

Local News.

The Times may be purchased at Chandler's and at Moore & Messer's bookstores.

GOVERNMENT.—The Elgin County Council will meet in the Court House at 10 o'clock on Tuesday, Nov. 14th, for general business.

GOING TO THE CENTRAL.—John Q. Adams, wife and daughter, of Port Stanley, left this morning for the Central.

SHIPMENT OF APPLES.—Mr. Geo. Rowland, St. Thomas, shipped on Tuesday 100 boxes of apples for Liverpool.

THE COLORED PALM DOVE.—Miss M. Fernandez will play in the choir of the Catholic Church on Friday evening.

PROFESSIONAL BILLS.—Mrs. C. Mitchell will continue the bill of Mitchell and daughter formerly carried on by her husband.

GOOD FELLOWS.—One day last week Mr. George Norman, Yarmouth Centre, made 26 barrels of cider in eleven hours with his grant under press.

OPEN HOUSE TO-NIGHT.—Remember the centenary in the Upper Storey tonight under the auspices of the St. Thomas Ladies' Temperance and Benevolent Society.

ARREST.—On Friday Jesse McCallum was charged before the Police Magistrate with committing an assault on H. Harris. The case was withdrawn, defendant paying costs.

MRS. MCKINNON VS. THE GREAT WESTERN MAILWAY CO.—The damages in this case will be awarded. The amount is therefore not known yet.

UNION SERVICES TO-DAY.—The various congregations of the town—accepting the invitation of the St. Thomas Church today, giving Thanksgiving Day.

SUDDEN DEATH FROM AN APPLES.—Mr. Henry Sanders, grain buyer, Corralford, died suddenly on Tuesday last from an attack of apoplexy. Mr. Sanders was 43 years of age, and a stout, robust man.

PROFESSIONAL BILLS.—Mrs. C. Mitchell will continue the bill of Mitchell and daughter formerly carried on by her husband.

SUDDEN DEATH IN MILLBURN.—On Thursday afternoon Mr. William Marti, Millburn, was seated in his chair smoking, he suddenly expired. Mr. Marti was upwards of 81 years of age.

MR. STEPHEN WARD, of Yarmouth, and Master of Plover Grade No. 19, has announced his intention of removing from this section of Ontario. His departure is universally regretted by his numerous friends.

ILLNESS OF PROMINENT CITIZENS.—We are glad to learn that Judge Hughes, who has been suffering from an attack of bronchitis, and Mr. White, the Police Magistrate, who has been severely attacked with rheumatism, are both recovering.

THE ORGAN QUESTION.—Owing to there having been some difficulty in making the vote on the question of using an organ in the Presbyterian Church, a second vote was taken on Monday last. The result was as follows: Yes, 60; No, 10.

DRUNK AND DROPPED.—Thomas Wilson was charged before Wm. McKay, J. P., on Monday, with being drunk and dangerously so. He was ordered to leave town in two hours, with the alternative of going to jail for three months.

AIR LINE NEWS.—Lewis E. H. Morris, late news agent on the Port Dover and Lake Huron line, has been appointed agent on the Air Line east of St. Thomas, and copies of the semi-weekly and weekly Times can be obtained from his place.

SUDDEN DEATH AT THE POOR HOUSE.—On Thursday morning an old man named William Smith, an inmate of the House of Industry, was found dead in his bed. Dr. Gustin, Corralford, held an inquest in the afternoon, the verdict being that Smith had died from natural causes.

ACCIDENT.—On Thursday last a young girl, the daughter of Mr. Midgley, met with an accident at the Central. She was playing in the yard and ran against the fence when she came in contact with a rusty wire which entered her eye inflicting a severe wound. The wound was stitched by Dr. Wilson.

REFORM EPISCOPAL MINISTRY.—Services are to be held every Sunday evening during the coming winter, at the residence of the Rev. Mr. Wilson, Avenue, commencing next Sunday at 7 p. m. A Sunday-school will also be organized in connection with the Ministry, to hold every Sunday afternoon at half-past four.

RAILWAY COLLISION.—About two o'clock on Tuesday afternoon a collision took place between a freight and gravel train on the C. & N. near Dean's Station, whereby an engine was damaged and four gravel trucks overturned. The traffic of the road was interrupted for several hours.

