ASQUITH IS PREPARED TO CRUSH REBELLION IN ULSTER BY FORCE NO COMPROMISE IN PROSPECT

Premier Loudly Cheered When, in Speech at Ladybank, He Declared Obstruction, Parliamentary or Armed, Would Be Overridden—Conference Cannot Change Basic Principles.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—(Can. Press) Mr. Asquith, prime minister, addressed an enthusiastic meeting of his constituents at Ladybank, East of Scotland, this evening. He dealt extensively with the question of home rule and emphasized the government's intention to make use of the Parliament Act in order to give Liberalism a fair chance with their opponents. The government, he said, had declared in favor of home rule when they had an overwhelming majority over all parties, and the last election was fought with the knowledge that home rule would come next to the passing of the Parliament Act. It would have been the greatest breach of public faith to put off this legislation.

Mr. Asquith affirmed that the government still believed that as the bill now stood the Irish legislature which it would bring into existence, even if it had the disposition, which the government did not believe it to have, would not and could not, have the power to be guilty of acts of oppression against the minority. He pointed out that the lords had not attempted to modify, amend or improve the bill. The prime minister paid a tribute to the loyalty and self-sacrifice of the Irish party in the house of commons. He added:

Tribute to Nationalists.

"You are often told that I am Redmond's subservient tool (laughter)—just as in Ireland Mr. Redmond is told that he is mine. There is just as much truth in the one accusation as in the other—and that is none at all. (Cheers.) Liberals and Nationalists have worked in co-operation in a common cause—a cause in the justice and policy of which we both believe." (Cheers.)

The bill as it left the commons, continued the prime minister, had been twice rejected by the commons, but had the hearty approval of the whole Liberal party in Great Britain and of the vast majority of the commons. Nationalists, and there was abundant evidence that it had practically the united support of all the great self-governing dominions. (Cheers.)

"In these circumstances," proceeded Mr. Asquith, "there is in my opinion a complete constitutional case for proceeding in the next session with the Irish government bill and for applying to it the provisions of the Parliament Act. Ought the action of proceeding to be affected or deflected by the menace of forcible resistance to the execution of the law? (Long and continued cheering.) The document preceding during the last two years in the North of Ireland, which I regret to say have received countenance in responsible quarters in this country, are a negation of the first principle of parliamentary government of democratic government. If the Ulster minority is entitled to resist home rule, what possible answer could be made to a like claim by the masses of the Irish people? (Cheers.) No, we need not and shall not be intimidated by the threat of force. (Prolonged cheering.)

Will Overcome Resistance.

Then speaking slowly and deliberately the prime minister said: "I have more than once expressed the hope

DIAZ HAS ENDED HIS RELATIONS WITH HUERTA

Disappointed in Hopes of Being Elected President, He Resigns From Army and Refuses to Go to Mexico City—His Arrest May Follow.

VERA CRUZ, Oct. 25.—(Can. Press.) The last shred binding Gen. Felix Diaz and Gen. Huerta was severed today when Gen. Diaz telegraphed to the department of war his resignation as brigadier general of the army. The negotiations regarding his return to the capital, on invitation of the provisional president, ended by his flat refusal to accompany Col. Vidauraga, secretary to Gen. Blanes, war minister, giving as his reason the illness of his wife. Col. Vidauraga continued his efforts to induce Gen. Diaz to change his decision, but finally left for the capital on a special train tonight. Diaz and his family remained here.

The few partisans of Diaz who have stood guard in his room at the hotel for the past four days, also left for their homes in Mexico City, but a handful of supporters are still here subject to the orders of their political chief. The building is being closely watched by plain clothesmen and police from points of vantage in the streets and on roofs.

Gen. Diaz expresses the belief that no doubt the war department will grant his application for retirement, although a few of his friends pessimistically point to the possibility that the answer may come in the form of an order of arrest. Gen. Diaz said tonight he realized he had no chance for election to the presidency. His plans for the future are not yet made, but he expects to establish a temporary residence in Vera Cruz.

Senors Diaz is not seriously ill, but sufficiently so to serve as an excuse for the delay in the projected return of Gen. Diaz to the capital. Col. Vidauraga's importunities (Continued on Page 3, Column 2.)

MEXICAN ELECTIONS A JOKE CONGRESS WILL PASS A BILL DECLARING WHOLE THING VOID

Result Will Not Be Known for Several Weeks, But Gamboa Seemed to Be Getting Majority of Few Votes Cast—A Useless Performance.

(Special to The Toronto World.) MEXICO CITY, Oct. 26.—There are eighty thousand voters in Mexico City. More of them turned out this afternoon at the usual Sunday ball fight than chose to exercise the right of franchise at the presidential elections held today.

