LABOR AS OPPOSITION

Many Former Canadians, Including Col. Hamilton Gault, Win Conservative Seats.

Associated Press Despatch London, Oct. 30.—The people of Great Britain have put a crushing and to their first experiment with a Labor government by returning the Conservative party to power in par-liament with one of the strongest majorities recorded during the last

In this sweeping political change the Liberal party has sunk to the weakest position it has experienced since the realignment of British political parties more than 90 years ago the time of the reform bill.
With 585 out of the 615 seats in the House of Commons accounted for at 5 o'clock this afternoon, the Liberals had won only 40 and the Conservatives had already captured 384 and were increasing their lead constantly as the returns came in from the country districts. Labor had won 140 seats and was thus assured of being the official opposition party in the new parliament.

Within the next hof hour, the returns showed that the Conservatives had gained more seats. Even if the Conservatives should lose all of these termining seats they would have the remaining seats they would have the largest majority in history. In fact the ultimate majority bids foir to be the greatest the Conservative party has ever enjoyed in all its long life. Unlike the Labor government which has just fallen, the Conservatives will be able to rule as well as govern, and perhaps thus stay fixed in the governmental sad-dle for the full legal parliamentary lifetime of five years if they want to, so strong was the tide that has carried them to triumph.

COL. GAULT A WINNER

Associated Press Despatch. London, Oct. 30.—A notable victory in the election yesterday was that of Lieut.-Col. A. Hamilton Gault, Conservative, formerly of Montreal, who won the Taunton division of Somer-setshire from the Liberal party. It was a three-cornered light, in which the Liberal member in the last parliament, J. H. Simpson, sought relection, and Rev. G. S. Woods did battle as a Labor candidate. The vote was as follows: Col. The shares of the Molsons Bank are chiefly in the hands of the Molson family and relatives. There are but seven or eight shareholders in London. Approximately 200 shares of the Bank of Montreal are owned by Londoners. Most of the shareholders are women. The shares are divided among about 35 people, and are chiefy small blocks of seven to ten shares. The following branches of the Bank of Montreal are located in Western Ontario: Ailsa Craig, Alvinston, Aylmer, Beachville, Bothwell, Brampton, Brantford, reslau, Chatham, Chatsworth, Chesley, Clarkson, Colling-wood, Elora, Flesherton, Ford, Galt, Glencoe, Goderich, Granton, Guelph, Hamilton, Hanover, Hespeler, Hol-land Center, Holstein, Ingersoll, Kincardine, Kingsville, Kitchener, He Doesn't Envy Problems

Word "Foreign" Is Removed From Resolution on Immigration Stand.

A resolution asking for better selection and more rigid inspection of immigrants was the chief center of discussion at this morning's session of the Provincial Chapter, I. O. D. E., meeting in Wesley hall.

The resolution brought in originally by Mrs. C. E. Burden of Toronto con tained the word, "foreign," to which exception was taken by a large number of the assembled delegates. As a result a heated discussion followed. It was pointed out that there was a large percentage of the foreign population of the country which was made up of good citizens. And that for this reason the word "foreign" should not be embodied in the resolution. An amendment to the resolution

WHY LADY ASTOR WON.

Associated Press Despatch.
Plymouth, Eng., Oct. 30.—Lady
Astor, Conservative, who retained her seat in the House of Commons in yesterday's election by a majority of 5,079 over the Labor candidate, Capt.
G. W. Brenan, today attributed her success at the polls "to the fact that Great Britain prefers the Union Jack and steady progress rather than revolution and socialism."

The weather yesterday was extremely bad, and the partizans of Lady Astor assert that if fair skies had beamed upon the voters her majority would have been still greater.

Last year 16,121 voters stayed away from the polls. So far as election returns show, government has always been run by a minority. There will be a stockholders meeting of the city of London on Dec. 1. Vote as you please—but please vote. Be a you please—but please vote. Be a citizen for one day at least.

