TORONTO'S WONDROUS RESPONSE TO THE GREAT APPEAL FOR FUNDS

Over Two Million and a Quarter Obtained in Most Remarkable Campaign in History "Soldiers' Dependents Shall Not Want."

The concluding luncheon of the Toronto and York County Patriotic Fund workers at McConkey's headquarters last night was a real "victory" dinner, as advertised. Mr. E. B. Wood, honorary treasurer of the fund, presided over the meeting to its feet in rousing cheers when he announced that the fund had exceeded by $302,229.11 its objective of two millions. The grand total for the four days' campaign is $2,022,291.11 "with more yet to come."

The final figures were a great and complete surprise. Not even the team captains had the faintest idea of the amount raised since noon Thursday. Everybody believed the two million mark had been passed, but the $302,229.11 surplus was real evidence of the loyalty of Toronto and York County citizens. The three cheers were given with real vim.

According to Mr. Wood the call for individual subscriptions from the public thru the morning press proved the best grand effort on the part of the people, which broke the target. "Why, we only had something like 7000 individual subscribers before today," he said. "Tonight it is nearer 20,000."

Never Doubted Toronto. Major W. S. Dinick, campaign organizer of the fund, was elated at the result. "Surprised!" he said. "No, a bit. I was sure Toronto would show in this tangible way what it thought of our soldier sons and their unhesitating loyalty. The result I consider is a wonderful tribute to the soldiers. It is an expression that this city stands solidly determined that not only will it pay respectful honor to its brave men, but that it will do its best to get their just due when peace is won."

The major also expressed the opinion that the quick raising of the fund would be a wonderful incentive to rolling up Toronto's full share in the Patriotic Fund Association, who did not arrive until after the program had commenced, having waited at headquarters until the money was counted. "Two million dollars collected is able to carry on the fund's extensive work till the end of the year."

Strain of Campaign. From the time Sir William Mulock proposed the toast to the King until the final cheers for the grand total were a spirit of optimism and expectancy at the dinner. The laughter and gaiety too evidenced not a little relief that the strain of the war had been taken out of the civilized world for the work it is

Soldiers' Dependents Shall Not Want

Major W. S. Dinick—I was sure Toronto would show in this tangible way what it thought of our soldier sons. The result is a wonderful tribute to them.

Mrs. Adelaide Plumtree—It is wonderful how people opened their purses in aid of the fund.

Hon. T. W. McGarry—We must remember that among all the brave deeds of the war, none are so outstanding as the sacrifices of the women of Canada.

Sir William Mulock—We have not heard from all sources yet, and a great deal more money will come in.

Mr. Justice Riddell—The money must not be withheld from the widow whose husband has laid down his life for Canada.

N. W. Rowell—The Toronto and York County patriotic fund is a splendid organization and has achieved great results.

TWO MILLION CAMPAIGN ENDS IN PATRIOTIC DEMONSTRATION

Enthusiastic Audience at Massey Hall Deeply Touched By Announcement of Splendid Success Achieved, Speeches of Prominent Citizens and Beautiful Tableaux.

No more fitting climax to the "two million" campaign in Toronto could have been arranged than that which took place in Massey Hall at the great mass meeting last night and altho the building was not overly taxed by the size of the audience, lack in numbers was more than made up for by an enthusiasm. The brief announcement by Sir William Mulock that meant so much to the dependents of those who are on the firing line or in training to go was greeted with prolonged applause. "We have now $2,022,291.11 and there is more to come," was his message and tears dropped as hands clapped in thankfulness that Toronto's generosity seemed to know no bounds.

As the speakers eulogized Toronto's warm heart and told of the sacrifices which are being made at home as well as on foreign fields, the realization of what had actually been accomplished and the good which would result when at the close of the proceedings the audience witnessed a beautiful tableau representative of all these things, sentiment and patriotic fervor over-ruled all.

In the absence of Sir William Mulock, president of the Toronto and York County Patriotic Fund Association, who did not arrive until after the program had commenced, having waited at headquarters until the money was counted, Mr. Justice Lennox acted as chairman. He said, "The people of Toronto have done magnificently in this campaign and have contributed more than the rest of the world. I want to say that such results could not have been attained had it not been for the indefatigable work of the women."

Toronto Draws Attention. Hon. W. McGarry was well received. "Toronto has been looked to by the civilized world for the work it is

LACK OF FUSES HOLDS IN CHECK WAR CONTRACTS

PRICES TO STAY DOWN

Fuse-Loading Plant Being Installed—Glut of Eighteen-Pounder Shells.

By a Staff Reporter.

OTTAWA, Jan. 28.—In reply to statements that have been published, that no orders for munitions are now being placed in Canada, and that prices are being cut unduly low, the imperial munitions board, of which J. W. Flavell is chairman, has announced that, after the placing of the $169,000,000 worth of orders last October and November it was understood that these orders would cover the first half of this year. Moreover, the Canadian manufacturers have devoted themselves chiefly to making the 18-pounder shell, and the production of this size here and in Great Britain is more than supplying the demand, while there is a lack of facilities in Canada for loading the shells and for fuse making, and there is a congestion of this work in England.

Why Orders Stopped.

The board's statement follows: During the months of October and November last, orders for munitions were placed in Canada amounting in the aggregate to $169,000,000. Delivery of these orders has not yet commenced, except in one or two cases. These orders were intended to be spread over the first half of 1916, and in some cases over a longer period. It is not to be expected, therefore, that fresh orders would be given until the old orders were running out. This is the explanation of the fact that only $7,000,000 of additional orders were received in December and January.

Many Deliveries Owing.

"Moreover, out of the orders for munitions placed in Canada previous to October 1915, less than one half had been filled at the end of the year. The

ALLIED MARINES SEIZE FORT ON KARA BURUN

Landing From Warships Dictated by Necessity of Retaining This Fortress.

GREEK OFFICER PROTESTS

German Submarine Also Believed to Be Supplied From This Coast.

LONDON, Jan. 28.—An Athens despatch to the Reuter Telegram Company says:

A detachment of marines from French, British, Russian and Italian warships in the harbor landed at day-break Friday on the Kara Burun Peninsula, under the guns of their ships, and occupied the Greek fortress. The garrison of the fort offered no resistance, but the commander of the troops entered a protest at being compelled to evacuate.

At the same time as the naval landing, French infantry surrounded the fort and neighboring habitations. Buildings were searched and the inhabitants ordered removed.

This action on the part of the entente allies, according to the despatch, was dictated by strategic reasons and the undeniability of having the fortress in other hands than their own. Another reason for the landing was that it was believed that German submarines obtained supplies in the vicinity of this coast.

"The allied authorities today took possession of Fort Kara Burun, at the eastern entrance to the head of the Gulf of Saloniki.

TIDE WILL TURN IN SPRING LLOYD GEORGE IS CONFIDENT

Allies Will Have Superiority in Munitions for First Time—War Is Only Beginning for Entente Powers.

LONDON, Jan. 28.—(10.05 p.m.)—"I think that for us the war is only beginning," said David Lloyd George, minister of munitions, in an interview today with the London correspondent of The Milan Secolo, "but I am absolutely confident of victory, because, altho we all have made mistakes in the past, England and her allies are now taking counsel together, and will be stronger because they are united. By next spring we shall have for the first time more munitions than the enemy, and our superiority in men is unquestioned. Besides this, Germany's financial position is growing worse daily."

WILL BE NO DEADLOCK.

The minister of munitions admitted that the entente allies were all caught unprepared and had to organize armies. England, he said, had to create an army. Asked if he thought the war would end in a deadlock, the minister said that such a thing must not be thought of for a moment.

"It may take a long time," he said, "but we must crack the nut before we get at the kernel. Wearing down the outside by attrition is too long, and would not be a smashing, pulverizing victory. Pressure on the enemy is becoming greater. They are spreading their frontiers temporarily, but are becoming weaker in a military sense, and the process of strangulation will squeeze them more and more."

Danish Inventor Claims His Device Will Be Safeguard to Ships.

COPENHAGEN, Jan. 28.—(Via London, 5.23 p.m.)—An apparatus which it is claimed will prevent the destruction of ships by torpedoes or mines has been invented by Frantz Poulsen, engineer. The details are withheld, but the principal feature is said to be a device for diverting the pressure on ships' sides of the air masses formed by the explosion.