It was estimated tonight that fewer than 10,000 eligible voters in the republic went to the polls. It is regarded as certain that congress, the members of which also were voted for today, will declare the election void, thus continuing Huerta in office.

Gen. Huerta did not vote. He spent the day in his Popola suburban home. Manuel Calero, the Liberal candidate, did not vote. Instead he took his family early in the day into the country. After he returned tonight, he said:

"I understand the voting was exceedingly dull. Nobody appears to be taking the seriousness of the election. On account of the political condition many refused to vote. I myself did not. Had we indirect balloting I would have done so, but since it is otherwise I did not care to cast a vote either for myself or any other candidate."

Federico Gamboa, the candidate of the Catholic party, on the other hand, cast his ballot for Senor Calero. Neither of these candidates cared to express an opinion as to whether a sufficient number of ballots had been deposited to make the election effective.

The election passed off without a ripple. So far as outward evidence may be taken there was not the slightest interest in the average Mexican citizen in what was going on at the polls. There was less curiosity if anything as to what the result of the polls would show. Police and soldiers had an idle day. In anticipation of possible disturbances the entire force of gendarmes remained on duty, while several hundred troops were drawn into the city from other parts of the federal districts. Soldiers looted in their barracks and the police annexed themselves, smoked cigarettes and gossiped.

No police and soldiers were on guard at the polls. Observation made at thirty polling places in widely separated sections of the city by The Toronto World correspondent shows no intimidation or effort by the authorities to influence the vote in any manner.

Useless Performance.

Upon the whole the election, so far as the capital was concerned, was the most uneventful, uneventful and useless performance that could be imagined. To a person who has been through two presidential elections in Mexico, supposed to be free and

Why Does The Telegram Oppose All Annexations and Improvements Leading to a Greater Toronto—Except One?

We have several times within the course of the passing year had to indicate our sense of The Telegram's unfairness in its methods of treating Mayor Hocken, in its attacks upon the proposal to purchase the street railway company, and to give the citizens general city service for single fares; and in its misrepresentations of those who favored this proposal. On one occasion at least we demonstrated the crooked character of The Telegram's mental operations. It based a charge against The World on false evidence. It had to withdraw the false evidence and it apologized for using it, but continued to make the charge that only rested on the false evidence which had been withdrawn. The Telegram seems to think there is nothing wrong in such a course. It is, in fact, not capable of a moral decision. It is immoral. We have, therefore, declined to take it seriously, and have made light of the absurd tissue of falsehoods and reports and rumors and idle deductions by which it endeavors to establish impossible reputations, as in the case of Controllers Church and Foster, or to destroy an unassailable character, as in the case of Mayor Hocken.

But there are many people who read nothing but The Telegram. The World has never adopted the absurd position of some newspapers which write as the no other newspaper but themselves existed. We are glad of the co-operation in all honorable ways of any and all newspapers. We are glad of the conscientious opposition of any newspaper that differs with us; and by reasonable argument and decent and honorable controversy we believe great public issues can be materially advanced. We believe that both sides of most public questions may be honestly, even if heatedly, debated. On many occasions we have welcomed the assistance of The Telegram, and we have not failed to quote it and give it credit.

A BARBAROUS POLICY.

There are times, however, in the history of The Telegram, and there has never been a more notorious example than in the present street railway purchase agitation, when The Telegram seems to take leave of its senses; of all the standards that usually control the behavior of reasonable beings; and to abandon itself to the blind fury familiar to students of alienation. It may be contended that the case is not so bad as that, and that it is merely the adoption of the motto: "All is fair in love and war," that has led to this barbarous policy. Civilized committees have arrived at a stage where they recognize that all is not fair in war. It is dishonorable to hit below the belt, for to kick a man on the ground. In international warfare it is regarded as criminal to poison the wells. The Telegram does not scruple to poison the wells for its readers. It is unmoral, savage.

A slight instance is afforded in the publication for its presumably illiterate readers of the dictionary meaning of the word "intangible." The word, it suggested, meant incapable of being touched, impalpable, not perceptible, the idea being to convey to the reader the prejudice that intangible assets did not exist. Why did The Telegram not define the word "assets" also? Because the word means "property in general, regarded as applicable to the payment of debts." And it did not suit The Telegram to convey to its readers the idea that the intangible assets were property, not to be touched or perceptible, but nevertheless actual property. An annuity is an intangible asset. So is a life insurance policy. And the estimated revenue of the street railway is just as sure and just as certain as an annuity or the insurance policy. And The Telegram knows this. But in its barbarous fashion it poisons the wells.

