LARGE CROWD CHEERS WINDLE'S ARGUMENTS AGAINST PROHIBITION

Liberty League Champion
From Chicago Lights
Oratory With Much Pungent
Humor at Expense of Conditions Alleged to Exist in the "Bone Dry" United States—No Heckling by Thousands in Armories.

"There are only three places where prohibition has even proved successful—Turkey, the prison, and hell—and no one wants to go to any of these," declared Hon. Charles A. Windle of Chicago in the course of an eloquent speech before an audience of some 7,500 people in the armories last night. The big building was crowded in every corner. Six thousand chairs were on the floor of the hall and every one had an occupant. The galleries were crowded and a large number of the hall stood packed at the back of the hall. The meeting was organized by the Citizens Liberty League as a protest against the "no" arguments in favor of the referendum and prohibition in general. Mr. Windle, who fought "Fussytrot" Johnson during the late campaign in Scotland, was the chief speaker. He is forceful and fluent, and drives his arguments home with considerable force. He was listened to with close attention and was not called upon to reply to any interrupter. At the finish of the address the audience rose and sang for Mr. Windle's benefit "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow."

Prohibition and temperance were as different as fire and water, he said. Temperance was a man who controlled himself. Prohibition, he contended, was enforced against the will of the individual and was a gross violation of the rights of manhood, he declared, amidst much cheering.

In referring to the arguments of the "drys," Mr. Windle declared they were as non-understandable as the difference between a horse-chestnut and a chestnut horse to the man who is not a horse expert. He declared that he had an idea they could vote a man dry. "Just let them try!" he shouted, and his audience cheered back. Just because a man got drunk, the prohibition party were prepared to forfeit one man's liberty for another man's act. Cries of "You've got them there!"

Do the prohibition party mean to tell me," asked Mr. Windle, "that the men—your sons and our sons—who fought for world's liberty and died in France were not men who could be trusted with a bottle of beer?" (Great cheering.)

Coming back to the prohibition arguments, Mr. Windle compared them to some soup President Lincoln once had served to his cabinet. He said that the president said it must have been made from the breast of a starved pigeon (laughter). Prohibition arguments, he contended, were no stronger than that soup.

"Almighty God," he said, "trusted Samuel Longbottom is Rearrested Following a Sensational Discovery."

PARCELS AFFORD A—CLUE

Released on Monday on bail of $10,000 on a charge, preferred on Saturday, of theft of gold ingots and jewelry valued at $15,000 from his employer, Raymond Roy, manufacturing jeweler, 23 River street. Samuel Longbottom, 33 Bain avenue, was rearrested late last night. The arrest followed the finding of jewelry valued at $20,000 under the rear porch of the Bain avenue house, and was made by Detective-Sergt. Charles Taylor, Detective Waterhouse and Plainclothesmen Davy and McArthur.

Since his release on bail on Monday, Longbottom has been under the surveillance of the police, and yesterday afternoon two packages were seen taken into the Bain avenue house. The information was communicated to detective headquarters and at 10:30 the police officers went to the house. A carried shovel was it was feared that the contents of the parcels might have been buried in the yard.

The house was searched from cellar to attic, but without results, and the detectives were about to commence the task of digging in the yard when it was suggested they look under the porch. Plainclothesman Davy crawled under this, and with the aid of his flashlight succeeded in locating a wooden box and a bundle. When these were opened they were found to contain gold bars and un-finished rings, bracelets, brooches, lavellers and various other articles of jewelry.

When the looked over the recovered jewelry Roy estimated the value at $20,000.

Longbottom was locked up in East Dundas street police station.

Friends of Ex-Emperor Released From Prison

Budapest, April 4.—The government is charged with being irresolute in the punishment of persons of no-Charles tendencies. Bishops, politicians and officers who were arrested have been released from prison. Some of the law experts declare that they could not be punished under the criminal code because Charles really holds the title of king in Hungary. In fact, they say, anyone interfering with the king's prerogatives might be held guilty of treason.

MILITARY COUNCIL IN HUNGARY FIRM AGAINST CHARLES

Time Limit for Departure Is Extended by Little Entente.

REGENT IS SUSTAINED

Budapest, April 4.—The military council of the republic consisting of forty officers of the highest standing under the presidency of Admiral Horty, the regent, discussed late Saturday night measures which might be made necessary by the presence of former Emperor Charles in Hungary.

"I took an oath to maintain the constitution, and I will not break it," said the regent in addressing the council. "Help me to save Hungary. Keep the troops under the strictest discipline." The members of the council thereupon took an oath of loyalty to the regent.

The troops of the local garrison renewed their oath of fidelity to the constitution this morning.

KEEN INTEREST IN BY-ELECTIONS

British Cabinet Shuffle Necessitates Ministers Seeking Re-election.

