LLOYD GEORGE IN SHARP REFERENCE TO NEW TROUBLE

"The Flag Must Not be Let Down"—Says Turk Looked at New Cabinet List and Decided for Another Try.

Newcastle, Eng., Nov. 7.—(By Associated Press)—Lloyd George made some sharp references to the crisis which has arisen in the Near East since his fall from the premiership, in a political address here today.

"Whatever happens, our flag must not be let down," he said. "We had got rid of the Turk, but he has looked at the list of new ministers and come to the conclusion that this is the time for another try."

"If the government stands by the flag, my friends, I will be wholeheartedly behind them. I entreat the government to show the Turk that we will not be trifled with and that the Turk must stand by the document signed a few weeks ago at Mudania."

He said that he was not surprised if the Turk looked at the new cabinet list and decided for another try.

Votes Today Will Have Effect Upon Four Large Issues

Entry of the U. S. Into the Nations League One of Them

Tariff, Prohibition and Presidential Prospects for 1924 Also Included in the Matters Upon Which Today's Balloting Will Give Line.

Four issues of outstanding significance are more or less involved in the U. S. elections taking place today.

Entry of the U. S. into the League of Nations may follow any carrying of the congressional election for the democratic ticket.

James M. Cox of Ohio, democratic champion of the Wilsonian programme, while President Harding adheres to his policy of opposing all participation in European affairs.

The character of the next U. S. tariff will probably be decided by the senatorial elections.

Candidates for the upper house on both parties have made this an issue of their election campaigns.

The future of prohibition may be influenced to some extent by voting on state referendums.

Four states—Illinois, Ohio, Massachusetts and California—are submitting wet and dry plebiscites, the first two with a view to legalizing the manufacture and sale of beer and light wines.

The last two to establish state prohibition enforcement regulations in harmony with the Volstead law.

Presidential election prospects for 1924 are believed by many to be likely to be foreshadowed by the result of the bitter contest for the governorship of New York.

It is felt that the large electoral college vote of the empire state may be the determining factor in the next presidential campaign, and politicians are waiting anxiously to learn "how New York is going."

MAJORITY OF REPUBLICANS

New York, Nov. 7.—(Canadian Press)—Early reports indicated the probability of a heavy vote.

Political observers believe that there is but little chance of the election changing the political aspect of the House of Representatives or the Senate at Washington, though it is not improbable that the Republican majority in the house may be diminished.

Democratic leaders profess to see in the final week of the campaign a turning of public sentiment in their direction.

Late last night the Democratic national committee in Washington issued a statement regarding the election prospects.

The statement declared that the Democratic party was confident of making gains in New York, where they see "a last day" action against the Republican ticket.

RECORD CROWDS AT IMPERIAL. A Well Varied Programme Fills Big Keith House With Delighted Patrons.

Thanksgiving Day is always looked upon by show folks as the big day of the year, eclipsing the national holidays and the Yuletide gala dates. At the Imperial yesterday all records went to smash in the face of the high-water mark of counter attractions and the finest of weather. And the thousands of patrons saw a corking show—a regular, bounteous holiday bill of fare.

"Love Never Dies," King Vidor's latest production, was the special attraction, and it certainly possessed a well balanced cast, headed by Lloyd Hughes and Madge Bellamy.

Hughes, one of the cleverest and youngest leading men on the screen, has won an enviable reputation during the last year for his work in "Home-again" and "Mother of Mine." Previous to his success in these pictures he scored heavily in "The Turn of the Road," the production that won fame for the producer of "Love Never Dies."

Madge Bellamy, who shares honors with Hughes, is picturedom's latest and greatest "find." Less than a year ago she was playing on the stage in New York and had no thought of entering the silent drama.

Among the other members of the cast are Claire McDowell and Winifred Greenwood, two of the most capable character actresses in the industry. Frank Brownlee has been a celluloid villain ever since he entered picturedom a half holiday ago. One of his outstanding portrayals was that of the bully in "The Brute Breaker." Joe Bennett is a player who has become a familiar name of times in his releases. Fred Gambo and Julie Brown, all well-known artists, have important roles. "Love Never Dies" was adapted by the director from "The Cottage of Delight," Will N. Harter's popular novel. It is a sweet story of a youthful marriage, a misunderstanding, a train-wreck in which the broken-hearted young husband is thought to have been a victim; a second marriage of the re-appearing of the husband, their baby and the suicidal end of the villainous character which clears up everything in the hostling tragedy was a thrilling piece of filming, as was also the train wreck of first acts.

The comedy feature "St. John in a ludicrous affair entitled "All Wet," was a continuous roar of laughter, especially the under-water adventures with fish and mermaids. In the Pathe Weekly were pictures of the "Empress of the Day" and a truly charming setting of the feature picture with "Love's Old Sweet Song" as the most completed regular honest-to-goodness holiday bill. The same show is given today.

The table is six legged and square with curved corners, lengthening to 8 feet. The buffet is an accomplishment in simple grace distinguished by lion's head handles. Big Holiday Crowds Enjoy Fox Classic, "My Friend the Devil." William Fox has disproved the theory that "there's nothing new under the sun."

In "My Friend, the Devil," the Fox special production which opened three days' engagement at the Queen Square Theatre yesterday, he brings forth upon the screen a new type of entertainment that was unanimous approval at its initial presentation here.

It contains every element necessary for real entertainment—a novel plot, a powerful theme, unexcelled dramatic sequence, superlative portrayal, romance, thrills and a motive that will win the praise of every woman and child.

The photoplay is an adaptation from George Orne's famous novel, "Dr. Harnett" and to Harry Millarde must go the credit for another pictorial masterpiece. Mr. Millarde directed "Over the Hill," which is one of the triumphs of motion picture history.

The entire picture of "My Friend the Devil" has been correctly mounted and the types and costumes seem to step right from the pages of Orne's novel. Throughout the picture dramatic sequences follow one another in rapid-fire order, building up to a stirring climax.

The story deals with a man whose "faith in God had been washed away when his mother is killed by lightning while he was little more than a babe." He has called upon God to strike his brutal stepfather who was ill-treating his loving mother.

"Over the Hill," which is one of the triumphs of motion picture history, provides a theme that grips the interest through every inch of the picture.

To Charles Richman as Dr. George Harnett must go the honor of contributing to screen literature one of the most powerful dramatic portrayals in the history of motion pictures.

Peggy Shaw, as Dr. Dryden's daughter, also gives a remarkable depiction of a difficult part. Others in the cast whose exceptional work deserve mention are Beaulieu Grant, William Towner, common clerk, up till yesterday noon Adolph Milar, Myrtle Stewart, Barbara, and, as was expected, the fight will be between G. Fred Fisher, candidate for Mayor and Robert Fraser, candidate for the power company.

IN FURNISHING A HOME

as in so many of life's enterprises—there is no time like the present to buy good furniture; and seldom, if ever, is it true that good furniture becomes cheaper. The chief woods from which good furniture is made, grow more scarcer and more valuable each year. The chances are that good furniture will gradually increase in price.

Your family is growing up. See that your home is what it should be while your children are with you. Chesterfield sofas and dining room suites at big reductions. All Felt Mattresses at $8.40 and $11.50.

Bread Below
Wholesale

Go to your grocer—he can save you money. He can hand you a loaf of bread as often as you wish that is sold below the normal wholesale price. For Robinson's put so much more into their bread they lose money on every loaf. But they get new customers, folks whom this new economy started thinking out their own bread costs.

And so, with coal a bigger problem than ever, housewives in general are freeing themselves from bread bother and expense by enjoying the machine-handled loaves so generously made and so generously priced by Robinson's. There is more nourishment put in and more than the profit taken out.

Get it below its baking cost from your grocer and save money.

LECTURING WITH A BEAUTY CHORUS

Describing his American lecture tour experiences in an article in the November Harper's Magazine, Philip Gibbs writes:

"In some cases it was my privilege to have a chairwoman, or a 'lady chair,' as she is called in England; and there was one beautiful lady at Grand Rapids whose perfect grace and elocution was almost too good an introduction to my feeble oratory. I wanted her to keep on speaking. Another lady, in the western city of Seattle was so overcome with nerves behind the scenes that she excited my own nervousness. Utterly unable to carry on any polite conversation, we paced up and down, wretchedly, before the curtain was drawn, glancing at each other with haggard sympathy. Presently, as the curtain was rung up, she took a deep breath, as though preparing for a high dive, and plunged into the stage. It was my inopportune intention to follow her immediately, but to my embarrassment, I found myself preceded by twenty-six maidens of astonishing loveliness, in exquisite garments. They were the lady stewards who had decided to occupy a half circle of chairs behind my place on the platform, and waiting for them to pass through the wings, overcome by the brilliance of their beauty, the aroma of their perfume, the light of their eyes, and the rustle of silk, I talked on behind, feeling exactly like George Grosz, and looking, I am certain, like Charlie Chaplin after one of those blows which fate inflicts upon him for the ninth of the world. All through that lecture I was conscious of the beauty behind me, intensely self-conscious of my hands and legs, so that I adopted the most ridiculous attitude and gestures, and was overcome by cramp in the left calf, while I found myself looking over my right shoulder to get a sneaking glimpse of those twenty-six girls."

THE LONE BANDIT.

(Toronto Telegram.)

