Technical and Bibliographic Notes/Notes techniques et bibliographiques

The Institute has attempted to obtain the best original copy available for filming. Features of this copy which may be bibliographically unique, which may alter any of the images in the reproduction, or which may significantly change the usual method of filming, are checked below.

L'Institut a microfilmé le meilleur exemplaire qu'il lui a été possible de se procurer. Les détails de cet exemplaire qui sont peut-être uniques du point de vue bibliographique, qui peuvent modifier une image reproduite, ou qui peuvent exiger une modification dans la méthode normale de filmage sont indiqués ci-dessous.

The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

Harold Campbell Vaughan Memorial Library
Acadia University

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol  $\rightarrow$  (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol  $\nabla$  (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Harold Campbell Vaughan Memorial Library
Acadia University

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole  $\rightarrow$  signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole  $\nabla$  signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

BYE-LAWS

OF THE

NOVA SCOTIA BARRISTERS' SOCIETY.

1. All members of the Bar Society who have paid their subscriptions up to the Michaelmas Term, 1859, are and shall be members of the Nova Scotia Barristers' Society.

2. All members of the Bar of Nova Scotia not in arrears to the Bar Society may become members of this Society.

Any Barrister desiring to become a member, shall cause to be posted up in the Law Library and Prothonotary's Office, at Halifax, for at least one month immediately preceding the general meeting at which he is to be proposed, a notice of his intention to apply for admission at such meeting.

No person shall be admitted against whom it shall appear that more than one-third of the members present at the meeting shall have voted. But if the candidate shall have been excluded by less than four votes, he may appeal to another general meeting.

3. The Chief Justice for the time being, shall be Patron of the Society.

4. The Officers of the Society shall be a President, Vice-President, Treasurer, Librarian and Secretary, to be elected annually at the general meeting.

5. There shall be a Council, to be composed of the President, Vice-President and five Barristers, to be elected annually at the general meeting.

The Judges of the Supreme Court and Court of Admiralty being members of this Society, shall be honorary members of the Council. Four members shall be a quorum.

6. All members and office-bearers of this Society shall be elected and admitted by ballot.

7. The Council may at any time call a special meeting. If a member of the Society apply to the Council in writing to call a special meeting, and the Council refuse, then any six members may call it. The notices for such meeting stating the matters to be submitted thereto and to be signed by such members.

8. After the first day of October next, no Bye-Law of this Society affecting the rights or privileges of members or the amount of their subscription, shall be passed or altered except at a meeting consisting of more than ten members, two-thirds whereof shall concur in such new law or alteration,—nor unless notice of proposed new law or alteration shall have been given at the meeting immediately previous thereto.

9. The Council shall have the general management of the affairs of this Society, and shall settle all questions between members relative to their practice, and regulate all other matters which can come under the cognizance of this Society; but an appeal shall in all cases be allowed from the Council to the next general or special meeting, a notice of such appeal to be given to the Secretary within four days after notice of the decision.

10. A member complaining of any infringement of the rules or By-laws of the Society, or of any conduct of another member, shall inform the Council, in writing, of the nature of his complaint, and the Council shall thereupon, after having given at least ten days previous notice to the person complained of, proceed to the investigation of such complaint, and make such decision therein as they may deem right.

11. The annual meeting of this Society shall take place in the month of February in each year, unless otherwise ordered by the Council.

12. It shall be the duty of the President—and, in his absence, of the Vice-President—to inquire into the regularity of every admission to the office of Barrister or Attorney, and to guard against and oppose, in the name of the Society, every irregular or improper admission, and to advance such objections in every case as may be thought expedient or necessary for the honor or credit of the profession, and to act as the advocate of the Society on all occasions before the Court.

13. There shall be annually devoted to the Law Library, for the purchase of books, as much money as can be spared from the funds of the Society.

14. The Council shall have the general management of the Law Library.

15. The Librarian shall have, under the direction of the Council, the superintendence and care of the books and of the room.

16. The Council shall have power to admit Attornies to the use of the Law Library on the payment of such fee as they shall approve.

17. No books shall be removed from the Law Library except to a room where a Court is sitting, or a Judge holding Chambers, in the same building, under a penalty of £1 for the first offence, and a fine of 5s. for every day of its detention; and in the event of any member being twice guilty of an infringement of this rule, he shall, ipse facto, cease to be a member of this Society, and in case the book is not returned within ten days, he shall be liable to pay to the Society, in addition to the fines, the value of the whole set, estimated according to the cost of importation. When the set is replaced, he shall be entitled to the odd volumes.

18. None but members of this Society shall have the use of the Law Library, or students of members who may have received from the Barrister with whom they are studying a written permission to be filed with the Secretary, and every such permission shall only be in force from the time of such filing thereof until three months thereafter.

19. The fee for each student, when any is received by a member of the Society, shall not be less than £100, to be paid on entrance to his office; but members shall be at liberty to take students without fee.

20. No articled clerk shall receive any salary or remuneration for his services from the Barrister with whom he studies.

21. There shall be paid by all members resident or practising in Halifax the sum of £2 annually, in even half-yearly payments on the 1st day of July and the 1st day of January of every year.

22. Members not resident or practising in Halifax shall pay annually the sum of £1.

LAW LIBRARY,
March 10th, 1860.

At a general meeting of the Incorporated Nova Scotia Barristers' Society, holden at the Law Library on the 15th day of February, A. D. 1860, of which meeting due notice was given as prescribed by law, the accompanying rules were adopted.

GENERAL RULE.

IN THE SUPREME COURT, MAY, 1860.

IT IS ORDERED, that no person shall hereafter be received as an Articled Clerk by any Barrister of this Court, until he shall have undergone an Examination at Halifax, before one of the Judges and two of the Office-Bearers of the Barristers' Society, as to his educational qualifications, such qualifications to comprehend a knowledge of Geography and of the leading events of English History, of the three first books of Cæsar's Commentaries, or the two first books of the Æneid, or an adequate portion of any other Latin Classic Author, to be approved of by the Examiners, and of the two first books of Euclid; the Examination to be conducted orally or by written questions to be answered in writing on the spot, or in both forms at the option of the Examiners; and the applicant shall also produce a certificate of his moral character from such person as the Examiners may approve, which certificate along with a certificate of the applicant's having passed a satisfactory Examination in the above branches, shall be filed with his Articles in the Office of the Prothonotary, at Halifax, pursuant to the Act of last Session.

IT IS ORDERED, that notice of the intention to apply for being received, shall be posted up by the applicant for at least one month previously, in the Prothonotary's Office, at Halifax.

By the Court,

(Signed)

J. W. NUTTING,

Prothonotary.
