Fear For Safety Of The Russian War Ships

London View That There is Danger—A German Fleet Reported in Gulf of Riga—Retreat on Land Continues—Men in High Command Say Petrograd is Not in Danger

Petrograd, Sept. 6.—It is semi-officially announced that a German fleet has appeared in the Gulf of Riga. During the last two days the Riga front has been broken on a width of sixty miles. Throughout Tuesday the Germans energetically pursued their offensive, particularly north of Uzkull in order to cut the Riga-Dendun railway.

FEAR FOR RUSSIAN FLEET? New York, Sept. 6.—A special cable to the New York World from London says grave fears are expressed there regarding the possible fate of the Russian fleet, for its safety depends on the stand being made by the Russian armies.

RUSSIAN FLEET EXPECTS FIGHT? Washington, Sept. 6.—When Riga was cleared of its civilian population three weeks ago, according to officials at the Russian embassy, preparations were made for its final evacuation. Supplies were taken to other points, and whatever would be of value to the Germans was destroyed or otherwise disposed of.

HAVE NO FEAR FOR PETROGRAD? Petrograd, Sept. 6.—General Alexieff, former commander-in-chief, said today that Petrograd was not threatened by the fall of Riga. The greater danger, he added, was on the Roumanian front.

General Vassilievski, commander of the Petrograd military district, agrees with General Alexieff. He declares the fall of Riga is of no strategic importance, and gives assurance that the Petrograd garrison is in good position, well supplied and confident of the safety of the capital.

Drastic measures have been decided upon by the government to avert serious conditions at the capital as a result of the capture of Riga. Agents will be sent out to stop the flood of reserves on the way here. Railroads have been forbidden to sell them tickets to Petrograd.

Retreat is Difficult. Petrograd, Sept. 6.—The retreat of the Russians from Riga over a neck of land a mile and a half wide between Lake Kish and Lake Egel is being accomplished with the greatest difficulty, and with the enemy constantly shelling the rear guard. This route is along the Pskoff railway and is the only exit from the cul de sac, the German column having moved up from the Uzkull direction, cutting off the Russian retreat to the southeast.

The civilian head of the war ministry, Boris Savinkoff, has issued a statement saying that the success of the measures which will be taken to check the advance "depend wholly upon the behaviour of our troops."

Despite reports of the disgraceful flight of some elements of the Russian defenders of Riga positions, military commentators praise the heroism of certain regiments, among which were some composed of Letts who fought bravely to stem the tide of retreat.

The chief of the general staff, General Romanofsky, expresses the opinion that the evacuation constitutes no imminent menace to Petrograd because the rear approach of the rainy season will prevent the enemy from advancing far in the direction of the capital. The danger of a descent upon the coast nearer to Petrograd is also discounted in official circles for the reasons and the additional difficulty the enemy would find in maintaining communication with a detached force. The newspapers take a gloomy view of the situation.

Retreat Continues. Petrograd, Sept. 6.—The Russians are continuing their retreat toward the northeast in the Riga region, crossing the Melupe river.

Berlin Celebrates. Berlin, Sept. 6.—(Montreal Gazetteable)—Berlin's houses were flagged yesterday in honor of the victory of Riga, and the crowded streets presented a festive aspect.

AMERICAN RAILROADS MADE A NEW HIGH RECORD IN JULY. Washington, Sept. 6.—Preliminary reports for 1916 of the big large railways of the country made public today indicate that the July revenue exceeded those of any other month, which established a new high record.

Wheat Arrivals Small. Chicago, Sept. 6.—Arrivals of wheat today were not of sufficient volume to permit of furnishing supplies to any other than local mills. Similar conditions were reported from Minneapolis and Kansas City.

Poles Present Demands To Germans. Copenhagen, Sept. 6.—According to a report from Cracow, Count Roniker, 4 Warsaw, representing a group of prominent Russian Poles, has presented to the German government a set of demands. These include abolition of the frontier line between the German and Austrian spheres of occupation in Russian Poland, cessation of requisitions in Poland, the expenditure of 6,000,000,000 marks to repair the ravages of war and the appointment of Count Marnofsky as head of the new administration of the occupied districts.

FOR PURCHASE OF COAL BY CITY

M. o. e To Get 10,000 Tons Decided On

MILK ALSO DISCUSSED

Matters Vital to People Discussed by Commissioners This Morning—The Proposed Shed at Reid's Point—The Carleton Wharves.

A committee meeting of the common council was held this morning. The question of laying a new siding on the Pettingill wharf was referred to a council meeting this afternoon.

Commissioner Russell submitted plans for a new shed which the Eastern S. S. Corporation desire the city to build on the city wharf which they have at present under lease. He estimated the cost at about $20,000. It was decided that Commissioner Russell and City Engineer Murdoch interview Mr. Currie, agent of the Eastern S. S. Corporation, and get in writing from him just what the company was willing to do in the matter with regard to rental and term of lease.

The shed, as per plan, would be 202 feet long, 88 feet wide, tapering to 49 feet. The Eastern S. S. Corporation have offered to pay ten per cent of the cost in rental. This, the mayor thought, was not enough. He thought all city property should be paying enough to cover expenses and suggested that the company should pay at least twelve per cent.

