of preparation, and the painting of the outside has added to its attractive appearance. The windows are being decorated with colored transparencies and the effect at night is very pleasing. Alterations and improvements have been made in the interior fittings and the spaces for exhibitors hav been increased. Already most of the floor space has been allotted and exhibitors are busy getting their differ ent products in place. Considerable fine stick is expected to be on view, and the county of Northumberland is confidently looked to to keep up her record in this respect. THE HORSE SHOW.

Although the air was chilly a bright sun gleamed on the horse show Thursday afternoon. The attendance was Worden. larger than on the previous day; the grandstand was packed and the boxes filled. It was in every sense of the and and Nellie third. word a society event. The jumping contests excited a large number of people, and they were very interesting. During an intermission Mr. McClair, from the Chamcook farm, gave another exhibition of the intelligence and remained till the close of the events. skill of a collie dog. MNWORTHY APPEALS.

One of the public men who deserve well of this country is Hon. T. C. Casgrain M. P., who is now in company with E. F. Clarke. M. P., about to address a series of meetings in the maritime provinces. Mr. Casgrain is a French-Canadian. representing a French-speaking constituency. There is only one other conservative member from that part of his Quebec the known province Mr. Casgrain's majority district. was not large, for though he is a popular man and a good campaigner he had as an opponent one of the most resourceful of government politicians and the race appeal in its most aggressive form was employed against his party and himself. One would expect that on the question of race a man like Mr. Casgrain, of whom any race might be proud, would not suffer at the hands of his own countrymen. The French-Canadians have everything to gain by retaining in public life so conspicaous a statesman and jurist. He is an honor to his country, his province and his compatriots, and has perhaps done more than any other to prove in the highest court of the Empire that French Canada can produce brilliant and learned lawyers. It would therefore be supposed that while Mr. Cas grain's opponents would not spare him in open fight, those of his own race would make the battle a fair one Especially would we look to journals in Montreal and Quebec, which speak as the special organs of Sir Wilfrid Laurier himself, appeal for subscriptions and advertisements in his name, and carry with them his personal and official authority, to refrain from base appeals to passion and prejudice against a man who is fully the equal of the premier in dignity and standing, greatly his superior in culture and pro-Kessional knowledge, and not inferior to him as a public man. But as a matter of fact we find these journals reviving the Riel affair for the purpose of destroying Mr. Casgrain Government journals in Quebec prowince still refer to the conservatives as "Pendards," and the appeal is made to the French-Canadians to punish once more the party of "hangmen." This campaign is even more personal against Mr. Casgrain. It is carried on in words and in cartoons. One picture represents Mr. Casgrain with a noose in his hand suggesting that the policy of the rope is a good programme for the conservative party. Why should Mr. Casgrain be selected for this form of attack? 'The one excuse is that he was junior counsel for the prosecution of Louis Riel. He had nothing to do with the government which dealt with the case after conviction. He was not in the dominion parliament at the time, but was a young leaders of the bar. Any other lawyer would have taken this retainer. There is no reason for supposing that the present minister of justice, who was one the party. of the counsel for the defence, would have refused an engagement as proseputing counsel. No suggestion is made that the prosecution was not fairly justified by the facts. The promoters rather small majorities. but in him the city loses a clergyman of great ability and earnestness, who has done much good in a very quiet way. Outside of his own church Mr. Phillips is better known as a writer, whose quaint humor and philosophy have endeared him to a far greater circle than he could hope to reach as a clergyman. The Star, which has prof-ited much from Mr. Phillip's literary work, is only partially consoled for his departure by the hope that, in his new charge, he may find more time for his pen than the strain of a city pastorate permitted .- Star.

HOPEWELL HILL.

HOPEWELL HILL, Sept. 23 .- The friends in this county of Mrs. D. N. Murray of Albert learned with regret of her death, which occurred recently at the home of her mother in Nova Scotia. Mrs. Murray resided at Albert for a number of years and was a most estimable lady. The death of the twelve year old daughter of Henry Copp of Midway, after a surgical operation performed by Drs. Carnwath and Ferguson, ocurred the first of the week. The pleasant weather of the week underwent a decided change yesterday as far, at least, as temperature is concerned, today being unusually cold for the time of year. A flurry of and particularly with the kind man ner in which they had been treated by general public. All of them carried away souvenirs of the exhibition. Bandmaster Cooper, in bidding the press good-bye, said he would never forget the many kindnesses extended on all hands to himself personally, and also to his men. He hoped to again visit St. John ere long. Manager Hubbard and staff were kept busy all day Saturday and wel into the night paying the prize awards and settling other bills. Mr. Sclanders assistant manager, will return to To ronto in a few days, well satisfied with the manner in which the exhibition had been conducted as a whole, and especially with the good, order that was maintained throughout. While there was an efficient staff of police on the spot, capable of meeting any emergency, their services were rarely called into requisition, and then only to adjust some minor misunderstanding or petty difficulty. Mr. Sclanders is a born exhibition official, and his training in connection with previous exhibitions made him a most valuable assistant to Mr. Hubbard. Popular with all visitors as well as citizens. Mr. Sclanders' departure for Toronto will be regretted by a host of new as well as old friends. Mr. Frost, who had charge of the horse and cattle departments; Mr. Peters, the veteran head of the fruit display; Mr. Jack, in the poultry shed; Supt. Dr. Inch, superintendent of education, was asked Saturday about the progress of the school consolidation movement. He does not expect that the people will rapidly fall in with this system. There is a good deal of human nature in the way. It is found In further conversation Dr. Inch said that there had been before a recent change in the law a considerable number of schools with a total registration of five to ten pupils. Cases could be mentioned where schools had been kept up and provincial and county allowances paid when only four children were on the roll. There was a historic
