BILL.

An Act to incorporate the British Farmer's Union Insurance Company.

Received and read, first time, Monday 27th April, 1856.

Second reading, Monday, 5th May, 1856.

MR. BIGGAR.

TORONTO :
PRINTED BY JOHN LOVELL,
YONGE STREET.

An Act to incorporate the British Farmers' Union Insurance Company.

WHEREAS Henry Yardington, Doctor Alfred Digby, Alexander Bunnell, Arthur Smith, Frederick George, Charles C. Perley, Henry Lemmon and others, have petitioned the Legislature, praying that an association under the style and title of the "British Farmers' Union Insurance Company," may be incorporated, as well for the purpose of enabling parties, owners of, or interested in buildings or property situated in country places, isolated and comparatively safe from fire, mutually to insure each other, and to extend the benefits of such institution more effectually among the rural and agricultural population in these Provinces: Therefore Her Majesty, &c., enacts as follows:

Preamble.

I. The said Henry Yardington, Dr. Alfred Digby, Alexander Bunnell, Arthur Smith, and all such other persons as shall hereafter become members of the said Company, are hereby constituted a body corporate by the style and title of "The British Farmers' Union Insurance Company," and by that name they and their successors shall have continued succession, and shall be capable in law of suing and being sued, pleading and being impleaded, answering and being answered unto, defending and being defended in all manner of actions, suits, complaints, matters and causes whatsoever; and they and their successors may have a common seal, and may change and alter the same at pleasure; may mutually insure their respective properties under the restrictions, limitations, and conditions hereinafter contained; and may also insure the houses and personal property of others for such time and at such premiums as shall be agreed upon between the said Corporation and parties insuring; and also they and their successors by and under the name of "The British Farmers' Union Insurance Company," shall be capable in law, of purchasing, holding, and conveying any estate, real or personal, for the use of the said Company, subject to the rules and conditions hereinafter mentioned.

Certain persons incorporated

Corporate name and powers.

II. The stock and property of the said Company shall be held liable for the payment of all losses that may from time to time occur to the said Company, and for that purpose shall be divided, and consist of two separate and distinct descriptions of stock, namely, mutual and proprietary; the mutual stock being comprised of premium notes, deposited for the purpose of mutual insurance, together with all payments and other property received or held thereon, or in consequence of such mutual insurance; and the Proprietary Stock being composed of stock in shares, subscribed and paid for the purpose of fire insurance to others, which proprietary stock shall not exceed One Hundred Thousand Pounds, divided into shares of Twenty Pounds each; and also of the members of, or persons composing the said Company shall, in like manner, consist of, and be divided into two classes, namely, those who deposit premium notes for the purpose of mutual insurance, denominated mutual members; and proprietary members, or those who hold shares in the proprietary stock of the said Corporation: Provided always, that nothing herein mentioned and contained shall prevent the same person from holding at the same time both descriptions of stock.

Stock of Company divided into "Mutual and Proprietary."

Proviso.

Mutual members not liable beyond amount of their premium notes, nor proprietary members beyond the amount of their respective proprietary stock.

III. Persons being members of the said Corporation by reason of deposit of premium notes for the purpose of mutual insurance, shall not be held liable for any claims for losses or payments beyond the amount of his, her, or their premium notes respectively; and neither shall proprietary members be held liable for any claims for losses or payments beyond the amount of such share or shares of the proprietary stock which each may respectively hold; and also in all the transactions of the said Company the profits and benefits arising from or on account of the mutual branch of the said Corporation shall be secured to the members thereof; and in like manner the profits and benefits arising from or on account of the proprietary branch of the said Company shall be secured to the proprietary members; and further, all the expenses necessary and incurred for the conducting and management of the said Company, shall be fairly assessed upon and divided between each branch or department of the said Company.

As to expenses.

No dividend to be declared out of Capital Stock.

IV. Provided always, that no dividend or bonus shall be declared or paid out of the Capital Stock of the Company, whether proprietary or mutual.

Company may hold real estate, &c.

Also real estate mortgaged to Company as security for payment of debts.

