DEMONSTRATION FOR MR. FIELDING

ARCHANGEL SAID TO BE IN HANDS OF BOLSHEVIK

Line Between There and Murman Coast Reported Cut

DEFINITE ABOUT ONEGA

British War Office Report States That Reds Hold That Place Strongly—Bolshevik Say Kolchak Defeated in Five Day Fight

Stockholm, Aug. 6.—(By the Associated Press)—The Social Democrat reports that Archangel is in the hands of the Bolshevik who, it says, have succeeded in cutting the connections between the Murman and Archangel coasts.

The report of the arrival of American ships is probably erroneous. There have been no reports of American blockade runners in north European waters. At last reports the Allies were in control in Archangel.

London, Aug. 6.—A war office communication admits that the Bolshevik strongly hold the town of Onega, on the North Russian front west of Archangel. "An American Y. M. C. A. representative who has returned to headquarters on parole," the communication adds, "says that all the British personnel captured in the recent fighting in the Russians have been well treated and are now at Volodga.

"In Southern Russia the Bolshevik have recaptured Vladimirovka, but they are rapidly retreating north of Komyslin. The Bolshevik claim to have occupied Alashki, five miles east of Kherin, but it is believed that town is still in the hands of the volunteers."

A Bolshevik official communication dated Tuesday says: "After our capture of Tselibinsk the enemy concentrated his forces and made a fierce attack. After five days of fighting in which Admiral Kolchak personally directed his men, the enemy was obliged to assume the defensive. Our troops made a decisive advance, which proved successful.

"We captured more than 4,000 prisoners, thirty machine guns and an armored train. Our troops already are twenty-seven miles eastward of Tselibinsk and are advancing unopposed."

GREY FOR POST AT WASHINGTON?

London, Aug. 7.—Viscount Grey yesterday was unofficially added to the list of possibilities for appointment to the post of British ambassador to the United States. Notwithstanding the fact that Viscount Grey's eyesight is failing rapidly there was a tendency in American circles to connect the name with the statement of Andrew Bonar Law intimating that a person who is or is about to be high in the service of the country would be offered the post.

MATTER BEFORE THE CITY COMMISSIONERS

Heber Vroom, chairman of the Lancaster and Inlandtown Ferry Commission, appeared before the common council this morning to arrange the matter of payment of the city's percentage of the subsidy of $150 a month toward the running expenses. On motion of Commissioner Bullock it was decided to pay one-third of the subsidy for the ensuing year, commencing with May. The total subsidy amounts to $150, one-third to be paid each by the city, the Parish of Brunswick, formerly, Mr. Vroom explained, half of the subsidy was paid by the city and the other half by Lancaster.

The commissioner of water and sewerage was authorized to purchase water and sewer pipe and fittings at a cost of $5,074 for the extensions to Hawthorne avenue.

A letter was read from J. Morris & Co., of New Glasgow, explaining that in a recent tender for water valves, they quoted a price of $145 each for Jenkins valves, which was in error, as that price applied to the Ludlow valve and the contract price for Jenkins valves was the same price as had been quoted by T. McAvilly & Sons, who were the next lowest tenderers. The matter was left in Commissioner Jones' hands.

On motion of Commissioner Bullock it was decided to take delivery of 154 piles from Louis Corey at contract price, subject to the approval of the city solicitor. This was in connection with a matter referred to at a meeting a few days ago when it was reported that some of the piling did not come up to measurement requirements. The decision to take those that were suitable at the price contracted for, he said, was the easiest way out of the matter, was agreeable to the contractor, and obviated the trouble and expense of a legal dispute.

Great Acclaim Follows Speech This Morning in Liberal Convention

Vote Being Taken This Afternoon—Delegates Much Divided as Time for Balloting Arrives—Fielding's Chances Much Depend Upon Quebec

Ottawa, Aug. 7.—Hon. W. S. Fielding received a wonderful demonstration from the audience at the conclusion of his speech this morning. The first time he has addressed the Liberal convention, when he moved a resolution endorsing the principles of the reciprocity agreement of 1913.

Men and women rose to their feet and cheered repeatedly. More than half of the Quebec delegation joined in the ovation and there was not a hostile sign in any other part of the audience.

He made a forceful and telling speech and certainly got it across with the audience in great shape. The west particularly was enthusiastic over the speech, in which he avowed his faith in the agreement of 1913, and the resolution was adopted with a great demonstration.

BALLOTING THIS AFTERNOON. At 8.30 this afternoon the culminating event of the convention will take place when the balloting for leader will begin but at the present time the delegates are just as much at sea as ever as to the man on whom the crown will likely be placed.

So many rumors have been circulated and gained currency since the convention began that the implication is irresistible that many of them have been inspired.

The most persistent has been that one that Hon. W. S. Fielding had withdrawn, which has been repeated and contradicted time after time. Last night it was reported and believed that he had announced his withdrawal to the press but this has been contradicted and he is still a candidate and strongly supported, although it now seems probable that the persistent opposition of the majority of the Quebec delegation will either finally confirm him in his desire to withdraw or defeat him on the ballot.

He persists in his attitude of unwillingness to appear as a candidate unless Quebec can regard his name with more favor, holding that the position of leader would be intolerable with divided support and as Quebec shows little sign of relenting it would seem as though this would eliminate him. Fielding's withdrawal speech last night started a strong boom for him but today it is being urged that his war record has been too conspicuous and his connection with big business was Rockefeller too pronounced.

Some old campaigners are still bickering. D. D. McKenzie as the final winner on his record as a straight Laurierite Liberal who secured election in the face of the war-time election act and the fact that there is no pronounced opposition that there is no pronounced support is divided for all other candidates.

This morning Hon. Sidney Fisher addressed the convention, introducing a resolution of encouragement to agriculture. It was strongly seconded by Hon. Mr. Tweeddale, New Brunswick minister of agriculture, who said the question of agriculture could not be discussed unless associated with questions of tariff and transportation. He made a stirring speech, though called on unexpectedly, urging that the cry of race and religion should be discontinued.

RESOLUTION RE AGRICULTURE

Ottawa, Aug. 7.—At the opening of the morning session of the convention, Hon. Sydney Fisher, minister of agriculture in the Laurier government, seconded by Hon. J. P. Tweeddale, minister of agriculture, New Brunswick, moved the following resolution favoring the encouragement of agriculture:

"In the interests of agricultural production and development, it is expedient to encourage co-operation and induce greater investment in farming; therefore, it is deemed expedient to utilize the national credit to assist co-operative agricultural credit associations to provide capital for agriculture at the lowest possible rates.

"With the object of reducing the high cost of living by eliminating as far as possible the following resolutions, favoring the encouragement of agriculture:

BURIED TODAY.

The funeral of Jeremiah Dwyer took place this morning from his late residence, 360 St. Peter's street. Requiem high mass was celebrated in St. Peter's church by Rev. Father Fuller and interment made in Holy Cross cemetery. Relatives were pallbearers.

The funeral of Mrs. Alicia McLuskey took place this morning from the Mater Misericordiae Home to St. Peter's church, where requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Cloran, C. S. S. R., with Rev. Father McCann, C. S. S. R., sub-deacon. Interment was made in the old Catholic cemetery.

The funeral of David Connell, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Connell, took place this afternoon from their residence, Moore street. Interment was made in the new Catholic cemetery.

PROPERTY INSPECTED. The mayor and commissioners, accompanied by F. A. Dykeman today visited the building sites at Alexandra Heights, owned by Mr. Dykeman, in connection with the extension of the water and sewerage systems to that point and also with a view to taking over the land in connection with the local housing scheme.

Speaking of the visit, Commissioner Bullock said that the site was an ideal one provided that the price named was not too high to agree with that laid down in the housing act. The extension of the water and sewerage lines, he said, would not be a difficult undertaking.

IMPERIALS WON. The Imperials, a local baseball nine, played the Fair Vale team last evening and defeated them, 9 to 0. Beattie and Joyce formed the battery for the winners, and King, McQuade and Stubbs for the losers.

COMMONS AGREES TO MONEY GRANTS FOR WAR LEADERS

Labor Leader for Reduction, But Only 64 So Vote

LLOYD GEORGE AND FOCH

Premier Says War Could Have Been Won Without Noted Frenchman But Not in 1918—'World Saved by Foch's Genius'

London, Aug. 7.—During the debate in the House of Commons yesterday, William Adamson, chairman of the labor party, and leader of the opposition in the House, moved to reduce the grants proposed for Field Marshal Haig and other generals and admirals for services in the war, to an amount not exceeding 250,000 sterling, to be divided proportionately. He said the labor party believed the grants proposed were out of all proportion to the monetary reward given the rank and file. After considerable debate Mr. Adamson's amendment was rejected by a vote of 288 to 64.

