The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

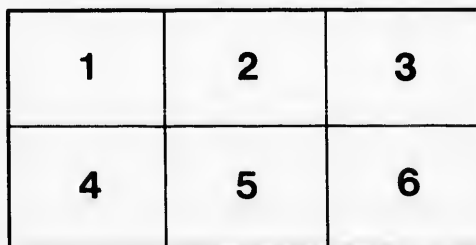

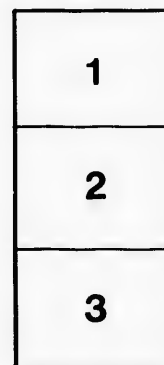

National Library of Canada

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol ➡ (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ▼ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Bibliothèque nationale du Canada

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole ➡ signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ▼ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

O Canada, vast Canada,
We've seen thy snow-clad mountains
Thy streams and crystal fountains,
Thy boundless fields of waving grains,
And thousands of cattle upon thy plains,
Thy mines and forests, thy C. P. R.
But what impressed me most by far,
Was to see the friendliness in your face,
Anglo-Saxons, brothers, of a mighty race.

Warren Sheaf.

John P. Mattson.

The trip has greatly exceeded our most pleasant expectations. The scenery is grand—that through the mountains being magnificent and awe-inspiring, the hospitality of our Canadian friends and their generous sympathy in our war troubles, were not the least pleasing feature; on the whole a great educator.

Review, Mankato.

John C. Wise.

I could not explain in ten times twenty words half the wonders and surprises this trip has afforded me. It was grand.

News, Glyndon.

R. B. Osborn.

The longest, the best, the most enjoyable, the most valuable from an educational point of view of any of our excursions.

Journal, Granite Falls.

C. A. Bennett.

Give me the voice of the waterfall,
And a mountain towering all,
To tell in twenty words the wonders I have seen,
Traveling over the mountains and prairies so green.

Volkszeitung, St. Paul. Mrs. F. W. Bergmeyer.

Far beyond all expectations. A continual round of pleasure. Canadian hospitality unsurpassed. Money spent on this trip the best investment I ever made.

Litchfield.

Mrs. J. T. Mullen.

Have seen a country of vast dimensions, of wonderful beauty and natural resources; have met a people of most generous hospitality. All this in a company, every one of whom seems a friend.

Journal, Minneapolis. Mrs. A. T. Anderson.

My trip has been enjoyable, exhilarating, surprising and a wonderful confirmation of imagination and ideas of geography in the west.

The News, Plainview. F. L. Meachum.

Whether across prairie or mountains, our trip has been one continual round of instruction and enjoyment.

Dispatch, Brainerd.

Carrie Wieland.

The trip has deepened and strengthened my admiration and respect for the Canadian people, and broadened my ideas of the vast resources of northwestern Canada.

Journal, Minneapolis. Martha Scott Anderson.

I came, I saw and was conquered by the land of the Britains.—May the two flags wave side by side in everlasting peace.

Herald, St. Peter.

Mrs. H. J. Essler.

20 words are not enough for me
To write about a trip that took us to the sea.
Had I a sheet 2,000 miles long,
It would not be sufficient for writing such a song.
Volkszeitung, St. Paul. F. W. Bergmeyer.

A concentration of more notable scenery and more agricultural lands than any 10 days' outing in the world ever offered.
Trade Journal, St. Paul. H. P. Hall.

My appreciation of this, the grandest and most satisfactory trip of my life so far, is only exceeded by my inability to crowd any sentiment concerning it into 20 words.
Independent, Hutchinson. W. S. Clay.

Our trip.—Words fail, but Canada's scenery, welcome and brotherly love will ever find a home in our memories and hearts.
St. Paul. E. C. Downing.

The hospitality of the Canadian people cannot be surpassed. The mountain scenery is beyond all description.
Independent, Hutchinson. Felda M. Clay.

Interesting and instructive. Railroad service unsurpassed. Scenery beautiful, beyond description. Healthful to all. Excellent country and lands for homeseekers. Canadians desirable associates. Pleasures indescribable.
Advance, Worthington, Minn. H. Hawley.

It is beyond the power of mortal man to conceive of the beauty and grandeur of the mountains without first having seen them.
Ariel, Minneapolis. M. J. Luby.

