Final Messages From the Two Leaders

"The great majority of the clergymen of Ontario are entitled to and have the confidence of the people. But a small minority among them, anxious above everything else to turn my government out of office, are not ashamed to come out openly and denounce from their pulpits, in violent and unbecoming language, all who dare to support the government, as bad citizens and bad men. In a British and a Christian country such conduct is intolerable, and I respectfully call upon all self-respecting men in their congregations to resent this conduct in a way that these men will never forget."

"Ontario is against the Bar. The people will have the opportunity of wiping it out on Monday. I believe the men of Ontario will rise above party ties and affiliations and take advantage of the opportunity. I appeal to the young men of Ontario, who have suffered from the curse of the open bar. We promise to pass legislation completely wiping out Club and Hotel Licenses; to amend the Local Option law; to make Local Option county wide; to impose further restrictions as may be necessary to limit operations of the traffic; to put into effect our tax reform proposals."

The Moral Issue Behind Sir James

It is rather late in the day to say that moral questions should be kept out of politics. It was chiefly on great moral principles that the cataclysm of 1905 depended for explosive force. There is nothing so near the nature of an earthquake in politics as a great moral question. When Vesuvius or Etna has been at rest for a century or two, it seems unfair that another eruption should come along and overwhelm the busy workers who counted on their personal influence with Providence for an established order of things. But this is the way the kosmos is constituted, and the subterranean rumble of the moral issue is once more shaking up the political world. Nothing is so uncertain as an eruption. It may blow the top off the mountain, or it may only emit a few lava streams and scorch up some of the busy-workers on the hill-sides and overwhelm their habitations. We are inclined to think the present eruption is likely to be of this minor degree. The cause of all eruptions is the lack of vents for the outlet of interior forces. In politics the real force is moral force. It takes different forms and seeks various results. They are all summed up in good government. The question is whether the moral forces of the province had sufficient outlet in the measures adopted by the Whitney administration in the past nine years. We believe that in the main this has been the case. Had it been wholly so, the present situation would not have arisen. Such vents as a little attention to tax reform and women suffrage and further temperance legislation would have supplied, would have released most of the pressure that now threatens an upheaval, but there have been other vents, and quite adequate ones.

Sir James Whitney, to drop the metaphor, is the big issue in the present election. He charged the opposition leader in his recent speech with having been willing to gamble on the premier's health for political power. It has been a revelation, not altogether out of the region of the miraculous, that Sir James appeared last Tuesday and made the long, forceful and awakening speech that he did. It was hard to believe that he was three-score-and-ten. It was hard to believe that for many weeks he had been lying at death's door, exhausted with nine years' labor for the people of Ontario. Here he was once more, bluff and hearty, keen and shrewd, and smiling, sturdy as Greathart, and not a gray hair that anybody could bring down in sorrow. It was impossible not to think of Palmerston, shrewd and far-sighted at 80, and just such another in the hearts of the people as Premier Whitney, who is quite as likely to hold his place in the people's hearts till the same octogenarian limit, still active, vigorous and progressive.

Regarding Sir James as the chief asset of the Conservative party, it is apparent that the government is prepared to sustain a very considerable shake-up without experiencing vital danger. In a legislature of 110 seats, the opposition goes into the battle with 18 champions. That is 37 less than half. There has never been an election in Ontario where, among men generally capable of forming an opinion, there was more hesitation about making a forecast of the result. Should the province, for example, repeat its 96,000 majority for abolition of twelve years ago, what would be the result? Will the influence of the Dominion Alliance, and the churches, and the young temperance Conservatives, and the old Grits of 1905 returning to their party allegiance, and the discontents on tax reform and other issues, form a body of force strong enough to upset the preponderance of the Conservatives? We are inclined to think that Sir James Whitney's personal influence will be sufficient, and, indeed, ought to be sufficient, to maintain him in power. The 96,000 majority was on a plebiscite, and not a party vote. The churches are notoriously unreliable in their voting. The young temperance Conservatives are mostly too young to vote. As many Liberals will desert the anti-bar policy as Conservatives may join it. And the opposition has not given the prominence or the hearty endorsement to tax reform and such issues as might have stirred the business vote and the corporations.

Another big interest is said to be involved, and the corporations are reported to be antagonizing Sir James. Locally, we are invited to contrast Mr. Moss and Mr. Irish, and one cannot say there is anything to choose between them in this respect. Mr. Irish was a violent anti-Hydro man in critical times. No man in Ontario dare to be anti-Hydro today. Neither party can do anything but compete for public favor by supporting all the Hydro proposals, radials, generation, farm extensions, that have been outlined by the Ontario Commission. Sir James would be all the stronger in the country without the presence of his pro-corporation supporters in the legislature. Our editorial "Ave" to Mr. Rowell is being widely quoted by Liberal papers, but it must be remembered that we closed that send-off with the warning that "a great fight can be made for God and the people, but no one need ever expect to derive inspiration from the slogan: 'For God and the Corporations.'"

The two chief issues in the campaign remain, and Mr. Rowell has chosen them both—the bar and the bilingual school. On these also we believe the final decision of the people must depend on their judgment of Sir James Whitney's career. His record on the temperance question is clear. Under his administration the closing of the bars has gone on in a way that in Great Britain would be regarded as revolutionary. In nine years 1200 bars have been closed, leaving only 1600 in the province. If any statesman in England passed such legislation as would permit a quarter, not to say almost half the taverns in the country being shut up, he would be regarded as a philanthropist and a saint. The liberal standard of philanthropy and sainthood reaches higher than the will of the people, however, but we doubt whether it is to be expected that the legislative vote will in this particular outrun the municipal expression of opinion. Sir James has been notably progressive in his temperance legislation, and he has promised as clearly as he has ever promised in his career, to continue his progressive policy. We have already anticipated from him more stringent regulations regarding the liquor shops. There will certainly be no relaxation of the license measures, and it is quite possible Sir James may see his way to segregate the beer and wine licenses and reduce and confine the spirit licenses to more restricted areas. At all events, Sir James' temperance policy appeals to many earnest temperance reformers in Ontario, and apart from party exigencies it does not call for reproach.

On the bilingual question there is no doubt of the situation. The French-Canadian press openly calls upon its readers to vote for Mr.

FIGHT TO FINISH WITH TORONTO LABOR MEN

Sheet Metal Workers Who Walked Out of Royal Bank Building and A. B. Ormsby Co., Their Employers, Determined Not to Give in Till One Side is Beaten.

"We are in this fight to stay, and we will fill our shop with non-union men, and if it costs us every cent we have in our firm we are willing to spend it, because it means that if the sheet metal workers win this strike we are out of business."

This statement was made last night by Mr. Hale of the A. B. Ormsby Company, whose mechanics, numbering 123, quit work on the Royal Bank building now under course of construction, and at the Ormsby works at the corner of King and Baiter streets.

The strike is the climax to a long-drawn jurisdictional trouble that has existed between the carpenters and sheet metal workers. The carpenters claim the right to hang the lintels, doors, which are made of steel trim and finished to represent mahogany. The walk-out of the men involved one-half of the Toronto Metal Workers' Union and the step was taken after a turbulent meeting held in the Labor Temple on Thursday night.

Mr. Hale states that his firm has proven that the sheet metal men are not fitted either by training or by their tools to handle this class of work, and even the carpenters receive higher wages, the cost to the firm is less eventually, because carpenters do the work better and because by tools and training they are equipped for hanging doors.

"The work is new in Canada," declared Mr. Hale, "and I have seen this thing fought out in the States and I can show numerous letters from manufacturers throughout the States who will bear out the claims of the carpenters. We have no quarrel with our men. We have always encouraged the most friendly relations with them, but any layman could see for himself that this work, which has caused the present friction, is essentially connected with the craft of a carpenter and we shall either win or cease to make another door in our factory."

