The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol \rightarrow (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Séminaire de Québec
Bibliothèque

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole \rightarrow signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, c'est-à-dire gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

THE object of this Society is to enable individuals to invest their savings in the purchase or erection of Buildings.

A Tenant, in about ten years, pays his Landlord in rent, a sum equivalent to the value of the House he occupies, and yet, at the expiration of that period he has no interest in the property—but by becoming a member of this Society, he will be enabled to purchase or build a house, by means of a loan granted to him for that purpose, repayable by monthly instalments, little if any more, than the rent which he otherwise would be paying; with this advantage that he becomes the proprietor in ten or twelve years, and frequently in much less time.

The working of the Society is as follows:— Each member pays a monthly subscription of ten shillings for each share of £100 subscribed for; thus a holder of one share can borrow or purchase £100—five shares, £500, and so on in proportion to the number of shares he holds. The money which the Society will have to loan, will be offered to competition monthly, when each member will have an opportunity of purchasing to the extent of his shares.

The borrower or purchaser, before receiving the amount, must deposit with the Secretary, the particulars of his securities, which will then be visited by the Inspector, and the titles investigated, and should both prove satisfactory, the money is advanced, charged at the rate of six per cent per annum. Should the borrower desire to erect a Dwelling House, the money is advanced as the building progresses.

The utmost safety and protection from risk, are offered to the Capitalists, (as none but Landed or Building Security will be received; Personal security, however unexceptionable, will not in any case be taken), but the great and ~~primary~~^{primary} object of this Society, is to provide for individuals of moderate incomes, facilities, whereby, they may have it in their power to invest a portion of their earnings in a safe, advantageous and beneficial manner, and to hold out to those classes, an inducement to the exercise of industrious and economical habits, in the prospect of providing for themselves and families, comfortable dwellings from their savings.

Owing to the late period of the Session, at which this Society obtained its Act of Incorporation, the Books of the Society will not be opened for the transaction of business, before the 1st of October next. But parties wishing to avail themselves of its advantages, have an opportunity of obtaining Copies of the Act of Incorporation and By-Laws by applying to WM. N. CRAWFORD, Esq., Notary Public, St. Gabriel Street, who will also receive the names of intending Subscribers.

NOTICE.

For the convenience of Subscribers to the Building Society and others, the undersigned has OPENED a REFERENCE or MEMORANDUM BOOK of particulars of Vacant or other Lots for Sale in the City or its neighbourhood. The advantages of this method to both Buyers and Sellers are evident, and the latter are respectfully invited to furnish descriptions, prices, &c. of their Freeholds to

AN ACT

For the Incorporation of certain individuals under the name and style of "The Montreal Building Society."

WHEREAS it is desirable to afford encouragement and protection to the establishment of certain Societies commonly called "Building Societies," for the purpose of raising by small periodical subscriptions, a fund to assist the Members thereof, among the industrious and other classes, in obtaining a small Freehold or Leasehold property; and the persons hereinafter mentioned, have prayed to be incorporated as a Society for such purposes, in the City of Montreal—

Preamble.

Be it therefore enacted, &c. that David Davidson, Chas. H. Castle, John T. Brondgeest, John M. Tobin, John Leeming, John T. Badgley, and George Grundy, and their several respective heirs, executors, curators, administrators, successors, and assigns, shall be and are hereby ordained, constituted and declared to be a Corporation, Body Corporate and Politic by the name and style of The Montreal Building Society, for the purpose of raising by monthly or other subscriptions of the several Members of the said Society, and in shares not exceeding the value of one hundred pounds for each share, (such subscriptions not to exceed twenty shillings per month for each share,) a stock or fund for the purpose of enabling each Member thereof to receive out of the funds of the said Society the amount or value of his or her share or shares therein, to erect or purchase one or more dwelling house or houses, or other Freehold or Leasehold Estate, to be secured by way of mortgage or otherwise to the said Society, until the amount or value of his or her Shares shall have been fully repaid to the said Society with the interest thereon, with all fines or other payments incurred in respect thereof,—and to and for the several Members of the said Society, from time to time to assemble together, and to make, ordain and constitute such proper and wholesome rules and regulations for the government and guidance of the same, as the major part of the Members of the said Society so assembled together shall deem meet, so as such Rules shall not be repugnant to the express provisions of this Act, and to the general Laws of this Province, and to impose and inflict such reasonable fines, penalties and forfeitures upon the several Members of the said Society who shall offend against any such rules, as the Members may think fit, to be respectively paid to such uses for the benefit of the said Society, as the said Society by such rules shall direct, and also from time to time amend and alter such rules as occasion may require, or annul or repeal the same, and to make new rules in lieu thereof, under such restrictions as are in this Act contained; Provided that no Member shall receive or be entitled to receive from the funds of the said Society any interest or dividend by way of annual or other periodical profit upon any shares in the said Society, until the amount or value of his or her share shall have been realized, except on the withdrawal of such Member according to the Rules of the said Society then in force.

