SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE in the case of No.F-35032 Gunner Alonzo Carl LEADEN, 13th Cdn Field Regt., on strength of No.1 Canadian Artillery Reinforcement Unit, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer the Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS for the prosecution

M.57016 A/L/Sjt. Payne, S.T., on strength of No.1 Canadian Artillery Reinforcement Unit, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn states.

On the 29th of May 1943 as duty N.C.O, of "H" Battery I placed F.35032 Gnr. Leaden. A.C., in St. Lucia Gunner's mess and ordered him to report to the Educational building occupied by the regimental police. He was to report at 2130 hours. He failed to report and I made a thorough search of the camp. On my Tattoo report I showed F.35032 Gnr. Leaden. A.C., absent as at 2130 hrs. This man was undergoing field punishment at the time. I produce certificate in accordance with P.C. 2797 of the 10th of April 1943 which is marked "A" and is attached to the summary. I produce certificate Ref. K.R. & O (Can) 539 which includes expenses which were incurred in apprehending and returning F.35032 Gnr. Leaden. A.C., which is marked "B" and is attached to the summary.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

A/L/Sgt. Payne S.T.
M.57016 A/L/Sjt. Payne, S.T.

The accused was cautioned as follows.

Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on oath ? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

After the above caution the accused declined to make a statement or give evidence.

The accused does not call any witnesses for the defence.

I certify that the foregoing Summary of Evidence consisting of one page was taken down by me in the presence of the accused and that Rules of Procedure 4 (C), (D), (E) and (F) have been complied with.

Mr President, members of the court, —

In peace time the army is made up of individuals who wish to soldier. However in war we find all sorts of persons who were never cut out to be soldiers, enlisted in the forces and many misfits are brought to light. Such a person, I suggest, we find in the accused.

The accused is essentially an individualist — of a family with artistic tendencies, he was awarded three scholarships and in 1933 which enabled him to study for 2½ years at the Nova Scotia School of Art in Halifax. He left at the end of this period to go to work in a clothing factory to provide more funds for his study and did several odd

1. When soldiers are apprehended in uniform near their quarters it is considered that as a general rule 5/- is a sufficient reward. Not more than 10/- will be allowed in any case where the soldiers were in uniform.

2. When soldiers are apprehended in plain clothes, at a distance from their units, and after having been absent for some time, the reward may be increased to 10/- or 15/- according to the nature of the cases and the trouble incurred in apprehension. A reward in excess of 15/- will seldom be granted.

3. The reward of 20/- should be strictly reserved for cases where superior intelligence has been displayed in apprehending men in plain clothes, or under difficult or exceptional circumstances.

Rewards and expenses attendant upon apprehensions will be paid by the Command Paymaster of the Command or District in which the soldier's Unit is stationed.

4. No reward can be authorised if the Deserter or Absentee voluntarily surrendered, or if it shall appear that he was in collusion with the person who apprehended him, or if the apprehended man was not a Deserter or Absentee.

The following Statement of expenses (if any) incurred by the Police and chargeable to Army Funds should be certified by a Superintendent or Officer in charge of a station.

No expenses incurred in conveying a Deserter or Absentee from the Court to prison should be charged to Army funds. Such expenses can be included in the claim made on the Prison Commissioners.

The total amount allowed on account of expenses before committal will not together with the reward exceed 40/-.

IMMEDIATE.

PART I.

DESCRIPTIVE RETURN of a Deserter or Absentee without Leave.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE GUIDANCE OF MAGISTRATES.

(1) When a man is apprehended by the Civil Power as an absentee without leave, or as a deserter, if the information tendered leaves no doubt in the mind of the Magistrate that the prisoner is a soldier, this return should be completed and given to the Police to hand to the escort on arrival.

(2) To avoid delay in the arrival of the escort a telegram stating the Number, Rank, Name and Unit of the soldier should be sent by the Police, as soon as the man is committed, to the Officer Commanding the soldier's Unit. The place where the escort is required to attend should be stated, also whether the soldier surrendered or was arrested.

(3) Any recommendation for a reward should be made on Part II of this return.

(4) The Court fees chargeable for Descriptive Returns should be claimed periodically from the Command Paymaster of the Command in which the Court is situated.

(5) The stations of all Units are shown in the Monthly Army List, as are also the Depots of Corps.

In the case of doubt as to the location of a particular Unit reference should be made to the nearest O.C. Troops. Where the soldier's Unit is stationed overseas (outside Great Britain, Northern Ireland District, and the Channel Islands) the telegram for an escort should be despatched to the O.C. Depot, who will take all necessary action for its provision.

STATEMENT OF ACCUSED

In the case of C-4203 Pte. Leadbetter, A.,
H. & P.E. Coy., No. 1 Cdn. Inf. Hldg. Unit.

The accused, C-4203 Pte. Leadbetter, A., having been duly cautioned and sworn, states:

I was absent without leave from Camp 101, Witley, Surrey, from 0700 hours, 26th day of December 1940, until 1800 hours, the 10th day of January 1941.

On or about the 19th day of October I obtained one Railway Warrant No. 378131 from a man named Girrard, a member of the Hastings and Prince Edward Regiment stationed at Reigate. He was a typist working in the Orderly Room, and at that time he was in detention with me for stealing a truck. At the same time I obtained from E-4784 Pte. R.L. Wager one pass with Orderly Room stamp on it in blank, and one pass without the Orderly Room stamp on it.

I sent a letter with enclosures dated October 20th, 1940, which letter starts with "Dear Daisy", and which was intended for Mrs. D. Day, 7 Tanfield Road, West Croydon, Surrey.

The accused declines to cross-examine.

Q16 - Do you wish to address the Court?
A16 - (Defending Officer) In regard to the first charge with which Leadbetter is charged, I would ask the Court to consider the factor of lack of supervision of defaulters which is largely a contributing factor in this charge. If the passes had been properly looked after they would not have been stolen. The last four charges relate to this man's private life. He is seeking a divorce from his wife at the present time and he tells me, and I have every reason to believe it, that he broke away from confinement so that he might straighten out his family affairs at Croydon. I don't think he will be a credit to the army until his private life is straightened out. The last two charges are based on the fact that he was on the downward path with a court-martial record behind him and he might be hanged for a cow as for a sheep. He was absent and had another man's pay book with him and was engaged on very urgent private business at that time. That is all I have to say.

The Court is closed for the consideration of the sentence.

C-4203, Pte. Leadbetter, A.W., No. 1 Cdn. Inf. Holding Unit, tried by Field General Court-Martial at Witley, Surrey, on the 3rd day of June, 1941.

The order convening the Court, the charge-sheet, the summary of evidence and the medical certificate are laid before the Court.

Prosecutor - Lieut. H.M. Howell (Lawyer)
Defending Officer - Lieut. R.F. Wodehouse

At 1000 hours the Trial commences.

The names of the President and members of the Court are read over in the hearing of the accused and they severally answer to their names.

Q1 - Do you object to be tried by me as President, or by any of the officers whose names you have heard read over?
A1 - No, sir.

The President and members are duly sworn.

Q2 - Do you object to M-15577 Sgt. Stanley Fidler, The Edmonton Regiment, C.M.H.Q., acting as Court Stenographer?
A2 - No, sir.

The court-stenographer is duly sworn.

The charge-sheet is signed by the President and annexed to the proceedings.

The accused is arraigned upon each charge in the above mentioned charge-sheet.

Q3 - Are you guilty or not guilty of the first charge against you, which you have heard read?
A3 - Guilty, sir.
Q4 - Are you guilty or not guilty of the second charge against you, which you have heard read?
A4 - Guilty, sir.
Q5 - Are you guilty or not guilty of the third charge against you, which you have heard read?
A5 - Guilty, sir.
Q6 - Are you guilty or not guilty of the fourth charge against you, which you have heard read?
A6 - Guilty, sir.
Q7 - Are you guilty or not guilty of the fifth charge against you, which you have heard read?
A7 - Guilty, sir.
Q8 - Are you guilty or not guilty of the sixth charge against you, which you have heard read?
A8 - Guilty, sir.
Q9 - Are you guilty or not guilty of the seventh charge against you, which you have heard read?
A9 - Guilty, sir.

R.P. 35(B) is complied with by the Court.

Note: As they were required by the unit, the two return railway warrants and pay book referred to in the summary of evidence as exhibits, were handed to the Court for inspection and at the close of the trial returned to Courts-Martial Officer, Lieut. H.M. Howell.

Q10 - Do you wish to make any statement in mitigation of punishment?
A10 - No, sir.
Q11 - Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witness as to character?
A11 - No, sir.

Lieut. H.M. Howell, No. 1 Cdn. Inf. Holding Unit, is duly sworn.

Q12 - Have you any evidence to produce as to the character and particulars of service of the accused?
A12 - Yes, sir, A.F.B. 296 and M.F.M. 6.

To. The A.P.M., Central Midland District, BIRMINGHAM.

Sir,

I have to report that at BIRMINGHAM, on 13th December 1942 about 0300hrs I was on duty at the Y.M.C.A., DALE END, in company with L/Cpl. Welham C.M.Police, where I requested to be allowed to inspect the register, containing the particulars of Service personnel sleeping there.

On examination I found that there were two entries in the name of J.Campbell, both in the same handwriting, but the regimental numbers stated where different, one being C.5553 and the other C.4203.

I then proceeded to the sleeping quarters where I saw the undermentioned soldier;

C.5553 J.CAMPBELL,
"D" Coy, Hastings and Prince Edward Regt.,
Royal Canadian Army,
BOGNOR REGIS.

I asked him to produce his leave pass and on examination I found that the dates had been altered to read 3/12/42 to 17/12/42, which made the pass appear to be genuine. I then asked him to produce his ration card. He was unable to do so and said, You have my pass. I have left my ration card at CROYDON". I then pointed out to him that the dates on the pass had been altered, he replied, "Thats how I got it from the office".

I then asked him to produce the return half of his railway ticket. This had been punched three times, there was no date of issue on the reverse side and the starting point was partly erased.

I then questioned him regarding the two different numbers which he had used in the register and he replied, "The number C.4203 was issued to me in Canada and the other was issued to me two years ago, when I came to this country. I must have made a mistake".

I was not satisfied with the explanations given by him and I conducted him to the Central Lock Up, Steelhouse lane for further enquiries to be made.

The Canadian Provost were later contacted by telephone on two occassions and on their instruction he was left under arrest pending the arrival of an escort.

The Militia Book 1. in his possession gave his particulars as stated above.

Leave Pass and Railway Ticket attached.

to produce his ration card. He was unable to do so and said, You have my pass. I have left my ration card at CROYDON. I then pointed out to him that the dates on the pass had been altered. He replied, "That's how I got it from the office".

I then asked him to produce the return half of his railway ticket. This had been punched three times, there was no date of issue on the reverse side and the starting point was partly erased.

I then questioned him regarding the two different numbers which he had used in the register and he replied, "The number C4203 was issued to me in Canada and the other was issued to me two years ago, when I came to this country. I must have made a mistake".

I was not satisfied with the explanations given by him and I conducted him to the Central Lock Up, Steelhouse Lane, for further enquiries to be made.

The Canadian Provost were later contacted by telephone on two occasions and on their instruction he was left under arrest pending the arrival of an escort.

The Militia Book 1 in his possession gave his particulars as stated above.

Leave Pass and Railway Ticket attached.

Officer taking the Summary.

THIRD WITNESS for the PROSECUTION

Major G.S. Nickle, Officer Commanding, Hast. & P.E. Company, No. 1 Canadian Division Infantry Reinforcement Unit, having been duly sworn states:

I am Major G.S. Nickle, Officer Commanding, Hast. & P.E. Company, No. 1 Canadian Division Infantry Reinforcement Unit. I have examined the pass marked Exhibit "D" made out to C5553 Pte. Campbell J.D. and state that this pass is not a genuine leave pass made out at the Hast. & P.E. Company or signed by an officer of this Company. I identify the accused as C4203 Pte. Leadbetter, A.W. who is and was at all times material hereto on the strength of the Hast. & P.E. Company, No. 1 Canadian Division Infantry Reinforcement Unit.

The accused declines to cross examine the witness.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of No. C4203 Private Leadbetter, A.W. of the Hast. & P. E. Regt. on the strength of 1 Canadian Division Infantry Reinforcement Unit.

By direction of the Commanding Officer this Summary of Evidence is taken under oath.

FIRST WITNESS for the PROSECUTION — Lieut. H.J. McDougall, Assistant Records Officer 1 C.D.I.R.U., having been duly sworn states:

I am Lieut. H.J. McDougall, Assistant Records Officer 1 C.D.I.R.U. I produce M.F.R. 375, Copy of the Court of Inquiry, which relates to the accused whom I now recognize. This document is marked EXHIBIT "A".

I produce Certificate in Accordance with P.O.2797 relating to the accused and purporting to be signed by the Officer i/c Detention Room, No. 6 Canadian Provost Company. This document is marked EXHIBIT "B".

I produce Expense Voucher relating to the accused and purporting to be signed by the Officer issuing Railway Warrant and Expense Monies for the return of the accused and his escorts. This document is marked EXHIBIT "C".

The accused declines to cross examine the witness.

H.J. McDougall ...Lieut.
(H.J. McDougall) Assistant
Records Officer 1 C.D.I.R.U.

SECOND WITNESS for the PROSECUTION — L/Cpl. A.H. Byrne, Corps of Military Police, states:

REPORT

The A.P.M., Central Midland District, Birmingham.

Sir,

I have to report that at Birmingham on the 12th ofDecember 1942 at about 0300 hrs I was on duty at the Y.M.C.A., Da le End, in company with L/Cpl. Welham, C.M.Police, where I requested to be allowed to inspect the register containing the particulars of Service personnel sleeping there.

On examination I found that there were two entries in the name of J. Campbell, both in the same handwriting, but the regimental numbers stated were different, one being C5553 and the other C4203.

I then proceeded to the sleeping quarters where I saw the undermentioned soldier:

C5553 J. Campbell,
"D" Coy. Hastings and Prince Edward Regt.,
Royal Canadian Army,
Bognor Regis.

I asked him to produce his leave pass and on examination I found that the dates had been altered to read 3/12/42 to 17/12/42, which made the pass appear to be genuine. I then asked him

28th Dec 42.

Statement by the Officer Defending C.4203 Pte. Leadbetter A.W.

With the consent of the Court I would like the accused to answer a few questions.

Q. Tell the Court when you first broke the Law?

A. At the age of 8 and I was placed in an Orphans Home.

Q. You were there until you were fifteen years of age?

A. Yes Sir.

Q. What happened at the age of fifteen?

A. I came out.

Q. How long were you out before you broke the law again?

A. Two years, and I was apprehended for stealing a car, after which I spent eighteen months in Reform School.

There is very little point in proceeding Sir, but up to the time that this man joined the Active Militia he has been more or less in the Custody of the State. He is what is known as a criminal type. I submit Sir, that it was a mistake on the part of the State that the accused was accepted into the Active Militia. I believe it now the Duty of the State to Discharge this man from the Service to which he is obvilously not suited. I recommend that on the two charges to which he has pleaded guilty the accused be justly punished before his Discharge takes effect, but I would ask you to consider the fact that from boyhood the accused has known very little of any life except that of imprisonment. I hope that you will find it possible to keep the sentence down to a hundred and eighty days (Six Months) and that you will see fit to recommend a Discharge with Ignominy.

Statement of EVIDENCE in the case of:-

No.C/4203.Pte.LEADBETTER. A.W.
IOI Camp. W.P.E. Regt. Royal Canadian Forces
Witley. SURREY.

Sir.

at BIRMINGHAM on the I4th February,I943, at about 0915hrs I was on duty at the SERVICES CLUB, JOHN BRIGHT STREET, where I saw the above named soldier. I asked to see his Pass and he produced a pass(attached hereto) On examination I observed that an alteration had been made in the date of expiration. I asked him for how long he was on leave to which he replied "Seven days, I return on the I8th". I then requested to see his M.B.I he replied " It is back at Camp". I informed him that I would have to check up on his statements and left him in the custody of L/Cpl.SWANN. Whilst making a telephone call to my Headqaurters the soldier broke away in an effort to evade arrest, he was chased by L/Cpl.SWANN and also Police Constable ORR. B'HAM CITY POLICE who finally caught the soldier in ELLIS STREET. He was escorted back to the SERVICES CLUB where he admitted being absent and also that the pass found in his possession was not his property. He was arrested and conveyed to the CENTRAL LOCK-UP STEEL HOUSE LANE to be detained and await escort.

EVIDENCE

At 14.00 hrs 18 Feb 43, I was detailed to escort Pte Leadbetter on fatigues. Having filled a sack with coal, we proceeded towards the cookhouse, when on approaching it, I turned my back towards the other prisoner, at that precise moment the prisoner immediately made off towards the camp boundary. I immediately gave chase accompanied by the other escort of the Cookhouse. The prisoner scaled a wall 11 ft high & made his escape. I made a general enquiries & followed but without success. The prisoner was in civilian shoes & without any blouse. I immediately had the escape reported to the guard room, & a search party was detailed.

At 14.00 hrs 18 Feb 43. I was detailed escort to Pte Leadbetter, accompanied by the other escort to Pte Bellingson. Having filled the sack we proceeded towards the cookhouse, when just before arriving at it, the prisoner made off. He got hold of a ladder & scaled a wall 11 ft high & jumped a ledge. I made after him, & attempted to cut him off by running across the road at right angles to the wall, but I did not see the prisoner again until he was returned to custody under escort.

Q.11 When did you last see her?

A.11 In October 1942 for about five minutes.

Q.12 You have nothing to do with her now?

A.12 No Sir. The Padre told me to write her and I did, and am waiting for an answer now. This trouble with my wife is to blame for everything I have done.

Q.13 Do you feel that if the trouble was straightened out you would soldier?

A.13 Yes Sir I would.

Q.14 How much money do you owe the government now?

A.14 Around $1500.00

Q.15 She told you she wanted a divorce?

A.15 Yes, to marry another fellow.

Q.16 How did you get this theft charge against you.

A.16 I wasn't guilty but I pleaded guilty as I knew I would be stopping her allowance that way.

Q.17 Do you desire to soldier?

A.17 Not the way things are going at present.

Q.18 Was all this trouble with your wife brought out in your previous courts martial?

A.18 Yes Sir. But they did nothing about it.

Pte Leadbetter arrived in England in January 1940 and was married in May the same year. Shortly after his marriage he found that his wife was running around with other men. He asked to have his assigned pay to her stopped, but this was not done, according to Leadbetter the only way he could get this stopped was to serve detention. His wife desires that he should divorce her but he has not sufficient money to pay for same. He has spoken to his Padre but no action has been taken.

The court feels that if some definite action could be taken to have his divorce settled, he might show some improvement.

He also states that his older brother who is in the R.C.H.A. has claimed him but no action was taken in the matter of transfer.

The court is of the opinion that he is a hopeless case, he has a debit in his pay book of over $1500.00 but if he could be transferred so that he could be with his brother it may have some tendency to straighten him out.

(continued) sworn produces AFB 296 and MFM 6 and upon being questioned by Court states that the accused is the person named in these documents which have been compared by him with Regtl. records and are true extracts of the same. No cross-examination. Above documents read, signed by the President and attached to the proceedings.

Q.3. (To accused) Do you wish to make any statement in mitigation of punishment?

A.3. I wish the officer to make my plea.

Q. 4 Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to character?

A.4 No Sir.

BRIEF SUMMARY OF STATEMENT IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT AND EVIDENCE AS TO CHARACTER GIVEN BEFORE THE COURT IS CLOSED FOR THE CONSIDERATION OF THE SENTENCE

The accused enlisted in 1939 and came overseas in December 1939. He met a young lady over here and was married some six months after arrival. Most of his troubles then began as he had word that his wife was running around. He tried to get in touch with her, and when he finally did, she told him she wanted a divorce. But the accused did not have the money needed for a divorce. I would like the court to consider the mental state of the accused when he committed these crimes. The Defence asks the Court to be as lenient as possible for this reason.

Q.5. How long, before the marriage, had you known the girl?

A.5. About six months.

Q.6. Was she living at home?

A.6. No Sir, alone.

Q.7. How long after your marriage was it, that you heard about her running around with someone else?

A.7. About eight months, Sir.

Q.8. What did you do about it?

A.8. I went to see the Padre and we were getting things arranged when I received two years hard labor. They told me that everything would be fixed up when I came out.

Q.9. How much of the two years sentence did you serve?

A.9. Sixteen months.

Q.10. Does she want a divorce?

A.10. Yes Sir. If I give her the grounds. But I wouldn't because if I did I would still have to assign pay to her.

The Order Convening the Court, the Charge Sheet and the Summary of Evidence are laid before the Court.

The Court satisfy themselves as provided by R.P. 22 & 23.

The accused is brought before the Court.

At 1030 hrs the trial commences.

The Order Convening the Court is read by the President.

The names of the President and Members of the Court are read over in the hearing of the accused, and they severally answer to their names.

(The accused herewith demanded a higher Court claiming he had not received justice on three previous courts martial. The President explained the justice of an F.G.C.M. and of this in particular. On being again asked if he still chose a higher court he demanded a higher court. After consulting with higher authority the Court found that he had not sufficient grounds for a higher court.)

Q.1. Do you object to be tried by me as President or by any of the officers whose names you have heard read over?

A.1. No Sir.

The President, members ~~and judge advocate (if any)~~ are duly sworn.

The Court closed for consideration of the Evidence.

The Court re-opens.

Y.2008 Maj Cuthbertson is brought back in as a Character Witness for the Defence:

By the Defence:

Q.25. - Will you tell the Court what you know of the record of Gnr Leacock since you have known him.

A.25. - I knew him in peace time when in the Militia. Then he first joined up he was made a Sergeant, and he helped in instruction of gun drill, etc., until we went to Oak Hampden camp in April 1940. We left the Regiment then and I did not see him again until he came back to the Regiment about a year ago. Since then he has been in "A" troop, and was a Gunner under me. When we were at Borden he was in charge of instructional gun drill for the regiment, and is a very good man.

Q.26. - Did you find him to be a good soldier?
A.26. - Very good, Sir.

Q.27. - Have you had any trouble with the accused?
A.27. - No, Sir.

Y.5111 Sgt. Brown W. being duly sworn, makes the following statement:

"I was on a course in Borden in 1941 and Leacock was at the same school. We just arrived back from CWAH and we were staying together. We met an officer of my regiment and he asked Leacock what he was going to do and Leacock said he would like to come back to the S.D. Sgt, but that he would have to revert. The officer said that he could come back and he promised him his stripes back in a short time. A claim was put in for him and he came back to the regiment about the 8th of July 1941.

Proceedings on Plea of Guilty.

†The summary (or abstract) of evidence is read, marked signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings.

Question to the accused. Do you wish to make any statement in mitigation of punishment?

Answer. The accused in mitigation of punishment says:—

[or hands in a written statement, which is read, marked , signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings.]

Instructions.

† If there is no summary or abstract of evidence, sufficient evidence to enable the Court to determine the sentence, and to enable the confirming officer to know all the circumstances connected with the case, will be taken on a separate sheet in the same manner as on a plea of "Not Guilty."

If from the statement of the accused, or from the summary or abstract of evidence, or otherwise, it appears to the Court that the accused did not understand the effect of his plea of "Guilty," the Court shall alter the record, and enter a plea of "Not Guilty," and proceed with the trial accordingly.

The evidence of the witnesses for the defence, including that of the accused, if he is a witness, will be taken here in the order in which they give evidence.

Statement made by the Defence:

With regard to the evidence given by the prosecution, the fact that Gnr. Leacock failed to turn in his pass does not in my opinion constitute absence. There are several assumptions which can be made as to why he failed to turn in the pass, one of them being that perhaps he was in no condition to do so. With regard to Gnr Cuthbertson's evidence, he has stated that Gnr. Leacock failed to answer at the roll call held at 0640 hours 29 June 42. The Prosecution has stated that Gnr Cuthbertson stated that at no time between that hour and when Gnr Leacock reported to him at 1325 hours 14 July 42 did Gnr Leacock attend a parade. I believe you will find he made no such statement if the evidence is reviewed.

Further Gnr Cuthbertson has stated nothing which indicates that he was in a position to attend and take all roll calls during that period. He is only connected with the dates 29 June 42 and 14 July 42. There is nothing which states that Gnr. Leacock was not going about his duties during the period.

The charge reads absent from 2359 hrs 28 June 42 to 1325 hrs 14 July 42. I submit that there is no evidence to state that he was absent during that time, but only that he was absent at the one parade held at 0640 hours 29 June 42.

The Court is closed for consideration of the evidence.

The Court re-opens.

P.2008 Gnr Cuthbertson is brought back in.

By the President:--

Q.21. - Referring back to the Summary of Evidence which was sworn to by you, you state that the accused did not turn up on parade the following day, that is, the day following the 28 June 42, or on any parade from that time until he reported to you at 1325 hours on the 14th July 42. Is that right?

A.21. - Yes, sir.

Q.22. - Do you take the parade every morning?

A.22. - Yes, Sir.

Q.23. - Did you at any time during the period mentioned see the accused on parade?

A.23. - No, sir.

By Capt. Appleby:

Q.24. - Were you on duty yourself during the period mentioned?

A.24. - Yes, Sir.

The prosecution is closed.

Defence.

Question to the accused. Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness?

Answer. No, sir.

Question. Do you intend to call any other witness in your defence?

Answer. Yes, sir.

Question. Is he a witness as to character only? Answer. Yes, sir.

INSTRUCTIONS TO THE COURT.

(i) When the answers to the above questions have been recorded, the Court will follow the provisions of Rules of Procedure 40 and 41 respecting the order of evidence and addresses which is applicable to the circumstances of the case.

(ii) All addresses by prosecutor, counsel or defending officer, whether recorded by the Court or handed in in writing will be attached to the proceedings in the order in which they are made. Any address which the accused is entitled to make pursuant to Rules of Procedure 40 (C) (iv) and 41 (A) (i) and (iii) will be similarly dealt with. Written addresses will be read to the Court, marked and signed by the President. If any person who is entitled to make an address declines to do so, a record will be made to that effect.

The evidence of the accused (and of the witnesses for the defence including witnesses as to character) is recorded on a separate page (see overleaf).

(Where the accused does not give evidence upon oath.)

Question to the accused. Have you anything to say in your defence?

Answer. The accused in his defence says†

[hands in a written address which is read, marked signed by the President and attached to the proceedings.]

The Prosecution states:

I have produced facts to show that Gnr. Isaacock did not [illegible] his pass at 2359 hours, which was the time of its expiration. This is substantiated by the Roster, and the Orderly N.C.O., and this proves that he was absent at that hour. I then called Gnr. Cuthbertson, who in his evidence stated that Gnr. Isaacock was absent at 0640 hours the following morning, and he did not attend any parade from then until 1725 hours on the 14th July 40. That being a total time missing of approximately 15 days. Also, the accused does not wish to make any statement, and thereby acknowledged the fact that he was absent.

Instruction.

† In this space will be recorded any oral statement or address made by the accused in his defence when he has not given evidence as a witness. (For any additional address which he is entitled to make, see Instructions to the Court above.)

C2

The Defence questions the Witness:
Q.9. - Did you or did you not see Gnr Leacock in the lines?
A.9. - I personally did not see him.

Q.10 - Do you know that he was not there?
A.11 - As far as I know. I did not see him myself.

W.2008 R.S.M. Cuthbertson W.M. being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor:

Q.12 - On the morning of 29 June 42 as you called the roll did Gnr Leacock answer to his name?
A.13 - No, Sir.

Q.14 - Do you recognize this duty roster?
A.14 - Yes, Sir.

Q.15 - Do you also know the procedure of how it works?
A.15 - Yes, Sir.

Q.16 - Was Gnr Leacock absent at the 0640 hour parade on 29 June 42.
A.16 - Yes, Sir.

Q.17 - When did Gnr Leacock first report to you?
A.17 - At 1325 hours 14 July 42.

Q.18 - What was the first time he reported to you?
A.18 - Yes, Sir.

Q.19 - You are definitely sure that he did not answer roll call on the morning of 29 June 42 at 0640 hours.
A.19 - Yes, Sir.

Q.20 - You are also definitely sure that he first reported to you at 1325 hours 14 July 42?
A.20 - Yes, Sir.

The Defence had no questions to ask.

Proceedings on Plea of Not Guilty.

*Instruction. (See R. P. 39 (A))

Question. *Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity for preparing your defence?

Answer. No, sir.

~~The prosecutor makes an opening address (hands in a written address which is read, marked ..... signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings.)~~

The prosecutor proceeds to call witnesses.

First witness for prosecution.

W.2050 Pdr Conn R.J. & A. Wd. Sect. RCA.
being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor.

Q. 1 - What is your name and rank?
A. 1 - W.2050 Pdr Conn R.J.

Q.2 - What Battery are you connected with?
A.2 - The 61st Battery

Q.3. - On the night of 28 June 42 you were on duty as what?
A.3. - I was Battery Orderly N.C.O.

Q.4. - Your duties at that time were to receive the passes as they were turned in, is that correct?
A.4. - Yes sir.

Q.5. - On the night of 28 June 42 did Gnr. Isacock hand a pass in to you?
A.5. - No, sir.

Q.6. - Would you definitely state that at 2359 hours 28 June 42 Gnr Isacock was absent?
A.6. - Yes, sir.

Q.7. - Would you show the Court, and explain the working of this Duty Roster.
A.7. - The names are all put down and as passes are handed in they are checked off with a check mark.

Q.8. - Is this your entry at 2359 hrs Gnr Isacock was A.W.L.?
A.8. - Yes, sir.

90 SPECIAL INVESTIGATION SECTION. B.A.O.R.

Subject:- Larceny and receiving of Canadian Army property at Ostend,

To:- The Officer Commanding,
90 Special Investigation Section.

Sir,

I have to report with reference to the above mentioned subject that on the 19th September,1945, whilst on observations in the vicinity of 111 Transit Camp, Ostend, I noticed a civilian with two metal boxes of Army type on the carrier of his bicycle. I asked the civilian where he had got them from and he told me he had just bought them from a Canadian soldier.

There was a Canadian soldier standing nearby and he approached me and said, "I have just sold a box of 'tubes' to this civilian for five hundred francs". I immediately cautioned him and conveyed him together with the civilian to my office.

I examined the soldier's identity documents from which I discovered him to be No.F56757, Trooper LEACH, W.E., of the 18th Armoured Car Regiment, Canadian Forces Netherlands. I again cautioned him and he elected to make a statement, which I took down in writing at his dictation and after reading over he signed in my presence. He then handed me a five hundred franc note which he had received for the valves. I then placed LEACH in "Close arrest" in the Town Guard Room, Ostend.

Later the same evening accompanied by a Gendarme, I went to the house of the civilian Oscar,Jan PIERRE, 246 Torhout Road. PIERRE was told who I was and that I had reasons to believe he was detaining W.D.property on his premises. PIERRE invited us to search his house. This was done, and the following W.D. property was recovered.

1 W.D. Blanket G.S.
The value of this property being 15/-

The civilian is being proceeded against by the Civil Police.

It appears that LEACH was engaged on taking a truck to England and this truck held a box of spare valves. LEACH was short of money and saw an easy chance to make some by selling the valves.

The other box of valves which were found in possession of the civilian were bought from another Canadian soldier. All efforts are being made to trace him.

Each box, containing fourteen valves are valued at £ 5.12.0 and the total value of the valves recovered is £ 11.4.0

Statement made by the civilian, the accused and myself are attached.

"Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence upon oath? You are not obliged to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing, and may be given in evidence."

The Accused: I desire to give evidence under oath.

The Accused, F56757 Tpr William Edward LEACH, 18 Cdn Armd C Regt, sworn, states:

I arrived at 111 Transit Camp at 1600 hrs 19 Sep 45. At 1900 hrs the same day a civ approached me and asked if I had any wireless valves to sell. I told him I had and sold them to him for 500 francs. This box being loose in the bin, I did not think that it belonged to the car. After I received the money for the valves, the civ strapped the box on his bicycle. A Sgt approached the civ and asked him what he had. The civ told him he had some valves. The Sgt asked him where he got them, and was told that they were bought from a soldier. The civ was asked if he could identify the soldier and replied, "No." Hearing this, I told the Sgt that I had just sold the valves to this civ. Then I asked him if I could return the 500 francs in exchange for the box of valves. The Sgt told me to come along to his office where I was questioned and later put under close arrest.

Plea of Mitigation F 56727 Tpr Leach,W.E.

The accused has been willing to admit to this court that he is, in fact, guilty of the charge that has been made against him and thereby save this court time and inconvenience. Why has he been willing to make this admission? Because when he reflected upon the temptation to which he succumbed he realised that it was unworthy of him, unworthy of his character, unworthy of his previous unblemished record, unworthy of one who had spent all the previous years of his life in respect of the law. But now there was a charge against him. What to do? Certainly not try to cover it up, not try to brazen his way out of it. No -- better to admit his shortcomings and ask that the court temper justice with mercy. Only in such a way could he return to civilian life when his turn for repatriation comes and know that this one and only lapse had been atoned for, that he had faced up to the charge and offered, by direction of this court, to expiate his sins. If this court be lenient and by taking due note of [redacted] Tpr Leach's hitherto unmarred record, saw its way clear to believe that he is indeed repentant, could he hope to return amongst his own people again without a black mark that, try as he would to forget it,would serve as a reminder of his one lapse. But should he carry this black mark against him because he had once been tempted [redacted]

Tpr Leach joined the army when he was just nineteen years of age, that is almost as soon as he was of the age required for overseas service and has been in the army for over two and a half years, during which time there has been no complaint of his ability as a soldier. You, gentlemen, by reference to his M.F.M.6 will find that the only entry is a trifling one which does not reflect adversely on his general character. He joined this regiment long before the unit was required to embark for a theatre of operations and has served continuously with it since, that is to say, throughout the entire period of its operational activity. During the time that I have known him he has served under various officers and N.C.O.s, none of whom I have ever known to have anything but good marks for the way in which he discharged his duties as a driver of an armoured fighting vehicle. Surely a man's previous record as a law abiding soldier and his record as a competent serving soldier should count something in his favour before this court decides to what extent he shall be [redacted] penalised for this one misdemeanor, this only [redacted] that threatens to mar an otherwise excellent record.

On behalf of the accused I ask this court to reflect carefully before passing judgement and sentence. I ask you to think carefully before doing anything that will redound to his discredit when the time comes for him to return to his home. I ask the court, in view of his previous good service to take as lenient a line as is consistent with your opinion of the seriousness of the charge of which he is accused [redacted]

OATHS FOR USE IN COURTS-MARTIAL.

1. PRESIDENT AND MEMBERS. (AA 52, KR Can 562, RP 26, 29, 111.)

I swear by Almighty God that I will well and truly try the accused (or accused persons) before the Court according to the evidence, and that I will duly administer justice according to the laws in force for the Government of the Militia of Canada, without partiality, favour or affection, and I do further swear that, except so far as may be permitted by instructions of the Minister for the purpose of communicating the sentence to the accused, I will not divulge the sentence of the Court until it is duly confirmed, and I do further swear that I will not on any account at any time whatsoever disclose or discover the vote or opinion of any particular member of this court-martial unless thereunto required in due course of law.

2. JUDGE-ADVOCATE. (AA 52, MML 762, RP 27, 111.)

I swear by Almighty God that I will not, unless it is necessary for the due discharge of my official duties, divulge the sentence of this court-martial until it is duly confirmed ; and that I will not on any account, at any time whatsoever, disclose or discover the vote or opinion of any particular member of this court-martial, unless thereunto required in due course of law.

3. OFFR UNDER INSTRUCTION. (AA 52, MML 762, RP 27, 111.)

I swear by Almighty God that I will not divulge the sentence of this court-martial until it is duly confirmed ; and that I will not on any account, at any time whatsoever, disclose or discover the vote or opinion of any particular member of this court-martial unless thereunto required in due course of law.

4. SHORTHAND WRITER. (AA 52, MML 762, RP 27, 111.)

I swear by Almighty God that I will truly take down to the best of my power the evidence to be given before this court-martial and such other matters as may be required, and will, when required, deliver to the court a true transcript of the same.

5. INTERPRETER. (AA 52, MML 762, RP 27, 111.)

I swear by Almighty God that I will to the best of my ability truly interpret and translate, as I shall be required to do, touching the matter before this court-martial.

6. WITNESS. (AA 52, MML 763, RP 82, 111.)

I swear by Almighty God that the evidence which I shall give before this court shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth.

POUR LES TEMOINS. (RO (Can) 2693.)

Je jure, par Dieu Tout-Puissant, que le témoignage que je rendrai devant cette Cour sera la vérité, toute la vérité, et rien que la vérité.

7. As to other forms for swearing see AA 52(4), RP 28, 30, 82, 111, MML p 763.

NOTES ON RECORDING PROCEEDINGS AND ON DEFENCE PROCEDURE.

(Referred to throughout CF A 96 as " Notes ".)

1. RECORDING PROCEEDINGS : When no shorthand writer is employed the addresses of Prosecutor and Defending Offr (RP 95(C)), any objections (RP 95(B)), and any statements by accused, may be summarized and, the evidence, subject to RP 95(A) and 114(B), may be recorded in narrative form as follows :

First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states :

I am a cpl of the pl to which Pte Smith belongs. The accsd in Court is Pte Smith. About 1400 hrs on 15 Jan 43 I ordered the accsd to go on parade. He refused and did not go on parade.

Cross-exam : He did not say he was sick. (or, None.)

Re-exam : None.

Exam by Court : He said—" I've had enough parades ".

RP 83(B) complied with.

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject to RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 83(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 83(C) will be complied with.

3. The record of addresses, statements and evidence will be given a marginal number which corresponds with the number of the para in CF A 96, under which it is taken. Both sides of paper should be used.

4. DEFENCE PROCEDURE : RP 116 provides that for procedure on defence RP 40-42 will apply so far as practicable, having due regard to the public service. (RP 122.) If the Court consider such compliance not practicable, the following order of procedure (whether all items are used or not) is suggested as being fair to the accused :

(i) Opening address by Defending Offr. (RP 60(C), 87(C), 92(C) (D).)

(ii) At option of accused, statement by accused (not sworn or subject to cross-exam by Prosecutor, Court or JA (RP 40 fn 10)), or evidence by accused, as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 41 fn 3, 46 fn 1, 80.)

(iii) Evidence of witnesses for accused as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 46 fn 1.)

(iv) Evidence for prosecution in rebuttal or on new matter, if allowed by Court (RP 86(B)), or to prove previous convictions when accused has called witnesses as to character. (RP 86(C).)

(v) Closing address (on matters other than in mitigation of punishment) by Defending Offr or accused. (See RP 40 fns 8-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 61.)

(vi) Closing address by Prosecutor. (See RP 40 fn 7, 87(C), 92(C) (D). Prosecutor has no right to address Court on subject of sentence except as provided by RP 46(E), KR Can 563(a).)

(vii) Summing up by JA, if any. (RP 42.)

ASSEMBLY AND DISPOSAL OF RECORD AFTER TRIAL.

1. All deletions and alterations in printed and written record MUST BE INITIALLED by President or JA, if any. RECORD FORMS B, C OR D NOT USED MUST BE DELETED BY A DIAGONAL LINE AND INITIALLED.

2. All loose sheets of record and exhibits comprising the proceedings of the trial MUST BE INITIALLED by President or JA, if any, and then pinned by top left corner to p 3 of CF A 96 in following order :

(i) Charge Sheet. (On top.)

(ii) Convening Order with any declarations made by Convening Offr under RP 104, 106, 107, 114.

(iii) Medical Certificate(s). (KR Can 557.)

(iv) Addresses, statements and evidence in order taken during trial, pages being numbered and on both sides when both sides used.

(v) Exhibits numbered Ex A, Ex B, etc. (As to admitting in evidence a certified copy in lieu of original see KR Can 566. As to certified copies of regimental books see AA 163 (1) (g) (b).)

(vi) Summary of Evidence, if not already an exhibit.

3. Any report or remarks by President or Court for attention of Confirming Offr will be attached to p 4 of CF A 96 and not form part of record of proceedings. (RP 95(D).) A recommendation for mercy will be inserted in Part I of Schedule on p 4 after minute of sentence awarded. (AA 53(9), RP 118(C), MML p 759.)

4. The President or JA, if any, will return proceedings promptly with covering letter and in an envelope marked " Confidential ", or as otherwise directed.

INSTRUCTIONS ON PROCEDURE AFTER ARRAIGNMENT.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated :

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See MML p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C) ; powers and duties of JA see RP 103 ; duty of Prosecutor see RP 60(A) (B) ; duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92 ; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82 ; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 83-85 ; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court, etc, see RP 75-79, 86, 116 ; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6 ; and responsibility of JA or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans ...N/a... (5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on ...this... charge(s). The accused is (not) so informed, and he (does) changes(s) his (their) plea(s) on ... charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex Z , initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused : Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? Ans ... (1)
(1. If "Yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)
(1. RP 39(C), 114, R& Can 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the ... charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the ... charge(s), and allowed on the ... charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)
NB : If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither ?
Ans ... Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf ?
Ans ... Are they witnesses as to character only ? Ans ...
(1. RP 115. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 3.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)
(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order. CF Ans. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 86(C). Note the further opportunity in para E3 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 103(e).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.
(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the ... charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1)
Or, The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.(2)
(1. AA 54(3) (6), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character ?(1)
Ans ...N/a...
(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statements as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), and certified true copy (extract) of Conduct Sheet(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(1) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier's having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex Y and Ex X respectively.(2)
(1. MFB 355 or AFB 296. 2. MFM 6. 3. RP 46, KR Can 558. If above documents not produced, see RP 46 fn 1 para 1.)

E3. President to accused : Do you wish to address the Court on the Statements and Conduct Sheets, and in mitigation of punishment ?(1) Ans ...Yes...(2)
(1. RP 37(C), 46(D). 2. Address, if any, recorded per Notes. Court should permit accused or his witnesses to prove on oath anything here or previously stated which would affect the amount of punishment. RP 37(F) fn 7.)

E4. The President states that the Court is closed to consider the sentence, and that the sentence to be awarded by the Court, being subject to confirmation, will not be announced, but will be promulgated later, and the proceedings in open court are accordingly terminated.(1)
(1. AA 54(6), RP 120(A).)

E5. The Court considers the sentence.(1) The President records the sentence in Part I of the Schedule, which is dated and signed by him and the JA, if any.(2)
(1. When several accused tried separately see RP 71 (D). One sentence only, comprised of the punishment or punishments laid down in AA 41, 44 and its proviso, is to be awarded to cover all charges in all charge sheets on which accused found guilty. RP 48. As to sentences see AA 44, 138, 182, RP 46-50, 69, 118, 119(A), KR Can 308, 330, 563-566, Overseas RO 309, 2323, MML p 60, 757-759. disastrous in his present medical category which, at the present time, is B4.

GENTLEMEN, this man's future service to his country rests with you, and I strongly recommend that this case be referred to Higher authority immediately with the view of re-uniting this man with his family.

PLEA IN MITIGATION IN THE CASE OF PTE LEACH

GENTLEMEN OF THE COURT, the accused pleads "GUILTY" of the charge against him.

In consequence he is quite prepared to take his punishment, but, before sentence is passed may I present to the court salient facts that have a vital bearing on subsequent physical and mental actions by the accused.

On the out-break of war he was one of the first to enlist, to serve his country. He came overseas with the 5th Cdn Fd Ambulance, arriving in England DEC 1939. He saw operational service with this Unit in Sicily and Italy. In the course of his duties his lorry was burnt from under him, and in one instance was so badly shaken it was necessary for him to spend some time in hospital in TRIPOLI. On discharge from hospital he immediately reported back to his Unit. However the results of the air-raids he had experienced in England, together with the bombing and straffing he had been subjected to in Sicily and Italy, effected his nerves. He was returned to England 16 Mar 44. In all the years of service with this Unit he had just three minor entries on his MFM 6.

On arriving in the CASCRU he was re-categorized and classified as B4.

Now gentlemen, here is a man who for nearly five years served his country faithfully. He has a wife whom he loves deeply, and a little baby 5 years old. It is 4½ years since he has seen either of them. What is more natural than he think of home? With that thought in mind he made application to be returned to Canada. He did not ask for a discharge, he felt he could still serve his country, but not as actively as five years ago.

He was interviewed by various officials, and told that his case would be investigated. In the meantime he sees men that have not seen half the services he has, going home. His wife writes to him, hoping against hope, that he will be sent home. Month after month he is put off,- for further investigation. Finally he asks for, and gets, a few days leave. Whilst on his leave the bitter disappointments together with his nervous condition makes him do a thing - that if he had been given the right treatment months ago it would never have happened. He decided in his own mind that the only possible way that his case could be brought to a head was to go AWL.

I submit that through worry and frustration the accused's power of reasoning was warped.

GENTLEMEN, in all pity for this man, in justice to his wife, who no less than he, serves her country, by this agony of five long weary years of separation - when you pass sentence think of his little one - ease the anguish of this man's mind. I assure you, GENTLEMEN, the sentence you pass on to this man will hurt his family more than we can realize at this time, but the effect on the accused might prove

OATHS FOR USE IN COURTS-MARTIAL.

1. PRESIDENT AND MEMBERS. (AA 52, KR Can 562, RP 26, 29, 111.)

I swear by Almighty God that I will well and truly try the accused (or accused persons) before the Court according to the evidence, and that I will duly administer justice according to the laws in force for the Government of the Militia of Canada, without partiality, favour or affection, and I do further swear that, except so far as may be permitted by instructions of the Minister for the purpose of communicating the sentence to the accused, I will not divulge the sentence of the Court until it is duly confirmed, and I do further swear that I will not on any account at any time whatsoever disclose or discover the vote or opinion of any particular member of this court-martial unless thereunto required in due course of law.

2. JUDGE-ADVOCATE. (AA 52, MML 762, RP 27, 111.)

I swear by Almighty God that I will not, unless it is necessary for the due discharge of my official duties, divulge the sentence of this court-martial until it is duly confirmed ; and that I will not on any account, at any time whatsoever, disclose or discover the vote or opinion of any particular member of this court-martial, unless thereunto required in due course of law.

3. OFFR UNDER INSTRUCTION. (AA 52, MML 762, RP 27, 111.)

I swear by Almighty God that I will not divulge the sentence of this court-martial until it is duly confirmed ; and that I will not on any account, at any time whatsoever, disclose or discover the vote or opinion of any particular member of this court-martial unless thereunto required in due course of law.

4. SHORTHAND WRITER. (AA 52, MML 762, RP 27, 111.)

I swear by Almighty God that I will truly take down to the best of my power the evidence to be given before this court-martial and such other matters as may be required, and will, when required, deliver to the court a true transcript of the same.

5. INTERPRETER. (AA 52, MML 762, RP 27, 111.)

I swear by Almighty God that I will to the best of my ability truly interpret and translate, as I shall be required to do, touching the matter before this court-martial.

6. WITNESS. (AA 52, MML 763, RP 82, 111.)

I swear by Almighty God that the evidence which I shall give before this court shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth.

POUR LES TEMOINS. (RO (Can) 2693.)

Je jure, par Dieu Tout-Puissant, que le témoignage que je rendrai devant cette Cour sera la vérité, toute la vérité, et rien que la vérité.

7. As to other forms for swearing see AA 52(4), RP 28, 30, 82, 111, MML p 763.

NOTES ON RECORDING PROCEEDINGS AND ON DEFENCE PROCEDURE.

(Referred to throughout CF A 96 as " Notes ".)

1. RECORDING PROCEEDINGS : When no shorthand writer is employed the addresses of Prosecutor and Defending Offr (RP 95(C)), any objections (RP 95(B)), and any statements by accused, may be summarized and, the evidence, subject to RP 95(A) and 114(B), may be recorded in narrative form as follows :

First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states :

I am a cpl of the pl to which Pte Smith belongs. The accsd in Court is Pte Smith. About 1400 hrs on 15 Jan 43 I ordered the accsd to go on parade. He refused and did not go on parade.

Cross-exam : He did not say he was sick. (or, None.)

Re-exam : None.

Exam by Court : He said—" I've had enough parades ".

RP 83(B) complied with.

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject to RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 83(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 83(C) will be complied with.

3. The record of addresses, statements and evidence will be given a marginal number which corresponds with the number of the para in CF A 96, under which it is taken. Both sides of paper should be used.

4. DEFENCE PROCEDURE : RP 116 provides that for procedure on defence RP 40-42 will apply so far as practicable, having due regard to the public service. (RP 122.) If the Court consider such compliance not practicable, the following order of procedure (whether all items are used or not) is suggested as being fair to the accused :

(i) Opening address by Defending Offr. (RP 60(C), 87(C), 92(C) (D).)

(ii) At option of accused, statement by accused (not sworn or subject to cross-exam by Prosecutor, Court or JA (RP 40 fn 10)), or evidence by accused, as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 41 fn 3, 46 fn 1, 80.)

(iii) Evidence of witnesses for accused as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 46 fn 1.)

(iv) Evidence for prosecution in rebuttal or on new matter, if allowed by Court (RP 86(B)), or to prove previous convictions when accused has called witnesses as to character. (RP 86(C).)

(v) Closing address (on matters other than in mitigation of punishment) by Defending Offr or accused. (See RP 40 fns 8-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 61.)

(vi) Closing address by Prosecutor. (See RP 40 fn 7, 87(C), 92(C) (D). Prosecutor has no right to address Court on subject of sentence except as provided by RP 46(E), KR Can 563(a).)

(vii) Summing up by JA, if any. (RP 42.)

ASSEMBLY AND DISPOSAL OF RECORD AFTER TRIAL.

1. All deletions and alterations in printed and written record MUST BE INITIALLED by President or JA, if any. RECORD FORMS B, C OR D NOT USED MUST BE DELETED BY A DIAGONAL LINE AND INITIALLED.

2. All loose sheets of record and exhibits comprising the proceedings of the trial MUST BE INITIALLED by President or JA, if any, and then pinned by top left corner to p 3 of CF A 96 in following order :

INSTRUCTIONS ON PROCEDURE AFTER ARRAIGNMENT.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated:

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See MML p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C); powers and duties of JA see RP 103; duty of Prosecutor see RP 60(A) (B); duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 83-85; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court etc see RP 75-79, 86, 116; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6; and responsibility of JA or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President ~~or JA, if any~~, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans No (5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 2, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on J.T.W. charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on ..... charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is ~~now~~ not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex "A", initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on ~~the~~ charge(s), the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? Ans .....(1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)
(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Con 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the ..... charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the ..... charge(s), and allowed on the ..... charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)
(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)
NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither?
Ans ..... Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf?
Ans ..... Are they witnesses as to character only? Ans .....
(1. RP 152. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)
(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order. CF A52. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 86(C). Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 103(e).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.
(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

Or, The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.(2)
(1. AA 54(3) (5), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character?(1)
Ans Yes.
(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

J.T.W. E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), and certified true copy ~~extract~~ of Conduct Sheet(s)(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(1) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex "B" and Ex "C" respectively.(3)
(1. MFB 355 or AFB 296. 2. MFM 6. 3. RP 46, KR Con 558. If above documents not produced, see RP 46 fn 1 para 1.)

J.T.W. E3. President to accused: Do you wish to address the Court on the Statement(s) and Conduct Sheet(s), and in mitigation of punishment?(1) Ans Yes. through my defending officer (2)
(1. RP 37(C), 46(D). 2. Address, if any, recorded per Notes. Court should permit accused or his witnesses to prove on oath anything here or previously stated which would affect the amount of punishment. RP 37(F) fn 7.)

E4. The President states that the Court is closed to consider the sentence, and that the sentence to be awarded by the Court, being subject to confirmation, will not be announced, but will be promulgated later, and the proceedings in open court are accordingly terminated.(1)
(1. AA 54(6), RP 120(A).)

J.T.W. E5. The Court considers the sentence.(1) The President records the sentence in Part I of the Schedule, which is dated and signed by him ~~and the JA, if any~~.(2) 7/10
(*1. When several accused tried separately see RP 120. One sentence only, comprised of the punishment or punishments laid down in AA 41, 44 and its proviso, is to be awarded to cover all charges in all charge sheets on which accused found guilty. RP 48. As to sentences see AA 44, 138, 182, RP 46-50, 69, 118, 119(A), KR Can 306, 330, 563-566, Overseas RO 309, 2323, MML p 60, 757-759. CERTIFICATE OF COURT STENOGRAPHER

I, No. B72524, Sergeant Frank Godley, 48th Highlanders of Canada, C.A.S.F., Corunna Barracks, Aldershot, Hants, England, hereby certify that the foregoing Transcript of Evidence taken in short-hand by me, relating to the trial of

B83915 Private Frederick Walter LEACH

R.C.A.S.C., Att. No. 5 Fd. Amb. R.C.A.M.C.

conducted in Court-Marial Room, Headquarters, 1st Canadian Infantry Brigade, Knollys Road, Aldershot, Hants., is a true transcript to the best of my knowledge and belief.

is entitled to be discharged.

The Court has to decide whether or not the Accused was careless in handling his rifle. He is still not guilty on the second charge because, even if he were careless, that is not enough on which to convict him.

The Court requested Defence Counsel to give his interpretation of the word "culpable".

The Defence Counsel defined the word "culpable" as "wilful, or with intent".

The Court retired to consider its decision.

Then he laid it on his bed and went over and had a smoke. There was no haste or confusion. Then he sat down, put the muzzle of the rifle against his foot and started to remove the breech-cover, and apparently got his finger caught in the trigger and discharged the weapon.

Having in mind that he was aware that he was aware that the rifle had been tampered with, he was not exercising the proper care.

Having regard to the fact that other people were in danger, it is obvious that a higher degree of care must be exercised. It is my opinion that, if he had exercised the proper caution, he would first have taken care to see that the rifle was not pointed at anyone until he had ensured that it was not loaded.

He agrees that he was careless in ~~him~~ pointing the rifle at his foot when handling it, and by removing the breech-cover in such a way as to get his finger entangled in the trigger, thus causing it to dis~~h~~ charge .

I feel that, if I were to recommend that he be acquitted on that charge, I would be placing a stamp of approval on conduct that is not consistent with the degree of care and precaution necessary in handling a military weapon.

Defending Officer's Summary:

The Prosecuting Officer has stated exactly what I feel--that there does not appear to be sufficient evidence on the first charge. The law is that "intent" must be proven.

My submission is, shortly, that there is absolutely notevidence whatsoever to prove that there was "intent" or to raise the presumption that the Accused had any intent to "wilfully injure himself".

With regard to the second charge, I refer you to Manual of Military Law, top of page 459, which reads:

> "Neglect, to be punishable under this section, must be wilful or culpable and not merely the result of forgetfulness, error of judgment, or inadvertence.

My submission is that there has been absolutely no evidence adduced to warrant a conviction on the second charge. There was no discrepancy in the evidence. It was clear all the way insofar as the witnesses told about what they actually saw. The Accused was willing to be subjected to cross-examination. It seems to me that that might very well have happened to anyone, anyone in the room.

It seems to me that everyone in the Army has at some time handled a rifle contrary to military law. In this case the Accused demonstrated to the Court exactly what he was doing. The circumstances were such as to excuse him. The last thing that occurred to him was that a round might be in the chamber.

Quite true the breech-cover had been changed, but that is far removed from contemplating that there might be a live round in the chamber. The Accused's Commanding Officer spoke very highly of him. The charge now, if he is judged guilty, will be a black mark against him while ever he is in the Army.

I need hardly explain to this Court that the same principle applies as in any other British Court, namely, that the Accused is entitled to every reasonable doubt.

To my mind the evidence scarcely raises a suspicion of guilt on either charge. It seems to me that, if there is a doubt, the Accused and work have been very satisfactory.

Q. Does he still carry on with his work?

A. No, because he is still under open arrest.

The Prosecutor addressed the witness:

Q. Have you had any conversation with the Accused since the accident?

A. No. Only this afternoon.

Objection raised by Defence Counsel, who maintained that character witness not subject to cross-examination when giving evidence as to character only.

The Court ruled that a character witness can only be cross-examined as to character evidence. He gives evidence as to character only in the point of view that sentence may be remitted in the event of the Accused being found guilty.

The Court was adjourned at 1805 hrs. 22 April 40

Court re-opened at 1400 hrs. 23 April 40

Prosecutor's Summary:

Bearing in mind the cogent observations of this Court, I feel it is my duty to say that I do not think there is any evidence upon which to found the first charge. I feel that all the way the evidence has tended to exonerate the Accused, rather than to convict him of it in any way.

As regards the alternative and less serious charge, I think there is some evidence to be taken into consideration before the decision is finally arrived at. It would appear to me that there is considerable difference between the duty imposed upon a man in civilian life when handling a dangerous weapon and the duty of a soldier when handling firearms.

In civilian life when a man in injured by a firearm it is not an offence. But when a man is subject to military law it is part of his duty to carefully observe all precautions when handling firearms and to prevent avoidable accidents.

I feel that the principle to be followed in arriving at a decision as to whether or not the offence was committed would depend upon whether or not the Accused took all reasonable precautions to avoid the accident. Obviously there was no necessity for the Accused to point this weapon at his foot when handling it.

Secondly, even though the rifle was loaded and the breech was covered, there was no necessity for the Accused to handle it in such a way that the rifle was discharged upon removing the breech-cover, which could obviously be removed without discharging the weapon.

We, therefore, might fairly say that it was an avoidable accident.

With regard to the care exercised by him, he has stated that he noticed that his rifle had been tampered with and he went over to the rifle and took it down.

A. No, sir.

Q. Is it fair to say that you do not want driving vehicles to be your regular occupation?

A. No, sir.

Q. Then you were not dissatisfied with your occupation?

A. No, sir.

Q. Have you not ever been warned against point a rifle at yourself or anyone else when unloading it?

A. Yes, sir. I admit that.

Q. Do you agree that it was carelessness in having the rifle on your toe when unloading it? Would not ordinary care and precaution indicate that you would not point it at yourself when you were not sure that it was not loaded?

A. I don't know, sir. I have seen many rifles hanging on the wall without safety-catches on.

Q. Did you say that you saw that your rifle had been tampered with before you took it down and that you rested the muzzle on your foot?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Don't you think that that was carelessness, when you knew that the rifle had been tampered with?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. You agree that that was carelessness on your part?

A. Yes, sir.

Defence Counsel calls character evidence:

Called Major G.A. Sinclair. Witness sworn.

Q. What is your full name?

A. Gordon Anson Sinclair.

Q. What is your rank?

A. Major and Acting Officer Commanding.

Q. What is your unit?

A. 5 Fd. Amb. R.C.A.M.C.

Q. How long have you known the Accused, Private Leach?

A. Since his attachment on December 18th, 1939, to 5 Fd. Amb. R.C.A.M.C.

Q. Have you had occasion to know him particularly?

A. Simply on parade and when as a passenger in the car.

Q. What have you observed as to his character?

A. He has always been prompt, smartly turned out, and quite interested in his work. In fact, in his tradesman's test he was given special commendation. Up to the time of his injury his conduct, character,

Q. Then you have had fairly thorough instruction as to the handling of rifles?

A. So far as breech-covers are concerned, sir.

Q. What instruction have you had?

A. In removing the bolt and the magazine.

Q. After removing the rifle from the nail on which it was hanging, what did you do?

A. I took the rifle over to my bed and had a smoke and laid the rifle on my bed.

Q. Why did you lay the rifle on your bed and then walk away and have a cigarette?

A. Because it was not the proper time to clean it.

Q. What time was that?

A. About 9.15 p.m.

Q. What next?

A. I opened the butt-trap and took out the pull-through and a piece of two-by-four and put it on the pull-through. I then asked Private Vickers if the two-by-four was on the pull-through properly. I then commenced to remove the breech-cover.

Q. Then the rifle exploded?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. How did that happen--did your finger touch the trigger?

A. Possibly, sir. I don't remember.

Here the Court ruled that the line of questioning adopted not admissible.

Q. You were asked by Major Graham (Defence Counsel) if you wanted to get out of the Army, and you replied that you did not. Are you satisfied with your employment, and were you satisfied with your employment before the time of the accident?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you find yourself fully competent to drive vehicles?

A. Not at all times, sir.

Q. How is that?
A.
A. I do not like driving in this country.

Q. Any other reason why you are not satisfied with your occupation?

A. Onlybecause I am wearing glasses when driving at night. In cold weather the glasses steam up when driving an ambulance.

Q. Then I take it that at that time you were desirous of being placed in some other occupation than driving vehicles?

A. Not in another unit, sir.

Q. You don't want to be taken out of your unit?

A. Yes, sir. After being in hospital.

Q. Have you talked this matter over with anybody?

A. No, sir. Except for saying that I would like to know how the bullet got in there, sir.

Q. Have you any ideas as to whether your rifle was half-cocked or fully cocked?

A. No, sir.

Q. Do you know who checked the spent round?

A. No, sir.

The Prosecutor then addressed the Accused:

Q. When did you go to the North Horn Hotel?

A. (It is believed that the Accused replied: "Around 7 p.m., sir").

Q. Were you talking to anyone there?

A. I was playing darts with an English fellow.

Q. You had a glass of beer?

A. Yes. Only one, sir.

Q. When you came back, were you alone?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long had you been in the room before you noticed, as you say, that your rifle had been tampered with?

A. About ten minutes, sir.

Q. Your rifle was hanging on a nail?

A. Yes, sir. With the butt pointing towards the floor.

Q. When had you last had your rifle in your hands prior to that occasion?

A. The rifle was checked about three or four days before. I had handled it the day before and had cleaned it.

Q. In order to clean it, you removed the breech-cover?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. On February 29th, 1940, did you have your rifle in your hands, prior to the accident on that day?

A. No, sir.

Q. When did you clean it on the previous day?

A. I had cleaned it prior to an inspection of it by Corporal Gray.

Q. You asked who had been fooling with your rifle?

A. Yes, sir. The breech-cover was on wrong.

Q. Did you put it on that way?

A. No, sir. We were taught how to put them on.

the pull-through properly. He said it was, and then I commenced to remove the breech-cover.

Q. Did you cock the rifle before you were cleaning it?

A. No, sir.

Q. What happened then?

A. So far as I remember, I looked down at my right shoe and I noticed that it had been split and I sort of stood on my left foot. I cannot remember much from there, sir.

Q. How is a rifle supposed to be laid on a table.

A. With the bolt up.

Q. How did the rifle go off?

A. I was sitting on a chair with the muzzle on my right toe and I was starting to remove the breech-cover.

Q. Did you have a rifle of your own in Canada?

A. No, sir.

Q. It has been stated that you got a rifle a day or two before going to the open range. Is that correct?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. When this accident happened, how long had you had a rifle?

A. For about three weeks, sir.

Q. What sort of training were you doing at this time, the end of February?

A. Driving and rifle drill.

Q. Have you had much rifle drill?

A. Not much, sir.

Q. How long were you in hospital.

A. Twenty-six days, sir.

Q. Did you lo se a toe?

A. Yes, sir. The great toe of the right foot.

Q. Is your foot affected in any way?

A. No, sir.

Q. Do you want to get out of the Army?

A. No, sir.

Q. Do you like your work?

A. Yes, sir. Very much, sir.

Q. What dos you do?

A. Drive a truck, sir.

Q. You had a preliminary hearing before your Commanding Officer?

The President inquired if the Accused wished to give evidence himself as a witness. The Accused was warned that he might be cross-examined upon any evidence given.

Witness sworn.

Q. Where were you on the evening of this accident, February 29th, 1940?

A. At the North Horn Hotel.

Q. Had you been drinking there?

A. Yes, sir. I had one glass of beer.

Q. At what time did you return to your barrack-room?

A. Around 9.00 o'clock p.m. sir.

Q. What did you do?

A. I was talking to some chaps there and happened to notice that my rifle had been tampered with.

Q. Where were you sitting?

A. In about the centre of the room.

Q. Where is your bed?

A. In the centre of the room.

Q. Where was your rifle?

A. It was hanging on a nail in the wall about six feet from the floor.

Q. What did you notice about your rifle?

A. The breech-cover was wrapped around the sling.

Q. In the manner in which it now is?

A. Yes, in that manner, sir.

Q. What did you do then?

A. I asked who had been fooling with my rifle.

Q. How many lads were there around at the time?

A. About six, sir.

Q. Did you get any reply to your question?

A. They just took a look at my rifle and said I must haveput it there myself.

Q. What did you say then?

A. I did not say anything, but took the rifle down and decided that I would clean it.

Q. What were the other lads doing at this time?

A. Some were reading at the table and some were lying on their beds.

Q. Then what happened?

A. I took down the rifle, opened the butt-trap, took out the pull-through and two-by-four and asked Private Vickers if the two-by-four was on

Private T.R. Leach

Recalled and reminded that he was still under oath.

The Court addressed the witness:

Q. In connection with conversations with your brother after the accident. Was there any explanation or suggestion made to you by him as to what might have happened?

A. No, sir.

Q. Did you not ask him?

A. No, sir.

Q. Were you not interested?

A. He didn't know how the round had got in the rifle.

Q. Was there any effort made to check on how it got in there?

A. I don't know, sir.

Q. Other than his statement that he would like to know how it got in there, was there any other conversation?

A. No, sir.

Q. Do you talk to your brother much?

A. No, sir.

Q. It seems peculiar that, when your brother got shot in the foot, you would not talk about it. Is your brother given to talking much?

A. No, sir. He is very quiet.

Q. Did he give you an idea how he was holding the rifle when it happened?

A. No, sir. I did not ask him.

No further witnesses.

The Court questioned the witness:

Q. Have you had any conversation with Private Leach since the time of the accident?

A. No, sir. Except that he said that he would like to find out who put the bullet in the rifle.

The Prosecutor then addressed the witness:

Q. Having said that much, did he say anything further?

A. Not that I recall, sir. There were one or two things which I cannot recall, but that was the outstanding thing which he did say ("I would like to find out who put the bullet in the rifle".)

The Court questioned the witness:

Q. I take it that he must have made the explanation to you that someone put the bullet in his rifle. Did he speculate as to how it was done?

A. No, sir.

Q. Would you regard it as a fairly serious matter.

A. Yes, sir. We discussed it amongst ourselves whilst he was in hospital

Q. Was it taken for granted in your conversation that somebody had done it?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. You hold that opinion?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. On what grounds?

A. The fact that it was his own rifle and I do not think that a man used to handling rifles would do such a thing.

Q. Has the Accused any enemies that you know of?

A. No, sir. Not that I know of;

Lance-Corporal Templeton

Recalled and reminded that he was still under oath.

The Court addressed the witness:

Q. You stated that the Accused used your rifle at the ranges?

A. Yes, sir. His rifle had just been issued at the time, and he had no time to clean the grease from the barrel.

Q. You are not in the same room as he is?

A. No, sir.

Q. Was his rifle cleaned subsequently and before the accident happened?

A. Yes, sir. We had rifle-cleaning drill the day prior to the accident.

Q. You do not have much contact with Leach?

A. No, sir.

Private T.R. Leach

Q. Did he say anything?

A. No, sir. Not that I can recall.

Q. After that, did you hear any statement made by him?

A. No, sir.

Q. Have you seen Private Leach since the accident and before today?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you had any conversation with him?

A. Only regarding his foot, sir.

Q. Has he stated anything to you about it?

A. No, sir.

Q. Have you had instruction in care of arms and the manner of cleaning a rifle?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Can you say that Leach has had instruction?

A. I don't know, sir. He was not in my section.

Q. Can you explain the presence of a live round of ammunition?

A. No, sir.

Q. Have you told us everything you can that has a bearing on the matter in question?

A
A. Yes, sir.

Defence - No question.

The Court questioned the witness:

Q. You say that Leach was sitting on the bed with the rifle on his knees, and that at that time he was talking to you. Did you notice particularly whether or not he had the breech-cover on the rifle?

A. No, sir.

Q. Is there anything familiar in the sound of the opening of a rifle bolt?

A. Yes. A click, sir.

Q. Did you hear in that room the click of the bolt?

A. No, sir.

Court cleared at 1605 hrs.

Court re-opened at 1625 hrs.

The Court addressed Defence Counsel:

The Court is not satisfied and we wish to recall one or two witnesses.

Call Private Vickers.

Private Vickers recalled and reminded by the Court that he was still under oath.

Q. Do you know the Accused, Private F.W. Leach?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you recall where you saw him on the evening of February 29th last?

A. Yes, sir.
Q. Where?

A. In our hut, sir.

Q. Do you occupy the same sleeping-quarters as Leach?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Can you tell me what took place on that occasion?

A. Yes, sir. Leach came into the room. We were all sitting around the fire. Leach happened to notice that the breech-cover of his rifle had been changed, as it was on incorrectly.

Q. Then what happened? How long had he been in the room before he appeared to notice that something had happened to his rifle?

A. About twenty minutes.

Q. What happened next?

A. Leach took the rifle down off the wall.

Q. Did you see him.

A. I saw him with the rifle across his knees, sitting on the bed. At the time he was talking to me.

Q. About what?

A. I cannot recall what it was about, sir. I turned and walked towards my bed.

Q. Then what happened?

A. I heard a shot.

Q. Can you say who was holding the rifle?

A. I had my back turned when the shot was fired.

Q. Can you say as to whether or not there was any person standing near Leach at the time?

A. No, sir. My back was to him.

Q. Where was the Accused then?

A. He just rolled off the bed onto the floor, and the rifle was lying on the floor. Private Vickers picked up the rifle and examined it.

Q. Then what did he do?

A. I don't know, sir.

Q. What did you do?

A. I just stood by and helped to lift him onto the bed.

Q. What was Leach doing at the time?

A. He was moaning at the time.

Q. Where did the bang come from?

A. It seemed to come from Leach's gun.

Q. After you heard the bang, what did you do?

A. I went for the Medical Officer.

Q. What was Leach doing?

A. He seemed to be pretty excited. He was saying: 'Oh, my God! What happened?", and he seemed unable to figure out what had happened.

Q. Then what happened?

A. The M.O. came. Leach was removed.

Q. Have you seen Leach since?

A. Just since he returned from hospital.

Q. Have you had any conversation with him in regard to the occurrence?

A. We try not to mention it.

Q. Has it, in fact, been mentioned?

A. Not to my knowledge.

Q. Can you say as to whether or not the Accused has received instruction in the care and cleaning of a rifle?

A. Yes, sir. I imagine they have all had instruction.

Defence Counsel questioned the witness:

Q. With regard to the cleaning of a rifle. If the floor is dirty the muzzle will be placed on the toe of the boot. Is that the way you were taught?

A. Yes, sir.

The Prosecution questioned the witness:

Q. When you are cleaning a rifle and place the muzzle on the toe of your boot, do you remove the bolt before or after placing the rifle on the boot?

A. After placing the rifle on the boot.

Defence - No question.

12th Witness: B83950 Private S.J. Brown, R.C.A.S.C. att. No. 5 Fd. Amb. R.C.A.M.C.

Witness sworn.

Q. What is your full name?

A. Sidney John Brown.

Q. What is your Regimental number?

A. B83950.

Q. What is your unit?

A. R.C.A.S.C. att. No. 5 Fd. Amb. R.C.A.M.C.

A. No, sir.

Q. Can you account for the presence of a round of live ammunition in your barrack-room?

A. No, sir.

Defence Counsel - No question.

The Court questioned the witness;

Q. How many men are there in your barrack-room?

A. Twelve, sir.

Q. Did you have any dummy ammunition?

A. No, sir. It was all locked up.

Q. Did you not discuss with your brother how that bullet came to be in his foot?

A. No, sir. He did not say how it had happened, and there was no further discussion so far as that was concerned.

11th Witness: B03955 Private W.S. Johnston, R.C.A.S.C. att. No. 5 Fd. Amb. R.C.A.M.C.

Witness sworn.

Q. What is your full name?

A. William Samuel Johnston.

Q. What is your Regimental number?

A. B03955.

Q. What is your unit?

A. R.C.A.S.C. att. No. 5 Fd. Amb. R.C.A.M.C.

Q. Do you know the Accused, Private Leach?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you recall seeing Private Leach on the evening of February 29th last?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where did you see him on that occasion?

A. In the barrack-room which I occupy.

Q. What took place?

A. He glanced at his rifle and noticed that the breech-cover was off, and said: 'Who has been fooling with my rifle?".

Q. Then what was said?

A. I went back to my writing.

Q. Did you hear anything further?

A. Nothing whatever. I was busy writing a letter and then I heard a bang.

A. In the barrack-room, sir.

Q. What were you doing?

A. Just sitting writing a letter, sir.

Q. When?

A. At about 9 o'clock, sir.

Q. Were you in his company from that time?

A. No, sir.

Q. When did you see him next?

A. At about 9.15 p.m.

Q. Where?

A. In the barrack-room.

Q. What took place? I understand that he just came into the room where you were at about 9.15 p.m.

A. Yes, sir.

Q. After he came in, what took place?

A. He remarked that somebody had touched his rifle. The breech-cover was on wrong. We did not pay any attention.

Q. Did anyone pay any attention to that remark?

A. No, sir.

Q. Then what happened?

A. In the meantime he had taken the rifle down.

Q. Did you see him taking it down.

A. No, sir.

Q. Then what happened?

A. I heard a shot fired.

Q. Do you know who fired the shot?

A. No, sir.

Q. Then what took place?

A. I went and got the M.O. and stood there until the Officer came and checked all our kit-bags.

Q. Did you have any conversation with him?

A. No, sir.

Q. Have you had any conversation with your brother since that time?

A. No, sir. Except for everyday matters.

Q. Has he said nothing to you about this shooting occurrence?

A. Nothing whatsoever.

Q. Can you say that the rifle was held by your brother or by someone else when fired?

Q. Then what took place?

A. After that I heard a shot.

Q. What did you do then?

A. I just stayed in bed. All the other boys were around him.

Q. What took place?

A. The Medical Orderly came in and rendered first aid to Private Leach and took him away to hospital.

Q. Have you seen him since that afternoon and before this afternoon?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you had any conversation with him?

A. Yes, sir. Only about drill.

Q. Have you ever discussed the occurrence of February 29th with him?

A. No, sir.

Q. Have you received instruction as to the proper manner of cleaning a rifle?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Can you say that Private Leach has had instruction?

A. I could not say, sir.

Defence Counsel - No question.

10th Witness: B83868 Private T.R. Leach
R.C.A.S.C. att. No. 5 Fd. Amb. R.C.A.M.C.

Witness sworn.

Q. What is your full name?

A. Thomas Robert Leach.

Q. What is your Regimental number?

A. B83868.

Q. What is your Unit?

A. R.C.A.S.C. att. No. 5 Fd. Amb. R.C.A.M.C.

Q. I understand that you are a brother of the Accused, Private Frederick Walter Leach. Is that correct?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you recall the evening of February 29th, 1940?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you see your brother on that evening?

A. I did, sir.

Q. Where?

Q. Was there any live ammunition found in the room then?

A. It was in another room where the inspection took place.

Defence Counsel - No question.

9th Witness: B84189 Pte. W.H. Hiltz, R.C.A.S.C. att. No. 5 Fd. Amb, R.C.A.M.C.

Witness sworn.

Q. Do you know the accused, Leach?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you occupy the same hut with him?

A. I do.

Q. Did you see Leach on the evening of February 29th, 1940?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where?

A. Sitting on his bed.

Q. When?

A. Between 9.30 and 10 p.m.

Q. What was he doing at the time?

A. He was about to clean his rifle.

Q. What was he doing?

A. I was reading a paper and was not paying much attention at the time. Some of the boys were talking to him about cleaning his rifle.