THE MORGAN MURDER TRIAL.—Said, Nov. 1st.—Grenville and McFee, two of the men charged with the murder of Morgan in Warwick township, last March—against whom a true bill was found by the Grand Jury, were arraigned last night and pleaded "not guilty." Murray, the third was absent. He is in on bail. The trial takes place on Thursday.

AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS AND MOUNTAIN INSTRUMENTS.—We would direct the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Messrs. J. Green & Co., who have removed their place of business to the corner of Talbot street and Market Square, Messrs. Green & Co. have on hand a capital stock of agricultural implements, sewing machines and musical instruments.

MICHIGAN PRIZES.—On Tuesday night some of the youths at the east end who are fond of rough practical jokes had a row in the neighborhood. When Mr. J. H. Secord opposed them the next morning he was surprised to find tied to the door a call which bore the Michigan prizes—two dollars and three shillings.

OVERSIGHT.—Yesterday morning about ten o'clock a woman was observed to be standing on the top of the Opera House. Mr. Dan Campbell procured a gun and shot it from behind Mrs. Green's window. It is a magnificent specimen, measuring five feet half inch to the tip of the barrel and weighing 4 lbs. 1 oz. It is the intention of Mr. Clarke to send it to Rochester for the purpose of having it stored.

EXTREMELY COLD WINTER PREDICTED.—Venezor, the Canadian weather prophet, who has forecast the kind of weather we were to have with tolerable accuracy during the past year, now informs us "there are yet no signs of an immediate winter. However, an abrupt winter may be expected when it does set in, extremely cold from the outset."

GLASS FACTORY.—Messrs. Sherrin and Gustin, the former from the States and the latter from London, have entered into partnership for the purpose of erecting the Glassworks of glass making in St. Thomas. The factory will be located in the second story of the Larn Block, adjoining the Post Office. Mr. Gustin has purchased the building from the late owner, Mr. John Barry, on St. George street, for $2,000.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH.—On Thursday afternoon while on his way to the Canada Southern track in that town, Mr. J. C. Carlin's job machine was struck by a horse and knocked down in the middle of the track. The engine was so badly damaged that it was necessary to run it back to the head, but the engine was fortunately stopped before the fire box reached him, or he would have been crushed to a jelly.

THE COLLIER SIRE.—The Local Committee of the Ladies' College met last week and decided to locate the College site on Mr. J. Carlin's lot behind the Central School, and near Judge Hughes' residence, on condition that the subscription fund will provide means for purchasing the necessary balance of ground. The location is certainly one of the best that could possibly have been chosen. Mr. Carlin's lot contains about 12 acres and was presented to the Committee, subject only to a life annuity. The total cost of the ground required for the College is from $15 to $20,000.

FALL FROM SCAFFOLDING.—On Thursday forenoon about eleven o'clock at Chas. Hillis, a painter engaged on the new Regent Hotel, was stepping along a scaffolding in the interior, at an elevation of nearly twenty feet above the public place, when he which he stood gave way, and Mr. H. was precipitated to the ground. He fell on his left side, severely bruising his arm from the elbow downwards, and his leg. Mr. Hillis was able to be assisted to the following morning, but his medical attendants advise him that he will not be able to resume work for perhaps a couple of months, as it is feared that he has suffered a longitudinal fracture of the arm.

BURGLAR AT WATERFORD.—On Sunday night last the house of Aaron McMichael, about two miles from Waterford, was entered by burglars, none being at home but Mrs. McMichael's daughter, who had been named Schram. Schram, on hearing a noise, commenced knocking the door, and on opening the kitchen door, was struck with a chair and searched the house, and on opening the kitchen door, was struck with a chair and searched the house, and on opening the kitchen door, was struck with a chair and searched the house.

BURGLAR AT WATERFORD.—On Sunday night last the house of Aaron McMichael, about two miles from Waterford, was entered by burglars, none being at home but Mrs. McMichael's daughter, who had been named Schram. Schram, on hearing a noise, commenced knocking the door, and on opening the kitchen door, was struck with a chair and searched the house, and on opening the kitchen door, was struck with a chair and searched the house.

BURGLAR AT WATERFORD.—On Sunday night last the house of Aaron McMichael, about two miles from Waterford, was entered by burglars, none being at home but Mrs. McMichael's daughter, who had been named Schram. Schram, on hearing a noise, commenced knocking the door, and on opening the kitchen door, was struck with a chair and searched the house, and on opening the kitchen door, was struck with a chair and searched the house.