Rowell, while it denounces Sir James as a tyrant. Ontario is not likely to abandon the tyranny of the tongue of Shakspeare. Sir James Whitney has been the greatest, broadest-minded, most progressive, most radical statesman that Ontario has yet been blessed with. In a time of moral upheaval it is only just to remember that gratitude is a moral sentiment, and the recognition of integrity, honesty and good faith a deeply-rooted moral issue. If we are to reward these political virtues by rejection, the moral temper of Ontario is not what we judge it to be. We shall not be at all disturbed if Mr. Rowell gains some accessions to his slender ranks. An opposition of forty or more would be an excellent tonic, not for Sir James, who does not need it, but for some of his followers, who are inclined to forget the ideals on the strength of which Sir James came into power. He has been loyal to them, and he will continue to be, and we believe the people of Ontario will be loyal to him.

NO SALARIES TO TEACHERS WHO MUTNIED

Judge Declined to Grant Request on Behalf of Bilingual Instructors in Ottawa Separate Schools—Fight Centres Around Constitutionality of Famous Regulation.

OTTAWA, June 26.—The bilingual case before Justice Lennox was adjourned this afternoon until such time as the statistics and information prepared by the provincial department of education is ready. Accordingly no definite date could be fixed for the case to be resumed and argued.

Before the adjournment, A. C. MacMaster, acting for the defence, asked that an order be made allowing the schoolboard to pay the teachers for their services up to date. Of qualified, since their permits had not been renewed. In addition, the plaintiffs claim that the other teachers in the bilingual schools are not qualified, because they have not completed with the board's tests and only English in the higher forms. Accordingly, all the teachers in the bilingual schools, it is the contention of the plaintiffs, are disqualified, except those in the first forms.

Mr. MacMaster argued that it would be a hardship to keep from these teachers their pay since the time the injunction was applied for, some three months ago. It was not the quarrel of the teachers; they were not responsible for that the board had done and should not be kept from their pay.

Mr. Tilley, acting for the plaintiffs, opposed any such order on the grounds that they had taken a more or less active part in the trouble in some instances and it would be unwise to interfere with the injunction. The judge held that he would not interfere with the injunction at this time and consequently these teachers could not be paid. He said he understood that some good friends had advanced them loans and they were in no real hardship. However, while he made no order, he pointed out that the injunction did not cover the teachers in the Irish schools, and if their money was held back they could get into a difficult position. He suggested that there should be some understanding with regard to whom it should be paid.

The remarks of the judge would indicate that the chief fight will be to prove whether the regulation complained of which requires the English language to be the language of communication in all the higher classes is constitutional or not. He said he understood that some good friends had advanced them loans and they were in no real hardship. However, while he made no order, he pointed out that the injunction did not cover the teachers in the Irish schools, and if their money was held back they could get into a difficult position. He suggested that there should be some understanding with regard to whom it should be paid.

HAMILTON FIREMAN DROPS DEAD AT FIRE

SPECIAL TO THE TORONTO WORLD.
HAMILTON, June 26.—Captain Robert Wilson of the Park Company was stricken with heart trouble while attending a fire at 211 Leitch street to night and succumbed before medical assistance could be secured. The officer had just taken a nozzle from the hose wagon and was handing it to one of his men when he suddenly fell to the road. First aid methods were immediately applied, but the physician on arrival declared that death had been almost instantaneous.

A FRESH POINT OF VIEW.

Yesterday a letter was published from Hon. Clifford Sifton saying that the abolition of the bar was of import serious enough to make it the single issue in this election.

Speaking at Galt last night Mr. W. F. Maclean, without taking up Mr. Sifton's view, said he would like to see the liquor question hereafter removed from the sphere of politics, and dealt with by the voters in a direct referendum, as is the practice in New Zealand. That is, when the citizens are voting once every four years on the general political issues of the country they be given a special ballot with three questions on it:

BLAMES COLLIER FOR WRECKING OF EMPRESS

C.P.R. Counsel Contends in Addressing Commission of Inquiry, That Liner's Loss Resulted From Putting of Helm Hard Aport Without Orders.

CANADIAN PRESS DISPATCH.
QUEBEC, June 26.—Because her wheel was first put to port and then, without the authority of the officer in charge, put hard aport when she had steered away, Butler Aspinall, K.C., in the course of his address to the Empress of Ireland Wreck Commission this afternoon, contended that the Storstad was responsible for the disaster on May 29, in which 1014 people lost their lives. Mr. Aspinall asked the commission to find that the crew of the Storstad were inaccurate when they claimed the collier did not answer her helm and reasoned that the change in the course of the vessel on the port helm took her into the side of the stationary liner at right angles and at sufficient speed to cause the wound from which the Empress capsized. If no such change had taken place, he said, the two ships would have passed safely.

Mr. Aspinall further declared that to find that the Empress starboarded her helm, as assumed by the Storstad legal battery, would be to charge perjury to Captain Kendall, who claimed no alteration took place in the heading of his ship, and that she was stopped like a log in the water, as indicated by the signals heard on the collier.

In his address, which occupied three hours, only while confining at the idea of Captain Kendall telling a deliberate lie when he only recently faced death, did Mr. Aspinall become at all dramatic. For the rest he was calmly and coolly argumentative, relieving the tedium of such an extended effort on the courtroom by touches of humorous or cutting sarcasm. The crowd broke into a laugh when he described the unanimity with which the Storstad's officers recalled that they had ascertained that the vessel's heading was not altered by the porting or the hard aporting of the helm as "a remarkable affection for the compass" under most unusual circumstances.

Culprit in Case.
The first definite suggestion of personal responsibility for the disaster during the hearing of the commission was made by Mr. Aspinall when he held that Third Officer Saxe, who had taken the collier's wheel from the helmsman and put it hard aport, was "the culprit in the case." Saxe's argument that his action did not affect the ship, he said, "was an attempt to clear himself with his Norwegian clients."

Crew Did Duty.
Mr. Aspinall said that no passengers had come forward to suggest that any of the officers or crew of the Empress had been derelict in their duties, while many had praised them for what they had done. There was no suggestion either that the officers and crew of the Storstad had failed to render all the assistance within their power. He was not arguing that there was not confusion after the collision, but he claimed there was no panic. The evidence showed how men of the Empress had stuck to their posts.

Chief Justice McLeod, who has been acting on the commission with Lord Mersey and Sir Adolphe Routhier, will leave with the Canadian and British assessors on Sunday for Montreal, and will on Monday make an examination of the damaged bow of the Storstad.

TRAFFIC PROBLEM UP AGAIN TODAY

Railway Company Claims It Cannot Afford to Make Changes.

PROTECTING THE PEOPLE

Any Feasible Method Will Be Adopted, Says R. J. Fleming.

The most interesting moment in the discussion of Toronto's downtown traffic congestion, and the report of the experts on it, will occur before the Ontario Railway Board this morning. A multitude of minor matters was swept off the slate yesterday in two hearings in preparation for the study of the demand for an approximate expenditure of three millions by the company in the supplying of new cars and the building up of the system, in general. The company take the ground that they cannot afford the cost, and the board thus far seems determined that new cars be added.

The recent order of the board, necessitating the reconstruction and lowering of car platforms, brought a protest from the railway. They claimed that the cars on hand could not be remodelled in that way. Chairman McIntyre, however, said that the order was going thru, as he was tired of delay. At least 184 could be treated in the proposed fashion. After discussion Manager Fleming agreed to have the change made on 24 by Aug. 15 and a report submitted on the remainder by Sept. 1. In all the board order applies to 202 cars. In regard to heating the cars, the company favored the installation of a hot air system, and a report with plans will be handed in by October. The new arrangement would mean an expenditure of $200 in each case. Another report will be made as to the advisability of installing telephones through the whole line of trackage. Press buttons will also be used on all new cars instead of bell pulls. The care of passengers took up an hour of discussion and to prevent the crowding of the rear platform on closed cars the company will prepare an expert report to submit for the board's approval. The board insists that conditions of last winter do not continue and that women especially must be protected. The evidence of the board expert, C. R. Barnes, was that when a car is discharging passengers, those passing on the other track must come to a standstill till passengers have reached the sidewalk. The company expressed willingness to institute any feasible method of protection.

