I. General Regulations.

This Faculty is affiliated to McGill University, so that Matriculated Students who satisfy the requirements of the Faculty, and pass the requisite examinations, are eligible for the degrees of B.A., and M.A.

The complete course of study extends over a period of four years, but Students who on matriculation satisfy the Faculty of their ability to enter at once upon the studies of the second year may be allowed to shorten their course by a year by doing so.

The Session of the Faculty extends from November 1st, to May 1st.

The Sessional Fees are as follows: For the full course of Lectures necessary to the University degree, twenty dollars. For single courses: Classics, ten dollars: Logic, Moral and Mental Philosophy, (Third and Fourth years) ten dollars: Logic and English Literature, (First and Second years) ten dollars: Mathematics, ten dollars: a further fee of two dollars is required from students on entering for the Intermediate Examination, and a fee of five dollars on entering for the Degree Examination. All fees must be paid in advance to the Secretary of the College.

Persons desirous of attending any course or courses without matriculating as Students of the College are allowed to do so on paying the fees for the same: but no person can become a candidate for the University Degrees, unless he has been admitted as a Matriculated Student and regularly attended the Lectures on the subjects of the several University Examinations.

No religious tests of any kind are required from Students at any period of their course.

There is no accommodation for boarding Students in the College, but Students who are not residents of Quebec may obtain board in the city on very moderate terms.
