THE leap year dance given by the young ladies of Watford in the Lyceum on Friday evening was a great success. About forty couples were present. The decorations of blossoms, hearts, bunting, etc. were very attractive. The leap year idea was even carried to the orchestra, the Caughlin Sisters, of Sarnia, being engaged to furnish the music. The gentlemen were given one choice of partners in the first half of the program and several in the second half. The supper provided by the ladies was all that could be desired. All present seemed to thoroughly enjoy themselves. Visitors were present from Sarnia, Forest, Arkona and Alvinston. Another dance is spoken of for the near future.

"VESTED" choir are becoming the real thing in Strathroy churches. And why not? Anyone who has attended St. John's church lately must surely have noticed the quiet dignity the white vestments lent to the services. Where before was a medley of colors and a distraction of shapes, and sizes, plumes and flowers, there is now a quietness such as is fitting should reign when man approaches the All-Powerful. "Forms, forms, forms," may be continually cried down, but it is forms on which the whole world of religion and business is based. And they are not empty forms for merely garish show, either.—AGE.

THE board of education of Toronto has decided to petition the Ontario legislation to make the age for pupils entering school six years instead of five, as at present. Dr. Noble, who fathered the motion, gave reasons for the proposed change. Oculists were unanimous, he said, that concentration of the sight on minutiae in children under seven years resulted in nervous trouble later in life. A child should not go to school before it was ten years old and the doctor was positive that of two children equal in physique and mentality, the one who commences school at ten would be farther advanced at fifteen than the one commencing at five.

THE Oil Springs Advance of last week has the following:—"On Saturday last Mr. W. C. Browne and family took their departure from our village to make their home in Watford. They have been good, faithful members of society, honest and upright, and no one can say aught against them. We can only wish them God speed and success in their new home, and truly say, that what is our loss is Watford's gain." Pioneers of the Sixth Line.

As we drive through this beautiful country in comfortable carriages with splendid homes on every hand little we think of the trials and hardships of the early pioneers.

The Humes settled on the 6th line east early in 1834.

The late Henry Hume was proceeding on foot to Kilworth, near London, for supplies. He met a party, as he stated, of five men and one little girl. They had left Long Point on Lake Erie just 6 weeks before, making their way through the dense, unbroken forest. This party consisted of John Kelly and his young wife (the late Mrs. Esther Kelly), her brother, Thos. McWatters, who was a carpenter and came to see her settled, Wm. Whitcraft, Thos. Norris and Geo. Sweeton.

Mrs. Henry Hume espied the weary travellers coming along the blazed trail and sent little Jimmie Bole, now of Regina, running down to invite the party to come in for tea, which invitation they gladly accepted. There was genuine hospitality in those days. Mrs. Hume remarked that she had plenty of everything but cordial (tea). Mrs. Kelly said that if it would give no offense she could supply that want, having a sack full with her. It was no offense and a copious supply of cordial was prepared and ample justice done. The enjoyment of that meal can better be imagined than described.

After tea John Kelly, and his companions, proceeded to his homestead, purchased from a U. E. Loyalist, lot 22, concession 14, Brooke, now the property of Wm. Greer. Mrs. Kelly was left to visit Mrs. Hume for a couple of hours, while a temporary residence was erected. This homemaking began March 6, 1835, and in future issues your correspondent hopes to relate some of the experiences of those pioneers in after years.

THE BLESSING OF MOTHERHOOD

Healthy Mothers and Children Make Happy Homes

Motherhood is woman's highest sphere in life. It is the fruition of her dearest hopes and greatest desires; yet thousands of noble women through some derangement have been denied this blessing.

In many homes once childless there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy and strong. This is evidenced by the following letters which are genuine and truthful:

London, Ont.—"I wish to thank you for the benefit I received by taking your famous medicine, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Before my baby was born I was so ill I could not stand long or walk any distance. I had to lie down nearly all the time. After I took your medicine I felt like a new woman. I could work from morning till night and was happy and well. I certainly think it relieves pain at childbirth and recommend it to every woman who is pregnant. You may use this testimonial if you like. It may help some other woman."—Mrs. FRANK CORRIN, 132 Adelaide St., London, Ont.

