BLOOR VIADUCT BUILT TO THE PEOPLE

Works Committee Unanimously
Sends Recommendation to Council — Engineer
Estimates Cost at $769,000.

A bylaw to provide $769,000 for the construction of a viaduct, from the corner of Bloor and Sherbourne streets to Danforth-avenue, will be submitted to the people on Jan. 1, if the unanimous recommendation of the civic works committee is adopted by the city council, as well in all probability be the case, in view of the united sentiment of the committee.

The actual construction of the viaduct will cost $619,000, according to the estimate of the city engineer, while Assessment Commissioner Forman reported yesterday that the land damages would not exceed $150,000, or a total cost for the work, admitted to be one of the most desirable civic improvements undertaken for many years, of $769,000.

Commissioner Forman suggested that a considerable reduction in the cost might be made by widening Dale-avenue, extending Castle Frank-avenue to the Don and carrying the viaduct across, but the committee held firmly to Mr. Rust's plan of a straight extension of Bloor-street eastward.

It wasn't a snap vote, but a definite decision, without a dissenting voice, at a regular and well attended meeting. The members present were: Ald. McGill, Chisholm, Hilton, Foster, Maguire, Bredin, Vaughan, Welch, Keeler and Dunn.

Length of Structure.
Mr. Rust's report says:
"The total length of the proposed extension is approximately 4934 feet. The extension would involve the construction of two viaducts, one 1450 feet long at a maximum height of 120 feet at the river crossing, and the other, crossing the first Rosedale ravine, being 1200 feet long. The extension between these viaducts is comparatively level and would involve only a small amount of grading."

"The estimate prepared provides for a width of roadway on the bridges of 40 feet, with 6-foot sidewalks on either side."

"The estimated cost of these improvements, including bridges, roadway grading, paving, sidewalks, etc., and engineering, but not including land damages, would be $619,000."

Land Damages.
Mr. Forman further says: "The necessary time was not at our disposal to enable us to negotiate with the various property owners whose lands would be taken or affected by the proposed viaduct, but I have viewed the properties affected, as indicated upon the plan of the engineer showing the line and method of construction of the viaduct, and, in my opinion, the sum of $150,000 should be ample to cover all claims for compensation."

In this connection I may say that I would be adverse to settling any claims except those merely in respect of land taken, until after the bridge had been erected, and from there the viaduct would be carried across to connect with Danforth-avenue. The result of this would be to save the cost of steel bridge construction of the length, according to plan, of about 800 feet, and decrease the land damages."

Bylaw to Cover Cost.
On the report being presented, Ald. Chisholm said he would like to have a recommendation that a bylaw to cover the cost of the viaduct be submitted to the people. He feared that if the plans were altered after the money had been voted, the validity of the bylaw might be affected. The commissioner replied that his object was to lessen the costs, and that he didn't think the property owners would object.

Chairman Ald. McGill declared that the submitting of the bylaw asking for money to build a viaduct wouldn't interfere in any way with the engineering features.

Should Offer Plan.
Ald. Foster thought either one plan or the other should be offered to the people, and Ald. Bredin gave the opinion that any alteration would interfere with the whole scheme. The City of Civic Art had protested against city outlines and Mr. Forman's plan would create another.

"If we found that the deviation would save over $100,000, I don't see how that would affect the bylaw," said Ald. McGill.

Ald. Bredin asked whether, after the people had voted for the Bloor-avenue bridge, if it had been found cheaper to build the bridge at Wellesley-street, the bylaw wouldn't have been nullified.

"But this would still be the Bloor-street viaduct," returned the chairman. Ald. Foster didn't think the city could save $100,000 by the diversion, as the land damages would be increased by encroachment on the Hoskin property on Dale-avenue. He then moved that a bylaw be submitted based on the original plan of the City Engineer Rust and this was unanimously adopted.

Crimes Charged To Sugar Trust

Offences Include Bribery of Politicians, Swindling the Treasury and the Stealing of City Water.

Sworn testimony taken by congressional and legislative committees, by the courts and in other legal proceedings, shows that the sugar trust in the United States has been proved guilty of:

- Bribing the political committees of both parties.
- Influencing United States senators by stock tips and other financial transactions.
- Taking rebates in violation of the interstate commerce law.
- Swindling the United States treasury in violation of the United States tariff law.
- Using short weight scales.
- Blaspheming grocers who handled independent sugar.
- Importing cheap contract labor.
- Violation of factory and health laws.
- Stealing water from New York City.
- Conspiring to ruin independent sugar refiners.
- Perpetrating violation of the Sherman anti-trust law.

SUGAR TRUST OFFICIAL ARRESTED FOR FRAUD ON GOVT. COMPLAINT

Former Superintendent of Big Refinery Is Indicted For Conspiracy in the "Short Weight" Customs Scandals.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—After many months of quiet work behind the scenes by government investigators, who have been scrutinizing the ins-and-outs of the complicated sugar import frauds, there came suddenly to-day the indictment and arrest of an important former officer of the American Sugar Refining Co., charged with conspiracy to defraud the government by false weighing of sugar.

The man arrested is James F. Bendernagel, for more than 20 years superintendent of the American Sugar Refining Co. His resignation from this responsible position was announced by the company only yesterday.

The indictment returned against Bendernagel is of the blanket variety, including in its terms also the so-called "big six" of sugar: Oliver Spitzer, Thomas Kehoe, Edward A. Boyle, Jean M. Voelker, John R. Coyle, and Patrick J. Hennessy—all of whom have been previously indicted on similar charges.

The six were Bendernagel's associates in the capacity of agents and boss weighers at the Williamsburg plant. They are all at present awaiting trial.

The specific charges against Bendernagel are that he defrauded the government out of $1884 duty in connection with the false entry of a nine million pound cargo from Cuba in August, 1907. A little more than a thousand pounds were clipped off the real weight.

The indictment also relates the old charges made against four members of the so-called "big six," alleging the use of fraudulent devices on the scales used at the Williamsburg docks to weigh sugar for the purpose of avoiding customs charges. It was in connection with these charges that the government last spring recovered $2,135,000 in duties and penalties. It is now alleged that the government was in reality, originally, cheated out of something like $38,000,000.

In addition to Bendernagel, the following officials of the company also resigned yesterday: Frank Wenzel, chief electrician and adviser of the old regime; John James, chief engineer of the Brooklyn plant; William Fleming, chief of construction.

There are indications that indictments against the men higher up will be brought within a few days, and that the men of the trust who really paid the money to the others are at last brought to justice.

It developed to-day that another large sugar importing concern, the Amuckle Brothers Company, have been negotiating for the purpose of turning over to the United States treasury duties on sugar imports which the government authorities claim should have been paid on past weightings.

Results of By-Elections for Quebec Legislature.

MONTREAL, Nov. 12.—(Special).—By-elections were held to-day in St. James' Division of Montreal, St. Sauveur of Quebec and Chambly, to fill vacancies in the Quebec Legislature.

In St. James, N. K. Laffamme, who was supported by Mr. Bourassa, was defeated by Ald. Robitaille, Liberal, by 283; in Chambly, Dr. Desautels, the government candidate, was elected over Mr. Marcell, opposition, by 466; and in St. Sauveur, Langlois, the Labor candidate, defeated the government candidate by 283.

ONE SENATOR GOT $2005 FOR A DAY'S WORK

Another Received $2020 for Two Days' Attendance, and Auditor-General Didn't Think It Was Right.

OTTAWA, Nov. 12.—(Special).—That one senator got $2005 for one day's attendance during the last session of parliament, and another got $2020 for two days' presence in the upper chamber, and that the auditor-general objected, is set forth in the annual report of that official made public to-day. The names of the senators are suppressed.

According to the report, they "were each paid the seasonal indemnity of $2500 less a deduction of $15 per day for absence for each sitting day over the fifteen allowed, although the former was only two days in attendance, January 20 and 21, and the latter one day in attendance, January 21."

"It would appear," he says in pointing it out, "that you have paid these senators under subsection 2 of section 35 of the act, rather than under section 33 of the act, which stated that a member shall not be entitled to the said seasonal allowance for less than thirty-one days' attendance, but his allowance for any less number of days shall be twenty dollars for each day's attendance."

The reply in effect was that these senators were entitled to draw their indemnity on this basis.

The auditor-general also charged that Senators Frost, Mitchell and McMullen drew more indemnity than they were entitled to by the record of attendance. The reply was that senator McMullen had been ill and that the others contended that they had been present on days on which the record did not mention their presence.

A Tiff With N.T.R. Board.
The report also contains a long and acrimonious correspondence between the auditor-general and the Transcontinental Railway Commission on the subject of classification in rock cuttings. In the contract held by M.P. and J. T. Davis an item appeared, "excavation in foundations, rock," at $4.50 per cubic yard. It appeared that the rock was solid and that a verbal arrangement had been made between the engineer in charge and the contractors whereby work of this character should be paid for at the contract price for rock excavation. The correspondence which began yesterday, 1907, by July 1908 had developed into a display of interest by the auditor-general in the prices for rock cutting on the whole system. By 1909 the auditor-general had got the matter advanced to the treasury board, which ruled in his favor that the commission had not had the authority to make the price in the manner adopted. He followed this up by asking if instances had occurred, "in which the quantities are increased or the classification is so made as to enable the contractor to obtain what would amount to a higher rate than that shown in the specifications."

The commission, in reply, stated that an angry resolution, "Resolved, that in the opinion of the commissioners, in the enquiry of the auditor-general, in the form in which it has been made, contains a direct reflection on the personal integrity of the commissioners, inasmuch as it implies the possibility that the commissioners might knowingly and wilfully approve the payment of false estimates; and that, under the circumstances, the inquiry of the auditor-general is 'considered improper and offensive, and should not now be answered.'"

The auditor-general declined to be intimidated, and in the end obtained from the commission an admission that certain irregularities had occurred, the insisting that no advantage to the contractor had ensued. The correspondence apparently was closed by a letter from the secretary of the commission complimenting Mr. Fraser on his "verbal adroitness."

Meanwhile, James Ross Sells Some of His Coal Stock to Toronto Syndicate at Close to Par.

MONTREAL, Que., Nov. 12.—(Special).—The negotiations which have been going on during the past few days between E. R. Wood and Col. Sir Henry Pellatt, representing a syndicate of Toronto holders of Dominion Steel and Coal stock, and James Ross, president of the Dominion Coal Company, represented by Charles H. Cahan, in a legal capacity, were brought very near to a close this evening. The finishing touches, it is expected, will be reached to-morrow morning.

It is authoritatively stated that the result will be the passing of a portion of the Ross Coal holdings, the whole of which represent a par value of $5,000,000, to the syndicate at a price somewhat under par.

It may also be added that the merger of Dominion Coal and Dominion Steel into one great company, to be known as the Canada Steel Corporation, is now nearer an accomplished fact than ever before.

In fact, as soon as the transfer of this large block of Coal stock is made, active steps will be taken to bring about the union of the two companies, although it can be said that no basis as to prices of the two companies entering the merger has yet been reached or discussed.

Mr. Ross will still probably be the largest individual holder of Coal stock when negotiations are opened for the uniting of the two corporations. It is stated that before Ross would sell a share of his Coal common, gentlemen representing holdings to the value of $8,000,000 assured the president that they would not sell their stock even if par were offered, deciding to run their chances of becoming a part of the greater corporation to be created, consequently the president was relieved of the obligation which he for a long time felt, viz., that he was in duty bound to protect the minority shareholders who had so loyally stood by him during the protracted difficulties with the other company.

Col. Sir Henry Pellatt left for Toronto this evening.

