DISCUSSION OF IRISH AFFAIRS

Another Futile Attempt to Secure a Day in the House of Commons.

Although Liberal Leader Joins in Request—O'Brien Gives Notice of a Resolution.

London, Oct. 22.—There was another lively, though not a very important, discussion in the House today on the subject of granting a day for a debate on the state of Ireland. It only led to a great deal of straw-splitting, allegations of discourtesy and a considerable increase in the ill-feeling prevailing.

The Liberal leader, Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, again supported Patrick O'Brien's request for a day, saying that since the Premier had declined the request "on the mere request of the Irish members," he, as a Scotchman, gladly supported the request.

Mr. Balfour explained that he could only grant a day at Sir Henry's request, on the understanding that the motion took the form of a vote of censure on the Government, and that it was supported by the Opposition as a whole.

The Liberal leader disclaimed any such intention. He refused to identify himself so completely with the Nationalists, although he strongly contended that the request of the Irish members should be granted.

Mr. Balfour—"I think the right honorable gentleman had better make up his mind. If he cannot go any further and take a full plunge he had better defer this discussion."

Sir Henry resented what he termed a discourtesy, by Mr. Balfour disavowing any such intention.

During the altercation, Wm. O'Brien, T. P. O'Connor and others interjected comments on Mr. Balfour's "insulting attitude towards the Irish," and the discussion concluded with William O'Brien exclaiming, "If we are not given a day we will take one." Wm. O'Brien afterward gave notice of a resolution, declaring that in the opinion of the House the operation of the Crimes Act in Ireland was not justified by the condition of the country, which was unfair in its application, opposed to civilized usage in the management of its administration and calculated to undermine respect for the law, estrange the people of Ireland, and deeply injure the interests of peace between England and Ireland.

The Nationalists refrained from voting on any of the amendments to the Education Bill.

TRYING TO MAKE MISCHIEF.

William O'Brien created a great deal of excitement among his fellow-Nationalists in the House of Commons today by questioning Premier Balfour's resolution regarding the United Irish League at Boston, Mass. Mr. O'Brien asked the Premier if he had observed that Mr. Roosevelt sent a letter, and whether in view of future friendly relations between the United States and Great Britain, he could make any announcement that this country was not indisposed to receive with wisdom and courtesy the head of a great and friendly nation.

The Speaker promptly ruled the question out of order, to the evident chagrin of the Nationalists. The Premier's statement increased as Mr. O'Brien continued to press his point. He argued that this letter of the President was an international fact of the first importance to the house of Commons, and that it would not be a friendly thing to the head of a great nation that his letter should be treated as if the House of Commons was disposed to "average an insult" to the Chief Secretary for Ireland and his removals.

The Speaker maintained his ruling, and Mr. O'Brien tried to move an adjournment of the House, to discuss the matter, but the Speaker ruled that it was not a matter of definite importance.

The following is the text of the letter sent by the President's secretary to the United Irish League at its convention in Boston:—"White House, Washington, Oct. 16.—Dear Sir,—Your communication of recent date has been received, and in reply I would state that while the President very much appreciates the cordial invitation extended to him by your league, he regrets that his public duties will prevent him from being present on the occasion to which you refer. Owing to the pressure upon his time, incident to the preparation of his annual message to Congress, he is at present unable to accept any invitations. Permit me, in the President's behalf, to thank you, and, through you, the members of your organization for this courtesy, and, believe me, very truly yours, George B. Cortelyou, secretary."

SCHOOL CONCERT

The Central School Concert will come off on Nov. 7th. It will be the first concert in Chatham in which a thousand people will take part. Some of the music for the choruses will come direct from England.

Billy Bounce, Fuzzy White and many other special features, which will include club swinging, drilling, etc., will be introduced. Mr. Flew, the energetic principal, intends making this the event of the season and the best concert that has ever been put on here or elsewhere.

CASE OF CRUELTY

"I saw a case yesterday where the police ought to interfere," said a well-known citizen to The Planet to-day. "A white teamster, Robert Scott, was drawing a heavy load of sand for the Lacroix St. sidewalk and was trying to make the team, which are quite small horses, draw the load over it, but the driver, Scott himself, not being satisfied, got off the load, doubled up the whip and beat one of the horses, a yellow creature, unmercifully on the head. The foreman of the sidewalk work told Scott to stop, but was told to mind his own business, or words to that effect."

"I think the police ought to take hold of the matter."

ARE BEEHIVES OF INDUSTRY

Men Hard at Work Getting Coal Mines in Shape for Operation.

Whistles Blew at 7 O'clock This Morning, When the Men Began Work.

Wilkesboro, Pa., Oct. 22.—Rapid progress is being made by all the coal companies in the anthracite region toward a general resumption of coal mining. The suspension officially ends at 7 o'clock to-morrow morning, but the quantity of coal that will be mined this week will not be great. It is not believed 25 per cent of the normal production will be reached until some time next week. There are a number of mines which are in condition for operation for several months, and there are others that will not be ready for the men under two or three weeks.

The day was devoted to a general inspection at most collieries to see what is needed in the way of repairs before the men can cut coal. Every piece of machinery must be gone over to see whether it is in fit condition to be operated before the fans in most mines can be started to drive out the gas and other impurities in the air. In a great number of collieries there will have to be much timbering done to prevent "squatters." The nearly six months idleness has in many instances rusted breaker machinery, which may cause some delay in starting. Notwithstanding the many drawbacks, however, the company officials are confident there will be plenty of coal for distribution before real cold weather sets in.

Thousands of men of every class made application for work to-day. Under the decision of the convention those directly employed in cutting and handling coal cannot return to work until to-morrow morning, but workmen who are needed for repairs and otherwise place the workings in condition for operations were reinstated to-day wherever needed.

WORK FOR UNION MEN.

