WHOLESALE MASSACRE OF ARMENIANS IS STILL TAKING PLACE

The Total Number of Victims Will Run Into Very Many Thousands.

By Special Wire to the Courier.
 London, Aug. 6.—The Daily Chronicle says this morning that the war in the east is the wholesale massacre of Armenians in the eastern vilayets of Asia Minor by the Turks and Kurds. Regarding the terrible scale of these massacres greater than any which occurred under Abdul Hamid, there is now no room for doubt, and the statements made on the subject last week by Lord Bryce in the House of Lords were officially corroborated by Lord Crewe.

"In certain cases the Armenians have successfully defended themselves. At the town of State, for instance to which Enver Pasha sent his brother-in-law with a commission of extermination, the victims rose after the massacre had begun, barricaded the Armenian quarters and held out against the Turks for four weeks, until relieved by the advent of the Russian army. But outside this and some similar exceptions, they have been powerless. Tens of thousands, probably hundreds of thousands have been deported by road hundreds of miles to West Anatolia under conditions amounting to slow extermination.

"The Germans, who are masters of the central Ottoman administration have to their everlasting shame not only permitted, but rather encouraged these horrors. The allied powers have notified Turkish officials that they will hold them personally responsible and at this stage they can do no more. There is perhaps, room for an effective American protest, though we have not yet heard of one."

The Chronicle concludes by making an appeal to British private charities, citing the following terrible account of ruin and devastation following the Turkish massacres in northeastern Armenia, telegraphed by the Archbishop of Van and Ararat, the governor of Van, to the honorary secretary of the Armenian Red Cross and relief fund:

"Besides Van, there are the provinces of Chatak, Moks, Starkert, Mamertank and Khizan, which are saved. The rest are ruined and devastated. The men, women and children are massacred. Twenty thousand people are homeless. Famine and infectious diseases prevail. Many volunteers are sick and wounded. Notwithstanding assistance from the Russian Government and the Armenians in the Caucasus there is great want of doctors, drugs and all kinds of relief. The situation in Bitlis, Moush and Diarbekir is terrible. We beg urgently for immediate relief."

Kaiser to Hold Conference

By Special Wire to the Courier.
 Rotterdam, via London, Aug. 6.—Emperor William, the Courant says, will return to Berlin Sunday to preside over an important cabinet conference, at which the heads of all German states and the Austrian archdukes will be present. Proposals will be considered for issuing a proclamation declaring Poland a semi-autonomous state and placing it, together with Galicia, under the joint rule of Germans, Austrians and Poles. These plans will be submitted to the Reichstag, August 17, the Courant asserts.

Gaston Bettlelaud, sixteen years of age, an elevator boy at the Smart-Woods, Limited, in Montreal was killed when the elevator came down on him crushing his head between the elevator base and the floor on the first flat.

FIVE TORONTO PEOPLE WERE PLUNGED TO DEATH IN A LAKE

When an Automobile Leaped Over a Bridge in Muskoka--Ontario Loses Valued Public Servant.

Port Sydney Muskoka, Aug. 6.—Five Toronto people met death here yesterday afternoon under tragic circumstances. They were passengers in the last automobile—a touring Ford—of a five-car holiday excursion party. Having driven homeward in a driving rain, the ill-fated car struck the 60-foot floating bridge over the north end of Long Lake, slued half way over, crashed through the four-foot railing, and plunged down into the twenty-six feet of water.

There were eight passengers. All sank with the car, trapped by the storm shields and cover. Henry K. Alley and his nine-year-old son, Fred, Miss E. M. Lawson and her nephew, Angus Lawson and Beverley Swabey were drowned. Harold Swabey and Douglas Lawson, both about thirteen years of age, escaped. John Clarke, the owner and driver, was also saved. Clarke lives at Utterton.

TEARS HIMSELF OUT
 Douglas Lawson, one of those who escaped, said that as soon as the car plunged in the water, he commenced to tear his way out, and continued to battle until the car settled on the bottom. Pulling himself through the side he rose to the surface and grabbed the bridge.

Dr. MacDonald opened an inquest yesterday evening and adjourned until Monday afternoon. All five bodies were taken to the Town Hall at Utterton, where they lay last night with Constable Brown in charge.

Dr. MacDonald said last night that Mr. Alley's watch, which he took from his clothing, was stopped at precisely 3 o'clock, which is also the time given by others as to when the accident occurred. The last body recovered was in the water three hours.

The floating bridge is maintained by the Government and during the summer months carries very heavy traffic. It is kept together by cables. The lake is one mile west of Utterton. The other cars of the auto party were some minutes ahead and did not know of the accident until they reached the hotel.

SERVED WITH FOUR MINUTES
 Henry K. Alley was one of the most prominent educators in Ontario. He had been Private Secretary to four Ministers of Education starting with the Hon. Adam Crooks in the Mowat Government.

Mexican Raid in Texas
 By Special Wire to the Courier.
 Brownsville, Texas, Aug. 6.—Mexican outlaws to-day raided the village of Sebastian, 37 miles north of here, killing a man and a woman. United States cavalrymen from Harling, 12 miles distant, have gone to Sebastian.

PROGRESS OF THE ITALIAN CAMPAIGN ON GORIZIA

The Italians by the capture of Mount San Michele and Mount Sei Busi, on the Carso Plateau, still further tightened their lines about Gorizia, their present objective. They now are north and south of this Austrian stronghold, east of the river, and are fighting for the bridge heads in front of the city. Battles of great importance are in progress for Tolmino, in the Upper Isonzo Valley. The advance toward Trieste along the coast awaits the outcome of the struggle for Gorizia.

STATE CONSTABULARY PATROL THE ERIE FLOOD SECTION

Reporter Shoots a Man Whom He Said Was Looting.

By Special Wire to the Courier.
 Erie, Pa., Aug. 6.—Troopers of the state constabulary patrolled the flood section to-day, enforcing strictly the regulations of the Pennsylvania health authorities and the Erie City Council, while increased forces of workers, in their search for bodies, went further into the great masses of wreckage, piled along Mill Creek by Tuesday night's flood.

Three hundred additional workmen were placed on the streets with the coming of dawn and the piles of demolished buildings were attacked vigorously under the direction of engineers who have volunteered their services to the city. It was expected that considerable headway would be made before nightfall as the city authorities planned to add fully 1,000 men to the working force.

Efforts to relieve the distressed continue with amazing success. A relief committee, has been formed to care for those in actual want, and more than 400 were fed in the rescue station on State street during the night while preparations were made to serve breakfast for many more. The armory housed many of the homeless during the night, while private houses cared for many others.

Sensational rumors of looting during the night kept the police busy and early to-day it became known that Guy Fowler, a reporter on the Erie Dispatch, had shot a man who was alleged to have been seen taking articles from a house that had been abandoned by its occupants. The man was later taken to the Hamat Hospital, where it was said he had been shot in the shoulder, but that his condition was not dangerous.

Other reports of looting were that a citizen had shot a man in Twelfth street, but the police declared they had been unable to find the wounded man. An order to the constabulary and the police was to suppress looting with a stern hand and that all suspected persons were to be taken to police headquarters without delay.

MAJOR BALLACHEY TO BE FITTINGLY HONORED

By the Members of the School Board--Number of Matters Disposed of at General Meeting.

The Board of Education met last evening in the Council Chambers. Considerable routine business was dealt with and several accounts passed. The Buildings and Grounds committee report authorized the purchasing of more desks and teachers' chairs for the completion of the school furnishing at King Edward school.

Those present were: Chairman Colbeck; Messrs Armstrong, Lane, Catcliffe, Bentham, Lahey, Cole, Gamble and Andrews.

COMMUNICATIONS
 The Canadian Domestic Engineering Company requested payment of their bill. Mr. Lane suggested that $600 be paid in connection with this bill.

Howie and Feely want a portion of the hardware trade from the Public Schools.

Miss Annie H. Carpenter submitted her resignation as teacher in the Public Schools.

Mr. S. Devitt sent in his resignation as teacher in the Collegiate Institute.

Miss H. Smith also submitted her resignation as teacher in the Collegiate Institute.

Principal G. C. White and Miss E. Good of the Public School asked for an increase in salary.

Principal A. W. Burt of the Collegiate sent in a list of the fees collected during the Entrance exams.

Both Chairman Colbeck and Mr. Andrews wished to know how much the total examination fees amounted to.

Mr. Bunnell said $500.

Considerable complaint was made about the size of the accounts of the teachers who marked the exams.

Mr. Andrews said that it was time these large accounts were cut down.

Mr. Lahey pointed out that the fees paid by the students more than covered these accounts.

Mr. Cole thought that the marking system in use at present was a farce. After the students had handed in their papers, the teachers had to examine them before a certain time, and in order to do this, they had to stop up half the night examining them. This was a very deficient

EXPERT REVIEW OF PRESENT EASTERN WAR SITUATION

Position of the Grand Duke's Army is Now a Matter of Solicitation.