Brooklyn, N.Y.—"I was ailing all the time and did not know what the matter was. I wanted a baby but my health would not permit it. I was nervous, my side ached and I was all run down. I heard that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was good and took the medicine. I have now a beautiful baby and your Compound has helped me in every way."—Mrs. J. J. STEWART, 299 Humboldt St., Brooklyn, N.Y.

and quitting at bedtime. There are people who do this sort of thing year in and year out, and never seem to be any further ahead. The right kind of diligence is a combination of brain and muscle that knows when to quit as well as to begin.

The Orillia Packet reports the following: A prominent educationist says that a well conducted newspaper office is a splendid university for a boy to graduate from. And a high official of the Methodist church of Canada, who travels from coast to coast, says that if he had a dozen boys he should wish every one to serve an apprenticeship in a good newspaper office. To this the Acton Free Press adds—And the high official was the first apprentice and subsequently the editor of the Acton Free Press, and his only son is editor of a Fort William daily.

The following, which is taken from The Brighton Ensign, is a timely suggestion, and many people in the country towns would do well to apply it:—"Before sending your money away to patronize departmental stores, sit down and figure how much your property would depreciate in value if such a thing should happen that Brighton was wiped off the map. The more you can build up your town the more valuable your property becomes. This does not apply only to village property, but the farms surrounding it, when you are knocking the town you are knocking yourself if you have any property in, or near the town."

Time of Long Sermons.

Those who like long sermons should have lived in the seventeenth century. The manner in which the Rev. John Howe, Minister of Great Torrington, in Devonshire, conducted divine service on a public fast day, is thus described by a contemporary:—"Mr. Howe says that upon these occasions he began about nine in the morning with a prayer for about a quarter of an hour, in which he begged a blessing upon the work of the day, and afterward expounded a chapter or psalm, in which he spent three-quarters of an hour; then prayed for about an hour, preached for another hour. After this he retired and took some little refreshment, for about a quarter of an hour (the people singing all the time) and then came into the pulpit and prayed for another hour; and gave them another sermon of about an hour's length; and so concluded the service of the day."

Boston, Mass., April 11.—Abraham Sodekson, who weighed 850 pound, died from fatty degeneration of the heart. Tuesday was the twenty-sixth anniversary of his birth.

Four weeks ago, when Sodekson became ill, he weighed 434 pounds. He gained fifteen pounds a day during his illness.

CONVALESCENTS

Those Recovering from Any Severe Illness

After a long wasting illness, convalescents require nourishing food that will not overtax the digestive functions—and in the way of a strength-restoring and vitality-making tonic, we know of nothing that equals Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic (without oil).

Vinol creates an appetite, re-establishes good digestion and helps the daily food to make rich blood, form flesh, strong muscles and impart new life and vitality to every organ in the body. We ask those who need a strength and flesh-building tonic restorative to call at our store and get a bottle of Vinol, with the understanding that if it does not help them we will refund their money without question. Bulletin on Weeds and the Seed Law.

A bulletin has been issued by the Seed Branch of the Department of Agriculture, Ottawa, giving a full reprint of the Seed Control Act, 1911, which is the law governing the sale of seeds in Canada. This Act, with the regulations of the Governor in Council, names the weeds which are considered most noxious and are particularly legislated against and defines the standards of quality in regard to purity and germination to which seed of various kinds must conform when sold for sowing purposes. The standards for four grades of timothy, red clover, alsike and alfalfa seed are given and full information regarding the law as applied to farmers and the way in which it may be used for their protection.

The second part of the Bulletin deals with seed testing work and the application of the law through seed inspection. Seed laboratories are maintained in Ottawa and Calgary for the use of seedsmen and farmers where samples are tested free of charge.