Why does it act in this way? We have charged it with being actuated by hatred of Mayor Hocken, and this is evident enough to those who have studied the bitter, unwarranted attacks that have followed every move of his civic career. But The Telegram declares this is not the case, and that it treats Mayor Hocken as fairly as it knows how. If we must accept this view we gain, at least, a conception of The Telegram's standard of fairness. What then is the real motive behind all this? We believe The Telegram is being used, as every unreasoning agent is used, by someone cleverer than itself, for a purpose to which it is blind.

The facts, as we see them, are these: For several years The Telegram has followed a course of peculiar inconsistency definitely opposing in general what it definitely supported and worked for in particular. This policy was so remarkably consistent in its inconsistency that it could not fail to attract the attention of an observer. What the citizen wants to know are the two keynotes, the key to the consistency and the key to the inconsistency. When he learns that the two keys are one, he may be assured that he has the clue to The Telegram's policy.

FOUGHT ALL BUT ONE.

When the question of annexation of adjacent territory has come up in recent years The Telegram has fought every proposal of this nature, but one. The annexation of North Toronto was furlinuated against by The Telegram in the most vehement style. The Telegram forces in the city council opposed it as far as possible. Controller Church, who claimed to be the author of the idea, switched around on the question and fought till the battle was over, when, as usual, he identified himself with the victors. When the annexation of Leaside was up The Telegram was against it tooth and nail, and started the great crusade against the land butchers, that is to say, farmers or others who, owning land, divide it up into convenient lots and parcels and sell it for what it will bring. Its ferocity towards land butchers knows no bounds. All such men are enemies of the state—all, but one.

When the annexation of Todmorden came up recently The Telegram was against it. It was against it the first time. It was against it the second time. And it is still against it. When the proposal to annex the two northwest blocks came up, Cedarvale and North Earlscourt, The Telegram was once more in the van of opposition with furious shouts and yells, pointing out how evil it would be to the city and how bad for the people themselves to be annexed. All annexations were wrong—except one.

This seemed inexplicable to people who believed The Telegram's professions of friendliness to the workman. The Telegram wanted him to get cheap land, but it shut him up to the expensive land. Competition in every direction round the city would cheapen land in the view of all competent authorities. Hundreds of acres were lying in the east end beyond the Beaches, up Kingston road, and the Gerrard and Danforth civic car lines, in Moore Park and North Toronto, in the districts along and north of St. Clair avenue, in Weston, West Toronto, and in Swansea; if all this property were thrown open at once the natural result would be a fall in prices which would help the poor man. Did The Telegram favor this policy? No, it said such widespread, wholesale competition would raise prices, and increase taxes, and called on North Toronto people to say if they were benefited by annexation, before the plans for their benefit—plans which The Telegram bitterly opposed—could be realized. So it opposed competition in land and the annexation of any district—except one.

THE BLOOR STREET VIADUCT.

The Telegram opposed the Bloor street viaduct as a useless, needless expense to the city, although the east end had been crying out for it for years. Last year the opposition was withdrawn, and the change was as mysterious and as significant as anything that has occurred in recent civic history. The change was made the means of placing the east end aldermen and gaining their support for certain policies in the west end. But has the Bloor street viaduct been built? Various delays have occurred. Side issues have been raised, like the alternate scheme for a concrete instead of a steel structure. Nothing will be done to the Bloor street viaduct till next year, the plans are in preparation. Meanwhile The Telegram is much concerned about the building of bridges in the west end.

Two years ago tubes were a live issue, and Mayor (then Controller)

BRITAIN WANTED ORDER RESTORED

Recognition of Huerta Was Given Solely for That Reason and There is No Friction.

Special Cable to The World. Copyrighted by The Toronto World and N.Y. World. LONDON, Oct. 27 (6.39 a.m.)—The Times has an editorial this morning strongly protesting against the sensational statements published on both sides of the Atlantic regarding the relations existing between the governments at Washington and London over the Mexican situation and repeating its former assertion that no friction has arisen in any direction between the two governments. Again reviewing the situation it says:

"We did not acknowledge General Huerta as acting president from any predilection which we entertain for him nor does the recognition imply approbation of his methods. We acknowledged him simply because he appeared to us to be the de facto acting president and because we thought in common with most of the other powers, that his recognition would tend to the restoring of orderly government. President Wilson has taken another view of the position and is supported by the great body of popular opinion in the United States. The speech which he made at Swarthmore, Pa., on Saturday, shows once again by what very high ideals that view is supported. We do not question the elevation or sincerity of these sentiments. We cannot but question how far they may be practical politics. We speak frankly, we do not believe that a government can be established in Mexico which will realize, even roughly, President Wilson's ideals. We shall be delighted to find that we are mistaken. There has, we repeat, been no friction between London and Washington on the question hitherto and we earnestly hope there will be none in future."