Autumn has become the season of the "lone bandit," whose pokes a gun in the faces of the clerks in a store and walks off with the contents of the till, and the "bold bandits" who blow the doors of bank vaults and infringe the copyrights of high finance.

There is a breccina given to the stories of these crimes which fires the imagination and has a tendency to develop a breed of imitators. As seen through the newspaper report the criminals take on almost heroic proportions. As seen later in the prisoners' dock or wearing the stripes of the penitentiary there is not a semblance of the hero in their make-up. Then they appear as they really are—low-browed, ignorant and brutal men who abhor work and who are prepared to risk the loss of liberty rather than

David Clark's residence in Fairville Plateau was totally destroyed by fire last evening. The alarm was sent in at 8.30. Mr. Clark, who is a longshoreman, was away at work and Mrs. Clark and two children were in the city.

There was very little insurance and the loss will be heavy. The house was only about a year old. Some of the neighbors succeeded in saving a part of the furniture.

G. FRED FISHER'S PLATFORM

- No. 1.—(a) The completion and signing of the contract with the New Brunswick Electric Power Commission for Musquash Power. (b) The appointment of an independent Civic Hydro Electric Commission to construct a Civic Distribution System and operate same.

EVERY CITIZEN RESPONSIBLE.

One hears of a citizen here and there who says he will vote next Monday because he does not approve of either candidate.

Does not such a citizen realize that failure to vote will not relieve him of responsibility for what happens? And what will happen? Either St. John will get cheap light and power, as they have it now at South Bay from the plant at Musquash; or the city will get cheap light and power, and will remain under the thumb of the New Brunswick Power Company.

The mere fact that the power company is using its whole influence and putting forth every effort to bring about the election of Mr. McLellan should tell every other citizen whether his or her interests lie. It would be nothing short of a calamity if friends of hydro should stay away from the polls and let the power company win.

The real contest is not between two men, but between those who want St. John to expand and those who want dividends on watered stock; between those who want electricity at a third of its present cost, or less, with the resultant saving and increased comfort for the people, and those who would keep the rates up to make profits for themselves.

Surely any thoughtful citizen can see that the talk about a lack of power at Musquash; about the need of a stand-by; about taxation and competition and all that, is the power company's way of frightening the people so that it may triumph over them. It wants Mayor McLellan in the mayor's chair. That ought to be enough to make any well-informed voter wish him out of it; for the power company is no real friend of St. John. Its whole record shows what it will do if it can get rid of competition and have its own way. If it did not believe it would get its own way, would it be working tooth and nail for Mr. McLellan?

ARE YOU WITH US?

The editor of this journal of the fire-side has received an intimation that something will be required of him about the 20th of December. Can it be possible there are others like him? If so it might be kind to suggest to them all that November is as good as any other time in which to consider the matter of Christmas gifts, however modest the purse may be.

Be of good cheer, brother. There is a way out. The kind storekeeper is your friend. He will be glad to see you this week or anytime in the next few weeks. He will let you wander about and help you to discover the things you do want, and let you compare. You may thus in an intelligent and unhurried manner make your selections and hide them away, and on Christmas Eve you will be at peace with all the world.

FOUNTAINS OF WISDOM.

When Mayor McLellan feels that it is an urgent public duty to admonish an editor he realizes at once the gravity and importance of the task, and his own limitations. Not trusting himself to rely upon his own powers of expression, he seeks apt quotations, such as may be procured from the fountains of ancient lore. The habit is one to be encouraged. If his worship could find time he would discover in the utterances of the sages of the past much that is profitable, and much that is as applicable today as when the rulers of Babylon thundered forth their edicts to their slaves.

"Pride goeth before destruction, and an haughty spirit before a fall." "Better it is to be of a humble spirit with the lowly, than to divide the spoil with the proud." "Most men will proclaim every one his own goodness, but a faithful man who shall find?"

"Cast out the scorpion and contention shall go out; yea, strife and reproach shall cease." "Scat thou a man that is hasty in his words; There is more hope of a fool than of him."

It is years too late for the New Brunswick Power Company and its friends to try to persuade anybody that hydro is not the greatest material blessing that ever came to Ontario. We are too near to Ontario to be fooled. The corporation interests in that province have done their worst, but they have fought a losing battle. It will be so in New Brunswick.

South Bay has hydro at four cents per kilowatt hour. St. John would have had it also but for two years delay at City Hall. Elect Mr. Fisher and end the delay. Sussex and Moncton will soon have the current. Why should St. John be the last? Because of the New Brunswick Power Company and its watered stock.

WHY BE AFRAID?

Pain? What is pain? It is the impress of the loving hand Of the Great Artist on his formless clay. The grinding of the immortal Potter's wheel; The chisel on the diamond whereby He cometh forth a gem of radiant loveliness.

Why be afraid? The Artist is expert. He understands each move. The Potter's hand Is sure; it will not slip and mar the work. And no more shaping shall the vessel have. And not a single turn upon the wheel. More than is needed to insure the grace. The beauty and the strength the Glimmer to all His makes. Why be afraid?

LIGHTER VEIN.

Father Was in Error. Sutor—"Mr. Simkins, I have courted your daughter for seven years." Mr. S.—"Well, what do you want?" Sutor—"To marry her." Mrs. S.—"Well, hang! I thought you wanted a pension, or something."—Tit-Bits.

Of a Certainty. A wise man, says the Trepka (Kansas) Capital, never stands out in the rain or opens a walk bottle with his thumb. "But he has one advantage." "Well?" "Bill collectors will stand for a great deal more back talk from a $20,000 man than from a $2,000-a-year man."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

THE KING'S ARROW. It must have been a labor of love for Rev. H. A. Cody to write a book dedicated to his Loyalist ancestors, and stage many of the scenes at Oak Point, in whose old cemetery are found the memorials of the pioneers. But it was the Oak Point Loyalist, the reviewer of the book believes something of the atmosphere of the period when the American Revolution tried to stir up the Indians against the Loyalists, and added to the almost unending hardships the latter had to endure while carving out their homes in the wilderness along the St. John. The central figure, Dame Norwood, was a king's messenger, called The King's Arrow, when the Loyalists came, and the story is woven around the romance of his meeting, wooing and winning the daughter of a Loyalist who settled near Oak Point. The reviewer settles the French and the King's Arrow to reproduce something of the atmosphere of the period when the American Revolution tried to stir up the Indians against the Loyalists, and added to the almost unending hardships the latter had to endure while carving out their homes in the wilderness along the St. John.

DID HE READ IN BED? Writer Gives Reason For Thinking Shakespeare Did. Was William Shakespeare addicted to the twentieth century habit of reading in bed? The shadows under his eyes in the Droeshout portrait printed in the first folio mark him as a man who burned the midnight taper, in the deduction made in an article in Book News. Doubtless the light was very bad at night in the Bard of Avon's time, but this exercised deterring influence upon him.

Perhaps it was due to the problem of obtaining proper illumination that theatrical performances were given in the daytime and not at night in the Elizabethan period. At any rate, Shakespeare's days as a playwright were fairly full ones with rehearsals and performances and other business connected with the theatre and management of his company, so that it was necessary for him to do most of his reading and writing at night.

Well, Why Didn't He?

The following extracts are from The Telegraph's report of H. R. McLellan's speech in the Imperial Theatre on the evening of Thursday, April 6, last: "He quoted Mayor Schofield as saying that the money for a civic distribution system could not be raised until 1923. 'ELECT ME MAYOR AND I'LL GET IT IN FORTY-EIGHT HOURS,' declared the speaker."

"Without any reflection, he desired to say that if he (McLellan) had had the same opportunity presented him that Mayor Schofield had in 1920, the civic distribution line would have been already constructed and ready for operation." "The citizens gave him the opportunity. Why didn't he do as he promised to do?" "If the city was to look for permanent growth and development could no longer permit any corporation to maintain a position of privilege and monopoly unless it was controlled in a manner conducive to the best interest of the city. IT WAS A QUESTION OF WHAT WAS DUE THE CITY AND NOT WHAT WAS DUE THE BONDHOLDERS AND THE POWER COMPANY; the responsibility for them did not lie with the city but with the promoters, bond sellers and managers of the Power Company."

FIFTEEN MINUTES OF RADIO EACH DAY

By Edward N. Davis Formerly Technical Electrical Expert For U. S. Government

Lesson No. 146. THE EXTERNAL HETERODYNE. For the satisfactory reception of unmodulated signals such as emitted by a continuous wave radio telegraph station it is necessary to generate locally in the receiving system itself a radio frequency current of slightly different frequency from the incoming frequency. That is, the local frequency should differ from the frequency of the incoming signal by an amount which is an audible frequency. The combination of the two radio frequency currents produces beats at a frequency which is the same as the difference in frequency between them.

The diagram shows a form of oscillator circuit which may be inductively coupled to the standard non-regenerative receiving system in which audible beats are produced by application of the heterodyne principle. The inductance coil (L3) is a coupling coil for coupling the oscillator circuit to the receiving system. (L1) and (L2) may be the stator and rotor windings of a variometer with the filaments connected at the common point of these two windings. The wave length or more strictly the frequency of the oscillations generated may be changed by varying the mutual inductance of the variometer windings (L1) (L2) and the capacity of the condenser (C1). For use on long wave lengths good results may be obtained by mounting the condenser on the same shaft as the variometer rotor so that a single knob controls them both but for shorter wave lengths it is better to have a separate control for the condenser capacity. The circuit will function without the use of the grid condenser and grid leak but better results are generally obtained by the employment of these elements.

