2,000,000 GALLONS OF SPRING WATER $90,700 ARTESIAN SCHEME GOES TO COMMISSIONERS

A Committee of Citizens Hear Particulars and Indorse Project

100 LBS, PRESSURE IS GUARANTEED

Cost of Pumping Is Away Down -Experts Put the Seal of Approval on Wells.

At the conference held last evening in the board of trade rooms with the members of the committee who backed Hon, Adam Beck in he well scheme last January, Mr. Beck outlined his scheme in detail, and offered to supply the city with fifteen wells of a total capacity of 2,000,000 gallons, capable of being forced to 3,000,000 gallons, of the best water, with pumping plant of 4,500,000 capacity, and a reservoir of half a million capacity, for $90,700.

If a reservoir of 1,000,000 capacity is desired the cost will be $98,700. The members of the committee present were unanimous in favor of asking Mr. Beck to submit the proposition to the water commissioners, and a sub-committee composed of Mr. Thomas Baker, Mr. F. E. Leonard, Mr. R. J. Young, and Mr. Geo. G. McCormick, were named to interview the commissioners and endeavor to arrange a meeting today to discuss the plan with the commissioners.

Experts Here.

Mr. Beck was accompanied by Mr. H. J. Glaubitz, who has been consulting engineer with him in this enterprise; Mr. John Oliphant, of Indianapolis, one of the best known water experts in America, and Mr. W. Carter, another expert.

Complete plans and tenders for the plant, were shown the committee, and they were unanimous in stating that the whole plant could installed for the money set forth in

In addition, the cost of pumping the wells was given. Mr. Glaubitz, in his report, stated that the water could be delivered into the mains for 3.9 cents per 1,000 gallons, if 1,500,000 gallons daily were used, or 2.7 cents per 1000 gallons, if there were 3,000,000 gallons used in 24 hours.

This includes every cost—sinking fund, repairs, maintenance and the like. The cost of maintenance was placed at such a figure that for the the plant could be renewed every fif-

In addition to that offer, Mr. Beck said he was prepared to put in a high pressure river fire-fighting system for $175,000, if it was thought necessary It would be separate and distinct from the domestic service system, and the mains would cover the entire city. The majority of the business men present were of the opinion that his pumping plant, giving an abundance of water, with 100 pounds pressure, would be quite sufficient for the city at least for some years. Mr. Oliphant gave expert testimony regarding the wells, and he declared that undoubtedly the well supply was permanent, that the water was good, that the cost of the plant was not exwas in evidence was not dangerous, pertaining to his plan. but would be easily dissipated by the

BOAT GOES DOWN TWENTY PERISH

Overloaded Launch Sinks on the Ohio, Near Pittsburg

TEN OF THIRTY ESCAPE

Party of Workmen Working Overtime Meet Tragic Fate While Hurrying to Their Homes.

Pittsburg, Pa., May 11.-Twenty persons are missing, and all of them are believed to have been drowned, when a gasoline launch sank in the middle of the Ohio River, near Schoenville, four miles below Pittsburg, tonight. Of the 30 occupants of the boat only 10 are known to have escaped.

All of the men were employees the Pressed Steel Car Company at McKee's Rock plant. The men had been working overtime until 8 o'clock, and left the works to cross the river in the launch about fifteen minutes later. The boat is said to have been intended for not over twenty persons Albert Graham, the pilot, and one of those who is missing, is said to have replied to a question of one of the occupants that the boat was safe enough all right, as he had 27 persons in it last night. But when the boat reached the middle of the stream, where the water is perhaps twenty feet deep, it suddenly sank

Too Many Aboard. There was no explosion, no leak was sprung, but the boat simply sank beneath the weight it had been bearing and went to the bottom. As it sank it caused a suction which took many of the men down with it. Others attempted to swim ashore, but were chilled by the cold water and became exhausted before reaching land. So far as is known but ten of the men sur-

The region is sparsely settled in the vicinity where the accident occurred and it was some time before the news spread. One of the men who succeeded in saving himself ran to a telephone and gave the alarm. Boats were at once put out in the hope of escuing some struggling swimmer. By midnight it was certain that all the missing men were drowned, and it is believed the list will be 21 instead of 20, as at first stated. John Deer, who lives on the river bank and heard cries for help, went out in a skiff and saved eight lives. Part of that number of men were pulled into his boat, while others held to the side of it and were rowed to the shore. For several hours boats have been patrolling both sides of the river for miles along the shore and no indication of any others have been found.