CARGO ON FIRE REACHED PORT

British Freighter, Laden With Cotton, Struggled Into Halifax Harbor—Decks at White Heat.

HALIFAX, N.S., Oct. 26.—(Can. Press.)—The British freight steamer Sowwell, bound from Savannah for Havre, France, put in here today with her cargo of cotton on fire. On Friday morning, when 350 miles southeast of Halifax, the fire was discovered in the forehold. The fire had gained such headway that the deck was almost at white heat, but the engineers succeeded in cutting holes through which steam pipes were inserted.

A gale was blowing at the time and quite a sea running, the steering gear became disabled and the ship for a time was helpless. What the steering gear was put in shape again Capt. Evans headed his steamer for Halifax. On arrival here a steam fire engine was put to work and the hold was flooded.

The steamer has nearly 1,000 bales of cotton in hold. She registers 2422 tons, and carries a crew of 39 men.

ALL-NIGHT SEARCH FOR FATHER REVEALED HIS BODY IN MORGUE

On his way to work at 8 o'clock Saturday morning, James Wilson, 24 Spencer avenue, collapsed in his seat on a street car, and when carried into the residence of Dr. Hawkins, at 805 West King street, was found to be dead. Death was due to heart trouble. His body was taken to the morgue, where it was identified by his three sons at 3 o'clock Sunday morning. The sons, apparently, were searching all night for news of their father. They claim that at police headquarters they could get no information whatever, and none of the stations at which they called knew of his whereabouts. They eventually scanned the newspapers for a clue, and found an item concerning a man collapsing in a street car. In this way they traced the body to the morgue and identified it.

RIDING FOR A FALL

JEWIS IN RUSSIA FEAR ONSLAUGHT

Feeling Has Been Stirred to Dangerous Pitch by Trial at Kiev.

KIEV, Oct. 25.—(Can. Press.)—As the trial of Mendel Beilis, charged with murdering the Christian boy, Andrew Yushinsky, in March, 1911, proceeds, the uneasy feeling is growing that whatever its result, attempts at Jewish persecutions will follow. Dispatches from various quarters indicate active reparations in this direction. The Black Hundred Organ, The Two Headed Eagle, in its inflammatory article today, commenting on alleged Jewish threats against Russia, published in the Viennese press, calls on its readers to remember always and everywhere the infamous words uttered by Jewish publicists, and that the Jews dare to insult the sacred name of our adored emperor and menace his sacred person and the whole imperial family.

Vera Tcheberiak's convict brother, Singalevsky, and his accomplice, Rudzinsky, testified today. Both were in prison uniform. Singalevsky denied that he had ever seen Yushinsky. Rudzinsky denied knowing Vera.

At the trial yesterday two secret police agents, in confirming former Chief of Police Krusovsky's evidence, testified that while posing as criminals, they had learned from Singalevsky that he, with Rudzinsky and Latsheff had killed Yushinsky in Vera's house.

The police today arrested many persons in the suburbs of Kiev on the charge of attempting to incite riots against the Jews.

YOUTH WAS SHOT BY COMPANIONS

Samuel Robb Died a Few Minutes After Being Struck by .22 Calibre Bullet.

Laying down an automatic 22-calibre rifle with which he had been shooting, Cecil Seal, 19, 133 Leslie street, accidentally touched the trigger and shot his companion, Samuel Robb, 18, of 244 River street, in the back, inflicting a wound of such a serious nature that Robb expired a few minutes later.

The fatality occurred about 5.50 Saturday afternoon at Seal's residence, where he had invited Robb for supper and some shooting practice. The boys had been shooting for some minutes when Robb ran towards the target to see where the bullet went. Seal started to lay down the rifle and follow him when another cartridge exploded, the bullet entering Robb's left shoulder and lodging in the chest.

Seal stated to the police after the accident that he thought only six cartridges were in the gun and that these had all been let off. He was very much upset and gave a very coherent account of the tragedy. After being shot Robb, he said, exclaimed, "Something hit me in the back" and sank to the ground. He then walked into the house, lay down on the couch and died before medical aid arrived.

The chief coroner announced to The World last night that as the occurrence was undoubtedly accidental no inquest will be held.

Seal is under arrest and will appear in the police court today.

THE GHOST BREAKER

"The Ghost Breaker" a Thriller.

Augustus Thomas, dean of American playwrights, and known the length and breadth of the land, after witnessing a performance of "The Ghost Breaker," which comes to the Princess Theatre next Monday night, wrote to Maurice Campbell, the manager: "I have never seen an audience more spontaneously thrilled."

Hocken based his civic campaign on a plan of subways for the city which would have given rapid transit service to the great vacant districts in the east, the north and the northwest. The Telegram was against the idea. The heat of the campaign is still remembered. Tubes would have been of too general advantage. The Telegram had no desire to give rapid transit service to any district—but one.