A Society established for the purchase or erection of dwelling houses.

Bonus, &c.
not to be usurious.

II. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Society to have and receive from any Member or Members, such sum or sums of money by way of Bonus on any share or shares, for the privilege of receiving the same in advance prior to the same being realized, and also any interest for the share or shares so received or any part thereof, without being subject or liable on account thereof, to any of the forfeitures or penalties imposed by an Act or Acts of Parliament, or by any Laws in force in that part of the Province heretofore called Lower Canada, relating to Usury.

Appointment of Directors.

III. And be it enacted, That the said Society, shall and may from time to time, elect and appoint any number of the Members of the said Society to be a Board of Directors, (who shall choose a President and Vice-President,) the number thereof to be declared in the Rules of the said Society, and shall and may delegate to such Directors all or any of the powers given by this Act to be executed, who being so delegated shall continue to act as such Directors for and during such time as shall be appointed by the said Society, for general purposes, the powers of such Directors being first declared in and by the Rules of the said Society, confirmed as aforesaid; in all cases where Directors shall be appointed for any particular purpose, the powers delegated to such Directors shall be reduced to writing and entered into a book, by the Secretary or Clerk of the said Society, and a majority of the number of such Directors shall at all times be necessary to concur in any act of such Directors, and shall in all things delegated to them act for and in the name of the said Society; and all acts and orders of such Directors, under the powers delegated to them, shall have the like force and effect as the acts and orders of the said Society at any General Meeting thereof, could or might have had in pursuance of this Act; Provided always, that the transactions of such Directors shall be entered in a book belonging to the said Society, and shall from time to time and at all times be subject and liable to the review, allowance and disallowance and control of the said Society, in such manner and form as the said Society shall by their general Rules, confirmed as aforesaid, have directed and appointed or shall in like manner direct and appoint.

Powers of Directors to be declared in the Rules of the Society, and of particular ones entered in a book.

Proviso.

Directors controllable by the Society.

IV. And be it enacted, That the said Society, so to be established as aforesaid, before any of the Rules thereof shall be confirmed in the manner hereinafter directed, shall, in or by one or more of the Rules to be so confirmed, declare all and every the interests and purposes for which said Society is intended to be established, and shall also in and by such Rules, direct all and every the uses and purposes to which the money which shall from time to time be subscribed, paid or given to or for the use or benefit of the said Society, or which shall arise therefrom, or in any wise shall belong to the said Society, shall be appropriated and applied, and in what shares and proportions, and under what circumstances, any member of such Society, or other person, shall or may become entitled to the same, or any part thereof: Provided, that the application thereof shall not in any wise be repugnant to the uses, interests and purposes of the said Society, or any of them to be declared as aforesaid; and all such Rules, during the continuance of the same, shall be complied with and enforced, and the monies so subscribed, paid or given, or so arising to or for the use or benefit of the said Society, or belonging thereto, shall not be diverted or misapplied either by the Treasurer or Directors, or any other Officer or Member of the said Society entrusted therewith, under such penalty or forfeiture as the said Society shall by any Rule impose and inflict for such offence.

Society in its rules to declare the purposes thereof.

Proviso.

Rules of the Society to be entered in a book open to public inspection.

V. And be it enacted, That the Rules for the management of the said Society shall be entered into a book, to be kept by an Officer of the said Society appointed for that purpose, and which book shall be open at all seasonable times for the inspection of the Members of the said Society; but nevertheless nothing contained herein shall extend to prevent any alteration in, or amendment of, any such Rules in the whole or in part, or making any new Rules for the management of the said Society, in such manner as by the Rules of the said Society shall from time to time be provided.