The invention has been offered to the British admiralty, which has promised to test it at the earliest possible time.

NOTED RUSSIAN COUNT IS DEAD IN CRIMEA

LONDON, Jan. 28.—Reuter's Petrograd correspondent reports the death of Count Von Vorontzoff-Dashkoff, formerly viceroy of the Caucasus, at his castle at Alupka, in the Crimea.

Count Von Vorontzoff-Dashkoff was born in 1837. He was appointed viceroy of the Caucasus in 1905, when he was succeeded by Grand Duke Nicholas. He worked many reforms in the country, brought about a rejuvenation of trade and industry and put down the outlawry that had been in existence for years.

EMBARKING STEADILY

Munitions Abandoned by Serbs Have Been Removed to Brindisi.

PARIS, Jan. 28.—An official statement tonight on the situation of the Serbian army says:

"The retreat of the Serbian contingents, which have remained in Albania, is continuing in good order and without any notable incident. This retreat is made much easier on account of the milder temperature and by the bridges thrown across the principal streams by the British forces. Victualing depots have been established along the roads of the retreat. The cannons, caissons and ammunition left by the Serbian army at San Giovanni di Medua have been taken on board French trawlers and carried to Brindisi. The Serbian troops continue to be embarked methodically.

"The Austro-Hungarians whose main forces occupy Scutari and Bojana have pushed their vanguards as far as San Giovanni di Medua.

"To the east the situation is unchanged. A Bulgarian detachment has been occupying Dibra for a month. A reserve brigade is stationed at Stouga, to the north of Lake Ohrid."

FOE'S COLUMN BEATEN

Large Quantity of Munitions and Cattle Captured by Victors.

Special Cable to The Toronto World.

LONDON, Jan. 28.—Two important and one minor success have just been won by the Russians over the Turks in the Caucasus and in Persia. It was learned here tonight. The troops under the Grand Duke Nicholas defeated large Turkish forces in an engagement south of Lake Urumiah, and they pursued the enemy, who fled precipitously, abandoning large quantities of arms, munitions, medical supplies, and thousands of cattle, which the Russians have captured. In central Persia, the Turks and rebels also received a severe check near Kaudchan Pass, southeast of Hamadan, and they were driven southward.

The second big success was won in the region west of Melazghert, when a large Turkish column was crushed. Seventeen Turkish officers and 274 men were taken prisoner, and a large quantity of arms and ammunition was captured, including many ammunition carts and tens of thousands of cartridges. Pursuing the fleeing Turks, Russian troops entered the town of Khuysskaya, situated between Erzerum and Mush, taking many Turks prisoner and seizing large reserves of munitions and supplies for the Turkish army. The beaten remnants of the Turks are in flight towards Mush.

HUNDREDS LOST IN FOUNDERING OF LARGE LINER

Hope for Safety of Steamer Appam is Virtually Abandoned.

LARGE PASSENGER LIST

German Mines or Submarines May Have Been Responsible.

LONDON, Jan. 28.—Since the disappearance of the Warstein in 1909 nothing has so mystified shipping circles as the vanishing of the Appam, the crack boat of the Elder- Dempster Line, which left Dakar, on the African coast, for Plymouth, on Jan. 11, with 200 passengers and 134 in the crew.

Wireless communication abruptly ceased when the steamer was about four days out.

The recovery of a smashed lifeboat of the Appam has increased the fears of the Appam's disappearance, and the loss of the steamer with all on board.

Shipping men, as a possible explanation of the Appam's disappearance, tentatively broach the theory of German submarines shut out from the coast of Africa, as well as one of German mines in the Bay of Biscay.

About the time communication with the Appam was severed there was a terrific storm in the waters thru which she was passing, which would have rendered it hopeless to keep lifeboats afloat.

Many Officials Aboard. The Appam called at all ports on the west coast of Africa, picking up of officials coming home on furlough, and these formed a considerable portion of her passenger list. She also carried a valuable cargo.

Among the passengers booked to sail on the Appam were Sir Edward and Lady Merewether and their suite; Frederick Seton James, former acting colonial secretary, and closely identified with colonial administration in Africa, and Francis Charles Fuller, who was appointed chief commissioner in Ashanti in 1905, and Mrs. Fuller.

The Appam, of 731 tons gross, 425 feet long and 57 feet beam, was built in 1913 by Harland and Wolff at Belfast, Ireland. She was owned by the British and African Steamship Navigation Company.

No Oars in Lifeboat. The captain of the steamer Tregantle, which is at Hull, says that the lifeboat which he passed was capable of holding 40 persons. When it was examined it showed no signs of having been occupied and had no oars aboard.

"I searched around for wreckage," the captain adds, "but could find no trace of any. Had any vessel picked up passengers they should have been landed before now."

WAR SUMMARY: Today's Events Reviewed

IN WHAT is virtually a resumption of the fighting precipitated around Arras and Loos by the British advance in September, the Germans made four attacks on the French with mines, infantry, and artillery north of Arras, three of which were repulsed, and one attack on the French, south of Arras, which is proceeding. Only in one case did the Germans gain any advantage, when they seized some French forward trenches near Givency and Hill 140, by the aid of a series of mine explosions. The French drove the Germans out of some other mine craters. The British repulsed a German attack on a salient in the Loos sector, and they retaliated in kind to a German bombardment of their lines in this region and farther north. Active artillery and rifle firing prevailed from the German lines, situated east of Armentieres.

The situation in this part of the battlefield is that the fighting must go on as soon as the ground permits manoeuvres, for the advance made by the allies last September enables them to dominate the important railway junction of Lens, and to seize this important point at a bound when they are ready. The Germans are therefore endeavoring to push the British and French lines back to their former positions, lest they should meet with a grave disaster. The importance of Lens is not so much that it dominates Lille, but that it is the key to the valley of the Scheldt, down which an allied advance would compel a general German retreat. To stop such an advance the Germans would have to withdraw a considerable distance to the rear, perhaps back to Brussels, reform their ranks, and fight a general engagement. It is the object of the allies, once they get started, to push on so rapidly that the Germans will not have time to reform, but will be killed, maimed, captured, and the survivors driven as a disorganized mob across the Rhine. By waiting for the ground to dry and harden, so as to permit the rapid advance of artillery, the Vienna Also Claims a Minor Success on the Russian Front.

BERLIN, Jan. 28.—(Via wireless to Sayville.)—The district of Gusinye, in northern Albania, has been occupied without opposition by Austro-Hungarian troops. It was announced today by army headquarters at Vienna.

On the Russian front, the statement adds, detachments of the 10th Galician Infantry Regiment attacked by surprise a Russian advanced position near Toporoutz, drove out the occupants of the trenches, and took a great part of them prisoner.

On the Italian front there have been the usual artillery duels and minor engagements.

More investigations, more charges, more of everything connected with the Toronto Fire Department is the talk one hears at the city hall and around the city as a result of Fire Chief Smith's action in reducing Alex. Gunn. No person has come out with any charges, no one has said he will move for an investigation, but there is evidently something of a startling nature to be heard when council meets again. It therefore would seem that a considerable portion of council's time will be devoted to fire department matters, even though it was expected the whole controversy was ended when the present chief was appointed.

Mr. Sam McBride stated yesterday that complaint had been made over the amount of time last year's council spent on the subject, and added that further time might well be spent until proper reorganization had taken place.

The alderman was disappointed at some of the promotions and suggested that council should find out why they have been made.

EASTERN EXHIBITION ENTRANCE IS COMING

Indications point towards a speedy agreement regarding the eastern entrance to the Exhibition grounds, and the officials have come to such an understanding that everything is proceeding satisfactorily. Yesterday, President Oliver had a very satisfactory interview with Manager Fleming of the Toronto Street Railway in reference to diverting a portion of the street car traffic down Spadina ave. to King street. As soon as the steel for his bridge over Bathurst street is on hand it is expected work will commence.

PLAYS, PICTURES AND MUSIC

"OMAR, THE TENTMAKER."

