This was decided on by the executive council of the American Federation of Labor here in a session devoted to arranging complete details of political organization.

Samuel Gompers, veteran labor leader, will be in active control of the movement, which he believes the biggest political undertaking yet attempted by labor in this country.

Says Kidnaping Story Was a Fake

Elizabeth, N. J., Aug. 4.—Anna Solon, nurse of Howard E. Rothenberg, the boy who was murdered last Summer at Windham, N. Y., stated that her explanation of her recent three-day disappearance from her home, 822 East Jersey street, was a fabrication. Upon her return last Tuesday, she said that she had been kidnaped by two men in an automobile who bound her, forced her to swallow a modern drug and then left her to die in Roselle Park.

DEPOT PROJECT IS TOO LONG DEFERRED

Upper Canada Gets What it Wants; St. John Demands Injustice be Remedied.

Articles published in The Times-Star on last Friday and Saturday have caused much discussion of the neglect of St. John's interests in the matter of a proper railway depot.

When the matter was being discussed today by interested citizens it was pointed out that Toronto had been given a new depot at a very large expense and the approach provided for by the last parliament, and that there was in contemplation the building of a large and modern depot in Montreal for the joint use of the Canadian National and Grand Trunk railways.

Other large expenditures for the benefit of upper Canada were referred to in again, as so often has of necessity been the case, the sharp contrast with the treatment accorded the maritime provinces was shown.

In common justice and from the standpoint of utility as well, it was held, the reasonable request of this city for a new railway depot here should have immediate attention.

It is four years since the roof of the train shed here collapsed and it is deemed unreasonable that such a length of time should have been necessary to elapse without action to remedy conditions. This city has been looking for the new station for a long time.

Encouraged by announcement some years ago that the project was to be put through and by a money vote in the Commons at Ottawa, the people here have waited with a great deal of patience to hear of plans being made and the work undertaken.

It has been stretched for a proper depot is now insisted, with the brightening outlook here and the surety of largely increased travel to follow the opening of the new hotel.

BURKE IS SILENT UNTIL HIS COLONEL TAKES THE LID OFF

King's Prize Winner at Bisleley Gives Example of Army Discipline.

PREMIER MEETS HIM

Check for $1,000 Presented to Marksman by Canadian Government.

(By Canadian Press.)

Montreal, Aug. 4.—Guardian Desmond Burke, of Ottawa, 19 years old, King's prize winner, called into Montreal Saturday night and left for his home Sunday with a reputation as champion disciplinarian among Empire soldiers added to the fame he won at Bisleley as the Empire's crack shot.

Early Saturday morning Colonel R. A. Parkinson of Ottawa, Burke's commanding officer, was routed from his bed at a local hotel by a telephone call which stated:

"The Megantic's coming up the river, the reporters and the movie men are on board and Burke has locked himself in his stateroom because he says it is not the place of a soldier to talk or be photographed."

The colonel at once authorized a radio message which declared in fitting military language that the lid was off for the Canadian marksman who smashed all records at the Empire rifle meet and made it plain that he could talk and be photographed to his heart's content.

FLIERS ABANDON ONE U. S. AIRPLANE

Machine Badly Damaged by Accident After Pilot is Rescued.

London, August 4.—Misfortune has again laid hands on the U. S. army world flight expedition. Two of the pilots, Lieut. Lowell H. Smith and Lieut. Eric Nelson, with their mechanics are the hosts of the day on the island, ready to continue on to Greenland and Labrador, but Lieut. Leigh Wade and Sergt. Ogden, who had been forced down at sea by engine trouble, Wade and Ogden stood helplessly on the deck of the U.S.S. Richmond and saw a steel boom weighing a ton crash through the fragile tips of their plane while endeavoring to be hoisted to hoist it aboard the vessel.

The wings of the machine had previously been seriously damaged in the forced landing at sea and the two men had worked for six hours attempting to make temporary repairs.

The plane was abandoned early this morning.

The vessel that found Wade and Ogden, the English trawler Rughy, of Grimsby, was notified of the accident by a message from the ship to Rear Admiral Thomas E. Magruder, U.S.N., at the Richmond, by the British admiral, the British naval authorities at Rosyth and the Danish authorities at Thorsenhavn, Faro Islands.

SEPARATE GOD FOR NEGROES IS URGED

Startling Doctrine Preached by President-General of African Republic.

New York, Aug. 4.—The astonishing doctrine that the negro should abandon the God of the white man and set up a god of his own color for his future spiritual guidance, was proclaimed yesterday at the fourth annual convention of the Universal Negro Improvement Association, in which Marcus Garvey, self-styled "president-general" of the proposed "African Republic," is the chief motivating spirit.

Addressing the convention Garvey said:

"We have been worshipping a God not in our own image. If man is created in the image of God, how could I have a white father? My god, spiritually and physically, must look like me. When we start to worship anyone not in our own image, we are worshipping a false god."

Part of his plans were reviewed by the court. 2 CHILDREN FROM LAKE UTOPIA WERE LOST SINCE FRIDAY

Searching Party Located Them This Morning, in St. George Report.

WOMAN WITH THEM

Catherine Shea, Found Near Children's Home Sunday, Unable to Explain.

(Special to The Times-Star.)
St. George, N. B., Aug. 4.—Alva Cook, aged four, and Annabelle, aged five, two little daughters of Norman Cook, residing on the Lake Road at Utopia, about four miles from here, were found this morning in a weakened condition after being missing from their home since last Friday afternoon.

This is the word received by telephone this morning here by Mayor McGrattan, who personally took charge of the search, enlisting the services, this morning, of all the employees in the various factories in St. George.

More than 1,000 persons took part in the search this morning. The spot where they were discovered is about eight miles east of St. George.

A woman named Catherine Shea, who took the children berrying, was found on Sunday in a dazed condition.

Included in the party who found the children were James Curran, Guy McDonald and the town marshal.

The children were found about one-half a mile from where the Shea woman was found on Sunday. They were holding hands when the searchers came upon them.

When the woman and children did not return home Friday night, Mr. Cook and others became anxious and early Saturday morning started to search.

Sunday a large party was formed and the woods were again searched. About 9:30 o'clock Catherine Shea was found in what is known as the Spear pasture, about three miles from the Cook home.

The woman was in a dazed condition and almost exhausted, while her clothing was badly torn and she was almost naked. She was unable to tell where she had left the children and as her coat was missing it is believed that she placed it over the little girls when she left them.

Later in the afternoon the woman had somewhat revived but told contradictory stories. She thought she knew the place where she left the little girls, but when taken to the locality said she could not remember. The search was continued until dark, and will be resumed in the morning.

MORTON GRIFFITHS GIVES UP PLACE IN PARLIAMENT BECAUSE OF HEALTH

"Empire Jack" Remembered Here in Work at Courtenay Bay.

(Special Correspondence Times-Star) London, July 11.—It is rather surprising news that, owing to ill-health, Sir John Norton Griffiths, known as "Empire Jack," and once as vigorous a dandy forerunner as Kipling ever belated, is retiring from Parliament.

But in addition to his pioneering adventures, "Empire Jack," who once threw a hooker out of one of his meetings, has been a trooper of the empire. During the Mashona-Matabele campaign he served with General Anderson's column, and in the Boer War he was a member of the 1st Buffs.

A generation ago London was lit up by a society of bright young things called "The Scullies." Margot Asquith was the central figure, whose members included some of the most brilliant brains of the kingdom.

During the recent hot-weather spell, most Londoners have shown signs of capitulating in the matter of dress. The sweater, the turtleneck, the turtleneck, the turtleneck, the turtleneck.

There is growing irritation, especially among the Labor members of the opposition parties, at what they regard as the senseless procedure at Westminster. And there are symptoms that before long, whatever the order may say about it, reforms will be firmly insisted on.

The liquidation of a company is usually associated with trading failure. But there are exceptions. One of these is the liquidation of a company specially incorporated four years ago, to handle the disposal of stocks of Government textiles made surplus by the armistice.

It is whispered that among the younger recruits enlisted as prospective Conservative candidates in response to Mr. Baldwin's appeal, may be Mr. Duff-Cooper. This would mean Duff-Cooper, the comfortable post at the Foreign Office, Lady Diana Cooper's good-looking husband would be tolerably sure of parliamentary advancement.

a superb election helpmate—or a first class lady candidate herself.

New Ring Fashion. The craze for artificial jewelry (writes a lady correspondent) particularly artificial pearls of fabulous size, is already waning. The smartest women are turning to the other extreme, and are favoring exquisite single stones—particularly diamonds.

Strange Faces in Chelsea. A visit to any of the favorite artist haunts in Chelsea just now is like touring a strange land. Few of the usual "characters" are to be seen there, and the restaurants and taverns are full of strange tongues and stranger raiment.

