Saturday Night's Storm

A gale of wind swept over this section on Saturday night and Sunday morning last. On Sunday morning the wind blowed with hurricane force, and in the harbor here Chas. Cave's little schooner Hope dragged her anchor. The boat Ellen, anchored nearby, but her two chains, lost the kegs anchor and two grapnels. Subsequently she drifted down on a Port de Grave schooner anchored near the Bait Rocks. Before reaching the other schooner three men boarded her and managed to hoist the staysail, and this enabled them to get her to the west side of the Beachy Cove government wharf.

About 1 o'clock the schr. Rattler parted her chain and drove down across the schr. Swallow. She lay in that position until 5 or 6 men went out in a trap-boat, and attaching a line to the government wharf, succeeded in getting the Rattler clear of the other vessel. The rigging of the Rattler had to be cut away, while the jibboom of the Swallow was broken off.

With the exception of a few fencos being blown down, and a few fishing boats dragging from their moorings, no other damage was done.

In other parts of the country schooners were wrecked and considerable damage was done to property.

During this month and the months to come the weather will be getting colder and more disagreeable, and as you will have to stay indoors, owing to the inclement weather, the days and nights will seem long and lonely. Many of the dull hours may be spent happily if you have one of Thomson's Library books. Anyone can become a member for the small sum of $1.75 a year. What better offer can you have? Call in and we will explain to you how you may have the best of reading for a full year for a little more than 3c a week. THOMSON'S CIRCULATING LIBRARY, opposite Bank of Nova Scotia, Bay Roberts.

War! For What?

"Twelve million men to be marshalled
And murdered and mangled and maimed;
Twelve million men, by the stroke
of the pen,
To be slaughtered,—and no one is shamed.

"Mountains of wealth to be wasted,
Oceans of tears to be shed,
Valleys of light to be turned into night,
Rivers of blood to run red.

"Thousands of wives to be widowed,
Millions of mothers to mourn,
Thousands in sorrow to wait the morrow,
Millions of hearts to be torn.

"Thousands of fathers to perish,
Millions of children to moan,
Ages of time to prepare for a crime
That eons can never atone.

"Thousands of homes to be shattered,
Millions of prayers to be vain;
Thousands of ways to the glory that pays
In poverty, panic and pain.

"Twelve million men in God's image
Sentenced to shoot and be shot,
Kill and be killed, as a ruler has willed,
For what? for what? for what?

Rev. Geo. L. Mercer and Wm. Grandy left for Montreal last week. Mrs. G. G. Cotter, of Charnel, arrived in town on Thursday week on a visit to her niece, Mrs. (Rev) Grimes.

Over a million pit props are needed at once, chiefly fir, 4 ft. to 7 ft. long and 5 inches to 6 inches diameter tops; also straight poles, fir, spruce or larch, 20 to 30 ft. long, 5 to 9 inches. Considering the number of people who will no doubt need help this winter, it may be advisable for the local Patriotic Assn. to appoint an Employment Committee for the purpose of looking closely into this pit prop proposition and other matters in connection with employment for our people the coming fall and winter. This could be discussed at the meeting on Monday night next.

Amatite Roofing!

You'll Never Need a Paint Brush.

When you lay Amatite on the roof you're through with it. You don't have to paint it every year to keep it from leaking. It has a real mineral surface which does not need painting. Most of the old-fashioned, "smooth surfaced" or Rubber Roofing, which requires painting, costs more than Amatite and you have all the extra cost of paint. It looks any now to give your roof an occasional coating in the future. But do you realize that in 1913 you must paint it, and in 1915 you must paint it, and in 1917 you must paint it, and in 1919—that far-away year—you must still be painting that confounded old Rubber Roof. Why, a new Amatite Roof will cost less than the paint alone. Send to us for free samples and booklet explaining all about it. Ask your dealer for Amatite Roofing.

His Excellency the Governor in Council has been pleased to direct that the following Proclamation of His Majesty the King, superseding Proclamation of August 5th and August 12th last, relating to Trading with the Enemy, shall come into effect on the date hereof.

JOHN R. BENNETT,
Colonial Secretary.

Dept. of the Colonial Secretary,
Sept. 15th, 1914.

BY THE KING

A PROCLAMATION

Relating to Trading with the Enemy.

GEORGE R. I.