V. The said Company, by their corporate name aforesaid, shall be capable of purchasing, having and holding, to them and their successors, such estate, real, personal, or mixed, as may be requisite for its accommodation in relation to the convenient transaction of its business; and may take and hold any real estate bona fide mortgaged to the said Company, by way of security, for the payment of any debts which may be contracted with the said Company, and may proceed on the said mortgaged securities for the recovery of moneys thereby secured, either in law or equity, in the same manner as any other mortgagee is or shall be authorized to do, and also to purchase on sales made by virtue of any proceedings at law or equity, or otherwise to receive and to take any real estate in payment, or towards the satisfaction of any debt previously contracted and due to the said Corporation, and to hold the same until they can conveniently and advantageously sell and convert the same into money or other personal property; Provided always, that the lands, tenements and hereditaments which it shall be lawful for the said Company to hold, shall be only such as shall be requisite for its accommodation in relation to the convenient transaction of its business, or such as shall have been bona fide mortgaged to it by way of security, or conveyed to it in satisfaction of debts previously contracted in the course of its dealings, or purchased at sales upon judgments which shall have been obtained for such debts.

Proviso.

Company not to deal in merchandise nor engage in Banking.

VI. It shall not be lawful for the said Company to deal in, use or employ any part of the funds or moneys thereof, in buying or selling any goods, wares, or merchandize, in the way of traffic, or banking operations; but it shall nevertheless be lawful for the said Company to purchase or hold any stock, Government securities, or other securities, of public companies or funded debt for the purpose of investing therein any part of their funds or money, and also to sell and transfer the same, and again to renew such investment when and as often as a due regard to the interests of the said Company shall require; and also to make loans of the funds on bond and mortgage, and the same to call in and re-loan, as occasion may render expedient.

VII. The property, affairs, and concerns of the said Company, shall be managed and conducted by a Board of seven Directors, one of whom shall be chosen President, and one Vice-President, which Board, in the first instance, and until the first general annual meeting of the Company, and until others may be chosen and appointed as hereinafter provided, shall consist of Henry Yardington, Dr. Alfred Digby, Alexander Bunnell, Arthur Smith, and of which Board two Directors shall go out of office by rotation each year, but who shall, nevertheless, be immediately eligible for re-election as Directors; and the election of two Directors, in place of those so retiring from office, shall be held and made at the general annual meeting of the Company by such of the members thereof as attend for that purpose, either in their own proper persons or by proxy; and all elections of such Directors shall be by ballot, and the two persons who shall have the greatest number of votes at any election, shall be Directors; and if it shall, at any such election, happen that two or more persons have an equal number of votes, in such manner that a greater number of persons than two shall, by a plurality of votes, appear to be chosen Directors, then the said members hereinbefore authorized to hold such election shall proceed to elect by ballot until it is determined which of the said persons so having an equal number of votes shall be Director or Directors, so as to complete the whole number of seven; and the said Directors so chosen, as soon as may be after the said election, shall proceed to elect one of their number to be President, and one other of their number to be Vice-President; and if any vacancy or vacancies shall at any time happen among the Directors, or in the office of President or Vice-President, by death, resignation, removal from the Province or ceasing to hold the interest in the Corporation hereinafter required, such vacancy or vacancies shall be filled up for the remainder of the year in which they may happen, by a person or persons to be nominated by a majority of the Directors; Provided always, that no person shall be elected to the office of Director who is not a member of the Company holding an interest therein, either to the extent of mutual insurance to the amount of Five Hundred Pounds, or if mutually insured to a less amount than Five Hundred Pounds and more than Three Hundred and Fifty Pounds, together with five shares of Proprietary Stock, or if so insured, less than Three Hundred and Fifty Pounds, and more than Two Hundred Pounds, to possess ten shares; and if not mutually insured, or so insured to a less amount than Two Hundred Pounds, then to hold not less than fifteen shares of Proprietary stock.

Board of Directors.

Election of Directors.

Directors to elect President. Vacancies how filled.

Provido.

VIII. The Board of Directors shall name and determine the day for the holding of the general annual meetings of the Company; and public notice of all general meetings shall be given in at least three newspapers that may be published in the Province of Canada, at least one month previous to the time of holding the said general meeting or meetings; and at the first general annual meeting of the Company, to be held as above directed, the members then present shall decide and determine, by a by-law of the Company, to be then passed, the mode and manner in which the two retiring members shall be then and in future elected, General annual meetings. Notice of meeting to be given in newspapers.

and the notice of all subsequent general annual meetings for election of Directors shall contain the names of the two retiring Directors.