TEACHERS GIVEN PRINTED ORDERS

Interesting Evidence Brought Out Regarding Bilingual School Controversy.

Canadian Press Despatch.

OTTAWA, June 26.—It developed at the hearing of the bilingual school case before Mr. Justice Lacombe today that at the time of the famous walk-outs of pupils here a year ago, when Protestant inspectors visited the English-French schools, the orders from parents to teachers directing that their children should be taught in French and that they should leave when the Protestant inspectors appeared, were for the most part on printed forms. Presumably these forms were distributed among the French families by the trustees who opposed the bilingual regulations. The letter form read: "I have learned with regret that the government of Ontario has just ordered that French be taught only in the first form of the bilingual schools. It is with no little regret that I see the absolute control of our schools passing into the hands of English Protestant inspectors. I find that this is an unmitigated injustice and I protest against this outrageous law. French and English must be taught, but before all our children must learn French, their mother tongue. In consequence, I order that French be taught my children in all the classes and that my children leave the school on the arrival of the Protestant inspectors. Many Ratepayers Deserted. It also came out in the evidence that owing to the trouble between the French and the education department a great percentage of English speaking ratepayers in Ottawa were deserting the separate schools and going over to the public. Deputy Minister of Education Colquhoun admitted that the department granted permits to non-certificated teachers, but only where boards could not secure qualified teachers. Such cases were becoming fewer. He said the reason Protestant inspectors had been appointed for the French separate schools in this district was because there were no qualified Roman Catholics available.

BIG ATTENDANCE AT ARENA GARDENS

Motion Picture Exhibition Again Proves Popular With Large Crowd.

LIFE OF NAPOLEON

Exceptionally Fine Pictures Were Shown by Warner's Feature Company.

Again yesterday the theatre installed at the Arenas Gardens proved quite inadequate for the large number of people visiting it. The Warner Feature Company supplied an exceptionally strong program which greatly pleased the vast audiences.

"A Born Warrior," a magnificent three-act production dealing with the life of Napoleon, followed by a sequel "Exiled," also in three parts, showing his later events in the Great French chief's life, were perhaps the greatest attraction. The plays are wonderfully well executed, the former taking place in the early age of the great general. All his important campaigns and battles are portrayed with a faithfulness to history.

"Settle of Waterloo." In the second chapter the history of Napoleon stands revealed, right from the battle of Waterloo to the scenes aboard the exile ship which takes him to St. Helena. The last stand of the "Old Guard" is a magnificent production.

In the second feature, "Mother Love," Marion Leonard is seen in a great advantage in a story written to suit this great actress. This proved a popular feature with the visitors. Altogether nearly 3500 visited the Gardens.

Perhaps the chief beauty of the picture which have been shown during the exhibition was the wonderful clearness of them. In spite of the improved screen, which was not of the best, Powers' No. 5A machine overcame all the difficulties and made the pictures magnificently clear with very little flicker. A very large number of people visited the dance room during the evening. Rose E. Tapley, Today's program will consist of the usual attraction with the Famous Players' Company occupying the theatre. This company will produce Jesse Langley's latest release, "The Only Son," a magnificent photo play featuring William E. Rose. During the day Miss Rose E. Tapley, the charming and popular leading lady of the Vitaphone Company, will be present to receive her many friends in the reception room of the association. Starting at 8 o'clock the usual dance will be given in the conference hall.

"NATIONAL HERO SERIES" NO. 4

Lord Nelson—Old England's Great Naval Hero

WITHOUT Horatio Nelson, England would have been invaded and perhaps conquered by Napoleon. At Trafalgar he smashed forever the French Emperor's hope of creating a naval power. Never was man more idolized and beloved—not only by all of England's people who breathlessly awaited news of his telling victories, but by every man of his fleet. A true Anglo-Saxon, he detested tyrannous powers and legislative usurpations of every kind. He was particularly opposed to prohibitive enactments governing the diet of his men, who, like him, enjoyed barley-malt brews, even as their fathers did for countless generations before. Good beer, according to Lord Nelson, has ever been good food. Budweiser Beer for 77 years has been the product of an institution holding the highest ideals known to the ancient art of brewing. The output, due to Quality and Purity, has increased every year until 7,500 men are daily required to keep pace with the public demand. Budweiser sales exceed any other beer by millions of bottles.

Tourists Were Given Royal Reception and Shown Sights of City.

Special to The Toronto World. HAMILTON, June 26.—Over 175 delegates to the Ad Club convention, which concluded its sessions in Toronto on Thursday, arrived in the city today and were given a royal welcome by prominent citizens. At the station the visitors were met by Controllers Cooper and Morris, and representatives from the board of trade, C.M.A., and a special reception committee of ladies, who looked after the delegates' wives. Fifty autos took the sightseers on a tour of the city, during the course of which inspections were made of the leading manufacturing plants of the east end. Among the industries visited were the Oliver Chilled Plow Company, the International Harvester Company, and the Steel Company of Canada. The party were then taken up the east end incline, in order to gain a panoramic view of the Ambitious City. At the terminal station special cars were in waiting, which conveyed the tourists to the Royal Hamilton Yacht Club for luncheon. Later the majority of the delegates went to the races, leaving the city in the evening for their homes.

Foster, a young man who describes himself as a business expert from the United States and a Harvard graduate, was arrested yesterday on complaint of Mrs. Simmons, 105 Bay street south, that he had defrauded her out of a considerable sum of money. ### How to Obtain Good Digestion

The Stomach Must Be Toned and Strengthened Through the Blood. The victim of indigestion who wants to eat a good meal, but who knows that suffering will follow, finds but poor consolation in picking and choosing a diet. As a matter of fact you cannot get relief by cutting down your food to a starvation basis. The stomach must be strengthened until you can eat good, nourishing food. The only way to strengthen the stomach is to enrich the blood, tone up the nerves and give strength to the stomach that will enable it to digest any kind of food, is through a fair use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The one mission of these pills is to make rich, red blood that reaches every organ and every nerve in the body, bringing renewed health and activity. The following case illustrates the value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in curing indigestion. Mrs. T. Reid, Orangeville, Ont., says: "I have much pleasure in testifying to the reliability of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. For several years I had suffered greatly from stomach trouble. Several doctors prescribed for me, but their medicine did not help me. After every meal I would suffer great pain, and would often be attacked with nausea. I grew weak and had almost lost all hope of recovery. At this juncture I decided to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which were recommended to me. In these pills at last found the right medicine, and I am once more in good health. I have much pleasure in sending you my testimonial in the hope that it will encourage some suffering persons to try this sure remedy." Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all medicine dealers or will be sent by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

POLICE DISCOVER LIVE "BLIND PIG"

Big Stock of Liquor in Rear of Little Store on Maria Street.

TWO MEN ARE ARRESTED

Closing Exercises of Junction College of Music Big Success.

Yesterday about mid-day inspector Marshall and two constables from the Keele Street Police Station discovered a "blind pig" in the rear of a little shop at 288 Maria street.

When the constables entered the rear of the shop they discovered quite a stock-in-trade. Artfully disposed on shelves and tables, in drawers and in cupboards were 55 quart bottles of a well-known brewery's triple X.

Three and one-half gallon kegs of ale stood in a corner of the room and three quart bottles of whiskey, a quart of gin and six quarts of wine, in addition to several opened bottles, were also lined up, and five men, all Canadians, and all more or less intoxicated, were found in the place.

The closing exercises of the Toronto Junction College of Music were held last night in the assembly hall of the college, 1684 Dundas street.

The county solicitor will be asked to draft a sanitary bylaw governing drainage and general sanitation. It will restrict the building of cess pools within certain limitations, and is designed to improve the sanitary conditions of the township.

E. YORK CANDIDATE AT BALMY BEACH

Another Enthusiastic Meeting in George S. Henry's Campaign.

CLAIM IT WASN'T DONE

Handsome Bishop's Chair Donated to St. Chad's Church.