Lloyd George eloquently, showing great emotion, especially when referring to the unknown agony the war had brought to millions of homes.

"I cannot," he said, "omit a tribute to the multitudes of people, men and women who patiently bore the strain of the period whenever a knock on the house door sent a shudder of fear through all anxious minds."

He said that all the general, admirals and others whose names had been mentioned for honors and monetary rewards had contributed to the victory. During his address he bore the strain of the war without him, but it would not have been won in 1918. "In our darkest hour," he said, "the world was saved by Foch's genius," said the premier.

Mr. Lloyd George paid warm tribute to former Premier Balfour, the late Lord Kitchener, Mr. Lloyd George said that when the great decision was taken in 1918, "in our darkest hour," the premier said it had too often been forgotten that it was the French and the six Scouts who fought on the various battlefields of the war.

Replying to Mr. Adamson's amendment, which was moved in committee on Monday, he said that he was thankful to the general, admirals and others, Lloyd George argued that in comparison between previous wars and the war just ended. Therefore, he said, the sum proposed erred not on the side of liberality but quite the reverse.

With respect to the rank and file the premier said he thought it very unfair that it should go forth on the authority of honorable members of the House that the six Scouts had been deprived of something due them. On the contrary, he added, parliament already had voted sums enormously greater than anything due under the terms of their service. He spoke of the hundred millions pounds yearly for pensions. He hoped the outside world would mention these facts.

On Great Lakes. Duluth, Minn., Aug. 7.—Two thousand and four hundred workmen at the Superior-Duluth harbor and 150 at Two Harbors are on strike today entirely halting commercial movement at the head of the lakes. Seven boats are waiting here to unload and fifteen are on the way from the lower lakes. In all 184,000 tons of coal is stationary.

The workers demand fifteen per cent increase retroactive to May 1 and fifteen per cent more effective now.

The Shoppers. New Haven, Conn., Aug. 6.—Shoppers of the New Haven & Hartford Railroad in Connecticut numbering more than 3,000 voted at a mass meeting late tonight to strike at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Lowell, Mass., Aug. 6.—The 700 or more machinists employed at the car shops of the Boston & Maine Railway in Billerica went on strike this afternoon.

Boston, Aug. 7.—Four thousand shopmen employed by the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad in this city went on strike today, according to an announcement by railroad officials. The men left the shops in an orderly manner at 9 a. m. In the Readville district, where the principal shops are located, the locomotive shop was almost deserted and only a few men remained in the car shops, officials said.

Chicago, Aug. 7.—Practically all railroad workers in the city went on strike today, according to reports received here. The strike was ordered to "accept freight subject to delay," on account of the strike of federated railway shopmen. The strike of shopmen continued to spread, and M. L. Hoover, president of the council directing the strike in the middle west, said that "traffic will be discontinued in three days."

Representatives of the shopmen employed on the Michigan Central Railroad between Chicago and Buffalo at a meeting in Jackson, Mich., adopted resolutions supporting the officers of the International Union and urging strikers to return to work pending a nationwide strike vote.

In Canada. Quebec, Aug. 7.—The strike of textile hands at the Dominion Textile Company at Montserrat came to a close today, the employees resuming work without the company granting anything more than the long since offered ten per cent raise.

In England. London, Aug. 7.—(By the Associated Press)—The labor situation remained quieting, but there were two important developments yesterday in the direction of amelioration. The first was a decision by the railway union against a strike in support of the police union. The second was a revelation that the hearty support the Liverpool dock workers had promised is only moral support.

Fear Lives Lost In a Collision Near St. Pierre

Steamer Water Witch and Schooner Gallia Strike at Night in Fog—Death List May Be 25

Halifax, N. S., Aug. 7.—Twenty-five people may have lost their lives in a collision which occurred during the night between the steamer War Witch bound for North Sydney from Wabana, Nfld., and the tern schooner Gallia from Capape, Franco, with St. Pierre as her destination. It is believed that the accident, which was in latitude 46.22 longitude 55.38, west, very close to St. Pierre, was due to the heavy fogs which have been hanging off the coast for several days. Nothing definite is known of the loss of life, besides the names of seven survivors.

News of the catastrophe came to Halifax in radio messages to the marine and fisheries and Farness Withy Company, agents of the War Witch. The despatch contained the situation of the accident and the names of the survivors, but no further details.

Those rescued, presumably from the Gallia as no mention is made of injury to the War Witch, are: L. Hoopis, C. E. Nay, H. X. Caletts and J. Canebert, passengers, and J. Croquet, a crew member. Schooners usually carry a minimum crew of fifteen, and have accommodations for a dozen passengers, consequently it is feared that the loss of life may be approximately twenty-five.

The War Witch, a steamer of 1,145 tons, is well known in shipping circles, making weekly trips to Sydney. No information could be obtained regarding the Gallia.

Fredericton, Aug. 7.—Chief Inspector W. D. Wilson says that there has been a marked decrease in the monthly total of prescriptions for liquor filled by vendors in Fredericton. H. J. Danks of Sallowts, Sack, who has gone to Woodstock with E. H. Brad, deputy minister of agriculture, and A. G. Turney, provincial horticulturist, inspected the farms of the province yesterday. It is his desire to purchase a farm in New Brunswick. He specializes in pure bred Holsteins. He was favorably impressed with the Dicks' son farm near Hartland. Mr. Nicks has considerable capital and in Saskatchewan went in heavily for some time growing and raising anything from wheat to milk cows. He will decide to locate in New Brunswick.

Allied Supreme Council Tells Roumania That Ultimatum Cannot be Recognized—Roumanians Cross Danube and Are Reported Seizing Supplies

Paris, Aug. 7.—The peace conference was advised today that the Hungarian cabinet headed by Jules Peidl had been overthrown and that Archduke Joseph had established a ministry in Budapest. Advises to the conference stated that Roumanian forces had crossed the Danube into the business section of Budapest and were seizing supplies, preparing to ship them to Roumania.

The Social Democrats of Hungary still hope that the Allied associated governments will not tolerate either Roumanian control of the country or that of a government by the reactionary gendarmes, six additional dispatches received by the conference from Budapest.

Accounts of the Roumanian proceedings reported that they notified the Hungarians yesterday that because the terms of the armistice laid down in the Roumanian ultimatum had not been accepted, the Roumanians would cross the Danube immediately, later carrying out their threat.

FIRST OF SOLDIERS TO GET TO ENGLAND

Sergt. Robert Headon Back in Canada With an English Bride

St. Catharines, Aug. 7.—The first Canadian soldier to set foot on English soil in 1914 has just returned home with an English bride. He is Sergt. Robert Headon of North Pelham township who a long time resided in Beamsville, Lincoln county.

Headon, who went overseas with the original Fourth Battalion as private, brought back a document which he received from a committee of Plymouth citizens, accompanied by a ten-pound note. His privilege to go ashore from his ship before disembarkation was due to his need of a dentist's services. Stepping first from the first small boat to reach shore he was immediately taken in charge of the committee, driven about the city, and given the time of his life.

All memory of toothache and thought of a dentist was banished from his mind, and as he was represented with a sealed envelope containing the "first Canadian" document and bank note, which, under instructions, he did not open until his return to the troopship.

Headon served twenty-six months in France and Belgium before being wounded. Since his recovery he has been in charge of the camp. He arrived home July 29.

THE TARIFF PLANK

The tariff plank of the Liberal party, adopted on Wednesday and published today, follows the traditional lines of party policy with respect to customs taxation and extends it to meet the conditions of this time. It is sound in principle, and it is not confined to generalities; it is specific, and behind it is the whole force of the Liberal army from coast to coast.

Union government has made several half-hearted attempts to meet the general and rising complaint about the excessive cost of living, but it has done nothing effective in that respect. The chief reason for its failure was that it ignored—and purposely ignored—the power it had to strike at the cost of living by reducing the tariff taxes on the principal daily necessities of the people. The Liberal tariff plank means business.

Conservative influences prevented Union government from touching the sacred tariff except sparingly and under compulsion. The Liberal plank declares that a substantial downward revision must be made with a view to the accomplishing of two purposes of the highest importance:

First—diminishing the very high cost of living which presses so severely on the masses of the people;

Second—reducing the cost of the instruments of production in the industries based on the natural resources of the Dominion, the vigorous development of which is essential to the progress and prosperity of our country.