BURGLAR AT WATERFORD.—On Sunday night last the house of Aaron McMichael, about two miles from Waterford, was entered by burglars, none being at home but Mrs. McMichael's daughter, who had been named Schram. Schram, on hearing a noise, commenced knocking the door, and on opening the kitchen door, was struck with a chair and searched the house, and on opening the kitchen door, was struck with a chair and searched the house.

BURGLAR AT WATERFORD.—On Sunday night last the house of Aaron McMichael, about two miles from Waterford, was entered by burglars, none being at home but Mrs. McMichael's daughter, who had been named Schram. Schram, on hearing a noise, commenced knocking the door, and on opening the kitchen door, was struck with a chair and searched the house, and on opening the kitchen door, was struck with a chair and searched the house.

BURGLAR AT WATERFORD.—On Sunday night last the house of Aaron McMichael, about two miles from Waterford, was entered by burglars, none being at home but Mrs. McMichael's daughter, who had been named Schram. Schram, on hearing a noise, commenced knocking the door, and on opening the kitchen door, was struck with a chair and searched the house, and on opening the kitchen door, was struck with a chair and searched the house.

BURGLAR AT WATERFORD.—On Sunday night last the house of Aaron McMichael, about two miles from Waterford, was entered by burglars, none being at home but Mrs. McMichael's daughter, who had been named Schram. Schram, on hearing a noise, commenced knocking the door, and on opening the kitchen door, was struck with a chair and searched the house, and on opening the kitchen door, was struck with a chair and searched the house.

BURGLAR AT WATERFORD.—On Sunday night last the house of Aaron McMichael, about two miles from Waterford, was entered by burglars, none being at home but Mrs. McMichael's daughter, who had been named Schram. Schram, on hearing a noise, commenced knocking the door, and on opening the kitchen door, was struck with a chair and searched the house, and on opening the kitchen door, was struck with a chair and searched the house.

BURGLAR AT WATERFORD.—On Sunday night last the house of Aaron McMichael, about two miles from Waterford, was entered by burglars, none being at home but Mrs. McMichael's daughter, who had been named Schram. Schram, on hearing a noise, commenced knocking the door, and on opening the kitchen door, was struck with a chair and searched the house, and on opening the kitchen door, was struck with a chair and searched the house.

BURGLAR AT WATERFORD.—On Sunday night last the house of Aaron McMichael, about two miles from Waterford, was entered by burglars, none being at home but Mrs. McMichael's daughter, who had been named Schram. Schram, on hearing a noise, commenced knocking the door, and on opening the kitchen door, was struck with a chair and searched the house, and on opening the kitchen door, was struck with a chair and searched the house.

BURGLAR AT WATERFORD.—On Sunday night last the house of Aaron McMichael, about two miles from Waterford, was entered by burglars, none being at home but Mrs. McMichael's daughter, who had been named Schram. Schram, on hearing a noise, commenced knocking the door, and on opening the kitchen door, was struck with a chair and searched the house, and on opening the kitchen door, was struck with a chair and searched the house.

BURGLAR AT WATERFORD.—On Sunday night last the house of Aaron McMichael, about two miles from Waterford, was entered by burglars, none being at home but Mrs. McMichael's daughter, who had been named Schram. Schram, on hearing a noise, commenced knocking the door, and on opening the kitchen door, was struck with a chair and searched the house, and on opening the kitchen door, was struck with a chair and searched the house.

New Grant Mill.—Mr. William Stewart has made final arrangements for building a new saw mill on the site of the old one, for the purpose of making it fire, steam, and power driven.

GOVERNMENT.—The Elgin County Council will meet in the Court House at 10 o'clock on Tuesday, Nov. 14th, for general business.

GOING TO THE CENTRAL.—John Q. Adams, wife and daughter, of Port Stanley, left this morning for the Central.

SHIPMENT OF APPLES.—Mr. Geo. Rowland, St. Thomas, shipped on Tuesday 100 boxes of apples for Liverpool.

THE COLORED PALM DOVE.—Miss M. Fernandez will play in the choir of the Catholic Church on Friday evening.

PROFESSIONAL BILLS.—Mrs. C. Mitchell will continue the bill of Mitchell and daughter formerly carried on by her husband.

GOOD FELLOWS.—One day last week Mr. George Norman, Yarmouth Centre, made 26 barrels of cider in eleven hours with his grant under press.