Commissioner McLellan was of opinion that twelve per cent was little enough. Commissioner Fisher thought that the company was willing to satisfy the city's wants. What the company wanted was the shed and he thought that they were willing to pay for it. He drew to the attention of the council the fact that the company had been asked to build a shed for the freight in order to continue business and without the shed they would be unable to handle any extra amount.

Commissioner Russell thought that the shed matter was going into the company's hands and he thought the city should not renew the present lease.

The commissioners, however, all favored the scheme of putting up the shed and it was only matters of detail which Commissioner Russell is to get from the company.

WANT MEN, WHETHER BY CONSCRIPTION OR VOLUNTARY METHOD

Canadians' Commander Makes Statement—Recent Casualties One-Third of German Losses

London, Sept. 6.—(Montreal Gazetteable)—General Sir Arthur Currie tells the Montreal Gazette correspondent that the troops in the field want more men, whether it be by conscription or raised by voluntary methods.

So far, the morale of the Canadian troops has been well maintained, said the general, and he said that reinforcements are always forthcoming.

"In the last action," he said, "our casualties were only one-third of the enemy's losses, and the remainder of the enemy had lately retreated with numerous counter attacks, but these had been successfully met by new plans."

GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S DAUGHTER TO WED

The Governor-General has announced that a marriage has been arranged between Lady Mabel Cavendish, eldest daughter of the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire, and Captain Angus Mackintosh, A. D. C., Royal Horse Guards.

Recruits Will Go To Units From Their Own Districts

Ottawa, Sept. 6.—The organization of the units which comprise the Canadian expeditionary force in England and at the front on a territorial basis having been completed, the militia department intends handling the men recruited under the military service act on a similar basis. This means that men recruited in any of the military districts of Canada when sent over to England will be attached to the reserve regiments already there from their own military district.

Likewise when sent forward to the front from the reserves in England they will be attached to regimental units originally from their own military district in Canada.

AUSTRILIANS STILL HOLD MONTE SAN GABRIELE

Yesterday's Cabled Report Premature—Supporting Positions Gradually Falling—Huns Again Bomb Hospitals

Udine, Italy, Sept. 5.—The Austrian command has succeeded in concentrating again such numbers of fresh troops and artillery removed from the Russo-Roumanian and Balkan fronts, that the battle is raging again more fiercely than ever, especially east of Gorizia, northwest of the Hermada in the Carso area.

The Austrians are still in possession of what is called the Sentinel of Gorizia, Monte San Gabriele, which dominates both the Isonzo Valley and the southern part of the Bainsizza plateau, but all the surrounding supports of this stronghold are gradually falling into the hands of the Italians, so that the network of fortifications which the enemy had spread along the section is little by little being destroyed.

(Unofficial reports through London yesterday said that Monte San Gabriele had been captured by the Italians.)

Rome, Sept. 6.—The desperate battle for possession of positions in the district northeast of Gorizia on the Austro-Italian front is continuing, according to today's war office statement. The Italians yesterday took more than 500 additional prisoners.

Hospitals Bombed. London, Sept. 6.—On the night of September 4-5 German aircraft dropped bombs on three hospitals, says today's official communication. "Local fighting and patrol encounters occurred during the night southeast of St. Julien and east of Fleurbaix."

French Front. Paris, Sept. 6.—Two German attacks on the Aisne front last night were repulsed by the French, says today's official statement. Heavy artillery fighting occurred on the Champagne and Verdun fronts.

In the vicinity of Rheims the French made a surprise attack which permitted them to penetrate the enemy's first lines. In the Champagne, French batteries obtained the ascendancy over the artillery of the enemy which developed a particularly violent fire in the sector between the Main De Massiges and the Butte Du Mesnil. The French replied vigorously against the German firing and repulsed an attack by the enemy.

Why Not Carry Out Undertaking?

Senator Bostock Would Know More About C. N. R. Deal

PROCEEDINGS IN SENATE

Says Government Action Means Canada Will Assume Liabilities of $653,000,000; Upper House to Meet Again Today

Ottawa, Sept. 6.—Senator Bostock said during the Canadian Northern Railway debate last night that Hansard showed that when Sir James Loughheed asked the senate to sanction the 1914 aid to the railway he said that under the terms of the legislation, in case of default, the Canadian Northern would automatically come into the possession of the people of Canada. He wanted to know why that undertaking had not been made good and the railway, which was in default, had not been automatically taken over by the government.

He said that there was much information that should be produced before this bargain was legalized by parliament.

Senator Bostock asserted that the common stock of the Canadian Northern had no value and read from the Drayton-Acworth report to prove that the liability of the company exceeded the value of the road and equipment. He said all the debts of the Canadian Northern would be worth par when the government took over the road and estimated that in taking over the railway the country would assume liabilities amounting to $653,000,000.

Senator McLennan said he would give his support to the bill, and based his stand upon the speech of the prime minister which forewarned the cooperative management of all Canadian railways under state control.