The unionists say the companies will get rid of all incompetent men hired during the suspension, because when the collieries begin working full time the non-union men will not be able to fill their places properly. The strikers argue superintendents will not risk the lives of the men nor the wrecking of the mines through the mistakes of non-union men, whom the strikers claim are mostly incompetent. Company superintendents said to-day there would be no discrimination in taking back men except that where men have committed violence or where otherwise unduly aggressive during the progress of the strike. Such men, the officials say, will not be taken back.

One of the developments of the day was the great number of men who have been employed throughout the strike who left their places to-day and returned to their homes. Hundreds were paid off by the several coal companies in this valley, and the same is true of the other regions.

President Mitchell is now engaged preparing the miners' side of the case for presentation to the arbitration commission. He will appear before the tribunal and will have with him a number of assistants. He held a conference with National Secretary-Treasurer Wilson to-day and the latter left for national headquarters of the mine workers at Indianapolis late this afternoon. It is very likely that soon after his arrival there an announcement will be sent out to terminate the collection of strike assessments levied in June on all unions of the coal miners.

The troops in this region have not yet received orders to leave for home, as none is expected now until after the collieries get well started. There has been no trouble in this region beyond a few fights the result of pay day among the non-union men.

St. Thomas Times.—A petition is in circulation among the business men and others asking the Lake Erie & Detroit River Railway Company to change the train which arrives here from London at 8:10 p. m. to a passenger instead of a mixed train, as at present, and also to change the time of leaving London to between 5:30 and 6:30, so that those who are transacting business in London and St. Thomas can reach their homes at a more reasonable hour. The train in question runs through to Chatham.

HON. MR. TARTE SAYS GOOD-BYE

Takes Leave of the Governor-General and the Public Works Staff.

Laurier Says he Thought Tarte was Joking When Advocating Higher Tariff to him.

Ottawa, Ont., October 22.—Mr. Tarte drove to Government house at a quarter to twelve to-day to take leave of his excellency the Governor-General. At this moment he was getting into a hack at the post office cab stand for this purpose, a handsome carriage, drawn by a pair of dashing greys, was waiting at the privy council entrance to the west block to convey the premier to his Government house. Before leaving his office the premier was closeted with Mr. Bernier, minister of inland revenue, who has been frequently named as Mr. Tarte's probable successor for some time, and afterwards with Mr. Sifton, minister of the interior. Mr. Tarte's staff of the public works department assembled in the minister's room early this morning to bid the ex-minister farewell.

Mr. Tarte expressed his sense of the loyal assistance he had received from one and all in the department, and his natural regret at a severance of the relations that had continued so long. It was one of the most unpleasant features, he declared, of the change that had been made. He said works of great importance to the country had been set going by the department, and his successor, he had no doubt, would see them carried out. He didn't want who his successor would be, and to your correspondent afterwards Mr. Tarte said he didn't know himself.

The ex-minister further declared now the irrevocable step had been taken he was very glad of it—glad to be free, glad to be able to take things quietly. He intended to be quiet for quite a while now. "Oh, yes," assented the reporter, dubiously, at which Mr. Tarte quickly said, laughingly, "Oh, well, as quiet as possible." He said he was not going to give up his residence in Ottawa, and would occupy it at least half the year.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier when seen this morning as to Mr. Tarte's reiterated statements that he had, in various speeches, on different occasions, spoken in the premier's presence in advocacy of the policy of higher tariff and the premier had never dissented, said it was quite true he had been present on occasions when Mr. Tarte had spoken to the effect referred to, but it seemed to him more jealousy than otherwise. The matter of higher tariff had come up in the house of commons, and the policy of the government had been stated, namely, that there was to be no interference with it and the tariff was not to be immediately revised, and it had not been. Mr. Fielding's speech was in Hansard for every one to see.

It is generally believed that Sir Wilfrid will submit the name of Mr. Tarte's successor to his excellency, and that at the cabinet council later on it will be announced. It is known that some of the Ontario ministers have expressed themselves strongly in favor of Mr. Bernier remaining in his place as minister of inland revenue, and a new man brought in from outside for the public works. There has been strong rivalry between the various Quebec interests over their respective candidates, Prefontaine, Parent and Brodeur—and it is entirely a Quebec fight.

MR. BRODEUR RETIREMENT.
Montreal, Que., Oct. 22.—Hon. L. P. Brodeur is in the city to-day attending to his law business. He has nothing to say to-day about the reports that he would succeed Hon. Mr. Tarte as minister of public works or enter the cabinet with some other portfolio. Mr. Brodeur says he has heard nothing whatever from Ottawa.

LIKELY SUTHERLAND

Windsor, Ont., October 22.—M. K. Cowan stated that there would likely be a reconstruction of the cabinet, made necessary by the vacancy created by the resignation of Hon. J. Israel Tarte, from the portfolio of minister of public works. Hon. James Sutherland or Sir William Mulock were the more probable candidates to be selected. Hon. Mr. Parent's chances, according to the same authority were infinitely small. Speaker Brodeur or Solicitor-General Carroll, he thought, would likely be given the charge of some department.

KING'S BIRTHDAY

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 22.—The next issue of the Ottawa Gazette will have a proclamation announcing that there will be no celebration of the King's birthday on November 9. Instead it will be observed on May 24. Monday, the 10th November, however, there will be the usual royal salute fired at all military stations.

A cable has been received from Hon. Joseph Chamberlain stating that members of the South African Constabulary are entitled to the special war gratuity. All who have served between 10th October, 1899, or 31st May, 1902, are entitled to this gratuity. It will be paid by the Staff Officer, South Africa, King's Court, London, S. W.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 23.

THE OTTAWA CRISIS.