220,000 Farm at Olympia. The Nations' Food Exhibition, which was such a success in 1922, is to be held again next April at Olympia. The display of the food products of the world will be on a far more ambitious scale than before, and the whole of the great annex is to be transformed into a farm at a cost of £200,000.

Dressmakers returning from Paris this week have brought with them a surprising number of headed dresses—just the first fashion that has ever been returned season after season by every vein.

Does early morning find you sprinting down to the beach for a bath? Do you come back glowing with vigorous health and a colossal appetite for breakfast?

Here's his secret—"as much as will cover a ten-cent piece every morning."

Good Health for Half a Cent a Day. The ingredients of Kruschen Salts are necessary for healthy life. Your body must of necessity obtain these ingredients from somewhere, or you will die. Normally, your system should extract these vital salts from your food—meat, bread, fruit, vegetables, milk, eggs, and so on; but when, owing to impaired digestion, errors of diet, overwork, and worry, anxiety, sedentary occupation, and many other causes, your system does not extract from your food the correct proportions of these essential life-giving salts, then you suffer from depression, headaches, constipation or diarrhoea, liver.

the Paris model houses, which pride themselves on originality. These dresses have enjoyed their long popularity because they take up so little space when packed, and yet can always be shaken back to perfect freshness at the end of a week-end journey.

At Fresco Meals. Whenever London gets a little real summer like the present, delightful spell, Cockney journals call it a "heat wave," and demand why it is there are no al fresco restaurants. Thereby they display a double ineptitude. There are no permanent open-air cafes in London because the London climate would put them out of action.

Hire-Purchase Libraries. A long-established and sober firm of legal publishers has now gone into the hire-purchase business. Until recently, a young solicitor starting in practice on his own had to lay out anything up to £200 in buying absolutely essential books for his office.

Personally, I recall few questions on which I had the felicity of agreeing with the late Lord Northcliffe's views about life in general. But I am becoming steadily convinced he was right about international sporting contests. Though he was a generous patron of sport—he quietly financed many of the great professional sculling contests and golfing tours—he held firm that events like the Olympic sports, so far from helping good international fellowship, tended to impair it.

Miss Winifred Emery. A wide circle of old friends and admirers is sadly hit by the death of Mrs. Cyril Maude, far better known as Miss Winifred Emery. She possessed a delightful stage presence, but a most charming private personality. And her physical fascination, despite much hard work in the matter of ill-health, never surrendered to Anno Domini. How many of you who knew her quite realized that she was indeed 62? Yet it was away back in 1874 Miss Emery made her first stage appearance in London. Her last was in Pinero's little war play, "The Enchanted Cottage." She made her stage career in the manner of the old school, not by sudden specialization in a particular kind of role, but as an actress of all sorts of parts in all sorts of companies.

Mr. L. Johnson, 10 City road, on Saturday night at 9.45 o'clock, reported to Police Constable Lobb that her baby carriage, which she left in front of the Park Drug store, had been stolen. After making a search Officer Lobb located the carriage at 10.10 o'clock in a vacant lot off Prince Edward street. A few parcels, owned by Mrs. Johnson, were in the carriage when found but her purse containing a sum of money was missing.

Leaping, laughing, splashing, squealing—All have got that Kruschen feeling!

That's what Kruschen does for Grandpa and the rest of the Kruschen Army of Optimists. That's what Kruschen will do for you.

Kruschen Salts should be your safeguard. Besides cleansing the body of impurities, empty, empty and painlessly they possess a wonderful power of giving new life and vitality to the convalescing muscles of which every body is composed. Fresh blood, bone, brain and nerve, are all made up of cells, and every cell requires one or more of the numerous constituents of Kruschen Salts for its healthy life.

"I'm not going to leave insurance money for my thriftless son-in-law to squander," you say.

This may happen to other property which you are accumulating, but can be prevented in the case of an Imperial Life policy which need not be paid in one sum at your death.

Instead, you may specify that the Company shall send direct to your daughter—regularly—each month—as long as she lives—a cheque for the income which the insurance money and the interest earned thereon will provide.

JUVENILE COURT WORK.
The interesting announcement made that as a result of a gift of $15,000 by the Rockefeller Foundation to the Canadian National Committee of Mental Hygiene it is hoped to have a thorough physical and mental examination of every child brought before the Juvenile Court of Montreal. Judge Lacroix of that city recently visited a number of Juvenile Courts in the United States, and was especially impressed with the careful study made of every boy and girl brought before them. Plans are now being made, and it is hoped will be carried out, under which a similar system will be adopted in the Juvenile Court of Montreal. It is further proposed to have data collected regarding the causes of delinquency. It is explained that at present there is a lack of psychiatrists and social workers, and that as a result more children are sent to institutions than would be necessary if an adequate system of examination and supervision were provided. It is also hoped that it will be possible to study and treat school children suffering from mental disorders, and to reduce the number of those who would be likely to drift into the Juvenile Court. Dr. Mundie, Medical Director of the Mental Hygiene Committee of Montreal, said that a survey in 1920 of the Protestant schools showed that from two to three per cent of the children should have special training because they are sub-normal. Montreal already has what are termed child guidance clinics, the need of which has been strongly demonstrated, and if now its Juvenile Court may be equipped as already outlined in this article a great forward step in the conservation of child life and prevention of overcoming the effect of juvenile delinquency will have been taken. The City of St. John has not yet arrived at the stage where its people have sufficient regard for the welfare of the younger generation to establish a Juvenile court. Perhaps in the new era of material progress upon which it appears to be entering the consciousness that material things are not the only essentials of better citizenship will be borne in upon the public mind.

OUR DOUGHTY COLONEL.
Complaint is sometimes made in Canada about advice given by visitors from the old country, or comments in which they may indulge. Sometimes even a Member of Parliament is consulted in this matter as was illustrated not long ago when Rear-Admiral Field made some observations in Vancouver, regarding Canada and the Navy. The boat is now on the other foot. Colonel Hatch, President of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, has gravely informed the people of London that Canada is concerned over the practice of allowing agitators to speak in Hyde Park. "I believe I am right in saying," said Colonel Hatch, "that for Canada we want it stopped." So far as is known, Canada has never said anything to this effect, and only ridiculed a suggestion that certain agitators should not be permitted to talk in public in that city. The soap-box orator and his orations have been so long a feature of Hyde Park that the average Londoner would be quite lost without them. Nobody, except those who share his peculiar views, is influenced by the orator, and he is considered less dangerous when he talks in public than if he adopted underground methods. Colonel Hatch may as well come home. Or perhaps he should remain in London and become a Hyde Park orator himself.

EMPLOYMENT IN WINTER.
The conference on unemployment, to open at Ottawa on September 3, will be an event of importance to the whole Dominion, although the Maritime Provinces are not as vitally interested as some of the others. Every winter, in the larger cities especially, but also in many smaller ones in the West, unemployment becomes a very serious problem. It is necessary to distribute a great deal of money for the benefit of those who otherwise would suffer extreme poverty or worse. The problem to be solved is that of providing enough employment in the country at large to improve conditions for all the toilers during the winter season. It has been many times suggested that such an arrangement should be made with regard to building construction that it could be carried on during the winter to a much larger extent than in the past. The question of devising other means of employment will also be taken up by the conference, and it will doubtless be suggested that there are some public works which could be constructed during the winter without such a loss as would more than counterbalance the benefit derived from making so many working people self-supporting during that season. We are told that most Canadian cities will be represented at this conference, and that

FEWER BANK FAILURES.
(New York Herald-Tribune.)
There is a peculiar interest in the Treasury statement showing a sharp decrease in bank failures. When Senator La Follette was demanding an extra session of Congress to aid the farmer one of his most dramatic arguments was the record of bank failures, which in the great majority of cases were in the farming districts of the West. During the first three months of 1924 226 banks failed, with total liabilities of $100,275,000, or at the unprecedented rate of 1,000 bank failures for the year. It was upon that prospect that he prepared to launch his campaign.
It was a prospect which has not, however, been borne out. In states west of the Mississippi the Treasury lists only 342 bank failures for the whole year, and it finds that the failures in May were 30 per cent. fewer than in April, and in June 29 per cent. fewer than in May. The significant thing is that the decrease began well before the upturn in agricultural prices, indicating that the peak of the financial disaster had been reached in the Northwest by its legacy of unsound banking had already passed before the middle of the year.