Rules when confirmed and recorded to be binding on members and officers.

VI. And be it enacted, That all Rules from time to time made and in force for the management of the said Society as aforesaid, and confirmed and recorded as aforesaid, shall be binding on the several Members and Officers of the said Society, and the several contributors thereto, and their representatives, all of whom shall be deemed and taken to have full notice thereof by such confirmation and record as aforesaid; and the entry of such Rules in the book or books of the said Society as aforesaid, or a true copy of the same, examined with the original, and proved to be a true copy, shall be received as evidence of such Rules respectively, in all cases, and no certiorari, suspension, advocacy, reduction, or other legal process, shall be brought or allowed to remove any such Rules into any of Her Majesty's Courts of Record.

Entry or copy of the rules to be received in evidence.

No confirmed rule to be altered.

VII. And be it enacted, That no Rule confirmed in manner aforesaid, shall be altered, rescinded or repealed, unless at a General Meeting of the Members of the said Society as aforesaid, convened by public notice, written or printed, signed by the Secretary or President of the said Society, in pursuance of a requisition for that purpose by not less than twenty members of the said Society, which requisition shall state the objects for which the meeting is called, and shall be addressed to the President and Directors; whereupon each member shall be notified of the proposed alterations through the Post-Office, within fifteen days, such meeting to consist of not less than one-third of the Shareholders, three-fourths of whom must concur in such alterations or repeal.

BYE-LAWS

REGULATING THE

MONTREAL BUILDING SOCIETY.

I.—That the Stock of this Society shall consist of Shares of £100 currency each, payable by monthly payments of ten shillings per each share, on the first Monday of each month, commencing the first of October next.

II.—That a general meeting of the shareholders shall be held, at the office of the Society, on the first Tuesday in the month of August in each year, for the purpose of electing Directors and for all other general purposes relating to the management of the Society; and at the said general annual meetings, shall be submitted a full and clear statement of the affairs of the Society for the previous twelve months.

III.—That the affairs of the Society shall be under the control and management of five Directors, with authority to add to their numbers.

IV.—That a Treasurer shall be appointed, who will also perform the duties of Secretary, and who will have the control and management of the office duties belonging to the Society.

V.—That for the election of Directors, every shareholder holding 5 shares or less, shall be entitled to record 1 vote.
If he hold 6, 7, 8, or 9 shares, 2 votes.
If 10 shares, 3 votes.
If 15 shares, 4 votes.
If 20 shares, 5 votes.

But no shareholder shall be entitled to more than five votes.

VI.—That the elections shall be by ballot; and the Directors so elected, shall, on refusing to serve, be subject to a fine not exceeding twenty-five shillings. All other questions at general meetings shall be decided by a majority of members actually present,—the Chairman having a casting vote, in addition to his vote as a member.

VII.—That the majority of the Directors, one of whom shall be President or Vice-President, shall constitute a quorum. In the absence of both President and Vice-President, the Directors shall appoint a Chairman pro tem. and be competent to transact the business of the Society on Board days; it shall also be competent for the Secretary, with the concurrence of the President, or in his absence the Vice-President, to convene an extra meeting of the Board of Directors, whenever business of sufficient importance shall make it necessary.

VIII.—That the Treasurer and Secretary shall be empowered to receive and pay all monies owing to or due by the Society, and his receipt shall in all cases discharge the person paying the same. It is also incumbent upon the Treasurer and Secretary to keep a proper cash book, where all monies received and payments made are to be regularly and correctly entered; and that he deposits daily with the Bank such funds as he may receive; and that no monies can be drawn from said Bank without having the signature of the President, countersigned by the Treasurer.

IX.—That the proceedings of the Society shall be entered in a minute book, detailing the transactions of the Society each day; the minutes to be signed by the President or Vice-President, as well as Treasurer and Secretary.

X.—That books shall be opened for keeping the accounts of the Society; also a registry, wherein the name and place of abode of each Shareholder shall be entered by the Treasurer and Secretary.

XI.—That each member changing his or her residence, shall give notice to the Secretary in writing, within one month after such change, or be fined 2s. 6d. at the subsequent monthly meeting.