That is the spirit of a yellow circular which has been sent to every voter in London, an exhortation from the London Kiwanis club to come out and vote on election day. Copies of the pamphlet have been inclosed in envelopes containing no-tices to voters and 'city activities,' which have been sent out by the city clerk's department.

Eighteen of the nineteen public schools have been requested for use as polling stations for the municipal elections on Dec. 1 next.

Though three or four polling subdivisions will be placed in some of the schools, the regular work of the schools, the regular work of the schools, the regular work of the school will be only slightly interfered with, and that in only one or two cases. Use will be made of principal's room, teachers' room and nurses' room in order not to disturb the regular classroom work.

In this connection it is rather interesting to note that for the provincial plebiscite on the O. T. A. recently only three or four of the schools were used as polling places. Of course, the difference is that for the municipal elections the council has to pay for the polling places, and thus the money is directed to board of education coffers, which are practically council coffers.

The L.A.A.A. team is drilling just as earnestly as if its important date as earnestly as if its important date with Sarnia was this Saturday instead of a week from that day. Monday night witnessed a full turnout right after the game in Sarnia on Saturday. This is unusual for a London team with a game a week away. With the next game two weeks away, it becomes a thundering fact. Each night since has witnessed a similar turnout, and last night the usual afternoon drill was followed by an hour and half chalk talk. Coach Huestis conducted the talk, and the athletes listened so intently that if there is such a thing as charley horses developing in the ear drums, some of the local crew are liable to be out of the picture for repairs.

the ear drums, some of the local crew are liable to be out of the picture for repairs.

These talks will occur several times before the game a week from Saturday, and meantime steady and nightly drills will be the order.

The squad knows exactly what happened last Saturday, especially after last night's crayon drill, and the same mistakes won't occur again. As it was suspected before the season and opened and duly confirmed in the first game played, it is the Sarnia half line which has to be wrapped up by the Londoners. London has held up the district race too much as it is this year. They compelled the blue and white to wait two weeks between the last two games. The Sarnia club was forced to agree to this, but they have no intention of letting the same thing happen again, and are taking immediate steps to see what can be done to have the game shoved on. Sam Stokes is in Toronto on the matter.

THE BREAKS OF RUGBY.

Western's great little football machine are practically out of any chance of the group honors unless Aggies should do the miraculous and defeat St. Mikes Saturday. Of course, Western would have to beat Varsity here to make this seem miraculous, otherwise as far as local interest the stunt would be merely an oddity.

Western came within an ace of landing the group title and sending rugby interest to delirious heights. They missed it by an eyelash, but in defeat still stand out as the greatest team yet developed under the Purple and White colors, and have laid a foundation for some real football traditions. They've taken the game out of its comatose state, and not only have they isolated the rugby "bug" for the school but they've made their university known in a more practical way than many other methods might have done. That is the modern way. Sometimes a university's football team is the visible token of the efficiency of the school itself.

Western will, unless a miracle happens, be beaten out of the title, al though beating St. Mikes on the round by 8 to 7 points. Five of those points that St. Mikes are officially credited with came as the result of a freak break. Such are the breaks of rugby.

MORE NIGHT WORK.

Following the lead of "night golf" some College elevens in the States have started workouts under powerful lights. The excuse now will be that they practiced at night and couldn't play in the daytime.

Students of lawn tennis, in the dim future, who are seeking to perfect heir strokes and court technique, will be able to study the "old masters," much as artists of today study paintings by Michael Angelo, Raphael and other geniuses of the paint brush.

COLLEGE RUGBY.

A veteran coach recently chatting without any intent of being quoted and standing for the admission, said: "Give me them when they are very young and impressionable, and you can do anything with them. You can make them do the impossible in a speech in the dressing room between

But I did not like so much the look on the faces of the seniors when I was talking about dying for dear old -(never mind the name of the school). I repeat that I did not like the look on the faces of the seniors.