THE NATIONAL SONG (Winnipeg Free Press). The statement has been made that "The Maple Leaf" is better known than "O Canada." This may be so outside of Quebec, but it is the better known throughout the Dominion, considering that for the two and a half millions of French-Canadians in Quebec and the other provinces "O Canada" is the recognized national song. "O Canada" is well known and liked by many in the English-speaking provinces. Even in Ontario it rivals in popularity "The Maple Leaf" as a national song. The Edmonton Journal, for instance, says: "Every time that one hears 'The Maple Leaf Forever' sung by western school children, the stranger it seems that it should be taught to them. Possibly not one in ten of the youngsters at Victoria Park yesterday ever saw a maple leaf."

WHAT CHEAP POWER HAS DONE FOR LONDON, ONT.

Hydro Has Brought Sharp Increase in Population, Says Manager For Public Utilities Commission

Now About 50,000 Domestic Appliances in Use Including 3,000 Electric Ranges—Steam Plant Soon Scrapped—No Difficulty in Installing Hydro Distribution System—Citizens "Like to Tell of Wonderful Conveniences and Service Created By Cheap Hydro-Electric Power."

To the Editor of The St. John Telegraph and The Evening Times: Gentlemen:—In reply to your letters of October 17 and 24, we beg to advise that the London Electric Company operating in this city charged 9c per k.w.h., plus 25c meter rent, for lighting, which would therefore average paid by our consumers last year for lighting was 1.9c per k.w.h. IN THE DAYS OF THE LONDON ELECTRIC COMPANY THE AMOUNT OF CURRENT USED PER CUSTOMER PER MONTH WAS ABOUT 10 K.W.H., WHEREAS TODAY 60 K.W.H. PER CUSTOMER PER MONTH IS THE AMOUNT USED.

The Public Utilities Commission paid last year to the Ontario Commission $20 per H.P. per annum, and the average rate charged the customer for power was $25 per H.P. per annum. THERE IS AT PRESENT USED ON OUR SYSTEM ABOUT 50,000 DOMESTIC APPLIANCES, INCLUDING 3,000 ELECTRIC RANGES, AND AS THE HYDRO SHOP IS SELLING RANGES AT THE RATE OF ABOUT THREE A DAY, NO DOUBT THE MAJORITY OF OUR 17,000 CUSTOMERS WILL BE USING RANGES IN THE NEAR FUTURE.

Before the hydro department commenced operations in London, the city of London was supplied by the London Electric Company, who distributed 3,000 H.P. from a steam plant. This plant was finally shut down in 1919, after six years' competition. WE HAVE NO STEAM RESERVE, AND DO NOT FEEL THE NECESSITY FOR IT. THE LONDON STREET RAILWAY COMPANY OF THIS CITY IS BEING SUPPLIED WITH HYDRO POWER, AND ALTHOUGH THEY MAINTAINED THEIR STEAM PLANT FOR A YEAR OR TWO AFTER TAKING HYDRO, THEY FINALLY SCRAPPED IT ENTIRELY.

NEARLY ALL INSTITUTIONS AND MANUFACTURERS WHO HAD STEAM RESERVES HAVE SCRAPPED THEM SINCE, WHICH IS SUFFICIENT TESTIMONY AS TO THE NEED FOR A STEAM RESERVE.

An offer was made to the London Electric Company, when the work was about to commence on the Hydro System, to buy that company's plant. The directors of the company, however, did not believe that hydro would be a success, and therefore saw no reason to sell out to the city, except at a profit, and it was therefore impossible for the city and the company to come together.

Some two or three years after hydro commenced operations the local plant was bought out by the Mackenzie-Mann interests and finally ceased to do business on April 1, 1918. The whole of the London Electric Company's plant was scrapped.

There was very little difficulty in installing the lines of the hydro department, because the London Electric used high poles, the hydro department therefore installed its lines underneath the London Electric and obtained the necessary clearances. The original cost of the hydro system at the end of the first year was $20,000; the sub-station and its equipment costing about $60,000, and the remainder being distribution system, meters, street lighting equipment and general expense. The cost of the system today amounts to nearly $2,000,000, demonstrating the enormous growth of the hydro system.

There is no doubt that hydro in power was available this city was at a great disadvantage compared with cities located near the source of cheap power. The population increased during the eleven years of hydro from 50,000 to over 62,000. Many industries have located here which could not have been obtained previously.

When our citizens travel from home, no matter what their politics are, or what attitude they maintained in the pre-hydro days, they like to tell of the wonderful conveniences and services created by cheap Hydro-Electric power.

Yours truly,
PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION,
(Sgd.) E. V. BUCHANAN.

1,480,201 POPULATION IN GREATER LONDON

In Ten Years Number of Males Has Decreased 54,762 and Females Increased 17,600.

London, Nov. 7.—Some interesting figures on the population of Greater London are disclosed by the latest census, which gives the total number of its inhabitants as 1,480,201, the highest on record.

In the County of London alone the numbers have increased from 959,210 in 1911 to 1,188,127 in 1921, the latter figures being made up of 2,071,579 males and 2,413,044 females. The males have decreased in the last ten years by 54,762 and the females increased by 17,600. The proportion of females to 1,000 males has risen from 1,127 in 1911 to 1,165 in 1921, and there has been an increase of 29,222 widows during the period, attributable largely to the war.

The ratio of unmarried females to 1,000 unmarried males has increased from 1,128 to 1,247 in the age group of twenty to twenty-nine, and from 1,417 to 1,586 in the age group of thirty to thirty-nine.

If Our Inflated Prices Go On. (New York Herald.) If the Harvard Committee on Economic Research were an absolutely infallible prophet its prediction about the future of American prices would be a gloomy message for this country. The committee reports, and the committee believes we all must accept, "the present price level as substantially that around which the fluctuations of the business cycle must play" for the next ten years.

Canada's Greatest Statesmen

Correspondence of Sir John Macdonald. By his literary executor, Sir Joseph Pope. Toronto: Oxford University Press. Life and Letters of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. By Oscar Douglas Skelton. Toronto: Oxford University Press.

It can hardly be said that the names of Canada's statesmen have risen much above a Canadian horizon, but this is at least true of two of them, Sir John Macdonald and Sir Wilfrid Laurier, who between them controlled the destinies of the dominion for nearly thirty-five years, and to whose far-sighted and statesmanlike policy the country owes its present position of independence and respectability among the nations. One welcomes, therefore, with more than usual solicitation the appearance of two authoritative contributions to the lives of these really great Canadians.

Sir Joseph Pope's volume is supplementary to his "Memoirs of Sir John Macdonald," published in 1911, and includes a selection from Macdonald's correspondence with contemporaries. The selection is on the whole remarkably well-balanced, and unusually happy in its choice of letters, showing the personality of Macdonald as man and statesman. Macdonald shared with Laurier the wise view of the few letters a public man writes the better, and he went a step farther. Never write a letter if you can help it, he said, "and never destroy it." That despite this attitude he left behind him a voluminous correspondence is partly due to his qualifying phrase, and partly because a man who had been in public life for forty-seven years must willy-nilly have written many letters.

Among Macdonald's correspondents, so far as they are represented in this of his contemporaries in Canadian public life, such as Charles Tupper, Ed. Galt, George Etienne Cartier, Richard Cartwright, D'Arcy McGee and Joseph Sheppard, there are few letters of more than ordinary interest. The letters to and from Goldwin Smith, and others to British statesmen such as Cartwright, Knutsford, Hicks-Beach, Sturtevant, and Knutsford. Most of these deal with public affairs, but throughout this volume one gets many glimpses of the man himself that dominant yet charming personality that was the enthusiasm of his contemporaries. The catholicity of his interests is shown in a letter to a Canadian— a race by no means given to hero-worship. The catholicity of his interests is shown in a letter to a Canadian— a race by no means given to hero-worship.

Perhaps in some respects the devotion of thousands of English-speaking Canadians to the French-Canadian leader was even more remarkable. In trying to make a Parliarian audience understand why French-Canadians felt nothing but loyalty to the British crown, under which they enjoyed absolute liberty, Sir Wilfrid offered his own case as an example of the equality of opportunity enjoyed by the French-Canadian. He said, "where the majority is of English descent and of Protestant religion, the last general election has brought into power a man of French descent and Catholic religion, who has always strongly affirmed his race and his religion." Sir Wilfrid, with becoming modesty, and perhaps a little too much credit to his English supporters, ignored the equality of opportunity enjoyed by the French-Canadian premier acceptable to the English-speaking majority.

So far as Quebec is concerned, many of the stories are told illustrating the limitations of French-Canadians in the power of Laurier. His name was a thing to conjure with throughout the province. When the news reached Quebec of the death of Queen Victoria an old inhabitant is reported to have asked the village curate, whom Laurier would make a king. Even better than the naive prayer of a little Nova Scotia, "Now, O God, take care of yourself, for if I lose you we shall have to do as we are doing as well as papa expected he would do."

Every statesman has his human side, and there is a certain satisfaction for most of us in the knowledge that even the greatest of our leaders have much the same frailties as ourselves. Macdonald was no exception. In his earlier days he was sometimes found relieving the weary of his duties by a little more than a fair share of the duties of a waiter. It is a little amusing to read that he was once found relieving the weary of his duties by a little more than a fair share of the duties of a waiter.