Members entitled to votes in proportion to stock

IX. Each member of the said Company shall be entitled to the number of votes proportioned to the amount of stock by him, her, or them insured, or held at least one month prior to the time of voting according to the following rates, that is to say: Mutual members for any sum insured in the said Company, amounting to Fifty Pounds, one vote; Two Hundred Pounds, two votes; Three Hundred and Fifty Pounds, three votes, and Five Hundred Pounds four votes; Proprietary members one vote for each share not exceeding four, five votes for six shares, six votes for eight shares, seven votes for ten shares, and one vote for every five shares above ten.

Corporation not dissolved if Directors be not elected on prop. day.

X. If it shall happen at any time or for any cause that an election of Directors shall not be made on any day when, pursuant to this Act or the ordinances of the Company, it ought to have been made, the said Corporation shall not for that cause be dissolved, but it shall be lawful on any other day to hold and make an election of Directors in such manner as shall be regulated by the By-laws and Ordinances of the Company, and the Directors in office shall so continue until a new election shall be made.

Directors to make By-laws, &c.

XI. Any number of the Directors of the said Company, being a majority of the said Directors, shall have full power and authority to make, prescribe and alter such By-laws, rules, regulations and ordinances as shall appear to them proper and needful, touching the well ordering of the Company, the rates and amount of insurance and issuing policies, the management and disposition of its stock, property, estate and effects, and also to call in any instalment or instalments, assessment or assessments, at such time or season, and times and seasons as they shall think fit, giving due notice thereof as hereinafter provided, and also to declare and cause to be paid or distributed to the respective Stockholders of the Company, any dividend or dividends of profits at such times and seasons as they shall deem expedient, and also to appoint a Secretary and Treasurer, with such salary and allowance to each, as well as to other officers or agents of the Company, and take security from them for the due performance of their respective duties, as they shall think meet and advisable; Provided always, that for the purposes in this section mentioned, except as hereinafter specially provided, a majority of the Directors shall be present and assisting, and it shall not be competent for a Board consisting of a less number of persons than were present at the time, to alter, repeal or amend any matter or things so done.

And appoint officers.

Proviso.

Weekly meetings for dispatch of business.

XII. There shall be a weekly meeting of the Board of Directors of the said Company, and any three or more of the said Directors shall be a quorum for the purpose of transacting and managing the details of the business and affairs of the said Company, and at all meetings of the Board of Directors, all questions before them shall be decided by a majority of voices or votes, and in case of an equality of votes, the President, Vice-President, or presiding Director shall give the casting vote over and above his proper vote as a Director; Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to authorise the making, prescribing, altering or repealing, any by-laws or ordinances of the said Company, or calling in any instalments or assessments on Stock, or declaring dividends of profits, or the appointment of Treasurer or Secretary, or the appointment of salaries to, or securities from officers or agents of the said Company by any less number of Directors, or in any other manner than is mentioned and provided in the next preceding section.

Proviso.

5 XIII. The said Directors, and such others as may be chosen by the said Company, shall receive a reasonable compensation for their attendance at the Board, to be ascertained and determined by a by-law or rule of the Board, which compensation shall not exceed fifteen shillings to members living in the County, nor seven shillings and sixpence to those residing
10 in the Town of Brantford, and the said Directors shall be indemnified and saved harmless by the members of the said Corporation, in proportion to their several interests in the same, in and for their giving out and signing policies of insurance and all other lawful acts, deeds and transactions done and performed in pursuance of, and neither shall the said
15 Directors be answerable for, or chargeable with the defaults, neglects or misdeeds of others of them.

Directors to receive reasonable compensation for attendance at the Board.

XIV. Any person who, Secretary, Deputy Secretary, Treasurer, Clerk, or other officer of the Company, shall be guilty of any wilful fraud in any matter or thing pertaining to his office or the duties thereof, shall be 20 guilty of a misdemeanor; and any person offering to vote in person at any election of Directors in the said Company, who shall falsely personate another, or who shall falsely sign or affix the name of any other person or member of this Company to any appointment of a proxy, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Penalty to officers guilty of falsehood in matters pertaining to their office.

