Men Aroused in the Morning at 5.30 by Cannon and Bugle Calls Followed by Music by a Brass Band—Only One Casualty So Far and That Was from a Horse's Kick—"Awkward" Squad Get a Drilling on How to Handle a Rifle.

(Special to The Telegraph.)

Sussex, June 28.—Shirt sleeves and straw hats, the browned and sweating men of the infantry brigade were enlightened as to the use of the rifle this morning.

In this business of preparing for conflict three seems now to be less worship of the purely ceremonial and more of an application of common sense.

Turning out at 5.30 o'clock is a reasonably early hour. It would be about three hours too early for nine months of the human family, but at camp there is compensation.

One Casualty. So far, there has been one casualty. Trooper J. Thompson of the 8th Hussars, who came from English settlement, near Camp Sussex at half-past five in the morning.

POLITICS NOT FOR WOMEN IS OPINION OF POPE PIUS

Other Careers Are Properly Open to Them, But His Holiness Draws the Line at That.

A Rome despatch says: Pope Pius X does not believe in women being mixed up in politics or theology. With these limitations, according to the views of the holy father, a woman may pursue any profession she pleases.

"Everything which tends to raise the moral and intellectual level of humanity is worthy of our encouragement, provided, of course, that the laws of Christianity are not infringed. It is only right that women should free themselves from the crushing yoke which society has imposed on them for centuries. It is right, too, that they should be able to secure their means of existence. They may study everything—except theology."