By Special Wire to the Courier.
 London, Aug. 6.—With the great Russian fortresses of Warsaw and Ivangorod captured and the fall of Riga, the capital of the Baltic provinces, imminent, the Austro-German onslaught has reached its high tide in the east, and the next step will be the German Emperor's triumphant entry into the Polish capital. That event is likely soon to be followed by the pronouncement of a united and semi-autonomous Poland, embracing not only the territory wrested from the Russians, but the Austrian crown land of Galicia.

Meantime the Russian armies are fighting their way backward toward Russia proper, inflicting blows on the invaders wherever possible, trying to fend off the railways running north and south in order that the ends of the German nippers may not meet and in closing bring disaster to Russian arms.

The position of the army of Grand Duke Nicholas now is a matter of solicitation. The occupation of Warsaw is believed to be a prelude to a greater purpose, that of enveloping the retreating forces.

Petrograd reports show that the Grand Duke has retreated to the right bank of the Vistula, both at Warsaw and Ivangorod, destroying the bridges at both points and contesting the German advance across the river.

Back of the retreating Russians is the vast morass of Central Poland with few railways and primitive roads, making virtually impossible a quick movement of guns and supplies. While back of Warsaw, the only fortress available as a rallying point for the Russians is Brest-Litovsk. Thus the Russians are menaced by General Von Bielews columns bending southward and by Field Marshal Von Macken's southern army bending northward.

The fall of Ivangorod proper, forested in the retirement from the west of the city, is officially reported to-day in bulletins both from Berlin and Vienna.

The occupation of Warsaw now is centering attention on a series of important events that are being arranged. First will be the selection of a German governor. Reports indicate the appointee will be a German prince, possibly a son of the German emperor or an Austrian archduke, who will be vested with authority akin to that which Napoleon gave to his son and to his marshals as kings of occupied territory.

Berlin reports a counsel on Sunday will formulate a proclamation declaring Poland to be a semi-autonomous state under joint Polish and Austro-Hungarian rule. This conforms with a recent decision of a Polish congress held at Piotrkow, Russian Poland, which proposed a joint Polish army and the fullest Polish autonomy consistent with the strategic interests of Austria-Hungary.

The German offer of autonomy is regarded as a bid for the support of the population of Poland as against a similar declaration of Emperor Nicholas promising eventual Polish autonomy under Russian suzerainty. The outcome of these events in Warsaw probably will determine the political status of Poland during the war.

What the Germans will do in a military way after attempting to complete their enveloping movement is a matter of much speculation. If the campaign against the Russians is not energetically pushed there is the possibility of the present victories being undone, while if an offensive in the east is continued, the Germans face the rigors and dangers of a winter campaign in Russia.

Conservative students here think it will result in a compromise, in which the Germans will withdraw part of their eastern army, leaving enough men to maintain and secure the defensive positions when they have dug themselves in.

MORE CANADIANS ARE HONORED FOR BRAVERY ON THE BATTLEFIELD

Details Regarding the Splendid Deeds Accomplished by Them For Their King and Their Country.

London, Aug. 6.—The following Canadians received Distinguished Conduct medals:

C42955—Corporal, now Lieutenant, R. F. Baker, 2nd brigade artillery, for conspicuous gallantry on the 22nd and 23rd of April, when, after having had teams attached to three ammunition wagons killed, he collected details and kept up the supply of ammunition by hand under very heavy shell and rifle fire.

51068—Pte. E. J. Bushby, Princess Patricia's, for conspicuous gallantry on the 8th of May at Hooge, when he assisted wounded men from a trench in the hands of the enemy and attempted to rescue men partially buried in the trench, although while doing so he had to keep at bay two Germans trying to bayonet him. Previously he made two journeys to the reserves, bringing up ammunition under heavy fire.

C40330—Sergeant-Major J. W. A. Donaldson, 1st brigade artillery, for conspicuous gallantry on the 22nd of April at St. Julien and following days near Ypres, when, being in charge of the ammunition supply of a battery, he kept up the supply under continuous heavy shell fire and gave a fine example of courage and devotion to duty.

1593—Pte. G. Inkster, Princess Pats, for conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty on 8th of May at Hooge. Pte. Inkster stationed himself at the end of the communication trench and shot several attempts to come down it. He was alone at the time. He repaired telephone wires under heavy shell fire and was always willing to undertake any dangerous work.

C40665—Gunner A. W. James, 3rd brigade artillery, for conspicuous gallantry and ability at Poeyge, when he repaired telephone wires under heavy shell fire and continued to do so after being wounded. He showed a fine example of devotion to duty.

1199—Sergeant W. Jordan, Princess Pats, for conspicuous gallantry on 8th of May at Hooge Chateau. When left in a trench with one man only he successfully held it, accounting for a large number of the enemy, and showed a splendid example of courage and devotion.

C4144—Quartermaster-Sergeant A. R. Milburn, 2nd brigade artillery, for conspicuous gallantry on the 24th April at Wiechte in bringing up ammunition under heavy shell fire. He also saved a wagon of ammunition under heavy fire after the driver's horses had been killed.

4055—Corp. O. C. Olsen, 2nd brigade artillery, for great gallantry and resource from 22nd April to the 4th of May in repairing telephone wires under heavy shell fire. Also for acting as scout and obtaining valuable information when all the wires had been cut.

N40879—Corp. A. B. Ritchie, 1st brigade artillery, for conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty on 22nd and 23rd of April at Ypres. During retirement he went back under heavy shell fire to free men and horses from a disabled wagon, and later on carried a wounded man out of the firing line under heavy fire.

64—Sergeant S. Scott, Princess Pats, for conspicuous gallantry and resource on 8th of May at Hooge. All the officers having been killed or wounded, he collected a party of men and succeeded in holding a trench in spite of a very heavy attack.

Corpl. Stevens, Princess Pats for conspicuous bravery on May 8th at Hooge Chateau. After his trench had been abandoned, Corp. Stevens, with splendid courage and coolness continued to work his machine gun until it was put out of commission, then brought the damaged gun back under very heavy fire.

Gunner O. E. Wilkinson, West Brigade, for gallant conduct and devotion to duty, particularly on the 9th and 6th of May, near Ypres. Acting as telephonist he kept up communication with brigade and infantry headquarters under very heavy shell and rifle fire and showed great courage and resource.

Lieut. Theodore Douglas Hallam of Toronto, who has been serving in the Dardanelles with an armored car section, is one of the two officers of this section mentioned in despatches from Sir Ian Hamilton published to-day. Lieut. Hallam is just now recuperating in London, having been five times wounded and suffering from sickness. He came to England with the first Canadian contingent and exchanged into the naval service. He is the only known Canadian officer yet serving in the Dardanelles.

ONONDAGA COUNCIL

Onondaga, Aug. 6.—The council met in regular session in the town hall at 2 p. m. with all the members present.

The reserved decision of the Hon. Judge Hardy in regard to the Appeal of the Grand River Oil and Gas Co. was received. The Appeal was dismissed with costs.

A deputation consisting of Messrs Churchill, Edwards and Millar interviewed the council on behalf of the Onondaga Improvement Society. They showed that the ladies had raised by subscription, entertainments and help from the villagers and neighboring farmers over $1,500.00 and while two years ago the Council had granted them $200.00 they thought it should be supplemented, as a considerable portion of that grant was used in walks and steps to the town hall. The council, thinking that such enterprise should receive encouragement gave them an order on the treasurer for $200.00.

The following accounts were also paid viz: N. McPhedran account of $18.25, J. Book meat account $2.60; Mrs. N. Travena account $2. These three accounts were for G. Travena and family while in quarantine for smallpox. Brantford Courier printing ad. for voter's list $4.90, and A. Fair for cement on beat 2.

The treasurer reported that the receipts up to July 1 were $283.13, disbursements $240.64 leaving a balance of $42.49.

The Council adjourned to meet in Middleport on October 6th.

The Port Hope Hospital Trust awarded the contract for the new hospital to W. J. Trick and Co., of Oshawa. The new building will cost about $30,000 equipped.

GERMAN NEW YORK EDITOR

Has Started a Quarter Million Damage Suit.

New York, Aug. 6.—Herman Ridler, editor and principal owner of the New Yorker Staat Zeitung, has filed a suit for $250,000 damages for libel against the Star Company, publishers of The New York American.

Mr. Ridler takes exception to a page article of May 30, which the German-American editor says tended to cast doubt on the sincerity of his advocacy of the German cause, and his opposition to the exportation of munitions from the United States to the allies.

The article told about the International Typetting Machine Company of which Mr. Ridler was president, filling just such orders for the enemies of Germany.

FRENCH OFFICIAL

By Special Wire to the Courier.