The trip from beginning to end has been most delightful and instructive. I consider the ten days just past the most profitable ten successive days of my life.

Republican, Atwater.

L. E. Covell.

The most extensive, picturesque, enjoyable and instructive trip ever taken by the association and one to be remembered through life.

Dispatch, St. Paul.

L. D. Bissell.

Most delightful trip in every way that I have ever taken. The scenery magnificent, and the men extremely fine looking and intelligent.

Times, Minneapolis.

Eva Blanchard.

The most aggravating trip that I have ever taken. Just as one gets acquainted with the people we like, we are parted, alas!

Montevideo.

Grace Hoard.

The scenery was majestic and impressive. The company was delightful and harmonious. The management unequalled.

Austin.

Evangeline Miller.

This has been one of the most instructive trips I have ever taken.

Herald, Waseca.

Dora M. Child.

The trip was a revelation of the wondrous possibilities of western Canada.

Herald, Little Falls.

Chas. Vasaly.

The grandeur of the scenery and the unbounded hospitality of our Canadian cousins have been a treat beyond the ordinary.

The News, Plainview.

Mrs. F. L. Meachum.

I became very familiar with our national music, while on a most delightful trip through Canada, with one hundred eighty charming Minnesota editors.

Trade Journal, St. Paul. Florence Brown.

The event of a life-time.

Telegram, Breckeuridge. Mrs. W. M. James.

From the foot of the Rockies the scenery is grand,
You will not find its equal in any land;
The people are generous, warm-hearted and kind,
And have the Anglo-Saxon Alliance strong in their mind.

Slayton, Minn. Mrs. James Ruane.

We went to capture Canada,
But Canada conquered us,
From Winnipeg to Victoria
And back again to U. S.

Enterprise, Arlington. Mrs. A. C. Buck.

Good will, good wishes and great expectation more than satisfied, most fully characterized our trip.

Press, Cambridge. Geo. A. Iselin.

A very pleasant trip for me, if I did get thrown from a street-car. I shall always remember Seattle.
Journal, Granite Falls. Mrs. C. A. Bennett.

Not one of the best, but 'tittle the best of the whole shooting match.

Union, Anoka. G. S. Pease.

Canada has vast resources, but I cannot encourage immigration, while beer is 15 cents a glass.

Journal, Eden Valley. W. O'Brien.

Grand scenery, perfect weather, cordial greetings, pleasant company, made this the best trip of my life.

Minneapolis.

E. H. C. Richardson.

The trip has proven the broadest education yet afforded the Minnesota Editorial Association.

Press, Appleton.

Mrs. C. W. Stanton.

The trip was a revelation, every hour revealing some new beauty, grandeur of scenery, proverbial hospitality of the Canadian people.

Minneapolis.

Walter F. Fifield.

Viewed from the seclusion of the pilot, the trip has been one of unparalleled grandeur. As it was a question of breakfast or Glacier—don't ask which I chose.

Fergus Falls.

Josephine Wheelock.

A warmer welcome we could not ask,

Finer scenery we could not pass,

Our trip in Canada was first-class.

Radical, Waseca.

C. C. Graham.

I am especially impressed by the grand reception we received at the hands of our English cousins, and the beautiful mountain scenery.

Dispatch, Brainerd.

Mrs. F. W. Wieland.

Saw more rice, Saturday evening, July 16th, than ever before in my life. Rice was trump—hearts a close second.

Tribune, Mazeppa.

Mrs. D. Phillips.

Hearts are trump. The Banff bathing suits were literally "out of sight."

News, Hallock.

E. A. Nelson.

The endless prairies and the huge and rugged mountains beheld on this trip has revealed to the excursionists Canada's possibilities.

Fram, Crookston.

Mrs. Ole E. Hagen.

The excursion has been a pleasure, a recreation, and in many respects a revelation—a trip never to be forgotten.

Fram, Crookston.

Ole E. Hagen.

A pleasant trip! Well—I guess yes!

St. Paul.

Mrs. H. M. Temple.

Delightful memories of Banff, the Glacier, Victoria, Winnipeg, Brandon, Vancouver, Calgary, Seattle, and 500 miles of mountain scenery, will remain with me forever.

Index, Ada, Minn.

Mrs. D. C. Lightborne.

It is a magnificent trip. For grand scenery it beats the world. The people entertained us handsomely. I enjoyed everything.