That Mr. Tarte would leave the Laurier Cabinet has been apparent for some days. But nobody supposed that the departure would be effected under such circumstances as those now recorded. It is obvious that the adversaries of Mr. Tarte in the Government secured the Premier's ear soon after Sir Wilfrid's return to Canada, and pressed for a dismissal. Sir Wilfrid, yielding to the persuasion, demanded that Mr. Tarte hand in his resignation. This the Minister did; whereupon Sir Wilfrid addressed a letter to his late colleague reprimanding him for his conduct in openly advocating a pro-Canada policy without authority, and declaring him no longer a member of the inner circle. Thus ends dramatically a friendship which when at its height led Sir Wilfrid to exclaim in the exuberance of his affection, "Nothing's too good for Tarte." "We love him for the enemies he has made."

This is the first time that a Canadian Premier has set aside a member of his Administration. Certainly there is no case on record in which a Minister has been ordered to go because of his advocacy of progressive measures. But the issue was not governed entirely and exclusively by the pro-Canada question. There is a personal as well as a political side to the quarrel, which has culminated in the ejection of Mr. Tarte. The Ministers who have been most active in the campaign against their ex-colleague have been aware for some time that Sir Wilfrid Laurier cannot possibly retain much longer the position of Premier. Their choice for the first place, which will soon be vacant, is Fielding. With Mr. Tarte in office and exercising Ministerial influence, the prospects for Mr. Fielding would not be promising, for Mr. Tarte would have preferred a strong man. It was, therefore, with reference to the succession as well as with reference to the tariff that the fight was precipitated. On the surface the tariff question was the issue. Mr. Tarte has striven to lead the Government to espouse a decidedly pro-Canadian policy. His idea probably was that it would be good politics to appropriate the clothes of the Liberal-Conservatives and to leave them without an issue with which to appeal to the country. That he had Sir Wilfrid Laurier's authority for propounding the protective doctrine is asserted by himself, but is inferentially denied by the Premier. Of course it is impossible to say what takes place in private conference. Public occurrences and Sir Wilfrid's speeches, however, lend strength to Mr. Tarte's view. Sir Wilfrid has advocated every policy under the sun, and Mr. Tarte was quite as free to believe that the Premier was sincere when he veered towards protection, and announced that wisdom was coming to him with increasing years, as was the free trade Minister to accept Sir Wilfrid's statements when he exhibited his Cobden medal and pronounced himself a free trader "as they have them in England."

If Mr. Tarte departed from the policy of the government he did so owing to the versatility of his leader who has produced confusion by advocating too many contradictory propositions. But, leaving this phase of the difficulty aside, it is clear that soon after Mr. Tarte embarked upon his campaign the free trade forces of the government began to feel that their position was imperilled and that they would have to fight for their own hand. They put up a vigorous and bitter contest, and have succeeded in suppressing the protective element in the government and in the party. With the reproaches addressed by Sir Wilfrid to Mr. Tarte the public has little to do. But it must be said that a curious limit is set upon Ministerial freedom when it is declared, or at least inferred, that no Minister can constitutionally advocate new and progressive movements. We notice that Mr. Blair has just declared in British Columbia for a government railway across the continent in competition with existing roads, and paying no interest upon the capital invested in it. This is a striking departure, and it would be well to know whether it is authorized, and if not, when Sir Wilfrid will put Mr. Blair out of the cabinet.

The significance of the ejection of Mr. Tarte lies in the fact that we have with it a straight repudiation of the policy he has been advocating. Sir Wilfrid, to be sure, endeavors in his letter accepting the enforced resignation to base his action in calling upon Mr. Tarte to withdraw upon the charge that his late colleague has been speaking without authority, and not upon the policy that has been advocated. But if the policy were acceptable the advocacy of the policy would not be merely acceptable and excusable, but decidedly welcome. It therefore follows that the dismissal of Mr. Tarte is a declaration against the principle of Canada for the Canadians, which looks to the upbuilding of our industries, the defence of our workmen and the rapid development of the country in all lines of effort. This is the first time that the government has frankly announced where it stands, and its declaration is so emphatic that no man can misunderstand it—Mail and Empire.

HOW THE SPEC. SEES IT.

The Hamilton Spectator man, an apostle of condensed journalism, withal apt and witty, comments as follows:—

Laurier is now, for the first time, really the Premier of Canada.

And the Conservatives all indulge in much laughter.

What will Commodore McGillivuddy do now?

Lost, strayed or stolen—A Sunny Smile. Return to Laurier, Ottawa.

The firm of Tarte, Laurier & Co. has been dissolved by mutual consent, the senior partner having determined to go into bigger and better business.

No. Tarte is not out of parliament—not by several majorities.

I suspect that Sifton will experience several cold chills next session when Private Member Tarte gets after him.

The Laurier cabinet has committed suicide—has blown out its own brains, as it were.

Laurier was well enough to-day to bounce Tarte. But the time is coming soon when he'll wish he'd been too sick for the job.

Quebec is beginning to be the object of much attention.

And now every cowardly Grit journal that was afraid to express an opinion on the Tarte-Sifton controversy will be after Tarte with the biggest club in reach.

Tarte is out; but he wins, all the same.

Tarte's disappearance from the Laurier Cabinet may prove to be the blow that killed father.

Being out of the Cabinet will not make Tarte any the less interesting.

Both strikes are off, the miners' and Tarte's.

Sifton will now think pretty well of himself—for a while.

Wait till you see Tarte next year.

Welcome, Mr. Tarte, to the cold shades of opposition.

We have it! Sifton and those other intolerant ministers are down on poor Tarte because he is French!

Laurier once said, "When Tarte goes, I go." And his departure is not likely to be very much later than Tarte's.

Tarte meant what he said. He thoroughly believes in protection for Canada, and refused to play the hypocrite.

