The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

Metropolitan Toronto Library Canadian History Department

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol \longrightarrow (meaning "CON-TINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper laft hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Metropolitan Toronto Library Canadian History Department

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les examplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivents apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole \longrightarrow signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de naut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

PUBLIC MEETING.

A T A MEETING of all the Inhabitants of Saint Davids, (women excepted) and Transported in wagons to Niagara on Saturday the 31st of March, 1832, convened by the following Requisition at the "Exchange Coffee House," and Adjourned to the Court Room :--

NOTICE.

AT the request of the Friends of William Lyon Mac-Kenzie, in the District of Niagara, Notice is hereby gives, ihat a Meeting will take place on Saturday, the 31st of March, instant, at the Exchange, in the Town of Niagara, at 12 o'clock, noon, to take into consideration the present state of the Province, and to adopt an Address to His Majesty King William the Fourth, expressive of public opinion on matters connected with the prosperity and welfare of this Colony. Niagara, 24th of March, 1832.

"Bill Boiler," Ex. M. P. insisted upon acting as chairman, and Ned Temperance, another Ex. M. P. assumed the appointment of Secretary : The chairman, fundamentally qualified for filling any chair, with that inoffensive ambition peculiar to him, scrambled into the Judiciary Seat in the Court Ream, where the Secretary perchehimself at his elbow-After smoothing his plumes (somewhat ruffled by grasping at the chair) and assuming a mimic dignity and grace, the chairman looked down upon his friends, (M Kenzie's dupes) and addressed them in the following high pressure tone and flour-y strain:----

My Discontented Friends & Reformers :

THIS MEETING, sconding to the Notice, was called by the Friends of Wm. Lyon M'Kanzia at the Exchange (to be called Reform Coffee House hereafter): much against fur inclination we have come here;--we owe the place a grudge ever since fast Town

· Mar Morner -

Meeting-day. I need not advert to the fact that all St. Davids has turned out, and that one or two of us must suffer for the expense incurred in their transportation here ; that we passed through Queenston without opposition. We arrived in safety at the "Exchange" about 11 o'clock, A. M. Not finding M'Kenzie there, and suspicious of being duped, we adjourned to this place; to shew fight at the meeting called by the Sheriff. We are here assembled with our opponents to contend against M'Kenzie's foes within their own walls --- on their own ground;-we will make them affeard of the dagger ! the bludgeon ! or the firebrand ! But, now they see Diana is in danger ! see them ! see, how they shrink ! see, terror strikes them ! Diana is in danger !- Let the Officials come on : Reform ! Reform, we will have in some shape and some where : M'Kenzie for Sir John Colborne ; Lawyer " Bon't you See" for Chief Justice ; or this Court House at Davids !! Gather together your Grievances ! rake up and bundle your revenge ! call it loyalty ! call it what you will ! frighten the women and the ignorant ! gull the simple ! astonish the credulous ! threaten the dubious ! assume sanctity !! It will help much. Up! and be doing !! Now, heap up and throw in your Resolutions with the Bolitical Pitchfork. I feel what I say : Attitough my Speech is unconcocted, my arguments are pithy, yet not flour-y. I know you can sift the shorts from the bran and the middlings from the chaff : Turn over and examine my ideas in your own vacant coolers .----- If in my Address I should bolt, pardon me ; and attribute the digression to the disorderly gearing of my reform-ed brain.——To conclude, Saint Davidites—If we don't, in the progress of this Day's Proceedings, grind the opponents of Wm. Lyon . M'Kenzie in the Political Steam Mill of Democracy, may I suffer myself to be run over, put through the horrors of a smut machine, or have my clapper silenced. Then fire up, my boys ! excite and kindle ! raise steam to asummit level ! (but watch your safety values ; I once burst). A Political Explosion in this District, which you know M'Kenzie thinks the Apple of his Eye, would make an awful exposure.----Here the Chairman called for water and a white pocket handkerchief, and the assembled friends stood with hair and cars crect; eyes starting from their sockets; and their fingers straightened !!