Paris, Aug. 6.—The French War Office gave out an official communication on the progress of hostilities in France which reads as follows:

"In the Artois district there were during almost all last night a series of engagements with hand grenades around Souchez. In front of Neuville St. Vaast, a German attack was easily and quickly repulsed.

In the Argonne the fighting with bombs and other explosives, supported by artillery actions, took on greater intensity during the night, particularly in the neighborhood of Hill No. 213. In the region of Fontaine-aux-Charmes and in the direction of St. Hubert to the west of Hill No. 213, the Germans endeavored to move out from their trenches, but they were at once checked by our fire.

"On the heights of the Meuse at Boishaut, the enemy delivered two attacks each of which was without success. Our assailants were driven back with hand grenades.

"In the vicinity of the Carnoy a last night bombarded the village of Embeymel, as well as our positions around Reillon. Two German aviators have thrown down on the village of Erloy in the valley of the River Meurthe a total of ten bombs, killing two women and one soldier.

"In the Vosges the night passed quietly."

KEEP CHILDREN WELL DURING HOT WEATHER

Every mother knows how fatal the hot summer months are to small children. Cholera infantum, diarrhoea, dysentery and stomach troubles are rife at this time and often a precious little life is lost after only a few hours illness. The mother who keeps Baby's Own Tablets in the house feels safe. The occasional use of the Tablets prevents stomach and bowel troubles, or if trouble comes suddenly it generally does—the Tablets will bring the baby safely through. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

The increased demand for pianos can hardly be met by the manufacturers owing to the great scarcity of copper wire, felt, wood-work and other materials. One London manufacturer says that a big demand for the cheaper instruments comes from working districts, where war work is bringing in good money. A dealer in the East End stated that in the poorer quarters of London and Glasgow there is an exceptional sale of pianos mostly on the hire-purchase system. The dockers have been buying instruments in this way. In "peace times London turned out about 3,000 pianos a week," he said; "now the output is only about 500."

RUSSIAN WAR OFFICE

Gives an Account Regarding Evacuation of Warsaw.

By Special Wire to the Courier.

Petrograd, Aug. 6.—Via London—Novo Georgievsk, 19 miles northwest of Warsaw, still remains in Russian hands to-day notwithstanding the evacuation of the Polish capital, according to information received by the Russian war office.

The fortress has been prepared for a siege and it already is invested. It constitutes the only fortified position on the Vistula River in possession of the Russians.

The immediate causes of the evacuation of Warsaw, according to the war office were:

"The advances of the enemy in great force on the roads toward Ostroy, from Ostrolenka and Rozan on the one hand, and the presence of large forces of the enemy who had broken across the Vistula River between Ivangorod and Warsaw at Matziewitz."

A war office official, reviewing the situation said:

"The day before the evacuation we already had abandoned the old brick fortress of Ivangorod, on the left side of the Vistula. We still hold the right. This fort has lost its importance with bank fortifications.

"According to information at hand the enemy has been making every effort to effect the capture of the fortress has been left to its own resources to which it had been prepared.

"Our armies in the forward theatre of war are gradually moving back to the position assigned to them, thus giving these armies the important advantage of a shortened front and also of bringing them nearer to the fortified line of Kovno, Grodno and Brest-Litovsk."

"The retreat was carried out not under immediate pressure of the enemy, but in consequence of a decision taken notwithstanding some instances in which our armies were having partial successes, often being able to force the enemy backwards. With the occupation of new positions on the left bank of the Bug and in the direction of Waldimir-Wolynsk and Kowlitz it is believed that a serious barrier to the enemy's progress against Brest-Litovsk has been erected."

The loss of Warsaw has long been discounted in Petrograd, and it caused no excitement. The newspapers commented on the fall of the Polish capital without emotion, referring with regret to its loss as a necessity and which is regarded by them as being only temporary.

In the vanguard of the German forces, approaching Warsaw are said to have been five brigades prepared to combat any conflagration.

The Russian war office comments on the effect of Warsaw's capitulation on the northern front as follows:

"The enemy is slowly advancing, but against great opposition on the part of the Russian armies in the Narew and Lomza directions.

"In the vicinity of the Carnoy the Germans received a severe check on the Misa River. They were forced to withdraw to Elkau."

Conference at Washington With Reference to Pres. Wilson's Plan to Restore Peace in Mexico.

By Special Wire to the Courier.

Washington, Aug. 6.—The conference between Secretary of State Lansing and six pan-American diplomats whose co-operation was sought by President Wilson in his plan to restore peace in Mexico, was continued to-day. No announcement of the conclusion of the series of conferences, begun yesterday, is looked for until a program has been perfected.

The conferences decline to discuss the proceedings as the conferences are declared informal and confidential. Whatever plan of action is agreed upon will be submitted to all of the pan-American nations for approval, although it is understood they already have pledged support to concerted action. It is considered likely that one of the first results of the conference will be a final agreement to all the Mexican factional leaders to accommodate their differences and restore peace. This probably will be sent in a few days and will be intended especially for the Carranza element which all along has declined to participate in a peace conference.

The message to General Carranza will ask that he lay down his arms and join with his adversaries in setting up a government the United States will recognize. It will insist that he answer within a stipulated time.

The character of the final plans for restoration of peace depends largely on Carranza's response. General Villa and other Mexican leaders have indicated a willingness to participate in a peace conference.

OLD WORLD NOTES.

The conveners and officials of Dundee Town Council recently considered what was to be done with Corporation employees with the colors who return unfit for their former employment. The Town Council had previously decided that all Corporation servants who had gone to serve their country should be reinstated, but no provision was made for men who had been rendered unfit for their work. One member suggested that a central bureau should be organized in the Town Clerk's office, and disabled men should be kept on the pay books for four weeks after discharge.

Scottish ploughmen held a conference in Glasgow recently for the obtaining of better conditions, and painted rather a black picture of rural life as it is to-day. The hours of farm servants, it was stated, average seventy per week; and some of the ploughmen's houses were described as "slums in fields." Dr. G. B. Clark, formerly M.P., for Caithness spoke of the sporting lands in the Highlands which might be put under cultivation, and drew the inevitable moral of a depopulated countryside which used to contribute the best fighting material in some of our former wars. The Secretary of the Union, rather disagreed with the Doctor as to the adequacy of deer forest reclamation and judger legislation. In the Secretary's judgment the rural problem is rather a problem of wages, and he charged the farmers with taking advantage of national emergency to attempt to introduce boy labor on the farms.

Conference at Washington

Washington, Aug. 6.—The conference between Secretary of State Lansing and six pan-American diplomats whose co-operation was sought by President Wilson in his plan to restore peace in Mexico, was continued to-day. No announcement of the conclusion of the series of conferences, begun yesterday, is looked for until a program has been perfected.

OUL WORLD—Scotland

The recent rains have changed the appearance of the crops in Scotland. Seldom has greater improvement taken place in the growth of the cereal crops in the Lothians, to take one district, than during the last fortnight. A few weeks ago it was reported that owing to the drought oats and barley would be considerably under average, but with the moisture they have received it is now expected they will reach a full average crop. It is now in full ear and the expectations are that the yield will be from 10 to 15 per cent above the average. Barley has also improved to a considerable extent. Although on some farms under heavy soil conditions it is still a little thin in the ground, the expectation is that a full average crop will be yielded. So far as potatoes are concerned, the early varieties, which are now being marketed, made a wonderful recovery. The late varieties also now look promising. Turnips have also shared in the improvement and except where late sown and on heavy land, they have been singled and are looking well.

FALL OF WARSAW

How British Papers View the German Victory.

London, Aug. 6.—The news of the fall of Warsaw, though largely discounted here by the practical certainty felt for the past week that the city could not be saved, made a deep impression in the metropolis.

ADMIRATION FOR RUSSIA

"The impression created by the capture of Warsaw already has been eclipsed by the admiration universally aroused by Russia's heroic resistance.

The whole world marvels at the gallantry with which the Russian troops repeatedly stood at bay against unequal odds, while the coolness and deliberation of their withdrawal is the best possible a victory for the time when they meet the German soldiers on equal terms as regards armament.

"Meanwhile Russia has rendered incomparable service to the allied cause which can never fully be repaid. By preserving her armies intact she has deprived the Germans of their principal aim, and undoubtedly has made more complex and difficult the future course of the German strategy.

"Unbroken Russian legions are still massed beyond the Vistula, and Germany cannot turn elsewhere without taking them into account. Russia has made the German advance far more costly than the enemy expected.

"The German time table has probably been once more upset, and the great concerted drive on the eastern front has resolved itself into a series of expensive delays, which are by no means at an end.

"Russia by her great and unsparring sacrifices already has kept the attention of Germany engaged throughout the greater part of this year's campaign in the east, and the further breathing space she has thus gained for the western allies may prove to have a far more definite effect on the results of the war than the German triumph at Warsaw."

