

That Changeable Phantom Called Style is Again With Us for Fall Who Can Define Style?

THIS year in suits it's tight-fitting models that are mostly in evidence, some with belts and waistline, others not so tight, and for men of conservative taste the semi-close 3-button model is quite correct. In overcoats there is also a wide range of styles and models, some men want the big storm ulster, others the slip-on, and again others will wear no other than the time-honored Chesterfield that has always been with us, and, so far as we can see, will be till the end of time.

Then there are the 3-button through model and the form-fitting but all stylish coats. So we say again, "Who can define style?" It's just a matter of fancy after all, with special features added from season to season to catch the fancy and incidentally the dollars--and speaking of dollars reminds us that we have divided our price range on suits from $23.50 to $85.00, and our overcoats from $18.00 to $100.00, and dollar for dollar you cannot beat our values anywhere.

Men's Furnishings

Cushion Saturated With Coal Oil Found by Firemen at a Fire.

Provincial Fire Marshal E. P. Heaton opened an investigation at the city hall yesterday into the supposed incendiary fire at the home of Mrs. Fanny Fincks, at 46 Murray street, on September 8 last. The house was insured by Muntz & Beay, the Toronto agents for the Union Insurance Society of Canton, on July 9 last for three years, at a risk of $7,000 on the contents.

At the time of the fire several firemen who were fighting the flames, which were in the front part of the house, smelt coal oil and investigating found a cushion saturated with this fluid in one of the rooms, according to the evidence given yesterday. District Chief Corbett, who was in charge of the brigade at the fire, said he smelt the fumes and when he searched the house after the fire he could find hardly any trace of occupancy, such as clothes in the clothes presses or provisions, articles of use of any kind. The chief was corroborated by Capt. A. Dean and Lieut. H. Smith, the latter of whom testified to finding the cushion.

Adjuster David Carlyle, who attempted to adjust the loss, said he placed the total loss at $782.50, while Mrs. Fincks requested $1,845. He placed the value of the contents of the house at between $1,700 and $2,000 without including a player piano in the house valued at $800. No examination had been made of the contents of the house when the risk was taken on according to Robert Wright, who had acted as agent for Muntz & Beay.

SQUIRREL SKINS MISSING.

Charged with theft of 200 squirrel skins, Louis Brooks, colored, 140 Peter street, was arrested last night by Detective McMahon, Herbert Deas, 710 Gladstone avenue, was also taken into custody charged with receiving. Brooks was employed as a driver for Nathan Schipper, fur dealer, 104 John street. It is alleged that Brooks stole 200 packages containing the skins and disposed of 100 of them to Deas for $50.

GRAND JURY'S TRUE BILLS

The following true bills were returned by the grand jury yesterday: James B. Connell, false pretence; William H. Baker, attempting to kidnap; W. Wein-gart, theft and receiving; Sarah Hoffman, assault; Robert Matthews, theft and receiving; John S. McDonald, theft and receiving; William Underwood, criminal negligence. No bills were returned against Austin Forham, criminal negligence; Albert J. Shannon, bigamy.

CAPTAIN LEE LAID TO REST

Captain Clarence Lee, late of the 8th infantry brigade, was buried yesterday with full military honors from his parents' home, 22 McMaster avenue. The firing party was provided by the R. C. D.

LABOR NEWS

AMERICAN MINERS DEMAND INCREASE

Both Sides Adjourn to Hold Caucus After Heated Discussion.

Buffalo, Sept. 29.—The reply of the operators of the central competitive field to the demands of their miners for increased wages and a shorter working day was submitted at today's conference of operators and miners. Although the text of the document was not made public, it is said to have contained no counter proposals, dwelling chiefly on the operators' contention that the war-time agreement is still in force and effect, and that the miners' delegates lack definite authority from the United Mine Workers to conclude a new agreement. To this Acting President John L. Lewis replied in conference without asking for an adjournment to consider the operators' reply. The reasons advanced by the operators, he said, were not sufficient to sweep the miners' demands from the table. The discussion was heated, but the communication from the operators did not close the door to further negotiations, and when both sides adjourned to hold a caucus it was understood that a further communication would be submitted by the operators at tomorrow's meeting.

BANK CLERKS STRIKE

Sixty Walk Out in New York and Will Ask Others to Discuss Sympathetic Strike.

New York, Sept. 29.—Sixty employees of the Bank of the United States, members of the Bank Employees' Union, walked out today when officials of the institution refused to recognize their union and reinstate a discharged union employe. The strikers declare that the union has enrolled more than 2,000 members since its organization last month and will call a meeting at which bank employees throughout the city will be invited to discuss a sympathetic strike.

DEAD FOR ALL TIME

O. B. U. Has Lost All Friends and Has No Influence Anywhere.

William Varley stated yesterday afternoon in The World that the O. B. U. was dead and very dead, dead for all time in Canada. He had returned from a visit to the various centres in the great northwest, and his observations led to no other conclusion. The only place in which the movement had prospered was Winnipeg east of Vancouver, and in the prairie city it had served only to kill the organizations affiliated with it. Its influence in the sympathetic strike having proved beyond a doubt with the result that the bodies had become practically moribund. While it was true that O. B. U. did flourish in Vancouver, this was true only in degree, and so far as Saskatchewan was concerned that province would have none of it.

Corporal Varley is one of the general organizers of the American Federation of Labor who have been selected specially to investigate the influence of the O. B. U. movement in the west.

BRITISH UNREST GRAVE

Local Labor Men Believe Situation May Prove Menace Everywhere.

Many labor men express agreement with the opinion of Premier Lloyd George that the strike of the railwaymen in Britain has attached to it something political as well as economic. One well-known representative of the international movement stated yesterday afternoon that there was no doubt of the fact that the idea back of this most recent strike was the nationalization of all industries. "You say that J. H. Thomas, spokesman for the strikers, is the great dictator of the movement," he said. "You in America the real leader is the labor leader; in Britain the real leader is the rank and file of the movement, and its representatives do not in any sense be considered as dictators of policy. J. H. Thomas does as he is told, and as he is told by hundreds of thousands of men and women who go to make up the unions all over the country. He may go just so far and no further and I should gather that is 'one step at a time, but no lagging behind.'"

Another labor leader ventured the opinion that the strike was by far the most distressing event in the industrial field which had rent the country in many years. He believed that the British had yet much to learn, and that co-operation was the only royal road to real progress.

The general opinion as expressed at the Labor Temple was that the situation was exceptionally grave, and that it held possibilities of menace not only for Britain, but also for America which was after all a reflex in view of the movements which are to be discussed at this meeting. The steel strike was taken to be merely an economic fight in which recognition of the American Federation of Labor was the chief bone of contention.

CONTRACT CONTINUES.

Philadelphia, Sept. 29.—The existing contract between the anthracite mine workers and operators, including the supplemental agreement providing for the payment of bonuses entered into last November, will continue in effect until March 31, 1920. It was so decided at a conference here today between the presidents of the three anthracite districts of the United Mine Workers of America and the committee of anthracite operators.

TOM MELLILIEU TO HAMILTON.

Tom Mellilieu, well-known in Toronto labor circles, has been invited to address a mass meeting of machinists in Hamilton, the avowed object of which is organization. It is understood that the O. B. U. is still a bone of contention in the mountain town. The meeting will be held on Thursday evening at Moulders' Hall, King street east, and Walnut.

"HOLD BACK, BOYS," SAYS THE MAYOR

Bread Drivers to Remain at Posts—Blame Lord's Day Alliance.

"Hold your horses, boys, hold yourselves in, tomorrow I shall continue conferences with the master bakers of Toronto, and we are still hopeful that much good may result from them." Such was the injunction given by Mayor Church at last night's largely attended session of the bread drivers of Toronto held at Occident Hall. The drivers, by a vote of 183 out of a total of 198 ballots polled, voted to remain at their posts, following addresses from Mayor Church and the president of the Bread Drivers' Union of Ottawa. Many members of both the Bread Drivers' Union and the Bakers' Union blamed the Lord's Day Alliance for the present state of affairs, and despite the action taken at last night's meeting the opinion was unanimous that day shifts for the baker-employees formed the only sane basis of labor. While the bakers did not openly accuse the Lord's Day Alliance of causing the trouble at the moment, they were not slow to point out that had it not been for the legislation which prohibited work on Sundays many of the firms would have found little difficulty in acceding to the demands of the unions. In New Light.

J. H. Dempster, proprietor of The Staff of Life Bakery, 1131 West Dundas street, last night in an interview with The Toronto World placed the bread dispute in a new light. He stated that a Master's agreement was entered into to hold conferences between the unions and master bakers to determine the best means of finally carrying out a system of daylight baking in lieu of the system now largely adopted of night work, so that by next May a full agreement might be possible whereby night work in all Toronto bakeries might be abolished. "Let me say that in the first place the government will not allow any baking on Sundays, and that until this permission is granted it will be impossible for us to entirely abolish night work in our bakeries except at a loss," said Dempster. "We are working half night, half day shifts as the only means of meeting the present situation. The unions up to now, despite agreements to that effect, have sought no conferences upon this matter. On the contrary, they suddenly and without warning served notice upon us that within a week (Sunday) their men would come to work on Sunday at 2 o'clock instead of 10 o'clock, as usual. And this in face of the acknowledged fact that if they were caught working at the bakeries on Sundays they or the bakeries would run into the law. It is the returned men who have stood by the mothers and children and remained at their posts so that they might get bread to eat."

Mr. Dempster Wrong. Tom Watt, general organizer for the Canadian Federation of Labor, in reply, stated that Mr. Dempster was wrong in his belief that no conferences had been held between the unions and the master bakers. "It was a fact," he said, "that conferences were held, considered for weeks past, and that not three weeks ago the master bakers in conference with the representatives of the unions at the Kingsward Hotel, absolutely refused to touch the question of day shifts. It is not that in itself evidence of exactly what I have pointed out the past few days? Neither Mr. Dempster nor any other master baker can say that they have not received inkling of our action. Mr. Watt further stated that the baker employees themselves were lined up in solid strength.

Only Five Foreigners.

George Lawrence, master baker, stated that the statement attributed to Mr. Watt in yesterday morning's issue of The World, that his firm employed thirty-five foreigners, was totally incorrect. "As a matter of fact," said Mr. Lawrence, "we are using only five foreigners, and none of these is baking bread. I may say that bread drivers, some bakers and seven Lawrence's (members of the family) worked like Trojans last night and succeeded in getting much bread out for sale. I will say further, that several of the smaller bakeries intend, so I have heard, to return to the nightwork shifts. It was only last week that the Ideal Bread Company was working night shifts. Indeed, they commenced to work only today." Head officials of Webb's Bakery stated that they had worked day shifts for many months, and would continue to do so right along. They had encountered no difficulty in selling the bread so baked. Officials of the Ideal Bread Company stated that they were also working on the day-shift plan.

STRUCK BY TRUCK

William A. Parsons was injured about the head last night when he was struck by a motor truck on Front street near York. Parsons was taken to the General Hospital. He was unconscious at midnight and his address is unknown to the police or hospital authorities. Parsons was crossing the street when the truck hit him. Bertram Hardill, 108A Cumberland street, was driving the truck.

BEN TILLET HERE SOON.

Steps will be taken to have Ben Tillet, the well-known British labor leader, who was so strong an advocate of the win-the-war policy in England, address a meeting of the Labor party in Toronto, at an early date. It was to have spoken in Toronto early this week, but engagements in New York prevented this being carried out.

