MASONIC GRAND LODGE CLOSES THE SESSIONS

Officers Elected and Preparations Made for the Next Meeting

NEXT GRAND LODGE TO BE HELD IN BANFF

An Interesting Entertainment Given for the Delegates Last Night

Practically the only thing that was done by the grand lodge of the Masons yesterday was electing the officers for the ensuing year and installing them. After the officers had been elected the lodge had to go through the formality of installing them and this ceremony was not completed until after 6 o'clock.

There was also considerable discussion as to the meeting place of the grand lodge next year and several of the towns and cities, through their delegates, extended invitations. Banff was finally decided on, and the session will be held there beginning the third Wednesday in May.

The officers elected and installed yesterday were as follows:

Grand master, A. J. Dunlop, Edmonton; D. G. M. Thos. McNabb, Lethbridge; S. W. R. Patterson, Macleod; J. W. S. J. Blair, Calgary; treasurer, Dr. N. J. Lindsay, Calgary; secretary, Dr. Geo. Macdonald, Calgary; registrar, W. M. Connacher, Calgary; chaplain, Rev. Canon Stockton, Glebe; grand Tyler, R. H. Finch; district deputy, J. J. W. Rankin; 2, T. M. Burnett; 3, R. H. Christie; 4, R. Wilson; 5, E. D. H. Wilkins; 6, Geo. Simpson.

The chairmen of the different standing committees which were appointed yesterday for the ensuing year are as follows: Board of general purposes, T. McNabb, Lethbridge; standing committee on jurisprudence, Hon. Judge Taylor, Edmonton; grievances and appeals, J. T. Macdonald, Calgary; condition of Masonry, Robt. Patterson, Macleod; foreign relations and correspondence, Dr. E. A. Bradshaw, Edmonton; finance, W. M. Connacher, Calgary; credentials and reception, J. N. Rankin, Calgary; benevolence, W. M. Connacher, Calgary; charters and lodges, Rev. G. H. Hodgkin, Banff.

The ladies of the Eastern Star, under the leadership of Mrs. McLaughlin, gave them a very elegant address of welcome and her address was very clever and much appreciated by both the visitors and local members as well.

After this some drill work by the ladies was put on and this was very interesting.

ARTHUR LEWIS SIFTON, PREMIER OF ALBERTA

Mr. Sifton was born on October 26th, 1858, in the province of Ontario, Canada. He attended school in Ontario and then in the United States. He was elected Premier of Alberta in 1905 and has since then been the head of the government in the province.

Mr. Sifton first began to read law in 1880, in the province of Ontario. He attended the University of Toronto and was admitted to the bar in 1883. A SUBMARINE IS LOST WITH 27 ON BOARD

French Craft Pluviose With all the Crew Sinks in the English Channel

TRIED TO PASS BENEATH AN ENGLISH STEAMER

The Submarine Struck by Steamer and Could Not Right Itself

Calais, France, May 26.—Another French submarine, the Pluviose, with all her crew aboard lies tonight in 30 fathoms of water in the English Channel. She was sent there by the cross-channel steamer Pas de Calais, which was crowded with passengers bound for Dover, struck the party submerged Pluviose when about two miles from the harbor.

Accounts differ as to the cause of the accident. Admiral Bournier has expressed the opinion that the submarine attempted to pass beneath the steamer, while other officials think that the Pluviose, after a long dive, came up by chance directly under the paddle wheels.

The shock of the contact brought the passengers to the steamer's rails and they saw almost instantly the hull of the submarine rolling about as though trying to right herself. A boat was launched, but the foundering craft, which seemed to have been hit, turned over partly and disappeared.

Signals of distress from the Pas de Calais which was making water rapidly brought two tug boats to the scene, and later a torpedo boat destroyer put out and anchored near where the Pluviose had gone down. Within an hour or two a wrecking vessel was lying near the destroyer and her crew were making hasty preparations to send down divers to locate the ill-fated submarine, entombed in which are three officers and twenty-four men. The chances of rescue are very slim, because, in the opinion of experts, either the rupture of the Pluviose burst or the craft was so badly damaged that she could not be raised.

After fruitless efforts made to reach the twenty-seven, scubaed men in the submarine Pluviose, which was sent to the bottom of the English Channel this afternoon, hope has been practical given up of bringing them to the surface alive.

A powerful under-current balking the divers in their attempts this evening to reach the Pluviose, and if the imprisoned men are not already dead, it is almost certain that the day will prove fatal. The submarine lies in many fathoms of water and the divers were able to descend only a short distance. Powerful dredges and machinery will arrive from Cherbourg in the morning when all efforts will be concentrated in the final attempt to reach the ill-fated craft and bring her to the surface.

The general fear is entertained that the Pluviose received a vital blow from the paddle wheel of the Pas de Calais and some of her plates were crushed. Even if the crew succeed in closing her water tight compartments they will not be able to survive for any great length of time. Of the 27 men in the Pluviose three were officers, including Commander Prat of the submarine division of Calais.

Edmonton, May 26.—A concerted effort to bring about the return of Attorney-general C. W. Cross to the cabinet took the form of a great outdoor demonstration here tonight, two thousand people gathering in front of the Windsor hotel on Jasper avenue to hear him speak from the portico. This meeting was preceded by a parade and fireworks. A few minutes after it closed there came a heavy downpour of rain and hundreds of Edmontonians got wet before they got under cover.

The rain started just as P. J. Nolan, K. C. of Calgary, began his oration and umbrellas were raised but the moisture did not prove serious until the meeting was over. The idea of the demonstration was not conceived until noon today, having been originated by friends of Mr. Cross and a number of young politicians.

Mr. Cross Speaks

The parade consisted of about twenty carriages and automobiles in which rode Mr. and Mrs. Cross, Mayor Lee, the members of the house, who have supported the government and a number of other prominent citizens. There were two brass bands and an aggregation of pipers. It moved up Jasper avenue and then returned to the Windsor hotel, where Mr. and Mrs. Cross and the speakers took seats on the portico. Mayor Lee presided and presented Mr. Cross, who said:

"I am sure I want to thank the mayor and everyone of you for the hearty reception you have given me tonight. It is not often a public man gets a reception like this. I do not wish to discuss with you the present political situation. I know I will have the opportunity in the near future to discuss it here and in every other part of Alberta. If any man, woman or child can show anything culpable about this government, now is your opportunity to come forward and do it under oath. And if any man has any aspiration to make against my business, personal or political character, let him come forward and I will answer him. The political history of the province has just undergone a material change. I want you to give the former justice, Mr. Sifton, the same support as I will give until shown that he is a different man than I think he is."

"Now, Mr. Mayor, ladies and gentlemen, I want to express to you as a young man going into the government of a new province my satisfaction of being under such a man as Dr. Rutherford."

The band played and then Mr. Nolan was introduced.

"Come on Paddy," yelled the crowd.

Wisdom From P. J. Nolan

"It is a year ago last March," said Mr. Nolan, "since I addressed the people of Edmonton and the members of the Rutherford government and I have had no reason to change my mind. I think as much of Dr. Rutherford and Mr. Cross as ever."

Just then a rain drop started but the crowd was willing to risk getting wet for a while longer and the speaker continued:

"I am glad that you are not fair-weather friends. That I should feel this way of all the more credit when it is considered I am from Calgary. I have been attending the sessions of the royal commission and it has been my privilege to see if Dr. Rutherford stole any money. Every time it has adjourned at 4:30 I have asked when the opposing counsel were going to have something nasty to say, but it has been no use."

Mr. Cross has been my friend since the first day I knew him and I still hope he will be placed in the position he belongs. I am proud of the privilege of taking part in this meeting. The breath of scandal has never once been raised against the government in spite of the poisonous efforts of some men of the press. I have been his counsel, he has been worrying me day and night to get some one to say something nasty about him. But I could not get any such man, even for pay. As a man from another part of the province, I am glad to lend my voice of approval to the Rutherford government and ask you not to forget 'Charley' Cross."

THE HOUSE PROROGUED

The next move was at the legislature during the afternoon, after the formal resolution regarding the death of the King had been passed when the lieutenant governor announced briefly that he had decided to prorogue the house.

The message was brief and referred to the resignation of Mr. Rutherford and all his cabinet, and to the swearing in of Premier Sifton under such circumstances as he explained. It was better to prorogue the house and to call it together again later in the year than to have a session that would be a mere formality.

Premier Sifton has nothing to say in his cabinet or his policy, further than to say that he would announce the cabinet on Monday, and all until then, even if he had made the government of the province for a person just what selection he has made or what he intends to do.