Another story goes back to the early sixties. Sir Edmund Head, a rather consequential person, who was then governor, sent his side-decamp, Lord Bury, to Macdonald, who had been lost in the woods, and the great politician opened a tribute that illuminates the character of both. "It can be asserted that the supreme act of governing men Sir John Macdonald was gifted as few men in any land or in any age were gifted—gifted with the most high of all qualities—qualities which would have shone in any theatre, and which would have shone all the more conspicuously the larger the theatre. The fact that he visited the courts, the prisons, and the hospitals, and that he was particularly interested in the condition of the poor, and spent many hours in our hospitals, the management of which he grasped with a firm hand, the confidence but the devotion—the ardent devotion—the affection of his party, is evidence that, besides these higher qualities of statesmanship to which we were the daily witnesses, he was also endowed with this inner, subtle, indefinable characteristic of the soul that wins and keeps the hearts of men—Lawrence J. Burpee in The Independent.

How Clemenceau Got His Start in America. Georges Clemenceau, the old war premier and "Eger of France" who is coming to America to plead the cause of his country, began the career as a journalist, which led to his public life in the United States. In "Our World" for November, Rufus L. Wilson, tells the story of Clemenceau's early days in this country as follows: "The evening before his departure from France he asked an American friend, the artist William E. Marshall, to give him a few letters of introduction. Marshall followed Clemenceau to New York, and soon the two were sharing modest quarters in West Twelfth street—the same by an odd coincidence that thirty years earlier had sheltered Napoleon III. In after years he sheltered the fortune to know and often talk with Marshall. Although he did not know my mother, he hurried forward and the door opened, and he might readily have been excused as a visitor from the past. He was a little old, but that was not his fault. He was a little old, but that was not his fault. He was a little old, but that was not his fault."

Although he did not know my mother, he hurried forward and the door opened, and he might readily have been excused as a visitor from the past. He was a little old, but that was not his fault. He was a little old, but that was not his fault. He was a little old, but that was not his fault."

There are thousands of healthy, robust young men and women who have never in all their lives taken any other laxative for constipation than Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin. Their parents were given it by their parents; the grandparents are using it today. It is the one laxative ideally suited to all the family, safe for the little ones, effective in growing up, so composed that elderly people, who are constantly forced to take a laxative because of the intestinal muscles growing weaker, find increased dosage unnecessary. This wonderful constipation remedy has been used continuously for 30 years, and over 10 million bottles are now sold annually, the largest selling family laxative in the world. The cost averages but a cent a dose. Every druggist sells it, and under a guarantee to do as claimed or your money will be refunded.

Millions of carefully conducted homes are never without a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin. Mr. Henry Ricker, Chippewa, Ont., says it is the best medicine they have ever used, and Mrs. M. Martin of Massey, Ont., uses it herself and recommends it to her friends. There is scarcely a day that someone in a family does not need it for constipation, flatulency, auto-intoxication, biliousness, intestinal poisoning, headaches, colic and cramps, and to break up fevers and colds. Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin is a scientifically-balanced compound of Egyptian senna with peppermint and pleasant-tasting aromatics. The formula is on the package. As the popularity of this natural vegetable laxative increases, the public discards the harsher physics like calomel, castor-oil in a candy form, salt-waters and powders. Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin empties the bowels more cleanly and without any danger.

outside New York in September of this year it took $1.55 1/2 to do the work $1 did in July, 1914.

As against these costs for average communities the department of labor rates New York city in the cost of living scale at: Food, 81.6 per cent higher than in 1914; clothing, 98.1 per cent higher; rent, 54.2 per cent higher; fuel and light, 97.7 per cent higher; furniture, 117.9 per cent higher; and miscellaneous, 112.4 per cent higher. The consolidated index for all items taken together is 69.7 higher than in the year before the war.

New York city, contrary to popular belief, is not the highest living cost spot in the country. There are large cities in the middle west and west that equal New York in respect of living costs, and there are smaller cities in the far west that surpass New York's living costs. A fair average for the whole country, then, or for the active industrial part of the country, may be taken at somewhere between 60 and 65 per cent higher now than the year before the war.

But if American prices, as reflected by American living costs, are to continue for ten years at about 65 per cent above what was normal in 1914, then the average cost of living in the United States will be going to stay jacked up in our costs while Europe gradually recovers its economic powers and resumes its industrial and commercial functions nationally and internationally. Two things are bound to happen to this country.

The first is that while our costs stay up in the air we cannot hope to sell exports abroad in the measure to which our production is well as domestic trade. The second is that if our costs stay up in the air while foreign costs readjust themselves downward, as compared with ours, not even a tariff that is grotesquely high can keep out the low cost foreign products that will press upon our markets of excessively high prices.

If American producers because of their high costs cannot sell abroad what they need to sell, the hydro department, because the London Electric used high poles, the hydro department therefore installed its lines underneath the London Electric and obtained the necessary clearances. The original cost of the hydro system at the end of the first year was $20,000; the sub-station and its equipment costing about $60,000, and the remainder being distribution system, meters, street lighting equipment and general expense. The cost of the system today amounts to nearly $2,000,000, demonstrating the enormous growth of the hydro system.

RESPONSIBILITY OF WOMANHOOD

Religious Duty to Take Interest in Affairs of City and Country.

(Toronto Globe.)

"Women need to remember that if they are to enjoy the privileges and advantages of being recognized as individuals they must also assume the responsibilities of individuals," stated Mrs. L. C. McKinney, ex-M. P. P. A. Alberta, who addressed a large meeting of the College Heights Women's Educational Association yesterday afternoon, on the subject "Women in Municipal and Political Life."

For a long time women had sat comfortably back and allowed other people to do their thinking and make decisions for them, but in these enlightened days the new responsibilities must be assumed, and the younger generation taught to appreciate their privileges and advantages.

"All too often our women have really been trained to get all they can out of life and put as little as possible into it. The woman who has had to work with her hands has been at least pitied, if not actually frowned upon and looked down upon. That attitude has come to be too nearly our national ideal for our girls," she continued, going on to say that within the last decade there had been a material change in ideas on that point, and that nowadays women must make some contribution to society worthy of herself and worthy of any individual.

"Life is a great whole to me," said Mrs. McKinney. "I cannot separate my life into fractions. It is just as much my religious duty to be interested in the affairs of the town of the city in which I live as it is to be interested in my church duties. I do not think that a woman neglects her home in any particular, or necessarily, by interesting herself outside the home. I rather think she is a very much better wife and mother if she has some interest outside than if she closes her eyes to everything beyond her four walls."

The old notion that women would be robbed of their femininity if they entered politics was now generally conceded to be wrong. Women had entered political life, in the first place, to protect their own interests, and if, as had been alleged, they were sacrificing some of the advantages of their former position by the men it was because they were being more than repaid by what they were accomplishing for the great mass of less fortunate sisters. Womanhood generally would receive a greater consideration in politics if woman was there in person to safeguard her own interests.

Ironize More Foods

One of the body's daily needs is food-iron for the blood. Raisins furnish iron—the natural, organic iron which is most easily assimilated by the system. Add raisins, therefore, to cakes, cookies, breakfast foods, bread, etc., and you add this benefit as well as luscious flavor.

Ragged unsightly cuticle

You need never again have it

HANDS that are in themselves really beautiful are often ruined by an unsightly ragged cuticle. Yet everyone can have shapely nails and smooth, even cuticle. For manicuring is no longer the dangerous and difficult undertaking it used to be.

No more harmful cutting of the cuticle! For no matter how careful you are, you simply cannot cut the hard dry edges about the base of the nail without piercing through to the living skin. This dangerous method of caring for your nails soon gives you the ragged ugly cuticle that you especially want to avoid.

But of course the surplus cuticle has to be removed and this can be done easily, quickly and harmlessly with Cutex Cuticle Remover. With an orange stick dipped in the liquid you work gently about the base of the nail. Then rinse and when drying push the cuticle gently downwards. Your nails will remain smooth and even.

Cutex Manicure Sets come in four sizes, 60c, $1.00, $1.50 and $3.00. Or each of the Cutex items comes separately at 35c. At all drug and department stores in the United States and Canada.

Put Good Health into your Favorite Dishes

GOOD Health is simply a matter of keeping the internal organs working in a normal and orderly way—by eating proper foods. And of all foods, the one which best stimulates natural functioning is Bran.

The daily use of Bran in some form is a pleasant way to health, for Bran is an appetizing food which can be served in various forms. Bran gems, bread, muffins, cookies, nut or fruit bread, cakes, and tea biscuits are all delicious and are simple to make. Bran can be taken at breakfast with cereals or with fruit, or preserves, at dinner with soup, or at any time with milk. No matter how it is taken, Bran always keeps you regular the way nature intended—provided you use just pure, natural, uncooked Bran.

PURE NATURAL BRAN
Tillson's Health Bran comes from the cleanest and plumpiest soft winter wheat used in the Quaker Mills. It is not cooked or treated. It is only sterilized before being packed in the dust-proof, air-proof cartons in which it reaches you. Serve Tillson's Bran in some form every day. It will help to safeguard the health of your family.

In several fatalities where the operation was otherwise a complete success. Just how many lives have been sacrificed is not known, but there is conclusive proof that three deaths were due to this cause, and there is no doubt those officially reported are not the only victims.