Several hundred members of the United Veterans' League turned out at the Union Station last night to give their president, J. Harry Flynn, who is going to Ottawa on behalf of his organization, a send-off. Immediately Mr. Flynn stepped into the station he was seized by his supporters and carried to his train, preceded by a band of music. The crowd had mounted yelling "Speech," Mr. Flynn stopped a trunk and spoke.

He told of his formation of a branch here in Hamilton and another one, which will be formed in Ottawa tonight at a mass meeting, where Col. John Currie, M.P., will preside. Mr. Flynn said he would appear before the parliamentary commission and he hoped to bring them something of their own making—legs and glass eyes for their services.

G.W.V.A. MAKING PROGRESS.

Dominion Secretary C. G. MacNeil of the G.W.V.A. states that the Dominion Command is thoroughly satisfied with the progress being made in the pressing of their agenda. The parliamentary committee on re-establishment. He said that the enemies of the G.W.V.A. in Toronto have spread the rumor that the G.W.V.A. were betraying the men by paying attention to other phases of the re-establishment problem rather than the cash bonus, which is not the case.

VETERANS' GRATUITY LEAGUE.

On Thursday night in Queen's Park a mass meeting of returned men will be held by the United Veterans' League to make known the results of the proceedings before the parliamentary committee appointed to inquire into the gratuity question. On Friday night a meeting of members only will be held in Massey Hall, when it is expected the charter will be drawn up and the organization completed.

CLOSE PRINTING OFFICES

New York Proprietors' Order Will Throw Ten Thousand Men Out of Work.

New York, Sept. 29.—Proprietors of 250 union book and job offices, doing two-thirds of this class of printing done in New York city, agreed tonight to post notices tomorrow announcing suspension of work until such time as they may be able to meet their present obligations to the International Typographical Union. This closing order, it is said, decided upon because of the decision of certain labor unions not to arbitrate demands for a 44-hour week and a $14 a week wage increase, will affect 5,000 pressmen and automatically throw out of work 10,000 printers, stencillers, electrotypers, photo-engravers and binders.

Handley-Page Will Fly St. John's to Atlantic City

Halifax, N.S., Sept. 29.—The Handley-Page Atlantic City, which started from St. John's, Nfld., to fly to New York, but which came down at Parrsboro at night and was damaged, will fly to Atlantic City on Friday for a flight to Atlantic City. The giant airplane will fly across the Bay of Fundy, over St. John's, N.B., and then in a direct line to Boston. Two hours will be spent there and then the flight will continue over the city of New York to Atlantic City. The airplane is driven by four engines.

Smoke Pall Over Vancouver From B. C. Forest Fires

Vancouver, B. C., Sept. 29.—A heavy smoke pall from a series of forest fires hangs over Vancouver and the vicinity today. At a score of points along the coast and in the Fraser Valley serious fires have developed in the past two or three days, accentuated by a dry season and by a prevailing breeze. The fires are still raging, the whole country is out fighting them, and the fires are down in many places and we are doing all we can," was the summary of Provincial Fire Warden Vandusen.

British Cargo Boat Refloated After Damage by Burning

St. Thomas, Virgin Islands, Sept. 29.—The British steamer Tennyson, which was beached at Barbados because the hold in which the cargo was burning had flooded, was refloated today. Her cargo, consisting mainly of coffee, is considered safe.

STEEL MILLS WILL NOT SURRENDER

mirred efforts to push forward, one with the hope of resuming full operation, the other of crippling plants. The chief struggle, however, was waged for control in the mills of the Bethlehem Steel Company, whose 40,000 employees had been organized by union leaders to join the ranks of the strikers. The reports rival headquarters dealing with the Bethlehem objection.

The employees reported to work this morning in such numbers as to provide for operation of all plants.—The president of the Bethlehem Steel Company, Charles M. Schwab's big plant at Bethlehem completely crippled.—William Z. Foster, secretary of the strikers' national commission.

Elsewhere results of the day's economic battle were equally obscured by conflicting claims. The independent plant of Jones and Laughlin Company in Pittsburgh is "50 per cent out of action," according to Foster, but according to company officials it is little affected. The Carnegie Steel Company and other concerns in the crucial Pittsburgh salient claimed men were working unimpeded, while unionists heralded failure of the United States Steel Corporation to "stampede" their forces.

From Chicago came reports that the struggle for control of the steel industry was being equally stubbornly contested, without apparent material gains, for either side. The Steel Company suspended operations at its plant in Clarkburg, W.Va., posting notices that the mills would be closed indefinitely for protection of dependents. This plan the government would be taking the risk; the man would pay the cost of an A.T. strike.

There has been less this summer than in any year since the war period and so fewer people were provided with unemployment insurance in the put of wages which they have put aside while they were at work. Mr. Stewart felt there was bound to be considerable unemployment on the Pacific coast this winter.

TO CLEAR AWAY POLITICAL MISTS

Meetings This Week to Show Who Will Be Party Candidates.

Hamilton, Sept. 29.—With three weeks to go before balloting day, Hamilton is politically speaking in a limbo, waiting for a momentous period. The situation is unique, owing to the fact that neither the Conservatives, Liberals nor Laborites have announced who their candidates will be for the west and east ridings. As a result of this confusion, the political arena of the most dyed-in-the-wool politicians are unable to clear away the haze as to who the standard-bearers will be, and what end of the city they will contest.

This week, however, everything will likely come out in the wash. The Liberal-Conservative have called a convention for Wednesday night, when candidates will be nominated to contest both East and West Hamilton, while on Thursday night the Laborites will hold a mass convention and the auspices of the I.L.P., with a view to picking out candidates for both ridings.

On Tuesday night the Soldiers' and Sailors' Political Association will start something, while to round off the week the County L.L.P. and the United Farmers will stage a get-together on Saturday afternoon. The purpose of agreeing on a joint candidate to represent both working man and tiller of the soil in South Westworth, and opposing J. H. Rolfe, M.L.A., present Conservative member.

Politicians at the present time are wondering just what the labor men are going to do, and it is even rumored that a great many of the workers are also at sea as to who they will be called upon to back up with their vote on the 20th. The political arena is taken for granted that Walter Rolfe, editor of the Labor News, would be the man chosen for West Hamilton, but The Workers' Party has a different opinion as to whether Rolfe should be the candidate and as to whether Rolfe should be the name of Alderman T. J. O'Heil had been put forward. Some of the workers, The World was told, contended that the Rolfe had been defeated for the provincial house. It would be the height of folly to put him up again, and that new blood should be brought into the field.

The labor situation in West Hamilton is just as misty. There are a few prominent labor leaders who would like the nomination, but are not likely to get it. It is not thought that Controller S. G. C. Halow would accept the nomination, but he has been asked to represent his party in the federal house, so the question of candidates narrows down to one or two men who, while they would accept the nomination, might not meet with the favor of all the voters. It is no secret that the labor situation in East Hamilton has received a severe jolt owing to the resignation of Lieut. Sam Landers as an independent candidate. Lieut. Landers has a splendid war record, is a noted authority on labor, organized the Hamilton Labor party, and will poll labor votes, whether he is endorsed by the laborites or the sons of rest. He is a formidable opponent and he has set his heart on winning the seat.

The Liberal-Conservative also have their own troubles while the followers of Hartley Dewar, K.C., are as silent as the grave. The resignation of John Allen, M.L.A., has put a large-sized job on the shoulders of the Liberal-Conservative, and both sides willingly concede that it will be a hard task to fill the breach left vacant by Mr. Allen in the House of Commons.

PARIS THEATRES FOR LIBERTY OF UNIONS

Paris, Sept. 29.—The minister of fine arts today announced to the directors of the Odéon Theatre and the Opéra Comique that he could not permit in the subsidized theatres any agreement affecting the liberty of the unions or the freedom of labor. The directors of the theatres thereupon announced to the Federation of Theatre Workers that in future they would employ only members of the union, and all other agreements with the theatre workers, including those concerning salaries, would be "maintained," it was said.

Tonight, with the exception of three theatres where the actors refused to play, all the theatres reopened. A majority of the music halls, concert halls and motion picture houses likewise resumed.

Winter Labor Outlook. Mr. Stewart said it was hard to estimate the winter employment outlook. He feared the unemployment this winter would be more serious than at any time since the war began. The labor department is now working on a plan to find out what work is being done in the winter. There is little worry about skilled labor, but the unskilled workers must be provided for. Some 50,000 people in Canada are now unemployed, and most of these are in the cities.

Predicts More Unemployment. Questioned by Mr. MacNeil, the witness said the object of the federal employment plan was to bring men and jobs together. The success of the plan depended on co-operation but Mr. Stewart was certain there would be more unemployment this winter than was usual.

There has been less this summer than in any year since the war period and so fewer people were provided with unemployment insurance in the put of wages which they have put aside while they were at work. Mr. Stewart felt there was bound to be considerable unemployment on the Pacific coast this winter.

In Alberta the situation has improved. Saskatchewan will be able to hold her own. Manitoba has a good crop. The Winnipeg always has a certain amount of unemployment. There is a move by unskilled labor every year to get into the winter. The paralyzing of Winnipeg industries will have some effect, said Mr. Stewart.

Building Trades Good. Throughout Canada the building trades are very well employed and there is a great cry for more men. That class of work has been practically held up four years and the price of building material become more normal there will be a greater demand for skilled workmen.

Good in Ontario. In Ontario, some industries will be more or less inactive during the winter. The outlook in Ontario was almost normal, Quebec, outside of the city of Montreal, has good employment prospects. In the west, the outlook is more promising. The soldiers' aid commission and other agencies which depend on the government, had a tendency to cloud the situation.

Central Buying Agency. Mr. MacNeil quoted a statement that the central buying agency, which is in the government employment offices and asked if it could be expected that professional and business men would be in the government employment offices. The witness replied that each man had been given a separate hearing as to his capabilities and it was expected that the best of the trained applicants would be selected.

Major Anthes, director of information services, said that the R. C. M. P. of the work of his department in placing returned men in employment.

Major Anthes estimated there are 8000 returned men in British Columbia who did not live there before the war. This in itself presented a problem. Efforts having last summer had resulted in returned soldiers being given priority, and also better wages in the lumber mills.

Witness said 26,918 returned soldiers were estimated out of employment on Sept. 23, and two-thirds of these men were in the cities. Major Anthes quoted a statement showing the balance of returned men in employment by provinces.

Alberta has 460 returned men; New Brunswick, 1500; Nova Scotia, 1025; Ontario, 12,750; British Columbia, 8000; Quebec, 3244; Manitoba, 4151, and Saskatchewan, 568.

The Most Striking Feature. The most striking feature of the whole repatriation work, said Major Anthes, was the extent to which the returned soldiers had re-established themselves in their own homes. Witness said 260,918 men had returned to Canada since the armistice, 31,775 had applied to the bureau for vocational training, and 22,000 returned men are taking vocational training and 6,900 discharged men are still in the hospitals. The Canadian government has looked after their own interests.

The vocational branch has its own placement system, said Major Anthes, but efforts are now being made to re-employ the returned men in the work of these two branches.

SIR SAM HUGHES MAKES CRITICISMS

He thought the government would not oppose discussion of it. The resolution carried and a bill based on it was given first reading.

Requests Casualty Report. In the house of commons this afternoon, Mr. Doherty informed Mr. Mc-Gibbon of Argenteuil, that deposits last year in the postoffice savings bank amounted to $12,598,190.