"I regret to say that some of these players from the upper classes even looked a trifle bored when I was making my most fiery rallying talk and doing a real Patrick Henry. They seemed so wise and they seemed to be saying to themselves, 'The same old line of bull again.' I could not look into the faces of the wise ones without feeling a little self-conscious. New York, Oct. 29.-The big threefor-three trade engineered by the Pittsburg Pirates and the Chicago Cubs has drawn from more than one critic the expression of belief that Barney Dreyfuss got a bit the worst of it. But prior to an actual showing of how transplanted players will show up, the writer inclines to the belief that the moving of Niehaus to Pittsburg is the really great factor in the swap.

But the Cubs didn't keep Niehaus ong enough to find out how good he really was. The Pirates will make ern association it is good enough to arrant the expectation that Niehaus fill turn in at least a .325 rating, if Former Fighter To Face Trial of two-baggers, 9 three-baggers.

batting strength added to Chicago by the trade.

The Pirates will bring Moore regulariy into their batting order to play second, and, with Niehaus, Moore, Wright and Traynor, will put out a ground-covering quartet that will rival that of any club in the major leagues. The question is, can they play good enough ball to get through the New York barrage at the end of the season and win a championshin?

The last quarter was a nightmare for the Toronto team. With one single point lead, the smallest any mathemati-cian in the world could arrive at, they fought with their backs to the wall every minute. Three separate paths were worn in the grass where O'Brien, Low rey and LeBel elected to run back Western kicks from behind the posts.

With the exception of the freak touchdown which Kennedy of St. Mikes made here last Saturday, the Western goal line has not yet been crossed this season.

A peculiar fact which glares right out from the standing is that O. A. C. has had 71 points scored against it while the other three teams combined have had only 72 made against them.

Sarnia Observer:

All the Sarnia intermediates need to win the district championship is strict attention to business. They can safely forget all about last Saturday's game and dig in between now and the next contest and hand the Londoners a trimming right on their own field. But if they let their heads get a little inflated over their victory and commence to renig on their drills they will have more trouble than they reckon to trim the forces of Jo Jo Stirrett. Saturday's loss is only going to make the London crew fighting mad, and they will be out to wipe out old scores in the return game, and it will behoove the locals to be at their best to win.

GUELPH ROAD RACE

CLAIMING ATTENTION

Big Program Arranged by

Royal City For Thanksgiving Day.

Special to The Advertiser.

Guelph, Oct. 29 .- The Guelph cross country run and road race association is again to the fore with a big program of road races to be held on Thanks-

There are four open races, and not less than six prizes will be awarded for each race. Over $1,000 worth of prizes are offered, all of which have been donated by the citizens of Guelph

It is not a money-making venture, but simply an effort to stimulate road rac-

COMMITTEE REFUSES PLAN TO REDUCE SIZE OF COUNCIL

Question Is Sent on to Council Without Any Recommendation.

SMITH ONLY ONE

A three-clause bylaw to change the size and manner of electing city councils, sponsored by Ald. Edwin Smith, was defeated by No. 1 committee last night. The question was sent to the council without any re-commendation. Alderman Smith, as spokesman for a special sub-com-mittee, favored letting the people decide if they wanted a council of eight aldermen, abolition of the ward sys-tem, and a two-year term for aldermen. All three proposals got a cooreception from members of the committee and were turned down flatly Ald. Douglass declared the threclauses would make the ballot corfusing, Ald. Drake was satisfied with

Who Was Operating In 1919?

Charles Matthews has followed Peter Smith and Aemilius Jarvis to prison, drawing a term of two years for a breach of trust while occupying a public office, and violation of the secret commissions act.

The public has not been particularly interested in Charles Matthews, but rather in the office he held, and in the part he played in that office, not only during the days of Peter Smith, but prior to that time.

Kent and Essex Fight the Corn-Borer.