THE CROSS DEMONSTRATION

The Cross demonstration in the evening and the announcement by the attorney general that he intended to stamp the province is the enigma of the day. It is the enigma of the day because the government is so strong and yet it is so weak. It is the enigma of the day because the government is so strong and yet it is so weak.

MISS HARRIMAN MARRIED

New York, May 26.—In the little Episcopal church at Arden, N. Y., Miss Mary Harriman, daughter of the late railroad master and builder, Edward H. Harriman, was wedded today to Charles Cary Rumsey of Buffalo, a sculptor. Simplicity in the extreme marked the ceremony because of the recent death of the bride's father, who lies buried in the graveyard beside the church.

SOCIALIST M.P. MAKES SOME DEMONSTRATION

Objects to Eulogies Made by Members to the Late King

Edmonton, May 26.—Charles O'Brien, the Socialist member sitting for Rocky Mountains, saw his chance this afternoon and attempted to make a demonstration when the resolution of condolence on the death of the late King had been brought before the house. The resolution was introduced by Mr. Rutherford and seconded by Mr. Bennett, leader of the opposition. Both spoke feelingly and eloquently.

When Mr. Bennett had completed his eulogy, Mr. O'Brien rose and made some disparaging remarks, disgusting every person. He had made the same remarks before a street crowd, he would not have got off as light as he did in the house.

"Why all this empty hypocrisy," he began. "The King was a man who worked little and ate well."

Mr. Bennett objected to such remarks being allowed in the house. O'Brien hastened to apologize in a sort of way and explained that he was speaking only in the abstract and meant nothing personal. He said he wanted to make an amendment. He could get no second and muttering something about free speech, he sat down.

Every person in the house was very much amused at what O'Brien had said.

Under the treaty, pelagic sealing will be stopped in the North Pacific Ocean for a long term of years, and the interested nations will enact laws making it an offence for a vessel to be engaged in sealing. The United States will supply seals.

Ottawa, May 26.—Minister of Labor King today issued a significant statement in response to the complaint of the Bricklayers' Union regarding the petition to induce workmen to sign government contracts. The minister points out that sometimes the contractors are evidently trying to evade the provisions of the contract and he stated:

WHERE WILL THEY RUN?

There is one vacancy in the house, that of Macleod. It is believed that Premier Sifton will run for the riding. Mr. Finlay, the member for Medicine Hat, is unwell, and it is understood he would resign for his friend, Judge Mitchell. Dr. Warnock has a seat in the house and would be returned by acclamation, without doubt.

CHANCE FOR UNANIMITY

There is a chance for unanimity, and both parties seem to want it. If the government forces insist upon Cross, there will be no chance of it. The insurgents ask but two things, the cancellation of the contract and the supporting of every member of the present cabinet. They are not insisting upon cabinet representation.

The next move will be the announcement by Premier Sifton of the new cabinet. It will be followed shortly by the bye-election. It will not be very long before the house will meet again.

MR. RILEY NOT SO SURE

According to the statement Mr. Riley of Gleichen made this afternoon, the political atmosphere is not yet clear. There may be a bitter struggle before the new cabinet members are named.

WE TRIMMED CHESTY

BUT WE HAD TO WORK Your Old Friend Barnstead Pitched a Very Good Game

In what was about the best game of ball seen here this season Calgary last night shut out the Lethbridge men. It was almost two shut outs, as all that Calgary could do was to get one man over the pan. Barnstead, the old "Barney," the ex-idol of the Calgary fans, was in the box for Chesty's men, and outside of the first inning, when he allowed three hits, he pitched stellar ball. He struck out seven men and his fielding at times was the kind that you read about. He never made a hint of an error, and the way he pulled off a couple of plays made the bleachers, then where there are none more fair than those same Calgary fans, go wild. In the fourth he pulled off a good stunt when Kelleckey showed up a hot one near the first base line. It pulled O'Flynn of the bag, and Barney didn't get the start that Kelleckey did, but he beat him to it.

Barney struck out old Lethbridge three times. He only walked two men and Manning did the same. Manning fanned five, two of them being Barney himself, and then he turned around and let Barney fan him. It was a pitchers' battle after the first inning, both of them keeping their hits well scattered. Chesty Cox seems to have a pretty fair combination, and he keeps them to it all the time. Brown, the new ump, seemed a little bit off on his last strike decision, but he was with the base decisions all right. Old Chesty went after him in the ninth and put up a bluff that he was going to protest the game, but what for he refused to divulge. There were two men out and one man on base and Cox was at bat. He lifted the void a couple of times and then he disappeared into the Lethbridge box. The umpire called for him to come out, but the wily Chesty stayed the limit till he was ready, and then came running up to the score box and yelled that he was going to protest the game. He muttered something else that was intelligible, and turning away ran to the box and completed his turn. The bluffing for the third time at the atmosphere. It looked as though it was just a bluff to see what Brown would do.

About 1,100 people turned out to see the first appearance of the Lethbridge bunch, and they went home fully satisfied that they had the worth of their money. It was good baseball and everybody knew it. There was one double play pulled off that was in Calgary, and it was a pretty piece of work, too. In the second inning Chick was up first, and he put up a foul balloon to Wally Smith. Lynch signed and then Duddy put out a hot one to Paddock, who hove it to Connors, catching Lynch and just had time to fling it to Kelleckey to get Duddy. Though there were eleven hits all told, not one of them could be stretched to do duty for more than one sack. Calgary stole five bases, Clynes two and Carney, Hannagan and Connors one each. The pitchers struck a couple of times, but Stanley was on the very time. The wily Calgary, their only run was like the time of old, Clynes lanned, but Wally, who was jammed over a good single and brought Carney home, though they let Smith get to second. Kelleckey then showed out another single, but when Smith tried to get home on it Grayson fooled him by throwing it to the pan from away but in right. With the exception of this first inning, when Calgary had five men up, not more than four men faced the pitcher in one inning.

The complete score was as follows: Calgary, A. B. R. H. P. O. A. E. Paddock, ss, 4 0 0 1 2 1 Carney, rf, 4 1 1 0 0 0 Clynes, cf, 3 0 0 2 0 0 Smith, 2b, 3 0 2 2 0 0 Kelleckey, lb, 3 0 2 1 0 1 Flannagan, cf, 2 0 2 1 0 0 Connors, p, 2 0 0 3 4 0 Stanley, c, 3 0 0 1 4 0 Manning, p, 3 0 0 0 0 0 Totals, 28 1 7 27 11 4 Lethbridge, A. B. R. H. P. O. A. E. A. L. SIFTON IS PREMIER; THE HOUSE ADJOURNS

(Continued from page 1.) The government leaders are not pleased with the situation, and the insurgents are less pleased. The insurgents have not been consulted at all by the new premier, and they regard that as something of a slight. Mr. Riley says they held a meeting this morning, the fourteen of them, and decided to stand together for two things, the cancellation of the A. & G. W. contract and the retirement of all the present cabinet ministers. Mr. Riley says they will not, and that one of their number will be placed in the cabinet, but they will insist on a thorough house clearing. The insurgents have brought about the present change, and they do not intend to give up the fight now until the whole Rutherford government is wiped out. Mr. Sifton Was Firm On the other hand, the government supporters have given the new premier a free hand. Tonight they held a conference, and some wanted to insist that Cross remain, others that the whole cabinet except Rutherford remain, but when they approached Judge Sifton about it, he sent back word that the only condition under which he would assent to the resignation was a free hand, and just what he will do is a puzzle, and perhaps something of a problem for the premier himself. "All I can say," he said this afternoon, "is that no announcement of the appointments will be made before Monday. Even if they are decided before then, they will not be announced."

Chief Justice Resigns

Premier Sifton resigned his resignation to the department of justice at Ottawa, and also to Premier Laurier this morning. As to the cancellation of the railroad contract, it is believed a majority of the house will vote for it if the premier recommends it. The main question is whether it can be cancelled without prolonged and costly litigation. There is a possibility that the money will be used in building a line to the Peace River instead of McMurray on the Athabasca. E. A. James, the general manager, is still here watching developments, contending that he will resign in ten days. It is not likely that W. B. Clarke will show up in Alberta for some time. The royal commission will adjourn the session of the house until the 31st of May. Mr. Sifton had just come from the government house and was talking to a capitalist reporter, when Mr. Bennett came in from attending the session of the royal commission. Mr. Bennett immediately stepped up to Premier Sifton and shook hands with him. "Well," he said, "I suppose it is now good-bye chief and how do you do, Mr. Premier."