Hundreds were turned away from the Conservative meeting held in the interests of George S. Henry, M.L.A., in the Masonic Temple on Balmora avenue last evening.

Mr. Henry exclaimed that a thorough knowledge of English was the birth-right of every child in Ontario, and he quoted Mr. Rowell's utterances in New Liskeard to prove that the sentiments expressed by the Liberal leader were not always in harmony with those which he made in Toronto.

Twelve or fifteen years of experience in municipal matters were referred to as proof of Mr. Henry's interest in the affairs of the riding, and the policy of good roads which he always sought to advance.

W. K. McNaught, C.M.G., in his address said that a renewal of confidence for the next four years was the right of the Conservative Government, because it had never failed to make good all the promises which it had made before being placed into power.

The secret ballot, the reduction of the price of school books, a larger grant for the University of Toronto, and the substantial increase in the provincial revenues from four-and-a-half to eleven millions were some of the ways in which the Whitney administration had made good.

The old bell of Carlton School is on exhibition at 198 Oster avenue. It will be cast into medals which will be presented to the members of the Carlton School Old Boys' Association.

GALT, June 26.—Both sides held meetings here tonight. The late member, John Pattison, and W. F. Maclean, spoke in favor of Mr. Bell, the Whitney candidate. Both the Waterloos are conceded to the Conservatives.

EARLS COURT TAX BILLS SWELLING

Residents Disgruntled Over Snow Shoveling Charges.

CLAIM IT WASN'T DONE

Handsome Bishop's Chair Donated to St. Chad's Church.

Earls Court's tax bills are growing like the district, but some residents claim that the tax bills are growing out of proportion to value received.

The sixth annual fête under the auspices of the Men's Own Brotherhood of Earls Court Methodist Church will be held in Sunderland football grounds, St. Clair avenue and Weston road, on Dominion Day, July 1.

The pine wood section, between Alice avenue and Vaughan road, on the north side of St. Clair avenue, is being rapidly sold. The J. M. Warren Company states that they have sold over one thousand feet frontage of this property recently, amounting to $35,000.

Right Rev. Bishop J. F. Sweeney, D.D., will conduct a confirmation service at St. Mark's Church, corner of Ford and Connelly streets, on Sunday morning, at 11 o'clock.

A great Campaign Meeting will be held this evening in the tent, corner of St. Clair and Earls Court avenues. Speakers will be Hon. Thomas Crawford, W. D. McPherson, K.C., Dr. Forbes, G. C. Burgess, J. H. Price, S. C. and others. Music will be provided, and ladies are especially invited.

Two Thornhill boys, Charles Eckhardt and Craig McDonald narrowly escaped death on Thursday afternoon. With two other boys they had gone down to the Don after school to have a swim.

Charles Eckhardt was insensible and did not regain consciousness for some time, but Craig McDonald was none the wiser. The boys owe their lives to the quick action of William McTavish, his men, as they would have been smothered in a few minutes more.

More than 300 men and women attended the "abolish-the-bar" meeting last night in the Parkdale Assembly Hall in the interest of William McTavish, the riding's temperance candidate for the provincial parliament.

Mr. McTavish, who entered the hall toward the close of the program, took the platform and declared he was confident of his success at the election Monday. His assertion was borne out by other speakers, among whom were: William Haines, Rev. J. C. Speer, E. B. Lacey, Rev. Father Minehan, Rev. E. L. Gray and Rev. A. L. Gessie.

"This question is not a party one," said Mr. McTavish, "and there is no doubt but that our fight will be successful. We are nearer the goal than ever before, and if we stand together in our vote to abolish the bar in every form it shall be easy to win. There is no more need of a bar attached to an hotel than one hitched onto a butcher shop."

NEWS OF SPECIAL INTEREST TO WOMEN

AD CLUBS' RALLY PROMOTES AMITY

Courtesies Between Representatives of Two Nations Have Good Results.

MARKED BY CORDIALITY

Delegates Will Carry Away Pleasant Recollections of Canadians.

A feature of the Advertising Men's Convention which must inevitably have results even more far-reaching than the increase in financial gain and the increase of business methods along advertising lines, is the expansion of friendly relations which are sure to follow the Toronto meeting.

The interchange of courtesies between the men and women of other lands and particularly of our neighbors to the south and of ourselves was something good to witness. It was marked by a cordiality which could emanate from nothing less than sincerity.

Just now when there is so much talk about the centennial of peace, for the celebration of which between the American republic and ourselves so many plans are being arranged, and others already accomplished, it is pleasant to realize that the Advertising Club, which on the surface may seem to be merely an altogether cold business proposition, has no small share in the leading enterprise of the year, that of drawing closer and closer the people of the two nations, whose division after all is marked only by a man-made geographical line.

We are apt to look upon the present as a material age but no man or woman with even the slightest trace of sentiment but moved by the enthusiasm aroused by the patriotic tunes played at various times and events of the sessions and entertainment. The extreme care taken to extend the courtesy of musical recognition thru the medium of the "Star-Spangled Banner" and other American airs, alternated with the National Anthem, our own "O Canada," was appreciated to the fullest, as was evidenced by the wild cheering which accompanied the music.

Music Hath Charms. It is a cold heart that is not touched by the music of his home land. Some one has said, "Let me make the songs of a country and I care not who makes its laws." The appeal of the airs and songs of the place of our birth, is even more effectual when heard at a distance than on native soil. The happy moments when the blood was made to course thru the veins of our American cousins thru the musical strains which bore the message of our good will towards them will never die, and the moment when the president of the convention stood, centred and surrounded by the flag of Britain, as he did at the time of their presentation by the British representative, will remain as a symbol of the amity and peace in which we now and forever enfold our brothers of the American republic.

ROBARY HALL MEETING.

A good representation of members attended the last meeting for the season of Robary Hall Association yesterday afternoon. Miss Marie Macdonnell, the president, was in the chair, and a busy two hours were spent in arranging plans for having Robary Hall tent at the Exhibition. Miss Clark will have charge of the relay of ladies who will attend on each day, and who will be assisted as last year by the girls of the auxiliary guild. No report was made on the late garden party, as returns were not all in. It is known however that the affair was in every way very successful. A unanimous vote of thanks was passed to Lady and Sir William Mackenzie.

They regulate the bowels and stomach and are absolutely safe. Sold by medicine dealers or by mail for 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

SALAMANDER STYLE IN BLOSSOM ON BOARDWALK

"Bit of Throat, Ankle and Slash of Red" Give Line on Coming Modes.

ATLANTIC CITY, May 24.—The Salamander fashion showing "a bit of the throat, a bit of the ankle and a slash of red," as Owen Johnson describes Dede the heroine in his book "The Salamander," appeared in the Boardwalk dress parade today. Whether by design or otherwise (the author has hit upon the fashion note of the coming season).

The new fashion is best described in Mr. Johnson's own words: "She wanted her dress to be different from others—her own. So she chose the Russian blouse and gave the depending line of the skirt that seemed to her to try her own alertness of youth, the poised grace and bewitching movement of the untamed animal."

Of course there were other dress notes—scores of them. Every woman wishes.

GOOPS

Jane E. Chispa

You know it's impolite to whisper—
Why doesn't Jane Eliza Chispa?
She has been told it's rude, and so
You'd think she'd be polite—but no,
She is a Goop—and even when
There's company, she whispers then!
Don't Be A Goop!

This makes an excellent first course dish for luncheon.

The NURSERY CONDUCTED BY Elinor Murray DON'T

"Don't" should be expurgated from the language of childhood. How would you like to have every desire thwarted, every action hindered by some blindingly authoritative adult? How would you like to have every expression of mental or physical activity preemptively repressed instead of being guided, directed and encouraged naturally? Don't means do not, and do not is exactly opposed to all the best in child training. Real development comes from an exercise of the "do," never the "don't."

The SWEET SULTAN

Do you know the Centaurea tribe? You do not. Well, then, do you know the old familiar "Bachelor's Button," or cornflower? Sweet Sultan is a twin brother to cornflower, and their family name is Centaurea.