Then come the articles which the Liberals would place on the free list: wheat and wheat products, the principal articles of food, farm implements and machinery, farm tractors, mining, flour and saw-mill machinery and repair parts thereof, rough and dressed lumber, gasoline, illuminating, lubricating and fuel oils, nets, net twines and fishermen's equipment, cements and fertilizers; and, in order that the manufacturer may have fair play too, the raw material necessary in making these articles will also be made duty free. It will be hard to find honest objection to this free list. Tariff taxes upon the articles mentioned are not necessary for revenue purposes, and they constitute an unjust tax upon the great mass of the people of this country.

In addition to the free list, the Liberals propose a revision downward of the tariff, effecting substantial reductions in the price of wearing apparel and footwear, and on other articles of general consumption, other than luxuries, as well as on the raw material entering into the manufacture of these things.

This is a sound and a welcome proposal, and had the Liberal party of 1911 carried into effect more generously and more faithfully the very downward revision to which it now pledges itself, the results would have been good for the country and, incidentally, for the party.

Furthermore, there is in the Liberal tariff plank another declaration that will win instant approval in all the provinces of Canada. It is that the British preference shall be increased to fifty per cent of the general tariff. Reducing the taxation on our imports from Great Britain is a practical promotion of Imperial unity and, beyond that, it would produce large benefits to our shipping, and tend to restore competition in a too greatly protected home market. The old Conservative group, who proclaim themselves ultra-loyalists and ultra-imperialists, hate this proposal to increase the British preference and will fight it indirectly—all the time waving the Old Flag. Their custom has been to denounce the Liberals as traitors, and still to go on fighting against the Liberal proposal to lower the taxes on the goods Britain sends us.

The Liberal party pledges itself to carry out these tariff proposals by legislation when returned to power. The work of the convention up to this time has been both successful and impressive, and if the deliberations and decisions of today and tomorrow are up to the high standard thus far established, no great time will elapse before this country will have a Liberal administration at Ottawa.

MARITIME PROVINCE RIGHTS.

Premier Foster, in his address before the Liberal National Convention on Wednesday, gave welcome indication of the determination of the Maritime Provinces to press for their rights in connection with the financial recognition due them because of federal grants of land to nearly all of the other provinces of Canada. Hon. Mr. Foster, in giving notice that this is going to be a very live question in the Maritime Provinces from this time forward, was placing the case of the Maritimes before a body of men who are likely to dominate the next House of Commons, and as a fundamental principle of Liberalism is fair play and equality of opportunity it may well be thought that a few years hence a Liberal government at Ottawa may redress the balance and place New Brunswick and Nova Scotia upon all fours with Quebec, Ontario and the West by indemnifying us for our share of the lands held in common by the members of this Confederation but handed over to Ontario and Quebec and, in a greater measure, to the Prairie provinces.

As one of the eight Liberal Premiers in attendance at the great convention, and as the leader of a party which has been New Brunswick, and honest and progressive government in contrast with the old misrule, Premier Foster speaks with force and with due regard for the facts when he says that Liberalism in this province was never more vigorous and alert than it is today, and that in the coming Federal elections New Brunswick is likely to register a large majority against the Conservatives.

Hon. P. J. Veniot, who seconded the tariff resolution, made a spirited and aggressive address which evidently made a most favorable impression upon the convention. His words concerning tariff reduction, and those in condemnation of the politicians who raise the race and religion cry at election times, are worthy of general commendation.

WHAT'S THE TROUBLE?

Coiled up among some other profound political observations in this morning's Standard, we discover the following:

"So long as Hon. Mr. Carvell remained in the Union cabinet The Telegraph felt in duty bound to endorse him, but its recent absurd praise of one who, when all is said and done, was, in New Brunswick at any rate, merely a discredited politician, scarcely jibes with its adherence to those who have been stabbing Mr. Carvell in the back."

The Standard appears to betray a conspicuous lack of clarity in this particular diatribe concerning the art of political assassination, a matter in which it should be able to set forth its views with uncommon precision.

What is the precise meaning of these Standard sentences? Who is it that, "when all is said and done, is merely a discredited politician?"

If the Standard will diagnose its own case, doubtless some effort may be made to minister to its needs. It is a young newspaper but we had thought it was emerging from the inarticulate stage; it should at least be able to sit up and say where the pain is and what it has been eating during the last few days. With this information, discovery of the proper medicine to apply should not be difficult. Let us hear more about it.

If Viscount Grey proves to be the man for the post of British ambassador to Washington, Britain will be inadequately represented there.

WILSON MAKES STATEMENT ON SHANTUNG MATTER Washington, Aug. 7.—President Wilson last night issued a formal statement saying that the "frank statement" made by Viscount Uchida as to Japan's policy regarding Shantung "ought to serve to remove many of the misunderstandings which had begun to accumulate about this question." References in the Uchida statement as the agreement between Japan and China in 1915, "might be misleading," the president said, "if not commented upon in the light of what occurred in Paris." When the question of disposal of Shantung was definitely decided on at Paris, President Wilson said the Japanese delegation, in reply to a question from him, said: "The policy of Japan is to hand back the Shantung peninsula in full sovereignty to China, retaining only the economic privileges granted to Germany and the right to establish a settlement under the usual conditions at Tsing Tao." "No reference was made to this policy being in any way dependent upon the execution of the agreement of 1915 to which Count Uchida appears to have referred," the president says in his statement. "Indeed, I felt it my duty to say that nothing that I agreed to must be construed as an acquiescence on the part of the government of the United States in the policy of the notes exchanged between China and Japan in 1915 and 1918; and reference was made in the discussion to the enforcement of the agreements of 1915 and 1918 only in case China failed to co-operate in carrying out the policy outlined in the statement of Baron Makino and Viscount Uchida." A Manila shoe dealer now in Salt Lake City says: "When my shoe business was opened in Manila twenty-one years ago it took exactly five years to sell a Filipino a pair of shoes. But now shoes are becoming more popular among the women especially. High-heeled shoes are worn by the native women along with their native costume."

SORROWING MOTHER HOAXED
(New York Times)
The condition of Mrs. Eliza Wentz of 725 Home street, the Bronx, whose child, Arthur Phillip, seven weeks old, was kidnapped from a baby carriage in front of a Bronx department store, is causing relatives grave concern. It was said yesterday that they feared a mental and physical breakdown if the missing baby were not found.

A fruitless trip to the east side was made yesterday by August Wentz, the child's father, and Bronx detectives, in response to a letter to Mrs. Wentz, written in a feminine hand, which said the writer had taken the child with the intention of bringing him up as her own, but that he had proved too troublesome and she wanted to get rid of him.

The writer said she thought she should have $100 for the care of the child, and said she would return it if the father would leave that amount in an envelope at a street corner on the east side, mentioned in the letter.

Mr. Wentz and detectives put an empty envelope at the place named, but it remained untouched till a small boy picked it up and looked inside. He was able to convince the detectives that he knew nothing of the writer or of the missing child.

ALLEGED MURDER VICTIM BURIED AT ST. FRANCIS
Funeral services were held in the village church at St. Francis on Sunday for Peter C. Clair, aged fifty, proprietor of the hotel there, believed to have been robbed and murdered near Quebec.

Clair, who was well-to-do, left home about three weeks ago for Quebec on a business trip, taking a considerable sum of money. Nothing being heard from him for two weeks or more, his brother, James Clair of Clair, N. B., went to Quebec and found his brother's body held there for identification.

According to the police it had been found on a beach stripped of all valuables and with no marks. No clue in the supposed murders has been obtained so far as known.

His wife and three daughters survive.

HOW TO TAKE CARE OF CHILDREN,
—of grown persons and the whole family, is only one of the many things treated in a book called "Nursing in the Home," by Dr. Lee H. Smith. It is well illustrated, and if you want to learn how to nurse either in public or in the home or in the hospital, this is a standard work which will teach you all you want to learn in an easily-understood, common-sense way, intended for the ordinary reader. It is a handy "First Aid" book to have in the house in case of emergencies, burns, wounds, broken arms or legs. It teaches you how to take care of fever patients; how to treat the simple diseases; how to give baths, take temperature; chapters on "Mother and Babe," advice for the woman about to become a mother—For the woman with a family. For the woman about to marry. For the woman who wishes to become a trained nurse or a midwife. Limited edition will soon be sold.

GIRL CONFESSES SHE POISONED BABY
Says She Gave Drug to Infant to Have Aged Nurse Blamed

New York, Aug. 7.—Frances Sullinski, thirteen years old, of Brooklyn, confessed to Detective Dougherty that she gave poison to Solomon Kramer, the fourteen-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Kramer, with the intention of killing the child.