Q. Who was talking to him?

A. About five or six of the boys in the hut.

Q. Was Leach talking to them?

A. I don't remember that very clearly, sir.

A. What do you remember about what he was talking?

A. Nothing, sir.

Q. Can you say that Leach had a rifle at the time? Did you see a rifle in his hand?

A. No, sir. I was lying in bed with my back to him.

Q. When you entered, did you see him?

A. No, sir. I was in bed before he entered.

Q. What is your unit?

A. R.C.A.S.C. att. No. 5 Fd. Amb. R.C.A.M.C.

Q. Do you know the Accused, Leach?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you see him on the evening of February 29th, 1940?

A. I saw him on the night of the accident.

Q. To what accident are you referring?

A. To the shooting accident, sir.

Q. When did you first see him on the night in question?

A. At about 9.30 p.m. when returning from the show.

Q. Was he in the room as you entered?

A. When I entered, he was sitting on the edge of his bed, with the rifle across his knees.

Q. Did you observe the rifle at the time?

A. I just got a glimpse of him.

Q. Was there a breech-cover on the rifle at the time?

A. I don't know, sir. We just entered the room and were talking about the show. I turned my back and then heard a shot.

Q. Then what happened?

A. We told a man to go for the Medical Officer.

Q. What was done then?

A. The man reported that he could not find him. I placed the man in charge of the room and went to the Officers' quarters.

Q. Did you hear Leach say anything?

A. He shouted something, of which I am not quite sure.

Q. Do you occupy the same room with Private Leach?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Can you say how a live round of ammunition would be in a gun?

A. No, sir.

Q. Since then have you had any conversation with him?

A. Only regarding his foot.

Q. What has he said?

A. Only that he can walk with it.

Q. Has he said anything about the accident?

A. The boys have kept away from that, sir.

Q. Do you know whether or not there was any inspection of rifles prior to the time of the accident?

A. About two or three days before there was an inspection.

A. B84354.

Q. With what unit are you serving?

A. R.C.A.S.C. att. No. 5 Fd. Amb. R.C.A.M.C.

Q. Do you know the Accused, Leach?

A. I do, sir.

Q. Did you see him on the evening of 29th February last?

A. Was that the evening of the accident, sir?

Yes.

A. Yes. I saw him then.

Q. Where was he when you first saw him that evening?

A. Lying on his bed.

Q. What was taking place at the time?

A. The Orderly was rendering first aid.

Q. Did you hear any conversation on that occasion?

A. No. I didn't, sir.

Q. Have you had any conversation with Private Leach since the accident?

A. None whatever, sir.

Q. Do you know when Private Leach was at the ranges to fire his rifle practice?

A. Yes, sir. On the previous Saturday. (February 24th, 1940.)

Q. What rifle did he use?

A. He used my rifle, sir.

Q. How did that happen?

A. He tooke mine on my suggestion, as it waw ready for firing and his was not cleaned.

Q. Was his rifle used between that time and the time of the accident?

A. No, sir.

Q. Do you occupy the same room with Private Leach?

A. No, sir.

Defence Counsel - No question.

8th Witness: B84240 L/Cpl. J.K. Gray, R.C.A.S.C. att. No. 5 Fd. Amb. R.C.A.M.C.

Witness sworn.

Q. What is your full name?

A. James Knowles Gray.

Q. What is your Regimental number?

A. B84240.

Q. Where was he?

A. Beside his bed on the floor.

Q. What was he doing?

A. He was more or less in agony, sir.

Q. Did he say anything?

A. Nothing that I could understand, sir.

Q. Where was the rifle?

A. It had fallen near him on the floor.

Q. I am producing to view a rifle (Exhibit 1). Can you identify that rifle, or have you ever seen it before?

A. Yes, sir. I identify it as Private Leach's rifle.

Q. How do you identify it?

A. By the colour, sir.

Q. What next took place after you found him on the floor?

A. We held him and waited for the arrival of Officers. After the Officers came we placed him on the bed and his wound was dressed.

Q. Do you know anything further about this occurrence?

A. No, sir. I do not.

Q. Can you say how the live round happened to be in his rifle?

A. No, sir.

Q. Did you hear any statement on the night in question?

A. No, sir. I did not arrive until late.

Q. Have you had any conversation with Private Leach since the occurrence?

A. No, sir.

Defence Counsel questioned the witness:

Q. Who checked the empty cartridge-case?

A. I don't know, sir.

Q. Did you see it on the floor?

A. No, sir. I didn't pay any attention to it. I don't know how it got out of the rifle.

A. R.C.A.S.C. att. No. 5 Fd. Amb. R.C.A.M.C.

Q. Do you know the Accused, Leach?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you recall whether or not you saw him on the night of February 29th last?

A. Yes, sir. I did, sir.

Q. Where?

A. In his quarters, sir.

Q. Do you occupy the same hut as he?

A. I do, sir.

Q. About what time di you see him on that evening?

A. At about 9.30 P.M.

Q. What was he doing at that time?

A. He was cleaning his rifle.

Q. Where was he, sitting down or standing up?

A. Sitting down, sir.

Q. How was he holding his rifle?

A. I did not pay any attention to that, sir.

Q. Can you say how the rifle was being held?

A. No, I cannot say, sir.

Q. How far away from you was he at the time.

A. Approximately three yards, sir.

Q. Were you facing him?

A. I was more or less to the side, sir.

Q. What were you doing at the time?

A. I was making my bed.

Q. Did you have any conversation with the Accused, or hear any conversation?

A. No, sir. Not as far as I know. I was not paying any attention, sir.

Q. Can you recall anything that was said in the hut immediately prior to the accident?

A. No, sir. It was noisy at the time.

Q. What was causing the noise?

A. They were all preparing for bed.

Q. What took place that you can recall-just what actually happened?

A. I heard a report. We ran over to the Accused, Leach

Defence Counsel questioned the witness:

Q. Sergeant-Major. Did this man have a rifle in Canada?

A. I would not swear to that, sir. We were short of rifles then.

Q. Has he had any lessons?

A. Yes, sir. Two lessons by myself.

Q. When do you place the rifle on the toe?

A. The only time you put the rifle on the toe is when "resting on arms reversed" at funerals.

Q. How long have you known the Accused?

A. Since before the War, sir.

Q. What would you say regarding his general character?

A. He is one of the best men I have.

The Court questioned the witness:

Q. What day did you go to the ranges?

A. On February 17th, sir.

Q. Were you with the Accused on that day?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were adequate precautions taken that the men would not have ammunition at the conclusion of the course?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. At the conclusion of the course at the ranges, before you left, were all rifles inspected by the Inspecting Officer?

A. Yes, sir. They were inspected and proven empty before they stepped off the firing point.

Q. Do you know if a rifle inspection took place between the day at the ranges at the time of the accident?

A. Yes, sir. I supervised the inspection of rifles in the huts.

Q. In your opinion could this round not have been left in the rifle since the day at the ranges?

A. No sir.

6th Witness: B83958 Private G. McKenzie, R.C.A.S.C. att. No. 5 Fd. Amb. R.C.A.M.C.

from him on 29th February. They were just taking it off when I arrived.

Q. What took place when you arrived?

A. They took the shoe off and I called an ambulance to take him away.

Q. Did you hear or did you have any conversation with Leach at that time?

A. No, sir.

Q. From what you observed of his condition when you arrived, would you say he was conscious?

A. No, sir. I do not think he was in condition to understand.

Q. Did you see anything of a rifle at that time?

A. I did, sir.

I am producing to view a rifle (Exhibit 1)

Q. Can you identify that rifle?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. What rifle is it?

A. That is the rifle used on the night of the shooting. It was handed to me by one of the men.

Q. At that time did it have the breech-cover on it?

A. No, sir. The cover was off and the bolt was pulled back.

Q. Was the sling on the rifle at the time in question?

A. Yes, sir.

I am producing to view an expended cartridge (Exhibit 3)

Q. Can you identify this cartridge-case?

A. Yes, sir. That is the cartridge-case found on the night in question.

Q. Did you see it then?

A. Yes, sir. It was handed over to Lieut. Purcell by one of the men.

Q. Have you had any conversation with the Accused since the night in question?

A. Yes, sir. But nothing with regard to this case.

Q. Can you say as to whether or not Private Leach has had instruction in the manner of cleaning a rifle?

A. Yes, sir. He has.

Q. What is the correct procedure and in what position is the rifle held?

A. With the muzzle up or down.

Q. Which is correct?

A. With the muzzle up is the proper position.

Q. If it is held with the muzzle down, where would the muzzle be placed?

A. Pointing down at a point ahead of the person holding the rifle.

Q. Do you know if the accused has had any previous training in the care of arms?

A. He has had some, but not as much as I had, which was not very much.

Q. How are you taught to clean a rifle?

A. Remove magazine and pull it through with an oiled cloth.

Q. Do you think that the Accused had cleaned his rifle several times before?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you know how to put a piece of two-by-four on your pull-through?

A. Yes, sir.

5th Witness: B83962 C.S.M. E.C.G. Robertson
R.C.A.S.C. att. No. 5 Fd. Amb. R.C.A.M.C.

Witness sworn.

Q. What is your full name?

A. Eric Charles Gordon Robertson.

Q. What is your Regimental number?

A. B83962.

Q. With what unit are you serving?

A. R.C.A.S.C. att. No. 5 Fd. Amb. R.C.A.M.C.

Q. Do you know the Accused, Leach?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you see him on the evening of February 29th last?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. When?

A. At approximately 9.30 p.m.

Q. Where?

A. Lying on his bed in his quarters.

Q. What did you observe as to his condition?

A. He appeared to be suffering from some injury. Two men were sitting beside him on his bed and he was groaning.

Q. Who were the two men?

A. I took no notice, sir.

Q. Did you make any examination?

A. Yes, they were just taking off his shoe and sock when I was there.

I am producing to view a running-shoe (Exhibit 2)

Q. Can you identify that shoe?

A. Yes, sir. It is the right shoe of Private Leach which was removed

Q. Where was the hole?

A. It was about three feet from the edge of Leach's bed.

Q. Since then, have you had any conversation with Private Leach?

A. Yes, sir.

The Court stated: "I do not think that is relevant".

Prosecution: "There might have been a confession".

Question allowed.

Q. Have you had any conversation with the accused since the accident?

A. Yes, sir. He wants to find out the one who put the sehll in his rifle. That is all that I can recall at the moment, sir.

Q. I notice that on this shoe (Exhibit 2) the top of the shoe seems to be considerably damaged but there is no damage to the bottom of the shoe. What part of the Accused's foot was injured?

A. It went through his great right toe. There is a hole in the bottom of the shoe, where the bullet penetrated.

Q. Was there any clowning or horse-play going on at the time the accident occurred?

A. None at all sir.

Defence - No question.

The Court questioned the witness:

Q. Was there anyone else in the room at the time of the accident?

A. It was fairly well filled.

Q. How far away from the adcused was your bed?

A. About two or three beds away.

Q. You say that the breech-cover was over the sling of the rifle. Did you actually see the breech-cover over the sling?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Between that time and the time of the report did you see the breech of the rifle?

A. Yes, sir. The breech of the rifle was closed all the time I saw it. The rifle was between his knees, with the butt on the floor. I don't know whether or not the breech was closed.

Q. How long have you been in the Army?

A. I joined about two days after the accused.

Q. When were rifles issued to you?

A. In the middle of January last.

Q. Have you had any training in the care of arms?

A. Just elementary training, sir.

Q. How was it on wrong?

A. It was wrapped around the sling.

Q. What next took place?

A. I was making up my bed.

Q. Was the accused in your range of vision?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were there others in the room?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. What next took place?

A. He had his pull-through in the rifle and was sitting on the bed with the rifle on his knees and butt on the floor. He asked me if the two-by-four was on the pull-through correctly, and I told him it was. About two or three minutes later I heard the report. I was not paying any attention to him in the meantime.

Q. Did you hear anything further stated?

A. No, sir, I was not paying any attention.

Q. When you heard the report, what did you do?

A. I ran over to his bed and took off his right shoe and sock.

Q. What did you observe?

A. He asked what hit him. When we rolled him over, we saw that his foot was injured. We saw the rifle lying on the floor.

Ai I am producing to view a rifle (Exhibit 1)

Q. Can you identify that rifle?

A. No, sir.

I am producing to view a shoe (Exhibit 2)

Q. Can you identify that shoe?

A. It is the shoe which I took off Private Leach's foot.

Q. What next took place?

A. I picked up the rifle and by that time Staff-Sergeant Duncan and C.S.M. Robertson were there looking after Leach.

Q. Did you have any further conversation with the Accused?

A. No, sir.

Q. Did you hear anything further stated by him?

A. No, sir.

Q. Did you make any examination of the part of the room in which he was sitting, to ascertain where the bullet had travlled?

A. Yes, sir. We saw a hole in the floor.

The Prosecution maintained that it was sought to bring out the mental condition of the Accused prior to the accident.

Defence maintained that evidence being adduced to show "intent", and that it had no connection with the evidence being presently offered.

Court cleared at 1430 hrs.

Court resumed at 1450 hrs.

President ordered that foregoing be stricken from records as inadmissible.

The questioning of Captain Gibson was resumed:

Q. Have you had any conversation with the Accused, Private Leach, since the time of the accident?

A. No, I have not, sir.

Defence - No question.

A. Yes, sir. I have.

Q. Where?

A. I have seen him in his hut and in the Medical Inspection Room five times.

Q. Has he ever appeared on Sick Parade?

A. Yes. He has complained on five occasions of suffering with a severe pain in his chest.

The following questions were found inadmissible as evidence by the Court but are given hereunder as a matter of record:

Q. What were your observations?

A. My observations were that he seemed anxious or depressed.

Q. Did you examine him?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. What did you find?

At this juncture Defence Counsel raised the objection that the questions were irrelevant.

Q. Did you see him on February 29th, 1940?

A. Yes, sir. In the barrack room in which he was quartered in Crookham Camp.

Q. In what condition was he found?

A. In the presence of Private Leach I was told that he had shot himself.

Q. Who made that statement?

A. I do not know, sir.

Q. Did he make any statement on that occasion to you?

A. No, sir.

Q. As a result of what you found, what was done?

A. I confiscated the expended cartridge, the rifle and the shoe.

I am producing to view a rifle, with a sling and breech-cover attached (Exhibit 1)

Q. Can you identify this rifle?

A. That is the rifle from which the shot was fired.

Q.
I am producing to view a canvas and rubber shoe. (Exhibit 2)

Q. Can you identify that shoe?

A. That is the shoe which Private Leach was wearing on the night in question.

Q. Where did you first see that shoe?

A. On the floor near Private Leach's bed.

Q.
I am producing a brass cartridge-case (Exhibit 3).

Q. Can you identify that cartridge-case?

A. Yes, sir. That is the cartridge-case which I found when I attended the scene where Private Leach was shot.

Q. Where was Leach at the time?

A. He was lying on the end of his bed, with his right shoe off.

Q. Was he partially undressed?

A. He was fully dressed, except for his tunic.

Pte. Leach, F. W., has appeared on sick parade a number of times and I saw him at his barrack room once.

On sick parade he complained of awaking at night with a palpitating heart, and a fear that he was choking to death. He also complained of poor vision.

His history is that he ha s had his eyes examined but finds nothing wrong with them. In spite of this he wears glasses. Also he has had no history of rheumatic fever or heart disease in childhood.

Examination failed to reveal any pathology of eyes or heart, and reassurance coupled with mild sedative medication had also failed to convince him that nothing was wrong.

In view of the negative findings, my opinion is that his condition is one of mild depression, due to a continued state of menta l anxiety.

Accused declines to cross-examine.

No. B.83950, Private S. Brown, R.C.A.S.C., Attached to No.5 Field Ambulance, RCAMC, CASF.

Leach came into the hut about 25 minutesbefore the a ccident occurred. He was standing by the stove when he noticed that the breech cover on his rifle was put on over the sling. He went over and took the rifle down from where it was hanging. I was talking to him for a short time, and was walking away when the gun was fired. I turned around and Leach was lying on the floor. Previous to the accident, I had handled a rifle, but it did not belong to Leach. He had taken the gun down to clean it, as well as to fix the breech cover.

After the accident occurred the breech cover was entirely off, and the rifle was lying on the floor. No-one touched the rifle from the time of the accident.

We have been instructed, whencleaning our rifles, to remove the bolt and magazine from the gun, and drop pull-through through the barrel. We were told never to put the muzzle of the gun on concrete, but we were told to place it on the boot only if we were in mud.

There was no quarrel or tussle before the accident.

Accused declines to cross-examine.

Eleventh Witness for the Prosecution. -

No. B.83955, Private W. S. Johnston, R.C.A.S.C., Attached to No. 5 Field Ambulance, RCAMC, CASF.

I was in the hut when the accident occurred. Leach came in, and I heard him remark that someone had tampered with his gun. I paid no attention to him until I heard the shot. There had been no clowning previous to the accident. This was the first time I have ever seen the breech cover put on over the sling. Leach is very quiet and well liked. No-one was playing around with the rifles during the course of the evening. The accident occurred about twenty minutes to ten o'clock, I would say. A few of the boys clean their guns at that time, so I wouldn't say that it was unusual. We are instructed to take the bolt out and point the gun into the air, and look through the barrel to see if it is clear. If the floor is dirty, we are to place the muzzle on the toe of the boot, or on anything that is clean. I can only remember the one night that he took sick.

Sixth Witness for the Prosecution - B.83868, Pte. T. R. Leach, R.C.A.S.C., attached to No. 5 Field Ambulance, R.C.A.M.C., C.A.S.F.

I was sitting writing a letter when my brother came in. He remarked about his rifle having been tampered with, because he found that the breech cover was on wrong. We paid no attention to him, and after I finished my letter I got up and went over to my own bed, turned my back and sat down. Just then I heard a report. I turned around and saw my brother fall on the floor holding his foot. I then ran over to the M.O.'s office and brought Staff Sergeant Duncan back. My brother appeared perfectly well just before the accident, and seemed to be getting along well with all the men.

Ninth Witness for the Prosecution - B.84189, Private W. H. Hiltz, R.C.A.S.C., attached to No.5 Field Ambulance, RCAMC, CASF

On the night of February 29th, about ten p.m., or a little before, Leach was sitting on his bed preparing to clean his rifle. He had remarked before this that his breech cover was on wrong, and that the sling was inside the cover. Leach was well liked by all the man. He drinks very little, if at all. The only sickness I know of his having, was one night when he fell against the door of the room as he was entering, and became unconscious.

In Canada, the N.C.O. Instructor told us to place the muzzle of the rifle on the toe of the boot while cleaning it, if there was a possibility of dirt getting into it.

Eighth Witness for the Prosecution - B.84240 - Lance-Corporal J. K. Gray, R.C.A.S.C., Attached to No. 5 Field Ambulance, RCAMC, CASF.

We had just come in from the show on the night of February 29. Fred Leach was sitting on his bed with his rifle across his knee. We thought nothing of this, but as I turned my back to walk away, the rifle went off.

Fred Leach is the most conscientious man we have in the hut. Is never late for parades; does his work well; is particular about the care of his equipment, and competent to care for and handle a rifle without danger to himself and others.

In my opinion, it was possible to bring live rounds of ammunition away from the range. Ammunition at camp is kept under lock and key and no-one but a N.C.O. has access to it.

A rifle inspection was made two days before, and at that time no live rounds were found.

Seventh Witness for the Prosecution -

B.84354, Lance-Corporal T. Templeton, R.C.A.S.C., attached to No. 5 Field Ambulance, RCAMC, CASF.

Leach was Room Orderly on February 10. His rifle had just been issued and was not cleaned. When he came in, I suggested that he use my rifle at the range, as I had to remain in the Orderly Room. In this way, I know that Leach's gun had not been fired, and that ammunition could not have been left in it at the range. The storeroom at camp is kept locked. No-one but the N.C.O.s are allowed in, and they go in only for petrol and oil.

Accused declines to cross-examine.

Tenth Witness for the Prosecution -

No. B.83958, Private G. McKenzie, R.C.A.S.C., Attached to No.5 Field Ambulance, RCAMC, CASF.

I came home from the show about ten minutes to ten, on the night of February 29th. I paid no attention to Leach, but began to make my bed. I heard no-one kid him as to the condition of his gun. I don't think anyone could have obtained a live cartridge from the rifle range. I think the check up was very thorough.

We go into our store room for petrol under the supervision of a N.C.O. only. A N.C.O. is always present.

Leach drinks very little and is very quiet. He gets along very well with the rest of the men. I can only recall the one night when he was sick, and he appeared to be allright the following day.

In my opinion, it would be very difficult to put the breech cover over the sling, if the sling were taut. The sling should always be taut when the rifle is not carried at the slung position.

Accused declines to cross-examine.

Fifth Witness for the Prosecution -

Lieut. J. R. Purcell, R.C.A.S.C., attached to No. 5 Field Ambulance, R.C.A.M.C., C.A.S.F.

It was reported to me, about 2150 hours, that Private Leach had been shot in the right foot. I went up to the hut in which Leach was quartered and found hewas suffering from a g.s.w. in the right foot. An ambulance was ordered, and he was taken to the hospital on the authority of the M.O. I took the rifle and the spent cartridge as evidence, and investigated the circumstances leading up to the accident, and had all other rifles in the barrack room examined. No more live rounds were found. I immediately carried out a minute kit inspection of each man in the barrack room. No live rounds were found.

In my estimation, it would have been possible for some person to have acquired a live round either from the ranges, or where the ammunition was stored, due to the traffic through the store room. I am further of the opinion that every possible precaution was taken to prevent loss of ammunition at the ranges and in storing of it.

I have no complaint to make with the conduct and appearance or efficiency of Private Leach. He was willing and interested in his job, and well liked by the N.C.O.s and men.

Accused declines to cross-examine.

J. R. Purcell Lieut.

Summary of Evidence, in the case of No. B.83915, Private Leach, F. W., R.C.A.S.C., attached to No. 5 Field Ambulance, R.C.A.M.C., C.A.S.F.

Fourth Witness for The Prosecution - Capt. T. W. D. Farmer, Q.M., No. 5 Field Ambulance, R.C.A.M.C., C.A.S.F.

On February 6th, 1940, I indented for and drew 3,000 rounds of .303 ammunition. We kept these until the 10th February, 1940, on which date Mr. Purcell drew the entire lot from us and signed for them. This was the last the Q.M. Stores saw of the ammunition until 1-Mar-40 when Mr. Purcell returned the unfired ammunition to us for safe-keeping.

The Company Commander is responsible for ammunition issued to him. The ammunition is issued to the Company Commander on request, without an order from higher authority.

The amount of ammunition returned to Q.M. Stores consisted of one full case of 1,000 rounds; one part case of loaded ammunition, 926 rounds; and a case containing 1,065 empty cartridges. This leaves a shortage of 9.

Accused declines to cross-examine.

Third Witness for the Prosecution - No. B.83962, C.S.M., E.C.G.Robertson, R.C.A.S.C., Attached No.5 Field Ambulance, R.C.A.M.C., C.A.S.F.

About 2150 hours on February 29, I was called over, in the capacity of C.S.M., to the hut where Private Leach had his quarters. When I arrived, he was lying on his back on his bed. His running shoe was being removed. Blood was dripping from his foot, and it was obvious that he had suffered from some physical injury.

I was then informed this was the result of a gun shot wound, of the foot. There was no evidence of a scuffle or disorder. I took charge of the running shoe and rifle, and have kept them in my possession since then. I then ordered the ambulance and stood by until Leach was removed to hospital.

Generally speaking, in my opinion, Leach has been a good soldier. He had been specially complimented as being the best driver in the detachment. Recently, he appeared to have been worrying about his heart and eyes, claiming to have felt insecure in driving.

In my opinion the handling of the ammunition at the ranges and at camp, left no opportunity to obtain a live round.

Accused declines to cross-examine.

Second Witness for the Prosecution - No. B.84207, Private A.R.Vickers, R.C.A.S.C., Attached No. 5 Field Ambulance, R.C.A.M.C.(C.A.S.F.)

I was in bed at the time of the accident, on the night of February 29, about five or ten minutes to ten. Most of the boys in the hut were writing letters when Leach came in. He noticed that someone had tampered with his gun, the sling being inside the breech cover. We kidded him about not putting the gun away properly. It is a very unusual thing to do. None of the men in the hut have ever done the same thing, as far as I know. It would be very difficult to do. He asked me if the two-by-four was in the pull-through correctly. I said that it was, and turned over. My back was turned to him when I heard the report. He could not have cleaned the gun without first removing the bolt. If the breech cover were on, I would say it would be impossible to fire it. We have been instructed that the safety catch must be on a t all times. We were never to place the muzzle on mud, snow or concrete when cleaning it. To clean the rifle, we take off the breech cover and sling, then remove bolt and magazine. By removing the bolt, it is impossible to fire it.

I was on duty the first time the men went to the ranges, which was when Leach went. However, the time I did go, I would say it was impossible to keep a live round.

We are not instructed to carry cleaning equipment with us. We must remove the bolt before cleaning the rifle. There was no clowning in the room when I was there. It is most likely that he would have the bolt out before inquiring if the

First Witness for the Prosecution - No. B.89752, Staff-Sergeant W. E. Duncan, No.5 Field Ambulance, R.C.A.M.C., C.A.S.F.

On February 29, at approximately 2200 hours, I heard a commotion and shouts for the Medical Orderly, in the barrack room next to my room. I went in to find out what the trouble was, and a soldier, whom I later found out was Pte. T. R. Leach, told me that one of the men had just been shot in the foot. I went with him to the hut and found a man lying on the floor with a rifle at his side. Some men had taken off the right shoe and had cut off the lower half of the sock.
There were powder marks between the large and first toe, and a wound, evidently made by a bullet, on the under surface of the foot below the second toe. I sent for the Medical Officer, and dressed the wound, had the man placed on a stretcher, and put into the ambulance.

Accused declines to cross-examine.

CERTIFICATE OF COURT STENOGRAPHER

I, No. B72524, Sergeant Frank Godley, 48th Highlanders of Canada, C.A.S.F., Corunna Barracks, Aldershot, Hants, England, hereby certify that the foregoing Transcript of Evidence taken in short-hand by me, relating to the trial of

is entitled to be discharged.

The Court has to decide whether or not the Accused was careless in handling his rifle. He is still not guilty on the second charge because, even if he were careless, that is not enough on which to convict him.

The Court requested Defence Counsel to give his interpretation of the word "culpable".

The Defence Counsel defined the word "culpable" as "wilful, or with intent".

The Court retired to consider its decision.

Then he laid it on his bed and went over and had a smoke. There was no haste or confusion. Then he sat down, put the muzzle of the rifle against his foot and started to remove the breech-cover, and apparently got his finger caught in the trigger and discharged the weapon.

Having in mind that he was aware that he was aware that the rifle had been tampered with, he was not exercising the proper care.

Having regard to the fact that other people were in danger, it is obvious that a higher degree of care must be exercised. It is my opinion that, if he had exercised the proper caution, he would first have taken care to see that the rifle was not pointed at anyone until he had ensured that it was not loaded.

He agrees that he was careless in ~~hx~~ pointing the rifle at his foot when handling it, and by removing the breech-cover in such a way as to get his finger entangled in the trigger, thus causing it to discharge.

I feel that, if I were to recommend that he be acquitted on that charge, I would be placing a stamp of approval on conduct that is not consistent with the degree of care and precaution necessary in handling a military weapon.

Major
President D.C.M.

Defending Officer's Summary:

The Prosecuting Officer has stated exactly what I feel--that there does not appear to be sufficient evidence on the first charge. The law is that "intent" must be proven.

My submission is, shortly, that there is absolutely no evidence whatsoever to prove that there was "intent" or to raise the presumption that the Accused had any intent to "wilfully injure himself".

With regard to the second charge, I refer you to Manual of Military Law, top of page 459, which reads:

> "Neglect, to be punishable under this section, must be wilful or culpable and not merely the result of forgetfulness, error of judgment, or inadvertence.

My submission is that there has been absolutely no evidence adduced to warrant a conviction on the second charge. There was no discrepancy in the evidence. It was clear all the way insofar as the witnesses told about what they actually saw. The Accused was willing to be subjected to cross-examination. It seems to me that that might very well have happened to anyone, anyone in the room.

It seems to me that everyone in the Army has at some time handled a rifle contrary to military law. In this case the Accused demonstrated to the Court exactly what he was doing. The circumstances were such as to excuse him. The last thing that occurred to him was that a round might be in the chamber.

While true the breech-cover had been changed, but that is far removed from contemplating that there might be a live round in the chamber. The Accused's Commanding Officer spoke very highly of him. The charge now, if he is judged guilty, will be a black mark against him while ever he is in the Army.

I need hardly explain to this Court that the same principle applies as in any other British Court, namely, that the Accused is entitled to every reasonable doubt.

To my mind the evidence scarcely raises a suspicion of guilt on either charge. It seems to me that, if there is a doubt, the Accused and work have been very satisfactory.

Q. Does he still carry on with his work?

A. No, because he is still under open arrest.

The Prosecutor addressed the witness:

Q. Have you had any conversation with the Accused since the accident?

A. No. Only this afternoon.

Objection raised by Defence Counsel, who maintained that character witness not subject to cross-examination when giving evidence as to character only.

The Court ruled that a character witness can only be cross-exanired as to character evidence. He gives evidence as to character only in the point of view that sentence may be remitted in the event of the Accused being found guilty.

The Court was adjourned at 1005 hrs. 22 April 40

Court re-opened at 1400 hrs. 23 April 40

Prosecutor's Summary:

Bearing in mind the cogent observations of this Court, I feel it is my duty to say that I do not think there is any evidence upon which to found the first charge. I feel that all the way the evidence has tended to exonerate the Accused, rather than to convict him of it in any way.

As regards the alternative and less serious charge, I think there is some evidence to be taken into consideration before the decision is finally arrived at. It would appear to me that there is considerable difference between the duty imposed upon a man in civilian life when handling a dangerous weapon and the duty of a soldier when handling firearms.

In civilian life when a man in injured by a firearm it is not an offence. But when a man is subject to military law it is part of his duty to carefully observe all precautions when handling firearms and to prevent avoidable accidents.

I feel that the principle to be followed in arriving at a decision as to whether or not the offence was committed would depend upon whether or not the Accused took all reasonable precautions to avoid the accident. Obviously there was no necessity for the Accused to point this weapon at his foot when handling it.

Secondly, even though the rifle was loaded and the breech was covered, there was no necessity for the Accused to handle it in such a way that the rifle was discharged upon removing the breech-cover, which could obviously be removed without discharging the weapon.

We, therefore, might fairly say that it was an avoidable accident.

With regard to the care exercised by him, he has stated that he noticed that his rifle had been tampered with and he went over to the rifle and took it down.

I, No. B.83915, Private F. W. Leach, desire to have an officer assigned to represent me at my trial by Court Martial.

I desire the services of Capt. D. Barrett Please or Major Howard Graham if he is available.

9-April-40

F. W. Leach

A. No, sir.

Q. Is it fair to say that you do not want driving vehicles to be your regular occupation?

A. No, sir.

Q. Then you were not dissatisfied with your occupation?

A. No, sir.

Q. Have you not ever been warned against point a rifle at yourself or anyone else when unloading it?

A. Yes, sir. I admit that.

Q. Do you agree that it was carelessness in having the rifle on your toe when unloading it? Would not ordinary care and precaution indicate that you would not point it at yourself when you were not sure that it was not loaded?

A. I don't know, sir. I have seen many rifles hanging on the wall without safety-cathhes on.

Q. Did you say that you saw that your rifle had been tampered with before you took it down and that you rested the muzzle on your foot?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Don't you think that that was carelessness, when you knew that the rifle had been tampered with?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. You agree that that was carelessness on your part?

A. Yes, sir.

Defence Counsel calls character evidence:

Called Major G.A. Sinclair. Witness sworn.

Q. What is your full name?

A. Gordon Anson Sinclair.

Q. What is your rank?

A. Major and Acting Officer Commanding.

Q. What is your unit?

A. 5 Fd. Amb. R.C.A.M.C.

Q. How long have you known the Accused, Private Leach?

A. Since his attachment on December 18th, 1939, to 5 Fd. Amb. R.C.A.M.C.

Q. Have you had occasion to know him particularly?

A. Simply on parade and when as a passenger in the car.

Q. What have you observed as to his character?

A. He has always been prompt, smartly turned out, and quite interested in his work. In fact, in his tradesman's test he was given special commendation. Up to the time of his injury his conduct, character,

Q. Then you have had fairly thorough instruction as to the handling of rifles?

A. So far as breech-covers are concerned, sir.

Q. What instruction have you had?

A. In removing the bolt and the magazine.

Q. After removing the rifle from the nail on which it was hanging, what did you do?

A. I took the rifle over to my bed and had a smoke and laid the rifle on my bed.

Q. Why did you lay the rifle on your bed and then walk away and have a cigarette?

A. Because it was not the proper time to clean it.

Q. What time was that?

A. About 9.15 p.m.

Q. What next?

A. I opened the butt-trap and took out the pull-through and a piece of two-by-four and put it on the pull-through. I then asked Private Vickers if the two-by-four was on the pull-through properly. I then commenced to remove the breech-cover.

Q. Then the rifle exploded?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. How did that happen--did your finger touch the trigger?

A. Possibly, sir. I don't remember.

Here the Court ruled that the line of questioning adopted not admissible.

Q. You were asked by Major Graham (Defence Counsel) if you wanted to get out of the Army, and you replied that you did not. Are you satisfied with your employment, and were you satisfied with your employment before the time of the accident?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you find yourself fully competent to drive vehicles?

A. Not at all times, sir.

Q. How is that?
A.
A. I do not like driving in this country.

Q. Any other reason why you are not satisfied with your occupation?

A. Onlybecause I am wearing glasses when driving at night. In cold weather the glasses steam up when driving an ambulance.

Q. Then I take it that at that time you were desirous of being placed in some other occupation than driving vehicles?

A. Not in another unit, sir.

Q. You don't want to be taken out of your unit?

A. Yes, sir. After being in hospital.

Q. Have you talked this matter over with anybody?

A. No, sir. Except for saying that I would like to know how the bullet got in there, sir.

Q. Have you any ideas as to whether your rifle was half-cocked or fully cocked?

A. No, sir.

Q. Do you know who checked the spent round?

A. No, sir.

The Prosecutor then addressed the Accused:

Q. When did you go to the North Horn Hotel?

A. (It is believed that the Accused replied: "Around 7 p.m., sir").

Q. Were you talking to anyone there?

A. I was playing darts with an English fellow.

Q. You had a glass of beer?

A. Yes. Only one, sir.

Q. When you came back, were you alone?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long had you been in the room before you noticed, as you say, that your rifle had been tampered with?

A. About ten minutes, sir.

Q. Your rifle was hanging on a nail?

A. Yes, sir. With the butt pointing towards the floor.

Q. When had you last had your rifle in your hands prior to that occasion?

A. The rifle was checked about three or four days before. I had handled it the day before and had cleaned it.

Q. In order to clean it, you removed the breech-cover?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. On February 29th, 1940, did you have your rifle in your hands, prior to the accident on that day?

A. No, sir.

Q. When did you clean it on the previous day?

A. I had cleaned it prior to an inspection of it by Corporal Gray.

Q. You asked who had been fooling with your rifle?

A. Yes, sir. The breech-cover was on wrong.

Q. Did you put it on that way?

A. No, sir. We were taught how to put them on.

the pull-through properly. He said it was, and then I commenced to remove the breech-cover.

Q. Did you cock the rifle before you were cleaning it?

A. No, sir.

Q. What happened then?

A. So far as I remember, I looked down at my right shoe and I noticed that it had been split and I sort of stood on my left foot. I cannot remember much from there, sir.

Q. How is a rifle supposed to be laid on a table.

A. With the bolt up.

Q. How did the rifle go off?

A. I was sitting on a chair with the muzzle on my right toe and I was starting to remove the breech-cover.

Q. Did you have a rifle of your own in Canada?

A. No, sir.

Q. It has been stated that you got a rifle a day or two before going to the open range. Is that correct?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. When this accident happened, how long had you had a rifle?

A. For about three weeks, sir.

Q. What sort of training were you doing at this time, the end of February?

A. Driving and rifle drill.

Q. Have you had much rifle drill?

A. Not much, sir.

Q. How long were you in hospital.

A. Twenty-six days, sir.

Q. Did you lo se a toe?

A. Yes, sir. The great toe of the right foot.

Q. Is your foot affected in any way?

A. No, sir.

Q. Do you want to get out of the Army?

A. No, sir.

Q. Do you like your work?

A. Yes, sir. Very much, sir.

Q. What do you do?

A. Drive a truck, sir.

Q. You had a preliminary hearing before your Commanding Officer?

The President inquired if the Accused wished to give evidence himself as a witness. The Accused was warned that he might be cross-examined upon any evidence given.

Witness sworn.

Q. Where were you on the evening of this accident, February 29th, 1940?

A. At the North Horn Hotel.

Q. Had you been drinking there?

A. Yes, sir. I had one glass of beer.

Q. At what time did you return to your barrack-room?

A. Around 9.00 o'clock p.m. sir.

Q. What did you do?

A. I was talking to some chaps there and happened to notice that my rifle had been tampered with.

Q. Where were you sitting?

A. In about the centre of the room.

Q. Where is your bed?

A. In the centre of the room.

Q. Where was your rifle?

A. It was hanging on a nail in the wall about six feet from the floor.

Q. What did you notice about your rifle?

A. The breech-cover was wrapped around the sling.

Q. In the manner in which it now is?

A. Yes, in that manner, sir.

Q. What did you do then?

A. I asked who had been fooling with my rifle.

Q. How many lads were there around at the time?

A. About six, sir.

Q. Did you get any reply to your question?

A. They just took a look at my rifle and said I must haveput it there myself.

Q. What did you say then?

A. I did not say anything, but took the rifle down and decided that I would clean it.

Q. What were the other lads doing at this time?

A. Some were reading at the table and some were lying on their beds.

Q. Then what happened?

A. I took down the rifle, opened the butt-trap, took out the pull-through and two-by-four and asked Private Vickers if the two-by-four was on

Private T.R. Leach

Recalled and reminded that he was still under oath.

The Court addressed the witness:

Q. In connection with conversations with your brother after the accident. Was there any explanation or suggestion made to you by him as to what might have happened?

A. No, sir.

Q. Did you not ask him?

A. No, sir.

Q. Were you not interested?

A. He didn't know how the round had got in the rifle.

Q. Was there any effort made to check on how it got in there?

A. I don't know, sir.

Q. Other than his statement that he would like to know how it got in there, was there any other conversation?

A. No, sir.

Q. Do you talk to your brother much?

A. No, sir.

Q. It seems peculiar that, when your brother got shot in the foot, you would not talk about it. Is your brother given to talking much?

A. No, sir. He is very quiet.

Q. Did he give you an idea how he was holding the rifle when it happened?

A. No, sir. I did not ask him.

No further witnesses.

The Court questioned the witness:

Q. Have you had any conversation with Private Leach since the time of the accident?

A. No, sir. Except that he said that he would like to find out who put the bullet in the rifle.

The Prosecutor then addressed the witness:

Q. Having said that much, did he say anything further?

A. Not that I recall, sir. There were one or two things which I cannot recall, but that was the outstanding thing which he did say ("I would like to find out who put the bullet in the rifle".)

The Court questioned the witness:

Q. I take it that he must have made the explanation to you that someone put the bullet in his rifle. Did he speculate as to how it was done?

A. No, sir.

Q. Would you regard it as a fairly serious matter.

A. Yes, sir. We discussed it amongst ourselves whilst he was in hospital

Q. Was it taken for granted in your conversation that somebody had done it?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. You hold that opinion?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. On what grounds?

A. The fact that it was his own rifle and I do not think that a man used to handling rifles would do such a thing.

Q. Has the Accused any enemies that you know of?

A. No, sir. Not that I know of.

Lance-Corporal Templeton

Recalled and reminded that he was still under oath.

The Court addressed the witness:

Q. You stated that the Accused used your rifle at the ranges?

A. Yes, sir. His rifle had just been issued at the time, and he had no time to clean the grease from the barrel.

Q. You are not in the same room as he is?

A. No, sir.

Q. Was his rifle cleaned subsequently and before the accident happened?

A. Yes, sir. We had rifle-cleaning drill the day prior to the accident.

Q. You do not have much contact with Leach?

A. No, sir.

Private T.R. Leach

Q. Did he say anything?

A. No, sir. Not that I can recall.

Q. After that, did you hear any statement made by him?

A. No, sir.

Q. Have you seen Private Leach since the accident and before today?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you had any conversation with him?

A. Only regarding his foot, sir.

Q. Has he stated anything to you about it?

A. No, sir.

Q. Have you had instruction in care of arms and the manner of cleaning a rifle?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Can you say that Leach has had instruction?

A. I don't know, sir. He was not in my section.

Q. Can you explain the presence of a live round of ammunition?

A. No, sir.

Q. Have you told us everything you can that has a bearing on the matter in question?

A. Yes, sir.

Defence - No question.

The Court questioned the witness:

Q. You say that Leach was sitting on the bed with the rifle on his knees, and that at that time he was talking to you. Did you notice particularly whether or not he had the breech-cover on the rifle?

A. No, sir.

Q. Is there anything familiar in the sound of the opening of a rifle bolt?

A. Yes. A click, sir.

Q. Did you hear in that room the click of the bolt?

A. No, sir.

Court cleared at 1605 hrs.

Court re-opened at 1625 hrs.

The Court addressed Defence Counsel:

The Court is not satisfied and we wish to recall one or two witnesses.

Call Private Vickers.

Private Vickers recalled and reminded by the Court that he was still under oath.

Q. Do you know the Accused, Private F.W. Leach?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you recall where you saw him on the evening of February 29th last?

A. Yes, sir.
Q. Where?

A. In our hut, sir.

Q. Do you occupy the same sleeping-quarters as Leach?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Can you tell me what took place on that occasion?

A. Yes, sir. Leach came into the room. We were all sitting around the fire. Leach happened to notice that the breech-cover of his rifle had been changed, as it was on incorrectly.

Q. Then what happened? How long had he been in the room before he appeared to notice that something had happened to his rifle?

A. About twenty minutes.

Q. What happened next?

A. Leach took the rifle down off the wall.

Q. Did you see him.

A. I saw him with the rifle across his knees, sitting on the bed. At the time he was talking to me.

Q. About what?

A. I cannot recall what it was about, sir. I turned and walked towards my bed.

Q. Then what happened?

A. I heard a shot.

Q. Can you say who was holding the rifle?

A. I had my back turned when the shot was fired.

Q. Can you say as to whether or not there was any person standing near Leach at the time?

A. No, sir. My back was to him.

Q. Where was the Accused then?

A. He just rolled off the bed onto the floor, and the rifle was lying on the floor. Private Vickers picked up the rifle and examined it.

Q. Then what did he do?

A. I don't know, sir.

Q. What did you do?

A. I just stood by and helped to lift him onto the bed.

Q. What was Leach doing at the time?

A. He was moaning at the time.

Q. Where did the bang come from?

A. It seemed to come from Leach's gun.

Q. After you heard the bang, what did you do?

A. I went for the Medical Officer.

Q. What was Leach doing?

A. He seemed to be pretty excited. He was saying: 'Oh, my God! What happened?", and he seemed unable to figure out what had happened.

Q. Then what happened?

A. The M.O. came. Leach was removed.

Q. Have you seen Leach since?

A. Just since he returned from hospital.

Q. Have you had any conversation with him in regard to the occurrence?

A. We try not to mention it.

Q. Has it, in fact, been mentioned?

A. Not to my knowledge.

Q. Can you say as to whether or not the Accused has received instruction in the care and cleaning of a rifle?

A. Yes, sir. I imagine they have all had instruction.

Defence Counsel questioned the witness:

Q. With regard to the cleaning of a rifle. If the floor is dirty the muzzle will be placed on the toe of the boot. Is that the way you were taught?

A. Yes, sir.

The Prosecution questioned the witness:

Q. When you are cleaning a rifle and place the muzzle on the toe of your boot, do you remove the bolt before or after placing the rifle on the boot?

A. After placing the rifle on the boot.

Defence - No question.

12th Witness: B83950 Private S.J. Brown, R.C.A.S.C. att. No. 5 Fd. Amb. R.C.A.M.C.

Witness sworn.

A. R.C.A.S.C. att. No. 5 Fd. Amb. R.C.A.M.C.

29

A. No, sir.

Q. Can you account for the presence of a round of live ammunition in your barrack-room?

A. No, sir.

Defence Counsel - No question.

The Court questioned the witness;

Q. How many men are there in your barrack-room?

A. Twelve, sir.

Q. Did you have any dummy ammunition?

A. No, sir. It was all locked up.

Q. Did you not discuss with your brother how that bullet came to be in his foot?

A. No, sir. He did not say how it had happened, and there was no further discussion so far as that was concerned.

11th Witness: B03955 Private W.S. Johnston, R.C.A.S.C. att. No. 5 Fd. Amb. R.C.A.M.C.

Witness sworn.

Q. What is your full name?

A. William Samuel Johnston.

Q. What is your Regimental number?

Q. What is your unit?

A. R.C.A.S.C. att. No. 5 Fd. Amb. R.C.A.M.C.

Q. Do you know the Accused, Private Leach?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you recall seeing Private Leach on the evening of February 29th last?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where did you see him on that occasion?

A. In the barrack-room which I occupy.

Q. What took place?

A. He glanced at his rifle and noticed that the breech-cover was off, and said: 'Who has been fooling with my rifle?".

Q. Then what was said?

A. I went back to my writing.

Q. Did you hear anything further?

A. Nothing whatever. I was busy writing a letter and then I heard a bang.

28

A. In the barrack-room, sir.

Q. What were you doing?

A. Just sitting writing a letter, sir.

Q. When?

A. At about 9 o'clock, sir.

Q. Were you in his company from that time?

A. No, sir.

Q. When did you see him next?

A. At about 9.15 p.m.

Q. Where?

A. In the barrack-room.

Q. What took place? I understand that he just came into the room where you were at about 9.15 p.m.

A. Yes, sir.

Q. After he came in, what took place?

A. He remarked that somebody had touched his rifle. The breech-cover was on wrong. We did not pay any attention.

Q. Did anyone pay any attention to that remark?

A. No, sir.

Q. Then what happened?

A. In the meantime he had taken the rifle down.

Q. Did you see him taking it down.

A. No, sir.

Q. Then what happened?

A. I heard a shot fired.

Q. Do you know who fired the shot?

A. No, sir.

Q. Then what took place?

A. I went and got the M.O. and stood there until the officer came and checked all our kit-bags.

Q. Did you have any conversation with him?

A. No, sir.

Q. Have you had any conversation with your brother since that time?

A. No, sir. Except for everyday matters.

Q. Has he said nothing to you about this shooting occurrence?

A. Nothing whatsoever.

Q. Can you say that the rifle was held by your brother or by someone else when fired?

Q. Then what took place?

A. After that I heard a shot.

Q. What did you do then?

A. I just stayed in bed. All the other boys were around him.

Q. What took place?

A. The Medical Orderly came in and rendered first aid to Private Leach and took him away to hospital.

Q. Have you seen him since that afternoon and before this afternoon?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you had any conversation with him?

A. Yes, sir. Only about drill.

Q. Have you ever discussed the occurrence of February 29th with him?

A. No, sir.

Q. Have you received instruction as to the proper manner of cleaning a rifle?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Can you say that Private Leach has had instruction?

A. I could not say, sir.

Defence Counsel - No question.

10th Witness: B83868 Private T.R. Leach

Q. Do you know the accused, Leach?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you occupy the same hut with him?

A. I do.

Q. Did you see Leach on the evening of February 29th, 1940?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where?

A. Sitting on his bed.

Q. When?

A. Between 9.30 and 10 p.m.

Q. What was he doing at the time?

A. He was about to clean his rifle.

Q. What was he doing?

A. I was reading a paper and was not paying much attention at the time. Some of the boys were talking to him about cleaning his rifle.

Q. Who was talking to him?

A. About five or six of the boys in the hut.

Q. Was Leach talking to them?

A. I don't remember that very clearly, sir.

A. What do you remember about what he was talking?

A. Nothing, sir.

Q. Can you say that Leach had a rifle at the time? Did you see a rifle in his hand?

A. No, sir. I was lying in bed with my back to him.

Q. When you entered, did you see him?

A. No, sir. I was in bed before he entered.

25

Q. What is your unit?

A. R.C.A.S.C. att. No. 5 Fd. Amb. R.C.A.M.C.

Q. Do you know the Accused, Leach?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you see him on the evening of February 29th, 1940?

A. I saw him on the night of the accident.

Q. To what accident are you referring?

A. To the shooting accident, sir.

Q. When did you first see him on the night in question?

A. At about 9.30 p.m. when returning from the show.

Q. Was he in the room as you entered?

A. When I entered, he was sitting on the edge of his bed, with the rifle across his knees.

Q. Did you observe the rifle at the time?

A. I just got a glimpse of him.

Q. Was there a breech-cover on the rifle at the time?

A. I don't know, sir. We just entered the room and were talking about the show. I turned my back and then heard a shot.

Q. Then what happened?

A. We told a man to go for the Medical Officer.

Q. What was done then?

A. The man reported that he could not find him. I placed the man in charge of the room and went to the Officers' quarters.

Q. Did you hear Leach say anything?

A. He shouted something, of which I am not quite sure.

Q. Do you occupy the same room with Private Leach?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Can you say how a live round of ammunition would be in a gun?

A. No, sir.

Q. Since then have you had any conversation with him?

A. Only regarding his foot.

Q. What has he said?

A. Only that he can walk with it.

Q. Has he said anything about the accident?

A. The boys have kept away from that, sir.

Q. Do you know whether or not there was any inspection of rifles prior to the time of the accident?

A. About two or three days before there was an inspection.

A. B84354.

Q. With what unit are you serving?

A. R.C.A.S.C. att. No. 5 Fd. Amb. R.C.A.M.C.

Q. Do you know the Accused, Leach?

A. I do, sir.

Q. Did you see him on the evening of 29th February last?

A. Was that the evening of the accident, sir?

Yes.

A. Yes. I saw him then.

Q. Where was he when you first saw him that evening?

A. Lying on his bed.

Q. What was taking place at the time?

A. The Orderly was rendering first aid.

Q. Did you hear any conversation on that occasion?

A. No. I didn't, sir.

Q. Have you had any conversation with Private Leach since the accident?

A. None whatever, sir.

Q. Do you know when Private Leach was at the ranges to fire his rifle practice?

A. Yes, sir. On the previous Saturday. (February 24th, 1940.)

Q. What rifle did he use?

A. He used my rifle, sir.

Q. How did that happen?

A. He tooke mine on my suggestion, as it waw ready for firing and his was not cleaned.

Q. Was his rifle used between that time and the time of the accident?

A. No, sir.

Q. Do you occupy the same room with Private Leach?

A. No, sir.

Defence Counsel - No question.

8th Witness: B84240 L/Cpl. J.K. Gray,
R.C.A.S.C. att. No. 5 Fd. Amb. R.C.A.M.C.

Witness sworn.

Q. What is your full name?

A. James Knowles Gray.

Q. What is your Regimental number?

A. B84240.

Q. Where was he?

A. Beside his bed on the floor.

Q. What was hedoing?

A. He was more or less in agony, sir.

Q. Did he say anything?

A. Nothing that I could understand, sir.

Q. Where was the rifle?

A. It had fallen near him on the floor.

Q. I am producing to view a rifle (Exhibit 1). Can you identify that rifle, or have you ever seen it before?

A. Yes, sir. I identify it as Private Leach's rifle.

Q. How do you identify it?

A. By the colour, sir.

Q. What next took place after you found him on the floor?

A. We held him and waited for the arrival of Officers. After the Officers came we placed him on the bed and his wound was dressed.

Q. Do you know anything further about this occurrence?

A. No, sir. I do not.

Q. Can you say how the live round happened to be in his rifle?

A. No, sir.

Q. Did you hear any statement on the night in question?

A. No, sir. I did not arrive until late.

Q. Have you had any conversation with Private Leach since the occurrence?

A. No, sir.

Defence Counsel questioned the witness:

Q. Who checked the empty cartridge-case?

A. I don't know, sir.

Q. Did you see it on the floor?

A. No, sir. I didn't pay any attention to it. I don't know how it got out of the rifle.

7th Witness: B84354 L/Cpl. T. Templeton,
R.C.A.S.C. att. No. 5 Fd. Amb. R.C.A.M.C.

Witness sworn.

Q. What is your full name?

A. Thomas Templeton.

Q. What is your Regimental number.

22

Q. With what unit are you serving?

A. R.C.A.S.C. att. No. 5 Fd. Amb. R.C.A.M.C.

Q. Do you know the Accused, Leach?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you recall whether or not you saw him on the night of February 29th last?

A. Yes, sir. I did, sir.

Q. Where?

A. In his quarters, sir.

Q. Do you occupy the same hut as he?

A. I do, sir.

Q. About what time di you see him on that evening?

A. At about 9.30 p.m.

Q. What was he doing at that time?

A. He was cleaning his rifle.

Q. Where was he, sitting down or standing up?

A. Sitting down, sir.

Q. How was he holding his rifle?

A. I did not pay any attention to that, sir.

Q. Can yousay how the rifle was being held?

A. No, I cannot say, sir.

Q. How far away from you was he at the time.

A. Approximately three yards, sir.

Q. Were you facing him?

A. I was more or less to the side, sir.

Q. What were you doing at the time?

A. I was making my bed.

Q. Did you have any conversation with the Accused, or hear any conversation?

A. No, sir. Not as far as I know. I was not paying any attention, sir.

Q. Can you recall anything that was said in the hut immediately prior to the accident?

A. No, sir. It was noisy at the time.

Q. What was causing the noise?

A. They were all preparing for bed.

Q. What took place that you can recall-just what actually happened?

A. I heard a report. We ran over to the Accused, Leach?

Defence Counsel questioned the witness:

Q. Sergeant-Major. Did this man have a rifle in Canada?

A. I would not swear to that, sir. We were short of rifles then.

Q. Has he had any lessons?

A. Yes, sir. Two lessons by myself.

Q. When do you place the rifle on the toe?

A. The only time you put the rifle on the toe is when "resting on arms reversed" at funerals.

Q. How long have you known the Accused?

A. Since before the War, sir.

Q. What would you say regarding his general character?

A. He is one of the best men I have.

The Court questioned the witness:

Q. What day did you go to the ranges?

A. On February 17th, sir.

Q. Were you with the Accused on that day?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were adequate precautions taken that the men would not have ammunition at the conclusion of the course?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. At the conclusion of the course at the ranges, before you left, were all rifles inspected by the Inspecting Officer?

A. Yes, sir. They were inspected and proven empty before they stepped off the firing point.

Q. Do you know if a rifle inspection took place between the day at the ranges at the time of the accident?

A. Yes, sir. I supervised the inspection of rifles in the huts.

Q. In your opinion could this round not have been left in the rifle since the day at the ranges?

A. No sir.

6th Witness: B83958 Private G. McKenzie, R.C.A.S.C. att. No. 5 Fd. Amb. R.C.A.M.C.

from him on 29th February. They were just taking it off when I arrived.

Q. What took place when you arrived?

A. They took the shoe off and I called an ambulance to take him away.

Q. Did you hear or did you have any conversation with Leach at that time?

A. No, sir.

Q. From what you observed of his condition when you arrived, would you say he was conscious?

A. No, sir. I do not think he was in condition to understand.

Q. Did you see anything of a rifle at that time?

A. I did, sir.

I am producing to view a rifle (Exhibit 1)

Q. Can you identify that rifle?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. What rifle is it?

A. That is the rifle used on the night of the shooting. It was handed to me by one of the men.

Q. At that time did it have the breech-cover on it?

A. No, sir. The cover was off and the bolt was pulled back.

Q. Was the sling on the rifle at the time in question?

A. Yes, sir.

I am producing to view an expended cartridge (Exhibit 3)

Q. Can you identify this cartridge-case?

A. Yes, sir. That is the cartridge-case found on the night in question.

Q. Did you see it then?

A. Yes, sir. It was handed over to Lieut. Purcell by one of the men.

Q. Have you had any conversation with the Accused since the night in question?

A. Yes, sir. But nothing with regard to this case.

Q. Can you say as to whether or not Private Leach has had instruction in the manner of cleaning a rifle?

A. Yes, sir. He has.

Q. What is the correct procedure and in what position is the rifle held?

A. With the muzzle up or down.

Q. Which is correct?

A. With the muzzle up is the proper position.

Q. If it is held with the muzzle down, where would the muzzle be placed?

A. Pointing down at a point ahead of the person holding the rifle.

Q. Do you know if the accused has had any previous training in the care of arms?

A. He has had some, but not as much as I had, which was not very much.

Q. How are you taught to clean a rifle?

A. Remove magazine and pull it through with an oiled cloth.

Q. Do you think that the Accused had cleaned his rifle several times before?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you know how to put a piece of two-by-four on your pull-through?

A. Yes, sir.

5th Witness: B83962 C.S.M. E.C.G. Robertson
R.C.A.S.C. att. No. 5 Fd. Amb. R.C.A.M.C.

Witness sworn.

Q. What is your full name?

A. Eric Charles Gordon Robertson.

Q. What is your Regimental number?

A. B83962.

Q. With what unit are you serving?

A. R.C.A.S.C. att. No. 5 Fd. Amb. R.C.A.M.C.

Q. Do you know the Accused, Leach?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you see him on the evening of February 29th last?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. When?

A. At approximately 9.30 p.m.

Q. Where?

A. Lying on his bed in his quarters.

Q. What did you observe as to his condition?

A. He appeared to be suffering from some injury. Two men were sitting beside him on his bed and he was groaning.

Q. Who were the two men?

A. I took no notice, sir.

Q. Did you make any examination?

A. Yes, they were just taking off his shoe and sock when I was there.

I am producing to view a running-shoe (Exhibit 2)

Q. Can you identify that shoe?

A. Yes, sir. It is the right shoe of Private Leach which was removed

Q. Where was the hole?

A. It was about three feet from the edge of Leach's bed.

Q. Since then, have you had any conversation with Private Leach?

A. Yes, sir.

The Court stated: "I do not think that is relevant".

Prosecution: "There might have been a confession".

Question allowed.

Q. Have you had any conversation with the accused since the accident?

A. Yes, sir. He wants to find out the one who put the sehll in his rifle. That is all that I can recall at the moment, sir.

Q. I notice that on this shoe (Exhibit 2) the top of the shoe seems to be considerably damaged but there is no damage to the bottom of the shoe. What part of the Accused's foot was injured?

A. It went through his great right toe. There is a hole in the bottom of the shoe, where the bullet penetrated.

Q. Was there any clowning or horse-play going on at the time the accident occurred?

A. None at all sir.

Defence - No question.

The Court questioned the witness:

Q. Was there anyone else in the room at the time of the accident?

A. It was fairly well filled.

Q. How far away from the adcused was your bed?

A. About two or three beds away.

Q. You say that the breech-cover was over the sling of the rifle. Did you actually see the breech-cover over the sling?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Between that time and the time of the report did you see the breech of the rifle?

A. Yes, sir. The breech of the rifle was closed all the time I saw it. The rifle was between his knees, with the butt on the floor. I don't know whether or not the breech was closed.

Q. How long have you been in the Army?

A. I joined about two days after the accused.

Q. When were rifles issued to you?

A. In the middle of January last.

Q. Have you had any training in the care of arms?

A. Just elementary training, sir.

17

Q. How was it on wrong?

A. It was wrapped around the sling.

Q. What next took place?

A. I was making up my bed.

Q. Was the accused in your range of vision?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were there others in the room?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. What next took place?

A. He had his pull-through in the rifle and was sitting on the bed with the rifle on his knees and butt on the floor. He asked me if the two-by-four was on the pull-through correctly, and I told him it was. About two or three minutes later I heard the report. I was not paying any attention to him in the meantime.

Q. Did you hear anything further stated?

A. No, sir, I was not paying any attention.

Q. When you heard the report, what did you do?

A. I ran over to his bed and took off his right shoe and sock.

Q. What did you observe?

A. He asked what hit him. When we rolled him over, we saw that his foot was injured. We saw the rifle lying on the floor.

I am producing to view a rifle (Exhibit 1)

Q. Can you identify that rifle?

A. No, sir.

I am producing to view a shoe (Exhibit 2)

Q. Can you identify that shoe?

A. It is the shoe which I took off Private Leach's foot.

Q. What next took place?

A. I picked up the rifle and by that time Staff-Sergeant Duncan and C.S.M. Robertson were there looking after Leach.

Q. Did you have any further conversation with the Accused?

A. No, sir.

Q. Did you hear anything further stated by him?

A. No, sir.

Q. Did you make any examination of the part of the room in which he was sitting, to ascertain where the bullet had travlled?

A. Yes, sir. We saw a hole in the floor.

The Prosecution maintained that it was sought to bring out the mental condition of the Accused prior to the accident.

Defence maintained that evidence being adduced to show "intent", and that it had no connection with the evidence being presently offered.

Court cleared at 1430 hrs.

Court resumed at 1450 hrs.

President ordered that foregoing be stricken from records as inadmissible.

The questioning of Captain Gibson was resumed:

Q. Have you had any conversation with the Accused, Private Leach, since the time of the accident?

A. No, I have not, sir.

Defence - No question.

4th Witness: B84207 Pte. A.R. Vickers
R.C.A.S.C. att. No. 5 Fd. Amb. R.C.A.M.C.

Witness sworn.

Q. With what unit are you serving?

A. R.C.A.S.C. att. No. 5 Fd. Amb. R.C.A.M.C.

Q. Do you know the Accused, Private F.W. Leach?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where did you see him?

A. In our room.

Q. Did you occupy the same room at that time?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. At what time did you first see him on that evening?

A. At about 9.15 p.m.

Q. What was he doing at that time?

A. He had just come in.

Q. What took place?

A. He stated that somebody had been tampering with his rifle.

Q. Did you hear any further conversation between Leach and anyone else?

A. No, sir. But he repeated that statement. He stated that somebody had taken the breech-cover off his rifle. His cover was on wrong.

Counsel for the Defence:

Q. Where did you find this cartridge-case, was it in the rifle?

A. No, it was on the floor.

Q. Do you know who fired the actual shot?

A. No, sir.

Q. How long have you known the Accused, Private Leach?

A. Since mobilization.

Q. What sort of a chap is he?

A. I have no complaints with regard to his conduct as a soldier.

3rd Witness: Capt. T.C. Gibson, No. 5 Fd. Amb., R.C.A.M.C.

Witness sworn.

Q. What is your full name?

A. Thomas Carlyle Gibson.

Q. Do you know the Accused, Private Leach?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you had conversation with him previous to this occasion?

A. Yes, sir. I have.

Q. Where?

A. I have seen him in his hut and in the Medical Inspection Room five times.

Q. Has he ever appeared on Sick Parade?

A. Yes. He has complained on five occasions of suffering with a severe pain in his chest.

The following questions were found inadmissible as evidence by the Court but are given hereunder as a matter of record:

Q. What were your observations?

A. My observations were that he seemed anxious or depressed.

Q. Did you examine him?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. What did you find?

At this juncture Defence Counsel raised the objection that the questions were irrelevant.

Q. Did you see him on February 29th, 1940?

A. Yes, sir. In the barrack room in which he was quartered in Crookham Camp.

Q. In what condition was he found?

A. In the presence of Private Leach I was told that he had shot himself.

Q. Who made that statement?

A. I do not know, sir.

Q. Did he make any statement on that occasion to you?

A. No, sir.

Q. As a result of what you found, what was done?

A. I confiscated the expended cartridge, the rifle and the shoe.

I am producing to view a rifle, with a sling and breech-cover attached (Exhibit 1)

Q. Can you identify this rifle?

A. That is the rifle from which the shot was fired.

Q.
I am producing to view a canvas and rubber shoe. (Exhibit 2)

Q. Can you identify that shoe?

A. That is the shoe which Private Leach was wearing on the night in question.

Q. Where did you first see that shoe?

A. On the floor near Private Leach's bed.

Q.
I am producing a brass cartridge-case (Exhibit 3).

Q. Can you identify that cartridge-case?

A. Yes, sir. That is the cartridge-case which I found when I attended the scene where Private Leach was shot.

Q. Where was Leach at the time?

A. He was lying on the end of his bed, with his right shoe off.

Q. Was he partially undressed?

A. He was fully dressed, except for his tunic.

Q. How many other persons were attending at the time you arrived?

A. The Medical Officer and a number of others.

Q. You state that you carried out a kit inspection. What did you find with regard to live ammunition?

A. Nothing.

Q. Have you any knowledge as to where this live round of ammunition came from?

A. No, sir.

C33102 Tpr Lazarus, A — Summary of Evidence (Cont'd)

SIXTH WITNESS

Lieut E Dubac, 3rd Cdn Armd Recce Regt (GGHG) having been duly sworn, states:-

"I, Lieut E Dubac, 3rd Cdn Armd Recce Regt (GGHG) was on 5 Dec 44, and still am, 5 Tp Leader of "A" Sqn. At approximately 0400 hrs, 5 Dec 44, I was at "A" Sqn Headquarters for an orders group when I was informed some of my men had returned from the river where they were to have awaited my return. They were not authorized to do so. I went to see them and I explained it was necessary to effect a third crossing of the river. I ordered them to return to the river bank. The three accused refused to participate any further in the action. I returned to Sqn Headquarters and Major Hugman ordered the men paraded before him. This was done and each in turn was asked directly by Major Hugman whether they would go back and carry out the orders. Each in turn refused and they were placed under open arrest."

The accused declined to cross-examine the Sixth Witness.

Lieut E Dubac

SEVENTH WITNESS

Lieut R W Murray, 3rd Cdn Armd Recce Regt (GGHG) having been duly sworn, states:-

"I, Lieut R W Murray, 3rd Cdn Armd Recce Regt (GGHG) was on 5 Dec 44 and still am 2 Tp Leader, "A" Sqn. At approximately 0400 hrs, 5 Dec 44, Mr Dubac came into the room where Major Hugman and I were sitting. ~~He said some of his men refused to go on patrol.~~ Major Hugman asked for these men to be brought in to him. The three accused were brought in. Major Hugman asked each man in turn his name and asked him if he refused to go on patrol. Each man told him he flatly refused. The men were then told they were under open arrest and to go outside. Because of their failure to go on patrol, one of my sections had to be attached to 5 Tp to bring up their strength. My troop, which was acting as covering party, was depleted that much, making the operation in hand not as strong as it could be."

The accused declined to cross-examine the Seventh Witness.

Lieut R W Murray

At this time, the accused was asked, "Do you wish to make any statement, or give any evidence under oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give, will be taken down in writing, and may be given in evidence."

The accused declined to make a statement.

Major A A Hugman, 3rd Cdn Armd Recce Regt (GGHG) having been duly sworn, states:-

"I, Major A A Hugman, 3rd Cdn Armd Recce Regt (GGHG) was on 5 Dec 44 and still am Sqn Commander of "A" Sqn. At approximately 0400 hrs, 5 Dec 44, Mr Dubac came to me ~~and said he was having trouble with his troop in that certain personnel were refusing to take part in the operation at hand~~. I ordered Mr Dubac to have the men brought before me immediately. This was done and I personally asked them, each in turn and by name, did they refuse to obey a direct order. In the presence of Mr Dubac, Sgt Gilson and several others, their answer was yes. I then ordered the accused to be placed under open arrest and ordered a section from Mr Murray's troop to go in their stead."

C33102 Tpr Lazarus, A. makes statement on Oath in answer to Question E-3

"When we had come back from the river bank I was wet and cold and my right foot was bothering me. When I was brought before Major Hugman, and was asked if I would participate in this action, I said "No" and was trying to explain why, but I guess he was too busy and could not listen to me, and he ordered me out of his office. I went into another part of the bldg and when I had rested up, I realized my mistake, and what I had done, and I left that area to go to my troop, because there was talk of an attack, but we returned that night. After the boys were going in again I asked Mr Dubac although I was under open arrest, if I could go in with the boys, and he said he would see what could be done.

On 9 Dec 44 my right foot was very sore and my ankle was swollen. I tried to explain this to Major Hugman but did not get an opportunity. Later about 10 Dec 44 when we were out of the line I reported to the M.O. who taped up my foot and who told me to leave it taped for 4 or 5 days.

When my troop did cross the river there were no enemy, there - fore

INSTRUCTIONS ON PROCEDURE AFTER ARRAIGNMENT.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offences. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated:

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p ■ 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See MML p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C); powers and duties of JA see RP 103; duty of Prosecutor see RP 60(A) (B); duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 85-85; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court etc see RP 75-79, 86, 116; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6; and responsibility of JA or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

"A.M.M."

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans No (5)

(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) changes(s) his (their) plea(s) to charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

"A.M.M."

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)

(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex B, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)

(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charge(s) on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)

(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)

(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

"A.M.M."

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? Ans (1)

(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement of evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)

(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)

(1. RP 39(C). KR Can 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the charge(s), and allowed on the charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)

(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 para 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)

NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither? Ans Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf? Ans Are they witnesses as to character only? Ans

(1. RP 155. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)

(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order, CF A95. Evidence of accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 86(C). Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 47, 103(e).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.

(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

Or, The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.(1)

(1. AA 54(3) (6), RP 45, 120(3). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

"A.M.M."

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character?(1)

Ans No

(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), and certified true copy (copies) of Conduct Sheet(s)(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(1) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex C and Ex D respectively.(3)

(1. MFB 255 or AFB 296. 2. MFM 6. 3. RP 46, KR Can 558. If above documents not produced, see RP 46 fn 1 para 1.)

E3. President to accused: Do you wish to address the Court on the Statement(s) and Conduct Sheet(s), and in mitigation of punishment?(1) Ans Yes (2)

(1. RP 37(C), 46(D). 2. Address, if any, recorded per Notes. Court should permit accused or his witnesses to prove on oath anything here or previously stated which would affect the amount of punishment. RP 37(F) fn 7.)

E4. The President states that the Court is closed to consider the sentence, and that the sentence to be awarded by the Court, being subject to confirmation, will not be announced, but will be promulgated later, and the proceedings in open court are accordingly terminated.(1)

(1. AA 54(6), RP 120(A).)

E5. The Court considers the sentence.(1) The President records the sentence in Part I of the Schedule, which is dated and signed by him and the JA, if any.(2)

(1. When several accused tried separately see RP 7(D). One sentence only, comprised of the punishment or punishments laid down in AA 41, 44 and its proviso, is to be awarded to cover all charges in all charge sheets on which accused found guilty. RP 48. As to sentences see AA 44, 138, 182, RP 46-50, 99, 118, 119(A), KR Can 308, 330, 563-566, Overseas RO 309, 2323, MML p 60, 757-759. As to sentences assigned for civil offences by the law of England see AA 41(5), MML p 130. When accused already under sentence of imprisonment or detention see AA 44(18), 98(1), KR Can 564. 2. RP 50. As to release from arrest by Confirming Offr see KR Can 567. As to assembly and disposal of record after trial see Instrs on back of Convening Order.)

FIFTH WITNESS

K-37003 Sgt. Labere, J.M., Support Coy., The Westminster Regiment (Motor) sworn states:-

I am K-37003 Sgt. Labere, J.M., stationed in Haulerwyk, Friesland, on the afternoon of Saturday 30 June 45, at about 1445 hours., while I was acting in the capacity of C.S.M. a soldier Pte. Dreger, F.G. reported to me, that there was a disturbance in a civilian home. I went to investigate and found the family at house No. 448 in Haulerwyk crying. I then sent for the interpreter and through him I found that they claimed a soldier K51339 Pte. Lazaruk, W. who was billeted in their house, had assualted a minor refugee girl living in their house. I then reported the incident to my company commander, then placed K51339 Pte. Lazaruk, W. under close arrest.

Q. Did you see Annie de Vogel, when you arrived at the house?

A. Yes

THIRD WITNESS

Tjurd Van Der Laan, No 448 Hualerwjk, Friesland, sworn thru the interpreter states:-

I am Tjurd Van Der Laan, at approximately half past two Saturday, 30 June 45. I was down stairs in my home, my little boy told me that the youngster of my home was wanted upstairs, by a soldier, I forbid it , thinking that they would ask for chocolate. After repeated requistes by the soldier for then to go upstairs, I said "allright". Annie DeVogel and some other youngster, went upstairs. After about ten minutes Annie came downstairs crying, complaining she had been hurt, on her sexual organ, by the soldier upstairs. I then asked another soldier, who is billeted in my house, what to do about this matter, and he went up to the Coy Orderly Room for me. Very soon a sergeant and an Officer came down to the house.

Q. How many soldiers were upstairs when the children went up?
A. Just one soldier.
Q. Doyou recognize the soldier?
A. Yes there(Pointing to the accused)
Q. Why was he in your house at this time?
A. He was billeted here.
Q. Who is Annie DeVogel ?
A. She is not my daughter, she is an evacuee from Schiedam, living in my house.
Q. Who was upstairs when Annie DeVogel went upstairs?
A. This soldier (pointing to the accused) my little boy, and my wife who was sleeping.
Q. Were there any marks on Annie DeVogels body or face, when she came downstairs.
A. Her nose was very red, at night when she had her bath, there was a red scar on her back.
Q. Was there any sign of discharge on Annie's hands or clothes?
A. No, I did not see anything.

The accused declinesto cross-examine the witness.

Summary of Evidence in the case of No. K-51339 Pte. LAZARUK, W., The Westminster Regiment (Motor), C.A.O., charged with committing a civil offence, that is to say, indecent assault , contrary to Sec 52 of the Offences against the Person Act, 1861

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS.

Annie DeVogel, No 448 Haulerwyk, Friesland, sworn thru the interpreter states:-

I am Annie DeVogel, on Saturday I was outside my house when a young boy called me and said I was to go inside to see a man. I went inside but stayed inside for awhile. I went upstairs nothing happened for a moment, then he bites my nose, then he puts his hand under my dress, then in my pair of pants, and then he made me take hold of his sexual organ. He pushed very hard, then he stopped with his dealings, he made open his pants, I had to put my hand in, I did so and he pulled out his sexual organ. I must stand quite near to him. I had to take his sexual organ in my hand. I did so for some time, then I run away fast.

Q. When you went upstairs who was there?
A. When I went upstairs, only one boy was there, his name was Sieger.
Q. Do you recognize the person who assualted you.
A. Yes, I can.
Q. Where is he now?
A. There. (Pointing to the accused).
Q. Was the accused upstairs, when you went up?
A. Yes.
Q. When you were assualted, who else was present?
A. Aled and Seiger, two dutch children.
Q. Did he hurt you at any time you were upstairs.
A. Yes.
Q. Where?
A. On my sexual organ.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Signed ..Annie DeVogel..

A. Because he was billeted in my house since Fridsy.
Q. Where did he live in your house?
A. Upstairs in a room.

SUMMING UP BY JA

1 Duty of JA to sum up and advise the Court on the law. Court should accept advice of JA on the law.

2 Court is the sole judge of the facts.

3 Credibility of the witnesses is for the Court. May believe whole of a witness' evidence or disbelieve it entirely, or may believe parts and disbelieve other parts, or may believe one witness' evidence as against another.

4 Accused is presumed to be innocent until he is proved guilty.

5 Burden of proof is on the Prosecution.

6 Accused is entitled to the benefit of any reasonable doubt in the minds of the members of the Court.

7 Reasonable doubt defined.

8 Refers to AA Sec 41 and to Sec 52 of Offences against the Person Act, 1861. (Archbold p 1032).

9 Refers to Criminal law amendment Act 1922, Sec 1. (Archbold p 1032).

10 Refers to Archbold p 927 on assaults generally, and MML page 113, para 54.

11 Refers to Archbold p 1034 on corroboration.

12 Corroboration must be as to the fact of the offence having been committed and the implication of the accused in it.

13 Evidence of a complaint, though admissible to show consistency in prosecutrix story, is not corroboration of the facts.