London, April 4.—While the great-ness of the issues involved in the coal strike overshadows all other matters in Great Britain, there is nevertheless in political circles keen interest in the by-elections necessary by the recent ministerial appointments. The promotion of Lord Edmund Talbot to the vice-royalty of Ireland vacates the seat which has been held for the Unionists since 1899. Captain Guest's appointment as secretary to the ministry of air necessitates his re-election in East Dorset. Stanley Baldwin, who is accepting the presidency of the board of trade, is asking a renewal of the confidence of his constituents in the Bewdley division of Worcestershire, which he has represented since 1908.

ADVISE RATE READJUSTMENT.

Washington, April 4.—Readjustment of export rates on grain and grain products carrying a reduction of three cents east of Chicago was recommended to the railroads today by the interstate commerce commission.

Alleged Sinn Fein Envoy Held By Vancouver Police

Vancouver, B.C., April 4.—Osmond Grattan Esmonde, described as Sinn Fein "envoy" to Australia, was arrested here this afternoon on orders from Mayor Gale. The charge to be laid against him is said to be that of sedition, and probably arises out of Esmonde's alleged anti-British statements at a meeting here last Friday night.

Esmonde, refused admittance to Australia, because he refused to take the oath of allegiance, was brought back to Vancouver on the Australian liner Maracaibo and given permission by Canadian immigration authorities to land on condition that he proceed to an

GOVERNMENT TO ENACT DRASTIC REGULATIONS TO MEET THE STRIKE

Departments Will Be Given Almost Unlimited Powers to Take Over Utilities and Requisition the Food and Transport Facilities—Railwaymen Strongly Favor a Walkout—Rescinding of Decretion Bill to Become Effective May 30 Gaining in Favor.

London, April 4.—The signs tonight point to the dispute between the coal miners and the government drifting in the direction of the most serious industrial crisis in recent years. There are rumors that the government has decided upon certain military steps, which are likely still further to inflame the miners, while further emergency regulations will be issued in accordance with orders in council giving the various governmental departments almost unlimited powers to take possession of mines, lands, buildings, works, gas, electric and water supplies, horses, food and forage and requisition all kinds of transport, including tramways and light railways, to close ports or harbors, control shipping and cargoes, fix prices of coal and prohibit or regulate the sale and supply of motor oil.

LIBERTY LEAGUERS SOCIAL ANARCHISTS, SAYS REV. DR. ARNUP

Bitter Attack Made On Motives of Opponents of "Bone Dry" Law.

RALLY IN MASSEY HALL

A flow of impassioned oratory against the liquor traffic in every phase of its existence, was let loose by Rev. J. H. Arnup, secretary of the foreign missions board of the Methodist Church at the referendum rally at Massey Hall last night. During his address he took the opportunity to refer rather scathingly to the antics made by Professor Stephen Leacock at a Liberty League meeting, and he denounced the Liberty League as being anarchistic in character and menace to the country.

GERMAN PROPOSAL IS IGNORED BY U.S.

Also Takes No Notice in the Reply of Suggestion for Unbiased Experts.

Washington, April 4.—Paraphrases of the informal exchanges between the German and United States governments regarding reparations, in which the United States holds Germany "morally bound to make reparation, so far as may be possible," were made public today at the state department.

Dangerous Classes.

The last two classes were the dangerous ones, however. The first of these were the social opponents of prohibition, who use personal liberty as a cloak for personal privilege. The fourth and last was the group that represents the organized opposition of the liquor trade. No matter what smoke screens they use, he said, nor how many false colors may be displayed, when they were brought to court on April 18 next it would be found that it was the old pirate tankard of the liquor trade that was being fought. The real opposition to prohibition does not come from the

Soviet Trade Missions To Stir Up Revolution

London, Tuesday, April 5.—An undated document, purporting to contain secret, detailed instructions from Nikolai Lenin, the Russian Bolshevik premier, ordering Soviet trade missions abroad to stir up revolution, is published today by The London Times. The document, which is signed "Butharin Berezin, for third international executive," and "Pavlov-Veltman, director of the council for action for propaganda in the east," says in part:

"Trade relations must always serve for communist propaganda. The primary object is spreading discontent among workers and soldiers, and

BY TOM KING.

Ottawa, April 4.—The railway situation continues to be the one subject of conversation on Parliament Hill. No announcement was made today by the government, although opposition members piled the premier with questions at the opening of the house this afternoon. Mr. Meighen contented himself with saying that some bonds of the Grand Trunk Railway Company fell due today, but he was unable to say whether or not there had been any default. The matter, he said, had been the subject of correspondence still in progress between the government and the management of the Grand Trunk Railway System. The government was not in a position to make any announcement as yet on the subject. However, the premier intimated that the correspondence in respect thereto would be laid on the table of the house.