With a history of all three hundred years long, Sweet Sultan came wandering across the seas from the Levant and by nature of its many excellent qualities at once became a favorite in every old garden.

Sweet Sultan plant is a beautiful mystery from the moment the first early leaves appear above the ground. It is a plant one loves to watch, especially if, at some times happens, it is a stranger to the watcher.

First come two leaves, small, oval, obovate twins, like most of the first two leaves from annuals. What comes next? There is nothing to differentiate this wee plant from a thousand others.

There, you see. The next two leaves are oddly peaked and pointed, the botanists call them "pinnatifid," a most disconcerting word. As the plant grows the leaves become larger, longer, more "pinnatifid," take on gray-greenness, and have a tendency to cause the plant (which does not like to branch out from the bottom of the stem) to wobble all over the garden beds.

Then come the buds, each one borne separately at the end of long fine stems, the first one terminal, the others auxiliary.

And such buds! But a look is needed at the buds to tell what a treasure is hidden within.

DEVILED SHRIMPS IN CHAFING DISH. Open and remove from can the shrimps. Break in pieces and allow to stand in the air as long a time as possible before using.

In the blazer of chafing dish cook 1 tablespoon of chopped onion in 2 tablespoons of butter five minutes; add 1/2 can or three fresh tomatoes, and cook ten minutes; season highly with salt, paprika, dry mustard, Worcestershire sauce and tabasco and add shrimps. Serve with thoroly heated, on brown-bread toast, or with brown-bread sandwiches.

MOLDED SALMON. Separate one can of salmon into pieces, free from skin and bones. Mix together and cook over water the following: One-half tablespoon each of salt and dry mustard, 1 tablespoon of sugar, 1 teaspoon of flour, two eggs, 1 cup of milk, 1/2 cup of vinegar and 2 tablespoons of butter. When the mixture is as thick as bottled custard remove from fire, add 1 tablespoon of gelatin, which has been soaked in 1/4 cup of cold water, and the salmon. Turn into a mold and chill. Serve with a German dressing made by adding to 1 cup of stiffly beaten cream, 1 tablespoon of vinegar, 1/2 teaspoon of salt and a little cayenne.

MEAT WITH BEANS. Dry beans are very rich in protein the percentage being fully as large as that of meat. Dry beans and other similar legumes are usually cooked in water, which they absorb, and so are diluted before serving; on the other hand, meats by the ordinary method of cooking are usually deprived of some of the water originally present in foods which are often overlooked in discussing the matter. Nevertheless when beans are served with meat the dish is almost as rich in protein as if it consisted entirely of meat.

OYSTERS A LA MAITRE D'HOTEL. Wash and drain two dozen oysters, put them in a chafing dish with one tablespoonful of butter, stir carefully, and when the edges of the oysters begin to curl add the juice of half a lemon, one tablespoonful of finely chopped parsley and a little salt and pepper. Serve on toast or with brown bread and butter.

Chew It After Every Meal

When Fashion Is Folly, Go Look In the Glass

By Winifred Black

Winifred Black

I SAW her at the celebration the other day—the woman I have known and admired a long, long time. She was laying a corner-stone. And laying it, as is her usual way of doing things, remarkably well. I didn't know my friend at first—she looked so different. When she first stepped into the circle with her little silver trowel in her hand I thought...

It Was the Hat.

"Oh," breathed the woman who sat beside me, "Oh, what a perfectly darling hat!" I looked again—and it was the hat. My friend of other days was wearing a brand new hat, in the very latest mode. And that was what—that was all—that was the matter with her!

Now I know that if any one tried to get my friend, Boadicea, to wear her hair in a braid down her back and go out on the front steps and jump the rope, she would think they were crazy—or that they believed her to be.

What does my dear friend Boadicea want to look like, anyway? One of those persons whom we never mention—when we can help it?

I wonder if Boadicea would have answered the question? If she got it in Paris, I know one thing: The little milliner who sold it to her could hardly wait till she got to the cafe with Jacques or Henri, that very evening, to imitate Boadicea and the way she looked in that outrageous hat.

What the Milliner Said.

"But are they all mad—the American women?" I hear her say. "How is it that they wish to dress always like little girls—the nice, pretty, pleasant mamma—or like the lady who takes her ten thousand dollar pool for a airing in the Bols with diamond earrings in her ears?"

That's what they are always saying about the American women—the little French milliners. I wonder if what they say isn't just the least little bit in the world true? And I wonder what makes it true?

Think it over, Boadicea—do! And then, get a new hat, or take down an old one and trim it over again. And look like your wholesome self in spite of all the French milliners in the world.

Useful Hints for the Housewife

By Ann Marie Lloyd

THE most delicious and perfectly arranged menu may easily be made unsatisfactory by being improperly served on a carelessly laid table. In the same manner, thin bread and butter, a dish of berries and a glass of iced tea will seem a feast if it is daintily served. Many good cooks seem to have no idea of system in the arrangement of the table or the service of the meal which is so excellently prepared.

There are certain set rules relative to laying a table which should always be observed. The table itself should be covered with felt or asbestos to protect it from hot dishes, and the cloth should be laid evenly with the creases meeting at the exact center. There should be a centerpiece of linen laid on the cloth, which, if embroidered, is daintier all in white than in colors. On this place a low bowl of flowers or a growing plant. Have the silver bright, and arrange the knives, soup spoon and oyster fork at the right of the plate, and the forks and smaller spoons at the left.

Secrets of Health and Happiness

Why Laughter Is a Tonic; How Smiles Bring Vigor

By Dr. LEONARD KEENE HIRSHBERG

THE friends who in our sunshine live, when winter comes, are flown, and he who has but tears to give must weep those tears alone.

Laughter is truly the super-triumphant exercise. A dog may wag his tail in lieu of the capacity to laugh with its proscenium arches, but the effect physiologically is the same, to wit, muscular movements.

Laughter is associated with growth and avivodipus. It is synonymous with vitality, vigor and strength. Each tiny smile, grin, chuckle, chuckle, smile, grin, chirp, bark, exultation and rollick has a health value.

Their physiological victories are no less renowned than roars, side-splitting guffaws, peans of jubilation and the wildest revels of slap stick comedy. To tone up a few little muscles of the mouth and lips, to exercise the smile, smile, grin, chirp, bark, exultation and rollick has a health value.

To think of the smile as being the same as to give food to the muscles and music to the ear. Indeed, laughter is a form of music, an Orpheus's lute strings with lively sinews. Its golden touch moves steel and stones, makes tigers tame and huge Cavaliars forsake unscathed deeps to dance on sands.

Beauty, too, is the growth as well as that is childlike and bland is one of the sweetest decorations of a youngster's features. As age creeps upon you laughter is apt to grow less. Thus enters Mr. Wrinkle and Mr. Crowfoot.

Laughter, then, is a great outlet for muscular activity. Since the smile of the face is what it learns through the muscles, each smile and laugh extends the breadth of the smile within you. In this way cheerfulness becomes a tonic to the mental makeup. Like a candle which shines in the darkness, laughter becomes contagious and spreads its radiance all around.

Answers to Health Questions

E. G. S.—An elderly woman, suffer with indigestion, and, after meals, have a peculiar feeling of penitential derangement. Is there any permanent cure? What will remove liver blotches on my forehead?

If you will go on a milk diet with cereals, sponge cake, wheat, and other simple diet of infancy and childhood all the annoying symptoms will subside. These skin discolorations are never wholly removed until the internal derangements are cured. You may safely try: Chlorate of potash, one-half ounce; carbonate of soda, three drams; acetate of lead, 15 grains; rosewater, eight ounces.

A. B.—While bathing last summer hot water in one ear. Have had great trouble since in both ears. They are running and one occasionally bleeds. Have dull headache continually and sharp pains from back of head up to eyes. Secretion more at night than day. Seems to be swelling inside, and beating against drum. Hearing in one ear practically gone and other in bad shape. Have pains on side of face down to base of ears. Was this caused by bathing?