If Bob comes to Canada he will get a warm reception. When Cleopatra welcomed Antony she dissolved a priceless pearl and drank it in his honor. Not to be outdone in welcoming the greatest soldier of modern times, Ottawa promises to burn a whole scuttled of that Welsh coal in his honor.

WHAT ROSS MEANT.
Montreal Gazette.

What was meant by Mr. Ross, the Premier of Ontario, when he said he would fight for his position, is possibly being seen in connection with the South Oxford election trial. An office-seeker going about suborning perjurers in an effort to unsettle an opponent in the legislature is probably what the chief patron of "the machine" would regard as a fighter fighting.

STRICTURES

CAN BE CURED WITHOUT THE KNIFE, PAIN OR LOSS OF TIME

BY DR. GOLDBERG'S LATEST METHOD OF TREATMENT.

According to claims made by Dr. Goldberg, Detroit's noted specialist, varicoele and strictures can be cured without pain, the use of the knife, or loss of time.

Where these claims made by an irresponsible person, we should doubt their truthfulness, but as they come from a reliable source they are worthy of consideration.

The treatment consists of a combination of drugs, which removes all traces of the stricture, while in varicoele, it equalizes circulation, thereby restoring the parts to their natural condition; it cures nervousness, backache, smarting sensations, and unnatural discharges, thereby strengthening the organs, thus being a guaranteed cure for weak men.

If you are in need of treatment, we would advise you to write the doctor to-day, for if he accepts your case, you can pay when cured; this is certainly a fair proposition, as you need pay nothing until a complete cure has been made, and unless the doctor was certain that his latest Method Treatment was a positive cure, he could not make this offer. The doctor is a graduate of one of New York's leading medical colleges, and since his graduation has devoted his entire attention to the treatment of varicoele, stricture, and skin diseases. He has taken four special courses in the New York Post Graduate Hospital for which he received special diplomas, certificates, etc., which testify to his standing and ability.

Patients calling at his office are interviewed by him in person and all correspondence receives his personal attention.

Address him in confidence Dr. Goldberg, 298 Woodward Avenue, Detroit, Mich.

The man who says he cannot succeed in business because he is too honest is a whiner and a coward, and dare not face his own real faults.

Dead Men's Shoes.

"Why don't I go to work? 'Cause I got prospects. Me brudder's got four dollars an' nine cents saved up, an' I'm his heir, an' he ain't feelin' very well lately."

Example.

"You ought not to smoke right before the children, Henry," expostulated Mrs. Chinner. "Can't you see that you're setting them a very bad example?"

"Oh, that's all right, my dear," replied her husband easily. "If they follow your example of carrying pins in your mouth, they'll never live long enough to be harmed by my example."

Just Playing Politics.

Senator Kittredge of South Dakota saw two little boys in a scrap as he was on his way to the capitol the other day.

"Don't fight boys," he said. "Try to get along without fighting."

"We ain't fighting," promptly replied one of the boys. "We are just playing politics."

DAMAGE SUIT

"Can you sue this city for damages?" queried Ohas Mount this morning.

"I had three ducks drowned in that swamp hole at the corner of Thames and Pitt street. I am not quite sure whether the ducks were mired or drowned, but dead they are, and I want damages. I think the ducks were a little too fat, and getting into the whole were unable to get out."

Then Mr. Mount looked at the Klondike and was glad there were no holes in the streets big enough to swallow it up.

ENGLISH EMIGRANTS

R. Courtney, of the emigration department, London, England, arrived in the city Tuesday morning with a number of young Englishmen under his charge. The young men are G. M. Patterson, C. H. Bunn, V. R. Artois, H. W. Carpenter, E. V. Whiteaway, C. H. Hoedam, H. A. Seigle, of London, England, and Edward Evans and N. Tredennick, of Ireland. These young Englishmen have come to Canada as men of means to learn farming. They all intend to make Canada their home and at present have no intention of returning to England to live. They are all bright, intelligent looking young men and were educated for the army. They, however, desire to learn farming and have come to Canada as the best place to learn it.

Mr. Courtney, who acted as superintendent of the party, has been in the immigration business for the last 15 years and during that time he has made 53 trips across the ocean with parties of emigrants. During the last ten years he has brought out about 3,000 men, almost 75 per cent. of whom have remained in Canada.

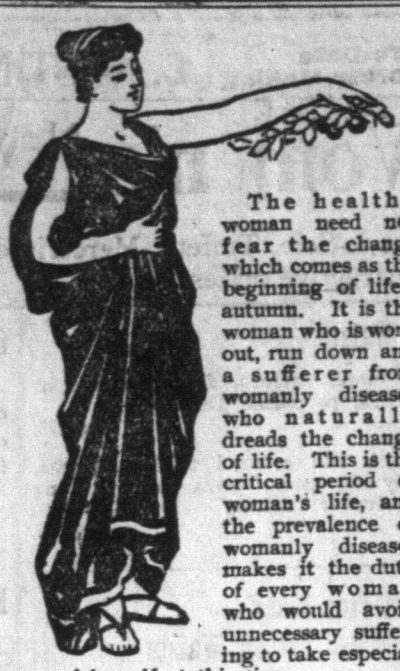

The young men who have come out this time are now busily engaged in seeking employment.

SHE VENTURED

She ventured in the briny deep
A little while ago,
And yelled for murder, fire, police,
A crab had pinched her toe.

And, though at that momentous time
Her screams were plainly heard,
Yet, when a lobster squeezed her waist,
She didn't say a word.

Women will weep for a man and Love him the more; when they must
Blush for him if he closes their hearts
Against him.

The healthy woman need not fear the change which comes at the beginning of life's autumn. It is the woman who is worn out, run down and a sufferer from womanly diseases who naturally dreads the change of life. This is the critical period of woman's life, and the prevalence of womanly diseases makes it the duty of every woman who would avoid unnecessary suffering to take especial care of herself at this time.