The largest part of the bulletin and perhaps that of most interest to farmers deals with weeds and seeds. About 90 different species are illustrated and described and with the use of the bulletin the identification of both the growing plants and the seeds should be comparatively easy. The weeds considered noxious under the Seed Control Act are given first, in botanical order. This bulletin will be very interesting and useful to those interested in the identification and control of weeds and the means to adopt to prevent their introduction and spread through commercial seeds. It is known as Bulletin No. S-6 and may be had free on application to the Publications Branch, Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.

SOMETHING THAT SHOULD BE RUBBED IN.—Whenever pain is felt in the limbs or back, take Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil; pour a little in the hand, and applying it to the surface beneath which the pain lies, rub briskly. If the first application does not afford relief, which is not usually the case, keep rubbing. The Oil will gradually penetrate to the affected part and relief will come.

New Small Nose Bullet.

A new form of bullet, which is to be used in the Ross rifle, is credited with these powers: At 500 yards it will penetrate: Hard steel plate 7-16 inches thick. Brick and cement 9 inches thick. Loose sand 30 inches thick. Hardwood, with grain, 38 inches. Softwood 58 inches. Clay 10 inches. Peat or turf 80 inches thick.

Watford merchants have the goods and meet all price competition.

FOR SKIN DISEASES

A Treatment that Costs Nothing Unless It Provides Satisfactory Relief.

We have a grayish-white ointment with a pleasant odor that is clean to use, which we believe is the best known remedy for the relief of skin diseases. It is especially efficacious for overcoming eczema in all its various forms, ringworm, acne, pimples, blotches, insect bites, tetter, certain forms of ulcers, sores and wounds. It is strongly antiseptic, cleansing, soothing and healing. It stops all itching and burning caused by skin eruptions.

We are so positive this ointment is unequalled that we offer it with the distinct understanding that if after having given it a reasonable trial, you are not satisfied with the results, you have only got to tell us and we will, without quibbling, return every cent paid us for it. We exact no promises or obligations whatever.

We want you to try Rexall Eczema Ointment. The first application gives a refreshing sense of relief, and because of its germ destroying power, it eradicates the germ or parasite which causes eczema and many other eruptions. It daily soothes the inflammation, gives protection to the inflamed surfaces, and helps restore healthy tissue. It is particularly active in relieving skin ailments peculiar to children. You certainly cannot lose anything by trying it. We would not dare make this offer except we are positive Rexall Eczema Ointment will satisfactorily benefit you. Two sizes, 50c and $1.00. Remember, you can only obtain it at our store—The Rexall Store. J. W. McLAREN, WATFORD

Taylor & Son, Druggists.

We have been in business in this town for some time, and we are looking to build up trade by always advising our patrons right.

So when we tell you that we have found the effective eczema remedy, you can depend upon it that we give our advice, not in order to sell a few bottles of medicine to skin sufferers, but because we know how it will help our business if we help our patrons.

We keep in stock and sell all the well known skin remedies. But we will say this: If you are suffering from any kind of skin trouble, eczema, psoriasis, rash or better, we want you to try a full size bottle of D.D.D. Prescription.

Again and again we have seen seen how a few drops of this simple wash, applied to the skin, takes away the itching instantly. And the cures all seem to be permanent.

D.D.D. Prescription made by the D.D.D. Laboratories of Toronto is composed of thymol, glycerine, oil of wintergreen and other healing, soothing, cooling ingredients. And if you are just crazy with itch, you will feel soothed and cooled the itch absolutely washed away the moment you apply this D.D.D.

We have made fast friends of more than one family by recommending this remedy to a skin sufferer here and there and we want you to try it now.

Warning.

A young lad presented himself at a butcher shop, and when the burly proprietor appeared, gave a small order. "You don't buy as much meat now as you did," remarked the butcher. "No," replied the lad, "it's because father has become a vegetarian."

"Well, my lad," came the grave rector, "you give your father warning from me that, as a rule, vegetarians come to a violent and untimely end. Take a bullock—'s a vegetarian. 'Wot's the result? 'Why 'e's cut off sudden—in his very prime!"

NOTE AND COMMENT.

