OBSERVER MAN ELECTED TO PRESS CONGRESS OF WORLD

On Tuesday Fred H. Stevens of the Observer received notification that he, having been nominated, was elected by the directors to the Press Congress of the World. This to the newspaper man is somewhat like the Mystic Shrine to the Mason except in the case of the "burning sands" the sands are real, as this year's convention is to be held in Honolulu, Oct. 4-14. Mr. Stevens is eligible to go as representative of the C. W. N. A. and he is seriously considering making the trip, which is said to be the most delightful voyage in the world.

DONALD McINNIS

Much sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Gerald McInnis of Weaver, Victoria county, on account of the sudden death of their little son Donald, May 12, at the age of two years and eight months. The little fellow was exceedingly active at all times. Upon going about the yard he found an axe and while playing with it nearly amputated two of his fingers which resulted in his passing from this life, the flower and light of that home.

Funeral service was held by Rev. A. Hatfield at Linton Corner, interment taking place in near by cemetery.

RED CROSS

A meeting was held in the Methodist church on Tuesday evening in connection with the re-organization of the Red Cross work. The meeting was presided over by the Mayor, who introduced Mrs. Kahring, of St. John, to the audience. Mrs. Kahring then outlined the new work of the prevention of disease, which is being taken up by the society, and showed how the large percentage of anti-measles during the war proved that if the vitality of the nation was to be preserved, the work of prevention must be taken up by every community. She then explained the program that the Red Cross Executive had outlined and asked for the support and co-operation of the people of Hartland and the surrounding districts. Mrs. Kahring was supported by Mrs. J. T. G. Carr. At the close of the meeting Mrs. Simms was appointed agent for Hartland and district. She will organize in the near future a campaign to secure additional members for the Red Cross Society. The meeting closed with the National Anthem.

"THE WALK-OFFS"

GREAT PICTURE HERE FOR MAY 24—DON'T MISS IT.

The management of the Star Theatre offers an unusual feature for the evening of May 24. This features the beautiful May Allison, in a brilliant and telling satire of social parasites—and it is a love story that breathes the spirit of real romance. The title of this big six reel feature is "The Walk-Offs" and it has been especially selected for an audience that enjoys the beautiful and entertaining, but yet which will not sanction the sensational of suggestive.

Those who recall the picture given on last Victoria Day will recall that "The Hearts of Humanity" not only drew crowds the full capacity of the hall, but it gave them most delightful pleasure and gave offense to none. The picture to be shown next Wednesday will please the people just as much.

If you do not know what a Walk-off is, here is the story:

A "walk-off" is a name applied in the play to a brainless society parasite, a penniless and useless species of mankind who sponges the means of his existence—clothes, lunches, dinners and pleasures—off some equally brainless member of his set, more fortunate financially.

Bob, the Kentuckian's colored manservant, tells the old darky legend of Adam and Eve in the Garden. Eve, according to the story, got very tired of Adam and asked him if he'd get God to make some more people to amuse her. To this God agreed and going to the clay-pile fashioned a number of new people.

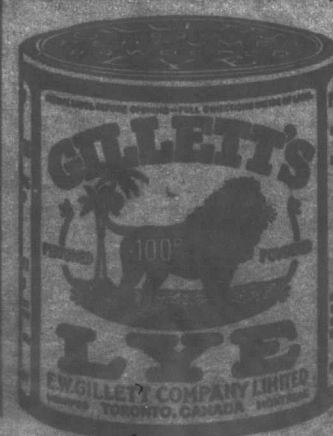

But, according to Bob's story, God was called away before He could put the brains in the new creatures. He loaned them up against the fence to dry and when they had, "they jes' walk off, dassel, no brains, suh."

SUMMER SCHOOL IN WOODSTOCK

A summer school for Christian workers under the auspices of the Maritime Religious Education Council, will be held in the Methodist church, August 23, 24, 25 and 26.

It is expected that Rev. W. A. Ross, Rev. W. C. Machum, Rev. F. M. Milligan and Elementary Secretary, Miss Harrison, will be among the staff of instructors. Board will be furnished at one dollar per day at last year.

Study classes will be held in the forenoon. The afternoon will be given up to recreation on the island. There will be inspirational addresses in the evening. A picnic supper will be provided each afternoon and thus promote sociability.

TENNIS CLUB IS ORGANIZED

Large Number of Young People Meet and Organize—Season of Brisk Sport Anticipated

On Tuesday evening a number of the young people got together and organized a Tennis Club. Officers were elected as follows: C. D. Dickson, pres.; Miss Martha McColm, vice-pres.; G. W. Montgomery, sec.-treas. Field Committee: V. W. Simms, A. W. Kyle, Walter Baker, Walter Morgan, Clayton Rideout, Miss Margaret Nixon.

Membership Committee: Margaret Green, Martha Rideout, Mabel Morgan, Frank McAdam, Lorne Britton.

The membership fees will be $2 for gentlemen and $1 for ladies. For the present A. W. Kyle's tennis court will be used and the first game will be played this evening. It is expected that the membership will be sufficiently large that a second court will be required. It is also hoped that during the season match games will be arranged with visiting clubs.

