

TWO MEMBERS FOR FOREST CITY GOVERNMENT CONSIDERS MATTER

One Proposition Is to Divide London at Wellington Street—Another Section of the Conservative Party Want the City Split in Two by Dundas Street—Mr. Beck On East London.

The Whitney Government are considering plans at the present time for the division of London into two ridings before the next general election. For some time past local Conservatives have been consulted with reference to the division, and many opinions have been expressed as to the best method of dividing it to get the best results for the party.

It is understood that Hon. Adam Beck favors dividing the city into two ridings, one taking in all the city east of Wellington street, and the other west of Wellington.

ANOTHER SUGGESTION.

Others suggest that the proper division is not Wellington street, but Dundas street, one riding north of Dundas, and including West London, and the other all south of Dundas street, taking in South London.

From what can be learned, these two proposed divisions are creating the discussion, and each has its partisans.

It is quite within the probabilities that the Dundas street division will be accepted.

It is also probable that the redistribution bill will be introduced at the next session of the Legislature.

It is quite certain that Mr. Beck will not be given the riding in which East London is to be placed. There is a most cordial feeling towards Mr. Beck in that section, and he will be forced to take the north section. This will be good fighting ground, although some Conservatives claim that Mr. Beck would have some difficulty winning there.

To make it doubly sure for him, in case he should accept it, the asylum may be placed in that division, giving him a solid vote from that quarter. This was the first intention, but Mr. George Neely, of East Middlesex, did not relish any partition of his riding, and it may be abandoned.

$25,000 PLACED IN ESTIMATES FOR ELECTRICITY AT ASYLUM

Probable That the Institution Will Require 700 Horsepower for All Purposes—It Looks as Though the Money Set Aside Will Not Be Sufficient for the Work.

The sum of $25,000 has been placed in the estimates of the Legislature to equip the London Hospital of the Insane with electrical fixtures.

It is thought that this amount will have to be increased, although no definite arrangements will be made on this line until the amount voted has been expended.

Electric lights will be placed in every building. Motors will be installed for running the machinery necessary for all work there. It is understood that the grounds will be illuminated also.

The amount of power used will be about 700 horsepower, and while furnished the asylum direct from the transformer station will be credited to the city. The exact price has not yet been decided upon, but there will be a margin of profit for the city of London on the transaction.

SIR JAMES WHITNEY SAYS HE'S SURPRISED

He Admits, However, That He Suggested and Represented Be Withdrawn From the University Board.

Sir James Whitney in an interview in Toronto yesterday declared that he had not withdrawn from the Government representatives from the board of governors of the Western University. He admits that he suggested that course of action to Mr. Justice Meredith, the chancellor, but that he had not taken any definite steps as yet.

Sir James Whitney, in an interview in regard to the Western University, said the Premier, "It is quite untrue, and I am sorry to say, bears every appearance of an intention to create prejudice against the Government on this subject. It is not true, that Sir James Whitney has notified the governors that he desires the withdrawal of the Government-appointed members."

"Whether, as stated, members of the board are surprised at the action of the Premier, I do not know, but I do know that the action attributed to me by the paragraph in question was not taken."

Made a Suggestion. "The provision in the statute passed a couple of years ago," proceeded the Premier, "giving the Government the nomination of a certain number of trustees for the Western University, was passed more or less hurriedly, and some time ago I suggested to the chancellor of that institution that the act be changed, doing away with Government representation on the board of trustees. The reasons for this suggestion are so obvious that they require no explanation."

The present provincial representatives on the board are His Honor Mr. Justice R. M. Meredith, and Messrs. John H. Chapman, C. R. Somerville, and John O. Drouge, all of London.

Put It Over Premier. In slang parlance, Sir James Whitney thinks that the governors of the university "put one over" on him, when he was not looking when the bill granting a charter to the Western University was granted. Now he is trying to "get out from under."

MAKE AN APPEAL TO COMMISSION

Lord's Day Alliance May Ask to Have Traction Company's Charter Interpreted.

STUDENTS AT THE PORT

It Is Possible That Sunday Afternoon Meetings Will Be Organized For the Benefit of the People.

The announcement made by the management of the London and Lake Erie Transportation Company, that Sunday cars would be operated to Port Stanley on Sunday next, came as a great surprise to the Lord's Day Alliance. They had not anticipated any such move at this time and were quite unprepared for it. A meeting will be held within the next week, when the situation will be thoroughly canvassed.

No hostile demonstrations have been organized, nor is it expected that there will be any. From what can be learned, the regular schedule will be carried out without any interference whatever.

Will Appeal to Commission.

According to some of the members, the Dominion railway commission will be asked to interpret the charter given to the London and Lake Erie Company.

This is the only procedure likely to be taken, and it may be some time before that is arranged for.

"We have had no meeting," said Rev. J. G. Stuart, president of the Lord's Day Alliance, of this city. "The move was quite unexpected, as we did not anticipate the company's wish to operate cars, or attempt to do so, until such a time as the boat from Cleveland was in operation. That will be some time yet, and consequently we were surprised at the announcement made yesterday."

Mr. Stuart's Opinion. "I cannot speak for the Alliance, as we have had no meeting, as I said before. My own opinion is that the date of operation, schedule, etc., are matters for the Dominion railway commission to settle and adjust. As a matter of fact, the company's wish to operate cars, or attempt to do so, until such a time as the boat from Cleveland was in operation. That will be some time yet, and consequently we were surprised at the announcement made yesterday."

MANY MEN ENTOMBED IN AN ALABAMA MINE

Between 35 and 40 Lives in Peril—Rescuers Cannot Reach Them.

Birmingham, Ala., April 21. The Mulga mine was still closed up today for fear of fire. Between 35 and 40 men, all except one, are entombed. It is believed that all or most of them are dead. The cages in the shaft of the mine were so badly sprung by the force of the explosion that they are useless, and all other means adopted by rescue parties in an effort to reach the entombed men have proved futile.

Following the explosion flames shot up the shaft of the mine for a distance of about 400 feet, and the ground is covered with charred timbers blown up from the bottom of a 350-foot shaft by the explosion.

Every window in the village was broken. After the explosion timbers were placed over the mouth of the shaft to prevent a draft, as it was feared the interior of the mine might catch fire.

SHORE VS. SHORE ACTION OVER FARM

Plaintiff Claims $2,000 From the Defendant.

A case which will come up at the next sitting of the high court is that of Shore vs. Shore. The writ has just been issued by Mr. Justice Meredith.

The plaintiff, John Dixon Shore, of Westminster Township, is suing the defendant, Susan Shore, also of Westminster, for $2,000. Mr. Shore had farm rented from the plaintiff, for ten years, together with certain cattle, implements and other farm articles. By the terms of the lease, the land was to be returned in good condition.

The plaintiff alleges that the farm is now worth $2,000 less as a result of the defendant's occupancy of it.

ROBT. E. LLOYD DEAD WELL-KNOWN HOTELMAN

Passed Away at His Home on Waterloo Street This Morning.

Robert E. Lloyd, formerly one of London's best-known hotelmen, died this morning at his home, 100 Waterloo street, after an illness extending over many weeks. Mr. Lloyd for many years kept the Albion Hotel on Dundas street, and before that the old Revere House on Richmond street. He was 67 years old, and was born in Port Stanley. For many years he lived in St. Thomas, and then went to Winnipeg. About 20 years ago he came back to London, and went into the hotel business. He retired eight years ago. The funeral arrangements have not been completed.

Mr. Lloyd has one brother, George, living at Atlanta, Georgia, and one son, who resides near St. Thomas. The funeral will be held on Saturday afternoon to Mount Pleasant Cemetery, and the services will be conducted by Rev. H. A. Graham, of the Wellington Street Methodist Church.

Death of Thos. W. Harris. Thomas Whitridge Harris died last night at the home of his daughter, Mrs. John Gilson, of 15, con. 5, of London Township. Mr. Harris was in his 86th year. He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. John Gilson, of London Township, and Mrs. Essery, of this city. The funeral will be held Friday afternoon.

ONE POLE IS IN THE HOSPITAL MATE IS CHARGED WITH ASSAULT

A Fight on William Street South May Have Serious Results—Crown-Attorney McKillop Refused to Accept Bail for the Prisoner—Alleged Facts of the Case.

Charles Wildchuck, a Pole, residing at 97 William street, was placed under arrest last night on a charge of assaulting Joseph Wulcher, another Pole, on Monday last.

Wulcher is in Victoria Hospital in a very weak and painful condition. It is alleged that Wildchuck struck him across the abdomen with a heavy club, inflicting internal injuries which have caused repeated hemorrhages.

Wulcher is very weak from loss of blood, and just how his injury may terminate it is impossible to say.

Mr. W. G. R. Bartram, who represented Wulcher, asked for bail for his client, but Crown Attorney McKillop refused, stating that the case was far too serious a nature. It was adjourned for a week.

The information was laid by Mrs. Mary Wulcher, wife of the injured man, and she stated to The Advertiser today that for more than a year her husband and Wildchuck have been bad friends and quarrelled repeatedly. She alleges that on Monday the

JAMES PARKER, CHELSEA GREEN, FATALLY CRUSHED IN ELEVATOR

Victim of Accident Was Employed in the Enamelling Department of McClary's Uptown Works—Death Is Expected at Any Time—Head Was Terribly Squeezed.

James Parker, of Chelsea Green, 71 years old, and employed as an elevator man in the enamelling department at McClary's uptown works, was caught between the elevator and the shaft in some way as yet unexplained this morning about 11 o'clock, and sustained such severe injuries to the head that his death is expected at any moment.

The accident happened on the third floor, and there were no eye-witnesses. One of the employees heard a noise near the shaft, and discovered that Mr. Parker's head was wedged in between the side of the shaft and the elevator.

A Terrible Accident. He was standing up and the elevator had to be raised before he could be liberated.

It was found that his skull had been terribly fractured, and he was carried in an unconscious condition to the foreman's office, where a special nurse was at once summoned, and his head temporarily. He was then hurried to Victoria Hospital in the city ambulance, and at once taken to the operating room, where Dr. D. H. Hogg found that the skull had been fractured most severely. It is stated that Mr. Parker will not live through the afternoon.

RUBBER GOODS ARE DUE TO GO UP! 10 TO 20 PER CENT OF A BOOST

American Company Has Given the Word and the Rise Will Take Place—Ald. Ashplant Says No Relief Until Next Year at the Earliest.

Rubber goods are due for an increase in price. A dispatch from New York gives the announcement of the United States Rubber Company, to the effect that the price of manufactured rubber articles, including shoes, boots and surgical accessories, will advance approximately 10 per cent because of the increased price of the raw material.

Speaking to The Advertiser this afternoon, Ald. H. Ashplant, chairman of No. 3 committee, and an extensive dealer in rubber goods, said: "I am not at all surprised. The demand for rubber goods of every description has been simply enormous, and the price on the market has been too great for the slender supply of raw material."

Great Demand for Rubber. Mr. Ashplant announced the scarcity of rubber and consequent high price to the great demand for rubber in the manufacture of automobile tires, and the competition among the manufacturers.

He predicted a continued high price for rubber goods this year and next.

ROLLEY FATALITIES IN PHILADELPHIA

Thirty-One Since Trouble Began—The Strikers All Ordered To Go To Work.

Philadelphia, Pa., April 21.—All the striking street car men have been ordered by their leaders to report to work today. The union leaders say they have satisfactorily been assured that the Rapid Transit Company will give fair treatment to all men.

The 31st death caused by the trolley cars, since the strike came last night in the killing of a child in the southern section of the city.

TWO MEN KILLED BY FALLING LUMBER

Toronto, April 21.—Albert Montgomery died at the General Hospital this morning as the result of the injuries he received last night while moving lumber in the yards of the Rosedale Lumber Company, Limited, in the Don Valley. Montgomery makes the second death as the result of this accident. Alexander Smith, having been buried under the falling lumber and instantly killed, Montgomery sustained a broken leg, a head injury and sundry bruises. He was married but leaves no children.

TWO MEN KILLED BY GYPSY TRAGEDY IN QUEBEC VILLAGE

Harry Howes and Willie Da'e, of Shawville, Shot to Death by Man Whom They Had Been Teasing With a Number of Companions.