Senator Casgrain said that the information that the Canadian Northern had given as to the cost of completing the Montreal tunnel, station and other terminal facilities was ridiculous. By its statement the company contended that the station could be built for $114,000 and would favorably compare with the Windsor station of the C. P. R., but would be a hundred yards away. The Windsor station cost millions, and could not be duplicated for much more than its cost. The company claimed already to have spent $80,000 on its station, but no one could see any real result, and it was not to be completed for some time.

Senator Casgrain adjourned the debate. The senate adjourned until Thursday afternoon.

WOULD LIKE LIGHT WINES AND BEERS IN RESTAURANTS

Victoria, B. C., Sept. 6.—As a war measure the Trades and Labor Council meeting last night endorsed a resolution of the Kamloops chamber of commerce asking the Canadian government to establish plants for handling iron deposits and for their conversion into steel.

The council also endorsed the attitude of the brewery workers and bartenders in advocating the sale of light wines and beers in restaurants, and prohibition goes into effect in the province.

PREDICTS SHARP ADVANCE IN THE PRICE OF NEWSPAPER

Sherbrooke, Que., Sept. 6.—G. A. Bottwell, general manager of the Brompton Pulp and Paper Company, said yesterday that he believes newspaper publishers are about to experience another great advance in newspaper, which will make the earlier increases look small indeed.

CHAMPION WALKER FALLS AND HURTS KNEE

Toronto, Sept. 6.—While enjoying a brief stop-over in Detroit on his way home after the A. A. U. championships at St. Louis, where he established a three mile championship record, George Goulding sustained injury through falling on a slippery sidewalk. The noted Toronto walker injured his knee, but declares he will be in good shape for walking again by next Saturday.

SUPPRESSING ACTIVITIES OF SEDITIOUS NATURE

Washington, Sept. 6.—The United States government, as the result of country-wide raids yesterday on headquarters of I. W. W., Socialist and other organizations, was today in possession of documents to be used as evidence in an effort to suppress alleged activities of a seditious nature. The seizures, the department of justice announced, were in connection with federal grand jury investigations in Chicago.

Our Soldiers

Mrs. F. J. McNamara, of St. Stephen, formerly a resident of this city, on Wednesday received official information that her youngest son, Pte. Leo McNamara, was wounded in the knee, but it is considered slight, being a barbed wire wound. Private Leo crossed over with the 50th Battalion and was later drafted into another battalion, in which he has been fighting fifteen months.

His brother, Pte. T. Byrne McNamara, was wounded with shrapnel in the head on April 8 and is yet in hospital in England. This youthful soldier enlisted in the first contingent, but on account of defective eyesight was transferred from one battalion to another and although he has been some three years in the service of king and country he had been on active service scarcely one year when wounded. Both these brave boys have many friends in the city who will hope for their recovery.

Rev. A. W. Daniel, Rothesay, received word yesterday that his son, Private Reginald Heber Hamilton Daniel, had been killed in action on August 15. Private Daniel was twenty-seven years old. Prior to going overseas he was a member of the staff of the Bank of Montreal head office. Besides his parents, he leaves his wife and one sister, Miss Jean Daniel, V. A. D., of Rothesay, who is awaiting orders to proceed overseas.

Rev. Henry T. Parlee, of Stewiacke, N. S., has received word that his youngest son, Bombardier Percy Parlee, has been wounded in the left foot. He with a number of King's College boys, went over in the cyclist's platoon with the 25th Battalion in June.

GOVERNOR IN TEARS AS MOTHER PLEADS FOR SON

Joe Mulholland Dies in Electric Chair, Despite Appeal

MUSIC ECHOES REQUEST

Women in Silks Stare Curiously at Petitioner in St. Regis Lobby, New York

(New York Tribune).

Among all the mothers who thronged Fifth avenue yesterday was one in whom pride made no struggle against grief. She had just inspired the panic in her heart—grief and the dregs of hope. She did not see the ripple of a banner, she did not see the brass could not penetrate to her brain. She only knew that the big red building, with its fluttering bunting, was the Union League Club, which for the moment housed Governor Whitman.

She was Mrs. Marie Mulholland, and her son, Joseph, had just twelve hours to live. He was in the death house at Sing Sing.

She penetrated the police lines. Wise in the ways of misery, policemen after policeman passed the trail woman with the burning eyes and tragic lips backward toward the Union League Club.

She was not permitted to interrupt the review of all the petitioners' sons, but she did get the promise of an audience later at the Hotel St. Regis, and eventually the boon of a visit to her son. Although she wrung tears from the governor, she could obtain no more.

Joseph Mulholland, convicted of the murder of Mrs. Elizabeth Nichols, who was killed for her jewels on February 8, 1915, in her home at 4 East Seventy-ninth street, was declared at Sing Sing at 11.09 tonight, in ignorance of his mother's last desperate attempt to save him and of the permission granted to her for a last visit, he walked behind the Rev. William Cahin, Sing Sing's chaplain, from his cell to the death chamber.

"Goodby, doctor," he said to Dr. Amos O. Squire, prison physician, as he entered the death chamber at 11.08. Three shocks were administered. Warden Moyer was present, and had as witnesses three naval surgeons—Dr. Townsend, Craig and Fleming.