Farmers of Essex and Kent who grow corn, and there are few who do not, are facing a serious situation in the increasing extent to which the corn-borer has invaded the fields. The Essex Free Press tells of a trip made through the two counties with a dominion entomologist, and is responsible for the statement that for 40 miles along the lake shore almost every corn field had from 70 to 100 per cent of the plants infected.

Four years ago the corn-borer was almost unknown in Kent and Essex; today its presence is so serious that it threatens the destruction of the crop. Many of the corn growers are preparing to fight this pest, which has made its appearance in other sections of Western Ontario. Three rules given are:

Feed as much of the plant as live stock will eat, for the presence of the corn-borer does not affect the animals.

Burning the unconsumed stalks and cobs. Plowing under all remnants left in the field r elsewhere.

The practice followed on many farms of leaving the stalks uncut is too dangerous to be continued. It makes an ideal condition for the borer to multiply. The corn growers of Kent and Essex realize the seriousness of the situation; they know what to do, and the future of The public is still interested in knowing if their corn crop depends entirely on the thor-

Ten hens is a very small number for a person tives had hardly hoped for such an emphatic to keep, but production on that scale would keep an average family supplied with fresh eggs. There are plenty of places where a much larger string of indifferent poultry is kept with no better results.

Mr. Delamere is no doubt convinced that it pays to keep the best bred-to-lay poultry. FORCE.

At a recent meeting of the League of Nations at Genoa, there were indications that the A dominion official says the locking up of world is coming nearer to the point of recogthe destiny of a nation, than itself.

Both Mr. Herriot and Mr. MacDonald recognize that superior force must be applied against any nation breaking the peace. The day of one nation taking matters in its own hands and defending its own honor or interests, is past. It will have the whole world against it.

Mr. Herriot was inclined to apply this force toward economic pressure, but both of them saw that there can be no peace in the world until the ultimate arbiter of destiny is made something else than the nation itself.

It is a difficult matter for anyone to realize that he may be wrong. He is so close to his own interests that the importance of them is magnified in his own eyes. But the very existence of law is that he must submit his rights to white an impartial tribunal, and that no man has a right to take his own honor or interests into his

We acknowledge that such action is submersive to law when it is between two individuals, health but we have not yet got to the point where we realize that it is equally submersive of law between two nations.

Some day we shall get there. National vanities, egotism and patriotism must bow down before the common good.

There are two causes of war, as Mr. Hoover brings out in a recent book. These causes are the vanity of nations, and their fear. To strike able out war, therefore, we must lower our egotism and defy our fears. One hundred per cent Americanism must give way to one hundred per cent positively relieves constipation. At humanity and the fear of other nations must give way to trust in them. There is no way to run this world and its nations, just as there is no way to get along individually, without faith in one another.

Faith is not only the foundation of neighborly peace and of commerce, but it must be made the foundation of politics.

Every nation is inclined to believe in the villainy and chicanery of other and in its own honesty of purpose, but we must get to the point where we all believe in each other, trust each other, and are willing to submit our destinies and interests to some impartial tribunal, or there can be no such thing as peace upon earth. The League of Nations was an effort toward

That "After-Marriage Let-Down" and Some of the Reasons Why Romance Dies After the Wedding-How to Treat a Slave-Driver Husband-How to Turn the Tables On An "Old-Fashioned Father."

Dear Miss Dix-I would like to know why love dies away so quickly after one gets married. I have been married two years, and have found out that every day in every way my husband seems to care for me less

It is the great puzzle of my life. Why?

Answer:

Perhaps, Babe, it isn't love that fades away so quickly after marriage. It is just illusion, which is the trapping of love. It is our misfortune that love comes to us tied up like a Christmas package. in layers upon layers of the gilt-spangled papers of romance, and when we get the last of the fluffy ribbons untied, and come down to the real present and find that it is a kitchen range instead of a diamond tiara, we can't help being a bit disappointed, and feeling that the thing we have got isn't worth having.