New York State Asked to Provide Employment for Them.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—There are 200,000 men and women in New York City who are willing to work, but who are not able to secure employment, was the statement made to-day by C. D. Harvey, secretary of the national committee of the unemployed, before the state commission, which is investigating the operation of the Employer's Liability Act.

She urged a plan by which the state would open factories and employ these men and women.

REAL ESTATE PROMOTER ARRESTED IN PITTSBURG

Said to Be Connected With a Long Island Proposition That is Being Handled in Toronto.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Nov. 12.—(Special).—Thru the arrest here to-day of A. B. McCarthy, collector for the Metropolitan and Suburban Real Estate Co. of West Hampton Park, Long Island, the police declare they have unearthed a get-rich-quick scheme with ramifications extending to Toronto and to practically every large city east of Chicago.

The company does business thru a scheme of handsomely engraved coupons, which entitle the investor to an "immense discount" when purchasing a lot in the Long Island plan. The first lot sells for $100 and the second for $50. Should the purchaser acquire two lots on the five dollars down and five dollars a month plan, he is allowed to pick out his own lots, but should he acquire but one the company chooses the lot.

According to the collection cards found upon McCarthy, Pittsburghers have invested about fifty thousand dollars in land which was represented to them as being laid out in town lots with paved streets, drains and all improvements, when, according to Post-office Inspector C. E. Crowell, some of the land is actually under water and there are no improvements.

McCarthy is held on charges of violating the state law is not being registered at Harrisburg and of doing business without a license.

The company is advertised as a New Jersey corporation, with $100,000 capital stock, and the local detectives declare

SILVERLAND IS A NATIONAL ASSET

Millions of Dollars Already Committed to Development Over Area of Five Thousand Square Miles.

GOWGANDA, Nov. 2.—By the Men on the Trail.—Loyalty demands that the men of capital in Canada encourage in every practical way the development of the great natural resources in the mineralized areas of the north.

The name Gowganda, possibly because it is a picturesque designation, has come to stand largely for a vast country five thousand square miles in extent. In this northern silverland, west of Lake Timiskaming for a hundred miles, with boundaries still undefined and constantly extending, eight thousand mining claims have been staked and work has been done on nearly all of them in accordance with the requirements of the mining laws.

Over this broad area thousands of veins have been uncovered, most of them containing the usual indications of possible enrichment and sufficient to encourage the expenditure of capital in investigation.

It would be folly to suggest that more than a small percentage of these will develop into producing mines, but the prospecting of these claims means that activity in this direction throughout the country will proceed for many years to come.

Cobalt is the only developed camp in the north where similar geological conditions prevail, and the mining men of the new fields are influenced very largely by Cobalt conditions in the work which is being undertaken in the undeveloped areas.

Development on veins enriched at the surface has, with one or two exceptions, resulted in shipping mines. The result is that the discovery of surface silver leads in the new country is followed almost immediately by the disposal of the interest to men of capital, who are ready, with but little further investigation, to advance money for development.

Millions Already Invested.
It is an impressive fact that more than five million dollars in cash has been paid to prospectors for silver properties west of Lake Timiskaming. Over two millions of this amount was paid in cash for Gowganda properties with spectacular outcroppings of silver in veins at the surface.

Two-thirds of this imposing amount of money was paid to young Canadian prospectors and probably half of the amount was transferred to their credit balances in the banks of United States and Great Britain.

But this is not the limit of the financial advantage this country has been to Canada in the first short year of its awakening from the silence of uncounted centuries. The outlay by which these properties were acquired was but the commencement of an outpouring of millions. Large quantities of machinery have gone into the country. The Montreal River, Gowganda, and Miller Lake enterprises have probably expended more than a million dollars in Canada for their plants. The principal industry in a little city in the Province of Quebec employs 250 men to-day in the manufacture of mining machinery for Silverland. The plant is busy now on orders for delivery during the approaching winter.

I have heard men say, who do not understand conditions, that there will be nothing like the business of last winter into Silverland this year.

The fact is that the volume of business this year with the mining country should be double what it was a year ago. In a recent letter it was shown that freight traffic up the Montreal River was at least six times greater than last year.

Supplies are running low at all the mines and they must be replenished at once. The advanced enterprises are carrying larger stocks of men and must increase their purchases in proportion. There are also scores of syndicates opening up properties who were not working last year.

Conditions Are Improving.
Conditions are more normal this year. Interest held back by the prohibitive prices last winter are now ready to go ahead. There will be several hundred freight trains operating next winter on the government, Sellwood, and Bisco roads. The roads will be better, convenient, better, roadhouses better equipped and travel more rapid. At Elk City steam heated hotels with electric lights have replaced the crude accommodations of last winter. The business men of Toronto will find in Silverland an expanding market, and if it is the most desirable trade they can cultivate for their business on a cash basis.

The great extent of the mineral areas and the consequent competition for capital has been largely responsible for the economic provincial spirit among mining men. The men of one district will praise their respective localities to the skies and with the same benignly condemn other districts in which they are not directly interested. As the general character of the country is geologically similar, this "knocking" proves in some instances to be a sort of boomerang. An instance of this may be recalled.

Several months ago a wealthy New York gentleman, who is interested in Cobalt, induced a group of friends to accompany him in his private car to the northern camp. The friends, favorably impressed as all visitors are, at one of the hotels they met a man whose interests were now centered in the new camp. His statements impressed them greatly and they decided to have a car trip to the river. In fact, the attention of these influential men would be diverted from Cobalt, the new country was hampered, most unduly, and without mercy. All sorts of assertions were made disparagingly and the New York capitalists commenced to doubt. Being broad men, the innuendoes reflecting on the areas outside of Cobalt seemed to reflect directly on the older camp itself. They did not weigh the chances of the jealousy which prompted unfounded charges and doubts were aroused. This group of men, backed by many millions of dollars, never returned to Cobalt.

This is not a fanciful story without basis. The gentleman who related the circumstances to The World's representative did so in conversation with our knowledge at the time of his identity. The men were named and their prestige alone would have been a tremendous asset to the mining country.

Men of Broad Views Needed.

Mining men of the north must be broader. The voicing of their prejudices can do no good. And to the extent that this advice may apply to men on the exchanges of Toronto I can say, from a knowledge of facts about the country, that a few persons have been privileged to assemble that in spite of five years the greatest volume of their mining trading will be in securities west of the older camp.

The tendency of investment is westward there is broader. There are buyers in the new district today whose business it is to run down every reported discovery. If it proves to be worth while, negotiations are opened on the spot. Up to this point I have dealt with general conditions as they were countered. I have avoided up to the present any direct reference to individual or corporate interests in order that the presentation of the larger needs of the country might not be impaired by any misconception.

The preceding articles will deal more specifically with the discoveries made over many miles of territory and with detailed references to the condition of many mines in which the public must be more or less interested. The investigation was as complete as could be made within the bounds of physical limitations. On this investigation is based the conviction that the mining industry of the north will develop into such proportions that it will become a factor in the activities of the nation second only to the wheat fields of the west.

$50,000 FOR STOLEN PLANS

Morrison and Gibson Name Prominent Men as Backers of Enterprise.

When Owen Morrison and Allan Gibson, formerly employed by the E. W. Gillette Company of West Kingston, were arraigned in police court yesterday morning, charged with conspiring to steal from the company plans of a great steam-digging machine and processes, there was more than the usual flurry of excitement in the room. Ever since the arrest of these young men it has been rumored that prominent men were to be connected with this case, and the curious were not disappointed when President William Dobbie took the stand.

He swore that he had questioned Morrison about going to the factory Sunday morning, and that Morrison had finally admitted that he and Gibson had gone there and gave him certain drawings of the machinery, saying that he had more at home. Mr. Dobbie said that they had no business there at that time. He questioned Morrison as to how they were interested in the securing of these plans, and after much hesitation, when Morrison swore that he had given his solemn word not to divulge the names, he had admitted the names of Aid. Breton, Aid. Adams, T. C. Robinson, K. C. Gibson and himself to be the ones.

Here Mr. Corley declared that no one would accuse these gentlemen of any guilty knowledge, and Magistrate Denison agreed with him.

According to a memorandum of agreement Morrison and Gibson were each to receive $25,000 stock in the new company, and Morrison's share was to be in cash.

Other evidence confirming this was taken, and the young men were committed for trial, bail being fixed at $500 each.

Mr. Johnston pointed out to the board last night that the promoters of the art museum were actuated by patriotic motives. No matter what was done they would of necessity be out of pocket. In the agreement with the board the museum would pay its proportion of the cost of exhibiting, including and caretaking on the basis of the floor space occupied. The estimated cost of the proposed exhibition in December was $2500. The proposed exhibit was to be held in the building, H. T. ## INFANT NOT DESERTED BUT CAN'T BE FOUND

Mother Left Child With Neighbor, Who Turned It Over to Police—Happenings of a Day.

HAMILTON, Nov. 12.—(Special.)—The two-month-old child of Mrs. McCarthy caused a great ado in police circles this morning. The mother left it with Mrs. Simpson, 445 West Main street, Wednesday last, when she did not return last night. Mrs. Simpson handed the infant over to the police, believing that it had been left on her hands. The mother returned this afternoon to claim her youngster, but it had been taken charge of by Truancy Officer Hunter, who could not be located to-night, and the mother is nearly distracted.

E. H. Belling, Toronto, lectured this evening to the Hamilton Branch of the Royal Astronomical Society, on the stars in their course.

Lieut. Col. E. W. Moore, the military officer of the 12th Regiment, gave a short valedictory address this evening to the regiment, after he had presided at the prize and medal ceremony during the year. He was given three cheers. The rest of the evening was spent in dancing. The committee in charge was Messrs. Robertson, chairman, Major Pearson, Sgt. Major Hughes, Sgt. Woodcock and Sgt. Nicholson. The prizes were won by the following: Senior champion, Sgt. Mitchell; Junior champion, Sgt. Mitchell; Junior champion, Sgt. Mitchell; Junior champion, Sgt. Mitchell.

Sparks from a chimney set fire to the furniture of "Albert Whitt's" house, 14 West Water street, this afternoon. The damage was slight.

No Graft in Salvation.

Rev. Charles W. Casson, Boston, secretary of the publicity department of the Unitarian Association, delivered an address this evening in Unity Church, on "Reality and Revelation of the New Religion." Religion owes the root of all life and the extent of the religion of a community was better gauged by the sums and saloons than by steeples of cultured class. The great evil of political life was graft, and the graft had the perfect parallel in the prevalent religious conception in Canada. The religious education of the people was the side of the Saviour so that we might share of the wealth of the hereafter.

MAYOR WANTS BYLAW DAY VOTERS ARE CONFUSED

His Worship Suggests Amendment to Municipal Act to Clear the Air.

"I intend to propose that application be made for an amendment to the Municipal Act so that a day, distinct and separate from the day of the municipal elections, will be set aside for voting upon the foregoing announcement yesterday afternoon. He explained that voters are confused and that many of them, pointing out that this year, besides ballots for the mayoralty, board of control, aldermen and board of education there are slight a referendum on the question of returning to the ward system of electing school trustees, with bylaws for Ashbridge marsh, improvement of Bloor-street viaduct, and police stations and firehalls for the newly annexed districts in sight.

"It means nine ballots to be divided among three different classes of vot-

A Sallow, Pimply or "Muddy" Complexion

Is Easily Gotten Rid of When Constitutional, Instead of Local, Treatment is Taken.

Every woman strives to acquire and preserve a clear, faultless, rose-and-lily complexion. This is apparently the height of the feminine ambition. No more fallacious epigram was ever penned than the one which says that "beauty is only skin deep"; and no greater mistake can possibly be made in endeavoring to gain a clear, pretty complexion, entirely free from pimples, blackheads and other skin blemishes, than the use of cosmetics, powders, lemon juice, cold cream, electric massage and various other treatments, which aim at the complexion alone and have no effect whatever on the blood, or on the general system.