Consideration was then given to the motion of Sir Sam Hughes for a return showing the Canadian casualties by battalions and other subordinate units in each of the battles—St. Julien, Festubert, Ginchey, Zillebeke, Vimy Ridge, Passchendaele, Cambrai, Arras, Drochour-Queant, Cambrai Mons—also the plans and conduct of each action, including incidents and events leading up to and bearing on them.

Speaking in support of his resolution, Sir Sam returned in opening to the state of the Canadian war effort during the war. He could, he said, have gone in for personal glory and criticized the outrageous loans and aid financing of the government, but he felt that such criticism was subversive to the war effort. He had, however, the war was over, and he owed allegiance to no one but his constituents. The Unionist party was, he said, the same as the Conservative party of Sir John Macdonald.

There were, said Sir Sam, various forms of calamity which were visited upon the Canadian people during the war. His own aim had always been to give even-handed justice to all.

Visit of Viscount Finlay. At this point Hon. C. J. Doherty entered the chamber with Viscount Finlay, former chancellor of Great Britain, who had just returned from his visit to the Canadian commons. He had, he said, been interested in the boundaries and the central workshop of the Dominion in full operation. He expressed his admiration for the members that he would never forget his visit to this country.

The brief address of Viscount Finlay was received with enthusiasm by the members, who arose to their feet, sang three cheers.

Sir George Foster expressed the pleasure of the house at the visit of Lord Finlay. In these words he was joined by Mr. Doherty and by Mr. McKenzie, acting leader of the opposition.

Sir Sam Hughes then resumed his speech. He spoke of the propaganda which he said had been directed against him when he was minister of militia.

Figure Was Blurred. Sir Sam spoke of alleged attempts to oust Sir Robert Borden as premier. He was speaking of a meeting between Gundy, a member of the House of Commons, and a subsequent call on Sir Wilfrid Laurier when the speaker intervened with a request that Sir Sam should keep more closely to his motion.

A propaganda to overshadow him had been carried on, Sir Sam stated. In this connection he said that his term as minister of militia a man from Buffalo who manufactured motion pictures for the Canadian government had asked him why his (Sir Sam's) figure was blurred in all the news in which he appeared. He wanted to know whether Sir Sam was friendly with the finance minister, because the man having charge of manufacturing these films was related to Sir Thomas White.

At this point the speaker called Sir Sam to order and requested that he adhere more closely to the terms of the resolution before the house.

Gen. Turner and Gen. Currie. Testifying to the ability and efficiency of Major-Gen. Turner, V.C., Sir Sam stated that his officer had practically taken complete command at Ypres, when the Canadian corps fought thru the German gas attack.

London, Sept. 29.—Sir Edward Cooper has been elected lord mayor of London.

Hamilton, Sept. 29.—Attired in picturesque costumes, nearly one thousand members of the Ancient Order of Mystical Templars, paraded tonight.

SWEDE TO BLAME FOR DANE'S DEATH

Is Verdict of Coroner's Jury in Hansen-Hansen Case.

That William Hansen came to his death from hemorrhage due to knife wound inflicted by Fred Hansen at No. 6 St. Andrew's street, on Tuesday, September 23, is the substance of the verdict returned last night by the jury at the inquest on the body of William Hansen, whom the evidence showed to have been stabbed with a pocket knife in the hands of Fred Hansen on Tuesday night at the house of a Mrs. Smith at the above address.

Charles Hansen, a Dane and a returned soldier, who was present at the time of the affair, told of the three men meeting accidentally in Queen Street on Tuesday afternoon, and later going to the room in Peter street of Fred Hansen, where they drank bottles of whiskey. William Hansen then took them to the home of Mrs. Smith, saying he wanted to see if any of his friends were there. On their arrival there William got two bottles of whiskey from Mrs. Smith's husband, a colored man, Charles Hansen, who did not see the stabbing. He had no quarrel or argument; in fact, he claimed his mind is a complete blank from shortly after the time of his arrival to his recovery from the effects of the whiskey, when he saw the death of his friend on the floor. He was in the room all the time, but was too doped to know what was going on. When he started to leave the house he was apprehended by P.C. Holmes, who had arrived on the scene. He was taken to the hospital, but died there. The coroner's jury found that the men were not relatives. He and Fred Hansen are Danes and Fred Hansen is a Swede.

Engaged a Room. Mrs. Julia Smith said that the three men came to her house for a room. The room was a small room, and told her that they were going out. She would be back. One of the men asked for something to eat. She went into the kitchen to prepare some sandwiches, and while there heard the accused and the deceased in the dining room arguing in a foreign tongue. She told them they were not to be in her house and offered to return the money that had been paid for the room. Fred Hansen accused the deceased of stealing his money and his whiskey and in Mrs. Smith's presence drew a pocket knife, opened the blade and struck at the man with it. She then ran to the door, followed by the accused. She phoned for the police, and got the assistance of passers-by to help her. She was making off up the street when she was arrested by the police.

Dr. H. Gilmour, who had been called to Grace Hospital where the deceased had been taken in the police ambulance, said that death was due to hemorrhage, caused by the artery being penetrated by a sharp instrument. The deceased was a Dane, but very low when he operated on him to the artery.

Mr. Horlick, Hansen's counsel, did not call him, owing to his condition as a result of the affair.

Canadian National Railways Increased Service. Transcontinental Train Every Day in the Week—Toronto-Winnipeg-Vancouver-Victoria—in Effect October 5.

A transcontinental service between Toronto-Winnipeg-Vancouver-Victoria daily is the principal feature announced in the Canadian National Railways fall and winter time-table. This train will leave 9:15 a.m. daily and will be equipped with up-to-date sleeping, dining, first-class day coach, tourist and colonist cars. Between Toronto and Winnipeg there will be a compartment-observation-library car.

A parlor car will be attached for the convenience of passengers, while traveling through the Rockies so they may enjoy in utmost comfort the magnificent scenery for which the Canadian National route is famous.

Further particulars can be obtained from passenger offices of Canada's National System of Railways.

Gen. Griesbach interrupted to ask what warrant the ex-minister had for stating that the Canadian army had been shot down by enemy machine guns. "I was not far away at the time," he said, "and I did not hear anything of it."

Sir Sam replied that he was prepared to assume full responsibility for his statements.

As the government did not offer any reply to Sir Sam's observations and the motion for papers was not objected to it was adopted.

Resolution Re Soldiers. The house then took into consideration a resolution by Mr. A. E. Frapp, setting forth, among other things, that all persons who have served overseas including British reevistors from Canada, are entitled to be placed in as good circumstances financially as before enlistment. The resolution suggested that the returned soldiers should be appointed to all positions in the outside and inside branches of the civil service if possessed of the necessary qualifications without passing any academic examination and that they should be given an annuity for a limited period sufficient to augment their present earning capacity, reduced by disability arising from service, to equal the amount earned at the time of enlistment.

It had been estimated, said Mr. Frapp, that there would be 50,000 returned men out of work in the larger cities of Canada during the coming winter.

TUESDAY MORNING, SEPT. 30.

Grasping Too Much, Lose All.

It is time the old fable of the monkey and the nuts was revived and applied to all who in any way by demanding excessive wages, excessive rents, excessive prices or excessive profits risk losing everything instead of being satisfied with modest compensation. The years that the locust has eaten during the war are a stern warning to the world that there is less than enough for everybody. It will require at least as many fat years as we have had lean ones to restore the conditions that prevailed before the war of comparative abundance.

A Strike Means Cessation of Production and of Supplies.

The economic nerves of the earth today are raw, and quiver with every rough jar that renews the strain upon them. Every check upon the normal progress of business means a prolongation of the period of scarcity and famine prices, and it is much more now a matter of increasing production, so as to give money more purchasing power, than of raising wages to give people more money, if any relief is to be afforded to the public generally.

Sapper Taylor's Case.

Clinton M. Taylor's case which is contemporary, The Telegram, has been pleading, is one that might well be laid before the Prince of Wales. It is such a case as every now and again crops up as the result of the inexplicable funderheadedness of some Jack in office.

This young Canadian sapper enlisted at the age of 17, but falsified his age, making it 19, and, having joined in August, 1914, went all thru the war winning a Military Medal in September, 1918. For a trivial offence after the armistice was declared he was sentenced to two years in prison, which was afterwards raised to a life sentence. Having escaped, on the advice of his father he submitted himself once more to the authorities of the military prison in France.

Contact with German brutality seems to have had an effect different from what might have been expected on some Canadian and United States officers. It is evident that in Taylor's case official harshness went to the limit. Such severity is not necessary to Canadian discipline and favors of a different order of practice from that established by General Currie.

The Malign Influence of Germany.

Germany was as dangerous in peace as in war. Her treacherous militarism was no more to be feared than her false philosophy. Molke and Ludendorff are no more of a menace to civilization than Marx. The influence of evil and destructive tendencies in society, especially among the unthinking, or the partially instructed, is more to be feared than open warfare. The insidiousness of the plea that evil must be done that good may follow is entirely German in its spirit and character, and it has penetrated into our politics, our industrial system, our labor ranks, and the bad example spreads from the highest ranks to the lowest. Scarcely any escape, and none can evade responsibility who do not repudiate the Machiavellian principle. If it is right for the premier to break away in the race before gunfire, the workman argues, it is equally right to spring a nation-wide strike without warning. We are losing our morals, our ethics, the codes of decency and honor between man and man. If we cannot repress this foul German influence it will undo us, and we will lose all that we thought we had gained.

The railway strike in England virtually creates a state of civil war and siege. The only direct result will be to weaken the resources and the confidence of the nation; still further to enhance the cost of living; to weaken the trust of society in its several members; to introduce a spirit of dissension among the several sections of society, such as has never existed in England, where the true spirit of democracy has always been more vigorous than elsewhere, and to establish a tradition of class enmity which is alien to Britons, but is the very essence of the poison with which Germans, Russians and other "breeds" without the law" have sought to inoculate our democratic civilization.

Unfortunately we are not free of it in Canada. It is to be found wherever an effort towards united action is found to be frustrated by clever and self-seeking demagogues, working for separation, for "direct action," for the failure, inevitable to all, which they would bring about, regardless of consequences. Disaffected remnants and "rump" can always be found to follow dissident leaders in any popular movement.

ment. The Labor movement in Britain has gained great influence and respect thru the same means, common-sense counsels of its leaders. It was evident that many cross-currents existed, and several times important sections of the labor met out of hand. In the present strike, the leaders appear to have been forced beyond their better judgment by what seems to us the perverted views of the rank and file. Lloyd George directly charges anarchistic activity. We know that Germany and those who stand behind Germany in such intrigues are accustomed to use such forces, directed and fostered by their own agents.

The normal course of labor development in Britain has led thru constitutional action to the important and influential position the Labor party has assumed in politics. The ordinary channels of conference and negotiation have always provided the means of agreement. In the present case, as far as we can judge, an impasse was deliberately created and led up to. When labor decides to take the Bolshevist position, even if only in principle, and demands that a majority of three shall submit to a minority of one, there can only be one result.

U. S. REFUSAL TO GIVE UP IMPERATOR

British Ministry of Shipping Unable to Define Line of Action.