14 Signs of a struggle may, if believed, amount to corroboration of an assault. Refers to MML p 81 para 42 on circumstantial evidence. Accused may supply corroboration but in this case denies acts of indecency. He admits he was present.

15 It is not safe to convict on the uncorroborated testimony of the prosecutrix. The Court may, however, if satisfied of the truth of her evidence, after considering the warning, decide to disregard it and convict.

Prosecutor's Closing address :-

1. Denial of accused as against statement of girl.
2. Her story is consistent. Complaint is an immediate one.

Defending Offr's Closing address.

1. Have been pamphlets circulated about Condoms and it would give rise to imaginary things about the soldier
2. Child could have cried because of not getting candy
3. Biting of the nose is unlikely
4. No corroboration of the assault or two and then I knew I didn't have much time left so went on polishing my boots. I didn't pay attention to what she was crying about. I grabbed my rifle, bedroll and pack and went downstairs and to the truck. Then I found I was off guard and placed under close arrest. At no time had I intentions of harming this child and if I did so I am very sorry. When I left the house I was short of time. I walked fast but did not run. I can't say if I harmed her. I didn't use force on her. I did not try to keep her upstairs.

Cross Examination :-

In the room there was annie de Vogt, two other children and myself - no one else. I don't know if the woman was in her bedroom, or not. What the girl said is not true.

No Re-Examination

Questioned by Court :-

I fondled her, but I did not put my hand inside her dress.

Questioned by JA :-

I had one hand underneath her stomach

First Witness Defence

The accused, having been duly sworn, is examined by the Defending offr.

On 30 June 45 at about 1400 hrs I was detailed by S.M. to go on guard for Town Piquet in Groningen. I went to my billet to the room where I stayed and told two chums of mine that I was going on guard. I walked out of the room and took a wash and shave. Noticing a small boy standing at the top of the stairs, I asked if he knew the time. He went and asked his mother who was in her room. She went downstairs and told me it was 1430 hrs. Then I started packing and changing my clothes for guard duty. I told the little boy to get the kiddies up and I would give them candy. When they came up I found I had only two left and these I gave to two younger kiddies. I saw bigger girl was not happy about not getting candy. I picked her up swung her in the air a few times and let her down again. I fondled with her for a minute for an interpreter and found out what happened. I reported to Coy Comd and placed accused, Pte Fagerah, under close arrest, as a result of what I was told.

Cross Examination :-

accused was on a parade when I arrested him. That was at 1500 hrs. I only noticed the girl was crying. The accused was sober when arrested.

No Re-Examination :

No questions by Court :-

The little girl who was here today is the same girl I saw on 30 June 45.

(RP 83(B) complied with)

Fifth Witness for Prosecution — Cornelius Wilhelmus Beeman 436 Hauterwyk, Friesland, having been duly sworn is examined by the Defending Offr, the Prosecutor having declined to examine the witness

Cross Examination

I examined annie de Vogel and found nothing. I found no evidence of assault. I saw no marks on her nose. I am a qualified physician. The examination was on 30 June 45 at the home where annie de Vogel stays.

(RP 83(B) complied with)

I was upstairs. I did not think anything was wrong then. My room is about 10 yards from the top of the stairs.

No Re-Examination

Questioned by Court :-

My bedroom door was closed when I was upstairs. I could hear the children's voices. They came from the landing. I heard no voices from Togawa's room.

Questioned by JA :-

I recognize accused as Togawa. I did not know Togawa was home when I heard the children. I did not ask annie about the red mark on her neck. I don't know how it got there.

I am married to Sjurd Van der Laan.

(RP 83(B) complied with)

Fourth Witness for Prosecution — K 37003 Sgt Labine J.M., Western Regt (M), having been duly sworn is examined by the Prosecutor.

On 30 June 45 I was acting CSM of Support Coy. At about 1430 hrs or 1445 hrs one of men of the Coy came to me and as a result of what he said I went to a civilian home. I found a small child and a woman crying. I sent Third Witness Prosecution — Jenkje Elizabeth Mulder, having been duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor through the Interpreter.

I live at Haulerwijk 248. About 1430 hrs 30 June 45 I was upstairs on my bed. A little boy called me and I went downstairs. Alberts, a Canadian soldier billeted with us was pressing clothes downstairs. He was alone. I looked at the time and went back to my bed but did not sleep. Perhaps 20 minutes later I was called by my little boy and went downstairs. My husband, Annie de Vogel, my little daughter and my little boy were there. Annie was crying. She immediately told me that Lazaruk had hurt her sexual organ. She appeared a little nervous. I could not see anything about her pass that was unusual. I saw a small red line on her back later.

Cross Examination:-

I could hear the children talking when and was crying. She told me this immediately she came down. I noticed annie's nose was red, but was not cut. I can't say I noticed anything else peculiar. I have seen no other marks on her. Lazaruk came downstairs with all his baggage and he ran away fast. This was about one minute after annie came down.

Cross Examination :-

My wifes room is 5-6 metres from railing at top of the stairs. Lazaruk left some things behind.

No Re-Examination

Questioned by Court :-

I don't know if her nose could have been red from crying. I did not speak to Lazaruk. He returned later in the presence of an officer.

Questioned by TA :-

I saw Lazaruk run and I got the impression he was in flight. There were three soldiers living in the house in the same room upstairs. One was pressing his clothes. The other one arrived after annie came downstairs and I sent him for help from the orderly room.

the kitchen and saw Van der Laan. I told Van der Laan that the man did such queer things.

(RP 83(B) complied with)

Second Witness Prosecution — I jurd Van der Laan, having been duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor through the Interpreter

I live at Hoeberwijk 448, Friesland. I know annie de Vogel. She is an evacuee living with me. I had Cdn soldiers billeted in my home. I recognize accused as one of them. About 1430 hrs 30 June 45 I was downstairs in kitchen. My wife was in bed. Lazarus was upstairs with a little boy. Then my little boy came down and spoke to me. Then Annie de Vogel went upstairs. At this time Lazarus was upstairs and also the little boy. My wife also was upstairs. About 10 minutes later annie came down stairs crying and I asked what is the matter. She said "I'll never go upstairs again. That nasty fellow". She said he had hurt her at her sexual organ and had bitten her nose. She was nervous

I was crying. He rather hurt my nose. There was no other part of my body hurt.

The Court adjourns at 1210 hrs until 1330 hrs.
The Court re-assembles at 1330 hrs.

First Witness Prosecution } continued

Cross Examination :-

No force was used on me. My dress was not torn. He did not try to stop me when I went downstairs.

No Re-Examination :-

Questioned by Court :-

When Lazarus did these things, Alice and Sieger were present.

Questioned by JA :-

Alice is seven years old. Sieger is five years old. The master of house is Djurd Van der Loon. I am there as an Evacuee. Lazarus was behind me when he put his hand down my neck. He was stooped and I could see his face. He was standing close to me but not against me. Lazarus seized my hand and I had to put it in the hole in his pants. When I went downstairs I came into the workshop and then went upstairs and my friend also came behind me. Seiger called us. He was the son of the owner of the house. I saw the Canadian and Seiger upstairs. The Canadian was Lazarus. (indicates accused) The wife of the master of the house was upstairs too. No one else was upstairs. The wife of the master was in her room next to where there was another Canadian living. I was told the wife was upstairs. I did not see her upstairs. There were three Canadians lived upstairs. The other two were not upstairs when I was there, only Lazarus. I went upstairs and stood at the railing of the staircase. Then Lazarus bit my nose. Then he went on with preparing something. Then he put his hand down the neck of my undershirt at the front. Then his hand went further down. Then he hurt my sexual organ. He pressed with his hand very hard on it. Then he stopped and he opened his pants and I had to put my hand in the hole in his pants. Then his sexual organ came out. Then I ran away very fast. I ran downstairs because I was afraid.

Now just before the Gothic line someone wrote and told my wife little things that caused trouble and she stopped writing for a while.

I went and saw Mr. Eaton our Padre and he was going to help me, but he lost his life at the Gothic line, and everything at that time seemed to go wrong.

I am trying hard to have my wife sent to Canada but have noone one there I know, whom would give her a start or find her a place to stay. I haven't a bad record and I still have my family to fight for, so I am asking you now to take all this into consideration and beg of you to give me a chance, to regain the name which I have lost through this trouble.

Your Faithful Servant

5. Plea of mitigation for accused

March 28:th: 1945:

I am H.16450 Pte Lazaruk J.P. of the P.P.C.L.I. I enlisted with the Regt. on Nov. 17th. 1939. proceeding overseas the same year. I remained with them and laned on D Day at Sicily, and also D Day at Italy.

I was employed as a sniper, and I know that I have always held up my end of the job. I being in such battles as the Ortona Hitler, and Gothic lines.

Leading up to my going A.W.L. I beg of you to take into consideration the circumstances as they were. I know that I have done wrong but I must plead, that I was very upset at the time. and I am very sorry for doing what I have done.

While we were advancing, after the Gothic line was overrun. I went up with my section of the S.&.S. Plt. and we stopped at a house near the River Ronco, were it was dicided upon to advance futher.

I asked my Sgt. If I could go to an old latrine behind the house, I was given permission, and told to catch up as soon as I could. After I had finished I made my way to the river. There I meet an Italian Partisian, I asked him if he had seen my section, he replied that he had'nt. He also told me that he had seen some Jerrys across the river in a dugout. So I went with him across the river, which was only kneedeep that morning, and tossed in my two hand grenades. But it was empty. I went in to investigate for any imformatoin which I might run across, but found nothing. I did find some bottles of liquor and took them back with me. I went back across the river to our C. Coy outpost. There I meet C.S.M. Castles who gave me some breakfast. I gave C.S.M. Castles one of the bottles and I also gave one to Maj. Potts.

After breakfast I met Sgt. Andrees and Pte Scarlette and we again went out, I took up a position overlooking the river in a house. It was'nt very long before I was very lucky and scored for one Jerry. I then had a few drinks and then went back to rejoin my platoon at B.H.Q.

There I met Lt. Sherkie and was told we would be moving back down the line that afternoon. So I had a couple of hours sl sleep and moved with my platoon to a rear area.

We arrived at the area alotted us and I fell to drinking again, as I still had a couple of bottles of liquer.

Now with the liquor and my own troubles I guess I lost track of everything.

I haven't heard from my mom or dad for the last four years. Now I was brought up in a childrens home and since leaving the home I havent any friends. So the only mail I have received over here is from my wife, who is living in England. I being a married man since 1940 and am the father of Two children.

Address By the Defense Counsel In the Case of H16450 Pte. Lazaruk J.P.

Sir :-

I would respectfully draw the attention of the members of this court to two phrases in the charge as laid against H16450 Pte. Lazaruk J.P.

The first phrase is "when serving with his platoon in a forward area": At the time that the accused absented himself from his regiment, we had been relieved from our forward positions against the River Ronca, and for four days were resting in billets five miles from the F.D.L.'s. Our advance party had already departed for billets in Riccione, and it was common information that we were moving on the following day, the 1st. Nov. 1944, to a training area in Riccione. It is my contention that this place, five miles from the front line, can not reasonably be termed a "forward area": I personally can not give you a definition of a "forward area"; and I would say that a private soldier would definitely not consider such a place a "forward area," where he had been for four days - having been told that they were then relieved, and were moving back to a training area on the following day.

The second phrase is "with intent to avoid such service": In the mind of a private soldier, all he was avoiding was "some more monotonous training"; by absenting himself at such a time. I think it far more reasonable to suggest that he went A.W.O.L., due to some domestic problem; or possibly due to the inevitable celebrations which take place after having been relieved from the front line; rather these reasons, than that he deliberately had intent to avoid serving any longer in action!

Pte. Lazaruk has told me how surprised he was when he was informed that he was being charged with desertion, rather than as an ordinary absentee. Desertion is a very serious charge; and I would respectfully submit, that if there is any reasonable doubt in the minds of the court, regarding the place & circumstances under which this private soldier absents himself, that the benefit of the doubt be extended to the accused. I would also like to point out that the accused has already been in military custody for almost four months, waiting for his charge to be disposed of. He was apprehended twenty-nine days after he went absent - actually we were in a training area for the whole of that time - and yet four months later he is now facing a charge of desertion, for the twenty-nine days of absence.

Aj Robinson CAPT. P.P.C.L.I.

(3) :. closing address for Prosecution
In the case of Pte Lazaruk J.P.

I submit to the court that the evidence produced by the prosecution establishes the fact that Pte Lazaruk J.P. did desert from his platoon on the 31 oct 1944.

The evidence of L/Cpl Meagher definitely proves that Pte Lazaruk J.P. was in a forward area when he went absent and that he did go absent on the 31 oct 1944.

The extracts from PT II orders ~~No 23~~ No 23 d/24 Nov. 1945 also collaborate the evidence of L/Cpl Meagher B.D. as to his time of going absent and the extract from PT. II orders. No 25 d/28 Feb 1945 show the time of his apprehension.

I therefore submit to the Court that Pte Lazaruk J.P. is guilty as charged and that he be given whatever punishment the court sees fit to award. J.K. Lawson Capt.

(6) Character witness for accused

I am A85313 S/Sgt Green E. Scout and Sniper platoon
PPCLI

I have known the accused one a period of five months, four months of which I was his section leader, at which time I transfered to the tank busters who were also attached to the Scouts. During this period we were nearly always in or near the front

I found the accused Pte Lazaruk to always be cheerful and efficient in the performance of his duties He was thought highly of by the platoon commander and the entire platoon as he was exceptionally alert and resourceful on patrol

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans.....(5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 3 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on.....charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on.....charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.
(1. Court may be cleared to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused : Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? Ans. No.....(1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (no) opening address.(1)
(1. RP 29(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 92(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)
(1. RP 29(C), 114, KR Can 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 29(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the.....charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the.....charge(s), and allowed on the.....charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)
(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)
NB : If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither ? Ans. No neither. Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf ? Ans. Yes (one). Are they witnesses as to character only ? Ans. Yes.
(1. RP 115. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 8.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)
(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order. CF 495. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 80(C). Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 103(e).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.
(1. RP 42, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(B).)

D8. The President [illegible] states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the.....charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1)
Or, The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.(2)
(1. AA 54(3) (a), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(7), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character ?(1)
Ans. Character. Witness only.

Summary of Evidence in the case of D 76091 Pte. Layden R. The Royal Montreal Regiment (MG).

By direction of the Commanding Officer the summary of evidence is taken on oath.

1st. Witness for the Prosecution: D 76349, Pte. Smith A.S.J., R.M.R. (MG) having been duly sworn, states:--

" On the morning of 5 Oct 41 at about 1100 hrs I went to get my camera from the cookhouse where I had left it during exercise HUNTER, and which was locked, and I found that it was missing. This I immediately reported to Sgt. Holden, who was orderly Sergeant on that day. I went down with Sgt. Holden at about 1530 hrs that day to Montreal House and identified the camera which was in the possession of Pte. Scott then, as being mine."

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

" On the 27 Sep 41 at about 1100 hrs Pte. Layden R. came to me at Montreal House with a Kodak camera. He asked me if I would buy a Kodak. I got a pound from Supervisor Mundy and paid Layden 10s. for the camera in the presence of L/Cpl. Durham. On Sun 5 Oct 41 at about 1300 hrs Sgt. Holden and Pte. Smith came to see me and asked me if I had bounht a Kodak. I showed them the camera which I had purchased from Pte. Layden, and Pte. Smith identified it as the one he had lost."

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

John S. Scott
.....
D 76235 Pte. Scott J.S.

Defending Officer:

I would like to point to the Court that this camera was not taken away from Bn lines to be sold, as it might well have been, and also the fact that the accused went to reclaim the camera before he was accused of the theft of it. This, I think, substantiates the claim that he just wished to use the camera as collateral for a loan of ten shillings.

Prosecuting Officer:

I would like to point out to the Court that the accused took the camera, which was not his own, out of the locked cupboard in the cookhouse, and not only this, but represented to Pte. Scott that this camera was his own possession when he sold it to Pte. Scott. Regardless of the reason why he took the camera, his actions constitute an offense of theft under Sec. 18 of the Army Act.

The accused called no witnesses as to character.

The Prosecuting Officer, having been duly sworn, presented certified copies of M.F.M. 6 and particulars of service and character of the accused, which he stated had been prepared by himself and were true extracts from the Regimental records of the accused.

The court closed to consider sentence.

E.H. Beattie Major

President: Do you object to being tried by me as President or by any of the officers whose names you have heard read over?

Accused: No,sir.

The President, members, and officers under instruction are duly sworn.

The charge sheet is marked by the President, signed, and attached to the proceedings.

The accused is arreigned upon the charge mentioned in the charge sheet, and pleaded guilty.
R.P. 35 B complied with.

The Court accept the plea of guilty.

The summary of evidence is read by the President, marked signed by the President and attached to the proceedings.

The accused, having been duly sworn, makes the following plea in mitigation of sentence:-

I met a young lady over here whom I like very much. Things had not been going very well at home, and I grew fonder of the girl here in England, but I got her into trouble and I needed some money in a hurry. I was going to ask Lieut. MacLean for a loan, but I found out someone else had already approached him and Lieut. MacLean had told him he had no money.

I did not know what to do, as, you see, I am already married and my wife is in Canada.

I took the camera and told Pte. Scott it was mine and sold it to him. If I had not told him it was mine, I could not have sold it for the ten shillings.

When I was paid I went down early Sunday morning to Montreal House but could find no one there, so I returned at about four o'clock in the afternoon and told Pte. Scott I wanted the camera back and was willing to give him back the ten shillings. However, Pte. Scott brought me up to the Coy. office before he could give me the camera.

R.P. 37 (c)complied with.

Questioned by D.O.
Did you go down to Montreal House and try to reclaim the camera before you were accused of stealing it?

Answer:
Yes,sir, I did.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of M101452 Private William James LANTON, Canadian Infantry Corps, on the strength of 1 Canadian Infantry Training Regiment, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer this summary of evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION — A/Capt E.W.E. Plant, having been duly sworn, states:-

"I am A/Capt E.W.E. Plant, Canadian Infantry Corps, Adjutant of 1 Cdn Inf Depot Bn. I produce the following documents, pursuant to Overseas Ro 6352, which have been read over and shown to the accused, and which are attached hereto as exhibits:

Certified true copy of the Record of the Declaration of a Court of Inquiry purporting to relate to the accused, and signed by Colonel C.B. Ware, Commander 1 CITR.

Certificate in accordance with P.C.2797 of 10 Apr 42, purporting to relate to the accused, and purporting to be signed by R.W. Kyle, Captain, DAPM, CMHQ.

CMHQ form 1000:86, Expense Voucher, purporting to relate to the accused, and signed by John A. Primrose, Lt, Officer issuing railway warrant and expense monies."

Capt.
(E.W.E. Plant)

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

The documents referred to by this witness produced, read over to the accused, marked exhibits "A", "B" and "C" hereto respectively, signed by me and attached hereto.

Lt.
(R. Ostfield) Officer detailed to take the Summary of Evidence.

The accused was cautioned as follows: "Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or to give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing, and may be given in evidence."

The accused declines to make a statement and reserves his defence.

The accused declines to call witnesses in his own behalf.

I certify that the foregoing summary of evidence consisting of one page was taken down by me in the presence and hearing of the accused, and that Rules of Procedure 4(c), (d), (e), (f) and (g) have been complied with.

Lt.
(R. Ostfield) Officer detailed to take the Summary of Evidence.

In the Field,
29th day of May, 1945.

M-101452, Pte, William James Lawton:

Plea in Mitigation.

Sir:-

The accused has for some time been in difficulties at home. Since he was wounded on Oct 16, 1944, while serving with the Regina Rifles, until this date, he has only received one letter from home.

This factor has upset him considerably. Due also to the fact that he has been drinking fairly heavily, he has been ~~fairly~~ rather unreliable.

He has written several times to find out what the trouble at home is, and has also had other people try to find out. He still does not know. Pte. Lawton has two children and is naturally concerned with their welfare.

Since coming to #1 CITR he has been drinking fairly heavily. While in this state of mind he went on a 36 hour pass and then went AWL. This was his method of trying to forget his troubles.

I humbly beg the court to take the foregoing facts into consideration when dealing with his case.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President ~~or JA, if any,~~ complies with RP 55(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans NO SIR.(5)

5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. ~~The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.~~
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex "A", initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused : Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? Ans .....(1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)
(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Con 535. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the .....charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the .....charge(s), and allowed on the .....charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)
(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)
NB : If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither ?
Ans ..... Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf ?
Ans ..... Are they witnesses as to character only ? Ans .....
(1. RP 39(D). 2. RP 40(A), see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)
(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order, CF A95. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 86(C). Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 103(e).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.
(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the .....charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1)
Or, The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.(2)
(1. AA 54(3) (6), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character ?(1)
Ans NO I DO NOT
(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), and certified true copy (copies) of Conduct Sheet(s)(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(1) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex B and Ex C respectively.(3)
(1. MFB 355 or AFB 296. 2. MFW 2. 3. RP 46, KR Con 558. If above documents not produced, see RP 46 fn 1 para 1.)

E3. President to accused : Do you wish to address the Court on the Statement(s) and Conduct Sheet(s), and in mitigation of punishment ?(1) Ans Yes I do ~~if only to~~ (WRITTEN ATT'D)
(1. RP 37(C), 46(D). 2. Address, if any, recorded per Notes. Court should permit accused or his witnesses to prove on oath anything here or previously stated which would affect the amount of punishment. RP 37(F) fn 7.)

E4. The President states that the Court is closed to consider the sentence, and that the sentence to be awarded by the Court, being subject to confirmation, will not be announced, but will be promulgated later, and the proceedings in open court are accordingly terminated.(1)
(1. AA 54(6), RP 120(A).)

E5. The Court considers the sentence.(1) The President records the sentence in Part I of the Schedule, which is dated and signed by him ~~and the J.A. if any (2).~~ 7/10
(1. When several accused tried separately see RP [redacted]. One sentence only, comprised of the punishment or punishments laid down in AA 41, 44 *and its proviso, is to be awarded to cover all charges in all charge sheets on which accused found guilty. INSTRUCTIONS ON PROCEDURE AFTER ARRAIGNMENT.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated :

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See MML p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C) ; powers and duties of JA see RP 103 ; duty of Prosecutor see RP 60(A) (B) ; duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92 ; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82 ; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 83-85 ; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court, etc, see RP 75-79, 86, 116 ; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6 ; and responsibility of JA or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), to call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans N.A. (5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 3 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement (*) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on ..... charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on ..... charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C1. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused : Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? Ans ..... (1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)
(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Con 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the ..... charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the ..... charge(s), and allowed on the ..... charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)
(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D6.)
NB : If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither ?
Ans ..... Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf ?
Ans ..... Are they witnesses as to character only ? Ans .....
(1. RP 115. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 12. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)
(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order, CF A95. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 86(C). Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 103(e).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.
(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

Or, The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.(2)
(1. AA 54(3) (a), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(2), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character ?(1)

REPORT:-

Pt feels he is responsible for his actions although he states that under similar circumstances he would do the same thing again. Pt is well oriented with his environment, no delusions nor hallucinations were elicited. He is emotionally stable.

Impression

agree that this is a case of psychopathic personality. There can be no doubt from the history that this intelligent, & in many ways competent, individual has a very unstable temperament which shows itself in anti-social behaviour whenever adverse conditions arise.

He is fit to undergo trial but his mental condition should be taken into account when sentence is inflicted. It is unlikely that punishment will have any beneficial effect.

REPORT: DATE Jan 8/42

He has not been legally separated from his wife but they never became reconciled. He has never seen the child but considers from photographs that there is no resemblance to him. He has heard that his wife is running around with other men. In recent months he has been drinking quite a bit & there was intoxicant. His wife would not send him any money & this situation became very acute. He became very depressed & brooded over how he could get even with her - deciding finally on the desertion plan. When AWL he went to places whose amusements were made hoping the planes would be bombed & he killed so that she would get nothing (she being a deserter at the time). While AWL he developed nervous dyspepsia which became severe & he finally went to #1 C.G.H. where he was apprehended. Frequently in the past when nervous & upset he has developed gastric symptoms & while serving in the army he has had a number of attacks.

Pt. is quiet, rather unassuming, polite & intelligent. He says he is ashamed of his past record but does not appear to feel it very much. He attributes his misdemeanors to the state he is in at the time - nervously upset & involved in difficulties which seem unimportant to him. He believes that people are against him because they don't understand. He regards his O.C. as being unfair in his attitude in passing so many charges. Does not seem unduly depressed or anxious although resentful of the way he has been treated since arrest.

Statement of Reg. No. B 26273 Sgt. LAWTON C.W.H.-Cdn Det. Camp. EX.9

DO YOU WISH TO MAKE A STATEMENT ? YOU ARE NOT OBLIGED TO SAY ANYTHING UNLESS YOU WISH TO DO SO. BUT WHAT EVER YOU MAY WILL BE TAKEN DOWN IN WRITING AND MAY BE GIVEN IN EVIDENCE.
Having been warned as above, I make the following statement.

Lawton Sgt.
B 26273. C.W.H. LAWTON.

I have been station at No. 1 Canadian Detention Barracks at Witley since the 21 May 41., where I have held the rank of Sgt., being confirmed on the 20th. Aug. 41.
During this period my financial affairs had been in a muddled state and during the three weeks prior to my going A.W.L. I had sent to Air Mail letters to my wife in Canada requesting that a sum of money be forwarded to me. About the 16th. Aug. 41, I sent a cable making an urgent request and received no reply. Whilst awaiting an answer to the Air Mail letters, I came to the conclusion that my wife was not going to help me. During the week of the 10th. ct. 41. I gave considerable thought to the possibility of getting the assignment out in order to even things up. My subsequent motions were baised on this planning. Also during the course of my service at the Cdn. Det. Bks. I had seen soldiers under sentence whose pay books were badly in arrears able to make a substantial increase in their balance in order to clear up legimate indebtedness and thought that this would be a solution for my difficulties should I be court martialled.
On the 26th. Oct. 41, I took two travel warrants from the duty book and two from the free leave book, also a quantity of Ration cards, and several blank pass forms, two of which I used and destroyed, as they became invalid by date. I took the travel warrants from the middle of the books so that they would not be noticed for some time. I cashed warrant No. 619077 at Haslemere St. Surrey, for a return ticket from there to Glasgow, although I did not go to Glasgow, I travelled to various towns in the Midlands. On the 10th. Nove. 41, whilst returning to my unit, I was enroute between Manchester and London, and by the time I arrived at Birmingham, I was too sick to proceed further, suffering from Diarrhoeatic condition. I was admitted to hospital at App. 2100 hrs. 10-11-41, where I remained till taken under escort to London.
Two of the travel warrants have not been used, other than the Orderly Room stamps, which I put on them. The one warrant that is filled in, I filled in to use as a prop in case I should be stopped whilst travelling without a pass. On warrant No. 619077 I signed the name of Lieut. Dick. On warrant No. 619341 I used the name of Lieut. Martin, which is a ficticous name. I did not incurr any debts whilst being A.W.L. I took 7 Ration cards with me, but only used one of them.
The revolver that I had in my possession is the property of Cpl. Quantrill of No. 1 Cdn. Det. Bks. (No. H.3090) .Cal. 38 Enfield Mark 1 it came into my possession some weeks previously when I borrowed it from Cpl. Quantrill he unlocking his cupboard and handing it to me for the purpose of having a picture taken with sidearms, to send home. I retained possession of this revolver placing it in my locker under lock and key and prior to going AWL I gave Cpl. Quantrill the key so that he could get it since the lock on his locker was missing. At the moment of going A.W.L. I decided that wearing the

Accused does not wish the evidence of this witness taken under oath:

I have been employed in the fingerprint identification Bureau of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police for the past eighteen years, from 1923 until I enlisted in the Canadian Army.

I was instructed to examine the documents in question and in my opinion the signatures on leave pass, Rly.Warr.No.97/619341 and 97/619077, and ration card ZT 431619 were written by the same person.

On comparing the above mentioned signatures with that of the accused I am further of the opinion that they were written by the same person.

Officer taking Summary.

Birmingham where I found the accused a patient, having been admitted to hospital 2100 hours, 10 November 41, suffering from intestinal flu. At this time he had sufficiently recovered and was due to be discharged. I therefore took the accused into custody receiving A.M.D. 2-1, hospital discharge notification signed by Capt. L. I. Quinn, which I submit as exhibit #2. On route between Birmingham and London and during conversation with Sgt. Lawton he handed me two blank pass forms bearing Orderly Room stamp, Canadian Detention Barracks, dated 27 Nov. 41, also two stubs of blank passes which I tender as exhibit #3. Sgt. Lawton also gave me six blank ration cards #ZT431613 to ZT431618 inclusive which I tender as exhibit #4. Ration card #ZT431619 being filled in in the name of G.P.Lawton, Sgt., B-26272, Canadian Provost Corps, dated 25 October 41 to 8 November 41, signed with a name illegible, tendered as exhibit #5. Travel warrant #619078 and 619340 were handed to me by Sgt. Lawton at this time. These warrants are blank with exception of the Orderly Room stamp which on warrant #619078 bears the date 2 Nov. 41, whereas warrant 619340 bears the date 26 Nov. 41. These I tender - 619078 as exhibit #6 - 619340 as exhibit #7. I also received warrant #619341 from Sgt. Lawton which is made out for two single fares from Manchester to Witley, Surrey, dated 27 Oct 41 to the Great Western Railway. This warrant being signed by Capt. Martin. The reverse side being marked, C.P.C., C.D.Hks. Reg. No. B26272 Sgt. Lawton G.P., and R.22nd Reg., B Coy., Pte. Robideaux, D.J. - authority for journey, C.M.H.Q., S.I.D., D.P.M. 6-9-d 20/10/41, nature of duty escorting prisoner. Itender this as exhibit #8. Sgt. Lawton also gave me a pass made out to Reg. No. B26272 Sgt. Lawton, G.P. from 27/10/41, 0800 hours to 0600 hours 24/11/41 for Shrewsbury and Glasgow and signed by Capt. Martin, this pass being stamped with the Orderly room stamp of the Canadian Detention Barracks, 27/10/41. This pass bears the words, "sick leave" printed across the centre which I tender as exhibit #9. On arrival in London the accused was warned according to M.M.L. at which time he made a statement which was taken down in writing, read over to him, and signed. I tender this as Exhibit #10.

Q: Whom signed the statement mentioned in your evidence.
A: The accused, Sgt. G.P.Lawton.

3rd WITNESS A/Capt. W. DICK
Canadian Detention Barracks, Canadian Provost Corps.

Accused does not wish the evidence of this witness taken under oath:

I am the Asst. Cmdt. at the Canadian Detention Barracks. At 0900 hours, 27 October 41, it was reported to me that Sgt. G.P. Lawton, who at that time was employed as clerk in the Orderly room, Canadian Detention Barracks, was absent from duty. Enquiries were made and it was learned that Sgt. Lawton had been absent from 2359 hours, 26 Oct 41. Further investigation led to discovering that four railway warrants had been removed from the books of R.R. warrants kept locked ~~one~~ Sgt. Lawton had a key. Further investigation led to one warrant being found cashed in at the Southern R.R. Station at Haselmere. It was found to bear the signature of Lieut. W. Dick. I did not sign this warrant. In connection with the warrant bearing the signature of a Capt. Martin I wish to state that at no time has there been a Capt. Martin stationed at the Cdn. Detention Barracks.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of No. B26272 Sgt. LAWTON, G.P.
Canadian Detention Barracks, Canadian Provost Corps.

1st WITNESS C-41995 S/Sgt. DURFY, R.H.
Canadian Detention Barracks, Canadian Provost Corps.

The accused wishes the evidence of this witness taken under oath:

I am N.C.O. i/c of the Orderly room, Canadian Detention Barracks. At 0815 hours, 27 October 41, on arriving at the office I noted that Sgt. Lawton was not on duty. I was informed that he was absent from his quarters. He was last on duty in the afternoon of the 26 October 41, when he relieved S/Sgt. Joyce at approx. 1300 hours, and remained in charge of the Orderly Room until approx. 1700 hours. On investigation it was discovered the four blank railway warrants, Nos. 97/619078, 97/619077, 97/619340 and 97/619341 had been removed from the middle of the railway warrant books which were locked in a steel cabinet in the Orderly Room. Sgt. Lawton had a key to this cabinet. Seven ration cards No. ZT431613 to ZT431619 were also missing from the same cabinet. I proceeded to Hazelmere Railway Station and examined the warrants cashed there on the 26 October 41, Railway warrant No. 97/619077 was found. It was filled in for a return ticket from Hazelmere to Glasgow, in favour of Sgt. G.P.Lawton and signed W.Dick, Lieut., for Cmdt., Canadian Detention Barracks. The Orderly Room stamp of the Canadian Detention Barracks was impressed on the face of the warrant. The station master at Hazelmere turned the warrant over to me and I returned to Barracks and handed it over to the Commandant. On 18 November 41, S/Sgt. Allen of the S.I.D., Canadian Provost Corps, produced the above mentioned warrants and ration cards, less the one which had been exchanged. These were taken from the person of Sgt. Lawton at the time of his arrest. I indentified them as the missing articles. I also indentified two blank pass forms which were impressed by the Orderly Room stamp and the Commandant's stamp.

2nd WITNESS C-41972 S/Sgt. ALLEN, A.R.
S.I.D.,C.M.H.Q., London

Accused does not wish the evidence of this witness taken under oath:

I am C-41972 S/Sgt. A.R.Allen, S.I.D., C.M.H.Q., London. On the 28th October, 1941, as result of a complaint received, I proceeded to Canadian Detention Barracks, Witley for the purpose of investigating circumstances surrounding Sgt. G.P.Lawton going A.W.L. On my arrival at the Detention Barracks, I received certain information from which as a result of inquirey made N.D. travel warrant No. 97/619077 came into my possession. This warrant which I present as exhibit #1 is for a return railway fare from Hazelmere, Surrey to Glasgow, Scotland. The warrant having been made out on 26 October 41 for one return fare date of return 2 November, 1941. This warrant bears rubber stamp of C.M.H.Q. the Canadian Detention Barracks Orderly Room stamp dated 26 November 41 and is signed W.Dick, for Commandant, Military Prison and Detention Barracks, on the reverse side is Regt. No. B-26272 Sgt. G. Lawton, Canadian Detention Barracks, authority for journey being privelege leave P.3, Free issue 2. On receipt of this warrant inquiries were carried out throughout the Witley Area and the Met. Police and Newcastle on Tyne Police given full details. On 17th November, 1941 a telephone call was received and as the result I patrolled to No. 1, Canadian General Hospital, Marston Green, pleaded Guilty, I suggest under all the circumstances a very minor punishment will meet the interests of justice in this case.

The Court is closed for the consideration of the sentence.

Upon completion of closing addresses by the defending officer and the prosecutor, the Court is closed for the consideration of the finding.

The Court find that the accused is Not Guilty of the fourth charge, and their decision is announced in open Court.

The Prosecutor, LIEUT. J. R. TURNER, No. 1 C.D.I.R.U., being duly sworn, is examined by the Court:-

The witness identifies himself.

Q109. Have you any evidence to produce as to the character and particulars of service of the accused?
A109. Yes sir, I produce AF B-296 and certified true copy of MFM-6.

The above statement is read, signed by the President, and annexed to the proceedings.

Q110. Is the accused the person named in the statement which you have heard read?
A110. Yes, sir.
Q111. Have you compared the contents of the above statement with the regimental books?
A111. Yes, sir.
Q112. Are they true extracts from the regimental books, and is the statement of entries in the conduct sheets a fair and true summary of those entries?
A112. Yes, sir.

No cross-examination.

THE COURT: Do you wish to address the Court?

DEFENDING OFFICER: Gentlemen:- I think it is important first of all to appreciate the fact that although there are a great number of charges here it is really only one transaction, and you will find in Col Hyland's report the history of the circumstances leading up to this man's actions. It is an unfortunate story. The aunt of this man suffered from insanity and was confined to a mental asylum. She was destitute and the accused made arrangements to assist to the extent of $5.00 per month. It was later discovered that owing to some mistake in the orderly room the assignment had been $10.00 per month. When this mistake was discovered the accused, who was already in debt to some small amount (and his debtors were pressing him for payment), found himself in considerable financial difficulty as a result of his own good will in making these arrangements for his aunt. He wrote to his wife, asking her to send some money. He had previously had some difficulty with his wife in Canada. They did not get along any too well, although there is no suggestion his wife was unfaithful to the extent of sleeping with somebody else. It appeared to have blown over when the accused joined the army, but he wrote for some money and his wife did not reply for some time. However, she did reply eventually because she said she did not see why he was under any obligation to look after his aunt, and she did not send him any money. He perhaps rightly or wrongly assumed there was more trouble in respect to his wife's conduct, and we have had evidence as to his mental condition. It upset him considerably. That, of course, is not a defence to these charges, it cannot even be suggested that he was suffering from insanity, he knew what he was doing, but he was not morally guilty, he was mentally upset. All the circumstances in this case would have led to a condition of mental upset, even in the case of a normal person, and we have here a person who has been defined as a psychopatic personality by Col Hyland. All these charges arise out of that one simple transaction. It was really one transaction, not a number of separate offences. It is understandable under the circumstances why he did it. I suggest with deference that this is not a case calling for any heavy punishment. Col Hyland says he does not consider punishment will be beneficial in this case. I don't think it will, either, although it will be necessary for some punishment to be imposed on the accused. With respect to the charges to which he has

Q99. Now then, what about exhibits 1, 2, 3 and 4?
A99. In a comparison with the serial nos of the ration cards I have there now they run in sequence with them. They run next to the numbers I have there in the office.
Q100. Can you identify those four rly warrants, Nos 1, 2, 3 and 4?
A100. Yes, I can, sir, I can identify them from the orderly room stamp and the stamp on the bottom here, which is the one the C.O. uses. It is the same in each case, and I have the books here, and I can identify them as being taken from our book. (witness produces book to the Court). Here are the warrants kept in the office and there are the stubs from which these warrants were taken (indicating). They are definitely from this book.

THE COURT: Have you any further proof of the ration cards, that they actually belonged to the unit?

Q101. PROSECUTOR: I refer to Ex 6, Leave or Duty Ration Card, serial No ZT-431619; can you identify that exhibit as coming from your office?
A101. The only identification I have actually is the stamp on the bottom which we have in the orderly room; that is the stamp of the Cdn Military Prison & Det Bk.

Q102. THE COURT: Are all your ration cards stamped like that before being issued?
A102. Not before being issued, sir.
Q103. You have not proved that these came from your ration cards; they might have been taken from somewhere else and your stamp put on them?
A103. But these follow in sequence, sir, the numbers of the ration cards in our office, the numbers corresponding with the ration cards we still have on hand.

Q104. PROSECUTOR: Now exhibit 7, consisting of six ration cards, serial Nos ZT-431613 to ZT-431618 incl. Have you any way of recognising exhibit 7 as coming from your office?
A104. Yes, I recognise them by the stamp, Cdn Mil Prison & Det Bk, and I also recognise them by the serial Nos, because they are the numbers that follow in sequence the nos of the ration cards left in the orderly room after they had been taken.

THE COURT: I think we will have to have evidence that these ration cards were the property of the unit concerned.

Q105. PROSECUTOR: Were these ration cards, listed as Ex 7, the property of the unit for which you are working?
A105. Yes, they were, sir.
Q106. You have identified Ex 8 as coming from your office. Were the blank passes, listed as Ex 8, the property of the Cdn Mil Prison & Det Bk?
A106. They were turned in by the S/Sgt in charge of the investigation. The identification I can make of them is by the orderly room stamp on them and by the stamp that is usually used by the Commdt to sign documents.
Q107. And that indicates they were the property of the Cdn Det Bks?
A107. That would indicate to me they were, sir.

THE COURT: It would not indicate that to me. I can take a form into your office and put the orderly room stamp on it, but that does not make it part of your records, does it?

PROSECUTOR: I think the evidence is sufficient to indicate that these forms did come from the office, bearing the stamp they do, and the evidence of this witness definitely indicates there there is no reason to suppose that these came from anywhere else except the Cdn Det Bks.

THE WITNESS: To the best of my knowledge, our orderly room is the only place in possession of these two particular types of stamps.

Q108. PROSECUTOR: Do you recognise Ex 6 as being the property of your unit?
A108. Yes sir, from that same stamp and the stamp used by the Major to sign documents with, and from the serial Nos which correspond with the Nos I have still left there.

Q78. Do you consider him entirely responsible for his actions?
A78. I would not be able to answer that, yes or no.
Q79. With regard to this faulty judgment, just how serious is the implication in this report?
A79. He would not have gained any benefit from any punishment received in the past.
Q80. There is no indication that, for example, in a case of theft he would not know what he was doing?
A80. No, nothing like that, unless he was in an unconscious state or in a coma or something like that.

Q81. THE COURT: He is more or less emotionally unstable?
A81. Yes sir, that would be a fair way to put it, although the question is more or less the attitude, what response the average person makes to past experiences.

3rd witness for the defence) No. C-41995, S/SGT. R. H. DURFY, Cdn Det Bks, C.P.C., being duly sworn, is examined by the defending officer:-

The witness identifies himself.

Q82. You are NCO i/c orderly room of the Cdn Det Bks?
A82. Yes, sir.
Q83. Do you know the accused, Sgt G.F. Lawton?
A83. I do.
Q84. Was he employed at the Cdn Det Bks?
A84. Yes, sir.
Q85. In the orderly room?
A85. Yes, sir.
Q86. What was his job?
A86. He was my asst; he was orderly room Sgt.
Q87. Now the passes, rly warrants and so on, they would be kept in the orderly office, would they?
A87. That is right.
Q88. Were they kept under lock and key?
A88. Yes sir, always.
Q89. Who had the keys?
A89. I had one key; Sgt Lawton had another key.
Q90. Who would customarily make out these warrants, passes and so on?
A90. It might be myself or Sgt Lawton.
Q91. Do you recall the week before the accused went absent, a few days preceding the time he went absent?
A91. In what sense, sir?
A92. Well, do you recall noticing his actions or the conduct of the accused during the week he went AWL?
A92. Not in detail, sir, but in a general way.
Q93. Was he behaving in a normal manner at that time?
A93. How do you mean?
Q94. Did you notice anything unusual about his conduct immly before he went absent?
A94. He was not as efficient as he had been several weeks before; he appeared to be slightly on the absent minded side. Giving an opinion I should say he appeared to have something on his mind, sir.

CROSS EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR

Q95. Will you examine these exhibits?
A95. Yes, sir.
Q96. Have you any way of recognising them as coming from your office?
A96. That is our orderly room stamp (ex 6). On the top is a stamp we have in use in our orderly room, also that is the sametype of ink we use on our stamp pad.
Q97. This is ex 6. Can you identify that as coming from your orderly room?
A97. I can identify that from the stamp on the bottom there, sir.
Q98. And ex 7, a number of ration cards?
A98. I can identify them from the stamps on the bottom; that is the stamp used in the orderly room.

DEFENCE: Sir, in view of the acceptance by the Court of exhibit 9, the statement of the accused, I desire to alter the plea of Not Guilty in connection with a number of the charges. To the first charge the accused now pleads Guilty. The plea of Not Guilty remains for the second, third and fourth charges. The fifth charge, the accused pleads Guilty. To the sixth charge the accused pleads Guilty. To the seventh charge the accused pleads Guilty. To the eighth charge the accused pleads Guilty.

The prosecution is closed.

The accused having pleaded Guilty to the first, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth charges, the provisions of R.P. 35(B) are duly complied with.

Q64. THE COURT: Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness?
A64. No, sir.
Q65. Do you intend to call any other witnesses in your defence?
A65. Yes, sir.
Q66. Are they witnesses as to character only?
A66. No, sir.

2nd witness for the defence) CAPT. G. A. KIRKPATRICK, R.C.A.M.C., attached to No 1 C.D.I.R.U., being duly sworn, is examined by the defending officer:-

The witness identifies himself.

Q67. Have you had occasion to have any dealings with the accused, Sgt Lawton?
A67. I have, on several occasions.
Q68. Have you examined him?
A68. I have.
Q69. From what is he suffering?
A69. Under the circumstances, sir, I could not give evidence as a mental specialist, but I can give you Col Hyland's report. I would say that the diagnosis was a psychopatic personality.
Q70. That would mean in layman's language he was subject to being upset very easily?
A70. More that at times his judgment would be faulty.
Q71. Did you receive a report from Lt-Col Hyland of the Neurological Hosp with regard to the accused?
A71. Yes, on the 8 Jan 42.
Q72. Is this the report you received (producing document)?
A72. It is.

EXHIBIT 10 - Dept of Neuro-Psychiatry Report relating to accused, signed by Lt-Col H.H. Hyland, dated 8 Jan 42.

Q73. THE COURT: Is Lt-Col Hyland on the staff of No 1 Neurological Hosp?
A73. Yes, sir.
Q74. Is he the chief psychiatrist on the staff of that hospital?
A74. Yes sir, he is.
Q75. What is his official diagnosis of the case?
A75. Psychopatic personality.
Q76. Is not that a very wide medical term to use?
A76. Yes sir, it is.

THE COURT: This is actually submitted in mitigation of punishment?
DEFENCE: Yes, sir.

CROSS EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR

Q77. I would like an enlargement on the expression "psychopatic personality." Is there any implication that the accused would not know right from wrong?
A77. I don't think there would be any such implication in the ordinary definition; no, I don't think there would be.

Q58. Just confine yourself to the actual conversation with respect to this statement; if anything was said about the statement, yes, you may give your evidence with respect to it?
A58. It was the start of the discussion. I had been placed under arrest at No 1 Gen Hosp and S/Sgt Allen came from London to take me back under escort. He came into the ward and came up to my bedside and he said, "Hello, Lawton," and I said, "Hello, Jeekie," which is S/Sgt Allen's nickname; I had met him before on a number of occasions. He said, "Well, what have you been up to?" and I said, "I have got myself into a little bit of a jam, I believe." That is all that was said then. We were taken from the hosp to the station at Birmingham in an ambulance, and while riding in the ambulance I asked S/Sgt Allen how everything was back at the unit and what Major Ball's feeling towards me was in connection with this trouble, and Allen told me then, "I don't know for sure, I have only been to the det bks in connection with this matter the once when I went down to investigate; when I spoke to the Major at that time he was slightly upset about it." On the train from Birmingham to London I completed my story to S/Sgt Allen and told him why I had gone AWL, and as he stated in his evidence I gave him the balance of the forms I had, after having told him the complete story. At that time S/Sgt Allen said to me, "It is obvious you have not taken these forms to sell them or try to dispose of them in any way, and I feel sure when you get back and make a statement in this connection the charges will be reduced to a straight charge of absence and obtaining a rly ticket." I gave him the statement in Henrietta St; I was called up and as I went in he said, "I will get you to make that statement now, Sgt," and I said, "Right," and I made the statement, sir.
Q59. On the train he said, "I guess when you get back and make a statement the charge will be reduced to straight AWL?"
A59. I am not sure if he used the word "guess," but that is it in effect.

Q60. THE COURT: As a member of the Prov Corps you were sufficiently acquainted with procedure to realise that S/Sgt Allen had no authority to give you any promise of that kind?
A60. That did not enter into my mind, sir, at all. I had merely questioned S/Sgt Allen to try and find out how my C.O. felt about it. I was wondering what I was heading into and tried to get some advice and I felt I knew S/Sgt Allen well enough that I could talk to him and tell him my troubles and get some advice from him, sir.

The Court is closed to consider whether or not the statement will be admitted in evidence.

The Court being re-opened, the accused is again brought before it.

THE COURT: The Court over-rules the objection of the defending officer, and will admit this statement.

1st witness for prosecution) No. C-41972, S/Sgt. A. R. ALLEN, S.I.D., C.M.H.Q., London, Eng., being previously sworn, is recalled and examined by the prosecutor:-

Q61. Would you identify that as the document, the statement referred to?
A61. Yes sir, that is it.
Q62. Is that your signature there (indicating)?
A62. That is my signature there, sir.

PROSECUTOR: I would like this statement read into the record.

DEFENCE: That is not necessary; it is produced as an exhibit.

Q63. PROSECUTOR: Will you produce that to the court then as an exhibit?
A63. I produce this statement taken from Sgt Lawton dated the 18 Nov 41; that is a statement made by the accused.

EXHIBIT 9 - Statement of Accused, dated 18 Nov 41.

Whereupon the Court adjourned from 1200 hrs to 1330 hrs.

Q42. In other words, you are suggesting to this court that when the question of his making a statement came up you merely called him into a room and asked him this question, "Do you wish to make a statement?" and so on?
A42. That is correct.
Q43. Did you not ask him prior to that if he wished to make a statement?
A43. No, sir.
Q44. Had not the matter of a statement been discussed in any way?
A44. Not before that, no sir.
Q45. You called him into your office, did you?
A45. Yes, and asked him if he wished to make a statement.
Q46. Did you have him sit down?
A46. I did.
Q47. And then you read out to him, "Do you wish to make a statement, etc."?
A47. That is correct.
Q48. Was anything else said?
A48. The remainder of the caution was given to him and he stated that he wished to make a statement, and his statement was read over to him and then signed.

Q49. THE COURT: That was on the 18th?
A49. Yes sir, the morning of the 18th.

Q50. DEFENCE: You know perfectly well, S/Sgt Allen, that you are here to give your evidence honestly, and you say this is what happened, that you simply brought him into the office there, sat him down, read over this warning to him, and nothing else was said whatever?
A50. That is the way the statement was taken, and all our statements are taken in the same manner.

RE-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR

Q51. Do you identify this statement?
A51. Yes sir, that is the statement.
Q52. Is this your signature on it?
A52. That is my signature, sir.

The Court is closed to consider whether or not the above-mentioned statement will be accepted in evidence.

The Court being re-opened, the accused is again brought before it.

The Court announce that they will hear the evidence of the accused as to the circumstances surrounding the taking of the statement.

R.P. 40 & 41 duly complied with.

1st witness for the defence) The Accused, No B-26272, Sgt. G. F. LAWTON, being duly sworn, is examined by the defending officer:-

The Accused identifies himself.

Q53. Sgt Lawton, you have heard the evidence given by the previous witness with respect to the circumstances surrounding the giving of this statement offered in evidence?
A53. Yes, sir.
Q54. Do you recall the occasion when you made that statement?
A54. Yes, sir.
Q55. Had you had any conversation with S/Sgt Allen before making the statement, with reference to it?
A55. Yes, sir.
Q56. When did you discuss the question of making a statement with him?
A56. When we were travelling from No 1 Gen Hosp at Birmingham to London.
Q57. What did you say during the trip? What was said by yourself and by S/Sgt Allen?
A57. Sir, may I start at the time I first spoke to S/Sgt Allen at the hospital just before we left?

PROSECUTOR: In this case, sir, there is no attempt on the part of the prosecution to bring the statement into court at this time, but I think it is the privilege of the prosecution to indicate just how the statement was obtained. At the present time the court is unaware as to the making of the statement and I think it is the privilege of the prosecution to find out just how the statement was obtained before it is submitted.

Q24. Do you recognise the accused as Sgt G.F. Lawton?
A24. I do, sir.
Q25. Did you ask the accused to make a statement?
A25. No sir, the accused made a voluntary statement to me, after having been warned.
Q26. Did you give him the statutory warning?
A26. Yes, I did, and I then copied it on the top of the form, read it over to him, and he signed it before making his statement.
Q27. Did you suggest to him in any way that it might be easier for him if he ---

DEFENCE: I object to these leading questions.

Q28. PROSECUTION: Did you make any additional statement?
A28. I didn't. The warning was read to him and typed out.
Q29. Did he enter into any conversation with you relevant to that statement?
A29. No, he did not.
Q30. Did he ask for any advice as to his statement?
A30. No sir, he did not.

CROSS EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q31. You did not threaten him with a club or anything like that?
A31. No, sir.
Q32. Or suggest to him that he had better make a statement or he would probably get into trouble?
A32. No.
Q33. Do you recall, before this statement was made, discussing Major Ball?
A33. I have no recollection of that.
Q34. Just try and think back?
A34. The accused en route between Birmingham and London was talking regarding the conditions of this camp and the surroundings, but there were no questions asked.
Q35. But he did discuss Major Ball's probable attitude towards this matter, didn't he? Major Ball is his C.O.?
A35. Yes, sir.

PROSECUTOR: I suggest the witness is being led.

DEFENCE: Of course he is; I am entitled to lead in cross-examination

Q36. Carry on?
A36. On the train the accused was giving me his reasons for having gone AWL, but it had no bearing on the fact of his being AWL, therefore I took no notice of the conversation.
Q37. During the course of this conversation he may have given you the information which appears in this statement?
A37. That statement was taken down on the 16th.
Q38. Yes, but prior to the actual statement being taken down in writing he may have given you all this information beforehand?
A38. That is hard to say; he gave me this statement in his own words.
Q39. But this information may have been given beforehand?
A39. I can't say.
Q40. You do not recall him discussing Major Ball?
A40. I have no recollection of that at all.
Q41. You don't recollect mentioning anything to the effect that if all the facts were laid before Major Ball it would be better for all concerned?
A41. There was nothing to that effect at all.

accused, Sgt Lawton, after his arrest at No 1 Gen Hosp, Marston Green. Two of these warrants are in blank, bearing the orderly room stamp, and one is made out from Manchester to Witley, Surrey, that is No 97/619341, and signed by Capt Martin. I tender these warrants as exhibits, sir.

EXHIBIT 2 - War Office Rly Warrant No 97/619341.

EXHIBIT 3 - " " " " " 97/619340.

EXHIBIT 4 - " " " " " 97/619078.

Q18. Yes, proceed?
A18. During the time I was escorting Sgt Lawton from Birmingham to London he handed me one pass made out and bearing the orderly room stamp of the Cdn Det Bks, alleged to have been signed by Capt Martin.

EXHIBIT 5 - Pass in favour of accused from 27-10-41 to 24-11-41, dated 27 Oct 41.

Q19. Yes, continue?
A19. That pass was marked "Sick Leave". He also handed me one Leave or Duty Ration Card, No ZT-431619, made out in the name of Sgt G.F.Lawton and signed by -- I can't make the name out very well. That ration card had been used.

EXHIBIT 6 - Ration Card No ZT-431619.

A19. (continued) Sgt Lawton also handed me six blank, unused ration cards, unsigned, Nos ZT-431613 to ZT-431618 incl.

EXHIBIT 7 - Six unused Ration Cards Nos ZT-431613 to ZT-431618 incl.

A19. (continued). Sgt Lawton also handed me two blank passes bearing the orderly room stamp of the Cdn Det Bks, dated 27 Nov 41, which were unsigned. Attached to these passes are the corresponding stubs and two unused portions of stubs.

EXHIBIT 8 - Two blank pass forms, and two blank pass stubs.

Q20. PROSECUTOR: On what date did you take Sgt Lawton into custody?
A20. At 1400 hrs on the 17 Nov 41.
Q21. Did you ask him for these tickets which you have produced in evidence?
A21. He handed them to me himself, sir.
Q22. Now, after taking him into custody, where did you take him to?
A22. To London, to No 6 CPC HQ.
Q23. Did the accused make any statement?
A23. He did. I warned him according to the MML and his statement was then taken down, read over to him, and signed.

DEFENCE: I think at this point before the statement is introduced I should be entitled to examine the witness as to the circumstances surrounding the taking of the statement, what the conversation was and so on. With the court's permission I would like to examine the circumstances surrounding the taking of this alleged statement.

PROSECUTOR: It is the duty of the prosecution at this point to establish that this statement was obtained correctly, and I would like to do that.

DEFENCE: There is no question about the practice. If there is any dispute on this point, before the evidence is admissible the opportunity is given to the defending officer to examine into the circumstances surrounding the admission. It stands to reason, in an ordinary criminal case the jury is excluded, and it is what we term a "trial within a trial"; you examine the circumstances surrounding the taking of the statement before it is admitted.

THE COURT: Yes, I agree with that.

Q11. Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity for preparing your defence?
A11. No, sir.

The prosecutor makes no opening address.

PROSECUTOR: If agreeable to all concerned, I would prefer all these charges to be tried together, sir.

DEFENCE: That is agreeable to me, sir.

1st witness for prosecution) No. C-41972, S/Sgt. A. R. ALLEN, S.I.D., C.M.H.Q., London, Eng., being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor:-

The witness identifies himself, and produces his credentials to the Court, being dressed in civilian clothing.

Q12. PROSECUTOR: On the 28 Oct 41 were you detailed to proceed to the Cdn Det Bks for the purpose of investigating the circumstances concerning the absence without leave of Sgt G.F. Lawton?
A12. I was, sir.
Q13. Will you carefully outline to the court what you discovered from your investigations and submit the necessary exhibits to the court as you proceed?
A13. On my arrival at the Cdn Det Bks I received information to the effect that ---

DEFENCE: I object to the witness telling the court what information he received; it is not evidence. He acted on certain information, but he cannot give the particulars of the information he received.

THE COURT: Quite right.

Q14. PROSECUTOR: Proceed, please?
A14. Acting on the information I received -- it is pretty difficult for me to put it that way -- it was a complaint given to me and as a result of that complaint certain inquiries were carried out. I found one War Office Rly Warrant No. 97/619077. I submit the warrant referred to, made out for one return fare from Haselmere to Glasgow and return dated 26-10-41, returning on 2 Nov 41. This warrant was signed in the name of W. Dick, Lieut., for Major, Commandant, Cdn Mil Prison and Det Bk.
Q15. Does it bear the stamp of the orderly room?
A15. Yes sir, 26 Oct 41. On the reverse side of the warrant ---

DEFENCE: The document speaks for itself, I submit. It is not necessary for the witness to read it.

EXHIBIT 1 - War Office Rly Warrant No. 97/619077.

Q16. PROSECUTOR: How did that document come into your possession?
A16. It was picked up by a member of the Det Bks from the Southern Rly.

DEFENCE: I suggest this witness should be cautioned that he is not to give evidence he does not know personally. This is only hearsay evidence.

Q17. PROSECUTOR: How did it come into your possession?
A17. I received it from a member of the Det Bks. On receipt of this warrant I examined the rly warrant books which are in possession of the Det Bks and found certain other warrants removed, their numbers being 97/619078, 97/619340 and 97/619341. On the 17 Nov 41 these warrants came into my possession, having been handed to me by the

No. B-26272, Sgt. G.F. LAWTON, Canadian Detention Barracks, tried by Field General Court Martial at WITLEY, Surrey, on the 14th day of January, 1942.

The order convening the Court, the charge sheet, summary of evidence and medical certificate are laid before the Court.

The Court satisfy themselves as provided by R.P. 22 & 23.

The order convening the Court is read, signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings.

The names of the President and members of the Court are read over in the hearing of the accused, and they severally answer to their names.

Q1. Do you object to be tried by me as President, or by any of the officers whose names you have heard read over?
A1. No, sir.

The President and members are duly sworn.

No officers for instruction present.

Q2. Do you object to No. B-66944, Sgt. T. Pyburn, R.Regt.C., acting as shorthand writer?
A2. No, sir.

The shorthand writer is duly sworn.

The charge sheet is signed by the President and annexed to the proceedings.

The accused is arraigned upon each charge in the above mentioned charge sheet.

Q3. Are you guilty or not guilty of the first charge against you, which you have heard read?
A3. Not Guilty.

PLEA OF MITIGATION:

I would respectfully point out to the Court that Gnr Lawsons record in the Army is generally good. He has seen his share of action with a Field Regiment, and he has proven himself a man of more than considerable responsibility by the fact that he operated a large club, handling men, money and rations in a manner more than satisfactory to his C.O.

Being a responsible man, his absence comes naturally in the course of events. He was obliged to choose between being absent from the Army and, being absent from the moral and legal responsibility of a financially poor and a critically ill wife. He was not prompted by the desire for a prolonged drunk, promiscuous living, or for engaging himself in Black Market activities, or any of those other elements that characterize so many illegal absences. He was a worried young man with the new responsibility of a bride who, at the time of the commencement of the AWL was in a state of collapse. It is of further interest to his case to notice that just as soon as he has assured himself that his wife was satisfactorily on the mend and that he had provided for her financial welfare, he surrendered himself to recognized authority. What type of man could leave a wife when she was in such a condition, and what kind of man would have left before he did.

I would further point out that Gnr Lawson was morally obliged to remain inside the house until such time as the Quarantine was lifted. Had he left the house prior to 16 May, he would have been guilty of an offence against Dutch Law, or for that matter, any country's law. He would therefore, have committed an offence far more grievious than that of illegal absence from the Army.

I therefore contend that his absence actually commenced on 17 May and finished on 25 May, a total of eight days and that whatever punishment the court decides to award, should be based upon that, coupled with the fact that he has been in close custody for a period of 20 days(13 June)

31 days.

B 44984 Hmc. Rawoen R. 2. Hack

the doctor came on may 16 and ordered my wife to remain in bed to make sure the streptomycine and drugs had no after effects. On 22 may I went to Den Haag where I assigned 30 from my pay and drew 70 guilders for my immediate needs. after seeing that my wife would not need me any longer I surrendered myself to 10 Provost Coy on 25 may.

Between 14 Apr and 16 may I looked after my wife and remained in the home. I was not drinking nor visiting night clubs or out with other women.

NO CROSS EXAMINATION.
Examined Pay Court During the time the rawoe was in quarantine I was living there and as far as the civilian medical authorities were concerned I was in quarantine with the rest of the family. I did not do anything with regard to notifying the Canadian authorities. I had been taken off draft to go on pass.

The house was put under quarantine between the 1st and 5th of April. It was before I went there.

R.P. 83(6) complied with.

B 44984 Gnr. Ronald Lawson (RCA/-AA) 2 Cdn Discipline Unit (NWE) having been duly sworn states:

I am B 44984 Gnr Lawson R. I am 23 years of age. I enlisted 10 Nov 42 in the Army. I went to England in June 43. In Sept. 43 I went to North Africa on a special observation course with British Second Army in self propelled gun training. On January 1 I went to Italy. I was in action until 1st and 7th Anti Tank Regts until they disbanded & I came to NWE. I also had action in NWE to conclusion of the war. My Regt. was disbanded & I went to 3 A/T where I was manager of the 3 A/T O.R's club. employing 32 civilians and 4 Canadian soldiers. I handled all the money. I was never criticized for my work. I received papers from the Col. and o/c for the work I had done. I had accepted to remain on the Continent for six months from November 1st and I went to 3 Transit Camp and was employed as an R.P.,

In march of this year they asked for volunteers for additional service on the Continent and was so far as I know it was accepted. I wished to remain on the Continent to marry a girl I met nine months ago. On 4 Apr 46 I received notice for repatriation to Canada. I obtained a pass to the Netherlands from the 6th to the 16th of April to go to Amsterdam to marry my fiancée. I was married on April 11. My wife was undergoing treatment for diphtheria and on 14 Apr she contracted Scarlatina in my wife's home was poor. She is 18 years old and is the sole support of her mother (invalid), sister in confinement and two younger sisters. This paper is a document received from the Health Office containing the lifting of the quarantine on my wife's home on May 16, 1946. [Admitted as Exhibit 3.]

INSTRUCTIONS ON PROCEDURE AFTER ARRAIGNMENT.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated:

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See MML p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C); powers and duties of JA see RP 103; duty of Prosecutor see RP 60(A) (B); duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 83-85; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court, etc, see RP 75-79, 86, 116; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6; and responsibility of JA or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. ~~The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning~~ of the charge(s)[1], and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.[2]
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).[1] If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty[2], or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined[3], we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.[4]

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans No[5]
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 and 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.[1] The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on ..... charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on ..... charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.[1]
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex ....., initialled and read aloud by the President.[1]
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by ~~using Record Form E on p 3~~.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. ~~As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8~~ inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.[1]
(1. RP 37(A) (C).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.[1]
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence as the Court relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using ~~Record Form E on p 3~~.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? Ans No wish[1]
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes ~~his~~ (no) opening address.[1]
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Con 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.[1] ~~The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the ..... charge(s)[2]. The Court is closed, and considers the submission.[3] The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the ..... charge(s), and allowed on the ..... charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s)[4].~~
(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)
NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.[1] You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.[2] You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.[3] But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.[4] You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither? Ans I wish to give evidence myself. ~~Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf? Ans / Are they witnessed as to character only? Ans~~

See RP* 46(A) fn 1, 86(C). Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42. (Notes).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).[1] The finding(s) of the Court is ~~are~~ recorded in Part I of the Schedule.[2] The Court is re-opened.
(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. The President ~~announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and~~ states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the first charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.[1]
~~Or, The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.~~
(1. AA 54(2) (b), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(2), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character?[1]
Ans No wish
(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

I would beg the court's leniency in regard of Lawson as he has spent considerable time as a prisoner, and has served his country well and faithfully.

Plea in mitigation Plea attached at E3

B76878 Pte Lawson M. Cpl.

Enlisted 24 Nov 39

England 5 Dec 39 with Inf Base.

Transferred to 4th Bn Hampshires as unit to Italy in Dec 44.

Lawson served with the 4th until captd 19 Sept 1944 when he was taken prisoner on a daylight patrol.

Was at this time in the Scout Platoon, which is perhaps the most dangerous job in Infantry.

Escaped from the PW cage on 15 April 45 and met the Russians. Was flown to England and 70 CCRP.

Was given 14 days leave on the 23rd April until the 8th May 45.

Upon that he was given a number of 4 days passes, although from this time he was posted as R.A.F.

He was not repatriated as he has a serious conviction in this country and did not want to go to Canada. His wife and child are in this country.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTING OFFICER (CONT'D)

Q. You say you were there for a while and away you would go for a day or so, is that correct?
A. Yes, sir.

Q. In other words you were not there all the time?
A. I was there part of the time.

Q. In other words, you were AWL some of the time?
A. Yes, sir, but not all the time.

Q. Have you ever known men who were AWL to come in and see the Paymaster, fall in at the end of a pay parade and be paid?
A. No, sir.

Q. You did not do that by any chance?
A. No, sir.

Q. Some of the time you were there and some of the time you were not there, and some of the time that you were not there you did not have a pass. Is that right?
A. Yes, sir.

Q. What is the longest period you stayed away without a pass?
A. For five or six days, sir.

Q. How often were parades called in the morning from the period of May to August 1945?
A. There were no morning parades or afternoon parades.

Q. Were you the only one who went away for a day or two without a pass?
A. I don't know about that, sir.

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT

Q. You were living a pretty easy life during the months of May, June, July. In other words, you were there when you felt like it but when you did not feel like it you were not there.
A. Yes, sir.

Q. Then why did you suddenly go absent without leave on 15 August?
A. I just happened to get a little bit of money, so I went away.

Q. And you stayed away until the money was dissipated?
A. Yes, sir.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B).

THE COURT IS CLOSED

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE (CONT'D)

Q. Have you presented it for pay on other occasions?
A. Yes, sir, in May, June, July and August.

Q. Can you give us the dates?
A. 16th May, 13th June, 28th June, 16th July and 15th August.

THE PAY BOOK IS MARKED EXHIBIT 4 BY THE COURT.

Q. What happened when you presented the pay book?
A. When I presented the pay book, entries were made, the pay book was signed and I received the money stated in the pay book.

Q. What were you doing while you were in CRD?
A. I was waiting for a discharge. I had applied for discharge in this country and at that time I filled in a form for discharge in this country. I was told that I would be sent to CITR for fatigues until my discharge came through. We did a lot of moving around and I went from C[redacted] to Malplacquet and Tournay. They seemed to forget all about me.

Q. Did you attend any parades?
A. Yes, sir, on 12th May there was a parade for all the draft going home.

Q. Were you on that parade?
A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was your name called?
A. No, sir. It was just for the men going on draft and as I wasn't going they didn't call my name.

Q. Were there any other parades.
A. I paraded for the Red Cross. All the POWs were coming through there and nobody seemed to know what was going on.

Q. On these various moves, did you move with the company?
A. When we moved to Malplacquet I went to Malplacquet and drew blankets.

Q. How about your kit?
A. We were not given a full kit.

Q. The point I am trying to bring out is how did you move?
A. I reported to Malplacquet.

Q. Were there any further parades when you were in Malplacquet?
A. No, sir.

Q. You were just in the camp, nobody bothered you and you bothered nobody?
A. Yes, sir.

Q. And this continued throughout all the moves of CRD when they moved from one place to another?
A. The way it was they did not seem to miss me. I was away for a couple of days and back again, that is the way it was.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTING OFFICER

Q. You say you did not attend any regular parades?
A. No, sir.

Q. Were there any regular parades?
A. No, sir.

TRIAL OF

This extract is certified to be a true extract by Capt D.C. Bignell, Records Officer CMHQ Records, the officer having custody of the original document.

THE PART II ORDER EXTRACT IS MARKED EXHIBIT 1 BY THE COURT.

I also produce a Certificate in accordance with P.C. 2797 of 10 Apr 42, which shows that the accused was arrested at 0115 hrs on 30 Dec 45.

THE CERTIFICATE IS MARKED EXHIBIT 2 BY THE COURT

I also produce certificate of cost of apprehension, form CMHQ 100:55, in relation to the accused.

THE CERTIFICATE IS MARKED EXHIBIT 3 BY THE COURT

The prosecution rests on the prima facie case which has been established by the Part II Order indicating the commencement of AWL and upon the certificate of apprehension which indicates the conclusion of the AWL. The prosecution does not intend to go beyond the establishing of a prima facie case.

THE PROSECUTION IS CLOSED

DEFENCE

THE DEFENDING OFFICER ADDRESSES THE COURT

The defence wishes to bring forward that Lawson was not AWL until 15 Aug 45 and that during the period between 8 May 45 and 15 Aug 45 he was present at 1 CRD and from there on he was absent. I wish to bring forward this document which is a pay book signed by competent authorities, which shows that at various times during that period Lawson was paid as a member of 1 CRD.

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE

B.76378 Pte Lawson, M., (the accused), CIC, 4 (Gen Rft) Wing, 1 Cdn Repatriation Depot, sworn, states:-

Q. I have just handed you a book, what is it?
A. My pay book.

Q. When did you last produce that document to a Paymaster?
A. On 15 Aug 45 at Tournay Barracks.

INSTRUCTIONS ON PROCEDURE AFTER ARRAIGNMENT.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, ete, offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated:

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See MML p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C); powers and duties of JA see RP 103; duty of Prosecutor see RP 60(A) (B); duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 83-85; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court, etc, see RP 75-79, 86, 116; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6; and responsibility of JA or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans .....(5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B), fn 3, para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on ..... charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on ..... charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex ....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

Pin here Loose Sheets of Record.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? Ans NO SIR.....(1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (any) (no) opening address.(1)
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1) Evidence attached.
(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Can 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) ~~The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the ..... charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the ..... charge(s), and allowed on the ..... charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)~~
NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither?
Ans GIVE EVIDENCE SIR.

Ans NO SIR. ~~Are they witnesses as to character only?~~ Ans ~~.....~~ Evidence attached. Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf?
(1. RP 115. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)
(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order, CF A95. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 86(C). Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 103(e).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s) of the Schedule.(1) The Court is re-opened.
(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

Or, ~~The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.(2)~~
(1. AA 54(3) (6), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character?(1)
Ans NO SIR
(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), and certified true copy (~~extract~~) of Conduct Sheet(s)(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(l) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex B and Ex C respectively.(3)
(1. MFB 355 or AFB 296. 2. MFM 6. 3. RP 46, KR Can 558. If above documents not produced, see RP 46 fn 1 para 1.)

E3. President to accused: Do you wish to address the Court on the Statement(s) and Conduct Sheet(s), and in mitigation of punishment?(1) Ans Defending Officer's plea in mitigation attached
(1. RP 37(C), 46(D). 2. Address, if any, recorded per Notes. Court should permit accused or his witnesses to prove on oath anything here or previously stated which would affect the amount of punishment. RP 37(F) fn 7.)

E4. The President states that the Court is closed to consider the sentence, and that the sentence to be awarded by the Court, being subject to confirmation, will not be announced, but will be promulgated later, and the proceedings in open court are accordingly terminated.(1)
(1. AA 54(6), RP 120(A).)

E5. The Court considers the sentence.(1) The President records the sentence in Part I of the Schedule, which is dated and signed by him ~~and then JA, if any~~.(2)
(1. *When several accused tried separately see RP 71 (D). One sentence only, comprised of the punishment or punishments laid down in AA 41, 44 and its proviso, is to be awarded to cover all charges in all charge sheets on which accused found guilty. RP 48. SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE "C" Gibbons major in the case of B.76378 Pte. Lawson, Marshall, Toronto Scottish Regiment (M.G.), posted to the Canadian Training School, taken before Lieut. W.A. Murray, V.R.C., Assistant Adjutant, Canadian Training School, at Bordon, Hants.

25 Aug., 1942

Summary of Evidence taken on Oath by order of the Commandant.

1st Witness B.87823 L/Cpl. Ormandy, O.G., R.C.R., posted to the Canadian Training School, having been duly sworn, states:-

"Sir, at reveille on 27th July, 1942, on waking, I noticed Pte. Lawson's bed empty. On looking around barracks, he could not be found, and I reported him as absent from 0600 hours, 27th July, 1942."

Q.1 "When did you next see the accused?"

A.1 "This morning on Company orders, Sir."

The accused declines to question the witness.

O.G. Ormandy
(O.G. Ormandy) L/Cpl.

2nd Witness C.5479 L/Cpl. Vance, W.A., H. & P.E. Reg't., posted to the Canadian Training School, having been duly sworn, states:-

"I was guard commander last night, 24th Aug., 42., when Pte Lawson reported to me at the guard room at 0045 hours on morning of 25th Aug., 42. I made a written report of the fact (Exhibit "A") that Pte. Lawson had reported in properly dressed and sober, but made the mistake of putting down the time as 2345 hours, 24-8-42., rather than 0045 hours, 25-8-42. I placed him under close arrest in the guard room."

The accused declines to question the witness.

W.A. Vance.
(W.A. Vance) L/Cpl.

The accused was cautioned as follows:--

"Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on Oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence."

After the above caution, the accused declined to give evidence.

The accused does not call any witnesses for the defence.

I certify that the foregoing Summary of Evidence consisting of one page was taken down by me in the presence of the accused and that Rules of Procedure 4 (C), (D), (E) and (F) have been complied with.

W.A. Murray
(W.A. Murray) Lieut.

Cross examination continued.

I was told I was only getting three days leave as I was going to be given a furlough leave commencing January 4/42 to bring my wife and H. Hospital. I had taken C.C.L. 17 hours on Dec 23rd. being the day I took my wife to hospital. My pass became for Jany 4 & was not granted. I asked Sgt Summers about it & he told me he had not had enough time to get it reading. So I then took 14 days C.C.L. I later applied for leave & was told that through being in detention I would have to work three months plus the time I was in the Guard room plus the time I was absent. During the time I was A.W.L. on the charge now before the Court I was visiting my wife eleven days.

R.P. 83(6) complied with
The court is closed to consider sentence.