CROSS CREEK ROAD GREATLY IMPROVED

The town street committee, under the capable chairmanship of Ald. H. H. Hatfield is doing some remarkably good work on the Rockland road. Both sides have been ditched and the whole length of the road is made dry and is done in such fashion that it will be dry as long as the ditches are kept free. The Cross Creek swamp is being filled and a bad drive is being eliminated. Up to Friday the whole cost of repairs was $188 and the road was then ready for gravel, which is available right at hand. This piece of road will be made the equal of the famous "Craig Road." Soon as this is completed the building of a concrete side-walk on Main street, from King to Prince, will be commenced.

EAST FLORENCEVILLE NOTES

The Women's Institute held an entertainment in Smith's Hall on Friday evening. It being fine weather, a large audience completely filled the hall and eagerly awaited the raising of curtain for the first number of the program, which consisted of various solos, readings, drills and tableaux. These were followed by a farce, entitled "How the Story Grew," which kept the audience in laughter from beginning to end. A little over $100 was realized for school purposes. Much praise is due the Women's Institute for their efforts and success.

Ernest Saunders is spending a few days at his home here having just returned from U. N. B. where he has passed a very successful term and received his diploma in the Forestry course.

Strong and Vigorous

MADAME ARTHUR BEAUCHER

805 Carter St., Montreal.

"I suffered terribly from Constipation and Dyspepsia for many years. I felt pains after eating and had gas, constant headache, and was unable to sleep at night. I was getting so thin that I was frightened and saw several physicians who, however, did not seem able to help me.

"As last a friend advised me to take 'Fruit-a-tives'. I did so and soon I felt some relief. I continued with 'Fruit-a-tives' and in a short time, the Constipation was banished, I felt no more pains or headache or the disagreeable sensations that follow dyspepsia. Now I am well, strong and vigorous."

FORENCEVILLE FACTS

The meeting of the Baptist Missionary Society was held last week at the home of Mrs. H. M. Estey.

The May meeting of the Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Chas. Hunter, East Florenceville on May 10. About 23 members were present. After the business of the meeting was over Rev. F. A. Wightman gave a most interesting talk on "References to Canada in Poetry."

The entertainment given by the Women's Institute in Smith's Hall on Friday, May 13, was a decided success. The program was well rendered and judging by the applause of the audience much enjoyed. The proceeds, about $105, go to swell the objective of $500 to be divided between the two schools at the end of June.

THE MISERY OF BACKACHE

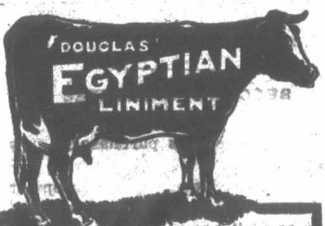

Removed by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Meaford, Ont.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for backache, and I also had a female weakness. I felt dizzy and nervous, and was without energy. I had to force myself to do my work, and was always tired. Saw a Pinkham advertisement which induced me to take the Vegetable Compound, and my back gradually stopped aching and I felt lighter in spirits. I am recommending the Vegetable Compound with pleasure to all I meet who complain as I did."—MILDRED BROOK, Meaford, Ont.

Woman's Precious Gift

The one which she should most zealously guard is her health, but she often neglects to do so in season until some ailment peculiar to her sex has fastened itself upon her. When so affected women may rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a remedy that has been wonderfully successful in restoring health to suffering women.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

WINDSOR WHISPERINGS

Our May Missionary meeting is now a thing of the past. It was certainly an interesting session. The talk on South America and Bolivia in particular was most instructive. The map was a great aid and helped to give us an idea of the greatness of the different countries and the need of missionaries to carry the gospel to the benighted souls in the interior of the continent. Mrs. H. L. Dickinson had the subject well in hand and did it justice as also did her assistants who all helped to give us information concerning different conditions and needs of the country. Mrs. Arthur Tedford, Mrs. Wilbur Dickinson, the Misses Nettie and Cora Smith, Eva Wasson, Verna Robinson, Marion Tedford and Effie Forest were the helpers. Miss Verna Robinson had a recitation, Mrs. J. E. Tedford and Mrs. A. Tedford each had a reading which was all good. The music was good also, although we were disappointed by some of the musicians not getting there. The next meeting will be at G. B. Wasson's the second Wednesday in June.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Carpenter and little Mary were calling on her cousins, H. H. and C. P. Wasson and their wives today. They plan on going back to their home in Saskatchewan soon.

The next prayer service will be at J. E. Tedford's.

There was an exceptional good sing at Jesse Tedford's Sunday night. It is said that music opens the door of Heaven and brings us near to God.

VERA LAWSON

A very sad death occurred in the hospital at Everett, Mass., when Vera Lawson passed peacefully away after a short illness of appendicitis. She was operated on, April 26, and seemed to be on the road to recovery when an abscess formed. Special doctors and nurses were called but all efforts were in vain, for it was the Master's will to call her home. She professed religion and was baptised by the writer about four years ago and lived a consistent Christian life. She was 18 years, 3 months and 19 days old. A service was held at the home of Calvin Frost, 76 Linden St., Everett, Mass., conducted by Rev. P. J. Quigg, Lowell, Mass. Appropriate music was rendered by Mrs. Saunders of Tremont Temple, Boston. A number of her friends went from Lowell to attend the service.

The remains were taken by her mother, Mrs. Edmund Robinson to her home in Windsor for burial. Much sympathy is extended to the bereaved ones in their great sorrow.—E. H. B.

Your Daughter

IS your daughter at that critical age, approaching womanhood, when nothing is so important to her as mother's care and mother's advice?