The confession was made in the rooms of the Children's Society. After maintaining her innocence for several days, she weakened when the detective picked up a teapot used by Brandel Nussbaum, the seventy-year-old nurse of the dead child, and asked "Why did you put some stuff in here?"

"I did it, hoping the old woman would drink it," replied the girl. "I poisoned the baby in the house that she was blamed for it. The old woman and I had had several fights. She abused me, called me names and beat me. I told her I would be careful of it. When she said that, I thought it would be a good way to get even with the nurse."

Thursday afternoon Mrs. Kramer told Brandel and me that she was going out. I went up-stairs and got the baby. He was asleep. I brought him down-stairs, and, after getting the poison, I said, "Here, take some of this cough medicine." When the baby screamed I knew I had done wrong. I ran out of the room and met Mrs. Kramer in the yard. She ran into the house and cried out that her child had been poisoned. I thought Brandel would be blamed. When I saw that she wasn't, I put some of the stuff in the teapot that Brandel used.

After her confession the girl was arraigned in the Children's Court before Justice Cornelius F. Collins, who remanded her to the care of the Children's Society, pending further investigation. Later she repeated her confession to the assistant district attorney. As she is more than twelve years old, she could legally be tried for first-degree murder.

The girl had been employed at the Kramer home only a week. She was Mrs. Kramer that her father, John Sullinski, a park department employe, had abused her and she had to leave home. Shortly after she went to work for Mrs. Kramer missed small sums of money. She questioned the nurse and the girl, and each accused the other. This led up to quarrels in which the girl is said to have beaten the old woman.

John Sullinski, her father, said Frances was a good girl until recently, when she began to steal. He beat her when she stole $20 from him, and she left home. The girl is tall for her years, and has more than average intelligence.

The bride was given away by her brother, Arthur Crowe, and was attended by the groom's sister, Miss Florence M. Powers, as bridesmaid. She wore a beautiful gown of white silk with white and orange blossoms, carrying a shower bouquet of sweet peas. The best man was William Smith, also an original member of the 20th battalion. Served as a comrade of the groom for more than three years. Lohengrin's wedding march was played by Mrs. Charles Wamamaker, sister of the groom. RENOWN ONE OF LARGEST Battle Cruisers Afloat and Has Speed of 32 Knots.

H. M. S. Renown, which is to bring the Prince of Wales to Canada, is one of the battle cruisers which was built in record time in the second year of the war. She is the sister ship of the Repulse, and these two combine several unique features of the modern cruiser. Their main armament of six fifteen inch guns is but two less than the Royal Sovereign type, which carries eight fifteen-inch guns, the heaviest armament in the British Navy. Their speed, greater than that of all other armored ships of their class, is 32 knots an hour, seven knots more than that of the Queen Elizabeth type. In their length of 730 feet they are comparable only to the largest of ocean liners, for all other war craft now afloat falls short of them by many feet.

The main armament consists of six 15-inch guns, mounted on the middle line, two pairs in barbets forward, and one pair aft. The two pairs forward are respectively thirty-five feet and forty-five feet above the water line, and the guns of the after barbet are twenty-three feet above it. All the guns have twenty degrees' elevation. The secondary battery for anti-torpedo boat defence consists of seventeen four-inch guns, fifteen in triple gun mountings, and two singly. The weight of a broadside from the main armament is 11,250 pounds. The ships have also two 3-inch anti-aircraft guns, and two 21-inch submerged torpedo tubes.

The Renown's dimensions are: Length over all, 734 ft.; breadth 90 ft.; men draught, 23 1/2 feet; displacement, 25,500 tons; designed S. H. P., 120,000; speed at load draught, 32 knots.

Keep Cool with RED BALL

Some drinks taste good and are cool, but not really thirst-quenching. "RED BALL" HAS A DELICATE, PLEASANT FLAVOR combining the smoothness of malt and the "snack" of old fashioned hops. It is delightfully appetizing, wards off warm weather fatigue, and keeps you splendidly fit for the daily round.

COST OF WORLD WAR PLACED AT TWO HUNDRED BILLION

(Popular Mechanics). According to estimates prepared by the Federal Reserve Board, and believed to be substantially correct, the aggregate direct expense incurred by the several belligerents in conducting the war, up to May 1, last amounted to about $175,000,000,000. It is thought that the total sum spent up to the first of the year approximates $200,000,000,000. The public debt of the chief Allied nations, as of May 1, is placed at about $106,000,000,000. The conduct of the war apparently cost the Allies more than twice as much as it did the Central Powers, for the aggregate debt assumed by the latter up to the date mentioned is computed at $46,000,000,000. In this connection it is interesting to note that the antebellum debt of the seven chief belligerents amounted to only $25,000,000,000. The annual cost of supporting this war is accompanied with gripping pains in the abdomen. The discharges from the bowels succeed each other with great frequency, and the matter passed from the bowels, which at first resemble those of ordinary diarrhoea soon change their character, becoming scanty, mucous or slimy, and subsequently mixed with or consisting wholly of blood. Never neglect what at first appears to be a slight attack of diarrhoea or dysentery, may set in.

HER LITTLE GIRL HAD DYSENTERY

Dysentery manifests itself with varying degrees of intensity, but in well marked cases the attack is commonly preceded by some amount of diarrhoea, which gradually increases in severity, and is accompanied with gripping pains in the abdomen. The discharges from the bowels succeed each other with great frequency, and the matter passed from the bowels, which at first resemble those of ordinary diarrhoea soon change their character, becoming scanty, mucous or slimy, and subsequently mixed with or consisting wholly of blood. Never neglect what at first appears to be a slight attack of diarrhoea or dysentery, may set in.

EVIDENCE AGAINST THE POLICE IS GIVEN AT TRIAL IN WINNIPEG.

Winnipeg, Aug. 7.—At the strike leaders' trial here yesterday direct evidence that the police stood by and watched the strikers on the first day of the strike while they deliberately maltreated citizens on their way to their work, trespassed and destroyed property, was given by A. A. Riley, manager of the Canadian Bread Company.

B. B. Graham, crown prosecutor, said that the police were permitted to remain on duty by the strike committee but could have been called out at a moment's notice, and at the break of the trouble in Winnipeg they were not summoned.

PARTLY NATURE'S FAULT Mankind is not altogether to blame for the present wide prevalence of defective sight as contrary to the common idea, most children are born with more or less defective eyes. Some of them so slight that proper conditions would never give trouble. Science saves sight. Our method of testing is the most scientific yet known.

CONFERENCE DID NOT CONSIDER U. S. DRAFT OF LEAGUE

Lansing Would Not Tell the Senate of Proceedings at Versailles—U. S. Delegates Opposed to Trial of Ex-Kaiser.

Washington, Aug. 5.—Secretary of State Lansing told the senate foreign relations committee today that the American plan for a league of nations was not "pressed" at Versailles and never was presented to the full peace conference.

The secretary, appearing at a public hearing of the committee, said he did not know whether a copy of the American draft was still in existence. He presumed, he said, that the draft was made by President Wilson, and added that a copy might still be in the president's possession.

Mr. Lansing said it was true that President Wilson had cabled to the peace commission requesting that the confidential minutes of the proceedings of the commission on the league of nations be not furnished to the French senate. Mr. Lansing did not recall how the American plan differed from that eventually adopted.

Mr. Lansing said he personally would be opposed to furnishing the senate a copy of the transcript of the discussions before the league of nations section of the peace conference "on the general principle" that it might prove "irritating" to other nations.

The propriety of trying the former length by Secretary Lansing who said the American commissioners dealing with the question were unanimous in the opinion that a legal trial could not be had. Discussing the Shantung provision of the treaty, Secretary Lansing said Lansing-Ishii agreement made to obtain re-affirmation by Japan of the open door policy in China, was entered into by the American government without knowledge of the secret treaty between Japan and the Allies for a transfer of German concessions in Shantung to Japan.

"And if you had known of these secret agreements, would you have likely entered into the agreement with Viscount Ishii?" the secretary was asked. "Yes, I think so," he replied. "I think I can say that one of the very reasons for the Lansing-Ishii agreement was to open from Japan a re-declaration of the open door policy which she gave."

MANAGERIE BROKE LOOSE AT SEA ON THRILLING TRIP

Shipwrecked Passengers After Two Days in Rowboats Had Battle With Lions

New York, Aug. 7.—How an ocean trip which had been taken for rest ended in a series of thrilling experiences was told by Mrs. Maude A. Hayes, wife of Scott Hayes, a son of former President Hayes and an officer of the New York Air Brake Company, who returned home on the Grace liner Santa Luisa. Both said they would be satisfied to remain in the quiet of their home at Croton-on-the-Hudson for some time to come.