Premier Meets His Opponents

The first meeting between the new premier and the leader of the opposition took place this afternoon just at the door of the Alberta hotel. Mr. Sifton had just come from the government house and was talking to a capitalist reporter, when Mr. Bennett came in from attending the session of the royal commission. Mr. Bennett immediately stepped up to Premier Sifton and shook hands with him. "Well," he said, "I suppose it is now good-bye chief and how do you do, Mr. Premier."

Canadians Enter at Henley

London, May 26.—Jimmy Cosgrove has gone to Henley today to see Secretary Cooper of the Henley Regatta committee in regard to his entry, which through some mistake of other has not been received. Cosgrove returns to London, but will be out on the river at Putney this afternoon. He has been made an honorary member of the Thames Boating club and London Boating club, and will probably row at Walton Regatta. He will train at Putney. Tom Sullivan will not go to Henley until the last week in June. He is thinking of ordering a new boat from Sims, which will be about four pounds lighter than one just made by Sims. Cosgrove will stay at the Albert Hotel, Richmond road, Putney.

WITH SHACKLETON TO THE SOUTH POLE

Interesting Lecture by Man Who Went the Furthest South

TELLS THE STORY BY WORD AND PICTURE

An Able Lecturer Whose Lecture is Bright and Instructive

A large and representative audience gathered at Sherman's hall last evening to hear Sir Ernest Shackleton recount his experiences during his Antarctic expedition of 1907-1909. Sir Ernest proved himself to be one of the most entertaining and witty lecturers ever heard in the Sandstone City. His whole account of the famous enterprise proved intensely interesting. In recounting his abortive story Sir Ernest Shackleton's reluctance to refer to his Antarctic expedition was always noticeable. It was almost always, "We did this," and "We did that." Never did you hear him speak of his own particular danger, or of anything he had done to save the lives of others. Talking along easily and distinctly, the lecturer described the start of the expedition on August 6, 1907, from Cowes, in the Isle of Wight, aboard the Nimrod, a forty-year old craft that leaked pretty constantly. From New Zealand, however, the real start for the Antarctic was made, and this took place on January 1, 1908. The force comprised thirty-seven men, nine dogs and four Manchurian ponies, with provisions for two years, and of course the necessary stock of scientific instruments and apparatus. Sir Ernest explained that he used these Manchurian ponies in preference to dogs, as their superior height gave them a great advantage in negotiating snow drifts, which they are moreover well accustomed to in their native home in Eastern Asia. He also had automobiles with him, which, he assured the audience, ran well on the ice. Very interesting was Sir Ernest's description of the great ice barrier of the Antarctic Sea, a literal wall of ice that extends for 450 miles, and at a height of never less than 20 feet, sometimes rising to 265 feet. It was his work bringing the Nimrod to Cape Royds where it had been decided to make the winter quarters. Once there the intrepid adventurers settled down to spend the long Antarctic night, lasting in that latitude from April 23 to August 23—a night of 130 ordinary days.

To hear the way Sir Ernest told the tale it might at first be thought that every body—and he, most of all—had forgotten the story. As Sir Ernest explained that he used these Manchurian ponies in preference to dogs, as their superior height gave them a great advantage in negotiating snow drifts, which they are moreover well accustomed to in their native home in Eastern Asia. He also had automobiles with him, which, he assured the audience, ran well on the ice. Very interesting was Sir Ernest's description of the great ice barrier of the Antarctic Sea, a literal wall of ice that extends for 450 miles, and at a height of never less than 20 feet, sometimes rising to 265 feet. It was his work bringing the Nimrod to Cape Royds where it had been decided to make the winter quarters. Once there the intrepid adventurers settled down to spend the long Antarctic night, lasting in that latitude from April 23 to August 23—a night of 130 ordinary days.

On October 2, when the Antarctic summer was at hand, for three October correspondents to our April, Sir Ernest, with three companions, Adams, Marsden and White, began his march for the South Pole. They had with them the four Manchurian ponies, which did yeoman's service. These hardy beasts have since passed to the Paradise of green grass. Sir Ernest failed not to pay a due eulogy to his four-footed friends. The pictures told how hard, now bitterly hard, must have been the struggle, told by the chief and narrator to a laugh, as if it had been the best of jokes in the world. The only square meal they had for days was on Christmas Day, and half an hour after they "rose from table" they felt inclined for another one. The Terrible Truth. It was on this day that Sir Ernest realized the truth—that he could not reach the Pole. With another fifty men, his prior mission, the feat could have been accomplished, but to proceed further, in view of the lack of food, would have been suicidal. Such was the hunger they endured that when they found the body of one of the ponies which had died on the southward march, they were glad to eat it, despite the fact that it had been two months dead, and that the meat was in consequence decidedly "high." But it was his splendid pictures which Sir Ernest let tell the tale of the dangers and privations which he and his companions had suffered, and the cheerfulness with which they were encountered. The slides were some of the best ever shown in Calgary. They illustrated in a unique manner both human and animal life in the frozen regions of the Antarctic, and often evoked the pleasure of the spectators. These admirable pictures enabled one to realize the Antarctic, its silence, its desolation, its mystery, its beauty, and above all its terror. Two hours, entrancingly employed, quickly glided by, when quite informally, Sir Ernest, remarking it was probable he had talked long enough, raised his bow and retired, wishing his audience "good night." And everybody was sorry the lecture had ended, the feature of which was the dry humor with which Sir Ernest narrated his adventures and his reluctance to allude, or even hint, at his own heroism.

LUMBER SITUATION IS NOT IMPROVING The Demand Larger Than Ever, While The Output Is Not as Large as Expected. Mr. James W. Davidson, president of the Crown Lumber Company, Limited, interviewed on the lumber situation, said that the shortage in building materials shows little sign of improvement. The situation in the States, owing to the tariff question being disposed of, is about the same as in Canada, with the exception that retail prices are from $2 to $4 higher there than in the Canadian prairie provinces. Regarding the difficulties mentioned above, the total output of the Western Canadian mills will be greater than last year, but as importation, at least into Alberta, is about double that of last year, and as there is much building activity in all the towns and cities, the summer's production can scarcely take care of the demand; furthermore, the large amount of railway construction contracted for, totalling some $20,000,000, will consume a great deal of lumber, and will naturally decrease the amount which would ordinarily be available for the retail market. The situation is much the same in other lines, there being great shortages in brick, stone, etc.

ROOSEVELT GETS CAMBRIDGE DEGREE

Prominent American Well Received at the Ancient Remnant Town of Cambridge.

Cambridge, Eng., May 26.—Theodore Roosevelt came here today to receive the honorary degree of doctor of laws from Cambridge University.

The former president was accompanied from London by Mrs. Roosevelt and his daughter, Mrs. Nicholas Longworth.

The exercises of confinement were held this afternoon in the Senate house. Mr. Roosevelt had luncheon at Pembroke College and from this point the procession was formed and proceeded to the auditorium.

The universal gloom of the mourning for King Edward is broken by a ray of sunshine on the anniversary of the birth of Queen Mary which is made doubly memorable by this reception to Mr. Roosevelt.

The orator spoke of the former president as a "most welcome guest and as a man of singular vigor and versatility, who for seven years presided over the great republic which is united with Great Britain by many ties."

NICARAGUA SEIZES UNITED STATES SHIP

The Battle Between the Forces of Government and Insurgents Continues in Nicaragua.

Bluefields, Nicaragua, May 25.—A Nicaraguan government force from the gunboat Venus today boarded and captured the American schooner Esfuerzo, flying the Stars and Stripes.

Following the search, the Venus and another Nicaraguan gunboat, San Jacinto, were seen approaching the Bluefield bluff.

The Big Battle Continues Bluefields, May 25.—The fighting outside Bluefields continues without definite results.

Throughout yesterday the battle raged without decided advantage to either side. General Lara of the Nicaraguan government army, seeking a position near the city, was repulsed by General Estrada and sustained a small loss.

The situation at Rama remains unchanged. General Means of the insurgents is checking every move made by General Estrada who has been directing his strength against Rama unsuccessfully.

The government troops banded at Venus occupied as position on the coast but have made no definite movement.

With the widely published assertion of Dr. Max Barf of Clark University that woman is still a savage we have nothing to do.

The only real debatable point Doctor Barf has made is his assertion that woman will never be civilized until she has cut her hair.

FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE. Ninetieth Birthday Recalls Splendid Work Leading to Red Cross.

(From the Philadelphia Public Ledger) On May 12 Florence Nightingale was 90 years of age.

She celebrated her birthday, for she has always deprecated the idea that could be construed as the exploitation of her personality and the service she has rendered to thousands of suffering soldiers.

Miss Nightingale was co-helress with her sister of a large fortune. She was given an education the like of which is almost unknown in the beginning of the Victorian era.