25 XV. The Corporation hereby created, shall have power and authority to make and effect contracts of Insurance with any person or persons, body politic or corporate, against loss or damage by fire, on any houses, stores or other buildings whatsoever; and in like manner on any goods, chattels or personal estate whatsoever, and for such premises and con-
30 siderations and under such restrictions as may be agreed upon by and between the Company and the persons agreeing with them for Insurance, and generally to do and perform all other necessary matters and things connected with and proper to promote those objects.

Power of Company to effect contracts against loss by fire.

XVI. Provided always, that in all cases of mutual Insurance, there
35 shall not be insured more than two thirds of value of any building, nor shall a sum be involved exceeding five hundred pounds on any one risk; and no mutual Insurance shall be effected on buildings or other property, situated in blocks or exposed parts of Towns or villages; nor any kind of mills, carpenters' or other shops, which by reason of the trade or business
40 followed, are rendered extra hazardous, machinery, breweries, distilleries, tanneries, or other property involved in a similar or equal hazard.

No insurance to be over two thirds of value of building insured.

XVII. All policies or contracts of Insurance, issued or entered into by the said Company, shall be signed by the President and countersigned by the Secretary, or as otherwise directed by the rules and regulations of 50 the Company, in case of their absence; and being so signed and countersigned, and under the seal of the said Company, shall be deemed valid and binding upon them according to the tenor and meaning thereof.

Policies to be signed by President and countersigned by Secretary.

XVIII. In all cases of mutual Insurance, the assured shall have title in fee, unincumbered to the building or buildings insured, and the land 51 covered by the same; or if the assured shall have a less title therein, or

Parties insured to have title in fee to property insured.

if the premises be incumbered, then the true title of the assured and the incumbrances on the premises, shall be expressed therein and in the application therefor, otherwise the Policy of Insurance granted thereon to be null and shall be void.

Annual statement of affairs of Company to be made by Directors. XIX. At the annual general meeting of the Company and before the members then assembled, the Board of Directors shall exhibit a full and unreserved statement of the affairs of the Company; of the funds, property and securities, shewing the amount in real estate, in bonds and mortgages, in notes, and the securities thereof, in public debt or stock, and the amount of debt due to and from the said Company. 5 10

Manner of proceeding when losses by fire occur. XX. In case of any loss or damage by fire happening to any property insured with the said Company, immediate notice thereof shall be given by the assured to the Secretary of the Company or to the Agent of the Company, if there should be one acting for it in the neighbourhood of the place where such fire occurred, and shall as soon after as may be furnish to such Agent, or otherwise to the Secretary, a full statement of all particulars of the said fire as far as can be ascertained, together with a detailed account of all damage done, which statement and account shall be verified upon oath by the parties making the same, if required; and the Directors upon a view of the same, or in such other way as they may deem proper, shall ascertain and determine the amount of such loss or damage, and if the party suffering shall not be satisfied with the determination of the Directors, the question shall then be submitted to three disinterested persons as referees, one of whom shall be named by the suffering party and one by the Board, and the two referees so named shall choose a third, and the decision or award of a majority of them shall be binding; and if the award is not satisfactory, either party may sustain its case in an action at law, and if upon the trial of such action a greater sum shall be recovered than the amount determined on by the Directors, the parties suffering shall have judgment therefor against the Company, with interest thereon from the time at which such payment for such loss or damage should have been made by the terms of the policy, had no such question or disagreement arisen, with costs of suit, but if no more shall be recovered than the amount so previously determined, or a less sum be awarded, then the plaintiff or plaintiffs in such suit shall not be entitled to costs against the defendants; and the defendants shall be entitled to costs, as in the case of a verdict for them: Provided always, that no execution shall issue against the said Company upon any judgment until the expiration of six months from the recovery thereof. 15 20 25 30 35 40

Proviso.

Mutual members to be held to pay their portion of losses happening to mutual Branches of Company. XXI. Every mutual member of the Company shall be and is hereby bound and obliged to pay his or her portion of all losses and expenses happening or accruing in or to the mutual branch of the Company, during the continuance of his or her policy of Insurance, and all the right, title, interest and estate at the time of the insurance of the insured, of, in, or to the building insured by and with the said Company, and to the lands on which the same shall stand and to all other lands thereto adjacent, which shall be mentioned and declared liable to the policy of assurance, shall stand pledged to the said Company, and the said Company shall have full power to sell, demise and mortgage the same or any part thereof, to meet the liabilities of the insured, for his, her or their proportion of any losses or expenses happening or accruing to the said Company, during the continuance of his, her or their policy, which sale, demise or mort- 50 gage shall be made in such manner as shall be specified in the policy of the assured.