A chocolate manufacturer who inadvertently produced some confectionery recently containing a deadly mixture of ground glass was very properly held responsible for the mistake. Any person engaged in such important work as making surgical supplies should operate under a license, so that some supervision would be possible to prevent a recurrence of such a ghastly tragedy.

In view of the fact that all the medical witnesses agreed that there was nothing to prevent the catgut from being rendered perfectly sterile, it seems strange to the lay mind that so many deaths were recorded before there was a thorough investigation.

Women must take the initiative in politics she concluded. "For just as soon as women make it understood that they will not stand for unworthy men or unworthy methods, just so soon will the various political parties put up with cleaner men and adopt cleaner methods."

Mrs. Manning Deberry, seconded by Mrs. C. J. Hastings, expressed the thanks of the meeting to Mrs. McKinney.

MUST MARRY TO GET $25,000 LEGACY

Corona Girl, Restricted by Uncle's Will, in No Hurry to Quit Bakery for Altar.

New York, Nov. 7.—Although she has just been made heiress to $25,000 on condition that she marries, Miss Ruth Spanier, of Corona, does not intend to give up the selling of bread, rolls and pies in her mother's store nor does she intend to marry in haste just to get the money. It was only two days ago that Miss Spanier received information from an attorney in Los Angeles, Cal., that she had been named as one of the beneficiaries in the will of her uncle, Jacob Spanier.

Miss Spanier, who is twenty-one years old, lives with her mother, Mrs. Dora Spanier, at 211 Corona avenue, Corona. They have conducted a bakery since the death of Miss Spanier's father last spring. "If I ever receive it, the bequest," she said last night, "I will give a considerable portion to charity. My activities during the past few years have given me an experience to teach me where some of the money at least could be put to a very good purpose. I am satisfied with the work I am doing and I am going to continue it. I certainly will not marry for money, although I admit that this sum would be acceptable. When I marry it shall be for love and I will not hasten or alter my plans just because of this bequest and its unusual restrictions."

HANGING IN CANADA.

(Hamilton Herald.)
So long as the death penalty is inflicted upon convicted murderers in this country, and so long as the legal mode of execution is hanging it should be the duty of the Department of Justice at Ottawa to make proper provision for the hanging to be done in a skilful and expeditious manner. There should be no repetition of the repellent scene at a recent bungled execution. There ought to be an official executioner. But, better still, a surer, more modern and less revolting mode of execution should be adopted.

DECEMBER WORLD FICTION.

The December number of World Fiction contains stories from Sweden, France, Italy, Bulgaria, Russia, Ireland, Japan, Czechoslovakia, Chile, Denmark, Germany and Norway, besides an American poem and the fifth instalment of the serial novel, "The Mole." The leading story of the month is Selma Lagerloef's "The Hobbler of Torsholm," which gives a very interesting and dramatic picture of Swedish life and customs a hundred or so years ago. "The Song of Songs" by Annie Vivanti is a rollicking tale of a husband's search for new and "colorful" emotional experiences. "The Joy of the Republic" is a picture of conditions in Ireland today, and a very gripping story. One of the best things in this number is the "Shot on the Moor," a thrilling, fantastic tale.

A suspension bridge 100 feet long has been found in Africa, made entirely of reeds and grass.

Sleep that Rests — Who gets it

The outstanding facts about sleep are easily stated in non-technical terms. Everyone should know some of these facts. Especially the Mother of the family, with her responsibility for the health and well-being of all beneath her roof.

Even the simple fact that sound sleep comes only with relaxed nerves throws a heavy responsibility on the maker of sleeping equipment.

Think what happens to your spinal nerves, for instance, when your bed spring fails to support the spine in its normal position.

From a deep and intimate study of sleep and scientific sleeping equipment—Simmons Limited developed the Simmons Bed Springs.

Springs that support the spine, take pressure off the spinal cord and nerves, and invite complete relaxation.

Springs built for sleep—with all the Simmons responsibility for the sleep of all who use Simmons sleeping equipment.

Cook with This Ware
It Uses Less Fuel

Do you know that by using the wrong kind of cooking utensils, you can waste dollars and dollars of good money every year? It's true! This money can be saved if good enameled ware is used, such as Diamond Ware or Pearl Ware. The secret is that they heat up more quickly and hold the heat.

Here is a good test. Take a Diamond Ware or Pearl Ware saucepan and a saucepan of equal size made of brass, copper or aluminum. Into each pour two quarts of cold water. Place each saucepan over the burner or fire. The water in the Diamond or Pearl saucepan will come to the boil in just half the time it takes the other. Think of the money that can be saved by women using good enameled ware for all their cooking. No heat is wasted when Diamond or Pearl Ware is used.

With fuel at the present prices, economical housewives should not forget that by using SMP Enameled Ware kitchen utensils nearly half the cost of gas, coal, wood or electricity for cooking can be saved.

What ware do you cook with? Are you saving money and enjoying full satisfaction by using Diamond Ware or Pearl Ware utensils, or are you still using all-metal wares? Equip your kitchens at once with economical Diamond or Pearl Ware.

ARE ENJOYING MUSQUASH HYDRO CURRENT AT COST

Houses in South Bay District are Lighted from New Plant—Owners are Greatly Pleased With Results.

To Amador Anderson, of South Bay, goes the honor of being the first in the province to have his home illuminated by the current from the Musquash development. Just before five o'clock on Saturday afternoon, the wiring of Mr. Anderson's home was completed and the current from the Westfield branch line turned on.

This Musquash current at four cents a kilowatt hour becomes a significant and important fact, and from it the citizens of St. John and the surrounding territory will realize that the day of deliverance from high lighting rates and mercenary monopoly is at hand.

Mr. Anderson has expressed keen delight at the satisfaction given by the first delivery of hydro for private consumption and the same sentiments have been expressed by Frederick Ferris, who received the current into his home in the South Bay road a few hours after it was turned on in the Anderson home.

Labor and Hydro

The assertion is made that the 'Longshoremen's Union are against municipal ownership of hydro. It is not true. One of the chief planks in the platform of labor organizations is public ownership of such a utility. The 'longshoremen have not gone back on their platform. While a few of their members may be supporting Mr. McLellan, the association as a body stands for municipal ownership of hydro.

The same influences which are at work for Mr. McLellan's election are also denouncing the Workmen's Compensation Act. Do the 'longshoremen approve of that course?

BULLETS FLY IN COAL THEFT. Detectives Fight Crowd Taking Fuel From Buffalo Yards.

Buffalo, N. Y., Nov. 6.—Several hundred men, women and children of Cheektowaga early today battled with Lehigh Valley Railroad detectives who attempted to prevent them from hauling away the contents of three carloads of anthracite coal, which had been dumped onto the tracks near the William street city line. Fourteen-year-old John Diskowski was shot in the left leg when the detectives opened fire at several men who began to hurl chunks of coal at them when they descended upon the crowd. The detectives said the boy was an innocent bystander and was struck by a stray bullet. It was not until the detectives fired several volleys that the crowd began to scatter. Men and women ran in all directions, carrying buckets, baskets and tubs filled with the fuel. Three arrests were made. Detectives are trying to learn who pulled the pins in the gondola cars containing the anthracite. The cars were in a freight train which had stopped in the yards near William street for a few minutes.

SCHOOL HOUSE BURNED. The school house at Public Landing was destroyed by fire Saturday night about eight o'clock. Dr. J. H. Barton and Walter Doherty, returning from a hunting trip, discovered the blaze which was then beyond control. They notified a party at a dance at the Landing and they were saved a little church near by. There was school on Saturday and the fire is believed to have been incendiary.

Thomas Stephen, president of the Stephen Brick Co., Ltd., whose plant was destroyed by fire early yesterday morning, said today that the company proposed building on the same site as soon as possible. So far as could be ascertained there was no damage done to the boilers and the damage to the main engine may not amount to much. The brick making machinery and much valuable belting, however, will be practically total loss.

WILL REBUILD THE BRICK PLANT

Mr. Stephen said that the loss will be in the vicinity of $70,000, and about $50,000 insurance is carried. H. W. Frink has been appointed to adjust the loss for the insurance company. The new brick company recently installed a fuel oil system in their boilers, but fortunately the oil tank was not touched by the flames. Mr. Stephen said that he had sufficient brick manufactured to complete the supply for the new school being erected in West St. John by H. O. Clark.

DEATH OF FORMER BOOK STEWARD

Rev. Dr. W. Briggs First Elected to Methodist Publishing House in 1870—Born in Ireland in 1836.

Toronto, Nov. 7.—Rev. William Briggs, D. D., until four years ago the steward of the Methodist Bookroom and previously to that a famous preacher of the Methodist Church in Canada, died yesterday at the home of his son at Fox Credit. His actual illness had only been of three weeks' duration, but prior to it he had been experiencing the general enfeeblement that was the inevitable reaction to a life crowded with activity and characterized by unparalyzing expenditure of energy.

Just four years ago he retired from the actual management of the Methodist Publications and became Book Steward Emeritus. At that time he had been in possession of an unimpaired mentality, which contrasted with his falling bodily strength. He is survived by his son, Alfred W. Briggs, K. C., his wife having predeceased him about three years ago.

Few men in Canadian Methodism were as well known as Rev. Dr. William Briggs, Toronto, preacher and publisher. His kindly smile and warm handshake, backed up by a serene disposition and wholesomeness, made warm and lasting friendships for him throughout Canada.