Index, Ada, Minn.

D. C. Lightborne.

It has been one of pleasure and profit from beginning to end.

St. Paul.

Mrs. Theo. H. Smith.

The exemplification of nature's productiveness, the realization of her stupendous grandeur, and the participating of the hospitality of the Canadian people.

Times, West St. Paul.

Chas. S. Schurman.

It was an education as to the vastness of our continent as well as my most enjoyable trip.

Times, West St. Paul.

Mrs. C. S. Schurman.

The Editorial trip from St. Paul to the coast has been one of perfect delight all the way. The grandeur of scenery can only be realized by seeing it.

Democrat, Wabasha.

A. J. Stone.

Words fail to express how enjoyable this trip has been to me; it has been one round of pleasure.

Worthington Advance.

Mrs. H. Hawley.

This has been an educational trip and a round of pleasure from beginning to end.

Mrs. J. C. T. Ely.

The scenery was the grandest, the company formed of agreeable people, the weather perfect, while our reception along the entire route was the most cordial.

Sun, Morris.

Hugh S. Munroe.

I have enjoyed every single moment of it, from beginning to end.

St. Paul.

Sarah K. Ramaley.

I started out with the expectation of seeing marvelous scenery and have been gratified far beyond anything I had conceived of.

People's Gazette, St. Paul.

R. W. Clifford.

I have enjoyed the trip very much and feel that I have received valued information. Our cordial welcome by the Canadians impressed me very much.

Republican, Atwater.

Edwin Covell.

Our Outing consisted of banquets, receptions, good fellowship, beautiful scenery, the Rockies, mild and grand, Pacific cities, China Town and salt water.

J. A. McLaughlin.

The Canadians and their peerless Canadian Pacific Railroad have given us the grandest and best outing in the history of this Association.

Telegram, Breckenridge. W. M. James.

A bit of education,
A bit of recreation,
A school of hospitality
Among "our kith and kin."

Madison, Minn. J. D. Harradon.

If finer scenery can be found anywhere, or more varieties of wealth encompassed in a ten days' trip—well, let's go there next year.

St. Paul Globe. W. G. McMurchy.

We had all things in sight;
Thanks to Hall, Whitney and White.
From the North star to the sea
None can equal these three.

Post-News, Alexandria. Ella Mitchell.

A most delightful trip. Scenery unsurpassed. Would not have missed it for anything.

Am. Press. Ass'n, St. Paul. Mrs. A. L. May.

My first trip across the Rockies and to the Pacific Ocean. The scenery is grand and I cannot express in words all that I have seen. It was a trip of pleasure, sightseeing and entertaining.

Review, New Ulm. Ernst Wicherski.

After fifteen years of experience of handling parties, can safely say that the Minnesota Editorial Association is the finest that ever came over the pike.

T. L. Hamilton,
Glenwood, Minn. Dining Car Conductor.

It has been the most delightful trip of all my travels.

Review, New Ulm.

Mrs. E. Wicherski.

Glorious beyond description. Unsurpassed for education and entertainment.

St. Paul.

J. A. Vye.

A beautiful, charming, delightful, elegant, friendly, glorious, happy, interesting, jolly, Klondikeward, long, mountainous, new, orderly, pleasant, quick, restful, sumptuous trip.

Gleaner, Plainview.

Mary L. Bolton.

No words can express this trip of pleasure, for changes of scenery and the way we have been courteously received.

Little Falls.

Mrs. Mary J. Trebby.

I am proud to say that I was out with the Editors of Minnesota; had a very nice time, scenery was lovely, and I was treated grand.

W. F. Briley,
Porter on car "Trieste."

Anyone wishing to see the grandest scenery on earth, should take this route to the coast.

Swift County Monitor,

Benson, Minn.

C. A. Violet.

The trip has been one continual change of scenes, too grand for pen or man to describe.

Democrat, Little Falls.

S. Trebby.

A panoramic view of a continent, presenting a variety of features, unequalled anywhere in the world.

Am. Press Ass'n, St. Paul.

A. L. May.

Reception from Canadian cousins most generous. Agricultural resources boundless. Mountain scenery magnificent. Party most agreeable.
418 Jenks Street, A. Stoddart,
St. Paul. Conductor Pullman Car.