London, Sept. 29.—The ministry of shipping declined to say today what action, if any, it would take regarding the United States shipping board's refusal to turn over the former German liner Imperator to the Cunard Line. The ministry today informed the foreign office that it did not wish to state its position or to comment in any way on it at this time. It is understood the foreign office is holding the matter in abeyance until the ministry is in a position to take it up. The railroad strike threw the ministry's system out of gear, and its entire attention is being given over to combating the effects of the strike. It has been learned, however, that the United States shipping board's announcement with regard to the Imperator came as a surprise to the officials of the ministry and that it is likely to upset their plans for putting the Imperator into service.

Owing to the pressure arising from the strike, the newspapers have made no comment on the decision of the shipping board. Heretofore the British have maintained that the United States ships seized by the United States should be returned to the United States on the basis of proportional losses. The recent announcement that Great Britain would get the Imperator and other German vessels was eagerly welcomed.

CANCEL CARGO VESSELS.

New York, Sept. 29.—Officials of the United States shipping board said today that British ports had been canceled.

Ida Speaks About Capital Punishment

BY IDA L. WEBSTER.
Justice in Canada is so far reaching that it forced the death sentence upon a woman who is said to have murdered her baby. And unless the minister of justice is very clear to commute her sentence she will hang by the neck until she dies in the Kingston jail on December 17.

For some time past there appears to have been sort of an understanding that in this country women could not be sentenced to be hanged, nor could the sentence be carried out. Just why the rumor gained such a sure footing, even in circles where the law is supposed to be known, is somewhat of a mystery. However, it was probably because while people have more or less accepted the fact that women were to be protected from hanging.

When Edith Cavell was shot by the Germans because she was said to be an English spy, the whole allied world threw up its hands in holy horror. Yesterday we read in our newspapers that the law of Canada allows a judge to pass a death sentence upon a woman who killed her baby.

That she committed murder is admitted by the jury. Why she really and truly did the deed is known only to her. Certainly a motive for killing her babe is not an every-day occurrence, and yet it is not anything original. It has been done before, and by a woman who had been in one thing or the other in a fit of madness put out the life of their own flesh and blood. For after all, it is not murder merely a demonstration of insanity, or is it not often-times purely an accident?

We believe that when a person kills another person he should be made to pay the penalty, but we do not think that any woman on God's earth should be sentenced to hang by the neck until she dies.

And, speaking of hanging until one dies, we would like to draw your attention to the man hanging in the city streets of Montreal. The victim had agony of hanging all day waiting for the knife to leave his body—and yet this is the twentieth century. Surely the Montreal incident shows that if we are to continue in the darkness of hanging people, the government had better appoint a man to do the work, as the one who is now holding down the job appears to have lost his running.

CAPT. J. MOWBRAY LIBERALS' CHOICE

To Run in East Kent—States He Will Be "Independent" in House.

Special to The Toronto World. Chatham, Ont., Sept. 29.—The Liberals of East Kent in convention at Ridgeway today nominated Capt. James Mowbray of Thamesville as their candidate to contest the riding in the provincial legislature. The house was packed to the doors and many were standing. Five names were submitted to the meeting. Capt. Mowbray, James Sturgis, Angus Gillanders, Archie McLaren, and R. L. Gossell. All of the nominees retired with the exception of Mr. Sturgis and Capt. Mowbray. A standing vote was taken and Mowbray was selected by a very large majority. Mr. Sturgis moved that the nomination be made unanimous. Capt. Mowbray entered the field as an independent Liberal candidate. He stated at the convention that he would support measures introduced by both parties in the legislature, provided they were in the interests of the people. He stated that he would not be restricted in any way that the committee, and the delegates decided to give him the nomination on his own terms.

South Huron Conservatives Nominate F. Ellerington

Exeter, Ont., Sept. 29.—At a largely attended meeting of the Liberal-Conservative party, held in Hensall today, Fred Ellerington, Uxbridge township, farmer, was the choice of the convention, and becomes the candidate for the provincial legislature for South Huron. After the opening of the meeting by the president, Henry Horton, executive members were elected for each municipality. The executive consists of one man and one woman from each municipality.

Winnipeg, Sept. 29.—A provincial convention of the Liberal-Conservative Association of Manitoba, will be held in Winnipeg on November 6 for the purpose of selecting a provincial candidate in view of the provincial elections. It is expected will be held in the near future.

AMERICANS LYNCH TWO MORE NEGROES

Montgomery, Ala., Sept. 29.—Two negroes, Miles Phifer and Robert Crokey, the latter a discharged soldier, were taken from county officials about five miles from Montgomery late today and shot to death by a mob of about 25 masked men. Both negroes were charged with having assaulted white women.

Conservatives Pick Col. Boggs In West Northumberland

Special to The Toronto World. Cobourg, Sept. 29.—There was a fine rally of the Conservatives of West Northumberland at a convention held here to nominate a candidate for the provincial legislature. At present the only other candidate in the field is Lieut. Charles Rutherford, V.C., who is the choice of the U. F. O. There was a good attendance. Lieut. Col. F. D. Boggs presided. The nominees were Lieut. Col. Rutherford and Lieut. Col. F. D. Boggs. A vote was taken. Col. Boggs receiving a majority. The choice was then made unanimous.

Deny That Labor Candidates To Leave Provincial Contest

Ottawa, Sept. 29.—The rumor that a proposition was under consideration to withdraw labor candidates from the field in the provincial elections and throw the U. F. O. party behind Sir William Hearst was flatly contradicted by Pat Green, president of the Trades and Labor Council this morning.

M. Barrick of Wainfleet U.F.O. Choice for Welland

Special to The Toronto World. St. Catharines, Sept. 29.—E. McInnes of Crowland, the U.F.O. candidate for Welland being unable to qualify in time for the election by renaturalization, a second convention was held at Welland today. M. Barrick of Wainfleet was selected without opposition.

LIBERAL CONVENTIONS

Liberal conventions to place candidates in the field for the coming provincial election will be held as follows: East York, St. George's Hall, Toronto, Wednesday, Oct. 1, at 2.30 p.m.; Northwest Toronto, seats A and B, St. Julian Hall, 1284 West Bloor street, Friday, Oct. 3, at 8 p.m.

WILL SUPPORT SIR ADAM.

Independent Sam Ryding will run as an independent in West York. He made this announcement yesterday afternoon. When asked what kind of an independent he was, he replied: "I see that Sir Adam Beck is going to run as an Independent. I am a supporter of Sir Adam. These are days of independence. I have tried to give faithful service to ward seven. I think that with my varied experience in business I can be of some use in the legislature."

To Be Three-Cornered Fight In North Oxford Constituency

Special to The Toronto World. Woodstock, Sept. 29.—There will be a three-cornered fight for the North Oxford seat in the legislature. The action of the executive of the U. F. O. in endorsing the labor candidate, John Scott, eliminated the U. F. O. from having a candidate. However, the Liberals will hold a mass meeting Saturday and choose a candidate, who will likely be John Calder, a lifelong farmer. The Conservatives are awaiting the action of the Liberals, and will name a candidate immediately following the naming of the Liberal candidate.

Commerce Board Finds Nineteen-Cent Drop, Wholesale, in Few Days.

Canadian Press Despatch. Regina, Sask., Sept. 29.—Representatives of five companies acting as agents in southern Saskatchewan for as many sugar refineries, two local candy makers and retail grocers gave evidence this morning at the inquiry into the hearing of sugar, which is being conducted by Col. J. S. Rankin, commissioner under the board of commerce. He was assisted in the investigation by W. F. Dunn, who has been appointed by the attorney-general as the taking of the evidence is developed that several carloads of sugar have arrived in the city during the past two weeks; that the wholesale price has dropped nineteen cents a hundred pounds within the last few days; that none of the witnesses had any knowledge of stocks of sugar being hoarded, and that some retailers at least were contravening the order of the board by making more than one cent a pound profit on sugar.

TO SELECT LEADER.

Winnipeg, Sept. 29.—A provincial convention of the Liberal-Conservative Association of Manitoba, will be held in Winnipeg on November 6 for the purpose of selecting a provincial candidate in view of the provincial elections. It is expected will be held in the near future.

MAY TRY EVADERS

Judge Langlier States That Draft Evaders Liable to Prosecution For Two More Years.

Quebec, Sept. 29.—Judge Chas. Langlier, in the police court today, rendered a very important decision regarding the prosecution of draft evaders. In a case where a youth was charged with evading the draft, his attorney, F. Choquet, claimed that the young man could not be prosecuted because his crime of evading the draft was proscribed after a certain period of time. This Judge Langlier rejected, saying that Ottawa has passed an order-in-council extending to two years the period for prosecution of draft evaders. It will be remembered that Judge Lanctot, in Montreal, dealing with an identical case, decided that proscription really existed in cases like that and he discharged the evader from custody.

Open Assizes at Kitchener; Two Face Charge of Murder

Special to The Toronto World. Kitchener, Sept. 29.—Hon. Justice Thibault presided at the opening of the fall assizes here at the opening of which five criminal cases were presented to the grand jury for consideration. Two murder charges are proffered against Ivan Petroff and Eloy the murder of a young Russian named John in a quarry near Galt, last spring. J. C. Makins, K.C., is crown prosecutor, and M. A. Secord, Galt, is defending Petroff, and Boyeff will be defended by George Bray of this city. Adjourment was made until tomorrow to permit the grand jury to bring in bills in various cases.

Bush Fires Cause Half Million Loss Along B. C. Coast

Vancouver, Sept. 29.—It is roughly estimated that the loss from bush fires which have occurred since Tuesday morning along the British Columbia coast will approximate over $500,000. About $200,000 of this loss is represented in property, the balance being in standing timber and logs ready for shipping from logging camps.

German Delegation Visits War Devastated Regions

Paris, Sept. 29.—The German delegation, which has visited the regions of Arras and Lille, has realized that the task of reconstruction will be very important, and that there will be great technical difficulties to overcome. Six other German experts left Versailles today to visit the regions of Soissons and Rheims.

THE DAY AT OTTAWA

By TOM KING

Ottawa, Sept. 29.—Two and one-half years ago Lieut.-Gen. Sir Sam Hughes gave notice that on a certain day he would have some remarks to make about the Borden government, and the way the war was being conducted. The announcement drew an enormous crowd which filled the rotunda, stairway and halls of the Victoria Museum building long before the doors of the house were opened. That afternoon the floor of the house was crowded and the gallery was packed to suffocation. Many men were turned away and well-dressed women fought with one another for admission to the gallery.

Today Sir Sam made another onslaught upon the government, and touched upon some controversial issues growing out of the war. The speaker was on the floor of the house and politely remained until the greater part of his speech had been delivered. There was a slim attendance on the floor of the house and the gallery was all but deserted.

In 1917 that shrewd observer, the late Hon. Andrew Bonar Law, remarked there was a big crowd out to hear the general, but there would be a smaller crowd next time and if he kept on speaking he would some day find himself addressing an empty chamber. The prediction today was verified almost to the letter. The general spoke at unusual length with even greater frankness than usual, and some of his charges bordered upon the sensational. It was observed, however, that he lacked the fire and punch of former days. One or two returned soldiers, like General Griesbach and Colonel Peck, interrupted now and then to challenge some statement in regard to the military operations at the close of the war; otherwise, the house yawned inattentive. After two hours Sir Sam resumed his seat. There was faint applause from the opposition benches, but no one rose to reply and his motion for the production of papers was passed without comment.