[G. N. W. Despatch.] Ottawa, April 21.—The village of Shawville, in Pontiac County, was intensely excited last night, when a shooting affray took place, resulting in the death of two young men, Harry Howes and Willie Da'e, the two men being shot dead by Mike Murphy. It seems seven or eight young men were teasing Murphy and his wife, without any malicious intent, but the couple were annoyed, and Murphy chased them with a shotgun, a few hundred yards, and fired four shots in all, the last shot killing the two young men. The others ran into an old building, followed by Murphy, intending to shoot as well, when one of the young men seized the gun. Murphy and his wife have been arrested and locked up. The couple, who are gypsies, have been camping on disputed territory for three years, and have been a nuisance to the public during that time. The united efforts of Shawville and Charnenden have been futile to drive them away.

PRODGER UP; AGAIN REMANDED CROWN WILL BE READY MONDAY

Prisoner Looks Well and Took a Keen Interest in the Disposal of Other Cases in the Police Court—Was Apparently Glad of Any Sort of Change.

John Prodger, who is being held on a charge of shooting Miss Elizabeth Frank at her home on Wellington road recently, appeared before Magistrate Love this morning.

Crown Attorney McKillop stated that he would be ready to proceed with the preliminary examination on Monday morning next.

Prodger was represented by Mr. P. H. Bartlett.

The prisoner looks well, but not so much so as he did at first. He appears to be quite cheerful, and took a lively

CITY LEAGUE MAY BREAK UP

Option Secured by Mr. Buzzell for Detroit Game, Still Objected To.

League Members Say the Rent Is Exorbitant—It Is Not Likely Detroit Will Play Here This Year.

Mr. W. J. Reid, owner of Tecumseh Park, today sent his contract form to the City League, and as the proviso regarding Mr. F. C. Buzzell's option on the grounds for the Detroit game remains unchanged, the league threatens to go out of existence until other quarters can be secured.

The park is offered to the league at $500 for the season, but it is understood that Mr. Buzzell's pays $125 or $150 for the option on the Detroit game privileges.

The City League contends that the rental at that rate is around $700, and they claim that it is exorbitant.

May Withdraw. "Unless Mr. Buzzell's option is cancelled I will withdraw my team from the league," said Dr. A. J. Wyckoff, the manager of the Ramblers, one of the strongest teams in the league. "I have turned Mr. Reid's contract over to the president, but no action will be taken for a few days."

It is said that the City League is willing to give the grounds free for the Detroit game, and turn over all the receipts other than the legitimate expenses to charity, so it appears that the sticking point is the money guaranteed Mr. Reid by Mr. Buzzell, who has already offered to give all profits to the Consumption Sanatorium, as yet no cause for undue trouble, as a letter received by Dr. Wyckoff from President Frank Navin, of the Detroit team, states that as the list of postponed games is being rapidly lengthened on account of bad weather, the open date intended for the game here may be required to play off one of the overdue matches. If such is the case Detroit will not appear in London this year.

MADE FACES AT RECTOR

Charge of Disturbing Church Service Made Against Member.

Toronto, April 21.—Nearly the entire congregation of St. George's Anglican Church, Islington, were assembled in the old court house this morning when the hearing of a charge of disturbing the church services, brought against one of their number, Mr. Albert B. Cooper, by the church warden, was begun before Mr. John Ramsden, J. P. Mr. Cooper has been previously involved in litigation, and police court proceedings with the rector, Rev. T. G. McGonigle, and almost the entire congregation have been subpoenaed on one side or the other.

The accusations made against Mr. Cooper are that he on various occasions has upset the decorum of the services by making grimaces and facial contortions at the rector, and considerable hilarity was occasioned in the court by the effort of the various witnesses to give demonstrations of the kinds of faces Mr. Cooper is alleged to have made.

LOST A FOOT. Toronto, April 21.—William Woods, aged 20 years, a Grand Trunk brakeman, of 115 Broadview avenue, fell from a moving freight car in the Don yards this morning, his left foot being run over and so seriously crushed that it had to be amputated.

CARPENTER—JEFFRIES

Marriage of a Popular Couple in West London.

A quiet wedding was celebrated at the residence of Mr. Thomas Jeffries, 94 Albion street, when his daughter, Miss Annie, was united in marriage to Mr. Scott Carpenter, teller of the Michigan Savings Bank, Detroit. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Gibson Inkster in the presence of the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. The young couple left last night for a trip west, and on their return will reside in Detroit.

P. M. WILL NOT RUN SUNDAY CARS

That Is, Not Until the Letter Now Before the L. and P. S. R. Board Is Disposed Of.

ROW OVER THE PARK BOARD SEEMS IMPOSED

Lease Will Be Interpreted by the City Solicitor—An Interesting Fight Is Looked For Shortly.

The Pere Marquette will not operate Sunday cars to Port Stanley until the London and Port Stanley Railway board disposes of their request for that privilege.

At the present time Mr. T. G. Meredith, city solicitor, is unravelling the legal end of the question, and until he has discovered what the lease means there is nothing to do.

According to the statement of one of the officials of the company, it is not likely that the company will operate cars against the wishes of the board.

About the Lease. However, much depends upon the interpretation of the clause to the effect that the company must wait until we have a certain schedule to the lakeside, "Sunday, excepted."

A large number of lawyers, whose opinions have been asked on this clause, declare that it is very evident that there is nothing in the lease to prevent the company operating cars on Sunday. The railway is operated under a Dominion charter of equal powers, as that of the London and Lake Erie Transportation Company, and it is claimed that they have the same right to operate cars.

Mayor Beattie is awaiting the opinion of the solicitor before calling the meeting or making any announcement.

While it seems quite probable that the company has the same right to operate cars as the London and Lake Erie, we must wait until we have the opinion of Mr. Meredith, said his worship. "It may be possible that the company can go ahead and run cars without asking our permission. However, Mr. Meredith will have his opinion ready in a day or two, and then we will know."

Ald. Ashplant and several members of the board are not in favor of giving their consent to Sunday cars, and it is quite probable that if it is up to the board alone, the company will not operate cars to the port.

In any event, the P. M. will not run any cars on Sunday next.

THE COMMONS PASSES THE NAVAL BILL

Goes to the Senate After Straight Party Division With Government Majority of Forty-One.

Ottawa, April 20.—By a vote of 111 to 70 on a straight party division the House of Commons today passed the final seal of endorsement on the naval bill, and the Government's policy of creating a Canadian navy under Canadian control in time of peace and at the disposal of the King in time of war, by the consent of the King's advisers in Canada and the Canadian Parliament, according to regular constitutional procedure. The bill now goes to the Senate for its final stage through Parliament. Comparatively little debate on the measure is expected in the Upper House.

STRATFORD'S PLANS FOR NEW STATION
Council and Board of Trade Unite To Submit Proposition.

[Special To The Advertiser.]
Stratford, April 20.—At a joint conference of the members of the council, and of the board of trade, a sub-committee, consisting of Mayor Dingman, Ald. Corrie and Carter, President J. J. Mason, of the board of trade, Messrs. J. R. MacDonald and George McLagan, was appointed to draft out a proposition to be submitted to the G. T. R. relative to the new station. Although the proposition was not admitted to the meeting for discussion at Stratford, it is understood that it is being prepared. It is also understood that there is decided opposition against the closing of Downie street, a tentative agreement in regard to which it is claimed, was never reached by the Legislature.
A large colic dog, belonging to Mr. Arthur Lee, Mowat street, went mad yesterday afternoon. Early in the morning, when Mr. Lee was removing the dog from the street, the dog showed some signs of rabies and made a rapid exit from the house, Mr. Lee being unable to stop it. It passed over to Stratford street, where, in the afternoon, it ran under a dwelling owned by Mr. John Lagimodier. The dog was kept a prisoner under the dwelling until the arrival of Constable O'Donald, when it was destroyed.
A meeting of the board of trade will be held in the city hall on Friday evening to discuss the new park scheme.
The temporary roof erected over the belfry to prevent further loss to machinery has been completed, and the large looms which contain amounts of wool are now being run off.

MOUNT BRYDGES.
Mount Brydges, April 20.—The annual business meeting of the Methodist Sunday school, held in the school room on Tuesday night, the 17th inst. All reports were satisfactory, and the following officers were elected for 1910: George Lucas, president; Mr. G. H. Thomas, re-elected; assistant, Mr. Levi Lipsitt; secretary, Mrs. A. Lipsitt; re-elected; assistant, Mrs. Gertrude Longfield; treasurer, Miss C. Small; re-elected; librarians, Masters F. Badger and M. Lipsitt; pianist, Miss A. Gilliam.
The last quarterly meeting of the conference year will be held in the Methodist Church on Sunday morning. Master Clarence Wilson, who was so badly injured, is improving.

TOO ILL TO WORK
IN DEEPEST DESPAIR — ALL RUN DOWN — HEALTH WAS RESTORED BY FERROZINE.

When you are sick and undecided as to the best remedy to use, there is nothing so convincing as the personal experience of someone who has suffered like yourself.
From St. Francis, Maine, comes the following statement from Mrs. Ovidia Daigle: "I want to write you a few lines in order to tell you how much better my health is since taking Ferrozine."
"For two years I was weak. 'Couldn't do any housework. 'Was tired, worn out, depressed. 'Thought I wouldn't recover. 'Since taking Ferrozine I have grown strong enough to attend myself to the family washing. I have several children and a husband, and am doing all the housework myself. I still use Ferrozine and seem to gain better health all the time."

NIAGARA POWER DELAY BOTHERS ST. MARYS
Bylaw Guaranteeing Bonds of Cement Company To Be Resubmitted to Voters.

[Special To The Advertiser.]
St. Marys, April 20.—A special meeting of the town council was held Wednesday evening to consider the matter of resubmitting the guaranteeing of the $40,000 bonds to the cement company, which was carried last year by a large majority. Mr. L. Harston, solicitor for the company, in addressing the council, said that owing to the delay in securing Niagara power, the proposed company was placed in a very serious position of not knowing whether they would have the promised Niagara power or have to charter the plans of the machinery to suit steam power, which made the bylaw voted on last year of practically no use to them. Although the council has the power to extend the time of the operations of the bylaw, the company did not wish them to assume that responsibility, which would give room for cavilling by opponents of the bylaw; but they ask the council to resubmit it to the people and have their approval by another vote. Some changes, he said, are to be made in the new bylaw, such as to extend the time of payment to ten years, instead of five, and while no provision was made in the old bylaw, the company would have a sinking fund by installments laid past after the third year of passing the bylaw. The capital in the new company will not be less than $250,000.
Dr. Thomas J. Hall, of Toronto, one of the large stockholders of the proposed cement company, said one of the principal delays to the starting of the company last year was the uncertainty then of Niagara power for their plant, which was promised for the 1st of March, then the 1st of May, and is now probably the 1st of June. It is a serious matter to go on with the plant under the old bylaw. Then, if the lines are finished for the Niagara power, they would be able to start the company by the Government for three or four months, which would be a most serious matter financially for the company, as probably $350,000 would be invested, and the interest on such a large amount through delay of power would be a heavy loss. The parties forming the company are asking for a new charter and the Government while the new bylaw extends the time to September, 1911, to have the plant running. They expect, he said, to be running in the spring of 1911, and be prepared to accept contracts for delivery of cement.
On motion of Councillors Meighen and Graham it was voted that the bylaw No. 185, to guarantee the bonds of St. Marys, to guarantee the bonds of an incorporated company to be formed by G. Lynd, of Owen Sound, and Dr. J. C. Lynd, of Toronto, to the extent of $40,000, for the purpose of erecting a factory building, plant and machinery in the town of St. Marys, to carry on the business of manufacturing Portland cement, be resubmitted to the ratepayers.
The bylaw was read three times and passed. The voting will take place on May 29.

AYLMER.