The death rate at Scutari was 42 per cent. In one hospital it rose to 56. Eighty per cent of those whose limbs were amputated died of gangrene.

Miss Nightingale assembled a party of 41 volunteer nurses, including 19 Catholic nuns and 8 Sisters of Mercy.

A Talented Lady Cornetist
Among the many soloists appearing with the Navassars' Ladies' Band, which is to play at Calgary the first week in July, none are better or more favorably known than Miss Lillian Sieger, who occupies the premier cornet position with this world's famous organization of lady musicians. Miss Sieger, a native of St. Louis, Mo., received her preliminary musical education in her home city, but her talent soon equaled that possessed by the instructors, who suggested her finishing her schooling abroad. This she did, having taken a three years' course in the Paris Conservatory of music, under the guidance of Jean Duval, head of the Department of Cornets at that world famed college of music.
Miss Sieger though only young in years, is classed with such older and famous artists as Herbert Clark of Sousa's band.
Upon the occasion of the Navassars' appearance here she will be heard in several solos.

The Poultry Show at Exhibition
The poultry show in connection with the big Provincial show will doubtless surpass the grand display of last year. Mr. Sharp Butterfield of Windsor, Ont., who has judged the last two years, will again officiate. Mr. Butterfield judges at all the largest shows in the east and with him picking the winners there is no doubt but that the best birds will win. Prizes are offered for all classes from the largest turkey to the smallest bantam. There is also a liberal classification for pheasants, pigeons and pet stock. The Calgary Poultry association is co-operating with the fair board in their endeavor to make this summer's poultry show the best ever held in the west. Besides the regular cash prizes there are also offered cups for the best bird in almost every class. The White Wyandotte club of Canada also offers a silver cup for the best four White Wyandottes. There are also two championship cups. Also a silver cup for the best display of one variety. The Poultry association wishes every member to exhibit. Prize lists and any information desired can be obtained from the office of the exhibition company. Five years ago the poultry entry numbered about 60 birds. This year the entry will reach close to one thousand.

Boy Scouts
This movement, which is spreading all over the world, has reached Calgary and certainly seems to have caught on. After some weeks of patrol action, the first definite combined movement of the seven patrols which now exist in Calgary and Crescent Heights, was at the memorial service of our late King. Many of our readers must have noticed the smart appearance of 35 boys who marched behind the cadets to the Pro-Cathedral on Empire Day. The troop numbered 42 under the following officers: Scouts, Masters Jewett of Crescent Heights; Northcott of St. Stephens; Clarke of the Pro-Cathedral; with two assistant Scouts, Masters Reid and Spiller, also Chaplain Horne. They marched from 7th avenue to 14th street west, thence south to the Elbow River, where the various patrols made fires, cooked and ate their dinners, after which some creditable scout work was performed of despatch running. The boys have certainly learned how to take cover. So much so that a visitor remarked to one of the officers that he believed no boy was stationed on the west side of the headquarters. It was told that if he walked in that direction he would be challenged by at least six. He went and found this was so. After more cooking, six of them fell in, saluted the flag, and marched back to the city, the marching being one of the features of the day.

PARTELLO STOCK COMPANY
Presented a Delightful Comedy at the Lyric Theatre
In spite of the fact that fully half a dozen other attractions claimed the patronage of the entertainment-loving portion of the city's population, the Lyric theatre was comfortably filled with a most appreciative audience to witness the second presentation in the repertoire of the Partello Stock Company. The play, "Lena Rivers," was a new one to a Calgary audience and was charged with an abundance of good wholesome comedy with just sufficient of the pathetic and dramatic to prevent it being anything of a "cream."
Miss Kennedy and Jack Westerman were in the leading roles and the audience appreciated intensely the consummate skill of both artists who cleverly alternated in comic and serious situations.
At the Orpheum
It is the laughing limit this new show at the Orpheum, and the girls do some dandy dances. Julia Graham, singing the "Yama, Yama Man," was the song hit of the show. Harry Bernard and Jim Rowe were capable of doing more for the audience to make them laugh than ever before. It is a good show in every point, and was greatly appreciated by a packed house last night.

GODDARD REFERS TO COST OF THE ROAD

One of the A. & G. W. Engineers Gives Very Interesting Evidence

SOME STRONG INCIDENTS IN THE WORK DONE

He Was Watched Like a Small Pox Patient For Some Time

Edmonton, Alta., May 26.—J. R. Boyle, M. P. P. took the stand at the A. & G. W. investigation this morning. Mr. Walsh examined him. He said he had never been in charge of the Athabasca Railway, but he had met Faulkner during the first session of the legislature, having been introduced to him by Cornwallwall at the Alberta hotel. He met Hayes in March of the following spring. He then told of having stayed over at Winnipeg with Cornwallwall at the latter's request while he was making a trip east. They met Faulkner, Hayes, Minty and Woodman.
"Their idea then was to go west to get a subsidy of $6,400 a mile from the Dominion government and they seemed to think that I had some influence with the Dominion government, and I am not sure that they asked me directly to aid them. They thought the provincial government should help them too but I told them there was no chance. I promised to see Olive and I did. I told Olive what had taken place and that they wanted me to see him. So when they come, tell them I've been here, I said.
"Yes," he said, "I've seen you." I might say that I did not take Cornwallwall's railroad project seriously, not considering it feasible. I have never received a cent from the Athabasca syndicate or the A. & G. W. Co.
"That was the beginning and the end of Mr. Boyle's testimony.
Goddard Gives Evidence
Cecil Goddard, assistant chief engineer of the A. & G. W. Co., was called again saying he had found no more documents than he produced when called to the stand a few days ago. He was examined by Mr. Johnstone. He told of having been employed by Clarke through engineer Woodman to make a reconnaissance of the proposed route and make a report before September 1, 1908 when Clarke's option on the Athabasca Syndicate expired. Before going he met Dr. Waddell, Clarke's chief engineer at Edmonton. He reported to Dr. Waddell and Woodman and telegraph any required information to Clarke using caution in wording messages so information would not leak out at Edmonton. He said he travelled 1,400 miles in making the survey, going to the east of Lac La Ploche and Stony Mountain. He returned September 24. He went to Woodman at Winnipeg and thence to Minneapolis where he met Clarke and Dr. Waddell. He reported to Dr. Waddell at West Hotel in a verbal, general way, as to line of route, grades and probable freight receipts.
Game of Hide and Seek
Goddard told of an amusing incident when while three days this side of McMurray in making the reconnaissance he met Mr. Johnstone. He said he was doing, and Phillips told him a "fairy story" but he did not learn Phillips' name until some time afterward. "Did you tell him what you were doing?" asked Johnstone.
"You bet I did not," was the reply.
The witness said he had heard Phillips had been sent out by Clarke a week after him to check him up. He felt hurt about it and asked Woodman for an explanation and Woodman made an explanation that was satisfactory. He said that he began the preparation of his report at the King Edward Hotel after making a second trip over the route, beginning October 7 and finishing October 12.
In this report he estimated the average cost per mile for a maximum grade of 1 to 2 per cent for clearing, grading, bridging, ties ballasting and culverts at $2,610. The figures for a pusher engine grade at Fort McMurray for a distance of six miles. He did not include, of course, the cost of rails. He said that he knew in Edmonton as an engineer and that of Dr. Waddell had nothing to conceal, and that Dr. Waddell's idea was simply that he was pretty well known in Edmonton as an engineer and if he was seen persons might have suspected he was here for some definite purpose. Johnstone read a letter sent to Goddard by A. C. Fraser saying he trusted Goddard would not have to be treated like a small pox patient again.
The witness admitted that Waddell kept Phillips at the Windsor Hotel so that he and Phillips would not meet and that Waddell thought himself justified as the figures of both men were to be submitted to the government. Johnstone asked the witness how he could explain the discrepancies between his statement and that of Dr. Waddell which was $27,000 a mile but the subject was dropped until the witness could bring some figures bearing on it.
The witness then told of a meeting of September 18 when Cushing was present. He said the meeting was protracted, lasting until one o'clock in the morning. Cushing was there to the end.
"Mr. Cushing seemed to think the estimates of cost made by me, Phillips and Waddell, too high objecting principally to the amount of yardage. The meeting was called to discuss the project with Cushing, from an engineering standpoint, but he kept holding back his approval. He seemed to want a government engineer to report about the guarantee. Nothing was settled, the meeting ended in a deadlock."
ONE CIVIL SERVANT REFUSED THE OATH
Had an Idea That It Was a Direct Copy of the Accession Oath of the King
Ottawa, May 26.—Considerable comment has been caused in the civil service by the refusal of one officer, one of the departments to take the oath of allegiance to King George V. It seems that when the other employees presented themselves this one abstained from going to the room where the clerk of the privy council was administering the oath. The remedy will be in his salary being stopped by the auditor general. The reason assigned is that the clerk took the stand that the oath is similar to the coronation oath in reference to Roman Catholics, which is not at all the case.