A BULLETIN ON SWINE RAISING

The second edition of Bulletin No. 17 of the Federal live stock branch, entitled Swine Husbandry in Canada, has been issued, and may be had on application to the publications branch of the Department of Agriculture at Ottawa.

The interest in swine raising stimulated, no doubt, by the high values of pork products, made such a demand for information on this subject that the first edition printed last year was quickly exhausted.

This edition brings up to date statistics with strong native beef, $6.25 to $10.25; cows and heifers, $5.10 to $9.25; calves, $7.50 to $11.25.

Hogs, receipts, 24,000; market slow. Light, $6.90 to $7.60; mixed, $6.20 to $7.45; heavy, $6.05 to $6.90; rough $6.05 to $6.50; pigs, $6.50 to $7.55.

Yellow vicks, $6.30 to $7.25; sheep, receipts, 7000; market firm; native sheep, $6.10 to $7; lambs, native, $7 to $9.40.

THE SITUATION.

Some of the British papers describe the fall of Warsaw as an empty triumph for the legions of the Kaiser. That is scarcely a correct definition. The event, it is true, was largely discounted, and the evacuation has not marked any such notable triumph as that in the war of 1870, when after an investment of seventy days, Metz, a strongly-fortified place, capitulated to the Germans, who thus had 180,000 men and vast stores of ammunition fall into their hands. At the same time it would be idle to pretend that the fall of the third largest city of an Empire is a trifling incident. It isn't; but nevertheless, there is no need to think of the occurrence as a crucial disaster. The Russians have apparently once more been withdrawn in good order, although it would not be at all surprising, as an aftermath, to find that there is some demoralization and considerable losses. The Russians have been fighting continuously and valiantly in the face of tremendous odds as regards ammunition, and there does not seem to be much reason to hope for anything from the future of a decisive nature in the near future.

Then the moral effect upon Bulgaria, Greece and other hesitating countries is something which must not be lost sight of.

With regard to the criticism that the troops in the Western theatre have done very little while the Germans have been hammering away in the East, a despatch in the Courier of last evening clearly demonstrated the tremendous difficulties of the struggle. The significant statement was incorporated that it would be "a serious mistake" to measure what has been accomplished by the amount of ground conquered. In other words, the wearing-down process still continues to be the policy of General Joffre.

DO YOUR BIT.

The fall of Warsaw is just one more evidence of the fact of the power and the resources of the enemy.

The incident is one which should, and will, nerve all of the Allies to even greater effort.

It is a call for still further service, and brings to the fore with renewed emphasis the fact that every human resource must be called upon against the foe.

This brings to mind the local opportunity which is afforded, not alone in men, but also with reference to the fund to raise $20,000 or over with regard to the purchase of machine guns and other appurtenances.

It is up to each of us to do his or her bit.

BALFOUR TELLS OF NAVY.

Hon. A. J. Balfour, First Lord of the Admiralty, recently took occasion to analyse a vain-glorious boast of Count Von Reventlow, that Germany's navy "holds Britain at bay", and that "the days of absolute British supremacy at sea are at an end." To this Mr. Balfour replies:—

So far the German Fleet has thought it wise to avoid engaging a superior force, and I am the last person to blame them. But this surely is hardly to be counted as a triumph of either tactics or strategy; it is a military exploit which, however judicious, would be well within the competence of the least efficient fleet and the most incapable Commander.

The truth is that the German high-sea fleet has so far done nothing and probably has not been in a position to do anything. At the beginning of the war we were told that, by a process of continual attrition, it was proposed to reduce the superior British Fleet, ship by ship, until an equality was established between the two antagonists. The design has completely failed.

The desired equality is more remote than it was twelve months ago, and this would be true even if certain extraordinary misstatements about such small actions as have occurred in the North Sea had any foundation in fact. He tells us, for example, that in the skirmish of August 28, when some German cruisers were destroyed, the English squadron suffered heavy damage. This is quite untrue.

He tells us again that in the skirmish of January 18 last, when the Blucher was sunk, the British lost a new battle cruiser (the Tiger). This is also untrue. In that engagement we did not lose a cockle boat. I do not know that these misstatements are of any great moment, but for the benefit of those who think otherwise let me say that in no sea fight, except that off the coast of Chili, has any ship of the English Fleet been either sunk or seriously damaged.

Apart from these purely imaginary triumphs the only performance of German warships in the North Sea on which Count Reventlow dwells with pride and satisfaction is the attack by some German cruisers on undefended towns in Yorkshire.

This exploit was as inglorious as it was immoral. Two or three fast cruisers came over the North Sea by night; at dawn they bombarded an open watering place; they killed a certain number of civilian men, women and children, and after an hour and a half of this gallant performance retreated to the safety of their own defended waters. Personally I think it better to invent stories like the sinking of the Tiger than to boast of such a feat of arms as this.

But, in truth, if anyone will examine Count Reventlow's apology for the German high sea fleet he will find that it amounts to no more than praise of German mines and German submarines. There is no doubt that German mines scattered at random and with no warning to neutrals, have been responsible for the destruction of much neutral shipping and some vessels of war. The first result is deplorable, the second is legitimate. Mine laying is not indeed a very glorious method of warfare. Though, used against warships, it is perfectly fair.

But something here must be said about submarines. Anybody reading Count Reventlow's observations would suppose that submarines were a German invention and that only German foresight had realized that their use would necessitate a modification in battle fleet tactics. But this truth has been among the commonplaces of naval knowledge for years past and was no more hid from Washington and London than from Berlin and Vienna. What was new in the German use of submarines was not their employment against ships of war but their employment against defenceless merchantmen and unarmed trawlers.

This, it must be owned, was never foreseen either in Washington or London. It is purely German. But Count Reventlow is profoundly mistaken if he supposes that during the year which has elapsed these murderous methods have affected in the slightest degree of economic life of England; what they have done is to fix an indelible stain upon the fair name of the German navy.

If any one desires to know whether the British fleet has during the last year proved itself worthy of its traditions there is a very simple method of arriving at the truth. There are seven, and only seven, functions which the fleet can perform.

It may drive the enemy's commerce off the seas.

It may protect its own commerce.

It may render the enemy's fleet impotent.

It may make the transfer of enemy troops across the sea impossible, whether for attack or defence.

It may transport its own troops where it will.

It may secure their supplies and (in fitting circumstances) it may assist their operations.

All these functions have so far been successfully performed by the British fleet. No German merchant ship is to be found on the ocean. Allied commerce is more secure from attack, legitimate and illegitimate, than it was after Trafalgar. The German high sea fleet has not as yet ventured beyond the security of its protected waters.

No invasion has been attempted of these islands. British troops in numbers unparalleled in history, have moved to and fro across the seas and have been effectively supported on shore. The greatest of military powers has seen its colonies wrested from it one by one and has not been able to land a man or a gun in their defence.

Of a fleet which has done this we may not only say that it has done much, but that no fleet has ever done more. And we citizens of the British Empire can only hope that the second year of the war will show no falling off in its success, as it will assuredly show no relaxation of its efforts.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

That $20,000 fund! What are you going to do about it, and how much?

The rain these days falleth on the just and the unjust, and likewise the in-betweeners.

Uncle Sam must be thoughtfully pulling his chin whiskers a whole lot these days.

With regard to the Presidency of Mexico, mix I can still seem to be the idea of just about everybody there.

The Russian winter is generally known as a corker-loozeram, and the sooner it sets in this year the better. The shade of Napoleon could tell a story in that regard.

It is impossible to call on everybody in connection with subscriptions for the Brantford war fund. Meanwhile the duty of everyone to do something is clear, and those who have been missed can send their offerings, no matter how small, to either of the two local newspaper offices.

WELCOME SURPRISE

Toledo, O., Aug. 6.—Eleven thousand employees of the Willys-Overland Company received notice this morning that forty-eight hours will constitute a week's work at the plant after November 1st. This news came as a surprise to the employees and was made voluntarily by the company. The move follows a voluntary increase of five per cent in wages about six weeks ago.

WELCOME TO THE PREMIER

Ottawa Talking of Fitting Demonstration on His Return.

Ottawa, Aug. 6.—While plans have not yet been made in view of the uncertainty as to the date of his return, it is understood that a huge demonstration is likely to be arranged in honor of Sir R. Borden, Prime Minister of the Dominion, and one of Canada's great men, when he sets foot again on his native soil, after his visit to the Old Country.

It is proposed to have a welcoming that will last all the way from the ocean's edge to Ottawa, and a demonstration absolutely non-partisan in character will be sought. It is generally admitted that the visit of the Prime Minister to the Imperial Councils has been fraught with the greatest importance to Canada as regards her status in the Empire. The first colonial statesman to attend a meeting of the British Empire the morning after his arrival in England, Sir Robert has been enthusiastically welcomed as Canada's first citizen. His visit to the Old Country means that the Dominion's voice will hereafter be heard in the councils of the Empire, and that one of the longest steps forward in the perfection of an Empire constitution has been taken.