OPEN HOUSE TO-NIGHT.—Remember the centenary in the Upper Storey tonight under the auspices of the St. Thomas Ladies' Temperance and Benevolent Society.

ARREST.—On Friday Jesse McCallum was charged before the Police Magistrate with committing an assault on H. Harris. The case was withdrawn, defendant paying costs.

MRS. MCKINNON VS. THE GREAT WESTERN MAILWAY CO.—The damages in this case will be awarded. The amount is therefore not known yet.

UNION SERVICES TO-DAY.—The various congregations of the town—accepting the invitation of the St. Thomas Church today, giving Thanksgiving Day.

SUDDEN DEATH FROM AN APPLES.—Mr. Henry Sanders, grain buyer, Corralford, died suddenly on Tuesday last from an attack of apoplexy. Mr. Sanders was 43 years of age, and a stout, robust man.

PROFESSIONAL BILLS.—Mrs. C. Mitchell will continue the bill of Mitchell and daughter formerly carried on by her husband.

SUDDEN DEATH IN MILLBURN.—On Thursday afternoon Mr. William Marti, Millburn, was seated in his chair smoking, he suddenly expired. Mr. Marti was upwards of 81 years of age.

MR. STEPHEN WARD, of Yarmouth, and Master of Plover Grade No. 19, has announced his intention of removing from this section of Ontario. His departure is universally regretted by his numerous friends.

ILLNESS OF PROMINENT CITIZENS.—We are glad to learn that Judge Hughes, who has been suffering from an attack of bronchitis, and Mr. White, the Police Magistrate, who has been severely attacked with rheumatism, are both recovering.

THE ORGAN QUESTION.—Owing to there having been some difficulty in making the vote on the question of using an organ in the Presbyterian Church, a second vote was taken on Monday last. The result was as follows: Yes, 60; No, 10.

DRUNK AND DROPPED.—Thomas Wilson was charged before Wm. McKay, J. P., on Monday, with being drunk and dangerously so. He was ordered to leave town in two hours, with the alternative of going to jail for three months.

AIR LINE NEWS.—Lewis E. H. Morris, late news agent on the Port Dover and Lake Huron line, has been appointed agent on the Air Line east of St. Thomas, and copies of the semi-weekly and weekly Times can be obtained from his place.

SUDDEN DEATH AT THE POOR HOUSE.—On Thursday morning an old man named William Smith, an inmate of the House of Industry, was found dead in his bed. Dr. Gustin, Corralford, held an inquest in the afternoon, the verdict being that Smith had died from natural causes.

ACCIDENT.—On Thursday last a young girl, the daughter of Mr. Midgley, met with an accident at the Central. She was playing in the yard and ran against the fence when she came in contact with a rusty wire which entered her eye inflicting a severe wound. The wound was stitched by Dr. Wilson.

REFORM EPISCOPAL MINISTRY.—Services are to be held every Sunday evening during the coming winter, at the residence of the Rev. Mr. Wilson, Avenue, commencing next Sunday at 7 p. m. A Sunday-school will also be organized in connection with the Ministry, to hold every Sunday afternoon at half-past four.

RAILWAY COLLISION.—About two o'clock on Tuesday afternoon a collision took place between a freight and gravel train on the C. & N. near Dean's Station, whereby an engine was damaged and four gravel trucks overturned. The traffic of the road was interrupted for several hours.

THE MORGAN MURDER TRIAL.—Said, Nov. 1st.—Grenville and McFee, two of the men charged with the murder of Morgan in Warwick township, last March—against whom a true bill was found by the Grand Jury, were arraigned last night and pleaded "not guilty." Murray, the third was absent. He is in on bail. The trial takes place on Thursday.

AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS AND MOUNTAIN INSTRUMENTS.—We would direct the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Messrs. J. Green & Co., who have removed their place of business to the corner of Talbot street and Market Square, Messrs. Green & Co. have on hand a capital stock of agricultural implements, sewing machines and musical instruments.

MICHIGAN PRIZES.—On Tuesday night some of the youths at the east end who are fond of rough practical jokes had a row in the neighborhood. When Mr. J. H. Secord opposed them the next morning he was surprised to find tied to the door a call which bore the Michigan prizes—two dollars and three shillings.