Whereas a state of War has existed between Us and the German Empire since 11 p.m. on August 4th, 1914, and a state of War has existed between Us and the dual monarchy of Austria-Hungary since from midnight on August 12th, 1914;

And whereas it is contrary to law for any person resident, carrying on business or being in our Dominions, to trade or have any commercial or financial transactions with any person resident or carrying on business in the German Empire or Austria-Hungary without permission;

And whereas by our Proclamation of the 5th August, 1914, relating to trading with the enemy, certain classes of transactions with the German Empire were prohibited;

And whereas by paragraph 2 of our Proclamation of the 12th August, 1914, the said Proclamation of the 5th August, 1914, was declared to be applicable to Austria-Hungary;

And whereas it is expedient and necessary to amend and extend the prohibitions contained in the former Proclamations, and for that purpose to revoke the Proclamation of the 5th August, 1914, and to substitute in its stead the following Proclamation:

And whereas it is expedient and necessary to amend and extend the prohibitions contained in the former Proclamations, and for that purpose to revoke the Proclamation of the 5th August, 1914, and to substitute in its stead the following Proclamation:

Now, therefore, We have thought fit, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, to issue Our Royal Proclamation declaring and it is hereby declared as follows:

1. The Proclamation of the 5th August, 1914, relating to trading with the enemy, and paragraph 2 of the aforesaid Proclamation of the 12th August, 1914, together with any public announcement officially issued in explanation thereof, are hereby, as from the date hereof, revoked, and from and after the date hereof, this present Proclamation is substituted therefor.

2. The expression "enemy country" in this Proclamation means the territories of the German Empire and of the dual Monarchy of Austria-Hungary, together with all the Colonies and Dependencies thereof.

3. In the case of incorporated bodies, enemy character attaches only to those incorporated in an enemy country.

4. The expression "outbreak of war" in this Proclamation means eleven p.m. on the 4th August, 1914, in relation to the German Empire, its Colonies and Dependencies, and midnight on the 12th August, 1914, in relation to Austria-Hungary, its Colonies and Dependencies.

5. From and after the date of this Proclamation the following prohibitions shall have effect (save so far as licenses may be issued as hereinafter provided), and We do hereby accordingly warn all persons resident, carrying on business or being in Our Dominions:

- (1) Not to pay any sum of money to or for the benefit of an enemy.
- (2) Not to compromise or give security for the payment of any debt or other sum of money with or for the benefit of an enemy.
- (3) Not to act on behalf of any enemy in drawing, accepting, paying, presenting for acceptance or payment, negotiating or otherwise dealing with any negotiable instrument.
- (4) Not to accept, pay, or otherwise deal with any negotiable instrument which is held by or on behalf of an enemy, provided that this prohibition shall not be deemed to be infringed by any person who has no reasonable ground for believing that the instrument is held by or on behalf of an enemy.

(5) Not to enter into any new transaction, or complete any transaction already entered into with an enemy in any stocks, shares, or other securities.

(6) Not to make or enter into any new marine, life, fire or other policy or contract of insurance with or for the benefit of an enemy; nor to accept, or give effect to, any insurance of any risk arising under any policy or contract of insurance (including re-insurance) made or entered into with or for the benefit of an enemy before the outbreak of War.

(7) Not directly or indirectly to supply to or for the use or benefit of, or obtain from, an enemy country or an enemy, any goods, wares or merchandise, nor directly or indirectly to supply to or for the use or benefit of, or obtain from any person any goods, wares or merchandise, for or in way of transmission to or from an enemy country or an enemy, nor directly or indirectly to trade in or carry any goods, wares or merchandise destined for or coming from an enemy country or an enemy.

(8) Not to permit any British ship to leave for, enter, or communicate with, any port or place in an enemy country.

(9) Not to enter into any commercial, financial or other contract or obligation with or for the benefit of an enemy.

(10) Not to enter into any transactions with an enemy if and when they are prohibited by an Order in Council made and published on the recommendations of a Secretary of State, even though they would otherwise be permitted by law or by this or any other Proclamation.

And We do hereby further warn all persons that whoever in contravention of the law shall commit, aid or abet any of the aforesaid acts, is guilty of a crime and will be liable to punishment and penalties accordingly.

6. Provided always that where an enemy has a branch locally situated in British, allied, or neutral territory, not being neutral territory in Europe, transactions by or with such branch shall not be treated as transaction by or with an enemy.

7. Nothing in this Proclamation shall be deemed to prohibit payments by or on account of enemies to persons resident, carrying on business or being in our Dominions, if such payments arise out of transactions entered into before the outbreak of War or otherwise permitted.