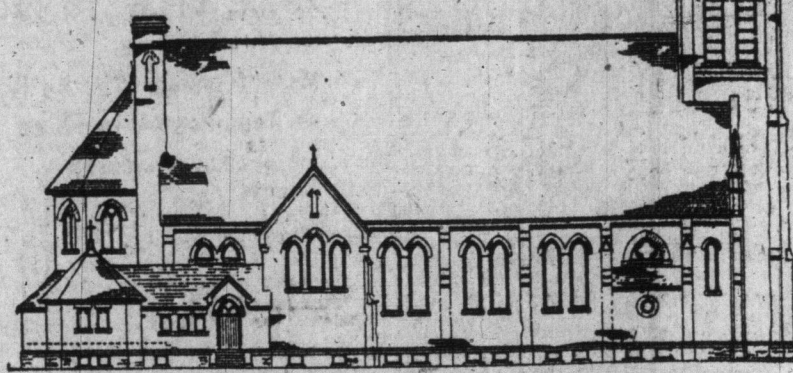

Whenever you see a person with a clear, flawless complexion, you may be assured that its perfection depends, not on the local application of the many face treatments on the market, but exclusively upon a pure, wholesome condition of the blood and upon its active, vigorous circulation through the skin.

It is the blood which gives the skin its rosy color, and although electric massage and other local treatments may draw the blood temporarily to the surface of the skin, it cannot keep it there. Only a strong circulation can do that. When the blood becomes impoverished and the circulation sluggish, the complexion, as a natural consequence, becomes sallow or "muddy," and pimples, blackheads, "flesh spots" and other skin troubles put in their appearance.

One box of STUART'S CALCIUM WATERS, which are taken internally, will do the complexion more good than all the cosmetics, beauty powders, cold creams, electric or manual massages will do in a lifetime. You may cut little water cure because they strike at the root of the trouble. They purify and renovate the blood so completely that the complexion cannot, of itself, become clear, flawless and free from all skin blemishes.

Besides relieving the system of every particle of impurity, and thus cutting off the source of the skin diseases, they also build up the blood, greatly increasing the number of red corpuscles in its current, and invigorating, strengthening and improving the circulation so decidedly that in a wonderfully brief period the cheeks become rosy, the complexion clear, the eyes bright, and the whole system glows with renewed life and vigor.

Secure a package of this blood-cleansing, complexion-clearing and system-renewing remedy near your druggist for 50 cents, and begin the treatment at once. Also send your name and address and free sample package will be sent you. Address P. A. Stuart, Co., 125 Stuart Building, Marshall, Mich.

NEW ST. CECILIA'S CHURCH, WEST TORONTO, Cornerstone of which will be laid at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

YORK COUNTY CORNER STONE LAYING OF ST. CECILIA'S CHURCH

WEST TORONTO, Nov. 12.—An interesting ceremony will take place Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, when the cornerstone of the new R. C. Church of St. Cecilia will be laid by Archbishop McVay. Many of the Roman Catholics of York County and vicinity will be present. After the ceremony a service will be held in the church, and a sermon will be preached by Rev. Father O'Malley of St. Mary's.

The parish of St. Cecilia was established in 1885, with the late Rev. Father Bergen as priest. The present church building was purchased from the Presbyterian congregation after Victoria Church was built. A presbytery, or priest's residence, was acquired at the same time, and the total cost amounted to $6500. During the fourteen years of its existence, the congregation has struggled unaided to pay off the church debt, and now the building and the sub-committee had to attend the works committee meeting, the conference was adjourned until Monday, after which the mayor hopes to be able to make a definite statement as to the company's attitude.

A deputation will wait on ex-Ald. Mayor Oliver made the foregoing announcement yesterday afternoon. He explained that voters are confused and that many of them, pointing out that this year, besides ballots for the mayoralty, board of control, aldermen and board of education there are slight a referendum on the question of returning to the ward system of electing school trustees, with bylaws for Ashbridge marsh, improvement of Bloor-street viaduct, and police stations and firehalls for the newly annexed districts in sight.

City Auditor Sterling wrote the board of control yesterday that as the end of the civic financial year is approaching there should be a close oversight of departmental expenditure so that appropriations for the current year may not be exceeded.

Mr. Sterling suggested that purchases of supplies and materials should be confined to what was absolutely needed for the rest of the year, and that should it be deemed advisable to purchase materials now for use in 1910, such payments should not be included in the civic accounts for this year. He also asked that civic officials should be required to close up all outstanding accounts to facilitate the work of the treasury.

The cost of elevator inspection this year is more than covered by the revenue from elevator licenses of which 288 were issued at a fee of $2 each. Mr. Controller Ward, who instituted the inspection scheme, is considering an amendment to the elevator bylaw so as to include factory elevators which are at present inspected by provincial inspectors, whose inspection he does not regard as sufficiently thorough.

City waterworks officials have unearthed what looks like a deluge of water, but the object is not obvious. As it was found to be impossible to close a four-inch main there was an investigation which showed that somebody had penetrated to the valve chamber and tied up the valve with barbed wire.

James H. H. Loring, whose luxurious residence has many times excited admiration around the city hall, wanted the board to listen to the details of his claim for $500 against West Toronto, now part of the city, but as the case is now before the courts, the board declined to be drawn into discussion.

Changes in the plans of the new Standard Bank building at the corner of King and Jordan-streets indicate that the cost will be $200,000 instead of $140,000.

COBALT WANTS MORE HELP

Silver City Asks Government to Pay for House Cleaning.

Cobalt sent a deputation to Hon. W. J. Hanna and Hon. F. Cochrane yesterday asking that the government assist in paying the cost of "cleaning up" incident to the recent typhoid outbreak. The deputation was headed by Mayor H. H. Shillington, M.L.A. The appeal was made upon the grounds that the work had been undertaken at the orders of the provincial board of health, not for the benefit of the community, and as the town had several large undertakings under way, the burden of payment should be heavy.

Hon. Mr. Hanna "promised consideration."

Will Build Row of Stores. J. C. Wilgar has purchased from R. H. Schultz, 99 by 145 feet, on the north side of Bloor-street near Palmerston, a piece of property of 100 ft. by 100 ft. to take the place of the two old cottages now adorning the property. Another piece of the same estate to the north of this has also been purchased by Mr. Wilgar for $2400.

BALMY BEACH COMES IN

Eastern Suburb Merges With City Dec. 15.

According to the decision of the Ontario Railway and Municipal Board, the Balmy Beach district will be annexed to Toronto on December 15. At the sitting of the board yesterday the annexation proceedings were concluded. Chas. G. Lyon represented the petitioners and Wm. Johnson the city. The district annexed comprises a strip extending from the limits of East Toronto to the eastern limit of the Township of York. By the conditions of the order the residents of the new district will vote at the municipal elections on New Year's Day, either in a separate subdivision or as part of the present subdivision. The district is annexed to ward one.

JUMPS FROM TRAIN WINDOW

Indian Under Arrest Makes Good His Escape.

MONCTON, N.B., Nov. 12.—(Special.)—With the Maritime express speeding thirty-five miles an hour, an Indian named Bernard made a dash for liberty by jumping thru a car window at Gloucester Junction today. He was in charge of Elmer Stewart of Dalhousie, who was taking him to Dorchester for a two-year term for stealing. He was handcuffed, and had asked permission to go to a closet. When the train slowed up, a fireman came hurrying back, saying he saw a man fall thru the window and roll down the embankment.

Glasgow Students Riot.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—Fourteen hundred Glasgow students rioted at the Coliseum Music Hall in that city last night. They fought and beat the police, and later rioted in the streets, where the police finally triumphed over them. The students had gone to the theatre to see a hymn, who had been denounced as a quack, and who had called them "a pack of beggarly Carnegie students." With eggs and stones.

ATTENDED BY FIVE DOCTORS

But Got No Relief Until He Used Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Wonderful Cure of A. F. Richard Who Was Tortured by Rheumatism and Kindred Pains, Sets Kent County Talking.

ST. IGNACE, Kent Co., N.B., Nov. 12.—(Special.)—After being tortured for four years with Backache, Rheumatism, Stiffness of the Joints and Pains in the Loins, and getting no relief from five doctors whom he called in, Mr. Antoine F. Richard, a well-known farmer, has been cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills. He is now a well man, and that he owes his cure to Dodd's Kidney Pills. Speaking of his wonderful cure, Mr. Richard says:

"I was a helpless man in July, 1907. For four years I had endured the greatest torture from Backache, Rheumatism, Stiffness of the Joints and Pains in the Loins. I had dark circles under my eyes, my head ached and I was often dizzy. I was attended by five doctors, but not one of them could help me.

"Then I began to use Dodd's Kidney Pills and after the first box I began to improve. I used four boxes in all and now I am working every day on the farm a well man. I owe my wonderful cure to Dodd's Kidney Pills and nothing else."

There is no case or kind of Kidney Disease that Dodd's Kidney Pills will not cure.

Note and Comment

Beating a Mile a Minute.
ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 12.—Today's automobile races reached their climax when George H. Robertson, driving a home-made power Fiat, lowered the American track record for fifty miles by four minutes and seven seconds. The previous record was held by John Aiken, who made the distance at Indianapolis in 43:21.02. Aiken, who drove a National to second place in today's race, and Stillman, who came in third, in a Marmon, both bettered the Indianapolis mark. Aiken made the distance in 42:11.41, and Stillman in 43:20.56.

Myopia—The swimmers show came tonight with the international broad jump, which British officers competed with Canadian soldiers. The latter made a high jump in which the Canadians carried off all the honors.

The first trial was for three trials over a low hedge and fifteen feet of canalized water. The competition was won by a Grenadier Guardsman, followed by Robert A. Fairbank, and also cash prizes. First honors of the competition were won by Lieut. T. G. Gilchrist, United States army, whose cork was a close second with Eddy, who placed third.

Lieut. Gilchrist, United States army, whose wife is gelding, Stan, performed well. Major the Hon. J. H. M. Macdonald, C.O., was present at his last barefaced flight and not do well. The result of the competition brought out the wildest enthusiasm,

B.C. JUDGESHIPS DELAYED OPPOSITION OPENS FIRE

R. L. Borden Asks Government to Explain Away Suspicion That Politics Are Involved.

OTTAWA, Nov. 12.—(Special.)—The opening encounter between the opposition and the government today takes place in the House of Commons over a British Columbia matter.

On Sept. 1 last, the act creating a court of appeal for the Pacific province was brought into force, but the federal government has made no appointment of judges, and, to quote the minister of justice, will make none for a little time yet. The reason attributed by the opposition is that the government has delayed matters until the B. C. elections are over, and H. L. Borden described the situation as a disgrace to the administration of justice in Canada.

No fewer than twenty-three blue books were laid on the table of the House this afternoon. This is a record for the printing bureau, of which W. G. Farnelle is the head.

After this formality, Mr. Borden drew attention to the situation regarding the recently created court of appeal in British Columbia. The legislature in 1907 had passed an act constituting the court of appeals, which would go into force upon its date to be announced by the lieutenant-governor. The federal government was advised of the act, and in 1908 legislation accordingly, naming the judges. Last May, the date of the coming into force of the act was announced as Sept. 1, that immediate upon the proclamation the court could be organized. The B. C. Act, accordingly, was brought into force on Sept. 1 last, and jurisdiction transferred to the court of appeal.

Why the Delay?
"Why is it?" asked Mr. Borden, "that there has been this extraordinary delay, after receiving notice as far back as May?" It had been stated that gentlemen taking part now in the B. C. elections, and whose names were mentioned, had some understanding or intimation that their claims to appointment would be well considered.

