SIXTEENTH YEAR

TALK OF COMPROMISE

On the Troublesome Manitoba School Question.

MR. GREENWAY DECLINES TO SPEAK

But His Intimate Friends Acknowledge a Deal is on.

The Provincial Premier said to be prepared to accept a modified remedial measure which will provide for the institution of Catholic schools.

Winnipeg, Nov. 26.—During the past few days there have been rumors in the air of a possible compromise on the Manitoba school question.

Mr. Greenway has been interviewed by Greenway on the subject of the school question.

He says a word, intimate friends of his acknowledge, however, that a deal is on.

They say that the determined attitude of the Dominion Government in carrying out its constitutional obligations imposed on them has had due weight with Mr. Greenway.

That he will be prepared to accept a modified remedial measure passed by Parliament.

It is likely, therefore, that the bill which Parliament will be asked to adopt will provide for the institution of Catholic schools in this province.

With the right of Catholic schools, of course, to instruct the pupils in the tenets of their faith, and to select their own text book in history.

The bill will also provide for certified teachers and government inspection.

The most important point in connection with the measure and one which is comparatively new.

It provides that the provincial grant to the Catholic schools shall be paid according to the results of the annual examinations.

This is the system which has been in existence for many years and is accepted by all denominations.

It is known as "Payment by Results," and the adoption of the principle in Ontario cannot be regarded as objectionable.

Mr. Greenway's desire in passing the school legislation of 1890 was principally to secure the efficiency of the teaching in the Catholic schools.

That it is proposed to make the payment of the provincial grant contingent upon the results of the examinations held by the provincial inspectors.

Mr. Greenway's objections will be largely met and your correspondent is credited with the information that he will be prepared to accept such a measure.

It is stated that from conversations with Mr. Greenway it is believed that a deal is on.

There is strong hope, however, that Mr. Greenway's government will remove the necessity of Federal action.

WHAT DOES ALL THIS MEAN?

Remarkable Activity at the Black Sea Military Ports.

Odessa, Nov. 26.—Great activity is being displayed at the Black Sea military ports.

Warships are taking on board coal, provisions and munitions.

A number of naval officers from St. Petersburg have arrived.

This may be the explanation of the London news that the Daily News will tomorrow publish a despatch from Odessa saying that Gen. Scherewitz, commander-in-chief of the Caucasus, has been hastily summoned to St. Petersburg.

In connection with the military affairs in Anatolia, and the threatening attitude of the Kurds on the Russian frontier.

The ladies who reside above Phelan's jewelry store, 143 King-st. east, had a disagreement at a late hour last night.

As a result Mamie Miller has several stitches in her face and head.

She was indicted for assault on Phelan and gashed her head over the eye teeth.

Policeman Armstrong heard her racket and went upstairs.

AN ACCIDENTAL DEATH.

Result of Coroner Atkins' Enquiry Into the Cause of Tom Kavanagh's Death.

That Thomas Kavanagh came to his death on Nov. 25 as the result of taking a powder which, unknown to him, contained a poison, but as to where he procured this powder there is no evidence to show.

Such was the verdict returned last evening by the jury who listened to the inquest conducted by Coroner W. H. E. Atkins at St. Michael's Hospital upon the body of Thomas Kavanagh who died suddenly in a police ambulance Monday evening.

The chief witness examined outside of the doctors who performed the post mortem was James Frawley, grocer, 187 Sackville-st., who testified that the deceased had been in his employ for two years from 1897.

Deceased had been in the last two months, having lost his situation at the Metropole through the assignee having failed to pay his wages.

ALICE WILL HAVE TO PAY.

A rather singular case disposed of at Osgoode Hall—Not libelous to Term Some Women "Devil". In Miller v. Wilson, the plaintiff obtained a judgment against C. A. Wilson under the mistaken idea that she was Alice Wilson. They then obtained an order from the Master in Chambers, which was affirmed by Falconbridge, J., allowing them to amend, setting aside the judgment against C. A. Wilson, and making Alice Wilson, trading under the firm name, The North Ender Publishing Co. the defendant. G. G. Mills, for the defendant Alice Wilson, now appeared from the order on the ground that no fraud being shown it should not be set aside. The Q.B.C. Judge (Armour, C.J., and Street, J.) dismissed the appeal with costs for George Kilmer for defendant.

Termed the Lady "Devil". In Cannon v. Orr, the plaintiff asked the C.P.D. Court (Meridith, C.J., and Rose, J.) for a new trial, Armour, C.J., having, at the trial at Belleville, directed a non-suit. Mrs. and Mr. Cannon were employed by the defendant, and after leaving the plaintiff alleged that he wrote to her husband and accusing her of theft and exhorting the husband to make restitution and calling the plaintiff a "devil" as well as threatening to prosecute her. The court held that the letter was privileged; that there was no evidence of express malice and that defendant himself honestly believed the facts had been committed. They dismissed the motion with costs. E. G. Porter (Belleville) for plaintiff, Clute, G.C., for defendant.

Where Sureties are Not Liable. School Trustees v. Waterford v. Clark, assignee of Becker. Mr. Justice Street has decided in favor of the defendant in this case. One Slight, on Jan. 15, 1930, was appointed secretary-treasurer of the plaintiffs for the ensuing year. Slight procured the execution of a bond by Becker and another as his sureties, the condition being the faithful performance of his duties and accounting for monies coming to his hands, but without limitation as to the time the sureties were to be liable and without reference to the fact that Slight was appointed for a year only. No other bond was ever given, but Slight continued to act each year thereafter and for one year at a time up to 1934, in which year he made default for which amount the plaintiffs ask payment. The learned judge holds that the sureties are not liable for the amount of the bond.

The case of Moncrieff v. Preston has been filed for trial at Kingston on Monday, 16th Dec, next.