CAPT. HAINS GUILTY OF MANSLAUGHTER

Fate, But Puts Little Weight To Insanity Experts' Opinion.

Flushing, L. I., May 11.-Captain faces a prison term from 1 to 20 years. Despite all the testimony submitted by the defence as tending to show insanity, he was convicted late today of manslaughter in the first degree for Killing wm. E. Annis at the Bayside Yacnt Club last August. Quickly tollowing the young army officer's conviction his counsel announced that they would produce attidavits to show that the jury had not been properly guarded during the trial, and upon this allegation will urge that a new trial be granted.

These affidavits will be submitted on Monday, the time set for passing sentence and for any motions that the defendant's counsel desires to make. There will be, of course, the usual motions to set aside the verdict as against the right of evidence and conrary to law, but the unguarded jury feature is the only departure from the stereotyped procedure looking to a new defence, said: "There was no evidence in this case warrant a verdict of manslaughter, should either have been murder in the first degree or acquittal on the ground of insanity. The jurors were an automobile and go right to verge of the scene of the homicide, which is clearly against the law. We will have affidavits to prove that such is the case, and also that the jurors were permitted to leave the jurisdiction of the county and have been on Government property at Fort Totten, all of which will be urged as ground for setting aside the verdict." The conviction of the young army officer today after the jury had been out less than three hours, came as a general surprise. It had been expected that the jurors would deliberate much longer and that a verdict of acquittal on the ground of insanity or a disagreement would result. No one was more surprised than District Attorney Dewitt, who had said all he

When the foreman finished reciting the verdict, Justice Garretson thanked the jury for their services, and after the jury was discharged, juror No. 6, Craft, of Jamaica, L. Little consideration was given to the expert testimony, Juror Craft said. They believed, he continued, that Mrs. Claudia Hains, the defendant's wife had made a confession to her husband of the improper relations with Annis, and that Annis deserved his fate, but none of them would consider the "unwritten law," and therefore the manslaughter verdict resulted.

Mrs. Annis was not in court today She was in court yesterday during the summing up for the defence, but at no time was called as a witness.

THE ARTESIAN WELL SCHEME. The water scheme outlined by Mr. Beck last night has the advantage of cheapness, compared with other plans so far placed before the public.

The citizens' committee will offer for the sum of $90,700, a plant capable of pumping and delivering 4,500,000 gallons daily, and prepared to deliver in September 2,000,000 gallons daily; from the 15 wells already sunk. The plant includes engines, motors, and other pumping machinery; the necessary real estate; and a reservoir with a capacity of 500,000 gallons. The flow of water could be increased to 3,000,-1000 gallons by forcing, and a 1,000,000gallon reservoir could be built for $7,more wells. The plant would furnish a pressure of 100 pounds to the square inch. A high-pressure service could be

The sum of $190, 000 was also asked for a 9.000,000 gallon pumping plant, and a 5,000,000-gallon reservoir, and $53,200 for a 20-inch main to convey the water from the Cronyn and White springs to the city mains. Omitting the new mains and hydrants within the city, the cost of mother country! the Cronyn-White-Kilworth scheme ald be, in round figures, $364,000, including a 5,000,000-gallon reservoir, and a 9,000,000-gallon pumping plant, or $266,000 more than the artesian well scheme, with a 1,000,000-gallon reservoir, and a 4,500,000-gallon pumping plant. The quantity of water would be about the same in each case. In view of these figures and the quantity and quality of the well water, ratepayers will probably feel that they made no even at the cost of more inconvenience during the present summer.

NEWFOUNDLAND'S LIVELY ELEC-TION.

The Newfoundland elections have broken the parliamentary deadlock. Sir Edward Morris winning 26 out of 26 seats. It has been a venomous campalgn, with the trumped-up issue of Confederation, each party accusing the other of an intrigue with the Canadian Government. Both Sir Edward saved up to spring on the first straw hat, Morris and Sir Robert Bond, the opposing leaders, tried to humbug the people into a belief that union with Canada would mean a sart of vassalage on the part of the smaller state Yildiz Kiosk. If those wives all played towards the larger, and Newfoundland would lose a measure of the freedom it now possesses. Having thus created a strong anti-confederation sentiment. each party tried to trade on it by false charges against the other.