Perhaps men get this same reaction to matrimony, but women get the worst kick out of it, because we women feed too much on

When we get married we expect to go on living in the same beautiful ve story of which we were the heroines during the days of our courtship. We expect our husbands to hold our hands and pay us compliments, and tell us how different we are from other women and how much they love And when they stop love-making with a suddenness that jars our back teeth; when they take it for granted that we know they love us because they married us to prove it, and when they want to sit up of an evening very interesting meeting of the club and read the newspaper, instead of telling us what wonderful eyes we have, we think that they have ceased to love us.

> And don't forget this, Babe, if every day in every way your husband eems to love you less and less, you must be falling down on your end of the job. So have a heart-to-heart session with yourself and find out why you are losing out.

Are you disillusioning him by wearing sloppy wrappers and down-at-the-heel slippers, and screwing up your hair any old way? You were easy on the eyes before marriage. How about it now? Are you boring him with whines and complaints? Are you a sodden mass of tears and discontent? Are you willing to grab your hat and go out of an evening? Are you chatty and entertaining at home? You were a good sport before marriage. What sort of a chum are you now? What sort of dinners do you give him? Does he brag about your cooking to the other men at the office, or do you feed him on food that would give an ostrich dyspepsia? It must be a blighting disappointment to a man to find that he is married to a trifling woman who makes home a place to flee from instead of a joy to come

If, in two years, your husband's affection for you is cooling off, there must be a reason for it. Find it.

Dear Miss Dix-My father is what he terms old-fashioned. He is alays lecturing to me about how people did when he was young. He won't ways lecturing to me about how people did when he was young. He won't let me dance, because they don't dance as they did when he was young. He won't let me go automobiling, because they didn't have automobiles when won't let me club, and the members are anomaly of the club, and the members are anomaly of the way he used to read when he was young. He wants me to have a good time the way he used to have a good time the way he way he used to have a good time the way he used to have a good time the way he w my age. He wants me to have a good time the way he used to have a good time, but they don't do that way now. What shall I do? D. B. M.

Yes, sir, at first he was surprised. Then little by little it came back to him all that had happened. He remembered being found by Far.

The following delegates were present: He remembered being found by Far-mer Brown's Boy and taken out of the Green Forest. It must be that Bobby examined his hurt paw. You remember that Farmer Brown's Boy had put a bandage around it. Bobby didn't know what to make of it. He examined it with his nose. He didn't like the smell. You know Parts.

Boy would do him no harm. He knew that he had nothing to worry about now. But still Bobby was too bashful to come out while Farmer Brown's to come out while Farmer Brown's Boy was there. Farmer Brown's Boy was too wise to try to make Bobby come out. He just talked to him gently and then left him. Several times during the day he came to that pen and talked softly to Bobby. They were getting acquainted.

Am Int Corp. Montreal, Oct. 30.—There was a considerable activity on the local exchange this morning, and several good advances were registered. National Breweries was the most active issue, closing 1% points higher at 59%. Steamships preferred was also in demand, and rose 2 points to 57, at which it closed. Dominion Bridge advanced 2 points, closing at 75, after a period of comparative inactivity. Dominion Canners and Price Bros. were the only leaders to display weakness, the former selling off 1 point at 40, and the latter % at 35%. Other important advances were: Spanish River, 1½ to 101%; Toronto Railway, 1½ to 111%, and Ogilvie Flour 5 points to 330.

been expected on the street for some time, where it was regarded as a natural course of events. Testimony to the stability of Molsons, however, is to be found in the terms of subscription, the Bank of Montreal giving two shares of its own stock for three of Molsons and a bonus of $10 for every share of Molsons. The $10 for every share of Molsons. The shareholders of Molsons will also receive their quarterly dividend due January 1 next.

official announcement stress as follows:

"It is announced that, with the consent of the Hon. J. A. Robb, acting minister of finance, an agreement has been entered into between the Molsons bank and the Bank of Montreal whereby, subject to the approval of the shareholders of both banks and the governor-general in council, the Bank of Montreal is to purchase the assets and assume the liabilities of the Molsons bank on terms which, it is believed, will be satisfactory to the shareholders of both institutions.