Dr. Briggs was an eloquent preacher and a man of business. His many years of service as book steward and publisher in the Methodist Book Room Toronto, brought him into contact with

IF BACK HURTS FLUSH KIDNEYS

Eat Less Meat, Also Take Glass of Salts Before Breakfast Occasionally.

"Too much meat may form uric acid, which excites the kidneys; they become overworked; get sluggish, ache and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief in the form of uric acid. Drink lots of water; get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to help neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus often ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink which everyone should take now and then to help keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in correcting kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

LONDON ALSO BIDS FAREWELL TO THE FLAPPER

Hairdressers Remark the Change—Some of the Styles in Empire Capital.

London, Oct. 30.—(Associated Press by Mail).—"The flapper type" of young girls is rapidly disappearing in London. The first signs of waning popularity is the discarding of bobbed hair. According to West End hairdressers shortened locks are no longer approved, and the coming winter will see new styles in the art of hair dressing. The most popular substitute for bobbed hair is a short pompadour, and the use of a small ribbon for wreath. This is the favorite style of Princess Mary. The reversion in hair dressing has even gone to the extent that small amounts of false hair will be used this winter.

The new color of fall hats is "green almond" and across the front, which was popular during the war, is to be worn again. The hats will be smaller this fall, but huge shapes, rivaling the "Merry Widows" of years ago, will be the rage in the spring.

The new evening dresses in the Regent street windows are entirely new. A back and a cord of white silk has taken the place of a wider shoulder strap. The materials in vogue are dark and deep purple, and heavy silks and satins will be almost the only materials used. Long trains will again grace the ball-rooms, and the elaborate trains are not too much for one gown.

Rich oriental brocades and bejewelled ornaments are to be seen on all of the gowns.

NEW OFFICERS OF 'LONGSHOREMEN'

The regular meeting of the International Longshoremen's Association, local 278, was held last evening in the union rooms in Water street, with A. Craig, president of the local, in the chair. The meeting was largely attended and plans for the coming winter's work were discussed. The agreement between the longshoremen and the Shipping Federation, which is being continued for another year, was discussed and proved satisfactory to the members. The election of officers for the coming term also took place and resulted as follows: President, A. Craig; first vice-president, H. Carlin; second vice-president, S. Stevens; secretary-treasurer, J. Monteith; business agent, J. McKinnon; janitor, T. Sullivan; members of the executive, H. Linton, J. McGorman, J. J. Donovan, Thomas Keble, J. Kinard, C. Garlin, G. Stevens, C. Brown, P. Taylor, J. The annual meeting of the alumnae of the St. John Infirmary was held last night in the lecture hall of the infirmary with the president, Miss Mary Downing, B. N., in the chair. Satisfactory reports of the year were received and plans were made for the winter's activities. The alumnae has a membership of twenty-five and is a vigorous young organization. The officers elected were as follows: President, Miss Mary Downing, B. N., re-elected; vice-president, Miss Mary Doherty, B. N.; secretary, Miss A. Duffy, B. N.; re-elected; treasurer, Miss Alice McManus; additional members of the executive committee, Miss Mary Rogers, Miss Laura Morrissey and Miss Nellie McCarthy.

SUN GROWS WHISKERS

Man's Great Relief From Shaving During Summer Vacation.

Now we know why a man loves to spend his vacation in the bush. Those who do not know how often they bother with a razor till the morning they're hitting it for the bright light. The sun is the barber's friend. Every man has more haircuts and shaves in summer than in winter. Their hair actually grows more quickly than in the winter months. This is particularly noticeable with men who have strong beards says Pearson's Weekly.

In the city it means a daily shave. But, oh boy, up in the bush, nothing like that. True, when it comes to shaving before going home, it's some job, but look at the fun you've had—no fussing with your razor blades, no jamming your wife for hiding your shaving brush and soap.

CANCER DANGER SIGNALS.

Under the heading "Danger Signals that may mean Cancer," the American Society for the Control of Cancer in its official bulletin describes these signals as follows: "Any lump, especially in the breast. "Go immediately to a hospital, or a reputable physician and insist upon a thorough examination. "Don't be ashamed to talk about cancer."

HUSBAND DIDN'T DARE LEAVE HER ALONE HEART WAS SO BAD

Those feelings of faintness, those dizzy spells, the all-gone sinking sensations which come on from time to time indicate a weakened condition of the heart and a disordered state of the nerves.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills

have no equal as a remedy to strengthen the heart, invigorate the nerves and build up the run-down system. Mrs. C. Vanhorn, Eckville, Alta., writes—"About a year ago I had heart trouble. My husband didn't dare leave me alone, and often had to stay up at night with me. I would just feel kind of faint and my heart would seem to stop beating. I would just faint away, and it would sometimes be an hour before they could bring me back to life. Someone told me about Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. I got three boxes; I took them and felt much better, so continued all winter, and now I never feel any such faintness. I surely do appreciate the good they have done for me."

DE VALERA NOW IS LIABLE TO BE ARRESTED

Order Relative to Himself and Some Confreres is the Answer to His Manifesto.

Dublin, Nov. 7.—(Canadian Press).—The Free State government's answer to De Valera's manifesto recently issued was an order for the arrest of all important members of the anti-treaty council of state. As De Valera heads the definite organization working for the overthrow of the Free State government, he also is now liable to arrest. Prior to the proclamation of his council of state he was ignored because he was considered powerless. Since the irregular army pledged allegiance to this body, two members of its elected executive, Ernie O'Malley and Joseph O'Connor, have been arrested. (This despatch is copyrighted in the U. LEAGUE OF NATIONS RECEIVES BIG MAIL

Many Writers are Cranks— Requires Want Money or Odd Information.

Geneva, Oct. 18.—(By Mail.)—The general offices of the League of Nations receive daily an enormous number of letters from pretty well all over the world, and in these contributions the crank is well represented.

The Secretariat gets a vast amount of mail matter that ought to go to the foreign offices of different governments, and it receives also a greater number of suggestions, applications and petitions that go nowhere.

Among the most frequent appeals are these: That the league make the world one day that it suppresses the financial ills, but some correspondents want to show the league how universal peace can be restored through the general adoption of their particular religion, want to design a new world flag or make the league all over again after their fashion.

The league is often asked to settle the disputes of nations, and to pacify divided families. The latest curious demand was from a woman who wanted material to write an exciting novel about the league; he was referred to the Near East section.

TRADED WIFE FOR FORD. Teamster Did Not Long Enjoy Possession of Car.

Syracuse, N. Y., Nov. 7.—According to a deed of infamy made public by a prominent official in Oswego, P. H. Woodruff, a teamster of Fulton, signed over his wife on July 18, 1921, to Grover Count for his Ford touring car and all the considerations, including one tire, one pump, and all the "tools" in the car at the present time.

Paris, Nov. 7.—Hearings were begun in the action for damages brought by Cleo de Merode, world celebrity as a dancer nearly a generation ago, against the American firm owning the motion picture film which she succeeded recently in putting under sequestration, and against the French firm showing it. The amount claimed in the suit is 1,000,000 francs.

“Would Wake Up Screaming” “The Least Sudden Noise or Loud Talking Would Startle Him.”

“Up to the age of eight, my boy was a strong healthy lad, full of life and energy. While playing leap frog one day with some boys of his own age, and while in a stooped position, a big boy jumped on his back and in falling my boy caught his foot in an iron grating and dislocated his hip. The pain was so great that he fainted and the other boys were so frightened they ran away. For hours he suffered terrible pain and when found and brought home was very weak, with his thigh and leg swollen twice its size. The doctor set the bone but the pain and exposure were too much for the poor boy and he became unconscious. A high fever set in and for weeks he lay between life and death saving for hours at a stretch. One day he opened his eyes and murmured, ‘Mother, but this is the only word he could utter he was so weak, but I knew the worst was over. He got stronger but for months was in a nervous condition. The least sudden noise or loud talking would startle him and he would begin trembling. He was quite lame and the swelling still remained. The doctor gave him a tonic and told me to rub the leg with olive oil. This reduced the swelling and took away the lameness, but the nervousness remained. The poor child would waken in the night screaming at the top of his voice. The doctor gave him several different tonics but they were no use. I found a circular about Carnol and it seemed so different from other tonics I had heard of that I thought I would get a bottle. Three bottles were all that was needed to make my boy like his own self again. It is hard to convince my friends that the change in him was entirely due to Carnol. Of course I still have to watch him and give him Carnol occasionally but I know that he will soon be as strong again as ever he was.”

Mrs. P., Montreal. Carnol is sold by your druggist, and if you can conscientiously say, after you have tried it, that it hasn't done you any good, return the empty bottle to him and he will refund your money.

PAIN GONE! RUB SORE, RHEUMATIC ACHING JOINTS

Stop “dosing” rheumatism. It's simply St. Jacobs Oil that stops any pain, and not one-rheumatism case in fifty requires internal treatment. Rub soothing, penetrating St. Jacobs Oil right on the tender spots, and by the time you say Jack Robinson—out comes the rheumatic pain and distress. St. Jacobs Oil is a harmless rheumatism liniment which never disappoints, and doesn't burn the skin. It takes pain, soreness and stiffness from aching joints, muscles and bones; stops sciatica, lumbago, backache and neuritis.