Those who are keeping their eyes open and watching developments in the country, see "higher priced and dearer farms" written large on the horizon of the future." Farms in this section will never be cheaper than they are to-day, and the man who invests and returns to the farm will make a wise move. Old Ontario is slowly but surely coming to its own.

There is a big difference between hustle and bustle. Some men in business seem to put half their steam up through the exhaust. If business, noise, change and bull-headedness might be considered essential, some men ought to succeed beyond all peradventure. The thing in business is to make every lick tell. It is not only necessary to hit the nail on the head but drive it. There are men as well as women who try to drive four inch nails with a tack hammer, and the process is as annoying to those around them as it is hopeless for themselves. Diligence in business does not necessarily mean getting down before breakfast

THE FUNNY PUFFER.

A Fish That Blows Itself Up Into a Firm Round Ball.

The funniest little fellow in salt water is the puffer or swell fish. Fishermen call him the blowfish. When he is swimming around at ease with nothing to alarm him he looks queer enough, for the skin of his abdomen is all loose and wrinkled, and he has such a funny little tail and such ridiculous little fins and such a big, three-cornered head that he looks entirely absurd. His mouth, instead of being big and gaping, as most fish mouths are, is only a tiny round hole at the end of a pointed, conical snout. Out of this circular mouth protrude his teeth, like those of a rabbit.

He would be about as homely a fish as could be made if it were not for the beautiful orange and yellow and silver colorings that play all over him.

But queer as he looks when he is at ease it is only when he is frightened or excited that he becomes funny. If he is hooked, for instance, he comes to the surface grinding those protruding teeth so that the sound can be heard a good many feet away. And then as soon as the hand touches him he begins to grunt hoarsely, and with each grunt he swells a bit till within a few moments he has puffed himself so full of air that he is quite round and firm like a ball. So thoroughly does he distend himself with air that when the fisherman hauls him at the water with all his force, as they often do, he will bounce just like a rubber ball.

If he is dropped into the water after blowing himself full of air he floats on it as lightly as thistle-down, and he will stay that way until he has assured himself that danger has gone by. He does the same when pursued by other fish. And as he floats almost entirely out of water, with only a little bit of his hard, spiny body sunk under the surface, very few fish can hurt him once he is inflated.

REBUKED AN EMPEROR.

Gluck Didn't Like the Way Joseph II. Sang His Music.

Gluck, the composer, was not of the sort of men of whom courtiers are made. One day he attended at the court at Vienna a concert at which the Emperor Joseph II. and one of his archdukes sang a fragment from one of Gluck's compositions. Naturally enough, the imperial artists glanced at the composer to see how he was impressed by the honor they were doing him. They were shocked to observe that he was making a series of extraordinary and significant grimaces. The emperor stopped and inquired whether he and the archduke were not singing the bit according to Gluck's idea of how it should be done.

"My idea!" exclaimed Gluck. "Why, sire, I am the poorest walker in the world, but I would vastly rather take a walk of six leagues than be forced to hear a composition of my own interpreted in such a way as that."

Joseph II. was brave enough to take no notice of the criticism, but the court was quite convinced that if such a reproach had been addressed to the Czar Nicholas the composer would have prosecuted his musical studies from that time forth under the unfavorable surroundings of the Siberian mines.

It was the composer Weigl, a man of very different temperament from Gluck, who when the Emperor Francis Joseph played the first violin in the performance of one of his overtures threw himself at the monarch's feet and exclaimed, "Ah, sire, will your majesty benignantly condescend to grant my prayer and favor me once more with a most gracious F sharp?"—New York Press.

Doctors Condemn Oily Liniments

The Public are Warned to Be Careful of These Strong-Smelling Oily Liniments Containing Harmful Acids, Ammonia, Etc.

Many people have clung to the old-fashioned idea that a thick, greasy liniment is the best kind. Doctors say not—and they know.

Recently a number of these white, oily liniments were analyzed, and they were found to contain an enormously high percentage of harmful acids, and such irritating chemicals as ammonia, etc. For the moment they may cause a warm sensation when first applied, but their continued use never cures rheumatism, and only deteriorates the skin, sets up inflammation and causes endless trouble.