Similarly when The World proposed, and the idea was well supported, to get suburban trains running, as in Montreal, with commutation tickets, The Telegram had nothing but jeers and sneers for the proposer and the proposal. These two ideas, tubes and suburban trains, have been revived in order to delay or obstruct the street railway purchase, but it is palpable that Controller Church is as much in earnest about proposing them as he would be in putting forward an aviation scheme.

WHAT'S THE REASON?

Now, why was such a progressive, public-ownership paper as The Telegram professes to be, lined up against all these proposals? Why has it told the suburbanites that they would get nothing by annexation and the cost to them would be so big as to ruin them, while it told the citizens, often on the same page, that the suburbanites would be nothing but a lot of leeches and bloodsuckers who would contribute nothing to the city exchequer?

And why, when the street railway proposals were first hinted at, did The Telegram immediately assume its most denunciatory attitude, get out its biggest club, and its blackest letters, without waiting for information or evidence, and assault Mayor Hocken, with all the verbal violence in its 1910 dictionary? Why did it decline to wait for expert opinion on the proposals made by Mayor Hocken? Why did it insist, contrary to fact, that the proposals came from the railway company, and not from the city? Why did it absolutely ignore and even misrepresent the advantages to the citizens, and especially to the labor classes, of abolishing the double, triple and even higher number of fares, payable for a single journey about the city? Why did it make light of the resumption by the city of all the franchises within the city limits? Why has it abused and bespattered as far as lay-in its power every public man and every newspaper in the city that counseled patience and consideration for Mayor Hocken's proposals?

We believe for the same reason that it opposed all annexations about the city, but one; that it abused all land butchers about the city but one, and the king of land butchers; for the same reason that it opposed tubes; for the same reason it opposed suburban trains and fares; for the same reason it opposed and afterwards diplomatically yielded the Bloor street viaduct; for the same reason that it has deprecated all open competition in real estate and building lots in the suburban areas of the city; for the same reason that it has attempted to make it appear that the "Laird of Donlands," as it has styled the proprietor of The World, who has a farm outside any proposed annexation to city territory, and who has had no intention of cutting his farm into lots, was a land butcher of the deepest dye, imbrued to the shoulders, and only anxious for his own interests.

THE HUMBER BOULEVARD.

Some years ago Mr. R. Home Smith, a young business man of the best type, of clear perceptions and an eye for the tremendous future Toronto is bound to have, began to buy lots in the Humber Valley. In due course he acquired in the interest of some British investors practically all the land in the Humber suburban district. We have absolutely nothing against Mr. Home Smith, except that we believe he has been overreached by an injudicious and utterly unscrupulous advocate in The Telegram, and that he has considered the interests of his clients before those of the citizens in this question of the street railway purchase. Mr. Home Smith made certain proposals to the city, which, in comparison with what has been done, or not done, by others were generous. The World supported his plans for boulevarding the Humber, and the accompanying policy of annexation, as it has supported every other plan of annexation about the city. We believed in an open policy of competition in land as necessary to give cheaper building lots to the congested population of the restricted city. We believed that every man who owned land had a right to offer it for sale and should be encouraged to do so; that the easiest available access that could be afforded to it should be given; and that one annexation was no more to be obstructed than another, when any reasonable grounds could be shown for it. According to The Telegram standard Mr. Home Smith was the giant land butcher of Toronto. Neither in the east, nor the north-east; in Moore Park, nor in the boreal regions by York Mills; in the fastnesses of Cedarvale, nor the wilds of North Earlscourt, was there anyone with the gigantic schemes and the huge chopping block possessed by Mr. Home Smith. We tremble to think what the opinion of The Telegram would have been of Mayor Hocken or Controller McCarthy had one of these gentlemen approached the city council with such a project as Mr. Home Smith laid before it. Yet there was nothing wrong about it. It included several admirable and public-spirited features. Aid, McBride incurred the fierce wrath of The Telegram for his opposition to it.

And that became a cause of wonder and amazement. The Telegram, which opposed all other annexations and denounced all other land butchers, became astonishingly docile, fawned on this land butcher, licked his feet and fed out of his hand. The idea of building bridges over the Humber appeared to it as a stroke of genius, while a Bloor street viaduct had for years been a sinful anomaly. However, The Telegram consented to swap the viaduct for the Humber bridges. But it kept on opposing, and still opposes, all other annexations. There must be no competition with the Humber surveys. There must be no general plan of fast transit which would open up other districts of the city as well as the Humber. There must be no favors to any other suburban areas but that pleasant valley of the west, where Mr. Home Smith reigns like the king in his beauty.