---

accused duly sworn states - I enlisted in England the 17th of December 1939 and since then I have had four privilege leaves. The last being the 4th of September 1941 - I show the court my pay book which shows my last priv. leave was 4th of September 1941. I see by my pay book I have had 5 priv. leaves & that is correct. Since then I have applied three times for privilege leave which has been turned down every time. The reason given was because I had been in detention. Being married and my wife who resides in England not being in the best of health I wanted to get home see her for a while. Cross examined - my duties were clerk duties. I have three Conduct badges at this time.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

Summary of Evidence in the case of No. B 76378 Pte. Lawson, M., 2 Canadian Mvision Support Battalion (TSR), on strength of No. 4 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the summary of evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS

For the Prosecution

B 76789 A/L/Cpl. Beaumont, C.E., 2 Canadian Division Support Battalion (TSR), on strength of No. 4 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states as follows:

Sir: I am B 76798 A/L/Cpl. Beaumont, C.E. (TSR) posted to "D" Coy., 4 C.I.R.U., C.A.O. I was Orderly Corporal of "D" Coy. on 19 Sep 43. I called the roll at 0700 hours and the accused B 76378 Pte. Lawson, whom I now recognize, failed to answer his name. I made a thorough search of the Company Lines and found him to be absent and duly reported him as an absentee. I have been continually Orderly Cpl. of "D" Coy. since 19 Sep 43 until to-day and have called the rolls. I next saw the accused at the Detention Barracks, No. 4 C.I.R.U. at about 0745 hours 29 Sep 43. If he had been present at "D" Coy. between the dates mentioned I would have known it.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

C E Beaumont A/L/Cpl
B 76789 A/L/Cpl. Beaumont, C.E.

SECOND WITNESS

For the Prosecution

B137810 L/Cpl. Sharp, N.F., Infantry General List, on strength of No. 4 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states as follows:

Sir: I was night N.C.O. of "C" Coy., 4 C.I.R.U. on the night of 27 Sep 43. At about 2250 hours on this date B 76378 Pte. Lawson, whom I now recognize, surrendered himself at "C" Coy. Orderly Room, stating he had been A.W.L. I then paraded him to the Detention Barracks.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

N V Sharp 137810
B137810 L/Cpl. Sharp, N.F.

The accused was cautioned as follows:- Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence, unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence".

The accused declines to make a statement or to give evidence on oath.

I certify that the foregoing Summary of Evidence, consisting of one page, was taken down by me in the presence and hearing of the accused, and that Rules of Procedure 4(c), (e), (f) and (g) have been complied with.

Plea in mitigation of sentence in case of
B 76378 Pte. Marshall Lawson.

Went home to Croydon on Sunday 19 Sept 43 expecting to see his wife and child. He found nobody there. He went around and made enquiries from friends. Found out nothing at first but later learned she had gone to her home in County Galway, Eire. Having learnt this he figured that to stay away any longer would do them harm so he surrendered himself at No 4 C.R.D. I submit that it was family troubles alone that kept this man away at all as is evidenced by (a) his short absence and (b) his voluntary surrender and I appeal to this court to take these things into consideration when considering sentence.

QMS Pelley, CSM Laurie and myself went to give a statement at the DAPM's office. Sjt Johnson had Sjt McBride in for questioning but did not take a statement from him. It was when we left the office that Sjt McBride said if I knew how much money was missing out of the mess cash box he would go back and get the sum the next morning. He made the statement while very much under the influence of liquor and I add that Sjt Johnson was certainly not sober. Again on Tuesday evening approx 1830 and 1900 hrs at 1 CGRU Sjt McBride told me that he would get some money and make restitution.

Q1. Did you see anything unusual happen in the Mess on the evening of 13 Jun 43?

A. No.

Q2. When I was talking to you would you say I was drunk or sober?

A. You were not drunk.

until a little later 1300 hrs. I again opened at 1630 hrs and closed at 1700 hrs. Opened again at 1800 hrs, stayed open until approx 2315 hours. When I closed the bar SQMS Pelley was behind the bar with me. Sjt McBride then knocked on the door and I allowed him to come in. I was surprised to see him at that time of the night because I hadn't seen him for a long while. He said he wanted to buy a drink so I paid the remark that his money was no good. I poured out two doubles in the one glass which was consumed by Sjt McBride and SQMS Pelley. I did not have a drink myself. I paid for that drink myself. Sjt McBride then bought a drink which he paid for, of which I had no drink. He then told me he was on leave and wanted to know if he could buy a bottle. I told him yes, reason being that that is the only way to buy a bottle out of the mess. It has been the general practice to do this since I first came into the mess over a year ago. I then sold him a bottle of whiskey for 28/ and he said there was not much gin left in that bottle, could he have that too, so I figured there was pretty nearly a 1/3 of a bottle of gin left. I charged him 9/ for that. He paid for both bottles. He then said he wanted a bottle of orange which I gave him and paid for myself. I spent approx £2-10-0 of my own money that week-end in the bar. I then made up my cash (Sjt Lawson hands in statement of his balance on Sat and Sunday, Exhibit "G"). QMS Pelley and Sjt McBride then left the bar by the entrance to the billiard room. I put the wooden bar up to secure the serving window and door through which they went. I also tested to see that the main serving window to the main lounge-room was also secure. I secured the liquor cupboard, turned the lights out, took the cash box with me and locked the door, trying it to make sure it was secure. We then went to the kitchen with the idea of having some tea if it was available. There was nothing of that sort around so Sjt Mc Bride got his suitcase and made a sandwich which he and I ate. I cannot say positivelly how long that had taken as I did not have a watch with me. We left the mess right afterwards and to the best of my knowledge there were none in the mess as I turned out the lights. I wish to state that an officer and S/Sjt Watson were not in the bar after it was closed. QMS Pelley, Sjt McBride and myself walked out to the sidewalk and over towards my room. We stopped approx 40 or 50 yards from the Mess, stood there talking generally, on no particular topic for I would say about one hour. We then proceeded to my room which I would say would be around 0130 hrs. Upon entering my room I went to the inside of my bed, between the wall, opened my bks box and placed the funds in. My reason for doing this was that I considered that the funds of the mess would be safer there than in their customary place in the cupboard. I then came around from behind my bed, sat down, talked with them for a few minutes and Sjt McBride and QMS Pelley left the room. I intended to read which I do every night before going to sleep. I must have fallen asleep immediately. I did not see any drinks being consumed in the room although Sjt McBride wanted me to have one. I told him that I had a lot of work to do the next morning as I was going down to Bordon. In order for anyone to open my barracks box they would have to take the keys out of my hip pocket which were attached to a leather lace and that was attached to a loop in my trousers. The lock to the bks box was not broken the next morning. So in order to gain entry the keys must have been taken off my person and replaced sometime through the night, unbeknown to me. I have a faint recollection of someone covering me up in the night. The next thing I know was that Sjt Slipper informed me that Sjt McBride had had a box which looked like a cash box and stated he had put it into a corner for me. I then went to my bks box, opened it and at the same time as I opened it I saw the cash box which I had replaced in there early in the evening, under my bed. I looked all over the room as I thought he may have hidden the missing money from the box in some spot but nothing turned up. I then got cleaned up, got outside, and on my way out I met CSM Laurie who said "I have some money for you" because we went into the bar last night and took 2 bottles of whiskey". I then asked him who gave him authority to do that. It was then he stated it was Sjt Comba who went into the bar. I also told CSM Laurie to inform CSM Barrett who was Pres of the Mess that someone had stolen £16-10-0 out of the mess funds. I also reported to Sjt Latta at the DAPM's office and then proceeded to the Mess, went into the bar, left the cash box and after a few minutes left the bar leaving the keys with Gnr Butcher. On Tuesday afternoon Sjt Perkins, Sjt Slipper, Sjt Comba,

I am C-40501 C.S.M. Laurie, H., H.&.P.E. Regiment, attached to H.Q., C.R.U.

In the evening of 13 Jun 43 I went to the Sjts' Mess between 1900 and 2000 hours and remained in the anteroom for approx 1 hour. During that time I saw and observed Sjt Lawson and would say as to his condition that he had had a few drinks, that while he was not drunk, I felt that if I had charge I would have had someone with him in the bar. On leaving the Mess I returned to my quarters in "A" Block and went to bed. I was awakened at approx 0230 hrs by QMS Pelley who wanted me to go on a party but I refused. He departed in 5-10 minutes, returning with Sjt McBride and shortly after we were joined by Sjt Comba and Shanley. Someone made the suggestion that they could get some further drinks whereupon Sjt Comba left the room and in a short time returned and made some remarks to the effect "let's go" and I noticed that he had keys in his hands. It was understood we were to go over to Sjt Comba's room and I got up and got dressed, the others having gone on. I started for Comba's room and met the others coming out of the Mess. We all went together to Comba's room and 2 bottles of whiskey were produced. I cannot say which one of the party produced them but they were set up on a table inside the room.

Cross-examination by the accused.

Q.1. You made the remark that I had had a few drinks, how did you know that?

A.1. It's easy to tell when a man has had a few drinks.

Q .2. Was I not kidding everybody as they came up to the bar?

A.2. Yes, that's what I say, you were feeling very happy.

The accused- K.52273 Sjt Lawson, J.B. having been duly sworn states:

I am K.52273 Sjt. Lawson, J.B., Regt'l Funds Board, C.M.H.Q., attached to H.Q., C.R. On 12 Jun 43 I took over the bar from Pte Boucher with the authority of CSM Barrett at 1100 hrs that day. At approx 1145 hrs I opened the bar. I closed the bar shortly after 1300 hrs. I sold a few glasses of beer in the afternoon. I again opened the bar at approx 1645 hrs, closed it at k800 hrs, opened it again at 1900 hrs and closed it shortly after 2300 hrs. I then went to my room. I am satisfied that statements marked as Exhibits "A" & "B", relative to the handover on Saturday are correct. On Sunday I went to the bar at about 0900 hrs, cleaned it up, opened the bar at 1145 hrs, stayed open

4th Witness for the Prosecution

D.82130 Sgt. Slipper, T.B., H.Q., C.R.U., having been duly sworn states:

I am D.82130 Sgt. Slipper, T.B., H.Q., C.R.U. I retired to my quarters in "A" Block between 2400 and 0030 hours on the morning of 17 Jun 43. The room is occupied by S/Sgt LaBelle, the accused, and myself. I cannot be sure of the time but would say approximately 0130 hours to 0200 hours I was awakened by Sgt McBride who had his arms around my neck and was trying to force something in my mouth. I just glenced about the room and noticed Sgt Lawson was lying in his bed withmhis head towards the foot and as far as I can remember he had his uniform on. He was lying very still and gave the appearance of being asleep. Realizing there was a party on and not being desirous of of taking any part in it, I laid down, pulled my blankets over my head and tried to get to sleep. A little later on Sgt McBride again awakened me and talked about some unconsequential matters. Again I laid down and tried to get to sleep and did not pay any attention to time. This disturbance was caused by Sgts Shanley, Comba and McBride who were gathered in the room at Lawson's bedside. I did not pay any attention to them, their conversation was low and I did not hear what was being said. I was later awakened by McBride who was standing in the middle of the room with a black box in his hands. He said "Slip, what shall I do with this, it belongs to John". "Slip" is my nickname. I did not answer, hoping that he would form the opinion that I was asleep but then he brought the box over and placed it on a chair beside my bed stating that there was money in it. I did not recognize the box and paid no particular attention. He took something out of the box which I thought were three £1-0-0 notes and he also showed me what I believed to be a cheque but I did not examine it, which he stated was in the sum of £5-0-0. Again I tried to get to sleep and turned over and pulled the covers over my head. He mentioned something about there being £16-0-0 or £16-10-0 in the box. He then started moving about the room and shortly after called to me and stated that he had put the box in a corner and to be sure to tell Sgt Lawson in the morning. This was the first time I had seen this box and I have no idea of where it had been prior thereto.

Cross-examination by the accused.

Q1. Did you not notify me earlier where the box was placed ?

A. I gave you a nudge earlier and I am not sure whether I told you but I did come back after breakfast to make sure you did know.

Q2. Don't I usually sleep in my bed with my head to the bottom ?

A. Yes, you have done so for a long time.

ly off the bed. His head was towards the foot and the cash box was at the head of the bed. I picked up the cash box, put it on the barracks box, lifted Sjt Lawson who was still fully dressed, placed him properly on the bed and covered him. I picked up the cash box, went over and spoke to Sjt Slipper concerning it and returned to put it in Sjt Lawson's locker but found it to be locked. I then took it and placed it on the bks box in a corner at the head of Lawson's bed. I asked Sjt Slipper to inform Lawson when he awakened in the morning as to where I had put the box. I did not handle the contents or make any examination of the box. I then left the building in company with QMS Pelley and was not again back in the building nor did I see Sjt Lawson for a couple of days. In my opinion Sjt Lawson had been drinking quite heavily some time before but while in my presence he did not take any drink whatsoever except a sip.

Cross-examination by the accused.

Q.1. Would you say I was in such a condition as to be incapable of performing my duties as a soldier?

A.1. No, I wouldn't say you were incapable of that.

End of cross-examination.

K.52761 Sjt McBride, J.C.

I presumed he paid for it but cannot say definitely. AQMS Pelley and I divided this drink and when it was completed I asked for another drink and again I was given the same type of glass with approx the same quantity of whiskey by Sgt Lawson. Again I did not see him pour it out and again I did not pay for it. After this drink was finished I stated that I had had two free rounds and that I wanted to stand a round of drinks. As there were not sufficient whiskey glasses in the bar room, Sgt Lawson and C.S.M. Logan who had come in the meantime went out of the bar in search of glasses but were not successful and came back in the bar-room. Sjt Lawson then took a bottle of whiskey and filled a glass of the type above described full of straight whiskey. On this occasion, no measuring cup was used and it was poured directly from the bottle. I did not pay for this drink and do not know whether anyone else did. QMS Pelley, Sjt Latta and myself made a loving-cup of this glass. Sjt Lawson took only a very small sip. Whenthis drink was finished there were only 4 of us left in the bar. We then went to the kitchen to find some food but were unsuccessful and as I had some cheese, bread and lettuce in my case I went and got these and returned tothe kitchen, made a sandwich which Sjt Lawson and I ate. During the time we were in the bar I had noticed that the cash box was standing on the top of the counter but did not notice Sjt Lawson balancing his cash at any time. After finishing the sandwich Sjt Latta had left by this time, QMS Pelley, Sjt Lawson and I returned to the bar. There QMS Pelley and I each had a drink of rum and a gin and orange but Sjt Lawson refused to have anything todrink. These drinks were poured by myself without a measuring glass and in the presence of Sjt Lawson. I was then desirous of purchasing a bottle of whiskey and Sjt Lawson sold me one for 25/ and I then said that I would take the balance of the gin which remained in the bottle and would amount to approx 1/3 of a bottle. For the bottle of whiskey and that of gin I gave him 30/, a £1-0-0 note and a 10/ note. That was the only money transaction which I saw in respect of any drinks served in the bar while I was there with the exception that I recall I did give Sjt Lawson 2/6d for a ½-beer glass of whiskey.

After the purchase of the whiskey QMS Pelley and I left the bar. I was carrying my bag and a bottle of orange squash, also taken from the bar, and QMS Pelley carried the gin and whiskey. We waited at the entrance to the Mess while Sjt Lawson presumably locked the door of the bar. He joined us, carrying the cash box under his arm and we proceeded in the direction of "A" Block but on the way we stopped in the street for some little time had a general conversation. We then carried on to Sjt Lawson's room in "A" Block, I would approximate the time as being about 0200 hours. On entering the room Sjt Lawson made a sharp right wheel and went between his bed and knelt down in front of a bks box located there. What he did I do not know but in just a few moments he came around his bed and sat down on it and talked with us. Sjt Lawson did not have a drink but QMS Pelley did.

From the time that Sjt Lawson was at his Bks Block until approx 0400 hrs I did not see the cash box. At approx the hour mentioned I returned to Sjt Lawson's room which was the first time I had been there since QMS Pelley and I had left it and the cash box was then lying on the bed but I am positive it was not in exhibition when we left the room before. On leaving Sjt Lawson's room QMS Pelley and I proceeded to a room occupied by CSM Laurie, S/Sjt Spence, Sjt Perkins, and we were joined there by Sjts Combe and Shanley; the former made the suggestion that we get some more liquor from the mess and someone suggested that he could get the keys whereupon Sjts Combe and Shanley left the room and went directly across to Sjt Lawson's room. When the suggestion was made that the keys be obtained and get more whiskey from the Mess QMS Pelley and I raised objections as we did not want to see Lawson get stuck. When the parties insisted on going we followed along and on arrival at the Mess the keys were produced by and the bar opened by Sjt Combe. There were present Sjts Combe and Shanley, QMS Laurie, S/Sjt Spence, QMS Pelley and myself. QMS Pelley and I again took the attitude and insisted that a collection immediately be taken to pay for the whiskey which was being taken, namely two bottles. The money was collected by Sjt Combe. Later the money was handed to me, £1-18-6 and a further 10/ was to be contributed the following morning by S/Sjt Spence.

At approx 0400 hours I returned to Sjt Lawson's room for the purpose of getting my bag and hat which I had left there. I'd had enough of the party and was ready to go home. On entering the room I found that Sjt Lawson was sound asleep and partly on and part-

Q.1 ...

A. He said "I'll go and get the money". I took it to mean the amount of money missing out of the cash box.

Q2. What condition was Sgt McBride in after the interview at the DAPM's office ?

A. I would say that he was highly inebriated.

Q3. What condition was I in ?

A. As sober as you are now, to all appearances.

Q4. When you saw Sgt Johnson with Sgt McBride at the DAPM's office, what condition was Sgt Johnson in ?

A. It would be very hard to say who was inebriated the most between Johnson and McBride.

Q5. What did Sgt Combs say to me in front of yourself and CSM Laurie when I accosted him as to where he got the keys and how did he get in the bar ?

A. He said "I don't remember".

Q6. When I said to him "Who opened the bar" ?

A. He said "I did ".

Q7. What was my condition when we left the bar Sunday night ?

A. I would consider you perfectly capable.

End of cross-examination.

K.52761 Sgt. McBride, J.C. attached Instrs Pool, H.Q., C.R.U., having been duly sworn states:

I acknowledge that the Officer taking the Summary has advised me of my rights, namely, that since a charge has been preferred against me arising out of the affairs of the night 13/14 Jun, I am not compelled as a witness in this case to give any statement or to answer any question, either an examination or cross-examination which would tend to incriminate me, either in respect of the charge preferred against me or in any charge or charges which may be subsequently laid. I clearly understand my position and will give the following statement.

I am K.52761 Sgt. McBride, J.C., attached to the Instructors' Pool, H.Q., C.R.U. I arrived at the Sgts' Mess at approximately 2345 hours Sunday 13 Jun 43. I am able to fix this time because I had taken the train from Reading at 2230 hours which arrived at North Camp Station at 2350 hours and I would estimate the time from the station to the Mess to be about 10-15 minutes. On arrival I found no one in the anteroom and the bar was closed. I went to the door of the bar and rapped and the door was opened and I found in the bar AQMS Pelley, Sgts Latta and Lawson, S/Sgt Watson and an officer whom I did not know. I asked if I might have a drink and Sgt Lawson said I could and he got me a drink. I did not see him pour this drink but he handed me what I would describe as a half-pint beer glass which was approximately half full of clear whiskey. I can't definitely state the quantity but it was more than a normal double whiskey which is served in the Mess. I offered to pay for this drink but Sgt Lawson refused the money stating that my money was no good in the Mess. ~~I offered money~~

Q1 -
A (Cont'd) in the anteroom and I thought he looked very sick. I offered him a cup of tea but he refused. I told him he looked as if he needed a cup of tea badly. He said "Didn't you hear about it ?" I said "About what ?" "Somebody clipped Johnny £16-10-0 of the bar money". That's the reason I didn't clear the bar out.

Q2. What was my condition ?

A. You were sober when you came in on Monday morning.

4th WITNESS for the Prosecution

K.57095 AQMS. Pelley, D.M., M.T. Sect, H.Q., C.R.U. having been duly sworn states:

I acknowledge that the officer taking the Summary has advised me of my rights, namely, that since a charge has been preferred against me arising out the affairs of the night 13/14 Jun 43 I am not compelled as a witness in this case to give any statement or to answer any question or questions, either an examination or a cross-examination which would tend to incriminate me, either in respect of the charge preferred against me or in any charge or charges which may be subsequently laid. I clearly understand my position and will give the following statement.

I am K.57095 AQMS Pelley, D.M., M.T. Section, H.Q., C.R.U. At approximately 2100 hours Sunday evening 13 Jun 43 I went to the Sgts' Mess where I had several drinks and about 2130 hours had some tea which was served according to custom after which I had several more drinks the number I cannot tell you. Just prior to the bar being closed Sgt McBride arrived and he and I, with Sgt Lawson were inside the bar - McBride ordered a drink and Sgt Lawson poured out a drink. I do not really know whether it was whiskey or gin, in a small pewter mug and from that poured it into a glass and handed it to Sgt McBride. The latter passed it to me to have a drink, a sort of a loving-cup, which I did, handed it back to him and he finished it. I cannot say that anymore drinks were had before we left the bar but I do know that Sgt McBride made a purchase of some bottled spirits but I cannot state the amount which he paid nor the quantity procured. While we were in the bar I noticed Sgt Lawson was making up his cash but I paid no particular attention to it because I was talking to Sgt McBride. On closing the bar at approximately 2300 hours to 2315 hours Sgt Lawson, Sgt McBride and myself went to the kitchen in the Mess to see if we could arrange for something to eat. This was not possible so we proceeded outside and walked a short distance, when we stopped and had a general conversation. When we left the Mess Sgt Lawson was carrying a metal box under his arm but I am unable to state whether it was or was not a cash box. We stood talking for something in the neighborhood of half an hour and the three of us proceeded to "A" Block and went to Sgt Lawson's room. Sgt Lawson was in the lead and the door opens to the right. His bed is immediately to the right and behind the door when it is open, and when I entered the room as near as I can recall, he was up at the end of his bed between it and the wall, but what he was doing I cannot say as I was not paying particular attention. Sgt McBride asked Sgt Lawson if he could have a drink but he refused and no bottle and no drink was produced at that time to my knowledge. Sgt Lawson sat down on his bed near the head and we talked for about 10-15 minutes when Sgt McBride and I left him in his room. From the time we left Sgt Lawson's room until Monday morning my mind is a complete blank, and consequently, I am not able to give any evidence or assistance as to the events which took place in that period.

Cross-examination by the accused.

Q1. When we went to the DAPM after the interview with Sgt Johnson, what did Sgt McBride say to the both of us ?

the effect that no credit was to be granted to Members unless with the approval of the President, and also that a sale by bottle was permitted, if there was a surplus, to a member of the Mess who was going on leave. I have followed the above instructions and credit has not been granted except with the approval of the President, and only on one occasion have I sold whiskey to a member by the bottle.

In order to assist in the taking of the evidence of this witness the Officer taking the Summary deems it advisable to use the services of an interpreter, and with the approval of the accused D.91272 L/Sgt. Leveaux, R. J C.A.S.C.R.U., was sworn and the oath administered as per R.F.27.

(Major S.A. German, Officer taking Summary)

(The statement continues)... The keys which I handed over to Sgt Lawson numbered three and were on a small key ring. I received the same back in good condition on the Monday.

Cross-examination by the accused.

Q1. To whom did you sell the bottle of whiskey you refer to ?

A. To S/Sgt. Spence.

3rd WITNESS for the Prosecution: C.5685 Gnr. Butcher, W.J., H.Q., C.R.U., having been duly sworn states:

I am C.5685 Gnr. Butcher, W.J., H.Q., C.R.U. and am employed as General Duties man in the Sgts' Mess of H.Q., C.R.U.

I was on duty in the Mess on Monday morning 14 Jun 43. At approx 0630 hours AQMS Pelley and Sgt McBride came into the kitchen and asked me if I had seen a suitcase. I told them to look in the billiard room to which room they went, and I accompanied them. AQMS Pelley offered me a drink which I refused. I did not see the bottle so cannot say whether or not it was spirits or beer or what, but I noticed something concealed in his tunic which from the outline appeared to be a bottle, about the size of a whiskey bottle. The suitcase was not found and they left. At approximately 0900 hours Sgt Lawson whom I now recognise came to the Mess, unlocked and entered the bar. Very shortly after Sgts Couba and Latta entered the room and they too went to the bar door. At this time I was cleaning up tables in the Mess anteroom. They were there about 10 minutes and came away each with a drink of scotch and a small glass of beer. In a few minutes Sgt Lawson came out of the bar, locked the door, handed me the keys and asked me to clean the bar out. The keys remained in my possession until approximately 1100 hours when Pte Boucher arrived and I handed them over to him. I did not enter the bar at any time during the interval between the departure of Sgt Lawson and the arrival of Pte Boucher. Sgt McBride's appearance indicated to me that he had been drinking and AQMS Pelley was very much under the influence when I saw them. When Sgt Lawson entered the Mess I noticed he was carrying a box under his arm which I recognised as being the cash box. He took it into the bar with him but I can't say whether or not he took it out when he departed as I did not pay any particular attention.

Cross-examination by the accused.

Q1. Why did you not clean out the bar as I told you ?

A. After you left on Monday Sgt Couba was sitting at a table

These, when the bar is closed, can be securely locked.

I produce as Exhibit "F" a copy of Camp Standing Orders for H.Q., C.R.U. issued by the Commander, Brigadier F.H. Phelan, D.S.O., M.C., V.D. dated 1 Mar 42 and particularly refer to paragraph 13 thereof which in part reads "no spirits or malted beverages will be consumed in rooms". This Order has not to my knowledge been repealed, altered or amended.

I have no personal knowledge of what took place on the night 13/14 Jun 43.

With respect to the matter of credit, on checking the monies on hand on Monday 14 Jun 43 I found that there were chits in the amount of £6-5-4 and, since credit was not to be extended, I ordered that the chits be chashed by the Members.

Cross-examination by the accused.

Q1. Is it not true that chits have been used previous to that ?

A. Not to my knowledge, except in the case of a dance when no credit could be allowed.

Q2. I have myself on previous occasions given chits.

A. I wouldn't say that it has not been done, but not to my knowledge.

Q3. Do you think that the serving door of the bar is sufficiently secured when the bar is closed ? I mean the large serving window.

A. As far as I know it is; there are two bolts, one on each end of the window.

Q4. Is not the serving window leading to the billiard room secured by a piece of wood ?

A. There is a piece of wood cut to hold the window in position, the door otherwise is locked.

I was granted a week-end pass from noon Saturday 12 Jun 43 to noon Monday 14 Jun 43. On the instruction of CMS Barrett the accused, Sgt Lawson was to take over the canteen and accordingly on Saturday morning an inventory was taken of the stocks and of the cash on hand and I handed over to Sgt Lawson at approximately 1100 hours that morning. The stock on hand and the cash is as set out in Exhibits "A" and "B". This inventory was taken and prepared by me in the presence and assistance of Sgt Lawson who checked the same.

On Monday 14 Jun 43 on my return to the Mess I was given the keys to the bar by Gnr. Butcher who is employed as Gen Duties man in the Mess.

I then went to the bar and checked the cash which I found in the cash box which I found locked in the cup-board in its customary place. I then checked the stock and noticed that something was wrong because the amount of money did not correspond with the amount of stock which had been disposed of. I reported the matter to CSM Barrett and with him prepared statements, copies of which I identify as being Exhibits "A" and "C". A recapitulation was prepared which I recognise as being Exhibit "D" which shows a deficit of £29-17-9. My instructions which were received from Sgt Virtue from whom I took over the Mess were to

End of cross-examination by the accused.

A.Capt. C.S.M. Barrett, S.S.C.

E.17006 Pte. Saucier, A. attached to H.Q., C.S.C. having been duly sworn stated:

I am E.17006 Pte. Saucier, A. attached to H.Q., C.S.C. and since 16 May 43 I have been employed as Mess Steward in the Sgts' Mess of that H.Q.

I am in charge of the canteen and accordingly on Saturday 12 Jun 43 Monday 14th Jun 43. On the instruction of CMS Barrett the accused, Sgt Lawson was to take over this canteen and accordingly on Saturday noon Sgt Lawson was taken over at 4.00 p.m. by the accused, and myself assisted by Sgt Lawson at 4.00 p.m. on Saturday 12 Jun 43 and myself, we checked the stock in hand and ascertained that everything was correct. This inventory was signed by Sgt Lawson who checked the same. I was given the keys in the bar by Sgt. Lawson and then left the canteen at 4.00 p.m. on Saturday. The stock in hand at 4.00 p.m. is as set out in Exhibit "A" on Monday 14 Jun 43 I returned to the Mess that morning at 8.30 a.m. and checked the stock in hand which is as set out in Exhibit "A" I then went to the bar and checked the cash which I found in the keys in the bar. I found locked in the cash-board in its customary place. I then went to the bar end and noticed that something was wrong because I found that the cash-board had been moved from its customary place. I then went to the bar end and noticed that the cash-board had been moved from its customary place. I found locked in the cash-board in its customary place. I then went to the bar end and noticed that something was wrong because I found in the case of

K.52277 Sgt. Lawson, J.E., Regimental Funds Board, C.M.H.Q., attached to H.Q. Cdn Reinforcement Units, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

The A.A. & Q.M.G., Headquarters, Cdn Reinforcement Units, Lt-col. D.F. Spankie, directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

1st WITNESS for the Prosecution — A.21294 C.S.M. (W.O.II) Barrett, B.H., H.Q., Cdn Rft Units, having been duly sworn states.

I am A.21294 C.S.M. Barrett, B.H., Camp Sergeant-Major of H.Q., C.R.U. and at the time of the affair in question I was President of the Sergeants' Mess of the said Headquarters.

On Saturday 12 Jun 43 E.77022 Pte. Boucher, A. who had been employed and was still employed as Sgts' Mess Caterer was going on a 48-hour pass. I, as the President of the Sgts' Mess, detailed the accused to take charge of the canteen, of the stocks on hand, of the sales, of the petty cash and any and all proceeds of sales and generally the supervision of the canteen. Pte Boucher left at approximately 1100 hours of that date and Sgt Lawson assumed control. I did not pay any particular attention to the conduct of the affairs and it was not until Monday morning 14 Jun 43 when I learned that some of the monies had disappeared. I as soon as possible interviewed the accused who advised that a sum of approximately £16-10-0 of the Mess Funds had been stolen from the cash box which he had taken to his quarters for security.

After the return to the Mess of Pte Boucher I made an investigation respecting the stock of spirits and the amount of cash which had been turned over to the accused on Saturday. I also checked the stock on hand on Monday which was the amount turned back to the Caterer and I now produce a statement in respect to the same. I also produce a copy of the statment which was prepared at my instructions which covers all stocks in trade, cash on hand, values, as of Saturday 12 Jun 43 and Monday 14 Jun 43. These statements when prepared were submitted to the Treasurer and Caterer of the Mess who, after checking, signed them as correct along with myself. I produce a recapitulation for the period of approximately 1200 hrs Saturday 12 Jun 43 to 1200 hours Monday 14 Jun 43, showing a deficit of £29-17-9. It is pointed out that since the time this statement was prepared the sum of £1-0-0 has been received so that the deficit is now £28-17-9, as shown on the charge sheet.

Since the affairs were in a confused state it was not possible to ascertain how much of the stock had been sold by the glass and how much by the bottle, and in order to make a fair estimate the spirits were treated as being sold by the bottle at a profit of 5/ per bottle.

Exhibit "A" Statement as to Stock Inventory of spirits and soft drinks handed over on Saturday 12 Jun 43 and Monday 14 Jun 43; Exhibit "B" Copy of complete stock inventory and cash on hand as of 1200 hrs 12 Jun 43; Exhibit "C" copy of complete stock inventory and cash on hand as of 1200 hours 14 Jun 43; Exhibit "D" recapitulation showing deficit.

I produce a statement Exhibit "E" showing the hours at which the bar is to open for business, both on week days and on week-ends. These hours are fixed by the Mess Committee, are posted in conspicuous places in the Mess, and should be known to all Members.

In respect to the question of credit, no credit is allowed to any member or members as laid down in Rules and Regulations governing the Mess. These Rules and Regulations are contained in the Minutes.

It has been the practice for the Mess Caterer to keep the cash box and funds in a cupboard, secured by a padlock and built into the bar-room proper. This bar has three doors, one leads into the hall of the Mess, one leads to the Kitchen, and double-doors leading outside of the building.

regulations of the Mess regarding them.

I ask the Court, is it reasonable that one who has the responsibility and the charge of possibly £100-0-0 worth of cash and stock in trade, not to take off an inventory at the end of his tour of duty, and not to balance his cash against that inventory, but on the contrary to walk out of the Mess and hand the keys to a general duty man. That is not misjudgment, nor is it misjudgment in permitting members behind the bar to have access to the bar.

THE COURT IS CLOSED TO CONSIDER ITS FINDING:

WO finds the accused not guilty on the 1st charge and that guilty subject to exceptions

THE COURT IS REOPENED AND ANNOUNCES THAT IT CANNOT ANNOUNCE ITS FINDING, BECAUSE ITS FINDING IS ONLY VALID WHEN CONFIRMED

THE PROSECUTOR PRODUCES MFB 355 and MFM 6 IN CONNECTION WITH THE ACCUSED.

RP 46 (b) IS COMPLIED WITH

THE ACCUSED DECLINES TO MAKE A STATEMENT IN MITIGATION:

CAO RO 3262 is complied with

THE COURT IS CLOSED TO CONSIDER THE SENTENCE:

PROCEEDINGS IN OPEN COURT ARE CONCLUDED:

PROSECUTOR: "Chits are not negotiable sir. I am looking from the point of view of cash outside of negotiable instruments which they would have to forge. I am saying that there was only £5-0-0 difference on each night, and yet the accused decided to take it home for the difference of £5-0-0."

Again he admits that he slept all through the blitz in London. Then why didn't he take more caution. They had no difficulty without his knowledge of taking the keys from him. Why didn't he go one step further. If he had left his keys on his box it would have been simple for anyone to take them up and open the box. But knowing himself to be a very sound sleeper, he still leaves the keys in his pocket, which I submit amounts to the same thing. Again I say that while that was an error of judgment, he has still to account for it. He stopped too, which I consider to be negligence, while carrying that cash box under his arm. Anything could have happened then.

There is also this feature -- I submit that these funds were taken to his room and placed in the Barrack box, he admits this in his own evidence. It was placed in their in view of two members of the Mess who accompanied him to his quarters. Now the idea developed during the course of the party that the keys could be obtained. Is it not possible that they could obtain the whiskey with any less degree of concealment than they could have removed the cash box from the cupboard if it had been there. I submit that it would have been much more difficult to remove it from the cupboard in the bar, than it would have been to remove it from the barrack box, where there was no one present to witness the act.

I don't base my whole argument or the whole Prosecution on the £16-10-0. I cannot say that I do not feel that Sgt. Lawson is to a certain extent an unfortunate victim of circumstances on the night of this party, or of circumstances which resulted from this party. But I do state that there was that degree of Negligence required under Section 40 of the A.A., and on the point of Conduct to the Prejudice of Good Order and Military Discipline or Neglect to the Prejudice of Good Order and Military Discipline, it has to be Conduct or Negligence as established by custom, and not necessarily as laid down by present day orders and routine. What has been the custom and the practice throughout the Army over the years; and it is on that custom and that practice that the A.A. present day regulations are based. We have then K.R. Can. which lends a certain degree of balance to the A.A.

Summarizing sir, I do not propose to deal with all these witnesses separately. The Court has listened today and has had the opportunity to study them individually. I do however submit this. The accused has been negligent in, A, permitting persons or members of the Mess to enter the bar after hours, during the time when he is balancing off his cash, having the cash box, which he has not denied, open and accessible to these persons; B, permitting those members to pour themselves drinks, not using standard measure or any measure whatsoever --

DEFENDING OFFICER: "That is in dispute."

PROSECUTOR CONTINUES: "Then let us say it is in dispute and for the Court to decide, but I would draw your attention to the fact that the accused's evidence in that connection was taken up in rebuttal with this witness who repeated his original statement." -- "Sir, I am basing my argument on the evidence adduced. The Sgt. himself says that a drink was poured for Sgt. McBride and that he told him his money was no good, but has he told this Court today that he put in the money for the drinks. Before that night he stated that he -- over the weekend he paid £2-10-0 --

THE PRESIDENT: "I don't think that the accused admitted that he allowed Sgt. McBride to pour drinks."

PROSECUTOR CONTINUES: "Now, there is the evidence pro and con, and again it is up to the Court to decide. He did make a sale of one bottle of whiskey and a part bottle of gin to Sgt. McBride, and Sgt. McBride says he paid £1-10-0 for it. The accused says 37 shillings. Now, I submit that 30 shillings, if you accept the word of Sgt. McBride, was not a correct price for it. That a sale of gin on a direct estimate basis of a portion of a bottle was not a correct sale. Regarding the chits, you have the rules and his knowledge or consent, removed the cash and the stock. They gentlemen are the ones who should be called upon to account for the cash and the stock, and not the accused. Nor was the accused so negligent that he lost the stock and money -- far from it. That negligence gentlemen must be shown to be either wilful or culpable, and not gentlemen merely the result of forgetfulness, error, misjudgment or inadvertence. The law requires only that he take reasonble care, and I submit Mr. President that he has taken much more, and is not required to pay for the mischievous or malicious acts of others, which were committed unknown to him. As you have seen gentlemen, the accused far from being wilful or culpable in negligence, has shown himself to be a man who took more than the reasonable precautions. I submit gentlemen, that there is no evidence on which to convict the accused on the charges before the Court.

CLOSING ADDRESS BY THE PROSECUTOR:

"I would ask the Court to recall my remarks of this afternoon and in addition thereto, I would ask the Court to take into consideration the following points.

As my learned friend is dealing with the loss of £16-10-0 in cash. Assuming the correctness of his contentions and accepting his arguments, he has still offered no explanation to the Court, for the difference of £14-7-9. It was the opinion of the accused in the witness box, that this represents stock which was removed from the bar on that evening, but the figures are not offered in evidence. We have against the evidence of the accused, the evidence of the participants of the party that night, that there were only two bottles of whiskey removed that night, at a fair value of £3-0-0, there is still the difference to account for. The accused himself has admitted the disappearance of a bottle of rum in a manner in which he cannot account for, but certainly if it was possible to remove it in the way he suggested, then it was not only a matter of negligence, but culpable negligence in making it possible. It is not suggested that the bottle was removed on Sunday night, because it was removed prior to that on his own admission. How much was removed in the same manner we do not know.

The accused suggests that all the balance disappeared that night of 13-th and 14th of June. That I submit is impossible for him to suggest or hope to prove in view of the evidence which has been given before you. Had he made a proper statement and one which he as a member of the Regtl. Funds Board advocates, had he made up that statement at the close of business on Saturday night, there would be something to produce to the Court today. Yet the accused asks the Court to believe that the sales amounted to £6-8-1. It is quite clear that the accused did not check his stock against cash receipts. It might well be that on Saturday night had he checked, there would have been a discrepancy there. Since he has not answered that question, I submit that he cannot answer that question. I submit that is not any error of judgment at all, but because of his particular duties and particular training in civilian life, that the accused is in the position that he should exert a greater degree of care and accuracy. He is not a stranger to this sort of thing. He has been assisting and advising this particular Mess Secretary and the Committee. He has admitted that they had not installed the books and sustem which he and the Regtl. Funds Board advocate, yet is that any excuse for him to say now, "I just followed the old procedure", one which he agrees was wrong. Even for two days you can take off an inventory, even though you have not the inventory sheets.

Now, the question arises, "Why didn't he take these funds to his barrack room on Saturday night?". He states that he took them on Sunday night because there was a considerably larger amount, yet looking at his own figures on Saturday he had £22-4-8 and on Sunday he had £41-12-4. That amount of Sunday was composed only of £23-0-0 in cash, as compared with £18-0-0 on Saturday. The balance were chits and unnegotiable instruments.

THE PRESIDENT: "Do you say £18-0-0?"

PROSECUTOR: "On Sunday night he had in cash £17-10-0 in bills and £5-0-0 in silver roughly, which amounts to £22-10-0 in cash."

THE PRESIDENT: "How about chits?"

entered the bar as well as his barrack box and the cash box. In addition the Prosecution must show that the negligence was wilful and culpable, and not just merely the result of forgetfulness or error in judgment or inadvertence. That is, his negligence must be deliberate and with full intent, before a conviction can be registered against the accused.

Now, gentlemen, turning to the evidence we see that the accused was ordered to act as bartender, a job for which he had no particular qualifications, in so far as the sale of drinks was concerned, in which capacity he had never acted before, yet the President of the Mess Committee must have had confidence in him, otherwise he would not have detailed the accused for this job. The bar itself appears to have the one door -- the serving door -- which was improperly secured by two small brass bolts which themselves give the impression of having been previously forced. It would have apparently been a simple matter for anyone to gain entry to the Mess and then to the bar through this second means of entry which I have mentioned. A Conscientious man like the accused, particularly a new man on the job, realizing this, would naturally take further steps towards the security of this box, like taking the cash box to his bedroom and keeping it locked up there, as was done in this case. After all he had no reason whatsoever, to suspect the other members who slept in his quarters.

As to the accused's condition while performing his duties, we have the evidence of S/Sgt. Watson, S/Sgt. Carlson and Sgt. Watson, that the accused was quite sober as late as 2245 hrs on the night of the 13th of June. Sgt. Perkins who is a teetotaller and consequently well able to judge, testifies that he was quite sober. From the hours of 2200 and 2300 S/Sgt. Watson who was also present until closing time says that he was sober. Now, the evidence of CQMS Pelley shows that the accused refused drinks offered to him later, in the accused's room. Even Sgt. McBride admits this. So that I submit gentlemen that it appears as though the accused was not drunk at any time on the 13th of June or on the morning of the 14th of June, and consequently quite capable of carrying out his duties, through the whole of his tour of duty.

Then, after the closing of the bar at 2300 hrs. the accused apparently carried the cash box to his room and locked it in his iron bound barrack box, he having knowledge which is corroborated that the bar had previously been entered at some time, and bearing in mind the rather flimsy construction of the cupboard in which the cash box was ordinarily kept. Now, the accused locked the cash box in that iron bound barrack box, which was at the head of his bed between the bed and the wall. This I submit, was a doubly safe measure, since the key of the bar and barrack box were on a leather thong which was attached to the belt of the accused's battle dress. The accused slept apparently in his battle dress, and as I have pointed out before, he had no reason whatsoever to suspect any member of the Mess of robbing him of these keys. Now, there were present in the room at this time, Sgt. McBride and CQMS Pelley. Apparently Sgt. Slipper was asleep in the corner of the room. After 10 or 15 minutes conversation with the accused, Sgt. McBride and CQMS Pelley moved on to the room occupied by CSM Laurie, Sgt. Perkins and S/Sgt. Spence, where they were joined by Sgt. Comba and Sgt. Shanley. As to what happened next, the evidence is that someone made the suggestion that they could get some more drinks, Sgt. Comba, whereupon he left the room and returned and made some remarks such as, "Let's go" and the evidence is that there were some keys in his hand. The fact that Sgt. Comba had the keys is also born out on the evidence of Sgt. Perkins. As to what happened in the accused's room when Comba went to get the keys, Sgt. Slipper said he saw one of the party with the cash box in his hands, and that he saw him with money and cheques in his hands amounting approximately to the missing money. Now, bearing in mind gentlemen, that the evidence shows that the accused was not asleep while this was happening, and that the accused is being charged with being unable to account for money which it has been shown was removed from the cash box by other men or man unknown to the accused. There is no evidence that the accused surrendered the cash box.

Now, CSM Laurie got dressed and left his quarters, and saw Sgt. Comba and Sgt. Shanley come out of the Mess, and the whiskey was produced. S/Sgt. Spence has further stated on oath that further liquor and beer were produced. There gentlemen is a picture, there is the basis of the charge against the accused today. The accused has locked up his stock and cash, apparently securely for the night, and he has then gone to sleep. Other persons unknown to him without Q.808 You went to Sgt. Comba's room to consume whiskey, is that right?

A.808 Yes, sir.
Q.809 How many bottles of whiskey did you see produced in that room?
A.809 To be sure sir, two.
Q.810 It is suggested by the evidence today, that there were in the neighborhood of from 5 to 7 bottles removed from the bar that night and consumed. What do you say as to that?
A.810 I didn't see them.
Q.811 You were with the party from the time it left 'A' block until it broke up at a later time in Sgt. Comba's room, is that correct?
A.811 No, sir, they were still there when I left sir.
Q.812 Was there any discussion of any more being produced?
A.812 No, sir.
Q.813 Who had the keys at that time, when you left there -- do you know?
A.813 I believe the man that opened the bar sir.
Q.814 Who was that?
A.814 Sgt. Comba sir,
Q.815 Was he in possession of the keys when you left the party?
A.815 To the best of my knowledge sir.
Q.816 Now, did you see Sgt. Lawson the accused during the evening of Sunday, 13th of June, 1943?
A.816 Yes, sir. I saw him early in the evening, at approximately, it would be after 7 and before 9, in between there.
Q.817 Sgt. Lawson has stated that on that evening he was not under the influence of liquor. What would you say as to that statement?
A.817 Well, I wouldn't say he was under the influence, but I would say he had a few drinks. But he was not under the influence of liquor.
Q.818 But what would you say as to his capabilities of handling the job which he was performing that night? In your opinion was he capable?
A.818 As I say, I was only in there a short time, and not paying too much attention to him, but I should think that he should have had some help in there.
Q.819 Would you tell the Court why you think that he should have had some help?
A.819 Well, just from his actions, you can tell when a man has had a drink.
Q.820 A drink or drinks?
A.820 Well, it is just guess work on my part. I would say he had a few drinks and he seemed as though he was feeling pretty good.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

Q.821 Would you say that Sgt. Lawson was incapable of carrying out his duties?
A.821 I wouldn't say that.
Q.822 When you left the bar in the hours of the morning, did you see anybody lock the door.
A.822 Well, sir, I was not in the bar then.

(In the opinion of the Court, it is not necessary to comply with RP 83 (b) in connection with this witness.)

PROSECUTOR: "That is the rebuttal sir."

CLOSING ADDRESS BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

"Mr. President and Gentlemen, I made certain submissions earlier in the day, and as I pointed out then the accused is charged with Neglect to the Prejudice of Good Order and Military Discipline, in that he did so negligently perform his duties that he did lose stock and money to the amount of £28-17-9, and a charge in the alternative under the same Section that as a result of negligence he was unable to account for the sum of £28-17-9.

Now gentlemen, as I pointed out previously in the day, Negligence under Section 40 must be as follows (reads the paragraph in the Note at the foot of page 458 and 1st paragraph at the top of page 459, of M.M.L.). Now I ask you gentlemen, how the actions of certain NCOs in practically stealing stock and breaking into this cash box, as well as breaking into the bar and removing certain whiskeys and beer possibly, so reflects on the accused as to fairly show that he was guilty of negligence to the Prejudice of Good Order and Military Discipline.

It amounts in a word to this: The accused was asleep and they robbed him and

Q.791 (con'd) ber that situation?
A.791 No, sir, I didn't return to Sgt. Lawson's room from the time I left it with Sgt-Major Pelley.
Q.792 Until you went back at 0400 hrs. or thereabouts.
A.792 That's right sir.
Q.793 You will recall that in your evidence in chief, you told of the drinks which you had in the bar after your arrival on the evening, that is on the evening of Sunday, 13th of June, 1943. Do you recall what you said?
A.793 Yes, sir.
Q.794 Sgt. Lawson has stated in his evidence that only one drink was served, or was it 2 drinks were served, and they were served by himself?
A.794 There were 3 drinks served sir, by Sgt. Lawson.
Q.795 Sgt. Lawson has stated that after leaving the bar and going to the kitchen, that you did not again return to the bar?
A.795 We returned to the back bar of the Sgts' Mess, after we had been in the kitchen.
Q.796 And he has denied that you served yourself with any drinks, and that he did not serve you with a full glass of whiskey at all, what do you say as to that?
A.796 Sgt. Lawson served us with a full half beer glass of whiskey, which was shared as sort of a loving cup.
Q.797 And as to your helping yourselves, he states that if you did that, it was not done with his authority, what do you say as to that?
A.797 I poured out 2 drinks of rum, Sgt. Lawson stated that he didn't want any more to drink, and told us to go ahead and have a drink.
Q.798 Now, with regard to the missing money, it has been stated here Sgt., that on Tuesday at the time of the Meeting in the office of Sgt. Johnson, which is located at CRU in the DAPMs Branch, that you stated that you would get the money the next morning -- what do you say as to that?
A.798 I have no recollection whatsoever of making such a statement.
Q.799 It is stated that on a subsequent occasion, you indicated that you would get the money -- do you recall any occasion on which you made any such undertaking, or made any such statement?
A.799 I cannot recall any such occasion or statement.
Q.800 You purchased a bottle of whiskey, and a portion of a bottle of gin, from Sgt. Lawson, for which you have told us you paid him the sum of 30 shillings. Sgt. Lawson states in his evidence that you paid him 28 shillings for the bottle of whiskey and9 shillings for the gin, making a total of 37 shillings -- what do you say as to that?
A.800 I paid Sgt. Lawson 30 shillings -- a one pound note and a 10 shilling note.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

Q.801 When you left the bar on the morning of the 14th of June, did you see the bar being locked by anyone?
A.801 No, sir.
Q.802 Are you aware that it was open?
A.802 I wouldn't know whether the bar door was open or closed, when we left the bar?
A.803 You didn't see it locked?
A.803 No, sir.

(In the opinion of the Court it is not necessary to comply with RP 83 (b) in connection with this witness.)

SECOND WITNESS IN REBUTTAL: C-40501 CSM Laurie, H., E & PE Regt., attached to H.Q. CRU, being duly sworn ~~XXXXXX~~ is examined by:

THE PROSECUTOR:

Q.804 On the evening of the 13th - 14th of June this year, you in company with other Members of the Sgts' Mess, H.Q. CRU, went to the Sgts' Mess and some whiskey was removed from the bar, is that correct?
A.804 Yes, sir.
Q.805 How much whiskey was removed?
A.805 I don't know sir.
Q.806 You didn't see?
A.806 No, sir.
Q.807 Do you know who entered the bar?
A.807 I didn't at the time but I have found out since.

DEFENDING OFFICER: "That is the Defende sir."

PROSECUTOR: "I propose calling two witnesses in rebuttal, purely as to the number of bottles removed from the Mes that night. Does the Court wish that evidence."

THE PRESIDENT: "I think we may as well have that evidence. Also if you have McBride convenient, there are certain statemenst which have been made about him, and we may as well see what he has to say."

THE PROSECUTOR PROCEEDS TO CALL WITNESSES IN REBUTTAL:

FIRST WITNESS IN REBUTTAL: K-52761 Sgt. McBride, J.C., Seaforth of Canada, on the strength of H.Q. CRU, being recalled is examined by:

THE PROSECUTOR:

THE PRESIDENT: "You are still under oath Sgt."

Q.772 Sgt. McBride, on the night in question, when you were, in company with others in the Sgts. Bar, H.Q. CRU, how many bottles of whiskey or spirits were removed?
A.772 Two bottles to the best of my knowledge sir.
Q.773 It has been suggested here to night, that there were a greater number, possibly 5, 6 or 7 bottles removed -- what do you say as to that?
A.773 If there were more than two bottles removed from the Mess, I do not know anything about them.
Q.774 After removing two bottles from the bar, you went to Sgt. Comba's room?
A.774 Yes, sir.
Q.775 In company with other persons?
A.775 Yes, sir.
Q.776 And when you left the party did the others leave at the same time?
A.776 Yes, sir, the party was breaking up or had broken up when I left.
Q.777 Now, did you see who produced the keys for the bar that evening?
A.777 Yes, sir, Sgt. Comba.
Q.778 Do you know how Sgt. Comba came into possession of these keys?
A.778 I do not.
Q.779 When did you first see him in possession of the keys?
A.779 When he was at the padlock of the Sgts' Mess.
Q.780 Which padlock?
A.780 At the door of the Sgts' Mess there is a lock on the door, and Sgt. Comba was opening the door.
Q.781 That is the entrance into the bar?
A.781 Yes, sir.
Q.782 Then, did you see him or did you see anyone else, open the cupboard in which the spirits were kept?
A.782 No, sir.
Q.783 You don't know who opened that cupboard? Did you see the person who produced the spirits?
A.783 No, sir.
Q.784 Did you hear any conversation in 'A' block prior to your going to the Mess about obtaining keys?
A.784 Yes, sir, I heard someone say, 'I know where to get the keys'.
Q.785 Do you know who that someone was?
A.785 I could not identify him sir.
Q.786 Anything further said as to where they could get these keys?
A.786 Yes, it seems to me he said, "I know where to get the keys."
Q.787 But he didn't indicate where?
A.787 No, he didn't indicate where he could get them.
Q.788 After the bar was opened and the whiskey obtained, do you know who locked the bar?
A.788 No, sir, I don't.
Q.789 Do you know where the keys went to?
A.789 No, sir.
Q.790 After the whiskey was obtained from the bar, did you again that night see the keys?
A.790 No, sir, I didn't see the keys again that night.
Q.791 It has been stated here that you accompanied Sgt. Comba and Shanley to Sgt. Lawson's room, and were at the side of his bed, do you remem-

A.752 In my case the answer would be, 'No, sir.'
Q.753 Would it be possible for a lot to happen in 3/4 of an hour?
A.753 I wouldn't know sir.

(In the opinion of the Court it is not necessary to comply with RP 83 (b) in connection with this witness).

SIXTH WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE

B-73782 Sgt. Perkins, J.D.P. 48th Highlanders of Canada, on the strength of H.Q. CRU, being duly sworn is examined by:

THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

Q.754 Sgt. Perkins, do you recognise the accused?
A.754 Yes, sir.
Q.755 Did you see the accused on the night of the 13th of June, which was a Sunday night?
A.755 Yes, sir.
Q.756 Were you speaking to the accused?
A.756 Yes, sir.
Q.757 Are you aware that the accused had been drinking heavily on that night?
A.757 I would not say heavily sir. I talked to him for a few minutes and I wouldn't say he had been drinking heavily at all. We were talking about things he couldn't have been interested in if he had been drinking heavily.
Q.758 Would you say he was sober and capable of looking after his duties?
A.758 Yes, sir.
Q.759 Do you drink yourself?
A.759 I am almost a teetotaller sir.
Q.760 What room did you occupy over the 13th and 14th of June?
A.760 The room next to Queen's Avenue in 'A' block.
Q.761 Who else was living in that room?
A.761 Pte. Taft, Sgt-Major Laurie and then there was a vacant bed, then there was S/Sgt. Spence, and then in the next corner on the same side was Sgt-Major Pelley.
Q.762 Did you see anyone during that night or morning, with any keys?
A.762 I didn't see the keys, but I heard two men talking. There were two men, one of whom mentioned the keys. At that time I didn't know these two men by name, but I found out later that their names was Conban and Shanley, but at the time I didn't know who they were.

THE PRESIDENT: "Were you in bed?"
A.763 Yes, sir.

Q.764 Did you hear them only?
A.764 No, sir, I saw them as well.
Q.765 In what room did you see them?
A.765 In the room I was sleeping in.

THE PRESIDENT: "How do you know they were Comba and Shanley."
A.766 I got to know them afterwards.

Q.767 Could you see them plainly at night?
A.767 Yes, sir, the lights were on.
Q.768 And you saw them in the light, did you?
A.768 Yes, sir. I didn't know them by name then. One in the party said, "I know where the keys are -- I can get the keys."
Q.769 Do you know which one that was?
A.769 At the time I didn't know them by name, but I knew which side Comba was standing on, and the other, Shanley, was on the opposite side to him. Now after definitely learning who was who later, I know who was the one who said this.
Q.770 Who was it that made this remark?
A.770 Sgt. Comba.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR:

Q.771 You are positive that it was Sgt. Comba who made this remark?
A.771 Yes, sir.

(In the opinion of the Court it is not necessary to comply with R.P. 83 (b) in connection with this witness.)

A.737 Well, he was quite sober when I was talking to him.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR:

Q.738 At what time was that Sgt?
A.738 That would be around 8/30.
Q.739 And did you have conversation with him, or just more or less pass the time of day?
A.739 That was it -- just for a moment or two.
Q.740 And you think you could say that, in the short period you decide whether the accused was under the influence of liquor?
A.740 He didn't seem to be when I was talking to him.

(In the opinion of the Court, it is not necessary to comply with RP 83 (b) in connection with this witness.)

FIFTH WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE

B-26198 S/Sgt. Watson, F.T., RCE, on the strength of H.Q. CRU, being duly sworn is examined by:

THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

Q.741 S/Sgt. Watson, are you a member of the Sgts'. Mess, H.Q. CRU?
A.741 I am sir.
Q.742 Do you know the accused?
A.742 Yes, sir, very well.
Q.743 Did you see the accused on the night of the 13th of June, Sunday night?
A.743 Now sir, that date means nothing to me, but if you mean the night of the big schemozzle, I did.
Q.744 Where did you see him?
A.744 Behind the bar sir.
Q.745 Were you speaking to him?
A.745 I was sir.
Q.746 Was he under the influence of liquor?
A.746 May I put it my way sir? He had been drinking, but he was definitely in command of his faculties. I owed Sgt. Lawson one pound, and I had undertaken to pay it to him before 11 o'clock on that evening, and as I had undertaken to do so I was there to pay it as arranged. I have had some odd experiences with gentlemen who have had something to drink, and I was not of the opinion that he was in such a condition that he might later be of the opinion that I did not pay him. Its clear in my mind that Johnny Lawson said, "Well, well, here's old Watson in person. He keeps his word and here he is on the dot." I made some reply and then I paid him the pound.
Q.747 Was Sgt. Lawson incapable of carrying out his duties of bartender?
A.747 He was definitely not incapable sir. As I have said before, I would not have paid him the pound if I thought he was under the influence. He had something to drink, but he knew what he was doing.
Q.748 At what time did you last see Sgt. Lawson?
A.748 Somewhere between 20 to and 1/4 to 11. I left then to go to the Sgts'. Mess of the Army School of P.T. because I prefer the particular brand of Scotch ale which they serve at that Mess.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR:

Q.749 There might be some question in the mind of the Court Staff, that you are fixing this date by reason of a schemozzle -- can you fix it in a more definite manner?
A.749 The date means nothing to me excepting that on the following day following the evening in question, S/Sgt. Spence came to me in my office and said, "Have you heard the news? Somebody robbed Sgt. Lawson of a considerable amount of money." and I said, "That's the first I have heard of it, but send Johnny to see me."
Q.750 And you say that you saw Sgt. Lawson on the night in question, between 10:30 and 1/4 to eleven.
A.750 Yes, sir.
Q.751 And do you agree, that a lot can happen between 10/30 and 1/4 to eleven, and 11:30 or 11:45 if one starts drinking?
A.751 Well, sir, I am not an expert on matters of that kind.
Q.752 From experience, let's put the question that way.
THE PRESIDENT: "It has not been shown that S/Sgt. Watson is an expert in this connection."

Q.714 At what time did the party break up in Comba's room?
A.714 I don't know sir.
Q.715 Did you leave the party by yourself or in company with others?
A.715 I left ehe party by myself.
Q.716 And when you left, was the party still carrying on?
A.716 Yes, sir.

(In the opinion of the Court it is not necessary to comply with RP 83 (b) in connection with this witness)

THIRD WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE. W-11024 S/Sgt. Carlson, C., CWAC, on the strength of H.Q. CRU, being duly sworn is examined by:

THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

Q.717 Do you recognize the accused?
A.717 Yes, sir.
Q.718 Who is he?
A.718 Johney Lawson.
Q.719 Did you see the accused on Sunday, the 13th of June, 1943?
A.719 Yes, sir, I did.
Q.720 At what time?
A.720 At around 8:30.
Q.721 Where did you see him?
A.721 In the ante-room of the Sgts' Mess.
Q.722 How long were you there?
A.722 From 8:30 to approximately 1/4 to 10.
Q.723 Did you speak to Sgt. Lawson?
A.723 He spoke to us.
Q.724 You were engaged in conversation for some time, is that correct?
A.724 Yes, sir.
Q.725 Was he under the influence of liquor?
A.725 No.
Q.726 Up to what time were you in the Mess again?
A.726 to about 1/4 to 10.
Q.727 Are you sure that Sgt. Lawson was not under the influence of liquor at any time while you were in the room up to 1/4 to 10?
A.727 I only saw Sgt. Lawson once -- I didn't speak to him after that.
Q.728 When you did see him, was he under the influence of liquor?
A.728 You mean the first time I saw him. He passed by me once, but I only spoke to him once.
Q.729 When you did pay any attention to him, was he under the influence of liquor?
A.729 The first time, when I spoke to him, he was not as far as I am concerned.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR:

Q.730 Do I understand that when you did see the accused, it was just more or less to pass the time of day? I mean you didn't actually have any conversation with him?
A.730 Only for a few minutes or so.
Q.731 Do you think that would be sufficient time to decide whether a man was under the influence or not?
A.731 I think so sir.

FOURTH WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE W-10161 Sgt. Watson, G., CWAC, on the strength of H.Q. CRU, being duly sworn is examined by:

THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

Q.732 Do you recognize the accused?
A.732 Yes, sir.
Q.733 Did you see the accused on Sunday night, the 13th of June?
A.733 Yes, sir.
Q.734 Where?
A.734 In the Sgts'. Mess, H.Q. CRU.
Q.735 How long were you in this Mess?
A.735 From fifteen or twenty after eight to around 9:30 or 1/4 to ten.
Q.736 Did you speak to the accused there at that time?
A.736 Yes, sir.
Q.737 Was he under the influence of liquor.

Q.692 How many bottles were produced in your room?
A.692 There was one bottle on the table. I don't say that there were not two on the table, but I remember one.
Q.693 And what kind of liquor was it?
A.693 I am afraid I couldn't say that sir.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

Q.694 Did you see anybody else with the keys?
A.694 No, sir, I didn't.
Q.695 Now, when you returned to your room to consume the liquor which you had taken from the bar, you say there were only two bottles?
A.695 No, sir, I don't say that -- I say I saw one bottle on the table.
Q.696 So you only saw, as far as you can remember, one bottle.
A.696 Yes, sir, but there may have been two sir.

(In the opinion of the Court it is not necessary to comply with RP 83 (b) in connection with this witness).

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE

D-24030 S/Sgt. Spence, J.H. No. 1 CGRU, attached to H.Q. CRU, being duly sworn is examined by the:

DEFENDING OFFICER:

Q.697 S/Sgt. Spence, did you at any time on the night of the 13th - 14th of June, see Sgt. Comba with any keys?
A.697 Yes, sir.
Q.698 Did you recognize the keys?
A.698 I did not recognize the keys.
Q.699 Did you see him use the keys?
A.699 Yes, sir.
Q.700 What did he use them for?
A.700 He used the keys to open the door leading into the bar in the Sgts' Mess.
Q.701 Did he use the keys further?
A.701 He used the keys or a key to open the cupboard in the Mess, where the spirits were kept.
Q.702 Did you return to Sgt. Comba's room?
A.702 Yes, sir.
Q.703 Was there any liquor in the room?
A.703 Yes, sir.
Q.704 Do you remember what liquor was in the room?
A.704 To the best of my knowledge there were two bottles of Black & White whiskey, a partial bottle of rum and a small quantity of beer.
Q.705 Did you see any or all of those being removed from the bar?
A.705 I was present when the two bottles of whiskey were removed.
Q.706 And the rum or the beer, did you see them in the room when you entered?
A.706 I didn't notice them sir.
Q.707 When were they produced?
A.707 The first knowledge I had of the rum was when somebody offered me a drink, which I presumed to be Scotch, but as soon as I tasted it I made the remark, "that is rum."

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR:

Q.708 Staff, it is suggested that instead of 2 bottles of whiskey there were a number in excess of that taken.
A.708 No, sir, there were no more than that while I was present.
Q.709 And when you proceeded from 'A' block to the Sgts' Mess, how many bottles of whiskey were then removed from the bar?
A.709 Two bottles.
Q.710 And then you adjourned to Sgt. Comba's room?
A.710 Yes, sir.
Q.711 And these two bottles were consumed there?
A.711 I don't know that they were totally consumed.
Q.712 Where were the keys when you were partaking of the beverages in Sgt. Comba's room?
A.712 I have no idea sir.
Q.713 Do you know who locked the bar after the two bottles were removed?
A.713 No, sir.

PROSECUTOR: "I submit sir, that I can show as to whether or not he made a different statement under oath, as to credibility."

Q.676 Now you do not recall where the keys came from, or how they came into your possession?
A.676 I do not.
Q.677 You do recall entering the Mess, entering the bar and opening the liquor cupboard.
A.677 I do not recall entering the bar, but I recall entering the liquor cupboard.
Q.678 Do you recall removing anything from the liquor cabinet or cupboard?
A.678 No, actually I don't.
Q.679 Do you recall anyone of your party who was in the bar, taking anything from the liquor cupboard?
A.679 No, but I remember of seeing the two bottles on the stand of the top of the cupboard itself.
Q.680 Two bottles of what?
A.680 Of whiskey.
Q.681 You opened the cupboard.
A.681 Yes, sir, I opened the cupboard.
Q.682 And then did you leave the cupboard?
A.682 I really don't know -- I might have put the two bottles up there. I don't remember doing it.
Q.683 Were there more than 2 bottles removed from that cupboard?
A.683 I couldn't answer that. I remember two bottles sir.
Q.684 Sgt., for you to open that cupboard, would you have to sort of stoop down?
A.684 Yes, sir.
Q.685 You remember that distinctly -- opening that cupboard.
A.685 Yes, sir.
Q.686 Now, after you opened those doors, can you not remember equally distinctly what you did?
A.686 No, sir.
Q.687 Well, you saw two bottles on top of the cupboard?
A.687 Might I explain that previous statement as to why that one point should stick in my mind. This might also clear something up as to the opening of the bar doors and the bar itself. The lock on the cupboard is a padlock, and to open it you must pick it up in your left hand and insert the key with your right hand. I remember having an awful lot of difficulty in getting that key into the lock which I was holding in my hand. Now to go back further than that, if I had had the keys in my possession prior to opening that cupboard and did open the bar as I have been accused of doing, if I had so much difficulty getting the key into a padlock which I could hold in my hand and remember as a result of that difficulty, why could I not remember having an equal or greater amount of difficulty opening the yale lock on the door of the bar itself, which I couldn't hold in my hand, and which I could only fumble the key around with xxx my right hand. Also, although I cannot say for certain, I presume the lights in the Mess were out at that time of the morning, and I would have to fumble quite a lot I feel, to get the key into the lock of the door.
Q.688 How often have you been in the bar -- actually in the bar -- since this occasion?
A.688 I have never been in the bar since that occasion. I have no duties in the Mess at all, or nothing to bring me into that bar.

PROSECUTOR: "I submit to the Court sir, that there is a few recollections of opening that lock because of its peculiar type, but as soon as the lock is opened there is a loss of memory of everything else because of previous indulgence, and yet not having seen the lock since that night he can describe it to the Court."

A.689 When that supboard is opened sir, or I should say that cupboard end of it opened, prior to the bar itself being opened, and as they sold liquor after that night up until such time as the A & Q put a stop to the sale of liquor, our bar could be opened and you could see in to the cupboard. When you ordered a drink you could see the cupboard and the padlock.
Q.690 Do you recall going back to your room Sgt. Comba?
A.690 I remember being in my room.
Q.691 For the purpose for which you had collected these drinks.
A.691 Yes, sir.

Q.653 You might explain to the Court that statement, because a few moments ago you told us that you and Sgt. Shanley finished the bottle of rum in your room, you decided to get some more drinks and you started out for 'A' block and went directly to Sgt. Lawson's room.
A.653 Quite true, but I didn't know where the room was.
Q.654 You got there.
A.654 I got there, yes.
Q.655 You remember being at the bedside, seeing Sgt. Lawson there asleep, you admit that you made no effort to awaken him?
A.655 To my knowledge, no.
Q.656 Nor anybody else present?
A.656 No, sir.
Q.657 Then how did you come into the possession of the keys?
A.657 Now just one minute -- am I accused of having the keys? Is there an accusation that I have had the keys?

THE PRESIDENT: " Yes, there is, in the evidence."

A.658 I will admit I had the keys -- I am not arguing that I did or did not have them. I admit having them on their evidence. I have no recollection of having them in 'A' block.
Q.659 You remember right up to the point of being at the side of the bed?
A.659 In company with Sgt. Shanley and Sgt. McBride, who was in the room when we arrived.
Q.660 And from then on you cannot remember what happened?
A.660 In 'A' block, no.
Q.661 Can you explain why you cannot, in the crucial moment so to speak?
A.661 Well, there was nothing possibly outstanding happened that would temporarily sober me up and make me realize what was going on.
Q.662 Do you suggest that you were pretty drunk at that moment, when you arrived in his room?
A.662 I will say I drank a lot. I don't know what my condition was.
Q.663 You were in the room for some few moments?
A.663 Yes, sir.
Q.664 You have every recollection up to a point, now why is it that it suddenly shuts off?
A.664 I don't remember going down to Sgt. Lawson's room.
Q.665 You stated you did?
A.665 I don't remember getting there. I don't remember going into the building, into 'A' block, nor I don't remember passing through.
Q.666 Your plans were to go to 'A' block.
A.666 Yes, sir, quite true.
Q.667 And now you say you don't remember getting there?
A.667 I am not saying I did not -- I might say I travelled from here to Aldershot and back before I got there, but I have no recollection of it.
Q.668 I am going to read the statement of Sgt. McBride at the Summary of Evidence. (reads the third paragraph on page 6 of the Summary of Evidence)
A.668 Yes, sir.
Q.669 Do you recall any part of that?
A.669 I recall being in the bar.
Q.670 Do you recall opening the bar?
A.670 No, sir.
Q.671 Do you recall opening the cupboard in which the spirits were?
A.671 Yes, sir, I do.

THE PRESIDENT: "With what?"
A.672 With the keys.
THE PRESIDENT: "Where did you get the keys?"
A.673 I do not know, but I recall opening the cupboard with the keys, but I don't know where the keys came from.
Q.674 Well then Sgt., do you remember collecting the money?
A.674 I don't actually recollect collecting the money sir. I remember something about it being collected, but not the actual collection of it.
Q.675 Do you recall the Court of Inquiry which was held to investigate this situation?
A.675 Yes, sir. I do.

THE PRESIDENT: "We can't allow any evidence of that."

Q.637 And with others that you did enter the bar, and from the bar certain whiskeys were removed. Now its been said here today, that the keys to the bar were produced by you.
A.637 Produced by me.
Q.638 Yes produced by you -- now can you explain how you came into possession of these keys?
A.638 No, sir I can't explain that to the Court. If there is definite proof that I produced the keys -- as to if I did or not, I really don't know, I cannot recall.

PROSECUTOR: "I ask permission to proceed with the questioning of the witness, on the basis that possibly he is adverse, or hostile or reluctant."

THE PRESIDENT: "I grant that application."

Q.639 Do you say that witnesses who make the statement that these keys were in your possession, that you produced them in 'A' Block, and that prior to the production of the keys you said, "We will get some more to drink. I know where the keys are. He is out cold." Will you say these witnesses are not telling the truth?
A.639 No, I can't.
Q.640 Now Sgt. Comba, how can you recall going to Sgt. Lawson's room for the specific purpose of obtaining more liquor or something with which to carry on your drinking -- you remember going to the room, you remember who was there and yet suddenly everything drops off and you don't remember a thing?
A.640 Yes, sir, at the time this happened was sometime after midnight, and I don't know but I don't presume that the night itself was awfully bright. Walking down from my room to 'A' block, we were going through darkness, and in the condition I was in I wouldn't be able to see much anyway, and coming from the darkness into the brilliantly lighted room as I presumed that was, naturally it would stick in my memory. At least that is the only reason I can give to account for having only that particular thing stick there.
Q.641 Is not the reaction from coming from the darkness into the light, that you are blinded momentarily or for a few moments?
A.641 I am not speaking of the blindness itself, I am saying that the act of coming from the dark into a lighted room would stick in my memory for that one reason as it may have given me a momentary shock. If you come into a room suddenly from the dark you get a momentary shock.
Q.642 And after your shock you observed that Sgt. Lawson was lying on his bed and that he was asleep, that you had come there for the specific purpose of obtaining more beverages, and you made no effort to awaken him?
A.642 One thing there sir, is that I have no recollection of leaving that room.
Q.643 I am speaking of when you first came in?
A.643 No, I have no recollection of trying to wake Sgt. Lawson either.
Q.644 Now, you agree that you went there to get More Beverages?
A.644 I do.
Q.645 When you found Sgt. Lawson asleep on the bed and you had to obtain these keys, wasn't the logical thing to do, to awaken him and ask his permission?
A.645 Yes, sir.
Q.646 And from then on you don't remember?
A.646 I have no recollection from then on.
Q.647 Can you explain that?
A.647 No, sir, excepting what I have given.
Q.648 That you were in a lighted room and remember for a few minutes of being there.
A.648 Yes, sir, I am trying to explain now, if my other explanation is reasonable enough, then it is reasonable that once the initial shock wore off I would lapse into my original condition.
Q.649 What was that?
A.649 I was high.
Q.650 It wasn't so high that you could not formulate a plan to get drinks?
A.650 I don't think there was a plan.
Q.651 There was a plan to go to the room of Sgt. Lawson in 'A' block.
A.651 Might I --
Q.652 You could find his room.
A.652 I had never been in 'A' block in my life, nor did I know where he slept, nor did I know where any of the instructors slept until Monday, when I found out what had been going on the night before.

Q.608 With whom were you drinking?
A.608 That would be hard to say -- they were coming and going all evening. So as to say any ody in particular, there was no one in my mind that I could remember.
Q.609 You are sure of that.
A.609 Yes, sir.
Q.610 Were you drinking with Sgt. Shanley that evening?
A.610 I was, later.
Q.611 Did you with Sgt. Shanley adjourn to your room?
A.611 Yes, sir.
Q.612 What did you drink in your room?
A.612 A bottle of rum.
Q.613 And where did that come from?
A.613 Sgt. Shanley had it.
Q.614 Do you know where he acquired it?
A.614 I don't -- all I know is that he said he had a bottle of rum and he wanted to know if I would have a drink, and we did.
Q.615 You finished the bottle of rum.
A.615 Yes, sir.
Q.616 And after you finished the rum, where did you go?
A.616 Down to the Mess caterers room, I think it is called, down in 'A' block.
Q.617 And where is your room located?
A.617 At the very back of the Mess -- its part of the Mess building .
Q.618 Would you indicate on this board, where it is?
A.618 Right here sir.
Q.619 Would you put an X there please. Now from that room you you proceeded to A block.
A.619 Yes, sir.
Q.620 And did you have any reason to go 'A' block?
A.620 Yes, sir.
Q.621 What was the reason?
A.621 I went down there with the expectation that I could get the Mess caterer to furnish us with a few more bottles of whiskey.
Q.622 And who was the Mess Caterer you had in mind?
A.622 Sgt. Lawson.
Q.623 Did you go to his room?
A.623 Yes, sir, I believe we did.
Q.624 Did you see Sgt. Lawson?
A.624 Yes, sir, on the bed, he was lying on his back.
Q.625 In bed.
A.625 Yes, sir, on the bed.
Q.626 And the condition of his dress was what?
A.626 To the best of my knowledge he was fully dressed, whether or not he had his boots on I do not know for sure.
Q.627 What was the position of his head on the bed?
A.627 It was just on the bed -- I don't remember.
Q.628 At the head or at the foot? What was the position of his body on the bed?
A.628 I don't know which is the head or the foot of that bed. I don't know which is supposed to be the head of the bed and the foot.
Q.629 Were you alone?
A.629 No, sir, I had Sgt. Shanley with me.
Q.630 Was Sgt. McBride with you at that time?
A.630 I believe he was in the room at the time we came in.
Q.631 And was Sgt. Lawson sleeping?
A.631 Well, he certainly made no response or gave any sign of redognition as to us being in the room.
Q.632 And what efforts did you make as to awakening him?
A.632 There was no effort made at all that I can recall to awake him?
Q.633 Did you ask him for the keys to the Mess?
A.633 No, sir.
Q.634 Did you endeavour to have any conversation with Sgt. Lawson?
A.634 To my knowledge no.
Q.635 Did any one of the 3 of you?
A.635 I don't think I could actually answer that -- I don't know. My only recollection of being in there is of seeing Sgt. Lawson on the bed with the three of us in the room -- That is Sgt. McBride, Sgt. Shanley and myself.
Q.636 Now, its been stated here that -- you did return with others to the Sgts Mess?
A.636 Yes, sir.