OVERSIGHT.—Yesterday morning about ten o'clock a woman was observed to be standing on the top of the Opera House. Mr. Dan Campbell procured a gun and shot it from behind Mrs. Green's window. It is a magnificent specimen, measuring five feet half inch to the tip of the barrel and weighing 4 lbs. 1 oz. It is the intention of Mr. Clarke to send it to Rochester for the purpose of having it stored.

EXTREMELY COLD WINTER PREDICTED.—Venezor, the Canadian weather prophet, who has forecast the kind of weather we were to have with tolerable accuracy during the past year, now informs us "there are yet no signs of an immediate winter. However, an abrupt winter may be expected when it does set in, extremely cold from the outset."

GLASS FACTORY.—Messrs. Sherrin and Gustin, the former from the States and the latter from London, have entered into partnership for the purpose of erecting the Glassworks of glass making in St. Thomas. The factory will be located in the second story of the Larn Block, adjoining the Post Office. Mr. Gustin has purchased the building from the late owner, Mr. John Barry, on St. George street, for $2,000.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH.—On Thursday afternoon while on his way to the Canada Southern track in that town, Mr. J. C. Carlin's job machine was struck by a horse and knocked down in the middle of the track. The engine was so badly damaged that it was necessary to run it back to the head, but the engine was fortunately stopped before the fire box reached him, or he would have been crushed to a jelly.

THE COLLIER SIRE.—The Local Committee of the Ladies' College met last week and decided to locate the College site on Mr. J. Carlin's lot behind the Central School, and near Judge Hughes' residence, on condition that the subscription fund will provide means for purchasing the necessary balance of ground. The location is certainly one of the best that could possibly have been chosen. Mr. Carlin's lot contains about 12 acres and was presented to the Committee, subject only to a life annuity. The total cost of the ground required for the College is from $15 to $20,000.

FALL FROM SCAFFOLDING.—On Thursday forenoon about eleven o'clock at Chas. Hillis, a painter engaged on the new Regent Hotel, was stepping along a scaffolding in the interior, at an elevation of nearly twenty feet above the public place, when he which he stood gave way, and Mr. H. was precipitated to the ground. He fell on his left side, severely bruising his arm from the elbow downwards, and his leg. Mr. Hillis was able to be assisted to the following morning, but his medical attendants advise him that he will not be able to resume work for perhaps a couple of months, as it is feared that he has suffered a longitudinal fracture of the arm.

BURGLAR AT WATERFORD.—On Sunday night last the house of Aaron McMichael, about two miles from Waterford, was entered by burglars, none being at home but Mrs. McMichael's daughter, who had been named Schram. Schram, on hearing a noise, commenced knocking the door, and on opening the kitchen door, was struck with a chair and searched the house, and on opening the kitchen door, was struck with a chair and searched the house.

BURGLAR AT WATERFORD.—On Sunday night last the house of Aaron McMichael, about two miles from Waterford, was entered by burglars, none being at home but Mrs. McMichael's daughter, who had been named Schram. Schram, on hearing a noise, commenced knocking the door, and on opening the kitchen door, was struck with a chair and searched the house, and on opening the kitchen door, was struck with a chair and searched the house.

BURGLAR AT WATERFORD.—On Sunday night last the house of Aaron McMichael, about two miles from Waterford, was entered by burglars, none being at home but Mrs. McMichael's daughter, who had been named Schram. Schram, on hearing a noise, commenced knocking the door, and on opening the kitchen door, was struck with a chair and searched the house, and on opening the kitchen door, was struck with a chair and searched the house.

BURGLAR AT WATERFORD.—On Sunday night last the house of Aaron McMichael, about two miles from Waterford, was entered by burglars, none being at home but Mrs. McMichael's daughter, who had been named Schram. Schram, on hearing a noise, commenced knocking the door, and on opening the kitchen door, was struck with a chair and searched the house, and on opening the kitchen door, was struck with a chair and searched the house.

BURGLAR AT WATERFORD.—On Sunday night last the house of Aaron McMichael, about two miles from Waterford, was entered by burglars, none being at home but Mrs. McMichael's daughter, who had been named Schram. Schram, on hearing a noise, commenced knocking the door, and on opening the kitchen door, was struck with a chair and searched the house, and on opening the kitchen door, was struck with a chair and searched the house.

BURGLAR AT WATERFORD.—On Sunday night last the house of Aaron McMichael, about two miles from Waterford, was entered by burglars, none being at home but Mrs. McMichael's daughter, who had been named Schram. Schram, on hearing a noise, commenced knocking the door, and on opening the kitchen door, was struck with a chair and searched the house, and on opening the kitchen door, was struck with a chair and searched the house.