"The basis of the agreement is that the Molsons bank shareholders will receive two shares of the Bank of

A hint of what was coming must have reached the street because there was an unusual activity on the stock exchange in Molsons bank shares yesterday and today, though as the issue is closely held there was not much trading. The stock, however, jumped six points yesterday and five today to 172.

The list of Canadian chartered banks is reduced to twelves by the passing of Molsons, as compared with eighteen at the beginning of 1922. The institution which will result from this absorption will be a bank with total assets of nearly three-quarters of a billion dollars.

The Molsons bank has about one hundred and ten branches, nearly all of which are in the provinces of Ontario and Quebeo the greater number being in the former province and with only five or six branches west of the

FAVORED BY GOVERNMENT.

Associated Press Despatch.
Ottawa, Oct. 29.—"For some time ottawa, Oct. 29.—"For some time past the government has been watching the banks closely," said Hon. J. A. Robb, acting minister of finance, here tonight in commenting on the Montreal-Molsons bank merger. "I will say that we did have an auditor look into the affairs of the Molsons Bank, and after his report was submitted I deemed it advisable to give the government's consent to this amalgamation."
"When my attention to the rapid rise in Molsons Bank stock on the market was drawn, I intimated to the merging banks that the negotiations must be made public tonight in order to avoid any jockeying of stocks. I believe this merger strengthens the bank situation in this thens the bank situation in this country. Beyond this I have nothing to say," said Mr. Robb.

TWO LONDON BRANCHES.

The uniting of the Molsons Bank and the Bank of Montreal should be a good thing for the country, W. H. Pratt, manager of the London branch of the Molsons Bank, said last night. There was a tendency at the present time for the smaller banks to cast their lot with the larger ones. This was true in the Old Country, where there were only six large banks. The merger should have a streng-thening influence on the business, for the Bank of Montreal was admittedly one of the strongest banks, as is the Molsons. The excessive taxa-tion and the keen competition had something to do with banks uniting.

W. J. Ambrose, manager of the London branch of the Bank of Montreal, is out of town. It is expected that he will return today. It will be some time before the actual change will be effective. The deal will have to be ratified by the shareholders of both institutions. There are about 80 branches of the Molsons Bank in Ontario. Few of the branches of the two institutions overlap each other in the country district.

There are two branches of the Molsons Bank in London and five branches of the Bank of Montreal.

IN MEMORIAM.

TUCKEY—In loving memory of our brother, Oliver Lorne Tuckey, who died so suddenly one year ago today, Oct. 30, 1923. Oct. 30, 1923.
Quickly and quietly came the call;
His sudden death surprised us all.
Dearer to memory than words can tell
Are the thoughts of him we loved so

-His brothers and sisters. Mr. and Mrs. Vaile, 349 Forbes St., wish to thank their many friends and neighbors for their kindness and benevolence in their recent sad bereavement, also for the many floral tributes.

Medical authorities state that nearly nine-tenths of the cases of stomach trouble, indigestion, sourness, burning, gas, bloating, nausea, etc., are due to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach and not as some believe to a lack of digestive juices. The delicate stomach lining is irritated, digestion is elayed and food sours, causing the agreeable symptoms which every tomach sufferer knows so well.

Artificial digestents are not needed in such cases and may do real harm. Try laying aside all digestive aids and instead get from any drugrist a few ounces of Bisurated Magnesia and take a teaspoonful in a quarter glass of water right after eating. This sweetens the stomach, prevents the formation of excess acid and there is no sourness, gas, or pain. Bisurated Magnesia (in powder or tablet form—never liquid or milk) is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and is the most efficient form of magnesia for stomach purposes. form of magnesia for stomach purposes.