When a doctor warns you to quit using a white, oily liniment—do so. He knows that a thick liniment can't penetrate, can't sink through the pores and reach the seat of the pain.

When asked his opinion a few days ago, Dr. Roberts stated that he considered a strong, penetrating, pain-subduing liniment such as "Nerviline," to be superior to any of the white, ammonia liniments. In his twenty-five years of practice he had witnessed cases of rheumatism, sciatica, and lumbago that simply would not respond to ordinary treatment—but Nerviline cured them. The same physician also spoke of the great advantages of keeping a preparation like Nerviline in the house always, because of cramps, diarrhoea, stomach disorders, earache, toothache, headache, and such minor ailments. Nerviline is a first-class cure. There is scarcely an ache or a pain, internal or external, that Nerviline won't cure. In thousands of homes no other pain-relieving medicine is used. Fifty years' continued success and the endorsement of the profession are proof that Nerviline is the liniment for the home.

DOCTORS COULD NOT HELP HIM BUT GIN PILLS DID

"During August last, I went to Montreal to consult a specialist as I had been suffering terribly with Stone in the Bladder. He decided to operate but said the stone was too large to remove and too hard to crush. I returned home and was recommended by a friend to try Gin Pills.

They relieved the pain. I took two boxes and went back to the specialist. He said that when he saw me he could not remove it although he tried for two hours and a half. I returned home and continued to take Gin Pills—and, to my surprise and joy, I passed the stone. Gin Pills are the best medicine in the world, and because they did me so much good, I will recommend them all the rest of my life!"

GUARDING A SECRET.

The Number of Persons Who May Share It With Safety.

In the realm of the multiplication table, where, for example, two and two can be relied on to make exactly four, reckoning is easy, but when you leave the field of abstract numbers and deal with persons strange results sometimes appear. Such a case is described in Lady Dorothy Nevill's book, "Under Five Reigns."

With regard to the number of persons who may safely be trusted with a secret, there is no proverbial authority for believing it to exceed two. We are told in several languages that "the secret of two is God's secret, the secret of three is all the world's," and the Spaniards say, "What three know all the world knows."

A gentleman who had gained possession of a valuable commercial secret confided it to a friend who appreciated its value. A short time afterward this friend came to ask permission to communicate it, under oath of eternal secrecy, to a friend of his who would be likely to assist in utilizing the secret to the best advantage.

"Let me see," said the original possessor of the secret, making a chalk mark on a board at hand. "I know the particulars. That makes one."

"One," agreed his friend.

"You know them," continued he, making another mark by the side of the one already made. "That makes two."

"Two!" cried the other.

"Well, and if you tell your friend, that will be"—making a third mark.

"Three," said the other.

"No," was the reply—"Lil"—Life.

WRITE your name and address in the lines above, clip out this ad, and mail it now. We will send, by return mail, a book that tells how to make yours a "Twentieth Century" farm.

You wouldn't be satisfied to use a scythe to cut your grain, when a modern harvester can do it so much better, would you? Nor to use the old soft-iron plough-share that your ancestors walked behind, when you can get an up-to-date riding plough? Every Canadian farmer realizes the advantages of Twentieth Century implements.

The next step is Concrete

The 20th Century Material—Concrete

Concrete is as far ahead of brick, stone, or wood as the harvester is ahead of the scythe or the riding-plough is ahead of the old iron plough-share.

Concrete is easily mixed, and easily placed. It resists heat and cold as no other material can; hence is best for ice-houses, root-cellars, barns, silos and homes. It never needs repair; therefore it makes the best walks, fence-posts, culverts, drain-tiles, survey monuments, bridges and culverts. It cannot burn; you can clean a concrete poultry-house by filling it with straw and setting the straw afire. The lice, ticks and all germs will be burned, but the house is uninjured.

It is cheap—sand and gravel can be taken from your own farm. Cement, the only material you must buy, forms from one-seventh to one-tenth of the whole volume.