Mr. Borden described this as a disgrace to the administration of justice in Canada. He asked for a categorical, full and explicit answer to his question, why the government had allowed ten weeks to pass without making an appointment. Legal business was at a standstill.

Hon. A. B. Aylesworth, minister of justice, explained that the provincial statute had been enacted on April 25, 1908, and that the Dominion parliament had prorogued two days later, the announcement did not reach Ottawa in time to deal with the matter.

In 1908, the federal parliament passed legislation providing for the salaries. If there had been any crying need for action, he would have supposed that these gentlemen would have acted with promptness.

The attorney-general of B.C. had been in Ottawa last spring, and had said the provincial statute had been enacted the following day. He was in Ottawa four weeks after that, but nothing was done.

Aylesworth's Responsibility.
Finally, Mr. Aylesworth said, he went to Europe and he honestly thought that the statute never would be brought into effect. He owned the responsibility for delay counted from four weeks ago, when he returned to Canada, and found that the proclamation had been made on Sept. 1, and that the first meeting of the court of appeal was to take place on Nov. 2.

He had received a telegram from the attorney-general of B.C., pointing out that the delay was not necessary, and he had replied accordingly. To this he had received no answer. He purpose, however, was not to make all the appointments at once.

Martin Burrell (Yale Cariboo) said the personnel of Liberal newspapers, indeed, the late leader of the Liberal party in B.C. had resigned when mentioned for a seat on the bench, but the great credit he had taken no part in the election. However, they had had the experience of judges even stepping down from the bench, taking part in the elections and being reappointed to the bench after being defeated at the polls. He noted that the minister of justice intended to do a little longer. This was significant, in view of the fact that the B. C. elections were to take place on Nov. 25.

Should Have Been Ready.
W. S. Middlebrook, Nov. 12, said he had emphasized the disorganized state of justice in British Columbia. This closed the debate.

Richmond-street.

LET THEM ALL BE HEARD.

The World believes that there must be the fullest and frankest discussion on the question of Canada establishing a navy for her own defence, and thus assisting in the defence of the empire. In so stating the issue we must include in it the proposition of a single gift or an annual grant to the mother country for the purpose of building Dreadnoughts or maintaining them.

We notice that The Ottawa Journal and The Toronto News have practically read Mr. Monk, member of parliament, and Conservative leader for the Province of Quebec, out of the Conservative party, for his pronouncement against a Canadian navy. This attitude, these newspapers maintain, is an act of disloyalty to the Conservative leader, Mr. Borden, who has declared for a Canadian navy, and if possible a money contribution as well to the imperial navy.

From a party point of view this may be good tactics and certainly the party has a right to dictate the conditions of membership; but outside of party, there is a great public sentiment and opinion which has to be formed and can only be intelligently exercised by the fullest and freest discussion. For the present The World wishes every man's view to be heard, because only out of full discussion, and heated discussion if you like, will there come forth sufficient facts on which to found a broad and safe policy that will be endorsed by the Canadian nation at large.

The Toronto Telegram, which professes to be as good a Conservative paper as either The News or Journal, and is certainly as independent, has read Mr. Borden out of the Conservative party, for the position he has taken on the naval question. The three able editors of these newspapers are three men in one boat, each with a rudder in his hand, and presenting a rather muddled crew to an interested public on the shore. Let every man be heard if he wants to speak.

MEMBERS AND OFFICE TAKING.

There is one thing that will come home quick and fast to Sir Wilfrid Laurier as a result of the election in Essex, and that is the inadvisability of appointing any more members of parliament to public office. When Sir Wilfrid Laurier appoints a member to office he interferes with the people's choice; in other words, men are elected to parliament to represent the people, but they are switched from being representatives into hide-bound supporters of the government, encouraged thereby by the hope of earning office. In the words of Sir William Mulock, when he was in politics, "the liberty of the people and parliament is jeopardized by these appointments."

Not for one moment do we say that the time never arrives when a man who has long served in parliament is not fairly entitled to some appointment and there may be ministerial situations when a member is justified in resigning to help his party and take some office in consequence; but these are the rare occasions; whereas Sir Wilfrid has appointed probably a hundred members of parliament to office from the floor of the house, and of all these appointments the last two were the least justifiable.

The senate of Canada is the weakest link in the Canadian political chain, and it is so because it has become almost absolutely a refuge for the decaying men of the lower house. It ought to be composed of the highest and best talent in the country in the very prime of manhood, and kept in that prime condition all the time by short terms of office and fresh infusion of new blood. The day has members of the house of commons are unable to take office, will find the political tone of this country in the way of elevation.

SUBMIT THE BYLAW.

Yesterday the civic works committee of the city council unanimously resolved to recommend that a bylaw be submitted to the ratepayers on New Year's Day authorizing the construction of a viaduct across the Don Valley to connect Bloor-street with Danforth-avenue. It will now be up to the council to accept that recommendation and as the reasons in its favor are unanswerable, no hesitation should be shown in expediting this necessary and valuable civic improvement. While provision of this northern artery of traffic is withheld, the equitable progress of the city is impeded, building areas of the best class are unused, communication between east and west is seriously hampered and an important district is deprived of the easy access to the business centre which it deserves and ought to receive.

Altho this improvement will cost what appears on paper to be a considerable sum, it is really profit-earning expenditure which will yield an abundant return directly in improved and increasing assessment values and indirectly in facilitating transportation and relieving down town congestion. The viaduct has long been imperatively needed, and with the expansion of the city has become plainly urgent. Further delay would be inexcusable and The World believes the great majority of the citizens are prepared to sanction immediate procedure with the work of construction. To the east it means everything and the fact that a one fare street railway service will then become possible would alone justify its vigorous prosecution. Only by means of the Bloor-street viaduct can consolidation of the city be effected and a homogeneous public spirit aroused and maintained.

LIQUOR PRICES AND TEMPERANCE

Interesting results have followed both in Britain and Germany in consequence of the recent increases in the price of beer and other alcoholic liquors. These followed upon the heavier duties imposed for revenue purposes, but they represented far more than the proper proportion between the old and new duties. The British and German peoples have, however, differed in their manner of accepting this interference with one of their most valued rights. In Britain many customers simply contented themselves with drinking less or not at all. In Germany a boycott movement sprang up and rapidly assumed wide proportions, directed against all houses of refreshment where the retail price of beer had been raised to a higher point than was justified by the new duty. In both countries the consumption of liquor largely declined.

Mr. Lloyd-George, in a recent speech, estimated that only half the expected revenue from the increased duties would be obtained. In some districts in Ireland the consumption of liquor had declined by 70 per cent., and in Scotland it had decreased 30 per cent. This, in his view, involved an enormous improvement in the habits of the people and he believed that there would be a permanent reduction of 20 per cent. in the spirits drunk in Great Britain. Compulsory increase in price thus appears to promote voluntary abstinence from liquor or restriction in the amount consumed, and the lesson is not likely to be lost on British temperance reformers.

A ZEALOUS CONDUCTOR.

Editor World: An amusing incident occurred on a crowded Broadway-avenue car last night. Conductor 799 was busy inside collecting fares, when he noticed a man leaving the rear platform as the car slowed down for a moment. "I want your fare," the conductor shouted, but the man ignored him, whereupon the conductor stopped the car and gave chase for a block, the runaway then surrendering his ticket. For a time the air was not with compliments pro and con for No. 799 at the absurdity of stopping a crowded car of hungry and crushed passengers to chase a man nearly a block for 5c. Threats of reporting him were deep and loud, but he laughed them to scorn. What does Supt. McCullough say about it? Nedab.

Toronto, Nov. 12, 1909.

ANOTHER "VOICE FROM THE HOME."

Editor World: I was much impressed by the article by M. M. H., which appeared in last Saturday's World, under the heading "A Voice From the Home." The logical and well-founded reasoning struck a responsive chord in my heart, as I have no doubt it did in many others. It not only had the ring of pure gold about it but it touched the root of the whole matter in placing woman just where God intended her to stand—side by side with man, as his complement, his helpmeet, his equal, but not in his place, nor with the same, but with quite as grave and important responsibility, and in some respects, and in her own sphere, much more important and far-reaching. "The old idea of woman's place and duty," as the creator and central figure of the home, is not only thoroughly scriptural but it holds away in the hearts of the great masses of the women of Canada as well as of every civilized and Christian nation. The fact that a few of the aggressive and dissatisfied ones are freely wielding their tongues and their pens and, for ever be said to the shame of a few fanatics in Great Britain, and for whose acts all right-thinking women of the old land as well as in Canada are bowing their heads in sorrow and pain, because of the indignity that is being heaped upon their sex are using their clenched fists and physical violence, is no evidence that the great army of womanhood has forgotten that she is peculiarly and specially fitted for the duties of wifehood and motherhood and home-making, the grandest and most important work that the Divine Creator ever assigned to human beings.

NAME ON EGG WINS HUSBAND

BEDFORD, Ind.—Miss Daisy Talbott, a farmer's daughter, near Bono, wrote her name and address on an egg, which was sent with others to a wholesaler. The latter shipped the egg to Detroit, Ind., where it was bought by Joseph Palmer, who wrote to Miss Talbott. Letters were exchanged, which resulted recently in a wedding.

"Fruit-a-tives," made from concentrated and intensified fruit juice, acts directly on the digestive and eliminatory organs of the body, and at the same time, is the best of tonics to purify and enrich the blood and build up the general health.

I do not wish to be misunderstood as saying that woman's work should be confined exclusively to the household. Where circumstances, inclination and qualification permit, I would give her ample scope for the exercise of the best and the noblest that is in her, in religious, philanthropic or charitable work in the alleviation of the misfortunes and woes of humanity, in which she can and should work shoulder to shoulder with the stronger sex. And when you get beneath the surface it is found that four-fifths of all the indignities and are brought about by the lack of home-anchorage, home ties, home influences, or, in other words, the failure of individual women to properly fill the sphere they were intended to fill in the great and unending plan of divine economy.

It is extremely unfortunate for the rising generation of womanhood that a few agitators, who are clamoring not for the franchise only but for rule and authority and power, are not only unsexing themselves but are sowing the seeds of unrest and discontent and discord which may bring a harvest of social and political demoralization—instilling the British suffragettes. The great masses of Canadian women are happy and contented, their rights respected, their wishes deferred to the men of Canada, and they are less aggressive with tongue and pen and they do not proclaim it with trumpet sound the look with which they disapprove anything that would rob them of their true womanhood.

As to "purifying politics," if they have failed to purify the fountain they surely cannot expect to succeed in purifying the stream. They have long had the opportunity of influencing and purifying the men in politics. The possibilities of corruption are greatly increased in every extension of the franchise. The purifying of politics by women must inevitably prove a great failure if persisted in by the present attempted methods, and in the failure woman will have stepped down from the high and glorious position she now occupies of being a crowned queen in her own sacred realm of home. J. E. M. S.

Not Christian Science.

Editor World: Your issue of the 9th contains a despatch from New Orleans, stating that a J. C. Wilson of that place allowed himself to be run over by a street car in order to test the truth of Christian science teachings. Such an incident, if it happened as reported, not only proves that Wilson was deficient in common sense, but that he possessed no real understanding of Christian Science. Such foolhardy action is entirely repudiated by Christian Scientists. C. R. Munro.

THOMPSON TUTTLE READS HIS SON'S DEATH NOTICE

Also Telegram From Undertaker Asking For His Body—Not in B. C. Wreck.

When Thompson Tuttle arrived at his brother's house, 865 Yonge-street, yesterday morning he found awaiting him a telegram from a Kingston undertaker.