BURGLAR AT WATERFORD.—On Sunday night last the house of Aaron McMichael, about two miles from Waterford, was entered by burglars, none being at home but Mrs. McMichael's daughter, who had been named Schram. Schram, on hearing a noise, commenced knocking the door, and on opening the kitchen door, was struck with a chair and searched the house, and on opening the kitchen door, was struck with a chair and searched the house.

BURGLAR AT WATERFORD.—On Sunday night last the house of Aaron McMichael, about two miles from Waterford, was entered by burglars, none being at home but Mrs. McMichael's daughter, who had been named Schram. Schram, on hearing a noise, commenced knocking the door, and on opening the kitchen door, was struck with a chair and searched the house, and on opening the kitchen door, was struck with a chair and searched the house.

BURGLAR AT WATERFORD.—On Sunday night last the house of Aaron McMichael, about two miles from Waterford, was entered by burglars, none being at home but Mrs. McMichael's daughter, who had been named Schram. Schram, on hearing a noise, commenced knocking the door, and on opening the kitchen door, was struck with a chair and searched the house, and on opening the kitchen door, was struck with a chair and searched the house.

BURGLAR AT WATERFORD.—On Sunday night last the house of Aaron McMichael, about two miles from Waterford, was entered by burglars, none being at home but Mrs. McMichael's daughter, who had been named Schram. Schram, on hearing a noise, commenced knocking the door, and on opening the kitchen door, was struck with a chair and searched the house, and on opening the kitchen door, was struck with a chair and searched the house.

BURGLAR AT WATERFORD.—On Sunday night last the house of Aaron McMichael, about two miles from Waterford, was entered by burglars, none being at home but Mrs. McMichael's daughter, who had been named Schram. Schram, on hearing a noise, commenced knocking the door, and on opening the kitchen door, was struck with a chair and searched the house, and on opening the kitchen door, was struck with a chair and searched the house.

BURGLAR AT WATERFORD.—On Sunday night last the house of Aaron McMichael, about two miles from Waterford, was entered by burglars, none being at home but Mrs. McMichael's daughter, who had been named Schram. Schram, on hearing a noise, commenced knocking the door, and on opening the kitchen door, was struck with a chair and searched the house, and on opening the kitchen door, was struck with a chair and searched the house.

PORT STANLEY ITEMS.

NOVEMBER PARADE.—The November W. Grant, commanded by Capt. Angus May, of this place, made a quick run from Port Hawkesbury, Nova Scotia, to Oporto, Portugal, in 214 days. The schooner was laden with coal, having loaded at Oporto, Portugal, and returned to Port Stanley, P. E. I., on the 21st inst.

DEATHS.—At the residence of the bride's mother, Talbot street, on the 21st inst., died at 10 o'clock, Mrs. M. J. McKay, widow of the late John McKay, of Chatham, on the 21st inst.

DEATHS.—At the residence of the bride's mother, Talbot street, on the 21st inst., died at 10 o'clock, Mrs. M. J. McKay, widow of the late John McKay, of Chatham, on the 21st inst.

DEATHS.—At the residence of the bride's mother, Talbot street, on the 21st inst., died at 10 o'clock, Mrs. M. J. McKay, widow of the late John McKay, of Chatham, on the 21st inst.

DEATHS.—At the residence of the bride's mother, Talbot street, on the 21st inst., died at 10 o'clock, Mrs. M. J. McKay, widow of the late John McKay, of Chatham, on the 21st inst.

DEATHS.—At the residence of the bride's mother, Talbot street, on the 21st inst., died at 10 o'clock, Mrs. M. J. McKay, widow of the late John McKay, of Chatham, on the 21st inst.

DEATHS.—At the residence of the bride's mother, Talbot street, on the 21st inst., died at 10 o'clock, Mrs. M. J. McKay, widow of the late John McKay, of Chatham, on the 21st inst.

DEATHS.—At the residence of the bride's mother, Talbot street, on the 21st inst., died at 10 o'clock, Mrs. M. J. McKay, widow of the late John McKay, of Chatham, on the 21st inst.

DEATHS.—At the residence of the bride's mother, Talbot street, on the 21st inst., died at 10 o'clock, Mrs. M. J. McKay, widow of the late John McKay, of Chatham, on the 21st inst.