To an opposition member, who had inquired whether his recent speech in Montreal meant that he contemplated turning over the National Railways to private corporations in the near future, Mr. Meighen smilingly observed: "The answer to that question is emphatically no."

So much for what went on in the house. At the railway department, Deputy Minister Graham Bell and a

REFUSE NEW TRIAL FOR JOHN DOUGHTY

Request Will Be Made to the Appellate Division for a Reserved Case.

THREE WEEKS' WAIT

Counsel Argued That Irrelevant Evidence Was Admitted at Trial.

John Doughty has to endure another three weeks of suspense in prison before he can become aware of his fate in connection with the $105,000 worth of bonds he is said to have stolen from Ambrose Small. Doughty's counsel, I. F. Hellmuth, K.C., was yesterday refused by Judge Denton a new trial for his client, but granted a remand for three weeks so that an application might be made to the appellate division at Osgoode Hall for a reserved case. John Doughty as he appeared in the dock yesterday was a much altered man in demeanor from that of two weeks back. All his jauntiness and apparently high spirits seem to have left him. His cheeks seemed to be sunken and his mouth has a drawn appearance as if caused by worry. He was not so well groomed as on former occasions, and from a casual observation it might be assumed that he is having sleepless nights and has arrived at a stage which lengthy incarceration produces. His eyes, also, appeared sunken and his face drawn. He was followed keenly and with evident anxiety every word Judge Denton said when refusing him a new trial. His solicitor, Miss Brett Martin, had a short conversation with him before he disappeared in charge of a warden for another three weeks. For Reserved Case. Mr. Hellmuth based his application for a reserved case that evidence irrelevant to the issue and likely to prejudice the minds of the jury had been admitted at the trial. He contended that evidence concerning what Jean and William Doughty did with the bonds while John Doughty was in another country and had no control over them should not have been admitted. The statement of one of the witnesses, F. Daville, that Doughty had made a proposition to him, Daville, to kill Small, could not have had an effect other than prejudicial on the minds of the jury. In spite of what his honor had said in addressing them. Col. R. H. Green, acting for the crown, replied that what Daville had said in regard to "killing" Small had been blurred out, had been unexpected and said without any anterior knowledge on the part of the jury. In reply, Mr. Hellmuth said he had never heard of evidence of a threat to kill as evidence of intent to steal bonds. Application Refused. Judge Denton, in refusing the application, pointed out that the court was not bound to accept Jean Doughty's statements of Jack or Jean Doughty. For that reason he could not see that the admission of the evidence complained of had been in any way prejudicial to the case. Regard to Daville's evidence, his honor pointed out that Daville, in police court, had given evidence which tended to show that Doughty was harboring a grudge against Small. In the trial court, the witness had suddenly gone farther and had sworn that Doughty had actually proposed to kill Small. Such evidence could not very well be prevented. It, therefore, became, said his honor, a question whether the jury had fairly assessed the evidence and had not been misled by the witness. He was convinced that his instructions had been fair and impartial; he had told the jury to be satisfied entirely. But, lest the defendant might think that some "substantial wrong" had been done, he granted a remand to the appellate division to apply to the appellate division.

CLEMENCY GRANTED BY LICENSE BOARD

Hon. W. E. Hanes informed John O'Neill (S. E. Toronto), in the legislature yesterday, that 173 applications had been made for remission of fine or penalties imposed under the O. T. A. between November 12, 1919, and March 1, 1920. Clemency, in whole or in part, was granted in 93 cases. In no case had the recommendations of the board of license commissioners been turned down by the attorney-general or the executive council, and in no case had the attorney-general acted on his own initiative.

"Well, it's going up. It will be $10 next week," said a court official.

He produced a silver pencil, which he declared was similar to those delivered with orders by the E. W. Gillett Company. Wilfrid Scott, of W. R. Scott, retail grocers, deposed that he had received discount on Gillett's goods. Sometimes it was in the form of cash.

INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL BOYS JUSTIFIED CONFIDENCE

Worthy of recording is the test that was given by the management of St. John's Industrial School, Blantyre, when the boys, 103 in number, were allowed out on parole for a few hours with the understanding that all should return at a certain time. The boys were to take a walk or otherwise employ themselves, according to inclination. Every boy came back and, with the exception of two or three who were a few minutes beyond the specified limit, everyone returned on time. Another item of interest from the institution was the visit of the officers of the Holy Name Society, twenty in number, who, with their president and vice-president, Messrs. W. J. Baker and Smith, were the guests at dinner of the superintendent and staff of the institution.

MAYOR IS PESSIMISTIC OVER VIADUCT QUESTION

Mayor Church takes a very pessimistic view of the viaduct situation. "It is now or never with the viaduct," he said, adding that he believed the railway board and the government intended to grant indefinite postponement. There would probably be a crop of claims for damages from concerns whose lands were to be taken over, but these would be for the railway companies to settle.