The telegraphic dispatches have al ready related that followers of Premier Morris threw ex-Premier Bond into the sea while he was attempting to one incident of the kind. A St. Johns Morrisite newspaper gleefully gives details of a turbulent meeting at a place murder. ex-Premier Bond was prevented by a mob from entering the place of meeting, and when finally he did gain admission and attempted to speak, he was greeted with wild yells, the rattlig of cow-bells, etc., while some of that I am in the room! the more excited ones mounted the platform and shook their fists in the ex-premier's face. This continued for over an hour. On another occasion Sir Grace. After some trouble he got of Holland on the occasion of the birth ashere at another point, and he and his companions "had to take a little girl into the carriage to prevent themselves being pelted by the indignant crowd." And the paper, commenting on these scenes, exclaims: "How are the mighty fallen!"

Canadian campaign methods are not always what they should be, but they are refinement itself compared with the way the Newfoundlanders conduct their elections. The colony is isolated from the world, and perhaps an election is welcomed as a diversion to be made the most of. The furore over Confederation will be a source of surprised amusement to Canadians, who have not the remotest idea of conspir-

Recommendation Made Regard- springs or ponds at any time, especialing the Protection of the City's Water Supply

It Is Suggested That All Should Be Taken by Street Railway to High Ground Near Pavilion.

At the meeting of the beard of health yesterday afternoon Dr. Niven, chairman of the board of health, read his report of conditions at Springbank. He found that the water commissioners had done a great deal towards protecting the ponds, but made some suggestions as to further improvements. He advocated that a cement wall be built about the large pond to prevent surface water getting into it, and also that the walls of the wells be built higher to prevent possible contamina-

Next the conduit pipes were looked at and we found that the old wooden conduit pipes had been removed and 18-inch iron pipes substituted, a great improvement. All the wells were of cement, and we would suggest that the cement work be carried six or nine inches higher, as if there was a heavy snowfall there might be a possibility of it, in thawing, allowing some surface water to permeate the wells. Next the upper pond came under our attention. The superintendent showed how he was banking up the road so there would be little danger of any surface overflow getting to the ponds from the new road, which, when completed will be satisfactory. The lower pond is pretty well protected in a similar manner, and the

The most eastern and largest pond. which is situated immediately below the steep hill, requires attention, and we would suggest to the commissioners that a cement gutter be built all along the side next the hills, where the new main road will be built. This is most important to prevent contamination from surface water, both from the road and hills. We do not think that banking up this side of the road would be sufficient. The Wells,

Eczema, Salt Rheum.

Eczema or Salt Rheum, as it is often called, is one of the most agonizing of skin diseases. It manifests itself in little round blisters, which contain an extremely irritating fluid. These break and subsequently a crust or scale is formed.

The intense burning, itching and smarting, especially at night or when the part is exposed to any strong heat, are almost unbearable. The pre-eminent success which Burdock

LEAD PLAIN LIFE MID GREAT RICHES

Noted Scholar Finds Americans Lavish, But Temperate and Earnest.

Paris, May 12.—The simple life of great American financiers forms the subject of the third article written by Guglielmo Ferrero, the noted Italian historian, dealing with American men and affairs as he saw them on his recent trip to the United States, when he was the guest of President Roosevelt and other prominent men. But, as a conclusion from his per sonal observation of American life and men, Signor Ferrero declares that not only science, but religion itself falls under the dominant power of the wealthy classes of Americans and that all intellectual life is largely influenced by the power of the almighty dollar. Such a result, he says, was inevitable by the founders of the nation, though they did not and could not foresee it. At the same time the historian takes the stand that the consequent state of affairs is by no means as serious as it appears to European students, and in his next article he purposes to show that the wealth accumulated by the American millionaires is actually working for the ultimate public good, notwithstanding the sinister indications of the present day.

Signor Ferrero speaks at length in this article, which appears in the Paris ing machines of this type can be Figaro, of the great banquet tendered money was spent to make a splendor that even ancient Rome might have envied in the days of Nero and Lucullus. ## The Analyses.

The analyses showed that there was little or no solid matter. What sulphur there was, was a negligible quantity. In the United States, some of the wells show a great amount of sulphur but it is thrown off by aeration, and is good water after that, with no trace of sulphur when it reached the consumer.

The gravel bed was perfectly safe from contamination from surface water, as the

HAY PRICES WERE LITTLE EASIER TODAY

Sold at From $12 to $14 a Ton -Other Quotations on the Local Market.