Has been delightful and the most instructive from a geographical point of view ever taken by the association.

Kellogg's Record, Frank J. Meyst.
Minneapolis.

The trip has opened the eyes of the press of Minnesota to the extent and resources of Canada.
Register, Austin. Harry Basford.

The largest excursion, the longest trip, the best natured, most contented, and most helpful-to-the-committee personnel, in the history of the association.

News-Messenger, Marshall. C. C. Whitney.

The trip has been a great educator, and in many respects the grandest ever taken by the Association.

Press, Appleton. C. W. Stanton.

The most delightful, interesting and instructive trip yet taken. For magnificent scenery and delightful hospitality it is unequalled.

Dispatch, Brainerd. F. W. Wieland.

The whole trip has been beyond my greatest expectations, and has been delightful throughout.

Pioneer, Currie. Daisy Currie.

A trip of lifetime,
To remember till bed time.

A. O. U. W. Guide, David Ramaley, Jr.
St. Paul.

The trip is an important one in that it was through a foreign country and must have a broadening influence on all who took it, and enable them to view life with a broader vision.

Messenger, Madella.

W. R. Estes.

Most wonderful, enlightening, inspiring ten days in my life. Would not have missed the trip for many times its cost.

Herald, Sauk Center.

W. A. Simonton.

A grand panorama. Scenery finest in the world. Well received en route by new found friends everywhere. Well planned and executed.

Pioneer, Currie.

Nell Currie.

Grand, glorious, wonderful! All hospitable in Dominion and out of it. Officers and committee most obliging, weather perfect, all happy.

Sauk Center.

Mrs. J. H. Simonton.

This trip has been a success in every way, and has probably given more pleasure and information than any former trip.

Reporter, Marshall.

F. W. Case.

A very profane man, with a load of pumpkins, on reaching the top of a long hill, discovered that all had rolled out, a kid having pulled out the wagon end-gate. Strange to say, he did not swear. Asked why, he said he could not think of words that would do the occasion justice—That's my fix.

Litchfield.

John T. Mullen.

The greatest trip of a great association through the greatest country of the world, "allied" Canadians for the humane conquest of mankind.

Windom Reporter.

E. C. Huntington.

There was more, real pleasure on the trip than the wildest flight of my unbridled imagination could have painted.

Albert Lea Enterprise.

Clint L. Luce.

It has been a most delightful and instructive trip. Do not believe that ten days could have been spent to better advantage.

Advocate, Henning.

M. Johnson.

The trip, ten days' rambling through beautiful scenery, the hours spent with whole-souled friends, were intensified with an outing that shall ever be remembered.

Herald, St. Peter.

H. J. Essler.

No scenery can compare with that of our neighbors' paradise. One of the grandest sights ever seen by man. Grandeur unsurpassed. All to be seen on the C. P.

Stillwater, Minn.

Mrs. W. C. Masterman.

I think that Banff Springs was a delightful place, and I would like to stay there for a vacation. The Rocky Mountain scenery was very nice.

Litchfield.

Florence Peterson.

The leading feature of the trip was its educational value. Those who made full use of the opportunity for observation were repaid manyfold.

Independent, Litchfield.

H. I. Peterson.

I enjoyed the scenery along the route, and especially the grandeur of the snow-covered mountains. The friendliness and hospitality extended to us by the people of Canada showed that their hearts are as big as their mountains.

Warren.

Mrs. John P. Mattson.

One hundred and eighty-five Americans most cordially received by their "British cousins," who were given a glimpse of a beautiful country and a wonderful railroad.

Type-founder, St. Paul.

W. A. Potter.

The Minnesota Editors and their wives have enjoyed a treat of a lifetime.

Type-founder, St. Paul.

Mrs. W. A. Potter.

The immensity of this grand tour leaves an impression upon the mind, the cropping out of which will be shown during the remainder of our natural lives.

Herald, Tracy.

O. J. Rea.

This trip over the Rocky Mountains has been very delightful, the scenery being especially lovely.

Posten, Minneapolis.

Mrs. S. J. Turnblad.

The cordial welcome by the Canadians was flattering; but one glance at Mount Baker did away with all self-consciousness.

Bertha Frost.

The trip was grand, the relief from household cares was grander.

Herald, Tracy.

Mrs. O. J. Rea.