Q.593 Let's put it this way then. You took on a job a portion of which you didn't agree with and was against all your principles, and yet you followed through in the same way.
A.593 Yes, it was the only thing I could do under the circumstances.
Q.594 And you agree then that it was not followed out in accordance with the Rules for the management of Messes and Canteens?
A.594 I won't say it was.
Q.595 On that weekend or during that weekend, you didn't follow the Rules for the Management of Messes and Canteens? -- Did you on that weekend follow the Rules for the Management of Messes and Canteens? Is it possible for you to say 'Yes or No'?
A.595 No, I followed the system that they were operating on when it was taken over.
Q.596 That is when you took over?
A.596 Yes, sir.

RE/EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

Q.597 Did you have any reason to suspect any member of the Mess would remove keys from your person?
A.597 No, sir, I did not.

EXAMINED BY THE PRESIDENT:

Q.598 Where did you put the cash box on Saturday night?
A.598 I left the cash box right in there sir.
Q.599 In the cupboard in the bar?
A.599 Yes, sir.
Q.600 Would you care to say why you did that on Saturday night, and not on Sunday night?
A.600 Yes, sir, because I had more cash then sir. When I did that I was taking the precautions because I come in contact with this sort of thing in Messes quite frequently, and I see many xx cases where funds are missing and so on, and I figured the best way to take care of the situation was to take the temptation away. After all I cannot possibly protect myself from thieves in my sleep sir.

(In the opinion of the Court xxx xxx it is not necessary to comply with RP 83 (b) in connection with this witness)

(By the consent of both Counsel, in view of the statement made by the last witness, Sgt. Comba is called for the Prosecution)

EIGHTH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

Sgt. Comba, on the strength of H.Q. C.R.U. being duly sworn is examined by:

THE PROSECUTOR:

Q.601 You, I understand were in the Sgts. Mess of H.Q. C.R.U. on the evening of the 13th - 14th of June, 1943?
A.601 If that is Sunday evening, yes, sir.
Q.602 And are you acquainted with Sgt. Lawson, the accused?
A.602 Yes, sir.
Q.603 Was he on duty in the bar that evening?
A.603 Yes, sir.
Q.604 And how much time did you spend in the Mess?
A.604 I spent the evening in the Mess, from the time I had my dinner until the Bar closed.
Q.605 And what time approximately was that?
A.605 Actually I couldn't give a definite time that it closed, because I do not carry a watch, and I could only say it was sometime between 11 and 12 o'clock.
Q.606 Will you tell the Court what your activities were during the latter part of the evening?
A.606 Nothing but drinking sir.
Q.607 In the Mess?
A.607 In the Mess itself sir until it closed.

CONTINUATION OF CROSS-EXAMINATION BY THE PROSECUTOR:

Q.575 Then following that up, do you feel that the funds were more secure in your room?
A.575 Yes, sir I still feel that way, because I believe that where I had locked the funds was a safer place than xxxx where they were locked in the Mess.
Q.576 For what reason?
A.576 For the reason that the Mess had been broken into to my knowledge before.
Q.577 Can you tell from any of the exhibits, what your sales were on Saturday?
A.577 28-6-1.
Q.578 How do you compute that -- purely from deduction of the cash received and the cash on hand when you closed the bar Saturday night.
A.578 Yes, sir.
Q.579 And not by any inventory of stock. So that it is possible you could have sold 30 pounds worth of stock?

THE PRESIDENT: "And somebody stole the money?"

A.579 No, sir, for the simple reason that everything I sold was paid for over the bar and nobody was in the bar and nobody had access to the cash or the stock.
Q.580 Why did they have access on Sunday more than on Saturday?
A.580 Because the keys were taken out of my pocket and they illegally entered the bar.
Q.581 You have no statement to back that up.
A.581 My statement to back that up is what has come to me by --
Q.582 I mean you have no inventories to offset or prove your cash balance?
A.582 Not definitely, to prove my cash balances I have -- that proves it, right there.
Q.583 Your inventory of stock.
A.583 No, to prove my cash balance sir.
Q.584 You did not take an inventory, you received so much in cash on Saturday, and you say the difference is your sales for the day.
A.584 May I show you how they operated there before sir?
Q.585 Let us stick to that particular day.
A.585 I have explained everything except the way they operated before --
Q.586 You have stated in your evidence, that they did not properly operate there before, and that they are not properly operating now.
A.586 Yes, sir, because I have told them over and over again that they have to have a daily operating sheet and put this stuff in the bar. How they record their daily sales is, that they had so much money in the morning and so much more at night, and that is the way they operate.
Q.587 And you have been trying to have them install a proper practice for some time.
A.587 Yes, sir, but you can't install it in a day.
Q.588 How long prior to your taking over the bar, or this particular position, had you been sort of assisting?
A.588 For months sir, and I advised them -- in fact I took over months ago certain stock sheets on which I told them exactly what to do, and it was never done by the Mess.
Q.589 Can you explain to the Court, why you didn't follow that practice yourself when you were in command?
A.589 It was impossible sir. In order to follow a practice like that, you would have to take stock, you have to have something to work on, you have to know how much went into the bar and the selling price, and you must have the proper records prepared and ready to go into practice.
Q.590 You didn't take stock?
A.590 I took over the amount of stock on hand, from the caterer Pte. Boucher, but it was not taken over according to price, it was taken over by units.

THE PRESIDENT: "You would have to get all the prices."
A.591 Yes, sir.

PROSECUTOR: "I agree sir, but in order to make the days sales up, or to account for a period of 48 hours, a stock taking should have been instituted, irrespective of whether its taken for a price or not."

Q.592 You say you took it over by units.
A.592 May I state that the stock is never checked only at the end of the month, and that is the only time they make a record of any stock.

Q.567 And the key for your barrack box was on the same leash?
A.567 Yes, sir, it was on the same leash.
Q.568 And you feel that if they could remove the keys that easily and return them to the same position, that the funds were safer in your barrack box than they would have been in the Canteen cupboard?
A.568 Yes, I do figure they were safer sir.

THE PRESIDENT: "I think the witness might show us how these keys are fastened?"
A.569 Well, I take this off here and tie that and pull the keys inside here.

Q.570 They would have to untie a knot wouldn't they?
A.570 Yes, sir.
Q.571 Now then, this would involve Sgt., practically accusing some member of the Mess of taking the keys off?
A.571 Yes, sir.
Q.572 Is there anyone person whom you think did it?
A.572 From the information which I have heard and on the Court of inquiry and also brought out at the evidence at the Summary of Evidence, it is brought to my notice sir definitely that Sgt. Comba is the person responsible for taking the keys off my person. How I corroborate that is by S/Sgt Spence who will say that he saw him with the keys, and he made the remark that he knew where to get the keys?
Q.573 And you believe that it was Sgt. Comba who took the keys from your person.
A.573 Yes, sir.

THE PRESIDENT: "I think the Court should exercise its right under RP 86 to ask the Prosecutor to call Sgt. Comba, because it is our duty without taking sides to get out the evidence. According to the theory of the defence of the accused, his theory is only consistent with the Court finding that some one or other of the members of the Mess, actually and improperly took the keys off the person of the accused, which is a heavy responsibility for the Court, and I think we should have therefore, the evidence of Sgt. Comba."

PROSECUTOR: "Do you wish to call him a witness for the Prosecution sir? I understand he is being called by the defence."

THE PRESIDENT: "So long as he is called before the end."

DEFENDING OFFICER: "I believe the Prosecution should have called him."

THE PRESIDENT: "I believe you should call him."

THE PROSECUTOR: "As a Prosecution witness."

THE PRESIDENT: "Yes."

PROSECUTOR: "Alright sir, the only point about that sir, is the sum of £16-0-0 event assuming that there is still a difference of 14 odd pounds."

THE PRESIDENT: "One key opened the box with the £14-10-0 and the other key opened the bar where the bottles were stored."

PROSECUTOR: "I will call Sgt. Comba in rebuttal if necessary. If you wish him to be called next as a Defence witness, or later as a Prosecution witness, I don't mind sir."

THE PRESIDENT: "I think we should let the defence finish their case, unless the Defending Officer objects."

DEFENDING OFFICER: "I think he should be called next sir."

THE PRESIDENT: "All parties agree on that then. And the taking of the keys from your pocket Sgt. -- do you normally sleep so soundly that persons can take keys from you and come back and put the keys back, without there being any likelihood of your awakening?"
A.574 Yes, sir, I imagine so, because when I was stationed in London in 1940, I used to sleep through the Blitz, and it never bothered me.

A-547 (con'd) dition would never have existed.
Q.548 The question of your returning to your room that night Sgt., I believe you said that Sgt. McBride and Sgt-Major Pelley left you and it was then your intention to read for a while?
A.548 Yes, sir, that's right.
Q.549 Did you take up your position to read in the accustomed manner?
A.549 Yes, sir.
Q.550 Would you describe that to the Court please?
A.550 I just laid down on top of the bed with my clothes on, because they were running around. The foremost thing in my mind was that I didn't want anybody to interfere with the cash box in there, because I know that a Mess caterer is responsible for all stock and money in the bar are his ~~xxx~~ responsibility.
Q.551 That is your interpretation of it?
A.551 Yes, sir, that to is the interpretation of the Regtl. Funds Board.
Q.552 I disagree with you and I say that the Mess Committees will provide some means by which public funds will be kept, and that if a Mess Committee provides such accommodation then it is your duty to keep all funds in such accommodation.
A.552 Under the circumstances, I do not think so, because i know to my knowledge that the place has been broken into once since I have been here, and I think I took the precautions to --
Q.553 That is not the question. Is it not a fact that the Regimental Funds Board, as well as other branches in authority, direct that security be provided for public funds, Mess funds and so on?
A.553 Yes, sir.
Q.554 And you think that it is up to any individual to walk in and decide for himself, whether or not it is secure?
A.554 Yes, sir, I do, if I am responsible I think I would be more secure.
Q.555 Would you as a banker, feel that you were more secure in taking the money from the bank home and putting it under your pillow at night, and not leaving it in the bank vault?
A.555 No, sir, but there is no safe provided here. The place where I took the money out of is a place which has been broken into before.
Q.556 Would you feel that you were doing right as a banker, in taking home public trust funds and keeping them at home? Banks have been broken into too and safes blown open and that sort of thing -- would you do it in civil life?
A.556 I don't see --
Q.557 I am asking you a question in order to get an answer, and not for the purpose of an argument?
A.557 No, we have a strong safe which cannot be broken into.
Q.558 But there have been occasions when safes have been broken into. Safes in banks have been broken into?
A.558 Yes, they are covered with insurance and this Mess is not.
Q.559 There is no insurance?
A.559 No, sir.

THE PRESIDENT: "Do you know if there is a surplus in this Mess?"
A.560 Yes, sir, about roughly $90-0-0, I think.
THE PRESIDENT: "Does that surplus still exist at this moment?"
A.561 I don't know what the surplus is now, but it is around $90-0-0 I think, or $87-0-0.

Q.562 That surplus would be reduced by this loss?
A.562 Yes, it will be sir.
Q.563 Sgt. Lawson, you have already shown to the Court where you carried the keys?
A.563 Yes, sir.
Q.564 Now, what is your explanation if any, or your conclusion as to how these keys came into the possession of some other member or members of the Mess without your authority?
A.564 I think they were taken off my person sir -- in fact I am sure they were taken off my person while I was asleep.
Q.565 Did you find them in the morning?
A.565 Yes, sir, in the same place.
Q.566 Sgt. can you explain how they would have taken from your person these keys, without your knowledge, when you were asleep?
A.566 Quite easily, because when I lie asleep I lie usually on my face, and in my sleep I think it would be quite an easy proposition.

Q.531 As a member of the Regimental Funds Board, setting up these books and so on, and you walk into a Mess to make an inspection and you find that a Mess caterer had not for two days taken an inventory, and for two days had not balanced off stock as against cash on hand and receipts, what would your report to your superior be?
A.531 Sir, I could make a report on this Mess right now.
Q.532 That is not the question -- any Mess I am referring to -- I suggest to you that there would be a blitz?
A.532 Not until I had found out what the reason was.
Q.533 Is it not an established practice, and in the rules for the management of Messes, Institutions and Canteens as advocated by your branch, that there will be proper books kept and a running daily inventory against cash and sales and so on.
A.533 It is not laid down.
Q.534 Is that not what you advocate?
A.534 Yes, sir.
Q.535 And is it not laid down that all Messes will follow that Pamphlet governing the rules for the management of Messes, Routine Orders and K.R. Can?
A.535 It is only followed in theory actually.
Q.536 But it is laid down in orders that Messes will in so far as possible adhere to them.
A.536 Yes, sir.
Q.537 And where you set up a Mess and the necessary books, would you also set up a daily inventory?
A.537 Sometimes its done weekly.
Q-538 What is the practice in this mess?
A.538 The practice in this Mess is -- they have never done anything I told them that they should do. I told them that they should operate on a daily basis.
Q.539 That is what you did advocate and had been trying to get done in this Mess, and yet when you are Mess caterer you do not do it yourself?
A.539 It is impossible to do it, the way they have been operating their Mess.
Q.540 Why was it impossible for you to take off an inventory when your tour of duty was finished?
A.540 At that time of day I was tired.
Q.541 You knew you were going to Borden the next morning.
A.541 Yes, sir, I intended to have enough time to do that, but on account of trying to find this money I didn't have enough time to do it.
A.542 And you think it was right to turn these keys over to a Private or a Gunner, with all these discrepancies and not take an inventory?
A.542 As that was before I was directed by my Officer to get there by a certain time, I considered by handing the keys to Butcher who was not implicated I was doing the proper thing, because I knew that he was in bed the night before, and then I had instructed Sgt-Major Laurie to tell Sgt-Major Barrett.
Q.543 You took no inventory when you were on duty, however I am not going to dwell on that further. Sgt. you have heard one witness here today and there will be a number of others called who were in the affair of that night.
A.543 Yes, sir.
Q.544 Who were in the Sgts. Mess, and all of whom will go into the witness box and state under oath that only two bottles of whiskey were removed. Now then, are you going to say that they are not telling the truth?
A.544 Yes, sir.
Q.545 And that instead of two bottles being removed, there were in the neighborhood of 7 bottles.
A.545 Yes, sir.
Q.546 And the reason for that -- why do you say that they are all wrong, and that they are not telling the truth?
A.546 For the simple reason that I am positive of what I sold.
Q.547 But you are only guessing on that?
A.547 Yes, sir, I sold approximately 12 bottles of liquor and yet there is 19 bottles to be accounted for and I can't account for 7 bottles of liquor, and under the circumstances I don't think that I would have had anything to answer for at all, had they not taken the keys out of my pockets. Everything that was sold there the money for it went into the till, and if they had not illegally entered the bar this com-

Q.510 Now Sgt., this recapitulation shows that for the stock in trade, which was disposed of during your tour of duty, had cash been received you would have received the sum of £42-1-6.

A.510 Actually more than that, wouldn't I.

Q.511 And that amount of £42-1-6 which you should have received, plus the £13-18-7 which was handed to you in cash on Saturday, would have given you a grand total of £56-0-1.

A.511 Yes, sir.

Q.512 Now the total of cash, cheques and chits according to your own figures which you had on Sunday night at the closing of the bar, was £41-12-4, which still when deducted from the £56-0-1 leaves the amount of £14-7-9 to be accounted for.

A.512 Yes, sir.

Q.513 Now, can you account for that?

A.513 Well, the only way I can account for that sir, is by people having access to the bar, I have no way of accounting for the difference.

Q.514 People having access to the bar, and people having the opportunity of pouring their own drinks?

A.514 Not with my authority sir.

Q.515 You were present in the bar when drinks were poured by members of the Mess.

A.515 No, sir, that is not true.

Q.516 Do you recall on Sunday, you missed a bottle of rum for which you couldn't account?

A.516 Yes, sir.

Q.517 Have you traced that yet?

A.517 No, sir.

Q.518 Have you any explanation why that should be missing, when you are the only person in possession of the keys, other than the Camp Commandant?

A.518 No, sir, the only way I can see that mighthave been missing, was by means of the door from the reading room into the bar.

Q.519 How could anyone enter through there, when you are the only person in possession of the key?

A.519 They could if I hadn't put that bar up on the serving door.

Q.520 What was that answer, if you had, or if you had not?

A.520 If I had not sir.

Q.521 Are you suggesting that someone climbed through the window?

A.521 They wouldn't have to sir. They could just lean through the window, lean over, and take ~~them~~ the bolt off the door.

Q.522 Did I understand you to say that you didn't put that bar up?

A.522 It wasn't up -- it is down quite frequently.

Q.523 I am asking you as to that specific occasion -- you admit that you cannot account for that, through people going into the bar when I was not present, which was after I closed the bar on Sunday night.

A.523 I cannot account for that, through a period of 48 hours.

Q.524 Your deduction is, that they took more than 2 bottles

A.524 Yes, sir.

Q.525 But what have you to show the Court that there were more than two bottles taken or tosubstantiate your suspicion? You didn't take an inventory, did you?

A.525 I did not take an inventory.

Q.526 You did not take an inventory?

A.526 No, sir, but I know by the handling of a lot of currency and my past experience, and I think I realized how much I had taken out. I think I realized how many bottles I had sold.

Q.527 Now Sgt. Lawson, do you honestly think as a banker, and as an accountant and as a member of the Regtl. Funds Board, setting up systems and so on, that that is a good practice. You are in charge and you take no inventory of stock -- you strike no balance for either day you are in control, and on Monday morning you came at 9 o'clock or thereabouts and you don't take an inventory, you return the cash box and leave it in there and you leave the keys of the bar in the charge of a fatigue man?

A.527 Well, sir, can I elaborate on my answer to that?

Q.528 Well, do you think that's sound business?

A.528 Well now, under the circumstances yes. My reason for giving the keys to Butcher was that I didn't know how many Sgts. were implicated.

Q.529 But you did give the keys to Butcher.

A.529 Yes, sir, to Butcher.

Q.530 Now, do you think that in view of what had happened, that it was better to give the keys to a Private employed as a fatigue man?

A.530 The reason I did that was that I was instructed to go down to No. 3 P/W Coy, and when I went to the Mess the car was waiting to take me do

A.508 (con'd) tory and showed me how much cash I was supposed to turn over to him, and it coincided with what I had left at the bar in the morning. The following day Sgt-Major Barrett called a meeting of the Mess Committee and myself, S/Sgt. Watson. It was then payday, and he detailed S/Sgt. Scott to see that all the chits were paid as soon as the respective Sgts. got paid. This was done. After that meeting I then went over and got paid. I came back and ran into Sgt. McBride who was walking around in his shirt sleeves without a hat on at about 1530 hrs. I cautioned him then as to what he had done with the money and he then made a statement such as this, "I think you will find that money under a hat on top of some of these lockers." He then made the remark that whatever the shortage was, he would make it up. We then went over to the D.A.P.M.s office.

Q.509 What was his condition?

A.509 He was very tight sir, at that time. He was interviewed by Sgt. Johnson, which apparently did not bare any fruit, as I considered that Sgt. Johnson was not then capable of taking a statement sir. At any rate Sgt. Johnson then came out and asked me to talk to Sgt. McBride. Sgt. McBride then made several unintelligible remarks, but he later reiterated his statement that he would get the money the next morning. That was Tuesday. I then came outside with Sgt. McBride and QMS Pelley and in the presence of both of us he then said again, "I will get the money tomorrow morning for you." I then went back into the DAPMs office and didn't see Sgt. McBride or Sgt. Johnson for I should say half an hour. On account of Sgt. McBride making these remarks to me, I considered it would be a good idea to know where he was, so I took him up to 1 CGRU between 6 and 7 o'clock that evening. I loaned him £1-0-0 and then I loaned him a second pound, which he paid back about two weeks later. While up at 1 CGRU he said, II'll go in there and get some money, which I took to mean that he may have had some money there, and that they may have been some of the funds which I was responsible for, but we waited for him for several minutes and afterwards we were unable to find him. I again went up there the next day about noon with QMS Pelley.

Q.510 Up to where?

A.510 Up to 1 CGRU sir. They informed us, the Sgt. we were speaking to, that Sgt. McBride had got out of bed at about 7 o'clock that morning, and that he had not been seen since. They also stated at that ~~pxix~~ particular time that he was AWL and that he owed 1 Sgt. £2-0-0 and another one £3-0-0. They also stated that he tried to get paid the day before, which was Tuesday, and that the Paymaster refused to pay him on account of his condition. That was the last I saw of Sgt. McBride until the date of the Court of Inquiry.

Q.511 Did you pay any of your own money into the till in the bar?

A.511 Yes, sir, £2-10-0.

Q.512 During the whole weekend?

A.512 Yes, sir.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR:

Q.513 Why did you pay £2-10-0 into the till?

A.513 At several times people were in there, and they didn't have any money, and I said, "I'll buy you one."

Q.504 Did you have one with them?

A.504 I had an occasional drink sir.

Q.505 How many did you have on Sunday?

A.505 About 7 or 8 drinks altogether.

Q.506 How many of these did you have in the evening?

A.506 Well, I would imagine most of them were in the evening. I didn't keep track of them sir. They would say, "Have a drink with me", and I might have one.

Q.507 You have had an opportunity of examining Exhibits 2 and 3.

A.507 Yes, sir.

Q.508 You admit those as being correct?

A.508 Yes, sir.

Q.509 Then, do you admit the correctness of Exhibit 4, which is the re-capitulation?

A.509 Yes, sir.

barrack box, opened it up and found that the cash box had been taken out of there. I glanced around under my bed and the box was there. The first thing I did was to open it up and count the money or what was left of it. I determined then that there had been £16-10-0 taken out of the box.

Q.501 Did you balance the books that night before you left the bar?

A.501 Well sir, the system of operation in the bar there, does not permit you to actually balance.

Q.502 Do you recognize this?

A.502 Yes, sir, that's my Saturday nights statement. This here is what I had on Saturday night, and this is what I had on Sunday night.

THE PRESIDENT: "Does that show the balance in the cash box when you closed the bar on Sunday night?"

A.503 Here it is, with what Boucher gave me sir.

THE PRESIDENT: "Did you, when you balanced up Sunday night, take a check of the money, or do you know how much money you had in the cash box?"

A.504 Yes, sir, this amount here sir £18-10-0.

THE PRESIDENT: "Inclusive of cheques?"

A.505 No, sir, just cash. Then there was a ceque endorsed by Sgt. Harrington for £2-10-0, which cheque has been covered. This cheque was in the cash box when I looked in it on Monday morning. There was also a cheque of the Canadian Pacific Express Company for £10-0-0 endorsed by S/Sgt. Scott. This also was in the cash box when I looked in it on Monday morning. Chits to the extent of £6-8-4, were in the cash box when I looked in it on Monday morning, and silver for £5-4-0 was also in the cash box.

THE PRESIDENT: "And how about the notes?"

A.506 There was a one pound note also in the box when I checked it on Monday morning. There was £17-10-0 in notes in the box when I balanced it on Sunday night. The money I got for the sale of the bottle of whiskey and the 1/3 bottle of gin namely 37 shillings was in silver. It was put in the box and is included in the total above given of £5-4-0. This left the box short in notes of £16-10-0, which was in the box when I brought it to my room, but was not in the box when I looked in it in the morning.

Q.507 What were the cheques again?

A.507 They were for £2-10-0 endorsed by Sgt. Harrington and £10-0-0 drawn on the Canadian Pacific Express Company, and endorsed by S/Sgt. Scott. When I opened the box on Monday morning there was a shortage of £16-10-0. In my evidence, can I tell what Sgt. Slipper told me? -- I then looked all over the room, and thought maybe his intentions were to hide the money in there, so that the others could not get it, but after checking over every possible place where it could be, nothing was revealed. I then came out of my room.

THE PRESIDENT: "Did you look for your keys at that time?"

A.508 Yes, sir, my keys were on me. My keys are on a leather thong, where I also had the keys for the Mess. The thong was attached to this loop of my battle trousers, which I had worn all day. I came out of my room and got shaved, and on my way over to the Mess Sgt-Major Laurie came over towards me and said, "I have £1-18-0 for you." I said, "What for?" and he said, "We went into the bar last night and took 2 bottles of liquor". I then asked him who gave him the authority to do that, "Well" he said, "Sgt. Comba got the keys and got the liquor." I then instructed him to inform Sgt-Major Pelley who was then President of the Mess, of the shortage. I also went over and contacted Sgt. Latta of the D.A.P.M.s office and told him that someone had stolen some money and that I suspected Sgt McBride, as Sgt. Slipper stated that he saw him with the box. I then went over to the Mess and looked around, and as I had not taken stock the night before, I could not determine how much they had taken of the stock, but I knew I had sold approximately 12 bottles of whiskey, rum and gin, which would leave a shortage to my way of reckoning of about 7 bottles. There was also some beer left in a large 18 gallon barrell. That was empty. I then handed the keys of the bar to Pte. Butcher, whom I considered very honest and under the circumstances he was the best man to give the keys to. I then proceeded to Bordem to the 3rd Cdn. Gen. Pioneer Coy, and set up a set of books for the Sgts. Mess there. I came back that evening at about 6:30 or 1830 hrs, and asked Boucher what the score was and he told me about he and Sgt-Major Barrett taking the inven-

Q.494 When did you open and close the bar in the evening?
A.494 I reopened the bar at 1900 hrs and closed shortly after 2300 hrs, and went to my room.
Q.495 You are now speaking of Saturday night.
A.495 Yes, sir, that is on Saturday night I was referring to.
Q.496 Just continue then to tell us what happened?
A.496 I got up the next morning and went to the bar, cleaned it up and I opened it at about 1/4 to 12. I stayed open to a little after one. I reopened again between half past 4 and 5 o'clock and closed at 1800 hrs. and opened the bar again at 1900 hrs and closed shortly after 11 o'clock.
Q.497 Are you sure you opened on that occasion at 1900 hrs.?
A.497 Yes, sir, at 7 o'clock. When I closed the bar A/CQMS Pelley said he was going home so I asked him to come into the bar and wait until I made my cash up and then I would go home with him. Whilst doing this Sgt. McBride knocked at the door and I let him in. I was surprised to see him as I had not seen him in quite a while. He then stated that he was going on leave and he wanted to know if he could by a drink. I said, "Yes", but jokingly I said his money was no good. I paid for the drink myself for Sgt. McBride and Sgt-Major Pelley. I used the measure to pour these drinks, and as there was a shortage of glasses I poured these two doubles into one glass. I repeated the same thing again and Sgt. McBride paid for that round. I didn't have a drink either time myself. Sgt. McBride then asked if he could buy a bottle, and under the circumstances I considered it quite in order, as it has been the practice in the men when anyone is going on leave that they would be permitted to purchase a bottle for that purpose, if there is a sufficient surplus in the bar. He then asked me what about gin, and there was about 1/3 of a bottle of gin in the bar at that time. I said, "Well that will cost you about 9 shillings", so he said, "That's alright". So he paid me 28 shillings for the whiskey and 9 shillings for the gin. I then said, "We may be able to get something to eat outside", because they had a lunch that night in the Mess. So I let Sgt-Major Pelley and Sgt McBride out the door leading to the billiard room. I secured the door leading to the billiard room and bolted the serving window. I tried the front serving door leading into the main part of the Mess, took the cash box with me, turned the lights of, shut the door and tried it to see if it was locked, and went out to the kitchen. There is a yale lock on that door. I considered that I was taking the precautions to see that the thing which occurred afterwards could not occur, by taking the money out of the bar and taking it to my barrack room and putting it in my barrack box. We then went to the kitchen and there was no tea available. Sgt. McBride took his suitcase and made a sandwich from eats which he had in it, whch he and I ate. We then left the Mess and turned the lights out, and to the best of my knowledge there was no one left in the Mess. We went outside towards 'A' block where I stay. We talked of things in general for approximately I would say, between half an hour and an hour, I have no way of definitely determining the time as I have no watch. I then went to my room with this box still in my possession. As soon as I got into my room I went to my barrack box and locked the cash box of the Mess in there, and I then came around to my bed and sat down.

THE PRESIDENT: "What sort of box is this?"
A.498 The barrack box in my room I would consider a very strong and hard box for anybody to get into, excepting by breaking the lock.

Q.499 Is that box metal bound?
A.499 Yes, sir, it is a metal bound box. I then sat down and spoke to CQMS Pelley and Sgt. McBride for a few minutes, and at this stage of the game I realised then that they were both getting very noisy, doing halts and so forth on the floor. Sgt. McBride at that time suggested that I take a drink, and I told him I didn't want anything to drink as I had to go to Borden the next day and had a lot of work to do. I then laid down, smoked a cigarette and Sgt. McBride and QMS Pelley left the room.
Q.500 Have you always slept with your feet to the head of the bed? Or have you always slept with your head to the foot of the bed?
A.500 Yes, sir, that's the way I sleep. My reason for doing that sir, is in order to read by the light. I have to turn around in the bed so that the light shines over my shoulder. I went to sleep then, and I have no further recollection of what transpired in my room until the next morning, when Sgt. Slipper advised me that he had seen Sgt. McBride with a money box and that he had put it in a corner for me. I then started directly for my if anything happened to the cash box when it was in the cupboard, it would not be the fault of the Mess Steward, but having removed it, and not taking advantage of the security which they provide, and from your observations of the mess itself today, you will note access by means of hammers or saws or jimmeys and so on, might be made, in other words that it might be broken into; but that then would not have been the responsibility of the accused, because his stock was correct and the funds correct, and then the Mess Committee would have to answer for its insecurity.

You may accept the story of the accused that he put the cash box into his barrack box, but there is no evidence before this Court as to the type of barrack box which this is. If its an ordinary barrack box, you could pick up the box and carry it away. Someone had access to the keys of the bar and the cash box was removed from his barrack box, and there was the sum of £16-10-0 or so missing in the morning.

My friend in his address to the Court has stated that we are pleading the case on inadmissible evidence. He makes no specific charges, and I cannot answer that charge other than to say that I submit that there has been no evidence put forth today that was inadmissible, and if it was it should have been objected to at the time.

No matter how careful a man tries to be, he is still subject to accounting for anything that has been placed in his charge, and if he cannot account for it, it is laid down in Military law, and all other law, that he is the person to answer for any deficiencies. If he cannot answer for them, it is either because of some negligence or because of theft, and we are not alleging theft -- we are saying that there has been negligence. He permitted people to pour their own drinks, without using measuring cups; he himself poured a full half pint glass of whiskey without using a measuring cup; he took the cash box to his own quarters rather than lodging it in its proper place in the Mess, and in view of all the evidence, I feel that we have presented a prima facie case."

DEFENDING OFFICER: "Sir, in addition to my address, I should like to refer you to the note at the foot of page 458 and the top of page 459 of MML" (reads the paragraph in the Note at the foot of page 458 and the 1st paragraph at the top of page 459 of MML)

THE COURT IS CLOSED TO CONSIDER THE SUBMISSION:

THE COURT IS REOPENED AND ANNOUNCES THAT IT DISALLOWS THE SUBMISSION OF THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

RP 40 FN 2 is COMPLIED WITH BY THE PRESIDENT AND THE ACCUSED ELECTS TO GIVE EVIDENCE ON OATH:

D E F E N C E

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE — The accused, K-52273 Sgt. Lawson, J.E. Regtl. Funds Board, CMHQ, attached to H.Q. CRU having been duly sworn is examined:

BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

Q.490 Did you occupy any special position in the Mess, on the 12th to 14th of June, this year?
A.490 Yes, sir.
Q.491 What was that position?
A.491 Of being the caterer.
Q.492 Would you tell the Court just what happened during your tour of duty as a caterer?
A.492 Between half past ten and twelve o'clock on the 12th of June, I took over from Pte. Bowmer the cater. I checked the stock and the money and corroborated the figures which he had on a slip of paper. He then handed me the keys and I locked the bar up and went back to the office. I opened the bar at about 12 o'clock and closed it a little after one and opened it again at 1645 hrs. and closed about 1800 hrs.
Q.493 Did you close according to a given schedule?
A.493 I closed according to the hours which I more or less knew were correct.

I would point out that this is entirely erroneous. Sgt. McBride is charged with drunkenness, and as I understand it the other charges were charges of drinking in quarters.

As to the question of TORT, I submit that the case cited for your consideration today, cannot be in any way applicable to the case in hand. That is a case of straight Tort and this is entirely a different case. There is a higher degree of care to be exercised by a person in that position. It is not alleged, nor do I attempt to allege at any time, nor do I wish to be considered at any time to suggest, that the accused was the originator of a chain of events which lead up to this. I do not suggest that at all, nor am I attempting to prove it. What has been proven to you today sir is this: The accused is one on the strength of the Regimental Funds Board, CMHQ and employed by this Headquarters. The personnel of that branch are trained to inspect and see that the various rules for the management of messes and institutions as laid down pamphlet form and K.R.Can are instituted in all Messes and that they are observed, on an accounting basis or a banking basis, that being his business. True that not only applies to funds in that Mess, but also it applies to stock in trade on the shelf, he being the one detailed to see that these rules are carried out, should be above all persons particularly careful, and one who should be able to account at any time he is called upon to do so. That is the nature of the system they are teaching, that is the job he goes out to inspect, and yet this case shows what he has permitted while he is in control.

There is sufficient evidence before this Court to put the accused on his defence, and show where the cash and the stock is. I am not questioning the integrity of the accused, and I think it was an unfortunate incident. These MCOs had a party and this particular MCO was the custodian, and he therefore must account for this money and these goods. Even assuming that his own figures are correct, and that there was £16-10-0 missing, I venture to say that there is still a balance to be accounted for, and that it cannot be accounted for now.

Now, the Sgt-Major placed the accused in charge, and while in charge for a period of 48 hours there is a deficiency. On Sunday there is evidence that he had a few drinks. If I remember correctly in his statement he admitted that he had a few drinks, and there was one witness today who says he was feeling pretty good. On reviewing his statement, you will see sir, that the bar was open at a time that was not in accordance with the hours as laid on. But getting on to Sunday evening, he did something sir which I suggest as a banker, as an accountant, as a member of the Regimental Funds Board, he should have known better than to do, and that is to have people in the bar after hours, having drinks in their, and what is most important of all, with the cash box available to any one of them, and then too leaving the bar and going to the kitchen and returning again and permitting members of the Mess to pour their own drinks. You will note in the accused's statement sir on reading it that a bottle of whiskey and a portion of a bottle of gin were sold. You will note from the evidence of Sgt. McBride, that he paid 30 shillings for the whiskey and the gin. Now the cost price of the whiskey we might accept at 23 shillings, and at that rate he accepts 5 shillings for 1/4 bottle of gin from McBride. I am suggesting at this moment that he may have had the best of intentions, but forgot to carry them out.

At any event, some drinks were served and there is no evidence that any money went into the cash box for them. Then the accused takes the cash box along with him and taked it to his quarters. I do not question at all his integrity again. I think possibly he was perfectly honest in feeling that if he had that box at the head of his bed it would be safer, but let's look at what happened. He went to sleep after his own admission that he had enough to drink, and I submit -- with no denial from the accused -- that he went so soundly to sleep that persons or a person were able to go through his pockets and obtain the keys to the cash box, the mess, and so on, and obtain whiskey and lock up the bar and return the keys to his clothing without his having any knowledge of it whatsoever. I suggest that possibly there is some question of his condition at the time of his returning to his quarters, which is not consistent with that of a man carrying his responsibilities. Particularly I would say, in having an amount of money right beside his bed.

Now, rightly or wrongly the box was taken to his room, but assuming that his intentions were of the best sir, which the Prosecution does not contest, the Mess Committee have seen fit to provide him with a cupboard and a cash box with sufficient locks to give security for the Mess Funds and for the spirits. Now

"Mr. President, and members of the Court; the Prosecution has stated that their case is closed. At this stage of the proceedings I feel it my duty to move that the charges against my client be dismissed under the ordinary law which is too well known to you Mr. President to require explanation -- the Prosecution has failed to make out even a prima facie case against the accused. It is unnecessary for me to point out that the ordinary rules of British justice apply in trials by FGCM, that the accused is presumed to be innocent until he is proven guilty by cogent and admissible evidence beyond a reasonable doubt.

The matter under consideration is that a senior NCO is charged with so negligently handling money and goods entrusted to his care, that the same have been lost and that he is not able to account for them when asked to do so. From the evidence it must be clear to the Court at this point that as a result of the matters complained of, numerous NCOs and WOs have been charged and found guilty of drunkenness. I feel it my duty to underline the point at this stage that that offence, is not one alleged against my client.

The evidence adduced, if anything, paints a clear picture, etched in a bold fashion that Sgt. Lawson rather than being a person incapable of carrying out the duties entrusted to him, exercised that degree of care and caution which one might reasonably expect from a Canadian of Scotch descent whose civilian occupation is that of Bank Auditor. If later in these proceedings it becomes necessary to do so, I propose to call his superiors to give evidence that he has for a considerable period of time carried out in the Army, with a considerable degree of skill and application the duties of an auditor with the Regimental Funds Board.

We are faced here with a charge laid under the provisions of Sec. 40 of the A.A. I need not labour to the Court that the degree of negligence which it is the duty of the Prosecution to prove, in cases of this nature is considerably greater than that which is sufficient in a civil suit based on a failure to account. Owing to the exigencies of the War, I have not with me a volume with which the Court is entirely familiar -- Kenney on Torts -- I will not therefore be able to cite chapter and verse, but I will venture to put forward a proposition of law which is set out in this legal tome. -- The case where the unwise stevedore unwisely used a defective sling to load a cargo ship filled with explosives. The load was too great -- the sling broke -- a case dropped -- steel met steel -- a spark ensued and as a natural result the ship ceased to exist. I challenge the Prosecutor to point out to the Court, one scintilla of evidence which brings home to Sgt. Lawson one single negligent act or omission which makes him responsible for setting into motion a chain of events, which have resulted in the loss of money and liquor, the subject of this inquiry today.

I submit respectfully, that Sgt. Lawson on the evidence adduced, is shown to have exercised that degree of care in the handling of other people's property, which one might reasonably expect from a Bank Auditor and a responsible NCO. To come to the point Mr. President, I contend that Sgt. Lawson is not the unwise stevedore who with poor judgment used a defective sling to load a cargo ship filled with explosives, with the inevitable result, and therefore the Prosecutor having failed to prove him to be guilty of conduct of this nature, the crown has failed in the basic essential of a charge, to make out a prima facie case against the accused standing for judgment at the bar of this Court.

I therefore with some considerable vehemence, press for consideration of a motion that this charge be dismissed because that basic and fundamental requisite of Prosecution has not been proven by cogent and admissible evidence. I will venture before closing, to bring to the attention of the Court, that Sgt. Lawson is like many of us here -- not a professional soldier, but a civilian temporarilly engaged in a necessary task of eliminating the NAZI creed and all its evils. I need not labour to you gentlemen, the high degree of integrity and and trustworthiness which a bank expects from an auditor. That is the occupation to which my client expects to return after this temporary interlude as a civilian soldier. Let us not without due care send him from this Court stamped as the unwise virgin who did not have oil for her lamp, or the drunken stupid custodian who handed the keys of the treasury to Ali Baba and the forty thieves."

THE PROSECUTOR REPLIES TO THE SUBMISSION:

(W) "Firstly my friend has suggested in his address, that you are called upon to accept the evidence of some Senior NCOs who have been convicted of drunkenness.

Q.475 Was Sgt. McBride drunk when he awakened you?
A.475 Well, as to his state of sobriety, I couldn't say that he was drunk or otherwise.
Q.476 Did he say anything to you when you awakened?
A.476 Yes, sir, he did. What he said I am not sure, but they were not important things, just some light talk.
Q.477 You could not say that he was drunk or had been drinking?
A.477 I certainly say whether he was drunk or not sir, he was in a cheerful frame of mind.
Q.478 Sgt. Lawson was lying with his feet to the head of the bed -- is that his usual posture when sleeping?
A.478 Well, to the best of my knowledge he had slept that way for a long time.
Q.479 Do you think he was sleeping as he normally did, or that he was so inebriated that he was doing it that way?
A.479 I couldn't say sir. I just took one look.
Q.480 Did you see either Sgt. Comba or Sgt. McBride near the barrack box in the corner?
A.480 As to being near the barrack boxI couldn't say.
Q.481 Did you see them near to Sgt. Lawson's bed?
A.481 Yes, sir.

THE PRESIDENT: "Sgt. McBride was it?"

A.482 Sgt. McBride, Sgt. Comba and Sgt. Shanley.
Q.483 When Sgt. McBride showed you the money, did you see inside the box as well?
A.483 No, sir.
Q.484 Do you think that there might have been money in there which you did not see?
A.484 There might have been, and there might not have been sir.
Q.485 This paper which you saw in the form of a cheque, was it a money order or an ordinary cheque?
A.485 I couldn't say sir.
Q.486 Did you see Sgt. McBride place the money in the box?
A.486 That I can't answer definitely -- to the best of my knowledge he did sir.
Q.487 Did he count this money actually in front of you, or just hold up a roll of paper money?
A.487 He may have counted it sir, but I was not paying a great deal of attention. I could not say that he didn't count it actually.
Q.488 You didn't see him replace the cash box in the barrack box?
A.488 No, sir.
Q.489 Did he mention any total sum he had?
A.489 Yes, sir, he said either £16-0-0 or £16-10-0 sir.

(In the opinion of the Court it is not necessary tocomply with RP 83 (b) in connection with this witness).

THE PROSECUTOR: "Sir, I was the officer detailed to take the Summary of evidence in this case, and I propose to submit in evidence, the evidence given under oath by the accused at the time of the Summary, after being properly warned."

SEVENTH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

Major S.A.German, No. 1 RCASCRU, an officer of the Canadian Army Overseas, being duly sworn states as follows:

I state sir, that the accused K-52773 Sgt. Lawson, J.B., was duly warned by me in accordance with Rs P. 4 (e), by which he was told that he did not have to say anything, to make any statement or to give evidence under oath, but that if he elected so to do, that anything which he might say would be taken down in writing and used against him in evidence at his trial. He appeared to understand this warning and gave evidence under oath. This evidence is contained on page 8, page 9 and page 10 of the Summary, of which the Court has a copy. (In the opinion of the Court it is not necessary to comply with RP 83 (b) in connection with this witness

THE PROSECUTOR: "That is the case for the Prosecution sir."

THE PROSECUTION IS CLOSED:

THE DEFENDING OFFICER MAKES THE FOLLOWING SUBMISSION:

Q.452 What time did you retire that night?
A.452 Sometime between 2400 hrs and 0030 hrs.
Q.453 Were you disturbed during the night?
A.453 Yes, sir, at sometime around 0130 hrs or 0200 hrs, I was awakened by Sgt. McBride.
Q.454 Did you pay much attention to your room mates?
A.454 I had a glimpse of the room sir.
Q.455 Did you see Sgt. Lawson?
A.455 Yes, sir.
Q.456 Where was he?
A.456 He was laying on his bed sir.
Q.457 In what position?
A.457 With his head to the foot of the bed sir.
Q.458 Was he dressed or undressed?
A.458 He was dressed.
Q.459 I am referring now, to battle dress?
A.459 I am presuming it was his battle dress -- he had clothes on anyway.
Q.460 Was he asleep or awake?
A.460 To the best of my knowledge he was asleep.
Q.461 You were awakened, and rolled over and went back to sleep, and later on were you disturbed again by Sgt. McBride, and at what time?
A.461 Of the time I am not sure, but it was sometime later.
Q.462 And what did you notice then?
A.462 Sgt. McBride was standing in the centre of the room, with a box in his hand.
Q.463 I produce to you exhibit No. 7 -- would that be the box you refer to?
A.463 It might be sir, I wouldn't say definitely.
Q.464 Was it a box xx similar to that?
A.464 Well, it was the same shape sir.
Q.465 And what do you say as to the top of it?
A.465 I can't say anything about the top of it.
Q.466 And you say Sgt. McBride was standing in the centre of the room, with a box in his hand?
A.466 Yes, sir.
Q.467 And did he make any comment?
A.467 Yes, sir, he called me and said, "Slip, what shall I do with this? It belongs to Johney." meaning Sgt. Lawson.
Q.468 Then what happened?
A.468 He brought it over to me, and placed it on the chair beside my bed. He must have carried it over -- I didn't see him carry it over because I put my head under the blankets, but then next I saw it was on the chair beside me, or beside the bed.
Q.469 Then what happened?
A.469 Then he insisted on showing me what was in it?
Q.470 Would you show the Court how he showed you what was in it? Let's assume that is the chair.
A.470 To the best of my knowledge, the top comes off like this. Assuming this is my bed here, I am lying on my right side slightly below the level of the chair. He had 3 one pound notes, in something like this manner, and to the best of my knowledge he took what I thought to be a cheque for £5-0-0 out of the box with the other hand.
Q.471 Now, as I understand it, you cannot say that it was a cheque, but it was a piece of paper in the form of a cheque, and he remarked that it was for the sum of £5-0-0?
A.471 Yes, sir, to the best of my knowledge.
Q.472 Then what happened?
A.472 Then I xxxx tried to get rid of him by going back to sleep, but he called me again sir, and told me that he was putting the box in the corner of the room, which corner I am not sure of, but by listening to the movements I thought it was in the corner opposite to where I slept.
Q.473 Did he give you any instructions as to what you were to do in the morning?
A.473 Yes, sir, he said to be sure and tell John, meaning Sgt. Lawson, that he had put the box in the corner.
Q.474 He asked that you tell Sgt. Lawson, that he had put the box in the corner?
A.474 Yes, sir.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

A.429(con'd) be stuck for it.
Q.430 And I understand that as a result of your objection, a collection or subscription was taken up?
A.430 Yes, sir, £1-18-6 was collected that night. S/Sgt. Spence was to put in another 10 shillings after he got paid later on in the day.
Q.431 And the money was collected by whom?
A.431 By Sgt. Comba who handed it over to me and later on I in turn handed it over to CSM Laurie before I left to go to No. 1 CGRU.
Q.432 Now regarding the whiskey, you have said that you got two bottles of whiskey -- of what brand?
A.432 I don't remember sir.
Q.433 Were they full bottles do you remember?
A.433 I couldn't even tell you that sir.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

Q.434 These free drinks which you had, did not the accused by so many words or actions state that he was paying for them?
A.434 Yes, sir, he did.
Q.435 And the only time you saw the accused take a drink, was the sup which he took on the second round.
A.435 Yes, sir.
Q.436 When you made up this loving cup of the full glass?
A.436 He touched it to his lips, but how much he took I couldn't say sir.
Q.437 Were you going on leave or were you returning from leave?
A.437 Well, I was returning from weekend leave, and I was off duty at my unit because I had a bad foot and knee.
Q.438 To all intents and purposes you were not carrying out duties?
A.438 No, sir, I was not.
Q.439 How much did you pay for the bottle of whiskey?
A.439 25 shillings for the whiskey and 5 shillings for the balance of the bottle of gin.
Q.440 You are sure that you didn't pay more than that?
A.440 I am quite sure.
Q.441 How much gin was there in the bottle?
A.441 I would say about 1/4 of a bottle sir.
Q.442 Who made the suggestion to get the liquor from the mess, after you had gone back to your quarters?
A.442 It must have been Sgt. Comba or Sgt. Shanley sir, because neither Sgt-Major ~~Xxxx~~ Pelley or myself made such a suggestion. We had whiskey.
Q.443 I am assuming that you are admitting that you went into the Mess for the second time?
A.443 Yes, sir.
Q.444 You say two bottles were taken -- who took these two bottles?
A.444 I don't know who picked them up sir.
Q.445 You didn't see them picked up.
A.445 No, sir.
Q.446 When did you first notice that there were two bottles?

THE PRESIDENT: "I think that you had better leave that alone".

(In the opinion of the Court is is not necessary to comply with RP 83 (b) in connection with this witness)

SIXTH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION: D-82130 Sgt. Slipper, T.B., RHLI, at present on the strength of No. 1 NETD, being duly sworn is examined by:

THE PROSECUTOR:

Q.447 On the night of the 13th -- 14th of June, were you in your room in 'A' Block at HQ CRU,
A.447 Yes, sir.
Q.448 And your room mates were S/Sgt. Labelle and Sgt. Lawson?
A.448 Yes, sir.
Q.449 And do you see Sgt. Lawson here today?
A.449 Yes, sir.
Q.450 And you recognize him as your room mate?
A.450 Yes, sir.
Q.451 You, I understand, returned to your unit at approximately sometime between 1500 and 1830 hrs, from leave.
A.451 Yes, sir.

Q.408 Did you see the cash box when you stepped outside?
A.408 When we left the Mess, Sgt. Lawson was carrying the cash box under his left arm.
Q.409 And for how long did you have this talk on the street?
A.409 I could not say sir, because we didn't pay any attention at the time.
Q.410 After this conversation, you moved on into Sgt. Lawson's room in 'A' block, the 3 of you.
A.410 Yes, sir.
Q.411 What did you note Sgt. Lawson to do if anything, in the room?
A.411 As soon as Sgt. Lawson entered the room, I entered the room first and proceeded to Sgt. Slippers bed, and as soon as Sgt. Lawson entered the room, he made a rightturn and moved between the wall and his bed, bending down to where his barrack box was. He went down on his knees in front of his barrack box.
Q.412 Did you have any evidence of the cash box after you got into the room?
A.412 I didn't pay much attention to the cash box sir. I was joshing Sgt. Pelley about the way Sgt. Lawson made a left turn.
Q.413 Then I understand, you had a conversation over about 5 or 10 minutes with Sgt. Lawson?
A.413 Yes, sir, Sgt. Lawson had come around and sat on his bed.
Q.414 And then when you left the room, was Sgt. Lawson sitting or lying on his bed?
Q.414 Sgt. Lawson was lying on his bed, his head was towards the foot of his bed.
Q.415 And his feet where?
A.415 His ~~eff~~ feet were towards the pillow.
Q.416 Was he awake or asleep?
A.416 He was asleep
A.417 How long was this after you entered the room approximately?
A.417 Ten to 15 minutes.
Q.418 He had laid down and gone to sleep?
A.418 Well, I couldn't swear for sure that he was asleep or not. He had his eyes closed when we walked out at any rate.
Q.419 When did you next return to Sgt. Lawson's room?
A.419 I had left my case in Sgt. Lawson's room, and I returned at approximately 4 o'clock or 4:30 to pick up the case.
Q.420 And did you see Sgt. Lawson then?
A.420 Sgt. Lawson was still on his bed. He was half on the bed and half off it, with one arm flung over the side.
Q.421 And was he awake or asleep?
A.421 He was asleep.
Q.422 Did you make any effort to awaken him?
A.422 You mean did I shake him to wake him up?
Q.423 Did you take any steps to awaken him, or to improve his position?
A.423 Yes, sir, I picked Sgt. Lawson up in my arms, turned him around, put his head on the pillow and covered him with a blanket.
Q.424 And did he awaken?
A.424 No, sir.
Q.425 Or roused at all when you handled him?
A.425 No, sir, he didn't.
Q.426 Now, you had not been in the room between the time you first went into the room and the time you went back for your bag?
A.426 No, sir, I hadn't been back.
Q.427 Did you, in the interval return to the mess at all?
A.427 When do you mean?
A.428 That is, after you left Sgt. Lawson in his room, and the time of your return at 4 o'clock when you went back for your bag, did you go down to the Sergeants' Mess?
A.428 Yes, sir.
Q.429 And what happened when you went to the Sgts. Mess?
A.429 We returned to the Sgts. Mess, myself, Sgt-Major Pelley, Sgt. Comba, Sgt. Shanley, CSM Laurie and S/Sgt. Spence. Sgt. Comba had obtained the keys to the Sgts. Mess from somewhere, and opened the door of the Mess. I in company with those I have mentioned, went inside to get two bottles of whiskey. Prior to going back to the Mess and while in the Mess, Sgt-Major Pelley and myself put up objections to obtaining whiskey that way and Sgt-Major Pelley made the statement that the whiskey would be paid for, and that Johnny Lawson would not

Q.379 And you then proceeded to the kitchen?
A.379 Yes, sir.
Q.380 And on the question of something to eat, if I may be permitted to lead you, the party had bread and cheese?
A.380 Yes, sir.
Q.381 And what happened after that?
A.381 We proceeded back to the bar?
Q.382 Who is 'we'?
A.382 Sgt. Lawson, CQMS Pelley and myself.
Q.383 Sgt. Latta had since left.
A.383 Yes, sir.
Q.384 And what happened in the bar on this occasion?
A.384 There was some conversation about having another drink, so I poured out a drink of rum for myself and Sgt Major Pelley, Sgt. Lawson saying that he didn't want a drink as he had had enough.
Q.385 You poured two drinks of rum for SQMS PELLEY and yourself?
A.385 Yes, sir.
Q.386 Did you use a measuring glass?
A.386 No, sir, I took two of these half pint beer glasses and poured approximately 3/4 of an inch of rum in each of them.
Q.387 Was Sgt. Lawson present?
A.387 Yes, sir, standing at the end of the bar.
Q.388 Did you have any more to drink after than drink of rum?
A.388 Yes, sir, a drink of gin.
A.389 That is CQMS Pelley and yourself.
A.389 Yes, sir, Sgt. Lawson again refused.
Q.390 Who poured that drink?
A.390 I did.
Q.391 Didyou use a measuring glass?
A.391 No, sir, I poured directly from the bottle into the glass, using the same two glasses.
Q.392 Approximately how much gin did you pour?
A.392 I don't remember sir.
Q.393 Did any money change hands?
A.393 No money changed hands for these drinks.
Q.394 Did you have any more drinks after the gin?
A.394 Not there, but the conversation came up as to whether we would have another drink and Sgt. Lawson said he could sell me a bottle for 25 shillings.
Q.395 Did you buy a bottle?
A.395 I bought a bottle for 25 shillings?
Q.396 What was it?
A.396 A bottle of whiskey.
Q.397 A full bottle.
A.397 Yes, sir.
Q.398 Did you make any other purchase?
A.398 Yes, sir, there was about 1/4 of a bottle of gin left, so I gave Sgt. Lawson 30 shillings for the balance of the gin and the whiskey.
Q.399 You purchased a full bottle of whiskey and 1/4 of a bottle of gin for 30 shillings?
A.399 Yes, sir.
Q.400 Did you have any further drinks after the purchase of the bottles in the bar?
A.400 No, sir, not in the bar.
Q.401 Where was the cash box while you were having these drinks?
A.401 I didn't pay much attention.
Q.402 Now, I will lead you along a bit, if my friend has no objections. You all left the bar then, and the Mess.
A.402 Yes, sir.
Q.403 And you went out on Queen's avenue towards 'A' block?
A.403 Yes, sir.
Q.404 And the three of you stopped on the street and had a conversation.
A.404 Yes, sir.
Q.405 At about what time of the morning, would you say you left the Mess?
A.405 I couldn't give you the exact time sir.
Q.406 Well, approximately what time -- you say you arrived at approximately 2345 hrs -- how long were you there altogether?
A.406 About an hour or possibly longer.
Q.407 At about 1/4 to 1 or 1 o'clock you left then?
A.407 Yes, sir.

A-355 (con'd) whiskey. I offered to pay for the drink and Sgt. Lawson told me to put my money away, that my money was no good.
Q.356 What do you mean xx by a small beer glass?
A.356 That would be a half pint beer glass.
Q.357 Was it straight whiskey, or whiskey and soda or what?
A.357 It was straight whiskey sir, as you get it today.
Q.358 Did you see Sgt. Lawson pour that drink?
A.358 No, sir, I wouldn't say that I definitely remember that I saw Sgt. Lawson pouring that drink.
Q.359 What would you estimate the quantity of whiskey to be in that glass in terms of single drinks -- one, two, three or what?
A.359 I wouldn't be able to estimate that sir.

THE PRESIDENT: "He has already said half a pint."

A.360 Yes, sir, that was the size of the glass. Because of the size of this drink, it was a little bit too much for one time, so I shared the drink with CQMS Pelley, who took half and I took the other half. I then got into some conversation with Sgt. Latta in regards to persons who had been picked up for careless talk. Then Sgt. Lawson, after this conversation with Sgt. Latta, Sgt. Lawson served me with another drink of the same proportions as the first one, approximately.
Q.361 Did you or anyone else pay for that?
A.361 No, sir, I didn't pay for that drink. I imagine Sgt. Lawson paid for it.
Q.362 Did you drink that yourself?
A.362 Yes, sir.
Q.363 Did Sgt. Lawson have any drinks up to this time?
A;363 I didn't see Sgt. Lawson have a drink.
Q.364 At this point, what was Sgt. Lawson's condition, would you express an opinion on that?
A.364 It was my opinion that Sgt. Lawson had been drinking.
Q.365 Now, when you finished that drink, did you have another one?
A.365 Yes, sir, there was some more conversation and due to the fact that I had had two drinks, I told Sgt. Lawson, "I have had two drinks with you Johney, and it is my turn to buy one," and offered to buy a drink for the party, who were standing around.
Q.366 And did you have that drink?
A.366 Yes, sir.
Q.367 Did each of you have a drink?
A.367 No, sir, the drink was not served up that way.
Q.368 Why?
A.368 Because most of the whiskey glasses in the bar were broken. Sgt. Lawson and CSM Logan left the bar and went out in search of whiskey glasses. They were gone a few minutes when Sgt. Lawson came back by himself and said he couldn't find any glasses to set up a round of drinks, so he took the same half pint beer glas and filled it up.
Q.369 Did he fill it full?
A.369 Yes, sir.
Q.370 Did he use a measuring cup to do so?
A.370 No, sir, he emptied the bottle into the glass.
A.371 Did you pay for this drink?
A.371 I held my silver money out to Sgt. Lawson to take what he wanted for the drink and he took 40-2-6.
Q.372 And that is all.
A.372 Yes, sir.
Q.373 Now, who drank this glass of whiskey?
A.373 This glass of whiskey was drank by CQMS Pelley, Sgt. Latta, Sgt. Lawson touched the glass with his lips and myself.
Q.374 Did Sgt. Lawson make any comment about only touching the glass to his lips?
A.374 No, sir, but I watched him do it.
Q.375 Did you have any further drinks in the bar just then?
A.375 Not right then, no, sir.
Q.376 What did you do next?
A.376 We left the bar -- all of us left the bar and proceeded to the kitchen.
Q.377 Did you see the cash box in evidence in the kitchen?
A.377 When we left the bar the cash box was on the counter of the bar.
Q.378 And did it stay there as far as you know?
A.378 As far as I know it did.

Q.340 Sgt. McBride, I understand that on Sunday evening, on the 13th - 14th of June, you were in the Sergeants' Mess, H.Q. CRU.
A.340 Yes, sir.
Q.341 At what time did you arrive in the Mess?
A.341 I arrived at the Mess at approximately 2345 hrs, sir.
Q.342 And how do you fix that time?
A.342 Because of the fact that I was returning from weekend pass from Reading, and I took the 10:30 train at Reading to North Camp. This train arrives at North Camp at 1130 hrs, and it takes 15 minutes to get to the Mess?
Q.343 You proceeded directly from the station to the Mess.
A.343 Yes, sir.
Q.344 Did you find the bar opened when you arrived at the Mess?
A.344 I saw a light from the street sir, and I found that the window of the bar into the ente-room was closed, but the door in the bar from the bar to the billiard room was open.
Q.345 Did you have to rap on the door.
A.345 Yes, sir.
Q.346 To refresh your mind now, do you remember giving evidence, at the Summary of evidence in this case?
A.346 Yes, sir.
Q.347 And you stated at that time, "I went to the door of the bar and rapped and the door was opened -- ", did you mean that the door was opened by someone or that it was already open?
A.347 The door just swung open sir.
Q.348 Who did you find in the bar, if any one?
A.348 Sgt. Lawson, A/SQMS Pelley, Sgt. Latta, S/Sgt. Watson, and an officer whom I could not identify, but recognized him to be an officer from the pips on his shoulders.
Q.349 Did you at that time, or at any time see the cash box in evidence?
A.349 Not at the time I entered the bar.
Q.350 Did you at any time during your stay in the bar?
A.350 Yes, sir, I saw the Sergeants' Mess cash box on the bar, where the bottles and drinks were served from.
Q.351 Do you recognize this box? (produces exhibit 7 to the witness)
A.351 It is my opinion that that is the cash box in the Sergeants' Mess.
Q.352 And it was on top of the cupboard in open view, and accessible to anyone in the room.
A.352 Yes, sir.
Q.353 Now, will you tell the Court as briefly as you can, what happened after that -- what different events?
A.353 As I am on 3 charges myself, in order to tell the story, I would make some statements that might incriminate me.

THE PRESIDENT: "I proposed at this moment to advise the witness that he xx is not compelled to answer any questions which might tend to incriminate him, but I see that through the advise of his counsel or otherwise he has realized this himself. That is to say any question which in the opinion of the Court might have a tendency to expose him to any charge, penalty or forfeiture, or to any Military punishment. That is not compellent. However there might be some questions that you could answer."

PROSECUTOR: "Sir, I might point out for your information, that the witness is charged with drunkenness on Tuesday -- I shan't ask any question that will bring that in. Secondly he is charged with drinking in quarters on the 13th - 14th of June -- I shan't ask him anything about that; and thirdly with handling funds without authority. Now, I don't propose to ask any questions that will incriminate him?

Q.354 On being admitted to the bar and while in there, did you have any drinks?
A.354 I would ask you sir, that you stop me if I am saying anything that might incriminate me.

THE PRESIDENT: "Yes, I shall do that."

A.355 On entering the Sgts. Mess bar that night, I contacted CQMS Pelley and inquired where Sgt. Virtue had gone, and was informed by someone that Sgt. Virtue was no longer the caterer of the Sgts. Mess, and had been sent to METD and that Sgt. Lawson was carrying on with the duties of the caterer. I asked Sgt. Lawson if I could get a drink, and he said, "Yes". Sgt. Lawson poured me out a drink approximately half a small beer glass of Q.322 Was he sitting on his bed when you left the room?

A.322 Of that I am not sure.
Q.323 Did you see Sgt. Lawson again that night?
A.323 No, sir.
Q.324 At the time of the taking of the Summary of Evidence, you told me that after leaving ~~her~~ that room, you had no further recollection of the events of the balance of the evening -- is that still correct?
A.324 Yes, sir.

CROSS--EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

Q.325 On the Sunday night, did you go inside the bar before the main serving window was pulled down, or before the bar was closed?
A.325 No, sir.
Q.326 It was after that.
A.326 Yes, sir.
Q.327 Did you go inside the bar after it was to all intents and purposes closed, or did you go inside the bar after it was actually closed?
A.327 I went inside after it was closed.
Q.328 When did you go in?
A.328 Well, it was like this, when the bar was closed, Sgt. Lawson said, "It won't take me a a minute to make up my cash and I will walk down to the billets with you." That was after it was closed.
Q.329 And Sgt. McBride, did he arrive much after the actual closing of the bar?
A.329 Not very much after. I couldn't say the exact time.
Q.330 You saw Sgt. Lawson making up his books, balancing accounts or making up his cash, in some way while you were inside the bar.
A.330 Yes, sir.
Q.331 What was the condition of Sgt. McBride when he came into the bar?
A.331 To all appearances, Sgt. McBride seemed to have been drinking.
Q.332 When Sgt. Lawson poured a drink, did he use a measuring glass?
A.332 Yes, sir.
Q.333 Now, between the time when he left the bar and went to the kitchen, and went to his quarters in 'A' block, did Sgt. Lawson leave the cash box very far out of his reach?
A.333 I think he had it under his arm all the time sir.
Q.334 You say that when you entered the room -- at least the accused's quarters, he turned to his right and went to the head of his bed, is that correct?
A.334 Yes, sir.
Q.334 Did he bend over and make any motions as if opening a box or trunk?
A.334 Well, I didn't even know if he had a box sir, but he was leaning over.
Q.335 I understand that there was a meeting of the persons involved, at the office of the D.A.P.M. HQ CRU.
A.335 Yes, sir.
Q.336 And that among others, Sgt. McBride was present at this meeting.
A.336 Yes, sir.
Q.337 At that time, did Sgt. McBride say ~~xxxx~~ anything regarding money?
A.337 Sgt. McBride said, "I will go andget this money or that money." At any rate he said, "I will go and get money".
Q.338 Did Sgt. Comba say anything at that time regarding the keys?
A.338 Yes, sir, Sgt. Comba in the presence of Sgt. Lawson on the sidewalk, between our block and 'B' block on that day, when Sgt. Lawson asked him, "Who had the keys?" and he answered, "I had the keys." Sgt. Lawson then asked, "Where did you get them?" and he said, "I don't know."
Q.339 Did Sgt. Lawson ask Comba if he opened the bar at any time?
A.339 Yes, sir.
Q.340 And what did Comba say?
A.340 He said yes, sir.

(In the opinion of the Court, it is not necessary to comply with RP 83 (b) in connection with this witness).

FIFTH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

K-52761 Sgt. McBride, J.C., Seaforth of Canada, attached to Instrs. Pool, HQ CRU, being duly sworn is examined by:

THE PROSECUTOR:

Q.298 And after Sgt. McBride entered, was the cash box still in the open?
A.298 Sgt. Lawson was making up his cash, or at least that is what I presume he was doing and actually I was not paying much attention to him. As a matter of fact I was doing more talking to McBride than I was to Lawson.
Q.299 And you say that there was only one drink, a loving cup, which you had before you left the bar.
A.299 That is all I can recollect any how.
Q.300 What was Sgt. Lawson's condition -- would you give an opinion as to his condition?
A.300 I would say that Sgt. Lawson was perfectly capable at that time.
Q.301 How lonw were you in the bar?
A.301 I would say roughly, possibly 20 minutes.
Q.302 Altogether.
A.302 Possibly 20 minutes to half an hour. I don't think it could possibly be longer than that.
Q.303 Did you all wait at the bar together?
A.303 Yes, sir.
Q.304 Do you know what happened to the cash box when you left the bar?
A.304 Sgt. Lawson had the cash box under his arm.
Q.305 And where did you go on leaving the bar?
A.305 We went out to the kitchen.
Q.306 For what purpose?
A.306 Sgt. Lawson said he was working hard all day, and he wondered if he could get a cup of tea, so that we all went out to the kitchen.
Q.307 And did you have some food, or do you remember that?
A.307 Yes, sir.
Q.308 Then where did you go from the kitchen?
A.308 We came out of the Mess, and we stood outside for some considerable time.
Q.309 The three of you.
A.309 Yes, sir.
Q.310 Did Sgt. Lawson have his cash box with him still?
A.310 He had it when he left the room, yes, sir.
Q.311 And you stood talking for some considerable time you say -- for approximately how long?
A.311 Possibly half to 3/4 of an hour.
Q.312 And then where did you go?
A.312 We went down to 'A' block, Sgt. Lawson's room.
Q.313 All three of you.
A.313 Yes, sir.
Q.314 Did you enter his room?
A.314 Yes, sir.
Q.315 And what happened when you entered his room?
A.315 As we entered, Sgt. Lawson went in first, and the door to his room opens to the right, which almost obliterates his bed; it does actually as you are going in. I went in next and I couldn't see where he had gone, and I finally looked to the right and he was between the wall and his bed which is parallel with the wall, and he was up at the head of the bed.
Q.316 Did you see what he was doing there?
A.316 I don't know what he was doing actually. He was up at the head of his bed stooping down.
Q.317 Did you see the cash box again after you entered the room?
A.317 No, sir.
Q.318 How long were you in the room then, in Sgt. Lawson's room that is?
A.318 Probably 5, 8 or 10 minutes.
Q.319 Can you tell me who else was in the room besides Sgt. McBride and yourself, or did you notice?
A.319 I noticed there were two other beds in the room there, but I don't know who occupied them.
Q.320 During the period from 5 to 10 minutes, when you were in Sgt. Lawson's room, what happened or what did you do?
A.320 I was more or less fooling around -- my recollection is that we were getting into a goose step in the German style or something of that nature.
Q.321 Where was Sgt. Lawson?
A.321 He was sitting on the end of his bed.

Q.273 At what time was that?
A.273 That was just as he was closing the bar.
Q.274 And you I take it, went into the bar with him?
A.274 Yes, sir.
Q.275 And the serving windows and the doors entering into the bar were closed.
A.275 Yes, sir.
Q.276 Leaving the two of you in the bar?
A.276 Yes, sir.
Q.277 And while in there how many drinks did you have if any?
A.277 The only drinks I had in the bar, was the drink from a glass, there was two double whiskeys put in it, and these were the only ones I can recollect.
Q.278 And was that when you were in there alone?
A.278 No, sir, that was later.
Q.279 Well, I was referring to while you and Sgt. Lawson were alone, did you have any drinks?
A.279 Not that I recollect sir.
Q.280 And while you were in there with Sgt. Lawson, did you see the cash box?
A.280 Yes, sir.
Q.281 And where was it?
A.281 To my recollection it was on the left hand side of the bar, that would be from the bar much as your table is situated there sir, and if the partition was on his side, the box would be on his left.
Q.282 Are you acquainted with the cupboard xxxx in which they store the spirits?
A.282 No, sir.
Q.283 Was it on a shelf or on a table?
A.283 To my recollection it seemed on the top of the table.
Q.284 At any rate it was out in the open?
A.284 Yes, sir.
Q.285 Did you see Sgt. McBride that evening?
A.285 Yes, sir.
Q.286 At approximately what time did he arrive?
A.286 He joined us in the bar very shortly after Sgt. Lawson closed the bar. The exact time I couldn't xxx state.
Q.287 And whowas in the bar when he arrived?
A.287 Sgt. Lawson and myself?
Q.288 And was the door entering the bar locked?
A.288 Yes, sir.
Q.289 I believe that Sgt. McBride knocked on the door.
A.289 Yes, sir.
Q.290 Who admitted Sgt. McBride?
A.290 Sgt. Lawson.
Q.291 And after he entered the bar what happened?
A.291 After he entered the bar, I think Sgt. Lawson said, 'Good evening' of course, and McBride stated that he was going on leave and he asked Sgt. Lawson to sell him a bottle of whiskey. I was not paying much attention to the conversation, but I know there was a bottle of whiskey sold and some money paid, and I believe 3/4 of a bottle of gin or half a bottle of gin was sold.
Q.292 Was the half bottle of gin sold by Lawson to McBride?
A.292 Yes, sir.
Q.293 Then didyou have any drinks in the bar?
A.293 Yes, sir, Sgt. McBride ordered 2 double whiskeys. Sgt. Lawson poured them out in a long mug and put them into a glass, and Sgt. McBride passed it to me more or less as a lovers cup, and I drank a portion of it and I passed the rest to Sgt. Mcbride and he drank the rest of it.
Q.294 Did you have any drinks after that?
A.294 I have no recollection of having any more drinks.
Q.295 Did Sgt. Lawson have any of the loving cup with you?
A.295 No, sir, he didn't have any of it. Sgt. McBride finished the remainder of the drink in the glass.
Q.296 Did you see anyone else have any drinks in there after you had finished this loving cup?
A.296 No, sir.
Q.297 You didn't see anyone, or you don't recollect, which?
A.297 I didn't see anybody sir.

Q.245 And Sgt. McBride?
A.245 Well, Sgt. McBride, you could tell he was drinking, but he wasn't as drunk as Sgt-Major Pelley was.
Q.246 You also say you saw Sgt. Comba and Sgt. Latta having drinks?
A.246 Yes, sir.
Q.247 Did you see them go into the bar and get the drinks?
A.247 Well, they were at the bar there sir.
Q.248 Did you see them actually go into the bar?
A.248 Yes, sir.
Q.249 Did you see them go into the kitchen at any time?
A.249 No, sir, they weren't in the kitchen.
Q.250 Did Sgt. Lawson tell you, why he was giving you the keys?
A.250 Yes, sir, he asked me if I would clean up the bar.
Q.251 Was anything further said? Did he tell you he had to go to Borden?
A.251 Not as far as I can remember sir -- no, sir.
Q.252 What condition was Sgt. Lawson in?
A.252 He was sober.
Q.253 It was apparent that he was sober -- it was apparent that he was sober and that the others were drunk?
A.253 Who sir.
Q.254 Sgt. Major Pelley, Sgt. McBride, Sgt. Comba and Sgt. Latta.
A.254 Sgt. Comba wasn't drunk sir.
Q.255 Was Sgt. Major Pelley intoxicated?
A.255 Yes, sir.
Q.256 Was Sgt. McBride intoxicated?
A.256 I wouldn't say that, but you could see he had some drink in him. But he wasn't drunk sir.
Q.257 Was Sgt. Comba drunk?
A.257 No, sir.
Q.258 Do you think he had been drinking that morning?
A.258 Well, I wouldn't say that.
Q.259 In your opinion had Sgt. Latta been drinking?
A.259 No, sir, not to my knowledge.
Q.260 To your knowledge, has the bar ever been broken into, or any of the doors or windows forced?
A.260 I believe at one time it was forced.
Q.261 Were you there?
A.261 Y es, sir.
Q.262 Working in the Mess?
A.262 Yes, sir.
Q.263 How long ago is that?
A.263 I couldn't say sir.
Q.264 What part was broken into?
A.264 The back door was broken into, where you go out to the parade ground.

(In the opinion of the Court it is not necessary to comply with RP 83 (b) in connection with this witness)

FOURTH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

K-57098 A/CQMS Pelley, D.M., DM Section, H.Q. CRU, being duly sworn is examined by:

THE PROSECUTOR:

Q.265 You are a member of the Sgts. Mess, H.Q. CRU?
A.265 Yes, sir.
Q.266 And you were in the Mess on Sunday evening, the 13th of June, 1943?
A.266 Yes, sir.
Q.267 During the course of the evening, you with some friends xx had a few drinks, I believe?
A.267 Yes, sir.
Q.268 Who was in charge of the bar that night?
A.268 Sgt. Lawson.
Q.269 Do you recognize Sgt. Lawson as being here today?
A.269 Yes, sir.
Q.270 Did Sgt. Lawson join you in any drinks during the evening?
A.270 I cannot say that he did, no sir.
Q.271 What time did he close the bar that evening?
A.271 Shortly after 11 o'clock.
Q.272 And after he closed the bar, were you in the bar with him or with anybody else?
A.272 Yes, sir.