Richard Walton Tully's stupendous Persian love-play, "Omar, the Tentmaker," with Guy Bates Post in the title role, is scheduled to return to the Alexandra Theatre next week, commencing Monday night. The story is a fantastic one of the ever-popular "Arabian Nights" type, depicting the adventures that befall Omar Khayyam in his quest for love, for reunion with his sweetheart, who is lost from him for many years, and for the safety of his daughter. Many characters are introduced in the unfolding of the tale, and the action is compact with quick surprises, violent deaths, marvelous escapes and heroic sacrifices. The settings were all designed by Mr. Tully in conjunction with Wilfred Buckland, late art director for David Belasco. Seats are all selling for all performances.

"IN OLD KENTUCKY."

To paraphrase a little, "Of all the plays we love so well, there's none like 'Old Kentucky,'" or at least, so it would seem from the number of times the play has been seen in the larger cities, and the enthusiastic welcome that has always greeted it on each visit. "In Old Kentucky," written over twenty-four years ago by C. T. Dazey, has pleased more theatre-goers than any drama now current, unless it should be the late Denman Thompson's historical New England drama, "The Old Homestead." To the victor belongs the spoils, so "In Old Kentucky" has rolled up untold profits during the twenty-one years of continuous presentation on the American stage. "In Old Kentucky" is the attraction at the Grand next week.

SHEA'S THEATRE.

For next week the Shea management offers as the headline attraction the charming singing comedienne, Jessie Wynne, popularly known as "Lady Dimples," in a repertoire of bright, clever songs. Craig Campbell, the distinguished

THE HIPPODROME.

The sensational musical comedy sketch, "The Earl and the Girls," headlines a bright bill at the Hippodrome next week. Fascinating song and dance features, clever comedians and handsome scenic effects combine to make this offering unusually attractive. Emily Stevens will make her first film appearance at the Hippodrome next week in the latest Metro release, "The House of Tears." "Back Home" is the title of the rural comedy sketch in which John P. Rogers and Mark Hart will be featured as the special extra attraction. "The Absentminded Professor," while Jean Moore is a dainty singing comedienne. Dawn and Stevens, in a musical melange; Bertie Ford, a genuine surprise, and a feature film comedies, complete the bill.

LOEW'S THEATRE.

"The Evil Hour," a gripping dramatic playlet by William Anthony McGuire, author of "The Devil," with Harry Lincoln and Company, will be the big headliner at Loew's Yonge Street Theatre the entire coming week, topping a big bill. It is a tale of stage life, with a pretty leading lady, young and innocent, lured to the rooms of the backer of the show, but who is saved by Susan "The Evil Hour" midnight. Elsie White, new

NEXT WEEK AT STRAND.

"The Chalice of Courage," the film version of Cyrus Townsend Bradsby's great novel of the same name, will be the feature at the Strand Theatre for the first half of next week. The production is a V.L.S.E. one, and alike in construction in photography, in plot and in scenic investiture is supremely great. The bill will also include splendid motion pictures of

"MIDNIGHT MAIDENS."

The "Midnight Maidens," the one distinctly different burlesque show on the Columbia Circuit, comes to the Gayety Theatre commencing Monday. The "Midnight Maidens" is away from the beaten path, with new faces and new environment, offering a distinctly new brand of comedy, music and dances. A cast of unusual excellence is offered, headed by Mr. Pete Curley, Harry Brooks, Billy Walsh, Frank Lynch, Tony Shane, Bob Calvert, Ed. Bland, Norma Bell, Rose Kessner, Jean Leonard and a chorus of sprightly Fred Briers and Jimmy Francis. These entertainers will be seen in two laughable travesties, "Lizzie the Detective" and "A Night in Paris."

"MONTE CARLO GIRLS."

A show in every particular will be offered at the Star Theatre Monday, when the "Monte Carlo Girls" take the stage for the usual period. This aggressive burlesque patrons one of the most joyous entertainments they will get this season. There is Harry Walsh, the funny little Hebrew fellow with the odd side, Dolly Morrissey, playing soubrette roles, and Mabel White, the handsome prima donna. Among the other comedians are Fred Briers and Jimmy Francis. These entertainers will be seen in two laughable travesties, "Lizzie the Detective" and "A Night in Paris."

WAR EMERGENCY CONCERT.

A very attractive window card is now out advertising the big concert which is to be given in Massey Hall on Monday, Feb. 6, at 8 o'clock. Tickets are selling rapidly and there is every indication of a large audience to greet the many artists who have so generously given their services. The program will be an excellent one. Of special interest is a recent letter to a New York friend she said: "He is the best player of Grieg's music I ever heard." "Two things stand out in the public mind about this young genius of the piano. He can play Grieg as few men who have ever come to this country. Indeed, Grieg has said of Grainger that best of all his pupils he could interpret the soul that the master put into his creations. And Grainger has added a new note to musical composition and interpretation. It is for this that men and women look to him as a rising star in the world of music, a man who has within him that touch of genius that will make the world bigger and broader because he was born into it."

For Chapped, Blotchy, Red or Wrinkled Skin

Do you realize that just beneath that coarse, rough or discolored complexion there's an exquisitely beautiful skin, youthful tint and delicacy? If you could only bring this complexion to the surface, for whatever. Cutaneous defects like chaps, pimples, blotches, liver spots, moth patches, freckles, of course, disappear with the old skin. Nothing else will accomplish such wonderful results in so short a time.

Fine lines and even the deeper wrinkles appear at this season. In such cases nothing is better than a face bath made by dissolving 1 oz. powdered exfoliate in 1/4-pt. witch hazel. This is remarkably effective.

PROVISION MADE FOR STUDENTS TO ENLIST

Young Men Studying to Become Teachers, Given Special Free Terms After War.

REQUEST WAS REFUSED

Not in Interest of Education to Grant Certificates Before Going to Front.

Hon. G. Howard Ferguson, acting minister of education, announces that special facilities have been provided to allow young men studying to become teachers to enlist for overseas service.

Mr. Ferguson said yesterday that scores had approached him asking for a certificate of enlistment if they went to war but he has been unable to grant such requests as it would not be in the best interests of education.

The department has issued a circular explaining the provision. Pupils who are now in attendance at high and continuation schools in preparation for the next ensuing middle or upper school examinations and who desire to enlist for overseas service will be admitted on their return to a special summer course when necessary.

Told Alderman McBrien to "Shut Up" at Meeting of Works Committee.

NORTH END COMPLAINT

Proposal to Ask Funds to Build Mount Pleasant Road Car Line Defeated.

Some of the harmony that it was hoped would result from the works committee was blown to the winds yesterday when Alderman Sam McBride told Alderman McBrien to "shut up."

At the conclusion of the meeting Alderman McBrien declared that he would resign from the committee, that he did not intend to sit on a committee with two chairmen, one at either end of the table.

A communication from the North Toronto Ratepayers' Association was presented, asking that immediate action be taken regarding the building of the concrete bridge and the extension of the civic car line on Mount Pleasant road.

In explaining the situation, Works Commissioner Harris stated that the plan for the Mount Pleasant road had been proposed as an alternative to the event of the city not being able to build a civic line on Yonge street.

HYDRO FACTS

The Following Figures Have Been Obtained From the City

STREET LIGHTING

THE ACTUAL COST OF PUBLIC LIGHTING IN TORONTO 1910—BEFORE HYDRO—$142,851.00, NOT $129,257.13, as stated.

1915—WITH HYDRO—$350,000.00 (approx.), NOT $400,000.00, as stated.

The figures represent: 1910... 3.025% OF THE TOTAL CITY TAXES 1915... 2.818% OF THE TOTAL CITY TAXES

Added to this saving by use of Hydro you get much more candle power per dollar of expenditure.

And the useful light you do get is evenly distributed by the use of over 43,000 lamps in 1915, as against less than 3,000 in 1910.

Due to the Reduction in Hydro Rates in 1915 the Total Cost of Street Lighting DECREASED OVER $11,000, although the NUMBER OF LAMPS WAS INCREASED BY OVER 3,000.

WATERWORKS

HYDRO SUPPLIED 250% MORE POWER IN 1915 THAN IN 1912. BUT Hydro TOTAL BILL to Waterworks in 1915 was $19,000 LESS THAN IN 1912.

REDUCTION IN HYDRO RATE TO WATERWORKS OVER 65% BETWEEN 1912 AND 1915.

The cost of pumping has been greatly reduced since the introduction of Hydro.