WHERE BEASTS ARE HUNTED FROM TREES

By Temple Manning

FROM my earliest story book days I had thought the tiger the most dangerous of all the cat family to hunt. But a little experience that I had had in the advanced leopard, or leopard, far above the tiger in my estimation.

During a hunting trip in the tiger country we had killed two tigers with comparative ease from the protective shelter of the trees, and had come to the time when we wished to add a leopard to our bag. Our old "shikaree" could not arouse our enthusiasm with when he said leopard we sprang to our feet and followed him.

Out at the edge of tall grass he led us to a new "macham." Now a "macham" is a platform laid across the branches of a tree, resting on which the hunter lies in wait for his quarry. We climbed up and settled ourselves to wait. After trying out the young goat whose beatings were to attract the leopard to a hoped-for meal, the "shikaree" joined us.

The jungle was absolutely still. Our alien ears, that could not interpret, seemed not to hear the myriad noises of the teeming world around us. But the "shikaree" heard. He amused us for a long time telling us the meaning of all the sounds, and the meaning of all the sounds. But when he understood that we did not and could not hear what he heard, he leaped into a contemptuous silence.

It seemed an age of time that we lay there without speaking. Then the old man touched my elbow and pointed. A slight bending down of the grasses to the left gave warning of the approach of some large beast. The leopards did set up a frightened beating, and strained wildly against its rope to get away. With thumping heart I peered out through the leaves at the awaying grasses and glimpsed a leopard.

It was only a glimpse, and I showed bad judgment in taking that shot. I should not have done it. The range was too long, and I only wounded the leopard. Straight up into the air he sprang, disappearing into the tall grass only to reappear again in a tremendous spring. Right for the "macham" he came, clearing the five-foot grass in a series of bounds, incredibly swift in speed.

In an instant he was at the edge of the grass, and I was ready. With one final leap, that I shall always believe was directed straight at the human occupants of the "macham" the leopard clawed the edge of the platform. I could not miss. A man can only judge from his own experiences. I do not know what others may think, but I believe the tiger is less dangerous than the leopard. To my little, clean-limbed leopard is no better sport.

Advice to Girls

By ANNIE LAURIE

Dear Annie Laurie: I have known a young man for about a month. He has invited me to go frequently, and is always trying to kiss me. Should I allow that? If not, how can I prevent it as I do love him, and would not want him to stop coming to see me. DIMPLES.

DIMPLES, you're a goose—a stilly little, fluttering goose, and that's all you are. Of course you should not allow this. Not for one single minute. If you do allow it you will never win the real love of this man. The one way to keep him is to make him wish for something that you will not give him. Do you suppose you're the only one he visits? Get that idea out of your head. You're just one in a dozen. He's having fun with you, that's all. Lots of fun. And when he gets tired of the fun, he'll leave you and go and have fun with some one else, and then you will cry very bitterly and wish you had never seen him. You do not love him, really. How can you in a month? You probably think you do, but thinking a thing doesn't make it true. Make your young man behave himself when he comes to see you or else do not let him come at all.

Miss Laurie will welcome letters of inquiry on subjects of feminine interest from young women readers of this paper and will reply to them in these columns. They should be addressed to her, care of this office.

Score's Clothes Are Character Clothes

Why sink your personality in "ready-mades" when you can obtain clothes of character and individuality, made in good taste and style, at the same price, if not lower?

In the mirror of the retail clothier you cannot see yourself as others see you. Is it safe to trust your appearance to the judgment of the ready-made salesman, biased by the necessity of fitting you to the clothing rather than the clothing to you?

Individuality and character are subtly expressed in every garment we make. Years of experience in serving the best dressers in Toronto guarantees that clothing made by us is perfect in style and finish, and is of the color and cut best suited to the wearer's complexion and figure.

Good time now to order your summer suit. Some special things that we can make up for $25, $28, and $30. Worth more money. Step in and find out more about it.

JOHNSON FAVORITE AT THREE TO ONE

Heavyweights Reported Fit for Fight Tonight in the French Capital.

PARIS, June 26.—Jack Johnson, holder of the world's heavyweight pugilistic championship, and Frank Moran of Pittsburgh, who hopes to wrest the title from the big Galveston negro, were early to bed tonight in their training quarters for a restful sleep before their twenty-round battle in the amphitheatre of the Velodrome d'iver at eleven o'clock tomorrow night. Each man today declared himself physically fit for the fray, and each was optimistic that victory would rest with him.

Experts who have closely watched them while in training camps, and the wagers of the fighters that they were well prepared for the battle.

Moran had only light exercise early this morning, and spent the remainder of the forenoon jolling about his quarters. This afternoon he came into the city for a thorough examination by physicians who declared him to be physically perfect. The doctors expressed great admiration over the marvelous muscular development of the white man and the regularity of the action of his heart and lungs.

Johnson did his usual morning run on the road near his training camp. This afternoon, before a large crowd of spectators in his gymnasium, Johnson donned the gloves with his trainers. He purposefully extended by several rounds his customary five-round training bout in order to test his form thoroughly, taking on successively three boxers for several rounds each. He also went thru part of his regular indoor exercises.

Everybody in Moran's camp was cheerfully optimistic and confident that the white man would win the championship. Their confidence, they said, was due to the constant improvement Moran had shown during his training in offensive and defensive work, hard hitting and ability to take punishment. In the latter department of the fighting game Moran's test has been a severe one. Willie Lewis, the American middleweight fighter, who has been helping to condition Moran, in order to toughen the challenger, recently has been making Moran stand with hands at his sides, and with legs braced, while Lewis rained blows to the point of his jaw, trying to knock him down. As a result of this strenuous training, Moran will enter the ring tomorrow night showing scars about his eyes, left there by the hard punches of his sparring partners.

Johnson also has trained assiduously, if not quite so strenuously. He began his work two weeks earlier than Moran, and has been careful not to overdo it. He has made his routine as easy as possible,

LITTLE ALFRED WON IN FOUR HARD HEATS

Large Attendance on Closing Day of Aylmer's Successful Circuit Meeting.

AYLMER, Ont., June 26.—(Staff Special)—The Aylmer races were concluded today with three harness races and one running race to make up the card. The attendance again today was very large, showing that the harness horse finds a warm spot in the hearts of the people of Aylmer and surrounding country. The crowd has been greater every day. There has been some little dissatisfaction among the horsemen, as well as the public, but that was caused by the stand being not too well managed. However, everything passed off satisfactorily in the end, and the president, W. H. Finch, and secretary, F. H. Trim, left nothing undone to provide for the comfort and pleasure of their patrons. The first race called was the 2:14 pacing stake, with eight starters; a grand field of horses, as good as have come together this season.

Little Alfred, owned by T. H. Brownie of Ottawa, and driven by Matt Ray, won handsomely with the hardest kind of contention. He won the first heat handily, coming from behind at the head of the stretch, and finished eased up. In the second heat he did not get any the best of the field, and John Martin with Kavak carried him from second position, when entering the stretch, to the outside fence, and had Ray been able to get thru he would have won at that. Kavak was just before reaching the wire, otherwise the race would have been won in straight heats. The judges made no comment on the foul drive, however. Little Alfred was good enough to win the next two heats after a desperate battle all the way. Rouse's Point Boy was much the best of the balance and fought it out from wire to wire. Jack Johnson won his race after losing the first heat to Dater at Law, his stopping the fastest heat of the race. In the consolation, Blanche B. won in straight heats very handsomely. The summary:

ALL RESOLUTE.

OYSTER BAY, N.Y., June 26.—The cup class sloop Resolute scored her eighth win in the preliminary racing series today. The contest was sailed off here in light to moderate and shifting winds, but except for the first three miles, the race was a procession, with the Herreshoff Yacht Club's Vanitie and the Defiance, seemed able to hold the Resolute, although both made up much lost time on the breeze. The Resolute's margin in corrected time at the finish over the Vanitie was 5 minutes and 46 seconds, and over the Defiance 6 minutes and 32 seconds. Vanitie beat Defiance 46 seconds in corrected time.

