Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole \rightarrow signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. NOTE.

THE following Rules and Regulations of Police have been made and are now in force in virtue of an Act of the Provincial Parliament, passed on the fifth day of April, 1802, intituled, " An Act to provide for the more effectual regulation of the Police within the cities of Quebec and Montreal and town of Three Rivers; also for extending regulations of Police to the towns and villages in certain cases, and for repealing certain Acts or Ordinances therein mentioned;" and in virtue of divers other Acts of said Provincial Parliament, from time to time continuing the said Act; and finally, in virtue of an Act of the Provincial Parliament passed on the 21st day of March last past, renewing and continuing the said before recited Act, and intituled, " An Act to continue in force the several Laws empowering the Justices of the Peace to make Rules and Regulations of Police within the Cities of Quebec and Montreal, and Town of Three Rivers; and also Rules and Regulations for the government of Apprentices and others; and for extending Regulations of Police to other Towns and Villages, in certain cases; and which amends one of the said Acts."

These rules have been made few and simple in the expectation that they will be more readily acquiesced in, and admit of more certain and uniform execution, As every individual has an immediate interest in the well being, order, and cleanliness of the city and suburbs of Quebec, the citizens are called upon, not only to assist in keeping these rules in steady and active operation by giving information of every breach of them, but to suggest such improvements or additions as experience may point out, or new circumstances require.

B

H. B. L.

With a view to make generally known the mode of procuring redress for breaches of the following regulations as well as to compel a compliance with them, and in what limitation; the VII and X sections of the before recited Act continued as aforesaid are subjoined, to wit :

“ VII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that penalties incurred for offences against any of the rules, orders and regulations of Police, touching the cities of Quebec and Montreal and town of Three Rivers, which shall be established by authority of this Act, shall be prosecuted for and recovered, together with the reasonable costs of such prosecution, before any two of His Majesty’ Justices of the Peace of the District, wherein the offence shall have been committed, in the Weekly Sittings of such Justices, as directed by law to be held at the said Cities of Quebec and Montreal and town of Three Rivers, or in Special Sittings thereof, which may be called for the purpose, where the matter may require a more prompt decision, before any two Justices of the Peace of the District, and all and every the aforesaid Justices are hereby authorised and empowered to hear and determine all causes and complaint, touching and respecting the regulations of Police to be made as aforesaid, in a summary manner, on proof of the offence, either by voluntary confession of the party or parties accused, or by the oath of one or more credible Witness or Witnesses, other than the informer, which oaths shall and every of the said Justices are hereby empowered to administer, and one moiety of every such penalty shall belong to the informer, and the other moiety to be paid to the Road Treasurer, to be applied to the purposes of this Act, and in all cases of non-payment of any Judgment to be awarded, by any of the Justices as aforesaid, the same shall be levied by distress and sale of the offender’s goods and chattels, by Warrant under the hands and seals of the Justices before whom the offence shall have been prosecuted, directed to a Constable or Peace officer; and the overplus of the money raised, after deducting the Penalty and Costs, shall be returned to such offender.”

“ X. And be it further enacted, that no person shall be liable to any prosecution or Judgment, for the breach of any Order of Police, to be made in virtue of this Act, after one month from the aforesaid breach, nor shall any Appeal

“ be granted, after one month from the date of the Judgment made.”

Appeals are to the Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace.

The first step to be taken in prosecutions under this Act as well as the other Acts hereafter referred to, is to lodge an information containing a statement of the complaint under oath, at the Police Office, and which is taken down in writing by the Clerk of the Peace, whereon a summons, or a warrant, as the case may require, is issued.

1—When a summons is the proper process, a Constable serves it on the defendant, allowing 48 hours to intervene from the time the service is made, until the time the defendant is called upon to answer the complaint.

2—When a warrant, is the proper process, a Constable is engaged to execute it with the utmost dispatch, and the parties both prosecutor and defendant put upon their respective proofs immediately, unless in particular cases when a delay may be allowed and the defendant enlarged on sufficient bail.

There are weekly sittings of Justices of the Peace, as required by law, every Saturday at ten o'clock in the morning, in the Court room of the general quarter sessions; and special sittings are held by the Justices of the Peace at all convenient times when expediency or the necessity of cases may require them.

The Police Office is open on all days from eight o'clock in the morning until four o'clock in the afternoon, Sundays and the following holidays excepted.

ORDINANCE CONCERNING PARTRIDGES.

Of the 28th January, 1721.