We get the two keys here, which are one, and the explanation of why The Telegram opposes everything that would compete with the Humber Valley, and promotes everything of which Mr. Home Smith approves.

SITUATION IS CLEAR.

The street railway situation is at once clear. It is not in the interest of the Humber Valley surveys to have a big general scheme of transportation to every part of the city and suburbs whereby all land butchers and all citizens seeking building lots would benefit alike. If The Telegram can succeed in holding off the public ownership of the street railway for eight years, then the Humber Valley surveys will have an eight years' handicap over every other parcel of land around the City of Toronto. There are double fares in every direction, and three and four in some journeys. But the Humber Valley surveys scheme has provision for a line of its own, and it was only a few days ago since Mr. Home Smith and a deputation of anxious owners from West Toronto interviewed the railway board about building a line on Annette street, which Mr. Geary, the corporation counsel, was not aware were not being pressed for by the city until the negotiations about the street railway should have been concluded one way or another.

It is quite clear that if Mr. Home Smith can have a single fare for eight years into the heart of the Humber Valley surveys, or can run a line of his own at nominal rates for eight years, while all the other suburbs are paying double and triple fares, he has an immense advantage over the other land butchers who do not look as good to The Telegram as he does. Just as Sir William Mackenzie can run the Church street cars up to Leslie if the street railway purchase fails to go thru, so Mr. Home Smith can use his franchise to run a line up into the Humber Valley surveys, and the rest of the city may vegetate while he fills up that beautiful and eminently desirable area. The Telegram assisted in the incubation of this plan. It helped to get the necessary legislation thru the council with all the advantages of the city's undertakings to construct bridges, boulevards, drives, and what not. We all helped, and we would help again. But The Telegram never helped anyone else. It hindered and obstructed, and denounced, and finally has given way to a proxym, prolonged thru weeks, of shrieks and yells against everything that would benefit others than itself—shall we say—"intangible" here.

SUMMING IT ALL UP.

To sum up: The Telegram opposes all land butchers but the greatest of the race.

It opposes all annexations but that of the Humber Valley surveys. It is against every form of rapid transit, except in the last few days, when it revived previously rejected schemes in order to defeat, if possible, the practical one under consideration.

And if it can defeat that plan for the purchase of the street railway, it gives Mr. Home Smith eight years with single fare to the Humber Valley surveys, as an advantage over all other real estate schemes about the city, which are only to be approached by double-fare journeys.

We think Mr. Home Smith, if he be aware of The Telegram's motive, is making a mistake to permit it. The advantage of the city as a whole is the advantage of every part of it. There was no jealousy exhibited towards the Humber Valley proposals by other parties, with the possible exception of the interests represented by Aid, McBride. But it ought to be obvious to Mr. Home Smith, as it is to business men generally, that it is poor policy to try to hog everything for oneself. One could pardon it in The Telegram, from which no more is expected, but in a young man with a brilliant career ahead, we look for a more liberal policy.

MONDAY MORNING, OCT. 27.

WHICH IS RIGHT?

We were pleased to learn from our neighbor, The Mail and Empire, that other day that grain receipts and grain shipments were phenomenally large this season at the port of Montreal.

We would be glad to believe that The Mail is right. There is no valid reason why Montreal should not become one of the greatest grain exporting ports in the world.

Montreal is losing her grain trade to Buffalo and Portland and rapidly getting it. There is room in the harbor commissioners' elevators at present for two million bushels of grain, and not an ocean boat is loading in the port with grain.

The situation at present is very serious. The harbor commissioners should have told them why their elevators were empty, and their great port almost deserted. He might have told them as the minister of trade and commerce told a deputation the other day, that Canadian grain was going to Buffalo instead of to Montreal because Canadian vessels made a cheap rate to Buffalo to meet the American competition.

MR. ASQUITH ON HOME RULE. In his eloquent speech at Ladybank to his East Fife constituents Mr. Asquith made it perfectly clear that the British Government has no intention of departing from its determination to place the Irish Home Rule Bill on the statute books.

RADIUM SUPPLY. For some time past rumor has been persistent that an effort was in progress to form a radium trust.

continued to Austria, although small deposits are also found in Wales. The Austrian Government does not permit radium to be shipped out of the country, so that these hospitals and institutions have deemed themselves fortunate in becoming possessed of an infinitesimal quantity.

Sir Frederick Treves recently announced that a method had been discovered of bottling radium emanations, and this has enabled the treatment to be widely extended. It is now stated the twenty-seven radium ore claims found not long ago in Colorado will pass under the control of the National Radium Institute, and that the government of the United States will furnish experts to supervise the mining of the ore and the extraction of the radium by a new and improved method.

THE CALL FOR BEEF.