He was $5 short in the mix-up. Smith is remanded until Monday.

WIFE WAS FORGIVING.

Althea Norman Cowan had brutally beaten his wife so that she had to be taken to the hospital, when Cowan appeared in court yesterday she staunchly defended him. The pair had been drinking the $30 per week which Cowan gets for laying bricks, and the wife said that he had gone to bed with his boots on, sung Scotch songs, and kicked her, but he was the best man in the world. The magistrate remanded him in custody for another week.

ABOLISH THE EVILS OF THE BAR IN THE HOME

This can best be done by the Neal Treatment for alcoholism or drink habit. If some one in your family circle is addicted to the use of intoxicants, you should investigate this treatment. The Neal Treatment is administered in from 3 to 7 days in absolute privacy by trained graduate nurses under physicians' direction. It is the only 3 day treatment originated, compounded and prescribed by a physician. Has been a success for over a quarter of a century and during that time has saved thousands of men and women from the effects of alcohol. Treatment is given under a guarantee of absolute satisfaction to patient or money will be refunded. No hypodermics are used, and no after effects are ever experienced. Institutes are located in over 60 cities in Canada and United States. All treatments, consultations and correspondence strictly confidential. TEMPERANCE MAN BACKS WHITNEY

William Munns, Toronto, Goes Into History of Past Campaigns.

William Munns, Toronto, for 40 years temperance advocate and campaigner in the Duncan and Scott Act and referendum campaigns, addressed Conservative meetings in Peel County in favor of James R. Falls this week. In his speeches concerning the methods of the Dominion Alliance, he said that the editorial article written by the editor of The Pioneer, Frank S. Spence, proved that the Dominion Alliance was still being used for the purpose of hoodwinking and misleading the electors of this province to support the "banish-the-bar" policy of the Liberal party. From the past experience of the Liberal party Mr. Spence knew that no reliance should be placed on its pledges or promises.

Mr. Munns said that the failure of the Duncan and Scott Act was on account of lack of public sentiment behind them, and when the plebiscite was fixed for September 29, 1898, the vote in Ontario showed a majority of 29,214 for, or upwards of 57 per cent., 7 per cent. more than what the Liberal party today demanded, yet, the government refused in Ontario to obey the mandate of the people.

Referring to the Ross referendum of 1902, Mr. Munns said that the total vote polled in its favor was 39,297. Three-fifths of that vote would have been 18,778. The temperance people piled up a vote of 19,745, or nearly 18,000 more than three-fifths majority. The late Sir George Ross demanded 212,723 votes, the majority polled at the general election of 1908.

Mr. Rowell, Mr. Spence, Dr. Carman and Rev. J. A. Macdonald, editor of The Globe, said Mr. Munns, were the chief supporters of the old regime which would not allow the bar to be abolished over the whole province on the same basis that the Whitney government now applies to individual municipalities.

Mr. Munns cited the following editorial comment of The Globe in March, 1902, on the Ross referendum: "That it, no doubt, would involve considerable labor and zeal on the part of the prohibitionists, and they are desirous of making a feat of a very momentous character, and it would not be in accord with the fitness of things that it should be brought about easily."

HON. CLIFFORD SIFTON WRITES TO MR. ROWELL

In the course of a letter, dated from Ottawa, June 23, 1914, to N. W. Rowell, Hon. Clifford Sifton says: "What I have, as you know, no hostility whatever to the present government of Ontario, I regard the issue as to the abolition of the bar of such paramount importance as to demand almost exclusive consideration until it is disposed of."

HON. MR. DUFF ATTACKED AT ROWELL MEETING

THAMESVILLE, June 26.—Speaking here last afternoon at the meeting of N. W. Rowell, W. R. Ferguson, Liberal candidate for the legislature, declared that the Hon. James Duff did not know any more about agriculture than any farmer in the audience. "We can have a Government House with two rooms and a garage costing $10,000," Mr. Rowell said, "but when we want to send our boys to the Agricultural College they raise their hands so they cannot go, and the government will not have to make accommodation for any more. I say the agricultural and educational departments should be non-partisan."

Rosary Hall.—(Special).—The recent gardens of Benvenuto was the opportunity for The Sunday World photographer to secure a series of pictures that will not only interest all who were fortunate enough to attend, but their hundreds of friends. The views include a group of flower girls, the attendants at the refreshment booths, groups of out-of-town and local visitors and many in fancy costumes, including the gypsy group, the cigar group and many others. These pictures will appear in this week's art section of The Sunday World, which is for sale by all newsdealers and newsboys.

FINES FOR MOTORISTS.

Gregory drove his car at reckless rate of speed, according to the police, and was fined $5. A. R. Horne committed the same offence and added $5 to the already well filled box. Motor Agencies disobeyed the policeman at the corner and paid $5.

ENTERTAINED TEACHERS.

About sixty high school teachers from all parts of Ontario enjoyed the hospitality of The Geo. M. Hendry Co. last evening from 8 to 6:30. The offices were tastefully decorated with flowers, mainly daisies and buttercups. Light refreshments were served, after which a splendid musical program was given.

NEW QUARTERS BOARDS

Decision Makers Two Floors

NEW QUARTERS FOR BOARD OF TRADE

Decision Made to Take Over Two Floors of Royal Bank Building.

A definite decision to take up quarters in the new Royal Bank building was reached at a meeting of the board of trade members yesterday afternoon.

It was announced that accommodation would be secured on the 19th and 20th floors, with lunch, private dining rooms and club rooms on the latter.

The board of trade expect to be in their new quarters by the end of the month, possibly by the first of November. The plans, which were tentatively discussed on the recent trip to Cleveland, include doubling the present membership fees.

Foremost Financial Facts

From February 25 to June 4, the Bank of England lost $35,000,000 gold, it has gained $15,000,000 in the last two weeks.

Shareholders of the Ontario Bank will receive a dividend of 15 per cent. on the amount paid up by them under the double liability. It will be paid August 15.

It is stated that the Claffin failure will have little or no effect on Canadian trade. Otherwise the failure will have a worldwide effect.

Orders on hand for the Maryland Steel Company will keep the mills occupied for ten days.

NEW YORK STOCK TALK. NEW YORK, June 26.—There was no evidence whatever of investment liquidation in the stock market today, following the great drydock failure.

At the opening of business there were no country selling orders, at least in substantial volume.

Early cables brought quotations from Lombard street for American securities substantially higher than those in London, and the English market supplemented these cables by orders for the day's trading.

These buying orders undoubtedly stimulated the Wall street market, and were largely responsible for substantial gains in all classes of securities today.

Butter and cheese markets are unsettled. Packers are bidding more heavily in London for the hay crop, and butters are unfavorable for export to the States.

Business is generally quiet, although better in groceries than most other lines. Particularly is this so, as it is figured that the retailers are in good shape with regard to their stocks and are buying very carefully.

CHEESE MARKETS. CORNWALL, June 26.—On the Cornwall cheese board this afternoon 1,935 colored and 48 white cheese were offered and sold at 12 1/2c to 13c and the white at 12 1/2c, with a 1-16th more for one lot of cool cured. A year's aged white cheese, 1,843 lbs. of colored sold at 12 1/2c to 13c and the colored at 12 3/4c. The board will meet at 11 a.m. during the month of July.

BERTH, Ont., June 26.—There were 600 tons of white cheese, and 600 colored cheese here today; all were sold. The ruling price was 12 1/2c.

NAPANEE, Ont., June 26.—Cheese board today, 970 tons of white cheese at 12 1/2c, 425 sold at 12 1/2c, balance refused this.

ALEXANDRIA, Ont., June 26.—Six hundred and eighty-two white boarded. Sold at 12 1/2c.

FICTON, Ont., June 26.—At our cheese board today, 1170 boxes boarded; 670 sold at 12 1/2c and 1170 at 12 1/2c.

WILL REOPEN SMELTER. NEW YORK, June 26.—The American Smelting and Refining Company, it became known here today, has decided to resume operation at its Chibougamau, Quebec, plant. The company's employees have been ordered to proceed to Chibougamau, and it is expected by July 1 the plant will be in full operation.