Having been informed that, between the fifteenth of March and the nineteenth of July, a great number of partridges are destroyed at the time they pair, being then easy to be killed, on account of the noise they then make with their wings indicating the places where they are; to put a stop to the continuation of this abuse, which would infallibly lead to the total destruction of these birds, and thereby deprive the public of a great conveniency of life, We prohibit all manner of persons, of whatsoever condition they may be, from killing partridges from the fifteenth March to the fifteenth of July, under pain of Fifty Livres fine, for the use of the informer; and to take away every pretext for killing them, we forbid all persons, under the same penalty, from selling and buying them within the above period, or from bringing them to the town or other places of the Colony, and offering them for sale:—Commanding all Officers of the Jurisdictions of the Towns of Quebec, Three Rivers and Montreal, and the Captains of Militia in the Country parts of the Colony, to attend to the execution of the present Ordinance, every one as he legally ought; and that it be published and posted up wherever it may be necessary, to the end that no person may be unacquainted therewith.

(Signed) BEGON.

THE following Regulations were originally framed under the Provincial Statute 42 Geo. III. intituled, "An Act to empower the Justices of the Peace to make for a limited time Rules and Regulations for the Government of Apprentices and others:" and are now in force, in virtue of divers Acts made to continue the Act aforesaid.

As these Rules have been acted upon for several years, with success; and since from their very general provisions, they may be applied with more exactness to the peculiar circumstances of every case than if they were more detailed, no alterations have been made.—They furnish a remedy for every possible complaint that can be brought against Servants, Apprentices and Journeymen.

It is Ordered,

1.—That if any indented or articed Apprentice, Servant or Journeyman, who may be bound by act of indenture, or other written contract, for a longer time than one month, or by verbal agreement for one month, or any shorter period; shall be guilty of any miscarriage or ill behaviour, refractory conduct, idleness, absence without leave or desertion, dissipating the Master, Mistress or Employer's effects, and of any unlawful act or acts that may affect the interest or disturb the domestic arrangements of such Master, Mistress or Employer: such Apprentice, Servant or Journeyman may, upon complaint and due proof thereof made by such Master, Mistress or Employer before the Justices of the Peace in their Weekly or Special Sitings, be by such Justices sentenced to be committed to the House of Correction, and there to remain at hard labour for any time according to the circumstances of each and every offence, not exceeding two months: or may, by such Justices, be sentenced to pay for each and every offence, a fine not exceeding Ten Pounds current money of this Province.

2—That if any such Apprentice, Servant or Journeyman, bound and engaged as aforesaid, has any just cause of complaint against his or her Master or Employer, for any misuse, defect of sufficient and wholesome provisions, or for cruelty or other ill-treatment, such Master or Mistress or Employer shall be summoned before such Justices, and if the complaint shall appear to be well founded, the said Justices may inflict a penalty not exceeding Ten Pounds current money of this Province upon such Master or Mistress or Employer.

3—That on complaint, made by any Master, Mistress or Employer, against his, her or their Apprentice, Servant or Journeyman; or by any Apprentice, Servant or Journeyman against his, her or their Master, Mistress or Employer, of continued misuse and repeated violations of the ordinary and established duties of each to the other; the said Justices in their said Weekly or Special Sessions, may on due proof of such complaint, annul the agreements or contracts, whether verbal or written, by which such Master, Mistress or Employer, and such Apprentice, Servant or Journeyman may be bound each to the other.

4—That in cases where any such Apprentice, Servant or Journeyman, so bound as aforesaid, shall absent himself, or herself without leave, or shall altogether desert the service of such Master, Mistress or Employer; such Apprentice, Servant or Journeyman shall be proceeded against by warrant under the hand and seal of any one Justice of the Peace.

5—That whatever time may have been lost by such absence or desertion of such Apprentice, Servant or Journeyman, shall, on due proof, be adjudged to be made good to such Master, Mistress or Employer.

6—That any person who shall knowingly harbour or conceal any such Apprentice, Servant or Journeyman, engaged as aforesaid, who may have deserted from his or her Master or Mistress or Employer, shall forfeit and pay a fine not exceeding Ten Pounds currency.

7—That no such Master or Mistress shall take and carry out of the District of Quebec, any such Apprentice or Servant so engaged as aforesaid, without the consent of such Apprentice or Servant, or his or her Parents or Guardian if a minor, except such as may be bound to the sea service.

8—That if any person or persons shall knowingly entice, by any means whatever, any such Apprentice, Servant, or Journeyman so engaged as aforesaid, to depart from the service of his or her Master or Mistress or Employer, and that in consequence such Apprentice, Servant or Journeyman shall depart from such service, any person or persons so offending, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Ten Pounds current money of this Province, or be committed to the House of Correction for any time not exceeding two months.