The New Pope

(Evening Telegram)
One who has been brought into personal touch with the new Pope, Benedict XV., thinks that in almost every way he will prove a direct contrast to his predecessor. Under him the Vatican will once more become a power in the diplomatic world, since he is very much of a statesman. As a youth he was destined for the diplomatic service, and it was only by fortune that he entered the Church. He has always kept in the closest touch with affairs in Europe, and he has been due to the skill with which he has advised the Vatican upon more than one occasion that he has been elected. The new Pope possesses the reputation of being extremely friendly towards England, which he has visited on more than one occasion, and he is connected with some of the highest families in Italy.

Patriotism

The patriot of the future will be the man who lives for his country as well as dies for it, and he who dies in her service while saving life will be a greater patriot than he who dies for her while destroying other lives. The hero of the future will be of the industrial, professional, and laboring world. Not insignificant is it that at a recent vote taken in the Paris schools on France's greatest hero, the vote which twenty years ago would have put Napoleon, who took over three million lives, at the head of the list, placed him far down the list, and hailed Pasteur as the true patriot of France.—Dr. Frederick J. Lynch.

Russia's Army

"Russia probably has by now 1,000,000 men in her armies at the front. The reserve divisions should increase this force to 1,500,000 by the middle of September. In sixty days, or by October 1, Russia should have 2,000,000 men in her first line.

"Including the active army Russia has, according to most reliable reports, a trained force of 5,900,000 men. It may be possible for her in time to put 4,000,000 of these on her western frontier. Her main problem will be to forward to the field armies the immense supplies of food and ammunition that will be required. The remarkable achievements of her supply service in maintaining an army of over 300,000 men at the front in Manchuria by means of a single track railway 5,000 miles long vouches for her success in this department of this war.

"The advance into East Russia has pushed back the German defence to a line running from Königsberg southwest to Thorn. It can hardly be doubted that the German plan provides for only a delaying action in East Prussia, reserving the determined defence for the line of the Vistula, strengthened by the fortresses of Thorn and Danzig and by the bridge heads at Marienburg and Graudenz."

Lady Londonderry's Suggestion

(Editor London Standard)
Sir,—At this crisis in our history, when the whole Empire is fighting against Germany for our very existence, the Ulster women, who have hitherto shown a splendid spirit of patriotism and self-sacrifice in helping to preserve the Union between Great Britain and Ireland, are most anxious to do their part in common with the inhabitants of the British Isles. Wherefore I suggest that the members of our great organization, the Ulster Women's Unionist Council, should hold meetings throughout the province, first to help to recruit volunteers anxious to fight for their country as soldiers in the "Ulster Division," secondly to enlist recruits to fill the gaps in the Ulster Volunteers at home, thirdly to collect funds to help the wives and families of the Ulster Volunteers going to the front, under the same rules as the Soldiers and Sailors' Families' Association, and fourthly that the Voluntary Aid Detachments organized in a similar manner to the Red Cross Detachments in England should be placed at the disposal of the hospitals arranged in the public buildings or private houses in Ulster where our volunteers, officers, and men could be treated at once on being sent home from the front wounded or invalided.—I am, Sir, yours truly,
THELMA LONDONDERRY,
President,
The Ulster Women's Unionist Council, Old Town Hall, Belfast.

Teuton or Slav

In view of the frequent reference in the press at the present time to the people at war with each other—Teuton and Slav—it may be interesting to Guardian readers to learn something regarding the nations involved and to which race they belong.

Nearly all the people who inhabit the continent of Europe and the British Isles belong to the Caucasian or white race. The branches of that race chiefly concerned, directly or indirectly, in this war are as follows:

1. Aryan, or Indo-European Branch.
  1. Hindoos.
  2. Medes and Persians.
  3. Hellenes, or Greeks.
  4. Latin, or Romance Nations.
  5. Ancient Romans.
  6. Italians.
  7. French.
  8. Spaniards and Spanish Americans.
  9. Portuguese and Brazilians.
  10. Flemings, or Belgians.
  11. Roumanians.
2. Germanic, or Teutonic Nations.
  1. Germans.
  2. Danes.
  3. Swedes, Scandinavians.
  4. Norwegians.
  5. Dutch, or Hollanders.
  6. English and Anglo-Americans (Anglo-Saxons).
  7. Scotch Lowlanders.
  8. Norman French.
  9. Celtic Nations.
    1. Ancient Britons, Gauls and Spaniards.
    2. Irish, Welsh and Scotch Highlanders.
    3. Bretons (West of France).
  10. Slavonic Nations.
    1. Russians.
    2. Poles.
    3. Bohemians.
    4. Servians.
    5. Bulgarians.
    6. Bosnians.
    7. Croations.