Her Plea Written Out

The lobby of the St. Regis glowed with light and vibrated to distant dance strains when Mrs. Mulholland begged for the life of her son. Officers stiff with recently conferred authority stalked to and fro. Women in silks and gowds walked past and stared curiously at the tragedy staged in the shadow-less, gleaming foyer.

Mrs. Mulholland sat on the edge of a brocade sofa. She saw neither uniforms nor jewels. She wept silently as she watched and heard Mrs. Katherine Shields, and a friend, Mrs. Katherine Hannan, who sat beside her, wept also. They did not see when Governor Whitman and his military secretary, Major F. L. V. Hoppin, came. They did not know they had come until the governor sat down beside them.

Clutched in Mrs. Mulholland's hand were several sheets of blue-inked paper on which she had written in delicate, cursive handwriting, her plea to the governor let her tongue feel her in his presence. At times, the neat letters had sprouted off the lines and there were blurs here and there that told of the travail of composition.

She felt no awe of the man seated beside her, however, and her fingers crumpled and picked at the laborious document as she told of her son "who always had been a good boy." Her written plea was soon a wrinkled, tightly-reel ball, which, at the end of the interview, she carried away mechanically.

It was her birthday, her fifteenth birthday, he said, and Joe was her only son. Her husband was partly paralyzed and together they cared for a Park Avenue apartment house. Until Joe was arrested he had supported them. He was a good son, that was all, but it was his mother who was talking and the story was long in telling.

Appl is Denied

Joe Mulholland suddenly fell silent and leaned back, feeling for the silent support of the seat. Major Hoppin, with never a thought of the bebops who passed and repressed in rows, chorus, sped away and returned with a glass of water. When Mrs. Mulholland gave back the glass with the words "I am so glad you are here," she was asked permission to visit her son more. Governor Whitman was aghast in granting it. He asked her if she had the money to pay for her railroad fare, and seemed almost disappointed when she produced it.

Stewart Lyon Says Famous Prussian Guard Weary Over Recent Experiences

Canadian Headquarters in France, via London, Sept. 5.—(By Stewart Lyon, Special Correspondent of the Canadian Press)—The famous Prussian Guard formations are war-weary and despondent over their experiences during the last three weeks on this part of the front. A prisoner of a regiment attached to the Fourth Guard Division, which holds the enemy line in the vicinity of Hill 70, says that the losses in his regiment have been very great.

By our attack on the morning of Sept. 1st the 3rd Battalion was so badly cut up that the first battalion had to be called on to take over part of the line. The officers of this battalion were not aware that our men held a certain trench well to the south of our front line. By their orders the Germans advanced up the trench until they came under the concentrated machine gun fire of the Canadians holding the trench. In a few minutes half the company were wiped out. In another part of the trench a similar experience befell another company.

IN ONE SENTENCE

(Halifax Chronicle) President Wilson's note in reply to the Pope's peace proposals has properly been signalled by the press of two continents as one of the greatest state papers of the war. It is a masterpiece of diplomatic correspondence, resting in terms which are incapable of misunderstanding, the only basis upon which peace is possible in this world struggle between democracy and autocracy at its worst. There is one passage of surpassing distinction in which the president compresses in a single sentence what is the stake of democracy in the struggle:

The object of this war is to deliver the free peoples of the world from the menace and the actual power of a vast military establishment controlled by an irresponsible government which, having secretly planned to dominate the world, proceeded to carry the plan out without regard either to the sacred obligations of treaty or the long established principles of international action and honor which close its own doors for the war; delivered its blow fiercely and suddenly; stopped at no barrier, either of law or mercy; swept a whole continent within the tide of blood—not the blood of soldiers only, but the blood of innocent women and children also, and of the helpless poor—and now stands balked not defeated, the enemy of four-fifths of the world.

This majestic arraignment of the Prussian war lords who willed this war and have made it the accursed scourge of the world has never been surpassed in the literature of the war. In the generations to come it will live as a righteous indictment of a military autocracy which has outraged all law, human and divine. There can be no peace with such a power. The world must be saved from its malevolent designs. It is our business to see to it that the history of the rest of the world is no longer left to its handling. This agony must not be gone through with again.

It is a compelling call to the free peoples of the world to pledge anew their determination to "make the world safe for democracy."

THE SUBMARINE'S WORK

London, Sept. 5.—British merchant ships sunk by mine or submarine in the past week numbered twenty or more than 1,600 tons and three under 1,600 tons, according to the official announcement tonight.

British merchant vessels sunk the previous week by mine or submarine numbered eighteen over 1,600 tons and five under 1,600 tons.

when the gas alarms began to ring, the enemy rushed up into the front line trench and put on the gas masks. At that moment our barrage came down upon the trench, preparatory to an assault. The enemy lost many men by our artillery fire, and when our infantry came up it was but a half-hearted resistance that the shaken enemy offered. No serious attempt has been made to recover the lost ground which was almost the last portion north of Lens from which the enemy could observe movement within our lines.

There has been abnormal bombing activity by the enemy and shelling of the back area by high velocity guns. The British aviators also have been very busy since the return of clear weather. In one case a direct hit was made with a heavy bomb on an enemy aerodrome. The explosion violently pumped an attacking aeroplane, but it quickly righted and the aviator swung around and fired to observe the result of his lucky hit. Great clouds of black smoke were rolling up, and it was evident that a large part of the plant had been destroyed. The use of machine guns upon trains, lorry convoys and similar enemy targets during these forays is now so common that it is not thought worth while reporting such incidents.