CIVIC CAR LINES

The cost of Hydro Power is not high. Any Deficit on the Civic Car Lines is in no way due to Hydro.

The cost of Hydro Power is less than one-fifth of the total disbursements of the Civic Car Lines.

In fact, the deficit quoted is more than twice the total of the Hydro bills.

WHY HYDRO IS USED FOR CIVIC SERVICES

Because Hydro is owned by the Citizens and operated at cost for their benefit, and offers the best service at the lowest rates obtainable.

Co-operation has resulted in mutual advantage to the City and the private consumer—Since the same plant serves to supply both City and private consumer.

By using Hydro you can help to reduce the cost of civic services, and at the same time save money yourself.

HEALTH WRECKED THROUGH LA GRIPPE

It Generally Leaves the Patient Debilitated and an Easy Victim to Other Diseases.

One of the foremost medical writers says: "It is astonishing the number of people who have been crippled in health for years after an attack of la grippe or influenza." The real danger from this disease, which sweeps over Canada every winter, is during convalescence when the characteristic symptoms the fever, the catarrh, the headache and the depression of spirits pass away. Grip leaves behind it weakened vital powers, thin blood, impaired digestion and over-sensitive nerves—a condition that makes the system an easy prey to pneumonia, bronchitis, rheumatism, nervous prostration and even consumption. It is a condition that calls most emphatically for a tonic for the blood. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a tonic especially adapted to meet this need, as they purify and enrich the blood. They tone up the nerves and give vigor, strength and health to the debilitated system.

Canadian Drones. Many earnest and patriotic Canadian-born men and women are feeling hurt over the revelations of the figures in the recruiting lists and the subscription lists for the patriotic fund.

The Canadian nation as such is being placed in the position of hiring mercenaries to prosecute the Canadian share of the war.

The figures are not fully available for the contributions to the fund, but yesterday morning it was stated that even fewer people had subscribed this year than last.

It becomes a serious question, however, whether some means should not be applied to compelling contributions from those who sit back and let a minority of the people do all the work and the giving while the drones accept the honor and glory as they deserved it.

established before peace can be obtained is the abolition of the Prussian military idea of domination and world-empire, or even of European domination. What is called hegemony, or political ascendancy, is an empty thing in itself and cannot last long unless there are enduring and humanitarian conceptions of life and government behind the outward show.

The majesty of the truth in the Punch cartoon of King Albert answering the Kaiser, who taunted him with having lost all, has never impressed itself upon the German mind, which is thereby demonstrated to be material in its outlook.

The Germans and the allies are talking in different languages in this matter, and no interpreter has yet arisen between them but the sword.

The women of Ontario who are interested in this movement cannot avoid wondering why it is so easy to make progress in the west which has been nothing like so much agitation for suffrage as in Ontario.

The reason, of course, is in the men who form the government. Sir James Whitney was constitutionally opposed to suffrage, and if he had lived for a thousand years would have still been opposed to it.

Ontario is now memorializing the government thru 200 municipalities for suffrage, but it does not seem likely to have any more effect than before.

The government cannot go on refusing to consider the questions which the people demand at a hearing on, without arriving at a point where the people will consider the alternative of a government which will represent the people's wishes as the Whitney government did in 1905.

A Line o' Cheer Each Day o' the Year

By John Kendrick Bange. MY PRAYER. (Copyright, 1915.) ASK not change of wind and tide To suit the course I'm sailing,

AIR RAID CARRIED OUT ON TOWN OF FREIBURG

Hun Communiqué Refers to Night Attack—Claims Aeroplane Successes.

BERLIN, Jan. 28, via London.—The war office made public the following report today: "Western front: In the sector of Neuville attacks with hand grenades by the French were repulsed with heavy losses for the enemy.

The booty taken on January 26 has been increased by four machine guns and two bomb throwing machines. "No definite reports concerning the nocturnal aerial attack by the enemy on the harbor and town of Freiburg are yet at hand.

Statements have been made in the British House of Commons regarding aerial attacks. The best answer is furnished by the following compilation of our losses and those of the enemy in aeroplanes since our communication of Oct. 6. In the period since Oct. 1, 1915, the following German aeroplanes have been lost on the western front: In aerial battles 7 of our aeroplanes have been shot down by enemy anti-aircraft guns and 8 are missing, making a total of 15.

Our opponents on the western front in the same period lost 41 aeroplanes in aerial battles. Eleven were shot down by our anti-aircraft guns and 11 were lost owing to forced landings within our lines, making 63 altogether. These figures include only enemy machines which have been ascertained with certainty to have fallen into our hands.

BITTER ANTI-GERMAN FEELING AT LAUSANNE

Attempt to Celebrate Kaiser's Birthday Was Quite Strongly Resented.

PARIS, Jan. 28.—Fresh anti-German demonstrations took place last night at Lausanne, a Swiss city, on the north shore of Lake Geneva. Towards midnight the great crowds which surged thru the streets were dispersed, but at the railway station a small group of persons surrounding a German flag was attacked with canes, stones and fists.

The police were forced to use their swords before they could rescue the men attacked. Earlier in the day an angry crowd had torn down a German flag, which had been hoisted by the German consul in honor of Emperor William's birthday.

GERMANS MAY START FRESH DRIVE ON RIGA

Unusual Aerial Activity Taken to Presage New Offensive Along Dvina.

DRAW NEAR CZERNOWITZ. Russian Army Occupies Banks of Dniester at Royan—Foe Rushes Up Artillery.

PETROGRAD, Jan. 28.—Early renewal of military activity along the northern end of the Russian front, in the Riga and Dvinsk districts, is forecast by Russian military critics. Their expectation is based in part on the unusual activity of German aircraft in reconnoitering the Russian lines. Not only aeroplanes but Zeppelins are being employed.

This activity, in connection with intelligence obtained from prisoners captured in Bukovina, concerning removal of German troops from that region, leads to the belief that the Germans may be preparing an offensive in the north for the purpose of countering the Russian attack in Bukovina.

Along the Strpa River the artillery fire of the Teutons is increasing daily in intensity, and it is assumed they are preparing an offensive under cover of the bombardment.

Trench battles in which hand grenades and mines are employed are occurring along the banks of the Dniester and between Boyan and Ranzee. Boyan is immediately to the east of Czernowitz, which indicates the Russians are holding conquered territory close to that important center.

Near Czernowitz. A despatch from Kiev says: "German prisoners captured in battle in Bukovina assert that extensive preparations are being made by the Austrians and Germans to prevent a further advance by the Russians on that section of the front. It is said some of the chief railway lines of Austria and Germany have been closed to passenger traffic on account of the movement of large bodies of troops and great quantities of supplies to Bukovina.

A fortnight ago great numbers of heavy and light field pieces and of machine guns were brought up. Platforms for the heavy guns are being constructed by thousands of workmen sent to the front especially from the vast quantities of carriages of cement and steel have been rushed to the vicinity of Czernowitz.

"Prisoners state that as soon as guns are installed the number of troops is reduced to the minimum, the men withdrawn being sent back on the returning munitions trains."

FELL OFF BUILDING. Joseph Mackie, engaged in the wrecking for the Robert Simpson building, sustained a bad fracture of the leg when he fell from a wall yesterday morning.

RECENT BRITISH LOSSES COMPARATIVELY LIGHT

Casualties to January Ninth Five Hundred and Forty-Nine Thousand.

RATIO HAS FALLEN OFF. Period of Relative Inactivity During Winter Months Reduces Daily Average.

LONDON, Jan. 28.—Premier Asquith, in a written reply to a request for information, says that the total British casualties in all fields of operations up to Jan. 9 were 549,467, of which 24,122 were officers and 525,345 of other ranks.

The winter's inactivity on the fighting lines is reflected in the comparatively light losses of the British during the last few weeks. The previous official British report, made by Premier Asquith on Dec. 24, gave casualties up to Dec. 9 at 528,227, showing a loss in the intervening month of 21,240, or 685 daily. During the heaviest fighting British casualties have run far in excess of this average. They amounted to 60,000 in the battle of Loos alone, in a period of two weeks last fall. The monthly average from the beginning of the war is about 32,000.

The British losses in the month preceding the period covered in today's report were still smaller. The total from Nov. 9 to Dec. 9 was 17,977. Casualties Summarized.