It is during this time that her whole future health and happiness may be at stake.

With most girls this important development takes place at a time when school work is most exacting and the nervous system is consequently under a most severe strain.

An enormous quantity of rich, red blood is necessary to meet the demands of the system, and, this failing, there is the development of anaemia, chlorosis or some form of nervous trouble, such as St. Vitus' dance.

Most mothers now know about Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and the promptness with which it enriches the blood and builds up the nervous system of the growing girl.

It is mother's duty to see that a reasonable amount of rest and sleep is obtained, that the food is wholesome and nutritious, and that the treatment is used regularly and persistently so as to keep up an abundant supply of pure, rich, nourishing blood.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food 50 cents a box. All dealers, or Edmansson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto. The portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M.D., are on every box of the genuine.

Her solos delighted the audience as she possessed a fine voice.

Mrs. J. R. Belyea, in the role of the dethroned Queen, "Vashti," could not be improved upon in any way. The little Misses Anita Stewart, Bina Palmer, Margaret Earle and Naida Clark, made dainty little pages. C. H. Elliott filled the role of King Ahasuerus very acceptably, while Barry Hopkins took the part of Naaman and Miss Verna Smith as his wife, fairly brought down the house. Gerald Lovely as "Mordicai," certainly cooked the part, and little Alice Dickinson in her farewell to Haman, was very cunning. Humphrey Flemington and Norval McPhail also took their parts well. The various drills delighted the audience. Mrs. Rogers, Mrs. G. G. Porter, Miss Dorothy Olmstead and Master Vernon Dickson were accompanists. The Institute and all feel very grateful to Miss Laporte for the important part she played. While here she was entertained by Mrs. N. J. Wootton, Andover. Charles Baird has been confined to the house with a bad cold.

Stingiest Person.

A man in our neighborhood recently became independent by receiving a good position and at the end of the first week's pay his father presented him with a bill containing the expense of the young man ever since he was born, including the expense of the attending physician when he came into the world; this was all added up and compound interest was charged. The boy without a murmur has begun to pay it all back to his father. The amount would buy a nice home.—Chicago American.

Sawyer's Lucky Find.

California owes its prosperity to a sawyer who owned a sawmill on a stream. He wanted to widen the tail-race of his mill, and while digging noticed a number of shining objects. He paid little attention to them at first, but later, out of curiosity, picked one up. Finding that it was gold, he soon collected a number. The natural result was that this soon became known and thousands of people flocked to this goldfield.

Shoeing Horses Unknown to Romans. The art of shoeing horses to protect their hoofs against the evils of hard usage was unknown to the Greeks and Romans, and is first mentioned in the history of the Celts as late as the fifth century.

McLAUGHLIN

ENTER a new leader—the McLaughlin Sedan.

The years have built the foundation of this car. The graceful sweeping lines are pleasing. The roominess, smooth-riding and attractive appointments, afford maximum motoring satisfaction.

More than the leader of a day, McLaughlin has been the dominating car over a period of years. Not in the opinion of a few—but of thousands.

For of McLaughlin many thousands more travel the roads of Canada than any other of the better-class cars. So the new car must succeed to the title earned through the preponderant preference of the people of "Canada's Standard Car."

Especially attractive are the new closed bodies not only because of their added comfort, but because they are now decidedly the vogue for both winter and summer driving.

HARTLAND, N. B., MAY 19, 1921

WOODSTOCK RACE TRACK

Woodstock race track seems to have sprung into popularity among the drivers as a training centre. We now have stabled at the track no less than 30 outside horses and 10 local horses and there are four other local horses worked regularly but stabled home. Four of the outsiders are from Providence, R. I., five from Houlton, seven from Hartland, two from Bathurst, 1 from St. John and 1 from Southampt. The track is in excellent condition and should be several seconds faster than last year. Four races have been arranged for May 24 and it will be interesting racing. No Hartland horses are entered for the 24th as they are not ready to start, not having had any fast work. However they will be in the push for the big matinee about June 22. William Brickley of St. John is expected here Monday to handle the Hartland string and he will be able to quickly bring them along after the careful preparation given them by Geo. Stoddart. Mr. Brickley has already here a mare from St. John—Betty Gamme and he expects to bring Native Worthy from Gagetown. Alderman Jas. W. Gallagher has the record so far, 2.36 with College Swift. The horses without exception are in splendid condition and there has not as yet been any sickness.

The following show the names and owners of the different horses now in training:

Jeffrey (p) 2.16½, Lena Marie (p) 2.16½, Dr. Macintosh, Hartland; Ben Ali (p) 2.03½, Colorado Rose (p) green, Hartland Driving Club; Zanthia (p) no mark, Miss Peter Splan (t) 2.20½, Dr. Macintosh; Old Glory (t) 2.22½, C. H. Taylor; Betty Gamme (p) no mark. Under the careful eye of Geo. Stoddart and to be driven by William Brickley of St. John.

Hattie T. Chimler (p) no mark, Commodore H. (t) no mark, Amy (p) 2.09½, J. T. Carr, Providence, R. I.; Countess Petren (p) no mark, A. Taft, Providence, R. I.; Silver Strain (t) no mark, W. Atherton, Houlton; Leonore McKinney (t), no mark, Dr. McKinnon and H. Mason. Harry Mason's string.

