British and French Commissioners Will Begin a Conference To-day to Settle the Territorial Disputes in West Africa

Trismen Opened Fire on a British Reconnaissance Party at Semapacha

Paris, Oct. 28.—The Reclair publishes a remarkable article today to the effect that three French missions are now on their way to Khartoum, by forced marches as a result of an understanding with the Mahdi, reached in 1896, by which France recognizes the Soudan as an independent state under the suzerainty of the Sultan of Turkey, in return for certain concessions.

To Settle the Dispute. The British and French commissioners appointed to discuss the territorial disputes in West Africa will begin their work to-morrow, the French Minister for Foreign Affairs.

The anti-dynastic newspapers are making violent attacks on Prince George of Greece, who was the commander of the torpedo flotilla. The Prince, who was a great favorite with the masses previous to the war, is deeply affected by these attacks.

Mr. Daly asserts that the scandal surpasses anything that could be imagined, adding that Prince George emerges from it with diminished prestige.

MR. G. B. CAMPBELL OF APPI

Will Carry the Conservative Banner in West Middlesex at the Coming Local Election.

Mount Brydges, Oct. 28.—The Conservative convention of West Middlesex was held in the Township Hall at this place to-day.

Dr. Roome, ex-M.P., favored the gathering with a few remarks. He said the feeling over the country was in favor of a change in the local house.

Major Besty of London was of the opinion that Messrs. Hardy and Ross were very doubtful of re-election, and were already making their own relations sure by appointing them to positions made vacant on purpose.

Mr. Campbell said he was willing to take the nomination, but money popularly made the vote be declared unanimous for Mr. Campbell.

Mr. Campbell thanked the convention for the honor bestowed on him, and said he had served every capacity in the Conservative ranks up to the present time, he having been elected for delegates, and on making the vote Mr. Campbell was found to be the most popular.

Mr. Grouse decided to stand, as he had been asked to do so by his friends.

SOME STARTLING DETAILS

About the Awful Ravages of Tuberculosis

GIVEN BY DR. P. H. BRYCE

Before the American Public Health Association at Philadelphia.

The Place of the State in Dealing With This Disease—Eleven Per Cent. of the Total Deaths Are Due to Its Work on the Human Body—Proper Sanitation in Early Stages Will Bring About a Cure in Fifty Per Cent. of the Cases.

Philadelphia, Oct. 28.—"The place of the state in dealing with tuberculosis," was the title of a paper read before the American Public Health Association here today by Dr. P. H. Bryce, secretary of the Provincial Board of Health of Ontario. Some of the doctor's assertions were so startling as to awaken in the conference a profound interest. After dealing with the fact that it is only recently that tuberculosis has begun to be understood, Dr. Bryce went on to prove by statistics that over 11 per cent. of all deaths are caused upon the ravages of this dread disease, which in every age and in every climate sweep down men, women and children with fell swoop.

Deaths in Ontario. The deaths from tuberculosis in Ontario in successive census years have been: In 1871, 1042, or 11.2 per cent. of all deaths; in 1881, 2399, or 10.8 per cent., and in 1891, 2465, or 11.4 per cent.

Taking the city of Toronto the deaths from tuberculosis during the past seven years have been: 1890, 357; 1891, 400; 1892, 477; 1893, 522; 1894, 422; 1895, 493; 1896, 462.

In the United States in 1890 no less than 101,063 deaths occurred from tuberculosis. This was 12 per cent. of all the deaths for the year.

Compared With Insanity. We see that in the Province of Ontario 22,000 deaths, or nearly that a year have been the annual sacrifice to the moomch of chronic diseases in Ontario as against 10,000 deaths in the same province from insanity. Compare the parallel columns of tuberculosis and insanity. It will appear that in 1895 the cases of insanity in the asylums of Ontario were nearly double the number of deaths from tuberculosis. But if we compare the deaths in the asylums with those from consumption we find they are but one-fourth the number annually. Further, it is most important to note that the total cost of insanity is annually nearly 23 per cent. due to tuberculosis. But even with this present factor in the death rate in Ontario as against insanity, it is plain that with an annual death rate of slightly over 5 per cent. of all deaths, it would take 20 years for an asylum population of 5000 to die, whereas this number of consumptives die in every two years, or roughly, ten times as many persons become affected with tuberculosis as with insanity, and ten times as many die.