IS SLAVERY ABOLISHED?
(William Allen White, from The Editor and His People.)
If the black man loafs in the South, he starves. If he works in the South, he is poorly paid, more or less in line with the white man, and his wife becomes a "pan toter." If he leaves his low estate in the South and goes to work in Northern industry, he is mobbed and killed.
He was brought to these shores from Africa a captive. He is held today by captors in economic bondage today— forbidden to rise above the lowest serving class. He is herded by himself in a ghetto, and if, while he is there, he tries to break out of the ghetto and into the white man's world, he is driven out by his white brothers.
If he goes to school and becomes discontented, and is unhappy and dissatisfied with his social status. If he does not go to school and remains ignorant, he is then only a "coon" whom every one exploits and who has to cheat or swindle in return or go down in poverty to beggary and shame. There aren't ships enough in the world to take him back to the land of his freedom; there isn't room enough for him here except on the crowded bottom round of the ladder, and there always the grinding heels of his white brothers are standing on his black back.

FUTURE OF BUILDING.
(Toronto Globe.)
Many contractors do not look for any extensive activity in Toronto this fall. They admit that the announced reduction from $17 to $13 a thousand, and the fact that the price of lumber is something of an incentive, but they add that the prices of other materials have not decreased sufficiently to permit of cheap building. Wages, still in sympathy with those record heights in the United States, are another factor standing in the way of many new homes.
Some months ago it was stated that Toronto was overbuilt, and figures were quoted, some of them giving the city as many as 7,000 empty dwellings and stores. A recent careful estimate put this total at slightly more than 3,000, which is said not to be excessive for a place of more than half a million population.
It is doubtful if the era of cheaper homes is anywhere near to hand. Turning moderate-sized houses into flats has temporarily solved the problem for some people. Others have sought the smaller house. There are numerous instances of householders, who several years ago would think of nothing less than eight or nine rooms, but are now satisfied with six. For the present, at least, there is little danger of Toronto losing its reputation as a City of Homes, but undoubtedly the high cost of building is having a tendency to crowd more families together. When the summer vacations are over this condition of building will be a more acute problem for the little house or cottage or the duplex.

WEATHER FORECAST.
(Toronto Globe.)
The figures on the world's cereal crops, as issued by the International Institute of Agriculture at Rome and reported in The Globe yesterday, estimate, from the data already available, a wheat yield of 3,900,000 metric tons less than last year. As a metric ton is 2,204.6 pounds this means 143,297,334 bushels less wheat produced than during 1923. These figures from the Institute, which doubtless do not include all wheat-growing countries, include the figures for 47,000,000 metric tons or 1,741,634,000 bushels. As the total world yield given by the Institute for 1923 was 3,461,983,000 bushels, it is presumed that only the countries so far reporting are tabulated in the cable summary.
In any event, the difference of 143,297,334 bushels between the wheat crop of last year and the early estimates for this year seems to be almost entirely attributed to Canada. It is pointed out that the acreage sown to wheat in this country this year is some 4 per cent. less than twelve months ago; that the crop has been backward, though the latest forecasts have been more favorable. The preliminary report on wheat made by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics gives the Canadian crop this year as 318,640,000 bushels, which is 185,659,000 bushels less than last year. So that the Institute's calculation of 143,297,334 bushels less is almost wholly covered by the altered conditions in Canada.
While juggling with wheat figures is the favorite study of many people these days, and while speculators are making or losing fortunes almost overnight, it can hardly be argued that the present sensational advances in wheat prices are due entirely to the speculators, or to any artificial cause. All statistics indicate that there is less wheat to be produced this year and less to be consumed.

PREVENTING STRIKES.
Joint-stock ownership, public ownership and co-operation are all phases of the co-operative principle, and all are extending and transforming business in the industrial world. "Observer" in the Maritime Merchant. At least mutual aid is at the bottom of all three. Joint stock ownership is a tremendous lever for mutual benefit if only people could grasp the idea. If Observer had had the dictatorship of the coal miners in Nova Scotia a quarter of a century ago, he would have avoided strikes and made arrangements for buying up the stock of the coal companies in the interests of a position to get exactly what is justly due them. The same thing obtains in all industries, and particularly in the hardware or stove dealer in the open market. Labor has been wasting its time and its money and its strength in strikes; its way out, it seems to Observer, is through co-operative effort along constructive lines such as this.

THE FAIRY LOUGH.

(MIRA O'NEILL, in "Songs of the Glen")
Loughareema! Loughareema!
Lies so high on the heather;
A little lough, a dark lough,
The water's black and deep,
Ould herons go a-fishin' there,
An' sea-gulls all together,
Fleet round the one green island
On the fairy lough astep.
Loughareema, Loughareema,
When the sun goes down at seven,
When the hills are dark an' airy,
"The curlew whistles sweet!"
Then something rustles all the reeds,
That stand so thick an' even;
A little wave runs up the shore,
An' fées, as if on feet.
Loughareema! Loughareema!
Stars come out, an' stars are hidin';
The water whispers on the stones,
The flatterin' moths are free,
Ome! before the mornin' light
The herons will come ridin'
Morn' 'n' you'll see the fairy lough,
An' no one there to see.

LIGHTER VEIN.
Loved to Hear Herself.
"Did that girl I saw you with find anything to talk about in the copious?"
"I think. And she talked about it copiously."
A Raw Motive
Mother—"Your father fell in love with me for the bread I made."
Heiress (with a sigh)—"I'm afraid my sisters are attracted to me by the dough I've got."
Lucky He Could Joke About It.
"I hate cop—did you get his number?"
Victim—"No, but I think he's a barber."
Cop—"Why so?"
Victim—"He went over my face twice."

SOME PEOPLE NEVER LEARN.
Mrs. Kane, of Newton, Mass., died at the age of 103, had never consulted a physician until a week before she died, it seems today that her first mistake should be her last.
Bread Upon The Waters.
An old lady in Australia was deeply impressed by a sermon on "Charity" she read in a church magazine. She took two pound notes, went into the street and handed them to an honest but badly looking young man who was leaning against a lamp-post.
"What are these for?" he asked.
"Charity," she replied.
"Right, missus!" he said, and disappeared without a word of thanks.
"Next day he called on her house and handed her twenty-pound notes.
"What are these for?" she gasped.
"Charity, missus," he replied. "You don't give 'em to the only one who backed 'em."

UNDERNOURISHED CHILDREN.

The New York Association for Improving the Condition of the Poor, which for four and a half years has been testing various methods of combating the malnutrition of children, issued a statement this week disclosing the fact that of 2181 apparently well children examined in the medical clinics of the society 636, or 30 per cent. were malnourished.
"This condition of malnutrition," the statement reads, "is not due to insufficient food, but to the constant use of improperly chosen food or the liability of the body to make use of the food eaten because of insufficient rest or sunshine or because of physical defects. If these children were in danger from fire or industrial accidents every safety device and preventive measure known would be urged to protect them. Although the effects of malnutrition are much slower, often much more indirect and much less dramatic than those from fire or accidents, they are even more deplorable, because of the larger number affected and the lingering misery resulting."
"Many a wage-earner is unable to increase his income to the safety level because of health conditions due to poor nutrition. Too many children who apparently show no signs of disease or malnutrition are allowed to drift into the wage-earning period with only a part of their rightful earning capacity developed."
"Malnutrition thus concerns more than the individual or the home in which it occurs. It affects the whole country by reducing the economic production of the individual and thereby increasing the cost of living. Since much of the sickness and lowered vitality in later life is the result of poor nutrition, as physicians have frequently stated, the importance of providing educational guidance in nutrition, as well as providing attention for only part of their physical defects, is very great."

FORMER PUPILS HONOR SISTER.

'PHONE TO SANDY POINT.

Kris Pedersen, the artist, has established an extension telephone line across the Sandy Point beach to his cottage on the further shore. Mr. Pedersen planted the poles and the telephone line, N. B. Telephone Co., Ltd., has established the service. This is a new thrust of modern utilities. Sandy Point has been peculiarly free of cabled touches but Mr. Pedersen breaks the spell.
PROPELLOR REPAIRED.
The motorship D. J. Purdy I, came from Indiantown on Saturday afternoon and docked in the Market Slip, where slight repairs were made to her propeller at low tide. The Purdy returned to Indiantown yesterday and took her regular trip up river to Fredericton this morning.

MONCTON HOUSES HIT BY LIGHTNING.

Moncton, Aug. 3.—Moncton was the centre of the heaviest electrical storm that has visited this section in 15 years. Several houses in the city were struck by lightning and the lighting system and telephone service interrupted. Employees of the Electric Light Company and the N. B. Telephone Company were kept busy last night after the storm and all today repairing the damage. Among the residences in the city struck by lightning was that of the American Consul in Alma street and several people living in the immediate vicinity were slightly shocked. One of the chimneys of Consul Rasmussen's house was knocked off but the damage was only slight, a few windows being broken in an adjoining house by flying bricks.