Harvest Queen (t), no mark, Harvest June (t), no mark, Verna Whip (p) no mark, A. J. Saunders, Houlton. Driven by L. E. Gardiner, Brockton, Mass.

Togo M. (t) 2.14½, College Swift 2.17½, Harry Gratton (p), no mark, Money Man (p) 2.18½, Jas. W. Gallagher, Woodstock; Betreva T., no mark, owned by Roy Tall. Clarence Sherman has charge of this string.

Oro Fino (p) 2.03½, Woodstock Driving Club, Brintax (t) no mark, Mr. Cronkite, South Hampton, Barnsdale (p) 2.18½, Dr. Sprague, Woodstock; Emotionless (r) 2.14½, North Lady (p) no mark, Mr. Veniot, Bathurst; Minnie Gratton (p) no mark, C. F. Rogers, Woodstock. These six are in charge of Jimmie Boutillier.

Six Peters (p) no mark, H. M. DeWitt, Woodstock; Lucky Strike (p) 2.16½, Robert Hamilton, Woodstock. The other four worked and driven by their owners are: Queenie Patchen, J. H. DeWitt; Red Sox, N. McKendrick; Lady Ashbrooke 2.16½.

Joe Gans, and Merry Wise, Allan Poole.

This certainly is some array of speed and there are more yet to come. J. Hall, Edmundston, is shipping down this week two horses, Knight Worthy (p) 2.14½ and a trot mare with no record. This mare has been used as a show mare around Montreal the last few years and is very handsome. She is reported to have been a mile in 2.15 last fall.

China's Mail Service. In the interior of China, except in a few districts, there is no regular letter delivery, and consequently no postmen. But many of the officials maintain semipublic services of their own and keep their runners up to the mark by simple expedients known best to the Chinese.

Sunday Her Unlucky Day. Empress Eugenie is said to have been haunted by a dread of Sundays. September 4, 1870, the day the mob invaded the Tuilleries, was a Sunday; it was on a Sunday that she learned the news of the death of the prince imperial, and she herself died on a Sunday.

One of Nature's Acrobats. The weasel has been called the acrobat of nature, and performs every kind of acrobatic feat. The bloodthirsty little villain is no coward. It will attack human beings. The weasel can climb as easily as run and is at home on any surface.

Painting on Spider Web. Palating on spider web is done in Norway and the pictures are framed like any other drawing. The webs employed, which are of a very dense weave are found only in few localities difficult of access and the supply of them is limited.

Women Succeed as Foresters. In the conventions and gatherings of persons identified with the lumber industry which have taken place recently women have played an important part. They are said to make excellent foresters where the pursuit is congenial.

How Do You Know? Yes, Herman, it is a true saying that if you put the two men in the same bed, one with the toothache and the other in love, the man with the toothache will go to sleep first.—Hamilton Herald.

Turning the Luck. In Yorkshire, country folk cross their thumbs "to turn the luck" should they meet a single magpie. In Scotland a magpie seen near a dwelling is believed to portend death to one of the inmates.

Have Faith in Cross of Honey. On the island of Rhodes the husband traces a cross in honey over the door before his new bride enters the house, and this little operation is said to guarantee their eternal happiness.

What He Meant. It is probably unnecessary to explain that the druggist who displayed a sign, "Say it with a brick," in his window, was referring to ice cream.—Lynn Item.

Or a "Situation." When a statesman runs into a brick wall and sees no way to get over or under, he emits a few sharp yelps and calls it a crisis.—Baltimore Sun.

DO YOU WANT A CAR?

If you do you are probably thinking you will buy a Ford, after the Spring rush is over. You should act AT ONCE.

There is a Shortage of Fords

Fewer cars have been manufactured this winter than usual, and because of this, dealers have had less stock to start the season with than for years back.

Buyers are now considering values as they have never done for years, and this has resulted in an unprecedented demand for the Ford car, and our small stock is now about exhausted.

A very few more cars will be available for the last of May. Get your order in now and save disappointment later.

Still there are those who believe the man not guilty.

St. John's Woman Says Tanlac Restored Her Health After Four Years of Suffering

"I suffered for four years before I got Tanlac, but since this medicine restored my health six months ago I have been feeling just fine."

"I had indigestion and dyspepsia, could hardly eat enough to keep me up and what I did eat would bloat me until the pain was often so bad I just had to lie down. My nerves were so shattered I could scarcely sleep, and just any little noise would upset me completely."

"I had dreadful headaches and always felt so tired I could barely stay up, and just before I got Tanlac I couldn't even look after my housework. The fact is, I was in such a miserable condition that I was afraid to be left alone even for a few minutes."

"I tried a lot of different medicines but nothing relieved me until I got Tanlac, but it certainly made me feel like a different person. My appetite is so good now that I am always ready to eat, and I can eat anything I want without the least trouble. My nerves are so quiet I sleep like a child every night and never have a headache or the least worry or feeling. I am certainly in fine condition and I just think Tanlac is the grandest medicine in the world."

THE BOY SCOUT MOVEMENT

Boy Scouts are organizations of boys and youths between the ages of twelve and eighteen years and upwards, which aim to develop character, to aid in furnishing equipment for a career, and to train in service for others, physical health, and efficient citizenship, by utilizing the natural activities and interests of the adolescent period.