Words of Cheer For Capital

(Toronto Star) "Now is the season of our discontent. Made glorious summer." When the excess profits tax was increased, loud cries of anguish arose from the profiteers. The Montreal Financial Times said that the new tax would take away 40 per cent of the profits of the big-pressure production, to maximum efficiency in the use of a given amount of plant and equipment. Mr. Dickson, president and managing director of the Times, spoke of the ceaseless application of the executive and department heads, the broken health, the shattered nerves of the so-called profiteers. These extraordinary efforts could not be maintained if the profits were reduced by taxation. Enterprise would be discouraged. That shy damsel, Capital, would take flight and take flight, even if large profits were being made out of the war, it was pointed out that the profiteer must put by something for a rainy day. Col. Cantley, of the Nova Scotia Steel Company, spoke of a coming day when the manufacturer will be unable to carry the load he is now carrying, and when profits will fall until capital will cease to be attracted to industrial enterprise. By such appeals the heart of the minister of finance was touched. After the war, he said, we shall need a new era of enterprise and industry, and we should review our taxation and consider whether it is so heavy as to keep these men of capital and enterprise away.

These clouds are dispelled by a cheery sun, calling attention to an attractive offering of stock of the Nova Scotia Steel Company. With it is enclosed a reprint of "Words of Cheer for Capital," a letter, originally printed in the Boston Commercial. For years before the war, it is said, the company was a prosperous concern, an earner of dividends, and a continuous dividend payer. It is not an enterprise whose prosperity depends on war. The war brought it "first extreme depression and then an embarrassment of riches." War business came, and domestic business was restored. The company earned $2,084,170 in 1915, and in 1916, after writing off all betterments to plants, depreciation, doubtful accounts and war taxes, its earnings were $2,104,478. During six months of this year its net income was $1,586,470, being about $40 per share of the common stock. On June 30 of this year the company's net surplus of cash and quick assets for working capital was $6,900,000. So you see that during the war the company is embarrassed by its riches, and the excess profits tax merely operates as a relief to this embarrassment. But what about the future? Will capital spread its wings and fly away to some warmer clime? By no means. One of the strongest groups of American financiers and operating men have interested themselves heavily in the company. They have the support of bankers able to supply all the capital that will be needed. Col. Cantley will retire, retaining an advisory position, and the new president will be Frank H. Crookard, formerly of the Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railroad Company. He will have the benefit of the advice of Col. Dan C. Jackling, a genius in copper. The shrewd Americans do not seem to be afraid of the taxes. Some of the grounds of reassurance are given. After the war there will be world-wide reconstruction and new construction. The company will be able to sell several hundred thousand tons of iron ore annually in Europe at a profit of $1.50 to $2 a ton. Its coal, of which it has more than 3,000 years' supply on hand, will be in far greater demand than ever, and will command much higher prices. It is conceivable that the American capitalists believe that the taxes of 1918 and future years will be comparatively light, Sir Thomas White having left that an open question. But even if the present tax is continued, it will not make too much of a hole in the profits of a company which has a net surplus of $5,000,000, and for 8,000 years, and iron galore, and a grand opportunity to bind up the wounds of Europe. Not even in semi-tropical Tennessee is the air swarmed with the birds of passage than in Nova Scotia.

DYSENTERY DANGEROUS

DYSENTERY IS DANGEROUS. Dysentery is one of the worst forms of bowel complaint. It comes on so suddenly, the pains in the bowels become so intense, the discharges occur with great rapidity, and are very often accompanied by blood, and the action on the system so weakening that its termination often proves fatal. When the bowels get loosened up in this way, and you wish to check the unnatural discharge without bringing on constipation, there is only one remedy to use, and that is Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. This remedy is not an experiment as it has been used in thousands of Canadian homes during the past 72 years. Mrs. Albert Pearson, Bryan's Corner, N.B., writes: "I have used Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry for the past ten years, and I would not be without it in the house." "Last fall my little boy, three years old, took very bad with dysentery. After taking 8 or 10 doses of 'Dr. Fowler's' he began to improve, and before he had used all the bottle he was entirely cured. I sincerely recommend it to all." There are many cheap imitations of this sterling remedy on the market. Ask for Dr. Fowler's and see that you get the genuine when you ask for it. Price 35c. SENATE ACTION HAS EFFECT IN WALL STREET

Improvement Attributed to Defeat of Measure for High Tax on War Profits New York, Sept. 6.—The further improvement shown at the opening of today's stock market was generally attributed to the defeat of the high tax on war profits in the senate. Equipment and other issues most concerned in the government's taxation plan opened at gains of one to one and a quarter points, and investment rails also strengthened, especially Pacific. United States Steel opened at 109 1/2, to 109 1/4, an extreme gain of 1 1/4, but soon reacted to 107 1/2. The entire list became irregular when New Haven fell three and three-eighths points, to the new low record of 27 1/2.