XXII. The Directors shall, after receiving any notice of any loss or damage by fire sustained by any mutual member with account and proof thereof, and ascertaining the same, or after the recovery of any judgment as aforesaid against the Company for such loss or damage, settle and determine the sums to be paid by the several mutual members thereof, as their respective proportion of such loss, and publish the same in such manner and form as they shall see fit or as by the By-laws shall have been prescribed; and the sum to be paid by each mutual member shall always be in proportion to the original amount of his or her deposit note or notes, and shall be paid to the Treasurer within thirty days next after the publication of such notice; and if any member shall for the space of thirty days after the publication of such notice, neglect or refuse to pay the sum assessed upon him, her or them, or his, her or their proportion of any loss or damage aforesaid, in such case the Directors may sue for and recover the whole amount of his, her or their deposit note or notes with costs of suit; and the money thus collected shall remain with the Treasurer of the Company, subject to the payment of such loss or expense as shall or may accrue during the continuance of his, her or their policy, and the balance, if any remaining, shall be returned to the party from whom it was collected on demand, after thirty days from the expiration of the term for which such insurance was made: Provided always, that no payment, assessment or instalment shall be called in on the said premium or deposit notes until all savings, profits or funds arising from or on account of payments made or moneys received on account of the mutual branch of Insurance of the said Company shall have been first applied to and expended upon the payment of losses or damages previously occurring therein.

Directors to make assessment of sums to be paid by mutual members in cases of loss by fire.

Proviso.

XXIII. If it shall ever happen that the whole amount of deposit notes shall be insufficient to pay the loss occasioned by any one fire or fires, in such cases the sufferers insured by the said Company shall receive towards making good their respective losses a proportionate dividend of the whole amount of such deposit notes, according to the sums by them respectively insured; and any member upon payment of the whole of his or her deposit note, and surrendering his or her policy before any subsequent loss or expense has been incurred, shall be discharged by the said Company.

Provision in case deposit notes are insufficient to cover losses.

XXIV. Whenever any assessment is made on any premium note given to the said Company for any hazard taken by the said Company, or as consideration for any policy of Insurance issued or to be issued by the said Company, and an action is brought to recover such assessment, the certificate of the Secretary of the Company, specifying such assessment and the amount due to the Company on such note by means thereof, shall be taken and received as prima facie evidence thereof in all Courts and places whatsoever.

Certificate of Secretary of assessment on premium note to be prima facie evidence thereof.

XXV. When any house or other building shall be alienated by sale or otherwise, the policy of mutual Insurance shall be void, and be surrendered to the Directors of the Company to be cancelled, and upon such surrender the assured shall be entitled to his, her or their deposit note or notes, upon payment of his, her or their proportion of all losses and expenses that have occurred prior to such surrender: Provided always,

Policies to be void on sale, &c., of buildings insured.

Proviso.

that they or antee or alienee having the policy assigned to him, her or them, may have the same ratified and conferred to him, her or them, for his, her, or their own proper use and benefit, upon application to the Directors, and with their consent,—within thirty days next after such alienation, on giving proper security to the satisfaction of the Directors for such portion of the deposit or premium note as shall remain unpaid; and by such satisfaction and confirmation, the party causing the same shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges, and be subject to all the liabilities to which the original party insured was entitled and subjected under this Act. 5 10

Provision as to destruction of buildings situated upon leased lands.

XXVI. In case any building or buildings, situated upon leased lands and mutually insured by the Company, be destroyed by fire, in such cases the Company may retain the amount of the premium note given for the insurance thereof, until the time for which insurance was made shall have expired, and at the expiration thereof the assured shall have the right to demand and receive such part of the retained sum or sums as has not been expended in losses or assessments. 15

Five per cent. to be paid on each share of proprietary stock on subscribing there-to. Proviso.