The telegram was brief and to the point, for it requested that the remains of the said Thompson Tuttle should be forwarded to the Limestone City for interment. Mr. Tuttle was then informed by his sister-in-law that according to the papers he was officially dead, it appeared that his name had figured in the list of fatalities in the recent Vancouver electric railway smash, and his relatives had concluded that the report was correct. They were strengthened in this belief owing to the fact that an uncle resides in Vancouver, and they concluded that he had identified the body and sent particulars to Toronto.

Thompson Tuttle, who is employed the Pullman service of the C. P. R., travels regularly to Winnipeg, but occasionally he goes right thru to Vancouver, and this fact added to the uncertainty of his Toronto relatives. However, on his arrival yesterday morning the house of mourning was changed into a house of joy, and after reading his splendid obituary notices, Mr. Tuttle came to the conclusion that it was not always the good who die young.

PICKERING T.P. WANTS

C.N.R. THRU CENTRE

A Fine Stretch of Country Tapped

By the Proposed North Route, Radials Are Welcomed.

PICKERING, Nov. 12.—(Special.)—The advent of the C.N.R. thru Pickering Township is looked upon with considerable satisfaction by the farmers. If the proposed road follows its original survey, which skirts the base of that low range of hills about the centre of the township, it will tap several prosperous villages and afford easy shipping points for an immense amount of farm produce. At present many farmers are so far from both the C.P.R. and the C.N.R. that they are seriously handicapped.

"If the road comes thru here," said Frank Smith of Audley, "I will go in for dairy farming, and the C.N.R. will be a great help to me."

There is a stretch of country thru the western part of the township," said John Henderson, who was here on Saturday looking after the renting of a farm along the line, "which will immediately call into activity dairymen, market gardeners and hog-raisers. This property has long needed better service. Lying within twenty miles of Toronto, it is as undeveloped as land in New Ontario, and as soon as the new road gets in, farming conditions will improve."

Another pleased man is Z. L. Green of Greenwood, who operates big flourishing farms, a 500 acre farm, a creamery and owns one of the biggest herds of Jersey cattle in Canada. Greenwood has been a lively spot in times past. But were it not for Green's enterprise the place would be useless now and its population would be down to very few.

A Convenient Station.

In the past the four and mill feeds had to be teamed to outside points, entailing no small expense on the owner. The proposed C.N.R. locates a station at the foot of Valentine's Hill, which gives Greenwood a shipping point close at hand. This by the lake does a big business, for it is in the centre of a big shipping community. Coal yards and stock yards will likely be located here.

People all along this central zone are decidedly anxious for the line to pass there. They are not at all in sympathy with the demands put by the lake towns, to have the line pass thru them.

"They already have one road and we have none, and it looks like as if Hogtown might be applied to these," was the unpoetic remarks of one man in conversation with The World reporter.

Pickering's Hopes.

The people of Pickering Village would all like to see the C.N.R. line pass thru the village so as to make the

CHARLES A. CONNORS

(Formerly with B.D. Humphrey).
JEWELLER.

505 Yonge Street.
Phone North 1050.

G.T.R. give them better accommodation. As it is, there is no late or early trains stopping, even on flag, at this station. While Rosebank, a small summer resort, can have the early morning and the late train stopping there, it has been as often sidetracked. A big business of shipping live stock, apples, coal, lumber, and freight is done here and if the C.N.R. road would come in, they would get the biggest share of this traffic. The local passenger trains are also very poorly equipped, and while the G.T.R. thru trains are perfect, the local trains have to be content with any old kind of a coach.

And yet, while the people would be glad to see the C.N.R. come thru the village, they are not insistent, because they really believe that the electric line to which they gave a franchise a few years ago, will come down to Kingston-road and afford them a passenger and freight service in the no distant future.

For this reason the people of south Pickering are apathetic in regard to the proposed spur line of the C.N.R. to take in the lake towns. The flourishing villages of Brougham, Greenwood, Kinsale, Cherrywood and Brockton, in Pickering Township, are rejoicing in the possibility of getting a railroad quite near them.

Farmers Want Radials.

The farmers want radial railways and they hope that the time is near at hand when the Scarborough line will tap this township.

Thus it is that the advent of the radials and the C.N.R. is generally hailed with pleasure in Pickering Township.

ITALIAN GENERAL'S TALK

MAY CREATE WAR SCARE

Tells Troops He Hopes for Triumph Over Austria—Promptly Retired by Cabinet.

ROME, Nov. 12.—Gen. Asinari, commander of the Milan Army Corps, in a speech to-day while presenting a flag to a new cavalry regiment of Brescia, expressed the hope that the Italian colors would yet wave over the scene of the conquering of the Italian province that still are subject to Austria.

Naturally the address of Gen. Asinari has created something akin to a sensation and especially so as the general headed the military mission that recently met Emperor Nicholas at the frontier. His words in some quarters are interpreted as an outcome of the meeting at Raconigi of Emperor Nicholas and King Victor Emmanuel.

The cabinet promptly retired Gen. Asinari before his arrival in Rome, where he has been summoned.

WARD 4 CONSERVATIVES ELECT YEAR'S OFFICERS

Fred Armstrong Again President—

Controller Geary and Dr. Nesbitt Had Encounter.

Fred Armstrong is again president of the Ward Four Conservative Association, the choice at last night's meeting in Broadway Hall being unanimous.

It was a serene affair altho the bold-est held his breath over one incident. It was when Controller Geary, on mounting the platform, encountered his majority foe of two years ago in the person of the robust Dr. Beatrice Nesbitt. Neither appeared to notice the other's presence, and presently the controller withdrew without waiting to address the meeting.

Dr. Nesbitt, when called upon, was greeted cordially and spoke with old time fire, while avoiding politics, both party and municipal. He gave warning that Germany and Austria were preparing for a coalition monarchy in Europe, and loud was the applause when the doctor declared that Canada should aid in empire defence.

Chairman Armstrong having given notification that the meeting was for organization purposes alone, and that no political issues were taboed, John Shaw, M.L.A., contented himself with saying that the admiration for Sir James Whitney continued to grow the more he was associated with the premier.

Misses Vokes and Trustee Levee owned up to feelings of dissatisfaction because a city so strongly Conservative did not show its political leanings at the civic polls.

It's time Toronto had a Conservative mayor," declared Mr. Vokes. "The city should not allow Liberals to run its affairs."

Mr. Levee thought Toronto Conservatives had shown enough liberality in municipal matters to last for some time. He would like to see a Conservative board of control and entire city council. These remarks seemed to find favor.

Among others who spoke were Col. Burris, C. A. B. Brown, Ald. McGhie, W. H. Smith, and E. J. Hearn.

Other officers elected were: First Vice-Pres. John Cornell (acc.), Second Vice-Pres. Lionel Gordon (acc.), Third Vice-Pres. Alex. Owens, Secretary James Mitchell (acc.), and Treasurer J. H. Lumsden.

BURNED ALL THE LETTERS

Witness in Coal Case Didn't Wait for Subpoena.

HALIFAX, Nov. 12.—(Special.)—In the police court enquiry to-day into the alleged coal conspiracy, Hugh Mackenzie, Halifax agent of the International Coal Co., said that he had burned certain letters that the crown had asked him to produce.

"I burned all of them two days after the trial opened," he said. "I had not then been subpoenaed; I had seen the outrage perpetrated on innocent persons by the production of private letters, and I determined that I should not be compelled to do the same thing."

"I took all the letters and holes-bored them, and everything I thought might give you the slightest help, and burned them all, personally."

"I cut out every letter I thought you might want and burned them, personally. If you want the letter books, you can have them."

THIRTY VESSELS ASHORE

Wild Storm Sweeps Along Newfoundland Coast.

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., Nov. 12.—Thirty fishing vessels and trading schooners are ashore at various points along the coast of Newfoundland and a half dozen craft are missing, driven to sea and possibly sunk, as the result of a gale of hurricane proportions which has raged for three days.

Up to a late hour to-night, no lives of seamen on vessels accounted for have been lost.

Telegraph poles, trees, fishing houses and signal stations went down before the blast, which also demolished wharves, water-side buildings and fishing outfits. Many of those driven ashore were at anchor.

The steamer Portia left St. John's to-day to search for the missing craft.

AUTO VICTIM MAY DIE

Alfred Smith Runs Before Car and is Unconscious at Hospital.

Albert Smith, a 14-year-old lad, while coming home from work last night, ran into a car driven by George W. Thompson, 41 Walker-avenue, in Queen, near Jarvis-street. He was thrown to the pavement and hurled in the auto to St. Michael's Hospital, where he was admitted unconscious at a late hour. Several ribs were fractured and it is feared that his skull is also fractured. His condition is critical.

Witnesses of the accident say that the boy ran directly in front of the auto, which was running at a moderate rate, and stopped instantly. His parents live at 45 Britain-street.

CONSERVATIVE CAUCUS

No Attempt Made to Decide on a Naval Policy.

OTTAWA, Nov. 12.—(Special.)—A Conservative caucus was held here this morning, and after sitting a couple of hours, adjourned until this evening. The question of a Canadian naval policy was the chief subject of discussion. Tho the views expressed were in many cases divergent, the utmost harmony prevailed and loyalty to Mr. Borden as Conservative leader was reiterated.

No decision as to a party naval policy will be made until the government has formulated its program.

MOST MOMENTOUS STEP IS BUILDING OF NAVY

E. C. Drury, Master Dominion

Grange, Protests Against Ill-

Conceived Plunge.

E. C. Drury, master Dominion Grange, while the following protest against the navy proposals:

It appears, if present indications mean anything, that as the approaching session of the Dominion Parliament a bill will be passed authorizing the expenditure of some $20,000,000 for a Canadian navy. It appears probable that the bill will be passed without serious opposition in the House as the official and unopposed voice of the opposition has declared himself in accord with the government's proposal. The time has come when a most momentous step in our history will have been taken—a step which will place our country into a war power, however petty, which will impose upon the bureau of taxation incidental to this formidable undertaking a permanent military class, with all its attendant evils, and which will destroy forever the ideal which many of our truest sons have had for Canada, that of a pacific, industrious people, growing in the new world into a great nation, free from the follies and sins of the old; a nation which will draw to her children, and trusting to the strength of righteousness in her foreign relations. This step, however, is a general election or by a plebiscite, and the people must be some urgent reason for such a step—something so urgent that the delay caused by an appeal to the people would be dangerous. Otherwise it would appear incredible that in a country ruled by a people (as of course we are), such a step could be taken without the direct approval of the popular voice.

And yet, to the average mind, no such reason appears. It is not a time of war, reason appears. It is not a time of war, reason appears. It is not a time of war, reason appears.

England, it is true, has been drawn into the mad race of military armaments, and with the physical and moral deterioration of her people, and a large proportion of her most fertile land lying idle, she is spending upon her navy. It is argued that she must do so, because of her island position, and that if her land forces were not so well equipped, she might be made a prey to the people who were her neighbors. But the present is no emergency, and the danger of a naval policy of a navy, to be merely the nucleus of a navy, is not a danger. It is a danger of a navy, to be merely the nucleus of a navy, is not a danger. It is a danger of a navy, to be merely the nucleus of a navy, is not a danger.

These are no reasons for entering upon such a radical change of national policy without a reference to the will of the people.

It is not true that the people of Canada are unanimous in their views upon the question. Labor has pronounced against it, and the feeling of the farmers, as evidenced by the agriculturalers, is a solidly against the proposal to create a Canadian navy. Surely there are indications everywhere of popular disapproval, and in the face of these, the government to proceed with the proposed policy is unworthy of a free citizenry, at least until such time as the people have had opportunity to pronounce upon it.