From a tabular statement submitted by a speaker at the Chicago Convention of American Packers it appeared that in eleven of the principal agricultural nations of the world there had been an average increase in population of 20.5 per cent. and of cattle a fraction more than 3 per cent. during a period representing approximately ten years.

PREPARE FOR OLYMPIC

Splendid Reports Submitted by the Different Officers.

A year of decided progress was the summary of reports of the Ontario branch of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada as reported at the annual meeting held Saturday night in the union office, 22 College street.

The game at Hamilton would indicate that the Combines are somewhat of a force to be reckoned with.

CLOSE RACE IN THE BIG FOUR RIVALRY IN COLLEGE UNION

Argonauts, Hamilton and Ottawa Have Chance for Championship—McGill Has Winning Lead—Review of the Rugby Situation—Games to Be Played This Week.

Incidents on the Saturday Rugby fields point to a close finish in the Big Four and a runaway in the College Union. The Tigers apparently displayed unusual strength and the Ottawa Combines never had a chance.

While Father Stanton appeared on Friday night to have every chance of being elected to the presidency, he was not in such condition on Saturday as when they met the tie with Argos.

H. COLE WINS CHAMPIONSHIP

Long Race at Motorcycle Meet—Plenty of Spills in Order.

EXHIBITION PARK, Oct. 25.—Thrills and spills were prominent in the motorcycle events at the T.M.C. meet here this afternoon. T. Bell, who was leading on an Excelsior in the novice event, took the turn with his pedal down, and when the pedal dragged he fell, taking H. Ashley, on a Triumph, with him. Neither rider was badly hurt, however, and both managed to crawl off the track by the time the rest of the riders came around.

In the five-mile amateur event, Percy Burns took a tumble, but also escaped without serious injury. The opening event was a ten-mile bicycle race for the championship of Canada. A large field turned out, and Frank Brown nosed out Walt Andrews at the finish, Willie Spencer getting third money.

In the five-mile professional race, McDowell went down but soon continued. Cole won the race handily. Tommy Smith gave him a good ride, but had to stop for engine trouble and lost a lap. The results:

Ten mile bicycle race Dominion championship—1. Frank Brown; 2. Walt Andrews; 3. W. Spencer; 23.2-5.5.

Three mile novice—1. W. Butler, Indian; 2. S. Wilkins, Jefferson; 3. G. Levenski, Bradbury; 4.20.

Five mile amateur belt drive—1. M. Newport, Triumph; 2. H. Greenwood, Triumph; 3. G. Levenski, Bradbury; 4.20.

Five mile professional open port, singles, or twin stock—1. H. Cole, Thor; 2. W. McDowell, Excelsior; 3. F. Smith, Excelsior; 4.20. Time 6.09 1-6.

Cole won by 1-4 mile.

Ten mile amateur stock, Ontario championship and John Milne & Son trophy—1. F. Miles, Indian; 2. A. Shuttlesworth, Jefferson; 3. W. Morrison, Excelsior; 4.20. Time 12.44.

Fred Miles captured this much-coveted trophy in grand style. C. Woods fell while giving him a hand run on the turns and continued later, but could not catch him.

Three-mile bicycle handicap—1. W. Andrews; 2. Spencer; 3. G. Young; 4.20. Time 7.16 2-5.

Five-mile professional, ported, single or twin stock—1. H. Cole, Thor; 2. F. Smith, Excelsior; 3. Not given. Time 6.12 2-5.

C. McDowell, who started on a twin Excelsior, was in danger of being burned up. His tank split and the gasoline took fire, his legs being a mass of flames. Willing hands soon extinguished the blaze, however, and the rider had a lucky escape.

Five-mile side-car handicap, for twins and singles—1. Geo. Bellor, Merkle; 2. W. Porter, Matchless; 3. H. Greenwood, Triumph; 4.20. Time 6.23.

H. Greenwood, driving a Triumph, the only single-cylinder, was given three-quarters of a lap on the field, but his side-car fell away out, and he finished third. Billy Forster made the best time, but had to stop for repairs, and lost a lap, which he almost regained on Bilton.

All the riders had trouble.

Twenty-five-mile professional motorcycle race for the Canadian championship and Cummetford trophy—1. H. Cole (Thor); 2. C. McDowell (Excelsior); 3. F. Smith (Excelsior); 4.20. Time 33.25 2-5.

Cole won by two miles, in spite of the fact that his chain broke and he lost a mile while it was being repaired. Both McDowell and Smith pushed on substitute machines as their original mounts played out.

EXPECT DROP IN WHEAT RECEIPTS

Sentiment in Chicago Pit is Less Bearish—Rally in Corn.