The speech was a curious medley of charges; all of them more or less connected with a vague "conspiracy" in which the Kaiser, The Toronto Globe, Sir Joseph Flavelle and Sir Thomas White were implicated. The conspirators tried to keep Sir Sam's name out of the papers and even out of official histories of the war; most of all, they kept his hero figure out of moving pictures, which the government put on as propaganda. The conspir-

ABSTAINERS TELL EVILS OF LIQUOR

Ward 3 "No" Representatives Meet in Westminster Presbyterian Church.

In the interests of the referendum a meeting of ward three representatives was held in Westminster Presbyterian Church, Bloor street, last night, Rev. James Little in the chair.

The first speaker was Rev. Lloyd Smith, who said that considering what it had to build on the campaign against the Ontario temperance act was very clearly defined. All should do what they could to fight it.

Mr. Smith quoted Dr. Hastings as saying that of all the drug habits alcohol is the worst. The speaker also stated that scientific investigation has shown that alcohol is a poison, even in small quantities.

It has been said by opponents, Mr. Robert Holms pointed out, that prohibition cannot be forced upon large cities. He showed that Detroit, which had voted wet, but went dry when 35 out of 45 states gave in favor of prohibition, was now against prohibition success, and that the board of commissioners had recently declared that "we would as soon think of returning to slavery as to the old conditions. Portland and Seattle have the same success."

"It is a lie," said Mr. Holms, "to say there is more drink than when seven-storied liquor stores were filled." The speaker laid stress on the 500-000 boys in Ontario who do not know the taste of liquor. These are the country's best asset, and must be saved, was his conclusion.

Rev. Peter Bryce spoke at the meeting on the method in which the campaign should be conducted. The organization had covered the city and added 21,480 names to the voters' list. Open-air meetings and meetings at Masey Hall and in wards would be held between this and Oct. 15. To the 1000 at a meeting, it was the hope to impart enthusiasm to the 15,000 or 20,000 more.

Arguments against the need for alcohol for the fun were that in Montreal, where there were 23,000 deaths, while in Toronto there were 2069, and allowing even for greater population of Montreal, Toronto came off best. Regarding the soldiers' vote, he did not believe that they would all vote for a return of old conditions.

In answer to a question, it was explained by a man in the audience that for medical purposes alcohol would be sold by the government, but not under speculation prices, as it was during the flu.

Uncle Wiggily and the Ice Cream

BY HOWARD R. GARIS. Copyright, 1919, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

"Dear me! There must be something the matter," said Uncle Wiggily Longears, the bunny rabbit gentleman, as he came down stairs in his hollow stump bungalow one morning. "Nurse Jane isn't here to get breakfast!"

That was very much like a surprise party, for you see Nurse Jane, the muskrat lady housekeeper, was almost always up early. And when Uncle Wiggily came hippy-hop down stairs on his red, white and blue striped rheumatism crutch, this time there was no Miss Fussy Wuzzy boiling the turnip pancakes, and sprinkling rose leaf sauce over them, or baking some carrot shortcake with sassafras trimming for the bunny's breakfast.

"I wonder why Nurse Jane isn't up yet?" thought Uncle Wiggily. "I think I'll call her down stairs." So he gave a jolly shout and asked: "Is anything the matter, Nurse Jane?"

"answered the muskrat lady housekeeper. "I think I have the eye zootie. I can't get up. I can't cook your breakfast, and you'd better go for the bunny's breakfast."

"I will," said Uncle Wiggily, and away he hopped over the fields and thru the woods to where the animal doctor had his office. "I'll be right over to see Nurse Jane," said Dr. Possum. "You go back and get yourself some breakfast. You may have to go to the five and six cent store for medicine."

So Uncle Wiggily hopped back to his hollow stump bungalow, and after telling Nurse Jane that Dr. Possum would soon make and make her better, the bunny rabbit gentleman got his own breakfast.

He rubbed himself a piece of lemon pie with cherry pudding hemmed on around the edges and by that time Dr. Possum had come. "Ho! Hum! Let me see," said the animal doctor, as he felt of Nurse Jane's nose. "It's a queer hot," he went on. "You needs cooling. Ice cream is what she must have." You know when a dog or other animal is ill, their noses get hot, which shows they have a fever.

"Ice cream for Nurse Jane!" exclaimed Uncle Wiggily. "I'll hop right over to get it." He put on his red, white and blue striped crutch and got her a big dish of it.

"Correct," said Dr. Possum. "The sooner she has ice cream the better she'll be." So over the fields and thru the woods hopped Uncle Wiggily Longears, and Uncle Wiggily had run on his paws which were like mittens, he didn't mind the cold ice cream very much, and he soon hopped on with it to Nurse Jane. And before noon he had cooled her nose and made her all better.

"You had better hop along fast with that ice cream, and if the animal doctor doesn't run over the lollipop stick and make it look flat, like a tried egg, I'll tell you more about Uncle Wiggily and the potato roast."

FINE SEASON OF CRICKET JUST CLOSED ANNUAL MEETING OF T. & D. NEXT WEEK

The constitution of the Toronto and District Cricket Association calls for the annual meeting to be held in the first week of October, and accordingly this year's meeting was held on October 7, 1919, at the Templar's Hall, Queen and Dovercourt, at 8.30 p.m.

Some of the prominent material being developed among the boys, which will eventually be of service to the senior club, and the earnestness displayed by the new clubs above mentioned augurs well for the future.

The new executive will have plenty of work to do in connection with their immediate attention, and that is the question of providing a new ground for the club, and the earnestness displayed by the new clubs above mentioned augurs well for the future.

The members of the G.T.R., St. Chad's, Kenilworth, Base Hospital, Trinity Intermediates, Oakwood (whose boys have again won the boys' league) are expected to attend the first meeting, and along with the old members, pass many pleasant hours during the winter months.

Cricket has passed thru a strenuous winter. Differences of opinion on cricket topics have arisen, and occasioned many heated debates; this only demonstrates the interest that is being maintained in the game and any sports place that are left open can easily be heated during the social evenings at the Templar's Hall. From a playing point of view the season has been most enjoyable, the grounds have been better looked after by the parks department, and the fact that grass has been regularly cut, has been very much appreciated.

Cricketers must combine their resources and no one should stand idle, those who think the better results could be obtained by different methods, let them come along and do their bit. A grain of help is worth a ton of pity.

There is likely to be some competition as to who will go to Winnipeg this season to bring back the Ross Robertson cup. Several clubs have already signified their intention of challenging, and whatever club has to make the journey it should have the whole-hearted support of the members.

So come along to the general meeting and make a winter effort for the good of the game.

CLOSE OF SEASON FOR THE RIFLEMEN

The usual competitions run by the Irish Rifle Association during the summer months ended with the shoot last Saturday. For deciding the winners, each competitor's best ten scores of the available sixteen Saturdays were taken, and the usual and valuable prizes will be presented to the winners of each class.

These prizes were kindly donated by Toronto business firms and influential citizens who interest themselves in the sport of rifle shooting, and realize the importance of improving the standard of marksmanship amongst civilians.

Whilst the individual shooting was not up to the usual mark during the early part of the season, a great improvement was shown at the closing shoots, and many new shots have shown the benefit of their training with the association. S. Dean, the winner of the Loveland Co. prize, has shot consistently well throughout the season, and has proved himself to be a first-class marksman.

Both in Redland and Chicago Fans Fight for Pastebords —Cicotte Ready to Pitch First Game.

Cincinnati, O., Sept. 29.—With every available seat and every available space for standing room in the enclosure of Redland Field, supposed to accommodate 35,000 baseball enthusiasts, assigned or sold, everything appears to be in readiness tonight for the opening game of the world's championship baseball series of 1919.

Never before in the history of this city have such scenes been enacted as were visible today in the hotels. The desk of the hostesses were packed three deep with visitors trying to obtain sleeping accommodations, and these were being added by every incoming train. Never has Cincinnati been called upon to handle such an enormous crowd, and it is safe to say that never before has she been the host to so many men prominent nationally in their various walks of life.

Even Fatty is There. One of the first special trains to arrive came from New York, and brought seventy-five of the newspaper correspondents. Among the actor folk to be on the scene early are George M. Cohan, the playwright; Roscoe Arbuckle and Charles Ray; of moving picture fame.

Another special train brought 150 Pittsburgh business men. Among the baseball men who were early arrivals was Col. Huston of the New York Americans, President William Veeck of the Chicago Nationals and Les Constant of Pittsburgh, business manager of the world series for the National League. The railroads announce that a special containing 100 men from Texas would arrive here early tomorrow morning.

President August Herrmann of the Cincinnati team announced early in the afternoon that every available reserved seat had either been sold or assigned for sale, while later in the afternoon the long line that had been maintained all day at the ball park purchasing pavilion, bleachers, seats and standing room was told that the 11,500 seats available there had been taken. This ended the last hope of the thousands of fans who had been working for three days for anything from a single ticket to an allotment of four.

Federal officers began a systematic canvass of the sale of tickets today and announced that a check would be made on all tickets which leave the regular box offices and that every effort will be made to uncover not only the unlicensed professional, but also the temporary amateur who is licensed.

Reds Work Out. As for the ball players, they were little in evidence. The Chicago White Sox are due to arrive here tomorrow morning. The Reds were given a short morning practice, while in the afternoon the entire team, in a body, visited the Lakota race track. Tomorrow the White Sox will have Redland Field to themselves during the forenoon. The Chicago White Sox will practice during the afternoon. At Redland Field nothing remains to be done. The new bleachers in left field have been completed. The press stand on top of the grand stand. The forty-five wires that will be necessary to flash the news of the series to all parts of the country have been installed in the press boxes, and in so far as arrangements go they are now all ready for the words "Play ball!"

official White Sox rooting organization, has rounded up a party of 250 fans, who will leave for Cincinnati tomorrow night. All are fit.

Manager E. Gleason and twenty-three members of the Chicago White Sox, American League pennant winners, left here tonight for Cincinnati, where they will meet the Cincinnati Reds Wednesday and Thursday in the first two games of the series.

Every man on the team was declared to be fit for the championship game against the National League rivals. Manager Gleason has given his team a complete rest since they clinched the pennant several days ago. In the final three games of the season, each of which resulted in a defeat for the Chicagoans, the lineup made up mostly of substitutes and the regulars played, such indifferent ball that they were booed and hissed by many fans at yesterday's game.

NINE FULL GAMES IS REDS' MARGIN. New York, Sept. 29.—The final standing of the National League baseball clubs in the 1919 pennant race was announced here officially today by President John A. Heydler, as follows:

SOCIETY NEWS

CONDUCTED BY MRS. EDMUND PHILLIPS.

His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales will be at the Royal Connaught, Hamilton on the 17th and 18th of October and at the Clifton, Niagara Falls, Ont., on the 19th and 20th of October.

H.R.H. the Princess Mary, as colonel-in-chief of the Royal Scots, for the first time in that capacity, recently inspected a battalion of her regiment and held an investiture at which decorations and medals were presented to a number of officers and men. The inspection took place at Redford Barracks, Edinburgh, where the 1st Battalion, under the command of Colonel G. G. Loch, C.M.G., D.S.O., is stationed preparatory to their departure for India.

Sir Clifford and Lady Sifton are shortly coming to Toronto to live, and have taken Mrs. L. Clark's house, 57 Douglas drive.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Doherty announce the engagement of their daughter, Gretta May, to Mr. Edgar E. Lennox, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Lennox. The marriage will take place in the Timothy Eaton Memorial Church on Thursday, the 23rd of October.

The annual reunion and dinner of the Canadian Mounted Rifles will take place at the Royal Connaught, Hamilton, on the 24th of October.