The ills which vex so many women at the change of life are entirely avoided or cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It makes weak women strong, and enables the weakest to pass through this trying change with the tranquility of perfect health.

"I have been a very healthy woman, and this time has been very hard with me," writes Mrs. Maggie Morris, of Munson Station, Clearfield Co., Pa. "I am come to the time of change of life, and I have been sick a great deal of and on. When Mrs. Hemmels moved beside me I was sick in bed, and when she came to see me and we were talking over our sickness, Mrs. Hemmels told me to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery,' also 'Pellets.' I got her to bring me a bottle of each from the drug store and I used them. They did me a great deal of good, and I got two more bottles of 'Favorite Prescription.' I never saw such a wonderful cure. Before I commenced your remedies I was good for nothing; was in such misery I hardly knew what to do with myself, now I can do all my work myself and feel well."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are easy and pleasant to take.

100 YOUNG MEN WANTED

Will you kindly put this matter fairly before the readers of your valuable paper. "100 young men wanted" sounds like an old worn out style of advertising, but it expresses a condition of things in Canada today that has never before existed in our 30 years experience in supplying office help; and it is not confined to Canada alone.

We are receiving call after call for male stenographers that we cannot fill, and positions at $50 and $60 per month are begging for young men to fill them.

We now have eleven unfilled calls of this kind, and the number keeps increasing.

Too few young men take up this line of work and this is the reason why, year after year the supply is so far short of the demand.

If you will make this known to your readers, you will be doing them a favor and perhaps help us to meet the demand of the business public in a more satisfactory measure.

PRETTY WEDDING

The residence of John A. Hardy, Kent Bridge, was the scene of a pretty wedding last Wednesday, when his only daughter, Miss Hannah Broadway Hardy was united in marriage to Alfred Langford, Kent Bridge. Miss Rena B. Langford, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid, and Will Tackaberry, of this city, assisted the groom. Little Bessie Hardy, niece of the bride, made a charming flower girl, and Cameron Langford, nephew of the groom, was page. The bride and her attendants were all attired in white organdie. PARIS SCARE

Police and Newspaper Reports Conflict as to Elysee the Wall Climber.

Paris, Oct. 22.—The police commissary attached to the Elysee Palace says the report published in the Figaro this morning of an alleged attempt of a dangerous anarchist to seek an opportunity to assassinate President Loubet is much exaggerated. The facts are that a man of unbalanced mind late on Monday evening tried to climb the railing in front of one of the gates of the Elysee, beside a sentry box. The sentry ordered him away. The man talked incoherently, and finally had to be removed. No revolver or poignard were found on him.

Another version of the affair, differing from that of the commissary of police, is as follows—The incident occurred at 7 o'clock Monday morning. When, in disregard of the sentry's summons to a man to go away, two detectives attached to the Elysee seized him, he resisted, punching and kicking the detectives and cheering for anarchy. When he was ordered away by the sentry he was in the act of trying to climb the railing. He was speedily overpowered and taken to the lock-up, where he gave the name of Le Bissonet. When asked what he intended to do at the Elysee he replied: "Wait for the president in the gardens and strike him down. I am the enemy of all tyrants." The man's mind is evidently deranged. He only recently left a hospital after having attempted suicide at St. Lazer station.

The Elysee police do not attach importance to the incident because hardly a week passes without eccentric behavior in weak-minded individuals requiring the intervention of the police. The newspapers, however, say that Le Bissonet was actively connected with the anarchist propaganda of recent years, and that he was twice arrested at the time of the Henry and Vaillant outrages, but that he was not arraigned. The prisoner is now confined in an infirmary, where he will be medically examined.

The police deny that Le Bissonet is an anarchist. They claim he has only an alcoholic record.

PEDDLER MURDERED

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 22.—With skull battered in and face covered with blood from a great wound on the side of his face, the dead body of an Armenian pedlar, who had been murdered, was found this afternoon in the tunnel of the famous Old Tenny Cape Mine, a short distance from Noel. The horrible discovery was made by two men who had been out hunting, as they were going along the road to Tenny Cape, when they met an Armenian pedlar who was struggling under two packs which he had strapped across his back. Shortly after passing him they found several small trinkets, such as are carried by pedlars, lying on the road, and some distance further saw patches of blood and evidence of a struggle. The men became suspicious, and at once made up their minds a crime had been committed. When they reached Tenny Cape they informed parties there, and searching parties set out with the above result. The body was taken to Tenny Cape and an inquest held. The other pedlar who was passed on the road was captured and held in custody.

East of here buyers are paying 63c, 64c and 65c, per bushel for wheat. In Chatham the millers are paying 70c, standard. N. B. Stevens says that the millers here might just as well pay for the wheat what it would cost them to bring it in from the east on cars and the farmers thus have the advantage of the freight rate.

John Simmons and bride (formerly Mrs. Crowe) passed through the city yesterday en route to their new home in Citronelle, Alabama. The couple were married on Saturday at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. Steinhoff, of Wallaceburg. The bride is well known in this city. R. L. ROLLS--McGREGOR

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 23.—The marriage of Miss Florence McGregor, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James McGregor, of Detroit, to Mr. Montague Cecil Rolls, also of this city, son of Mrs. Edwin C. Rolls, Vinewood avenue, and the late Edwin Cecil Rolls of Chatham, Ont., was very quietly celebrated at high noon to-day, at the Alta Vista Farm, the country home of the bride's parents, at St. Clair, Michigan.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Rolf Duff, pastor of the Congregational Church, St. Clair, and was witnessed only by the immediate relatives of the bride and groom.

After an absence of several weeks, Mr. and Mrs. Rolls will return to Detroit, and will occupy their new home at 222 Seminole avenue, where they will receive after January 1st, 1903.