RECORD IN FLYING MADE BY O. WRIGHT

Dropped 2,700 Feet at a Terrific Pace. But Had Perfect Control of Machine.

Dayton, Ohio, May 26.—Orville Wright has made five aeroplane flights here within a few hours, in one of which he reached an altitude of 2,700 feet and from which height he landed at terrific speed, reaching the earth in one minute and 23 seconds, or at a rate of over 20 miles an hour, thus establishing a world's record for descent. The machine dropped under perfect control and landed within fifteen feet of the end of the starting rail. For the first time in his life Bishop Milton Wright, father of the Wright brothers, left the earth with Orville and was taken 300 feet into the air.

Natural Gas Near London
London, Ont., May 26.—Natural gas has been struck not far from London on the farm of Sid Droy, Westminister township. Well drillers were at work and at 225 feet struck a flow of gas, which when ignited burned 24 hours. Neighbors have given orders for the drilling of wells on adjoining farms.

EDISON HINTS AT NEW FORCE

Successor to Electricity Probable, the Inventor Says

East Orange, N.J., May 26.—Thomas A. Edison, the electrical wizard, has suggested the possibilities of the diamond and development of a new power, "another method of agitating the atoms or molecules besides the thing we call electricity," as he said. But in the meantime, he declared that the scope of electricity as a motive power is gradually widening and being better realized.
What the new power may be the great inventor did not undertake to say. Its discovery, as he suggested, will likely be by accident, probably through one of the five human senses, as radium and the X-ray were found through the sense of sight.
While Edison discussed a new force other than electricity merely as a possibility, he discussed it in a most interesting manner.
"I took dinner on one occasion with an eminent professor of the University of Berlin," he said, "and I moved my forefinger at him and asked him what made it move. He couldn't tell. There is one form of motion that we do not comprehend. So it is there may be discovered a new power which we can convert into use, but I cannot say what it will be."

THREE DIVISIONS OF ENGLAND

The Northern Part Leads Rest of Country in Progress

England, as every attentive observer has noted, falls roughly into three parts. North of a line drawn from the Dee to the Humber there is the England which is almost as new as America, the England of coal and iron, cotton and wool, the England of great mills and mines and of industry on an immense scale. That is the England the capitals of which are Manchester, Sheffield, Leeds and Bradford, the cities whose names stand throughout the world for modern English manufacturing supremacy and commercial enterprise, and this England has pronounced at least as decisively as in 1866 for the government, for free trade, and above all, for democracy.
Just to the south of the line there is the Midlands, the region of which Birmingham is the capital, the region in which industry is carried on for the most part in small factories, by struggling employers. That England has, on the whole, gone against the government.
Finally, there is the South, the feudal England, the region characterized by cathedral cities, small market towns and rather decayed residential boroughs.
In size of population, in wealth, in industrial significance and in vitality, the urban North as unquestionably outweighs the urban Midlands and the urban South as it has unquestionably given on its verdict for the cause of progress.

As They Rode in Edward's Funeral They Seldom Spoke to Each Other

London, May 25.—An officer who was with the cavalcade of kings from the start to the close of the funeral of King Edward said today:

"What struck me most about them was their aloofness from each other. Except the King of Greece, who, riding behind, made an occasional remark to King Halkon, his nephew, I never saw any of them exchange a word. Each existed for himself alone and seemed to be unaware of the proximity of any rival."

"When Queen Alexandra kept the procession waiting outside Westminster Hall while she crossed the king's charger and terrors, Cesar Ferdinand of Bulgaria became very impatient and fell a remark that Alexandra's conduct was a 'piece of stupidity.'"

THE KING'S WERE "DISTANT."

Yours very truly, C. R. HEIK, Secretary.

The foregoing was read from Heik's private letter book. Another letter written by Heik in 1897, was to Ernest W. Gerhardt, formerly of the (Llamsburg, Brooklyn) refinery. Gerhardt is one of the defendants. The communication mildly upbraided Gerhardt for not having shown certain weight books as requested by a clerk of the insurance inspectors.

"As there was no duties on these sugars," wrote Heik, "there could under no circumstances be any harm in showing the weights, as there could be no comparison with the customs house weights."

Other letters considered less significant by the prosecution were read, among them communications to the heads of the refineries at New Orleans, Philadelphia, Boston, Chicago and Jersey City.

Wm. A. Bryan, a clerk in Heik's office, testified today that in March 1899, he destroyed a package marked "Technical statement in 1906," and at Heik's direction. This was four days after the termination of the government's investigation. Arthur Widdin, a clerk in the auditing department, also testified that he destroyed some technical statements at Heik's request at the close of the first Spitzer trial. The government did not rest its case, and adjournment was taken.

"I make these changes in the offices in New York and I don't alter the accounts of the refinery, as it does not seem to me desirable that there should be two sets of weights on the books of the refinery. One set, for instance, representing the customs house weight on which duty is paid, and another set representing melting weights, giving a larger number of pounds. It will be most convenient for you after your statement of raw sugar melted has been completed, to add these differences to each one. The correction of the technical statement I shall make here in New York."

Yours very truly, C. R. HEIK, Secretary.

ATTEMPTED ASSAULT ON A LITTLE GIRL

A Man Named Gordon Now in Police Station Charged With a Very Serious Offense

Peter Gordon is the name of a man who was arrested shortly after 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon on suspicion of having criminally assaulted a little 8-year-old girl.

According to the story given to the Alberta press after the assault had been committed the man left and proceeded toward the centre of the city. The little girl followed him to the street and shortly afterward a man came along and she told him her story and described the appearance of her assailant.

HOW PAULHAN DID IT

In Physical Endurance the Demands on the Aviator Were Tremendous

Paulhan flew the other day from Wright, Ontario, Parma and Cuba or was that a machine could fly that far, rather than that a man could drive an airplane so long a distance.

When he rose in the air at Hendon he did not know himself that he intended to fly to Manchester. "Perhaps I may or I may not," was all he would say.

There was nothing to do but turn back in his track with a sharp, fishhook curve. Beneath him then was a gray sea filled with motor cars and crowded with people and ahead of him was a narrow field inclosed in a perfect wall of telegraph wires.

CRESCUS IS BEST IN HARNESS FIELD

Trotting Stallion Chosen as Greatest of All Time by H. T. White

(By Henry Ten Eyck White in Chicago Tribune.)

The trotting stallion Crescus, 2:02 1-4, foaled 1894, sired by Robert McGregor, dam by Mambrino Howard, probably would be selected by a jury of horsemen as the greatest harness horse of all time. Under all standards by which a supremely great horse must be measured and to which he must in a high degree conform, Crescus is the foremost figure in trotting horse history for these seasons:

1. He is a natural trotter.
2. He was a phenomenal colt trotter, doing a mile over a half mile track as a 2-year-old in 2:20 1-2 with little training, while in his 3-year-old form he won the most remarkable race ever credited to a trotter of that age, taking first honors in an eight heat contest from a field of aged trotters of the 2:17 class, the battle extending over two days. Crescus won the last three heats, and his positions for the entire race were 7, 2, 2, 2, 10, 1, 1, 1, the time of the mile being 2:15 1-4, 2:12 1-4, 2:12 1-4, 2:12 1-4, 2:12 1-4, 2:11 1-4, 2:11 1-4, an average of 2:12 1-4. That performance alone would give any 2-year-old undying fame, but it was only an incident in the career of Crescus.

3. He was an unbeatn race trotter when matured, defeating horse after horse until finally he was matched against the world's champion trotter, The Abbot, 2:02 1-4. Crescus won in 2:02 1-4, the fastest heat ever trotted in a race to that time, and the performance stood unchallenged until last summer, when Hamburg Belle put 2:01 1-4 in its place.

4. He lowered the stallion record from 2:05 1-4 to 2:02 1-4, where it stands today.

5. Having beaten all other trotters, Crescus started against time and obtained the fastest record of his day, 2:02 1-4, beating the best previous mark a full second.

6. He lowered the two mile record for trotters from 4:25 1-4 to 4:17, the only time he started at that distance and his record still is the best. This was done when Crescus was past his prime, and with no special preparation for such a task. Still Crescus, always a horse above ordinariness, stopped the first mile in 2:10 1-4 and the second in 2:07 2-4. That he was then far short of his top speed was shown by the fact that three days before the two mile test Crescus was started to beat 2:04, and the best he could do was 2:05 1-2. To come back the same week and go two miles at an average of 2:08 1-2 shows what a whale among horses Crescus was in the matter of stamina.

