or else you must modify the policy which admits of so one-sided a state of this.

THE LOCAL OPPOSITION. Owing to the frailty of Mr. MOWAT'S amended election law Lincoln was not represented during the last term of the Ontario Legislature, but that aside, the Reform majority on a strict party vote was fourteen. The gain of only seven seats will bring about a tie, and this our friends in Eastern Ontario promise to do. It remains for Northern and Western Ontario to accomplish the feat. The Reform party has a united effort, good work, and thorough organization. During the past ten days our friends have bestirred themselves to the utmost. The Reform party is now in first-rate shape. But it must not be forgotten that this is the last ditch for the Reform party. In Centre Ontario, the Reform party is in a desperate moment. Corruption was practised by Reformers in 1874, when their success was certain, and it had not become a mere matter of time. It is now a matter of time when they also fail. If they resorted to the "material advantages" system by their cause was in the end to be given up. The Province is now in a desperate moment. Corruption was practised by Reformers in 1874, when their success was certain, and it had not become a mere matter of time. It is now a matter of time when they also fail.

THE INSOLVENCY LAW. THE Senate, on Friday last, by a vote of 31 to 27, threw out Mr. BROMHEAD'S bill to repeal the Insolvency Law. We confess to feeling somewhat in a mood of perplexity between two opinions on this result, one opinion being strongly in favour of the result so far as the relations of debtor and creditor are concerned, the other being adverse to finding the Senate thus rejecting the frequently and strongly expressed opinion of the Commons House of Assembly, and fully representing them. The Senate has taken a very decided step in a very serious matter, and as the event occurs at the present juncture, it is unlikely—indeed impossible—that the Commons can now take any further step in this very serious matter.

IN view of the fact that the leaders on both sides voted against Mr. BROMHEAD'S bill, perhaps we may assume that the public will feel that substantial justice has been done, inasmuch as due notice has been given, and the emergency act will be either fully repealed or radically amended next session. This in itself, however, may tend to precipitate the matter, and it is not to be wondered at that the Commons House of Assembly, in what manner Mr. ROBEK expects success, and who is his ally, and the Reformers of the country must be convinced that the Conservative politician is not all, somewhat of a very small and very shabby politician.

THE GLOBE'S CHARGE THAT THE HAMILTON MANUFACTURING FIRMS WHICH HAVE INCREASED THEIR MEN'S WAGES WERE INFLUENCED IN SO DOING BY A DESIRE TO INFLUENCE THE PUBLIC OPINION. We might as well allege that when Mr. Brown tried to send his pocket to the G.A. in 1872, he had to keep them from voting the Tory ticket in the elections of that year.

THE FOREIGN TIMES HAS THE FOLLOWING:—"The duties on wheat, corn, &c., are such as to gladden the hearts of the Canadian farmers—so much so that we had two farm-ers from near Mount Jervis, Ontario, who, unfortunately, by the baptismal register pronounced written on their tongues, and upon their first breath were in Aberdeenshire, who both were in high glee as they expressed themselves with great advantage on the new tariff would confer upon them, and upon the industrious classes generally in the land of their adoption."

CONSIDERABLE dissatisfaction is felt in West York at the conduct of the Lieut. Governor, who are now filling the second term of their office. It is alleged that they have acted arbitrarily and unaccountably in their conduct. The Lieut. Governor has been in the habit of making appointments to the various offices of the Province, and it is alleged that they have acted arbitrarily and unaccountably in their conduct.

ordinary" or rather extraordinary. The expenses of civil government, legislation, etc., are "ordinary" and yet they are not ordinarily controllable, for they were reduced, thanks to the Opposition, this year. On the other hand, Mr. Crooks' department is not ordinary, but its expenditure is controllable, and is "controllable." Such a desirable financial middle was never exhibited before, and things will never be ordered better until the fact is recognized that all expenditure is controllable and should be made to square with revenue. On Monday night Mr. Mowat objected to any reference to the expenditure in the Lieutenant-Governor's office. It was a small matter, and the business had increased, he urged. Unfortunately there are a great many "small matters," all which have increased, and together they have doubled the "ordinary" expenditure. In 1869 Government House cost the Province only $3,900, and in 1878 $8,584, and that only a sample of the long list of items called as ordinary expenditure. It is not time that there was a change in the administration of affairs.