Mrs. White, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Jarvis and Miss Jarvis motored to Toronto from London, Ont., yesterday and are at the King Edward for a few days. Miss Jarvis has entered at the university for the term.

Mr. Homer Proctor, late R.A.F., and Mr. Proctor returned last week from a motor wedding trip to the United States and left again on Saturday for Algonquin Park.

Mrs. H. C. Schofield, Highlands avenue, is giving a dance for her daughter, Miss Muriel Schofield, on the 29th of October.

Final arrangements have been made for the ball to be given by the acting G. O. C. and officers of military district No. 4, in honor of his royal highness the Prince of Wales, which will be held in Windsor Hall, Montreal, on Tuesday night, October 28, as definitely decided at a meeting of the executive committee. The number of invitations has been limited to 800. Dress for officers has been laid down in district orders as service uniforms of khaki, with Sam Brown belt and slacks, the dancing pumps being left to the individual taste of the officers.

Medals and diplomas were presented by His Grace Archbishop McNeill.

Two songs of Celtic origin in which a brave spirit is blended with certain wistful pathos are sung by Henry Burr on one Victrola record, "Jock O'Hazel-dean" is one of the best of the Scottish ballads; and the other, "The Harp That Once Thro' Tara's Halls," is a legend of old Ireland. These and hundred of other records can be had in the Victrola parlors of Ye Olde Firme of Heintzman & Co., Limited, 193-197 Yonge street, Toronto.

For over one year, the police allege, Patrick O'Reilly, a cripple, has been wearing a military uniform, without having the right to do so. O'Reilly had his leg amputated and he secured a military uniform and "blue" hospital band and was staying in the Knights of Columbus soldiers' hostelry. He was arrested last night by Detective Stewart, charged with illegal wearing of a military uniform.

Thomas Parrott had twelve dozen bottles of liquor in his motor car when he was stopped by Plainclothesmen Black and Ewing. He was fined $200 and costs for three months.

HAROLD J. BINNEY GOT BIG SURPRISE

Didn't Know How Enthusiastically Toronto Would Welcome Picture Industry.

HE IS CONVINCED NOW

This City Has the Pioneer Film-Producing Concern for Successful Business.

Harold J. Binney, director-general Canadian Photo-Play Productions, Limited, got the surprise of his life yesterday when he realized to what extent Toronto is enthusiastic over the establishment of a motion picture producing industry here. And Mr. Binney is not easily surprised either.

For fourteen years he has been in the motion picture business, for fourteen years he has been getting surprise after surprise, for a good portion of that time he has been staging surprises and everybody thought he was immune. Not so. This is how it happened. On Saturday the announcement was made that Canadian Photo-Play Productions would place for public subscription a portion of its capital stock.

Reasons were set forth as to why the concern should be a success. One of the big things mentioned was that Mr. Binney would see that it was a success. Now, he knew the people of Toronto were interested in the movies, and he knew that they would welcome, at any time, a chance to get in on the ground floor on any good proposition. But he didn't know to what extent Toronto would respond on the first call. And that's what surprised him.

Not only is this interest in Toronto. Letters came from Peterboro, Hamilton, Oshawa, Montreal, and in one case a telegram was received. This shows that Canadian made pictures

WOMAN JUDGE TELLS HER STORY

Miss Ethel McLachlin Addresses Local Council of Women.

That the juvenile court of Saskatchewan was organized thru the activities of the Local Council of Women and the University Club of that city, was the statement made by Judge Ethel McLachlin of the juvenile court of Saskatchewan, who spoke to a gathering of women at the social service building of the university yesterday afternoon. Introduced by J. J. Kelso, superintendent of neglected children, Judge McLachlin told the simple story of her appointment.

As a teacher she went to the west, where she was appointed assistant to the superintendent of delinquent and neglected children. She was surprised one day in 1918 by the attorney-general coming into her office and asking her how she would like the position of judge of the juvenile court. At first she did not accept, because she was interested in the work upon which she was engaged. A fortnight later she was told she simply had to take the judgeship.

To prepare for the new field of labor she visited the juvenile courts in Halifax, Toronto, Montreal, Chicago, St. Paul and Minneapolis.

Regina, being a city of only 40,000, did not give sufficient work to keep the new judge busy. She was, therefore, made a special justice of the peace, with jurisdiction thru the province, except in Saskatoon and Moose Jaw, where they have police magistrates. Sometimes she travels 2000 or 3000 miles a month in enquiring into and trying cases, and not infrequently 500 miles is traveled in the inter-lake of one case. Judge McLachlin is helped by voluntary probation officers whom she appoints, the plan working out very satisfactorily.

Both sexes. Judge McLachlin has boys as well as girls to deal with. Two-thirds of will be a success," Mr. Binney said in his opinion, that the investor, as well as the fan, is vitally interested in a Canadian product. If this is the spirit that is behind our enterprise it is a success right now."

Second Announcement.

The announcement of Saturday is followed by a second announcement in this issue, which states clearly the position the new company stands in at this moment. Perhaps that position is occupied as a result of the knowledge common to all, that the large and wealthy producing companies of today started in a small way and grew to tremendous proportions.

When the time comes that Toronto's streets are backgrounds for great motion picture productions, when the picture he makes is in operation; when the wondrous beauty of Canadian valleys and streams is contrasted with the beauty of the mountain peaks, her lakes and bays—then will it be fully realized what the advent of motion picture making means to a country young in its development, but with resources as yet untouched.

Canadian Photo-Play Productions, Limited, will accomplish another big thing. When its studio is in operation, and it will not be long, a market will have been opened for Canadian writers, among whom are some of the best in the world. Sure, they have had to leave Canada to get recognition but that, it is hoped, will not be the case six months from now.

Century Baptist Church Upheld Ontario Referendum Committee in Campaign.

Enthusiasm plus was the keynote of the four "No" meeting held under the auspices of the Ontario Referendum Committee in the Century Baptist Church on MacPherson avenue last night. It was fitting in view of the large part which women are taking in the campaign, that one of the speakers of the evening should be a woman.

Mrs. S. Bartman left a message of comfort and cheer, and she was followed by Rev. R. Newton Powell, who pointed out the evils arising from the liquor traffic.

WARNS COMMITTEE TO BE CAREFUL

Project to Make School Swimming Pool Brings Word of Caution.

Chairman of Finance C. A. B. Brown warned the property committee of the board of education against all unnecessary expenditures at the meeting of the finance committee yesterday afternoon. This was in connection with the report by the property committee in favor of the expenditure of $3,842 for a swimming pool at Keele Street Public School. The item went to the board of education for final action on Thursday night.

The finance committee, sent on the J. A. Berridge, Carlton School number, tender to the board. This was the tender which the architects said was supposedly too low for good work. The price asked was $18,397.

The finance committee took issue with the technical school committee over fees to outsiders. The committee wanted a low scale, but the finance committee reaffirmed the view that $136 a year was a dead cheap rate figure for outsiders to get all the advantages of a school year's course at Toronto's two multi-million dollar vocational training palaces.

The committee decided to recommend that Major Percival C. Brown, solicitor to the board, be paid an increase of $300, a raise to $4,500, for the current year.

They've Gone Back to School

YOU can picture them--row on row of rosy-cheeked youngsters, all tanned and happy with holiday healthfulness.

Will they keep up that health?

Will they look as well and strong when winter comes?

Now is the time to protect them--to give them the right food, the nourishment that will fortify them.

In Farmers' Dairy milk you have Nature's perfect food.

A food that is rich in proteins and carbohydrate--in all the elements that nourish body and brain.

A food that is easily digested, that is light on the stomach, that helps digest other foods, that is from every scientific standpoint a balanced ration.

"PENROD" AT PRINCESS

Recalls to Age the Days of Boyhood and Sets a Mirror to the Family Mischievous-Maker.

Penrod, "the detective," which re- turned to the Princess last night, was not only a highly entertaining com- edy for the boys and girls who were present, but a refreshing reminder to those no longer young of the boy na- ture. There are very few who cannot recall the acquaintanceship of such a boy as Penrod—active, full of pranks, without meanness, a manager of the games, and chuck full of pep. In Booth Parkinson's story, from which the play is adapted, the boy who longs to be a detective is represented as confounding the schemes of a swindler, against whom he just naturally took a dislike.

It is well known that children often detect in designing persons the shams that get by those of mature years. Penrod's decision to "shadow" the suspect with the aid of his deputies was not overdrawn. The cross-exam- ination of the boys in the last act to "get at the truth" of the matter con- cerning the shooting was a clever representation of real life. Andrew Lawlor, a boy of about 10 or 11, acts Penrod with marked ability, and is ably assisted by Richard Ross, a boon companion of his own age.

One of the best characters in the play is George Lindsay, as Robert Williams, a college youth in love with Penrod's sister. To him is given the task of helping out with the comedy while love-sick and sad, and he does it without overdoing his part.

John Webster, as the distracted "dad," does his work quite naturally, and shows all the weaknesses that men are supposed without exception to be guilty of, such as losing his collar-buttons and of taking credit for every flash of genius that his young "get at the truth" exhibits. Altogether Penrod is one of the best comedies seen in Toronto in weeks.

AT THE GAYETY

Al Reeves' Beauty Show Gives Two Burlesques of Outstanding Merit, With Good Looking Chorus.

Al Reeves' Beauty Show holds forth at the Gayety Theatre this week. Reeves is one of the oldest show men in burlesque, and the gathering to- gether of a chorus of good looking, singing and dancing girls is one of the standards set by this one-time per- former. Two musical burlesques, dur- ing the action of which vaudeville turns are given, constitute the offer- ing. Harry Stewart and Harry S. Le Ven are the comedians. Ruth Hay- ward is the leading woman, while Ada Morse is a lively sobriet. Flor- ence Wilkinson plays the pianist, and the Darling Sisters are good enter- tainers.

Both burlesques are well put on, and the show is probably one of the best brought to Toronto by Reeves.

"LITTLE SIMPLICITY"

Tunis Cafes and Paris Dance Halls Make Setting for Musical Comedy at Royal Alexandra.

"Little Simplicity" opened at the Royal Alexandra last night to a very large and highly delighted audience, and the prospects are for crowded houses during the week. "Little Sim," as she is called later on, is rather sophisticated, but the audience can supply the simplicity. There is no plot in the piece except that the same people appear in a cafe chantant in Paris, where a fancy ball affords another opportunity for still more beautiful costumes, and finally, at the front between a K. of C. rest house and a Salvation Army Hut, five years later than the second act, where more lovely costumes are swung into the mazy dance, just as if there had been no such thing at all. Lulu Clavelin by Marjorie Gateason, is the most attrac- tive part in the piece and Miss Gateason in her singing, her dancing and her general business is excellent. She is ably supported by Phil Ryley, who, if a little raw at times, is a thoroughly good comedian and keeps the audience in roars of laughter. Arthur Sprague as Marjorie's father, is a thoroughly good straight to a U-boat, around which a storm of shot and shell is falling. Con- sidering it is a melodrama, the play is written plausibly and naturally, but with obviousness as one of its chief characteristics. There is a sprinkling of humor, too, with a cook's son as a captain and the commanding officer an earl's son. It is a play that makes your blood tingle the way it did when you were a boy, and is a decidedly popular offering. During the week matinees will be given on Wednesday and Saturday.

AT THE REGENT Chinese Photoplay, "The Red Lan- tern," Depicts Incidents of Boxer Rising, Featuring Nazimova.