GOOD CONCERT

Several Chathamites assisted last evening in a successful concert, held in the school house at Louisville. H. W. Anderson presided and the program included solos by Miss Edna Webster, soprano soloist of the Park St. Church, who accorded an enthusiastic reception, also excellent contributions by Mr. Lowe, tenor, Misses Pratt and Bogart, pianists, and a number of selections by the mixed and male quartettes. Capital addresses were also delivered by J. W. Plewes, principal of the Central school, R. W. Angus and F. W. Tobey, principal of the Louisville school.

Mr. Tobey, who was instrumental in securing the concert in aid of the school, is to be congratulated on its success and the progress he is making in improving and refitting the building.

EVIDENTLY A CASE OF SUICIDE.

Eagle, Ont., Oct. 22.—Edward, the third son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Lindeman, one of the leading families of this place, and who ended his life by shooting himself just before the temple on Tuesday, was a quiet, industrious young man, but had been in poor health since last winter, becoming very despondent. His parents did all they could to encourage their son in life. In the spring they tried to persuade him to take a trip to the West, but could not. During the summer he gradually grew worse, and about Sept. 1st was taken to the St. Joseph's Hospital, London, where he remained in charge of Dr. Wishart, and remained until Oct. 15, when he returned home apparently quite well and much more cheerful. He was around the house as usual yesterday forenoon, and went upstairs, and his mother, thinking he was staying an unusual length of time, went up, and was shocked to find him in an unconscious state, having shot himself. Despatched, brought on through sickness, was the cause of the rash act.

PEDRO SOCIAL

About two hundred attended the Pedro Social at St. Joseph's Hall, Cross street, last evening. In the early part of the evening progressive Pedro was indulged in, Miss Madie Mount getting the ladies first prize for winning the most games—a beautiful vase. M. E. Doyle won the gentleman's first prize, a handsome smoking set. The booby prizes—a jumping Jack and doll—went to Miss Francis O'Gorman and Syd. Woods respectively.

Hypnotizing the landlord, a comical sketch, was put on by Parnell Welsh and Burnie Weldon, bringing forth rounds of applause and laughter. Miss Trembley sang a solo and had to respond to an encore.

ONLY SLIM TEACHERS WANTED.

Philadelphia Record.
"The conditions of the Hoffman School in the Thirty-fourth ward have become so bad from the overcrowding of the children," said Assistant Superintendent Jacobs yesterday afternoon, "that it has become necessary to select slim teachers for several of the divisions, as even women of ordinary size would make their way through the crowded aisles with difficulty to attend to the work of their classes."

This seemingly humorous statement was made in all seriousness by the assistant superintendent in his official report to the sub-committee on attendance yesterday afternoon. It was decided that two additional divisions should be granted to the Hoffman school, both of which will be half-time classes, and for the new positions only really "slim" teachers need apply.

RARE TREAT

How the Pupils of the Ursuline Academy Enjoyed Bishop McEvay's Holiday.

All was merriment yesterday at The Pines, it being the holiday which His Lordship Bishop McEvay had accorded the pupils on the occasion of the commencement exercises the previous day. The morning was spent in sports of various kinds, and in the afternoon a great treat was prepared for the pupils. The Angelus Orchestra was attached to one of the best pianos in the building, and a very delightful program was given. The overtures from the Wagner operas, Tannhauser, Lohengrin, Die Meistersinger, were especially realistic and their incomparable harmonies and Leit-motifs were listened to with breathless interest.

The artist who so skillfully managed the instrument was Professor Palk Pinner, a musician of rare ability, recently arrived from Germany, where he completed his musical studies under the renowned Philip Scharwenka, of the Berlin Conservatory. The Professor also favored his audience with a number of pianoforte selections of high order and his rendition of them is beyond criticism. His style is brilliant, yet perfectly sympathetic; he is equally in touch with the marvellous works of Liszt and Beethoven or the dreamy creations of Chopin and Schumann. He is perfectly familiar with every work of the great masters, as well as those of all modern composers of merit; even their orchestral scores, he can transcribe for the pianoforte with masterly ease.

To Professor Pinner and Mr. Callahan of the Nordheimer piano firm, of London, Ont., the pupils are heartily thankful.

LETTER BOX

RE BINDER TWINE CO. SETTLEMENT.

Editor Planet:

The inference that it was intended should be drawn from the statement of Matthew Wilson, K. C., that he has "won on every point," is characteristic of that gentleman.

But the deep chagrin he feels will protrude, and perhaps some sympathy should be extended to him under the circumstances.

Defeated on every point that had come before the courts, five in number, I think, failing to get the sheriff into possession of the company's property.

His clients at last awakening, to realize the dangerous position they occupied, should the contention be continued to a final issue, consequently taking the matter into their own hands.

Notices of meetings, formulated, declared to be highly improper—By-laws declared illegal.

Was such a prospect that even one per cent. additional would prove much of a solace. Hence the final attack.

One statement of Mr. Wilson's is quite correct, the settlement does not

BITER BITTEN

Officer Who Went up Against an Old Game and Went Under.

Those who live in glass houses shouldn't—but that's the old story; nevertheless Chief of Police John Grant, of Ridgeway, is up against a like proposition.

It came about in this fashion. Wm. McDonald found the roads weren't good enough for his bicycle and took to the byways which are utilized by pedestrians and generally known as sidewalks. Well—on the side—he was pinched for it by the Chief of Police and it cost him a few.

He swore an oath—of vengeance—to the effect that he would get back at him, and sure enough he did.

He caught the chief cycling peacefully along the sidewalk with the result that on Monday morning last it cost the chief somewhat over four dollars.

CURE FOR BRONCHITIS.