The development of the Boy Scout Movement in England is due to Lt. General Sir Robert Baden-Powell, Bt., who during the siege of Mafeking in 1899 had seen the boys, under Lord Edward Cecil's command, organized and drilled into an efficient messenger service. When Baden-Powell returned to England in 1902, the idea was fostered and received popular support, and a general plan of organization was adopted. The first Boy Scout organization was formed in 1906, and a royal charter of incorporation was granted in 1912, the organization being recognized as a "non-military, public service body."

The Boy Scouts Association in Canada is non-military and non-sectarian in character, the movement being supported by Catholics, Protestants and Jews alike. Of late it has also been given consideration as an educational adjunct by well-known educators, some schools adopting the Scout programme in part or as a whole, while some of the universities and leading technical schools conduct special courses for Scoutmasters and other Scout officers.

Local Associations or Troop Committees are organized to supervise and extend the movement in communities upon application by representative citizens to Provincial Headquarters, 24 Ritchie Building, St. John. Such Associations and Committees become responsible both to their communities and to headquarters for the leadership of Scout troops in their area and for their encouragement and support.

The Scouts themselves are organized into patrols of eight boys, two or three or four patrols to a troop under a Scoutmaster. Scouting is now recognized as the most natural and once the most successful type of organization for boys. Nearly 30,000 boys in Canada are now members, and many thousands have had the benefits of Scout training during the past twelve years.

Not Much of a Soul.
The woman who gives her soul for a pearl necklace probably gets a bargain at that.

Cost of "Dolling Up."

"Quite naturally, every woman wants to look beautiful to everybody in general, and to at least one person in particular. Every man wants every woman to look beautiful, but he usually wants one woman to look considerably prettier than the rest of them."

Therefore, it is true, a bit careless now and then in the scheme of things and fails to supply properly tinted lips or complexions or noses that do not shine, the ladies feel it quite important and necessary to obtain the requisite articles for making good such oversight.

And the men, who ever have an eye and desire for artistic perfection, to say nothing of an ever-present desire to please womankind, cheerfully say "amen" to this proposition, and furnish the cash whenever needed, in generous quantities, for such purposes.

It is also a well-known fact that since the earliest days of history men have displayed more than passing interest in members of the opposite sex whose judgment was good in the selection and application of delicately scented powder and perfume.

These natural and century-old conditions will easily explain why the growth of industrial plants for the manufacture of cosmetics and perfume in this country has been so phenomenal.

The value of the annual products of such plants is a little more than $26,000,000, according to the Department of Commerce. The added profit of the retailers, of course, makes the amount paid by the ladies several million dollars more.

If the women of this continent were obliged to discontinue the use of cosmetics and perfume, $40,000,000 worth of goods would be thrown out of employment, and $70,000,000 worth of manufacturing plants would have to be junked or converted into paint mills.

Pioneer Steamer on Pacific

There was not a single phase of British Columbia history from 1881 to 1974 in which M. B. S. Beaver did not play a large part. She was admired by all those old pioneers associated with the history of the West Coast.

The foundation of Victoria, City was laid by the Beaver. Fort Rupert and Nanaimo were built under her protection, and though Fort Simpson was founded prior to her arrival on the coast, she was the main protection of that establishment for many years afterwards.

Operations of the Hudson Bay Co. in Russian America were entirely under her control and many minor difficulties in that region were effectively solved promptly on her arrival at the seat of trouble. When, too, the reign of law and order was threatened closer home, in every case the arrival of the Beaver was awaited before effective steps could be taken to bring affairs back to a normal state.

On one occasion, two murderers escaped to Cowichan and the warship Thetis sent 150 of her men on the Beaver and proceeded to Cowichan under command of James Douglas to administer the law.

There were many other cases of this nature that demonstrated the Beaver's usefulness in developing and colonizing British Columbia, particularly the north coast.

It was, to many, a marvel that a small boat of this kind could steam round Cape Horn and weather any storm that she encountered. These men forget that though small, she was built of stoutest oak and was considered a more able and seaworthy craft than many larger ships.

The last use of unusual size and in full keeping with the British oak stem and stern post. The best greenheart and oak ribs were used, being carefully dressed and of large size. The spaces between these frames were filled in with a level above the water line with curved timbers of the same material as the ribs. Outside planking was oak and African teak, fastened with copper bolts and tree nails, covered with a layer of thick tar paper and then sheathed with iron fastened with spikes of bronze composition. The hull was surfaced with a sheathing of copper.

It was an interesting day when the keel of this wonderful little black steamer was laid, but how much more interesting must it have been when the Beaver slid down into the English Channel and out on the trackless ocean on her voyage to the north Pacific coast to become famous in the annals of the west.

The Beaver arrived at Robinson Crusoe Island, via Cape Horn, December 17, 1881, and Astoria (Columbia River) April 4, 1885.

The Hudson Bay Co.'s fur trade up to this date had as its headquarters on the Pacific Coast the Columbia River, but as the trade was being developed it was soon apparent that Columbia River was not the most suitable location from which to administer affairs. The ships from London were taking great risks when crossing the Columbia River, and as there were no steam tugs available, going up the Columbia River with a sailing vessel for one hundred miles or more was not at all to their liking.

The Hudson Bay Co.'s necessary rights in Oregon were the stumbling blocks. If the Columbia River establishments were abandoned the company's claim might be jeopardized, and rather than do that a route was opened through Fort Vancouver to Nisqually on the Puget Sound via the Cowlitz River, where trade goods could be transported by boat and ox-cart and shipped north on the ships engaged in the trade, thereby saving much time to the ships but wasting considerable of the time of the land forces.