ANNIVERSARY OF WAR DECLARATION IS SERMON THEME

Preachers in Local Churches Refer to Lessons of the Big World War.

From city pulpits yesterday congregations were reminded of the approach of the tenth anniversary of the declaration of war on Germany by Britain on Aug. 4, 1914, and the lessons which war had brought home to the nations were set forth. Centenary Church.

In Centenary church Rev. Neil MacLauchlan preached on the 10th anniversary of the declaration of war on Germany by Britain on Aug. 4, 1914, and the lessons which war had brought home to the nations were set forth. Centenary Church.

Turning to consider what had been the outcome of the war, he asked what nation among the participants had gained by it. It might be said that the United States had gained but this he denied as the United States had lost patronage of several wealthy nations and retained the patronage of several impoverished ones. This showed that neither side gained anything in war. Destroying or impoverishing a nation meant the loss of a valuable customer.

Should another war break out it would be more ruthless than the last. The main endeavor would be not so much to destroy the fighter as the producer. It would be largely bloodless; gas would do the deadly work and the chemist would replace the soldier, and the airplane would replace the artillery. Civilians would sleep the sleep of death.

In closing he pointed out the natural sequel to these lessons, avoidance of the causes of offence, an earnest endeavor to live at peace with all men and fervent prayer that the prophecy of the psalmist might be fulfilled.

Trinity Church. Preaching in Trinity church at the morning service, Rev. C. J. Markham had for his text Acts 17: 26: "God hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth."

London House F. W. DANIEL & CO., LTD. HEAD KING ST.

outbreak of war it was fitting to ponder the meaning of those words. Two facts stood out, all people of every nation and color came from God and all existed for God. In spite of patriotism and regardless of the survival might have to say about the sense of the fittest, the truth of God was that this earth was made to be an abode of peace. Yet long centuries of war had violated God's intention and still today the hand of the war demon was not idle. So long as men harnessed their resources for the possibilities of war, so long would there be war and its sadness.

Rev. Mr. Markham spoke of the other war which the prospect of another war was contemplated by those who lived among the ruins and echoes of the late Arranged and realize the advance of scientific knowledge and destructive agencies. There was no body who wanted war. Were the question asked there would be millions of voices wailed to the throne of Heaven with the cry, "God send us peace forever."

Any policy of man which made war possible was not according to Christian teaching; that men today, as part of God's great brotherhood, must revolutionize all previous ideas of international relations. It was not possible to return to pre-war conditions and, as General Smuts had said, humanity had struck its tents and was on the march. Where would humanity seek its home, asked Mr. Markham. The League of Nations was one of the most wonderful and thoughtfully outcomes of the war and would, no doubt, go a long way towards guaranteeing the covenant of peace and yet it was after all only a new phase of governmental machinery.

Rev. Mr. Markham contended that the nations could not get together around a form of government and could not unite upon a uniform political platform. As far as he could see there was only one way to get anything like world unity in the midst of racial diversity and that way lay in the path which led to Jesus of Nazareth.

In Knox church last evening Rev. R. Moorhead Legate made brief reference to the anniversary. He said in part: "August the fourth, 1914, rang in a decade crowded with happenings the like of which the world has never before seen. To the present generation it is a date which stands solemnly alone, and on the memory of many a generation yet to come it will be deeply graven. The interval is one so much measured by years and days as by, for some, undefined hours of irremediable loss, sacrifice and suffering, for others by the ups and downs of plenty and famine, and for all by the sense of a mighty change that has broken up the old order of things and tumbled the world into a set of conditions to which it has not yet been able to adjust itself."

BARN BURNED; 23 HEAD OF CATTLE DIE James E. Beyea Suffers $12,000 Loss in Sunday Night Blaze. Fire last night totally destroyed a large barn owned by James E. Beyea on the Cottage Road, which runs off the Black River Road, along with 23 head of cattle, sleighs, wagons, hay, straw and other contents. The origin of the fire is unknown. The loss is estimated at more than $12,000 and is only partly covered by insurance. Twelve head of cattle were released and saved by Allan Beyea, son of the owner, and a young English boy who is employed there. About 9:30 o'clock Allan Beyea and the young English lad were walking down the Cottage Road and on reaching the barn discovered it on fire. James E. Beyea, who was at home, was notified. By this time the upper section of the large barn was all ablaze. The men rushed in on the ground floor only to be met by dense volumes of smoke. They managed to release about 12 head of cattle, but were forced to abandon 23 others. These cattle, it is thought, were suffocated by that time. Two of the cattle when saved from the fire were dying and it was necessary to butcher them a short distance from the burning structure. In a few minutes the flames had burst through the roof of the barn and this attracted the attention of neighbors, who hastened to the scene. A bucket brigade was formed and the party of men performed valuable work in saving other property nearby. At 11 o'clock last night there was nothing left but the stone and concrete foundation of the big barn, and in the ruins could be seen the roasted bodies of many fine cattle. In addition to the cattle, Mr. Beyea said that there was stored in the barn two tons of hay, three tons of straw, two sleighs and two wagons, as well as the dairy equipment, hooks and ropes. He could not give an estimate of his loss last night, but it would be more than $12,000.

The bride wore a powder blue georgette dress and blue and grey hat and carried a bouquet of sweetheart roses. The bride was attended by Miss Minnie Allison, of Weyerton, as bridesmaid, while Karl Baisley supported the groom. After the ceremony the bridal party motored to the home of the bride's parents, where a reception was held. Mr. and Mrs. Baisley will reside at Trout Brook.

THINKS ST. MARTIN'S BRANCH LINE HELPS A man down Barnesville way has been reading with interest from time to time reports of the better financial showing of the Canadian National Railway. He says the St. Martin's Railway has helped a lot. The Wednesday train has been taken off. There might be urgent need for a Hampton doctor to send a prescription down the line on a Wednesday, but it could not be done. The patient might be obliged enough to die before Thursday's train arrived, and as the funeral could not be postponed until the following Wednesday the railway would be sure to get some extra passengers on Friday or Saturday. But the Barnesville man thinks the C. N. R. could do still better. If it pays to take off the train one day in the week, why not in the further interests of economy take it off two days a week, or four, and so make a still more favorable financial showing? He ponders over this question as he reads day before yesterday's paper, or while he is counting his eggs or chickens. He is really anxious about the C. N. R.

LEGISLATORS AND MONKEYS. The Georgia House of Representatives last week had before it a favorable report from its committee on education on a bill to withdraw all State funds from any school or other institution at which the Darwin theory or any other similar theory of evolution is taught. The bill is a copy of the Kentucky law. Representative Pope styled the theory of evolution as "rotten stuff." Representative McCrory, speaking before committee, said if he was descended from a monkey he was ashamed of it but didn't think he was. He said he believed God created man and monkeys entirely separate and he didn't believe "they had ever mixed and hoped they never would." Representative Covington said "the only thing wrong with those two Chimpo youth, Loeb and Leopold, is that they went to schools and colleges where they were taught pagan philosophy." "Do you think it would have been something 'all dressed up and running for the Legislature'?" "Do you think it would have been to evaluate far?" asked Chairman Elders. Judge Covington did not reply.

Tippet, which was entering Pond street from George street. The latter car escaped damage while the mudguard of the former was considerably damaged.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

MIKEY MOLE'S TUNNEL?

"What are you going to buy today, Flop?" "Sh!" said Nick to Nancy. "Don't make any noise." The twins were standing very still under a burdock leaf near the place where Flop Field Mouse lived. Having their magic shoes on they were so little you would have had to look twice to see them yourself.

"What are you going to buy today, Flop?" asked Nick. "I think I'll get a pink lemonade and ride on the merry-go-round," said Flop. "Mebbe I'll get the brass ring and get a few rides."

"That's what I'm going to do," said Nick. "You eat!" cried Flop. "You don't!"

UNVEIL MEMORIAL AT ST. ANDREWS

Impressive Services at Centenary of Greenock Presbyterian Church.

St. Andrews-by-the-Sea, Aug. 3.—For more than an hour and a half this afternoon between 400 and 600 residents of St. Andrews, summer visitors, people of nearby towns and Lieut-Governor Todd and Mrs. Todd, of St. Stephen, paid honor to the memory of Rev. John Cassils and Rev. Alexander MacLean by their presence in Greenock Presbyterian church, when a tablet was unveiled to the memory of these men by the descendants of Rev. John Cassils.

The ceremony was part of the three-day celebration of the centenary of the church. Rev. John Cassils was the first Presbyterian minister to conduct services in St. Andrews, while Rev. Alexander MacLean was the first resident minister. The tablet, which is of brass, set in wood, is placed high on the wall of the church at the left side of the pulpit. When the services started a blue and white flag covered it.

first Presbyterian clergyman to conduct divine service in Greenock church, St. Andrews, N. B. Also Rev. Alexander MacLean, D. D., first pastor of this church, 1824-1844.