XII.—That there shall be two or more inspectors, whose duties will be to examine and determine the value of all property offered to the Society as security for loans, and to report the same in writing, stating their opinion of its value: the same to be inserted in the minute book.

XIII.—That every member shall, until the object of this Society be attained, or so long as he or she shall continue to be a member, pay ten shillings per share per month; and in default thereof, shall pay a fine of

3d.	per share for the 1st month,
6d.	“ “ 2nd “
1s.	“ “ 3rd “

--doubling the fine for each succeeding month, till the expiration of the first six months.

XIV.—That any member being desirous of withdrawing from the Society, may, on giving one month's notice in writing to the Secretary, be allowed to do so, and receive back the net money by him or her subscribed, less arrears, fines, interest, and a forfeiture of twenty shillings per share.

XV.—That each purchaser of shares, at the monthly sale, shall deposit with the Treasurer five pounds, which shall be forfeited, unless he produce, within ten days, security satisfactory to the Board.

XVI.—That after inspection of the property proposed, the purchaser shall, if the security be approved, execute a mortgage or transfer, before the Notary of the Society, to the satisfaction of the Directors, at his or her own cost, securing the re-payment of the monies advanced, with interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum, which mortgage shall contain a covenant by the mortgagor to insure his buildings comprised therein from loss by fire for the full amount of his or her advances, which policies of insurance must be regularly endorsed over and deposited with the Treasurer and Secretary; and also a power to the Society, in case the mortgagor shall neglect to pay his or her subscriptions, fines, and forfeitures to the Society for the space of six months successively, to collect the rents and proceeds thereof, and to sell such premises by public auction or private sale, on the most advantageous terms, without any further consent or concurrence of the mortgagor, and apply the proceeds, after payment of all expenses attending such sale, to the repayment of all monies advanced, as shall remain unpaid, with the interest and fines up to the day of payment.

XVII.—That after such mortgage or transfer shall have been executed, together with such policies of insurance, and other securities, as the Directors may require, the mortgagor shall at once receive the amount of the share or shares purchased by him or her, deducting therefrom the bonus on said money; or if he or she be building a dwelling-house or houses, such amount will be advanced upon a certificate from the inspectors as the Directors shall determine, according to the progress of the work erecting,—the builders' privileges being all transferred to the Society.

XVIII.—That the Directors shall have the power to renew from time to time, already effected insurances from loss by fire, of all buildings mortgaged to the Society, and to pay the ground rents of all premises mortgaged out of the funds of the Society, as such policies and rents become due; which policies of insurance and rents shall be charged to the mortgagor, and repaid by him when the following month's subscriptions fall due, or forfeiture of 2s. 6d. for each month in default.

XIX.—That any person hereafter entering the Society, (except as transferee, legatee, or legal representative,) shall pay the full amount of subscriptions which shall have been paid by the original shareholders from the date of the formation of the Society; those joining within six months, shall pay interest only, and after that, a proportionate bonus besides, according to a scale to be drawn up hereafter.

XX.—That all premiums or bonuses, fines or forfeitures, and interest, shall form the general fund of the Society.

XXI.—That a meeting shall be held, on the first Monday of every month for the disposal of such funds as the Society may have to loan, of which due notice will be given.

XXII.—That all persons, upon taking shares in the Society, must sign the Bye-Laws in the minute book.

XXIII.—That any shareholder may transfer his or her share or shares, the name and place of abode of such transferee, legatee, or legal representative, shall be inserted in the registry book, a memorandum of which he or she shall sign, and also these Bye-Laws, upon payment of 2s. 6d. per each share, and he or she shall thereupon be deemed to be the original shareholder.

XXIV.—It shall also be in the power of the Directors to make such arrangements with any of the chartered Banks of this city, for the deposit of their monies and securities, as well as the conducting of the financial concerns of the society, as they may deem necessary.

XXV.—That the President, Vice President, and the Directors, named at the formation of this Society, and those hereafter to be named, shall be indemnified out of the funds of the Society or otherwise by the members thereof, from all costs and charges of preparing and completing these presents, as well as all expenses which may hereafter be incurred in the formation and conducting of the Society.

COVENANT.