This disease can be treated only by a remedy carried to the affected parts along with the air breathed, for nature intended these organs for the passage of air alone, and sprays, atomizers and internal medicines utterly fail. But Catarrhoidine, which is for it goes through the air, and its healing antiseptic vapor is sure to reach every affected part. Catarrhoidine is inhaled at the mouth and after passing through every air cell of the bronchus
it is slowly coiled through the nostrils.
Catarrhoidine protects and heals the inflamed passage, relieves congestion, allays inflammation, and perfectly cures all bronchial affections. Price $1. Small size 25c. Druggists or Polson & Co.,

Nervous and Sleepless

Two horrors crowded into one life,
the product of poor digestion, and the poisons that are thereby formed within the body. There's just one method of cure for this terrible condition—
plenty of food, but mild, food properly digested. That's the difficulty—the digestive power of the stomach must be improved. Rich, red blood formed, strength given to the organs to drive out poisons; then comes peace, vigor and endurance. Forgiveness does all this and more; it makes sick people well; weak people strong. Sow Foodzone and you reap health. Sold by McMill & Co.

UP THE CREEK.

Bigger and better than ever before.
Sunday's services and Monday evening's tea-meeting were red-letter events in the history of St. Paul's Church. Ideal weather contributed to the success of the anniversary. The theatricals of the Gilmour, Blenheim, occupied the pulpit at both services. It was the reverend gentleman's first appearance at St. Paul's, and he made a very decided impression on the large congregations present. A man of pleasing personality, an easy flow of language, with oratorical power and unmistakable rich Irish brogue were a few of the attributes that captured
the hearts of his hearers.
Our own choir, assisted by Geo. Rice-borough, rendered the musical part of the morning service; in the evening
Hoffman's talented singers had charge
of the song service.
The occasion was a re-opening, the church for the past six weeks being closed undergoing extensive repairs.
The interior decoration was done by E. E. C. Vender-Peen, Toronto, an artist in the profession; and we will just remark here, lest Mr. Gilmour might be inclined to think his hearers extremely devout, the upturned looks of the audience was caused by the exquisite designs and beautiful blending of colors made by the artist.
It is just possible you might find a man at St. Paul's who is not just solid on the Westminster Confession of Faith, some of them may be a little off color in politics; an odd one might be located who is not altogether true to his liege lady—these things are within the range of possibility in a district so populous as this parish—but there is one thing that can not be found here: a man or woman who is not loyal to the Kirk and annual tea-meeting. It is this, patriotic principle that throbs in their heart-beats, that continues year after year, which makes people far and near look forward to this event of the season.

It takes but a small breeze to raise a storm in a puddle.
Simple, everyday honesty, with ourselves and with the world, in thought, speech and conduct, is one of the greatest forces that make for noble character. Be honest, and all of life's sorrows will pass you by.
The chief business of youth is not pleasure, but character-building. A fallow youth usually causes a fruitless life. Good times are had when they are put in the place of life's serious business.

THE MARKETS

GRAINS.
Ald. Waddell, of the firm of J. B. Stringer & Co., gives The Planet the following market quotations:—

There is only moderate receipts of grain this week, the bad roads, besides pressure of work on the farm, being chiefly responsible for the quietness. Wheat is firm and in demand at 68c standard. Oats and barley also firm and in demand, prices ranging 27c to 28c for the former and 75c to 85c per 100 lbs. for the latter.

Beans—The balance of the old crop are coming in quite freely now under the inspiration of the satisfactory prices prevailing at present, and dealers are getting fairly well stocked again, while the demand is only hand to mouth since the steep advance. The market in Michigan and New York states are not active either and working easier somewhat. The new crop is so short a one, however, that it is confidently expected present prices or better will rule till another crop.

Wheat—New, 68c.
Corn—Shelled, 60c.
White Oats, 27c to 28c.
Barley, per 100, 75 to 85c.
Beans, $1.40 to $1.75.

Red Clover, $5 to $6.
Alfalfa, $5 to $6.50.
Timothy, $1.50 to $1.60.
Millet, 40c to 50c.
Seed corn, 60c.

WOOL AND HIDES.
Nelson Stringer gives The Planet the following quotations:—
The hide market is a trifle firmer. Wool, washed, 72c.
Wool, unwashed, 70c.

Lamb skins, 25 to 30c.
Sheep skins, 25 to 30c.
Cow hides, 5c to 6c.
Horse hides, $1 to $2.
Deacons, 20 to 35c.

LIVE HOGS.

Good deliveries, price being paid, $5.25; but $4.75 for all hogs under 160 lbs in weight. Prospects for weaker market next week.
Live hogs, $5.25.

White fish, 15c per lb., dressed.
Lake Huron trout, 10c per lb. dressed.
Yellow pickerel, 10c per lb., dressed.
Purgon, 10c per lb., dressed.

FURS.
Nelson Stringer gives The Planet the following quotations:—
Coon skins, 15c to $1.25.
Fox skins, $1 to $2.
Mink skins, 75c to $1.50.

OUTSIDE MARKETS.
HENRY CLEWS' REPORT.
Henry Clews in his weekly letter to The Planet, says:—
During the next few weeks the outlook is for a good trading market. The mercantile situation is satisfactory, and with the ending of the coal strike industry will be relieved of a serious uncertainty. Good harvests insure a large east-bound traffic for some months to come, and western prosperity equally insures a large west-bound business, which is usually profitable freight and of great importance to the railroads. The disposition of many operators to "plunge" which easier money will stimulate is not a satisfactory feature, and stocks exposed to such manipulation, should be left alone. The most conservative and strongest interests in the street are not yet enlisted on the bull side of the market for very plain and sound reasons. The time is not ripe. Sharp fluctuations may be expected but no prolonged campaign for a big advance is likely until the readjustment between the money and stock markets is nearer completion.

DYSPEPSIA OF WOMEN.

Mrs. E. B. Bradshaw, of Guthrie, Okla., cured of a severe case by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

A great many women suffer with a form of indigestion or dyspepsia which does not seem to yield to ordinary medical treatment. While the symptoms seem to be similar to those of ordinary indigestion, yet the medicines universally prescribed do not seem to restore the patient's normal condition.