Aylmer, April 21.—Mrs. (Dr.) Kingston entertained on Tuesday evening in honor of her daughter, Mrs. (Dr.) Ashbaugh, of Windsor.
Mrs. Stroud, of Detroit (nee Clark), is spending a few days the guest of Miss Nellie Farthing.
Mrs. Mark L. Turner entertained a number of her friends Tuesday evening.
One of the most exciting runaways seen here in some time occurred Tuesday afternoon about 4 o'clock just as the children came out of school and the town was full of people. A team of handsome bay horses owned by Daniel Teeple started at the home of Mr. H. F. Woody, south of Aylmer, and came dashing into town on a terrific gallop. The horses ran down the sidewalk into front of Love's shoe store, where one of the horses fell, and the team was captured. The horses were not injured in the least, and little damage was done to the wagon to which they were hitched, but from which they broke loose shortly after starting.

STRATHROY.
[Special To The Advertiser.]
Strathroy, April 21.—Prof. H. L. Hutt, of the O. A. C., Guelph, visited Strathroy on Tuesday on invitation of the Strathroy Agricultural Society for the purpose of advising in regard to rearrangements of the buildings and laying out of the grounds. It is proposed to remove all the buildings from the centre of the town and place them on new ground purchased by the society. The grounds will be nicely levelled and seeded down, and better arrangements made for the exhibition of horses and live stock before the grandstand. At the request of the Horticultural Society, Prof. Hutt stayed over and gave an address in the evening at the town hall on "Means To Be Adopted in Beautifying the Town." The lecture was well illustrated with a large number of beautiful limelight views, showing how improvements have been made throughout the province. The hall was well filled; Mayor Pope occupied the chair, and all enjoyed the lecture very much.

THREE FISHERMEN LOST.
Charlottetown, P. E. I., April 20.—Three fishermen—Peter Strachan, 21, Edward H. Holland, 18, and Lazarus Campbell, 30, of Priest Pond, on the north side of the island, left yesterday in a gasoline dory to tend their nets, and it is feared they have been lost.
The wind blew strong from shore and it is thought the dory could not live in it. It is reported one man was seen working on the shore, about a mile out. A boat went out in search of them, but returned and reported failure. The Government steamer Brant left today to search. There were no provisions or water in the dory.

There are in the Province of Prince Edward Island, 34,127 horses, 52,182 milch cows, 61,116 other horned cattle, and 110,936 sheep. During the year about 90,000 sheep skins were exported, chiefly to Ontario, Quebec and the United States.

Had Heart Trouble.
Nerves Were All Unstrung.

Wherever there is any weakness of the heart or nerves, flagging energy or physical breakdown, the use of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills will soon produce a healthy, strong system.
Mrs. M. McGann, Debec Junction, N. B., writes: "I wish to tell you what Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills have done for me. Three years ago I was so run down I could not do my own work. I went to a doctor and he told me I had heart trouble and that my nerves were all unstrung. I took his medicine, as he ordered me to do, but it did me no good. I then started to take Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and had only taken one box before I started to feel better, so I continued their use until I had taken several boxes, and I am now strong and well, and able to do my own work. When I commenced taking your pills I weighed 125 pounds, and now weigh 185 and have given birth to a lovely young daughter, which was a happy thing in the family. When I commenced taking Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, I could not go upstairs without resting before I got to the top. I can now go up without any trouble."
Price, 50 cents per box or 3 for $1.25, all dealers or mail direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

DR. McCULLOUGH WAS NAMED AS SPECIALIST
Will Be in Charge of Tuberculosis Patients at Victoria Hospital.

At the meeting of the hospital trust held yesterday afternoon Dr. E. A. McCullough, physician at the sanatorium, was named tuberculosis specialist at Victoria Hospital. He will be in charge of the patients in the tuberculosis ward there, and will also be in charge of the outside patients. The position is without remuneration.
Superintendent Heard's report for the month of March showed that during the month 194 patients had been admitted, 64 males, 103 females and 27 children. During the same period there had been 226 discharged, 75 males, 96 females and 55 children. There were 16 births, 12 deaths and 66 operations. There were 183 patients taking treatment on March 31. The receipts during the month were $2,489.40.
Hon. Adam and Mrs. Beck donated six chairs for the tuberculosis ward of the sanatorium, and the gift was suitably acknowledged.

MR. W. T. EDGE WAS INJURED BY A FALL
Met With an Accident While Making a Call at the Deaneys, South London.

Mr. W. T. Edge, of 385 Queen's avenue, met with a painful accident Tuesday night, while he was making a call at the deanery of St. James' Episcopal Church, South London. Mr. Edge walked through a doorway leading to a stair, thinking that the door was a room door. He fell heavily down the stairs, and sustained a cut on his head which required nine stitches. He was attended by Dr. Evans Davis. It is thought that Mr. Edge will be around again all right in a couple of days.

FOOD FOR A YEAR
Meat 300 lbs.
Milk 100 lbs.
Eggs 27 doz.
Vegetables 500 lbs.

This represents a fair ration for a man for a year.
But some people eat and eat and grow thinner. This means a defective digestion and unsuitable food. A large size bottle of Scott's Emulsion equals in nourishing properties ten pounds of meat. Your Physician can tell you how it does it.

HARRY CHAPMAN
HOME FROM WEST
Former Typo Is Now Ranching, and Is Doing Well.
Mr. Harry Chapman, formerly an advertiser printer, and later connected with the postoffice department, and who is now engaged in ranching in the Canadian west, is in this city on a business trip. He is sending a carload of horses to his ranch. Mr. Chapman is doing well in the land of wheat, and speaks enthusiastically of the prospect this year. The first move he made was to pay a visit to an old comrade, Mr. Archie Pinell, of Dorinda street, who served with Mr. Chapman in the South African war. Mr. Pinell has been bedridden with paralysis for about seven years, but he still has many friends who never fail to visit him and cheer him up. Mr. Chapman has 1,600 acres of land.

TOLL OF RAILROADS.
Washington, D. C., April 20.—A large increase in the number of casualties on American railways is shown by the report for the quarter ended Dec. 31, 1909, as compared with the corresponding quarter of 1908. A bulletin issued today by the interstate commerce commission shows an increase in the number of persons killed of 301, and in the number injured of 5,646. The total persons killed was 1,999, and the total number injured 22,491. Of these but 26 were killed on

AERIAL MANOEUVRES.
Berlin, April 21.—The first imperial review of airships belonging to the army will take place today. The Emperor ordered the three aerial cruisers which recently engaged in manoeuvres at Cologne, to proceed in squadron formation to Hamburg, where his majesty will hold a review.
The airships are Zeppelin II, Parseval II, and Gross I, constructed on different systems. They will leave Cologne before daybreak. A large detachment of the balloon battalion has been ordered to that place to assist in the landing.

ENTER THE CANADIAN NAVY.

The naval bill has been passed without amendment, and the Dominion makes a substantial beginning as a naval power. This new national and imperial development will be watched with patriotic interest by all who are Canadians before they are partisans.

There was a prospect that this undertaking, which opens an epoch in the history of the country and of the Empire, would be launched with the blessing of both the great political parties in this country, and be made the occasion of a hands-all-round demonstration. For once the leaders seemed to be thoroughly in accord upon a momentous question of public policy. It was peculiarly desirable that it should be lifted above party strife. There came the sudden surrender of Mr. Borden and Mr. Foster to the wild men of Winnipeg. A football has been made of this great issue, and it has been rolled in the mire of party politics on the lowest level. The national spirit of the country, however, has been confronted by these tactics, and it is strongly behind the policy and the project which have just been sealed with the approval of the Canadian House of Commons. The navy will be built, and those who scoff today may live to feel a thrill of Canadian pride in a Canadian achievement.

ONTARIO AND HER PINE.

It is time that some of the timber lands of this Province, which have been under lease for many years, and have been lumbered over repeatedly, began to revert to the crown for reforestation or settlement purposes. For this reason, the Government's decision to increase the ground rental from $2 to $5 per acre is a step in the right direction. There is a great quantity of pine timber still standing after 26 years' cutting. Some lumbermen will relinquish these lands rather than pay the increased rental, and those who continue to hold them will be obliged to share with the public the unearned increment of value. The increased tax is aimed chiefly at those who bought licenses before a time limit for the removal of the timber was attached. Since 1900 a time limit averaging ten years has been a condition of every sale.

WASTE POTATOES.

Potatoes are selling at 8 cents per bushel. They are worth so much more than 8 cents, and more than 48 cents in food and fuel value, that only wasteful methods permit this commodity to decline in demand to so ridiculously low a point. Almost a gallon of alcohol for fuel and motor purposes can be made from a bushel of potatoes and at 8 cents a bushel a man with a still could turn a surplus potato crop into a fortune. We have learned how to waste lavishly in this country, but how to economize.

FAITH AND SICKNESS.

If people believe they are seriously ill, and prepare to die, they probably will die. Faith is a terrible power. Like lightning, it is a good servant, but a bad master.

DIRTY BILLS.

If there is any doubt, let him take out of his pocket the roll of bills he has there and examine it. In the roll he will find the name of the Dominion of Canada reeking in filth. Let him put one of these pieces of dirty paper in his nose, and note the violence that is done to his olfactory nerves.

SPEED NOT NECESSARY.

"Did I understand you to say that your daughter had already secured a position as a stenographer?" "It is so glad to hear it. How sorry I was when they told me your husband's insurance was not large enough to enable you to live in the style to which you had been accustomed, and that it would be necessary for Gertrude to go to work. But I thought shorthand was something which was hard to learn. She's now being studying it for a few weeks, hasn't she?" "Yes, but we feel sure that she'll be able to get along all right. You see, the man she works for stutters."

HIS LUCK.

"The cars were so crowded that I didn't care to try to hang on, so I made up my mind to walk. But I hadn't gone three blocks when an empty car came along."
 "So you rode, after all, I take it?"
 "Oh, no. The empty car was going the wrong way."

CANADA'S GREATEST INDUSTRY.

No one can read the recent speech of Hon. Mr. Fisher on the work of the department of agriculture without being impressed with the progress and development of the agricultural industry. The area of land under cultivation has increased from 17,000,000 acres in 1896-97, when he assumed office, to over 20,000,000 last year. Canada's exports of purely agricultural products increased from $14,683,361 in 1896 to $17,997,207 in 1909, or over 400 per cent; of animals and their products, from $26,507,641 to $51,349,616. The total exports of agricultural products and live stock and its products were $125,346,555 last year, against $50,531,092 in 1896, an increase of about 150 per cent. When the increase in home consumption results from the growth of population of over a million and a half, amounting to at least $75,000,000 annually, is taken into consideration, it will readily be seen why our exports of dairy and meat products do not show an even larger increase.

One great factor in this progress has been the up-to-date, aggressive policy of the present head of the department. One of his great achievements has been the development of the experimental farm system. The live stock, health of animals, seeds, dairy and other branches have been established through his initiative.

HAS NO POWER.

We are not disposed to credit the report that Sir James Whitney intends to withdraw the Ontario Government's representation on the board of governors of the Western University, though he wishes to do so.

The act of 1908 provides for the appointment of four of the governors by the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council, to hold office for four years. These appointments were made by virtue of this act, which does not authorize the withdrawal of these representatives by the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council, or by anyone else. The act is the law until repealed or altered by the Legislature, and Sir James is bound by it. The Premier has an autocratic temper, and has done some autocratic things, but he will surely draw the line at trying to override an act of the Legislature.

THE REPUBLICAN "REGULARS" ARE IN A REGULAR PACE.

Taff's troubles continue to thicken. He has been indicted by Hearst.

It is to be hoped the gloomy reports of Mark Twain's condition are like the rumor of his death, which he pronounced a gross exaggeration.

Nobody now asserts that Sir Wilfrid Laurier is not "master of the administration." And nobody asserts that Mr. Borden is master of the Opposition.

Firmness is a good quality in a party leader, but Sir James Whitney ought to be reminded that there are several degrees of it between a jellyfish and a mule.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier will tour the west this summer for the first time since 1896. He will find a different west, and will be justified in claiming some credit for the difference.

More power to Secretary Knox's elbow in his universal peace designs. The United States has a rare opportunity to assume the leadership of the nations in such a path. It is not entangled in European diplomacy.