Hay was the only commodity in any quantity on the local market this morning. There were about 40 loads offered for sale, and the price showed a tendency to be considerably easier. The price varied from $12 to $14. There was a good deal offered that was not of the best quality and as a result the prevailing price was $13. And the market showed a large number of loads waiting for a buyer, whereas lately the hay has been snapped up as soon as it came in. Oats were still strong. The supply was very small, and in no way met the demand and still remains strong. The few loads that were presented found a ready sale at the top price of $1 57. The prevailing prices are as fol-

Toronto, May II.—Local wheat operators continue as a class very bullish on the Ontario wheat situation, and the general contention is that the supplies of wheat in the province at present are insignifi-cant. It has generally happened how-ever, even in times like the present, that Ontario farmers have been able, after they were through with their seeding to find sundry loads of wheat in their granaries which in the aggregate were sufficient to keep the mills supplied until the new crop arrived. Present conditions have undoubtedly produced very high prices, however, and the wheat market is very strong. Quotations:

Site of the country o Toronto, May 11.—With the heaviest run of cattle this season, over 2,000 head, the market was slow, buyers trying to get prices down a little, but on the whole trade was fair and active and prices for good butcher cattle little, if any, off. Butchers, in fact, who were open to buy a good class of butcher cattle, claimed they could not get them any cheaper than last week. On the other hand, dealers said that prices, particularly for medium quality, were off from 10c to 15c. Choicest export cattle were quoted by one of the leading firms up to $6, sales being made at that figure. Choice butcher cattle were firm at $5 25 to $5 40, and second quality at $4 90 to $5. TORONTO.

Toronto, May 12.—The country grain markets are stagnant, as deliveries have been reduced to a minimum, and farm work has practically shut off deliveries entirely. Most of the business is being done, of course, in western grain, and quotations are based on shipments from lake ports. Feed stuffs are, if anything, a little easier, as the pasturage is cutting down the demand. Local dealers' quotations:

(Special Letter to H. C. Becher From J. F. Harris (Harris, Winthrop & Co.) Members New York Stock Exchange.)
New York May 12.—If we have a reasonable yield of the various crops this year, I think there will be a widespread interest in the stock market, and that means buying and higher prices. The country has not ceased to grow. It stopped for a couple of years, and when it starts again it will be at a very rapid pace and wil itravel farther and farther perhaps than it ought to.

TICKET THIEVES ARE SAID TO BE WORKING TTTHE G. T. R. Report Losses of Slips

A gang of ticket thieves appear to be working along the Grand Trunk, as large numbers of slips, with the destination blanks, have been missed from different points.

A report was received at the east end offices today warning all em-ployees that 50 tickets, numbered from 74000 to 174050 had been stolen from the bag of Conductor Thomas Parker, of London, presumably at Detroit. Four other tickets are missing from the Toronto city ticket office, and an order has been issued stating that if $75; W. J. DIRECTORS ELECTED Large Attendance Last Evening in the Gymnasium of the Association's Building.

The annual meeting and banquet of the Young Men's Christian Association was held in the gymnasium last evening. About 200 men sat down to the dainty repast, and spent a very pleasant hour.

Age of Specialization.

"This is an age of specialization," ontinued the speaker, "and we are tending to drive this practice to an extreme. People say glibly that we may know so many things that we know nothing, and that it is better to specialize, like the philosopher who spent his whole life studying the Greek This tendency in our educational systems of All the Campbell and MacGregor may give a student four years' study oys will be at the Grand Opera of Greek, and at the end of that time the pipers will stir the stagnant that there are other men in the world, Self-Support. "Now the first element of self-respect is self-support, and it generally takes a severe shock to bring people to a recognition of the necessity of this particular quality. In this connection Dr. Grant made some very severe strictures against college life in general. He instanced a college banquet, where there were some 100 young men, accompanied by as many young ladies, and he said that every single new clubhouse on Oxford street, and one of those young men were "staggering drunk." present, who, while they did not ex- ed that all previous minstrel shows put press an opinion openly, considered on by the club had been eclipsed. Sensitiveness.

