My hopes for the re-establishment of the Egyptian people have been more than once explained to you, and they remain unchanged.

The queen then thanked the members of the house of commons for the liberal supplies voted by them, and continued.

My lords and commons, the revenue thus far has not fallen short of its anticipated amount. The condition of the finances is in every respect satisfactory.

Expectations of more successful progress in the work of legislation, which I pressed at the close of the last session, have not been wholly disappointed.

The return made by the farmers on June 15 showed that they had in reserve at that date 5,438,485 bushels of wheat, or fully six months' supply for the whole province. The quantity held by millers and stored in warehouses has not been ascertained, but it is not large.