The casualties were distributed as follows: Flanders and France: Killed—Officers, 5,138; other ranks, 82,130. Wounded—Officers, 10,217; other ranks, 248,990. Missing—Officers, 1,691; other ranks, 52,844. Total officers and men, 100,515.

Dardanelles: Killed—Officers, 1,745; other ranks, 26,455. Wounded—Officers, 3,148; other ranks, 74,352. Missing—Officers, 253; other ranks, 10,190. Total, officers and men, 117,901.

Other fronts: Killed—Officers, 918; other ranks, 11,752. Wounded—Officers, 816; other ranks, 15,165. Missing—Officers, 101; other ranks, 2,656. Total officers and men, 31,408. Grand total, 549,467.

ECHO OF THE FARMERS' BANK AT OSGOODE HALL

Georgetown Couple Appealed Against Decision, Naming Them as Contributors.

NEW BATTLE RAGES SOON

Justice Kelly Transferred Dispute Over Will From County to Supreme Court.

Mr. Justice Lennox at Osgoode Hall yesterday dismissed the appeal of Mrs. Maria Lindsay and James R. Lindsay of Georgetown against the decision of Referee McAndrews, who placed both appellants on the list of contributors of the defunct Farmers' Bank. Counsel for the plaintiffs argued that the Farmers' Bank was never properly incorporated as a bank. It is held that it is too late, after enjoying the fruits of the shares, to say that the issue of the charter to the bank was irregular. "I am unable," said the judge, "to grasp the distinction which is attempted to be made between a holder of shares and a shareholder."

If this judgment is sustained it will mean that those who subscribed to Farmers' Bank stock and held it at the time of the winding up in January, 1911, will have to pay in the neighborhood of $500,000 under double liability.

In a short time the Watson arbitration award is to be the issue in a new legal battle to be waged in Osgoode Hall. The Watsons have decided to appeal to the appellate division against the decision of Official Arbitrator P. H. Drayton, K.C., that the 12 acres taken by the city at the mouth of the Humber boulevard scheme is worth only $23,000.

At the arbitration some of the witnesses estimated the property at a quarter of a million. Mr. Drayton found that the land was of little or no value.

To Supreme Court. Mr. Justice Kelly has made an order transferring from the surrogate court of Wellington County to the supreme court, a dispute as to the estate of the late G. S. H. Wilson of Guelp, who died at Berlin, Sept. 17 last. The widow attacks the will, which purports to have been made four days before his death.

By the will, a brother, W. A. Wilson,

TEUTONS CANNOT SEND TROOPS TO ERZERUM

Reinforcements Impossible to Dispatch From Constantinople to Caucasus.

PETROGRAD, Jan. 28, via London, Jan. 28.—In the Caucasian campaign there have been no official reports of a further advance since the recent successes were made known, and it is assumed that the Russians have halted before Erzerum fortress while awaiting the arrival of heavy artillery.

According to a statement made to the foreign press by the military expert of the Birshevy Velomosty it is a practical impossibility for the Germans to send reinforcements from Constantinople to assist the Turks at Erzerum. Even the bringing up of troops from Bagdad, the most likely expedient, would mean the weakening of the forces which are facing the British in Mesopotamia.

The Russians are now within three or four miles of the outer fortifications of Erzerum.

"For two years I was a victim of Acute Indigestion and Gas in the Stomach. It afterwards attacked my Heart, and I had pains all over the body, so I could hardly move around. I tried all kinds of medicines, but none of them did me any good. At last, acting on the advice of a friend, I decided to try 'Fruit-a-tives.' I bought the first box last June, and now I am well, after using only three boxes. I recommend 'Fruit-a-tives' to anyone suffering from indigestion, no matter how acute."

LIBERTY

The Vital Question at Issue in Prohibition Campaign

THE vital question at issue in this Prohibition Campaign is not whether we shall drink or not. That is, after all, a minor matter. It is whether free men shall be deprived of their liberty; whether, at the dictation of a party controlled largely by professional agitators, the rest of the community shall be coerced as to the manner of their individual life. That is the real point, compared with which all other points are secondary.

Where PROHIBITION Would Lead

For, if these so-called crusaders have the right to dictate to you as to what you shall drink, why not as to what you shall eat, what you shall wear, how you shall conduct your business, how you shall amuse yourself, and how you shall worship your God. These are not mere vain imaginings. History is full of such attempts; and a self-assertive, self-righteous party has again and again prohibited almost anything that can

Inevitable Results of Coercion

The aim, then, is to restore the regime of the old Puritans, who, although upright in character and possessed of many sterling virtues, were obsessed with one dominating idea, that it was their mission to force all men, under heavy penalties, to conform to their narrow views of life. The result is well known: Pharisaism, the creation of a cold, self-centered character, evasion of the law, tyranny, and at last a reaction, ending in an era of excess and immorality. And yet, strange to say, the Puritans never proposed for a moment anything so drastic and tyrannical as the Prohibition of the use of beverages, of which they themselves partook with a clear conscience as being gifts of God.

Well, the people of Ontario do not propose to return to the Blue Laws and other tyranny of Puritanism.

NEWS OF SPECIAL INTEREST TO WOMEN

SOX FOR SOLDIER BOYS NOW POPULAR SLOGAN

Large Donations Are Being Received Every Day at World Building.

TEA, KNITTING AND MUSIC

Large Attendance of Patriotic and Enthusiastic Workers Yesterday.

"Sox for the boys at the front," has been taken up in earnest, and is now the slogan of every patriotic woman who knits. At the World Building, 40 West Richmond street, donations are being received in large numbers every day for the big "Sox Day" campaign, which closes in a little over two weeks—February 15. Yesterday the room was filled with a splendid attendance of enthusiastic knitters. Tea was served from four-thirty till six o'clock from the courtesy of the Red Cross Tea Company, and their expert demonstrators, and a musical program was also enjoyed. The generosity of Toronto firms was further illustrated in the offer of the R. S. Williams Company which has loaned a beautiful piano for the knitting room for the remainder of the campaign.

Program Yesterday. The program yesterday was contributed by Paul Branciera, violinist; Mrs. Herbert and Mrs. Foster, who have all kindly consented to take part in future entertainments for the knitters. A cheque for $20 was received by the treasurer yesterday from Mrs. R. D. Beaton, the treasurer of the White Star Red Cross League, in a letter which stated that the grant had been made by a motion at a meeting of the league. The money will be used to purchase wool for sox.

SLIMMING BIG HELP IN KILLING MICE

DON'T FORGET

Toronto World Sox Day, Feb. 15.

ANSWERS TO HEALTH QUESTIONS.

Mrs. D. M.—Q.—Please tell me what will cure cures on the eyelid.

A.—Apply a little of a saline made of six grains of ammoniated mercury to 2 drams white vaseline.

Mr. A. K.—Q.—What can be done to obtain a good complexion?

A.—It is beneficial to take three drops of Fowler's arsenic solution in water after meals for the blood.

Q.—I am 16 years of age, and notice a few gray hairs in my head. How can I prevent them from coming?

A.—Obtain lots of sleep in a well ventilated room, take lots of outdoor exercise, and do lots of swimming and dancing. The fresh air and sunshine will soon bring the roses to your cheeks if you keep your body in good condition. Avoid constipation and disorders of the stomach. An ounce of prevention is worth more than a pound of cure. Drink lots of distilled water, and avoid all greasy, oily, rich, highly seasoned foods, sweets and pastries. Do not use soap or hot water on your face, but instead wash with glycerine, 1 ounce; sulphur, 1 dram; rosewater, 8 ounces.

Q.—Do not worry, but go around with a jolly lot of young folks. Avoid much excitement, but read good books, see plays that are beneficial, and take good bodily care of yourself.

M. L.—Q.—I am a young man, 19 years of age, and am troubled with constipation. What would you advise me to do?

A.—I also have headaches.

A.—Take a tablespoonful of milk of magnesia before meals and a wineglassful of olive oil about half an hour after meals. Get more exercise, and eat good nourishing vegetables and meats.