His visit having been of such importance, it is felt that his return should be fittingly marked, and cordial arrangements to that effect have been initiated by a number of his friends. Sir Robert is expected back in Canada about the end of this month.

BIG ADVANCE IN THIS STOCK

As a Result of War—Gain Reaches 269.

New York, Aug. 6.—Common stock of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation, whose rise has seen few parallels in the history of the New York Stock Exchange, passed the 300 mark yesterday. It sold during the morning at 301, and since the beginning of the war of 269 points. The company was incorporated in 1904 and the stock has never paid a dividend.

The rise this morning was eleven points from the previous high record, established yesterday of 290. The stock has advanced 50 points this week. When the stock exchange closed on July 30, 1914, just before the outbreak of the war, it was quoted at 32. The advance of this stock, and the shares of other corporations in the war order group, has been accompanied by unrestrained speculation, with little authentic information on which to base such a rise. It has been known in a general way that Bethlehem Steel had received huge war orders, on which the profits presumably are large, but no official figures have been given out. The speculative fever has been kept up by many unconfirmed reports of enormous profits and expected declarations of large dividends.

Many stocks have been lifted from comparative obscurity to sudden popularity at rising prices by similar reports of profits on the business of supplying munitions of war to Europe. Some of the larger advances in the war shares from the close at the outbreak of the war to-day are:

Crucible Steel, 17 to 79; New York Airbrake, 55 to 116; Westinghouse Electric, 62 to 112; American Locomotive, 19 to 56 1/2; American Car, 19 to 56 1/2. Even larger was the rise in the curb market of Electric Boat, which builds submarines. Before the war it sold at around 15. On the recent rise it has touched 43.

Later in the day Bethlehem Steel rose to 307, but it relapsed before the close, which was at 301. American Can. reached 60 1/2, but fell back to 58 3/4.

RUSSIA HAS FORMED PLAN

To Make Use of the Services of Refugees.

Petrograd, Aug. 6.—Prince Shakhovskoy, the Russian minister of trade and commerce, to-day presented a report which was approved by the council of ministers, suggesting the intensive utilization of such refugees as are skilled laborers in the production of military stores.

According to the plan of the minister, employment bureaus will be opened in the important centres east of the evacuated zones to distribute labor where they are most needed. City administrations and public spirited citizens are expected to assist in the distribution of the workmen, and to care for the women and children.

A large plot of ground near Moscow has been assigned as sites for munition factories. A military and industrial committee and the zemstvos municipal league will share with the government the expense of rebuilding and reopening the factories.

Berlin, Aug. 5.—via London, Aug. 6.—The Russian fortress of Ivangorod, situated on the Vistula River, 45 miles southeast of Warsaw, was captured by the Teutonic armies to-day.

BERLIN PAPERS

Berlin, Aug. 6.—via London.—The Berlin morning newspapers to-day publish additional details which ever concerning the fighting which preceded the fall of the Russian fortresses of Warsaw and Ivangorod. Warsaw's fall had been discounted in advance and the news evoked no demonstrations in the capital. When the report of the capitulation of Ivangorod came, however, immediately impromptu processions were formed in the Unter Den Linden. One considerable body marched before the palace of Crown Prince Frederick William last evening and the crowds were addressed by extemporaneous speakers.

The morning papers comment on the news rejoicingly, but on the whole soberly. The Lokal Anzeiger says: "This unfortunately is not the end of the conflict, but it is a new promise that our cause marches on."

A serious outbreak of typhus fever has occurred in the Dungle district, County Donegal. Six patients have been admitted to the Glenties Fever Hospital, and at the meeting of the Glenties Guardians it was stated that one house where there were four patients had been shunned by neighbors, with the result that the patients were for a number of days without attendance. Dr. Gardner reported that owing to the failure of a relieving officer to come and bury one of the patients who had succumbed he, with the two nurses, was obliged to bury the body in a field near the house. This was not the first time he had to bury a fever infected corpse. The relatives and neighbors were asked to leave milk, turf, and water on the roadside.

The Board of Works and a special committee from the Township Council and county met last evening in the city hall, for the purpose of discussing the laying of a city sewer system to the House of Refuge. It was practically decided to install the system. The city engineer was authorized to draw up the plans. Other routine business was transacted by the Board of Works.

THE AUTO FATALITY

The Hamilton Spectator gives this account:—One man was instantly killed and another seriously injured in an automobile accident last night near Amherst, when the car turned turtle, killing the occupants under the dead man is William James, 27 years of age, whose home is in Brantford. Albert Howarth, the other occupant of the car, also resides in the Telephone City, and is a son of the proprietor of the American Hotel there. His leg was broken. The car came down from Brantford earlier in the day and left Hamilton last night at 8:30 on the return journey. James was driving the car. The theory of Dr. J. C. Leitch, of this city, the coroner in the case, is that the men were not familiar with the road, and lost their way. Near the scene of the accident is a water-trough ten feet from the road. James evidently thought this was the approach to the road he was seeking and turned in, tumbling down from the trough on a scale is a ditch which carries the water away. The car skidded down this on the slippery mud for a distance of forty feet, and then tumbled completely over. James was pinned underneath it, while part of the car rested on Howarth's leg. Bert Brown who was driving along about fifty yards behind the auto, tried to extricate the men from under the car, and unable to do this, sought help. Dr. Roy Smith hurried to the scene and Dr. Leitch was notified. James was dead when taken out. Drs. Smith and Leitch attended to Howarth's injuries. James' remains were taken to George Moore's undertaking establishment. Dan Morrison, constable, empanelled a jury, which viewed the remains to-day and adjourned to meet again on Tuesday evening at Ancaster.

A CURIOSITY

way, and it is time that a new system was adopted. He referred to the method used at the B. C. I. where each teacher marks his own student's papers.

It was moved by Mr. Andrews that the following communications be referred to the committee on school management:

Miss E. Good and Princ White, asking for increase in salary, and the resignations of Misses H. Smith, Annie arpent and Mr. Devitt, also from Mr. A. Shultis regarding the sum to be refunded from his salary during his leave of absence.

BUILDINGS AND GROUNDS REPORT

Mr. Lane, Chairman of this committee, read the report. He stated that extra seats were required to complete the furnishing of two rooms in Central School. The Globe Furnishing Contract Company of Berlin, have secured the contract and the necessary desks and seats will be immediately furnished. Thirteen teachers' desks and chairs are needed; twenty-seven straight chairs, 24 kindergarten tables and fifty chairs for this department.

Mr. Lane reported that the committee have called for tenders for the electrical fixtures for King George School. The lowest one received was from A. C. Lyons and Co., and to them the contract will probably be given.

With reference to the laying of concrete floors in the two lavatories of Central School, Mr. Lane stated that it was needless to say how necessary they were. The flat bricks, which have been partially torn up, and it would be a shame to re-lay them. From a sanitary standpoint, the cement floors are absolutely needed.

Mr. Ballantyne submitted the lowest tender for this work and the Committee recommended that he be given the contract for the laying of these floors. It will take only $308 for both floors.

It was suggested that the city officials be given the work, but as Mr. Unger had stated that the work could not be done by them for less than nine cents per square foot, which would amount to more than Mr. Ballantyne's tender, it was thought that they should not be given the contract.

It was moved by Mr. Lane that the report as read, be adopted. Carried. REPRESENTED BERLIN FIRM.

Mr. Finnegan, the representative of the furnishing company before mentioned, was introduced by Mr. Lane. He showed the members drawings of the furniture required and also exhibited two of the teachers' chairs.

After these explanations, every member seemed satisfied and an objection was raised when Chairman Coulbeck asked if the furniture was satisfactory. Mr. Finnegan pointed out that no one was assuming any responsibility in taking the chairs, as the company would take them back if unsatisfactory. The reason the firm makes this concession is because it is placing the very best article into the market and are so assured of its success that they make this offer.

FINANCE COMMITTEE REPORT

Mr. Bentham, chairman of this committee read the report, which consisted of several accounts pertaining to the work being done by the Buildings and Grounds Committee. The Buildings and Grounds Committee report was then voted on and carried.

INDUSTRIAL AND MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE.

Mr. Cole read the report of the joint meeting of the Technical Advisory Industrial Committee and the Management Committee, held several days ago for the purpose of discussing the advisability of purchasing land near the Collegiate Institute for the erection of a Technical school. The two committees strongly advised this step and asked permission of the Board to continue with the work. Mr. Bunnell asked if the report requested the purchase of the grounds.

Mr. Cole replied that it assuredly did not. Not even the value of the land had been ascertained as yet. The matter will again be brought before the Board.

The report was then carried. Mr. Andrews stated that there was no regular management committee report because several appointments on the Collegiate and public school staffs had not yet been made.

Mr. Andrews also stated that before the Collegiate year book, which is being published this year, went to press, it was necessary to have a vice-principal on the teaching staff. He asked permission of the Board to place Mr. Coates in that position. He read a resolution to this effect, which was carried.