The customs and traditions of the yellow race and the events leading up to the Boxer uprising in 1900 are faith- fully depicted in the much-heralded Chinese photoplay, "The Red Lan- tern," showing at the Regent all this week.

As Mahler, a Eurasian, the great Nazimova reaches the pinnacle of seven artistry, and has a splendid vehicle to display her emotional tem- perament. The story is delightfully interesting and portrays the east in all its magnificence. Many of the spectacular scenes are extremely un- usual, and the scenery and artistic in- teriors of the houses are replicas of the originals. Especially well repro- duced is the scene of a bird's-eye view of Peking, stretching as far as the eye can reach, and including the red roofs and tall spires characteristic of the country.

The grand finale shows street fight- ing in the capital, and Nazimova lead- ing the yellow hordes against the allied troops.

Two characters are portrayed by Nazimova. She plays both the part of Mahler and that of Blanche Sack- ville, an English girl.

"SEVEN DAYS' LEAVE"

Opening of Second Week of Popular Play at Grand Opera House.

"Seven Days' Leave" opened its second and last week at the Grand Opera House last night to a capacity audi- ence—proof that the public welcome again the thrills of other days. It is a play that rings with patriotic fervor, is crammed full of suspense and excitement, and is, generally speaking, a very good melodrama of its kind. It would be the easiest thing in the world to point out the absurdities, but it is those very absurdities that the public must enjoy. As befits mili- tary melodrama, its principal male characters are in khaki, and its women are ever ready in their vari- ous ways to do or die for the cause. Nearly all the latter get a chance to prove their loyalty and devotion to country and sweethearts in the course of the four acts. Whoever says that melodrama is a lost art should visit one of the performances of "Seven Days' Leave." There has been noth- ing heretofore to vie with Lady Mary's swimming race thru a smother of surf in pursuit of the German lady spy who is taking the stolen paper straight to a U-boat, around which a storm of shot and shell is falling. Con- sidering it is a melodrama, the play is written plausibly and naturally, but with obviousness as one of its chief characteristics. There is a sprinkling of humor, too, with a cook's son as a captain and the commanding officer an earl's son. It is a play that makes your blood tingle the way it did when you were a boy, and is a decidedly popular offering. During the week matinees will be given on Wednesday and Saturday.

AT THE ALLEN

"Valley of the Giants," a Man's Picture From the Redwoods of California.

Full of action and what might be called a "man's picture," "The Valley of the Giants," with Wallace Reid, at the Allen Theatre, is an enterprising story of the big redwoods of southern California and of a fight between two men in connection with the building of a railroad and securing the franchise of the same.

Colonel Pennington, an unscrupulous politician, bribes the mayor of the town to vacate the franchise granted to Bryce Cardigan (Wallace Reid) to build a railroad leading out of "The Valley of the Giants." Answered by Pennington's tactics, Cardigan takes a gang of men out in the middle of the night and lays a railroad immediately across the tracks of Col. Pennington's road.

The settings are splendid forest scenes and there is just enough ro- mance to make the story interesting. The special music added to the enjoy- ment of the picture.

A comedy and weekly completed the bill.

AT SHEA'S.

Three Real Stars, and a Moral for Husbands in $5,000 a Year.

It is seldom the public are treated to three real star turns in any one program. You can get them at Shea's Theatre this week, where was pro- duced yesterday one of the best all- round programs seen in Toronto for a long time past. A six-part farce comedy, "45,000 a Year," in which Robert Hyman and Virginia Mann take the leading parts, is a play with a moral, altho full of laughter and comic situations from the rise to the fall of the curtain. The scene is laid in a living-room in a bungalow on Long Island; and the moral of the play to mere man is to always take your wife's advice on business mat- ters. Her intuition is usually superior to a man's business judgment. Husbands with thinking wives, and women with non-brainy husbands should not miss seeing "45,000 a Year." The mili- tary travesty, "The Battle of Whats- ever," is even funnier, if possible, than "The Battle of Too Soon" and "The Battle of Never Was," put on the stage by the same producers. The hit-bit of the whole program is the De Wolf girl in the garden scene. After the 20th century girl awakes one is fascinated by seeing beautiful dressed girls in artistic surroundings, on the bride path, the garden pro- menade, at the ratignee tea, in La Bohemia and dare one mention it, often midnight-retiring. The act is well dressed, nothing is overdone and the dresses must have cost a fortune. Girls, engaged or about to be engaged to be married, young and old married women, should see "Clothes, Clothes, Clothes," as they will obtain from it many tips for further use in their fascinating art of making poor man their plaything.

Dorothy Brenner, the Lady Dainty of England, has a set of exclusive songs by Herbert Moore, which are useful and excellently rendered. Claire and Atwood, in Bump-de-Bumps, are amusing, whilst Jack Hughes Duo, the Stamtons, English boys from America, Billy Glasgow, in just songs and sayings, and Prosper and Maret, who are college athletes, all go to make up the best program Shea's Theatre has had this season.

AT LOEW'S.

"The World to Live In" Stars Alice Brady in Love Story With a Moral.

The Alice Brady new screen film, "The World to Live In," is a play that at once interests and also teaches a lesson. It is of interest to those who are passe and settled down in life; it teaches a lesson to every pretty lady secretary—and all lady secre- taries are pretty—who may be in doubt as to the right path to choose in her love affairs. Apart from the universally good acting, the play is wholesome in character, and its moral teaching is above reproach. Alice Brady is in love with a young settle- ment doctor, but she does not want to marry him because he cannot give her a "good time"—the only wealth he has is his love and his profession. She becomes the private secretary to a big merchant, and the son of the head of the firm, himself a married man, falls in love with her, and she, thinking him to be single, allows him to give her all the pleasures and ex- citement she desires. After an in- teresting tangle of events the heroine finds herself named as a co-respond- ent in divorce proceedings instituted by the wife of her employer's son. The two women meet, and it is found the heroine has done the wife a good turn in the past, and she refuses to go on with the divorce proceedings. After a series of interesting events the settlement doctor again comes on the scene and all ends happily. With- out doubt the picture is one of the best and most interesting seen at the Yonge street house for some time past.

The variety part of the entertain- ment is also good. La Petite Jennie & Co., who are diminutive entertain- ers, produce "The Dolly Dances," a fascinating and useful playlet. The original college boys, Kenney and Hol- lis, in their hilarious presentation of "Freshie's Initiation," bring back memories of early college days. Their situations are funny and they never get over the border line of genuine comedy as to make them ridiculous. Milloy-Keough & Co., in "Putting One Over"; Peggy Brooks, in song cycle; Dale & DeVoe, in songs and stories, and Harrison and Holloway, in mu- sical specialties, are others who go to- wards making up a particularly strong program.

AT THE HIPPODROME.

"Rough Riding Romance" Carries On-looker from Spain to California in Whirl of Adventure.

Tom Mix as Phineas Dobbs, romanti- cist and hog-ranch owner, shows himself to be a good mixer, and in the photodrama shown yesterday at the Hippodrome, "Rough Riding Ro- mance," mixed up all manners of dreams, high society, high jinks, chivalry, expertness and dare-devilry in one melting pot, new Spain, old Bal- kania, a Balkan castle in California, and fairy stories melting together in one. Prince and peasant come to- gether, in this case the prince being a Balkanian princess; encountering her peasant, a born leader of men in the hour of need. Graced with a love of little children and their love of other worlds, Phineas Dobbs meets a girl in distress in a novel manner, rescues her from brigand-couriers and her

"JAZZ BABIES."

Catchy Music, Taking Chorus and Wit Make Up Enjoyable Show at Star.

Brimful with catchy music and good humor is the burlesque offering this week at the Star Theatre of the "Jazz Babies." This show is given in two acts, which are full of pep from the rise till the fall of the curtain in the last number. The music is the latest and an evenly matched chorus of girls wearing lavish costumes won the hearts of those in the audience at the matinee, judging by the amount of ap- plause. In all of the chorus numbers curtain calls was the order and the girls had to sing the choruses thru a second time.

Frank X. Silk, comedian, is funny and is assisted by George Carroll, a funmaker who has a good line of witty sayings. Pretty feminine principals lead the chorus and offer specialties that took well with the audience. Both burlettas are well put on and the "Jazz Babies" is far above the average attraction.

AT THE STRAND.

Harold Lockwood Plays Here in "Shadows of Suspicion," Gripping Story of War Intrigue.

"Shadows of Suspicion," a gripping story of war intrigue, is the feature at the Strand this week. There is something wonderfully appealing in the personality of Harold Lockwood, who plays the role of the hero, that has given him a strong and lasting place in the affections of all motion picture enthusiasts, and in this picture he has the most powerful part of his career.

The story concerns the inner work- ings of the far-sealing and far-reach- ing British secret service, of which so little was said during the war. The hero finds himself in a position re- quiring the most supreme courage—that of remaining silent when sus- picion threatens to rob him of both his good name and the love of his sweetheart. It is a play that grip- pingly the imagination and in its romance is as beautiful as it is powerfully and grippingly dramatic.

BLOOR OWNERS AGREE.

The Toronto Civic Guild, which is urging the widening of Bloor street from Sherbourne to near Yonge, report that over 70 per cent of the property owners on the north side and nearly as many on the south side, have signed an agreement to give the necessary strip of land. It is felt that Bloor is bound to become the main cross-town business artery and that steps should be taken now to guard against future congestion. It is proposed, if the idea receives support, to carry it out on the west side of Yonge as far as Spadina avenue. The extra 20 feet in the street if carried thru to the viaduct, would provide a roadway on the south side of the car line, between Sherbourne and the small bridge, and wipe out the two crossings, which are now a con- siderable source of danger.

An aviation company has been formed at Buenos Aires, mainly with local Eng- lish capital, to establish a regular air service between Buenos Aires and Mon- tevideo.

QUIET IN OMAHA

Troops on Duty After Lynching, and No Further Outbreak Now Feared.

Omaha, Neb., Sept. 29.—With 800 troops from Fort Omaha and Crook, Neb., and Camp Dodge, Iowa, on riot duty and with 500 more soldiers dis- patched to arrive later tonight, Omaha officials were confident there would be no further outbreak of the race riot- ing, which yesterday and last night resulted in the death of two persons, injuries to several score others, an attempt to lynch Mayor E. F. Smith, and partial destruction by fire of the county court house.

The troops have machine guns ready to put into use if necessary. The city was quiet throughout the day, soldiers patrolling the streets to pre- vent the congregation on street cor- ners of groups of persons. Late today information from Ford Hospital was to the effect that physicians attend- ing Mayor Smith have slight fear of complications setting in.

Dismisses an O.T.A. Case; Says Informer Went Too Far

Special to The Toronto World.

Brantford, Sept. 28.—That the tes- timony of a liquor informer or even two liquor informers might not be as reliable as that of a foreign-born resi- dent was the opinion expressed, from the police court bench this morning when Magistrate Livingston dismissed the charge of selling liquor against Mrs. Alex. Waite, Hemphill street. The evidence against the defendant was given by Messrs. Cutts and Simons, employees of the department, who claimed to have made the pur- chase of a bottle of alcohol from the woman. The magistrate in summing up declared that the job of a whiskey informer was a mean one, but in carrying out the job there were cer- tain limitations. A man might tell all kinds of lies in order to get some- one to break the law, but when he came to the stage where immunity was promised if the law were broken he was going too far.