“I could not do without Zam-Buk for my children. It is the best ointment we have ever used for burns, sores and cuts.” Mr. L. B. Anderson of 1407 E. 22nd St., Minneapolis, Minn., writes: “When St. Jacobs Oil was used on my wife and myself with an accident, we immediately applied Zam-Buk. It has saved us many a doctor's bill.”

When he found it, by probing with an iron bar, he dug it up, squatted it again with the mixture and then broke it up, so that the chemical could get on the grub, that was the jam in made.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE CLOSED

Features Influencing the Montreal Market—New York Report on Mexican Pete.

(McDougall & Cowans, private wires) Montreal, Nov. 7.—In resuming its activities again this morning after a rest of three full days, the Montreal stock market will be obliged to act upon its initiative with the material hand, N.Y. being closed for Election Day.

Trading at N.Y. yesterday showed a tendency to rise with no particular news to influence it. One way or the other the market halted in its upward course, while yesterday it became distinctly weak in the face of a fresh threat from the Turk.

With time for conversion of Mexican Petroleum expiring Wednesday there is considerable speculation as to the status of trading in the stock after that date.

Corner of Business Depression Now Turned but Real Prosperity Depends on Curing Sick Europe

Roger Babson Tells Ottawa Board of Trade that Fundamental Conditions are Favorable and Gives Sage Advice on Business to a Large Crowd.

(Ottawa Journal) "We need to think money about the other fellow and then we will have real prosperity." This was the concluding remark of Roger W. Babson's address on the subject of "The Turning Point in Business," which he delivered before a special luncheon of the Ottawa Board of Trade at the Chateau Laurier yesterday.

"It is unfortunate that young men want to leave Canada. They are making a mistake. They are selling their birthright by leaving Canada." "People will spend more on automobiles and less on clothes for the next few years."

ARRESTS IN N. Y. FOR SHOPLIFTING 15,000 IN YEAR

Ninety-five Per Cent Are Women

One-half Go to Prison—The Chief Motive is Securing of Articles for Personal Adornment—Deserve Little Sympathy.

A thousand and thirteen women were arrested for shoplifting in a single New York department store in one year. More than half of them were sentenced to jail. The others were forced to confess and were then released without further punishment. Since there are at least a dozen other stores of this character in New York and hundreds of smaller establishments, the volume of arrests for shoplifting may be imagined. This one store arrested an average of three persons a day, so the total for the city must have been about 30, or 15,000 a year. If the same ratio held good, 5,000 of these unfortunate women were sentenced to jail. Some with a statistical talent ought to verify the figures, for if they are accurate here is a public scandal of the first magnitude. The chief detective of one of the largest stores, where the thousand and thirteen women were caught in one year, gave the writer some impressions of shoplifters the other day while a girl who had just been caught sneaking out a table cover was being searched and questioned. "Only a very small part of the arrested women were professional thieves. The rest were working girls or the wives of honest men. They stole not because they wanted something for nothing, the store detective said. The hunger for something that need not be paid for—that was his solution of the shoplifting enigma. "Ninety-five per cent of our cases are women," said the detective. "When men steal they don't come to departmental stores. If they do it is almost invariably because they want to give some woman something they can't afford to buy. Men rarely if ever steal anything for themselves unless it is some special article, like a clock. Men seem to have a strong affinity for clocks. "The women who give us all our trouble are of three classes—the professional thieves who are now few in number and give us less worry than ever before the unmarried working girl, and the middle-class wife, who has no reason in the world for stealing except the urge to get something for nothing. "At certain hours of the day and on half holidays like Saturday afternoon the store thronged with young women, many of them wage earners of limited means. Then we have to be very much on the alert, for some of these girls have a seemingly uncontrollable inclination toward silk stockings, camisoles, handkerchiefs, gloves, perfume and bits of novelty jewelry. But they take anything else they happen to fancy. "Steal to Feed Vanity. "Many married women take these things, but they also help themselves to all sorts of articles that may be used in their homes. Such matters are always secondary, however. "It is easy to see how it works among these married women. Mrs. A. and Mrs. B. are married and earn the same pay, but Mrs. A. is always much better dressed and has many little luxuries which Mrs. B. cannot afford and whose possession by her friend she cannot understand. The explanation, we find is that Mrs. A.

The explanation, we find is that Mrs. A.

goes shopping twice a week and buys one article while she steals two. Sooner or later she is caught and disgraced, of course. Meantime, however, Mrs. B. is stirred with envy. She fairly cuts her heart out over the superior lot of Mrs. A. Then she is tempted in a store, takes something when she thinks no one is looking, is caught as she leaves the place and suffers disgrace and perhaps the wreck of her home. "Girls who work in offices and factories are tempted and misled in the same way. Some girls are better dressed and equipped with certain luxuries. She boasts that when she sees anything she wants she simply takes it. The temptation is too much for some of them and they soon initiate the first girl, with disastrous results before long. "Girls and women who are tempted to steal should be warned that the chance of getting away without being caught is much smaller than is supposed. All stores have regular uniformed officers on duty, in addition to plain clothes men and a number of women detectives, whom the lawless-minded woman cannot tell from shoppers or shoppers. In addition, every clerk is on the watch, and it is from our salesgirls we recruit our women detectives. No shoplifter can operate very often without being caught by this force. "Something for Nothing. "A bright salesgirl, who has been in the store for some months, can tell at a glance when a woman comes to the counter what she is in the store for. Every woman belongs to one of four kinds. She is in the store either to kill time while waiting for a friend or the matinee hour, in which case she looks at goods which she has no in-

FATHER CAN NOW LACE HIS BOOTS Mary Sweet, a Resident of Halifax, Says Everyone Should Know About Drego.

There is not a remedy on the market today having such a reputation as Drego for its power to overcome rheumatism, stomach, bowel, kidney and bladder trouble. Mary Sweet, 12 Yukon St., Halifax, N. S., writes: "For a long time my father has suffered from rheumatism. Every joint and muscle in his body ached. His feet would swell so badly it was impossible for him to get his boots on. He also had stomach, liver and kidney trouble. Gas would form after meals and he complained of having pains across his back, also dizzy spells and bad taste in his mouth in the mornings. His bowels were never regular as he always had to be taking something. "My friends induced him to try Drego. Now my father is quite regular. The swelling in his feet has gone and he can lace his boots without any trouble. His stomach, liver and kidneys are in much better shape. There are no pains in his joints and muscles. "He has fully taken one bottle as yet, but he fully intends to complete the treatment, as the results are wonderful and we have noticed a big improvement in him. We would not hesitate to recommend Drego to anyone, as we are thankful for what it has done for him in so short a time. "Go today to Ross Drug Co., St. John, and ask for Mr. Ranson, the Drego Expert, and let him explain the merits of this great remedy. There is no charge and he will tell you honestly if he believes Drego will benefit you. Drego is also sold in other cities as follows: Moncton—Geo. O. Spencer. Charlottetown—E. A. Foster. Summerside—Gallant Drug Co., Ltd. St. Stephen—Clark's Drug Store, Woodstock—Newham & Slipp. Fredericton—Dibble's Drug Store, Limited. Chatham—McKenzie's. Bathurst—W. F. Pepper.

A striking novelty in material that carries character—there are others in the styles now evolved that are equally interesting. A chance to score at the start of the season.

Keith, general secretary of the Engineering Institute of Canada, arrived in the city yesterday from Nova Scotia and was given a hearty welcome by the local members of the association. Rev. William Phillips, the new pastor of the Douglas Avenue Christian church, occupied the pulpit at that church for the first on Sunday. He is a native of Australia and came to this church from New Zealand. This is his first time in Canada. He preached two eloquent sermons on Sunday. The B. Y. P. U. of Ludlow street church was addressed last evening by Rev. James Dunlop, who took as his text "Behold I make all things new." R. E. Rupert, president and prayer was offered by the pastor Rev. W. A. Robbins. Solos were rendered by Mrs. W. A. Brown and E. Clyde Parsons. Rev. R. G. Fulton conducted the Thanksgiving services in Centenary church yesterday when the members of the Methodist denomination of the city united in a body. Rev. E. E. Styles offered the general prayer and Rev. L. G. Watson of Silver Falls preached the sermon. The collection was for the benefit of the westfield church re-building fund. G. Bruce Burpee, district passenger agent of the Canadian Pacific railway, returned yesterday from Chicago, where he attended a conference of the heads of the passenger department of the system. C. E. Cameron and George E. Carter of the C. P. R. have gone to Chicago to attend a conference of the traveling passenger agents. The Golden Chain class and the Baracca class of the Victoria street Baptist church to the number of about fifty gathered one night last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Denton and tendered a farewell surprise party to Miss Lily Kierstead who is moving to Halifax. Mrs. Frank Biddiscombe, on behalf of those present, presented to Miss Kierstead a traveling trunk.