Supremely enjoyable and educative. Have seen a great country with broad prairies, extensive plains, beautiful cities, magnificent mountains, illimitable resources, whose people have lavished hospitality and good will upon us.

News, Moorhead.

Geo. N. Lamphere.

It was one round of pleasure and profit.

Democrat, Hastings.

A. J. Schaller.

Picturesque and educational. If we would advocate what we have seen and learned, reforms could be accomplished in different directions.

Westlicher Herold,
Winona.

Joseph Leicht.

I have enjoyed this trip immense. Nobody can describe this beautiful scenery; should be seen to be appreciated.

Westlicher Herold,
Winona.

Mrs. J. Leicht.

This trip has been more delightful than words can express, seeing how picturesque nature can be seen, and the kindness of our neighboring state, Canada, added to it, made it beyond expression.

Westlicher Herold,
Winona.

Miss Hedwig Leicht.

The trip has taken us through the grandest country scenery and knit us more closely to the English nation.

Times, Bellingham.

Mrs. W. W. Holmes.

An event of a life-time, an experience which adds new ideas, broadening the visions of things infinite as well as finite.

Sun, Morris.

Mrs. W. J. Munro.

The trip was a revelation of the scope and character of a grand domain, as rich in natural resources and in the grandeur of its scenery as great and full of promises.

Sun, Morris.

W. J. Munro.

From beginning to end it has been a most delightful and instructive trip.

Review, Litchfield.

Florence Matthews.

The trip was a delight and revelation, grand in the sense that it added to the sum total of our best knowledge.

Democrat, Hastings.

Nane M. Schaller.

A pleasant party. Fine scenery, many kindnesses from the railroad company, and the cordiality of the Canadian people have made this trip an indescribable one.

Review, Mankato.

Helen E. Wise.

If my lot I could choose
In this world full of woe,
My old keys I would lose
And to Canada go.

Madison.

E. Holdale.

A most delightful trip in every detail.

Miss Edgar Weaver.

A trip of a life-time. Unbounded information and pleasure obtained. Canada has proved that she is Canada as represented to outsiders.

Regina, Canada.

A. J. Fraser.

I never realized before the extent of Canada's domains, the wealth of resources, grandeur of scenery or brightness of promise.

Regina, Canada.

Mrs. Ada Fraser.

The best, the most enjoyable trip ever taken; over the prairies and through mountains, a territory of almost unlimited resources.

Review, Litchfield.

C. W. Wagner.

As a scenic route the grandest in the world. It has made 185 advocates for the Anglo-Saxon alliance.

Times, Bellingham.

W. W. Holmes.

There's only one Banff, only one Great Glacier, only one million other points of interest on the only C. P. R'y.

Review, Litchfield.

Leslie Matthews.

Did not know there was such grand scenery in America, it is simply beyond my description, but it's a great education for anyone.

Review, Litchfield.

Mrs. Leslie Matthews.

Twenty words could not express the most enjoyable and instructive trip of my life.

Swift County Monitor,
Benson, Minn.

Mrs. C. A. Violet.

This trip, as an educator, is worth much more than a year's schooling at one of our best institutions of learning.

Leader, Hutchinson.

Mrs. Carlos Avery.

The trip has been a revelation as to the wonderful resources and grandly beautiful scenery of Canada. It has also revealed in Canada a warm friend. The trip has amounted to a liberal education.

Leader, Hutchinson.

Carlos Avery.

A grand conception,
A magnificent reception,
A revelation,
An inspiration,
"The greatest show on earth."

Gleaner, Plainview.

F. G. Bolton.

The best conducted trip, through the grandest scenery and over the greatest number of miles, the Association has ever made, and with the happiest results.

Marshall.

C. B. Tyler.

Best trip I ever made; enjoyed it all the way going and coming. Have been impressed by the friendly attitude of the people.

News, Moorhead.

Mrs. G. N. Lamphere.

A delightful trip, affording much pleasure and knowledge, the mountains and cities being especially interesting. The people were all hospitable.

News, Moorhead.

Miss G. Lamphere.

For extensiveness, successful management, genial, open-hearted hospitality received, and for beauty and variety of scenery, the trip has never been excelled.

Enterprise, Arlington.

A. C. Buck.

The trip in grandeur baffles description; first endless prairie, then miles of rugged mountains, where beauty is unsurpassed.