Three-Year Term in Jail For Woman Convicted of Arson

St. Catharines, Sept. 29.—Miss Han- nah Matilda Rink, on a charge of arson, was sentenced to three years in Kingston Penitentiary by Judge Livingston at Welland this afternoon after she had pleaded guilty to the indictment last week. Before sentence had been pronounced, Mr. H. W. Macomb, for the accused, put in a strong plea for leniency.

His honor Judge Livingston stated that altho the case was a very pain- ful one to him, still justice had to be done and he could impose no more lenient sentence than three years' con- finement. Two men who set fire to the building she had purchased have been sentenced to two and three years, respectively, and another, Wm. Phil- lips, is on $10,000 bail awaiting trial on a charge of counselling her to have the crime committed.

STEEL STOCKS LEAD VIGOROUS ADVANCE

Crucible Steel Up Twenty- Two Points—Call Loan Rates Stiffen.

New York, Sept. 29.—Steel shares were held in the pivot of today's very active stock market, evincing a strong tendency in the early dealings, but rising vigorously later when advices from industrial centres were more encouraging.

Equipment reflected the uncertain trend of steel for a time, but improved materially later, motors and their accessories also rising more moderately with oils.

Variable strength was displayed by steel shares, especially in the afternoon, substantial gains in leathers, rubbers, tobaccos and paper issues, and falls strengthened in several of the low grade stocks, transcontinentals also coming forward.

Highest quotations were reached in the final hour, when Crucible Steel showed an extremely high point at the new high record of 23 1/2, while U. S. Steel rallied from its low of 10 1/2 to 10 3/4, closing unchanged at its top price.

Harvester was exceptionally active and strong, and General Motors, Studebaker and Buick were also active, the latter being absorbed by Endicott Johnson and a few other specialties at gains of 3 to 12 points.

Call Loan Rates Stiff. Maximum prices were reduced by 2 to 7 points just before the close when call money, which opened at 8 per cent, mounted steadily to 9 per cent, as much as 15 being paid by related borrowers after the end of the session. Sales amounted to 1,375,000 shares.

Foreign exchange was unsettled by the heaviness of bills on London, cables from that centre indicating uneasiness in financial circles because of the British railroad strike.

Liberty bonds eased after showing moderate strength and the general bond market, including rails, was irregular. Total sales (par value) aggregated $12,285,000.

After the close of the market call loans on all industrial collateral were made at as high as 16 per cent, which is the highest rate since July 20 last.

C. P. R. IN AUGUST

Montreal, Sept. 29.—C. P. R. earnings for the month of August, 1919. Earnings, $15,235,827.4; expenses, $11,605,486.18; net, $3,778,167.55; increase, $569,536.93; increase in gross, $5,173,900.55.

WHY SILVER CLIMBS

Coleman & Reltz, New York, in their review of business conditions for the week beginning September 29, make the following comments. The most favorable situation appears to be that of silver production. Prevailing price of 63 3/8 pence in London is the highest probably ever recorded in history; it is equal to but $1.19 in this country on the basis of sterling exchange, but it is actually a new world record as regards transactions in Great Britain, China and East India. This advance (from 23 to 63 pence since 1915), is based upon unprecedented volume of demand and with an indicated yearly shortage of at least 175,000,000 ounces against 15,000,000 ounces minimum requirements, continued, and even higher prices are indicated in the United States, Mexico and Canada more than 60 per cent. of the world's yearly total is produced.

NEW STEEL CARS FOR CAN. NATIONAL LINES

Yesterday the first of approximately 100 new steel passenger cars was delivered to the Canadian National Railway, and it is confidently expected that the entire order, comprising six classes of cars, will be completed by the end of January, 1920.

The new steel passenger equipment under order for the C.N.R. includes 20 tourist cars, 18 standard sleeping cars, 3 dining cars, 20 mail cars, 20 first-class coaches, and 13 compartment observation cars.

Travel has been heavy all thru the summer season, and the C.N.R. is inaugurating shortly new trains to round out a daily transcontinental service in both directions across Canada.

ON NEW YORK CURB.

New York, Sept. 29.—The curb market closed steady today with some of the specialties moving into new high levels. The upward movement in General Asphalt continued and 134 was reached. Loft Candy was introduced to trading and sold within a narrow range, selling off somewhat at the close. National Tin was again strong. There was considerable buying evident in Lake Superior Stock American Safety Razor was off slightly. Allied Oil was strong all day. Silver stocks were well bought. Home Oil was steady at 20 1/4.

HUBBARD BAY MEETING.

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the Hudson Bay Mines, Limited, will be held in Toronto on Oct. 6.

CANADA BREAD AT HIGHEST IN YEARS

Spanish River, Russell Motor Preferred and Tooke Also Advance Sharply.

With Wall street again in exuberant mood over the prospect of an early termination of the steel strike, and with a number of speculative favorites again marked up sharply in price in the Montreal market, circumstances favored a fresh demonstration of strength on the Toronto exchange yesterday. A number of issues, including Canada Bread and Spanish River, sold at not only the highest prices of the year, but also less than 3000 shares. Transactions in the war loans were again heavy, more than two-thirds of the total dealings in this section being in the Victory issue of 1913, which ruled slightly higher around 100.

Canada Bread, on several days last week, easily overshadowed other stocks in the matter of activity, nearly 1900 shares changing hands with the result that the price advanced an even point to 27, closing there. Not since January 1916 when Canada Bread sold at high as 29 has the price been so high as the current quotation. Spanish River added 3 1/2 points to its recent sharp advance by selling at 66 1/2, the highest point since the war times. Tooke, which is being lifted day after day in Montreal in the process of squeezing the bear faction, was marked up four points here to 69. This stock is a number which appears to have been moved up far beyond what their intrinsic merits justify.

Russell Motor preferred came up to 118, selling two points higher at 96. Steamships at 84 was a shade firmer, while Canadian Pacific at 33 1/2, Mackay at 38 and Quebec Railway at 22 1/2 were fractionally easier.

The day's transactions: Shares, 3656, including 670 mining shares; Bonds, $94,560.

THIRTEEN-POINT GAIN BY LAKE OF WOODS

Number of Other Stocks Advance Sharply in Montreal Market.

Montreal, Sept. 29.—Trading in fifty listed stocks on the local stock exchange today furnished dealings amounting to 29,338 shares, the second most active day for the past two or three months.

There was a decided demand for securities, and prices at the close showed net gains ranging from fractions to 12 points. The 13 points went to Lake of Woods on buying amounting to only 300 shares.

The stock rose to 219 and closed at 215. The stock to show the largest net gain was Lake of Woods, which rose 13 points, covering the whole of its recent decline, followed by a net rise of four points to a new high for the year at 233.

James Holden company was erratic, declining two points from the opening. But a rally followed which carried the stock 7 1/2 points above the low, to 85, a new high and a net gain of four points.

Winnipeg River company was the most active stock in the list, some 5,000 shares changing hands. In the early trading the price rose to 5 1/2, but recovered in the later trading and closed at 4 1/2.

Another large gain was that made by St. Lawrence Flour, which on sales of 100 shares rose 5 1/2 points to 115 and held 4 1/2 at the close.

MONEY AND EXCHANGE.

London, Sept. 29.—Money, 3 1/2 per cent. Discount rates, short bills, 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 per cent. Three-month bills, 3 1/2 to 3 3/4 per cent.

Glazebrook & Cronyn, exchange and bond brokers, report exchange rates as follows: Buyers Sellers. Counter N.Y. fds., 3 1/2 to 3 3/4 pm. 25-32 pm. 1/4 to 1/2. Ster. dem., 4 1/2 to 4 3/4. Cable tr., 4 1/2 to 4 3/4. Rate in New York, sterling demand, 12 1/2.

RESUME WORK AT SYDNEY.

Sydney, Sept. 29.—It is officially announced that there will be a partial resumption of operation at the plant of the Dominion Iron and Steel Company next Monday. The blooming and billet mills will operate on single turn. The official announcement says that it is hoped that the blast furnaces and open hearth departments will also resume work shortly.

LIVERPOOL COTTON.

Liverpool, Sept. 29.—Cotton futures closed steady today, September, 19 1/2 to 19 3/4; November, 19 1/2; December, 19 1/2; January, 19 1/2; February, 19 1/2; March, 19 1/2; April, 19 1/2; May, 19 1/2; June, 19 1/2; July, 19 1/2.

LAKE SHORE TO REOPEN.

Kirkland Lake, Sept. 29.—The Lake Shore mine will, it is understood, not notice of reopening, despite the union threat. It is expected that the mine will be reopened in a few days, and that other mines will advise their employers to turn to and get the Lake Shore going, after which the Lake Shore will return the compliment and assist the other mines to get under way.

MARKET RECORD OF WASAPIKA STRIKING

Consistent Advance in Price Has Reflected Developments at Property.

The further advance of Wasapika stock yesterday in the mining market to a new high record of 81 marks another step upward in the market course of this issue. The market movements of Wasapika have for the past couple of years been one of the most outstanding features of the mining market, and for consistency of advance and almost total lack of a setback worthy of the name, this issue stands without equal in the mining share list.

Explanation of the price appreciation of yesterday is forthcoming in the placing of substantial orders for the stock, combined with the aversion on the part of present shareholders to liquidate. The buying orders found the market practically bare of stock below par.

Wasapika stock was first listed in 1917 around 20c per share. The high for that year was 25c. At that time the West Shining Tree camp was practically unknown, so far as the investing public was concerned. Mining men who had seen the wonderfully rich gold specimens which were brought out from time to time, were of course aware of the promise of the district, but it remained for the publicity connected with the flotation of the numerous issues which are now well known to investors to apprise the general public of the wide area of rich formations which have been further opened up within the past two years.

Strides in Two Years. The fact that the West Shining Tree camp was first discovered some eight or nine years ago, and that it was really never brought to the attention of the general trader before, was largely due to the fact that capitalists who endeavored to become interested were rebuffed by the prospectors when it came to getting down to a business basis with regard to the sale of claims. This feature is still apparent, although not to such a marked degree, as heretofore. It is a fact that big New York investors have from time to time endeavored to acquire portions of the West Shining Tree, but prospectors demanded exorbitant prices and discouraged the influx of much-needed capital.

During the past two years, however, the camp has gone ahead by leaps and bounds, and at the present time it is safe to say is attracting more attention than the more established gold fields in northern Ontario. Within the past two years the Wasapika, West Tree, Birchville, Kenda, Atlas, Herick, Holding, Gosselin, Buckham and many other properties have been brought to the public's attention, and unless indications fall, there will be more before many months have passed, as English, American and Canadian capitalists are giving this section increased attention, and more examinations of the showings of the district have been made by prominent engineers than has ever before been made public.

It is a fact that several Cobalt and Porcupine companies have investigated claims in West Shining Tree, the results of which may be more obvious at a later date.

NEW LA ROSE VEIN.

Cobalt, Ont., Sept. 29.—According to official information from the La Rose Consolidated, a new vein carrying high-grade was found in a crosscut on an intermediate level above the third level, of the Princess property. There is, in addition, considerable milling rock, and the body is developed. It gives promise of being a good source of ore. The workings of the Princess have been dewatered and two machines were started on Friday.

BOURSE IRREGULAR.

Paris, Sept. 29.—Trading on the bourse was somewhat irregular today. Three per cent. rentes were quoted at 61 francs 25 centimes for cash. Exchange on London at 25 francs 45 centimes.