7. He was the most consistent race horse trotter ever seen. In six years of racing, making sixty-one starts, he never was behind the money. Including exhibitions—in which a victory often called for more speed than would have been required to beat a field of horses—Crescus was forty-two times first, fourteen times second, four times third, and once fourth. No other trotter has a racing career comparing with this.

8. He got every world's trotting record he tried for, and had over two scores of them to his credit when he retired.
9. He held the world's half mile track record, both to sulky and to wagon.
10. He could trot any sort of track, mile or half mile, hard or soft, wet or dry, better than any horse of his time, and the weather made no difference to him. He trotted the half mile track at Denison, Tex., in 2:15 1-4 on Jan. 4, 1902, and he later went to the Canadian winter tracks and made all other trotters look common. Also he performed at Tucson, Ariz., where it is warm. As for travelling, he put in over 12,000 miles of railway riding in one season, 1901.
11. He was of fine size, good color in his later years, well bred, and had none of wonderful quality that enabled him to be trained year after year from infancy for extreme efforts and still stay sound. He had willingness with his courage, not refusing to try even after the effort, pained him.
12. Although not a marked success as a sire, neither is he a failure, as at the age of 16 he has to his credit sixteen trotters with records better than 2:30, one of them in the 2:10 list.

year ago, when a meeting of thirteen days was held. Several owners have sent word that they will ship to the Blue Bonnets within a few days in order that their horses may have a long rest before the meeting opens.
Their horses have raced continuously at Baltimore. Montreal is looked upon as a first class place to rest up, due to the fine pasture around the track. The recent fine weather has put the going in perfect condition, as is shown by the locally-owned horses trained there.
There are many candidates for the steeplechase events at Blue Bonnets now at the track. They are being schooled regularly through the field which is fast and ready. Lester Hayman, who was cut down at Baltimore a year ago, has gotten over his ailment and has shown some good performances over the jumps this spring. Dr. Aikens, who was owned by Dr. Ray last season, and who is now owned in Montreal, is another leaper that will be hard to beat this year. Nathan Hale, who is owned by Scott Ives of Montreal, is a jumper of some class. He is being fitted to race at Blue Bonnets and will afterwards be sent to Saratoga. This is one of the clearest jumpers that has ever been owned in Canada.
Anyhow, it's better to be a fool having some fun than a wise man with the dyspepsia.

Notes of the Ring.
Batting Nelson has arranged for Joe Gans to stop upon a ranch owned by one of Nelson's friends in Arizona until the negro recovers.
Bob Fitzsimmons has announced that he will attend the Jeffries-Johnson fight. He didn't say he would challenge the winner, however.

BILLY PAPKE AROUSES IRE OF PACIFIC COAST FANS

Because of the Thomas Bout he Has Lost Several Profitable Matches With Others.

San Francisco, Cal., May 26.—Billy Papke has found his "faking" Thursday night with Joe Thomas most costly. He has been barred by the California fight promoters.

Matchmaker Moffitt of the Oakland Wheelmen's club had arranged a ten round bout between Papke and Montana Dan Sullivan, but he has called off that fight. Coffroth had everything arranged for a fight between Papke and Sam Langford next month, which would have been worth a large sum to the "Thunderbolt," and there also was a possible chance for another battle with Ketchel, who is popular here.

Although Papke in a statement declares he and his brother lost $500 by the fight going beyond fifteen rounds, Tom Corbett declares that Papke only had up $250.

WOLGAST COMES IN FOR SCORING

Father of Girl Injured by Fighter's Car Says Champion's Money is no Better Than Murderer's

Traverse City, Mich., May 26.—The serious injury of Kathleen Slater, 12 years old, by the automobile of Ad Wolgast, lightweight champion pugilist, was made the occasion of vigorous display of anti-fight sentiment by the girl's father, J. W. Slater, a prominent merchant.

"Wolgast's money is no better than a murderer's," declared Slater, when a damage suit was suggested. "I would not touch it."

The girl was riding horseback when the animal became frightened, and it is said, jumped directly in front of the automobile. The girl sustained a severely wrenched hip and bad bruises.

Wolgast carried her home in his car and today wanted to see her father to express his sorrow for the accident, but was advised by the girl's brother not to attempt to call on the Slater merchant.

KETCHEL SEES VICTORY AHEAD

Middleweight Champion Expects to Make Short Work of Willie Lewis Today.

New York, May 26.—The Ketchel-Lewis battle, scheduled to take place at the National Sporting Club of America on May 27, in the big house in local sportdom just now and little else is talked about.

Ketchel is training at Woodlawn Inn and appears to be in fine fettle. He can figure only victory in the approaching fight, although not underrating his opponent.

Lewis predicts that he will furnish a surprise by putting the big on Ketchel's aspirations early in the battle.

JOHN L. FINDS RING WONDER

Sullivan, While in Ireland, Picks Youth Whom He Thinks Will Be Maher's Successor

London, May 26.—A crowd of Americans called on the Mauretania today. Among them was John L. Sullivan, John and his wife had expected to spend the remainder of their lives in Ireland, but John L. changed his mind, finished his engagements in Scotland last week, and decided to head homeward. John L. scorned to come to London to see the funeral procession, although he once boxed before Edward Sullivan. He is still interested in the ring. While in Ireland he picked up a 19 pound youth 18 years of age whom he prophesies will be Maher's successor. Sullivan had the boy wander tried out twice in Ireland before he engaged him to go to America.

THE FIGHTING GAME HAS CAUGHT ON WELL IN FRANCE

The Game is Rapidly Increasing in Popularity There.

New York, May 26.—Dan McKettrick, the prize fight manager and his protégé, Willie Lewis, the welter weight, are in this city, having arrived a day or so ago with a pugilistic party from France. Besides McKettrick and Lewis, the following others arrived on this side: Jim Stewart, the heavyweight; Young Snowball, an English banjoist weight, and a corps of trainers. McKettrick is enthusiastic over the way the fighting game has caught on in France. In speaking of the reception of pugilism as a sport by the French people, he says:

"The French people are the gamblers in the world and they are always on the level. Prize fighting is increasing in popularity every day on the other side of the pond. Fashionable men and women attend fights just as they go to the opera."

"The only fight Lewis lost over there was to Billy Papke. In this connection you must take into consideration the fact that Lewis gave away sixteen pounds to the Illinois Thunderbolt. Lewis can whip Papke and we are to get another engagement. Willie also fought a twenty-five round draw with Harry Lewis of Philadelphia. Harry is better than Papke, so in getting a draw it shows that Willie is some boy with the gloves. Jim Stewart is going to be a factor among the heavy weights from now on."

"Jim has shown that he is fast and clever and there is no reason why he should not climb to the top of the heap. If possible, a match will be arranged between Stewart and Sam Langford."

McKettrick is wearing a piece of violet colored ribbon which is a decoration bestowed upon him by the French government for his activity in the fight game. At the same time, the decoration was bestowed upon William K. Vanderbilt, Jr., for his activity upon the French turf.

Never hesitate about giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to children. It contains no opium or other narcotics and can be given with implicit confidence. As a quick cure for coughs and colds to which children are susceptible, it is unsurpassed. Sold by all druggists.

The worst thing about a honeymoon is that the woman in the case keeps reminding her husband all the rest of his life how dire was the honeymoon.

WOLGAST TO FIGHT REDMOND

Lightweights Matched for Ten Rounds—No Decision Bout in Milwaukee on June 10.

Milwaukee, Wis., May 26.—Lightweight Champion Ad Wolgast and Jack Redmond will meet in a ten round no-decision boxing bout in Milwaukee, probably on June 10. The match was closed today by the Badger Athletic Club and will be pulled off at the Hippodrome. The boys will weigh in at 132 pounds at 4 o'clock in the afternoon of the date of the bout.

DRISCOLL AND WOLGAST

Jim Driscoll, the English lightweight has issued a challenge to fight Ad Wolgast, the lightweight champion. Driscoll announced that he is ready to post $3,000 to show good faith. Driscoll says he will fight at 123 pounds and is willing that the bout shall go either ten or forty-five rounds. He wants the date set about three weeks of the time for his meeting with Abe Attell. This puts Driscoll in the position of challenging the lightweight champion of the world while he is preparing for a fight with the featherweight champion of the world.

In a letter sent from England, P. McFarland, the Chicago boy who is to fight Freddy Welsh in London on May 30, says that he will have no trouble in making the weight for the scrap. Packy gives Welsh fifteen rounds in which to live.