CHICAGO, Oct. 25.—Assertions that much smaller receipts than last season would form the rule for the rest of the present crop year overcame depression today in wheat. The close was steady, 1-3 off to a shade up compared with last night. Corn finished 1-16 to 1-32 net higher, after varying from 1-16 decline to 1-16 advance and provisions with a gain of 1-16 to 1-32.

Wheat bulls took the ground that farmers were tenacious in regard to holdings of the winter crop, and that with a spring yield practically a hundred million bushels less than in 1912, the movement must hereafter be greatly diminished, and the accumulation of supplies for the winter forward look slender indeed by contrast. It was pointed out that primary receipts today did not amount to half those of the corresponding day a year ago, and that the total for the week showed a similar falling off.

Sentiment among the bears did not manifest itself in the wheat pit until after the market had suffered an early setback, due chiefly to the flattering outlook for the winter crop. Cable quotations, however, were relatively firm and sellers found that all offers were being readily taken by strong houses. The chief obstacle to an advance was the fact that there was no urgent outside demand.

Adverse weather ahead brought about an uptick in corn. The market at first advanced again, until it was checked because of weakness at Liverpool, but short sellers were afterward pushed when bull leaders had regained courage on account of the government predictions of rain snow and cold.

Provisions made a sharp advance, the result of a rise in the price of hogs. The most noticeable feature was aggressive buying by land brokers, thought to represent the big packers.

PRIMARY MOVEMENTS. Yesterday, Lt. Wk. Lt. Wk. Lt. Wk. Receipts: Wheat 1,033,000; Corn 553,000; Shipments: Wheat 1,033,000; Corn 553,000.

BIG RECEIPTS AT FARMERS' MARKET

They Want Second Market on Wednesday.

Receipts of farm produce at the St. Lawrence Market on Saturday were again large, but on account of the rain on Friday and Friday night not as large as for the previous two or three weeks. There was little hay and only about 400 bushels of grain. The north market building was crowded with farmers' produce, and, as usual, there were thousands of buyers. Trade consequently was brisk, and prices firm in nearly all classes of produce.

The World representative interviewed many farmers in reference to having another market day during the week, and all without any exception, were in favor of the idea, and some favored two days more per week. One industrial March farmer said: "Try one day first, and let that be Wednesday. If the citizens of Toronto will come to the market on Wednesday, the farmers, many of them, will also be there."

If this idea is carried out it will experience much of the overcrowding now experienced on a Saturday, and give the buyers a chance to get fresh vegetables, butter and eggs, and, in fact, 100 per cent. of the market on that day per week. In years gone by, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday were the principal market days. Surely, what Toronto has doubled in population, two markets per week, well patronized, and, no doubt, they will be well established.

Barley—Four hundred bushels sold at 56c to 58c. Potatoes—Prices ranged from 75c to 81c per bushel. Apples—Per bushel, 25c to 50c, and 50c to 75c per barrel.

STOCKS DECLINED ON LIGHT SALES

But Fluctuations at New York Were of Minor Character.

MEXICO IS WATCHED. Traders Fighting Shy of the Market Pending New Developments.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—The small fluctuations in stocks which occurred today gave no indication of the trend of speculative sentiment. The most obvious characteristic of the market was the absence of absorptive power. Trading was unusually light, but the small offerings made were sufficient to depress prices generally. The sharp uptick yesterday apparently had nothing behind it except bear covering, and there was a noticeable scarcity of buying orders when trading began.

There was a general disposition to await developments of the next few days, as was shown by the lack of initiative on either side of the market. However, the market was particularly influenced by the fact that conditions over the border were less troubled. Estimates of the showing to be made by the U. S. Steel Corporation in its forthcoming quarterly statement were optimistic, and the expected influence of this report tended to ward off further attacks from the bears at this time.

Railway Earnings Fear. Dangers to the corn crop in the southwest was reflected in Atchafalaya's September statement, which showed a decrease in net earnings of $24,000. Northwesters' net fell off $100,000, while Northern Pacific made a gain of $22,000 in net earnings.

DOMINION BON RALLIES FURTHER

Stock Was Again Feature of Montreal Trading—C.P.R. Was Slightly Lower.

MONTRÉAL, Oct. 25.—Further recovery in iron, which opened a small fraction higher at 1-2 and 1-4, advanced steadily to 4 1/2, touching the highest price in the final dealings, was the feature of trading today on the Montreal stock exchange. The active demand of Friday extended into more aggressive buying and uptick in the market, with the stock market on the rise of 1-4 against 3/8 shares the previous day.

MEXICAN ISSUES QUIET IN LONDON. LONDON, Oct. 25.—The stock market was dull today. Mexican Railway shares advanced two points, but the other Mexican issues were quiet, dealers having adopted a waiting attitude.