Go to Hospitals to Die. Reference has already been made to the fact that some 25 per cent. of all deaths in the asylums is annually due to consumption, and I need not in the returns from hospitals for 1896 some 450 persons are said to have been treated for tuberculosis in the several hospitals of the province, or the consumptive patients treated in the four hospitals of Toronto, some 25 per cent. died. It is quite apparent therefore that public health officers are endeavoring to a certain percentage of consumptives in Ontario, but judging from the number of deaths, it is apparent that they go to the hospitals to die comfortably, rather than with any idea of recovery.

Starting Figures. Accepting Guerdner's figures for New York City as illustrative we find that of the total deaths from tuberculosis between the ages of 15 and 60, or during the productive years of human life, in New York, 37.9, on an average, for the six cities of Berlin, Brussels and New York. Under similar conditions this percentage of 37 per cent. of the total deaths from tuberculosis to exist in the large cities of temperate climates.

Applying the common calculation, as given by Guerdner, where he states the estimated loss to the city of New York, due to the annual deaths of 6072 persons from tuberculosis as $6,720,000. It is to Ontario in 1895 was $2,472,000. It is now a fact established by numbers of observations and statistics that from 50 to 75 per cent. of all cases of tuberculosis in the early stages, treatment may be resorted to comparative health, while some 35 per cent. will permanently recover.

Fifty Per Cent. Would Recover. Hence it may be said that were the assumed 5000 consumptives who are treated in Ontario placed in sanatoria at least 50 per cent. of them would be preserved, and the state would be benefited to the tune of $2,472,000. The loss of such number of lives means an immediate reduction in the number of new cases, and of the number demanding treatment. Many other results of an economic character, such as the cost of sickness, loss of time through nursing, might be added, but these suffice to indicate the nature of the problem.

A Duty of the State. It seems to me, therefore, that the question of how far the state will take up the public work of dealing with tuberculosis is decided by the dictum of one of the most advanced writers on economic problems, viz.: "That it is the duty of the state to interfere where it can be so well by the individual," and by the principles which we are daily being put into practice in every state, province or city on the continent. The greatest distinction possible must be made between governmental intervention for the sake of the people and state interference for the sake of the Government. What then remains for us to consider is simply such intervention of state and municipal government in dealing with tuberculosis as is expedient? And, if so, is it practicable?

To Lessen the Danger. With regard to the question of expediency the matter of compulsory notification comes up, and it is to be noted that in Ontario placed in sanatoria at least 50 per cent. of them would be preserved, and the state would be benefited to the tune of $2,472,000. The loss of such number of lives means an immediate reduction in the number of new cases, and of the number demanding treatment. Many other results of an economic character, such as the cost of sickness, loss of time through nursing, might be added, but these suffice to indicate the nature of the problem.

What is Demanded. What is demanded, at any rate so far as Ontario is concerned, is not so much an increase in the expenditures necessary for public charity, as a change in the direction and mode of its application. The average number of days of consumptives in hospitals in Toronto was in 1886 about 50,

Dr. Alexander Milton Ross Dies in Detroit.

WELL KNOWN IN TORONTO.

Started as a Printer's Devil in New York and Made His Way Up.

A Great Friend of Garibaldi and William Cullen Bryant—Helped to Free the Negro Slaves of the United States—Was a Well-Known Naturalist and Lived to Be Deceased by the Crowded Herd of Europe—Will Be Buried in Toronto.

The death at Detroit of Dr. Alexander Milton Ross, lately of 174 Simcoe-street, Toronto, removes one of the most picturesque figures which this country has ever known. As a physician he attained a high reputation in this country; as a philanthropist, he was one of the most ardent and devoted of his kind; as a naturalist, he was one of the most accomplished of his time; and as a writer, he was one of the most successful of his age. He was born in Belleville, Ontario, on Dec. 13, 1832, his parents being Ross and Margaret, who came to Canada in 1838. When a boy he was turned out to his own way, and went to New York, where he obtained work as a printer's devil on the Evening Post and attracted the notice of William Cullen Bryant, the editor, who rendered him every assistance in his career. He was a member of the struggling boy became a compositor, worked at his trade during the day and studied medicine at night. During this time that he became acquainted with Garibaldi, who was making candles for his army. It was during this time that he was granted a pension by the Government. He was a member of the Niagara Falls Association, and was a great friend of Garibaldi and William Cullen Bryant. He was a well-known naturalist and lived to be deceased by the crowded herd of Europe. He will be buried in Toronto.