STOCKS WERE ON THE DOWN GRADE DURING MORNING

New York, Sept. 6.—(Wall street noon)—Pressure was again effective during the morning, New Haven's further collapse provoking fresh selling of rails, New York Central made a new low record at 75. Union Pacific surrendered all its gains and other rails reacted one to two points. Steel rallied to 108 1/4 but once more fell back 1 1/2 points and other industrials were equally heavy. General Motors broke 21 1/4 and various specialties yielded one to three. Irregular rallies set in at noon.

LONDON STOCK MARKET

London, Sept. 6.—The stock market was quiet today, but the steady undertone continued in most of the departments, especially gilt-edged securities, rubber stocks and Japanese bonds. The latter advanced on redemption prices. Spanish bonds were better with a favorable move in exchange, but Russian issues were weak after temporary firmness. Argentine rails were easy on strike rumors and American specialties irregular. Money was in good supply and discount rates were quiet.

STATEMENT OF BANK OF ENGLAND

London, Sept. 6.—The weekly statement of the Bank of England shows the following changes: Total reserve, decreased 278,000 pounds; circulation, increased 266,000 pounds; bullion, decreased 14,900 pounds; other securities, decreased 7,759,000 pounds; public deposits decreased 2,064,000 pounds; other deposits decreased 6,097,000 pounds; notes reserve decreased 269,000 pounds; government securities decreased 105,000 pounds. The proportion of the bank's reserve to liabilities this week is 18.92 per cent.; last week it was 18.21 per cent.

THE SUGAR SITUATION

Bangor Commercial—Mr. Hoover tells the housewives of the country not to hoard sugar and explains that there is no lack of sugar but that the problem of its distribution is a bothersome one. He says that after October 1, the sugar situation will be normal. It is when the public becomes frightened and begins to hoard that the trouble comes. There was an experience of this in New England a few months ago when there was a decided scarcity in spite of the fact that there was plenty of sugar in the country.

THUNDERSTORM GIVES RELIEF TO LONDON

People Were Expecting Another Moonlight Air Raid London, Sept. 6.—Following the excitement of the air raid of Tuesday night, London was visited last night by a terrific thunderstorm, which was accompanied by a spectacular electrical display and heavy downpours of rain, which continued for about three hours. The storm came as a relief to many people, who in anticipation of the repetition of moonlight air attacks, had arranged safer shelters than they had on Tuesday night and had made preparations to stay in them.

VON HUTIER IN LIMELIGHT; HE IS CAPTOR OF RIGA

German General of French Descent—Chief of Staff Figured in Edith Cavell Case Copenhagen, Sept. 6.—The German's capture of Riga has brought out the name of a new German army commander, Von Hutier, whose recent promotion to leadership of an independent army is one of the few examples of young blood forcing its way to the top through the ranks of older generals and superannuated officers. Von Hutier is of French descent, his grandfather having been a French officer. He was a guard division commander at the outbreak of the war and until the capture of Riga he had no striking events to his credit. His first desirable prominence in connection with the execution of Miss Edith Cavell, an English nurse in Belgium.

THE PRICE OF MILK

Halifax Recorder—Americans are beginning to feel the high cost of living. During last month the price of milk in New York was eighteen cents a quart for the best, and twelve and a half cents for mere milk. But the dairy farmers say that they can make no more money in the advance than on the old price. Every recipient of an advanced price says it only covers increased cost. But unfortunately, as the Saturday Evening Post says, an immense number of persons who are paying the increased price are unable to hand it on to a next in line. Clerks, teachers, the rank and file of professional men, government employees, as a rule, and other classes find it harder to meet the weekly bills. "For them higher prices are a war tax which they cannot pass on, but must shoulder." Many citizens of Halifax can fully appreciate this hard fact.

THE SUGAR QUOTATION

Manila, Sept. 6.—The Philippine sugar interests have appealed to the insular government to make representations to Washington that the fixing of national sugar prices will be ruinous to them unless minimum rates are established for Pacific freights.

GRAIN CROP OF MANITOBA SAFE

Winnipeg, Sept. 5.—A violent storm from the north, accompanied by heavy rain squalls, is driving over Manitoba, but temperatures remain high. This is the first real interruption to what has been the most successful harvest and threshing season of recent record. The entire grain crop of Manitoba is safe. Slight frosts are recorded in Alberta, but the crop is long past the freezing point; in fact, never before in the crop history of the Canadian prairie west has there been such a minimum of frost.

In Parliament

Federal Franchise Bill to Be Brought Down Today

Supplementary Estimates

Has Coming Election Something to Do With Them? Telephone Appropriation Causes a Lot of Discussion

Ottawa, Sept. 5.—When questions were asked, the minister of justice informed Mr. Ethier that it was correct the government had offered a reward of $5,000 to anyone who could give any information necessary for the arrest of the dynamiters of the property of Lord Atholstan.

"The action of the government," Hon. Mr. Doherty replied, "in such matters must be and is governed by consideration of what the public interest requires and not of the personality or position of the individuals affected."

Dr. Edwards was informed that thirty-two immigration agents were employed by Canada in the United States during the last fiscal year. Their expenses amounted to $115,042. As a result of their efforts there were 61,889 immigrants. Salaries amounted to $51,362.