Mr. and Mrs. Hayes, with their children, left New York May 29, bound for South America. On June 7, off Santa Rosa, on the coast of Peru, the ship went aground. Mrs. Hayes said, and later a heavy storm came up wrecking the vessel. The crew became panic-stricken and the officers had to hold them off with pistols until the passengers entered the lifeboats.

"A heavy sea was running, some of the waves being at least thirty feet high," Mrs. Hayes said. "The steamship sank while we were still in sight. We rowed about for two days before we were rescued by the Montaro."

Mrs. Hayes said that once aboard, her husband, children and herself believed their troubles were over. This feeling was short-lived. On the Montaro was a circus with a menagerie. The doors of the animals' cages were broken open during a continuation of the storm which had wrecked the other vessel. Among the animals released were several lions and tigers, who prowled at will on the deck while the crew and passengers, from hiding places tried to kill them or drive them overboard. The battle lasted an entire day, according to Mrs. Hayes, before the carnivora were slain or recaptured.

Mrs. Hayes brought back with her several hundred live Peruvian and Brazilian birds to take to her home. Other passengers on the Santa Luisa told of a heavy storm which struck Valparaiso, Chile, July 18, killing more than 300 persons and injuring as many more. Captain W. T. Crossley said the day after the storm started it raged so furiously that he had to steam to sea to prevent his ship being driven ashore. When he returned, four days later, he found that ten ships, including several interned German vessels, had been wrecked.

Frederick A. Claude, a coal operator of Chile, who arrived with his family on a visit, said that during the storm several trees were felled and many feet in diameter on his estate, were uprooted and tossed about like reeds.

CELEBRATION NOTES At a meeting of the city school teachers yesterday in the High School, arrangements were furthered in connection with the pupils who will play in the greeting to the prince. The children will assemble in the High School at 8.30 a. m. on Friday, the 15th, so as to leave the school by 9.15. The west side children will meet at the High School also.

The rehearsal of the west side children in LaTour school yesterday afternoon was very satisfactory. The first rehearsal of the pageant to be enacted before the prince on his arrival at the dock will be at 10.30 tomorrow morning. Ten young ladies will take part in this. Residents along the road to Rothesay are planning an elaborate scheme of decorations.

Five boy scouts of Woodstock, N. B., were in Fredericton yesterday on their way to St. John to be present at the reception to the prince. They are "hiking," getting their meals along the road and sleeping where they find a convenient spot at the prince's end.

SEARCH FOR WOMAN IN CONEY MURDER

Police See New Complications in Killing of Joseph Cohen at Resort

Expect an Arrest Soon—Max Baron, Who Was With Furrier at Time of Shooting, Not Yet Found

(New York Times.) The police and the prosecuting officers of Manhattan, Brooklyn and Hoboken were working yesterday in the closest co-operation in the endeavor to clear up the shooting of Joseph Cohen, the furrier, at Coney Island, Robert Shore in Hoboken, and "Tanner" Smith and John Spanish in this borough. By their investigations they hope to work out any possible connection between some of the shootings and to determine the reason for the sudden outbreak of gang hostilities after almost ten years of "peace" among gang leaders.

District Attorney Lewis and his assistant, Reuben Wilson, spent most of the day at Coney Island questioning possible witnesses. Mr. Lewis said he had not, however, given up entirely the theory that the killing came because of troubles in the furrier's business. Among those who were questioned was Harry Korman, who was with Cohen and who was wounded. He admitted that there was a woman in the case, but was emphatic in saying that Cohen had not been invited to Coney by her, as far as he knew, but indicated that the whole affair was the outcome of a row in a restaurant earlier in the day.

After hearing the statement of Mr. Lewis interviewed the proprietor of the restaurant. He also questioned Joseph Axel and Isador Bloom, proprietors of another resort, and stated that the shooting. They said the shooting was done by a man who appeared with another man, who is known by the name of "Sugar."

Seek Cause of Visit. In the meantime the police say that they will have to clear up the circumstances surrounding the coming to Coney Island of Cohen and Korman and Max Baron, who was with them, and get at the cause of the shooting. It is reported to have taken place just before the furrier was killed, before they can fix definitely upon the motive that led to the shooting on the crowded Coney Island street.

Baron was not located by the police yesterday. They learned that he went to his home, 128 Stanton street, and that the police knew the address of the man who was with him at the time he was killed. He is reported to have taken place just before the furrier was killed, before they can fix definitely upon the motive that led to the shooting on the crowded Coney Island street.

Records filed in the clerk's office in the court of general sessions upon which the police place great stress show that a Max Baron, 27 years old, of 405 East 178th street, the Bronx, was indicted on May 1, charged with attempted extortion. He was arraigned and pleaded guilty before Judge Otto A. Rosinsky May 27 and was remanded for sentence the following week. On June 6, Baron withdrew his plea of guilty and entered one of not guilty. As a result he was released on $2,500 bail, which he furnished through the National Surety Company. The complaint was Joseph Cohen, a furrier of 608 Broadway.

According to the complaint Cohen charged that on April 18, 1919, while a furrier's strike was in progress, Baron obtained $200 from him by posing as a representative of the Furriers' Union. The complaint states Baron promised that no harm would come to any of Cohen's employees during the strike. The $200 was paid in marked bills in the presence of Detective Botte of the Mercer street station, in Cohen's office, the record shows.

"Link" Mitchell Arrested. At the request of the Hudson County authorities Patrick, known as "Link" Mitchell, was arrested in the Homicide Bureau of District Attorney Swann's office and taken to police headquarters to await the arrival of a New Jersey warrant charging him with the killing of Shore in Hoboken on Thursday night and the wounding of George Lewis at the same time. Chief of Police Patrick Hayes of Hoboken told Assistant District-Attorney John F. Joyce that the warrant would be brought to this city immediately, and that extradition proceedings would then be started to bring Mitchell to Hoboken.

Mitchell was arrested after he appeared before Judge William H. Widhans in general sessions for trial on an indictment charging him with grand larceny in connection with the $38,000 worth of Liberty bonds which were found secreted in a chimney on the lower east side. Mitchell went to the criminal court building in company with his lawyer, Charles H. McCarty. When he answered for trial Mr. Joyce asked that the trial be adjourned until Thursday, which Judge Widhans granted. The police of Hoboken are said to have positive evidence that "Link" Mitchell was in Hoboken on the night that Shore was killed. Mitchell told the assistant district-attorney that on the night that Shore was killed he was at the home of "Tanner" Smith, 537 West Fourteenth street, until after 11 o'clock, and he said his statement would be corroborated by Smith's sisters, Nelle and Lizzie and Smith's brother, Patrick, and the latter's mother. Patrick Smith visited Mr. Joyce yesterday.

Mrs. Shore Questioned. Grace Middleton Shore, who married Shore shortly before he was killed, was brought to this city by the Hoboken police in order that she might attend the funeral of Shore. She went to her late husband's home at 142 Tenth avenue, and later she was interviewed by Mr. Joyce. She is being held in Hoboken as a material witness in the shooting of Shore. Today it was said, she will be taken before a judge in general sessions and held as a material witness in the case of "Tanner" Smith.

When Mrs. Shore was brought before Recorder Carsten in Hoboken, Police Captain Garrick said that there was no charge against her, but that the New York police had asked that she be held. The recorder held her in $500 bail for appearance on Monday. Three men arrested after the killing by the Hoboken police on suspicion of knowing something about it were discharged yesterday. Joseph McDonnell, who was also taken into custody on Thursday night, for her on a minor charge until he is mowed.

McDonnell had a room at 100 Washington street, and the police say they had found a witness who said that McDonnell ran into the house shortly after the shooting, hastily pulling off his clothing and got into bed. This witness is alleged to have said that McDonnell confided to him that a New York gang was after him because he had reported one of them.

Upon the recommendation of the district-attorney's office Herman Kolman of 214 East Eighty-second street and William Lusting of 206 East Eighteenth street, who were arrested in connection with the death of John Wheeler, who was also known as "John Spanish," were discharged in the Essex Market homicide on affidavits made by detectives working on the case. "John Spanish" was shot and killed on Tuesday afternoon on Second avenue, near First street.

THOSE TIRED FEET! WHY DIDN'T GRANDMA HAVE THEM? Tired feet! Everybody has them nowadays. Why is it? How is it? In our grandmothers' and grandmothers' time people did not complain of such things until they were old and rheumatic. Nowadays even school children are troubled with tired feet. Special doctors to treat them are in demand. The theory has been advanced that the asphalt pavements and cement sidewalks are responsible for a great deal of the foot trouble. Then, too, there is more standing before, more machines to stand before, more stairs to climb, telephone calls to answer, and many other new things that tax the feet.