Q.215 Did he have anything with him when he came in there?
A.215 He had a box under his arm sir.
Q.216 Can you identify that box?
A.216 Well, it was similar to this one sir, but I couldn't say its the one.
(Exhibit 7 produced to the witness)
Q.217 Did he take that box into the bar with him?
A.217 Yes, sir.
Q.218 Did anyone else go into the Mess during the time Sgt. Lawson was there?
A.218 Yes, sir, Sgt. Comba and Sgt. Latta.
Q.219 Where did they go?
A.219 Up to the bar there sir.
Q.220 Did you see what went on?
A.220 I was cleaning off the tables and I seen them going away with a scotch and a small beer in the glass.
Q.221 You saw whom?
A.221 Sgt. Comba and Sgt. Latta, coming away a a small beer and a scotch each.
Q.222 Did you see who served them with that whiskey and beer?
A.222 No, sir.
Q.223 Did you see what Sgt. Lawson was doing in the bar?
A.223 No, sir.
Q.224 And how long was Sgt. Lawson there?
A.224 Around about 10 or 15 minutes.
Q.225 What happened then?
A.225 Sgt. Lawson came out and asked me if I would clean up the bar and he handed me the keys.
Q.226 Did you notice whether or not he had locked the door to the bar?
A.226 No, sir, I didn't notice.
Q.227 How many keys did he hand you?
A.227 There were 2 keys or 3 keys on the ring sir.
Q.228 Do you know what they were for?
A.228 One of them was for the bar door.
Q.229 But you didn't examine the door to see whether it was locked or not?
A.229 No, sir.
Q.230 He gave you these keys and instructed you to clean out the bar?
A.230 Yes, sir.
Q.231 Then what happened?
A.231 Then he went out.
Q.232 He went out.
A.232 Yes, sir.
Q.233 Where were Sgts. Comba and Latta at that time?
A.233 They were sitting in the ante-room at the table.
Q.234 Continuing their drink.
A.234 Yes, sir.
Q.235 How long did you have these keys?
A.235 I would say around a little over an hour.
Q.236 What did you do with them?
A.236 Private Boucher came in and I handed the keys over to him.
Q.237 Did you enter the bar at any time that morning?
A.237 No, sir.
Q.238 Were you in the custom of receiving the keys for the bar?
A.238 No, sir, I was not.
Q.239 How long have you been employed there?
A.239 Around 16 months sir.
Q.240 Have you ever before been given the keys for any purpose?
A.240 No, sir.
Q.241 When you saw Sgt. Lawson the next time -- or when did you next see him?
A.241 I never seen him no more until the next day I think it was.
Q.242 You didn't see him again until the next day.
A.242 No, sir.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

Q.243 When you were working in the kitchen, did you see anybody go into the kitchen, with a liquor bottle on their person?
A.243 Yes, sir, I couldn't swear, who who I saw with the bottle, but they were Sgt. Major Pelley and also Sgt. McBride.
Q.244 What condition were they in?
A.244 Sgt. Major Pelley I would say was awful drunk.

Q.195 What does this paper show? (Exhibit 1 produced to the witness).
A.195 It shows the accounting of the stock on hand when I counted My stock on Monday morning.
Q.196 Did the account of money which you found in the cash box, correspond with the stock in trade which apparently had been sold during the weekend?
A.196 I didn't have enough money to make up for the stock which seemed to have been sold.
Q.197 What does this paper show? (Exhibit 2 produced to the witness).
A.197 This is a statement of the ten line, of the stock I had on hand when I went on weekend. It is correct.
Q.198 Who prepared the figures for that statement?
A.198 Sgt. Major Bennett. I checked and showed these figures to Sgt. Major Bennet and he check them with me against the stock and the money. Sgt. Major Bennett was satisfied that this was a correct statement.
Q.199 What is this statement? (Exhibit 3 produced to the witness).
A.199 It is a correct statement of the stock on hand on Monday, 14 th of June. Sgt. Major Bennett prepared it.
Q.200 Who was with Sgt. Major Bennett when he prepared this statement or obtained the figures?
A.200 The Camp Commandant. Sgt. Major Bennett and I took this statement to the Camp Commandant, who said it was correct.
Q.201 And what is this statement? (Exhibit 4 produced to the witness) Is that statement correct?
A.201 Yes, sir, it is correct. The prices shown there are the prices at which the items were generally sold.
Q.202 Was the sale to a member of the mess by bottle permitted -- that is speaking of private?
A.202 I believed that I was entitled to sell a bottle of whiskey if somebody wanted it, and that the price would be the usual retail price.
Q.203 What were your instructions as Mess caterer, in regard to the granting of credit to members of the Mess?
A.203 I had no right to give credit to anybody.
Q.204 Did you find any chits in the cash box on your return on Monday?
A.204 I did find them and made ~~xx~~ a list of them.
Q.205 Where did you keep your cash box and cash customarily in that Mess?
A.205 I always left the box in the cupboard in the bar.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY THE PROSECUTING OFFICER.

Q.206 Was the accused present when the accounting was taken on Monday morning?
A.206 No, he was not.

(In the opinion of the Court, it is unnecessary to comply with R.P. 93 (b) in connection with this witness).

PRIOR WITNESS C-9668 Cpl Petelen, W.J. RCC CSM, being duly sworn is examined by FOR THE PROSECUTION.

EXAMINATION.

Q.207 You are C-9668 Cpl. Petelen, W.J., R.C. CSM.
A.207 Yes, sir.
Q.208 And you are employed as Convent Duty and in the Corps. Most of that R.C.
A.208 Yes, sir.
Q.209 And on the morning of Monday 14 Jun 43, were you on duty in the Mess?
A.209 Yes, sir, I was.
Q.210 What time did you start your duties?
A.210 At about 1/2 past six sir.
Q.211 And during that morning did you see Sgt. Lamont
A.211 Yes, sir.
Q.212 Do you recognize Sgt. Lamont
A.212 Yes, sir, I do.
Q.213 At what time in the morning did you see Sgt. Lamont
A.213 At about 7/8 to 8 sir.
Q.214 Where did you see Sgt. Lamont
A.214 He came in through the ante-room and came into the bar sir.

[illegible]

Q.192 And you were granted a 48 hour weekend pass for the period from Saturday 12th of June 43, until Monday morning, 14th of June 43.

A.192 Yes, sir.

Q.193 Who relieved you or assumed your duties in charge of the Canteen, while you were away on that leave?

A.193 Sgt. Lawson.

Q.194 And when did Sgt. Lawson assume these duties?

A.194 A. 1020 Saturday morning sir.

Q.195 And what action did you take on Saturday morning in respect to handing over the stock and so on to Sgt. Lawson? What did you do when you handed over ~~the~~ to Sgt. Lawson -- did you take account of the beer, the minerals and the money, and did you get the result of that account down on paper?

A.195 We did take a count and we did put it on paper.

Q.196 Would you recognise the paper if it were shown to you now?

A.196 I believe I would.

Q.197 I produce to the witness, exhibit No. 1. Do you recognise that paper?

A.197 I am content that this document represents the count taken at that time -- that is on the Saturday morning of the hand over, Sgt. Lawson and myself along being present.

Q.198 I produce also to the witness Exhibit 2. How much cash was handed to Sgt. Lawson on the hand over?

A.198 I truly gave to Sgt. Lawson £21-19-7.

Q.199 Did Sgt. Lawson count this cash in the presence of the witness, when it was handed over?

A.199 Sgt. Lawson counted the money over and satisfied himself that the amount I have stated was there.

Q.200 Did you then deliver the keys to Sgt. Lawson?

A.200 At that time I delivered to Sgt. Lawson the keys to the bar, and the keys to the box where money is kept.

Q.201 How many keys in all?

A.201 We had 3 keys. One key was to open the bar, one key was to open the stock room or entering room and the third key was for the ~~[illegible]~~ cupboard where we keep the cash box. All the keys were given to Sgt. Lawson.

Q.202 What is this box I show you?

A.202 This is the cash box ordinarily used in the bar, and it is kept in the bar generally at all times.

(Exhibit No. 7 -- Cash box identified as shown by the witness)

Q.203 Is that the box you delivered to Sgt. Lawson?

A.203 That is the box.

Q.204 Now then, at what time did you return on Monday, 14 June?

A.204 15 minutes to 11 on Monday morning sir.

Q.205 When did you see Sgt. Lawson on Monday?

A.205 Between 7:30 to 11 o'clock that night. I don't remember for certain which.

Q.206 From whom did you receive the keys that you had delivered to Sgt. Lawson?

A.206 I received the keys from Gunner Butcher.

Q.207 Who is Gunner Butcher and how is he employed?

A.207 He works in the Sergeants' Mess. He is a waiter. I received the keys from Butcher and I thought that Sgt. Lawson might be out on business, and left the keys with Butcher to give to me.

Q.208 At what time did you receive these keys from Gunner Butcher?

A.208 At 3/4 to 11 in the morning.

Q.209 Will you tell the Court what you did after you received those keys?

A.209 I opened the door and I counted the money.

Q.210 Which door?

A.210 I opened the door opening from the Mess room and went into the [illegible] cupboard and counted the money which was there in the box.

Q.211 There was the box?

A.211 In the cupboard.

Q.212 At what time did you start to count the money?

A.212 Immediately sir.

Q.213 After you counted the money, did you check the stock? Did you make any record?

A.213 I took down a record on paper.

A.157 (cont'd) won't swear on that, but I believe that they are available. I am nearly certain but I can't swear to it.

(A 1030 HRS THE COURT ADJOURNED UNTIL 1350 HRS.

CONTINUATION OF THE PROSECUTION EXAMINATION OF THE ACCUSED.

Q.158 What is the instruction, custom or practice within the Mess, in regard to the sale of bottles of spirits to members?

A.158 The bottles as far as I know sir, I know that the members going on leave have been able to purchase a bottle. Whether it came from the stock or was purchased for that particular member I cannot say, but I know that members going on leave have gotten bottles to take with them.

CONTINUATION OF CROSS-EXAMINATION OF THE DEFENDING OFFICER.

Q.159 In returning to the cupboard in which the mess bar was ordinarily kept within the bar, am I correct in saying that the doors to this cupboard were secured by a clasp which clasp was locked with a padlock, is that correct?

A.159 Yes, sir.

Q.160 These clasps which held the doors closed with the padlock; these clasps were secured with 2 small screws.

A.160 There are these screws, I don't know what else they are.

Q.161 They are in the bar, holding it on the side of the doors so as that the cupboard could be opened by removing these clasps. If you removed the clasps the padlock would fall off.

A.161 You would have to take screws out sir.

Q.162 If you removed say the padlock would fall off.

A.162 Yes, sir, if you took the 2 screws off, it would be useless.

Q.163 And any small person could perform that task?

A.163 Well, any person driver, yes, sir.

Q.164 Is there two doors of this bar were constructed of ply wood, as some light wood, which could be easily forced by a man or woman.

A.164 Which door are you referring to?

Q.165 I was referring particularly to this door of the cupboard -- each side has a door composed of light wood.

A.165 They are made of plywood, but I wouldn't say of what kind of wood they are made.

Q.166 They could be easily split with a hard axe.

A.166 I would imagine so, sir.

RE-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTION.

Q.167 My learned friend has referred to the removal of the screws from the bars. Would that have to be done if the padlock applied, is it possible to have access to the hasps of those screws to remove them.

A.167 To the best of my knowledge, those are inaccessible -- like you referring to the bars.

Q.168 Yes, where the bars is bolted over.

A.168 I don't think it holds over sir.

(In the opinion of the court it is unnecessary to comply with R.P. 87 (b) in connection with this witness)

EDWARD WILLIAM [illegible] Mne, Bowden, A., attached to H.Q. CCG, having been duly sworn [illegible] to examined by [illegible]

The accused when asked should that he had no objection to Staff Sergeant Watson being present as interpreter

THE PROSECUTION.

Q.169 Number D-57008 Mne, Bowden, A., attached to H.Q. CCG.

A.169 Yes, sir.

Q.170 And you are employed as Mess Caterer to the Sergeants' Mess of that H.Q.

A.170 Yes, sir.

Q.171 And you have been employed in that position since approximately 20th of May.

A.171 Yes, sir.

A.133 No, I wouldn't say that. I have seen people at times come in and rap on the door, but I wouldn't say they were getting served or anything like that.

Q.134 Have you ever been served with a drink yourself after 0300 hrs there?

A.134 No, sir, not that I can remember, unless there was a dance or a new years party or something like that.

Q.135 On all occasions the bar was not opened after 0300 hrs?

A.135 Not to my knowledge.

Q.136 Well, on the occasion of a dance it was open after 0300 hrs?

A.136 If there was permission?

Q.137 Permission has been given for the bar to be open after 0300 hrs?

A.137 Permission has been given for dances.

Q.138 Is Sunday a sort of Special occasion in the Sergeants' Mess?

A.138 I think so. Every other Sunday is visitor Sunday. On such Sundays we are allowed to take lady friends in there for a meal.

Q.139 So that being a special occasion, there would be occasion to have the bar open a few minutes longer.

A.139 I wouldn't say that, no, sir.

Q.140 You say that you received £3-0-0 after the 13th of June.

A.140 I didn't receive it.

Q.141 Do you know that one Point was received?

A.141 Yes, sir.

Q.142 From whom was that received?

A.142 I don't know sir.

Q.143 Now, referring to this diagram of the Mess -- there are certain windows to the bar are there not?

A.143 Yes, sir, there are two windows -- do you mean glass windows or slat windows?

Q.144 Glass windows?

A.144 Yes, sir, there are two.

Q.145 So that entry could not be made to the bar without breaking them?

A.145 No, sir, there are steel bars there too.

Q.146 How many serving windows are there?

A.146 Two sir.

Q.147 Would you describe these serving windows? Are they the rolling type you roll down?

A.147 They just slide down in an ordinary window door, except that they are made of wood.

Q.148 Is the wood very sturdy?

A.148 Yes, I would say an inch and a half. I wouldn't say that they are solid right through -- but they look that thick.

Q.149 What is the method of securing them?

A.149 The big bar had a bolt on each end of it, and slides out and slides into the frame.

Q.150 Is it a large sort from bolt or --

A.150 It's a small brass bolt.

Q.151 And do those brass bolts fit squarely to the best of your knowledge?

A.151 Well now --

Q.152 Would it be possible for a strong man to push the window up?

A.152 If they had a bar they could pry it up I believe -- they've got one.

Q.153 Is it possible to get into the bar without much difficulty.

A.153 If they wanted to go to the trouble of it. There is no place perfect, that if a man wanted to go to the trouble that he couldn't get into.

Q.154 Now would you say that a man was more careful -- bearing in mind that you have said that a man could force that window if he wanted to go to the trouble -- would you say that a man was more careful to take cash, cheques and chits to his own room and lock them up where he would have an eye on them? Would you say he was more careful doing that than just leaving them in the Mess?

A.154 I would rather not answer that question sir -- that's not for my judgment.

Q.155 The cupboard in the bar in which the moneys were, but ordinarily, that was a wooden cupboard?

A.155 Yes, sir.

Q.156 And I presume there were two doors on the front with 2 small hinges, one overlapping the other.

A.156 Yes, sir.

Q.157 Now, those doors could be removed by removing the screws of the hinges, is that correct?

A.157 I don't believe they can sir. I believe the hinges are invisible. I

Q.115 You say that a person wanting to know the contents of Exhibit 5, would have to ask the Secretary of the Mess for ~~them~~ this book, is that correct?

A.115 Yes, sir.

Q.116 Have you yourself ever read the content of Page 9, refer to the knowledge which had taken place as a consequence of what happened on the night on which these charges are based?

A.116 I don't believe I have, sir.

Q.117 In other words you didn't know what was on page 9.

A.117 I wouldn't say that, because I have gone through the book.

Q.118 You have never read the contents of page 9?

A.118 Not to pay particular attention to it.

Q.119 In other words you didn't know that the rules and regulations had been unanimously adopted with minor amendments.

A.119 That book was a long time before my time here sir. I only looked over it as a reference.

Q.120 After the happenings in question?

A.120 Not necessarily.

Q.121 The answer will have to be yes or no.

PRESIDENT: "I object to that sir."

Q.122 Can you say definitely that you were aware that the rules and regulations, had been adopted by this Mess. In other words that you had definite proof such as reading the minutes of the meeting adopting, I am referring to Exhibit 6, when I say the rules and regulations'.

A.122 Yes, sir.

Q.123 You knew that prior to the invitation?

A.123 Yes, sir, I knew that a set of rules had been adopted by the original Mess.

Q.124 You didn't know what rules though. You didn't know exactly that they were these rules?

A.124 As a matter of fact a copy of the rules is right in the book.

Q.125 Then you read page 9.

A.125 Yes, sir, you will find in there a draft of that same order, that is brought up to date under the U.K. and Mess.

Q.126 And you presume, with President of the Mess now all these rules and regulations, as you would be called upon to do, being the President of the Mess, and that they had been adopted by the Mess.

A.126 I wouldn't say I had them at my finger tips, but that copy was there so I had to study any of them in particular.

Q.127 Did you study any of them?

A.127 I didn't make a study of them, no.

Q.128 Now you aware that these bar hours had been adopted at any meeting of the Mess?

A.128 No, not during my presence here. Not during my term of office. No, I wouldn't say that exactly, because I doubt't remember that being brought up at any meeting. I have been here a year. This was brought in and voted on prior to my being attached.

Q.129 You just imagined as it were, that the bar should close at 0200 hrs.

A.129 Any man is a suitable a time when the bar is opened and closed. You never inquire anything. You have to look and find out. There was a bar attendant when I first went there, and he left recently left. He was an acting warrant Off, and he was put in there for the purpose of opening and closing the bar at proper hours. These were hours posted on the side of the bar, and they were taken down the the bar was decorated.

Q.130 To the best of your knowledge, these hours have never been fixed at a mess committee meeting.

A.130 That's not a fair question sir, because they might have been fixed before I went there.

Q.131 You have just said that you were more or less familiar with the contents of the Minute Book. You looked in the minute book and read it.

A.131 I say that you were quite free to look in that book if you wished.

Q.132 In other words, you are not quite definite of these bar hours being adopted by the Mess Committee as binding.

A.132 No, I wouldn't say I was quite certain, no.

Q.133 Are you aware that at times other than when Sgt. Lawson was serving as bartender, that the Bar remained open a few minutes after the hour of 0200?

Q.94 What type of lock?
A.94 I believe it is a yale, but I am not sure. It is a padlock anyway.
Q.95 Now, what has been the custom in regard to the Mess caterer in securing this cash box and the petty cash box to which you have referred?
A.95 To the best of my knowledge the cash was kept in the cupboard, and the door locked, until such time as it was required.
Q.96 How many sets of keys were there to the box?
A.96 I believe there were two sets.
Q.97 In the possession of whom?
A.97 Bombay had one and the other one was in the possession of the Camp Commandant.
Q.98 In your opinion, is the security offered by that cupboard, the doors and the lock, sufficient for the storing of your spirits, your Canteen stocks and receipts or cash?
A.98 Yes, sir.
Q.99 What is this document I produce to you?
A.99 It is a copy of the bar hours as laid down in rules and regulations. Now I wouldn't say it is the rules and regulations, but I would say it agreed on by the committee.
Q.100 These are the bar hours of what?
A.100 As agreed on by the committee.
Q.101 Are they incorporated in the minutes?
A.101 I couldn't answer to that sir.
Q.102 This is the one which you produced at the Court of Inquiry, is it?
A.102 Yes, sir.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY MAJOR BOSWELL, COUNSEL.

Q.103 Sgt. Major Bennett, you detailed the sergeant to act as bartender, is that correct?
A.103 Yes, sir.
Q.104 Had you ever done this before?
A.104 No, sir, there had never been an occasion to.
Q.105 Mr. Bowles had never gone on leave before?
A.105 Not during my term of function.
Q.106 Now, why did you pick Sgt. Lawson to be bartender. You are aware that he is an auditor in civilian life. Why did you pick him to be bartender?
A.106 There was two reasons, or perhaps just one. He advised in keeping books, and he knew how there should be kept, and another thing he was quite willing to take on the job, which was something you don't very often find.
Q.107 In other words you just chose him because he was perhaps the most suitable man in the Mess to take over Mr. Bowles's job.
A.107 Yes, sir, that is quite true sir.
Q.108 Have you ever given a gift yourself to the Mess?
A.108 No, except I will say -- there was a meeting of the Committee and I believe it was in connection with the house night, and the Committee agreed that for that night only, there would be a credit of 10 shillings per mess member, and accordingly there were books made up of cards amounting to 10 shillings, and on that night I gave mine for 10 shillings only.
Q.109 Are you aware that any other member of the Mess ever tendered a gift which was accepted?
A.109 Not to my knowledge -- I wouldn't say that it mayn't have though.
Q.110 In other words it may have been done?
A.110 Yes quite possible.
Q.111 And you think it probably has been done.
A.111 I wouldn't like to say that sir.
Q.112 How long have you been Mess President?
A.112 I am not Mess President now -- I was for probably 3 months.
Q.113 During that time did you ever see this Minute Book, Exhibit No. 29
A.113 After the meetings, I was, sir.
Q.114 Was it in a place where it would be accessible to all members of the Mess without undue inconvenience?
A.114 If they asked for it it would be produced sir. The Mess Secretary is in charge of that book with he is Secretary of the Committee. At the present time I think it is S/Ldr. Labelle. The Secretary at the time was one of the C.W.A.C. personnel, Lt. Bates.

My

Q.70 When was that decorating done -- how long ago?
A.70 I would say about 2 months ago sir.
Q.71 Was Sgt. Lawson a member of the Mess at that time?
A.71 Yes, sir.
Q.72 Sgt. Lawson is a member of the Regimental Funds Board, CASC, attached to H.Q. CASC.
A.72 Yes, sir.
Q.73 Did he have any duties in connection with the Sgts. Mess, prior to this?
A.73 No, sir, he had no actual duty, but in his work from his own office, it is his duty to instruct whoever is in charge of the Mess books, to keep them properly. He has no job however, so far as the books are concerned. He acts in an advisory capacity from his own office.
Q.74 You have already stated that on Monday, the 14th of June, you found that he had extended credit to members of the Mess to the extent of the sum of $5-0-0 odd.
A.74 Yes, sir.

(At this point the Prosecutor draws the Courts attention to a sketch on a blackboard which he has prepared, showing the layout of the Sergeants' Mess. The defending officer agreed that it was satisfactory.)

Q.75 I refer you to the diagram representing the layout of the various rooms in the Sergeants' Mess. I refer you to that space indicated on the bar as Canteen. It is indicated that there is an entrance into the bar, by a single door from the Mess Hall.
A.75 Yes, sir.
Q.76 Is it possible to secure that door?
A.76 Yes, sir.
Q.77 By what means?
A.77 By means of a mail lock.
Q.78 There is indicated in the sketch, a serving window into the Mess anteroom.
A.78 Yes, sir.
Q.79 That window is approximately what size?
A.79 About 4 feet square roughly.
Q.80 In how does it open?
A.80 It slides up.
Q.81 Is it possible to secure that window?
A.81 Yes, sir, there is a bolt on each end of the window that goes into the frame work.
Q.82 And included on the diagram is a door ~~which~~ through which entrance must be had, to enter a small waiting room from the bar, and in that door is a small serving window?
A.82 Yes, sir.
Q.83 Is that serving window be secured?
A.83 Yes, sir, it is secured by a piece of wood cut to fit over the handle of the door, and the wood fits in there and secures the window.
Q.84 So that they could not be moved up and down.
A.84 That's right sir.
Q.85 When the door is closed, can it be secured itself?
A.86 Yes, sir, there is a lock on it. I believe there is a mail lock on it, but I am not sure.
Q.87 Now, looking from the bar to the out of doors, it is indicated that there is a pair of double doors, is that correct?
A.87 Yes, sir.
Q.88 How when these are closed can they be secured?
A.88 Yes, sir, by a bolt on each door, top and bottom, also a large lock on the door itself, and it is secured by a door lock, a large Master lock.
Q.89 Now, is there a serving shelf indicated in that bar on this plan?
A.89 Yes, sir.
Q.90 What is that?
A.90 That you see sitting there at the top of the enclosed area bar. (witness indicates on diagram location of the storage cupboard).
Q.91 Now, is that cupboard so close or attached and for storage purposes?
A.91 Yes, sir, we put the stock that is immediately in the bar, in the way of bottled and draught and soft beer and ice & pretty much bar, in there.
Q.92 Of what is that cupboard constructed?
A.92 It is constructed of wood sir.
Q.93 Can it be secured?
A.93 It can be secured by a bolt on the inside, but the door that closes to on the outside. ~~This one here to the one with a lock on it you see.~~

Q.-58 In the 18 gallon barrel, which at one shilling per pint would bring £72-0-0. On the total cost of the beer, there was a profit of £2-12-6, being 5% for wastage, made in Exhibit A.

A.-58 Yes, sir.

Q.-54 Exhibit 3 indicates that there were sold during that period, 3 dozen bottles of Pepsi-Cola at a value of 3d per bottle, and Exhibit A shows that the receipt for same should have been £0-7-0, is that correct?

A.54 Yes, sir.

Q.55 The next entry on Exhibit No. A, is the grand total of £12-1-6, which represents the moneys which should have been received into the bar, for the sales of the stock of ~~whiskey~~ beer and soft drinks, sold at regular prices, and whiskey at cost price plus a nominal profit, is that correct?

A.55 That is right sir.

Q.56 What is the custom of the Mess, in respect of the charging to the customer of the stock -- is it charged to him at cost price or at Mess retail price?

Q.56 Mess retail price sir.

Q.57 Now, on Exhibit A, the money in the cash box on Monday, 14 Jun 43, was £26-2-4, is that correct?

A.57 Yes, sir.

Q.58 Let the reconstitution there show a deficit of £29-17-0, as between sales and the money which he had on hand?

A.58 Yes, sir, that is right.

Q.59 Now, on the charge the amount of money remitted to you-17-0, which is £1-0-0 less; can you account for that?

A.59 Yes, sir, after this was made up there was £1-0-0 recovered sir from a member of the Mess and it was given to the Camp Commandant, and he entered it as being £1-0-0 less and it was then put in the cash box.

Q.60 So, that I suggest to you that had whiskey been charged on the basis of retail sale by single bottles, that the amount received would have been £31-5-0.

A.60 That is right sir.

Q.61 So that the basis of your charging here -- the most economical is allowed a profit of roughly £1-5-0, or would give the account the benefit of £1-5-0.

A.61 Yes, sir, that is right.

Q.62 As President of the Mess, can you identify this book which I produce to you?

A.62 Yes, sir, this book is the Minute Book of the Sgts. Mess. R.C. CDN, the first meeting commences on 12 October, 1941.

(Exhibit 5 Minute Book of Sgts. Mess. R.C. CDN)

Q.63 And does this report minutes of the different meetings?

A.63 Yes, sir.

Q.64 I refer you to page 9 of Exhibit No. 5. Those are the minutes of the meeting held on what date?

A.64 The 25th of October, 1941.

Q.65 Now what is this document I produce to you?

A.65 This is a document -- or these are the rules and regulations of the Sgts. Mess, of the old Canadian here unit. The mess has been changed but the Mess has been carried on.

Q.66 Are these the regulations set forth on page 2 of Exhibit 5?

A.66 Yes, sir.

Q.67 Are these the rules and regulations presently obtaining in this Sgts. Mess?

A.67 Yes, sir.

Q.68 I would like to bring to the Court's attention Paragraph 6, sub-paragraph 4 of this document (reads the section in question). You have heard me read a particular paragraph. Has it been amended or in any way altered to your knowledge?

A.68 No, sir.

Q.69 And with regard to these rules and regulations, they were passed at a regularly constituted meeting as indicated by the minutes, and how were they published?

A.69 They were posted in the Mess sir. They had been hanging on the wall, on the partition which is sort of a folding door, and the mess has been recently decorated, and all notices were taken down, and to the best of my knowledge they have not been replaced.

(Exhibit 6, Rules & Regulations of the Sgts. Mess, R.C. CDN)

Q-35 Can you tell me the cost of a bottle of whiskey as you paid for it?
A-35 Twenty five shillings for the bottle and one and two by the drink. For the average bottle, we only pay 25 shillings for whiskey. At times we get the old bottle which costs a bit more.
Q-36 In arriving at this figure Sgt. Major, on what was your average taken, the cost of a bottle of whiskey?
A-36 Yes, sir, of 25 shillings.
Q-37 Plus 5 shillings, so that you were charging 30 shillings for the bottle?
A-37 Yes, sir, that is on the whiskey, rum is purchased by the large jug.
Q-38 That would be £21-0-0.
A-38 Yes, sir.
Q-39 Now referring to exhibits 2 and 3 again, on Saturday there were 48 pints of beer and on Monday none.
A-39 Yes, sir.
Q-40 At a selling price of 1 and 2 per pint.
A-40 Yes, sir. Regarding the rum sir, I can't state definitely on that, because we buy the rum by the stone jar and then put it in the bottles ourselves.

PROSECUTION: There is a slight change to be made here sir; the whiskey is ~~XXXX~~ twenty five and 6 and the gin twenty five and three. Rum is purchased in bulk, and they sell individual bottles. The jar of rum costs £20-10-0.

Q-41 Can you identify this document?
A-41 This is a statement showing how the sum of £29-17-9, the sum mentioned in the charge sheet was arrived at. This statement shows that.

(Exhibit 4, Statement showing how the sum of £29-17-9 was computed)

Q-42 By whom was that prepared?
A-42 That was prepared by Member, myself and Sgt. Short. We checked it together and then signed it.
Q-43 This was signed by yourself and Member, after ~~that~~ you had personally prepared it together, and personally checked it against cost prices, stock on hand, cash on hand and so on.
A-43 Yes, sir. With respect to whiskey, a profit of 5 shillings per bottle was added. With respect to the rum a profit of 3 shillings per bottle was added, with respect to the gin, the cost of the bottle was 25 shillings and a profit of 5 shillings was added to bring it to £1-7-0.
Q-44 Now we shall deal with the beer. Exhibit 2 shows the beer handed over on Saturday 12th of June?
A-44 Right sir.
Q-45 Exhibit 3 shows the beer as found by you on checking the ~~inventory~~ on Monday 14 Jun 43.
A-45 Yes, sir.
Q-46 Comparing the two, there were 48 pint bottles sold.
A-46 Yes, sir.
Q-47 On looking at Exhibit 4, these bottles are charged at 1 shilling and twopence, a total of £2-16-0.
A-47 Right sir.
Q-48 Now, there were 48 half bottle sold over the weekend at one shilling a pint.
A-48 Well sir, I think there one shilling a half pint.
Q-49 In accordance with Exhibit 4, receipts should have been £2-8-0.
A-49 With regard to the 48 half pint bottles, these were sold at a shilling a half pint. The word ~~half~~, or rather exhibit 2 should read at one shilling a half pint.
Q-50 Now then dealing with the barrel, comparing exhibits 2 and 3, it appears therefrom that 1 barrel of 18 gallons of beer was sold during that period. Is that correct?
A-50 Yes, sir, that is correct.
Q-51 And as shown on exhibit 4, one barrel of 18 gallons at a selling price of 1 shilling per pint, should have netted £7-4-0.
A-51 Yes, sir.
Q-52 How many pints are there in a barrel?
A-52 144 sir.

(M.

Q-16 After you were satisfied by personal check, you signed this statement?
A-16 Yes, sir.

(Exhibit 2, statement showing stock on hand, cash on hand as handed over to the accused on Saturday, 12 Jun 43)

Q-17 In connection with Exhibit 2, there are certain prices set forth as against stock -- what are those prices?
A-17 Whiskey sir. This was just showing the price of a single drink of whiskey, sold over the bar. In other words we were charging 1 shilling and twopence for a single drink, and one and four for a single drink of rum, and one and two for a single of gin.
Q-18 Then, can you tell me as President of the Mess, what the profit would be on a bottle of whiskey sold at these prices over the bar?
A-18 At these prices sir, ten shillings.
Q-19 Can you tell me in respect to a bottle of rum?
A-19 Approximately -- it would be less, around seven or eight shillings sir. These drinks are of such a size that between 30 and 32 are obtained from each bottle.
Q-20 Then, what is this statement I produce to you Sgt.-Major?
A-20 This is the statement of the stock on hand when Boucher returned for duty on Monday at approximately 1100 hrs, on 14 Jun 43.
A-21 By whom was that statement prepared?
A-21 By him sir, in my presence -- that is by Pte. Boucher. He was in the bar and he had these complaints that so much was missing so I stayed and checked it with him. I also checked the money. I cannot remember the denominations of the money. I know there was one cheque for £30-0-0 on the Canadian Pacific, and another cheque for £2-0-0 on the Westminster Bank.
Q-22 What else did you find in the cash box?
A-22 Chits to the amount of £6-8-4 as near as I can recollect. These had been signed by the members for various amounts, but that was the total as near as I can remember. I ordered those to be paid then because the rules are that there is to be no credit. They were paid immediately, and the total amount is shown separately on this statement.
Q-23 Now, this statement was prepared by yourself and Private Boucher?
A-23 Yes, sir.

(Exhibit 3, Statement showing the stock on hand on the morning of 14 Jun 43, when Pte. Boucher returned from leave)

Q-24 Now, comparing exhibits 2 and 3, fourteen bottles of whiskey were used during the period from sometime on the morning of Saturday, June 12, until approximately 1100 hrs, Monday, June 14th.
A-24 Right, sir.
Q-25 Which would represent a total received if sold by the drinks of --
A-25 Possible 36 shillings per bottle. In that neighborhood sir.
Q-26 Fourteen bottles at 35 shillings each, would bring receipts of £24-10-0?
A-26 Yes, sir.
Q-27 Now, again referring to exhibits 2 and 3, there is a difference of 4 bottles of rum. That I presume represents sales over the bar for the period before mentioned.
A-27 Yes, sir.
Q-28 Which would contain the same number of drinks and the same price per drink in this case would be one and four.
A-28 Yes, sir.
Q-29 That would be £8-0-0
A-29 Yes, sir.
Q-30 Again referring to these exhibits 2 and 3, there is a difference of 1 bottle of gin?
A-30 Yes, sir.
Q-31 Presumably sold over the bar during that period?
A-31 Yes, sir.
Q-32 Containing the same number of drinks at one and two, that would be 31 shillings would it not?
A-32 Yes, sir.
Q-33 So that the receipts from the sale of spirits would total £34-5-0.
A-33 Yes, sir.
Q-34 Now, in computing the amount as set forth in the charge sheet against the accused of £28-17-9, the spirits sold consisting of 19 bottles, were considered at cost plus 5 shillings?
A-34 Yes, sir.

(M)

PROSECUTOR: "With the permission of the Court and my learned friend, I would ask slightly leading questions to shorten matters up."

THE COURT: "Yes, until we meet with anything that may be objectd to.".

DEFENDING OFFICER: "Yes, that is quite alright."

Q.1 You are A-21294 CSM Barret, B.H. on the strength of H.Q. CBU?
A.1 Yes, sir.
Q.2 And on the 12, 13th and 14th of June, were you President of the Mess Committee of the Sergeant's Mess, H.Q. CBU?
A.2 Yes, sir.
Q.3 Are you acquainted with the accused, Sgt. Lawson?
A.3 Yes, sir.
Q.4 Will you tell the Court in your own words what occurred on these particular days?
A.4 Sir, on Saturday, I think it was the 12th of June, our mess caterer or the man acting in that capacity was granted a 48 hour pass. I detailed Sgt. Lawson to take charge of the bar or the canteen in the Sgts. Mess, in his absence. That was on Saturday.
Q.5 What is the name of the Sgt. caterer?
A.5 He is not a Sgt. he is a Pte. sir. Pte. Boucher. Then on Monday morning at approximately 1030 hrs. CSM Laurie came to me and said --
Q.6 Don't tell us what he said to you.
A.6 I am leading up to the fact that that is the way I got the information. CSM Laurie told me that Sgt. Lawson had lost £16-10-0 by theft and he had reported it to the DAPM's office. I tried to get in touch with Sgt. Lawson sir, to find out the particulars, but he was out, and I didn't see him until 8:30 that evening. I asked him about it and he told me that he had lost that much by theft, and he said Sgt. McBride had taken it. In order to get more detail to lay the charge, I tried to get Sgt. Lawson to give me all his information. He later said that he found out something that happened, or that Sgt. Slipper had some information. He got Sgt. Slipper, and then all of us, Sgt. Slipper, Sgt. ~~Lawson~~ Lawson, S/Sgt Watson, S/Sgt. Scott and myself held a small conference to find out what the story was. Sgt. Lawson did the questioning. After hearing Sgt. Slipper's and Sgt. Lawson's story, I found out that there was a lot of people involved in the thing, and I made a report to the Camp Commandant. According to his instructions I checked the money and the stock that was in the Mess or in the bar on Monday, when Boucher came back at approximately 11:00 o'clock, or in that neighborhood.
Q-7 Was that on the 14th of June?
A-7 Yes, sir.
Q-8 You checked the stock, and the cash on han d, as of what date?
A-8 As it was then sir, on Monday morning.
Q-9 Did you make any check from records or otherwise, of the stock on hand, cash, etc, which had been handed over to the Sgt, that is Sgt. Lawson, on Saturday, the 12th of June.
A-9 Yes, sir, I got that from Pte. Boucher, who had turned the stock over to Sgt. Lawson.
Q-10 What is this?
A-10 This is a report from Boucher, as to the stock turned over to Sgt. Lawson on Saturday. This shows the stock on hand and I checked it with Pte. Boucher on Monday.

(Exhibit A, Statement showing the stock in trade, on hand, as handed over to the accused on Saturday, 12 Jun 43, and the stock in trade as turned over to the regular Mess steward on Monday, 14 Jun 43)

Q-11 Now, I produce to you another statement Sgt.-Major, and ask you to explain or identify that?
A-11 This is the stock on hand when Boucher turned this over to Sgt. Lawson sir. This is a record of the stock he had when he turned it over.
Q-12 That has been signed by you as President of the Mess, by S/Sgt. Short as treasurer and by Pte. Boucher as caterer.
A-12 That's right sir.
Q-13 And that is a statement as of Saturday, 12 Jun 43?
A-13 Yes, sir.
Q-14 Showing all stock in trade and cash on hand as handed over to Sgt. Lawson, the accused.
A-14 Yes, sir.
Q-15 And this statement, by whom was it prepared?
A-15 By Pte. Boucher sir, and checked by Short and myself before we signed it.

PROCEEDINGS of a Field General Court Martial, Held at Farnborough, Hants, on Wednesday, 28th July, 1943.

TRIAL OF: K-52773, Sergeant JOHN BELL LAWSON, on the strength of Regimental Funds Board, CMHQ, attached to H.Q. CRU.

PRESIDENT: Lt-Col. D.L. Redman, V.D. H.Q. CRU.

MEMBERS: Major F.J. Isbister, 1 CSRU.
Capt. J.P. King-Wilson, 1 RCASCRU.

SHORTHAND WRITER: B-85000 A/Sgt. Sheedy, J.S. H.Q. CRU.

PROSECUTOR: Major S.A. German, Barrister-at-law, 1 RCASCRU.
DEFENDING OFFICER: Lieut. B. Rich, Barrister-at-law, 4 CIRU.

---

1. The Order Convening the Court, the charge sheet and the Summary of Evidence are laid before the Court.

2. RP 22 and RP 23 are complied with.

3. The accused is brought before the Court, and the Order Convening the Court is read in his presence and hearing. Upon being asked whether he objects to being trisk by the President or by any of the officers named in the Convening Order the accused answers, "No, sir."

4. The President and Members are duly sworn.

5. The accused is asked whether he objects to A/Sgt. Sheedy being sworn as shorthand writer, and he answers, "No, sir".

6. The shorthand writer is sworn.

7. The Medical certificate is produced, signed by the President and annexed to the Proceedings.

8. The accused is arraigned on each charge in the above mentioned charge sheet. The accused pleads "Not Guilty" to the 1st and 2nd charge.

9. RP 39 (a) is Complied with and the accused answers "No, sir", which is recorded by the President.

10. The Prosecutor makes an opening address.

PROSECUTOR: "Unless you wish, I do not propose to make any lengthy address appearing to outline the circumstances, but in order to assist the Court I do propose to make a diagram of the layout of the Sergeant's Mess, which will be of assistance I believe, in the evidence which follows. Then I propose to show to the Court that in the absence of the regular Mess steward who went on 48 hour pass, the accused, who is the representative of the Regimental Funds Board and had assisted in the setting up and the operation of the Mess books, was appointed to take charge. On the night of Sunday, the 13th of June, I propose to show that he, the accused, did not observe Mess hours as laid down. That during the evening of the 13th, he seemed under the influence, that on opening the bar that evening, he permitted members of the Mess to come within the bar with him, at the time he was handling funds, which were exposed. I further propose to show that instead of using the means provided by the Mess Committee for the security or safety of funds and stocks, he took, rightly or wrongly for the Court to decide, the funds of the Mess which he had on hand that night, to his room. It was during the night some time that some of the funds disappeared. I further propose showing that because of his condition, it was possible for members of the Mess to obtain access to the bar and obtain two bottles of spirits which were in his custody.

That briefly outlines the situation, unless we contend that he was negligent and lost some of the stock and money during the whole term, and that he was unable to account for these funds and stock.

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION: A-21294, C.S.M. Barrett, E.H., on the strength of H.Q. CRU, having been duly sworn is examined:

XXM:- In same sec as acsd. I was acting 2 i/c I shouted as well as searching these 2 definite points.
RE-EXAM:- Nil
COURT:- Dug in in a ditch near X rds, could not find acsd when moved off so went to X rds & ho. If had been there should have heard my shouts. Remainder of my sec in immed. vicinity of where I was.
At digging in was a bit of shelling. One or two came close but not real close. Normal to dig in anyway. Shells not close enough to cause moving for safety. Think we had passed thru our own gun lines.
R.P. 83(B) complied with.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? Ans. No Sir (1)

(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes ~~an~~ (no) opening address.(1)

(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)

(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Can 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) ~~The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the charge(s).~~(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the "WAIVED" charge(s), and allowed on the charge(s), and that, accordingly, the ~~trial~~ will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)

NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither? Ans. Give evidence. Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf? Ans. No Sir ~~Are they witnesses as to character only? Ans.~~ "WAIVED"

(1. RP 115. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)

(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order, CF A95. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 86(C). Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 102(e).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.

(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1) ~~Or, The President announces that the counsel is found Not Guilty of all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.(2).~~

(1. AA 54(3) (6), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character?(1)

Ans. No Sir.

(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), and certified true copy (copies) of Conduct Sheet(s)(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(1) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex A and Ex B respectively.(2)

(1. MFB 355 or AFB 296. 2. MFM 6. 3. RP 46, KR Can 558. If above documents not produced, see RP 46 fn 1 para 1.)

E3. President to accused: Do you wish to address the Court on the Statement(s) and Conduct Sheet(s), and in mitigation of punishment?(1) Ans. Yes thru def offr (2)

(1. RP 37(C), 46(D). 2. Address, if any, recorded per Notes. Court should permit accused or his witnesses to prove on oath anything here or previously stated which would affect the amount of punishment. RP 37(F) fn 7.)

E4. The President states that the Court is closed to consider the sentence, and that the sentence to be awarded by the Court, being subject to confirmation, will not be announced, but will be promulgated later, and the proceedings in open court are accordingly terminated.(1)

(1. AA 54(6), RP 120(A).)

E5. The Court considers the sentence.(1) The President records the sentence in Part I of the Schedule, which is dated and signed by him and the JA, if any.(2)

(1. When several accused tried separately see RP 71 (D). One sentence only, comprised of the punishment or punishments laid down in AA 41, 44 and its proviso, is to be awarded to cover all charges in all charge sheets on which accused found guilty. RP 48. As to sentences see AA 44, 138, 182, RP 46-50, 69, 118, 119(A), KR Can 308, 330, 563-566, Overseas RO 309, 2323, MML p 60, 737-759. As to sentences assigned for civil offences by the law of England see AA 41(5), MML p 130. When accused already under sentence of imprisonment or detention see AA 44(1B), 68(1), KR Can 564. 2. RP 50. 1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without assent from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offence. (RP 44(B).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on such charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated:

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See M M L p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C); powers and duties of JA see RP 103; duty of Prosecutor see RP 66(A), (E); duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 83-85; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court, etc, see RP 75-79, 86, 116; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6; and responsibility of JA or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)

(1. RP 27(b) 2. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans.....(5)

(1. RP 27(b). 2. RP 37(2) fn 6. 3. RP 25(B) fn 5 para 2, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E.

5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on.....charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on.....charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)

(1. RP 25(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)

(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(E). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing on Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)

(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)

(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

INSTRUCTIONS ON PROCEDURE AFTER ARRAIGNMENT.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated:

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p ■ 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See MML p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C); powers and duties of JA see RP 103; duty of Prosecutor see RP 60(A) (B); duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 83-85; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court etc see RP 75-79, 86, 116; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6; and responsibility of JA or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans.....(5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement(1). The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on ..... charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on ..... charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

...D FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? Ans. No, sir.....(1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (no) opening address.(1)

STATEMENT OF THE PRESIDENT
in the case of
D188338 Pte Frank Francis Lawson HYER

-oOOo-

This case was tried by FGCM on 7 Mar 45. At trial the prosecutor produced to the Court the Exhibits annexed to the Summary of Evidence and the same were considered by the Court and found correct.

Subsequently one of these exhibits, namely the Certificate of Apprehension, under Sec 163 (1)(j) of the Army Act was lost. A search was made but neither the original or a copy of the same could be found.

Therefore, I certify that a proper certificate of apprehension was produced to the Court at trial, which certificate stated that the accused was apprehended at Florence, Italy at 2300 hrs 28 Jan 45.

is read to the accused, marked exhibit "B" and attached to the Summary.

G.E. Baldwin Capt.

The accused was asked if he wished to cross examine the witness and he declines to do so.

The accused was cautioned "Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence upon oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence."

The accused declines to make any statement or to give evidence.

(D D Beaumont)Lieut
Officer taking Summary of Evidence.

A plea of mitigation in the case of Pte Frank Francis Lawson, D Coy, H.P.C. Regt.

I feel that consideration should be given the accused in that his record, while in action with the Unit, was always quite good.

He joined the Unit at the Sangro River in Nov. 1943 and was allocated to a Rifle Coy. where he performed his duties without question and to the best of his ability. In March 1944 he volunteered for the newly formed Scout Platoon and did his work as in the past.

He was wounded while in action in the Liri Valley, was evacuated to hospital and returned to the Unit while it was at rest in Oct. 1944.

I also feel that it should be pointed out that he has had no previous A.W.L. charges against him while in Italy, and ~~has~~ in this instance did not go A.W.L. while the Unit was in the line.

Respectfully submitted

D. McKennedy, Lieut
H.P.C. Regt.

INSTRUCTIONS ON PROCEDURE AFTER ARRAIGNMENT.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated :

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p ~~6~~ 3

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See MML p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C); powers and duties of JA see RP 103; duty of Prosecutor see RP 60(A) (B); duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 83-85; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court etc see RP 75-79, 86, 116; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6; and responsibility of JA or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President ~~read over~~, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans No (5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

~~B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.~~
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex "A", initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial therein proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

Pin here Loose Sheets of Record.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused : Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? Ans.....(1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)
(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Can 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the ..... charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the ..... charge(s), and allowed on the ..... charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)
NB : If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither ? Ans..... Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf ? Ans..... Are they witnesses as to character only ? Ans.....
(1. RP 155. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)
(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order, CF A95. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 86(C). Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 103(e).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.
(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the ..... charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1)
Or, The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.(2)
(1. AA 54(3) (6), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character ?(1)
Ans No
(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), and certified true copy (~~extract~~) of Conduct Sheet(s)(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(l) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex "B" and Ex "C" respectively.(3)
(1. MFB 355 or AFB 296. 2. MFM 6. 3. RP 46, KR Can 558. If above documents not produced, see RP 46 fn 1 para 1.)

E3. President to accused : Do you wish to address the Court on the Statement(s) and Conduct Sheet(s), and in mitigation of punishment ?(1) Ans Yes Written Plea of Mitigation marked Ex "D" (2)
(1. RP 37(C), 46(D). 2. Address, if any, recorded per Notes. Court should permit accused or his witnesses to prove on oath anything here or previously stated which would affect the amount of punishment. RP 37(F) fn 7.)

E4. The President states that the Court is closed to consider the sentence, and that the sentence to be awarded by the Court, being subject to confirmation, will not be announced, but will be promulgated later, and the proceedings in open court are accordingly terminated.(1)
(1. AA 54(6), RP 120(A).)

E5. The Court considers the sentence.(1) The President records the sentence in Part I of the Schedule, which is dated and signed by him ~~and the JA, if any.~~(2)
(1. When several accused tried separately see RP 7(D). One sentence only, comprised of the punishment or punishments laid down in AA 41, 44 and its proviso, is to be awarded to cover all charges in all charge sheets on which accused found guilty. RP 48. As to sentences see AA 44, 138, 182, RP 46-50, 69, 118, 119A(A), KR Can 308, 330, 563-566, Overseas RO 309, 2323, MML p 60, 757-759. As to sentences assigned for civil offences by the law of England see AA 41(5), MML p 130. When accused already under sentence of imprisonment or detention see AA 44(18), 68(1), KR Can 564. 2. RP 50. A Sup P operates rather similarly to a BSD. A Comp Coy operates between a BSD and a Sup P. Load lists originate at BSD.

The strength of "B" Coy was 1 offr and 60 ORs, plus one-half RDI , that is, 15 ORs. Therefore, there was up to 75 men in "B" Coy. There was 1 MT Sgt, namely, Lawson, 1 Adm L/Sgt, namely, Hyde, 1 HQ Cpl, 5 Pl Cpls and 6 L/Cpls for each Sec. Circumstances may make it necessary for the Adm L/Sgt to take a run.

R.P. 83(B) has been complied with.

Second Witness for the Defence

No. M-53329, Sgt Hancock, H.R., No. 1 SIS, First Cdn Army, being duly sworn, is examined by the Defending Officer:-

I met the accused in January 45 at 35 Cdn Army Tps Comp Coy during the investigation herein. He was of very great assistance to us. It was very largely due to him that we obtained most valuable and essential information. He gave us every assistance and did not try to cover up anything. His manner was very straight forward.

The Prosecutor declines to cross-examine.

R.P. 83(B) has been complied with.

E - 1 In the Case of B-84495 Sgt E.J.Lawson, 35 Cdn Army Tps Comp Coy RCASC

First Witness for the Defence

Major D.B.Morrison, OC 35 Cdn Army Tps Comp Coy, RCASC, being duly sworn, is examined by the Defending Officer:-

I am the CO of the accused. I have known the accused from 5 May 40 when he came to my unit. I knew him all the time I was with the supply column, that is, until 1 Jan 42. He was my Orderly Room clerk at 1 Echn. I then left the supply column and again met him when 35 Cdn Army Tps Comp Coy was formed on 17 Jan 43. After that he came to the unit and has been with us ever since. During the time he has been with me and up until now his work and conduct has been satistory in every respect.

The Prosecutor declines to cross-examine.

Examined by the Court:

The WE of my unit is:-
HQ Tpt Coy;
3 Tpt Pl;
1 Comp Coy;
2 RDIs; and
1 Workshop.

The Comp Platoon is designed to feed 15,000 tps. In the case of the Army the situation is abnormal due to constant changes and movements and scattered tps. Therefore, it is necessary to form more than 1 Supply Coy. We never have operating less than 2 and sometimes 3. We were operating Supply Coys in Ghent, Antwerp and Tilberg. Ration strength was approx 100,000. Bulk rations come from Army Railhead. We draw in bulk. Tpt has to be dispersed. It is not possible to have tpt pls in 1 spot. The Pl which looked after Ghent was based at Wettern. Another Pl was based at Kontich, between the supply point in Antwerp and the BSD. Another Pl was based on Boom and supplied Tilberg and was on the route between Tilberg and BSD. Each Pl operated independently under subaltern. Each Pl had a Tpt Sgt and an Adm L/Sgt and consisted of 75 men and 40 lorries. It was not possible for the subaltern to take each convoy. Therefore, Sgts, L/Sgts and Cpls must be used.

The Supply Point makes out the 3716 which is taken to the BSD which issues to the convoy bulk rations. There are as many as 30 different items. When dvr arrives at BSD he is issued with a load list. His job is to check on his vehicle the number of cases and items issued by the checker at BSD. The dvr keeps a copy of the load list. At Sup P he turns this over to the NCO i/c of the Sec who checks off the load as unloaded. Any shortages or overages are reported to OIC Sup P.

We have no control over the dealings which the men make with the BSD. We can control the situation at the Sup P. All was in order at our Sup P. Three to four million rations per month were issued.

Further to my previous statement regarding the 20 cases of margarine which I obtained from 62 B.S.D. at the beginning of November 1944, I wish to add the following. One day, Sgt. McGill of Composite Platoon approached me and stated he was making a deal in rations, this took place at 62 B.S.D. He asked me if I had a spare and whether I could get rid of some stuff. I spoke to Cpl. Jarvis who was in a truck and as I told McGill "OK." So a few days later I had a spare lorry driven by Cpl. Jarvis. On arrival at 62 B.S.D. I saw Sgt. McGill and he told me that he was going to make arrangements. When he came back he told me to see the S/Sergeant, who I have already identified. So I saw the S/Sergeant and at the 20 cases of margarine and later disposed of these as explained in my previous statement. As well as the 10 cases from which I gave to the S/Sgt. at 62 B.S.D. I also gave Sgt McGill a sum of money for his share in the deal.

and not the middle of September 44 as previously stated.

The reason I have made this second statement is because since 10 Jan 45 I have checked up as I promised Capt Morrison of the RCMP I would do and as a result of the check I found a few things I had forgotten and a few dates that were not correct.

I have read the above statement and it is true.

WITNESS: H. Hancock, Sgt.
No 1 S.I.S. H.Q. FIRST CDN ARMY

I have never received 10,000 francs from either Cpl. Raw or Pte Morrow. Just about two weeks before Christmas Cpl. Raw asked me to let him have a lorry as he had a friend at Compiegne Platoon who wanted to sell some stuff. I told him he could take a truck from his own section and Cpl. Raw informed me that he was going to take Pte Morrow. Cpl. Raw then told me that on his return he would give me 3,000 or 4,000 francs and I was to give some to Hyde. On his return Cpl Raw gave me 4,000 frs and I gave 2,000 frs to Sgt. Hyde and later told Raw that I had done this.

On Thursday evening 18 Jan. 1945, when Sgt. Hyde was down at the Platoon he approached me after I had noticed him speaking to other men involved in this affair, and said: "Ernie, will you help me in this business, you say I'm the admin Sergeant and that I only went on the supply run once every three or four weeks, as I'm going to play this for double or nothing." At that time I just said: "O.K." and walked away into the Orderly room.

For some time after the platoon moved to Leonard Sgt. Hyde took the supply run, once and sometimes twice a week, for example the week 10 to 17 Dec. 1944, Sgt Hyde took the supply 3 times, on 11, 14 and 17th Dec. 44,

I now wish to amend the following facts which I made in my first statement on 10 Jan. 1945. I took over "B" transport Platoon with effect 1 November 1944 as previously agreed as I had to give the S/Sergeant at 62 B.S.D. 10 000 francs of this money. In the presence of Cpl. Harris in the platoon orderly room I placed this 10 000 francs in a brown envelope and later I gave this envelope to the S/Sergeant at 62 B.S.D. I could identify both the Sergeant and S/Sergeant concerned.

Shortly after my platoon moved up to St Leonard at the beginning of December 1944, I had a number of lorries at 58 B.S.D on supply duties. After we came out of the B.S.D. to marshalling area, Ptes Brian and Edmonthy approached me and asked for a lorry to take some ~~rations~~ stuff that they had to Wetteren. At first I refused. During the course of conversation, one of these men said: "What's the matter, are you chicken shit? If Sgt Hyde can send a lorry why can't you?" It was the first time that I knew that staff had gone down to Wetteren. I then consented and told them they could use Pte Ramage's lorry which was empty. Pte Ramage knew that this lorry would be used to dispose of rations in Wetteren as I told him. Edmonthy and Brian would fix him up and I believe they did so. Later Edmonthy gave me 1000 francs. Brian gave me some money but I don't remember how much. I had no army rations of my own on that load.

Sometime after the middle of December 1944, when I was in charge of the detail at 58 B.S.D. Pte Leberf and I brought 8 cases of cheese from a checker. I could identify this checker. I had no money but paid 4,000 francs to the checker while Pte Leberf had given me to buy it with. The next day on a Sunday Pte Leberf came to my room accompanied by Sgt. Hyde and in his presence paid me 9,000 francs for my share. I then paid 5,000 francs to Hyde as I owed him this amount.

E Flannery Pte

I could identify this R.A.S.C. checker. I was to get a share from Cpl. Rau but this load was seized by the police.

At the beginning of November 1944, while I was stationed in Wetteren and our platoon was drawing supplies from 62 B.S.D. not far from Boom. One day a Staff-Sergeant and a Sergeant of the RASC at 62 B.S.D. asked me if I could get them a Canadian battle dress and a leather jerkin each. I told them I'd see what I could do. They said they'd fix us up. About 2 or 3 days later I gave the Sergeant a battle dress (blouse + trousers) and a leather jerkin. The sergeant then asked me if I had an extra truck on the detail and I told him that I had not but the first time I did I would let him know. Within the next two or three days, I got Cpl Jarvis to drive a Quickshee truck to 62 B.S.D. and there I saw the S/Sergeant who was i/c. of loading. He was the same N.C.O. who had previously asked me for a uniform. I mentioned to him that I had already given a battle dress and a jerkin to the Sergeant and would try to get the same for him in a few days. He then said that it would all right, he'd give us some stuff but they wanted a cut. We then had 20 cases of margarine placed on Cpl. Jarvis lorry. This was also loaded with some Bags of Pulse for which there was a 10% issue voucher made out - this was a legitimate load. I know that these 20 cases of margarine were left in the truck in the platoon lines for 2 or 3 days, at which time it was disposed of and Cpl. Jarvis gave me 20,000 francs.

On Monday, 8 Jan 45, the Checker at B.S.D. informed Lieut Milligan and my self that the man who obtained the 27 cases of margarine was wearing a blonde moustache at the time. Together with the Checker Lieut Milligan and I questioned Pte. Brian as we knew Brian had previous to this worn a blonde moustache, but had shaved it off. Brian said, he had shaved it off two or three days ago, and denied all knowledge of the 27 cases of margarine. The Checker at this time said Brian was not the man.

During the time I was stationed in Hotten I sold a case of English issue cigarettes containing 15,000 cigarettes, five cases of Chese & ten cases of margarine. To a man who lives in Hotten. I do not know this man's name, but I know where he lives and am willing to point out his home in Hotten. figured they would be in later that day. Upon return from detail on Monday, Sgt. Hyde had returned, but not Cpl. Owen. The Offrin and I talked it

These four loads were brought to Arlon by Pte's Brien, Edworthy, Monaw and L/Cpl. Owen. Each man taking one load.

On the 4 Jan 1945, I went to Brussels on a 48 hour pass. I returned to Malon on Saturday, 6 Jan 1945 at 1745 hours. I was told at that time by Lieut Milligan that Sgt. Hyde and L/Cpl Hinks, my clerk, had gone to Arlon on 24 hour pass. I enquired as to how they got there and he told me his 'Batman' had driven them to the main highway where they were going to 'hitch to hike' down. Later that evening I found out that Pte Monaw had gone to Arlon with his lorry. On the Sunday, 7 Jan 1945 I was in charge of the detail to B.S.D. at Tilburg. We just knew the lorrys for the draw, but on arrival I was informed there would be no load draw that day. That left three spare vehicles, of which one was L/Cpl Owen's. Cpl Rae made a deal with the Checker at the B.S.D., for two cases of coffee and with another Checker for 10 cases of cheese. From this he was going to give me some money as he said some of the men in his section had given him the money for which he paid the Checkers at B.S.D. and he would have to cut them in. As Cpl Owen was proceeding to Arlon to pick up Sgt Hyde, Cpl Rae placed these items on his lorry and Owen was going to dispose of them.

On Monday, 8 Jan 1945 Owen had not returned and I told Lieut Milligan about him going to what was going on. As I became further into the picture of things I came to the conclusion that it was either play along with the Offrs and the men or lead a very unhappy life in the Platoon.

After this I sold small amounts of Rations myself, two or three cases of food stuffs, but never amounting to anything big. I obtained these cases of foodstuffs at ~~63~~ 62 B.S.D., stationed near Boom on the main Antwerp Brussels Road, by buying them from the checkers. About this time, 12 Nov 44, I proceeded to England on compassionate leave. On my return approximately two weeks later I found a new Offrs in charge of the Platoon, a Lieut Milligan; who I had previously known and was very glad to see, as I knew him to be a very honest man and a good Offrs. From this time I had hopes of the Platoon being straightened out and getting back to normal.

The Platoon moved from Westerlo to St Leonards two or three weeks before Xmas and for the first few days everything seemed to go along fine. I had decided at this time that as far as the Platoon and Rations were concerned Westerlo was finished. Shortly after this one of the men, I can't remember who it was, came to me and asked if he could take a load of Rations to Westerlo. I said "No". He replied, "why can't I if other fellows do" He mentioned one of the men in particular who had been on the detail the previous day under Sgt Boyde, but I can't remember who it actually was. In the end I allowed him to go. From that time to now I would say that I know of four loads that have come to Westerlo with foodstuffs.

C. Lawson - Sgt.

About the middle of September, 1944 I took over duties as Transport Sergeant of 'B' Platoon. Prior to this I was with the H.Q. of my Unit. At the time of going to 'B' Platoon, they were stationed in Overloon. Before proceeding to 'B' Platoon the O.C. of the Unit instructed me to try and straighten things out in 'B' Platoon, as they were in a bad way insofar as Rations being missing, and he believed the Rations were being sold.

On arrival at 'B' Platoon I had a talk with Sgt. Fox, whose place I was taking, Fox having been promoted to C.Q.M.S. Fox said "I feel sorry for you as things are in a bad way and I couldn't do anything with the men, as the offrs wouldn't back me up." At a later date I found out how the Platoon was operating in all ways including the Rations that were being sold. The men would go direct to the Offrs. Mess personnel, and ask him for a while to dispose of articles of food stuffs they had obtained from the R.S.D. The men should have come to me in all matters of transport, but I believe they were afraid I would find out too much about

On Monday, 8 Jan 1945, Owen had not returned and I told Lieut Nelligan about him going to pick up Sgt Hyde, and as the roads were bad figured they would be in later that day. Upon return from detail on Monday, Sgt Hyde had returned but not Cpl Owen. The Officer and I talked it over and it was arranged for myself and Sgt Hyde to come to Wetteren to see if we could find any trace of him. At this time I found that L/Cpl Masters was with Owen. Sgt Hyde and I left for Wetteren about 2 p.m. Tuesday, 9 Jan 1945, arriving about 4 p.m. I was arrested whilst endeavouring to find L/Cpl Owen. Sgt Hyde and my driver, Pte Pigeon, were not with me at the time as they were in another part of Wetteren looking for Owen.

To my knowledge Owen had on his lorry, two cases of Coffee and 15 cases of cheese. Cpl Rau and Pte Brummitt, R.B., bought this stuff from the BSD. I know now that there was also 27 cases of margerine on his lorry, which I believe belonged to Pte Brian. I believe this because on Sunday, 7 Jan 45, the Officer from BSD showed me a Form 108 (issue boucher) and asked me if I knew the signature on same. On looking at the signature I told him I did not know it. This Officer then told me about 27 cases of margerine having been stolen by means of a forged 108 issue voucher, and he suspected that it was one of my men, and the checker claimed he could identify the man. I immediately took the officer and the checker to my Platoon lines, where we interviewed the men that were on detail that day. At that time the checker would not or couldnot identify the man. The next morning, Monday, 8 Jan 45, all men that were on the Sunday detail were again checked by the checker at BSD. At this time he still did not identify the man, but said to Lieut Nelligan, "Do you really want me to identify the man, Sir". Lieut Nelligan said, "Yes". There was an identification parade held at about 1630 hrs Tuesday 9 Jan 45 of the complete platoon. I do not know the result of this parade as I was in Wetteren.

On Monday, 8 Jan 45 the checker at BSD informed Lieut Nelliggan and myself that the man who obtained the 27 cases of margerine was wearing a blonde moustache at the time. Together with the checker Lieut Nelligan and I questioned Pte Brian as we knew Brian had previous to this worn a blonde moustache, but had shaved it off. Brian said he had shaved it off two or three days ago, and denied all knowledge of the 27 cases of margerine. The checker at this time said Brian was not the man.

During the time I was stationed in Wetteren I sold a case of English issue cigarettes, containing 15000 cigarettes, five cases of cheese and ten cases of margerine, to a man who lives in Wetteren. I do not know this man's name, but I know where he lives and am willing to point out his home in Wetteren. I have reason to believe this man to be a big man in thisbusiness because he always asked me to get large amounts for him, anything up to approximately 200,000 frs. On no occasion did I ever sell him a large amount of stuff, only that which I have already stated. I received 2200 frs per case of margerine, one franc per cigarette, and 2500 frs per case of cheese.

On two or three occasions I had talks with QMS Fox about the situation in the Platoon and without going to the OC about it, all I figured I could do was play along with the officer and the men and hope for the best. If I had gone to the OC I am sure certain people would have seen to it that my left would not have been very pleasant during my stay in 35 Comp Coy. I have read over this statement and it is true.

Offr detailed to take the Summary of Evidence

I have been cautioned that I am not obliged to say anything unless I wish to do so, but that anything I do say will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

"E.J. Lawson" Sgt.

About the middle of September, 1944 I took over duties as Transport Sergeant of "B" Platoon. Prior to this I was with H.Q. of my Unit. At the time of going to "B" Platoon, they were stationed in Wetteren. Before proceeding to "B" Platoon the OC of the Unit instructed me to try and straighten things out in "B" Platoon, as they were in a bad way insofar as Rations being missing and he believed the Rations were being sold.

On arrival at "B" Platoon I had a talk with Sgt Fox, whose place I was taking, Fox having been promoted to CQMS. Fox said "I feel sorry for you as things are in a bad way and I couldn't do anything with the men, as the officer wouldn't back me up." At a later date I found out how the Platoon was operating in all ways including the Rations that were being sold. The men would go direct to the Officer Lieut Bessonette, and ask him for a vehicle to dispose of articles of food stuffs they had obtained from the BSD. The men should have come to me in all matters of transport, but I believe they were afraid I would find out too much about what was going on. As I became further into the picture of things, I came to the conclusion that it was either play along with the officer and the men or lead a very unhappy life in the Platoon.

After this I sold small amounts of Rations myself, two or three cases of food stuffs, but never amounting to anything big. I obtained these cases of foodstuffs at 62 BSD, stationed near Boom on the main Antwerp Brussels Road, by buying them from the checkers. About this time, 12 Nov 44, I proceeded to England on compassionate leave. On my return approximately two weeks later I found a new officer in charge of the Platoon, a Lieut Nelligan, who I had previously known and was very glad to see; as I knew him to be a very honest man and a good ~~knitter~~ officer. From this time I had hopes of the Platoon being straightened out and getting back to normal.

The Platoon moved from Wetteren to St Leonards two or three weeks before Xmas and for the first few days everything seemed to go along fine. I had decided at this time that as far as the Platoon and Rations were concerned Wetteren was finished. Shortly after this one of the men, I can't remember who it was, came to me and asked if he could take a load of Rations to Wetteren. I said "No". He replied, "Why can't I if other fellows do". He mentioned one of the men in particular who had been on the detail the previous day under Sgt Hyde, but I can't remember who it actually was. In the end I allowed him to go. From that time to now I would say that I know of four lorry's that have come to Wetteren with food-stuffs. These four loads were brought to Wetteren by Pte's Brian Edworthy, Morrow and L/Cpl Owen. Each man taking one load.

On the 4 Jan 1945, I went to Brussels on a 48 hour pass. I returned to Platoon on Saturday, 6 Jan 1945, at 1745 hours. I was told at that time by Lieut Nelligan that Sgt Hyde and L/Cpl Link, my clerk, had gone to Wetteren on 24 hour pass. I enquired as to how they got there and he told me his "Batman" had driven them to the main highway where they were going to "hitch hike" down. Later that evening I found out that Pte Morrowhad gone to Wetteren with his lorry. On the Sunday, 7 Jan 1945, I was in charge of the detail to BSD, at Tilberg. We just enough lorrys for the draw, but on arrival I was informed there would be no bread draw that day.

The Accused was cautioned as follows:-

Q. Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

A. I do not wish to say anything at this time.

E Lawson

The accused does not call any witnesses.

I certify that that the foregoing Summary of Evidence consisting of 1 pages, was taken down in my presence and in the presence of the accused and that RP 4 (C) (D),(E) and (F) have been complied with.

TENTH WITNESS

No. M-50109 Pte (L/Cpl) Owen R.J. 7 Section "B" Platoon 35 Cdn Army Tps Comp Coy RCASC duly sworn states:

I know the accused Sgt Lawson he is MT Sgt of "B" Platoon.

On the morning of the 7 Jan 45 I was on the supply convoy and as we were about to leave the platoon lines I was handed a note which stated that I would pick up Sgt Hyde at WETTEREN at 3 a.m. Sgt Lawson was in the cab with me as I read the note. He asked to see the note after I read it. I gave it to him and he said, seeing as you are going down to WETTEREN you may as well as be the "Buck Shee" lorry. I said all right. When we arrived at BSD he told me to pull my vehicle to the side and let the rest of the convoy go past, which I did. Sgt Lawson then got out of the lorry and started to line the remainder of the vehicles up to go in and draw supplies. About ½ of an hour later he came back to me and told me that he had 10 cases of cheese and 2 cases of coffee coming out on Pte Brummitt R.S.'s lorry. He then told me to take him around to his girl friends place where I took him and left him. Before we went to his girl friends he told me where to park my vehicle and the other vehicles when they came out with "Buck Shee" stuff on would pull up on the side and change the loads over. "Buck Shee" stuff is generally known as Government property over and above that which you are supposed to have. He told me that after everyone was finished I would come around to his girl friends place and would pick him up and take him down to the DID at HERENTALS. After the loads had been put on my lorry I went up to pick up the accused and take him to DID HERENTALS where I left him. I then left for WETTEREN in order to try to dispose of the "Buck Shee" load. On the way down I was arrested. On the way down from his girl friends place to the DID I asked him what the prices were for his "Buck Shee" stuff. He told me 3000 Belgian francs per case for cheese and 6000 Belg francs for a case of coffee. After I agreed to be the "Buck Shee" driver the accused told me I would get 10 percent of the load.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE ACCUSED.

Q. On the way down to the DID was anything said of any other number of men being in on the 10 cases of cheese and 2 cases of coffee?

A. I remember Sgt Lawson saying that the load of cheese and coffee would be split 4 ways, but as to the names I can't remember.

Q. To your knowledge, did I know anything regarding 27 cases of margerine which were on that vehicle?

A. No.

Q. You were in "B" Platoon at the time I took over.

A. Yes.

Q. To your knowledge was any of this going on prior to the time that I took over.

A. Yes. On a very small scale.

NINTH WITNESS

No. B-95013 Cpl Rau F #9 Section "B" Platoon 35 Cdn Army Comp Coy RCASC duly sworn states:

I know the accused Sgt Lawson, he is "B" Platoon Sgt.

On 7 Jan 45 Sgt Lawson and I had a conversation while in BRUSSELS. We were all broke but I had some money left back in camp and he said he would have to make a big kill on the next draw. He said that he would make sure that he would be on the next draw Sunday, that is the next day. We came back from leave on Saturday night at 6 p.m. on 6 Jan 45. In view of information I received I told Sgt Lawson that he should not detail a man to go to WETTEREN or to take anything down because one man there had been caught. On Sunday 7 Jan 45 the accused asked me how much money I had. I said I had a little. He then asked me if I had my wrist watch and I said I had it with me. Then he left me and went away. Later I went up to a shed and Sgt Lawson saw me and called me over and said "I have just made a contact for 10 cases of cheese and it would cost 300 francs a case and he made a deal for 10 cases." He told me to make sure it was loaded on the lorry not telling me which lorry. Sgt Lawson told me to give the money to a man in the shed. I gave the checker in the shed 4000 francs.

Afterwards Sgt Lawson called me over to anotner shed and said he had made a contact for coffee for my wrist watch. After this I went into the office where I saw a checker, a British soldier, and after some conversation gave him the wristwatch for 2 cases of coffee. When I handed the wrist watch over, the accused was present and could hear the checker say that he would give 2 cases of coffee for the watch. The arrangement I had made with the accused was that he was to use the wrist watch for dealing down at the BSD and I was to get 1300 francs.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE ACCUSED:

Q. While in BRUSSELS did you not agree that we would use your watch and you could get the money in your section to purchase items at BSD and that the money would be split.

A. It was arranged that I could get some money at the Section for him also including the wrist watch, yes.

Q. On Sunday night when you and I were in the cafe opposite the barracks, did you not say to me, "We will split this between us as there isn't very much" and I said "alright" That will make approximately 15000 each.

A. I don't remember him saying that.

Q. Was it not the usual habit to just detail this lorry or was a man asked to drive the lorry?

A. I don't know about that, but you detailed me once to drive the lorry.

Q. The day that I detailed you to drive this lorry. Was that a "Buck Shee" lorry or was it a lorry with a proper load and a 106 which was delivered to 103 DID.

A. The load I was detailed to drive was delivered to 103 DID.

EIGHTH WITNESS

No. M-103306 Pte Le Cerf H.G. #8 Section "B" Platoon 35 Cdn Army Tps Comp Coy RCASC, duly sworn states:

I know the accused Sgt Lawson, he is the MT Sgt of "B" Platoon.

In the month of December 1944 I was asked by Sgt Lawson if I would drive the "Buck Shee" lorry. It was common knowledge that who ever drove the "Buck Shee" lorry was to dispose of any Government rations which were placed on the lorry by anyone in the unit. I agreed. Between the accused and myself we purchased 8 cases of cheese from 58 BSD from the checker. I was not present at the time of purchase but the accused asked me for money to purchase the stores and I gave him 2000 francs. The accused then went back into the building and very shortly afterwards 8 cases of cheese were placed on my vehicle. The accused then said these 8 cases were what he had purchased for the 2000 francs. The cheese was Government property and had the usual Government markings. Afterwards I left with the truck and the cheese and I sold it in WESTREM to a civilian. I can't recall the amount of money I received but I think it was approximately 3000 belgian francs per case. When I came back to the lines I gave Sgt Lawson half of the money I had received for the 8 cases of cheese. I told him the money was for the cheese which was placed on my lorry the day before. Sgt Hyde was present when I gave the money to Sgt Lawson.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE ACCUSED:

Q. This cheese was purchased jointly between us?

A. That is right.

Q. When you paid me on Sunday morning, did I give any of this money to anybody else in your presence?

A. Yes. Sgt Hyde.

SEVENTH WITNESS

No. B-80900 Cpl Jarvis W.G. No. 9 Platoon, 35 CdnnArmy Tps Comp Coy RCASC, CdnnArmy Overseas, duly sworn states:

I am a member of 35 Cdn Army Tps Comp Coy RCASC Cdn Army Overseas "B" Platoon. I know the accused Sgt Lawson. He is Tpt Sgt "B" Platoon. The accused functions as Tpt Sgt are to detail the drivers of vehicles for which every job is necessary and to instruct drivers and detail where to go and when. As far as I can recollect the accused took over this job during Oct or Nov 1944.

I am a Cpl in charge of # 9 Section and I receive instructions for my Section from the Tpt Sgt, Sgt Lawson. I have held this position since May 1944. During the latter part of Oct or beginning of Nov I drove to 62 BSD in a vehicle. At the BSD I had a conversation with the accused and we discussed the possibility of procuring some "Buck Shee" rations. "Buck Shee" rations are what is generally known as rations for which there is no 108, and for which there is no authority to draw from the depot.