Seven Roman Catholic clergy were employed. The expenses of all these agents totalled $7,242.

On the orders of the day, Mr. Knowles asked if anything had been done to fix the price of wheat in Canada.

Sir George Foster—"The board of grain supervisors meets tomorrow in Winnipeg. I think it is possible an announcement will then be made."

Mr. Fardeau asked if investigations were being conducted in regard to the O'Connor report. Hon. Mr. Crothers replied that the parties concerned were now employed in examining the companies' books.

Franchise Bill Today. Sir George Foster announced that the federal franchise bill would be brought down tomorrow and the house went into committee of supply on the supplementary estimates.

There was protracted discussion on a vote of $420,000 for a branch telegraph line in Cape Breton, the item leading to a general discussion of government telephones.

Mr. Carvell asked where it was the policy of the government to go into the telephone business. He questioned the advisability of the vote as establishing the principle.

Hon. Dr. Reid responded that so far as the principle was concerned it was established many years ago. When private companies could not profitably give telephone and telegraph communications to a community, the government had taken the matter up. The lines in question were not in competition with any particular system in the locality.

If the government, remarked Sir Sam Hughes, is going to establish telephones and telegraphs in Nova Scotia, it is only fair they should do the same in any province in Canada.

Hon. Mr. Graham remarked that in one province (British Columbia) was getting $219,000 for telephones when the people of the rest of Canada discovered that outlying districts were given telephone communications by the government. They would be displeased, to put it mildly, if the government acted in that way in one part of the country it was only reasonable to suggest that they would make it their policy everywhere.

Hon. Dr. Reid said that the government had already established telephones in some parts of New Ontario.

Hon. Mr. Pugsley contended that the objectionable feature about the estimates was that they were brought down late. If it had been necessary to provide for telegraph and telephone lines, provision could have been made in the main estimates.

Parliament was now called upon to vote nearly four times as much for the purpose in the supplementary as in the main estimates. "We can easily see," Mr. Pugsley declared, "that the only thing which could inspire a minister would be either that it was considered desirable to put them into the main estimates because the largeness of the estimates would then attract public attention and then invite public criticism, or the minister sees an election is very near at hand and he is compelled to recognize the importance of putting in these items in order to secure popularity."

Hon. Dr. Reid thought such criticism was hardly fair. The supplementary estimates, he said, had been brought down some time, and were prepared before the extension of parliament was discussed in the house.

Mr. Carvell feared the government was branching out into a great scheme of public ownership the end of which no man could see. The conclusion was forced on one that there was some connection between the extension of telegraph lines and an election. Everyone was asked to stretch, but supply the government should be the first to practice retrenchment. "It is as plain as a nose on a man's face," Mr. Carvell declared, "that the government is getting prepared for an election. I think the minister should drop all these items."

Mr. Kyte of Richmond, strongly criticized the dismissal of a lineman in his county in Nova Scotia. "It is the most contemptible instance of political partisanship," Mr. Kyte said, "that has been known in the history of the country, where there have been many instances of it in the last four or five years. Cabinet ministers resort to the most contemptible means of persecuting those who are not of the same political faith as themselves."

Dr. Reid repudiated any charge of political partisanship and added that Mr. Kyte had charge of the dispensing of patronage in his county it would be God-help-the-Conservatives.

Mr. Chisholm (Inverness) said the government constantly discriminated against Liberals when installing telephones in Cape Breton. He said he could give a dozen instances where applications from Liberals for telephones had been refused. Even when telephones were installed there was no privacy. When you talked to your friends even your friends heard what you were saying. Mr. Carvell said that these statements proved the viciousness of this system. Every honest man, he said, should object to partisanship in the matter of installing telephones.

TOTAL ENLISTMENTS IN CANADA TO DATE 431,455

Ottawa, Sept. 5.—Enlistments in Canada for the last two weeks of August totalled 1,500, which was a decrease of 142, as compared with the preceding two weeks. The recruiting figures by military districts, as given out by the militia department today, are as follows: London, 171; Toronto, 691; Ottawa and Kingston, 62; Montreal, 188; Quebec, 86; Maritime Provinces, 119; Manitoba, 146; British Columbia, 108; Saskatchewan, 12, and Alberta, 35. Total enlistments in the Canadian expeditionary force are now 481,455.

Hon. Mr. Pugsley contended that the objectionable feature about the estimates was that they were brought down late. If it had been necessary to provide for telegraph and telephone lines, provision could have been made in the main estimates.

Parliament was now called upon to vote nearly four times as much for the purpose in the supplementary as in the main estimates. "We can easily see," Mr. Pugsley declared, "that the only thing which could inspire a minister would be either that it was considered desirable to put them into the main estimates because the largeness of the estimates would then attract public attention and then invite public criticism, or the minister sees an election is very near at hand and he is compelled to recognize the importance of putting in these items in order to secure popularity."

Hon. Dr. Reid thought such criticism was hardly fair. The supplementary estimates, he said, had been brought down some time, and were prepared before the extension of parliament was discussed in the house.