DEATHS.—At the residence of the bride's mother, Talbot street, on the 21st inst., died at 10 o'clock, Mrs. M. J. McKay, widow of the late John McKay, of Chatham, on the 21st inst.

DEATHS.—At the residence of the bride's mother, Talbot street, on the 21st inst., died at 10 o'clock, Mrs. M. J. McKay, widow of the late John McKay, of Chatham, on the 21st inst.

DEATHS.—At the residence of the bride's mother, Talbot street, on the 21st inst., died at 10 o'clock, Mrs. M. J. McKay, widow of the late John McKay, of Chatham, on the 21st inst.

DEATHS.—At the residence of the bride's mother, Talbot street, on the 21st inst., died at 10 o'clock, Mrs. M. J. McKay, widow of the late John McKay, of Chatham, on the 21st inst.

DEATHS.—At the residence of the bride's mother, Talbot street, on the 21st inst., died at 10 o'clock, Mrs. M. J. McKay, widow of the late John McKay, of Chatham, on the 21st inst.

DEATHS.—At the residence of the bride's mother, Talbot street, on the 21st inst., died at 10 o'clock, Mrs. M. J. McKay, widow of the late John McKay, of Chatham, on the 21st inst.

DEATHS.—At the residence of the bride's mother, Talbot street, on the 21st inst., died at 10 o'clock, Mrs. M. J. McKay, widow of the late John McKay, of Chatham, on the 21st inst.

DEATHS.—At the residence of the bride's mother, Talbot street, on the 21st inst., died at 10 o'clock, Mrs. M. J. McKay, widow of the late John McKay, of Chatham, on the 21st inst.

DEATHS.—At the residence of the bride's mother, Talbot street, on the 21st inst., died at 10 o'clock, Mrs. M. J. McKay, widow of the late John McKay, of Chatham, on the 21st inst.

DEATHS.—At the residence of the bride's mother, Talbot street, on the 21st inst., died at 10 o'clock, Mrs. M. J. McKay, widow of the late John McKay, of Chatham, on the 21st inst.

DEATHS.—At the residence of the bride's mother, Talbot street, on the 21st inst., died at 10 o'clock, Mrs. M. J. McKay, widow of the late John McKay, of Chatham, on the 21st inst.

DEATHS.—At the residence of the bride's mother, Talbot street, on the 21st inst., died at 10 o'clock, Mrs. M. J. McKay, widow of the late John McKay, of Chatham, on the 21st inst.

DEATHS.—At the residence of the bride's mother, Talbot street, on the 21st inst., died at 10 o'clock, Mrs. M. J. McKay, widow of the late John McKay, of Chatham, on the 21st inst.

DEATHS.—At the residence of the bride's mother, Talbot street, on the 21st inst., died at 10 o'clock, Mrs. M. J. McKay, widow of the late John McKay, of Chatham, on the 21st inst.

DEATHS.—At the residence of the bride's mother, Talbot street, on the 21st inst., died at 10 o'clock, Mrs. M. J. McKay, widow of the late John McKay, of Chatham, on the 21st inst.

DEATHS.—At the residence of the bride's mother, Talbot street, on the 21st inst., died at 10 o'clock, Mrs. M. J. McKay, widow of the late John McKay, of Chatham, on the 21st inst.

DEATHS.—At the residence of the bride's mother, Talbot street, on the 21st inst., died at 10 o'clock, Mrs. M. J. McKay, widow of the late John McKay, of Chatham, on the 21st inst.

DEATHS.—At the residence of the bride's mother, Talbot street, on the 21st inst., died at 10 o'clock, Mrs. M. J. McKay, widow of the late John McKay, of Chatham, on the 21st inst.

DEATHS.—At the residence of the bride's mother, Talbot street, on the 21st inst., died at 10 o'clock, Mrs. M. J. McKay, widow of the late John McKay, of Chatham, on the 21st inst.

DEATHS.—At the residence of the bride's mother, Talbot street, on the 21st inst., died at 10 o'clock, Mrs. M. J. McKay, widow of the late John McKay, of Chatham, on the 21st inst.

DEATHS.—At the residence of the bride's mother, Talbot street, on the 21st inst., died at 10 o'clock, Mrs. M. J. McKay, widow of the late John McKay, of Chatham, on the 21st inst.