XXVII. Five per cent. on each share of the proprietary stock shall be ready as a deposit at the time of subscribing thereto, to be called for by the Directors in such manner and as soon as they may deem expedient, and the remainder shall be paid in such instalments as the Directors for the time being shall appoint; Provided that no instalment shall exceed ten per cent. upon the capital stock, or be called for or become payable in less than thirty days after public notice shall have been given in one or more of the several newspapers published in every county, where stock may be held, to that effect; and if any Shareholder or Shareholders refuse or neglect to pay to the said Directors the instalment due upon any share or shares held by him, her or them, at the time when required by law so to do, such Shareholder or Shareholders as aforesaid, shall forfeit such shares as aforesaid, together with the amount paid them; and the said share or shares so forfeited, it shall and may be lawful for the said Directors to sell, and the sum arising from such sale, together with the amount previously paid thereon shall be accounted for and divided in like manner as the other moneys of the proprietary Branch of this Corporation. 20 25 30

Directors may sue for amount of instalments instead of forfeiting stock, if they think proper.

XXVIII. In case the said Directors shall think it more expedient in any case to enforce the payment of any instalment or instalments of proprietary stock in the said Company, held by any person or persons, and called in and unpaid, than to forfeit the same, it shall and may be lawful for the said Company to sue for and recover of and from such person or persons such instalment or instalments as aforesaid, which shall be so called in, and which shall be unpaid at the time or times when the same shall be due or payable, which said instalments shall be sued for and recovered, with interest thereon, in any action or actions of debt in any Court having jurisdiction in civil cases to the amount; and in any such action, it shall not be necessary to set forth the special matter in the declaration, but it shall be sufficient to allege that the defendant is the holder of one or more shares (stating the number) in the stock, and is indebted to the Company in the sum to which the calls in arrears may amount; and in any such action, it shall be sufficient to maintain the same, that the signature of the defendant to some book or paper by which it shall appear that such defendant subscribed for a share or any certain number of shares of the stock of the said Company, be proved by one witness, whether in the em- 35 40 45 50 ployment of or interested in the Company or not, and that the number of calls in arrear have been made.

XXIX. The proprietary stock of the said Company shall be assignable and transferable, according to such rules as the Board of Directors shall make and establish; and no Stockholder indebted to the Company shall be permitted to make or transfer, or receive a dividend, until such debt be paid or security for its being paid be given, to the satisfaction of the Directors.

Proprietary Stock to be transferable.

XXX. No transferred share or stock shall enable the transferrer to vote until the expiration of thirty days from such transfer.

No transferred share to entitle the transferrer to vote until thirty days from said transfer.

XXXI. If any Insurance on any house or building shall be and subsist in the said Company, and in any other office, or from and by any other person or persons at the same time, the Insurance made in and by this Company shall be deemed and become void, unless such double insurance subsist with the consent of the Directors signified by endorsement on the policy signed by the President and countersigned by the Secretary or otherwise, as directed by the By-laws and regulations of the Company.

Double insurance void except by consent of Directors.

XXXII. In all actions, suits, and prosecutions in which the said Company may be engaged at any time, the Secretary or other officer of the said Company shall be a competent witness, notwithstanding any interest he may have therein.

Officers of Company to be competent witnesses.

The said Company shall, when required by either of the three Branches of the Legislature, make a full and unreserved statement of the affairs of the Company, of the funds, property, and securities shewing the amount in real estate, in bonds, and mortgages, in notes and the securities thereof, in public debt or other stock, and the amount due to and from the said Company, and also a list of the stockholders and of the Directors.

Statement of affairs to be made to Legislature.

INLAND NAVIGATION.

The Company may insure inland navigation risks on the Grand River or any of its tributaries, boats, vessels, grain, produce, lumber, and any description of goods to its destination if in the same bottom (in fact to its destination.) This clause being for the convenience of the Town of Brantford and parties residing and trading on the River, the Company is not authorised to do business in this department elsewhere nor to sanction inland navigation risks in any other quarter.

Inland navigation insurance.

XXXIII. It shall at all times hereafter be lawful for the Legislature of this Province to repeal, alter, or amend this Act, without its being deemed an infringement of the privileges of hereby granted.

May be repealed or amended.

XXXIV. This Act shall be deemed a public Act.

Public Act.