Mr. Borden says the Government's naval policy will weaken the imperial tie. Mr. Monk says it is an insidious form of Imperial aggrandizement, and encroaches on Canadian autonomy. Our local contemporary says the Opposition is united on the question.

TAX RATES.

A comparison of tax rates in the various provinces is of little value unless the advantages enjoyed under each rate are considered. In all comparisons, in fact, conditions should be taken into account in order that a common basis may be reached on which matters may be considered on equal terms.

WASTE POTATOES.

COMIC OPERA POLITICS.

(Ottawa Free Press.)
 The internal troubles of the Conservative party in the House of Commons continue to develop along comic opera lines. The party held a caucus this week, and at its close handed out to the press an official report of the feast. Everything was lovely, we are told, and the stories of reorganization were characterized as untrue. Now comes along the Kingston Standard with the following:
 "It must be confessed that it is no encouraging to have the Conservative caucus give out, as it did yesterday, that the newspaper stories of a proposed reorganization are not true. That is not the best way to face the situation. More than that, it is not the truth. It is a lie. If he argues that the old order of things is to continue for some time longer then we very much fear it likewise argues that Conservative success will be the longer delayed. There is only one way to reform a party, and that is to reform it."
 Inasmuch as the editor of the Standard was in Ottawa last week in close conference with the members of the Conservative party, one would naturally suppose that he knows what he is talking about.

SWEEP FROM THE CONNING TOWER

Submarine's Young Commander

Lost in the Darkness of Night.

London, April 19.—While submarine C37 was battling against tempestuous seas off the Lizard early on Saturday morning, Lieut. Alfred B. Prowse, her young commanding officer, was washed out of the conning tower and drowned, without an attempt at rescue being possible.

The C37 and C33 are two of our latest submarines, exceled only by vessels of the experimental D class, and were being conveyed from Barrow-in-Furness, where they were built, to Portsmouth, their first station, escorted by the gunboat Sharpshooter.

The vessels made a very fair passage down the Irish Sea and St. George's Channel, but when they turned the Lizard and started to go up the English Channel they met the full force of a blindingly cold northeasterly gale. It was decided to keep going, but it was very uncomfortable, and quantities of water continually reached the interiors of the little craft through the conning towers.

The vessels were steaming on the surface, and their patrol was being given them about ten knots speed. Sleep was impossible in such a gale, though the vessels behaved well and kept steady.

Lieut. Prowse remained in the conning-tower for hours together, and it is believed the loss of his life was largely due to physical weakness caused by long hours of duty during a trying period, with only short snatches of sleep in the daytime.

At 2 a.m. on Saturday, with a strong gale still blowing and high seas running, he was in the conning-tower with two bluejackets, one of whom was at the wheel. Suddenly a huge sea swept over the glistering side of the vessel, encountering no resistance until it reached the steering platform upon which the three men stood.

The man was torn clean away, and Lieut. Prowse, who was badly situated, lost his hold and went overboard like a flash. The other men hung on to the wheel and stanchions, and saved themselves.

Clad as he was in oilskins, and wearing heavy boots, and weary with his long vigil, Lieut. Prowse's doom was sealed from the time he lost his hold. He no doubt sank like a stone.

Clad as he was to C37 and to the attendant gunboat that there was a man overboard, and for half an hour the spot was carefully searched, the Sharpshooter using her searchlights; but nothing was seen of the lieutenant. Portsmouth was reached at half-past one in the afternoon, the Commander-in-chief being at once informed of the sad affair.

The steering platform of submarines of the C class is only 4 or 5 feet above the water line, and in a high sea existence there is always precarious. In rough weather those on the platform are constantly drenched.

ROOSEVELT IN PARIS TREATED LIKE KING

Ex-President Received by Cordon of Troops and Multitude of Citizens.

Paris, April 21.—Theodore Roosevelt, ex-president of the United States, entered Paris at 7:20 this morning, and was received with all the honors of a royal sovereign travelling incognito. A cordon of troops surrounded the railway station and held back the multitude, which, in spite of the early hour, had congregated.

The representatives of the Government and the municipality extended a formal welcome to their guest, after which Mr. Roosevelt and his son entered an automobile and were driven to the United States ambassador's residence, where Mrs. Roosevelt and Miss Ethel were awaiting.

This afternoon the official part of Mr. Roosevelt's programme, with calls upon President Fallieres and Foreign Minister Pichon, who immediately afterwards paid return visits to the American embassy, was carried out. Mr. Roosevelt has issued a statement relative to a Rome dispatch last week, telling him saying that upon his return to America he would do his utmost to drive from Rome "the Methodists who disgrace any religion."

Mr. Roosevelt says this alleged statement was an absolute misquoting. He says he never publicly nor privately said anything remotely resembling what this dispatch said.

THE SCOTIA STEEL BILL

It Seems To Be Getting Along Despite Its Extraordinary Character.

Halifax, N. S., April 20.—The Nova Scotia Steel and Coal Company bill, which proposes to make New Glasgow the head office of the company and which gives the directors without a meeting of the shareholders powers to issue new stock, bringing the capital up to ten millions, passed its second reading in the House of Assembly this afternoon. The bill as introduced in the Legislative Council provided, in addition, that at least eight of the directors must reside in Nova Scotia, but that body eliminated this clause. The measure has been before the committee on private and local bills for a week. They reported it this afternoon with amendments, and an amendment that any decision of the directors to issue new stock must be approved by the governor in council before it becomes operative. A number of hours were spent this afternoon discussing the bill, most of the speeches being in opposition to it. R. M. MacGregor and Dr. Reid were the only speakers in favor. The three months' bill was moved, but on a vote this was lost by 16 to 15. The bill will now be sent to a second time and ordered to be sent to committee of the whole house. It will come up for a third reading tomorrow afternoon.

BUILDING 539 FEET HIGH

Plans for the Bankers' Trust Company's 30-Story Building.
 New York, April 21.—Trowbridge & Livingston, as architects for the Bankers' Trust Company, filed plans yesterday for the big thirty-nine story building to be erected for the company on the lot at the northwest corner of Wall and Nassau streets. It is to be an edifice of curious appearance, with granite facades, offset with Ionic columns at the lower stories, and rising to a full height of 539 feet above the curb line.

It will front 34.14 feet on Wall street and 36.11 feet on Nassau street, and the roof will be crowned with a great pyramidal tower 94 feet high, with a decorated apex, the peculiarity of this tower being that it will be entirely without windows, the ventilation being supplied by a vent shaft extending from the cellar to the top of the tower. The tower will be used for tank storage.

The building will be served by fifteen elevators, five of which will be express elevators, five of which will be freight elevators, and five of which will be service elevators. The express elevators will run to the thirtieth floor, and three private cars will also be operated, one to the third floor and two to the second floor. The deposit vaults will be in the basement.

The first to the third floors are to be the home of the Bankers' Trust, and the Manhattan Trust will also have offices. The entrance on Wall street, next to which will be the general entrances to the upper offices.

FRESNO'S CLAIM IS REFUSED.

Cincinnati, April 20.—The claim made by the Fresno Club of the California State League, that Player Jos. Bills should come under the head of a contract jumper, or ineligible player, was refused today by the National baseball commission. Evidence from the case showed that Bills had acted with the permission of the secretary of the National Association, and the National commission referred the claim of the Fresno club for $77 against Bills to the National Association.

LINER'S GREAT CARGO TO FEED THE FISHES

Automobiles, Pianos, Sewing Machines, Clocks, Food and Cigarettes.

Hugh Town, St. Marys, Scilly Islands, April 21.—The inhabitants of the rocky Scilly Islands were famous wreckers of primitive times, but they will never remember this as the greatest day in their history. The Atlantic transport liner Minnehaha, which ran ashore early Monday morning, disgorged part of her 17,000 tons of valuable cargo, casting it upon the waters all day long to be gathered up by those who cared to take the trouble.

Farming and fishing were abandoned; school even was dismissed, and most of the population of the nearby islands, men, women and children, devoted themselves to obtaining treasures from the waves.

The salvagers decided to try to rescue the Minnehaha in the same way they did the White Star steamship Suevic, which went ashore near the Lizard in March, 1907, by cutting her in half.

Every effort to lighten the ship is now imperative. Today the waves were too high for the tugs to go alongside. Consequently goods were thrown overboard from the forward bulk as fast as the stevedores and a large crew could raise them to the deck.

Huge cases containing automobiles and piano players, sewing machines and clocks, followed one another over the side into the ocean. Many bales of cigarettes covered the face of the water and tons of cheap American novels drifted to the nearby shore of Bryher, where they were piled like seaweed.

Tidings of this jettisoning of wealth spread early and a fleet of fishing craft, luggers and rowboats scurried to the scene. As fast as the cargo struck the water the enterprising boatmen pulled up the smaller cases and took the larger ones in tow.

The Minnehaha lies pointing southwest, parallel with Long Rock. Several tugs are standing by.

Boatloads of Food.
 Many boatloads of provisions were taken ashore at other points by the islanders. The people of Bryher Island fished out boxes of food, tea and tobacco and enough paper-covered novels to keep the islands in reading matter for a century.

Two hundred and twenty-four cattle swam ashore, while ten were drowned. Seamen here think it will be impossible to save the Minnehaha.

A LIFE'S DEVOTION

BY FRANK H. SHAW.

Author of "A Daughter of the Storm," "First at the Pole," etc. (Copyright in U. S. America. All Rights Reserved.)

And so life seemed all too short for its load of happiness and sweet content. The child had come, the mother was well; God was in his heaven—there was nothing more.

And for a long month Scroggs tasted the keenest joy that can come to a man. There were times when he halted suddenly in the midst of his ecstasy, brought up by a sudden premonition, as if afraid lest his life should suddenly show him some hidden danger. It seemed to him as if human nature could not stand such a wealth of delicious satisfaction, as if the jealous gods, afraid lest he should consider himself too good to be true, were preparing for him some awful shock to tell him, in unmistakable terms, of her mortality. But as often as the shadow came he thrust it away, to allow the golden sunshine of well-being to bathe him all about.

If there was one greater joy than another in these days, it was to see Marion with the child. They had already agreed to call him Mervyn, after his grandfather, and Marion insisted that his father's cognomen should accompany him down the long slope of the future; despite Scroggs' outcry against the use of his apostrophic name, she persisted, and had her own way.

There couldn't be two Ebenezers, she said fondly; she would not have enough to hold them. But I like to think that this man—our man-child, dear—will grow up something like his father. I could wish no better fate for him than that.

So long as he grows on anything like his mother, I shall be contented, said Scroggs soberly. "The little, beggar knows," said Marion, "and winked at me then." She caught the note up to her breast, smothering him with kisses.

Then she grew pensive, her eyes dimmed, as if with tears. "I wish my father could have seen him, dear," she said softly. But that phase passed at its birth. The intangible fears that had shadowed her in the months before the child came had vanished as strong wings, vanished, never to return, she said. She sometimes laughed at her imaginings, and said that God had filled her with fear so that the realization of her hopes should be all the keener.

Full spring came, and Scroggs carried his family away in search of full health. To tell of those halcyon days of happiness would fill a large book, but already the shadows were closing in about them surely—shadows that were to settle down on their lives so utterly that when they looked back on these days as from an illimitable distance they asked of themselves how the sun could have shined such vagaries of wonderful content and hungry disillusion. But that time was not yet come; neither felt the cold edge of the shadow, each grasped at the fruit that was offered and thanked God brokenly that its taste was so sweet.

CHAPTER XXIII.

Poisoned Words.

"Be hanged if I know what to make of it," said General Devereux forcefully.

BRONCHITIS

COLDS, COUGHS, CATARRH AND THROAT TROUBLE.

Every sufferer from colds, colds, bronchitis, and all throat and chest ailments needs a soothing, healing medicine, which goes direct to the breathing organs in the chest and lungs, attacks the trouble at its source, disperses the germs of disease, and cures the ailment thoroughly. And this medicine is "Catarrhazone."

The germ-killing balsamic vapor mixes with the breath, descends through the throat, down the bronchial tubes, and finally reaches the deepest air cells in the lungs. All parts are soothed with rich, pure medicinal essences, whereas if a liquid or tablet remedy were used, the affected parts could not be reached, and harm would result through benumbing the stomach with drugs.