The only race which has figured in history is the Caucasian race, the race to which we belong. The history of the civilized world is the history of the Caucasian race. The name Aryan, given to the Indo-European branch, means tiller of the soil. The primitive Aryans, the ancestors of the Indo-European nations, occupied the region of Central Asia in which is located the modern city of Balk, in Turkestan. They attained to a considerable degree of civilization, and practiced agriculture, cattle-raising, and some of the mechanical arts, such as weaving and sewing, metallurgy, pottery manufacture, etc. Children were regarded as the light of the family circle, as shown by the meaning of the names: boy, bestower of happiness; girl, she that comes rejoicing; brother, supporter; sister, friendly.

The Aryan population increased so rapidly in its primeval home that it led to a division of its people into three branches, one of which migrated to Europe in successive hordes, as represented by the Pelagic, Celtic, Teutonic and Slavonic nations, whose descendants now occupy the greater part of Europe. We, as Anglo-Saxons, belong to the Teutonic branch.

Immediate destruction in the name of humanity of the half-completed Peace Palace in the Hague is demanded by the Matin to-day for the following reasons: When its construction was decided upon the Anglo-Ber war broke out and plans were laid for the Russo-Japanese war; when the first stone was laid, the Kaiser made his voyage to Tangier, which event was the beginning of the Moroccan-European complications; when the first floor was finished Austria seized Bosnia and Herzegovina when the second floor was finished the Franco-German controversy arose when the roof was put on, the Russo-Japanese war began. Only think the painters, glaziers and decorators have not begun their task.

'We have also heard rumors of statues symbolizing peace. Beware! Each time one is unveiled it will rain shrapnel somewhere. When the temple is completed look out for a grand serenade.'

[The Matin's prophecy seems to be fulfilled.—Ed.]

The Share of The Burden

(Daily News)
The population of Great Britain and Ireland is about 45,000,000, plus the regular navy and army. Lord Kitchener has asked for a million recruits, or one man is every 45. Every section of the Empire is equally interested. If Britain falls, Canada falls, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa and Newfoundland share the same fate. Disrupt the Empire and the fate of its constituent parts none can tell. If Britain overseas does her share equally with the Homeland, Canada should send 100,000 volunteers, New Zealand 23,000, Australia 90,000, South Africa 115,000, and Newfoundland 5,500. It is well to bear these figures in mind, lest we forget. Certain it is that if the self-governing Colonies realized just what the triumph of Prussianism would mean to the liberties of the human race and their own freedom, Lord Kitchener would have no difficulty in adding a second million of men to the million now recruiting. Newfoundland's contribution is 500 volunteers with about 500 naval reservists, say 1,000 men in all. It does not reach the figure that might be expected, but it goes fully as far as our finances will permit. But should necessity arise and further recruits be called for, no matter what the cost, the Dominion and Colonies for self-preservation, if for no higher reason, will be compelled to rally in greater numbers to the colours.

Allan Liner Lured

The Germans to their Destruction

Montreal, Sept. 18.—What was before the war the newest and fastest Allan liner, and is now the British auxiliary cruiser Albatross, played a notable part in the British fleet's victory over the Germans, off Heligland. A mate on a vessel just docked at Montreal vouches for the story.

The Albatross was used under Admiral Beatty's orders, as a decoy ship to lure the German warships from out the shelter of their land batteries.

The Albatross's upper and lower decks had been previously piled high with sacks of coal, to convey the impression that she was on her way to coal the British battleships. Dumrais were placed standing on her decks as if they were marines.

Following his order to the letter, the ex-liner's commander steamed his ship close in to where the German man-of-war were lying snugly under their forts. Then, as if surprised to discover the enemy's ships, the Albatross turned tail.

Several of the hostile vessels made after her with all speed, and the Albatross led them a dance out into the open sea, not one of the enemy's shells catching her.

Then suddenly Admiral Beatty's warships rushed up, and manoeuvred right under the German's guns, many of which by this strategy were rendered useless. The result of the daring British plan is known to the world, and best of all to the Kaiser's war council.

Pat Burns, the cattle king of Canada, who lives in Calgary, is understood to have proffered the sum of $50,000 as his share in the defence of the Empire, to aid in equipping the legion of frontiersmen, which, five hundred strong, has tendered its services to Ottawa. It is estimated it will cost $300,000 to equip the legion, which will be composed solely of veterans.