Mrs. Pinkham claims that there is a kind of dyspepsia that is caused by derangement of the female organism, and which, while it causes disturbance similar to ordinary indigestion, cannot be relieved without a medicine which not only acts as a stomach tonic, but has peculiar uterine tonic effects as well.

Thousands of testimonial letters prove beyond question that nothing will relieve this distressing condition so surely as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It always works in harmony with the female system.

Mrs. Pinkham advises sick women free. Address Lynn, Mass.

WILL STAND BY MR. TARTE

President of Chatham's Board of Trade, a Life-Long Liberal, Commends Policy.

Says That a Great Mistake has Been Made in Retiring him From Cabinet.

John Piggott, president of the Chatham Board of Trade, and a life-long and active Liberal worker, speaking of the Hon. Israel Tarte this morning, said:

"It may have been a breach of etiquette for Mr. Tarte to wander away from his colleagues in the cabinet, still from the Canadian standpoint, I think Mr. Tarte is on the right track. I believe in both reciprocity and protection to the extent that I think it is only right for Canada to have an equal tariff with her neighbor and that she should have the same privilege with the United States that the United States has with us.

"As for Tarte's policy being altogether in favor of the manufacturers, that is all nonsense. It's beneficial effect will be felt just as much by the farmers, mechanics, and every other class of the population as it will be felt by the manufacturers.

"I am fully in accord with Mr. Tarte's transportation and tariff scheme. That scheme if carried out, will be a great factor in the future prosperity and success of this country.

"There are other reasons why I endorse Tarte. The last census showed that Canada had not increased in population as had been expected, or as she should have done. The reason is this. A young man starting in life looks around for the best fields to seek his livelihood in. He goes to the United States where there is a much larger market, and where they also have the added advantage of reaching our market—a privilege we don't enjoy. The demand for the products of the United States, consequently a large number of our sons and daughters are in the United States engaged in manufacturing articles which are sold in Canada. We want these young men and women to manufacture those articles in Canada and why shouldn't they find as profitable employment at home as in a foreign country, that we import so largely from?

"Looking at this matter wholly from the Canadian standpoint, if we don't look after ourselves, Uncle Sam is cute enough to realize that he doesn't want reciprocity so long as he has much the best of it, in commercial relations with Canada.

"I can only say that, so far as I am concerned, I am in hearty accord with Mr. Tarte, and believe a great mistake has been made in his retirement from the Liberal cabinet."

Irish Jack, the local "master of the administration" says that Tarte is a fool, that he is clever enough, but lacks ballast. Had the Hon. Mr. Tarte resigned first and talked afterwards he would have carried much more weight. He is regarded as a proud minister of the government he chased around the country in the absence of his leader, in the government's private car and aired his own views. Tarte got just what he had to expect. The Conservatives don't want him, the Liberals don't want him, and he will now be forced to form a party, which Mr. Piggott thinks will be "The Grit Protection Party."

EXPERIENCE VS. THEORY.

Stratford Herald.

If there ever really was a person who seriously considered the ancient question, "Is marriage a failure?" she may now be firmly answered, and by the highest possible authority. That authority is none other than Lillian Bell, who is widely known as the author of The Love Affairs of an Old Maid. Lillian Bell is now Mrs. Bogue, having been married for two years, and when she went back the other day to her old home in Chicago, a daring interviewer put the question straight to her, "From the standpoint of a sweet singer of the joys of spinsterhood, Mrs. Bogue, is marriage a failure?" Not for a moment did she hesitate. She cast her ancient doctrines to the winds, and declared in a breath that "it is royally, enchantingly delightful to be a married woman."

HASTY AND ILL-ADVISED

City Council's Action so Characterized by Local Wood Dealer.

It is Responsible for Increase in the Price of Wood to City Householders.

Angus Crow, one of the Maple City's coal and wood dealers, in an interview with The Planet on the wood situation this morning, said:—

"The action of the City Council in advertising for wood has sent that fuel sky high in price, so high, in fact, that the dealers cannot touch it.

"In the spring I bought some 18-inch wood about 14 miles out in the country right in the bush at 85 cents a cord and went out a few days ago to a place not a stone's throw away from it expecting to get some more of it.

"There was more there but the owners now wanted $2 a cord for it. That is the wood that we deliver in the city here for $2.50 a cord. In order to make anything out of it at $2 a cord we would have to sell it at $3.50 or $3.75, after paying for hauling it out of the bush, carting it to the cars, paying the freight on it, drawing it from the station to the wood yard and then delivering it around town.

"There is no doubt that the coal famine has had some tendency to the advance of wood, but the advertising for it by the Council is the material cause.

"Besides this the city is taking the good trade and leaving the bad to the dealers. Those that can pay spot cash will buy from the town, while those who cannot pay all at once are left to us.

"I think the local dealers could have supplied the demand for the winter all right, as wood is quite plentiful in the country and at more reasonable prices than it will now be supplied.

"The fact that the householders will be called on to pay increased prices for wood this winter must be attributed to the hasty and ill-adviced action of the Council in creating a scare and accordingly running up the price."

WORLD OF SPORT

FOOTBALL

The local football team has been doing a little practising of late and is rounding into good shape for the game on Saturday here with Darrell, which is the first Peninsular League game of this season to be played on the home grounds. The team for Saturday's game will be picked to-night and will appear in The Planet to-morrow. Some of the positions will be changed. New blood will likely be introduced, but a new one of the old blood in "Boss" Kelly, who played in the Chatham team when he was a young man, did so much toward winning the cup before. Kelly will be a great addition to the team. Secretary McDonald, of Detroit, will referee the game with Darrell.

A full practice is called for to-night.