The few moments that effect to enable the Chairman to fire by again and voice secan, admitted of taking a peop at the characters convened as M'Kenzie's friends; and in that short interval I discovered the following distinguished Persons, forming a group worthy the Pencil of Hogarth :

1st. Comes Adam Apple Tree: The may who swore in open court, that he put "Lawyer Den't you See" into Farliament; the same man who hears the whole heft of the ensuity of Queenston; and who, it an election for Peand-keeper, made such a duration that actilly, on the points of bonour, nothing like it was heard since the days of Cicero.

2d. Jacob Thorold, with his puritanical pate, stood stupified, as it were, dreaming of the Great Meeting, "The Voice of Lincoln," held at his own door. envying Bill Boilgr the exalted seat he held; opened his mouth, and in the act of ejaculating a revival grean, or some love feast exclamation, he drew down the stovepipe on his sconce.

3d. John Louth, M. P. and would-be Magistrate in his own imagination; big with parliamentary importance, but doep in the wane of political popularity; felt sorry for his little political God, M'Konzie, and winced for him when the lash was applied. This Gentleman, first a thorough Gourlayite; afterwards, ashamed, turned Executive tool, then to procure a job in the Welland Canal, turned again; then to effect his election, wheeled again into lize, and now stands in a preeminently ridiculous situation.

4th. Bill Fall Bottler, in his drab Benjamin, and Pearl Buttens, cocked his cat's eve at the Chairman, and knowingly squeaked out, "What you doin there all the time f."

5th. Lawyer don't you see, M. P. P. stood pre-eminent in the group, seemed agitated within, but dared not speak—holding his ivory-headed cane in both hands; he ever and anon rose, put his foot on the seat, (the table was too high) and his arm on his knee, peeping at Bill Boiler over the ridge of his spectacles.

6th. Dick Boiler, brother to the Chairman, felt more than he said; and it is supposed, that, having business with Jack Bobatay, at the Court House, when the meeting commenced, remained to see the Pantomic performed.

7th. Henry A. B. C. only asked for information on some question about the clergy reserves, and did[®]it in that meek and supplicating tone of voice, that the Chairman, it is thought, would have answered the young man, if he had known how; but the Question was a poser.

Sth. Chester Tick Tick was discerned in the crowd, by his azure luminaries, yearning to be heard, but could not find words to express himself: he seemed thowa uff his balance; but with his foot for a Pendulum, correctly kept time with the vibrations of the chairman's cadences and flights of fancy !

9th. Tim Crystal, once Chester Tick Tick's main-spring, honest lad, inserted himself Aerizontally in the centre of the St. Davidites, and formed one of the wheels for setting the works of the day in operation.

10th. Henry Brick-bat, brother of Apple Tree, was there too, mud to the eyes, and with his Oz ged kept himself ready to haw or gee, as circumstances of the case required.

11th. Bill Barrel Bulk, picked up at Queenston, as the procession came through, that he might pay part of the expense, looked as if he wished himself working at the assessment roll, or any where else, but in the space he occupied in the Court room.

12th. The last of the Group, and not least among them, in his own imagination, was David Rail Road, Ez-P. M. not M. P .- he rose up, looked round-said, "Mr. Chairman"; sat down, then rose up again, speechless, and almost motionless, evinced every inclination to cry ! but refrained, on being told that Suffering David was kept hard by to act that part :-- Other prominent Characters might be mentioned, whose attitudes, actions, and expressions, might do justice to Hogarth ; but the limits of a Picture like the present, will not admit of increasing the group-suffice it to say; the meeting dispersed, to meet outside, by order of the Chairman ; on arriving at the foot of the Staircase, the Chairman was seen erect in a wagon; and it is said that Ned Temperance was seen beneath with pen, ink and paper in one hand, and in the other the resolutions, acting as under Secretary. Here Bill Beiler, in the exuberance of his loyalty, raised his hat to hurra for William the Fourth and the Reform Ministry, when the wind and the inclination of the horses made him incline forward, and in the act of falling from the stage, was heard to utter the word " reform," in articulate accents, but was not seen after.