DEATHS.—At the residence of the bride's mother, Talbot street, on the 21st inst., died at 10 o'clock, Mrs. M. J. McKay, widow of the late John McKay, of Chatham, on the 21st inst.

DEATHS.—At the residence of the bride's mother, Talbot street, on the 21st inst., died at 10 o'clock, Mrs. M. J. McKay, widow of the late John McKay, of Chatham, on the 21st inst.

DEATHS.—At the residence of the bride's mother, Talbot street, on the 21st inst., died at 10 o'clock, Mrs. M. J. McKay, widow of the late John McKay, of Chatham, on the 21st inst.

DEATHS.—At the residence of the bride's mother, Talbot street, on the 21st inst., died at 10 o'clock, Mrs. M. J. McKay, widow of the late John McKay, of Chatham, on the 21st inst.

DEATHS.—At the residence of the bride's mother, Talbot street, on the 21st inst., died at 10 o'clock, Mrs. M. J. McKay, widow of the late John McKay, of Chatham, on the 21st inst.

DE

THE FISHERMAN'S DYING WIFE

Reins me higher, dear,
I'll watch you till you're dead.

ELGIN FALLS ASSIZES

THURSDAY, Oct. 20.—The Court met at half-past nine.

Queen v. John Dawson, Arson.—H. McMahon, Q. C., for the Crown; Hon. M. C. Cameron, Q. C., for the defence.

Mr. Elliot, sworn—I have lived in Port Burwell for six years, and know the prisoner.

Mr. Elliot, sworn—I have lived in Port Burwell for six years, and know the prisoner.

Mr. Elliot, sworn—I have lived in Port Burwell for six years, and know the prisoner.

Mr. Elliot, sworn—I have lived in Port Burwell for six years, and know the prisoner.

Mr. Elliot, sworn—I have lived in Port Burwell for six years, and know the prisoner.

Mr. Elliot, sworn—I have lived in Port Burwell for six years, and know the prisoner.

Mr. Elliot, sworn—I have lived in Port Burwell for six years, and know the prisoner.

THE TURKO-SERVIAN WAR

THE BATTLE OF THE MORAVA

I have several times mentioned the bridge which spans the Morava river.

SAURDAY, Oct. 28.—The Court met at half-past nine.

Queen v. Aron Leach, Moses Leach, and Joseph Dorner.

Queen v. Aron Leach, Moses Leach, and Joseph Dorner.

Queen v. Aron Leach, Moses Leach, and Joseph Dorner.

Queen v. Aron Leach, Moses Leach, and Joseph Dorner.

Queen v. Aron Leach, Moses Leach, and Joseph Dorner.

Queen v. Aron Leach, Moses Leach, and Joseph Dorner.

Queen v. Aron Leach, Moses Leach, and Joseph Dorner.

LAST CHANGE

BUY YOUR TICKETS NOW!

THURSDAY, NOV. 30TH

FOR ONLY $12

THE CHINA HOUSE

SAMUEL LOUGHEED

FAMILY GROCERIES

TO WASH AND BE CLEAN

LEVIGATED TOILET SOAP

M. E. TRIPP & CO'S

DRUG STORE

FOR A LIE OR TO RENT

IN THE VILLAGE OF FINCH

FARM FOR SALE

FARM FOR SALE

FOR SALE TO BLACKSMITHS

TRY MITCHELL'S

STRAWBERRY

CORDIAL

DIARRHÆA, DYSENTERY

CHOLERA MORBUS

THE BEST IN USE

E. A. TAYLOR & CO.

LONDON

BOOKSELLERS

STATIONERS

BOOK BINDERS AND NEWS DEALERS

HATS AND FURS

H. BEATON'S

HATS AND FURS

FALL AND WINTER TRADE

TRICKETS

THE MCGLOUIN WATCH

INSURE YOUR LIFE AND PROPERTY

EQUITABLE

LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY

JAVIS & ROWLEY

GENERAL FIRE AND ASSURANCE

AYER'S

CHERRY PECTORAL

AYER'S

HAIR VIGOR

DR. J. C. AYER & CO.

LOWELL, MASS.

FAIRMEN, ATTENTION

ELGIN MILLS

FALL ARRIVALS

BOOTS AND SHOES

THE BRITISH MEMBERS CAPTURED

A LONDON CABARET

THE BRITISH MEMBERS CAPTURED

A LONDON CABARET

A LONDON CABARET