There are other ways of helping our well-loved motherland. Direct contributions of money would seem to many very desirable, especially when I've considered the expenditure. It would, however, be much better than the present proposal, in that it would avoid the complications which may possibly arise between England and Canada as to the control of a Canadian navy; would not be pledging us to a naval policy of any sort; and would escape the departmental corruption which sometimes exists in Canadian government. But why need we do even this? England's greatest need is industrial prosperity; with this she can build her own dreadnaughts, and what is at least of equal importance, feed her people. This we can increase largely, and to our own benefit. Let us throw down the barriers of trade between England and Canada, and admit her goods free of duty. This would undoubtedly greatly increase

PRIVATE DISEASES

Impotency, Sterility, etc. (the result of Jolly excesses). Gleet and Syphilis (the only sure cure, and no bad effects). SKIN DISEASES, whether of the face, scalp, or not. Mercury used in treatment of Syphilis, and its effects on the system. PAINFUL or Profuse Menstruation, and all diseases of the female system. Hours: 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. SUNDAYS: 10 to 12 a.m. Specialties of DR. W. H. GRAHAM, No. 1 Clarence Square, Cor. Spadina.

England's prosperity and would be the best answer we could give to any threat of foreign interference. At the same time it would make Canada able to come to the help of the motherland should occasion arise; by increasing our agricultural development and helping the farming class, which furnishes the best element of defence, to hold its own; and by increasing the numbers and efficiency of our merchant marine. These two classes, which would be benefited by this proposal, do not make for war, as the creation of a navy does, but would be most powerful factors in time of peace.

However, this is Utopian. A government which will not enforce existing laws against combines, which are known to be making 50 per cent. profit on their export of wheat to the United States, and which will not create a military force, is not a government to be trusted. But, our politicians should not deceive themselves; the proposal to create a military force is a direct step towards the subjugation of the masses of the people, and any attempt to ignore this must at the last, meet its reward.

SPORTING PASTOR RAPS HIS FELLOW MINISTERS

Says They Are to Be Found in Golf Clubs, Which Are Sabbath Desecrators.

The ministers come in for a few raps at the afternoon session of the annual meeting of the Lord's Day Alliance. The first one was given by Rev. J. D. Morrow in speaking on Sunday sports.

"It is not the baseball, hockey and running clubs that desecrate the Sabbath. Instead it is mostly the golf clubs. It is also strange that ministers never have anything to do with the former clubs, but in the latter they are usually to be found enrolled as members."

The speaker held up Bobby Kerr and other prominent athletes as shining examples. Kerr, he said, was a noble Christian boy, and his influence for good was unlimited. In the church of which he was a member they never had any trouble with their young men leaving. They all thought it an honor to work beside such a man. In concluding he said that it would be advisable for the church to get hold of the heroes of sports and then the young men problem would be solved to a great extent.

Ministers Buy on Sunday.
J. H. Austin, a Toronto druggist, said the great trouble of the druggists' business was the breaking of the Sunday laws. "I have known ministers and their wives to come in on Sunday and request postage stamps and other little things," he said. "These may seem to other people the most trivial request, but it is breaking the law. They could have bought them just as well on Saturday."

The speaker said that one of the reasons he never carried tobacco was the Sunday demand. If he refused to sell to his customers he would lose their trade, and if he did he was breaking the law. The druggists also were made to work ten or twelve hours on the Sabbath, owing to a few that would not close up for the greater part of the day. Drugs were seldom called for on this day, and if they were needed it would be easy to deliver them. It was, however, impossible to shut down a competitor on the other corner as keeping open all day.

James Simpson, in speaking on the Sunday work of telegraph and telephone operators, said that the work would be greatly minimized if the scale of wages were higher. Of course such a step might encourage Sunday work to a certain extent, but on the other hand it would discourage it with the companies. This would make them more careful of employing Sunday labor. It was, however, a question for the alliance to take up for legislation and for the trades union to solve. Sunday sales on trains by the news agents also received some consideration. People would walk or be thronged and then board a train to secure their papers and tobacco. It was suggested that all these travelers' conveniences be cut out on Sunday, and only food sold. The latter was also to be distributed with due consideration so that the hungry would be the only ones to receive it.

Inspector Archibald, speaking on the difficulties of enforcing the law, in cases of the use of conveyances for Sunday pleasure, declared that the whole trouble was caused by clause 17 in the act, which said that conveyances could be made unless the consent of the attorney-general was obtained.

Officers Elected.
At the morning meeting, Rev. J. P. Sweeney, D.D., Bishop of Toronto, was elected president, succeeding Rev. Dr. Perry.

The other officers elected were: Vice-presidents, J. K. Macdonald, Rev. A. C. Mackay, L.L.D.; Rev. L. Norman Tucker, D.C.T.; Rev. S. D. Chown, F.D.; Rev. J. A. Macdonald, secretary; Gordon Wright of Winnipeg, secretary; Rev. W. G. Hanna, B.A., general secretary for Canada; Rev. T. Albert Moore, and treasurer, Rev. Dr. Charles J. Copp.

Chairmen of standing committees are as follows: Legal, J. K. Patterson, K.C.; legislative, J. K. Patterson, K.C.; organization, Rev. E. S. Marshall, and financial, John E. Brown.

The finance committee reported a deficit of $51.61. A strong appeal has been sent out to the branches for pecuniary help. Six new branches of the alliance have been organized during the last year.

The legal committee believed that the operation of the Grand Valley & Brantford Electric Railway was unnecessary on Sunday. They hoped the government would set it.

They also deplored the fact that the cement works violated the act. "It is hoped the new merger will put a stop to this," said the speaker.

Magistrate Denison was criticized for his opinion from the bench recently. It was to the effect that if the hotel-keeper had the right to sell cigars, so had the restaurant-keeper. They examined all legislation and found no legal grounds for such a statement.

The following resolutions were also passed:

Resolutions.
"Thinking of the fact that the heartiness of their spirit and co-operation in reducing the Sunday labor, and suggesting that all branches of the alliance who are labor unionists will help to further the work."

Asking that all managers of firms where it is necessary for their workers to labor on Sunday comply with the Lord's Day legislation and give a day off during the week, and that the directors try and reduce the Sunday work as much as possible.

Complimenting the druggists on their efforts to reduce the open hours on Sunday, and on their intention of selling nothing but what the law allows.

Requesting the telegraph and telephone companies to allow their employees one day off during the week.

That the annual meeting report be published and distributed through the province.

Miss Henderson has returned from New York. She has in her possession a number of new study-Green Building, corner Yonge and Grenville streets. Special Saturday classes. The use of colors, lustres and enamels.

No Franchise for Women.
LONDON, Nov. 12.—The Earl of Crewe, lord privy seal, told a deputation of Liberal women that there was no chance of the government supporting a woman suffrage plank in the next election.

Railway Buys Telegraph Line.
GODERICH, Nov. 12.—The connection at the Goderich office of the G. N. W. Telegraph Co. with the line running north along the lake shore to Kincardine has been severed, the reason being that the company had sold the line to J. W. Moyes, who purchased it for use in connection with the Ontario West Shore Railway. The railway company intends to convert it into a telephone line, and will do its despatching by telephone. Mr. Moyes states that it is intended to allow the public the use of the telephone line free of charge.

Women Cannot be Strong and Healthy Unless the Kidneys are Well.

Weak, lame or aching backs are the first sign of kidney trouble. To be strong and ready to bear the burdens of life.

It is hard to do housework with a weak and aching back. Backaches come from sick kidneys, and what a lot of trouble they can cause.

But they can't help it. If more work is put on them than they can stand it is not to be wondered that they get out of order. Weak backs are simply a warning from the kidneys and should be attended to immediately so as to avoid years of terrible suffering from kidney troubles. Doan's Kidney Pills will cure you in the same way as they have cured thousands of others.

Miss Alberta B. Clarke, Stoney Creek, Ont., writes: "I was troubled with kidney trouble for several years; my back was weak, I had such terrible headaches, and was so restless I could not sleep at night and tried everything without any benefit. Meaning a friend advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills, so I got four boxes and they completely cured me. I now feel as well as I ever did and would advise everyone suffering from kidney disease to try them."

Price 50 cents per box, or 3 for $1.25, at all dealers or The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

In ordering specify "Doan's."

AT THE THEATRES

Fannie Ward Comin.

On Monday night Miss Fannie Ward will make her bow before Toronto theatregoers at the Princess Theatre for a week's engagement in "Van Allen's Wife." Her new vehicle, "Van Allen's Wife," was tried out at Rochester and Buffalo last week, and reports from those towns are to the effect that it is a powerful and intense drama and that Miss Ward sustains her part with wonderful artistic power and emotion.

Miss Ward assumes the role of Muriel Van Allen, a young woman who has looked upon the seamy side of life only, but has been rescued from it by the Chadwick trio.

Season Miss Merrill and Mr. Otto appeared together.

Les Cadets de Gasconne, a quartet of French operatic stars, make their first appearance at Shea's. Each is a trained vocalist and the three men and one woman in the quartet introduce some beautiful operatic music.

The Chadwick trio will be seen in the one-act farce, "For Sale, Wagons Farm," a rural comedy skit of society follies, which embraces humor, harmony and dancing, and introduces the champion woman back dancer of America, Ida May Chadwick.

Johnston and Harry are jolly singing comedy, bewildering enjoyment and pleasure.

Praises "The Clansman." "I attended Mr. Dixon's play 'The Clansman,' said Governor Robert B. Owen of North Carolina to a Raleigh News and Observer man, 'fearing from what I had heard that I would be disappointed and join with those who believe that the production of such a play would be of no benefit to our section. I am glad now that I went, for my views have undergone a complete change, and I unhesitatingly say that I wish every young man and woman in the south could both see and hear their forefathers passed in the days of reconstruction.'

"The Clansman," with its marvelous story of the triumph of white supremacy in the south, will be at the Grand Monday, Nov. 22.

National Grand Opera Company.
Toronto is looking forward with great interest to the coming of the National Grand Opera Company at the Royal Alexandra. The engagement will be for the week of Nov. 22, with the opening bill, Monday evening of "Aida," Tuesday evening of "Ludovic," Wednesday evening of "Cavalleria" (the operatic version of Camille), Thursday matinee "Trovatore," Thursday evening "Carmen" (in French), Friday evening "Rigoletto," Saturday matinee "Aida," and on Saturday evening the double bill of "Cavalleria Rusticana" and "I Pagliacci."

Miss Koenen's Recital.
A New York critic once said that no concert can produce a smooth tone in the vocal department. After hearing Miss Koenen's wonderful voice, Eric De La Martre of The Chicago Tribune says that that dictum must be revised. Of this tone, he says: "It is rich in color, broad and kind. The vibrant fortissimos contain no hint of effort and strain. Miss Koenen appears in recital at Massey Hall on Friday Nov. 26."

Welsh Choir's Return.
Lovers of delightful choral music and interesting vocal effects will be delighted to hear that the Royal Ladies' Welsh Choir will make a return visit to Massey Hall on Saturday evening, Dec. 4, and will give a new program.

Vegara Opera Society.
The Vegara Opera and Oratorio Society holds its first public performance the second week in December. In addition to the advanced pupils of the signor (Caruso and others), one of the principal debuts will be Mrs. Dr. King, who possesses a soprano voice of exceptional quality.

Utility of the Player-Piano.
The young folks have left the home room and family piano is now seldom, if ever, used.

But the player-piano changes all this. Any one can play a Hupstad & Co. player-piano—father, mother, anyone.

The suggestion is to exchange the old piano for a player-piano and bring it to the home an instrument possible of daily use.

In any case it is worth while seeing this new and handsome player-piano manufactured by this firm, and on exhibition in their warerooms, 115-117 W. of King-street, Toronto.