Q.—Take three drops of Fowler's arsenic solution in water after meals. Avoid all oily, hot, greasy, rich, starchy and highly seasoned foods, sweets, pastries, chocolates, gravies and highly seasoned foods. Do not use soap or hot water, but wash with glycerine, 1 ounce; sulphur, 1 dram; rosewater, 8 ounces.

Clellan, S. J., of Woodstock College. The value of these snakes to the farmer lies in the fact that they eat large numbers of the little rodents that devour the grain growing in the fields and that stored in the barns.

Both varieties of snakes are harmless. Father McClellan says 500 raccoons will eat 6000 mice in a season. Dr. Shufeldt thinks this too conservative, but points out that as mice litter twice in a season, averaging only three young to a litter, it would mean that 18,000 fewer mice had eaten grain.

Father McClellan does not believe that garter snakes eat mice, but Dr. Shufeldt says they certainly do, and he urges that the government take steps to protect these valuable friends of the farmer.

CRITICIZES USE OF GUNS FOR SAVING INFANTRY

German Military Critic Does Not Like Present Allied Tactics in France.

BERLIN, Jan. 28.—(Via wireless to Sayville).—The question as to which is the main theatre of war is discussed by Major Morath, the military critic, and the Overseas News Agency, who remarks in his article that this is the question most frequently asked by the British critics who generally insist upon the importance of the western front. The British, says Major Morath, apparently are disagreeably impressed not only by the fact that on the Balkan and other fronts British forces are being wasted in small detachments, but also by the fact that there must be an increase in the British force on the western front if France insists upon sending more troops to Saloniki or other places.

As to the western front, Major Morath states that Germany's enemies there are in numerical superiority. He criticizes the British tactics which impel them to use their artillery and save their infantry, declaring that Great Britain in this way seeks to obtain successes without taking risks, something which is an impossibility.

OTTAWA, Jan. 28.—A cable from Sir Max Aitken states that Captain Rene de Salaberry, whom Sir Sam Hughes had sent for to come back and take the command of a new French-Canadian battalion in the Ottawa district, is ill in Paris, but he has communicated the offer to him, and he has accepted it. He will return at the earliest moment possible to undertake the raising of the corps.

ADVICE TO GIRLS

By ANNIE LAURIE.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE: I am 21 years old, not at all possessed of good looks, but in love with a young man a few years my senior, weak, and says he loves me, but yet he tells me he is out with other girls, tho I think that if he loves me as he says, he should not go with anyone else, tho we are not engaged. I have a friend in another city who would like to marry him. I do not love him as well as I do the one in the city, my girl friends say that he has not gone with anyone since left. What would you advise me to do? ANXIOUS ONE.

ANXIOUS ONE: If you are not engaged to marry him, what right have you to object to his going with other girls? If I were you, I would not ask him not to go out with anyone else, nor would I insist upon marriage to him. An engagement to marry is the only thing that gives to either of you the "problem" of which these two young men should marry, it seems to me not a young man of whom you write has not asked you to marry him. The question for you to decide is whether you would like it—whether you love the man who has asked you to marry him well enough to become his wife.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE: My closest friend and myself met a young lady at the same time. After that we both met her daily in the way of business. I started first keeping company with her with matrimonial intentions, but was soon defeated by my friend with a different intention, which revealed itself. I thought they had a perfect right, and did not harbor any ill-feelings toward either, and after some time forgot her.

Now, after three months she has asked me to call, and I did. She told me that she had neglected her entire appearance, and I renewed her, and everything seems so second-hand to me. Would you advise me to continue calling and suading and run the chances of regaining my former feelings to pointment for both, or would you stop and forget right now? I am very sore at my friend now, but have never let on to either of them. A Daily Reader.

Hints for Housewives

BY ANN MARIE LLOYD.

White gaiter shoes should always be kept in the paper to prevent them from becoming discolored.

After fowl of any kind is cleaned, the inside should be rubbed thoroughly with a piece of lemon before the dressing is put in.

When ivory-handled knives look yellow, rub them with fine sandpaper or emery; it will take off the spots and restore the whiteness.

If clothes-peg are dipped in white enamel paint and dried in the sun, they can be kept perfectly clean, and will not split or mark the clothes.

Tin that has become rusty or stained may be cleaned by dipping the cut surface of a raw potato in a fine cleaning powder and rubbing well with this.

When roasting meat, and there is danger of its becoming too brown, place a dish of water in the oven. The steam will prevent scorching and the meat will cook better. A piece of greased paper placed over the meat is also good.

To perfume linen, use rose leaves dried in the shade, or at about four feet from the stove, one pound; cloves, caraway seeds and allspice, of each one ounce; mix all these together and put the compound into little bags.

For fixing on small pieces of wood clipped off furniture, use the white of an egg.

To render pie crust flaky, try adding half a spoonful of vinegar to the cold water when mixing.

When cutting fur, never use scissors; use a razor or a very sharp penknife to cut thru the skin at the back.

When making fruit pies, put in the sugar when the dish is half full, and not on top. If you add the sugar last the pastry will be heavy.

When the hands have become soft and shrunken by using soda and hot water, rub them with common salt and it will help to make them smooth again.

White satin shoes should always be kept in blue paper to prevent them from becoming discolored.

THE "ONE-SIDED" DANCE FROCK

Designers Look to Modes of the Long-Ago for Inspiration.

By ANNETTE BRADSHAW

A DELIGHTFUL combination of 18th century charm and modern modishness is the new dance frock of lace and tulle. It might have stepped from one of the canvases of Nattier with its grace and feminine daintiness.

A worthy example of the art of the 20th century designer is this attractive frock of pale rose tulle and silver lace. Instead of the old-time puffed skirt, one side is formed of two deep founces, while the other is of tulle with a full flounce of lace arranged to produce a pannier effect.

The bodice repeats the idea of the skirt, having one side of silver lace and the other of tulle. The material is draped close to the figure, and the pointed décolletage is unobscured by trimming of any description.

A single rose of pink velvet is tucked in at the waistline, introducing a charming note of color.

The bodice is sleeveless, but a scarf of rose-colored tulle is attached to the center back of the frock and veils the arms with its delicate transparency.

Fashion has returned to the age of romance for her inspiration, and the majority of women are glad for this opportunity to don picturesque attire. Gone are the clinging draperies and the extremely low décolletages that exposed the back to the waistline. It is again fashionable to be modest. The full-skirted frock has come to stay for a long, long time.

Secrets of Health and Happiness

How the Humble Horse Helps Stop Your Wounds

By DR. LEONARD KEENE HIRSHBERG

A. B. M. A., M. D. (Johns Hopkins University).

THE stream of vitality that ebbs and flows through your veins, your capillaries and your arterial canals remains a smooth, comforting, warm current of straw-colored serum, rich, reddish orange corpuscles, moving, crawling, amoeba-like white corpuscles, dust-like granules, or tiny fragments of clear gelatin many times smaller than a red blood "cell," only as long as its head, the go within its proper "waterways." In other words, your blood remains the vermillion stream of life only when confined to its bed, its "Culebra Cut" of the anatomy.

Snails and crabs have white blood; several insects have marine blue blood; some toads and salamanders have green blood, and the streaming protoplasm of such water plants as spiralgia and the chlorophyll of all green plants also may be considered as blood. In health the human vital stream is a bright scarlet red, becoming a dark, bluish color when staled and used up as venous blood.

The instant a landslide, an explosion, or any accident severs the containing walls—veins, arteries, heart or capillaries—or the blood current, the nice balance of serum, reds and whites of this life fluid is destroyed, and a stream of red spurts out.

A hemorrhage is the outflow of blood from its accustomed channels. It is a diverted river, overflowing rich lands, thereby working injury to itself and its neighborhood. From the veins and capillaries slow inundation of dark red blood, rich as the Nile, yields up its own riches to the surrounding soil. If, however, an artery is severed, the blood is spurted in a brilliant vermilion stream as from the nozzle of a fire hose.

Artificial Inducers of Clots.
The moment healthy blood or lymph escapes from its natural channels it coagulates or clots as curds form in whey. The clot must form within a reasonable time or death will occur.

Jaundice, inherited blood diseases, anaemia and some other maladies retard and even prevent the clot-making material from doing its work. The upshot of this is that wounds or operations, even of a minor nature, may be the cause of danger, if not fatal, hemorrhages.