On the following morning I had another conversation with the accused who asked me if I would like to drive a "Buck Shee" vehicle to BSD the following day. The "Buck Shee" vehicle is an extra vehicle laid on, if available, by the accused or platoon officer in order to carry any overflow of supplies. I agreed to drive the vehicle. Between 1 Nov and 5 Nov 44 I drove the "Buck Shee" vehicle to 62 BSD. At the BSD 20 cases of margerine were loaded on my vehicle. These cases were not marked on the 108 and therefore were not unloaded at the BPP where properly issued rations are unloaded. As the cases were being loaded on the vehicle, the accused told me that they were "Buck Shee" rations and to take them back to the platoon lines. These rations were the regular government rations. I took the rations back as instructed and they remained in the vehicle in the lines for 3 days. Some time within the 3 days the accused asked me if I had contacted any buyer. I told him I had. On the third evening, I with Pte MacInnis J.R. and Pte Olson A.B. unloaded the rations into a jeep trailer and we took them to a house a short distance outside WETTEREN where we sold the 20 cases to a civilian known as "The Gangster". A short time after, the gangster paid me 35,000 Belg francs. I returned to the platoon orderly room and gave the accused, Sgt Lawson, the 35,000 francs. He gave me 15000 francs, and of the balance I saw him put some in an envelope. I don't know what he did with the rest.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE ACCUSED:

Q. When we were at BSD did anyone approach you and I to talk about this certain deal with rations?

A. I don't remember.

Q. When we arranged the deal we spoke about, did I not say to you that a certain party had arranged the deal and wanted us to dispose of it?

A. Yes.

Q. On the night in the orderly room when the money was split did I not tell you the amount that went in the envelope and who it was going to?

A. Yes.

WITNESS

No. S/84732 S/Sgt Beckitt C, of 63 DID. duly sworn states:

I am S/Sgt Beckett,C. Storeman in 62 BSD which was issuing rations from approximately 1 Sep to 3rd week in December to 35 Cdn Army Tps Comp Coy RCASC. I recognize the accused here present but I am not sure of his name.

I can not remember the date, but some time in the beginning of Nov 44 The accused spoke to me on the morning we were issuing rations and said that he had a lorry that he could use to put on some rations if I had them to spare, so we loaded 20 cases of margerine on this Cdn lorry driven by a Cpl whose name I do not know. There was also 19 bags of Pulse which were a legitimate load and were a proper part of the issue and a proper 108 was made out. The 20 cases of margerine were not entered on the 108. The 20 cases were Government property. It was arranged that this would be disposed of and that a cut in the proceeds of the sale would be to me. I had no authority to dispose of these rations. At a later date 3 or 4 days I was handed an envelope by a Sgt, I am not sure whether or not he was the accused, which contained 10000 francs.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE ACCUSED:

Q. Was I the chief man or the first man who approached you in regards this deal. If not who was?

A. You were not the first man as far as I can remember the first approach was made by our Sgt Major Gordon and Sgt McGill.

No. L-6900 Pte Hollworthy T.E. "B" Platoon 35 Cdn Army Tps Comp Coy RCASC, Cdn Army Overseas, having been duly sworn states:

I have been driving in "B" Platoon 35 Cdn Army Tps Comp Coy RCASC for 2 or 3 months. I know the accused. He is Tpt Sgt of "B" Platoon for approximately 2 months.

Some time in Nov 44 as near as I can remember, the accused spoke to me near #5 BSD and asked me to drive the "Buck Snee" lorry to WETTERAU telling me that Cpl Rau F. would take my truck to 163 Bde. Cpl Rau was present at the time. I drove the vehicle into WETTERAU. There were some supplies on the lorry which were there when I took it over. Pte Brian was with me. In WETTERAU Pte Brian disposed of the load to civilians. I was driving. As far as I know the supplies on the truck were government rations. Pte Brian gave me 4000 francs. As far as I remember I gave the accused 1000 francs from this sum which he accepted without comment.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE ACCUSED:

Q. On that day at the BSD did not you and Brian first approach me outside of the BSD and ask for a vehicle as you had some stuff you wished to dispose of?

A. No.

Q. To your knowledge did I have anything on that lorry I had purchased myself.

A. No.

FOURTH WITNESS

No. 71104 Pte Brian J.J. "B" Platoon 35 Cdn Army Tps Comp Coy RCASC duly sworn states:

I am a driver in #7 Section of "B" Platoon and have been in this section for approximately a month. I came to the platoon in Sep 1944 and was in #9 Section from then until I transferred to #7 Section. I know the accused, Sgt Lawson and he is the Platoon Sgt.

About 3 weeks or a month before Xmas, as far as I can remember I spoke to the accused at 58 BSD. I asked Sgt Lawson if there was any possibility of me taking my vehicle to WETTEREN to take some stuff down. In the BSD he said yes, when we arrived outside, it was changed and Sgt Lawson said to put all the surplus rations in Edworthy's truck because he was going to go down with the truck and I was to go down with him. He said to me "Don't forget me". I said "OK". Edworthy and I drove the vehicle to WETTEREN and I sold the load to a civilian commonly known as the "Gangster". I received 13000 Belgian francs for my part and some for Edworthy's part. I can't remember the exact amount. About 2 nights after this I saw the accused in camp and gave him 9000 Belgian francs. At the time I gave him the money I told him that Rammage wanted a split for the use of his truck but that I could not afford to pay him myself. The accused accepted the money without a comment.

The supplies on the load referred to above to my knowledge were Government supplies or rations.

CROSS-EXAMINED by the accused:

Q. Did Edworthy have any rations of his own on that lorry?

A. I don't know for sure if he had rations of his own.

Q. But there was rations on that lorry for which you sold and paid him money.

A. I gave him money but I don't know if the money belonged to him or anybody else.

Q. On that day outside the BSD were not you and Edworthy together when you asked me for a vehicle.

A. I asked you inside for the loan of my vehicle and when I got outside I went up to you and said, "Is it OK", and you said "You will have to transfer your stuff onto Edworthy's lorry.

THIRD WITNESS

No. B-115277 Pte Ross A.C. "B" Platoon 35 Cdn Army Tps Comp Coy RCASC duly sworn states:

I am a driver in #7 Section of the platoon. I know the accused, Sgt Lawson and he is the MT Sgt of the platoon, where his duty is to look after the detailing of vehicles to pick up and deliver Government supplies. I have been with the platoon since last June. I do not know anything about the accused's activities in connection with the sale of Government rations but I do know that Sgt Lawson has run "Buck Shee" lorries to BBD. I know of this only on a few occasions since the move to St Leonards around 1 Dec 1944. A "Buck Shee" lorry is an extra truck over and above those necessary to carry supplies from BBD to DID.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE ACCUSED:

Q. Have you any knowledge of any other person in the platoon running these "Buck Shee" lorries?

No. C-41986, Sgt Carriere, J.R.R., No. 1 SIS, First Cdn Army, having been duly sworn, states:-

I am No. C-41986, Sgt Carriere, J.R.R. No. 1 SIS, First Cdn Army.

On 20 Jan 45, while conducting an inquiry of No. 35 Comp Coy RCASC, I saw Sgt Lawson, the accused. I informed him that as a result of statements made by other members of his platoon there was reason to believe that he had been concerned in other offences. He then volunteered a further statement which I took down in writing and after reading it he signed it in my presence. Before starting to take the statement I wrote down the caution and after reading it he signed it in my presence. This caution appears at the top of the statement. I might say that the previous day Sgt Lawson approached me and stated that he wanted to make a further statement of things. I produce the statement which was signed by the accused in my presence.

On the 2 Feb 45 I saw Sgt Lawson again and told him that as a result of inquiries I had reason to believe that in the offence dealing with 20 cases of margarine he had been concerned with Sgt McGill of his unit. As a result of this Sgt Lawson volunteered another statement after the proper caution. The caution was written at the top or heading of the statement and singed by Sgt Lawson before giving the statement. I took the statement down and after reading it he signed it in my presence. I produce that statement.

in the case of No. B-84495 SGT/LAWSON [illegible] 35 Cdn Army Tps Comp Coy RCASC, Cdn Army Overseas,

BY DIRECTION OF THE COMMANDING OFFICER, THE EVIDENCE IS TAKEN ON OATH.

FIRST WITNESS

No. U-1913, Sgt Sutherst, R.S., No. 1 SIS, First Cdn Army, having been duly sworn, states:—

I am No. U-1913, Sgt Sutherst, R.S. No. 1 Cdn Special Investigation Section, First Cdn Army. On 10 Jan 45, while on duty in Belgium, I saw No. B-84495, Sgt Lawson, E.J., transport sgt of No. 35 Cdn Army Tps Comp Coy "B" Pl, at the SIS Detachment at Smetlede. I told him who I was and that I had reason to believe that he had been concerned with the disposal of military rations with other members of his unit to civilians in that area. I cautioned him. I told him that he was not obliged to say anything unless he wished to do so but that anything he did say would be taken down in writing and might be given in evidence. I asked him if he wished to make a statement and he expressed willingness and in a straight forward manner made a statement which I reduced to writing. The statement was read over to him. He was also allowed to read the statement, after which he signed it. This statement I now produce. That is all my evidence.

THE ACCUSED DECLINES TO CROSS-EXAMINE THIS WITNESS.

The statement referred to in the evidence of the above witness is attached hereto as Exhibit "A".

E - 3 STATEMENT IN MITIGATION in the Case of B-84495, Sgt E.J.Lawson, 35 Cdn Army Tns Comm Coy RCASC

The only possible reason for these events was the "old Army system". The accused is now 28 years old. He joined up 9 days after the outbreak of war. He was 22 then. Throughout his time in England he was always under pressure to scrounge--"Get this and get that". The Pl always required things not on its WE. They had to be got. What has a NCO to do when instructed to get something; he gets it. The offr says "good work". Scrounging is the order of the day.

The accused comes to a new Pl. He must get to know his pl. He had 75 men to look after. He finds something irregular going on. The men were scrounging rations. This was going on long before he got there. It was in the blood of the pl. The accused was approached for a lorry to deliver scrounged rations. Then he had to make a decision. Consider the difficulty of his position--to refuse to allow something which had always been permitted. It was then he made his fatal error and let the lorry go. Then he went to England on compassionate leave, returning to find the situation greatly out of hand.

Sgt Lawson was greatly relieved when he was caught. He is guilty. He knows he is guilty. He was glad when disclosure came and he could get this off his conscience. Consider the temptation of Belgium. The customers waiting with hundreds of thousands of francs. The soldiers were badgered. They were living in a den of thieves, of Belgian black marketeers.

He has a clear record. He has been in the Army 5½ years. He is married, his wife living in the UK. He has 3 children, the last one born in September 44. His wife has been very ill. That is why he had compassionate leave. His father was killed at Ypres in the last war. His mother died in 1925.

It is not the man, it is the system which brought this trouble about. The men started it by telling him not to be a heel. He gave in, he succumbed to the vicious system. I urge leniency.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? Ans.....(1)

(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)

(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)

(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Can 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the.....charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the.....charge(s), and allowed on the.....charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)

NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither? Ans.....Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf? Ans.....Are they witnesses as to character only? Ans.....

(1. RP 115. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(C). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)

(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order, CF A95. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 86(C). Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record and Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 103(e).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.

(1. RP 43, 112(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the.....charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1)

Or, The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.(2)

(1. AA 54(3) (6), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

ADJOURNMENT (See minutes of Adjournment)

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character?(1) Yes, I wish to call Major Kerrison, CO and Lt Hancock No 1513

(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statements as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), and certified true copy (~~extract~~) of Conduct Sheet(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(1) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldiers having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex Y and Ex Z respectively.(3)

(1. MFB 355 or AFB 296. 2. MFM a. 3. RP 46, KR Can 558. If above documents not produced, see RP 46 fn 1 para 1.)

E3. President to accused: Do you wish to address the Court on the Statement(s) and Conduct Sheet(s), and in mitigation of punishment?(1) Ans. Yes by my defending Officer.(2)

(1. RP 37(C), 46(D). 2. Address, if any, recorded per Notes. Court should permit accused or his witnesses to prove on oath anything here or previously stated which would affect the amount of punishment. RP 37(F) fn 7.)

E4. The President states that the Court is closed to consider the sentence, and that the sentence to be awarded by the Court, being subject to confirmation, will not be announced, but will be promulgated later, and the proceedings in open court are accordingly terminated.(1)

(1. AA 54(6), RP 120(A).)

E5. The Court considers the sentence.(1) The President records the sentence in Part I of the Schedule, which is dated and signed by him and the J.A. if any.(2)

(1. When several accused tried separately see RP 71 (D). One sentence only, comprised of the punishments or punishments laid down in AA 41, 44 and its proviso, is to be awarded to cover all charges in all charge sheets on which accused found guilty. RP 48. As to sentences see AA 44, 138, 182, RP 46-50, 69, 118, 119(A), KR Can 308, 330, 563-566, Overseas RO 309, 2322, MML p 60, 757-759. As to sentences assigned for civil offences by the law of England see AA 41(3), MML p 130. When accused already under sentence of imprisonment or detention see AA 44(B), 68(1), KR Can 564. 2. RP 50. RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. ~~The President or~~ JA, ~~clamp~~ complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans No Sir (5)

~~B3. The Court considers the accused's statement (1). The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on ..... charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on ..... charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.~~

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty ~~is~~ (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)

(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)

(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

~~RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.~~

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C2 & C3.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

Summary of Evidence in the case of No. B.44646 Spr. John Martin PHILLIPS and No. A.18131 Spr. Basil Percy LAWS, both of No. 1 Cdn Mech Eqpt Coy, R.C.E., Cdn Army Overseas, charged with Conduct to the Prejudice of Good Order and Military Discipline (AA 40).

The Officer Commanding does not direct that the evidence be taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS No. 14386056 Sgt. ASPDEN, J.B., 72 S.I.S., CM Police.

I certify that in my opinion the attendance of this witness is, owing to the exigencies of the service, not readily procurable, and a written statement of his evidence, signed by him, has been read to the accused and is attached hereto as Exhibit "A".

J.A. Parker Capt
Officer taking the Summary.

The statement taken from No. 1914123 Spr. W.Evans, and referred to in Exhibit "A" is attached hereto as Exhibit "B".

SECOND WITNESS No. 14264941 Sgt. WHEATLEY, B.S., 72 S.I.S., CM Police.

I certify that in my opinion the attendance of this witness is, owing to the exigencies of the service, not readily procurable, and a written statement of his evidence, signed by him, has been read to the accused and is attached hereto as Exhibit "C".

The statement taken from No. B.44646 Spr. Phillips, J.M. and referred to in Exhibit "C" above is attached hereto as Exhibit "D".

The statement taken from No. A.18131 Spr. Laws, B.P. and referred to in Exhibit "C" above is attached hereto as Exhibit "E".

The accused was cautioned as follows:-

Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

The accused declines to make a statement or give evidence.

The accused does not call any witnesses.

I certify that the foregoing Summary of Evidence, consisting of one page, was taken down by me in the presence of the accused and that RP 4 (C), (D), (E), (F) and (G) have been complied with.

In the Field.

J.A. Parker Capt
1 Cdn Mech Eqpt Coy, RCE.
Officer taking the Summary.

Defending Officer

The prosecution has not established a case on either charge. No one saw Spr Phillips steal the wine. Their opinion was formulated from a general conversation. It has not been proved Spr Phillips was carrying wine or that he was at the place when it was taken from. There is no proof where the wine came from. Evans in Phillips presence says it came from a cellar Lewis in Phillips presence says it came from an excavator. Phillips says nothing.

Prosecuting Officer

declines to reply.

Judge Advocate.

The defending officer's motion is for dismissal of both charges on the ground that the prosecution has not established a prima facie case. That is to say that the prosecution has not produced evidence on which the accused could although not necessarily would find him guilty of either charge. Put another way the defence says there is no case which the accused is required to meet.

How the credibility of the various witnesses is a matter for the court to decide. The accused is charged with stealing 7 bottles of wine or alternatively with receiving the wine knowing it to have been stolen. Stealing is defined in MML p116 para 50 as follows (Reads first sentence). Receiving stolen goods is defined in para 65 p124 (Reads first sentence). The question for the court to decide now is not the guilt or innocence of the accused on either of these charges but whether or not the prosecution has adduced evidence from which the court could find him guilty of either charge. Put shortly the question is, is there any essential element of either charge on which the prosecution has failed to bring evidence sufficient to require an answer by the accused. If there is then that charge the prosecution has not brought a prima facie case. I refer the court to para 66 on p124 of MML (Reads paragraph)

The Court decide that the statement is inadmissable. The court re-opens and its decision made known to the accused.

1426 4941 Sgt W Leathley, R.S. recalled, still on oath, states.

Spr Phillips was helping to carry one of the sacks with two or three bottles in it. Evans was carrying a sack with three or four bottles. This was the wine. Seven Bottles produced, marked EXHIBIT A

P.T. Phillips agreed with Evans during the conversation that the wine had been obtained from a cellar when the excavator had been working. We then proceeded to the unit. I afterwards took possession of the wine and made enquiries with a view to tracing its source without success.

Cross-examination

The two sacks are in our R.H.Q. I didn't see Phillips stating wine I'm not sure whether it was Phillips or Evans who was carrying one of the sacks. All the wine was in two sacks. They said they got it from a cellar. One of them did say they got it from the excavator. It was either Phillips or Evans who agreed with Evans that they got it from a cellar. I couldn't swear whether Phillips or Evans.

R.P. 93(b) complied with.

14 386056 Sgt Hayden, J.B. recalled, still on oath, states.

I was with Sgt W Leathley on the evening of 3 Aug. We were patrolling Caen when we saw the two soldiers in the vicinity of Caen centre. Each two of the men were carrying sacks. P/C Evans was carrying one. I couldn't say which of the other two, Spr Phillips or Spr Evans, was carrying the other. We approached them and told them who we were and asked them what they had in the sacks. P/C Evans replied "it is some wine we bought from a Frenchman". Sgt W Leathley asked them to show us where it was they bought it and Evans replied "we can't do that we got it from the cellar of a house". We then asked them to get in the car and direct us to their unit. On arrival I saw Capt Elliott and asked to have a room to speak to the men. Spr Phillips was then questioned after he had been cautioned. He made a statement. Spr Phillips was then dismissed and the same procedure applied as regards Spr Evans and P/C Evans.

Cross-examination

I saw Evans in Caen on 2 Aug. We knew why we were coming here. I didn't see Spr Phillips steal the wine. I knew it was in his possession and his explanation was not satisfactory. I didn't ask Phillips if he was equally involved. He could have been walking along the streets and just passed the others. The wine was taken out of the other for easier transport.

Q.5. How much wine? There were only 7 bottles. Spr Phillips did not say they got it from the excavator. His remarks were that it was a lot of fuss about nothing. I can't say exactly what Phillips said. From the general conversation I formulated the opinion that the wine was taken from a cellar.

By the Court

Spr Evans said the wine had been taken from the excavator.

R.P. 93(b) complied with.

7.

Accused to stand for defence on admissability of statement, called with permission of the Court.

D-17093 Spr. Wadsen, T. B. sworn states.

I was in the orderly room with Sgt Turner when Spr Phillips and a Provost Sgt came in. The Provost Sgt sat down in a chair + started talking about this case. He started writing on a piece of paper. When he had finished that he read it out loud and then asked Phillips to sign it. Phillips didn't want to sign it at first and the Sgt left the orderly room. He came back after about five minutes or so and told Phillips he might as well sign because it was practically the same thing as the other fellows gave. Phillips then signed the statement. The Sgt did not caution Phillips. He didn't tell Phillips he didn't have to make a statement if he didn't want to. Only one Provost was in the room when Phillips signed. I only saw the one Provost Sgt at any time. I didn't know there had been two.

No Cross-examination

By the Court

I was just passing time. The Provost didn't say anything about getting out. R.P. § 3 (b) complied with.

Defending Officer

Statement is inadmissable. No caution was given. He was led to believe that the statement would not be used in evidence when he signed it. It appears the Provost was attempting to frame a charge against Spr Phillips.

Prosecuting Officer

The statement was taken down by Sgt Healey who as a Provost would and did caution the accused. Sgt Hopkins corroborates the evidence of Sgt Healey. Phillips signed the statement in three places. Once to show he had been cautioned. Once at the end of the statement and once that he had read it and it was true. He admits signing it.

Judge Advocate

Refers to pages 72 et seq p 90 M.M.L. What the facts are is a matter for the court to decide. Before the statement can be admitted the prosecution must prove that it was given freely and voluntarily that is to say that it was not given by any inducement, threat or promise. A statement is not necessarily involuntarily if inducements were held out if those inducements or the impression produced by them were removed before the statement was given. There are certain rules which if followed undoubtably produce a voluntary statement if any. One of them is that the accused should be cautioned before his statement is given but the lack of a caution or non-observance of any of them rules does not make the statement inadmissable if the court is satisfied that it was not in fact induced by any fear of prejudice or hope of advantage. Since the burden is on the prosecution to prove affirmatively that the statement was free and voluntary if there is any doubt in your minds the accused must be given the benefit of that doubt and the statement held to be inadmissable.

The court is closed to consider the admissibility.

Cross-examination

There were two other men in the room. I don't know who they were. I was in the room when Phillips was being questioned.

By the Court

Phillips was questioned by Sgt Wheatley. I was present at the questioning. There were two other men in the room. They came in shortly after the interview began. I was there when the statement was signed. Sgt Wheatley read back the earlier statement. Sgt Phillips made no objection to the statement or to signing it. When the two men came in Phillips said it's all right they are friends of mine and they remained. I went next door on one occasion to ask one of the other men a question. Sgt Wheatley cautioned the accused before asking any questions. I did not hear Sgt Wheatley say he only wanted the statement for his C.O.'s information. I was in the room when the statement was signed.

R.P. § 3(b) complied

14264941 Sgt Wheatley, recalled by Prosecuting Officer, still on oath, states

I cautioned Phillips before I questioned him. Then I wrote down the statement and included the caution in the statement. Sgt Hayden was present during the questioning. I didn't leave the room at all between the time I started questioning him and the time he signed the statement. I read the statement over to him, then he read it himself, then he signed it. He made no objection to signing. I did not say that I only wanted the statement for the information of my C.O. or that it would be best for him to make a statement.

Cross-examination

~~Between the caution and the~~ I am not sure whether the other two men were in the room or came in after the questioning ~~started~~ started.

R.P. § 3 (b) complied with.

Third Witness for the Defence on admissibility of statement called with permission of the court and warned

A 19131 Spr James B.P. sworn states

When we came in the gate we waited until they found Capt Elliott. Then Evans and I and one Sgt went into Capt Elliott's room and the other Sgt with Phillips into the orderly room. The Sgt with me stayed with me all the time except for a couple of seconds. He made about two trips or the other Sgt came in a couple of times. The Sgt who was with me wasn't away for [illegible] more than a minute. Then the Sgt who had been with Phillips took me to the orderly room and the Sgt who had been with me stayed in Capt Elliott's room with Evans. He came in to see once and asked a couple of questions. Sgt Turner was in the room when the Sgt questioned me. Spr Hylton was there too.

No cross-examination.

R.P. § 3(b) complied with.

he said it wouldn't make any difference about the statement. He just wanted it for his C.O. He didn't promise me any thing or threaten me if I didn't make a statement. R.P. ¶ 3 (b) complied with.

B 53977 Cpl. Tarver J.L. 2 Bde 1 Edn Bn sub Lgpst Coy. sworn states

I was in the orderly room when the Sgt asked Gpr Phillips his story. Phillips told him what happened. The Sgt wrote it down on a piece of paper and asked Gpr Phillips to sign it. Gpr Phillips wouldn't sign it. ~~Sgt~~ The sgt talked to Phillips for a while. He told him he only wanted the statement for his C.O.'s information. Then Gpr Phillips signed.

Cross-examination.

When Phillips refused to sign it the first time the Sgt read the statement. Gpr Nelson, Gpr Phillips and the sgt were there. The record present went out, he wasn't there when the statement was signed.

By the Court.

I was in the orderly room when we present and Gpr Phillips came in. The sgt just asked Phillips for his story. He didn't caution him. Phillips told his story. ~~after~~. When the Sgt read the statement he didn't read any caution to Phillips. The sgt said he wanted it for his C.O.'s information and he didn't know whether any thing would come of it or not. The record present just came in the room me for a short while and turned around and walked right out again. Sgt Weatley left the ~~[redacted]~~ room after Phillips signed to sign it. Then he came back.

I am a sgt of 72 S.I.S. C.M.P. I was with Sgt Weatley on the morning of 2nd inst. I was present when the accused made a statement. It was taken in the presence. The sgt told the accused who he was and gave him the usual caution and asked him if he wished to make a statement. The accused said would. The statement was taken down in writing by Sgt Weatley at the accused's dictation. On completion of the statement it was read over by the accused who signed it. The accused did not object in any way to what he was saying Evidence in the case of Spr P Phillips, J.M. - 1 Edn Mech Espt Coy.

A-8 Defending Officer moves for separate trial of accused on ground that evidence of one of the accused may be material to the defence of the other and that the question of identity might arise.

Judge Advocate refers the court to R.P. 16 and para 95 Ch VI of M.M.L.

The court is closed to consider the motion

The court decides to allow the motion

The court is opened and the accused are again brought before the court.

The President announces that the motion is allowed.

D-2 Prosecution

First Witness

14264941 Sgt. W Bradley, R.S. sworn states

I am attd to 72 S.L.S. part of the Corps Mil Police.

At 2130 hrs 3 Aug 44 I was on duty in Caen keeping observation to prevent looting. I saw the accused whom I now know to be Spr P Phillips with two other soldiers whom I now know to be Pte Evans and Spr Lawn. I noticed they were carrying two sacks. I stopped them and asked what was in the sacks. Pte Evans replied it is corn wine which we bought from a Frenchman. I told him I was not satisfied with the explanation, cautioned him, and he said "We got it from a cellar." Spr Phillips was present. I then opened the sacks and found 7 bottles of wine.

I + company with Cpl Ogden who was also present I took Spr Phillips and Lawn and Pte Evans to this unit. I cautioned Spr Phillips and took a statement from him. I did not promise him anything nor threaten him. I wrote the statement at his dictation, he read it over and signed it.

Cross examined by defending Officer

I questioned him in a room in the building. Sgt Ogden and two other men, I am not sure who they were, were in the room when the questioning took place and the statement was signed.

Evidence by accused in compliance with R.P. 13 on admissibility of statement

B-74646 Spr P Phillips J.M. sworn, states

I did not make any statement at all. The Provost Sgt wrote out a statement and asked me to sign it. I did not want to sign it. I knew it wasn't right. He went into the other room & when he came back he said that the other boys statements were the same as this one. "It won't hurt you" he said because I am just taking it to show to my commanding officer. Sgt Ogden was not in the room while I was being questioned or when I signed the statement. Spr Turner and Spr Neilson 2 Edn R.E. Inf were in the room. I did sign it. He made it out himself without asking me any questions, then read it over to me and I said I wouldn't sign it. He did not warn me that I need not make a statement.

Cross-examination

He read it over to me. I signed three times on the paper. I didn't read it over. I don't remember the Sgt cautioning me. I signed it because

INSTRUCTIONS ON PROCEDURE AFTER ARRAIGNMENT.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated:

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See MML p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C); powers and duties of JA see RP 103; duty of Prosecutor see RP 60(A) (B); duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 83-85; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court etc see RP 75-79, 86, 116; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6; and responsibility of JA or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans .....(5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on ..... charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on ..... charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex ....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? Ans NO SIR .....(1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (and (no) opening address.(1)
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)
(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Can 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the First and Second charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is ~~disallowed on the ..... charge(s)~~, and allowed on the First and Second charge(s), and that, accordingly, ~~the trial will proceed on the ..... charge(s), but~~ the accused is (~~are~~) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)
NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

~~D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence (1). You may, if you wish, give evidence~~ yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither?
Ans .....
Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf?
Ans ..... Are they witnesses as to character only? Ans .....
(1. RP 155. 2. RP 40(A), see 60(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)
(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order, CF A95. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 103(e).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.
(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

Or, The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.(2)
(1. AA 54(3) (6), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

~~D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using~~ Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character?(1)
Ans .....
(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), and certified true copy (copies) of Conduct Sheet(s)(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(l) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex ..... and Ex ..... respectively.(3)

10th Witness: (contd) two or three miles of the vicinity and could find no sign of Lawrence anywhere. I reported that fact to the Orderly Room.

11th Witness: B36873 C&MS SEMPLE, C.W. will give evidence in connection with deficiencies.

Taken by me this 8th day of October, 1941 at CAMBERLEY, Surrey.

Signed: "R.J. Carroll" Lieut.

6 Witness: S/Sgt. G.L. Ayre, Cdn. Prov. Corps, states:

"At London, at about 1000 hrs on 16 Sep 41 I attended court at Bow Street Police Court. The a/m soldier was given into my custody as an absentee, by the Magistrate. He had been arrested by P.C. 498C, G. Chamberlain of the Metropolitan Police. I escorted him to No. 6 Cdn. Prov. Coy H.Q. where I handed him over to the n.c.o. i/c cells to be detained. He was dressed in "civies".

7th Witness: K53481 L/Cpl. BIANCHINI, A., states:

"I was n.c.o. i/c cells when the a/m soldier was brought in to be detained."

"The accused was admitted to the 8 Cdn. Fd Hospital at POYNTERS, Cobham, Surrey on 15 Jul 41. His case was diagnozed as V.D.G.

The accused was due for discharge on 2 Aug 41 and I notified the pack stores Cpl to that effect.

At approximately 0830 hrs on 2 Aug 41 when checking discharges for transportation to the Reception Depot I found Pte Lawrence missing. I instituted enquiries. Sgt. Carter, W.R., made a search - no trace of this man.

I consquently reported the matter to Major P.S. Serrant, who was Officer i/c Hospital for the day.

9th Witness: M24090 Cpl. LANAHAN, E., 8 Cdn. Fd. Amb, states:

"I was in charge of the stores and checked what clothing Lawrence possessed, which were all civilian clothes, this was on the 15 Jul 41.

On 2 Aug 41 I received a list of discharges from the Orderly Room, included in which was Lawrence's name.

Lawrence received his clothes, signed for them and was waiting for the lorry to take him to the Reception Depot: when it was time for the lorry to leave Lawrence was missing.

10th Witness: M24008 Sgt. CARTER, W.R., states:

"I was in charge of the V.D. ward at the time Lawrence was in Hospital. The Orderly on duty reported to me that Lawrence was missing when the lorry arrived to take him to the Reception Depot.

I took a Staff car and covered all the main roads within

1. When soldiers are apprehended in uniform near their quarters it is considered that as a general rule 5/- is a sufficient reward. Not more than 10/- will be allowed in any case where the soldiers were in uniform.

2. When soldiers are apprehended in plain clothes, at a distance from their units, and after having been absent for some time, the reward may be increased to 10/- or 15/- according to the nature of the cases and the trouble incurred in apprehension. A reward in excess of 15/- will seldom be granted.

3. The reward of 20/- should be strictly reserved for cases where superior intelligence has been displayed in apprehending men in plain clothes, or under difficult or exceptional circumstances.

Rewards and expenses attendant upon apprehensions will be paid by the Command Paymaster of the Command or District in which the soldier's Unit is stationed.

4. No reward can be authorised if the Deserter or Absentee voluntarily surrendered, or if it shall appear that he was in collusion with the person who apprehended him, or if the apprehended man was not a Deserter or Absentee.

The following Statement of expenses (if any) incurred by the Police and chargeable to Army Funds should be certified by a Superintendent or Officer in charge of a station.

No expenses incurred in conveying a Deserter or Absentee from the Court to prison should be charged to Army funds. Such expenses can be included in the claim made on the Prison Commissioners.

A. 125. Getting ready and going out without saying anything.
Q. 126. Did he discuss it with you ?
A. 126. No, dir.
Q. 127. Just what do you mean by "getting ready"?
A. 127. Coming in and getting his clothes on and going out .
Q. 128. Would he not do that ordinarily, going out in the afternoon; did he not discuss it with you ?
A. 128. No, sir.
Q. 129. Did you have the feeling he was going for good ?
A. 129. No, sir.
Q. 130. Did you think he would ?
A. 130. No, sir.

The conditions of R.P. 40 having been complied with, the accused elected to make a statement, not under oath.

Statement of B36987 Pte. LAWRENCE, V.A., RHLI.

To start with, I had no intention of being a deserter. The one reason I had for going was that I had applied for a transfer to my brother's Unit, and it had been ignored. I put it on the Major's desk myself. I figured I wasn't getting any 'breaks'. Maybe it was my attitude, I don't know. I was as good a soldier as anyone else. I can get my equipment. I did not leave London so I would not be unable to get back to the Unit. I was in London all the time and did not try to get work or anything. There was nothing to do. I did not leave London on account of I wanted to be close to the Unit. The reason I am not making this statment on oath is because I have a personal feeling for a girl. I did not join up to be a deserter; I knew what I was going into. I applied for this transfer and did not get it. I had no intention of being a deserter.

I could have left the country - in fact I had the opportunity but did not take it. I refused it. That is all I have to say. On Denman Street, the 3rd storey of the building, on top of the "Mazurka Club" is where I left my uniform. Everything I took with me is there; my walking out dress. I had my civilian clothes made for my leave that was supposed to be coming up. It had come out in Orders that we could have a civilian suit with the C.O.s permission for leave. I had it made at Nieburg the Tailor's, Whitechapel Rd.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY PROSECUTOR.

Q. 122. Have you ever heard from him in that time ?
A. 122. No, sir.
Q. 123. Did you know he was going to leave ?
A. 123. I had an idea, but I did not know.
Q. 124. What do you mean - you had an idea ?
A. 124. Well, by his actions.
Q. 125. What actions ?

Q. 87. Did you have any conversation with him in relation to the Unit ?
A. 87. After I told him I was going to arrest him and take him to the station, I had conversation with him then.
Q. 88. Did you give him any warning ?
A. 88. I told him I was going to arrest him ?
Q. 89. But you gave him no caution ?
A. 89. No, sir.

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT.

Q. 90. Did this man produce a paybook ?
A. 90. No, sir.
Q. 91. Can you tell me, was he searched on going into the cells ?
A. 91. Yes, sir.
Q. 92. Did he have a paybook on him at that time ?
A. 92. No, sir.
Q. 93. No identification of any sort ?
A. 93. No, sir.

DEFENCE - NO QUESTIONS.

8th Witness for the Prosecution, B36638 Pte. McCABE, W.J., R.H.L.I. having been first duly sworn, is examined:

Q. 94. You are serving with the R.H.L.I. ?
A. 94. Yes, sir.
Q. 95. What are your duties ?
A. 95. Regimental police, sir.
Q. 96. What are the duties of the regimental police ?
A. 96. Our duties are most of the time with the prisoners - dealing with the prisoners and men remanded for Court Martial. When a prisoner comes in we check his kit after their sentence and when he goes out we check his kit and get his signature for it.
Q. 97. Do you remember the accused having been put into custody ?
A. 97. Yes, sir.
Q. 98. When ?
A. 98. I cannot just say the date. It was about a month ago.
Q. 99. Was a check made of his kit at that time ?
A. 99. The n.c.o. along with him, I understand, did go into this, and the only kit was what is on him now.
Q. 100. The regimental police did not handle anything ?
A. 100. No, sir.

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT.

Q. 101. Did he have a paybook ?
A. 101. I do not think so.
(The accused interposes with the remark: "No I didn't have a paybook").

A. 73. This is the list, I have been told. I have not checked with the original list. When I left the stores, the books and papers and notes were turned over to the next C.Q.
Q. 74. You cannot say that is the exact copy of your list ?
A. 74. I do not think it is my list. There are items here I do not recognize or remember.
Q. 75. Do you know where the present CQMS of "D" Coy is ?
A. 75. I was told he was sick and went to the Hospital, but is arriving back today.

QUESTIONED BY DEFENDING OFFICER.

Q. 76. What are the items on the list that make you think it is not your list ?
A. 76. Tools entrenching, tools entrenching carrier, cape, curtain A/G. That is about all.
Q. 77. Is there any reason for singling out those articles ?
A. 77. I do not imagine that anyone going A.W.L. would take those away. They do not take more than they have to.
Q. 78. Do you recall whether or not those articles were turned into stores ?
A. 78. No, sir, I cannot recall that.
Q. 79. Do you recall, shortly before the accused went A.W.L., an entrenching tool being turned in for repair ?
A. 79. I cannot remember that, sir.

THE ACOURT IS ADJOURNED AT 1030 hrs 14 Oct 41.

THE COURT RE-OPENS AT 1045 hrs 14 Oct 41.

7th Witness for the Prosecution. PC George Chamberlain, having been duly sworn, is examined:

Q. 80. Kindly tell the Court who you are and what your work is ?
A. 80. George Chamberlain, Police Constable No. 498 "C" Section, employed with C.I.D.
Q. 81. Do you recognize the accused ?
A. 81. Yes, Vernon Arthur Lawrence is his name.
Q. 82. Will you tell the Court when you saw Lawrence and the circumstances ?
A. 82. On 13 Sep about 4.40 P.M. I was on duty in plain clothes in Wardour Street. I saw Lawrence wearing his present dress, in the street. I approached him and told him I was a police officer and asked him for his identity card. He said: "I have not got it with me". I asked him in what part of the city he lived and he said Kennington. He had an obvious Canadian accent and I questioned him further. I asked him in which direction in London, Kennington was, and he told me S.W., beyond Hyde Park Corner. This was not correct. I asked him the names of schools he had attended in London and he was unable to tell me any of them. I told him I was not satisfied with his statements and believed he was a deserter or absentee from the Canadian forces. He then said: "All right, you can take me in", and I took him in to West Central Police Stn., and he appeared at Bow Street Station the following day and was held for military escort.

A.F. 0168 is produced.

Q. 83. Is that your signature there ?
A. 83. Yes, sir.
Q. 84. Were you there when the signature above yours was made ?
A. 84. Yes, sir.
Q. 85. That is signed by Lawrence ?
A. 85. Yes.
Q. 86. When you were questioning Lawrence, did you have any other conversation with him, about what he was doing in London ?
A. 86. No, sir. I simply asked where he lived, and the direction of Kennington, and he was obviously not telling the truth.

Q. 87.

I noticed the accient in his speech and asked his nationality. He told me he was an American. I asked to see his alien registration certificate and he said he did not have one. I then told him I would detain him, pending further investigation and take him to the police station. On the way, he said: "I guess its now use trying to fool you guys", and produced a service paybook, and admitted he was a deserter from the R.H.L.I., Canadian Forces. At the Police Station he was formally charged with being a deserter since 3 May this year. He made no reply to the formal charge when cautioned. He appeared at Clerkenwell Police Court on 8 Jul and was detained at Court until removal by escort. That is all.

Q. 57. What clothes was the accused wearing when you first saw him ?
A. 57. To the best of my recollection, he was wearing a double breasted jacket and a pair of brown shoes.
Q. 58. Civilian ?
A.m58. Yes.
Q. 59. While you were walking back to the Police Station, did you have any conversation with the accused ?
A. 59. Yes, we had some conversation. I remeber asking him why he had deserted, and he replied that when they came overseas he objected to the method of training and also objected to having to be bossed about by Officers who knew no more than he did.

A.F. 0168 is produced.

Q. 60. Is that your signature on this form ?
A. 60. Yes.
Q. 61. Were you present when it was made out ?
A. 61. Yes.

QUESTIONED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER.

Q. 62. Did you say the accused used the word"deserter" when he admitted he was a member of the R.H.L.I. ?
A. 62. I am not at all sure that he used that word. He gave me the date of his absence. I am not sure that he did not say "I have been away ".
Q. 63. Did you say that in your conversation with him, he said he did not like the training of the regiment - did he seem warlike ? Did he think the regiment should have more strict training ?
A. 63. My impression - or the impression he gave me was that he had had too much.
Q. 64. But he thought himself a good soldier ?
A. 64. Yes, he did.

6th Witness for the Prosecution, B37051 L/Cpl. DUKES, W.F., R.H.L.I., having been first duly sworn, is examined:

Q. 65. In what Unit and Coy were you on 3 May ?
A. 65. R.H.L.I., "D" Coy.
Q. 66. What were your duties at that time ?
A. 66. Acting Coy Quartermaster Sgt. of "D" Coy.
Q. 67. Do you know the accused ?
A. 67. Yes, sir. Pte. Lawrence, V.A.
Q. 68. When did you last see him parade with "D" Coy ?
A. 68. On or about 3 May.
Q. 69. Have you ever seen him parade with the Coy since then ?
A. 69. No, sir.
Q. 70. Was it reported to you when he went absent on 3 May ?
A. 70. Yes, sir.
Q. 71. What did you do ?
A. 71. His kit was taken into stores and a copy of the deficiencies of the kit taken in was made up.
Q. 72. You have the list there, have you ?
A. 72. Yes, sir.
Q. 73. This list sets out the deficiencies as of 3 May ?

it was twice or three times - to issue clothes, and then it was cancelled. The last time I received instructions about patients for discharge I rece ved it about 2 Aug and I get the clothes at a quarter to nine. I knew Lawrence was a prisoner.

Q. 40. You returned these articles to him ?
A. 40. Yes, and he signed on the bottom. That goes back to our Records for reference.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER.

NO QUESTIONS.

A document purporting to bear Lawrence's signature admitting receipt of civilian clothes and a pair of blankets, produced.

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT.

Q. 41. Nothing about boots there ?
A. 41. No, sir. He had boots, but I did not check them - he kept them.
Q. 42. Can you tell us whether or not the clothes the prisoner is now wearing are the same ?
A. 42. As far as I know they look about the same. I cannot swear to it.

4th Witness for the Prosecution, B/6814 Sgt. TRENDELL, H., R.H.L.I., having been first duly sworn, is examined:

Q. 43. What Unit and what Company are you serving with ?
A. 43. R.H.L.I., "D" Coy.
Q. 44. Do you recognize the accused ?
A. 44. Yes, sir.
Q. 45. Do you know what Coy he served in ?
A. 45. Yes, sir - "D" Coy.
Q. 46. Can you tell the Court when he last paraded with "D" Coy ?
A. 46. 3 May, sir.
Q. 47. Have you ever seen the accused on parade with "D" Coy since that time ?
A. 47. No, sir.
Q. 48. Did you ever see him until now ?
A. 48. No, sir.
Q. 49. Do you know if he had leave ?
A. 49. Not that I know of, sir.
Q. 50. What were your duties on 3 May ?
A. 50. I was Coy Orderly Sgt.
Q. 51. What happened on that date with regard to the accused ?
A. 51. The room corporal reported him absent to me on parade. I reported him to Coy Office as such.
Q. 52. You made a subsequent check ?
A. 52. I have checked every day, but there has been no sign of him.
Q. 53. By your being Orderly Sgt you would know he had left ?
A. 53. Yes, sir that is my duty.

NO QUESTIONS BY DEFENCE.

5th Witness for the Prosecution, Detective Harry Joyce, having been first duly sworn, is examined:

Q. 54. Will you tell the Court who you are ?
A. 54. Harry Joyce, Detective in "E" Section, Metroplitan Police.
Q. 55. Do you recognize the accused ?
A. 55. I do.
Q. 56. Who is he ?
A. 56. Vernon Arthur Lawrence. I saw him about three P.M., 7 Jul this year at Guildford St., London W.C. 1. He was sitting on the doorstep of No. 33. I approached him and told him who I was and asked who he was, and what he was doing there. He told me he was waiting to see some of the residents of No.33, the house outside of which he was sitting.

was ready for discharge and I notified the Orderly Room on the afternoon of 1 Aug to that effect. I was advised at that time that the accused was a prisoner, and notified the pack store corporal to that effect. The patient, being a prisoner, is not given his clothes in the morning until just, or a very short time, before the lorry arrives to take him to the Reception Depot. In the morning I got his clothes around 8.45 and after I got his clothes the patients from my Ward were brought into the Dispensary to receive final instructions from the M.O. before going to the Reception Depot. An orderly reported to me that the accused was missing.

Q. 22. At what time was this ?
A. 22. A few minutes after nine. The lorry was waiting for them. I instituted a search and with the permission of the C.O. took a staff car and covered the roads in the vicinity of the Hospital, but saw no sign of him, and had to report same to the Orderly Room.
Q. 23. How did you know he was a prisoner ?
A. 23. I was told by the Orderly Room Corporal. He came in under escort.
Q. 24. Did you see the clothes that were issued to the prisoner ?
A. 24. No, I did not know what they were.
Q. 25. Have you any idea how long he was in the Hospital ?
A. 25. No, sir, I don't know. He was not in my ward for a while. He had measles, or something.
Q. 26. How long was he in your Ward ?
A. 26. I cannot just say.
Q. 27. Two weeks, say ?
A. 27. More than one week, I would say.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY DEFENDING OFFICER.

Q. 28. Did you at any time see the prisoner with an escort ?
A. 28. No, sir.
Q. 29. Was the accused under any more surveillance than any other patient ?
A. 29. No, sir. Any time a man came under escort, the escort did not stay. We just were instructed to fix them up and get them out.
Q. 30. Then there was no difference ?
A. 30. No, sir.
Q. 31. Is there any difference regarding their pay and that of an ordinary patient ?
A. 31. I do not know, sir.

3rd Witness for the Prosecution, M24090 Cpl. LANAHAN, E., 8 Cdn. Fd Amb, having been first duly sworn, is examined:

Q. 32. What Unit are you serving with and what duties were you carrying out on or about 15 Jul to 2 Aug 41 ?
A. 32. I am with 8 Cdn. Fd Amb and was store steward.
Q. 33. What duties does that involve ?
A. 33. Looking after the patients in hospital and taking their equipment, giving receipts and getting same returned to them on discharge.
Q. 34. Was Lawrence a patient in your hospital ?
A. 34. Yes, sir.
Q. 35. Do you recognize him in this Court Room ?
A. 35. Yes, sir - that's the man there,(pointing to accused).
Q. 36. When was he a patient in your hospital ?
A. 36. He was admitted 15 Jul and discharged 2 Aug 41.
Q. 37. What did his clothing consist of ?
A. 37. One cotton shirt, two blankets and a civilian suit of clothes and braces. (Produces copy of receipt.)
Q. 38. No uniform or Army equipment ?
A. 38. No, sir.
Q. 39. When were these articles returned to him ?
A. 39. Prior to discharge I had notification - I am not sure whether

Q. 4. Where is the Hospital located ?
A. 4. At Poynters, Cobham.
Q. 5. Did you see Lawrence again ?
A. 5. No, sir.
Q. 6. He did not report again to the Hospital ?
A. 6. No, sir.

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT

Q. 7. Are you in a position to say that he could have reported but that you simply did not see him ?
A. 7. I do not think he came back.
Q. 8. If he went and reported, without being re-admitted, would you know ?
A. 8. I think so, sir.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY DEFENDING OFFICER.

Q. 9. Are you familiar with arrangements under which the accused was admitted to the Hospital ?
A. 9. Only by hearsay.
Q. 10. Would you know personally whether or not the accused was paid in Hospital ?
A. 10. I would not know.
Q. 11. What arrangements are made for paying ?
A. 11. Under hospital regulations all hospital patients are entitled to from one pound every two weeks, if they have their paybook with them. Some get ten shillings.

QUESTIONED BY THE COURT

Q. 12. The clothing that was returned to this man by pack stores was civilian clothing ?
A. 12. I think so, sir.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY DEFENDING OFFICER.

Q. 13. You implied in evidence that the accused was under escort and was a prisoner in the hospital ? Yet you know nothing of the circumstances that - the circumstances of his admittance ?
A. 13. I meant the circumstances that caused him to be admitted.
Q. 14. How did you know he was a prisoner ?
A. 14. We were informed.
Q. 15. By whom ?
A. 15. By whoever brought him.
Q. 16. You suggest he was brought under escort - what did you see ?
A. 16. I did not see it one way or the other. There is no written document. That was the impression - the understanding we were given.
Q. 17. There is no documentary evidence ?
A. 17. No, sir.

2nd Witness for the Prosecution, M24008 Sgt. CARTER, W.R., 8 Cdn. Fd Amb, having been first duly sworn, is examined:

Q. 18. Will you tell the Court your Unit and your duties ?
A. 18. I am with the 8 Cdn. Fd Amb. and at the particular time in question I was in charge of the V.D. Ward at Poynters Hospital.
Q. 19. Have you ever seen the accused - do you know him ?
A. 19. Yes, that's him. (Pointing to accused).
Q. 20. Tell the Court under what circumstances you saw him ?
A. 20. While the accused was a patient at Poynters Hospital I was on duty there.
Q. 21. What date was that ?
A. 21. I cannot name the dates; it was on 1 Aug, however that he

PROCEEDINGS OF A FIELD GENERAL
COURT MARTIAL HELD AT CAMBERLEY,
Surrey, ON .....14 OCT 41.

TRIAL OF: No. B36987 Pte. LAWRENCE, Vernon Arthur, R.H.L.I.

PROSECUTOR: Major H.F. Lazier, R.H.L.I. Lawyer

DEFENDING OFFICER: Lieut. J.K. Hunter, Essex Scots. Lawyer

SHORTHAND REPORTER: B36801 S/Sgt. D.A. Shenstone, R.H.L.I.

1. The Order Convening the Court is read to the accused.

2. The accused is asked the following questions:

Q. 1. Do you object to being tried by me as President, or to any other members of the Court ?.
A. 1. No, sir.
Q. 2. Do you object to the S/Sgt. taking down the evidence in shorthand ?
A. 2. No, sir.

3. The President, Members and shorthand writer are duly sworn.

4. The accused answers to his name and number and is duly arraigned on the charges.

5. The accused pleads "NOT GUILTY" to all charges.

6. R.P. 39 (A) is complied with and the accused answers "No".

7. The Prosecutor makes an opening address.

8 Cdn. Fd Amb, RCAMC, having been first duly sworn, is examined:

Q. 1. Do you know the accused ?
A. 1. Yes, sir. I have seen him in the Hospital.
Q. 2. Is he in this room ?
A. 2. Yes, sir - there (points to accused).
Q. 3. Will you tell the Court the circumstances under which you saw him ?
A. 3. The accused was admitted to our Hospital on 15 Jul 41, until 2 Aug 41. On the afternoon on the 1 Aug 41, as hospital clerk, I was notified that Lawrence would be discharged on the following morning, which information I conveyed to Cpl. Lanahan. I advised him that Lawrence was a prisoner and that he should not be issued clothes until the last minute. This was the procedure unless a prisoner under escort is released from hospital back to the Unit under regimental escort. At this time Division was moving around and it was not possible to contact the Unit or return him to the Reception Depot, as they were not able to contact the Unit. We had instructions to send him down under the escort of another patient and they would look after him. It was about a quarter to nine that I notified the pack stores that it was all right to issue this man's clothes to him. Around nine o'clock when I checked to see if everyone was ready for discharge, I was unable to locate the accused. I contacted Sgt Carter, the n.c.o. i/c the ward and asked if he had seen him. He said he had not, and we immediately instituted a search. It was reported to me that they had been unable to locate Lawrence and I accordingly notified the O.C. Hospital that this man had apparently gone A.W.L. That is all I have on this matter.

Order convening the Court.

On Active Service, this eleventh day of OCTOBER, 1941.

Whereas it appears to me, the undersigned, an officer in Command of FOURTH CANADIAN INFANTRY BRIGADE, on active service, that the persons named in the annexed Schedule, being subject to Military Law, have committed the offences in the said Schedule mentioned.

And whereas I am of opinion that it is not practicable that such offences should be tried by an ordinary General Court Martial; *~~[and that it is not practicable to delay the trial for reference to a superior qualified officer.]~~

*Omit where Convening Officer is a Commanding Officer or is of Field Rank.

I hereby convene a Field General Court Martial to try the said persons, and to consist of the Officers appointed or detailed hereunder.

*Omit if not applicable.

~~*I am unable to appoint:—~~

~~(1.—Three Officers to form the Court.)~~

~~*(2.—A Field Officer as President.)~~

~~for the following reasons, namely:—]~~

In my opinion, military exigencies, namely the dispersion of units, and difficulties of communication, and other difficulties, render it inexpedient to observe the provisions of those rules inconsistent with Appendix "A", to D.R.O. 772 on the trial of the person named in the annexed schedule.

NOTE.—The President must be named. The members and waiting members (if any) may be mentioned by name, or the number and ranks and the unit to which they belong may alone be named. In the latter event, the ranks, names, &c., of the members of the court, as constituted, will be recorded on the proceedings.

& yet you tell me I should not worry. [redacted] I mean about coming home to Canada without permission. You should not be made to pay for coming home to me. loving me enough to come to me when I needed you so much. so greatly. I want you here with Ricky & I so very much. I pray every nite that it may be so.

I cannot stop thinking of the Brown Eyes I should

It was a shock. you can imagine. On the afternoon that I recieved word. Picky & I were getting ready to go to see your Mother. that is just how ignorant I was to the fact she was even ill.

If only you had known Oh my darling, I can't stand your being away from me any longer. Two years you have been gone & out of that you somehow got home to me for awhile. I didn't ask. how you got here. & I did not care, hospital. in fact I seem to have been the only one. "including neighbors & friends" who did not see her before she went. The only word I recieved was after she was gone. One of the boys came to the door & told Dad to tell me my Mother-in-law Mrs Lawrence was dead & that the funeral would take place on Tuesday. Dad came up stairs & told me. They did not even ask for me personally I could not believe it all I cared for was that you were by my side, where I'd always wanted you. Why oh why did you have to be taken from me again.

If you could only be over here closer to Picky & I in the Army here would be just as well for you as over there. I fear for your health when you are away from me. You understand what I mean dearest.

I go mad crazy from the worry of having you so far away from me.

March 18

Dearest Papa

I've been upset since I heard of your Mother's death. It was a shock to me & in my condition the way in which the family broke the news to me did my nerves no good at all. It so happened your Mother had been ill for three week. the third week ~~which~~ she spent in the hospital. where she passed away. I was not told she was ill or in

2. (2) cont'd

Mainly because of drugs and his insane craving for them - and realizing that if he did not leave the unit he would be utilizing their supply he made his way home. In Canada he continued to use drugs and at the time of his apprehension it is stated he was in possession of a syringe. Except for the occasional day has continued to take drugs secretly up to the 25th Mar 42.

3. Summary: In brief this is a fairly typical history of a drug addict showing a weak moral character undermined by abject slavery to drugs.

4. Opinion: It is respectfully suggested that it is a widely known fact that drug addiction is the basis of many criminal acts including homicides, stealing and so forth. Further it is suggested that while unquestionably the accused has done wrong - his mind is and has been for twenty years the slave of morphine which converts him into a derelict more to be pitied and treated than judged.

5. The defence rests.

G. E. Mc Garry Capt

(b) profession ; at the age of 13 years became a professional race-jockey - suffered an injury received several hypodermics and acquired an addiction for morphine to settle his nerves.

(c) morphine ; for twenty years except for short intervals has used morphine by mouth and hypodermic injection. Taking as much as four grains in a single day. which equals fifteen pre-operation sedatives.

(d) detected crimes ;- "Breaking and entering" drug stores to obtain morphine for which he was awarded 30 months in Guelph Reformatory "Armed Robbery" - of a Bank ($400.) for which he was awarded 7 years penal servitude in Kingston Penitentiary

(e) Army history ;- Enlisted Sep. 1939 at Hamilton with 5-6 Fd Amb. and proceeded to England. At first used, for him, minimal quantities of morphine one quarter grain pill in the mornings - having substituted whiskey for morphine in the evenings. In the summer of 1940 commenced to receive news from home that his wife was repeatedly ill and that his drunken father was abusing his diabetic mother who has now deceased as of January 1942. He commenced drinking more heavily and as this failed to satisfy him commenced taking more morphine. Soon he was spending all his pay and what he could win gambling on drugs. As time went on it became increasingly difficult for him to obtain the desired quantity of drugs.

1. Documentary Evidence

If the court please - the defense has advised the accused to plead not guilty to ~~the~~ first charges.

There is no disputing the facts that the accused did leave his unit and returned to Canada - losing the mentioned articles of issued equipment in Liverpool.

In Canada he made his way from Halifax to Hamilton where he lived quietly with his wife and small daughter aged three.

Finally he was apprehended by the civilian police and handed over to the military authorities and through the normal channels now appears before this court.

None of the documents are questioned.

2. Narcotic History of accused

It is the desire of the defense that the court have the fullest information of the accused in order that they may form a complete picture of the character and degree of guilt of the accused, thus best serving justice.

In chronological order are the outstanding facts of the accused's life history - as learned and believed to be true by the defense.

(a) Education :- little or none (1 year) the result of adverse home conditions - an alcoholic father.

No. B 89893, Pte Laurence S.E.H. R.C.A.M.C.

Continued -

The Evidence, so brought forth, collaborated together will show beyond doubt that Pte Laurence, S.E.H. intended to desert from His Majesties Forces and put that intention into execution so successfully that he was able to leave England and reach Canada; that he was absent from his unit over five months ~~from his unit~~ M.C. before his apprehension by civil police, and that he carried on in civil life wearing civilian clothing.

Also evidence will show that he was absent certain articles from his kit on 23 July, 41, and that he had to be supplied certain articles of regimental necessaries by His Majesties Government in Canada before his re-embarkation, in custody, for England.

Humbly submitted to the President and members of the Court.

M Carleton Capt R.C.A.M.C.
Prosecutor.

No. B 89893 Pte Lawrence S.E.H. R.C.A.M.C

Continued—

A Certificate in accordance with Sec 163(1)(m) of the Army Act will be produced to prove his arrest on 27 Dec 41. by the civil police at Hamilton Ontario.

Also a certified statement from two N.C.O's of 12 Coy, Cdn. Prov. Corps. No 2 Det.: to prove his receipt by this unit from the Hamilton civil police on 27 Dec 41. still in civilian clothes.

Then I shall produce a certificate of cost of apprehension from No 1 Cdn General Reinforcement Unit C.A.(O) to the sum of £1:6s:8d. This being for cost of transportation from No 1 Cdn. Gen. Reinf. Unit C.A.(O) to his present unit both for him and his guards.

Also I shall produce a letter from N.D.H.Q. detailing the movements of Pte Lawrence under custody to Camp Borden Ont. and instructions to have him outfitted and clothed there and despatched to Halifax N.S. for embarkation.

A court of Inquiry on 17 Jul 41. at 'B' coy. 5 Cdn. Fd. Amb C.A.(O) established the fact that Pte Lawrence was short of articles in his kit to the value of £4:19s:4d. And a Summary of Evidence on 20 Mar 42. established the amount of his kit on that date after returning to his unit.

Field General Court-Martial.

No B89893 Pte Lawrence S.E.H. R.C.A.M.C.

Opening Address of Prosecutor.

Mr President and Members of the Court.

The M/n soldier is accused of:

1. deserting ~~his Majesties forces~~ while on active service:

and

2. losing by neglect his equipment, clothing and regimental necessaries, to the value of £4: 19s: 4d: while on active service.

I shall establish by witnesses, sworn evidence, and official documents, that the M/n soldier was continuously absent from his unit, in the field, from 2359 hrs: 23 Jan. 41. until 23 Jan. 42. That he was apprehended and taken into custody by civil police at Hamilton, Ontario, Canada, at 2100 hrs: 27 Dec. 41.

This shows that he had travelled several thousand miles from his unit and had reached the opposite side of the Atlantic Ocean by whatever means he chose to travel.

Added to this the fact that he was apprehended wearing civilian clothes and was not intoxicated, it was obvious that he had no intention of rejoining his unit or any other unit in H.M. forces.

Closing address by Prosecution.

Pte. Lawrence was absent from Unit for 6 mos. as per evidence.

No evidence or reason given for his absence. He has elected not to question any of witnesses establishing that fact.

Evidence proving his arrest has been submitted.

1) Arrested when wearing civilian clothing.
2) Left Field Service went across ocean.
3) Deemed fit for court martial in spite of lack of morphine totals.
4) Drugs played no part therefore in act of desertion.
5) Wife's condition no excuse for leaving service.
6) Mother's illness occurred after he left Canada.
7) No evidence produced by defence ~~that~~ Pte. Lawrence did not wish to desert.

Closing address by Defence

1) the accused is nervous or result of ~~seeing~~ ~~of~~ treatment.
2)

The court adjourned to consider the finding

The court reassembled & the prosecution Capt. M. Carleton, previously sworn, tendered certified copy of NFM 6 Exhibit I and AFB 296, Statement of character Exhibit J

B74507 SGT CAMERON, J.A., on strength of C.A.C.T.U. having been duly sworn states:

"I am B74507 SGT CAMERON, J.A.,on strength of C.A.C. Trg Unit, employed as Duty Sgt for Tank Sqn. At 0630 hrs, 28 Dec 44, I was in charge of Tank Sqn morning parade. I called the roll and the accused, whom I now recognize, failed to answer his name. Also, I was in charge of all parades and duties from 23 Dec 44, up to and including 28 Dec 44. The accused failed to answer his name and was not detailed for any duties from23 Dec 44 up to and including 28 Dec 44. At approximately 2000 hrs, 28 Dec 44, the accused, reported to me at the Sgt's Mess. I accompanied him to the Sqn Orderly Room to check on Absentee Reports. I then conducted him to the guard room where I turned him over, under close arrest to the M.P. on duty."

The accused declines to question this witness.

FORM "E"

Plea in mitigation in the case of (AB)

Tpr. Lawrence, R.A.

In respect to the first charge against the accused, the following points are brought to the attention of the court:

(1) The period of absence, to which the accused has entered a plea of 'guilty', was over the Christmas season. This period is normally considered as different from the rest of the year.

(2) The only reason this man was put up for trial by F.G.C.M. was because he had been charged with a large loss of kit; for which he was not guilty; otherwise his case would have been dealt with by the C.O.

(3) The accused surrendered himself voluntarily. There was no intention, on his part, to absent himself for a long period.

(4) The accused has had a drum record for about two years — during his period of service in an operational theatre.

Signed

Submission to Court under AW 40 G.S.G.T. 10 Jan 45. FORM Ex'd

It is submitted that the prosecution, in failing to prove that the articles of kit mentioned in the second charge, were on charge to the accused on 29 Dec 44, has failed to establish a prima facie case and that the accused should, therefore, not be called upon for his defence.

INSTRUCTIONS ON PROCEDURE AFTER ARRAIGNMENT.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated:

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p ■ 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See MML p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C); powers and duties of JA see RP 103; duty of Prosecutor see RP 60(A) (B); duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 85-85; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court etc see RP 75-79, 86, 116; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6; and responsibility of JA or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President ~~shall read the~~ F.G.T, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s) ~~he has~~ F.G.T call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s)(1). If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans No. (5)

(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3. MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. ~~The Court considers the accused's statement~~ (1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his ~~plea(s)~~ of Guilty to Not Guilty on First charge(1). The accused is (~~are~~) so informed, ~~and he (they) (his) (their) plea(s) on charge(s) Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly~~.

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (~~are~~) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)

(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex "A", initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)

(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)

(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)

(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? Ans No. (1)

(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes ~~(an)~~ (no) opening address.(1) F.G.T.

(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)

(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Can 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the Second charge(s)(1). F.G.T. The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(2) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is ~~disallowed~~ F.G.T on the ~~charge(s), and~~ F.G.T allowed on the Second charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (~~are~~) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s)(3)(4) F.G.T.

(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)

NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither ?

Ans ..... Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf ?

Ans ..... Are they witnesses as to character only ? Ans .....

(1. RP 155. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)

(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order, CF A95. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 86(C). Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 103(e).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.

(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the ..... charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1)

Or, The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.(2)

(1. AA 54(3) (6), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character ?(1)

Ans No.

(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), and certified true copy ~~(ies)~~ of Conduct Sheet(s)(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(1) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex "B" and Ex "C" respectively.(3) F.G.T.

(1. MFB 355 or AFB 296. 2. MFM 6. 3. RP 46, KR Con 558. If above documents not produced, see RP 46 fn 1 para 1.)

E3. President to accused: Do you wish to address the Court on the Statement(s) and Conduct Sheet(s), and in mitigation of punishment ?(1) Ans Plea of mitigation read by Defending Offr. See Ex "E" (2) F.G.T. F.G.T.

(1. RP 37(C), 46(D). 2. Address, if any, recorded per Notes. Court should permit accused or his witnesses to prove on oath anything here or previously stated which would affect the amount of punishment. RP 37(F) fn 7.)

E4. The President states that the Court is closed to consider the sentence, and that the sentence to be awarded by the Court, being subject to confirmation, will not be announced, but will be promulgated later, and the proceedings in open court are accordingly terminated.(1)

(1. AA 54(6), RP 120(A).)

E5. The Court considers the sentence.(1) The President records the sentence in Part I of the Schedule, which is dated and signed by him ~~and the J.A. if any~~.(2) F.G.T.

(*1. When several accused tried separately see RP 7(D). One sentence only, comprised of the punishment or punishments laid down in AA 41, 44 and its proviso, is to be awarded to cover all charges in all charge sheets on which accused found guilty. RP 48. As to sentences see AA 44, 138, 182, RP 46-50, 69, 118, 119(A), KR Can 308, 330, 563-566, Overseas RO 309, 2323, MML p 60, 757-759. As to sentences assigned for civil offences by the law of England see AA 41(5), MML p 130. When accused already under sentence of imprisonment or detention see AA 44(1B), 68(1), KR Can 564. 2. RP 50. CANADIAN ARMY ENGLAND

in the case of

H-26658, Tpr. Ross Adelard LAWRENCE, of No. 2 Canadian Armoured Corps Reinforcement Unit, a soldier of the Canadian Army (Overseas).

By direction of the Commanding Officer, this summary of evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS for the prosecution

Captain, W.S. Thomson, No. 2 C.A.C.R.U., having been duly sworn, states:-

"While acting as the Adjutant, No. 2 C.A.C.R.U., on the 29th September, 1943, I received certain correspondence, which I will present as Exhibits. First was a letter, from the A/A.A. & Q.M.G., C.R.U., enclosing a censors report and three letters in one envelope, addressed to Mrs. R. Lawrence, Regina, Sask., and bearing the return address on the reverse side, H-26658, Tpr. Lawrence, R.A., "C" Squadron, No. 2 C.A.C.R.U., Canadian Army Overseas. The letter from C.R.U., I present as exhibit "A", referred to certain objectionable remarks in the letter written by Tpr. Lawrence. I present the censors report, dated 21 Sep 43, as exhibit "B". As exhibit "C", I present the letter commencing with the greeting 'Dear Chillun' and signed 'Ross'. The letter was dated 9 Sep 43. One paragraph read as follows:- 'How is the daughter and heir to the family fortune? Whatever you do don't let her join the C.W.A.C's. I hear they do nasty things (The C.W.A.C's) I mean. Oh, well, I could think of worse occupations -- Besides, look at the market for those things these days. Oh yes - mercenary little buggars, those girls. Thank Goodness I'm pure.'"

The accused requested that the letters, exhibit's "A" and "B" be read to him. This was done.

(W.S. Thomson), Captain.

The accused declined to cross examine the witness.

The accused, desiring to make a statement was warned in accordance with Rules of Procedure 4 (c) "You are not obliged to say anything, or give any evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say, or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing, and may be given in evidence.

The accused then stated:-

"The letter was written in jest, the whole tone of the letter showed that, and I knew that whatever was in there would be taken as a joke by the addressee. No degratory remarks were intended, and I didn't realize that it could be misconstrued to mean anything against the character of the C.W.A.C's.

Dear Chillun:

Hi Gates, whats cookin?

I presume you have had the tale of the bad, bad laurence, unfolded on your understanding shoulders, and that you think I am about the blackest-hearted bitch that ever drew breath -- well you have ½ a point there, but not it all. You see, as the Bishop said to the actress "I've got provocation." and thus the aforementioned statement doth apply to yours truly.

However, I suppose you know it all by now, so I shall rest the rather boring details of a poor little boy gone astray.

How is the daughter and heir to the family fortune? Whatever you do don't let her join the CWAACS. I hear they do nasty things (The CWACS I mean. oh well I could think of worse occupations -- Beside look at the market for those things these days -- oh yes -- mercenary little buggars, those girls. Thank Goodness I'm pure.

Now that the bullshit session is over lets get down to a real family chat.

I haven't heard any more news concerning Richard's welfare, I certainly hope something comes through. Whatever it may be.

Well I suppose Judy is almost big enough now to slap my face, if I tried to take her out -- I'll bet sh's cute as hell -takes after her uncle they tell me.

Well I guess thats just about enough, so I'll ring off for now. Please write soon.

In summing up the evidence and in receiving the case -

The accused joined the army in May 1940 and came overseas in Nov. 41. His M.F.H.Q. shows that he has been a reasonably good soldier as he has only two previous service charges against him.

The accused has two brothers in the R.C.A.F. One a Wing Commander in action in the east at present.

The letter written to his sister referred to her 3 year old daughter and was written in a joking manner. It had no intention to harm the character of any service of the U.S. army.

Since the accused enlisted he has completed his education and has attained the degree of L.L.B. This studying was done in his spare time in the evenings.

In view of the above it is hoped that the court will take a liberal view of the letter which was written in a joking manner and had no intention of harming the service of U.S.A.

Richard Bryan.

Exhibit "E"
DH

Statement of Major Burton M. McAlary, RCAPC.
on strength of #1 C.C.R.H.

I am Paymaster (11) of #1 C.C.R.H. From 9 Jun 43 to 27 Sep 43 I was Paymaster (21) of London Detachment Acton

Paybook, WBM2, Part II issued to A 34849, Lawrence, Lester Jay, dated respectively from 1 Feb 43 to 31 Jul 43 and 1 Aug 43 to 31 Mar 44 and marked Exhibits "B" and "C" have been shown to me. The signatures "B.M. McAlary" on page 11 of Exhibit "B" are mine, also the first three signatures on page 7 of Exhibit "C"

When transferring balances from an old paybook to the new I always check the balance. Exhibit "C" presented to me for examination on 10 Aug 44 shows a total credit on the first line of page 6 of $378.34, whereas the credit should be $278.34. The free credit balance on page 11 of Exhibit "B" is 33.34 and this free credit balance of 33.34 was carried forward to the first line of page 7, Exhibit "C" and signed by me. Exhibit "C" presented to me for examination now shows a free credit balance on first line of page 7 of 133.34 In the second line of pages 6 and 7, Exhibit "C" the credits for August 1943 pay and subsistence allowances were entered in and the free credit balance entered was 127.34 when I signed the paybook. I observe that Exhibit "C" shown to me for examination on 10 Aug 44 shows a free credit balance of 227.34. These alterations being an increase of $100.00 in each case since I signed the paybook Exhibit C. were not made by me or with my knowledge or consent.

The last two entries opposite my signatures on pages 14 and 15 of Exhibit "A" are in the handwriting of Cpl. S.C. Reading (deposed to above). The entries in the second line of pages 6 and 7 of Exhibit "B", as originally made, are in the handwriting of Sgt. Crawford (deposed to above).

J. Harry Capt.

London 10 August 1944.

Exhibit "D"

Statement of Capt John T. Parry, RCASC, on strength London Detachment RCAPC.

From April 1942 to September 1943 I was paymaster at #1 C.G.R.U.

I know A 34849 Gnr Lawrence L.J. RCAPC during the above period he was employed in my office at C.G.R.U. from approximately 15 Jan 43 to 12 Feb 43. At that time his application for transfer to RCAPC was pending and he was in my office for instruction. He had nothing to do with making entries in paybooks. The men chiefly responsible for making such entries were experienced clerks. The senior NCO's in the office were Sgt. C.A. Cranford and Cpl. Reading (now Sgt) both of them had been bank accountants before entering the army. They had both been employed in my office from April 1942 until after 12 February 1943. I am familiar with their handwriting.

W.D.A.M.1, Part II issued to A 34849 Lawrence Lance Jack dated respectively from 1 Jul 42 to 31 Jan 43 and 1 Feb 43 to 31 Jul 43 and marked Exhibit "A" and "B" have been shown to me. The signatures "J.T. Parry" on the last three lines of page 15, Exhibit "A" are mine also the first three signatures on page 7 of Exhibit "B". My invariable custom is, to check that all figures brought forward in a new paybook are in agreement with the balances shown in the paybook which has been withdrawn for verification of balances. Referring particularly to the first two lines of pages 6 and 7 of Exhibit "B" certain figures have been altered since I signed the entries. The figures in the

Having read over my statement, I wish to add the following:-

I wish to add that my account in the Chase National Bank of New York in London, has been in operation for over two years, with always enough in deposit.

I have a Brother-in-Law in England who at the asking will loan me as much as I ask for, within reason. If I asked for £300. he'd loan it to me. I have other friends in England who would loan me money for the asking. If I wired to the States I could get up to $600.00 a year.

I give this added statement to show that I don't have to change figures in paybooks to gain the sum of $133.00, knowing that this would in the end be caught.

L. J. Lawrence

over the sum of £300. Exhibit "C" the closing figures show that my credit balance under my knowledge was $76.77. In my current pay book my Free Balance shows that it has always been above the average with the exception of one time when there was a misunderstanding in figures where, instead of receiving £7. I received £17. reducing my Free Balance which I was trying to build up.

If I had altered figures in exhibit "B" and, knowing that they would show up upon audit at the Treasury Office, I would be very foolish to alter another set of figures in a book following the book already in the possession of the Treasury Office.

In exhibit "C" the figures show $33.34 and have been increased to $133.34, showing an erasure in the work. If I was going to raise figures, I never would erase and then put the same figures back adding $100 to increase the Free Balance.

Evidence of the accused continued 16 Aug 44.

I have Deposit Slips in my possession that I would like to present at this time for evidence to show that it is not necessary for me to falsify figures to gain extra money.

The witness produced the following documents in evidence :-

Confirmation slip for £24. 14s 6d d/10 Mar 44 from the Chase National Bank of New York marked exhibit "F".

Confirmation slip for £24. 13s 2d d/11 Apr 44 from the Chase National Bank, marked exhibit "G".

I certify that the foregoing Summary of Evidence, consisting of ~~four~~ 4 pages, was taken down by me in the presence of the accused on the 15th and 16th Aug 44, and that RP 4 (C), (D), (E), (F) and (G) have been complied with.

Officer Detailed to take Summary of Evidence.

The accused was cautioned as follows:-

Q. Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

A. I want to make a statement.

Q. On oath or not on oath?

A. On oath.

The accused, sworn, states:-

If the figures of my free balances in the opening of exhibit "A" to the closing of exhibit "A" were observed, it would be noted that I always carry a substantial free balance, never having been overdrawn in my accounts. When I left Capt.Parry's office to report to the Chief Paymaster's Office in Acton for duty, my pay book was not in my possession. Not having checked my figures in my previous book I took it for granted that the opening accounts in exhibit "B" was correct inasmuch as the Captain's signature was after the figures. If I thought that these figures was an excess of what I should have had, to save my self a lot of grief in the end, I would have called his attention to it and had it straightened out immediately. When exhibit "B" was called in for audit on July 31st, 1943, why was not that error noted upon auditing of that book, instead of letting it ride for a whole year? If my figures in the Free Balance in exhibit "B" is noted, it can easily be seen that, even with an excess of $30.00, my Free Balance was always over the average.