Mr. Andrews moved that Mr. A. K. Bunnell, Secretary-Treasurer of the Board, be granted five or six weeks' leave of absence and that his assistant Miss Smith, be authorized to issue the checks absolutely necessary during his absence. Carried.

MAJOR BALLACHEY HONORED

Mr. Armstrong moved that the following resolution be passed: Moved by I. S. Armstrong, seconded by W. H. Lane: Major Ballachey, who has for many years been a most energetic and able member of this Board, having answered the call of King and Country by volunteering as a Major in the 58th Battalion of the Canadian expeditionary forces, now in training at Niagara, unlimited leave of absence is hereby granted him.

The members of this Board desire to place on record their appreciation of Major Ballacheys manly, fair attitude in all matters pertaining to his position as a representative of the people on the School Board, and to express their satisfaction at the spirit of self-sacrifice which he has shown in leaving his family and business, to take his part in upholding the honor of the Empire. FOUND STICK OF DYNAMITE advertisement. Text: 'On Board the White Star Liner Arabic. By Special Wire to the Courier. New York, Aug. 6.—It became known at police headquarters here to-day that a stick of dynamite was found aboard the White Star Liner Arabic before she sailed from this port for Liverpool on July 28. The explosive, in such a state of deterioration that experts said it would have exploded at the slightest jar, was found by a stewardess between hot and cold water pipes. It was wrapped in newspapers. According to the information received at police headquarters the dynamite was taken there, and after being examined, was destroyed. In notifying the police of the finding of the dynamite, officials of the steamship company, it was said, had asked that no publicity be given to the fact. A search was said to have been made of the entire steamer. No more dynamite was found, however. The War Office has sanctioned the rising of two additional "Bantam" Battalions for Scotland—one in No. 1 District (Highland Division), to be called the 14th H.L.I., and the other in No. 2 District (Lower Division), to be named the 13th Scottish Rifles. To assist the ordinary recruiting agencies in the Aberdeen and the north for the H.L.I. Battalion, the Scottish Command has asked Major Grant, who is well known as the County Clerk of Banff, to visit the northern counties. LOCAL TEAM WON AFTER PLAYING TWELVE FRAMES

TWO HOME RUNS IN FIRST GAVE SAINTS THEIR LEAD—SCORE TIED IN SIXTH BY COOPER'S DOUBLE—HOME RUNS MADE BY PAY, LAGE AND FRIED.

A very close game was staged yesterday behind the old dyke. But after allowing their visitors to get a good lead in the very first innings, the Brants showed their superiority by tying the score and then winning. It took them twelve frames in which to do it, however.

After allowing the Saints to make four hits in the first, Close steadied down and pitched a great game, especially in the extra innings, just when good twirling was required. The batting stopped abruptly after the first, and no matter how hard they tried, the best the visitors could do was to get four very scattered single hits. Close struck out seven and gave only three bases on balls.

In the first frame, Linneborn was sent in first by Manager Bierbauer, and was put out. This player secured from Hamilton only a few days ago, certainly had an off day, for in six times at bat he failed to make a hit. Then Pay went in and drove the old pill clear over the centre field fence. Artie Lage went up shortly after, and, with two on, also smashed out a homer. So four runs were scored. They were not allowed to make another run in the eleven innings which followed, and they should certainly bless the Saints, atter whom they were nick-named, for their lead. Otherwise the score would most probably have been 4-0 in the Brants' favor.

The locals only made a single in their first, but in the second, Fried, with two on bases, came back with a vengeance and slammed out a peach over the fence.

In the three following frames, not even a single was made. Then in the sixth, through Cooper's double to right field, an error and a single, the tying run was made by the big back-stop.

Both teams tried very hard to break the tie, but both were quickly retired after going up to bat. Although the game was far from slow, the players were either fanned or put out in monotonous order. The Brants, however, did more hitting than their saintly guests, and in the eighth, Burrill started with a double to centre garden. It began to look promising when Ivers sacrificed, but the next two batters failed to get their hits past the infield.

And so the battle waged until the twelfth frame. Through two nice catches made by Comstock in right, and a nice stop by Fried, the Saints were retired in order. The Brants were fortunate because their batting order started from the first.

Streeter came across with a nice single as did Mullin. Mike was forced out by Cooper and then Buster slammed out a nice drive to centre field, allowing Streeter to score with the greatest of ease. Thus ended the twelfth spasm.

The Brants averaged a hit for every inning, but the Saints only made eight hits. The latter played very much better than the last time Brantford fans saw them. Because Catcher Harris is a thing of the past,

"RABBIT" FRIED

Who is at present putting up a brilliant game at second, poling out a home run in the third and scoring three runs, in yesterday's game.

Sporting Comment

Just for one awful moment yesterday it looked as if the unimprobable was about to happen, and the Brants were going to lose. The Sectionmen walloped the ball hard in their part two on, and another circuit about by Pay netting four runs. That looked a pretty good lead, and it might have won the game had not Fried, with two men ahead of him, dropped the ball over the fence for the third and last homer of the day.

With only one run behind and Close settled down, nobody worried any more. When Close settles down, the opposing team might as well sit on the bench. It would not be true to say St. Thomas was never dangerous, but they didn't threaten very often. Assisted by Mr. Lage, who dropped the ball, the score was tied in the sixth, and then away in the twelfth came the finish. With men on second and third and one gone, with Burrill at bat, even the Saints could see the finish; it was so apparent that Cooper and another circuit about by Fried came the finish. With men on second and third and one gone, with Burrill at bat, even the Saints could see the finish; it was so apparent that Cooper and another circuit about by Fried came the finish. With men on second and third and one gone, with Burrill at bat, even the Saints could see the finish; it was so apparent that Cooper and another circuit about by Fried came the finish.

The Brants were right on their toes all the time, playing snappy ball. Dunlop, as usual, plucked them out of the dust, while Mike Mullin, who came on in the sixth, played very well for a sick man. Cooper played his good game, working his pitcher as he should be worked. His hitting must be about .750. It still is a mystery to local fans why there should be so much talk about Harkins when the Brants' catcher is available for big league.

Ottawa defeated Hamilton yesterday, so it begins to look as if Brantford must save the situation and take all next week's series. The Senators walk through the other teams. They have a tremendous lead on the rest of the teams, but wait until after next week. There may be something different to tell, then.

The labor of a million men will be required to insure the predominance of the British fleet at sea, the Chancellor of the Exchequer, Reginald McKenna, declared at a meeting at Preston. The British Government, he said, was spending upon the navy nearly half a million pounds daily in excess of what was spent in peace times.

A SUNDAY SERMON BY PASTOR RUSSELL

JUSTICE THE BASIS OF TRUE CHARACTER

Failure to Recognize Justice Has Brought About the Time of Trouble.

Justice the Foundation of God's Throne—Justice the Underlying Principle of the Mosaic Law—Difference Between Justice and Love—The Christian Obligated to Keep the Golden Rule—Justice in the Home, in Business, in the Church—Appreciation of the Rights of Others—Love's Victory Over Justice Through Self-Sacrifice.

Spangfield, Mass., Aug. 1.—Pastor Russell is here in attendance upon the I. B. S. A. Convention assembled in our city. To-day he delivered a strong discourse on the Golden Rule—“Whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them.” (Matthew 7:12.)

He said: No part of God's instructions to His Church is more important than this exhortation to justice. Everything that God does is based upon absolute justice, and He invites His people to be like Him—to cultivate and develop in our characters the great qualities which He possesses, of which He has magnified and illustrated to us. Many have the thought that justice is a very ordinary matter, which practically everybody recognizes and follows. But such is not the case. Many would say, “Do you not know that we are Christians, and that to practice justice would naturally be the duty of all Christians? Why do you not rather exhort us to cultivate love?” We reply, Justice should always take precedence; we have no right to do less than justice to any member of the human family or, for that matter, even to an animal.

The trouble with the whole world is the failure to recognize this very principle. Justice is the foundation of God's Throne. It is the basic principle upon which He would have us build character, and upon which He deals with all His creatures. It is because this principle of justice is not being recognized that the world is in trouble, and that the great tribulation is coming upon our race, the Scriptures assure us. While in mankind in general there is very little love, yet every human being should receive justice. As followers of Christ, we are to be the foremost in exercising justice towards all.

What a grand world this would be if every human being would resolve to carry out the instructions of this text! There would be no “doing” of a neighbor before he could “do” you; but there would be a sparing of the neighbor, a taking into account his weakness and his interests. Whoever would take advantage of another would do something contrary to the welfare of the other. As ye would, as Jesus said, that others should do to you, do ye even so to them.