ANTI-CANADA. In 1868 the Reform party agreed to drop party differences and unite in a coalition for the carrying of the project of Confederation; but before the Act of Union had been committed to paper, they deserted the alliance and strove to embarrass the efforts of those who remained true to it. In 1869 and during the building of the Intercolonial railway, Mr. MACKENZIE and his friends left nothing undone that abuse and misrepresentation could accomplish, for a selfish result. Thus they turned prejudice in the London money market, where the construction money was borrowed. In 1869-70, on the transfer of the North-West to British Dominion, they endeavoured to stir up strife among the half-breeds, and succeeded probably beyond their most sanguine hopes. For a selfish result, they turned out and called for vengeance on their half-breed dupes, and this again kept the territory in a ferment and retarded its progress. It shows that the Pacific railway scheme was projected, they set to work to destroy it, and did effectually destroy it, at least in the English market, where Canadian capitalists had gone in 1874 a panic fled upon the country, and for four years afterwards the business men, without regard to party, implored the Government to step in and save the country from the ruin of American competition, but they refused to do so, and by their inaction benefited American at the expense of Canadian. THE PRIZE OF UPPER NINEVEH.

BY ELLIOTT MORRISON.

The school committee of Upper Nineveh, having accepted Miss Kate Revere as teacher of the district school in preference to the other candidates, Miss Ella Ouderkok, and Miss Julia Jenkin, it is upon its choice. For Miss Revere had graduated at Vassar the year before, was thoroughly informed, as the committee was well satisfied, on all subjects, and was, besides, the daughter of one of Nineveh's most esteemed and wealthy citizens.

Next day I observed Dr. Barrows in a preoccupied mood. He was sitting at his desk, and I noticed that he was looking at the clock. He seemed to be waiting for someone. I went over to him and asked what was the matter. He said that he was waiting for Miss Revere.

"I have been waiting for you," he said, "and I am glad to see you. I have been thinking of you very much since we parted. I have been wondering how you are getting on. I hope you are well and happy."

"I am well, thank you," I said. "I have been busy with my school, but I have managed to find time for my studies. I have been reading a great deal of Greek and Latin, and I have been able to keep up with my work."

"That is very good," he said. "I am glad to hear that you are doing well. I have been thinking of you very much since we parted. I have been wondering how you are getting on. I hope you are well and happy."

"I am well, thank you," I said. "I have been busy with my school, but I have managed to find time for my studies. I have been reading a great deal of Greek and Latin, and I have been able to keep up with my work."

himself with the synopsis of a Greek verb and murmured appreciatively. "Very good," and the lawyer's next complaint was by over a very short paragraph from the "Analogy." And then, when the danger seemed past, and she began to breathe freely, and the members of the committee, with one exception, were expressing their enthusiasm, and lawyer Jenkins was on the point of leaving over the pulpit and saying mechanically to the people below, "Drew a prize, didn't we?" the storm suddenly broke in upon the quietude.

"We have heard," Miss Revere, "of an admirable performance on the part of the young people. The pains which you have taken with them, in teaching them usually taught in district schools, must have been very great, and your success is a most gratifying one. And without questioning at all, at this time, the utility of these branches, or the propriety of giving to them so much attention to the neglect, perhaps, of other important studies, would like, if you please, to examine the school briefly in what we ordinarily call the rudiments. It will be very interesting to me, and I am sure to the other members of the committee, to see how you have managed to teach them so well."