RUGBY GAINS IN POPULARITY

English Followers See Many Possibilities in it—A Study of Some of the Teams. London, Nov. 7.—(Canadian Press)—One of the attractions of the Rugby game is its manifold possibilities, says a special correspondent of the London Times, who points out that as a counter-move to the advance of professional football in the United Kingdom the Rugby season has been lengthened in the west country, in the Midlands and in South Wales, where Rugby matches were in full swing early in September. By the many possibilities of Rugby the writer means the variation of methods and tactics and style which can be discovered in different parts of the British Isles—not to mention the Dominions and France—and the way in which these variations themselves vary from time to time. Incidentally it is regarded as remarkable that in spite of the tremendous popularity of professional sport, the Rugby game is growing steadily in favor in Great Britain. Not only have the public schools and the Old Boy organizations resumed their activities with added zest since the war, but new clubs, like Birmingham, have more than doubled their existence. As for the slow but steady revival of the Rugby union in the north, it is perhaps the pleasant phenomenon of all. The Times' correspondent advises fast and open play, and clever and original but scrupulous methods as providing the keynote of a "good" season, and not merely a successful season as judged by the number of victories won. The English Fifteen of two seasons ago, with all their defects, played attractive, original and open—desperately so at times—Rugby. They deserved their success, not so much because they won each of their matches, but because they made the selection committees and the critics and spectators think. They helped to prove once more what a great game Rugby can be. Guy's Hospital alone of the London clubs had played a match up to September 23, but with the exception of Richmond, that doubtful distinction ended on that date. Last season, until the strain of too much warfare began to tell, Guy's Hospital was probably the best club in England. Their backfield, undoubtedly the fastest combination, their half-backs as good as any, and their forwards green more disciplined and intelligent than ever before. This year they will be without the very fast and effective wing, Danby, but there remain some first-class men. Blackheath had a rather disappointing record last season, largely due to repeated changes of the team and to divided counsels. The team this year is in better shape, though some valuable players have been lost through claims of the universities. Richmond and the London Scottish have much ground to make up. Richmond's pack of forwards has proved their worth on many occasions, but what with injuries and over-individualism, the back division has never done quite justice to a club such a famous still appears strongly. The four big clubs may not be so brilliant as in the past, but the rise of the lesser clubs continues apace, and one has only to study the results of matches and the scores to realize that whether for good or bad, or only temporarily, the old ascendancy of Newport, Cardiff, Swansea and Llanelli has been largely re-

INTERNATIONAL SKATING MEET FOR ST. JOHN St. John was awarded the International skating championships at a meeting of the International Skating Union of America held here Saturday. Chicago made a strong bid for this feature skating classic, but the city was strongly backed by the Placid, Saranac Lake Association, the Middle Atlantic, New England and other associations and won out. Chicago was awarded the National championships. Saranac Lake, Lake Placid and Plattsburgh Associations decided to stage a "Big Three" record breaking meet. It was decided to take a firm stand against recognition of the United States Hockey Association because of its alleged tendencies to professionalism. Officers were elected as follows: President, Julian T. Fitzgerald, of the Chicago Adirondack Skating Association; first vice-president, Henry Uhlein, Lake Placid; second vice-president, J. K. Savage, Middle Atlantic Association; third vice-president, William G. Bratton, Western Pennsylvania Skating Association; secretary, Ed. A. Even the Orient Now cleans teeth this new way Do you know that careful people of some fifty nations are now brushing teeth in a new way? And largely by dental advice? If you have not learned what that method means, make this test and see. They combat film This new way fights the film on teeth—that viscous film you feel. Film clings to teeth, enters crevices and stays. It absorbs stains, then forms dingy coats. Tartar is based on film. It also holds food substance which ferments and forms acids. It holds the acids in contact with the teeth to cause decay. Germans bred by millions in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea. Most tooth troubles are due to film. So are most cloudy teeth. Under old methods very few escaped them, for no ordinary tooth paste can effectively combat film. New methods now Dental science has long sought to solve the problem of that film. Two methods have been found. One acts to curdle film, one to remove it, and without any harmful scouring. Able authorities have proved their efficiency. Now dentists the world over are advising their daily use. A new-type tooth paste has been created, based on modern research. The name is Pepsodent. In that tooth paste are embodied those two great film combatants. Fights acids, too Pepsodent also multiplies the alkalinity of the saliva. That is there to neutralize mouth acids, the cause of tooth decay. It multiplies the starch digestant in the saliva. That is there

He was so astonished that he remained silent for a moment, and they inquired whether they had offered him enough.

"The price is all right," said Edison. "Yes, that's all right. But on condition that you pay it to me at the rate of $7,000 a year. If you paid it to me at once I'd probably put it all into some fool invention and lose every cent of it."

INTRODUCING REINDER

Sir R. M. Kinderley, Governor of the Hudson's Bay Company, in his address at the annual meeting, said: "Over two years ago your company were approached by Mr. Stefenson, the well-known explorer, with a view to introducing reindeer into Baffin Land. A separate company was formed, in which your company hold the greater part of the capital, and a lease of the southern half of Baffin Land was secured from the Dominion government for a term of fifteen years, during which there is to be an annual rest of $1,200, and 850 reindeer, accompanied by their herders and their families and paraphernalia, were successfully transported in one of your company's steamers from Norway to Baffin Land last autumn.

"In deciding to carry out the experiment, your company were actuated by the knowledge that the project had the active support of the government of Canada, and we also felt it desirable that, if the work was to be undertaken, it should be done by your company, who possessed a thorough knowledge of the natives in that region, rather than by some corporation who had no such knowledge, and who might conceivably interfere unnecessarily with the hunters of fur-bearing animals.

"Furthermore, we carefully investigated the results of the reindeer ranches in Alaska, where 2,000 reindeer were originally introduced, which have since increased to well over 200,000. We understand that the natural increase should be over 30 per cent. per annum.

"It must be recognized, of course, that the project is entirely in the nature of an experiment, the success of which is largely dependent upon climatic conditions, but one which it was evidently desirable should be made in the interests of Canada."

ELEPHANTS TO HUNT NEPAL'S PINK DUCK

Museum of Natural History Sends Volunteers to the Jungles of India—Tigers Bar Chase Afoot.

(New York Times.) There is a pink-headed duck in the depths of the jungle in Nepal, India, that in a few weeks will be hunted by four men and about sixteen elephants.

Much potter about a little duck, and passably absurd, as the big game hunter who narrated the preparation for hunting this afflicted bird admitted with a smile but nevertheless true.

And when the little duck is caught and stuffed he will be brought back to the American Museum of Natural History, where the chroniclers who write the cards under specimens will have the opportunity of their lives to detail the most remarkable duck hunt without the aid of forbidden spirits.

The man who is planning to commit melodramatic slaughter on the pink duck is Arthur S. Vernay, an English hunter of big game. He told with many chuckles of the need for the elephants in hunting pink ducks while giving details of the expedition yesterday before sailing for England on the Mauretia to make final arrangements.

The jungle is thick and dangerous for men on foot, so that the only way to drive the elephants in after the little pink headed fowl, and when he starts up in amazement, big him, Mr. Vernay will have a motion picture cameraman with him, so the pictures of the duck fleeing before the sixteen elephants may be preserved for posterity.

Will Finance Expedition. Mr. Vernay and Colonel J. C. Fauntleroy, British Commissioner at Lucknow, also an experienced Shikari, as hunters are called in India, will head the expedition.

When Colonel Fauntleroy was here with the British Mission during the war he visited the Museum of Natural History and noted the scarcity of specimens illustrating the animal life of India. Those animals are rapidly becoming scarce, and the museum has long wished to have representative specimens of them.

Colonel Fauntleroy and Mr. Vernay will be in charge of the expedition and will be accompanied by John Jones, taxidermist of Denver, and the motion picture operator. There will also be a native ornithologist whom will obtain a collection of Indian birds.

The British Indian Office has given its support to the expedition and the local Governments are expected to give aid. Some of the native Princes have promised permission to hunt in their game reserves, but that specimens difficult to obtain otherwise may be shot. It was expected that, although not generally known, India is a country where a search for the Government has even put restrictions on the hunting of tigers.

To Start From Bombay. The party will start from Bombay and go to Lucknow, whence they will go north to Nepal up to the foothills of the Himalayas. They will there aim to get tigers, the pink duck and a one-horned rhinoceros. The tigers will have their winter coats when they are hunted, which will make unusually good specimens. The rhinoceros is, with the bison, the hardest of the animals to get and the forest.

From Nepal the expedition will go to Mysore. The hunters will travel all the way, except in the central provinces, in an American automobile which they are taking with them. The particular object of the Mysore hunt will be the bull bison, a huge, solitary creature, standing six feet high in the jungle grass and with a horn spread of forty inches. Mr. Vernay said the animal was a magnificent sight when first viewed, but a dangerous animal to get.

The Mysore tiger will also be caught and Mr. Vernay said it was an interesting speculation as to whether this might be a species different from the tiger of the north.

Will Get Mysore Elephants. Specimens of the Indian bull and cow elephant also will be obtained in Mysore, as the museum has requested permission of the Maharajah of Mysore, by whom the animals are protected, to shoot them. Mr. Vernay has seen twenty-two elephants in one day in this district. The southern elephants are mischievous animals, and when they see a hunter's tent they wander down to it and playfully tip it over. On one occasion Mr. Vernay found it necessary to burn a wide strip of jungle around his camp to prevent it being overrun by elephants.

The water buffaloes, which are becoming scarce, will be hunted in an almost impenetrable jungle in the central provinces, where a ten-day march will be made. An Indian lion will also be shot.

McCormick's Jersey Cream Soda Biscuits. Between meals kiddies need. THE MOST EXCITING HUNT OF ALL, PERHAPS, IS THE TIGER HUNT.

"Yes, Mrs. Brown, we sell Graded Eggs now."