Rev. William Fraser invoked the blessing of God on the assembly. Scripture was read by Rev. Canon Hooper, Rev. Richard Ople in prayer.

Rev. R. W. Ross, D. D., minister of Fort Massey church, Halifax, took his text from Psalm 29: "The Lord is my Shepherd."

He summed up his message by saying "Practise the presence of Jesus." If all would realize that in the presence of Jesus they could do no wrong, then it would be a greater and better world.

Rev. William Fraser, minister of Greenock church, commenting on the anniversary, said that it had been planned from two points of view, the first retrospective and the second the outlook for the future.

The history of the church and its founders had been dealt with by Rev. Mr. Baird on Friday, while today the speaker had petitioned for the future.

He then announced that the tablet would be unveiled to the memory of Rev. John Cassils and Rev. Alexander MacLean. He gave a short history of the life and work of each man.

Rev. Earle M. Hand led the closing prayer, while the benediction was pronounced by Rev. Dr. Ross.

FABLES ON HEALTH

Stand Up Straight

"Stand up straight!" ordered Mr. Mann's physical director, slapping him on the back as he went stooping down the street.

"If you want to avoid self-poisoning, stand erect."

"Few people realize the fundamental reason for keeping an erect posture. The scientific idea is just this: in an erect position the abdominal muscles tend to remain taut, thus affording proper support and pressure to the abdomen."

"When a slouching position is habitually indulged in the abdominal blood is likely to stagnate in the liver and bring about a sensation of despondency and fatigue. It leads to constipation, bad circulation and other ill-effects. Why, I've known men to surprise even themselves by standing up straight for as little as three weeks."

WOMEN SHOULD ACT QUICKLY. When a woman finds afflicted with headache, dizziness, nervousness, dragging-down pains, pains in her side, irregularities and irritability, dark circles appear under the eyes and her complexion gets sallow, she may be sure the underlying cause is some ailment peculiar to her sex. She should act quickly and take the great American remedy for such conditions, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and she may be saved years of suffering. For generations this old-fashioned root and herb medicine has been restoring ailing women to health, and it may be relied upon with perfect confidence.

He leaves wife and two daughters, Marguerite and Muriel. The former left here a few days ago for a two months' visit in California. She had remained over at Peterboro where word reached her and she is returning. Funeral arrangements will be completed after her arrival.

The weather was all that could be desired. The children of the Leach Leonard Anglican Sunday school were present. Refreshments were sold. The young people played basket ball. After a picnic time spent in games and amusements, which ended all too soon, the picnicers returned to their homes with light hearts and lighter pockets. The proceeds from the picnic will go towards repairs on St. Thomas church. Mr. McKinnon, of Presbyterian cathedral, was present and assisted in making the game a success.

BISHOP LEBLANC LAYS CORNER STONE OF NEW SCHOOL IN WEST ST. JOHN

Many Clergy and Hundreds of Citizens Present at Ceremony.

The corner-stone of the fine new building for St. Patrick's school in the Assumption parish, West St. John, was laid yesterday afternoon by His Lordship, Bishop LeBlanc, in the presence of many hundreds of people who thronged the street in front of the building. The ceremonies were impressive. Many of the clergy from the city and other centres in the diocese were present as well as many prominent citizens. The choir of the church led in the singing and the altar boys were in attendance. Rev. J. J. Ryan, parish priest, had charge of the programme and the two speakers, Rev. James Cloran, C. S. S. R., of St. Peter's church, and Hon. H. A. McKewen, chairman of the Board of School Trustees, with much eloquence extended congratulations and extolled the value of a good education.

The brilliant sunshine of a perfect summer day made the ceremonies all the more impressive and displayed to special advantage the excellence of the school site, which commands a very fine view of the city and harbor. The school is to be a two-storey structure of brick and concrete measuring 85 feet by 90 feet with 10 class rooms. It is being built on the site of the former convent. The architect is F. Neil Brodie and the contractor, H. O. Clark. Work was commenced on the building on June 20 and already part of the walls of the first storey are up.

The ceremony opened with the singing of "Veni Creator" and His Lordship then offered the dedicatory prayer, blessed the stone and sprinkled it and when it had been swung into place, the choir sang Lead Kindly Light. The silver trowel bore the inscription "Corner Stone of New St. Patrick's School, West St. John, laid Aug. 4, 1924 by E. A. LeBlanc, D. D., Bishop of St. John; John J. Ryan, pastor."

Father Cloran in his address pointed out the significance and praiseworthy nature of the presence of so large a gathering which he took as a very hopeful and healthy sign in this age of crime and license. Those present, he said, had said to themselves that a good education was one solution of all our modern ills and had sensed the need of the times. Their interest, he said, was founded on the thought that the school to be built was to be one where virtue would flourish as well as one where science would be taught, a school fostered by one of those most respected in the community and with teachers who were models of sacrifice and duty. Upon the corner-stone just laid there was to rise a beautiful building and upon such a corner-stone as the latter set exhibited at the ceremony would be built a God-fearing law-abiding people.

Father Cloran congratulated Father Ryan heartily, saying that his own small part in the erection of a school building in the north end of the city made him appreciate Father Ryan's wonderful zeal and broad spirit.

He spoke of what was understood by the term "a good education." He believed it was as important that students should be taught to think beautiful things as that they should be trained to achieve useful things. The graduate from a school which taught merely useful things and to follow money at once became dissolute and in the end no amount of charity or social service would save him, while the graduate from a school where culture was made the principle object would have a far different outlook.

He held that good education meant to be taught to labor at defects of character and that high ideals and noble thoughts were the best bequest any school could give her pupils. Whoever had a right conception of education had a right conception of character and Father Cloran said the most powerful influence in character-building was education which could control all other influences. The measure of a people's interest in education was the measure of their interest in the welfare of the world and in humanity. Father Cloran urged those who had assembled to welcome the ceremony to continue to show their interest in education, to watch the results achieved by the children and to appoint good men as teachers. Only by continued interest in education would they confer the greatest possible blessing on the city, the country and the race.

Chief Justice McKewen.

Mr. Justice McKewen, as chairman of the School Board, was asked to speak after Father Cloran had concluded his address. He said with the utmost pleasure that he accorded to the request. The building, the corner-stone of which was laid that day, he said, would stand as exemplary of the persistence, diligence, faith and perseverance of him at whose hands it had recently received dedication. Chief Justice McKewen endorsed the words of Father Cloran. Those words, he said, evinced a truth and sincerity which made for character such as he had spoken of so eloquently.

His Honor referred to the many changes of the last 50 years and said he believed that in the next 50 years there would be at least as great an advancement in all things material, educational and spiritual, as there had been in the previous 50 years. It was necessary that the tools of today should be handed trained to work and minds should be trained in order that they might enter upon the grand inheritance which awaited them. Education, he held, was the only thing which could save humanity from going back to barbarism and alongside of education there must be the Christian religion, as the last decade had shown the spectacle of a highly educated nation which had turned its back on Christianity waging a war of ferocity which had not been equalled.

The laying of the corner-stone, Judge McKewen said, marked a milestone in the history of the city and of the community, giving assurance that those who were to come after would have the means of attaining a culture and imagination which would enable them to tread the pathway upon which the present generation had entered so nobly. It was the desire of the school board that the building should be used to such purpose that the minds of the children should be gathered there might be quickened to hear nobly those high duties and principles which were theirs as Canadian citizens.

Father Ryan then read the writing on the manuscript placed in a glass cylinder inside the box in the corner-stone. The inscription began as follows: "The corner-stone of the new St. Patrick School in the Parish of the Assumption, West St. John, was placed in position on Sunday afternoon, Aug. 4, 1924, at 3 o'clock by His Lordship Bishop Edward A. LeBlanc, D. D. There followed the names of those present at the ceremony, including the priests, the members of the Board of School Trustees and the teachers of the school. The inscription also gave the names of those who were in authority at the time of the laying of the stone, mentioning Pope Pius XI, King George, Baron Byng of Vimy, Lieut-Governor W. F. P. S. D. Fraser, Mayor, Superintendent Dr. H. S. Bridges and Judge J. A. Barry.

Besides the manuscript there were placed in boxes in the stone copies of The Telegraph-Journal, St. John Globe and Times-Star, of St. John, The New Freeman and Carleton Sentinel.

Among Those Present.