Thanks to the patient, persistent researches of those upon this momentous problem by scientific workers, it is now possible to check quickly many varieties of bleeding which only recently were almost always fatal.

Extracts and solutions made from the suprarenal or adrenal glands which crown the kidneys, and the French metal helmets protect the soldiers in the trenches, when injected into the blood or applied to the bleeding point, transfusion of blood or the transfer of fresh, quickly clotting vital fluid from some vigorous person is another means now in use. The victims of explosions, of battles and of other catastrophes, almost dead from huge hemorrhages, are thus restored to life and strength.

Where this is not feasible, horse serum, which is put up in the manner as along the highway until the blood is injected into the skin of the sufferer. This usually causes the blood to clot quickly at the point of injury.

Coagulose, a similar dry material, is employed to stop nose bleed, hemorrhages in the throat, ulcers of the stomach and duodenum. Coagulose is obtained by drying healthy horse serum. It is a powder that contains the "fibrin" and the "thrombin" of blood. The clot-making substance is permanently present in coagulose. Ten grains of it dissolved in two or three teaspoons of water are injected under the skin. It is repeated every few hours until the hemorrhage is checked.

Beauty Obtained and Retained the "New Day Resolution" Way

By LUCREZIA BORI

Prima Donna of the Metropolitan Opera Company, New York.

NOW that we are well past New Year's day and have tested the strength of our "resolving powers," let us realize that each new day may herald a new year of new things if we but wish them. If you are earnest in your desire for beauty resolve today to be beautiful, and as a constant reminder tack above your dressing table the following:

New Day Resolutions.

- 1—Exercise.
  - 2—Brush my hair carefully and massage the scalp.
  - 3—Give my complexion the proper attention.
  - 4—Relax for a half-hour.
  - 5—Spend 10 minutes to keep my hands well-groomed.
  - 6—Strive to maintain a happy, contented state of mind.
- This is only a small number of the resolutions that you should make if you wish to aid nature in the improvement of your appearance. Say each night "Tomorrow begins a new regime for me, and I will exert every effort to make up for past omissions which robbed me of health, happiness and beauty."
- Take this simple automation on the part of living tissues great losses of blood from slight accidents are uncommon. In health, blood does not clot, if normal conditions inside the blood tubes are present, and the tension, heat and pressure of the stream remain unchanged from its accustomed channels.

recognize your once drab, dull locks which occasioned you so many pangings of worry and regret.

Keep your resolution that you will protect your complexion from the ravages of the elements, remembering the summer sun—as well as the winter cold—for summer weather will roll around before you know it.

During the entire 365 days the skin should be creamed or lotioned before going out, so that it will be protected from the elements by an invisible armor. There is no excuse but laziness for chapped lips, rough skin or a coat of tan that mars a woman's beauty for the following winter. You can do it!

Use a good cold cream and massage the skin each day. Then rub a small quantity into the skin before going out with the superfluous grease off with a soft towel, and apply a thin coating of powder. The cream will not only prevent the skin against the wind, but it prevents the powder from clogging the pores.

Take at least a half-hour each day to relax and keep yourself young. Just "let go" of things for this short time, resting both mind and body. It is well to reserve a particular time for relaxation but if you are under any sort of strain and feel the need of a few minutes' rest at different periods of the day, relax whenever you are tired. You will be surprised what five minutes absolute relaxation will do for you. You will is not practicable, take systematic exercise in a well ventilated room each morning upon rising.

Even if the weather is bad protect yourself with overcoat, muffler and raincoat. If rainy, and walk briskly along the highway until the blood is racing through your veins, your eyes are sparkling, and you feel that this old world is a pretty good place in which to live after all. Never saunter along—walk with energy. Exercise is an absolute necessity to keep the body in a healthy condition, and health is essential to good looks.

The hair should receive its daily amount of attention to improve its sheen, texture and to make its growth more luxuriant. There would be fewer lifeless looking "crowns" if every woman would brush her hair with a long-bristled brush. If you deny yourself a few boxes of candy and ice cream sodas you can quickly save the amount required to purchase this very necessary toilet accessory. The hair should be well brushed before retiring, then the scalp should be massaged, and finally the hair should be braided loosely. In a month you will scarcely be able to have gained new strength and courage to resume the tasks that seemed so overwhelming.

Strange as it may seem to you, there are many women who should pay more attention to their hands. Women who are otherwise dainty and particular about their personal appearance seem to have dirt under their nails to keep the hands and nails well groomed. The hands are always in evidence except of having been ashamed of your hands spend a few minutes every day in caring for them.

Last of all but by no means the least important of the New Day's resolutions, is the promise that you will strive to be happy and contented. Practice a brave cheerfulness whatever each day brings, and develop a sense of humor if you lack this saving grace. You will be happier and far better looking if you find in tragedy the strain of comedy that is always there.

Never scoff at "resolutions" which many women seem only to break them. Firm in your determination to carry them out and renew each one that is broken.

WINIFRED BLACK WRITES ABOUT A Pair of Fools

I HAD tea with the woman of the world and the club man yesterday.

It was a beautiful tea. The muffins were toasted to exactly the right brown, the butter was sweet and fresh, and there was plenty of it; the tea was neither as strong as I nor as weak as water, and the sandwiches were perfection in the sandwich line.

The woman of the world said to that.

The waiter was a paragon of all the virtues in the waiters' class. He didn't shuffe and he didn't strut, and he neither slunk nor sidled. He was not there when you didn't want him, and he was there when you did want him. He didn't rattle the dishes or thump the silver, and he was neither insolently veiled of eye nor obsequious supply of person.

Oh, a perfect waiter! The club man saw to that.

And then the conversation—it was so interesting!

We began with the new dresses and how short they were, and the club man told a story that was meant to be funny and was only rather disagreeable. The woman of the world told him that he was shocking and tried to blush, and the club man straightened himself and settled his collar and looked particularly wicked and outrageously wise, and I stirred my tea.

Then we spoke of the world told a story. Some one had told it to her, she said, and she pretended that she didn't know what it meant. I really didn't know, but the club man did, and I could see him committing it to memory for the next tea.

Then we arrived at the last new play, and the first new novel of the season. Oh, such a very frank novel—one of the sort they call daring—and you keep wondering how the woman who wrote it is ever going to explain where she got all the detailed information. And, by easy stages, we came—quite as a matter of course—to the boy and the girl.

"I can't think," said the woman of the world, "I really can't even try to think, what on earth is the matter with Ethel."

"She has a lovely home, two fine brothers and a father who lies down and lets her walk on him, and two men running after her who are simply crazy about her. One of them is poor, but he's in the army, and it's rather smart for an army officer to be poor, and the other is simply made of money, and here she is determined to marry that idiot of a boy."

"He hasn't a cent in his name, and he'll have to work for his living. And they're going West—way out West—and live in a hut or a tent, something. He won't even stay here and go into the business with his uncle."

"Of course, he's awfully nice and rather good-looking and dead in love with her. What difference do things like that make, really?"

"To be sure, I know he's your nephew, Mr. Club Man, but you're too much of a man of the world not to understand my point of view. What on earth do you make of it all? Can't you do something to stop it?"

"He'll come to his senses."

"Do something!" The man of the world fairly purpled, he was so indignant. "Why, I'd do anything to put a stop to such nonsense! I've had him up to the club three times. I promised to get him in, and do you know the poor fool said he had no use for a club, and I'll tell you plainly, if he is my nephew, the club had no use for him. All he did was to sit and moon when the men were talking, and once, when some one said something about women in general, the cub got up and walked out of the room in a rage."

"Said we'd insulted his mother, or something. I don't know what."

"Oh, he's crazy, absolutely, no question about that!"

"He'll come to his senses some day, when it's too late, and he's tied down to a little nobody. I beg your pardon, Mrs. Woman of the World, nothing personal in it, but you know what I mean."

"And he has his father's looks—Jack was always a handsome fellow—and if he'd set his mind to it he might marry money and amount to something."

"What a fool he is!"

"What a fool she is," said the woman of the world.

"What fools they both are!" said the man and the woman together.

And I stirred my tea.

And when we were walking out of the room, who should come walking into it but the Two Fools themselves, together—the boy and the girl!