"CATARRHAZONE"

A BREATH-ABLE "DIRECT" MEDICINE.

No medicine brings such prompt relief, exerts such an invigorating influence, or so thoroughly and speedily cures throat troubles as "Catarrhazone." Doctors, hospitals, sanatoriums—all say that for those who suffer from changeable weather, for those who are predisposed to colds, lung trouble, deafness, or bronchitis, no treatment is so indispensable as "Catarrhazone."

For certain cure, for relief in an hour, use Catarrhazone, the only direct, breathable medicine. Two months' treatment, guaranteed; price, $1; smaller size, 50 cents; at all druggists, or the Catarrhazone Company, Kingston, Ont.

benevolence cannot always be repaid. And so a canker is bred up in many a human heart simply because that heart labors under a sense of favors conferred.

"They tell me he's a coming man in the house," said Fortescue, afraid perhaps that the general would read his thoughts in his face. "The man seems to have all the luck. When you come to think of it—well, it is strange. He's a nobody, and I don't think he's used his money to get a pull."

"He's booked for the next cabinet, be sure of that," said Devereux, pulling at his moustache. "Wouldn't he be surprised to see him prime minister before many years are over. Marion's helped him, you know. She's given him the fillip he needed; brushed him socially. And then, this child—it seems to have spurred him on still more. 'Spose it's the thought of leaving an heir to inherit the estates—and whatever title he might snaffle." And the general sighed a little, for he had no heir to carry on the Devereux fortunes. His thoughts turned to a lonely grave on an African hillside; no cross surmounted it, for in its depths friends and foes lay alike in a sleep of peace.

WOULD MAKE BARGAIN TO "KNOCK" CANADA

Winnipegger Said to Have Made Offer to Several U. S. Railways.

Winnipeg, April 20.—A Winnipeg newspaperman has made an offer to certain United States railway companies to supply them with a news service derogatory to Canada. These facts have been reported to Mr. J. B. Walker, commissioner of immigration, and he is preparing to enter the first message of his kind sent out. He has been instructed from Ottawa to push the prosecution to the limit, and the full power of the Dominion government is behind him.

In speaking of the matter, Mr. Walker stated that this man, who is employed on one of the city papers, has sent a letter to the presidents of St. Paul and Chicago, whose traffic may be interfered with by the exports of United States farmers to Canada. These are the lines which serve the south, central and southwestern states. One of these letters has been forwarded to Mr. Walker by the president of a railway who was too big a man to have anything to do with such schemes.

The proposition that a telegraphic news service should be sent to the companies, and that they should distribute the items to the various newspapers in the towns along their lines, was not to be on a basis of a certain sum per line, but on a basis of agricultural and climatic difficulties which new arrivals meet with in Western Canada, the idea being to dissuade farmers from leaving their native states.

AUTHOR MARK TWAIN IS SLOWLY SINKING

Reading, Conn., April 20.—The condition of Samuel L. Clemens (Mark Twain), who has been suffering from pneumonia, whose home is here, is reported practically unchanged today from that of last night, when he was said to be resting quietly, but to have grown weaker. A physician and nurses are in constant attendance.

Dr. Robert L. Halsey, of New York, who has remained at the bedside of the author since his return from Bermuda last Thursday evening, said: "Mr. Clemens has a restful night, but his condition is unaltered."

SUFFERS TO SAVE BROTHER'S NAME

Port Arthur Man for Years Sacrificed Himself.

Port Arthur, Ont., April 20.—A case that occupied the attention of the assize court practically all yesterday was that of a man who had sacrificed himself for his brother's name. The man, who is now in the hospital, had been suffering from pneumonia for several years, and his condition was reported as unchanged today. The man, who is now in the hospital, had been suffering from pneumonia for several years, and his condition was reported as unchanged today.

THE TONGS ON TRIAL

Inside History of the Murder Plot at San Francisco.

[By Associated Press.] San Francisco, April 20.—An inside story of a Chinese Tong's murderous deliberations, the first of the kind in the history of highlander trials in this country, has been revealed in court here. Yee Yin Jung, testifying as a witness for the prosecution in the trial of Jew Boek How, charged with the murder of Yee Foon Wo, described two meetings of the On Yick Tong, which he said the defendant and others were provided with automatic guns, and instructed to shoot Yee Foon Wo in a vital spot, in the head or the heart. "Be careful, the dogs are well fed," Tong Kung Choo was told to have told the hatchet men as Gee Hong On handed them the weapons. That figure of speech is idiomatic Chinese for indicating that a gun is loaded. Within an hour of the final instructions had been given the hatchet men at the second meeting, the Chinaman was shot dead. The testimony of Yee Yin Jung, directly involved in connection with the murder, and the Yee family over the abduction by the latter of Bo Sue, a slave girl.

MARKED FEATURES OF WEATHER IN MARCH

Mean Temperature Was Higher Than in Any March Since 1878.

The Government Meteorological Office at Toronto reports that the mean temperature of March was above the average over all parts of the Dominion from which reports have been received, and in the western provinces and Northwestern Ontario to an extent greater than in any March since 1878, in which year the Winnipeg records show the winter and spring to have been extremely mild. In Ontario, east of Lake Huron, the mean temperature at most points than in any month for which records exist excepting in 1905, when the temperature was slightly higher. Eastward of Ontario a positive departure from average of 8 degrees at Montreal diminished to 4 degrees in Western Canada, and about 2 degrees in Cape Breton. In the Rocky and Selkirk Mountains, also in the interior plateaus, the excess above average was also most exceptional. Previous records of high temperatures in March seem to have been broken very generally in the western provinces and Ontario. At Toronto the reading 75 degrees on the 25th was the highest March temperature since the establishment of the observatory in 1840. At Dawson (Yukon), the temperature ranged from 41 degrees above zero, to 44 degrees below. Elsewhere in Canada the highest temperature was 78 at Grimsby, and the lowest 20 below at White River.

Precipitation. The total precipitation recorded in Canada during March was very generally much less than the average, the only districts which recorded an amount in excess of the average were Western Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba and the Rainy River district of Ontario. The deficiency was very marked in Ontario and Saskatchewan. At the close of the month the ground was bare, and snow except in Quebec and Northern New Brunswick, where there was a depth of from 2 to 20 inches.

General Notes. British Columbia—Under an abnormal month but springlike conditions are somewhat later than usual. The temperature was generally in excess of the average, and the precipitation below.

Western Provinces.—An unusually warm month with mean temperatures much in excess of the average and many localities of over 70 degrees in the middle of the month. In the north temperature was the highest ever recorded there.

Ontario. In the western provinces, the weather of March in Ontario was decidedly warmer than in any other month, and by the end of the month was of a summerlike character, with temperatures of over 70 degrees in many localities. At the close of the month the temperature was the highest ever recorded there.

Port Arthur.—No snow or ice. Snow in barrie and country. Bay free from ice.

Barrie.—Last remains of winter snow gone by the 31st. No sleighing after the 18th. Ice left lay on 31st; crows on 4th; snow sparrows on 21st; robins on 21st; blackbirds on 21st; very smoky weather 20th and 30th.

Clinton.—Fall wheat and clover wintered well. Crows out on 10th; robins, greybirds, meadow larks, bluebirds, etc., on 10th, 11th and 12th. Thunderstorm on the 20th; seedling begun on 29th.

Port Burwell.—Very fine month. The pines commenced work last week in month.

Georgetown.—Ice off ponds, and the snow mostly gone by the middle of the month. On the 4th bluebirds arrived; 11th robins; 17th blackbirds; 18th song sparrows and meadow larks; 28th phoebe. Frogs piping on 29th; high-crocker on 30th. Vesper sparrows and bluebirds on 30th. All vegetation unusually forward; wheat in good condition; farmers plowing.

CRIMEAN VETERAN DEAD. Montreal, April 20.—Martin Regan, one of the dwindling survivors of the Crimean war, died in this city yesterday. Regan enlisted in the First Rifle Brigade, otherwise known as the sharpshooters. His regiment was nearly always on skirmish duty during the war and he received several wounds. Regan came to Canada after the close of the war and worked at his trade of tailoring in the city. He was born in Ireland in 1827.

CUT WATER RATES. Windsor, April 20.—In view of the fact that the receipts of the water commission last year were fifteen thousand dollars in excess of requirements, the commission will at once reduce the rates. The new rates will be fifteen per cent, besides taking steps to make further saving to the city by preventing waste. The old water rate was granted according to assessment, the minimum rate being four dollars a year.

HER BOTTOM DAMAGED. Detroit, April 20.—Examination of the bottom of the steamer Wisconsin in the Detroit dry dock shows that the vessel, while lying on Outer Duck Island, Lake Huron, received bottom damage extending all the way from the bow to the stern, and that nearly all the bottom plates must be taken off. Half of these must be replaced with new plates. Many frames also are broken or damaged, and the boat is humped in the middle. Repairs will cost $75,000 or more, one of the most expensive repair bills on record.

COAL-STEEL MERGER. Joint Board Submits an Offer for Amalgamation to Shareholders. Montreal, April 21.—At a meeting of the joint boards of directors of the Dominion Coal and Dominion Steel Companies yesterday a proposal was submitted for the union of the interests of the holders of the common stock of both companies by the exchange of shares for shares in the Dominion Steel and Coal Corporation, Limited.

The proposal made is that one share in the new corporation and $4 cash shall be given for each share in the coal or steel companies, the cash coming in quarterly installments of $1 each, the first installment being payable July 1, 1910.

The holders of large blocks of shares of the common stock in both companies have asked the respective boards to submit this proposition to the shareholders.

Great Novelist's Gratitude

HIS BONNY CHILD STRICKEN WITH ECZEMA.

MARVELLOUS DELIVERANCE BY ZAM-BUK.

The beautiful 3-year-old son of Mr. Campbell Rae-Brown, author of the famous "Kissing-Cup's Race" and "The Great Newmarket Mystery," has been cured in a fortnight by Zam-Buk, of a most distressing attack of eczema.

Little Stuart Campbell Rae-Brown, because of his clear skin and regular features, is constantly being sought after by painters and photographers, the thing of the past, but for Zam-Buk's timely healing of the terrible sores on his face.

"I cannot express to you," writes Campbell Rae-Brown from his country home at Eden Villa, Dumoon, "the gratitude felt by my wife and myself for the astounding way in which your Zam-Buk cured our only child's face of his terrible affliction."

"There was scarcely a pin's point of his face left untouched by the disfiguring eczema. Perfectly sound and well in other respects, imagine our feelings when, after trying many so-called cures in vain, we began to think our boy might be permanently disfigured."

"No sooner had we applied your great remedy than, hour by hour, and day by day, the unsightly blotches began to disappear, to fade, and in a few days better expression—graciously away, leaving behind not the very slightest trace of the affliction! The skin on his face again assumed its own delicate texture and natural bloom, and when the glad day came when the cure had been wholly effected, we could scarcely believe our eyes. Our boy, whose beautiful face had been lost to us, had been restored—a miracle had been wrought by Zam-Buk."

Surely no higher testimony could be required to prove Zam-Buk's unique power over skin diseases than this spontaneous and unsolicited letter from such a popular author.

Eczema, disfiguring sores, rashes and skin injuries, are daily perils, and Mr. Rae-Brown's practical advice to all parents is to get Zam-Buk into the home, and so have it always handy.

Zam-Buk is also a sure cure for all sorts of eruptions, poisoned sores, bad legs, varicose veins, chilblains, cold sores, piles, rheumatism and all skin diseases. Also heals cuts, burns, bruises, etc., and, used as an embrocation, relieves rheumatism, sciatica, etc. All druggists and stores sell at 50c box or post free from Zam-Buk Company, Toronto, for price.

WARNING

Since its introduction into Canada the sales of Parisian Sage have been phenomenal. This success has led to many imitations similar in name. Look out for them; they are not the genuine. See that the girl with the Auburn hair is on every package. You can always get the genuine at W. T. Strong's.

Parisian Sage is the quickest acting and most efficient hair tonic in the world.