Sam Langford and Al Kaufman have been matched for a twenty-five round fight on the Pacific coast on June 11.

Prizefighter as Reporter

The New York Times having engaged John L. Sullivan to report the projected Jeffries-Johnson fight, the New York Evening Post has the following to say about it:

Some of our readers have accused us of unfairness and discrimination because, while we have twice recently gone out of our way to praise the Tribune, we have not adequately congratulated the Times upon its great enterprise in securing John L. Sullivan to report that great struggle between the white and colored races which is to take place in San Francisco on Independence Day. As our readers are aware, the people of this country are today interested only in three events—the return of Mr. Roosevelt, the baseball championship, and the San Francisco prize fight. We had not overlooked Mr. Sullivan's engagement, but to tell the truth, we were a little bit puzzled as to whom we should congratulate, the editorial staff of the Times or Mr. Sullivan, on his joining those who make the Times so interesting and give it an ever-growing circulation. Mr. Sullivan's past career is familiar to most people. Once foremost in the sporting world, he was long an ornament of a bar, then a prominent figure in vaudeville houses, and now shows his versatility by turning to literature. Always his aim has been to better—or to better-humane. The Times could certainly have made only one more interesting selection to send it all the news that will be fit to print about the San Francisco fight—Theodore Roosevelt, patron saint of all sports strenuous. But, unfortunately for the Times, Mr. Roosevelt is already under contract elsewhere. It is doubtless in recognition of this fact that the promoters of the fight are going to present him with a solid gold ticket to their great educational exhibit.

To Be DYSPEPTIC Is To Be MISERABLE.

Dyspepsia is the prevailing malady of civilized life. It is largely due to gross errors in diet, over-eating, too free indulgence in stimulants and over-taxing the stomach with indigestible food, eating too rapidly without chewing the food sufficiently, indulging in hot biscuits, pastry, pickles, confectionery, etc.

Burdock Blood Bitters has an established reputation, extending over thirty-four years, as a positive cure for dyspepsia in all its forms, and from all diseases arising from it.

Mrs. H. M. B. Emerson, N.B. writes: "I have used Burdock Blood Bitters and find that new medicines can give such relief in dyspepsia and stomach troubles. I was troubled for a number of years with dyspepsia and could get no relief until I tried Burdock Blood Bitters. I took three bottles and became cured and I can now eat anything without it hurting me. I will highly recommend it to all who are troubled with stomach troubles."

Robert Mitchell, said by many to be the best college baseball pitcher in the south, will not become a professional baseball player, owing to the interference of cupid. He had accepted terms from Manager Chance of the Chicago Cubs and was to have reported on June 1. His sweetheart, however, put her foot down and Mitchell bowed to her will.

"NAP" LAJOIE IS HITTING.

Typus Cobb Has a Rival for This Year's Bating Honors.

New York, May 26.—Napoleon Lajoie is of the opinion that it is much easier to hit for a manager than to manage for a hitter, and his wonderful batting record so far this season is beginning to prove it. Big Larry is now a candidate for the hitting honors of the American League, and it appears he has settled into a race between he and Cobb.

Up to yesterday's game, Lajoie had a batting average for this season of .453, and if two of his long smashes had hit in Hemphill's hands it would have been still better.

The responsibilities of the management weighed heavily on Lajoie and during the season of 1907 and 1908 he hit below .400 for the first time during his career. Now that "Jim" McGuire is the manager and Larry is just a plain hitter, he proposes to set the league on fire.

To get an idea of the wonderful hitting ability of this man, who was formerly a cab driver in Woonsocket, Mass., his record for the last nine years in the American League is given. It must be borne in mind that he had an other long record of wonderful hitting in the National League before.

Record follows: 1901, .422; 1902, .359; 1903, .555; 1904, .381; 1905, .328; 1906, .375; 1907, .298; 1908, .289; 1909, .324.

Ancient Ones in the Ring

San Francisco, May 26.—Delaney broached a suggestion to Promoter Tex Rickard yesterday that finds favor with the fans. His proposal is to invite Jim Mace, the one time champion of England, and Bill Clark, another veteran pugilist now living in St. Louis, to box three one minute rounds as a curtain raiser to the big Fourth of July contest. Delaney says he is willing to act as referee for the old timers and he would revive an historical custom by having Mace and Clark act as casters in the ring and affix their colors to their respective posts, as pugilists were wont to do in the "palmy days." Rickard welcomed Delaney's plan and will try to carry it out. According to Rickard the work of construction of the big fight arena will begin next month.

The Harness Races

New York, May 26.—Trotting horsemen who are about to make entries to the five early closing stakes of the Empire City Grand Circuit meeting, where the stakes are all guaranteed and announced as such, have been making inquiries whether, according to the rules of the National Trotting Association, five per cent of the stakes from winners or any portion of same can be deducted.

To settle this dispute for the purpose of leaving no question of doubt in the minds of prospective entrants, the question has been referred to Secretary Groher and his reply is that any stake or installment plan purse is governed by the published conditions.

The advantage to owners of horses which start in the early closing events as well as the class races is that by calling them "guaranteed stakes" all surplus amounts received from them are entrance fees, over and above the

FAIRY TALE WITH BIG BUNCH OF HUMOR IN IT

A Theatrical Man Tells Some Remarkable Stories of His Travels in Edmonton and Calgary.

The New York Sun publishes the following: From Edmonton, far up in Alberta, to Cayene, in French Guiana, 23,000 miles of tramping, is the record of the W. S. Hawkins Opera Company, which disbanded here yesterday after landing from the Royal Dutch West Indian Mail steamship Surinam, from Paramaribo. They had been out since June 1, last year, singing everything from "Faust" and "Fra Diavolo" to "The Runaways" and "The Show Girl."

They played before folks in evening clothes and before folks with practically no clothes at all. They had audiences of Sioux and Crow Indians in the Northwest and Bush Indians in Surinam. Cowboys whooped for them and fur traders waited at the stage door with presents of ermine and mink skins for the ladies of the chorus. A tornado once unroofed the show and the prima donna had to reach for high C in a swishing wind and a driving rain. They were snowbound, seasick and fever scared. They come home with not only a box of entertaining experiences but pocketfuls of money. The tour netted a profit of between $25,000 and $27,000.

The company was organized last spring for a tour of nineteen British provinces by M. S. Robinson, who put up the cash. Mr. Robinson figured it was a good gamble on a stunt worth trying to see if an opera company could sing dollars out of the pockets of people all the way from Vancouver to Caracas. He guessed right, as it turned out, and the troupe was so tickled with their success that they are thinking of trying it again next year.

It was Frank Nelson who told that story of the tour. He is a Scotchman, very brisk and alert, as he had to be to keep his company up to the notch under all sorts of queer conditions.

In the Windy City "You bet we're glad to get home," said Nelson, "but it was some trip, son, some trip. I'll bet we've got the record, all right. We played to our first audience in Vancouver on June 1, and then worked slowly east, taking in Laggan—a great tourist point—they go there to see the glaciers and make short trail trips through the Yoho valley—Calgary, Edmonton, Medicine Hat, Moose Jaw, Regina, in Saskatchewan and a whole lot more towns that would make folks here sit up to see. They are so progressive and hustling."

"It was in Calgary that we had one of the scarier experiences in the whole trip. We were singing 'Fra Diavolo' in the Academy of Music when a tornado from the States hit here and snatched the roof, or a big part of it, right off the opera house. The crowd showed nerve. Of course a few women screamed and others were one or two foot men as usual, but the majority of the audience stuck right in their seats. There was no place to go. It was blowing guns outside and raining hard, so the opera house was as comfortable and safe as any other location.

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR HORACE WHITE, of New York, who will succeed Governor Hughes.

"Well, Miss Storm was singing when the twister hit us. She stopped only a moment or two to give the orchestra a chance to brace up, then went right on. It was funny. The roof over the stage was intact, as it happened, and we were nice and dry, but the audience was as wet as a hen in a shower. I don't believe a company ever got more applause than we did that evening. Some Indian Yarns "An agent of the Canadian govern-

Do You Realize What an Important Work the Kidneys Do?

Do you know that every drop of your blood goes to the kidneys hundreds of times every day? Do you know why? To be filtered and purified from its impurities. That is the great work the kidneys have to do. They filter the blood and are passed out of the body along with the urine. Do you think it possible for you to be well, unless the kidneys do this work thoroughly? It is these impurities—this unfiltered blood—that causes backaches, headaches, rheumatism, diabetes, Bright's disease, etc. They poison and interfere with the whole system. If you have any kidney trouble let Doan's Kidney Pills do for you what they have done for thousands of others. They cure all forms of kidney trouble, and they cure them to stay cured. Mr. Maurice Doree, Chateaufort, P.E.I., writes: "I was troubled with my kidneys for five years. They were so bad at times that I could not cross the floor for the pain. I went to a doctor, but he did me no good at all. I sent to the drugist and got five boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, and I am glad to say that after taking them I was cured. I have had no trouble for nearly three years now." Price 50 cents per box or 3 for $1.25 at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont. In ordering specify "Doan's."