Thirty-five hundred years ago God called the Israelites out of Egypt. In substance He said to them, “Four hundred years ago I made a Covenant with Abraham that his Seed should bless the world. Are you ready to have that promise fulfilled to you?” They declared that they were ready. So He brought them to Mount Sinai, where they entered into a Covenant with Him to do whatever He directed. He gave them the Ten Commandments and said to them, “If you wish to be the Seed of Abraham that is to bless mankind, keep these commandments.”

That Law Covenant was based upon justice, and it was not asked them to love their enemies. According to whether or not they would render justice would be the Divine decision as to their worthiness of being considered Abraham's Seed that would bless the world. But they were not able to render justice, to do to their neighbor as they would that he should do to them. This failure was due to their fallen condition, because sin had become ingrained in human nature. (Romans 7:20.) The grasping disposition which has ever since manifested itself amongst that people began to appear; and so, although God bore with the nation for more than sixteen hundred years, not one of them obtained the reward of everlasting life which was offered to those who would keep the Law.—Leviticus 18:5; Romans 10:5.

It is not an easy matter to keep the Law Covenant of Justice. We see that the Jews failed to do so. We know that the Apostle declared that by the deeds of the Law no imperfect flesh shall be saved. Nevertheless God says, “Unless you keep the Law, you shall not be the Seed of Abraham that will bless all the families of the earth.”

The Scriptures point out that the Church of Christ is the Spiritual Seed of Abraham. (Galatians 3:8, 16, 29.) Therefore they are obligated to keep the Law. To enable them to do what no fallen flesh can do, God has made a special arrangement for the Church, though not for the Jewish nation, the typical people. Knowing that manly kind were so fallen that none could keep perfectly His Law, He sent His Son into the world to help our race. Our Lord, being perfect, uncontaminated with the fallen race of Adam, Holy, harmless, undefiled, and separate from sinners, was able to keep the Divine Law and did so. Then, in obedience to the Divine will, He offered up Himself in sacrificial sense. The merit of the life which He sacrificed constitutes a credit which, according to the Father's Plan, our Lord will give for Adam and his race, as their Ransom-price, at the end of the Gospel Age.

As soon as our Lord shall have offered that merit to the Father, the whole world will be turned over to Him; and immediately He will begin His great work of ruling and blessing all the families of the earth. The long delay has been because of another part of the Plan. It was the Divine will that He should select a Church from the world; to share with Him the great future work of blessing humanity. Therefore He will not begin His Reign until the predestinated number of the Church class shall have been selected, tested, and changed by the power of the First Resurrection. After the Spiritual Seed of Abraham will be complete.

It is well to note that the Spiritual Seed of Abraham is not the natural kind. Even Jesus as a man could never have blessed the world. He could have set a good human government, but could have no right to give life to the dead. Therefore He could never have rolled away the curse of death, with all its concomitant. So it was for Him to do something more than keep the Divine Law—something that Justice never required, something of self-sacrifice. Keeping the Law merely authorized Jesus to live forever; and if He had set up His Kingdom without giving His life as a Ransom, He could not have blessed mankind; for all are sinners under condemnation to death.

Besides keeping the Law, Jesus presented His body a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, and His reasonable service of sacrifices—prompted by love. It is our first duty also to keep the Law, to live up to its standard as nearly as possible! But having enlisted under the banner of Christ, it is additionally our duty to present our bodies a living sacrifice, as those who walk in His steps, faithful unto death. Thus we Christians are obligated beyond all other people. All are obligated to the Golden Rule of Justice; but we by love. If we do something much more than justice, if we do something that would be absolutely just in thought, word, and deed. But this we cannot do; for none of Adam's race can keep the Divine Law. Selfishness is deeply ingrained in our natural body; and by reason of this fact we fail to reach full perfection. But when we fail, we are not condemned; for with us the conditions are not the same as with the Jews. (Romans 8:1.) The blood of Jesus Christ cleanses us from all imperfection; the mercy of Christ covers all that we cannot do.

This does not excuse us, however, from doing our very best. If with our hearts we recognize the Golden Rule, we shall not be content even with our thoughts to it. We shall think and speak as generously of our neighbor as we would wish him to think and speak of us. We shall act as generously toward him as we would wish him to act toward us. This principle would be exercised daily toward all. No matter how imperfect we are to begin with, the work of God's grace should more and more transform us, that we may be more and more like our Lord Jesus.

As far as our hearts are concerned, we must become exact copies of God's dear Son, though not reaching His glorious standard. To that we may not attain while in the flesh, Daily we shall strive to grow in holiness for our shortcomings. But He who knoweth the heart is pleased to see us doing the best we can do, seeking to grow in grace, in knowledge, and in all the requirements of the Divine standard. This was the disposition of our Lord Jesus; and the Father loves all who manifest the same spirit. It is not enough that we recognize the downward tendencies of sin, and start out to walk in God's ways of righteousness. If we have His Spirit we shall meditate on His character and copy His attributes. Whoever seeks to do good to all will never wish to do less than justice. He would rather do more. Therefore the Apostle says, “Love is the fulfilling of the Law.”

When our Lord gave His Church a new commandment (John 13:34), it included everything that pertained to the Law. Whoever has this love will appreciate that it was love, not justice, that led our Lord to leave the Heavenly glory and sacrifice His life on behalf of humanity. The Father did not command the Son to make this sacrifice. God does not command any one to sacrifice his personal interests on behalf of others. He had a Program to be carried out. If the Son desired to carry it out, He would receive the reward promised.

So our Lord was quite willing to endure death itself, even death on the Cross, from love for the Father. Having the Father's disposition, He sympathized with fallen humanity. God had purposed to redeem mankind and to bring all the willing and obedient back to Divine favor and blessing. Our Lord Jesus longed to do this work. This was more than justice. If we have enlisted under His banner, to share with Him in the sufferings of this present life and in the future glory, honor, and immortality, then we covenant to follow the Law of Love. “Love worketh no ill to his neighbor.” Love would do more than keep the Mosaic Law. Love includes everything that is sacrifice for his neighbor, for his friends, and for his family. This is more than justice.

Many of God's people seem not to realize that justice takes precedence over love. God requires justice; and if we have agreed to give Him more than justice we are not thereby excused from rendering justice. Everywhere around us we find injustice. There are parents who do not deal justly with their children, who take advantage of their children in various ways. A parent owes it to his children not merely to bring them into the world and to get them to work for the family interests, but to provide them with a reasonable education and a religious home training. Each should know what are his own rights in the home and should observe the rights of others. A good man's sons might run away from home, but very seldom will a rightly trained child do so. In many homes the children are not treated according to the principles of justice. Often parents fail to realize the rights of grown sons and daughters, but continue to treat them as children. Parents should cultivate that broad sympathy which enables them to help their children to decide all their affairs. As a child matures, there should be an independence of thought. Suddenly it breaks over the boundary; and if the child has been properly trained while the body has been growing, the youth is bound to think and act for himself, but will always seek the guidance of the parents.

There are employers who have failed to give their employees all their reasonable rights. Of course, one cannot give everybody all that each might ask; for some people would demand everything and then not be satisfied. But with the right kind of employer the employee does not find it necessary to ask for his rights. The employer will insist that he shall have them.

Then there are people intent upon managing their friends. They are always telling others what to do and how to do it. We should be modest and respect the rights of others, but should not attempt to force our opinions upon them. When others ask us “what to do and how to do it, then it is time to tell them, should we consider it proper to ask for his rights. The employer will insist that he shall have them.”

If I were in your place, I think that I would do thus and so; but the matter is for you to decide.” By speaking in this way, we put the responsibility upon the proper individual.

We have spoken about the obligations of parents. Let us consider the obligations of children. The Golden Rule would say, As you would that your children should do to you when you become advanced in years, do even so to your parents. Children should get this viewpoint. If every child were taught along this line, when it reached maturity the parent would have no need to worry about the child manifesting gratitude for the parental love and care which it has received. The parent would say, “My children have had the principles of justice deeply ingrained from childhood that they would be entirely dissatisfied with anything wrong.”

We have spoken of the employer; let us now look at the employee. Imagine their positions reversed. What would each think it right to do for his employer or toward his employer? What would be the right kind of terms, the right kind of feeling? This course would bring about a great change between employers and employees.

So as we consider what would be the right thing to do, and are willing to do what is right, we become more just in our dealings with all, including our business associates. Whether we buy or sell, there is a fair, reasonable way of doing business. Do not buy so as to cause those who sell to lose money. We should be satisfied that the man who sells goods to us should make a reasonably fair profit. If we were selling, we should expect to make a reasonably fair profit, not an unjust one. The Golden Rule would regulate the matter.

While the whole Church is built upon the principle that the Gospel Church are to lay down their lives for the brethren, nevertheless some of God's dear children fail to recognize the principles of justice in their dealings with each other. Whenever a difficulty arises, we need especially to examine our own hearts and consciences to see whether the fault be ours. These difficulties nearly always result from a violation of the principle of justice.