It is made in conformity to Dr. Sangrebon's (of Paris), proven theory that dandruff, falling hair, baldness, and scalp, rich and can be cured by Parisian Sage. Kills these dandruff germs and removes all trace of dandruff in two weeks, or money back; it stops falling hair and itching scalp and prevents baldness.

And remember that baldness is caused by dandruff germs, those little hard-working, persistent devils that day and night do nothing but dig into the roots of the hair and destroy its vitality.

Parisian Sage is a daintily perfumed hair dressing, not sticky or greasy, and any woman who desires luxuriant and bewitching hair can get it in two weeks by using it. 50 cents a large bottle.

OBSCENE BOOKS CONFISCATED. Quebec, April 20.—The case of Guay, the bookseller, arrested some time ago on the charge of selling obscene books, was disposed of in the court of sessions yesterday, when Guay appeared before the court and pleaded guilty, sentence being suspended on condition he sold no more such literature.

The books seized at the time of his arrest were confiscated.

COURT AT HAGUE
TO WIPE OUT ALL WAR

United States Secretary of State
Hopeful of Securing Co-Operation of All Powers.

Washington, D. C., April 20. — Ultimate peace between the nations of the world is practicable, in the opinion of the United States Secretary of State. He believes the establishment of a court of arbitration, to which the nations of the world may appeal for settlement of their controversies, will bring about this effect.

His plan for the establishment of an international court of arbitration, which was outlined in an identical note last fall to various nations, is said to be meeting with general favor, and Knox believes that such a court be constituted at The Hague in the future.

The secretary today said that the success of a permanent tribunal of international justice would make a real difference in the world. He said that it would not have to be created anew for each case as it comes, but that the expenses of the court would be borne by the nations. He said heretofore, by the parties in controversy, and that the judgments of a court would bind all parties interested in the particular controversy.

The court would be composed of representatives of various nations of the world, and it is expected that the common law developed by judicial decision. The secretary also said that while the court would be a permanent one, it would be subject to any power that might wish to submit a controversy, thus making it the fullest sense international.

TWO CHILDREN
KILLED BY PILLS

Montreal, April 20.—Two young children, Edouard and Caillou, died today after eating sugar-coated pills instead of candy, as was supposed. The candy had been hidden from the children by their mother, who thought they were candy, but which really were pills. The children's death were witnessed by mother, grandmother, and grandfather.

DIED TO LYNCH
THE CONDUCTOR

Blissman Whom Foreign Laborers Blamed Had Narrow Escape.
Quebec, April 20.—The details of the La Tuque accident that were telegraphed yesterday have been confirmed by another message received here today. The dead number ten, and the two victims whose bodies had been recovered yesterday are still under the debris.

The accident is attributed to the fact that the engine and the first car of the ballasting train crossed the bridge without mishap, and it is said that if the train had been going at a slower speed the accident would have been averted.

The conductor in charge of the train was very near being lynched by the mob of laborers, who held him responsible for the accident and would have killed him had not the engineer and firemen on the locomotive come to the rescue. The conductor, an Englishman, whose name has not been known, was badly wounded, and his legs being frightfully lacerated.

Geo. Francois, a brakeman, miraculously escaped death. He lay pinned beneath a pile of cars, and saw the cars topple over him. By bending backward as far as his position would allow, Francois escaped the horrible death that befell his fellows.

FATAL STREET FIGHT

Prince Rupert, April 20.—C. Heaton, better known as "The Colorado Kid," is fatally injured today by Detective McKenzie in a street fight, during which many bullets were exchanged. McKenzie was formerly a newspaper reporter in Cincinnati.

Modern research has, according to a medical report, proved that crows are disseminators of disease instead of scavengers, and they are now kept to be protected in the towns of Utah, Canada.

Many mothers instead of destroying the children's stomachs with cake and candy give the youngsters handfuls of Grape-Nuts when they are begging for something in the way of sweets. The result is soon shown in greatly increased vigor, strength and mental activity. There's a Reason.

BEAVER LODGE BALL
PROVED BIG SUCCESS

City Hall Was the Scene of a Brilliant Social Event Last Night.

The city hall was the scene of one of the most enjoyable events of the year last night. It was the annual dance of Beaver Lodge, No. 177, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers.

The hall was most artistically decorated for the occasion with bunting, while a life-size model of an engine adorned the east wall of the room. Last night's was the seventeenth annual ball and banquet of the firemen and engineers, and the attendance was large. The banquet was served in the Masonic Temple. Music was provided during the evening by the Tony Vita Orchestra.

Added importance was given to the event by the presence of a number of important G. T. R. officials, including Superintendent Bowker, London; R. Patterson, master mechanic, Stratford; J. Markey, master mechanic, Toronto; G. Black, road foreman, Stratford; R. Fish, travelling foreman of engines, London.

Others from out of the city were: H. Patton, Stratford; G. Hawthorne and Mrs. Hawthorne, Windsor; Miss Stafford, Tilsonburg; A. Number were also present from St. Thomas and other places.

The management committee was composed of the following: W. McGinnis (chairman), J. Cox, J. McAuley, H. Ellis, P. Hunter, G. Evans, R. Heard, D. McAuley, P. Lasenby, E. Rheinhardt, W. Begg, W. Nelson, T. Moore, G. Bennett and G. Jacklin. Mr. Sam Taylor was master of ceremonies.

At a large attended meeting of golf enthusiasts held Tuesday evening the London Golf Club was reorganized for the year with a membership of twenty-five, Mr. C. R. Somerville being elected president.

The club's links are at Wolsely Barracks, and a fine season's sport is looked for.

The officers are: Honorary president, Col. Hodgins, D. O. C. president, C. R. Somerville; vice-president, C. B. Edwards; secretary, J. K. H. Pope; treasurer, A. J. Hill; and executive, T. A. Riddle, W. H. Youngs, J. Stevenson and F. E. Lawson.

NO REASON TO BECOME EXCITED

Chairman Gammage Speaks of Plans of New School.

The board of education do not take kindly to the suggestion that the architect will refuse to issue debentures for the Colborne street school. Nutter does not make the plans. Some of the aldermen were in favor of this drastic move, but a conference will be held, when the whole question will be taken up in earnest.

"We have decided upon no plans," said Mr. W. W. Gammage, chairman of the board of education. "Some city architects asked for the privilege of submitting a plan to us, and as they are citizens we could not refuse. We did not make any promise to accept them, nor are we in any way bound to do so."

In the present time the school is preparing plans also, and will certainly be given the preference under ordinary circumstances. There was no reason whatever for becoming excited about the matter. We have done nothing yet."

TEACHERS' GUILD
SELECT OFFICERS

Addressed by Principal Radcliffe on "Personality of the Teacher."

Many teachers accepted the invitation of the Woman Teachers' Guild to be present at their meeting Monday afternoon, when Mr. S. J. Radcliffe, principal of the Normal School, read a very interesting paper on the "Personality of the Teacher."

"PROVIDENCE, INCORPORATED"

Appropriate Nickname Bestowed Upon the C. P. R.—A New Chapter in Immigration.

[World's Work for April.] "Providence, Incorporated," is the new nickname of Canada's great railroad. A Danish immigrant agent of the road invented the phrase and it ought to stick. The occasion was the inauguration of a new method of bringing farmers into the Northwest, and the method itself is so radical that it deserves some free advertising.

The road owns much land. It needs many thousands of farmers. It wants the best men. It is not satisfied with the man who lands at Ellis Island with $23 in his pocket. It goes after the very best class of farmers in Denmark, Sweden, Norway, and the mid-continental areas. Its agents, who swarm everywhere, found much trouble in persuading satisfied and prosperous farmers on well-tilled farms to leave those farms and take to the back plains, with the hardships of the pioneer's life before them. That problem was put before the Canadian Pacific officials. They set to work to solve it.

So, today, pioneering is going out of fashion. Instead of selling raw land to raw settlers, the railroad itself has gone into the pioneering business. It sells the land, builds the house and the barn, breaks the fields, plants the first crop, puts all the necessary tools under cover on the farm, and hands over the farm ready-made. The new settler comes from a finished farm to a finished farm.

Two years ago this was an experiment; now it is a policy. As a result, the cream of the industrial farmers of Central Europe and of our own Middle West is drifting into Canada by trainloads.

Again, which our own Government went slowly at the task of reclaiming arid lands in the West, this railroad went into the irrigation business itself. It could not afford to wait for Government methods or for the wasteful selections of private capital. Five years ago the financial papers announced that the railroad was going to reclaim some millions of acres of land in the Bow River country, Alberta. Now a million acres are watered, sold to farmers—settled. The railroad's ditch-diggers are moving on to the second million.

No ordinary farmer is wanted on these new acres. The railroad's agents are instructed to call for and demand the best irrigation farmers on earth to till these fields. A scientific farming expert is travelling through selected areas of Europe, lecturing on irrigation farming in Alberta. His lectures draw the very best of the farming experts of the old hard-working nations—and the promises that he makes are backed by a guaranty that has failed, the word of a railroad that does not lie.

In the face of such efforts, directed by the wisest brains in the pioneering business, free from every sort of Government trammel, liberal beyond the experience of the past, is it any wonder that more than 80,000 of the best farmers in the United States last year went into the Bow River country, Alberta? The settlers on the new farms that are sold ready-made need nearly $2,000 each to start with—and the figure is high to be sure of getting the best men.

What machinery have the railroads of this country to compare with methods like these? When the Grand Pacific opens up, it will undoubtedly follow the same methods. It takes no prophet to see, in the regions settled under these principles, the nucleus of the most efficient agricultural nation in the history of the world.

POSTMASTER BARRED
OBSCENE LITERATURE

French Works Sent Back, Not Being Transmissible Through Mails.

Ottawa, April 20.—Rev. Dr. Neil, Westminster Presbyterian Church, Toronto; Rev. Dr. Burns, Berkeley Street Methodist Church, Toronto, and Rev. Lawrence Skye, St. Ann's Anglican Church, Toronto, representing the Protestant churches of Toronto, interviewed Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Hon. A. B. Aylesworth, minister of justice, today.

They protested against the speech delivered a few days ago in the House by Mr. Aylesworth, in which he gave his reasons for recommending to the Governor-General that Messrs. Skell and King should be pardoned after they had served two months of a year's sentence, imposed by Judge Winchester for circulating obscene literature.

"The Minister of Justice practically endorsed these books by stating that they were classical works and could be found in all the great libraries of the world," said Rev. Dr. Neil.

"The sale of such literature will corrupt the morals of the country. We are not seeking an interview on political grounds, and have no connection with protests made on the floor of the House."

This forenoon Mr. Boyce reopened the matter by asking if any books addressed to Messrs. King and Skell or to the Toronto Antiquarian Book Company, had been detained by the post-office department on the ground of being obscene. He also inquired who were the senders, the names of the books, and what action had been taken by the department.

SHE IS ALL BUT QUEEN

In all affairs of weight, whether of war, politics or business, beautiful women have always exerted a mighty influence. This subtle power of the world to feminine loveliness is seldom admitted by the sterner sex, but it is there just the same, and no one realizes it better than man, mere man. He is a daily worshipper at the shrine of Venus, and a passively willing prisoner to her charms. Paying regular and magnificent tribute has become a habit with him.

NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE
MAKES BEAUTIFUL HAIR

To be considered beautiful it is not essential that a woman have a pretty face. Let her possess a wealth of natural fluffy hair, and no one will ever dispute her right to being called handsome. Good hair softens the lines of the face, and gives it an attractiveness which cannot be denied. As a savior of woman's beauty Newbro's Herpicide stands alone, as it makes snappy, glossy hair possible for all.

Dull, brittle, lack-lustre hair is mute evidence of the workings of the dandruff germ. Herpicide is the one remedy which may be depended upon to kill the germ that causes dandruff, and to prevent the hair from falling out. Don't let anyone sell you something "just as good." You want Herpicide, the Original Remedy.

Kills the Dandruff Germ Stops Falling Hair

The immediate effect of a regular use of this remarkable hair remedy is to cleanse the scalp, allay the itching, and induce a condition of health in the follicles, not already atrophied, so that the hair may resume growth.