Like a tired body, there is nothing better for tired feet than a good bath and soaking. It will be found that warm water in which a little Snowflake Ammonia has been dissolved will make an ideal solution for bathing tired feet. It softens them and eases the burning and aching. For the bath it has the same soothing and softening power. Snowflake may be obtained from any grocer.—Advt.

Don't Spoil Your Hair By Washing It When you wash your hair, be careful what you use. Don't use prepared shampoos or anything else, that contains too much alkali, for this is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle. The best thing to use is just plain unsifted coconut oil, for this is pure and entirely creosoleless. It's very cheap, and beats anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Slightly moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.

Week-Old Corns Should Be Unthinkable These positive facts are now known to millions. The pain of a corn can be instantly stopped, and forever. The corn itself can be ended completely, and usually in two days. The method is scientific. It consists of attaching a Blue-jay plaster, forgetting the corn, and letting things take their course. The results have been proved by experience. They have been proved to so many people that corns are now comparatively uncommon. Corn aches are needless. Paring corns is folly. Old-time harsh and messy treatments have no place today. You will know these facts, and quickly, if you'll try a Blue-jay on one corn. TARIFF RESOLUTION AND LABOR PLATFORM BEFORE THE LIBERALS

Stirring Speeches Mark Second Day of Convention

NATIONAL PARTY ORGANIZATION

Graet La Pointe Brings Gathering at Ottawa to Its Feet—Premier Foster and P. J. Veniot Win Praise for Addresses

Ottawa, Aug. 6.—The expectation that the Liberal convention would get down today to the platform and choosing a leader was vain. It did not even finish the platform for a leader, whoever he will be, to stand on.

There every attack made on Rowell—and there have been many as a result of his recent political note nullifying the convention—erupted in applause from the big Ontario delegation.

Premier Norris of Manitoba and Premier Foster of New Brunswick spoke this afternoon. The latter made a splendid impression speaking forcibly and fluently.

Mr. Rowell, who has been the chief spokesman for the party since the election, was the first to speak. He made a splendid speech, and his address was the best of the convention so far.

Ottawa, Aug. 6.—The tariff resolution submitted to the Liberal convention is as follows: That the best interests of Canada demand that substantial reductions of the burdens of customs taxation be made with a view to the accomplishing of two purposes of the highest importance.

FIRST—Diminishing the very high cost of living which presses so severely on the masses of the people. SECOND—Reducing the cost of the instruments of production in the industries based on the natural resources of the Dominion, the vigorous development of which is essential to the progress and prosperity of our country.

That, to these ends wheat, wheat flour and all products of wheat; the principal articles of food; farm implements and machinery farm tractors, mining, flour and saw mill machinery and repair parts thereof; rough and dressed lumber, gasoline, illuminating, lubricating and fuel oils; nets, net twines and fishermen's equipments; cements and fertilizers, should be free from customs duties, as well as the raw material entering into the same.

That a revision downwards of the tariff should be made whereby substantial reductions should be effected in the price of wearing apparel, and foot wear and on other articles of general consumption, other than luxuries, as well as on the raw material entering into the manufacture of the same.

That the British preference be increased to fifty per cent of the general tariff. And the Liberal party hereby pledges itself to implement by legislation the provision of this resolution when returned to power.

Somebody or something, a Tory is usually a Tory because he hates somebody or something. The Tory party or the Union party—it is all the same—will try to gain rule again by the old tactics of trying to divide Canada between east and west, between Ontario and Quebec, between creed and race and religion, and by trying to raise the old religious prejudices.

Premier Stewart, of Alberta, declared that the West had come to the convention in a spirit of "get together" and "get on with it." He said that the West had no quarrel with the East, and that the West was ready to meet the East on a basis of equality.

Hon. George Langley, of Saskatchewan, brought down the convention by his reference to the time when he had acted as chairman at the meeting of Sir Wilfrid Laurier in Regina during the 1917 campaign. "It would," said Mr. Langley, "have taken a great deal more than the immediate issue of the election to make me stand by my ally Sir Wilfrid Laurier to the other man whose name I will not mention. I do not care to mention his name, but I was satisfied that under Laurier nothing Canada should do would have been left undone."

The resolution was carried, the convention rose to its feet and sang the national anthem. Hon. Charles Stewart, premier of Alberta, was called upon by Chairman Murray to speak for the west, but he did not come in a spirit of opposition. It had often urged by the east that westerners were so radical that they would not satisfy them. That was not the case this time. The west came in a spirit of "get together."

Hon. W. E. Foster, premier of New Brunswick, predicted a Liberal victory in New Brunswick at the next federal election. He spoke of provincial rights, insofar as the maritime provinces were concerned. Sir Robert Borden, he said, had promised the people of the maritime provinces time and again that he would consider the extension of boundaries of the western provinces. When the provincial elections came, Mr. Foster added the question of provincial rights would be a live one.

He hoped the delegates to the convention would be able to meet on a common basis. He said that the Liberal party was not a party of the past, but a party of the future. He said that the Liberal party was not a party of the past, but a party of the future. He said that the Liberal party was not a party of the past, but a party of the future.

Mr. Foster, in concluding, expressed his hope that the delegates to the convention would go out like Sir Wilfrid Laurier with high head and steady step. He would then feel that the Liberal party was in the interests of the country.

E. M. MacDonald, ex-M.P., referred to the letter written by Mr. Rowell saying that the convention should not be representative of the Liberal party. Mr. MacDonald said that he had been called because it was not representative of the Liberal party. Mr. MacDonald said that he had been called because it was not representative of the Liberal party.

The resolution was seconded by Miss Pettie, and carried. The tariff resolution was then moved by Hon. Geo. Langley (Saskatchewan) and seconded by Hon. P. J. Veniot (New Brunswick).

The opening of proceedings in the evening was delayed by the absence of both Mr. Rowell and Mr. D. McKenna. Mr. D. McKenna moved that Senator Dandurand should be acting chairman for the time being. Mr. D. McKenna moved that Senator Dandurand should be acting chairman for the time being.

SUFFERED FOR NINETEEN YEARS

Mrs. Morrison Gradually Grew Worse Till She Took Tanlac — Is Wonderfully Built Up.

"During all my nineteen years of suffering, the only medicine I took that did me any good was Tanlac," said Mrs. Morrison, who lives at 26 Poplar street, Halifax, while talking to a Tanlac representative the other day. "During all these years," continued Mrs. Morrison, "I suffered terribly from indigestion and stomach trouble. From the very beginning I tried to find a medicine or treatment that would give me some relief, but the trouble gradually got worse and worse. I had no appetite, I ate very little, and I hardly ever got a good night's sleep. I finally got so weak and run-down that I was not able to do my household work."

"I had heard and read so much about Tanlac that I decided to give it a trial, and it certainly has done for me what I had been unable to do for myself. I can eat and enjoy three hearty meals every day. I never have those cramping spells now, and in fact, I never have a headache or pain at all. My entire system has been greatly built up, and I feel stronger and better than I have in many years. My nerves seem to be in perfect condition, and I get plenty of good sound sleep every night. Tanlac is the best medicine I have ever seen, and I never lose a chance to recommend it to others."

THE LEADERSHIP LAST NIGHT WAS STILL IN DOUBT

Mackenzie King's Brilliant Speech Made Deep Impression

Something of Appeal in Their Addresses—Fielding Stock Was Climbing All Day—Quebec Caucus for King But Gouin and Commons Leaders For Fielding

Ottawa, Aug. 6.—Will Mackenzie King's brilliant speech at the convention tonight win him the Liberal crown, for which there are so many contenders? If one may judge from the extraordinary scene of enthusiasm with which an audience, cold or indifferent when he began, presented at the conclusion of his address, and the remarks heard in the crowd and around the lobbies afterwards, it may be very close to doing so. It was delivered in his connection with a resolution which he moved recommending the acceptance as a part of the Liberal platform of the principle of awarding labor conditions, which were accepted by the League of Nations. It included a magnificent tribute to the constitutional work of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, defining in terms of rare eloquence his place in history and in the heart of the people of Canada; and although there was not a suspicion of self-seeking in its main intention, it was not a reference which could be taken as an appeal for political support, it had the effect in itself of placing the name of the speaker as one which will certainly be seriously considered by the convention. Tonight it is not too much to say that he is a very hot favorite indeed.

The speeches of two other whose candidature is frankly admitted, could not be mistaken than anything but a straight appeal to the delegates for their support. Hon. Geo. Graham took the occasion to deal with many of the points which have been freely circulated as handicaps to his candidature. It was a very frank appeal for personal sympathy. He gave some intimate and secret details of the formation of Union said was again voiced at a caucus of Quebec members and senators held this afternoon.