Do you want to know more about Concrete on the Farm? Then write your name and address in the lines above, or on a postcard, mail it to us, and you will receive by return mail a copy of

"What the Farmer Can Do With Concrete"
Not a catalogue, but a 160-page book, profusely illustrated, explaining how you can use concrete on YOUR farm.

ZAM-BUK IN THE HOME.

Read How Useful It Proved in These Widely Different Cases.

Zam-Buk's strongest point is its effectiveness in all kinds of skin diseases and injuries. Just note how excellent these persons proved it in widely different directions.

SORE HEEL.—Mrs. C. A. Campbell, of Powassan, Ont., writes: "One of my heels was very badly blistered by a pair of new shoes, and the poisonous dye from my stocking got into it, and made a bad sore. For a week I could not put on a shoe, and suffered great pain. I applied Zam-Buk and in a few days it drew the poison out and healed the wound."

BAD CUT.—Mrs. J. Virgint, of Onondaga, Ont., writes: "Zam-Buk healed a bad cut which I sustained. I was hurrying across my yard one day when I slipped and fell heavily, my knee striking a sharp stone. At the moment I did not realize how badly I was hurt, but I found I had a bad cut about two inches long, very jagged and very deep. We bathed the cut and applied Zam-Buk. This stopped the smarting very quickly, and in a few days it had healed the wound completely. For cuts and bruises Zam-Buk is a splendid remedy."

ECZEMA CURED.—Mrs. Antoine Arsenault, of Maximville, P.E.I., writes: "I can highly recommend Zam-Buk to any person suffering from eczema. I had this disease and was under doctors' treatment for two years, without any good result. I then tried Zam-Buk and in the end it cured me."

Zam-Buk is just as good for piles, blood-poison, itchy sores, pimples, eruptions, cuts, burns, bruises, and all skin injuries and diseases. 50c. box all druggists and stores, or post free for price from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. Try Zam-Buk Soap, 25c. tablet.

Titanic Goes Down With 1,300 Lives.

New York, April 15.—The greatest marine disaster in the history of the world occurred last Sunday night, when the Titanic, of the White Star Line, the largest and finest of steamships, shattered herself against an iceberg and sank with 1,300 of her passengers and crew in less than four hours. Out of nearly 2,200 people that she carried, only 866 were saved, and most of these were women and children. They were picked up from small boats by the Cunarder Carpathia, which found, when she ended her desperate race against time, a sea strewn with the wreckage of the lost ship and the bodies of drowned men and women.

DARK ROOM TESTING

Every child on reaching the age of seven years should have the eyes examined. Many children have defective vision, and it often happens that one eye only is affected. This throws all the work on the better eye while the other through disuse frequently loses its function entirely. With proper lens correction this trouble will be wholly overcome. If accompanied by parents we will be glad to examine children's eyes free of charge.

SPRING BLOOD IS WATERY BLOOD

How to Get New Health and New Strength at This Season.

Spring ailments are not imaginary. Even the most robust find the winter months most trying to their health. Confinement indoors, often in overheated and nearly always badly ventilated rooms—in the home, the office, the shop and the school—taxes the vitality of even the strongest. The blood becomes thin and watery and is clogged with impurities. Some people have headaches and a feeling of languor. Others are low-spirited and nervous. Still others are troubled with disfiguring pimples and skin eruptions, while some get up in the morning feeling just as tired as when they went to bed. These are all spring symptoms that the blood is out of order and that a medicine is needed. Many people take purgative medicines in the spring. This is a serious mistake. You cannot cure yourself with a medicine that gallop through your system and leaves you weaker still. This is all that a purgative does. What you need to give you health and strength in the spring is a tonic medicine that will enrich the blood and soothe the jangled nerves. And the one always reliable tonic and blood builder is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. These Pills not only banish spring weakness but guard you against the more serious ailments that follow, such as anaemia, nervous debility, indigestion, rheumatism, and other diseases due to bad blood. In proof of this Mrs. Emma Duck, Carleton Place, Que., says:—"I was greatly troubled with weak spells, dizziness and extreme nervousness, and did not find anything to help me until acting on the advice of an aunt I began the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. After using five boxes I found my health fully restored, and cheerfully recommend the pills to others."