THE WAR

(Our Dumb Animals)

Nothing could be worse in the way of war than this mad waste of life and wealth, this outbreak of barbarism, this mockery of civilization, now sweeping over Europe, unless there were to be added to it the hatred, the passion, the fighting strength of such parts of the world as are at the moment spectators and not participants. Upon whom, above all others, rests the responsibility for this crime of crimes it is not for us to say. But if it be that unwarranted ambition, unholy schemes for aggrandizement, and power have led any special group of men to precipitate this war, history will at last write their names in letters of such infamy as will make the Borgias of the middle ages seem harmless saints.

In the Wiertz gallery in Brussels there is a painting of Napoleon in Hell. The once great leader of armies stands surrounded with scores of widows, mothers, sisters, children, whose husbands, sons, brothers, fathers he had used but as the living stones by which he had climbed to power. They trust with eager and out-reaching hands the bleeding hearts of these perished loved ones into his guilty, frightened face. Some such hell must await all those whose greed for dominions, whose lust for power leads them to trample beneath their feet the sacred rights of their human kind.

Behind this conflict that seems to have made the whole world sick are the forces that mean progress for civilization and those that would turn it back to the days when might made right and kings ruled by the special will of heaven. Appalling as were the scenes accompanying the French Revolution, it was yet out of that night of horror and death that there came a new birth of freedom for mankind. May the victory come to those through whom it can best be used to hasten the day of reason among the nations of the earth, to serve the rights of man, and to bring the dawn of universal peace!

Mr. Bert Parkins, of the Imperial Mt. Co., was in town this week.

Job's small steamer Tommy, will get fishing in the Straits this summer, secured about 500 qts. It is said the method is an expensive one.

Miss Florence Grant came to Bay Roberts from Trinity by the S. S. Neptune and, accompanied by Mrs. Geo. Merce, went to St. John's Saturday morning last.

William Neilson Limited, Toronto, offered to supply the Government with 95,000 bars of chocolate, for use in whatever manner the Government should choose. This offer has been gratefully accepted by the Minister of Militia, Colonel Sam Hughes, and the chocolate is to be shipped to Valcartier, and from there will be transhipped with the Canadian Commissariat to Europe. The several hundred members of the staff of William Neilson Limited, have also donated one full day's pay to the Canadian Red Cross Fund.

WOMAN IN TERRIBLE STATE

Finds Help in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Cape Wolfe, Canada.—'Last March I was a complete wreck. I had given up all hope of getting better or living any length of time, as I was such a sufferer from female troubles. But I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and today I am in good health and have a pair of twin boys two months old and growing finely. I surprised doctors and neighbors for they all know what a wreck I was.

'Now I am healthy, happy and hearty, and owe it all to Lydia E. Pinkham's remedies. You may publish this letter if you like. I think if more women used your remedies they would have better health.'—Mrs. J. T. Cook, Lot No. 7, Cape Wolfe, P.E.I., Canada.

Because your case is a difficult one, and doctors having done you no good, do not continue to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. It surely has remedied many cases of female ills, such as inflammation, ulceration, displacements, tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, and it may be exactly what you need.

The Pinkham record is a proud and peerless one. It is a record of constant victory over the obstinate ills of women—ills that deal out despair. It is an established fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has restored health to thousands of such suffering women. Why don't you try it if you need such a medicine?

The Price of Fish

(Daily News.)

The problem of the price of fish is a very serious one. All are interested in it. High prices mean free spending. Low prices involve strict economy, and sometimes poverty and suffering. But the value of fish, like that of flour, sugar and pork is governed by the market, and the market is influenced by conditions, over which Newfoundland can have no control. Of late years there has been a period of unparalleled prosperity; things are different now, and the war has emphasized that change. Let us be manly enough to look the issue squarely in the face and accept the position as it is. Competition will compel buyers to give the highest possible price, whilst all the enactments and all the pressure possible cannot force men to buy at a loss. Minimum buying prices may be arbitrarily fixed, but not a quintal more fish will be bought or sold because of it. The law of supply and demand is inexorable; the one and the other may be affected by local conditions, and by the conditions abroad, but the balance can in no way be affected. Competition will ensure fair play, and it is due to rivalry between buyers that such high prices have been obtained in recent years.