Edmonton a Fast Town

"I guess we played further north than any opera company ever has, so far as I know, at any rate." We were in Edmonton, the capital of Alberta, the northern terminus of the Canadian Pacific branch, for four weeks, and there wasn't a night or a matinee that we didn't have a bumper house. Most of the people there are Scotch. They are pretty nice at entertaining, too, and there never was a crowd of girls who had a better time. Some of them went for short dogged trips—properly chaperoned, of course—to the north. A fur trader offered his hand and heart and about $100,000 worth of property to the prima donna, but she couldn't see it that way. I think she got a mink coat anyway. While we were at Edmonton all of us made a trip to old Fort Saskatchewan, twenty miles to the north of the capital, and part of our escort were Cree, who sold very cheaply, some wonderful specimens of porcupine work on tanned buckskin. Good porcupine work—designs worked in colored quills—is harder to get nowadays than good beadwork and both are getting scarce. "We gave some interesting performances at Medicine Hat, singing Gilbert and Sullivan operas to audiences that were made up in part of Blackfeet. Moose Jaw was kind enough to turn out good crowds for us, and at Regina, the capital of Saskatchewan, a flourishing prairie city in the heart of the great wheat growing country, we had big crowds. A detachment of the Canadian Northwest Mounted Police at Regina gave us a special dinner. They said they were so glad we had turned up to break the monotony of things that a dinner was pretty small return for the pleasure we had given. From the yarns they told in a somewhat sort of way I shouldn't say they were troubled much with monotony. You don't have to know very much in this world if other people know less. There's something about a reformer that makes nearly everything else want to be a criminal."

VOLIVA TO BUY ZION CITY

Dowd's Successor Plans to Rehabilitate Its Former Greatness

Chicago, May 26.—William Glenn Voliva, successor to John Alexander Dowd, has placed himself in a position to gain the former high station of the late Zion leader by getting an option on the entire Zion estate from Receiver Thomas. Following a futile attempt of fifty members of the anti-Voliva faction to obtain a court order from Judge Landis to stop the transaction in the afternoon, those who are investors in the Zion estate held a meeting in the evening and a remonstrance to Judge Landis of the United States District Court was prepared. "I now have entire control of the Zion estate by virtue of an option which has been accepted by Receiver Thomas," Voliva said. According to an estimate made last December the estate is worth about $1,400,000. The property in the hands of the receiver includes three thousand acres of farm land, eight hundred acres of lake front land, 2,400 city lots in Zion City, contracts, notes and accounts valued at $120,000, twenty dwellings and twenty business houses in Zion City.

The splendid work of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets is daily coming to light. No such grand remedy for liver and bowel troubles was ever known before. Thousands bless them for curing constipation, sick headache, biliousness, jaundice and indigestion. Sold by all druggists.

TENNESSEE WANTS GOOD ROADS

Illiterate Walks Hand in Hand With Poor Highways, Say Experts

(From the Memphis News-Scimitar). Through organization, legislation and constant activity, citizens of Tennessee, representing all walks of life, and living in both city and country, propose to add many improvements to the public roads system of this state. The movement in the direction of better roads, or rather what is now popularly known as the "good roads movement" is not original with this state by any means, but it is said by those who have studied it to be one of the most important requisites of prosperous commercial intercourse.

At Brownsville Friday delegates from all parts of the state gathered to decide on some effective plan to realize for Tennessee what has already been realized in states in the north, east and the west. According to figures in possession of the government, illiterate walks hand in hand with poor roadways. Logan Waller Page, director of this department, shows that in five northern states having 34.92 per cent of the roads improved 77 per cent of the scholastic population in the country districts attend school. Mr. Page has also found out that in five southern states, which have only 1.3 per cent of the roads improved, but fifty-nine out of one hundred children attend school. To those who are acquainted with conditions in the country the reason for this is easily explained. Good roads enthusiasts in this state declare that Tennessee is cheating her own children out of advantages similar to those enjoyed by the children of the states in the north.

EXPANSION OF GERMAN EMPIRE

The Kaiser's Country Grows Faster Than Any Other in Europe

The expansion of Germany's recent years has been marked by a tremendous development in industry, and so in wealth and power. Her population has increased by one-half since 1870, and among the leading nations of Europe her birth rate is relatively the highest. Yet today her narrower boundaries limit her expansion to an intensified industrial life, and thus only in a moderate way can she share in the progressive development of the world. Her necessities for further growth are imperative, says a writer in Review of Reviews.

up that were famous for poetry, music, philosophy; but this was for other than the creative civilization of wealth. It was during years yet recent that Disraeli, in his "Endymion," pityingly pictured the German diplomat who went from the world's metropolis and its society of illustrious dames and world-mastering statesmen back to his exile of home. His people's only wealth was their wooded plains and hills. They needed a fatherland got "by blood and iron," were his prophetic words. Today, like Midas the King, Germany touches unseemly raw stuffs, and under her hand they become coinable gold—Germany, the new industrial state, rising in greatness, and soon, perhaps, to equal the colossal power of England.

Ottawa, May 26.—Earl Grey expects to go to Winnipeg in July and from there over the proposed Hudson Bay railway to Fort Churchill. To Fort Churchill he will be escorted by a detachment of Northwest Mounted Police.

"NO, LOVE CAN NEVER DIE."

"It's Nature," Says Mrs. Bates, Answering Gertrude Atherton.

New York, May 24.—The subject "will love ever go out of fashion" continues to agitate the club women's atmosphere here. Gertrude Atherton declared it will. Ethel Watts Mumford Grant said "No." Now Mrs. Margaret Holmes Bates, author and woman's suffrage advocate, adds "Never" and a few other words. Among these are the following:

"Love is nature, we can never abolish it. A woman author has described the ideal husband and wife as spiritual comrades, mental companions, physical mates. To my mind that is an admirable definition and conveys an idea of the sort of love that never dies for the individual and can never die for the race.

"Love and marriage are governed by the law of the survival of the fittest. Whatever studies have said of the nominal head of the family, the actual head has always been determined by this law. And it's just as often a woman as a man.

"The feeble man's intellect, the more tyrannical he is—the more he tries to bully his wife and the firmer is his conviction of superiority. Time will eradicate the inequalities of love. Women won't have to purchase it at unreasonably rates, as they do today, but to say that love will become unfashionable is to say the human race will stand still.

"Wifehood is as much a profession as law or medicine, and requires just as special talents. Not every woman is fitted for it any more than she is endowed with the power to be a splendid courtier or a great physician. Good wives are born, not manufactured. So are good mothers, and it's a strange thing that the women who would make the best mothers seldom have any children.

"Love will no more go out of fashion than the sun will, or the stars. It will last till the sun grows cold and the stars are old, and the leaves of the judgment book unfold. The question really cannot be taken seriously. So long as women and men exist, love will rule them."

Pointed Paragraphs.

(Chicago News.) A burning question—was it insured? There is nothing quite so empty as an empty compliment.

It's awful hard to forget a friend who owes you money.

It's usually advisable to give a narrow-minded man a wide berth.

With the breaking of day and the falling of night, this old world has its troubles.

A woman is so naturally contrary she can love a man just because nobody else will.

A GOOD LAND BUY

One half section three miles northeast of Airdrie, all enclosed with fence, 125 acres in crop, which is rented for 1-2. There can be cut 150 tons of hay, which would give a nice revenue. Soil is best, being black loam with clay subsoil. Price $25 per acre, with terms $2500 cash, and balance in five annual payments.

Party would consider trade for good residential property in Calgary as part payment, or he would consider a good automobile in deal.

We still have a few Camrose "Dick Division" lots left at $150 for inside and $175 for corners.

An eight room furnished house on 6th Avenue west, near Normal school for rent or sale.

An office for rent at 513 1st Street east. Fine large bright stores for rent with full sized basements.

"Go to the Calgary-Lethbridge Realty Company and see them about those properties that they are handling in Lethbridge. From an investment standpoint those lots are without doubt the safest buy on the market today. My own impression is that lots in these additions which are now selling at from $135 to $200 per lot will in one year from now be selling at double this amount for the one reason that they are assured of Municipal Owned Street Railway facilities, to be put under construction in one year's time."