Those present at the ceremony included the following clergy: His Lordship Bishop LeBlanc, with whom were seated Very Rev. Dean Charles Collins and Rev. J. J. McDermott, Rev. J. J. Ryan, parish priest, Rev. H. A. Hamage, assistant, Rev. W. M. Duke, Rev. James Cloran, C. S. S. R., Rev. C. J. Carleton, Rev. H. Coughlan, Rev. F. A. Conlogue, C. S. S. R., Rev. St. O'Brien, of New Brunswick, Rev. E. Walker, East St. John; Rev. Father Mallett, C. S. S. R. and Rev. Father Stanton, of Bathurst.

Members of the School Board present were: Hon. H. A. McKewen, Thomas Nagle, E. R. W. Ingraham, S. W. Palmer, H. Colby Smith, A. A. McIntyre and G. Herbert Green.

Among the other prominent citizens on the platform were W. E. Scully, M. L. A., Judge J. A. Barry, J. S. Gregory, George J. Hennessy, W. E. Emerson, Dr. J. L. Kennedy and Frank Owens, principal of the school, and H. O. Clark, the contractor.

The teachers of the school are J. Frank Owens, Rev. Sisters Mary Bertha, Stella, Aloysia and Dorothy, Mrs. M. J. Doherty, Miss Reynolds and Miss Horgan.

The ceremonies closed with the singing of the hymn "Holy God, We Praise Thy Name" and the National Anthem.

At the conclusion of the ceremony Rev. J. J. Ryan had as luncheon guests Bishop LeBlanc and visiting clergy and members of the Board of School Trustees. About 30 sat down to a most delightful lunch, served at the rectory.

RESCUES BOY FROM WATERS OF HARBOR

While leaning over the side of the South Market wharf about 3:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon a boy about ten years of age lost his balance and plunged into the water. N. A. Melanson, one of the crew on board the Yarmouth schooner Laura and Marion, heard the splash and saw the boy in the water. Mr. Melanson jumped into a small boat and managed to catch hold of the boy's coat as he was sinking for the third time.

The young fellow was almost unconscious and had swallowed considerable water. He was carried to the deck of the vessel, where the men worked over him for a short time. While somewhat weak, he was able to proceed to his home. Mr. Melanson said that there had been so much excitement during the saving of the boy's life that he forgot to ask the youngster his name.

Both Stresemann and Chancellor Marx urged Hughes to try to help in straightening out some need questions, and particularly to use his influence to

WIDOW WITH A PERMANENT MONTHLY INCOME

James Strong was a clear-headed man in his business dealings—just, honest and far-seeing.

Therefore, no one was surprised when, on his death, it became known that he was insured under a "Permanent Monthly Income Policy" of the North American Life Assurance Company.

Each month ever since her husband's death, the North American Life Assurance Company has mailed Mrs. Strong a cheque for $150. The principal is shielded from imprudent expenditure or foolish investment and safeguarded for her comfort as long as she lives.

James Strong chose well when he decided upon a "North American Life Permanent Income Policy" as the safest and best way of providing for his wife after he had passed away.

We will be glad to furnish full information on this form of policy.

TOURING PARTY

Visitors Here From U. S. Find Pleasure in Relief from Heat.

A party of eighteen American tourists in charge of J. D. Lansdowne of New York, stayed over the week-end at the Royal Hotel. They arrived here on Saturday on the Governor Dingley from Boston.

They are spending 16 days on the trip, stopping for two days at each point of interest. The party left New York by boat for Boston and there took the Governor Dingley for this city. While here they visited the Martello Tower, the Bevering Falls, the docks at East St. John and other points of interest about the city.

Several members of the party expressed themselves as greatly pleased with the scenery and climate of St. John, saying that the latter was a welcome relief from the sweltering heat prevailing in New York on the day they left.

HOW TO WRITE WANT ADS

What to say—and how to say it—facts that influence the results that you are after.

Results from classified advertising depend largely upon how the advertisements are written. The following are some suggestions that might prove helpful in properly writing a classified ad.

Don't try to save space by abbreviating or leaving out words. Use plain English and enough of it to tell all about the proposition.

Point out in your proposition the things in which you think the prospect would be most readily interested.

Select the strongest selling point; this may be the price, the opportunity to make or save money, the exclusiveness of the proposition or location, the size, the terms or any one of a hundred things.

Emphasize this point or points to arrest the reader's eye as he glances through the classified columns; this can be accomplished by placing the most important features at the head of the advertisement or by the use of large type.

Inasmuch as the amount of money involved is a vital factor in all transactions prices should always be given.

A man does not want to waste time looking up a proposition when he does not know whether it is within the range of his pocketbook. He answers those advertisements he knows come within the price he has in mind. Many people will not answer an advertisement that omits the price, feeling that the advertiser intentionally did not mention the price because it is too high.

The number of replies lost because the price is too low or too high is more than made up by the response gained from those to whom the price is right and who probably would not have replied at all if the price had been omitted.

Make your classified advertisements specific. If it is sold on terms, point out the specific terms, not just "easy terms," but "$5,000.00 down and $200.00 a month at 6 p.c. interest."

Always bear in mind that what is "easy," "desirable," "convenient," "good," "beautiful," "wonderful," "close," "cheap" for one person may not be for another.

"Half a block from Fairville car line" indicates the exact location whereas "convenient to car line," taking almost as much space, may mean anywhere from a few houses to several blocks.

The pulling power of the classified advertising lies in the directness with which important details are specified.

It is always well to impel action at the end of an advertisement. Often a person will have a real want and need for the thing advertised, but the wording of the advertisement somehow lacks the power of suggestion to induce action.

To overcome this it is advisable to use a phrase that helps the reader to respond at once. "First caller gets this." "This will not last long at the price." "This is a special offer, see Mr. Smith before noon." "Telephone us and we will call for you in our car," and other such phrases often stimulate immediate action.

Another element that invites immediate response is to make it easy for the person answering the classified advertisement to find you.

A telephone number is usually very easily called and many people dislike to call personally unless they can determine further details by telephone conversation beforehand.

On the other hand, street addresses should be given wherever possible.

Some people have no telephone, others dislike using it and therefore prefer calling in person.

Not only make it easy for the reader to answer your advertisement but always be on hand to answer calls when they come.

This seems like rather foolish advice yet experience in classified advertising proves that many people expect a classified advertisement to bring returns when they are not even present to receive the answers or will depend on a person to receive the answers who knows little or nothing about what is advertised.

Repetition has a certain strength. Classified Ads that readers pass by the first day may receive interested attention and response the next.

One of the peculiarities in classified advertising is the fact that an advertisement may run several days and not bring a single result, yet the following day, possibly when least expected, answers will come from every quarter. For this reason, experienced advertisers usually order their advertisements to run a number of days.

The responsiveness of a newspaper's circulation is important. Results to Classified Ads in any newspaper depend on the reader interest of that newspaper's circulation in the Classified Ads. The newspaper that is constantly increasing reader interest in its classified columns through publicity can generally be depended upon for results if results are possible at all.

For quick results—at low cost—put your ad in THE TIMES-STAR AND THE TELEGRAPH-JOURNAL

Belvea Returns FROM OLYMPICS

Says He Will Row Again, But Only at His Own Expense.

The elaborate manner in which the United States official looked after their Olympic athletes is an object lesson to the rest of the world. So says Hilton Belvea, former Canadian champion and single sculls representative for Canada at the big races, who returned home Saturday after a four-month stay in England and France. It is Hilton's opinion that the United States boys won largely on numbers—strength and also because they were well-cared for. As a notable example, he cites the fact that the Yale eight and the rest of the rowing entries were carried over to France and back on a United States man-of-war and that on their arrival the special coaches were installed and single sculls representative for Canada at the big races, who returned home Saturday after a four-month stay in England and France.

TUNNEY NOT IN DEMPSEY'S CLASS

New York, Aug. 4.—Say what you will about George Carpentier and his actor, faker, has been. But hand him this much credit as a trial horse he is a complete success, says Joe Williams, former champion. Carpentier came over from France and battled Tommy Gibbons at Michigan City, Ind. two months ago. Gibbons had gone 18 rounds with Jack Dempsey, king of the heavies, and was maneuvering for a return fight with the Frenchman. Gibbons had a reputation for being a public that he deserved it would be to knock out Carpentier. You know what happened. The Frenchman stuck the limit limping through the last two rounds on a sprained ankle. Result: exit Gibbons as a possible Dempsey conqueror. Next came Gene Tunney, American light-heavyweight champion. Mr. Tunney talked earnestly and profoundly of a match with Dempsey. The Carpenter battle was arranged with that idea in view. Shrewdly Tunney's manager, Billy Gibson, insisted on a 15-round bout. The Frenchman had proved that he was still 10 rounds ahead physically, to say the least, against Gibbons, but he would find the longer route maybe he would find the longer route maybe he would find the longer route.