Sakr-el-Bahr's feelings as he considered Rosamund's white face in the fading light were most oddly conflicting. Dismay at what had befallen and some anxious dread of what must follow were leavened by a certain measure of relief.

KIDNEY

DENY SALARY CUT OVER O. T. A. STAND

Officials of St. James' Church Declare Rector Will Not Suffer.

A story, emanating from Toronto yesterday afternoon, that Rev. J. Leslie Armitage, rector of St. James' Anglican Church of this city, was in danger of having his salary reduced to one dollar per annum as a result of his outspoken advocacy of the O. T. A., both in and out of the pulpit, was branded as absolutely false by Mr. Armitage and the two wardens of the church, G. E. Forsythe and Chris Hodgins.

"The story is absolutely without foundation," declared Mr. Armitage. "It is absolutely beyond me. Some-body is starting this and trying to make trouble.'

Rumors current in the city that a number of the members of St. James' congregation had switched over to St. Paul's Cathedral, following Mr. Armitage's red-hot sermon in favor of the O. T. A. a week ago Sunday, were positively denied by Mr. For-

"Absolutely nothing to it," stated the people's warden. "Only one person has left the congregation that I know of, and that was not his reason. I would know, if anyone did, about this dollar a year business. This is the first I've heard about it."

the first I've heard about it."
"People just imagine things," said Chris Hodgins, after denying the truth of the Toronto report. "It would certainly be a very undignified step for a congregation to take."
"There was a little election flurry over the vote last week. Of course, all the congregation did not agree. all the congregation did not agree with the views of the rector, and it was no different from other city churches. Everything is calm around the church now as far as I can see. You may be sure that there is no foundation for that Toronto report."

NEWSPAPERS BEST FOR ADVERTISING

Joe Hay, Publicity Agent For C. N. E., Speaker at "Ad" Club Meeting.

Of all advertising done by the Canadian National Exhibition there was probably none so effective as newspaper advertising. Newspaper advertising was one of the first things to be thought of in promoting a successful fair. SEMI-BLEACHED DAMASKS IN BIG VARIETY

This Is the Season Best Suited For Bleaching Your Linens

To get back these oldtime cream damasks in such variety of qualities and designs is indeed very good news to the average housewife, particularly so to the many who recall the years of service that is woven in these sturdy cloths. A shipment just passed into stock offers the largest range of damasks we have shown in years, from the 58-inch union check in assorted sizes to the wide floral borders shown in 70-inch. A very few nights in the frost, with bright sunny days, will whiten these at this season of the year. And then you get the full weight of the yarn absolutely free from chemical bleach, that will give you years of real service.

58-Inch Union Dice Damask 79c Yard

By direct importation from the makers and a close margin are we enabled to offer such a highgrade Damask at this figure. No, it's not pure linen, although usually sold as such, but, however, contains heavy cotton yarn in the warp to get the desired weight. Launders and wears excellently; a remarkable value today at.... 79c yard

I knew-because he said to me, "How much are the tickets?"

That Thanksgiving profusion of pumpkins, the cauliflowers and rosy apples suggested to both of us nothing quite so much as an old-fashioned Harvest Home Supper. It awakened fragrant memories of roast turkey, and golden-brown pies-the small boy was determined to be there, if it lay within reach of a junior pocket-book

But when I explained, he was disappointed, because small boys prefer Harvest Suppers to feminine fashions. And I knew that those golden sprays of wheat were pointing to another Harvest gayety, the Thanksgiving

Nature's glorious canvas is beginning to fade ever so gradually into winter -but the new fashions have imprisoned its brilliant hues. And on every floor the vivid autumn leaves and golden sheaves of wheat find echoes of their lovely colorings in frocks and coats that are ready for the winter

The store, too, is wearing its "party frock" for the occasion. And so I'd like to borrow that cordial, oldfashioned welcome from the Harvest Supper, and bid you "Come one, come all," to see its Thanksgiving attire.