From Nisqually the Beaver took a full cargo in January, proceeding to Fort Simpson, calling on route at all Indian villages where she would anchor, throw out her boarding guns and proceed to trade as usual. It was time she reached Fort Simpson a large part of her cargo would have been traded.

At Fort Simpson the furs collected were taken ashore and stored and the ship restocked with trade goods then she proceeded, calling at all villages en route to Takli. Returning to Fort Simpson, furs were unloaded and more goods taken.

This procedure was kept up all summer, the Beaver making about four trips north, and the same number south leaving it in time to reach Victoria before Christmas.

The Beaver was not subject to orders from any but Sir James Douglas, but she had all ports on the route she covered under her control. It was estimated that 8th. day to cater to the wants of forty thousand natives.

For twenty years she was complete monarch of the coast. In all Indian trade countries and indeed in all new white settlements the wants of the population had gradually increased, and in 1888 the Beaver was found to be totally inadequate for the trade. A new boat was built for the company in England and named the Otter, arriving at Victoria in April, 1888.

The Beaver and Otter between them were able to take care of the work for a few years, until the Enterprise was purchased in 1892, to help out on the Fraser River run during the great Caribou gold excitement. The Beaver.

Shocks From Penn.
"When plants die, they give off a large amount of electricity. If 500 peas boiling in a pot all died at the same moment they would give a current sufficient to electrocute the cook," said Sir J. C. Bose, in a lecture on growth of plants, to the students of University College, London, recently. You can deceive a plant with chloroform, he said. Usually it sleeps in winter and blossoms in the spring, but if given a dose of chloroform in winter it blossoms on awakening from the chloroform sleep.

Some Yarn, Eh?
"Several years ago," said Binks, "I raised some watermelons which grew to an enormous size. One day a three-masted schooner went aground on the mud flats just below my house. I immediately rolled one of these melons in the side of the stranded craft, cut the melon in two and enough juice came out of it to float the schooner safely into deep water."—New York Times.

Beautiful Tropical Plants.
Most plants in the tropics have two fruiting seasons and millions of seedlings start, but few ever get sufficient foothold to develop beyond the first stages of plant growth. But the one that does can almost be seen to grow. Their upper leaves are all on a level and glow with the most beautiful tints. The branches of the different trees are so interlaced that it is impossible to distinguish which flower and leaf belongs to which tree.

Add Signatures of Authors.
Edith Wharton in one of her earlier novels describes a man as walking on a stony beach "his arms and legs still lashed to his sides." But a worse blunder occurs in her latest book, "The Age of Innocence," where she has two of her characters, Archer and May, married with the words of the funeral service.—Boston Transcript.

Care of Furs.
When furs have been worn in rainy weather, shake the surface moisture out carefully and then hang the fur over a chair back as far away from a radiator as possible. It is better to hang the garments on the outside in the cold air, if at all possible, shaking them vigorously at occasional intervals.

Joost Sticks.
Until recently the composition of the candles known as Joost sticks was unknown to most people. A stem of bamboo is rolled in a substance consisting of fourteen different odorous drugs. One of these protects the candles from rats and mice. The camphor used in the manufacture causes the Joost sticks to burn steadily.

Must Make Good.

From Salt to Vinegar.
It is a rule with the Mohammedans to begin a meal with salt and finish with vinegar. If they begin with salt they think they will escape the contagion of poverty diseases. If they finish with vinegar, their worldly prosperity will continue to increase.

DEATH OF HERBERT INMAN

The death of Herbert Inman which occurred Tuesday afternoon, May 10, was a great shock to the whole community. Leaving home in the morning in his usual good health he went to work on the farm belonging to H. Bedell where he was employed for the summer. Shortly after the noon hour he complained to Mr. Bedell of feeling very dizzy. The doctor and Mrs. Inman were quickly summoned but life was extinct before either reached him. Mr. and Mrs. Inman had only been living in Andover a few weeks but he had won the respect of all with whom he came in contact. He was the son of Richard and Mary Inman of Kilburn by whom he is survived; he also leaves to mourn a wife who was the daughter of Henry Boone of Rowena, also three small children the eldest four years of age; four brothers survive, Hayden of Perth, Jerry and LeBaron at Kilburn and Stanley at Boston; two sisters, Mrs. Joseph Dorrison of Kilburn and Mrs. Burns Lochart of Maplehurst, also a large circle of other relatives. He was 23 years of age and was a devoted member of the Baptist Church at Rowena. The funeral was held from his late home in Andover Thursday afternoon and was conducted by Rev. Neil McLean of Plaster Rock. The body was taken to Kilburn and interred in the family lot. The sympathy of all goes to the mourning family in their great bereavement.

Why "Auto-Shoes"?

We figure that any automobile casing has a right to be called a "tire"—whether it's good, bad or indifferent. And we agree with the opinion that an exceptionally good casing deserves a distinctive name.

Ames Holden "Auto-Shoes" are miles better in performance than ordinary tires. That has been proved to our satisfaction. So we think it's a good idea to identify such unusual mileage givers by an easy-to-remember name—"Auto-Shoes."

The main purpose of the name is to help you to get cheaper mileage. The guarantee behind Ames Holden "Auto-Shoes" insures that you get it. If necessary for adjustment should ever arise you will find that you will get satisfaction without trouble or red tape.