If you are alling this spring you cannot afford, in your own interest, to overlook so valuable a medicine as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Sold by all medicine dealers or for sale at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Chi-Namel Demonstration

AT THE CHI-NAMEL STORE

—ON—

TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY, April 30th, May 1st

We have the sales agency for the line of all-purpose varnish, which is so far ahead of any varnish that has ever been sold in this community, that we particularly desire an early opportunity to show its good points to some member of every household in our business district.

What we want you to know about this wonderful varnish is something that cannot be told; but we can show you in a very few minutes that you get more for your money every time by using Chi-Namel Varnish for floors, woodwork, furniture, or anything about the house on which varnish is used.

This varnish is furnished in the natural color and also in a full variety of colors. It can be hammered and boiled and otherwise abused without showing any signs of abuse. Any amateur can apply it to large surfaces and get just as smooth a finish as a professional finisher—no laps, no brush marks, no blotches to make a patchy appearance.

You will thank us for this invitation after you have come to know all about it.

Other features we want to show you are the Chi-Namel Ready-to-Use Graining Process, by which you can cover all blemishes in your old floors and make them any color you wish, and also produce the grain of oak or other woods.

Old carpets can be made into rugs and a new hardwood border will take the place of the ugly flooring at a cost of but 2c. per square foot.

We will gladly explain all these features at our store if you give us the opportunity.

the body of her husband, in his night robe, in the bath-room. On the floor beside him was a double-barrelled shotgun, one barrel of which had been discharged. The unfortunate man had placed the muzzle under his chin and had fired, part of his head and face being carried away.

Dr. Kidd was at once summoned, and he in turn notified Dr. Calder, of Petrolia, who decided that an inquest was unnecessary.

The late Mr. Gunne had been in Wyoming for twenty-six years. He was known as a clergyman of high attainments, and his work never flagged in the interests of his fellow-men. The keenest regret is felt here at his untimely end, and the most profound sympathy is being extended to the bereaved family. He is survived by the widow and three children—Teddy, of the Bank of Toronto in Ottawa; Geraldine, who is attending business college in London, and Arthur at home.

A MOTHER'S PRAISE OF BABY'S OWN TABLETS

Mrs. Wm. Sullivan, Main River, N. B., says:—"Up to the time my baby was three months old it cried almost continually day and night. I tried many things but got nothing to help it until a neighbor advised Baby's Own Tablets. I got a box of these and there was a change almost after the first dose and in a short time the child was in the best of health, and is now a big, fat, good-natured baby. I am now never without the Tablets in the house and recommend them to other mothers." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

In loving memorial of Kathleen McDonald, who died on March 29th, 1912.

Dear Kathleen is gone to dwell above,
Her childish troubles o'er
For Jesus took her to His home
On yonder golden shore.

Dear Kathleen has but gone before,
To be an angel bright,
And now she's waiting on the shore
All robed in spotless white.

'Twas but a few short years she stayed,
The life and joy of home,
But now she's gone to heaven to rest,
'Tis an eternal home.

Methinks I hear her softly say,
To her lonely parents dear
Don't wish me back fond mamma
For I'm so happy here.

You will miss me sore at sunset,
When the long night shadows fall,
For I dwell beyond the starlight
And will not hear your call.

You will waken oft at midnight
And will think of that dear head,
That your bosom softly pillowed
Resting now among the dead.

Do not mourn for me dear parents,
Meekly bear the chastening rod,
Think that I am always with you,
I who loved you next to God.

From a near and dear friend,—C. B.

Rev. John Gunne Takes His Own Life.

Rev. John Gunne, rector of Wyoming, Wanstead and Camlachie, ended his life at his home in Wyoming on Monday morning. Although a man very robust in appearance he had not been in the best of health for some time. For months he found it impossible to sleep, but while his condition was sufficient to cause uneasiness, it was not thought that his mind had become affected. Early Monday morning his wife heard the report of a gun in the house and at once set about investigating. After a time she found