Sunday Mass Meeting.
"Ladies' Men of International prominence will discuss the question of the season at a mass meeting to be held in Massey Hall on Sunday at 3 o'clock. The speakers will be: Charles Stedman, president of the department of church and labor of the Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A., will preside. Addresses will be given by John Mitchell, John E. Lennon, treasurer of the American Federation of Labor; Thomas L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America; and James Simpson of Toronto. The Doric Male Quartet, Donald McGregor and the Alexander Chorus will sing. The main floor will be reserved for men, but the galleries will be open for both men and women."

Malliers' Union Banquet.
The Toronto Malliers' Union No. 5, a banquet to the international officers of the Allied Printing Trades at the Municipal Hotel Thursday night, 50 members and guests being present. Addresses were delivered by President Lynch and 3rd Vice-President Smith of the I. T. U.; President Glicking of I. B. of P.; President Freely of Stereotypers and electrotypes; President Waul of photo-engravers, and James Gordon of No. 10. Local President J. S. Gallagher was toast master.

Babies suffer from chafing, scald head, skin irritation and eczema.

Eczema often develops from the milder forms of skin irritation and has a tendency to spread over the body and become chronic.

Baby eczema means torture for the little ones— anxiety and loss of sleep for the mothers.

But baby eczema is almost immediately relieved and certainly cured by the use of

"Going Some."
That there is a great fund of fun and real mirth in real American characters has been exemplified by the success of "Going Some," which will be seen here next week at the Royal Alexandra.

Paul Armstrong and Rex Beach, the authors, have taken for their characters college boys and cowboys. They have placed the scenes on a ranch in New Mexico. The play calls for a great deal of clever characterization and the cast includes Walter Jones, comedians, Laura Lemmers, Aubrey Beattie, E. L. Fernandez, Crosby Little, Jay Carrigan, August Glassmore, Juno Hathis, Kate McLaurin and others.

"Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch."
Seldom does a play present one fresh and striking type, but in "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," which comes to the Grand next week, there are four that everyone who sees the play and members with equal sharpness or pleasurable mental definition. Around them are gathered a score of more characters and types, however, and the role is fastidiously cast. Incredible pains have been taken by Leblanc & Co. to make the players fit their roles as to moulded, to them, and the success attending the endeavors of this enterprising firm is sufficiently attested by the fact that the play is now in its sixth year of enormous success. America, passed its 30th performance at Terry's Theatre in London, England.

WALTER ONES.
In "Going Some," Royal Alexandra.

dogs are wonderful animals, and in acrobatic work are said to rival human gymnasts. They sail in airships and balloons and will do all sorts of wonderful stunts, acrobatic and amusing. The little folks and the grown-ups of the kinetograph will close the bill with new pictures.

Vaudeville for the Deaf.
In keeping with Wm. Morris' policy to provide every comfort possible at the New Majestic music hall, he will install this week several seats with the new hearing apparatus, for the benefit of persons with defective hearing. To do this means an outlay of several hundred dollars, but it keeps the Wm. Morris house in the lead, in all matters, where the patron is benefited. In addition, Mr. Morris has had the entire theatre fitted with the new Tungsol lights, which does not hurt the eyes, yet gives the most brilliant light.

Star.
The Fay Foster Company, which will be at the Star next week, has for its leading comedian an old Toronto boy. His name is Sam J. Adams and although he is only a young man, he is ready to give him a royal welcome. The role he plays is one that gives him great scope for his talent, and he will be seen for the first time in two burlesques, "Who Owns The Baby," which are said to be the brightest, wittiest, and funniest acts that have ever been seen in burlesque.

"The Lid Lifters."
Never before have there been girls so dainty, so artists, so alluring as "The Lid Lifters," girls to be seen at the Gayety theatre next week. Along with this beauty show there are comedians that make fun, and plenty of it. It is good, and has a delightful freshness, a beauty and brilliancy fresh. Paris must have inspired the author of these lovely Dutch girls. The dash, the splendor, for the abandon, the life and sport. Each scene, each dance, and every, romping, brilliant figure produce scenes and an environment of and a special company presented it in Australia, duplicating its American and London success.

Shea's Next Week.
At Shea's Theatre next week will be seen Sam Chip and Mary Marble in "In Old Edam," a Dutch skit written for the clever pair by Anna Marble (Mrs. Channing Pollock), and which recently scored the biggest kind of a hit at the Colonial Theatre in New York. The playlet is a beautiful musical comedy and bright and lively. Mr. Chip and Miss Marble appear as two Dutch youngsters, and John W. Dunne enacts the role of their funny old Dutch uncle.

The special extra attraction on the bill is "Lola Merrill" and Frank Otto, who will present their dainty playlet, "After the Shower." This is the first comedian, who contribute several minutes of pleasing entertainment.

Hill, Cherry and Hill are making their first appearance at Shea's and have won for themselves the distinction of being called America's sensation comedy cyclists. Hermans' cats and comedians.

EXHIBITION

Will Be Held at New Library, College Street, Nov. 24.

At last Toronto is to have an art gallery worthy of her importance as a great city. The Art Museum of Toronto, of which Byron E. Walker is president, is moving in this direction. It will be remembered that three years ago in conjunction with the Ontario Society of Artists, the museum held an exhibition of pictures by Glasgow painters. This year the exhibition, which is to be held in the galleries of the new library on College street, is to be on a much more ambitious scale. It will be open from Nov. 24 inst. to Dec. 18. In order to encourage a love of art among the people, every Saturday will be free. On other days an admission fee of 25 cents will be charged. The exhibition will consist of pictures of the Old Dutch, Modern Dutch, French, English and other European schools. Paintings will be on view by such artists of renown as Reynolds, Romney, Raeburn, Hopper, Constable, Turner, Moreland, Cecil Lawson, Sir David Wilkie, Peter Graham, Gainsborough, David Cox and Sir George Reid, of the British school; Marais, Teniers, Franz Hals, Van der Helst, Israels, Mesdag and Mauve of the Dutch and Flemish school; by Forstny, Heiner, Mortell, Corneille, Rousseau, Troyon, Frere, Ponce-Latour, L. Harmette, Diaz, Daubigny, Harpigny and Roybet of the French school and others. The exhibition will be opened by the Lieut. Governor on Nov. 24, and Byron E. Walker will deliver an address.

MAY KEEP CANAL OPEN

To Allow of the Passage of Grain Carriers.

ST. CATHARINES, Nov. 12.—So far about 2500 vessels have been looked thru the Welland Canal this year, and a good bulk of those going down carried wheat and other grain. The canal usually closes about Dec. 15, but it may be kept open longer this year to permit of as much wheat being sent down as possible before the route is frozen up. As a general thing, the Welland Canal is able to do business away into January.

Property Committee Meeting.

MILITIA GUARDING TRAIN TO PROTECT MURDERER

But Cairo Mob Seems Satisfied
With Having Avenged Delayed
Justice by Lynching Two Men.

CAIRO, Ill., Nov. 12.—The arrival of five companies of the state militia this morning, apparently cowed the spirit of the men who lynched Will James, a negro, and Henry Salmer, last night. No attempt has been made to storm the county jail, where Arthur Alexander, a negro, implicated by James in his confession in the killing of Miss Annie Pease, is confined. The jail was surrounded by militia. Five other companies of the state militia arrived before noon.

This afternoon Alexander was taken from the city by a special train, guarded by seven companies of militia. Last night's outbreak is attributed by Mayor Parsons to-day to the fact that, although the city had its share of murders, there had been no official executions there for over five years, the justice acquitting, or reducing the charges.

Alexander was smuggled to the jail in a policeman's uniform.

Terrible scenes accompanied the killing of James. Before the fire was started, the negro's head was cut off and placed on one end of a pole, which was stuck in the ground. The heart was taken out, cut up in small pieces and passed among the men as souvenirs. Pieces of the rope with which he was hanged after being soaked in the negro's blood, were also passed about as trophies.

Organs at Fifty Cents a Week.
In the warehouses of the old firm of Heintzman Co., Ltd., 115-117 West King-street, Toronto, may be seen an assortment of organs of different makes, ranging in price at from $15.00 to $75.00 each, all in good condition and bearing the names of well-known makers.

These are being sold to-day on payments of fifty cents a week.

Won't Occur Again.
OTTAWA, Nov. 12.—It was explained to-day why Sir Wilfrid Laurier was at the evening dress at yesterday's opening ceremony. It appears that the right honorable gentleman's state uniform was sent to England for alterations and repairs and was not returned in time.

The absence of the gay-coated outsiders from the governor-general's carriage in the procession is accounted for by the fact that Earl Grey had not anticipated being in Canada for the opening of another parliament, and many of his servants had returned to the old country. No experienced men could be got here to take their places.

BROKE PROMISE; WAS SHOT

Woman Who Killed Former Londoner
Says He Deserved It.

DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 12.—Just before he died to-day from two bullet wounds received last night, Samuel F. Morley, farm manager of a large estate, at Bloomfield, 20 miles north of Detroit, said that Bertha Leutzeau, cook at the farm, had shot him because he refused to marry her.

At the Pontiac jail Miss Leutzeau said: "Morley did me a great wrong in promising to marry me, and in refusing to do so, so I shot him. And if I were going to die in three minutes I would not ask forgiveness for what I have done. He got what was due him."

Morley came from London, Ont., where his sister and brother reside.

NEW QUEBEC JUDGE.

OTTAWA, Nov. 12.—Judge A. MacLellan of the Arthabaska judicial district, has been transferred to Quebec to fill the vacancy on the bench caused by the appointment of Sir Louis Jetté, as chief justice of Quebec.

The Dominion Government's modified naval program calls for the initial construction within three or four years of three second-class cruisers and four torpedo boats or torpedo boat destroyers, at a total cost of ten or twelve million dollars. The first plans called for an expenditure of $20,000,000. A first appropriation of about $2,000,000 will be asked at the approaching session. The cost of maintenance is estimated at $3,000,000 a year.

Government measures will also include the Insurance Bill, a bill for the regular decennial revision of the Bank Act, a bill in regard to the Hudson Bay Railway, a bill to more clearly define the powers of the railway commission in regard to telegraph and telephone companies, and a bill lightening the act regarding bookmaking and gambling. It is also proposed to amend the rules of the house for the purpose of expediting business.

Four by-elections for the Nova Scotia Legislative Assembly will take place on the 24th inst.

Death caused a vacancy in Cumberland, Hon. W. T. Phipps, attorney-general, dying in Boston suddenly. The Liberals have nominated J. H. Livingston as their candidate, and the Conservatives have put forward Mr. Rogers, an Amherst barrister. In Lunenburg, Hon. A. C. McLean is running to hold the office of attorney-general. Dr. March resigned his seat to make room for him. There is a vacancy in Victoria County thru the death of John Morrison, and A. A. Buchanan is in the field as supporter of the government. These seats have been held by Liberals. In Hants County there is to be a contest owing to the death of C. W. Wilcox, Conservative, and leader of the provincial opposition. The Liberals now have a majority in the house.

The Regina West heartily welcomes the national convention of the Conservative party. "The Liberal-Conservative party," it says, "is rich in glorious traditions, but the spirit of Canada demands progress not traditions. The success of the Liberal party since 1896 shows that the electorate of Canada prefer even disreputable audacity to staid conservatism. Progress has created new conditions. To meet these conditions the Liberal-Conservative party must present to the electorate a policy—a policy of the party and its representatives, not of the representatives of the party. It is in addition to formulating a policy it will settle the question of leadership and will place R. L. Borden at the head of a united, progressive party."

Political Intelligence

One of the party who went to Ottawa Wednesday night told The World that, in his opinion, the next Conservative premier will come out of the west, and he believed that C. A. Magrath of Medicine Hat was the most striking figure among the delegates from west of Lake Superior.