Mrs. J. A. McLaughlin.

Sorry could not be with the party. The trip was the most entertaining and instructive of all the numerous excursions arranged by the Executive Committee.

St. Paul.

C. P. Stine.

This trip has been one of great educational value, for it has taught us much of our Canadian neighbors, the resources of the country. The trip is indescribable.

Gazette, Slayton.

James Ruane.

A line the best of all to date,
Big Shuswap Lake, the Glacier, too,
A country vast and cities great,
These things to Fabers once were new.

Review, St. Paul.

Mr. and Mrs. Berryhill.

While with the editors but a short time, found the dining car and the rear platform the most enjoyable.

Union, Anoka.

Carrie A. Pease.

Canada appreciates the many kind remarks and beautiful sentiments expressed by Minnesota editors and applied to Canada.

Dominion Representative,

Will J. White.

Fine weather, agreeable Company and cordial receptions brought us in closer sympathy with our kith and kin.

Messenger, Madella.

Mrs. W. R. Estes.

I have enjoyed myself very much, although the trip has been long and tiresome.

Posten, Minneapolis.

Miss Lillian Turnblad.

Trip of recreation and pleasure. Scenery and hospitality unexcelled. One continuous Rah! Rah!! Rah!!! Wales and his Ma! Editors, Editors, Minne-so-ta!

Posten, Minneapolis.

Swan J. Turnblad.

Some of the grandest and most beautiful scenery I have ever seen. Hospitality equal to scenery.

Volkszeitung, St. Paul.

Mrs. Albert Scheffer.

A most enjoyable trip and company. The scenery cannot be surpassed.

Typographical Advertiser,

Minneapolis.

Mrs. C. C. Webster.

Complete success from start to finish.

Polk County Journal,

Crookston.

Matie Brown.

Many thanks are due the Canadian Pacific Railway, and the executive committee for the most enjoyable trip ever taken by the Association. 1898 Excursion to the coast was a great educator.

Typographical Advertiser,
Minneapolis.

John Brandtjen.

The ten days' outing with the Minnesota Editors has been a pleasure to be remembered forever.

Typographical Advertiser,
Minneapolis.

Mrs. J. Brandtjen.

Greatest and grandest ever taken; most pleasant and profitable. Best people on earth; Canada and Minnesota. 'Rah for Canadian Pacific.

Gazette, Stillwater.

W. E. Easton.

Vast prairies—too much of them. Delighted with the grandeur of the mountain scenery and the kindness of the editorial party.

Republican, Fulda.

Mrs. Belle Maxwell.

The lofty peaks of Tacoma and Baker pale into utter insignificance, as compared with the height of delight I have experienced on this magnificent trip.

Journal-Press, St. Cloud.

James R. Jerrard.

The best in the history of the Association, through vast agricultural regions, hospitable cities, over rushing waters, surrounded by mountains, the summits of which appear to reach the heavens above—the whole presents a magnificent panorama, never to be forgotten.

Times, Preston.

S. A. Langum.

One of my life hopes realized. Especially enjoyed the mountain scenery and Victoria. Never had pleasanter or more instructive trip.

My opinion of our Editorial trip is beyond expression in twenty words.

Leader, Montevideo.

Genevieve Hoard.

Our Editorial excursion of '98 surpasses in grandeur of scenery any yet taken. It has been a trip in a lifetime.

Willmar.

Mrs. C. A. Birch.

Grand country, people, scenery and climate.
Teaches patriotism and fraternity, makes us glad, broadens us and astonishes even an editor.

Leader, Montevideo.

H. E. Hoard.

As a wedding journey unsurpassable. Scenery grand. Entertainment royal. Anglo-Saxon alliance unnecessary; already exists. A triumphal march Winnipeg to Seattle.

Tribune, Mazeppa.

David Phillips.

In showing us an empire of rich agricultural country, beautiful and prosperous cities, mountains, canyons, glaciers, torrents and cascades, a great railroad admirably managed, the noble spirit of kinship in our Canadian neighbors—it has been the trip of a lifetime.

St. Cloud.

W. B. Mitchell.

Unexcelled in enjoyment, information, long distances, and has learned the whole lump of Minnesota Editors and their wives with Anglo-Saxon alliance.

Reporter, Windom.

Mrs. E. C. Huntington.