DATE JAM. Buy the dates by the pound. Remove the stones from three pounds and put the fruit in your preserving pan. Add about three breakfastfuls of water. Let the fruit just get hot, and then add a pound and a half of preserving sugar, a sprinkling of salt, a dash of bicarbonate of soda, a ground cinnamon, and a teaspoonful of fresh butter. Stir until the jam begins to thicken, and put while steaming hot.

APPLE AND TOMATO JAM. Wipe five pounds of apples with a clean, damp cloth, and cut them into quarters. Do not peel them. Put them in a preserving pan, and cover with cold water. Simmer until they are quite soft and strain through muslin. Put some tomatoes into boiling water for one minute, and then take them out and slice them thinly. Add the sliced tomatoes to the apples and weigh. To every pound of liquid and tomatoes put a pound of preserving sugar. Then color with a little cochineal. Simmer until a little of the jam put on a saucer gets firm. Pot while hot.

OULET WITH CHICKEN LIVER. Four eggs, four tablespoons of cold water, one-half tablespoonful of butter, salt and pepper, two chicken livers. Cut the livers into medium sized pieces and saute lightly in a little butter. Prepare the omelet, beat the eggs lightly, yolks and white together, add water and season with salt and pepper. Melt the butter in an omelet pan and when it is hissing hot turn in the eggs and cook gently until just beginning to set. Add the prepared livers, roll the omelet up and serve very hot.

FALSE RUMOR IS CAUSE OF SELLING

McDougal - Segur Officials Deny Statement and Stocks Drop.

CALGARY, June 26.—Great excitement was caused by a rumor to the effect that old had been struck in the McDougal-Segur well. Stocks in companies holding property adjacent to this well rose rapidly. The statement, however, was immediately denied by the officials of the company with the result that the stock prices went down to their former level. A weak market was the result.

It is expected that the cap of the McDougal well will be placed on Monday. Drilling will then be resumed. It is the present intention to shoot 600 pounds of nitro-glycerine in the well at the lower level.

The shipment of oil from the Discovery well is netting the company a considerable sum. Every few days the cap is opened and a flow takes off. Besides what it being used in Calgary quantities are secured for shipment to Vancouver and other points. It is claimed that as a traction engine oil it has no equal.

LOCAL REPORTS MORE HOPEFUL

Toronto reports to Bradstreet's say that business sentiment is a little more hopeful this week than last, many wholesalers reporting orders to be coming in more satisfactorily. It remains to be seen, however, whether this strength will be maintained or not, so many rallies this year having been followed by relapses.

Shareholders of the Ontario Bank will receive a dividend of 15 per cent. on the amount paid up by them under the double liability. It will be paid August 15.

STIEGEL AND VOGEL TO STAND TRIAL

Were Prime Movers in Chain of Stores Which Failed.

NEW YORK, June 26.—Henry Siegel and Frank N. Vogel, prime movers in a chain of department stores which failed some time ago, and under indictment for grand larceny and violation of the state banking laws, will be tried in Genesee, Livingston County, in October. This has been decided by Supreme Court Justice Blanchard here. Recently the defendants were granted a change of venue on the ground that the public was interested against them in New York City. Thousands of poor depositors had their funds tied up in the failure of the Siegel private bank.

The settlement was concluded satisfactorily on the stock exchange, but the American refunding had a good time during the money outlook, and Brazilian issues were firmer on reports that the forthcoming coupon will be paid; but home and Mexican shares were quiet on profit-taking. American securities opened steady and unchanged. Despite the Claffin failure the list advanced on light buying and closed steady.

ADVERTISING

An advertising design attracting a good deal of attention in a meat market in Portland, Ore., consists of a pig composed of home and bacon wrapped in attractive packages. The head is of wood, painted, but the creature's legs and arms, its feet and body are both of provisions. It is shown standing upright with a commanding gesture. The component parts are fastened together with skewers and wires.

PINEAPPLE AND FIG JAM. Buy a tin of pineapple and a pound of dried figs. Cut the pineapple and figs small. Put in a basin and add the pineapple juice, and leave all night. The next day weigh the fruit, and to each pound add three-quarters of preserving sugar. Put the sugar in the preserving-pan, and add enough water to melt it. When dissolved, add the pineapple and figs. Stir over the fire until it thickens, and pot.

The smoke from burning sugar is one of the very best disinfectants. To keep a chimney free from soot sprinkle a little antiseptic over the fire occasionally.

Hang very dusty shirts out on the clothes-line in a high wind.

WHEAT YIELD ON IMMENSE SCALE

Price Broke Sharply at Chicago on News of Threshing Results.

CHICAGO, June 26.—Threshing returns so abundant as to cause enthusiastic comparison with the sands of the sea, were largely responsible today for leaving wheat at the mercy of the bears. The market broke 2c a bushel, and also steady at the close was 1-1/8c to 1-3/8c under last night.

Corn sagged with wheat, but encountered active buying on the decline. Increased shipments from Argentina and lower offers from there continued against the bulls, and so also did predictions of rain where needed in the domestic belt.

Improvement in the crop outlook had a bearish influence on oats. Covering by shorts lifted July pork. The rest of the provision market, however, labored under pressure of sales by packers.

GRAIN AND PRODUCE.—Ontario wheat—No. 2, $1.02, nominal, outside.

Canadian western oats—No. 2, 45c, hay ports; No. 2, 48c, immediate shipment. Manitoba flour—Quotations at Toronto are: First patents, $5.60 in cotton and $5.50 in jute; second patents, $5.10 in cotton and $5 in jute; strong bakers', $4.80 in jute.

Rye—63c to 64c, nominal. Bran—Manitoba, $25, in bags, Toronto; and shorts $26, Toronto; middlings, $28. Flour—No. 90 per cent. patents, $3.70 to $3.75, seaboard.

ERICKSON PERKINS & CO., 14 King W., TORONTO. Dividend Notices.—Notice is hereby given that the Board of Directors of this company at a meeting held on Friday, the 19th day of May, 1914, declared the regular quarterly dividend of three (3 p.c.) per cent, and that a distribution of accumulated proceeds from the operation of the mine equal to three (3 p.c.) per cent of the outstanding capital stock of the Company be also paid, making a total of six (6 p.c.) per cent, payable on the 1st day of July, 1914, to stockholders of record at the close of business on the 15th day of June, 1914.

By order of the Board, V. B. WADSWORTH, Secretary. Toronto, May 19th, 1914.

IMPORTANT STATEMENT TO THOSE OF MY CLIENTS WHO HAVE SUBSCRIBED TO STOCK IN THE ROYAL CANADIAN OILS LIMITED (Non-Personal Liability) I wish to express my appreciation and thanks and I take this opportunity of explaining my intentions. I wish to emphatically state to my many subscribers that insofar as the cash that is to be paid to me and the shares that are to be allotted to me for the holdings that I have turned over to the ROYAL CANADIAN OILS LIMITED (Non-Personal Liability) NOT ONE DOLLAR OF THE MONEY NOR ONE SHARE OF THE STOCK WILL BE TAKEN BY ME UNTIL OIL HAS BEEN STRUCK BY THIS COMPANY Can any proposition be fairer than this? I reserve to myself the right, however, to use this cash and stock or part of same previous to the striking of oil by the ROYAL CANADIAN OILS LIMITED (Non-Personal Liability) for the purpose of purchasing such other holdings as I may from time to time deem it wise to procure and thus be at liberty to turn such holdings over to the ROYAL CANADIAN OILS LIMITED (Non-Personal Liability) free of cost. Since this company was incorporated I have purchased some twelve hundred and eighty acres of valuable land which has been placed in the company free of cost. As soon as sufficient stock has been sold it is my intention to commence operations without delay and I wish to assure my subscribers that every effort will be made as far as I am concerned to make this one of the most successful companies operating in this Province. Yours Respectfully, Signed F. C. LOWES