"Following on the element of self-support," continued the speaker, 'there is another element necessary in true education, that of sensitiveness. And my experience, as I have met with boys, is that they haven't got it. They are without feeling, and are given to cruelty. And that man Roosevelt is the worst teacher we have got, for he can't be happy unless he is killing something. The fact of the matter is that we are not able to put ourselves in the place of another, and feel things from their standpoint. In place of ensitiveness with the average boy there has grown up a spirit of rudeness. His whole life is spent in looking for trouble, and if he can't find it, why, he gets to work and helps to make it. What we need is to develop an element of sensitiveness and thoughtfulness for other people, and if we could develop this spirit in the minds of the rising generation we would have taken a great step towards their education. These are two qualities that the Y. M. C. A. stands for prominently, and it is gradually making its influence felt in that direction. "You people have religious laws, and a respect for the Sabbath which we, even in New England, have forgotten, and you are obedient to these laws. obedience to the law is liberty. What we in the United States need is Grant, of New York, who also spoke just this better spirit which you possess, a higher sensitiveness, and it is only by the practice of this quality that we can reach the highest type of civilization.

Individual Ingenuity.

"The next grand element that I vould like to see developed more carefully is that of individual ingenuity. and this is one of the things that the association stands for strongly. There is lacking everywhere someone to take The Y. M. C. A. is a wonderful the initiative. What we need is initiative, the power to rise to an emergency. These are the elements that we must put into the life of the boy. And if we could put these qualiis not the least part of an education.

Sociability. "Then we need a spirit of sociability. We get too stiff. We don't keep in the spirit of fellowship with one another.
And this we would do well to avoid. We cannot properly help one another unless we understand, and are in sympathy with one another. "I am glad to find such a community as I have found here. One that is not spending all its time in booming itself. Numbers are not the only thing that counts, and I am glad that you haven't fallen under the spell of this counting spirit, as we have in United States. And so I would urge upon you to put the best heart you can into this Y. M. C. A. work. Make of it the best thing you can, and give it an esprit de corps that will be felt. For it is one of the best agents for keeping strong and manly life to the fore." by the singing of the National An-

When the curtain rose, sixty members of the club were seen seated on the stage, singing "Down Mobile." The stage setting was very beautiful, and the chorus, attired in white suits, with red sashes and green ties, harmonized with it perfectly. The first part of the programme included the following songs: "A Picture of Simple Life." by E. A. Atkins; "In the Right Church. but the Wrong Pew," by Roy Nopper; "A Southern Serenade," by J. Craig; I'm Glad I'm Married," by George A. Henry: "Roll On, Thou Deep and Dark Blue Ocean," by Frank Sharman; "Bill Was There," by Jack Robinson; "With You in Eternity," J. A. Nash; "Movin' Day," H. L. Milligan; "Old Black Joe," Charles S. Martin, and a closing overture by the chorus, "Kiss Your Minstrel Boy Good-Bye."

The finest numbers on this part of the programme were without doubt those of Mr. Frank Sharman and Mr. Charles Martin, and they were repeatedly encored. Shortly after the programme commenced a telegrar was brought to the stage, and Mr. J. R. Mitcheltree, intercutor, read a message from Arthur E. Holman, from Boston, in which he wished the club every success. announcement was received amid the greatest enthusiasm.

The interval between the first and second part of the programme was filled with a stump speech by Mr. H. Leckle and a splendid exhibition of fancy step-dancing by Messrs. M. Mat-thews and G. Sherlock. The young

THE SATISFACTORY HARDWARE "Best" Refrigerators

In order that a refrigerator may be sanitary and safe, the air must circulate thoroughly in every part. If the air is stagnant in any section of the cooling chamber the food there will soon spoil and become unfit; in fact, dangerous, to eat.

"BEST" REFRIGERATORS have the most perfect system of air circulation known. Not a fraction of a square inch of stagnant air is possible in the whole cooling chamber. There is a constant current of cold, dry air through every part.

That is why "BEST" keep food so perfectly, why they give such splendid satisfaction, and why so many of them are used by Grocers, Butchers, Hotels, Restaurants, Hospitals, Etc. Lined with odorless genuine percelain, there is nothing about the "BEST" to rust or corrode and poison the food. The whole interior fittings can be removed in a moment for cleaning. We guarantee the "BEST" Refrigerator or money refunded.

EDUCATED HUSBANDS.

At an alumni meeting out east last week, a college president spoke, and here s something he said:

"The young men of today are money mad. They spurn education and culture and turn to business. They leave school too soon, and the women remain to be educated, and for what? If it continues I am afraid it will be to be the wives of gnoramuses.'

That will be a deplorable fate, indeed. A woman is naturally a proud person-proud of her appearance, her clothes, her home and her husband, if he is a fit person, and there is nothing that worries a woman so much as an unfit husband. She may love him, but she is always on the anxious seat for fear he may commit some grave error. One time a woman her husband say, 'I seen him do that' twice,' and actually she didn't know Thomas A.