It was rated by some as rather a telling political speech, but seemed to many to lack some finesse and delicacy. D. D. McKenna, who was the last speaker, was placed at a disadvantage on that account. He spoke forcibly but briefly to a very good reception. He declared himself an unwavering Liberal who would stand fast by the convention's platform and said his attitude on the tariff had been misrepresented. It was nearly midnight when the convention adjourned.

All day the "stock" of Hon. Mr. Fielding as the choice of the convention was steadily advancing and by many it was considered as practically a gift for him. Quebec's position, which has been the main impediment, was said to have been allayed. Then a Quebec caucus was held this afternoon, which showed the majority of the delegates from the province favored Mackenzie King, although the leading members of the House of Commons backed by Sir Lorne Gouin and members of his cabinet, will support Mr. Fielding.

It was understood tonight that Mr. Fielding has written a letter to the secretary of the convention explaining his position, saying that he did not seek the leadership and had not asked any

HOW TO STOP BEING NERVOUS

Nothing Like Plain Bitro-Phosphate to Strengthen Weak Nerves and Increase Strength and Vigor.

According to a noted French Scientist the most effective remedy for nervousness, insomnia and ailments due to depleted nerve force is a form of organic phosphate known among druggists in this country as Bitro-Phosphate. It is described as a substance which is similar in composition to the phosphorus naturally found in brain nerve cells and, being easily and quickly assimilated, the work of creating nerve force, strength and vigor begins immediately it is taken into the human system.

There are many reports of astonishing results from its use, some showing remarkable improvement even in stubborn cases of long standing nerve weakness. As there are many kinds of phosphates, care should be exercised to procure the genuine Bitro-Phosphate. It is sold by Ross Drug Co., in St. John and all good druggists.

Thousands can testify to the excellent results from its use; some who feared baldness now glory in their abundant hair, while others who suffered for years with dandruff and itching scalp after just a few days' use of this simple home treatment.

MEMBER OF CITIZENS' COMMITTEE ON STAND AT WINNIPEG TRIAL

Winnipeg, Aug. 7.—The Citizens' committee of 1,000 was not a "capitalist organization," and was formed for no other purpose than an endeavor to continue operation of public utilities during the strike, according to evidence given by Edward Parnell of the Speirs Parnell Baking Company, at the trial of the strike leaders yesterday. He was the first member of the citizens' committee to appear at the hearing.

THREE MONTHS IN
U. S. ARMY FOR ALL
BOYS OF NINETEEN

War Department's Bill Asks Peace
Army of 510,000 and War
Strength of 1,250,000

21 Regular Divisions — Recruits
Would be Assigned for Training
—They Would Remain Two Years in Reserve

Washington, Aug. 7.—War Department recommendations for a system of universal military training of three months for all eligible youths in their nineteenth year have been presented by Secretary Baker to the Senate and House Military Committees for their guidance in determining the permanent military policy of the nation.

The proposal is contained in a bill prepared by the general staff of the army at the secretary's direction. In transmitting the bill, Secretary Baker in a letter wrote that General Pershing had not been consulted and the plan was tentative to that extent.

The department's bill calls for a regular army of twenty-one divisions and necessary auxiliary services, with a peace strength of 510,000 enlisted men and a war strength of 1,250,000. The reserves to fill up the divisions to full strength would be provided through a modified form of the National Army Act, under which the National Army was raised for the war with Germany.

For training purposes only, youths in their nineteenth year would be called to the colors for a three-months' period, to be attached to regular divisions for that time. It is estimated that this would provide an annual class of 600,000 men to receive intensive military instruction, stripped of all vocational or other educational features.

For two years after training the youths would be required to submit certain reports giving their addresses, changes in status as to dependents, physical condition, &c. They would receive $1 for each report called for and submitted, thus encouraging the making of reports. In the event of war all men in this status would be called to the colors to fill up the regular divisions and compose the first replacement units.

The bill provides for re-organization of the regular army in substantially the same terms as previously recommended by Secretary Baker when the current Army Appropriation bill was under consideration.

No mention of the National Guard is made in the bill, but in his letter to the committee chairman Secretary Baker wrote that he assumed that the National Defense Act would be continued in force, making the guard subject to Federalization for war.

One feature of the universal training plan of the department is complete federalization of the registration and induction machinery. Local and appeal boards would be created as during the war, except that compensation at $10 a day is provided for board officials, but no mention is made of employing state officials or agencies in carrying out the project.

Youths in training would receive no pay, but would receive payment for all expenses and an allowance of $5 a month for incidentals. No exceptions would be granted except to soldiers, sailors, members of the mercantile marine, public or private, or to those mentally or physically deficient. To meet the case of those with dependents, however, provision is made for deferring the training period.

The theory on which the bill rests is that an army of 1,250,000 should be available for rapid mobilization at need.
It provides that the complete organization of a field army of that size shall be maintained, the only difference between peace and war time footing being in the enlisted strength. The twenty infantry and one cavalry divisions would comprise the field army.

To support the plan, general staff officers have prepared full detailed studies of cost systems of mobilization, administration, and all other features which the department is prepared to submit whenever the congressional committees call for them.

A Pimply Face or Poor Complexion
Quickly Restored

Thousands of young men and women would be handsome and attractive were it not for unsightly pimples, blackheads, and rough uneven skin. Custom seems to recommend lotions and salves, but unfortunately their effect is but temporary. These disfiguring blemishes do not originate in the skin—their birth in every case goes farther back, to the blood, which must be cleansed of humors before the pimples depart for good.

A physician who has made a careful study of such cases, says that the quickest cure comes from a blood-building medicine like Ferronone. The minute Ferronone strikes the blood its good work begins. Poisons and foul matter are expelled. Every trace of humor is driven out, and the whole life current is supplied with nutriment and health giving qualities. You can always tell a Ferronone complexion when you see it—the cheeks are clear and rosy, no signs of sallowness—the eyes are bright and expressive because rich, red blood is circulating through the whole system carrying health, energy, and strength with it. Not only will all skin eruptions disappear, but an increase in vital strength, an all-round improvement will be apparent. No rebuilding tonic could be more efficient. Get Ferronone today

A Challenge. The Douglas Avenue baseball team, leaders of the North End A. A. League, wish to challenge the Fair Vale team to a game to be played at Fair Vale Saturday afternoon.

Wagner Returns to Red Sox. Boston, Aug. 6.—"Heinie" Wagner, former member of the Boston American baseball club, returned to the team as assistant manager and to the Red Sox. He was released by President H. H. Frazee last spring because of the twenty-one player limit rule and later managed the Portland club of the disbanded New England League. Wagner will act as coach for the balance of this season and the 1920 season.

Pitcher Caldwell Released. Boston, Mass., Aug. 4.—Boston baseball fans had two interesting items to discuss as a result of today's developments, namely the unconstitutional release of Ray Caldwell, the former Yankee pitcher, and the grabbing up by the Braves of eight New England League stars. The release of Shean and Caldwell can hardly be classed as a bombshell as neither has shown unusual form.

The pick of the New England League players are now putting in daily practice at Braves Field, awaiting the homecoming of Manager Stallings, to determine whether he wants their names on Braves contracts. The group includes Seelye and O'Connor, outfielders; Morgan, a twirler, and Sweetland, a catcher, from the Portland club; the Haverhill Club; Jacobson and Loftus, outfielders, and Retag, catcher, from the Pittsburg Club.

Pity the Poor Umpire. The big league umpire who daily courts death from dissatisfied fans or temperamental players, received fifteen dollars a day for his two hours' work. Billy Evans, veteran of the American League, says in Everybody's for August: "A great many people regard umpiring as a strange calling. They wonder how one could select such a vocation. 'Why did you start umpiring?' That question is put to me hundreds of times during a year. To which I reply, 'As an umpire I simply happened.' The main reason for my taking a whirl at the game was because I was ambitious and wanted to advance in a worldly way. I was getting eighteen dollars a week writing up sports on a small-town paper, and fifteen dollars per game looked to me like all the money in the world. Incidentally, I wasn't taking any chances, because the owner of the paper very kindly told me that I could have my job back if I proved a fiscal. The feature that appeals to me most about the umpiring game is the check. President Johnson mails me every two weeks. The hours, three to five, run a close second. It makes you think you have a regular job. Never, until September and October of

The game in the St. John League last evening was a bit loose. This, however, can be attributed to the poor condition of the diamond. Players will be pleased to learn that the West Side Improvement League are going to have the diamond cleaned off and the pitching box filled in. Entries for the aquatic sports, to be held in the harbor in connection with the big celebration next week, are to close this evening. Judging by the number of entries already in, the sports should be on a par with the best ever held here.