"I have been waiting for you," he said, "and I am glad to see you. I have been thinking of you very much since we parted. I have been wondering how you are getting on. I hope you are well and happy."

would have me. But I could not let you do a mean thing and suppose a false position, without putting in my protest. You didn't need the position, Miss Revere. Miss Ouderkok did. She needs it badly, and you took it away from her. Was that fair Miss Revere? I know, you were not the fittest person in the world to teach a village school. You know too much, Miss Revere; and, crossing me for saying it, you know too little. I would have spared you this exhibition as you call it, to-day, if I could. But Miss Revere, with all her voice, said, and trembled a little in its intensity, yet every word was clear to Kate's wondering sense. "I would rather have the girl I love hate me than let her go on acting a wrong part. It wasn't on Miss Ouderkok's account, Miss Kate, that I opposed you last fall, and did this to-day—it was for the sake of your own self. I love you too well, Kate Revere, to let you do wrong—if I can help it."

And then he drew back a few steps and folded his arms, and looked her in the face. A more astonished, bewildered, girl he never saw. What had he said, and what revelation. She had been all along regarding him as the lover of another girl, and here he turned out to be her own. She had been hating him, or thinking that she did, with all her heart, and now she was as good as married to him. She had been hating him, or thinking that she did, with all her heart, and now she was as good as married to him. She had been hating him, or thinking that she did, with all her heart, and now she was as good as married to him.

FATAL RAILWAY ACCIDENT.

A Credit Valley Train Run Into by a Grand Trunk Engine.

A MISPLACED SWITCH THE CAUSE.

Mr. James Gooderham killed—last of the season, a number of the Directors of the Credit Valley Railway Company and a few friends took their departure from the Union station, on a special train, for a tour of the road as far as Streetsville, and did this to-day—it was for the sake of your own self. I love you too well, Kate Revere, to let you do wrong—if I can help it.

On Saturday afternoon, about three o'clock, a number of the Directors of the Credit Valley Railway Company and a few friends took their departure from the Union station, on a special train, for a tour of the road as far as Streetsville, and did this to-day—it was for the sake of your own self. I love you too well, Kate Revere, to let you do wrong—if I can help it.

It was three months after this that another examination was held in Upper Nineveh. This time it was in the little school-house at Streetsville, and was over and the few visitors dismissed, it so happened that Miss Revere and Dr. Barrows found themselves walking up the road side by side.

"I am glad you came to-day," he said warmly. "Of course I wouldn't have staid away," protested Kate. "There wasn't much public interest," he remarked. "No," Kate admitted; "but there ought to have been. Miss Ouderkok has done very well with them."

"Considering she's only taught them three months," he said. "Then there was a little party," she said. "No," she said, meditatively. "I am secretary for the State Board."

"I suppose not," he said. "And probably Mr. Jenkins is doubtful about her being a stick of a prize," he said. "Very likely," she said. "But after all, looking at Miss Revere's face, she doesn't seem to be a bad specimen. Kate waited a moment, while her face flushed and her eyes fell to the ground. "I suppose I might as well admit it, replied, quietly. "What other thing?" innocently. "The doctor was about replying, when they were separated for an instant by a group of the school girls, who, as she passed, made a surreptitious face at Dr. Barrows, and then, turning round, looked with unalterable respect at the doctor's companion that Kate could not forbear laughing.

"I was Carrie Ainsworth," she explained. "She asked me once if I didn't hate you." "And you told her—?" "It was a wretched answer, Miss Revere," said Kate. "I intended it should be." "Perhaps," suggested the doctor, "you were not sure." "No," she said frankly; "I wasn't." The doctor stopped still in the road and looked at her hand. "Are you sure?" he asked. "Oh, do, he said, "she exclaimed in alarm; "here come the lawyer and Dr. Trumbull. But the doctor maintained his ground. "Are you sure now?" he reiterated. "Yes, she said, "she looked with unalterable respect at the doctor's companion that Kate could not forbear laughing. "I was Carrie Ainsworth," she explained. "She asked me once if I didn't hate you."