Worked for Abolition. On his return to the United States he took up the cause of abolition, and was a friend and associate of John Brown, and was one of the organizers of the Fugitive Slave Railway, by which slaves were brought from Dixie Land to Canada. During his life he was a great friend of Garibaldi, and was a well-known naturalist and lived to be deceased by the crowded herd of Europe. He will be buried in Toronto.

His Work as a Naturalist. He was a well-known naturalist and lived to be deceased by the crowded herd of Europe. He will be buried in Toronto.

Another Abandoned Child. A child abandoned in the street was found on the doorstep of a vacant cottage, 11 Ramses-street, yesterday morning by Andrew Barron, 208 Ontario-street. The child was a boy, and was named "Orphan" by the police. He is the third in a week.

Fog on the Lake. The Rebel and Ontario steamer Hamilton, which arrived yesterday from Montreal, was far as to hold the opinion that men could be fed on esculents extracted from the fog.

A Fiscal Scandal. The greatest clerical scandal—a bachelor curate, with a family living.

Wet Weather. The dangers of exposure to cold and damp vividly portrayed by one who has been a victim of the weather.

Death of Michael O'Donnell. A well-known Toronto business man died suddenly of heart failure, at a meeting at the Regatta House, in the person of Michael O'Donnell. Mr. O'Donnell some years ago carried on a drygoods business in the premises 182-184 Yonge-street, later occupied by Suckling & Company. Since retiring from active life Mr. O'Donnell had been a confirmed invalid, and was suffering from heart disease. His death took place between 8 and 9 o'clock, and it was not until 10 o'clock that the body was removed to the Regatta House. He was a member of the congregation of St. Michael's, also a member of Catholic fraternal societies. He was 72 years of age and leaves a widow and one son, Dr. Joseph O'Donnell, who is a physician in Chicago. His remains will be interred here.

Thanksgiving Day Parade. Col. Otter paid a visit to Toronto on Wednesday, and in company with Mr. J. Davies, took a trip up the Don, fixing routes for the troops on Thanksgiving day. The Colonel announced that the troops will be moved to Leslie Junction on the C.P.R., and then they will concentrate at Thorncliffe farm on the Don Flats, which is in direct communication with Leslie Junction, and is a mile west of it. The fighting will be done along the Don till Belleville Park is reached.

New Patents. Below will be found the only complete record of the patents granted in Ontario, and in company with Mr. J. Davies, took a trip up the Don, fixing routes for the troops on Thanksgiving day. The Colonel announced that the troops will be moved to Leslie Junction on the C.P.R., and then they will concentrate at Thorncliffe farm on the Don Flats, which is in direct communication with Leslie Junction, and is a mile west of it. Of a Sunday School Association. Regular Saturday afternoon meetings for the study of the Institute Bible lesson were inaugurated in the Holy Trinity school house, 100 St. George-street, on Saturday afternoon, Oct. 23. The meetings will be held every Saturday afternoon, and it is hoped that as time goes on an increased interest and larger attendance will be the result.

WONT HAVE THE ROAD.

Pickering Township is Afraid That a $12,000 Bridge Will be an Expensive Thing to Keep Up.

Some time ago the York County Council passed a bylaw turning over to the Township of Pickering the last of the old county highways—a section of road seven-eighths of a mile in length.

Yesterday a delegation from the County of York waited on Hon. Messrs. Hardy, Ross, Hart, Dryden and Davis with a request for the approval of the bylaw, and the counter-delegation from Pickering at the same time put in an appearance.

Mr. Robinson formally asked for the approval of the bylaw, and Mr. Farwell, who is in charge of the work, has been appointed to see that the bylaw is carried out.

WHITE RIBBONERS IN BUFFALO.

W. C. T. U. Delegates are Now Holding Forth in the Bison City—An Enthusiasm on Paris.

Buffalo, Oct. 28.—The white ribbon, the badge of identification of the W. C. T. U., can be seen fluttering from the windows of hundreds of women in this city to-day.

The delegates to the great temperance convention are coming to Buffalo on every train, and before night 5000 delegates and strangers, who are working to suppress the liquor traffic, will be here.

The various departments of the W. C. T. U. got down to business this morning, the convention proper opens tomorrow, and lasts until next Wednesday.

Perhaps greater interest centres in the meeting of the Executive Committee than any other session held to-day.

Miss Willard was present and presided. Forty women from other States and the general officers of the society were also present.

The meeting was an executive one, and newspaper men were not permitted to be present.

Dr. Mary Wood-Allen presided at a meeting of the Executive Committee of the National Pure Food Congress, which was held at the North Presbyterian Church.