Of all the radiant, delighted heads-in-the-clouds and heads-in-the-air creatures that ever lived, the Two Fools were certainly the prize winners. Something in my glance, as I saw them, attracted their attention, I suppose, and they asked me to stay and go back and have tea with them.

"Why, thank you," said I, "I'll be delighted!"

The club man stared in amazement. The woman of the world actually gasped.

"I'm leaving to death," I said brazenly, "and thirsty—no end."

And I left the woman of the world and the club man looking after me in blank astonishment and utter disapproval.

But I told the truth. I was starving and thirsty. Starving for youth and light-hearted gaiety. Thirsty for a sight of simple happiness. It was a good thing I stayed. I got plenty of both.

They'd been shopping—getting the trunk—THE trunk. They were only going to take one.

"We shan't need a lot of furs and feathers out there," said the girl fool.

"Nary a feather," said the boy fool, and then they both laughed as if some one had made the cleverest joke in the world, and I laughed, too, and I was and what we were saying that he forgot to bring the tea until the girl fool pulled herself together and asked for it in what was so plainly intended to be a matronly and housewifely tone that I knew perfectly well that the boy fool was stepping on her foot under the table.

I wanted to step on it myself, she was so irresistible.

Wisdom, Youth and Divine Folly.

We let the muffins get cold, and we didn't know what was in the sandwiches, but we knew that was going to be in the little house on West. Every picture on the wall we knew, and every book in the bookcase, and we fairly saw the curtains that were going to hang between the dining room and the living room being woven on the loom.

The garden we saw, too. Here by the teapot was the violet bed, and there by the sugar were the pansies. Heavens! there's a storm coming, run into the house, little gardener, or you'll get wet. And we laughed and we almost cried. And we planned to fade before my sight, and I saw faces and the clear, happy eyes seemed to fade before my sight, and I saw again in fancy what I had seen half an hour before at that same table—two sad, embittered faces, two pairs of cold and calculating eyes—and I wondered if the four which two were the greatest pair of fools.

Wisdom, they say, is from the gods. But, oh, where does it come from, then, this divine folly that makes this old, gray world of ours worth living in, after all?

Three Minute Journeys

By Temple Manning

WHERE WOMEN WEAR "VEILS" LIKE BLINDERS.

If you had the proverbial "three guesses" about the women in this illustration, the chances are a million to one that you would not guess right. No one to whom I have shown the original photograph from which the drawing was made has ever given the correct answer to these three questions: Who are they? What are they wearing? What is the curious object they are examining so carefully?

The answer to the first question is in Zanzibar.

The answer to the second is that they are wearing masks made of leather.

The third answer is that the object they hold in their hands is the favorite of the traditions, "Masks of Modern women. They are made of leather and head work on a wooden frame. And they are worn only by the upper class Swahili who are the daughters of native women and Arab fathers.

In many of the customs of Zanzibar there still stand out the strange customs of the Arab traders who for centuries have frequented this East African coast. It is to them that most of the civilized influences perceptible among the natives of the district are due. Uncivilized these masks appear, they are, nevertheless, an evidence of Moslem civilization, for they are a modification of the traditional "masks of Modern women. They are made of leather and head work on a wooden frame. And they are worn only by the upper class Swahili who are the daughters of native women and Arab fathers.

The costumes worn by these society ladies are of silk. Their curious shoes are silver-studded. And they are decked with much silver jewelry.

part of the life of the cities. The Moslems in Zanzibar, by the way, are less strict in their religious usages than their brothers in Morocco and Turkey.

A Bride's Own Story Of Her Household Adventures

By ISOBEL BRANDS

GAIN and again, as I tackle the weekly basket of mending I see that invariably the light-colored hosiery or the light-colored feet of hosiery are changed in color from what they should be. It doesn't matter a bit whether the stockings be blue, brown, pink or white, they are never their original color after one trip to the laundry tub. I'm almost astonished that the black hose don't come back changed in hue.

I was almost beginning to accept this as a necessary evil when I saw that some brand new light hose, after one washing, took unto themselves a yellow tinge. Instead of the snowy whiteness that a bath should have given them, I protested to the efficient—more or less—"washwoman," who admorns my kitchen-laundry on Tuesdays. She looked at me, extreme sympathy conveyed in her expression and voice, apparently marvelling at the ignorance of a housekeeper who didn't know that light hose were destined to change color and no effort could persuade them from that course.

"Why, missy, stockin's allus act that way," she said. "They can't help it. Once they're washed they never looks like new again. Sure I know—I've been washin' 'em long enough."

That settled it for her. But it didn't settle the matter for me at all, and I was more determined than ever that I'd find out why.

"Now, Dort," I began, "you tell me just how you wash these nice white hose. Here are some brand new silk hose, little worn. What would you do with them?"

She looked at me shrewdly.

"You think I wash them with other things? No, not me. Of course I know that stockin's are separated, and I allus soak 'em separate and wash 'em separate in good hot water, too, and they're washed separately from other clothing, but some colors of hose must be washed separately from other hosiery. Brown hose, for example, must be washed separately, as even in good quality the color comes out more or less."

Now I have worked out standard rules for washing hose:

- 1—Blue, brown, pink or green hose must be "set" before washing—that is, immersed in a solution of one cupful of salt to a pail of water.
- 2—No hot water must be used. Stockin's must always be washed in lukewarm water, clean, sudsy water, and not in water that has been used and in which there may be some lint from other clothing.
- 3—Stockings are washed first on the right side, then turned inside out and washed on the wrong side. There should be two or three rinsings or more in lukewarm water.
- 4—Stockings are dried by hanging up by the feet, and are pressed with a warm iron on the wrong side.

Experiments have proved to me that these "rules" almost invariably produce good "results."

ADVICE TO GIRLS

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE: What is the proper way for a girl and her friend to enter a hall or church?

What should a girl say to her steady friend if she meets him while out walking with another boy friend?

What kind of hint should a young fellow give to gain admission into a house after taking a girl out for a date?

A young fellow was going with a girl and he could go to see her only when her other sister was not there because he could not agree with the views of the other sister. One evening he and that sister had a quarrel, and he never went back to see the girl, but agreed to meet her away from home. Do you think he did right, and should she meet him away from home?

Measure Your Floors

AND MAKE A SCOUTING TRIP TO THE CARPET DEPARTMENT MONDAY

Not for many years have the reduced prices which are everywhere in evidence in the Carpet and Rug Department meant so much in actual savings and economy as they do this February of 1916. Our customers have had many opportunities during the past year of noticing the persistent upward trend of all prices, but they are not yet, we feel sure, to any real extent aware of the enormous increases in cost and difficulty in procuring all manner of house-furnishing fabrics.

The prices which are quoted below, if compared with to-day's costs, would show absolute reductions of from 30% to 50%, and in many cases considerably more. You will appreciate the economy in purchasing your immediate and near-future requirements of carpets and rugs from the stocks which are shown for this special sale.

Among the items specially mentioned below are every-day requirements in sturdy, reliable qualities, as Wilton, Axminster, Brussels and tapestry, all at reduced prices. Among them are carpets for bedrooms, dining-rooms, living-rooms and dens, in various colours and styles of designs. February Sale price, yard, $1.95.

300 YARDS AXMINSTER AND WILTON CARPETS AT $1.95.

Comparison with carpet values as they are marked to-day will illustrate to you very definitely what an attractive price this is for the qualities included. Regular values for these goods, ordered 12 months ago, are $2.25 and $2.50, but at to-day's price 35% to 40% can be saved. Among them are carpets for bedrooms, dining-rooms, living-rooms and dens, in various colours and styles of designs. February Sale price, yard, $1.95.

BRUSSELS CARPETS AT 80c.

A limited range of designs in Oriental, chintz and small self-colour effects; some with border to match. February Sale price, yard, 80c.

SCOTCH TAPESTRY CARPET, YARD, 49c.

A number of good chintz designs, in various colours, suitable for rooms, and some with stair carpets to match. To-day's price for this quality is nearly double. February Sale price, yard, 49c.

SPLENDID WILTON RUGS IN POPULAR ORIENTAL DESIGNS.

Add to our regular prices as quoted below about 25% and you will get the actual comparison between to-day's new selling price and the prices offered during this February Sale. These old prices must inevitably come to a very quick end, and there will be no such carpet and rug values obtainable for a long time to come.