They are the principal advantages that go with the name Ames Holden "Auto-Shoes." Drop in and let us show you the tires themselves.

Chinese Barbers.
The Chinese are not accustomed to tipping the barber. As a matter of fact the Chinese barber is very modest in his prices, and his patrons can obtain a hair cut, a head shave, a face shave, and in addition have his shoulders and back massaged, all for a sum total of less than 5 cents. The straight razor used by Chinese barbers is a triangular shaped blade with straight handle, folding up as does the American straight razor. The blades are made from old rails or any other crude steel which has outlived its usefulness in other directions.

A Stiff Upper Lip.
Keeping a stiff upper lip is all right, but there's nothing commendable about it. Everybody keeps a stiff upper lip; has to. The upper lip can't be anything but firm. Ever watch a child overcome by emotion? It's the under lip that trembles, and then the jaw drops, to open an exit for the roar. Next time tell him to keep a stiff lower lip. It won't sound right, it will lack punch and probably will fail to inspire the subject to the proper degree of steadfastness, but you'll have the approval of the purist.—Louisville Herald.

New Artificial Silk.
Animal muscular fiber is the peculiar material of an artificial silk. The cementing material is dissolved away, and the separated fiber is then straightened in a suitable liquid. Fibers several inches long are said to have been obtained. These are woven in the usual way, and, if desired, the fabric may be waterproofed by impregnation with rubber. Such silk is claimed to be not very expensive, and adapted for such purposes as insulation and balloon cloth.

Absurd Aviation Theory.
Cavallio, who writes about 1785, makes frequent allusion to the irrational attempts and false theories advanced by the projectors of flying instruments. One writer suggests that a great number of eggshells shall be filled with dew, for as the sun rarefies the dew it will ascend and carry with it the egg shells which would rise together with some other weight attached.

Oyster Gatherers.
It takes 6,000 laborers to supply the American public with its customary first dinner course, says Luther C. Fry, writing in World's Work. This force includes entire families, as well as single men. The father works on the boats which gather the oysters by dredging or tugging. His wife and children can and prepare them for market.

Age and Development.
Study of the relation between the total length of life and the time required to reach maturity has brought out an interesting comparison between men and horses. A horse at five years old is said to be, comparatively, as old as a man at twenty, and doubtless may be expected to behave, according to equine standards, after the manner of the average college student following human standards. A ten-year-old horse resembles, so far as age and experience go, a man of forty, while a horse that has attained the ripe age of thirty-five is comparable with a man of ninety.

Ravages of Tuberculosis.
Tuberculosis is a house disease. As Doctor Aitken says: "The stabled cow, the penned sheep, the tamed rabbit, the monkey, the caged lion, the tiger or the elephant, are almost invariably cut off by tuberculosis infection." This disease has existed from remote antiquity, and if one estimates the number of lives it has cost he can form some conception of the terrible price humanity has paid to learn that men and animals need pure air instead of poison to breathe.

Profit in Coining Money.
The government does not profit at all when gold money is lost, because it has an intrinsic value that is virtually the same as its face value. The profit on lost silver money depends on the cost to the government of the silver that goes into the dollar. When silver is above $1.20 an ounce there is no profit. When it goes below a dollar the profit is considerable. On lost nickels and one-cent pieces the percentage profit is large.

Safeguarding the Children.
Frederick Burlingham, American explorer, just returned from central Borneo, tells of methods employed by natives to protect young children from wild boar, bee constrictors, and poisonous insects. The children are swathed in garments and swung on rattan vines suspended between trees. Crocodiles take a large toll of children in Borneo, says the explorer, despite precautions taken.

"Civic Crown."
This was merely a wreath of oak leaves with pendant acorns and was one of the most highly valued honors a Roman could attain. It was given for saving the life of a citizen in battle, at the same time killing the opponent and maintaining the ground upon which the fight took place. One to whom it was given had a right to wear it always.

OUR OLDEST CITY.

Kingston Will Hold Celebration of 250th Birthday.

The Kingston Historical Society is making preparations to annually celebrate the 250th anniversary of the founding of the city of Kingston by Count de Frontenac. It is proposed to hold a great pageant in connection with the celebration, and the co-operation of the historical societies of Ontario and Quebec is to be invited, so as to make the event one of national interest.

Kingston was founded by Frontenac in 1783, when Charles II. was still on the throne of England, when men were flocking to hear Buryan preach, when Milton was revising his "Paradise Lost," when men and women were yet living on the shores of Massachusetts Bay who had come over in the Mayflower, and before Newton had discovered that there was a law of gravitation.

On the morning of the 12th of July, 1673, a group of Iroquois warriors lurking behind tree trunks and boulders on the hilltop and peering down the River St. Lawrence saw emerge from the island passages

SHERIFF'S SALE

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that there will be held at public auction in front of the Court House in the Town of Woodstock in the County of Carleton on Monday the thirtieth day of May, 1921, at two o'clock in the afternoon, all the right, title and interest of Frank Dyer in and to the following described lands and premises, namely:—"All that certain lot, piece or parcel of land and premises situate, lying and being in the Parish of Wicklow and bounded as follows, to-wit: On the front or eastern end by the Saint John River, on the lower or southern side by land owned and occupied by William Jones, on the rear or western side by land commonly called the Campbell land, and on the upper or northern side by land occupied by John and Harman Kennedy, and containing one hundred acres, more or less, and being the farm of land and premises owned and occupied by the late John Dyer at the time of his death," subject to a mortgage thereon to the Canada Permanent Mortgage Corporation registered in Book E, number five, of Carleton County Records, on page 561 et seq.

