"Have You Not Seen Tom Moore?" was the title of one of the selections on an orchestral programme at Long Branch. The audience were surprised to find the music so serious and poetic, but the discovery has been made that the theme was Tom Moore's beautiful and spiritual poem, "Have You Not Seen?" The printer had telegraphed his matter.

FAGGED OUT—None but those who have become fagged out know what a depressed, miserable feeling it is. All strength has gone, and despondency has taken hold of the sufferers. They feel as though there was nothing to live for. There, however, is a cure—one box of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will do wonders in restoring health and strength. Mandrake and Dandelion are two of the articles entering into the composition of Parmelee's Pills.

In the Dining-Room.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 25.

BREAKFAST—Grapes. A Cuban breakfast dish. Butter rolls. Coffee.

LUNCHEON—Cheese cream toast. Celery salad. Cold butter rolls. Peanut cookies. Tea.

DINNER—Tomato tapoca soup. Halibut steaks stuffed and baked. Browned potatoes. Fried beans. Peach pudding. Coffee.

Cut out these recipes and paste them in a scrap-book.

Breakfast Dish—Take a teaspoonful of fresh codfish, picked up fine. Fry a sliced onion in a tablespoonful of butter. When it has turned a light brown, put in the fish, with water enough to cover it; add five ripe, medium-sized tomatoes and cook nearly an hour, seasoning with a quarter-teaspoonful of pepper. Serve on slices of dipped toast, hot. This is a very nice dish.

Celery Salad—Cut the white stalks of celery, place a half-inch long. To one pint of these stalks allow a half-pint of mayonnaise dressing. Dust the celery lightly with salt and pepper; mix it with the dressing; heap it on a cold plate, garnish with white tips of celery and serve at once. Do not mix the celery and dressing until you are ready to use the salad.

Tomato Tapoca Soup—To one pint of strained red tomatoes add one-half tablespoonful of extract of beef, one tablespoonful of butter, three small tablespoonfuls of minute tapoca, one and one-half pints of hot water, a teaspoonful of salt and a quarter teaspoonful of pepper; boil fifteen minutes. Serve with croutons.

Halibut Steak Stuffed and Baked—Secure two shapely steaks; wash and thoroughly dry them with a towel. Make a stuffing from a cupful of crumbs, tablespoonful of butter, a tablespoonful of onion juice, one of chopped parsley, a dash of cayenne, quarter teaspoonful of black pepper, just a grating of nutmeg and quarter of a teaspoonful of salt. Place one steak in the baking-pan; lay carefully over it the stuffing and place above it the other steak. Put small pieces of butter over the top, and dust slightly with salt and pepper. Bake until a golden brown, about 30 minutes. Cover the pan tightly for the first 20 minutes. Serve on a hot platter, with garnish of sliced lemon.

Frizzled Beans—String and break in to inch lengths as many beans as are required for five persons; boil until tender in plenty of salted water; drain in a colander and dredge slightly and evenly with sifted flour. Put a tablespoonful of butter in a frying-pan and when hot pour in the beans and turn frequently, allowing all to come next to the pan in turn. Serve hot.

Peach Pudding—Pare and stone one quart of ripe peaches, and cut in quarters. Beat the whites of the eggs with half a cup of powdered sugar until it is stiff enough to hold its shape. Take the yolks and mix with half a cupful of granulated sugar and a pint of milk. Put the peaches into the mixture, place in a baking dish and bake until almost firm; then put in the whites, mixing all thoroughly again, and bake a light brown. Serve ice cold.

NOTE AND COMMENT.

Don't tell a newspaper reporter, when he calls upon you on business, things which you do not wish to print. He does not call for information for the fun of it. He is there on business. If you give the information frankly, you will in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred be accurately reported and respectfully treated. If you refuse on any other than trivial grounds, your reticence will be respected. If you try to outwit the reporter by an effort to mislead him or by direct misrepresentation, you are sure to make a mess of it, and wish that you had been better advised. Disabuse your mind of any foolish impression that newspaper reporters are malignant persons trying to stir up strife in the world.—Fourth Estate.

FOR THE COMFORT OF POLICE REPORTERS.

Mayor John Boyd Thacher, of Albany, N. Y., brought into close touch with Albany reporters in the recent successful hunt for a kidnapped child, became so impressed with the importance of furthering their work that he has placed one of the most comfortable rooms in the city building for the use of police reporters. To accomplish this it was necessary to oust the detective department from its old quarters opposite the door to police headquarters, in order to provide a room for the reporters. Needless to say, the action of Mayor Thacher is warmly appreciated by the police reporters of Albany. It is the rule in the police departments of some cities to extend but the barest courtesy to the news-gatherers assigned to police headquarters. As a rule, the obnoxious tactics pursued by petty officials do not prevent the ultimate success of the reporter in obtaining the news, but they add quite unnecessarily to the work of the reporter.—Newspaperman.