Frank Power, a well known starter, will be here for the horse races. He has been in great demand this summer. The release of Caldwell and Shean by the Boston Red Sox is out a surprise. The former was one of the best pitchers and pinch hitters in the American League, but he was always hard to handle. Shean was a good utility infielder, but the Red Sox did not need him. Heinie Wagner's return to the champions way result in the Red Sox playing better ball. Wagner is a heady player and should be invaluable to Manager Barrows.

Chief Bender, former star pitcher for Connie Mack, is managing the Richmond team of the Virginia League. He is scouting for new players in an effort to strengthen his club and make it a pennant contender. Jack (Twin) Sullivan, who is well known in this city, lost on a decision to Page Jameson in a ten round bout staged in Buffalo Tuesday. Toronto continues to gain on Baltimore and is now only four games behind the leaders.

1918 did I realize how much those checks really did appeal to me. Because the powers curtailed the regular season there was nothing doing in the check line for the last six weeks of what would have been the regular season. I haven't quite recovered from the jolt yet."

RIFLE

Good Shooting Under Handicap. The trapshooters held their regular shoot last evening at Glen Falls. There was a large number of members present and some good shooting was done. The wind was blowing strong and this together with the fog prevented any very high scoring. The following are the results of the meet:

Table with columns: Name, Shot, At, Broke.

Grand Circuit at Cleveland. McGregor the Great won the $8,000 stake for 217 class trotters at the grand circuit meet in Cleveland yesterday. His best time was 2:08 1/2. Tenna won the 217 class pace, taking two out of three, best time 2:09 1/2. A second 217 class pace was won by Gold Quarts in straight heats, best time 2:10 1/2. The class trot went to Mignolia in straight heats, best time 2:06 1/2.

RING

Bout in Atlanta. Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 7.—Bernie Hahn, of West Virginia, was given the newspaper verdict here last night in a ten-round no-decision bout with Pete Herman of New Orleans, bantamweight champion. Hahn forced the fighting practically all the way and Herman did not appear to extend himself to any great extent, but showed some excellent fighting at times.

MOVE TO OUST JOHNSON BECAUSE OF MAYS CASE?

New York, Aug. 6.—Owners of the New York American baseball club obtained a temporary injunction in the supreme court here tonight restraining President Johnson of the American League, the St. Louis and Cleveland American clubs and all league umpires from interfering with the pitching of Carl Mays, recently suspended indefinitely by Mr. Johnson. The order, issued by Justice Luce, will be effective until next Tuesday, when a hearing will be held to determine whether the time should be extended pending hearings of an application for a permanent injunction.

THE CUBAN ELECTORAL REFORM BILL PASSED.

Havana, Aug. 7.—The senate last night passed without amendment the electoral reform bill by a vote of 14 to 2. It now wants only the signature of President Menocal to become law.

HANDLING THEATRE TICKET-BUYERS.

To the Editor of The Times: Sir,—It seems to me that when there is any kind of decent show, or other show at the theatres here, the management of the amusement houses appear to have no system of their own for handling the crush of ticket buyers, or the way they do handle them would make a person think that the patrons were a bunch of unruly sheep instead of a crowd of citizens out for pleasure. FUTURE OF THE PATRIOTIC FUND

Sir Hubert Ames, Here Today, Speaks of Plans for Best Use of Balance on Hand

The balance of the patriotic fund after all payments of claims upon it for deserving families has been made is to be devoted to aid to families of soldiers in special cases. It will not be generally applied to soldiers' families, but only where, after proper investigation, it is found that a grant from the fund comes within the post-bellum scope. Sir Hubert Ames of Montreal is in the city today to meet representatives of the fund from all parts of the province at a confidential conference this afternoon, at which this matter will be dealt with.

Sir Hubert said this morning that in a short time the local offices of the fund throughout the province will be closed and a provincial headquarters kept open with offices in St. John as a permanent branch. When it was found that the quickness of demobilization was releasing the families of soldiers from the patriotic fund lists, he said, those in charge of its management had quite a balance remaining. What to do with it in the best interests of all concerned had to be decided. Different suggestions were offered.

One was that it be divided among the contributors but this was found to be impossible as it would be too difficult to arrive at a fair basis of distribution; another to devote it to the work of some patriotic society or other deserving body under the post-bellum scope. Sir Hubert said that it was resolved that this could not be done in a fair manner either. The national executive after deliberating for some time, eventually decided to carry on with afterwar work somewhat after the manner of what they had been doing in the interests of soldiers' dependents where men had been discharged but where the families were still in need of assistance. Accordingly the fund henceforth will perform two functions, first, in special cases where the dependents of soldiers are just outside the orbit of the pensions act, and secondly in special cases where the soldier's family is in a temporary emergency.

POLICE MATTERS AT CITY HALL

Report of Joint Committee Presented to Commissioners

Adopted Except For The Eight Hour Day Shift — This Left Over For Consideration—Would Mean $14,000 a Year Additional

The report of a joint committee appointed on the recommendation of the board of conciliation in the matter of the dispute between the city and the members of the Police Protective Association of St. John as to the validity or right of the police to affiliate with the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, was presented by the commissioner of public safety at a committee meeting of the common council this morning. The whole report was adopted, with the exception of a clause calling for an eight-hour shift, on which the committee had also disagreed. It was decided to leave this matter over until the council met to take up the question of estimates. While the council favored putting the eight-hour scheme into effect, it was pointed out that this procedure would be impossible at the present time, as it called for an additional expenditure of $14,000 for which no provision had been made in the estimates for the current year.

Ritual Approved
The mayor and all the commissioners were present. The report was taken up section by section. It was reported by Commissioner Thornton in reply to a question by Commissioner Fisher, that the committee had gone over the ritual of the association and it was found that there was nothing in the ritual that was objectionable. There was some discussion on a paragraph referring to the consideration of grievances, but it was finally adopted as approved by the committee, the paragraph reading: "Minor grievances to be settled by the chief. If his decision be unsatisfactory, it may be reviewed by himself and committee appointed by the association. All grievances which cannot be satisfactorily adjusted in the above way, or by the common council, shall be submitted to a board of conciliation appointed under the Industrial Disputes Act, 1907. No strike, sympathetic or otherwise, shall be resorted to under any circumstances, provided both parties comply with the provisions of these sections."

It was remarked by the mayor that this would make strikes practically impossible. Other sections called for the revision of the police manual so that the chief of police would have the sole power to discharge and hire the men, and promotion from the ranks, seniority claims to rule, all other things being equal. Commissioner Thornton said that steps would be taken immediately to have the revision of the manual carried out. Provision was made for the payment of full pay to men totally incapacitated while on duty for a period not less than twelve months, or longer in the discretion of the council, and half pay to be given for a period of six months, or longer in the discretion of the council, if unable to work during such period on account of illness certified by doctor provided by the city, such sickness not being caused by misconduct. The appropriation of working conditions also provide for the supplying of modern equipment, relief of traffic men by patrolmen for one hour a day and fourteen days' vacation.

Eight Hour Day
In discussing the question of the eight-hour shift, Commissioner Thornton said that he was in sympathy with the idea but thought it should be laid over until estimates were under the consideration of the council. He said that the extra men necessary would mean an additional annual expenditure of about $14,000. Without further consideration he could not say if he would be prepared to include the extra amount in next year's estimates.

Commissioner Bullock also favored the eight hour shift, as he thought the policemen should be put on the same footing as other city workmen.

In discussing the question of payment of wages while policemen were incapacitated or sick, it was pointed out that this was done for workmen in other city departments came under the Workmen's Compensation Act, while the policemen were not affected by this act.

HARMONY CIRCLE GIVES SOLDIERS NICE TREAT

During the war some local people founded a branch of the Soldiers' Comfort Association called Harmony Circle, whose efforts in the interests of soldiers overseas in knitting and other comforts were very successful, and who also established a fund for a treat for sons of the members when they should return. This idea was carried into effect last night when at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Grass and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Simonds at Red Head an enjoyable supper and reception were held in honor of these returned men.

About fifty people were present and the guests of honor were Lieut. F. W. Simonds, Fred Simonds, Eddie Willis, George Stephenson, Lieut. L. S. McGowan, Harold B. Flowers, Alfred and Harold Henderson, George Hayter, Stewart and Gordon Henderson and Warren McPherson.

Work is now being done, they said, upon the road between Woodstock and Houlton. The actual running time of the party to Woodstock was seven hours.