PURE RICH BLOOD PREVENTS DISEASE

Bad blood,—that is, blood that is impure or impoverished, thin and pale,—is responsible for more ailments than anything else. It affects every organ and function. In some cases it causes cataract; in others, dyspepsia; in others, rheumatism; and in still others, weak, tired, languid feelings and worse troubles. It is responsible for run-down conditions, and is the most common cause of disease.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is the greatest purifier and enricher of the blood the world has ever known. It has been wonderfully successful in removing scrofula and other humors, increasing the red-blood corpuscles, and building up the whole system. Get it today

Carson's Program

Belfast, Sept. 29.—Sir Edward Carson, leader of the Irish Unionist Party, outlined the Ulster program for the future in addressing the Unionist Council yesterday: "I propose," he said, "when the war is over to summon a Provisional Government, and I propose that its first act should be to repeal the Home Rule Bill, as far as Ulster is concerned. I propose in the same act to enact that it is the duty of the Ulster Volunteers to see that nothing enacted under that Bill should ever have effect in Ulster. Meanwhile, let us throw ourselves, as we are throwing ourselves, wholeheartedly into the patriotic action that the time demands."

Moral Perils

At Central Church on Sunday evening Rev. W. Grimes dealt with some of the moral perils surrounding young lives. He spoke of the existence of the "white slave traffic," and especially emphasized the dangers that beset innocent and unsuspecting outport and country girls who seek employment in large cities, because of the fiendish cunning with which "white slavers" seek to entrap the unwary. He urged parents to take every precaution to safeguard those who leave home.

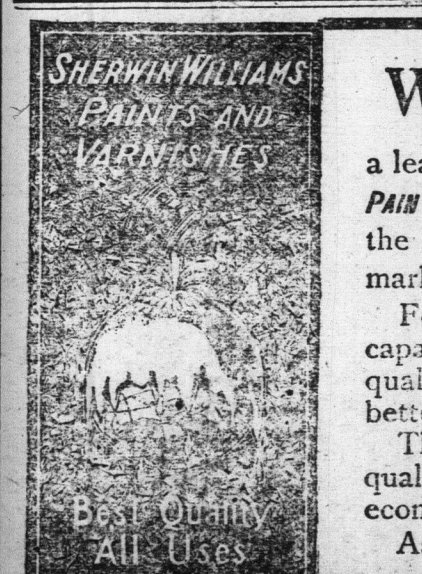

Social evil in a community was often due to ignorance; to the fact that the proper avenue of information—viz: the parent—is closed, and knowledge obtained from impure lips; to unrestrained freedom on the streets at night; and to the fact that young people are allowed together at an age when moral safeguards are not yet developed.

He urged the abolition of the "Double Standard" of morality; the avoiding of bad books and persons of impure conversation. From the experience of public schools and Juvenile Courts he pleaded with parents to realize their duty and responsibility and lead the young into pure paths, lest "their feet go down to death, their steps take hold on hell." Prov. 5, 5.

The Kaiser's Mistake

According to Elder Hubley's sermon of last Sunday night, the Kaiser's dream of universal supremacy, if indeed such an illusion formed the scope of his ambitions, was a great mistake, destined, however, to result in indiscriminate carnage and slaughter, horrifying in detail.

The speaker based his study up on Dan. 2, in which the symbolic image of Nebuchadnezzar's dream was shown to outline the world's history from Babylon to the setting up of the Kingdom of Christ. Prophecy and history were shown to be in perfect accord in following the successive universal empires of Babylon, Medo-Persia, Grecia and Rome. The decline and fall of the Roman Empire and its final breaking up into ten divisions in the fourth and fifth centuries showed, said Mr. Hubley, the accuracy of the symbols of iron mixed with miry clay, the ten divisions being represented by the ten toes of the image.

The iron and clay are still mixed and will remain so to the end. These elements back the power of cohesion and can never be united. Reference was made to the dreams of Charlemagne, Charles V, Louis XVI and Napoleon to weld these divisions into one mighty kingdom. But the prophecy was stronger than all their hosts, and their attempts were futile, neither force nor diplomacy have succeeded in cementing these hostile elements, hence the Kaiser's dream will prove an illusion.

Not until Christ shall set up His Kingdom at the overthrow of all earthly kingdoms, said Mr. Hubley, will there ever be another universal kingdom.

The speaker maintained, however, that whilst this war will not succeed in overthrowing the prophecy of Dan. 2: 41-45, it will assuredly prove another step in the fulfillment of the prophecy of Dan. 11: 45, which unmistakably points to the expulsion of Turkey from Europe and its final overthrow. Thus the wrath of man is made to praise God and the remainder will He restrain, because man can do nothing against the truth but for the truth. Ps. 76: 10; 2 Cor. 13: 8.