I have never participated in a more delightful excursion. It has been a great success from every point of view. The arrangement with "Old Probabilities" for first-class weather has been carried out to perfection, even to an improvised storm in the mountains. It is not surprising to learn that this has been the best of all the Association's excursions. Certainly, none could have been better.

John Blanchard.

Our invasion of Canada was cleverly planned and splendidly consummated. We found a diversified and exclusive domain, peopled with thoroughbreds, and for which the future has great possibilities.

Iron News, Two Harbors. James Cogswell.

The conception of the trip was a happy thought. It gave our party an opportunity of seeing the grandest scenes of God's nature, and at the same time, make the acquaintance of a class of people worthy to become United States citizens.

Free Press, St. Peter.

H. C. Miller.

To read or to hear about a thing does not impress you like seeing. The scenery was the finest on the continent, the executive committee did their duty, there was no serious accidents, and the party was large and an enjoyable one. The time in making the trip was too short. Minnesota editors are under great obligations to Mr. White and the Canadian Pacific Railroad for their courtesies. It was a most enjoyable trip.

Herald, Sleepy Eye.

W. R. Hodges.

The trip was both very pleasurable and exceedingly instructive and of the greatest value to me. One of the most impressive features was to learn of the friendly feeling that exists in Canada toward the United States.

Register, Glencoe.

S. G. Peterson.

Trip was a revelation as to vast resources of Canada. Friendly feeling shown throughout Dominion toward United States in Cuban war, was most gratifying.

Republican, Winona.

R. F. Wright.

Two dozen hours of solid pleasure and instruction each day. Canadian hospitality is only exceeded by the grandeur of Canadian Pacific scenery.

Citizen, Alexandria.

Newton Trenham.

An enjoyable trip. The event of a lifetime. The hospitality of our Canadian neighbors cannot be exceeded.

News, Hallock.

Charlotte Dure.

What we have seen is only equalled by the splendid facilities and generous courtesy, which has enabled us to see it so advantageously and enjoyably.

Pioneer Press, St. Paul.

Fred N. Van Duzee.

Wonderful farm and grazing lands,
Cowboys brave and Indian bands,
Gorgeous scenes in mountains grand,
With brotherly love on every hand.

C. S. Mitchell.

One continual round of enjoyment. The scenery is beyond description, and the hospitality of the Canadians was an eye-opener.

Post-News, Alexandria.

F. D. Campbell.

It is hard to define our pleasant feelings at this moment, but above all, convinced of the superiority of Canadian men, we are ready at the first call to settle on Canadian soil.

An elegant trip, words can barely describe it. Elegant service, beautiful scenery, best of attention; what more can be desired?

New Era, St. Vincent.

A. P. Kirsch.

A trip unequalled for its length, its mountains, its rivers, its boundless prairies and its enjoyment; an educational eye-opener.

Benson Times.

W. A. Foland.

The Editorial trip of '98 impresses me as being lengthy, instructive and delightful. We have seen America's grandest scenery, finest traveling systems, and her most beautiful cities, while at all times the people extended true English hospitality cordially.

Reporter, Marshall.

Mrs. C. F. Case.

A most delightful excursion. Pleasant company; a good time, and grand scenery.

Republican, Faribault. Mrs. L. A. McKinstry.

Can't be expressed in twenty words. Have written three columns already. Grand! Sublime! A revelation!

Republican, Faribault.

L. H. McKinstry.

The trip opened our eyes to the vastness of the country to the northward, surprising us with its resources, astounding us with its scenery.

H. C. Hotaling.

Over broad prairie, through mountain pass and deep gorge, from our midland to the setting sun, the trip was filled with immeasurable value and unending pleasure.

Mrs. H. C. Hotaling.

The grandeur of the scenery, the hospitality of the citizens of Canada, and the courteous treatment of the Canadian Pacific officials, all combined to make the trip the most enjoyable I have ever taken. Success to Canada and her Canadian Pacific.

Spectator, St. Hilaire.

Harry E. Ives.

The fine tact and bounteous hospitality of the Canadian people and the matchless mountain scenery along the Canadian Pacific railroad I will always remember.

Herald, Ada, Minn.

Joris C. Norby.

I came—saw—and was conquered by Canada's magnificent sceneries and the generous hospitality of the Canadian people.