Wonderful and satisfying indeed are the results which follow regular applications of Newbro's Herpicide. ONE DOLLAR BOTTLES SOLD AND GUARANTEED BY ALL DRUGGISTS.

FATAL BATTLE AT M'KEES ROCKS
Three Men Dying as Result of Clash Between Strikers and Police.

Pittsburg, Pa., April 20.—In a bloody battle this evening between strikers and the town constables at McKees Rocks at least seven persons were injured, three of whom will likely die. The dying are Constable James M. Daniels, who was shot through the abdomen and chest; Joe Birner, a Hungarian striker, shot several times by making the liver and kidneys active. These three are at the Ohio Valley Hospital, the last named two being under arrest.

The battle occurred just at dusk in the now notorious "Bloody Angle." There had been a mass meeting held by Industrial Workers of the World, on a nearby Indian mound, and about 250 of the striking workmen on their way back stopped at Bloody Angle to talk matters over. One leader was haranguing his fellow workmen in an unknown tongue, and they were getting wildly excited when Chief of Police Edwin Silvers, of Sloote Township, with Constable James M. Daniels came up to the crowd and ordered it to disperse. A fight followed with the above results.

Late this evening 15 armed men were placed in charge of the Ohio Valley Hospital, where the two wounded strikers are, it being feared that their friends might attempt a rescue of them, and at the same time might wreak their vengeance on Daniels, whom many of the strikers hate most bitterly.

TO WED AGAIN

New York, April 20.—Society heard with interest the report today from London that Mrs. James Henry Smith, widow of "Silent Jim," is soon to wed Barlow W. Van Voorhis. According to a cablegram the marriage has been arranged, and it is the intention of the couple to keep it a secret until after the ceremony.

Mrs. Smith was a Miss Armstrong, daughter of Gen. John A. Armstrong, of Baltimore. Mrs. Anthony J. Drew-

FATAL BATTLE AT M'KEES ROCKS
Three Men Dying as Result of Clash Between Strikers and Police.

Pittsburg, Pa., April 20.—In a bloody battle this evening between strikers and the town constables at McKees Rocks at least seven persons were injured, three of whom will likely die. The dying are Constable James M. Daniels, who was shot through the abdomen and chest; Joe Birner, a Hungarian striker, shot several times by making the liver and kidneys active. These three are at the Ohio Valley Hospital, the last named two being under arrest.

The battle occurred just at dusk in the now notorious "Bloody Angle." There had been a mass meeting held by Industrial Workers of the World, on a nearby Indian mound, and about 250 of the striking workmen on their way back stopped at Bloody Angle to talk matters over. One leader was haranguing his fellow workmen in an unknown tongue, and they were getting wildly excited when Chief of Police Edwin Silvers, of Sloote Township, with Constable James M. Daniels came up to the crowd and ordered it to disperse. A fight followed with the above results.

Score.

St. Louis, April 20.—With three St. Louis men on bases, only one out, in the eighth inning today, umpire O'Day stopped the game according to agreement to permit the teams to make trains. Beaumont's home run in the third, scoring Evers, gave Chicago the game, 5 to 4. Preister was taken out in the eighth, with the bases full, and overall forced two runs by walking two men. O'Day then called the game, the score reverting to the eighth inning.

And Boycott Declared Appears to Have Little Effect—Park is a Grand
One.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Cleveland, O., April 20.—With the weather man promising clear, fair weather for tomorrow, the Cleveland Baseball Club Company is prepared to become host to a crowd of close to 30,000 at the opening of the regular season today. The Cleveland Baseball Club Company is prepared to become host to a crowd of close to 30,000 at the opening of the regular season today. The Cleveland Baseball Club Company is prepared to become host to a crowd of close to 30,000 at the opening of the regular season today.

More than 3,000 reserved seats had been sold, which, with the complimentary tickets issued, will fill the regular season, which includes the regular reserved seats and the grandstand seats.

That Boycott.
Despite a boycott proclaimed against the club by a labor organization, a number of factories have decided to close for the afternoon. The companies, the employees will attend in a body. The companies, in several instances, purchased outright grand blocks of seats for their men.

New Plant is Fine.
The new Cleveland plant is built on the old site, to which some land has been added, and has a set of stands that will accommodate 30,000. The Philadelphia and Pittsburgh parks have been looked over, and all of their good features grabbed and their bad features pushed aside. It ought to be a model, and it undoubtedly is a field well worth viewing.

There will be an elaborate set of ceremonies, according to Cleveland traditions. They have been waiting over there for a chance to cut loose, and this gives the opportunity.

Pirates to Float World's Flag.
After the regular season closed last fall it will be recalled by those who follow baseball closely, the Detroit and Pittsburgh clubs met in a series of games here and in the Smoky City. They played a series of trophy games that is offered for post-season contests, and the Pirates won. A flag that has no great intrinsic value, but whose possession seems to be a matter of some interest, goes with this series. Pittsburgh has it, and will float it to the breeze today.

SHY AS TO WEIGHT
Jeffries Locks Himself In When He Steps on the Scale.

New York, April 20.—Fistic followers in the east are much puzzled today over the weight of Jim Jeffries, and no other topic of the Jeffries-Johnson mill is coming in for so much discussion. Berger is quoted in the west as saying that the big fellow will weigh not less than 225 pounds when he enters the ring.

The belief is fairly general here that Jeffries weighs close to 250 pounds. As his most successful contests were fought at about 220 pounds, it will not be very hard for Jeffries to train down 25 pounds.

As shy as a girl about stepping on the scales in the presence of visitors, and western stories say that he locks himself in a room when he weighs himself.

JEFF WANTS ACTION
WHEN WORK STARTS

Claims Bob Armstrong Doesn't
Stand Up and Give Him Fight.

REAL WORK WILL BEGIN

When Corbett and Other Trainers Arrive—Boilermaker After Hard Mills.

Jeffries' Training Camp, Bowdoinham, April 20.—Jeffries' love for the open air was demonstrated again this morning, when he forsook his indoor ring and went into the handball court to box three rounds with Bob Armstrong.

A Lively Bout.
This morning's bout was not a very lively one, however. Few hard blows were struck on either side, and the two men clinched and pulled each other around the court a great part of the time. Jeff said he did not let himself out because he was a little stiff.

Wants Longer Fight.
"I would rather fight fifteen rounds than box two," said Jeff, and his action in the ring indicates the truthfulness of his expression. At the same time, he calls attention to a shortage in camp of men who can stand up to Jeff and take a lot of punishment without flinching. Armstrong so far has shown no willingness to do this. When Jim Corbett arrives his usefulness will consist in teaching the big fellow head work, how to use his arms and legs and body cleverly. Jeff is eager to get into some sort of condition he may be able to stand up before Jeff and give him the fast, smashing sort of a fight he craves.

Rap at Camp.
Billy Papke did not go out on the road with Jeff today, as he planned, but he said he could not wait until Monday to train, and will get down to work tomorrow morning. His brother and manager, Ed Papke, arrived today and urged him to begin training at once.

But Dan McEwen's Wiggler Will Be a Big Obstacle—Trainer Snow
at Detroit.

The Detroit Free Press, speaking of the Blue Ribbon meet, says: "Trainers are getting anxious to start in at the big track, but Secretary Moore has advised them not to be in a hurry, owing to the certainty of April rains."

The track is in excellent condition, but still covered with straw and refuse which was used to protect it and enrich the soil in the winter. This will not be taken off until about May 1. Meanwhile it is all right for jockeys and others who are to be sent to him. He will occupy one of the big barns built two years ago and half of an adjoining barn.

Mr. Snow has horses for many classes and his presence is a great help to any meeting. It is expected that he will make a number of starts at the Blue Ribbon meeting and come back in the fall for the fair.

One of the horses that Mr. Snow will bring with him is the pacing mare Darkey Hal, that raced in 1907, last year, and was the medium of one of the greatest victories of the year when she beat George Gano at Columbus. In other years John Swarts, owner of the mare, has not turned her over to Mr. Snow until almost time to score for the year but this year she has been at the covered track for a couple of weeks.

Darkey Hal is to be trained for the free-for-all pacing events, down the line, and this means a battle royal for the Canadian championship.

Many think she can land it, but the obstacle in the way is the grey horse, The Bel, that Dan McEwen will start in the same event. McEwen also will train at the fair grounds, and will see that The Bel is ready when the day comes. The Canadians are divided in their opinion, and when the pair of hobbler meet there will be some action.

In the same free-for-all class will be found George Gano, Allison Wilson, Ross K. and a few others who can scout around the oval, as the event has a fine look at a distance.

NO VAUDEVILLE.
SAYS T. LYNCH
National League President Does Not Approve of Kling's Latest Stunt.

New York, April 20.—President Lynch of the National League, fearing that Johnny Kling, the recalcitrant catcher of the Chicago club, intended to raise the $700 fine imposed upon him by the national commission for refusing to act in vaudeville, announced tonight that he had sent the following telegram to Chairman Herrmann of the national commission, at Cincinnati:

"I suggest that you take steps to stop Kling appearing in vaudeville. He cannot make a burlesque of the national game. Insist on his reporting to his club at once or the commission will take further action in his case." If Kling defies the commission, President Lynch will ask to have the case reopened.

Stopped, and Asks High Court of Baseball To Take Matter Up.

Columbus, O., April 20.—Columbus has taken the matter of the action of the Chicago club here on Sunday, April 19, before the National Commission for ruling. Payment on the check for the Chicago share of the receipts has been stopped by Columbus in an effort to do something toward righting the injustice done by Manager Chance to the Columbus baseball public. Tinker, Chance and Hoffman used an exhibition umpire roughly, chance then took all the receipts out of the game save one.

Whether such action shall be tolerated is the contention of the Columbus club. Copies of the complaint have been sent to the different members of the commission. President Schoenborn and Secretary Quinn are true sportsmen, but everyone who saw that game must agree that they have a real grievance worth a ruling from the commission.

WESTON MAKES SHORT
STOP AT ROCHESTER

Escorted by Autoists and Mounted Police Through Flower City.

Rochester, April 20.—Edward Payson Weston, the veteran pedestrian, crossed the city line at 12 o'clock today, and, escorted by members of the Rochester Automobile Club and mounted policemen, made a triumphal march through the city to the Y. M. C. A. building, where he delivered a lecture. Later Weston was taken to the Hotel Seneca for luncheon. Weston changed his plans after lunch, and at 2 o'clock started for Albany, 25 miles distant.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

HAY PLENTIFUL ON LONDON MARKET

Twenty Loads Were Offered for Sale and Sold Rapidly at $11 to $12 a Ton.

STRAW FAIRLY CHEAP

Butter Continues Scarce—Plenty of Eggs, But There Is No Drop in Price.

The market was busy this morning for a variety of all kinds of produce were well represented.

As was expected, there was a better supply of hay this morning. Twenty loads were brought in and sold rapidly. The price ranged from $11 to $12 a ton, but the majority of it sold at the latter figure.

Butter was in no hurry in buying up today. There is a better supply of it and it sold fairly cheap, from $6 to $7 a ton.

There is not a great deal of butter coming in yet, and dealers state that they could handle more.

Eggs are coming in in good quantities, but the price continues to hang around 30 a dozen.

EXCELLENT FARMING IN ONTARIO WILDS

Plenty of Sunshine and Temperature Ideal for Cultivation.

Toronto, April 21.—Advices received at the bureau of colonization from Mr. White, who has charge of the Government demonstration farm at Montpelier, 218 miles north of North Bay, and 45 miles south of Cochrane on the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, show that for the week ending April 15 there were 12 hours of sunshine every day, while the temperature went as high as 52 degrees. The fall wheat and clover, it is also stated, was looking well. The seedling for the spring grain is nearly finished and the ground is in fine shape for the seeding.

LATE LOCAL ITEMS

Accident Not So Serious.

The accident which occurred to Mr. Fred Sanger, of Oxford street east, at Sanger's yesterday afternoon, is not so serious as was at first thought.

Sanger had his hand caught in a biscuit carrier, and will lose parts of two of the fingers of his right hand. He was only temporarily employed at Mrs. Sanger's.

Mrs. Wm. McLeod Remembered.