Mr. Magrath is close to six feet four inches in height and broad proportioned, but his admirers do not rely on length and thickness to carry him to the top notch among Conservative statesmen. He has ability, a kindly manner and musical voice, and what is more, he is not forcing himself into the forefront.

It was Magrath who first voiced the opinion of the west against the navy policy. He did his own thinking and was not afraid to express his thoughts. Presently the broad fields of western Canada were ringing with the denunciation of what he regarded to be a half-baked policy, to which his leader in Ottawa had given consent. Whatever the caucus may do Friday night or endorse the navy proposals, it is certain that Magrath's voice will be heard within the thud room where the policies are made.

The Medicine Hat man is a westerner, but he affects none of the wild and woolly attributes of Glen Campbell. He has the polish of a leader.

Thruout the country, the division of opinion on the question of a navy is being discussed by the newspapers of both sides. The division, however, is not confined to one party. There have been out-spoken opinions on the government policy—a policy that has the endorsement of the opposition—by members of both camps. In the Liberal party, Hon. H. R. Emmerson, Hon. A. B. Belcourt, Duncan Ross in West Midland, and others have pronounced against the "tin pot" navy. Of the Conservatives, conspicuous opponents are western members headed by C. A. Magrath, Hon. R. T. Roblin and here in Toronto such men as A. E. Kemp, ex-M.P., one of Mr. Borden's right hand workers, and Joseph Russell, M.P., who defeated Mr. Kemp, but who attended last session the party caucuses at Ottawa, are apparently at odds with their leader.

Discussing the divergent view on this question, The Peterboro Review remarks:

There never has been such a pronounced difference of opinion, regarding party politics and political affiliations as in the case of the Laurier naval scheme. A large number of Liberals are breaking away from Sir Wilfrid Laurier's policy. The Conservatives, on the other hand, are breaking away from the issue of the Canadian navy scheme will not go down. The people, as a body, seem determined to reject the attempt to saddle them with a useless expense. The plan devised is no credit to Canada's statesmanship. It is doubtful if it will ever come to pass, although every possible means is being used by way of dry-dock schemes, the lean of British cruisers, the training of Canadian seamen, etc., to give the impression that the thing is already done.

The Kingston Standard (Cons.), thus expresses its opposition: "The constituency of Sir John A. Macdonald, the greatest leader that any party in Canada has ever had, is so pronouncedly against this Canadian tin-pot navy that the wonder is that the present Conservative leaders do not hasten to the message that goes forth to them from the old Chief's home. Has it no significance to them—no lesson, no warning?"

MONEY MARKET DOMINATES

Toronto Brokers Reason Out the International Money Problem.

Playfair, Martens & Co. in their weekly letter say: The money market has again become the dominating factor in the financial situation, and we think it well at this time to discuss some of the underlying conditions which control the price of money and indirectly the prices of securities. The minimum rate of discount, fixed by the Bank of England, may be said to be the barometer of the world's money market. When this rate was raised to 5 per cent. on Oct. 21, it caused considerable apprehension, inasmuch as 5 per cent. is the highest point ever reached except in time of great financial disquietude. The 5 per cent. rate has caused great uneasiness in the security markets abroad and this week a movement of $3,000,000 in gold from Paris to London is reported, showing that the increased rate has been effective in attracting gold to London from foreign markets. The large borrowings of American bankers abroad, the situation in regard to the British budget, with the fear of the results of a general election, which will ensue if the budget is rejected by the House of Commons, and the great speculative activity in American issues, have all contributed to the tightness of money in London.

The effect on the American money market has been quick and complete. Demand sterling in New York advanced to 48 1/2, within 15 points of the gold export point, at a time when it is usually nearing the gold import point. This strength was probably caused by the paying off of American loans abroad, and by the liquidation in the New York market of foreign holdings. There are usually large offerings of sterling bills in New York at this time of the year, covering exports of cotton, grain, cereals, etc., but this year it would seem that the effect of these offerings has been discounted by New York bankers to a great extent. Sterling exchange is being done in New York this week around 48 1/2. Last week's New York bank statement showed an actual reserve on deposit of 25.92 per cent., which was as near the required margin of 25 per cent. that higher rates for money and lower prices in the stock market have followed as a matter of course. Call and money are now ruling around 5 per cent., and we do not see any good reason why they should be lower in the immediate future. The return of funds from the west has not yet commenced, using as an indication the fact that New York funds are at a considerable discount. The banks have been steadily losing money to the United States treasury, which is shown by the fact that the government balances last week amounted to $4,497,654, as against $31,663,000 at this time last year. Exports of gold for foreign account to South America and the West Indies, New York as a result of the high rates in London, which constitutes another drain upon the New York reserves. The opening of congress, the large requirements of commercial industries, and the fact that advancing prices in the stock markets cause a proportionate increase in loans, point toward a continuance of present money rates for some weeks.

High money rates in New York attract Canadian funds, and although we do not believe the Canadian banks alone their regular business to suffer in New York, yet the effect of the high rates is apt to feel the lean market here. The scrutiny on the part of bankers, of securities, which, when money is very cheap, are readily accepted as collateral. Summing up, we think that until money shows more readiness to flow toward the financial centres and until the Bank of England reduces its discount rate, we will have firm rates for money, and a cessation of the upward movement in the security markets. A money stringency is almost precluded this year by reason of the large crops and general activity in trade, and we think that investors will profit by watching closely the course of prices, which, we think, will continue upward with the recurrence of easy money.

MARKET IS LISTLESS BUT PRICES GROW FIRM

Speculation Subsides on Wall St.
Without Injury to Prices—Toronto Market Irregular.

World Office.
Friday Evening, Nov. 12.
In the almost entire absence of outside speculation the trading at the Toronto Exchange today was hard to explain.

With the exception of a few investment purchases of outside business was practically nil and the only explanation of many of the deals was that they were for floor operators or for account of traders in Montreal or other distant points.

Sentiment among those closest to the market is undoubtedly bearish, but stocks are not coming out in sufficient quantities to support this contention. The strong feature both from an investment and speculative standpoint today was the rise in Bank of Commerce stock, which sold freely at 10 1/2, as a whole the market was decidedly narrow, as the breadth of operations indicated.

Traders on the short side have banked on tight money as the controlling factor in prices, but purchases are being made by those who are willing to await money developments rather than what they regard as temporary stringency.

The one strong point in favor of those who regard higher prices as inevitable is the small amount of stock that is coming into the market. The late rally was apparently nothing but a driving in of shorts which was most noticeable in Steel and Copper shares. Under the circumstances a conservative policy in stocks appears best. Sell on any sharp bulge. Wait for a break before making purchases.

Wall Street Pointers.

The National Bank of Switzerland has raised its discount rate to 4 per cent.

American Smelting Securities Company lodges first complete list of controlled properties, with application for regular listing of $30,000,000 5 per cent. cumulative preferred.

Joseph says: When the tide of speculation turns, Atchison will go to 330, Hold Coppers, Average Chesapeake & Ohio, Buy Union Pacific on fractional recessions.

Briefly, we continue unfriendly to the highest priced stocks as a class and favorable to the purchase of low priced issues, especially industrial equities, on reactions.—Financial Bulletin.

No general marked improvement needed for stocks while tight money conditions continue, for important interests are not concerned in advancing prices. We expect trading of a drift toward lower prices, and a sharp break in the case of any unfavorable development of importance or aggressive bear operations for any account.—Town Topics.

Call Money at High Rate of Year.
High of loans by one of the largest national banks caused an advance to 5 1/4 per cent. in the rate for call loans on the stock exchange this afternoon.

Some of the banks in the wholesale dry goods district here were lenders of money in the financial district to-day, but in moderate quantities.

In the last hour call money sold at 5 1/4 per cent., which equals the high rate of last month and the high rate of the year.

Dividend on Sloss.
NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—The Sloss-Sheffield Steel and Iron Company to-day declared a quarterly dividend of 1 1/4 per cent. on the common stock, the same as for the last quarter, and an extra dividend of 3-4 of 1 per cent. The extra dividend, it was stated, represents compensation to common stock holders for the amount lost to them when the dividend was reduced from a five per cent. to a four per cent. for about nine months following the panic in 1907.

On Wall Street.
Erickson Perkins & Co. (Beatty & Glassco) wired at the close: Except for a little spurt in U. S. Steel in the last half hour the day's trading in

POSITION IS BEING STRENGTHENED.

World Office

Friday Evening, Nov. 12.

The hide-bound appearance of the Toronto market saw no change to-day. The improved position of the Bank of England has made no impression on local speculative sentiment. The trading was restricted to a few stocks, and the prices were irregular, the confined to fractional changes. Dominion Steel is being bought on the supposition that an early announcement of the merger will be made, but these purchases are entirely speculative. Rio was sold down, but this was equalized by strength in Sao Paulo. Altho the market is wanting in buoyancy, there is little evidence of any weakness, and much of the present buying is undoubtedly strengthening the position.

HERBERT H. BALL.

stocks was very dull, with price fluctuations, as a rule, very narrow. Expectations to the rule were sharp advances in the Toronto market shares. The late rally was apparently nothing but a driving in of shorts which was most noticeable in Steel and Copper shares. Under the circumstances a conservative policy in stocks appears best. Sell on any sharp bulge. Wait for a break before making purchases. Known movements of money indicate a loss by the banks of about $10,000,000 for the week. This is the largest cash loss of the season and as the market does not decline on it, no apprehension is to be felt on that score. We believe that within a few days a distinct upward trend will be observed in the stock market and favor purchases of standard issues.

Charles Head & Co. to R. R. Bond: The market to-day gave a good account of itself considering the prospects of a poor bank statement, and showed that the larger interest, at least, are not inclined to worry over the outlook, whatever view the professional market takes. We still favor a trader's policy of quick turns, but consider that the trend is toward ultimately higher levels, money being still the retarding factor. Purchases on fair reactions can be made, with profit-taking on bulges, discrimination being advisable.

R. B. Lyman & Co. wired R. B. Holden: Tho the market was irregular at times to-day, there was no pressure of demand in the last hour sharp bidding for Steel and Copper. The market very strong. The buying of the Interboro shares was very good. We expect the rally to continue Saturday and night, and to extend well into next week.

MEXICAN LIGHT AND POWER.
Mexican Light and Power has been steady to firm all week, say O'Hara Company, selling up to 72 on small demand. The stock has been appearing of being somewhat scarce around present prices, and one is inclined to the view that many of those who considered the New York market a recent stock at somewhat lower prices. The decided improvement in the company's earnings, which was commented on last week, has probably much to do with the improvement in the price of this stock.

Bank Clearings.

Imported Coats and Evening Gowns

OF COURSE we import Coats and Gowns of various grades, but we refer now to those garments we take pride in declaring to be absolutely exclusive. When we brought them into the store first this season the saleswomen said—"They are too extreme for our customers' ideas. When Toronto ladies want coats and gowns like that they go to New York for them."

"But what about those who cannot get away from Toronto? Are they to have no opportunity?"

That was the question answered by this collection of high-class Evening Gowns and Coats of velvet and broadcloths. Berlin and New York are responsible for most of them. Some of the Gowns come from the social capital of the world--London on the Thames.

An expert in all the exquisite higher points of fashion attends. The section is located in the north-east corner of the Cloak Department, 3rd floor, where customers have the advantage of semi-privacy.

We show Coats of black velvet at $50.00. Coats of black Bengaline silk, $85.00 to $125.00. Black Broadcloth Coats, strictly tailored, $30.00 to $50.00. Evening Gowns and Frocks--satin, French Panama and satin cloths--$27.50 to $75.00.