Together with the buildings and improvements thereon and the privileges and appurtenances to the same belonging or in any manner appertaining. The same having been seized by me under an execution issued out of the King's Bench Division of the Supreme Court at the suit of William Stone Sons, Limited.

Dated this twenty-first day of March 1921.

ALBION R. FOSTER Sheriff, County of Carleton.

stable in its advance, with banners and trumpet notes—all designed to impress the savage mind—landed close to the present causeway across the lower harbor where now stands the Tete de Pont barracks, the home of the Royal Canadian Horse Artillery. It was here that Fort Frontenac was reared under the direction of the French engineer, Randin.

Lieut.-Col. Bradstreet captured Fort Frontenac in 1758 with 3,000 British provincials. After the peace of 1763 the British garrison was removed to Carleton Island, a small islet near the American shore; in 1784 the troops were moved back to Kingston (then called Cataragui.) To induce the creation of a town on the level place next the harbor several streets were laid out and blocks of an acre or two granted gratis to such as would promise to erect a dwelling and reside in Kingston. It is said that so little value was placed upon these land grants that one of them was sold for a bottle of rum. It was due to these early conditions that the older part of Kingston is so irregularly built. In 1804 there were about sixty houses in Kingston.

In 1794 Lieutenant-Governor Simcoe arrived at Kingston from York (Toronto) in an open boat in the month of December. In 1799 John Strachan arrived to teach in the Kingston Grammar School. He was afterwards the famous Bishop Strachan.

In 1789 a dockyard was established at Point Frederick opposite Kingston, and here a number of frigates were constructed and used during the war of 1812-14. Kingston's first newspaper, the Gazette appeared in 1810.

Lord Sydenham, governor, in 1840 proclaimed the union of Upper and Lower Canada with Kingston as capital, on February 10, 1840. The first Parliament met in Kingston on June 14th of that year. In 1844 the Government was changed to Montreal and John A. Macdonald was elected member for Kingston. In 1846 Kingston received its city charter.

Who Wants This Beautiful Home in Hartland

Allen A. Waters offers for immediate sale his fine house situated just off the Main street, south end. The location is a beautiful high and eighty one and the house is surrounded by lovely shade trees. The house itself has 10 rooms and bathroom, nicely fitted up and with a constant supply of running water. The house is thoroughly well finished throughout and is warm and comfortable in winter and accessible to pure, fresh air in the summer. There is a large woodshed attached and a clapboarded and painted barn that will accommodate several horses; also a garage. Never-failing supply of water in the yard and at the kitchen sink. Enough ground for a good-sized garden. This is an ideal home for a couple that wishes to retire, or for any family. The house has four sleeping rooms and more could be finished in the attic, which is reached by stairs.

Mr. Waters also offers for sale a farm in Ashland district, three miles from the river, with a down-hill haul to market. Of this 100 acres, 30 acres are cleared and a part freshly seeded, 10 acres ploughed and the remainder in grass. There are 70 acres of woodland that will yield enough fire-wood to pay for the place and leave many years supply. There is also a good quantity of pulp and lumber. The prices of both these properties will interest any buyer, and full particulars of the whole may be had from Mr. Waters, at the house. DON'T DELAY. These properties will move quickly. Part of the purchase price may remain on mortgage if desired.

JOHN GALSWORTHY.

Philosophy of Literary Man Who Refused a Title.

"Four names stand out as super-distinguished in the English fiction of to-day—Thomas Hardy, Rudyard Kipling, Joseph Conrad, and John Galsworthy," writes Mr. Clement Shorter in the London Sphere.

"A few years ago we would not have minded, but to-day it is a relief to all lovers of the artist in literature that these four men are untitled, and that at least three of them have refused the dubious honor. Two of the four have made an equal reputation in prose and poetry, the other two in fiction and the drama. Mr. Galsworthy is the least a story-teller of them all, but he is a great artist nevertheless. His gift is that of an extremely brilliant essayist of dialogue, potent toathom the motives of individuals."

"All Mr. Galsworthy's philosophy is summed up in the following—'Sixty-four years that favored property, and had made the upper middle-class, buttressed, chivalled, polished, it till it was almost indistinguishable in manner, morals, speech, appearance, habit, and soul from the nobility. An epoch which had allied individual liberty so that if a man had money he was free in law and fact, and if he had not money he was free in law and not in fact. An era which had canonized hypocrisy, so that to seem to be respectable was to be. A great age, whose transmuting influence nothing had escaped save the nature of man and the nature of the universe."

"These words are written in reference to the death of Queen Victoria. Never has any writer touched the comfortable, propertied, upper-middle class that lives in the best houses, that gives the best dinners, with a surer touch than has Mr. Galsworthy. Thackeray's brilliant work in the same direction is more fantasy in comparison—which is not necessarily to say that Mr. Galsworthy is a greater artist than Thackeray, but he sees more deeply into the motives which guide man."

Siamese-Hair Dressing.

The wives of Siamese noblemen cut their hair so that it stands straight up on their heads. The average length is about one inch and a half.

Worse Than Outright Lies.

Many a man who would shrink from a false statement will give a false color—which is still more unfair, because more difficult to correct.