RANEY WILLING TO ADOPT SUGGESTIONS

Shows in Legislature He Is Agreeable to Accepting New Ideas.

ADOPTING CHILDREN

Government Measure Is Advanced a Stage—New Provisions Suggested.

The legislature yesterday abandoned oratory for business, and the bill was a good day's progress.

While putting through several of the bills under his direction, Hon. W. E. Raney showed that he is ready to accept good suggestions from the opposition.

The first of these was an addition to the police magistrates act which provides for the employment of stenographic reporters at police court hearings.

The amendment introduced by the attorney-general permits the employment of stenographers in cases of cases defined by order-in-council, while another provides that his remuneration may be paid either by the municipality or by the parties in the case or partly by both.

In the event of the municipality paying for the stenographer the expenses may be added to the costs of the case.

Adoption of Children. Hon. Mr. Raney introduced a new clause to the measure covering the adoption of children, the effect of which will be that the word child or its equivalent shall in every case include an adopted child unless the contrary plainly appears on the face of the document.

Another New Bill. Mr. Raney said that this raised another question, whether a man should be able to will everything away from his wife and children. It could not be done in France. "I do not think they should be free to do so under our laws," he said.

Hon. Peter Smith's amendment tax act went thru the treasurer had dropped the clause preventing a municipality from imposing any higher tax than the province imposed.

Hon. Mr. Ferguson opposed the tax as an interference with the municipalities. It means that unless they wanted to drive the billiard and pool rooms out of business they would have to reduce or give up their own taxes.

NO. 153.

Hon. Beniah Bowman's public lands act, the chief feature of which is a provision making overseas service during the great war apply upon the time required for homesteading crown lands.

Third reading was given a number of amendments and private bills without discussion, and the house then settled down to put in the balance of the afternoon on supplementary estimates.

Progress was made on the votes of the department of agriculture. Hon. Mr. Doherty was questioned regarding his policy of bringing out immigrants at present time, and contended that only experienced farm hands were being brought to Ontario.

Hydro Commission Rumor. H. Howard Ferguson asked the premier if there was any truth in the report that he (Mr. Drury) was to be appointed to the provincial hydro commission in room of Hon. I. B. Lucas.

Attorney-General Raney introduced a bill to amend the county judges act making it possible to increase the number of junior judges for the county of York from three to five.

York County Judges. In reply to a question by Mr. Stover of Algoma, Mr. Raney stated that Michael A. MacKenzie, professor of mathematics at the University of Toronto, had been paid $1,000 for his services as an actuary investigating the civil service superannuation.

FIRST NIGHT AT THEATRES

"The Beggar's Opera" Scores at the Royal on Its Return Visit to City—"Robin Hood" Is Attraction at the Princess—Good Vaudeville and Pictures at Other Toronto Houses.

"Robin Hood" the new play, in which she is ably supported by Rockliffe Fellows, a Canadian. Ethel Clayton, as the wife of a scoundrel who was killed while attempting to murder the heir of an English estate, goes thru a number of exciting scenes, and carries both the amusing and serious side of the play to perfection.

At Loew's Downtown. "The Price of Possession," which is the title of the feature film showing at Loew's downtown theatre and Winter Garden this week, is a peculiar mixture of tragedy and comedy.

"The Beggar's Opera"—Royal Alexandra. Toronto's interest in John Gay's venerable "The Beggar's Opera" was sufficient to pack the Royal Alexandra Theatre last night, with a big advance sale for the week.

The vaudeville at Shea's this week is far above the average and it would be almost impossible to pick out any one turn that is better than the other. It is becoming more and more a custom to carry their own scenery and effects.

Good Bill at the Gayety. In first night reviews, both of burlesque and musical comedy, the "Mecca" is made at all, is usually a tolerant nature, and is especially so in the case of burlesque.

WINS HISTORIC HAT FOR FIFTH TIME

Captain Goodwin Corson Is First Arrival in Harbor With Macassa.

For the fifth year in succession, the steamer Macassa yesterday was first to make her way into Toronto harbor for the opening of the sailing season.

The presentation was made by Mayor Church, who said: "I congratulate Captain Corson of the Canadian Steamship Company, on having won the prize for the year 1931, and for guiding to our shores one of the chief links between Toronto and Hamilton. I wish you and your company a successful year."

It will be remembered that the tug Ed King arrived in the harbor on Sunday afternoon, but Deputy Harbourmaster Allan said the tug was disqualified for the prize as being the first arrival of the season for the reason that it was not subject to toll, having no passengers or freight.

The chief officers of the Macassa are: Captain Goodwin Corson, Master J. Dickson, and Chief Engineer J. Gunn.