STRIKE IN DUBLIN MAY AFFECT GAMES

Dublin, Aug. 2.—Serious developments occurred today in the strike of the city's municipal workers who went out last week when threatened with a 6-shilling reduction in their weekly wages. The electric current in Dublin was cut off this morning, involving the closing down of many factories and stores in the city. The port cranes depending on electricity were put out of commission, causing dislocation and blocks and danger eventually of complete stoppage of port traffic. The plan of decoration for the Tallinn Light entered in "A" class in the New York to Halifax yacht race, was the finish line late Saturday night, but beating out her time allowance over the last of the boats to reach port, making scratch boat Lisimore II, by six hours, and taking second place in her class event which was won by Caroline II. Lisimore II, owned by Redmond Kersey, of Greenport, N. Y., arrived at 5:12:20 Saturday afternoon, and the Northern Light, flying the flag of the Bermuda Yacht Club, and sailed by her owner, Captain J. A. Envor, of Bermuda, crossed the line at 11:31:00. She had a time allowance of 11:11:11, and therefore took second place. Corrected time for the Lisimore was 14:59:20, and for the Northern Light 14:09:49. W. J. Rouse, Halifax, designer of the Northern Light, was aboard the craft as a member of the crew. Both yachts had ill luck in that they were delayed by contrary tides and calms.

Belvea Returns FROM OLYMPICS

Says He Will Row Again, But Only at His Own Expense.

The elaborate manner in which the United States official looked after their Olympic athletes is an object lesson to the rest of the world. So says Hilton Belvea, former Canadian champion and single sculls representative for Canada at the big races, who returned home Saturday after a four-month stay in England and France. It is Hilton's opinion that the United States boys won largely on numbers—strength and also because they were well-cared for. As a notable example, he cites the fact that the Yale eight and the rest of the rowing entries were carried over to France and back on a United States man-of-war and that on their arrival the special coaches were installed and single sculls representative for Canada at the big races, who returned home Saturday after a four-month stay in England and France.

New York, Aug. 4.—Say what you will about George Carpentier and his actor, faker, has been. But hand him this much credit as a trial horse he is a complete success, says Joe Williams, former champion. Carpentier came over from France and battled Tommy Gibbons at Michigan City, Ind. two months ago. Gibbons had gone 18 rounds with Jack Dempsey, king of the heavies, and was maneuvering for a return fight with the Frenchman. Gibbons had a reputation for being a public that he deserved it would be to knock out Carpentier. You know what happened. The Frenchman stuck the limit limping through the last two rounds on a sprained ankle. Result: exit Gibbons as a possible Dempsey conqueror. Next came Gene Tunney, American light-heavyweight champion. Mr. Tunney talked earnestly and profoundly of a match with Dempsey. The Carpenter battle was arranged with that idea in view. Shrewdly Tunney's manager, Billy Gibson, insisted on a 15-round bout. The Frenchman had proved that he was still 10 rounds ahead physically, to say the least, against Gibbons, but he would find the longer route maybe he would find the longer route.

STRIKE IN DUBLIN MAY AFFECT GAMES

Dublin, Aug. 2.—Serious developments occurred today in the strike of the city's municipal workers who went out last week when threatened with a 6-shilling reduction in their weekly wages. The electric current in Dublin was cut off this morning, involving the closing down of many factories and stores in the city. The port cranes depending on electricity were put out of commission, causing dislocation and blocks and danger eventually of complete stoppage of port traffic. The plan of decoration for the Tallinn Light entered in "A" class in the New York to Halifax yacht race, was the finish line late Saturday night, but beating out her time allowance over the last of the boats to reach port, making scratch boat Lisimore II, by six hours, and taking second place in her class event which was won by Caroline II. Lisimore II, owned by Redmond Kersey, of Greenport, N. Y., arrived at 5:12:20 Saturday afternoon, and the Northern Light, flying the flag of the Bermuda Yacht Club, and sailed by her owner, Captain J. A. Envor, of Bermuda, crossed the line at 11:31:00. She had a time allowance of 11:11:11, and therefore took second place. Corrected time for the Lisimore was 14:59:20, and for the Northern Light 14:09:49. W. J. Rouse, Halifax, designer of the Northern Light, was aboard the craft as a member of the crew. Both yachts had ill luck in that they were delayed by contrary tides and calms.

LEADERS BUNCHED
IN AMERICAN RACE

Small Margins Only Separate Detroit, New York and Washington.

New York, N. Y., Aug. 4.—If the American League race becomes much closer the relative standing of the three leaders will have to be measured with a fourth dimension yardstick. Detroit today is back in first place one point ahead of the Yankees, who, in turn have a half game advantage over Washington.

Cobb and his loyal followers threw 42,000 fans into a frenzy of delight by conquering the Huguenin five to two. Sisler's single and McManus' circuit drive were the deciding factor in St. Louis' 3 to 1 victory over Washington. Inability to hit when essential caused the downfall of Chicago at the hands of the Athletics 9 to 5. The combined efforts of Smith and Shaute limited Boston's hit total to five as Cleveland bagged a 3 to 2 victory.

LADY'S HAT WILL BE PRIZE FOR HIT

Married and Singles to Play Baseball Game for Kids' Camp.

After realizing more than $100 by a dance recently for the Lady Byne Camp for Undernourished Children, the people of Fair Vale have set out to augment this fund in another line of endeavor. There has always been great argument between the married and single men of the village as to their relative skill as baseball players; accordingly a match game has been arranged, to be played on the Fair Vale diamond this evening, at which a collection will be taken for the kiddies' camp. To make the game doubly keen, Kenneth Spear has offered a lady's hat to the married man who makes the longest hit. The heavy slugger all have eyes on the headgear prize.

The teams will line up as follows: Benedicts—Gale, c; Storey or Stack, p; G. Stubbs, 1b; Ira White, 2b; Geo. Bishop, 3b; A. Haldar, ss; Council, cf; Scott, rf; G. Dobbin, cf. Bachelors—Bishop or E. Horses which perished include Worthy Boy, Rejected, Irma, J. Moko, Bonnie Delight and Bonnie Direct, frequent racers on half-mile harness tracks.

WOULD LIKE TO RETIRE.

Venerable Archdeacon Newham, of Christ church, St. Stephen, has signified his desire to retire from parish duties, after 60 years' service. He wishes to give more attention to the duties of the synod, of which he is secretary. His intention is greeted with deep regret by his parishioners, who have proposed that a curate be secured to ease the strain of the work for his beloved clergyman. In the meantime Archdeacon Newham will take his month's vacation. Rev. Mr. Spenser, of Sussex, a retired clergyman, formerly of St. George's, will supply for the archdeacon while he is away. He has been for 30 years in Christ church parish and is greatly esteemed by all the residents of St. Stephen.

WRINKLES REMOVED
"WHILE YOU WAIT"

It has been discovered that the mere application of a special kind of powder, actually removes wrinkles and gives a youthful appearance. This is not a trifling matter, for there is no other way to spread the mirror over the face, sit down before the mirror, and watch those unwelcome marks of age, lines or wrinkles disappear like magic. The effect is remarkably better than that produced by the most skillful massaging.

The mixture of course is perfectly harmless. While on the face a pleasant soothing sensation is experienced. It is easily washed off. Aside from its remarkable effect on wrinkles, there is nothing better for buggy checks or chin. No woman who purchases a package of powdered talcum from her druggist will regret having done so.

Cleveland is still the fifth city in the United States with a population close to 1,000,000, the U. S. Bureau of the Census estimated Saturday. In the estimate, not an actual count, Cleveland was credited with 912,502 inhabitants.

New York was estimated at 6,015,591; Chicago at 2,839,695; Philadelphia, 1,551,076; Detroit, more than 1,000,000; then Cleveland, St. Louis, 912,502; Baltimore, 784,983; Boston, 776,783; Pittsburgh, 623,915.

HERE ARE TWO YOUNG PITCHERS WHO ARE WINNING CONSISTENTLY FOR THE TYGERS, AND A VETERAN WHO IS COMING BACK

EARL WHITEHILL

Encouraged by the success of his unseasoned recruits, Manager Cobb is going to try his luck with the other extreme. Southpaw "Dutch" Leonard, a veteran star who has been out of the game for several years, is due to join the Tigers early in August. If Leonard is right, he will be a big help to Detroit.

Realizing that the American League race is going to be a struggle to the bitter end, in which reverse pitching is sure to be the dominating factor, Cobb, in getting Leonard back, is looking to the future.

Leonard, always a great relief pitcher, may be used largely in that role by Cobb. His value to the Tigers will, of course, be determined by his physical condition.