Mr. Carvell feared the government was branching out into a great scheme of public ownership the end of which no man could see. The conclusion was forced on one that there was some connection between the extension of telegraph lines and an election. Everyone was asked to stretch, but supply the government should be the first to practice retrenchment. Mr. Carvell asked what lines were to be extended in Dorchester county that were necessary excepting for the implementation of election promises. Dr. Reid replied that it was a new parish.

Mr. MacLean declared that Dorchester was one of the best and oldest settled counties in Canada.

Dr. Reid admitted that the telephone system might be a new policy. In past years telegraph lines had been established, but he believed that telephones were preferable because everybody could use them.

An Election Promise. Mr. Tobin, of Wolfe, declared that the minister of inland revenue, Mr. Severy, had said that if it had not been for his promises made during the election in February last, this item would never have appeared in the estimates.

DR. CLARK WILL RUN IF THERE IS NATIONAL GOVERNMENT.

Calgary, Alta., Sept. 5.—If a national government is formed and if a non-partisan convention of Red deer riding, supporting such national government, is of opinion that he is likely to be the most acceptable candidate, Dr. Michael Clark will consent to run again in the constituency which he has represented for the last nine years. That is the information contained in a letter sent by Dr. Clark to Edward Michener, of Red Deer, leader of the Alberta Conservative party, the full text of which is published today by the Calgary Herald. Dr. Clark makes it clear, in his letter, that he will not be a candidate unless these two conditions are fulfilled.

Hon. Frank Oliver declared the policy had been to give telegraphic communication to outlying points of strategic importance, but never to provide purely local telegraphic communications. The pioneer settlers of the Peace river had communicated with the outside, but when

Success as Manager of Toronto Team and Recovery of Batting Eye Attract Big Leaguers

New York, Sept. 5—Nap Lajoie's success as a manager in the International League, and the recovery of his batting eye are almost certain to bring the veteran back into the big league.

Lajoie is satisfied with his lot in Toronto. He is well liked there. His team has been in the pennant fight all the way, and the club has been prosperous. Hence, he isn't figuring very heavily on leaving.

Lajoie is expected in baseball circles to have an American League club before many seasons pass. In fact, it is confidently expected the transfer will be made this winter.

to show anything. The champion, with his cleverness overruled everything, in that was only to avoid an inevitable knockout that Rector's seconds finally threw in the sponge early in the fifth round.

Leonard time after time walked in and raked his opponent with hard jabs and then walked away only to resume the attack. His ability to avoid punishment, yet at the same time find his man with counters was a revelation to the fans.

Rector was groggy almost from the beginning of the second round and Leonard might have put him away at any time during the third and fourth rounds, but good naturedly refrained from doing so.

However, when the fifth round opened Leonard started a whirlwind attack which could have had but one end, and with Rector reeling against the ropes the sponge was thrown in.

As a contest the bout was not up to par, but in the few minutes that Leonard was in the ring he gave the crowd who were for the majority seeing him for the first time a good idea of his brilliancy in footwork, fighting and ring generalship.

Leonard appeared at the ringside in the uniform of a lieutenant in the United States army, it being announced that he had been awarded a commission with the physical culture branch of the service.

CUBAN AIRSHIPS TO AID ALLIES

Consul Here Receives Word of Vote at Home—Soldiers Also to Europe

That the republic of Cuba intends to take an active part in the struggle of humanity against Germanism is evidenced by the fact that she has now voted fifty aeroplanes to be sent to the French front for the use of the Allies. Word to this effect was received this morning by Caesar Barranco, Cuban Consul in St. John.
Cuba, immediately upon declaring war, made preparations for a conscription, and Cuban troops will go overseas in company with the boys of the United States. One contingent of Cubans is already in France, the vote for fifty aeroplanes will be of great assistance to them.

MILK DEALERS PAY THE PRICE

Accord To Farmers' Demands; Now People Pay

Supplies Now Being Arranged For—The Talk of an Inspector—Cream Brought Here From Montreal

Local milk dealers this morning acceded to the demands of the Kings county farmers and have agreed to pay the price of fifty-six cents a can. At noon the public will have to pay the increase demanded and from now on the price will be twelve cents a quart instead of ten cents.
"They have the machine now and they will turn the crank just whenever they feel like it," was the expression used by one of the large dealers in the city. The public will, in all probability, be forced to pay another increase whenever the Kings county farmers decide to make them.

Now that they have succeeded in getting their price they will dictate increases just whenever they like and unless some action is taken by the proper authorities there is no telling how far they will go.
Some dealers said that another day or two would have seen the strike broken and the people would have been able to get their milk at at least eleven cents. The majority of the farmers, it was said, were willing to sell for fifty cents per eight quart can.
That the city should appoint a milk inspector was the view expressed by several of the milk dealers and dairymen today.

More than 800 gallons of cream has arrived in the city during the last two days from Montreal and it is understood that large supplies will continue to be brought to the city from this source. Some dealers are also commencing to fortify themselves against the organization of milk producers in Kings county and are making arrangements to secure their supplies from other sources. This, they say, will take a little time.
The Lancaster Dairy announced today that it would sell milk at ten cents at the store.

HAS WON WAY TO LIEUTENANCY

After a half year on the firing line he had to go to the base at Havre on account of eye trouble but improved and returned to his regiment.