The foundation of God's Throne is Justice. The Church that is built according to His arrangement is based upon this same principle. Each member may yield his own rights, but he must not transgress those of others. We should be very glad to see others act justly toward us; but we should not necessarily stand on our rights anywhere. Love ignores many of its own rights. Our Lord's life on earth was one of sacrifice. In the Church or in the family or in business we should use good judgment in the doing of God's will rather than in taking advantage of others.

As we do this, we are cultivating the spirit of justice. Do we not see how this applies in every direction? In the family, God's Law was originally given to Adam; and justice inflicted the death penalty for the breaking of that Law. He would not set aside His Law, His Justice, but He would bring in a blessing through the Lord Jesus Christ. Love gains this victory over Justice, not by violating Justice, but by sacrificing self. So it is for us to sacrifice ourselves in the interest of the Lord, the Truth and the brethren; and by thus doing we are really conserving our own best interests and are growing in grace, in knowledge, and in character-likeness to our God.

OLD COUNTRY NEWSPAPER

Says the Russians Are Justified in Feeling Regarding the Allies.

By Special Wire to the Courier. London, Aug. 6.—"That the Russians, in some extremities, have been waiting with the most intense expectation news of some move on the part of the allies in the west to relieve relentless pressure is perfectly natural under the circumstances," comments The Post. "If the circumstances had been reversed, had it been the Franco-British front the Germans were pressing we may be pretty sure public opinion in the western countries would have been calling urgently enough for prompt action on the part of Russia to relieve the strain.

"All things considered the Russian public has been wonderfully patient and uncomplaining in the circumstances, but there nevertheless are signs that the Russians are not satisfied with the share taken by the allies in the campaign. Their exemplary attitude doubtless rests on the belief, which is our own security of confidence as well as theirs, that the general staffs of three countries are acting in full harmony and with complete knowledge of each other's position.

From this premise one may come to the conclusion that after all things cannot be very dark when the leaders can take the situation so calmly not to say passively."

The Chronicle says in an editorial: "It must be conceded frankly that as a military operation the combined movement of the German armies on the eastern front in the past month seems likely to rank very high in the history of warfare. In scale it was the biggest thing ever attempted and considering the distances and the natural obstacles to be surmounted its rapid progress was very remarkable."

The Chronicle thinks Russian strategy eventually will be ranked high as carried out in the face of a tactically superior enemy.

The Standard declares the fall of Warsaw, while likely to prolong the work for the survivors, is a permanent influence on the course of events. Speaking of the enormous sacrifices of the Germanic allies it says: "Lost legions cannot be replaced and meanwhile there is formidable work for the survivors to do."

Unless a real decision is obtained by the destruction or forced surrender of the main Russian armies, Germany will be little better off than before."

Philip Oliver, an Indian of the Sarina Reserve, was killed by falling from one of the high stills of the Imperial Oil Company.

Major Roderick Dingwall, at one time a leading citizen of Port Hope, and a veteran of the Northwest rebellion, died in that town.

SON OF FORMER BRANTFORDITE KILLED IN ACTION

IN the recent casualty list that appeared the name of Captain Ernest McMeans, Musketry Officer, 90th Rifles, Winnipeg.

Captain McMeans was born in Winnipeg on the 6th May, 1889, and was the son of Lendrum McMeans, K.C., a Member Parliament South Winnipeg, and nephew of Mr. Arthur H. Harris, of the Canadian Pacific, Montreal. He graduated at the Toronto from the Manitoba College, and was called to the Bar, 1912, thereupon entering into partnership with his father.

The late Captain McMeans joined the 90th Rifles as a subaltern in 1908 and devoted much of his time and energies to the interests of the corps. An expert in musketry he was recently appointed Musketry Instructor for the Province of Manitoba. During recent years he was in command of the Manitoba Rifle Club, who came East to compete at the Dominion Rifle Association meetings.

Captain McMeans was killed in action on the morning of the 22nd of August near Feutbert defending a trench which had previously been captured by the Germans. Three brother officers fell with him. He was one of the most popular young officers in Winnipeg and was also well known in Montreal and Ottawa.

CAPTAIN MCMEANS.

OCCUPATION OF WARSAW BY THE GERMAN TROOPS

By Fierce Counter Attacks, Russians Gained Valuable Time in Evacuation.

London, Aug. 6.—The Germans are in possession of Warsaw, capital of Poland, and the third largest city in the Russian Empire. Bavarian troops entered the city yesterday morning having taken successively the Blonkie and the outer and inner fortresses of the town itself. The Russians only fighting rear guard actions to allow of their main army making good its escape.

THE RUSSIAN ADMISSION. An official Petrograd despatch received last night says:—"In view of conditions and the general situation of our troops west of Warsaw have received orders to fall back on the right bank of the Vistula to a permanent influence on the course of events. Speaking of the enormous sacrifices of the Germanic allies it says: "Lost legions cannot be replaced and meanwhile there is formidable work for the survivors to do."

Unless a real decision is obtained by the destruction or forced surrender of the main Russian armies, Germany will be little better off than before."

Philip Oliver, an Indian of the Sarina Reserve, was killed by falling from one of the high stills of the Imperial Oil Company.

The American Point of View

Manchester Guardian Says John Bull Should Do His Best to Meet It.

By Special Wire to the Courier. London, Aug. 6.—The Manchester Guardian in the course of a long article on the British American blockade controversy comes to the following conclusion:—"A great deal depends on our meeting the American point of view if we can. What should we lose if we did meet it? Of neutral ports there should be no blockade, but we might append the doctrine of continuous voyage so as to ensure the right to intercept all contraband imported through neutral ports for German use and there could still be no legitimate ground for objection. We might further extend our list of contraband so far as to cover cotton and conceivably even food stuffs, imported through neutral ports for Germany and still our action would lie within the forms of international law and give the United States no ground for protest.

"What advantage have we now through our policy that we should lose if we adopted the policy we have sketched. Simply this that no German ports would be closed to everything. Germany could still trade with the outside world through neutral ports in articles, which not being of use in war, would not be on our list of contraband. We do not think that that would be a serious or even an appreciable loss. On the other hand the gain of getting rid of this controversy with the United States might be very fruitful. It would remove the screen, which we are placing between Germany and the full American indignation over the inhuman outrage on international law. It would keep us so far as it can be kept up with justice to ourselves and the distinction between the civilian and belligerent use of articles of commerce. Lastly and most important it might lay the foundation of closer friendship with America, which what ever happens in this war, must be a necessity of any sound British foreign policy in the future."

By Special Wire to the Courier. London, Aug. 6.—Discussing the situation around Riga, the sixth city in the Russian Empire, the Petrograd correspondent of the Morning Post says:—"Russian military forces seem merely to be observing the German advance and falling back before it. The Germans now are fifty miles further east than yesterday. Their aeroplanes have dropped numerous bombs on Riga, and the main body of German troops has succeeded in getting beyond the difficult swamp region which was the city's chief natural defense. They now are in a good forest country through which they are being guided by local Germans. Riga's population is fifty per cent. German.

Refugees give illuminating accounts of the conduct of those Riga Germans. When the Russian population was preparing to leave, Riga assumed the appearance of a city celebrating a national holiday. Germans swarming the streets and every sign of public rejoicing being apparent."

PARIS HAD HOPED That the Polish Capital Might Have Been Saved at the Last Moment.

By Special Wire to the Courier. Paris, Aug. 6.—While the fall of Warsaw had been counted here some time ago, the delay in the capture of the city had given rise to the hope that the Polish capital might still be saved and its occupation by the Germans is something of a disappointment to the French public. The military necessities dictating the abandonment of the city are fully recognized, but it also is realized that the Germans will claim a great victory from which the people of that country will derive considerable encouragement. The press points out, however, that the victory is in no way decisive, because the Russian army remains intact, and the news generally has been received stoically.

GUESTS ESCAPED Jefferson, Mass., Aug. 6.—Nearly a hundred guests were forced to leave their rooms hastily when the Summit House, a summer hotel here was discovered ablaze early to-day. The fire started around an open fire place. Before all of the guests could get out the stairways were in flames and many were obliged to climb down the fire escapes or were assisted down ladders by volunteer firemen. The four storey wooden building was destroyed, causing a loss estimated at $12,000.

SERBIA MAY BE ATTACKED. Others of the observers think Serbia will be attacked, so as to impress the Balkan States which remain neutral, while still others look for a big offensive against the Franco-British Belgian line in the west. All of the observers are of the opinion that wherever the new operation is begun it will be on a big scale.

KAISER'S CONGRATULATIONS. An Amsterdam despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company says the announcement of the fall of Warsaw caused great demonstrations throughout Germany.

The official bulletins, the despatch adds, indicate that the Russians are in good order and that the invaders found little booty and nothing of military value.

Emperor William has sent a congratulatory message to Prince Leopold and the King of Bavaria. Extraordinary scenes of enthusiasm were witnessed in the German cities.