A number of the friends of Mrs. Wm. McLeod, formerly Miss Tryphena Hodgins, from whom she was married, where she had been the school teacher for some time, met at her home, 132 Colborne street, and showed their mutual appreciation of her work and while among them by presenting her with a handsome mahogany rocker.

Mrs. McLeod has many friends in education, and the great English interpreter of Dickens, visited London a year ago. St. Andrew's Hall was crowded to the doors, and the belief that there would be a good many people in London to hear him on a return engagement, and so on Tuesday evening, April 20, a large number of people were present.

NO ENGLISH ELECTIONS FOR SEVERAL MONTHS

Asquith Announces Country Is To Be Given Respite Until July.

[Associated Press Cable.] London, April 21.—The country will be given a respite from a general election for at least three months. Premier Asquith announced in the House of Commons today that the spring recess of Parliament, which will begin on April 28, would continue until May 26, when the House of Lords, reassembling, will occupy the greater part of a week in the debate on Lord Rosebery's reform of the House of Lords. It will be impossible for the House of Commons to take up the veto resolutions until June, and the crucial period will not arrive until the month is well advanced. An appeal to the country before the middle of July is out of the question.

THE LAND OF TIPS

Germans Do Not Expect Much But They All Want Something.

Berlin, April 21.—Germany is par excellence the land of tipping. The tip may not be large, but a tip of some sort is universally expected, and the custom is so ingrained in the habits of the country that it is almost impossible to do without it.

The main thing is that it is served quickly, and then the customers rush out to make room for others.

"Therefore you find that the individual who is given in England to each client cannot be bestowed in the same manner in New York."

"Under the existing conditions I consider that the American managers are very good, and it appears marvelous to me that they do so well. Most of them, by the way, although American citizens, are of foreign extraction."

"The American hotel system is better than the European system in some respects, but in many ways it is not so good. The American hotels are much larger than ours, and usually have 800 to 1,000 rooms each."

"In England the hotels are always very small, and the service is very poor. The American hotels are much better, and the service is much more efficient."

"At a first glance the hotels over here appear to be far below the recognized European standard, but when you view them carefully and allow for altered conditions the final conclusion arrived at is far different from the first impression. The charges are much the same as here."

EAST LONDON $6,000 TO BE SPENT ON SCHOOL ACCOMMODATION

A Meeting of the Ratepayers of Hamilton Road East Held Last Night.

The ratepayers of School Section No. 22, London Township, at a meeting held in the school on Hamilton road last evening, authorized the expenditure of $6,000 to increase the accommodation in the building and to extend the grounds.

The school was filled to capacity, and the meeting was held in the hall. The decision was arrived at. The plan proposed by the trustees was finally adopted. One room will be torn down and a new one built, making the building one of five rooms, and the finest of its class in the district.

As the value of land is rapidly increasing it was considered advisable to secure a large block for playgrounds immediately.

Mr. Richard Saunders occupied the chair, and Principal Duncan acted as secretary.

Meeting in Y. M. C. A.
A meeting of the affiliated societies
of the city will be held at the Y. M.
C. A. tonight to select talent for the lecture and entertainment course to be given next fall and winter. There will be talent from Chicago, Cleveland,
Boston and Toronto.

Lost Her Purse.
An old lady lost her purse near the corner of Richmond and Dundas streets yesterday, and it was picked up by another lady. The policeman on the corner was notified of the loss,
and an effort will be made to locate the missing article.

A Parkhill Lecture.
Professor James H. Bowman, of this city, visited Parkhill a few evenings ago, and gave a most interesting lecture on microscopic work before a large number of young people in the Presbyterian Church. The lecture was thoroughly enjoyed, and a very hearty vote of thanks was tendered to Professor Bowman.

All is Quiet.
All is quiet with reference to the soldiers' monument, and it is not expected that any other chapters will follow the example of the Lord Roberts' Chapter and withdraw their funds from the monument fund. The application of this chapter will be considered by the finance committee in charge,
and will probably be granted. Work is proceeding on the monument, and it will be ready for erection some time
this summer.

Carpenters in Toronto.
Toronto World: An absolute denial of any strike on the part of the carpenters of the city was made by President Gladwin of the Amalgamated Society of Carpenters, last night. A mass meeting of this society and of the Brotherhood of Carpenters is to be held at the Labor Temple on Friday night, and instead of declaring a strike
the men will in all probability accept the offer made by the Builders' Ex-

Still Improving.
The condition of Dr. John D. Wilson shows improvement again today. The progress is not very marked as yet,
but it is such as to greatly encourage his physicians. He is resting quietly at the present time. President Stevely, of the Irish Benevolent Society, sent some beautiful flowers for the patient's room yesterday.

Transfer of License.
The following applications for transfer of license have been received at the Provincial Secretary's office, Toronto: From John Wilson, Perth, to Thomas
Wilson, Perth; from George E. Gray, Markdale, to R. J. Fletcher, Brampton;
from J. E. Buzzard, Elmhurst, to David

MAKE AN APPEAL

ter of fact, the charter of the company was given on the grounds that the road was an international one, and my own opinion is that the line will have to be operated in connection with the boat. However, I cannot speak for the alliance, as I have pointed out, but I expect that the commission will be asked to interpret the charter, and give a ruling as to what Sunday cars mean
under that charter.

No Legal Steps.
"Will any legal steps be taken to prevent cars from running?" he was asked.

"I scarcely think so," said Mr. Stuart. "Neither have I heard of any demonstrations of any kind, nor do we expect any."

Legal men claim that the commission will allow a fairly comprehensive schedule. All railways operating under a Dominion charter are not supposed to meet the boats and operate cars only when the boats arrive. There is some latitude given them, and there is no question that the London and Lake Erie will have the same privileges.

Students at the Port.
It is quite likely that the Methodist churches of London, St. Thomas and Port Stanley will arrange for afternoon meetings at Port Stanley.

Not long ago, Dr. F. C. Stephenson, who is in charge of the missionary work of Victoria College, Toronto, took up this matter with local clergymen,
and suggested that a number of students be placed at Port Stanley for the summer, to preach whenever possible and take charge of afternoon meetings on Sunday. The pastors of some of the larger churches in these cities have been asked to co-operate and will do so.

"The suggestion for afternoon meetings was taken up some time ago, and Dr. Stephenson suggested the students be placed at the Port to take charge of meetings there," said Rev. R. Whiting.

"The co-operation of the pastors of the different churches in the city was asked and was granted. It would be a good thing to hold meetings in the afternoons on the beach or elsewhere,

and I think much good will result from it. We can forbid the people to go to Port Stanley on Sunday, as they will go anyway. If we can reach them for an hour or two on Sunday afternoons it would result in much good, I believe. They will not come to church in London or St. Thomas, and we will have to go to them."

BURGLARS RAID
HARRISBURG HOTEL

Harrisburg, April 21. — Yesterday
burglars entered the American Hotel and stole $500 in cash and a quantity of liquors and cigars.

Entrance was gained through the south window of the hotel. The money stolen belonged to the proprietor of the hotel, George Braithwaite, who will suffer a severe loss, the quantity of cigars and liquors taken not being known. The burglars left no clue, so their capture is uncertain.

EMBRO HAPPENINGS.
[Special to The Advertiser.]
Embros, April 21.—Mr. and Mrs. Geo.
Gordon were in Paisley attending the funeral of her mother.

Mr. J. W. Gordon left on Tuesday for Calgary.
Word has been received by Mr. A.
R. Campbell of the death in Baltimore of Mrs. Alex. Campbell, a former resident of this village. Mr. Campbell left to attend the funeral, which was held in Baltimore on Sunday. Besides her husband, Mrs. Campbell leaves two daughters and also a brother in Toronto. The sympathy of many friends here is extended to the family in their bereavement.

Miss Desina, Munro, has returned
after visiting her sister, Mrs. D. Bain, of Woodstock.

Mr. and Mrs. Mac Wallace, of Ingersoll, spent over Sunday at Mr. Columbus Ross'.

Messrs. Alex. Campbell and Colin McDonald left on Tuesday for Edmonton and other western points.

Miss Hattie McInnis, of Woodstock, spent the week-end with Miss Louise Campbell.

Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Spence spent over Sunday in Moncton.

The death took place in Toronto on Sunday of Miss Constance Youngs, sister of Mr. Alonzo Youngs. Deceased was a former resident of this place. The funeral was held in Woodstock on Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Hyde, C. P. R. engineer, of St.
Marty's, was in the village on Monday.

Algonquin Park.
The conditions in Algonquin National Park of Ontario this spring are somewhat phenomenal as the ice went out of the lakes on April 5, a month and ten days earlier than last year, and the superintendent of the park reports that the weather is two months earlier. Algonquin Park is on the Grand Trunk Railway System, 205 miles north of Toronto. Speckled trout fishing opens May 1 to Sept. 14, and black bass June 16 to April 14, following year. Interesting illustrated publications can be secured from the Grand Trunk City Ticket Office.

LADIES' HOME JOURNAL PATTERNS

SEVEN WHYS

Miss Minnie L. Richardson,
Special Representative Will Tell You Why

WHY the Journal Patterns are different from all others.
WHY they are drafted and not graded.
WHY they do not run small.
WHY bust measure is taken instead of chest measure.
WHY they are cut high under the arms.
WHY waists have broad chests and narrow backs.
WHY Ladies' Home Journal Patterns will fit more perfectly a greater number of people than any other paper pattern on the market.
Miss Richardson will be here all day Friday, and we wish you to meet her.

"The Climax" Tomorrow.
"The Climax" is announced for the Grand tomorrow evening. "The Climax" is said to be one of the greatest plays of the century, abounding with

MISS ANNIE SWINBURTON.
With "The Climax" Company.

delicious humor, absorbing romance
and exquisite melodies which are entwined throughout the plot. The drama is having a most successful run at Weber's Theatre, New York, where theatrical prophets have predicted it will be seen for a year.

"The Soul Kiss."
"The Soul Kiss" which was shown at the Grand yesterday afternoon and evening, would have been all right on a burlesque circuit, but it seemed out of place at the Grand, where as a usual thing, nothing but first-class shows are given presentation. It was about the poorest that has hit this town since "Fluffy Ruffles" worried the life out of an audience. The attendance was much larger than the play deserved.

It is a cross between a Marathon kissing match, and "The Devil." There is neither the cleverness of the latter,
nor the enjoyment of the former manifest anywhere during the evening's entertainment. The authors took some of Harry Lauder's songs and interpolated them, giving the only real music of the night.

The principals could neither sing,
dance, nor look intelligent. Ben Grinnell, as "The Devil," had two good songs, "There Were Actors Then" and "I Wonder Where They'll Go." He showed some ability.

Miss Perina is a clever dancer, no doubt, but she created little enthusiasm.

The chorus was not large—in numbers—not was it especially gifted with voice or manners. Some of them made Salome look overdressed.

Just a word about the kissing. An artistic kiss may be all right in a dimly-lighted parlor, etc., but the article exhibited on the stage last night was nauseating. The chorus girls should be equipped with muffers, as the noise woke some of the audience up, after they had gone to sleep to escape this part of the show.

Forbes-Robertson Saturday.
Londoners have always been delighted with English productions, and when Forbes-Robertson appears at the Grand on Saturday in two performances of his celebrated play, "The Passing of the Third Floor Back," he will be greeted by two great audiences.

The demand for seats has continued since the plan was opened, and beside citizens, a large outside patronage will come. Every performance of the play in Canada since he opened in Montreal
has been to crowded houses.

Partello Stock Company.
The Partello Stock Company will hold the boards at the Grand Opera House for three nights, commencing Monday next, April 25, with a special matinee on Wednesday, when "Lena Rivers" will be given. This company, numbering fifteen, are headed by the petite and charming comedienne,
Miss Alice Kennedy, and Jack Wee-

terman, the great little comedian, who has been delighting thousands of the-atregoers throughout Ontario. New plays and vaudeville will be introduced during their engagement. Sale of seats opens at box office on Saturday, April 23, at 9 o'clock. The opening play
Monday night will be "The College Girl." Ladies' 15-cent tickets are being issued for opening night limited to 290.