THE WESTERN FAIR.

An Outside View by a Practical Man.

This week's issue of Farming, published at Toronto, contains the following reference to the Western Fair:

"The people of London have good reason to be proud of their annual fair. It is growing larger and better every year, and this year has eclipsed all previous years. The weather has been good fair weather also, with the exception of a couple of showers, which only laid the dust, and did not seem to interfere with the success of the show in the least. On farmers' day, the grounds were covered with signposts, the exhibits of fruits, vegetables and grain were very creditable, and on the whole, the directors have good reason to feel proud of this year's fair. The exhibits of cattle more than filled the cattle barns; quite a number of animals had to go to the horse barns. The average quality was good because only the prize-winning herds came from Toronto, and though the local entries were numerous in some classes, they were on the whole, good, and did not pull down the average."

A DINNER PILL.—Many persons suffer excruciating agony after partaking of a hearty dinner. The food partaken of is very indigestible, and the stomach, and instead of being a healthy nutriment, it becomes a poison to the system. Dr. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are wonderful correctives of such troubles. They correct acidity, open the secretions and convert the food partaken of into healthy nutriment. They are just the medicine to take if troubled with indigestion or dyspepsia.

By the bursting of a fly-wheel, weighing over five tons, at the factory of the Providence Rubber Shoe Company at Providence, R. I., two men were killed and several persons injured. The killed were Wm. J. Benoit, engineer, and Jas. M. Brown.

The minutes of the last meeting were confirmed. The first business before the meeting was the election of a missions committee. The Rev. W. It was decided that at present no change be made in the constitution of the parish pending other changes.

It was resolved that the local missions committee in each deanery be asked to assess the different parishes in the several deaneries.

fund debt. The canvass had been completed in only two counties, and there were two counties in which no canvass had as yet been undertaken. The report was considered satisfactory.

The report of the committee on unused churches was read, recommending that matters relating to the church at Williamsford be referred to a committee appointed by the Deanery of Grey. Adopted.

The report of Rural Dean Hodgins, bishop's commissioner to Millbank parish, recommended no change at present.

Rural Dean Deacon and Rev. T. G. A. Wright addressed the meeting with reference to a more desirable rearrangement of parishes in that deanery.

It was finally resolved to ask the bishop to continue the commissioner, and to report fuller particulars at next meeting.

The report of Dr. Moorhouse in reference to the case of Rev. W. E. Scott recommended that he be given a year's rest, with a view to medical treatment, and giving his opinion that Mr. Scott would then be in a condition to return to parish work.

Report adopted and a sum equal to a superannuation allowance was granted.

The Rev. F. M. Baldwin, of Woodstock, applied for relief in his present condition, as he found himself unable to carry on the work of the parish, owing to ill-health.

After considerable discussion it was decided to deal with the case with a view to superannuation, and Dr. Park, of Woodstock, was appointed examiner and to report.

A petition was read from Rev. T. H. Brown, of Delaware, and others in regard to continuing the Indian school at Onida.

A report was read from Inspector Dearness in regard to the efficiency of the school, and the grant was continued for three months pending further arrangements.

Rev. W. M. Seaborn applied for superannuation. Referred to Rev. Dr. Moorhouse to examine and report. On motion of Rev. W. Craig, the question of amendments to the canon on superannuation was referred to the committee on bylaws.

Application was made by Rev. Mr. Mills, of Hensall, to have the station at Brewster detached from his parish. Granted.

It was agreed to continue the grant to the Muncie Indian Mission, and a temporary additional sum was granted. The vestry at Parkhill asked permission to borrow money on security of the parsonage and the school house, to make necessary improvements to the parsonage. Granted on the usual conditions.

An application from Mitchell was also granted on the usual terms.

The vestry of Memorial Church, Exeter, applied for leave to mortgage, or advance on security of moneys held by the synod.

The committee had no power, but recommended the appointment of a committee of inquiry. The recommendation was agreed to, and Canon Young and Messrs. J. Ransford and Philip Holt appointed.

The bishop appointed a special committee to consider the question of the Indian mission at Muncey, namely, Revs. Canon Smith, J. C. Farthing, W. J. Taylor and Messrs. Judge Ermatinger and Charles Jenkins.

The bishop took occasion to thank Dean Innes for his kindness in acting as commissioner during his absence in England.

The committee then adjourned.

The Roman penny was valued at about 15 cents.