A major league manager is content, highly satisfied, if one recruit pitcher comes through the annual crop. With the season more than half over, Detroit appears blessed with three rookies of major league caliber.

The trio is made up of Southpaws Whitehill and Wells, and Stoner, a right-hander. The two left-handers were with the Tigers a short while last year. Stoner, a few years previous, was given a brief trial and sent back. The veteran, George Daus, always a great pitcher, has done his bit in assisting the rookie trio. "Rip" Collins has also done his part. The rest of the veterans, however, have been properly mixed.

TILDEN PICKS BOY

National Champion Shocks Experts by Naming 17-Year-Old Sandy Wiener as Doubles Partner

Sandy Wiener (left) talks it over with his tutor, Bill Tilden.

New York, Aug. 4.—A 17-year-old boy, young Sandy Wiener of Philadelphia, will be William Tilden's partner in the national tennis doubles championship this season. Tilden admits that this is his definite decision to team Wiener is too young for competition in the national event, or worse, too inefficient. "I think Wiener is just about as desirable a partner as I could wish for," Tilden says.

It is said Tilden had every intention of teaming with Wiener in the national doubles last fall but for some reason or other changed his mind at the eleventh hour and asked Brian Norton to take the place. Tilden and Norton then went on to win the championship.

Tilden and Wiener have been playing all season as doubles partners, and it must be admitted they have proved a formidable pair. Recently, in the national clay court championships, the two gave a remarkable performance winning in straight sets from two such stars as Clarence Griffin and Brian Norton.

Tilden, naturally, carries the brunt of the burden. It is probably true that he covers three-fourths of the court. This is not exactly good doubles play, since the play should be evenly distributed.

It seems to work in Tilden's case. So great is his skill, speed and resourcefulness that he hardly needs a partner at all. Any player of medium skill will do. Wiener, however, is a young star who does not rank many strokes behind the older stars.

He forced the door and found little Antonette hanging limply by her wrists from a rope which was made fast above the transom. Her eyes were inflamed and swollen from crying, her wrists were cut by the rope which had been knotted about them and her hands were puffy with congested blood. She fainted when she was cut down.

She was taken to the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children. Detectives Van der Grift and Murphy of the Beach street police station, were waiting for Forke when he came home from work and locked him up on a charge of felonious assault.

Agents of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children informed the police that Antonette's body was covered with bruises.

FIRPO ADMITTED
AS A "VISITOR"

Says He Can Get in Fighting Trim Inside Three Weeks.

Luis Angel Firpo, Argentine heavyweight, who arrived in the United States recently on board the American Legion to fulfill an engagement to meet Harry Willis, colored challenger, was admitted to the country as a "visitor" by immigration authorities after having been detained at Ellis Island in company with other members of his retinue and a Miss Blanca Lourdes, who says she is a friend of the South American heavyweight, but not one of his party.

Firpo and Miss Lourdes were committed to Ellis Island after failing to satisfy the immigration officials aboard the liner concerning the visas on their passports. Eduardo Carbono, listed as Firpo's secretary, and Miguel Ferrara, a sparring partner, were detained as "material witnesses."

Later Firpo was released following a sitting of a special board of immigration inquiry appointed to review his case, but Miss Lourdes was held. Immigration officials said she would be liberated upon deposit of a $500 bond, guaranteeing her appearance on board the next boat for Cuba, for which her ticket reads. Commissioner of Immigration Henry H. Curran said that the technically involved Firpo's detention was waived by the board and he was admitted at 4:40 o'clock after having been held since 10:30 o'clock this morning, the docking time of the American Legion.

Miss Lourdes, who, it is said, was with Firpo during his last campaign in this country, claimed to have met Firpo on board the American Legion when the liner sailed Thursday, July 8, purely by accident. Firpo denied that Miss Lourdes is a member of his party, that he had contributed to any extent to her maintenance on board or had paid her passage. He claims to have known her for the past "six or eight months." Members of the crew, however, alleged that Firpo and Miss Lourdes were extremely friendly during the 18-day voyage.

Immigration authorities denied that Firpo's brief detention on Ellis Island had any bearing on Miss Lourdes' case. They treated the two cases as separate, saying, denying that they had found any connecting link between the two and classifying both cases under a technical "insufficient visa" heading.

Miss Lourdes, a Cuban by birth, according to her passport, is bound from Buenos Aires to Havana, Cuba, via New York. She is a comparatively stout woman, close to six feet tall, weighing about 180 pounds. She wore a long black cape which stretched to her ankles over a light brown dress. Heavy earrings studded her ears.

During the examination on board the liner Firpo kept away from Miss Lourdes.

HANGS GIRL BY THE WRISTS; ARRESTED

New York, Aug. 4.—Everybody at 68 Thompson street knew that Antonette, Paul Forke's eight-year-old daughter, had stolen $2 from her father. They had heard Antonette crying all night and, knowing her father felt certain she had expiated her offense.

The shrieks of the child rebuked in violence at about the time Forke, whose wife and son had gone out earlier, was leaving for his fruit stand on the East Side about 8:30 a.m., and many mothers of 68 Thompson street shook their heads commiseratingly.

Forke slammed the door of his apartment at last and clumped down the stairs to his work. Listening women withdrew their heads and closed their doors softly as he passed, for the very fundamental of good breeding on Thompson street is the ability to mind one's own business.

By 9 o'clock, however, the dwindling shrieks and weakening moans of the childish voice which resounded in the Forke home had wrung the hearts of several women of the house to the point where they cast neighborly curiosity and good breeding to the winds and sought a policeman.

He forced the door and found little Antonette hanging limply by her wrists from a rope which was made fast above the transom. Her eyes were inflamed and swollen from crying, her wrists were cut by the rope which had been knotted about them and her hands were puffy with congested blood. She fainted when she was cut down.

Board of Trade Takes Action in Matter of Marine Insurance.

The report that Halifax had been placed on a parity with the United States Atlantic ports in the matter of marine insurance has caused action by the Board of Trade of this city to find out why St. John is not accorded the same treatment.

This morning the matter is being taken up with Premier King and he will be requested to take immediate action to prevent the port being penalized in the matter of rates.

The local shipping men and Board of Trade members say they are unable to understand why one of the Canadian Atlantic ports should be placed on a par with the United States ports and others left at the mercy of the Imperial Shipping Committee.

LT. COL. ANDERSON TO COMMAND NO. 7

General Staff Officer at Halifax is Coming to St. John.

Lieutenant-Colonel W. B. Anderson, C. M. G., D. S. O., a present general staff officer for Military District No. 6, Halifax, has been appointed officer commanding Military District No. 7, with headquarters here, according to official advice from Ottawa received this morning by Lieut.-Colonel H. C. Sparling, D. S. O., acting commander of the district since the retirement a few months ago of Colonel J. J. Houston. The new command is to be transferred to St. John. He is well known here as founder and present president of the Maritime Badminton Association. Both he and Mrs. Anderson are exceedingly popular in Halifax, and Colonel Sparling said this morning that the district is securing a highly competent chief. He is expected to assume command of the district on Sept. 1.

Although Colonel Anderson is a comparatively young man, being 47 years of age, he has risen high in his chosen profession since his graduation in 1897 from the Royal Military College, Kingston. He was appointed to the Royal Canadian Engineers in 1905 and since then has held many important staff positions, among them being: Intelligence staff officer, Military Headquarters, assistant director of signalling, D. A. Q. M. G., Maritime Provinces; director military training, Militia Headquarters; G. S. O. M. D. No. 4, Montreal; D. A. A. and M. G., Canadian Corps in France; D. A. A. and Q. M. As Hiram Sees It

"Well, sir," said Mr. Hiram Hornbeam, to The Times reporter, "I'm 'goin' to be it with Mayor Potts this mornin'."

"What in the world has the Mayor been doing to you?" asked the reporter.

"I don't like the smell o' noo paint," said Hiram. "No matter what street I go on now I smell it—an' it's gittin' wuss every day. I been comin' to town fer more'n forty year—an' I never seen the like of it. It's all Potts' fault. He went an' said that if folks painted their houses he'd see it."

"I wasn't charged up agin' 'em on the tax bill. Now they've started in to paint—an' because they waited so long the's a lot more of it to do."

"But the city will look better," said the reporter, "and paint is good for the houses. They will last longer."

"I don't care nothin' about that," said Hiram. "I don't like the smell o' noo paint. What's more, I got to be somethin' to kick about—aint I? I'd be awful homesome if I didn't do what the rest was doin'—wouldn't I?"

"I see your point," said the reporter, "I am not sure that it is not well taken."

"Sure," said Hiram, "everybody's bellyachin' about somethin'—it's got to be a habit round here."