When I left from Paymaster 2's office,C.M.H.Q. to return to Capt.Paul's office, Paymaster (1), C.M.H.Q. for duty, I had left my pay book, exhibit "B" in the hands of the Pay Clerk at C.M.H.Q.Details, Paymaster (2). Two or three days after I was down with Capt. Paul, my new pay book was forwarded to me. The figures as entered in the pay book now were those as received by me. Being under the opinion that my pay books have always been over the average in Free Balance, I paid no attention to these amounts, taking it for granted that my pay book was in perfect condition. If I had the idea that there was something wrong in the pay book, and having been in the Pay Corps and knowing the workings of the Treasury Office where they find even a penny error, I would have been foolish not to have jumped the gun and called the attention of this error to my Paymaster, instead of waiting and letting it slide with the possibility of serious charges arising.

I have sufficient money, both on deposit and at the Bank in London, and money in two Banks in the States where I can draw, without having to falsify figures in a pay book for the sake of $130.00; I have Deposit Slips in my home in Lancaster that will show that in the year of 1944 I have had deposited to my account monies from both the United States and from England

Q. If pay books were presented to you a year after you had made a signature to an entry in his book, would you be able to swear that those figures were in that book when you signed for them sir?

A. Yes.

Q. If you were going to raise figures on a pay book and there was $33.00 in the pay book and you wanted to raise it to $133.00, how would you raise that to $133.00?

A. The question would never arise as I would never attempt to do such a thing.

Q. If a person wanted to raise his pay book from $33.00 to $133.00, what would be the easiest way for them to do it?

A. By adding a one in front of the three.

Q. Captain, would it be ridiculous to cause an erasure and then add the one which leaves the alteration of the figures standing out?

A. Not being a hand-writing expert I would not like to express an opinion.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE.

Summary of Evidence in the case of No. A.34849 Pte. (L/Cpl) Lawrence, L.J., Unit Pay Detachment, R.C.A.P.C., C.A.O., charged with, while on Active Service, knowingly and with intent to defraud, altering documents which it was his duty to preserve (2 Charges under A.A.Sec.25.(2)).

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the evidence is taken on oath.

First Witness. Capt. J. Rodgers, Paymaster and Adjutant, Unit Pay Detachment, R.C.A.P.C., sworn states :-

I am Capt. John Rodgers, Paymaster & Adjutant, Unit Pay Detachment, R.C.A.P.C. I have examined the pay books (M.B.M.1. Part II) now shown to me. These pay books were issued to A.34849 Pte. (L/Cpl) Lawrence, L.J. covering the periods 1 Jul 42 to 31 Jan 43, 1 Feb 43 to 31 Jul 43 and 1 Aug 43 to 31 Mar 44. These have been marked exhibits "A", "B" and "C" respectively. An examination of exhibit "A" shows the closing balance in the book as $27.32 Credit. The opening balance in exhibit "B" shows $57.32 Credit, an excess of $30.00. As a result of this excess of $30.00, this soldier did receive cash on 27 Feb 43, A.R.#61 line 6 pages 6 and 7 in excess of his entitlements. The closing balance of exhibit "B" shows $35.34 Credit. The opening balance in exhibit "C" shows $135.34 balance credit. As a result of the $100.00 excess shown this soldier did receive cash in excess of his entitlement on 3 Dec 43, A.R.#630, line 6, pages 8 and 9. By 18 Feb 44, A.R.#811, line 5 of exhibit "C" pages 10 and 11, this soldier had been paid $156.60 in excess of his entitlement.

The M.B.M.1. Part II is issued to a soldier and is used to record his debits and credits of pay and allowances. It is the soldier's personal record of his pay account. Pay books are used for a period and then withdrawn and replaced with a new book, the balances of the old book being transferred to the new book on opening. Soldiers are not permitted to make any entries or alterations in their books. They must carry their books on their persons at all times, only being away from them when the Paymaster requires the books to make entries. It is a soldier's duty to preserve and keep his pay book in good condition. These instructions are embodies on page 1 of the M.B.M.1. Part II for the information of the soldier.

L/Cpl.Lawrence was transferred to the Unit Pay Det., R.C.A.P.C. from London Detachment, R.C.A.P.C. on 20 Apr 44. Since being T.O.S. here he has been employed in the D.A & A.P. Sub-Section of this office checking marriage documentation. He has not been employed on pay books in this Unit.

Cross examined by accused :-

Q. How long have you been paying troops?

A. Since August 41.

(EE Wasson) Capt
JAG Rep 2

This ruling refers to laying the charge under section 18(5) and my learned friend suggested that these charges might have been laid under section 18(5). Note 11 under this section refers to it (reads) and I submit that section 25(2) is the proper section under which to lay charges against a man charged with altering his pay book. The charges have been passed as so laid by the Legal Officer and being of a fraudulent nature under KR(Can) 540 must be approved by a representative of the JAG Branch so that we might say already the ruling of NDHQ has been over-ruled by CMHQ. Therefore, I submit that there is sufficient to put the accused on his defence.

I point out again as I argued before this Court the other day that you are not now finding the accused guilty of the offences but are deciding whether there is sufficient evidence to require an explanation on his part and that this being one of those cases in which the accused, being in possession of the books, is the best one to explain the alterations in those books.

DEP: I must say there is not the slightest evidence before this Court to indicate that at the time these changes were made the books were in the possession of the accused. I am sorry to interrupt but I must correct the impression. No witness stated the accused was in possession at the time the alterations were made.

PROS: The charges are that the accused between certain dates made alterations and those dates are quite wide. They are the dates of issue and withdrawal and the books were issued to the accused. Therefore, there is evidence of possession in that sense.

a false credit balance of $130.00 and that that credit operated to deprive the government of that amount. The only person who could possibly benefit by the alterations is the accused and at the present time he has benefitted by having that extra money from time to time upon which he has drawn. Therefore, the submission of the prosecution is that there is sufficient evidence to put the accused on his defence and explain how it is that these alterations which were to his benefit and to the detriment of the Canadian Government were made. It has been shown that the charges in this case were made after the paymasters, Capt. Peary and Major McAlary, had signed the entries. That is to say the soldier did not receive these extra monies by a mistake of these particular paymasters at the time the entries were made in the books. Someone has raised the amounts. It is therefore submitted that it is for the accused to give a satisfactory explanation. If he gives a rational explanation then the rule which the Defending Officer just cited will apply. I wish to refer to MML on the question of 'Burden of Proof' at page 73, the third paragraph of section 13 (reads). I submit that this is one of those cases where knowledge of what happened is within the knowledge of the accused and it is up to him to explain.

On the question of the duty of a soldier to preserve his pay book, the 2nd note to the section itself, section 25(2), refers to the duty to preserve and that the Court may use their own military knowledge in determining any question relating thereto. This is a case arising under that section. I further submit that in this case the duty to preserve it is in the same form as it was issued to him. It is definitely his duty not to make any alterations. That is not only stated in the instructions but I submit it is a part of our common knowledge that soldiers must not interfere with the entries in their pay books. Note 5 to this section further refers to the particulars under such charges and the power of the Court to use their military knowledge and refers to the examples on page 728, Specimen Charge-Sheets Nos. 74 and 75. We know very well that it is the duty of a soldier to preserve his pay book and at certain periods he must hand in his pay book to the pay office. Meanwhile, in between those periods, he must keep and preserve it in the condition he received it.

As to the dates in the charges before the Court, these dates were put in obviously because the books have those dates on the back and it is between those dates that the alterations have been made. Obviously if the pay book was altered when not in his possession then it was when in the possession of the pay office. If the Court find him guilty they must find him guilty of doing so when the books were in his possession. He had possession except when they were called in. That, I submit, deals with the first and second submissions of my learned friend.

The next point is the ruling shown in the Extract of Opinions issued by NDHQ. This actually is the first time I have seen it. There is no question about the first sentence (reads). If that applies to this case, it is not the duty of the soldier to make or complete his pay book. I admit it. Going on with the extract (reads). That weakens this ruling because it has no relation to anything we have here. The only thing I can say is that personally I disagree with it. I think it is wrong and I wish to point out that their rulings do not bind the Court and are liable to be changed at any time. [illegible] intent to defraud alter those pay books. All three paymasters say that do not know who did it. Two of them say they were not suggesting the accused did it. It is evident that many people handled the books, that the books could have and did pass through other hands in delivering them to the accused and that there were innumerable erasures and changes. Some of them are against him and some are in his favor. In the light of that confused evidence if the Court bears in mind its primary duty that if there is a reasonable doubt the accused must be given the benefit of that doubt we say that the Court can hardly find him guilty of the charges.

There are so many further aspects to this case, which make it impossible that this man could have done this very serious crime with which he is charged. The alterations are stupid and obvious; no-one but a fool would make them and no-one but a fool would expect that they would go beyond hours or days without being caught. Then we see that it is not done once but twice. Surely a man who is transferring to the Pay Corps for the 1st time is not going to make alterations in his pay book. Surely if he does so once he will not do so a second time. Surely since he knows no-one can get away with any money, that if the Paymaster does not find it the Audit Board will, he will not do it. A man in the Pay Corps, knowing all this, is the last man in the world you would expect to do this or be likely to do this.

This entire case is based upon circumstantial evidence, the fact that the alterations were made and the fact that the accused did not declare them. Surely if paymasters do not see them you do not expect ordinary soldiers to see them? A chap who keeps large balances you do not expect to check his account closely. I do not think any one of you in this room can tell within £20 or £30 what you have unless you are broke. A person with a large balance does not know but when he is near the line or broke he does know. Lawrence had and has large balances. The evidence is purely circumstantial. There is an absolute iron-clad rule in law in regard to circumstantial evidence and that is that not only must it be consistent with the guilt of the accused but inconsistent with any other rational explanation. There is no evidence that he altered them with intent to defraud in view of the evidence before this Court as to how those books were kept and the number of fellows who handled them.

My submission is that it is not possible for any Court of law to hold that the evidence in this case can exclude any other possible rational explanation of how these things came about. It is so fantastic to suggest that he did so that I submit the Court should dismiss the case at the present time as no prima facie case has been made out.

PROSECUTOR

May it please the Court:

The charges which the prosecution have brought are that he knowingly and with intent to defraud altered these documents. Intention is not possible of positive proof. It can only be inferred from overt acts and it is only on the evidence of these acts that the Court can base a finding that it is done with fraudulent intent. What we have shown here is that the paybooks issued to the accused were altered. We have not any witness who said that they were altered by the accused but it has been shown that they were altered so as to give him

In the second place, it is alleged that on the 1st of February 43 it was in his possession. They allege that that pay book was in his possession from the 1 Feb 43 to the 31st of July. They say it was in his possession continuously during that time. That is what is alleged. Had they described it as the pay book for that period it would have been accurate and correct, but as they are laid at present the charges have as an essential ingredient "altered a pay book in his possession for the period from 1 February 1943 and 31 July 1943." The evidence does not bear that out. And in the second charge from "1 August 1943 to 31 March 1944". The argument is the same in respect to both charges; one is in the same position as the other. The evidence of the prosecution witnesses is that for long periods of time the pay books were not in the possession of the accused. Capt. Peary was prepared to say that some time after the 27th of January until after the 12th of February the book was in his possession or in his office and not in the possession of the accused at all, and we have the evidence of them being turned in regularly. It is possible that proper charges might have been framed but the charges here have not been proved. The prosecution's own witnesses have disproved it and the prosecution must fail.

The third point, Section 25(2) of "The Army Act" reads as follows (reads Sec. 25(2)). Note 5 thereunder reads as follows (reads Note 5). The duty there mentioned is to retain documents for the Army, such as the paymaster his Acquittance Rolls and Pay Rolls and the QMS his documents but not the case of a soldier who has to keep possession of his book and then turn it back. I am born out in this statement by the Digest of Opinions and Rulings compiled from the Records of the Office of the Judge Advocate General at NDHQ. I refer to page 23. They say quite plainly,--

> "A charge under Sec. 25 of the Army Act must relate "to a document which, in respect of the accused, it is "his duty to make or complete. The section would not "extend to something which, because the accused is a "soldier, he has a right to do of his own volition, such, "for instance, as an application for dependents' allow-"ance on form M.F.M. 16. A false statement in such a "document might be the subject of a charge under Sec. "18(5) with an alternative under Sec. 40 but not under "Sec. 25."

It is not his duty for a document to be held or kept; it is in connection with a document it is his duty to make and complete. No-one has suggested that L/Cpl Lawrence had any duty to make out his pay book or to complete the entries in his pay book.

My submission is that, assuming for the purpose of argument that L/Cpl Lawrence did make the changes, which we deny, never-the-less the charges have been wrongly laid. They might have been laid under section 18 or section 40 but NDHQ says that section 25 applies only to documents which the accused has a duty to make and complete. My submission is that as laid the charges cannot be made out, that the Court should dismiss the case at this stage for no matter what the evidence is it cannot possibly succeed.

Now dealing with the facts themselves, assuming the charges are correct, which we deny, no Court of English justice can in conscience on the evidence we have had before us today suggest that L/Cpl Lawrence did knowingly or with

Q No-one gets away with it?
A No, they do not.

Q I suppose you will agree with me that human beingsworking on them that there are all kinds of errors and alterations in pay books?
A No, not all sorts.

Q They are not unusual are they?
A Mechanical errorsare unusual.

Q There is one page on which there is at least one dozen alterations (indicates)?
A That is right but that is not the usual thing in handling pay books. Pay book errors are usually from lack of field advice catching up with the pay books.

Q You will agree that there are a number there?
A Yes and I have seen some books as bad as that but it is not usual.

Q I suppose that it is fair to say that because of the human element it is not infrequent that there are alterations?
A There are alterations necessary.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RULE OF PROCEDURE 83(B)

The Witness withdraws.

The Prosecution is closed.

D-4 SUBMISSION OF "NO CASE"

DEFENDING OFFICER

I have a submission to make to this Court based upon 3 grounds; the first two are legal grounds and the third is a question of making out a prima facie case and as to how that should be interpreted in law.

In the first place it will be noted that in both these charges the accused is charged with that "knowingly and with intent to defraud altering a document which it was his duty to preserve" and which was in his possession from 1st Feb 43 to 31 July 43 and from 1st August 43 to 31st March 44 respectively. My submission is that in the first instance we have had before us no evidence upon which this Court can in law come to the conclusion that the accused had a duty to preserve that book. The instructions are placed and appear in the books and state that he must not lose by neglect, must not alter it and must have it with him when he goes on sick parade, to the hospital and when leaving his unit. The prosecution has always in British justice the onus of establishing the case beyond reasonable doubt. All they have shown here is that the accused must not do certain things with his book and must at certain times have it but have not made out a case that it was his duty at all times to preserve that book. If they have made out that case, which I say they have not, then the evidence proves that the accused did preserve the books. There are the books right there. He turned them in and there they are. He did not lose them. He is not charged with altering them. He is charged under sec 25(2) of the Army Act with 'intent to defraud'. My submission is that they have not made out a case and, if they have, then their own witnesses proved that he did preserve them. They were turned in and the accused has discharged his duty and cannot be held guilty in that respect.

Q Yes.
A There would be around the 1000, may be 1200.

Q And how many pay clerks would you have?
A I had 2 there handling military pay and I also have 2 on civilian pay.

Q And the figures you gave, 1000 to 1200, were for military pay?
A Yes.

Q And those 2 clerks could make all the entries in a new pay book within 48 hours and get them back?
A It is possible.

Q Was that not the case?
A Your question was 'could they' and I say yes.

Q Did they?
A I will qualify that since your previous question and say that some of those books would go back before 48 hours and some might be over but the average would be about 48 hours

Q And I suppose you will agree with me that in some instances some books might be held up for a period of several days. That is fair?
A Yes.

Q Now these pay books are turned in every 6 months for audit?
A Yes.

Q I do not suppose you have any personal knowledge when the matter of these alterations came to light?
A No, I have not.

Q If I were to tell you August 44 you would not have any reason to dispute that?
A No.

Q Is there any reason why an alteration made in August 43 should not be picked up before August 44?
A Yes. There is.

Q What is it?
A The book was not put in for audit until some time after-- in March 44.

Q But I suppose that normally these discrepancies are picked up in much quicker time?
A A discrepancy of this kind would not be picked up.

Q They would have the soldier's ledger sheet?
A But it is not in the same place as the pay book.

Q When the pay book was turned in?
A They should pick it up.

Q A discrepancy made 6 months earlier should be picked up also?
A I do not know exactly what you mean. This pay book was turned in March 44 and 6 months previous to that would be October. There is no reason why they should pick up a discrepancy in October when the pay book was in the soldier's possession.

Q It is a fact from your own knowledge that all discrepancies in pay books are invariably picked up?
A Yes.

Q I understand that the average period of time from turning in a pay book to receiving back the pay book varies from 2 to 5 days. Would that be your experience?
A No.

Q What would you estimate it at?
A 48 hours.

Q Invariably?
A You asked me the average time in my experience. The average is 48 hours.

Q In each department you have been at?
A Yes.

Q I suppose it does happen that men go on leave or on holiday or to the hospital even and they leave in a rush without their pay books?
A I have had some experience. Not now.

Q The interval of time between turning in an old pay book and getting a new one back is usually longer than the interval when a soldier turns in his current pay book and gets the same one back. Is that true?
A The word 'usually'. I would not say usually. There may be cases. I would not say usually at all.

Q Then is the opposite true that the interval between turning in and issuing a new pay books is no longer than the interval between turning in and turning back the same pay book?
A It is hard to answer that question 'yes' or 'no'. It all depends upon circumstances.

Q That would depend upon the number of books and the size of the staff?
A Yes.

Q It varies depending upon circumstances?
A Absolutely.

Q I do not suppose that you have any idea by whom those alterations were made?
A No, Sir.

Q You are not suggesting that they were made by Lawrence?
A I am not answering that question.

Q I am asking if you are suggesting Lawrence made those alterations?
A I made the statement the items had been changed but I do not know by whom.

Q You are not suggesting here they were made by Lawrence. You do not know?
A I do not know who made the changes.

Q Approximately how many pay books would you handle in your office?
A At that particular time?

Q At Acton?
A At Acton there were 750 to 800 in addition to the casuals. The total number you mean by the month?

Q Yes. It was perfectly obvious to you and it seemed perfectly obvious to me. Can you give any reason why it should not have been obvious to these other men?
A They would not have the other book to compare it.

Q Neither would L/Cpl Lawrence? The old pay book would be kept there?
A No.

Q You say they appear obvious to you and they appear obvious to me. Can you tell me any reason why they should not be picked up by the man who signed later?
A There is no reason why he would not notice the alteration.

Q But he might assume that it was a normal alteration?
A Yes. That it was a correct balance.

Q You said that a new paymaster would not have the old book to check the balance?
A That is right.

Q You keep the old books?
A We keep them and then they are forwarded to the archives.

Q They are not returned to the soldier?
A Oh, no.

Q He would not have access to his old book to check with his old balance?
A That is right.

Q I understand, Sir, that Lawrence was attached from your pay office at Acton to the pay office at 2 Cockspur Street during the 1st. week in August?
A That is right.

Q I understand further that his pay book, his new pay book was not delivered to him before he left but was sent by courier to 2 Cockspur Street. Have you any memory of that?
A No.

Q Have you any reason to say that might not happen?
A It should not happen.

Q But that does happen. I suppose there would be records available somewhere in your office to show whether it was forwarded?
A I don't know.

Q If Lawrence were to say that is what happened would you have any reason to deny it?
A I might like to ask him a question if he did.

Q You would have no reason to disbelieve it?
A I suppose the answer is yes.

Q You would have reason?
A No. The answer is no. The book should go with the man.

Q That does not always work out. There is an Army regulation that pay books should be held for no more than 48 hours. I think you will agree with me that they are kept longer than that sometimes?
A I do not know. There may be extenuating circumstances. Probably he did not pick it up.

Q Do you know the accused, L/Cpl Lawrence?
A I recognize him (indicates the accused). I know him, yes.

Q Was he at your detachment when you were there?
A Yes, he was.

Q Were the changes in those figures you point out made with your knowledge?
A No, Sir.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER.

Q In Exhibit "B", the last entry, after the 33.34 there appears to be another one which has been crossed out?
A That is right.

Q Can you tell me anything about that?
A The entry you refer to appears to be the credit for August pay and as the pay book for July should have been withdrawn before a new pay book was issued the entry having been made in the old pay book it would be erased and the figure put in the new pay book.

Q That was an entry made by 1 of the clerks and afterwards crossed out?
A I think so, yes.

Q These original entries in the beginning of Exhibit "C" would be made by 1 of your clerks?
A The original entries, yes.

Q Before it was submitted to you for signatures?
A That is right.

Q After you had signed it the book would go back to 1 of your clerks?
A Yes.

Q And in due course would be delivered to L/Cpl Lawrence?
A Yes.

Q And Capt. Peary has told us the practice at his office is that during the period after the old books are turned in and while new ones are being entered up that they often call on Orderly Room clerks who are not ordinary pay clerks? Would that practice be followed in your office?
A No, Sir.

Q You do it all by pay clerks?
A Yes.

Q Had the book been in its present condition when it was submitted for signature would you have signed it?
A No.

Q I would think not. I suppose you agree with me that the alterations are crude and noticeable?
A I will.

Q Can you give me any reason why those alterations should not have been immediately picked up by subsequently signing paymasters who put their name right below it?
A I see no reason why they could not.

Q Who issued that pay book Exhibit "C"?
A That would be issued by the Detachment at Acton.

Q Whose signature appears?
A My signature.

Q Your signature appears at the top of the page?
A Yes.

Q And who was the officer responsible for the issue of that book?
A I was.

Q Will you compare the balances between the 2 books and explain to the Court what you find?
A There is a difference of $100.00.

Q How does that arise?
A The last balance of the previous book is 33.34 and the opening balance in the new book is 133.34.

Q A difference in the sum of $100.00?
A That is right, $100.00.

Q Referring to the credit entry on page 6 1st line what is the figure that now appears?
A 378.34, that is page 6 of Exhibit "C".

Q Is that the correct figure for that credit balance?
A Do you mean is that the correct figure for the credit?

Q Yes.
A It is the correct figure for the figures shown now in Exhibit "C".

Q Assuming the credit balance is 33.34, is it correct?
A No. Assuming that the correct credit balance is 33.34 the total credit shown on page 6 should be 278.34.

Q What were the figures that were there when you signed opposite the figures on Exhibit "C"?
A The figures would be 278.34 and the credit balance would be the same as carried forward from Exhibit "B", namely, 33.34.

Q Look at the second entry on page 7 Exhibit "C". What have you to say?
A The credit balance should be 127.34 whereas it is 227.34.

Q What were the figures when you signed?
A 127.34.

Q Do you know what date you made those signatures?
A It would be made sometime between.....

Q The third entry on page 6 of this pay book is dated 16 August 43. Would it be made prior to that?
A Yes, made prior to 16th August 1943.

Q What is your practice in entering up balances from an old book to a new one?
A The practice is to carry.....

Q Your practice. What is your practice?
A My practice is to carry forward the balance as shown on the old pay book to the new pay book and the balances are checked from the old to the new before it is signed by me.

Q Did you check those particular books?
A I did.

Q And had those alterations been there when they came up you would have initialled them or caught them?
A I would have initialled them but I would not say that I would have caught them. If they were not apparent I would not have caught them.

Q Will you agree with me that despite the Army regulations that pay books should not be kept for more than 48 hours that as a matter of necessity and practice they are often kept for days?
A It does happen.

Q I understand that this matter of alterations was first brought up in the month of August 44?
A I have not been conversant with it.

Q If you will take my word for it, can you give me any sound reason why the over-payment or over-credit to Lawrence should go from February 43 to August 44 without being brought to his attention or anybody elses?
A No, I cannot give any reason for it.

Q Seems peculiar, does it not?
A Yes, it does.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RULE OF PROCEDURE 83(B)

The Witness withdraws.

THIRD WITNESS for the Prosecution — Major Burton M McAlary, RCAPC, having been duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor:--

Q You are Major Burton M McAlary?
A Yes.

Q You are now paymaster at CGRU?
A I am.

Q Were you at one time with the London Detachment at Acton?
A Yes.

Q What period?
A Between, approximately June 8th or 9th to September, around 27th September.

Q What year?
A 1943.

Q I show you 2 documents. Referring you to Exhibit "B" and to Exhibit "C", look at pages 10 and 11 of Exhibit "B". Whose signatures are opposite all the entries on page 11?
A On page 11 my signatures.

Q What is the final credit balance opposite the last signature?
A 33.34.

Q And looking at Exhibit "C" whose are the first 2 signatures opposite the credit balances on page 7?
A The first two signatures are mine.

Q You have told us that Lawrence was being transferred to the Pay Corps and was at your office for instruction. Will you agree with me that it would be the absolute heighth of folly for any person intending to transfer to the Pay Corps to make alterations in his pay book?

A It would appear so.

Q Examining these alterations on page 7 of Exhibit "B" they are the most obvious alterations possible?

A Quite so.

Q The minute you see that page they stand out?

A Yes.

Q And in addition some person has put in a bracket mark beside them?

A Yes.

Q Can you give me any reason why that change was not immediately picked up by one of the paymasters signing any of the entries immediately below?

A No, I cannot.

Q It seems fantastic?

A I can hardly express an opinion there.

Q And since the entry on the 3rd line page 7 of Feb 13 has not been altered obviously the alterations were made prior to that date?

A It would appear so.

Q It is so. Itcannot be otherwise?

A Yes.

Q In view of the fact that Lawrence was being transferred to a new pay office and that the alterations stand out, very obviously it would seem most unreasonable that Lawrence would make the alterations himself. Is that fair?

A I can hardly pass an opinion on that.

Q You are not suggesting that Lawrence made the alteration?

A No. I am not aware who made it.

Q Will you agree with me that in pay books generally one finds a very large number of errors and alterations?

A Quite.

Q They are not uncommon?

A No.

Q That is the reason for the audit?

A Primary reason for it.

Q And it does not surprise you at all to find in one pay book a dozen or so alterations and errors?

A Yes, it does surprise me.

Q Does it surprise you that these errors and alterations are not initialled?

A It does as I have always made a practice to initial all changes.

Q Had he been attached to London then and not had his new pay book issued to him that is what would have happened to it?
A Yes. That is normal procedure but I fail to see why a man working in the Pay Office would leave without taking his pay book with him.

Q I expect it is capable of ascertaining whether or not his new pay book was sent through. Your files would show that?
A Yes, but the files might be turned in. Normally a letter would go with it.

Q If Lawrence did swear that is what happened you could not deny it and would be willing to accept it?
A Yes.

Q That new pay book must have been entered between 27th Jan and 1st Feb?
A Yes.

Q And if it were sent to him in London and he were attached here on the 12th Feb there would have been a period of 12 days or more when it would be at CGRU?
A Assuming the fact that he did not take it with him, yes.

Q And you have already told us that if he says so you would not be prepared to deny it?
A Yes.

Q Then, assuming that is true, that book would have been available or open to the access of any one of a number of people in the pay office?
A Yes.

Q And Lawrence on getting his new book would not have the old book, which would remain at CGRU?
A Yes.

Q And he would have no means of checking his new balance as against his old balance by himself?
A No.

Q I wonder if you would direct your mind back to the end of January 43. Do you recall having some 8 men working in the Pay Office, some issuing new books, who were not normal pay clerks?
A Yes, it happened quite frequently at those periods.

Q A period when old books are turned in and new ones issued is a period of considerable rush?
A Not rush, but they come up periodically and are prepared for.

Q And you call in the services of Orderly Room clerks who are not normally pay clerks?
A Yes.

Q And you recall having done that about this time?
A But I might add in that case these clerks do not transfer any balances from 1 pay book to another. All these would be doing is to copy covers, next-of-kin, etc.

Q They would have access to the various books during that period?
A Yes.

Q And in fact it does happen?
A Yes, but not frequently.

Q Now, when a pay book is handed in it goes through several hands in the Orderly Room and several in the Pay Office?
A Yes.

Q And when it is handed out it goes through several hands in the Pay Office and possibly several in the Orderly Room?
A No.

Q Why not?
A In any Pay Office that I have been at the Pay Sergeant usually delivers pay books to the personnel himself or he sends a Nominal Roll to the Coy Orderly Room requesting personnel to pick them up at the Pay Office.

Q That is the usual custom, but there are cases where a battery or company pay books are delivered en masse?
A I cannot say that as I have never been a paymaster other than at a Reinforcement Unit.

Q You have no knowledge of that?
A No.

Q You were telling us that L/Cpl Lawrence was attached to your unit temporarily?
A Temporarily to my office.

Q Prior to him being transferred to London?
A Yes.

Q Do you remember the date of his transfer?
A No, not any specific date.

Q Would it have been about this time?
A No, I would imagine it would be about 2 months later than that.

Q My information is, and it can be proved, that he was attached to London the 12th day of February. Is that right?
A No, there is nothing in his pay book to indicate that.

Q The last signature of yours is beside the February pay?That is at line 2 page 7?
A Right.

Q The next signature, that of Capt. Simpson, is on 13 February. Was that Capt. Simpson at CGRU?
A No.

Q Obviously Lawrence was in London at the time that entry was made?
A Yes.

Q And you made your entry you told us between Jan 27th and Feb 1st?
A That is right.

Q Do you remember, Capt. Peary, having to send Lawrence his pay book through the Army mail to be delivered to him here in London?
A No, I have no recollection of that.

Q You would not deny it?
A I would not deny it but do not recollect it.

Q Has that paybook been in the possession of the accused?
A Yes.

Q The date of that pay book is from 1 Feb 43 to 31 Jul 43?
A Yes.

Q Would you look at it with reference to the credit in the credit column on 1st line page 6? What would you say about those figures?
A The figure of 292 has been ruled out and the figure 302.52 placed over it.

Q What figures were there when you signed the pay book?
A 272.52.

Q Have you made any other entries in that pay book?
A No.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER.

Q Can you remember the dates upon which you signed opposite these 2 items on lines 1 and 2 page 7 Exhibit "B"?
A No, I cannot say the actual date but would say that it would be between the 27th Jan 43 and 1st Feb.

Q As I understand it, Capt. Peary, when a soldier hands in his old pay book he does not necessarilly hand it in personally?
A No.

Q It can come through the Orderly Room?
A Yes, through the Orderly Room or at a pay parade.

Q When the new one is issued to him it is not handed to him personally?
A Yes.

Q Invariably?
A Yes. In the office.

Q You mean to tell me that in every case a new book is issued it is always handed to the soldier in the pay office?
A To my knowledge. Yes.

Q And you would say there are no cases where new pay books are handed to soldiers other than in the pay office?
A Yes.

Q You make your oath?
A Yes.

Q What happens when a soldier is transferred from 1 unit to another between the dates he hands in his pay book and he receives a new one?
A He usually is paraded to the Pay Office and his pay book checked and it is seen that he is in possession of his pay book.

Q When you say 'usually' I take it that there are occasions where that does not happen?
A Yes.

Q There are definitely cases where a soldier handed in his old pay book and receives his new pay book some time later elsewhere than in the Pay Office?
A Yes. It is possible.

Q While he was in your office had he anything to do with pay books?
A No, he was under general instruction in pay duties under the direction of the Senior NCOs.

Q I show you a document which is Exhibit "A". Would you examine it please. The last 3 entries, the signatures of the paymaster on page 15?
A They are my signatures.

Q And the last credit balance is what?
A $27.52, a free credit balance.

Q I show you Exhibit "B". I refer you to page 7. Whose signatures are on the first 2 entries of free credit balance?
A My own signatures.

Q Did you make the entries opposite your signatures?
A No, I did not. The entries were made by one of my clerks.

Q Comparing the 2 balances on"A" the final credit on "A", and the initial credit balance on "B", what have you to say?
A I would say the balance carried forward has been increased or altered subsequently to my signing for the balance forward.

Q When you signed opposite the entries on Exhibit "B" what were the entries of credit balance?
A The entries were free credit balance of 27.52.

Q And it now appears as?
A 57.52.

Q And the next entry?
A The next entry was 42.51 at the time of my signature. It is now increased to 72.51.

Q Was that change made to your knowledge?
A No, not to my knowledge. They have been made subsequently to my signing the original entries.

Q Do you know who made the changes?
A No, I do not.

Q Would you explain to the Court what you do when you make up the balances for a new pay book?
A The old pay book is balanced off, usually by one of the pay clerks in the office, and the balance carried forward into the new pay book. Then the 2 pay books are brought in to me and I check the figures carried forward into the new pay book with those in the old pay book.

Q How often do you do that?
A Invariably. I always do it whenever pay books are withdrawn and new ones issued.

Q Who issued pay book Exhibit "B"?
A It was issued by myself.

Q How do you issue pay books?
A There are certain periods which are designated when the pay books are withdrawn on instructions from the Chief Paymaster. A new book is prepared and at the end of the month the balances are carried forward into the new pay book and then re-issued to the personnel to whom it is made out.

A I do not know any reason whether he should or should not. I do not know who made the changes.

RE-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR.

Q Referring to Exhibit "D", has the surplus of $130.00 been deducted from the accused's pay as yet?
A Not as yet.

DEF: May I ask a question directly arising out of that question?

Q Why have not the pay authorities deducted the $130.00?
A The reason is that when there are discrepancies in pay clerks books they do not allow the deductions to be made from the Form CT 5059 until instructions are received from the Chief Paymaster.

Q Eventually it will be done?
A Eventually the sum of $132.00 will be deducted from this soldier's pay account.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RULE OF PROCEDURE 83(B).

The Witness withdraws.

SECOND WITNESS for the Prosecution Captain John T Peary, London Detachment, RCAPC, having been duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor:--

Q You are Capt. John T Peary, London Detachment, RCAPC?
A Yes.

Q When did you come to the London Detachment?
A Originally in December 1943 and was transferred out in the latter part of May 1943 and returned again about the middle of July the same year.

Q You came to your present position in Sep 43. Where were you before that?
A I came up Dec 43.

Q When were you at No. 1 CGRU?
A From May 42 to Sep 43.

Q What were your duties there?
A Paymaster.

Q Do you know the accused, L/Cpl Lawrence?
A Yes, I do.

Q Do you recognize him?
A Yes. (Indicates the accused).

Q Was L/Cpl Lawrence employed at CGRU?
A He was attached to my office of Paymaster for duties, pending transfer to the Pay Corps, for a period of three weeks.

Q Do you know where he went from there?
A Yes. He went up to London Detachment RCAPC.

Q So, in other words, even if he were to deduct $130.00 over-credit the government would still owe him $11.00 and some-
A thing?
On 30th September.

Q Right, on the 30th. September?
A Yes.

Q We have had evidence that at times his balances were below $130.00 but at the present date there is well over $130.00 so he has not in fact got one cent of government money. That
A is true is it not?
No. It is only the 8th. of the month.

Q By the end of this month when the balance is earned, Yes? Unless he draws it out he will not have one cent of
A government money?
Yes.

Current Pay Book, dated 1st Apr 44, is admitted and marked EXHIBIT "D".

Q Turing to these actual alterations you will agree that there has been no apparent attempt to hide the alterations?
A They are plain and obvious?
I agree.

Q And if Lawrence were wanting to alter his book with intent to defraud that would be the last way in the world that
A anyone would want to do it?
It would be a very poor way to try to fool anybody.

Q Any person seeing those alterations must be struck by them?
A It should be so.

Q Can you give me any reason why those alterations were not
A immediately noticed?
By the succeeding paymasters?

Q Yes. They stand right out like a sore thumb?
A On looking at these books and alterations it seems very strange to me that succeeding paymasters did not notice them.

Q If they would not be noticed by paymasters, whose duty it is to keep close eye on these things, it is quite reasonable that they should not be particularly noticed by the accused?
A That is reasonable is it not?
That all depends upon the soldier. I have had soldiers come to tell me their balance was out five cents.

Q and you have had others who did not notice large errors?
A Well, errors.

Q Apart from paymasters, those errors are obvious to clerks
A in the paymasters office who made succeeding entries?
I think they should have noticed them.

Q And the fact that they were not noticed might be a reasonabl ground for saying that there was nothing particularly
A uncommon about those errors or alterations. Is that fair?
It might be.

Q Knowing that if he made those alterations they were very obvious and should have been picked up and knowing all errors and discrepancies are eventually picked up and the he would stand to gain nothing, can you think of any reasonable reason in the world why Lawrence should attem to do anything like that?

Q And any person working for the Pay Corps would know that regardless of what alterations were made in the pay book he would not wind up with any more money?

A It would come to light on the audit and the correction would be made in his pay book.

Q Any person who was fool enough to make any alterations would know that he could not keep the money and that it would eventually be debited against him?

A That is correct. I think most soldiers know that these things eventually have to be entered in his pay book.

Q And persons working in the Pay Corps would know that better than most?

A Definitely.

Q And Lawrence was working in the Pay Corps during all these times the changes are alleged?

A He was working either in the Pay Corps or for the Pay Corps.

Q Actually assuming, and we do not admit it, that these changes were made by Lawrence he would be bound to know he would get nothing from it?

A I would say so.

Q In examining Lawrence's balances through these books is it not a fair statement that his free credit balances are somewhat larger than that kept by the average soldier?

A Yes.

Q And obviously he was not in need of his money or he would have drawn it?

A Apparently not.

Q I now show you a Pay Book which is made out to A-34849 Lawrence, Lester J. Do you recognize that signature?

A Yes.

Q Whose is it?

A That is the signature of L/Cpl Lawrence, L.J.

Q The accused today?

A Yes.

Q It is what?

A It is the Current Pay Book, MBM I Part II, issued on the 1st Apr 44 to him by Capt. Simpson, Paymaster (2) CMHQ Details.

Q And there is an alteration or two here. You will agree with me?

A There are evidences of errors.

Q Made by pay clerks?

A Yes.

Q What is his final balance?

A His final balance as of today is $245.00 deferred pay and $141.15 free balance credit.

Q Now he is charged with having been credited with an excess of $130.00 and there is actually coming to him $141.15. Is that right?

A On the 30 Sep 44 he would be able to draw on this book $141.15.

Q Page 10 line 9 Canadian Currency column is another alteration there?
A Yes.

Q On page 11 line 3 there is an entry for 44.92 credit column?
A Balance credit column, yes.

Q And I believe on closer examination the item should be 54.92. Is that right?
A Yes.

Q In other words, that is a case where Lawrence was given credit of $10.00 less than he was entitled to?
A The balance was $10.00 less than it should have been.

Q Then in the next line, line 4, it would appear as if 17.04 was raised to 27.04?
A There is an alteration under the balance credit column line 4 page 11.

Q Then continuing on down to line 8 page 11 it would appear as if it had been altered from 90.02 to 81.02?
A There has obviously been an alteration in the figures in the balance credit column line 8 page 11.

Q And line 10 page 11 is that another alteration?
A Yes.

Q It looks as if 76.87 has been reduced to 76.77?
A There is an obvious change on line 10 page 11 balance credit column.

Q Now would you turn to the entries in pencil on pages 12 and 13 and tell me what those entries are?
A As far as I know these entries are made by the clerk in the CTO Office who was verifying the balances in this pay book.

Q And it would appear from those items would it not that actually as a result of the various alterations Lawrence was given an excess in the credit balance of $132.10.
A $132.00.

Q In other words, apart from the two items he is charged with there have been other alterations or errors--four in all. Is that right?
A Yes.

Q And they have the effect actually of making his excess entitlement $132.00?
A $132.00 exactly.

Q The authorities did not bother with the other $2.00 in these charges?
A Yes. They did not.

Q They did not bother with any incorrect entry in his favor?
A There would be a CT 5059 sent out to his present paymaster instructing him to correct the soldier's pay book.

Q In other words, what you are telling me is that all discrepancies are always caught?
A Yes, that is the purpose of the Pay Book audit.

Q Continuing on with Exhibit "C", on page 7 line 1 is another of these famous alterations with which we are charged?

A Yes.

Q And what is that alteration?

A The figures now shown are 133.34 but I cannot tell you what the altered figures were.

Q And if the balance was properly carried forward from Exhibit "B" it should be 33.34?

A Yes.

Q But after the figure 33.34 there was a figure 157.34 which is marked out. It may be that some clerk also got confused there?

A That is possible.

Q And also line 2 page 7 Exhibit "C" there has been an alteration there which has also been changed. That is so?

A Yes.

Q Line 3 that merely carries on the entry from the alteration on the first line?

A Yes.

Q And you will notice that both those entries cover the forward balance and the August 16th one?

A The 1st entry is for forward balance from the old book and the 2nd entry is the August 16th.

Q And both are signed by Capt. McAlary?

A Yes.

Q Also a new paymaster appears on 16 Aug 43?

A Yes.

Q And since the item for 16 Aug 43 has not been changed we must assume that the previous changes were made prior to that date?

A It is reasonable to assume that the changes were made prior to 16 Aug 43.

Q And if in this case, as I later propose showing, where L/Cpl Lawrence was moved from Acton to Cockspur Street, changed his unit, got a new paymaster, got a new pay book issued to him some time later, it is possible that any one of a number of people might have had that new pass book in the intervening number of days?

A It is quite possible.

At 1230 hours on the 8th day of September 1944 the Court adjourned until 1345 hours on the 8th day of September 1944.

On the 8th day of September 1944 at 1345 hours the Court reassemble pursuant to adjournment, present the same members as when adjourned.

Q On page 8 bottom line under column 'Canadian Currency' there is an alteration. Will you agree with me?

A Yes, that is an alteration.

Q Page 9 line 6 there is an alteration on the last figure. Is it not from 50 to 53?

A There is an alteration on line 6 page 9 balance credit column.

Q A fairly substantial change?
A Right.

Q And a very apparent one?
A Yes.

Q I gather from the pencil figure 179.10 which appears beside the altered figure 179.20 that the latter figure is still incorrect?
A Yes.

Q How do you explain that?
A That is explained by a clerical error on the part of the clerk who entered the figures 97.00 in the balance credit column instead of adding it to the previous balance of 82.10.

Q And despite all of those changes not a single initial?
A Yes.

Q Will you look at line 9. There is an entry in credit balance 41.63 and on the same line the pencil figures 40.63. What does that indicate?
A There is a mistake in the balance credit page 9 line 9 of $1.00.

Q In other words as a result of that error Lawrence became entitled to an overpayment of $1.00?
A No. As a result of that error the soldier is shown with $1.00 in his credit more than he was entitled to.

Q Then continuing on down to line 12 there is a figure there of 100.32 which has obviously been superimposed on some other figures?
A There have been alterations in the balance credit column page 9 line 12.

Q And would you say there is also an error in the amount finally arrived at there?
A Yes.

Q So that even the final figure of 100.32 is incorrect?
A That is right.

Q Then would you look at line 13? Can you say if that has been varied?
A The figures in the balance credit column line 13 page 9 appear to have been changed from 121.43 to 99.33.

Q And from the pencilled notation at the side would you say the final figure arrived at was correct?
A No, it is not correct.

Q Page 10 line 9, there is a line marked out. Is that correct?
A Yes.

Q And also on page 11 the same line?
A Yes.

Q And the last entry figure crossed out appears to be?
A 157.34.

Q And somebody has entered them and crossed them out without initialling?
A Yes.

A that time apart from obvious alterations in the figures? Somebody has been monkeying around with the book but I do not know who or when.

Q That is not a normal pay entry mark?

A No.

Q Assuming, which of course we do not admit for a minute, that Lawrence had made those alterations would it seem reasonable that he would make a couple of crude and stupid alterations and then make a bracket mark to draw attention to it?

A I do not know whether Lawrence made the changes or drew the bracket. I cannot say.

Q Speaking as an individual, if a man were going to make changes with intent to defraud the government he would not draw attention to it by putting a bracket beside it?

A It would seem silly.

Q Continuing down to line 10, obviously that figure '6' in 62.88 has been changed. Is that correct?

A I would say the first figure on line 10 balance credit has been changed.

Q On page 8 bottom line under credit column the figures 610.30 appear to have been changed, or some of them. Is that correct?

A The figures under 'credit' bottom line page 8 have been changed.

Q And on the same line if you go underneath the column of Canadian Currency there is another alteration?

A There is another one, yes.

Q And here we see one item 15th May where the entire item has been struck out and initialled?

A Line 8 on pages 8 and 9 has been completely ruled cut and initialled by the paymaster.

Q And that is the only place on these pages where any alteration whatsoever has been initialled?

A That is right, yes.

Q None of the other alterations have been initialled?

A No, they have not.

Q Then it is obvious that the paymaster sometimes....?

A Sometimes forgets to initial.

Q Or pays

A Yes. them without initialling?

Q Page 9, look at line 4. Can you tell me what that alteration is?

A The entry on line 4 page 9 balance credit appears to have been changed from 43.10 to 91.10.

Q That is a fair sized change is it not?

A Yes.

Q Then take a look at page 9 line 6. Would you tell me what that change is?

A The figures under balance credit page 9 line 6 appear to have been changed from 97.00 to 179.20.

Q Here on page, the first entry on page 6 of Exhibit "B" will be the same or should be the same as the last credit item on page 14 on Exhibit "A" which also was 292. That is a possible explanation?

A Yes.

Q Then continuing on with page 6 we find in line 3 a figure which was apparently once $21.82 but is now $26.82.

A There is an alteration on line 3 on page 6 in the Canadian Currency column.

Q Now on the bottom line of page 6 Exhibit "B" the figures 606.07 have obviously been changed to 615.97?

A Yes.

Q Now turn to page 7 of Exhibit "B"/ we have on the top the 2nd alteration respecting which one of the charges is based?

A Lines 1 and 2.

Q That is right, and since the succeeding items beginning on the 13th Feb, line 3, have not been changed the previous changes must have been made some time prior to the 13th Feb 43. Is that right?

A Right. Yes.

Q Now continuing on down. One other thing Capt. Peary was at that time obviously the paymaster of Lawrence?

A Yes.

Q And had been from some time in Jan 43. The last entry is Feb pay which was made the beginning of Feb 43?

A Yes.

Q And when this Exhibit "B" was a new book it was issued after Exhibit "A" had been turned in?

A Yes.

Q And it would have been made up by the L/Cpl or by the department? The new book would be made up by whom after the old book was turned in?

A We would.

Q And if in between Jan 31st when he turns in the old book and the date he received the new book his station is changed it would be some time before he would get his book. Is that true?

A Quite likely.

Q And here we see on the 31th Feb he has a new paymaster. Is that right?

A Yes.

Q And it is not at all unreasonable to assume that he turned in his old book, he changed his station, got a new paymaster, that he had no opportunity of checking the old balance, it is not at all unreasonable that he should accept that as his balance?

A It is not unreasonable.

Q Here is a bracket mark that you might throw some light on beside lines 2 and 3 page 7?

A I have looked at that bracket mark before and wondered with the Defending Officer what it meant.

Q You do not know?

A No, I do not.

Q Is it not reasonable to say that somebody or other, that somebody has been monkeying around with this book during

Q One point I am not clear on. When a soldier turns in his old pay book you have given evidence that it is entered up and signed by the paymaster in the new pay book and then it is returned to the soldier?
A You mean the balances are carried from the old books?
Q And signed by the paymaster?
A Issuing the book and then returned to the soldier.

Q My information is that this transaction sometimes takes as long as two weeks?
A That might be correct.

Q In the case of Lawrence, I am informed between Exhibits "A" and "B", when he turned in Exhibit "A" and got Exhibit "B" he changed his location from CGRU to Acton and between turning in Exhibit "B" and getting Exhibit "C" his location was changed from Acton to Cockspur Street, CMHQ, and in each case it was a matter of weeks before he got his new pay book. That would not surprise you?
A That would not surprise me but I cannot corroborate that.

Q I am not asking you to do that.
A No, it does not surprise me.

Q Apart from the alterations which have already been drawn to the attention of the Court and for which Lawrence is charged there are a large number of other alterations. You will agree with me?
A Let me look at them.

Q Don't you remember them?
A I just looked at the entries the prosecutor asked me to. If you like I will count up the number of errors.

Q We will count them all up together. Will you agree with me that alterations in pay books are fairly common things?
A I would not want to say in this book because there are not any.

Q Generally speaking would you say there were?
A No I would not.

Q They are not rare by any means?
A In Exhibit "A" they are so rare there aren't any.

Q We will go through them together. In Exhibit "A" at page 9 line 3 obviously the figure $81.16 has been changed to $80.16. Is that correct?
A Not being a handwriting expert I could not say whether there was a change or not.

Q Certainly someone changed that. You will not agree that there is an alteration?
A I said it may be.

Q Now in Exhibit "B" on page 6. There has been a change here from $272.52 to $292.52 to $203.52?
A Has that been a $272 before that?

Q Yes. It must have.
A That is right.

Q The normal course is that one's old book is turned in and then the soldier is through with it. It is not returned to him?
A The old book is turned in and a new one prepared and the soldier is shown his old book and he signs the new book. This may not happen in all cases or units.

Q I think you will go this far with me that it hardly ever or never happens?
A I could not go that far with you.

Q Have you ever seen it happen outside of your own?
A You seem to forget that I have never been with another paymaster.

Q Does it always happen in your case?
A They are all told to turn in the old books. They are double-checked but if any soldier says he has not enough we show him the book.

Q Will you agree with me in this case? If that were done in every case there would be many less errors and complaints?
A Yes. I suggested that to the Chief Paymaster about 3 months ago as a matter of fact.

Q Had that been done in each case with these books these errors might not have gone so far without being found?
A In these books the changes might have been made after the balances had been entered and checked.

Q They may have been. We do not know?
A We do not know.

Q Then are we agreed on this. When a soldier turns in his old pay book as a rule that is the last he sees of it and he gets a new one?
A I do not think the general rule but it could be.

Q With respect to this duty to preserve his book there seems to be some variance between the instructions in Exhibit "A" with the instructions on Exhibit "B" and "C". The instructions in Exhibit "A" are contained in pages 2 and 3. Instructions in Exhibits "B" and "C" are each contained on page 1?
A Yes.

Q And they vary somewhat?
A They vary somewhat.

Q And apart from the fact that the soldier is prohibited from making unauthorized entries in his pay book or from losing it by neglect there is no other duty to preserve the book. That is fair, is it?
A Not on the instructions contained in these pages.

Q In addition the instructions on Exhibits "B" and "C" state that the pay book must be in the possession of the soldier when reporting on sick parade, on admission to the hospital, and on other occasions when leaving his unit. Apart from those things there is no duty to preserve?
A Not set out in these pages.

Q And a soldier would know of no other duties to preserve except what is set out here or in daily orders?
A There might be orders published.

Q We have not any here--Daily Orders published?
A No.

Q Is it not true that for every soldier there is a ledger sheet for his pay?
A Yes.

Q And the ledger sheet shows actually every credit and every withdrawal?
A Yes.

Q And that is actually the important thing that determines what pay he will get?
A Yes.

Q In other words these pay books are like bank pass books?
A Yes, something.

Q It is a record for him personally?
A It is not the last word as to his credit.

Q In other words this ledger sheet of his, which every soldier has, that is the last word with respect to his pay?
A Yes.

Q And this is merely a sort of interim document this pay book?
A Not exactly an interim document for it is sometimes possible to correct the ledger sheet from the pay book.

Q You mean errors appear on the ledger sheets?
A Yes. Everywhere in the world.

Q The ledger sheet is the document of authority?
A Yes.

Q And this is something to give the soldier's Paymaster and others generally showing the standing of his account?
A Yes.

Q Your audit is done every 6 months?
A At one time it was done every six months. Now it is being done on a continuous basis.

Q Previously it was every 6 months?
A The pay books were turned in every 6 months. I would not say the audit was every 6 months.

Q The books were turned in for audit each 6 months?
A Yes.

Q Now as to the procedure on turning in an old pay book and receiving a new pay book I suppose a soldier turns in his book to his pay officer or Orderly Room for the pay office?
A Yes.

Q And that book is withdrawn?
A Yes.

Q And he never sees it again?
A Well, in my office when the old books are turned in we retain them so a soldier can ask to see his old book up until the old ones are sent in for audit.

Q That is an arrangement of your own? A precautionary arrangement?
A Yes, but I think most paymasters should do it.

Q They should but they don't?
A I do not know.

Q But you already agreed that it happens that it is longer than that?
A It might be.

Q They are then sent back to the soldier through his Orderly Room?
A Yes.

Q So we have this situation. A soldier will hand in his book to the Orderly Room.Eventually it will go to the pay office and eventually go back to his Orderly Room and then be returned to the soldier?
A Yes.

Q And it might take several days for that transaction?
A Yes, it might.

Q And it might pass through one dozen hands?
A It might.

Q And pay books as I understand it will also be handed in to the Orderly Room for changes in next-of-kin entries?
A Yes.

Q For changes in questions of assignment of pay?
A Yes.

Q In promotion or rank?
A Yes.

Q For any Part II Order entry in fact?
A Practically any Part II Order.

Q And any QM Entry?
A Many repayment entries.

Q So actually this soldier's pay book is in the possession of his Orderly Room or his paymaster for a substantial period of time each month?
A Yes.

Q Now because of the fact that errors creep in quite frequently the Government has set up an audit Board?
A The Pay Book Verification Section of the CTO's Office.

Q Have you ever been on any of those or know anything of their operation?
A It is a civilian organization and they have a Hollarith Accounting Machine on which they compile machine statements for all the soldiers in the Canadian Army. Withdrawn pay books are compared and checked against the machine statement and any errors or omissions are recorded on Form CT 5059 which is sent in duplicate to the Paymaster of the soldier concerned for adjustments to be made in the soldier's current pay book.

Q And a large proportion of these adjustments have to be made for errors?
A I have never actually known the exact percentage of errors but I understand it is sufficiently high to warrant the continuing of this Pay Book Verification Section.

Q It is not an unusual thing?
A No.

Q I agree, but they do it. As careful as you are occasionally you have made corrections or changes and overlooked initialling it? It happens to everybody.

A I would not say that I have not. You will have to have some 2000 pay books to find out.

Q I have one here where you have slipped up. It is not important but it does happen. There is an alteration which is not initialled or is that your normal signature beside it?

A My signature along the side of that change is attesting the change.

Q The ideal practice is that an initial should be there?

A If the change had been made over it I would have initialled it. If the change had been made after I signed it I would have initialled it. This comes up in all cases.

Q Errors are bound to be made. I see nothing wrong with it. It is possible also that your name being there beside it that some other person could come along and alter it, the figures, and it is without an initial but it would appear opposite your signature. That is possible?

A Yes. The same thing could happen if my initial was only there. They could come along and alter it.

Q I quite agree. My only point in my cross-examination is to bring out this fact that in dealing with figures where they pass through a number of different hands and a large number of books errors are bound to creep in?

A Yes.

Q Some errors are caught by the clerks and changes made right away and some are caught by the paymasters and changed right and there are some that are not caught until the audit later. That is correct?

A That is correct.

Q In the case of pay offices the paymaster does not hand back directly to the soldier his pay book?

A I do.

Q Generally speaking will you agree with me that paymasters do not hand the book back directly to the soldier?

A I have never been on a pay parade other than my own.

Q And you have no knowledge from talking with them?

A No.

Q It is quite believable to you that that is the case?

A Yes. It might happen.

Q That the book would be handed to the clerk with a stack of other books and be returned to the Orderly Room to be given back to the soldier?

A Yes, that might be.

Q And I suppose occasionally even in your department the book is sent back to the soldier through the Orderly Room?

A I thought you were talking about pay parade. They are not often withdrawn and sent back to the Orderly Room.

Q When the books are in the possession of the paymaster it might be for days. You agree with me?

A 48 hours.

Q I suppose, I think we all know regulations say that pay books should not be kept more than 48 hours but in actual practice pay books are kept from 3 days to a week or more before soldiers get them back. That is a reasonable statement is it not?

A I would not like to say that definitely.

Q I am not suggesting it happens in your department. This is general, about pay generally. I think you will agree with me?

A I answered that.

Q That is as far as you will go?

A Yes.

Q And after the entry is made in the pay book by some clerk in the pay office the entire entry is made all across the sheet, I suppose, from the credit and assigned pay to final balance?

A Yes.

Q And then a stack of pay books are usually left on the paymaster's desk and he signs down the whole works. That is the usual practice?

A I do not think the paymaster would sign until he had verified them. I personally would not.

Q But we do know as a matter of fact, we have all seen them, a stack of pay books?

A I would like to say not many.

Q I want you to agree with me?

A I can only say for my own.

Q Does it sound reasonable, knowing practice in pay offices, that after these entries are made the clerks in the pay office, that numbers of books are left on the paymaster's desk and he goes through and signs them. He has to rely on his clerks?

A My answer to that is that some paymasters may do that.

Q And if some clerk makes an error in making the entry he corrects it as he catches it?

A A clerk?

Q Yes. He substitutes the new figure?

A I would cross the original figure through, leaving it still visible, and put the new figure in.

Q And in some cases you will find clerks who change it by pressing heavy on top of the old figure?

A Some clerks may do that but they shouldn't.

Q Have you seen pay books where it happened?

A Yes.

Q I suppose the ideal practice would be that every time that happens it should be initialled?

A The paymaster should initial it.

Q But that is not always done?

A I think the majority of paymasters do initial changes.

Q It is not always done and..?

A If they don't they are sticking their necks out.

Q Yes, but that is obtained as a rule by a clerk in the Pay Office or in the soldier's Orderly Room when it is handed out?

A Actually and strictly speaking a new pay book should be handed to the soldier.

Q It should be but it is not always done. That is correct?

A I do not want to criticize paymasters in the Canadian Army.

Q I don't want to criticize anybody. We all know that those things are done?

A You can "include me out" on that.

Q What is the system with regard to soldiers turning in their paybooks to get paid? Is it true that in the first instance he turns it in to his Orderly Room?

A Yes.

Q And his Orderly Room turns it over to the pay office?

A Right.

Q And I suppose that in the Orderly Room about half-a-dozen soldiers or clerks might have access to them?

A They should not have.

Q I agree but in fact is that done? We have seen pay books piled up on the desk. I am merely talking about existing practice. You will agree with me there?

A I suppose in some units they are.

Q And it will be turned over from the Orderly Room to the pay office and I suppose another half-dozen clerks have access to them there?

A It would depend upon the size of the staff.

Q Yes?

A Yes.

Q And entries are made by clerks in the pay office?

A According to regulations they are not supposed to be made by clerks in the pay office.

Q But in many cases they are made by clerks in the pay office?

A Yes.

Q In most cases. I think you will agree with me?

A No, I do not.

Q Lets get this clear. We all know that certain orders are laid down for running this Army and we all know that those regulations are not adhered to any more than has to be done. What we are interested in is not what the regulations say should be done but actually what is done in practice. That is the important thing. I think the Court will agree with me.

PROS: If it is any help to the defence or the Court I am willing to admit that pay books have been known to be left in Orderly Rooms.

DEF: In this particular case?

PROS: No, but that it is general knowledge.

DEF: That it is general knowledge?

PROS: Yes.

Q Would you look at the opening balance on Exhibit "C"?
A The opening balance credit on Exhibit "C", page 7, is $133.34.

Q As a result would the soldier concerned receive anything?
A As a result of the over-credit, which by this time would amount to $130.00, the soldier exceeded his actual entitlement on the 26th Aug 43 AR 304. That is on line 4 of pages 6 and 7.

Q Would you go further in the book? Is there anything else?
A You mean about his over-drawing?

Q Anytime then that his balance fell below $130.00 on Exhibit "C" would he be overdrawn?
A Yes.

Q Are there any examples of that?
A Line 10 page 7; line 5 page 9; line 6 page 9; lines 8 to 14 page 9; and lines 1 to 7 page 11.

Q How is the accused being employed?
A Since being TOS Unit Detachment 20 Apr 44 the accused has been employed in the D A & A P Sub-section of the Unit Pay Section.

Q Dependent's Allowance and Assigned Pay?
A Dependent's Allowance and Assigned Pay Subsection.

Q Has he been working on pay books in there?
A No.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q You do not know who made those alterations?
A No.

Q You are not suggesting that Lawrence made them?
A No.

Q And I suppose you would be happy to have Lawrence back to work for you in the morning or say Monday?
A Yes.

Q When a pay book is first issued to a soldier is it handed to him directly by the paymaster or does it go through some clerk in the paymaster's office and perhaps to the Orderly Room and then to the soldier?
A I cannot speak for all paymasters in the Canadian Army but personally I hand the pay book to the soldier for him to sign his name in it.

Q I suppose it is a fair statement from your knowledge that the regular, the usual procedure is that pay books are signed by the paymaster, handed to some clerk in the pay office and then either the clerk passes them on to the soldier or to the soldier's company or battery. That is the usual procedure?
A I do not know that that would be the case in the issue of a new pay book.

Q I mean in the case of a new one?
A The soldier's signature has to be obtained in the new book.

Q On Exhibit "B" it is where?
A On Exhibit "B" it is on page 7.

Q And Exhibit "C"?
A On Exhibit "C" it is on page 7.

Q Has a soldier any duty regarding those books?
A The complete duties of a soldier concerning this paybook, Exhibit "A", is on pages2 and 3 of the book.

Q Is a soldier allowed to make any entries in the book?
A According to the instructions in the pay book, paragraph 3, which states "This book is the property of the Canadian Government and a soldier who loses it by neglect or alters any official entry in the same or makes unauthorized entries therein may be charged with a serious offence under the Army Act."

Q From your knowledge, from your military knowledge as a paymaster in the Canadian Army is a soldier allowed to make any alterations or entry in his pay book?
A No, he is not allowed to.

Q And what about possession? What are his duties regarding keeping the book? When is it in his possession and when and to whom is it handed into someone else's possession?
A A soldier carries his pay book in his possession until asked to turn it in to the paymaster when an advance of pay is required and for other entries to be made in the book.

Q Would you look at these books please? Would you look at Exhibit "A" first with reference to the closing balance? What is it?
A The closing balance in Exhibit "A" is $27.52 balance credit.

Q That is on page?
A Page 15.

Q Will you now look at the opening balance in Exhibit "B"?
A The opening balance credit on Exhibit "B", page 7, is $57.52.

Q From the examination of those two books what should be the correct figure?
A The correct opening balance figure in Exhibit "B", page 7, should be $27.52.

Q As a result of that was any money paid?
A As a result of the excess credit of $30.00 the soldier was enabled to draw an excess over his actual credit on the 27th Feb 43, AR 81.

Q What does AR 81 mean?
A Acquittance Roll 81.

Q Would you look at Exhibit "B"? What is the closing balance in Exhibit "B"?
A The closing balance credit page 11 in Exhibit "B" is $33.34.

Q What should be the opening balance on the subsequent book?
A The opening balance on the subsequent book should be $33.34.

Q Would you look at page 6? Is there a signature opposite the printed entry 'Soldier's Signature'?
A Yes.

Q What is the name?
A It appears to be the signature of L/Cpl Lawrence L J.

Pay Book dated 1 FEB 43 to 31 JUL 43 is admitted and marked EXHIBIT "B".

Q I show you another document. What is this?
A This appears to be MBM I Part II issued to A-34849 Lawrence L.J.

Q Is there a signature opposite the printed words 'Soldier's Signature' on page 6?
A Yes.

Q In your opinion whose signature is that?
A It appears to be the signature of L/Cpl Lawrence L.J.

Q In your opinion, from your knowledge of the accused and knowing his handwriting, whose signature is that?
A In my opinion.....

DEF: You have to establish qualifications for opinion evidence first. I object to that evidence. The fact that this man has seen the signature of L/Cpl Lawrence does not make him competent. I do not think that is sufficient for him to say I can recognize the accused's signature when he has only seen it 8 to 10 times. That is not sufficient.

PROS: I submit it is. The point as to whether a signature is that of a particular person is for the Court to decide and they may base their finding on the opinion of witnesses. In the case of a question as to handwriting a man who has an opportunity of observing that handwriting may be called as a witness. I refer you to MML page 89, paragraph 67. (The Prosecutor reads the whole paragraph). It does not in other words require an expert to give evidence. A witness can give his opinion and say as to whether or not he has had an opportunity of knowing the handwriting and give his opinion on it. Then the Court decides whether it is or is not the handwriting.

PRES: The objection is over-ruled.

PROS: Pay Book dated 1 AUG 43 to 31 MAR 44 is admitted and marked EXHIBIT "C".

Q Will you give us the dates of Exhibit "C"?
A 1st Aug 43 to 31st Mar 44.

Q Capt. Rodgers, what is the purpose of a soldier's pay book, MBM I Part II, and what is it issued for?
A A MBM I Part II is issued to record a soldier's credits and any balances or debits in his pay account. It is the soldier's personal record and is turned in at times specified by the Chief Paymaster. I should have said turned in for audit at times specified by the Chief Paymaster. In it is recorded his number, name, marital status, name and address of next-of-kin, particulars of assigned pay, his daily rate of pay and it shows the soldier's signature and signature of the Paymaster issuing the book.

Q Where is the signature of the paymaster issuing the book?
A In Exhibit "A" it is on page 8 below the signature of the soldier.

Q I want you to examine these documents?
A Referring to pay book 1 Jul 42 to 31 Jan 43 this pay book was issued to A-34849, Lawrence, L.J. I recognize his signature because I pay L/Cpl Lawrence twice a month. These books were issued at different times. The first in July 1942 covers a certain time.

DEF: I will make the objection that this witness does not know from his personal knowledge that these books were issued to L/Cpl Lawrence. All his evidence can say is that the books appear to contain a certain name and signature.

PROS: Q Capt. Rodgers, there is a signature on the top of this book, on page 8 of the pay book of 1 Jul 42 and there appears opposite the entry "Soldier's Signature" a signature "Lester J Lawrence". Do you recognize that handwriting?
A That appears to me to be the signature of L/Cpl Lawrence L.J.

Q Is that the accused?
A That is the accused.

Q How long have you known the accused?
A Since April of this year.

Q Have you had any opportunity of observing his signature?
A I have had the opportunity of seeing his signature on Acquittance Rolls at least twice a month since then.

DEF: Q Eight times?
A I would not put down an exact figure as there is such a thing as casual payments and he might not have drawn pay on each pay day.

PROS: Q In your opinion whose signature is that?
A That is the signature of L/Cpl Lawrence L J.

Q How is a pay book issued to a soldier?
A A pay book is issued to a soldier when he first arrives in England or when his current book is being withdrawn. When his current book is withdrawn a new pay book is issued transferring the balances from the withdrawn book to the new book.

Q You are speaking now of what is called "Militia Book Part II"?
A Milita Book MBM I Part II.

Q Is that the regular form of pay book issued to Canadian soldiers?
A Yes.

Q How does it actually get into a soldier's hands?
A It is issued to him by the Paymaster.

DEF: Q I am not clear as to what that means. It is handed to him or to some clerk or what? I do not understand that phrase "Issued to him".
A When a soldier is issued with a new pay book he signs his name, pardon me, he signs his usual signature on the top of page 8. The paymaster issuing the pay book signs the pay book at the same time.

PROS: Pay Book dated 1 JUL 42 to 31 JAN 43 is admitted and marked EXHIBIT "A".

Q I now refer you to another document. Will you explain to the Court what it is?
A This appears to be MBM I Part II issued to A-34849 Lawrence L J for the period 1 Feb 43 to 31 Jul 43.

FIELD GENERAL COURT -MARTIAL

IN THE CASE OF: A-34849 Pte (L/Cpl) LAWRENCE, Lester J. Unit Pay Detachment, R.C.A.P.C.

The Court re-assemble at Malaya House, London, England, at 1000 hours 8th Sep 44 pursuant to adjournment made at Lancaster, England, Tuesday 5th Sep 44.

DEF: I have an expert witness and make application that he be granted permission to sit in for the entire proceedings. I propose calling him as a witness.

PROS: I have no objection.

The application is granted.

PROSECUTOR'S OPENING ADDRESS

May it please the Court:

The charges against the accused in this case are briefly that he knowingly and with intent to defraud altering documents, namely, soldier's pay books, which it was the duty of the accused to preserve. Three pay books issued to the accused for varying periods will be produced. The prosecution proposes to establish that certain alterations were made in the pay books whereby the accused benefited for a period to the extent of $130.00 Capt. Rodgers, Adjutant of the Unit Pay Detachment, RCAPC, will be called to point out the alterations in the pay books and their effect and also to give evidence as to the duty of soldiers in the care of their pay books. As will be shown and as already known to the Court as a matter of its military knowledge each entry in a pay book is signed by the Paymaster. The officers who signed the pay books opposite the alleged alterations will be called to establish that when they signed the books, the entries, the correct balances then appeared and that the alterations were made subsequent to their signatures.

D - 3

EVIDENCE FOR THE PROSECUTION:

FIRST WITNESS For the Prosecution — Captain J Rodgers, Paymaster and Adjutant, Unit Pay Detachment, RCAPC, having been duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor:

Q You are Capt. John Rodgers?
A Yes.

Q Of the Unit Pay Detachment?
A Yes.

Q RCAPC?
A Yes.

Q Stationed at Lancaster?
A Yes.

Q What is your experience as a Paymaster?
A I have been a paymaster since May 1941.

(P J Montague)
Major-General
In Charge of Administration
CANADIAN MILITARY HEADQUARTERS

INSTRUCTIONS ON PROCEDURE AFTER ARRAIGNMENT.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc., offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated:

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See MML p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C); powers and duties of JA see RP 103; duty of Prosecutor see RP 60(A) (B); duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 85-85; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court, etc, see RP 75-79, 86, 116; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6; and responsibility of JA or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans.....(5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 3 and p 4; MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on.....charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on.....charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence and such exhibits as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? Ans. No (1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (~~his~~) opening address.(1)
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)
(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Can 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the 1st & 2nd charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is ~~disallowed on the ..... charge(s)~~, and allowed on the 1st & 2nd charge(s), and that, accordingly, ~~the trial will proceed on the former, but~~ the accused is (~~are~~) found Not Guilty on ~~the latter~~ charge(s).(4) Dpd
(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)
NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither? Ans..... Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf? Ans..... Are they witnesses as to character only? Ans.....
(1. RP 115. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)
(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order. CF A95. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 86(C). Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 103(a).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.
(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the .....charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1)
Or, The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.(2)
(1. AA 54(3) (6), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character?(1)
Ans.....
(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), and certified true copy (copies) of Conduct Sheet(s)(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(1), (2) (b), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex..... and Ex..... respectively.(3)
(1. MFB 355 or AFB 296. 2. MFM 6. 3. RP 46, KR Can 558. If above documents not produced, see RP 46 fn 1 para 1.)

E3. President to accused: Do you wish to address the Court on the Statement(s) and Conduct Sheet(s), and in mitigation of punishment?(1) Ans.....(2)
(1. RP 37(C), 46(D). 2. Address, if any, recorded per Notes. Court should permit accused or his witnesses to prove or call anything here or previously stated which would affect the amount of punishment. RP 37(F) fn 7.)

E4. The President states that the Court is closed to consider the sentence, and that the sentence to be awarded by the Court, being subject to confirmation, will not be announced, but will be promulgated later, and the proceedings in open court are accordingly terminated.(1)
(1. AA 54(6), RP 120(A).)

E5. The Court considers the sentence.(1) The President records the sentence in Part I of the Schedule, which is dated and signed by him and the JA, if any.(2)
(1. When several accused tried separately see RP 71 (D). One sentence only, comprised of the punishment or punishments laid down in AA 47, 44 and its proviso, is to be awarded to cover all charges in all charge sheets on which accused found guilty. RP 48. As to sentences see AA 44, 138, 182, RP 46-50, 69, 118, 119(A), KR Can 308, 330, 563-566, Overseas RO 309, 2323, MML p 96, 757-759. As to sentences assigned for civil offences by the law of England see AA 41(5), MML p 130. When accused already under sentence of imprisonment or detention see AA 44(1B), 68(1), KR Can 564. 2. RP 50. As to release from arrest by Confirming Offr see KR Can 567. As to assembly and disposal of record after trial see instrs on back of Convening Order.)

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

Statement of Evidence

At approx 2100 hrs 17th Sep 44. I N 19 545 Pte Watson K in company with B 40332 Pte Atkinson C.L. were proceeding back to camp when we noticed three civilians who were acting rather suspiciously. So we thought we would keep watch on them for awhile. We watched them for about one hour then went back to our tents. After some ten minutes we decided to go back again and have another look. As we were passing our M.T. compound we noticed a movement behind the wire fence where the petrol is stored, and discovered it to be a man crouching. On being challenged he came out with his hands up and we then escorted him to the Orderly Officer.

STATEMENT OF Mr. DURAND, M. Jr. 44 RUE DASERA LA HOG, DEAUVILLE, NORMANDY, FRANCE

I was playing cards with my father and Mr. Louis on Sunday night in Mr. Louis's Cafe, when in came 4 Cdn soldiers, they sat down, and ordered three drinks, the fourth who was doing the talking did not drink. A conversation was started, then Mr. Louis got up and left my father and I continued to play cards, I heard the four soldiers and Mr. Louis talking about petrol, but as I was busy playing cards, I didn't pay any attention, the next thing I saw was Mr. Louis leaving with the two soldiers, he came back and picked up the other two soldiers, and he asked my father and I to go with him, when I got in the truck I noticed Mr. Louis had a basket with 5 bottles of champagne in it, after we got started three of the soldiers each took a bottle and drank it the fourth who had not drank any was used as an interpreter, after that the three of them fell asleep when we arrived at Downres the French Cdn woke them up, the small Sgt was help to his tent by the Cpl and French Cdn, but the French Cdn said before leaving to wait here, and we will get you some petrol, the tallest Sgt then woke up and said something about "Petrol" he then left and made several trips carrying petrol, he did not come back, so my father sent me to look for him and bring him back for his bottle of champagne, when I went into this place to look for the Sgt. I saw some petrol cans on my left, I went over to see if I could see the Sgt around there, while doing this someone yelled at me, I got scared and tried to hide. While I was hiding two sentry came up to me, and took me down to a tent. There was an officer there who looked at my identification. I told him that I was looking for someone, he then asked me who I was with just then my father and Mr. Louis came in.

STATEMENT OF Mr. M. DURAND, Sr. 44 RUE DASERA LA HOG, DEAUVILLE, NORMANDY, FRANCE

At about 0515 hrs on Sunday night the 17 Sep 44 I was playing cards with my son and my friend Mr. M. Louis in his cafe, when in came 4 Cdn soldiers, I noticed 3 of them were drinking, 2 Sgts and 1 Cpl, the fourth man a Pte, who was a French Cdn, and who was their Interpreter, was not drinking. After awhile there was a conversation started, and they said they came from DOUVRES. A little something was mentioned about them missing their ride home. They asked my friend, M. Louis, if he could take them home as they had noticed his truck outside, he told them he did not have enough petrol, the smallest Sgt of the two then said if you take us home, and give us 5 bottles of champagne I will get you two cans of petrol. My friend then agreed to the deal, as it would help them out a lot as in reference to the ride home. My friend then left with the truck, and the 2 Sgts as they had left their leather coats at the ROYAL HOTEL on his way back he stopped at the cafe, and picked up the other two soldiers, and he asked me and my son to go with him for the ride, when I got into the truck I noticed my friend had 5 bottles of champagne, and on our way back the 2 Sgts and 1 Cpl each drank a bottle. When we arrived at DOUVRES, the 2 Sgts and Cpl were asleep, the French Cdn woke them up, he then came and told Mr. Louis to wait as they would get them the petrol. He and the Cpl then helped the small sgt to his quarters, as he was helpess. The tall Sgt who was asleep then woke up and said "Petrol", he made 6 trips to carry it, on the last trip he brought only one, making 11 cans. I helped my friend to place it in the truck. I never saw the Sgt again that night although we waited for him for quite awhile. We then sent my son M. DURAND to look for the Sgt, and he didn't come back, so I went myself to look for him. I sopped several soldiers to try and find one that could speak French. One came along and I asked him to help me find my son, he took me to a sentry. Just then Mr. Louis came up with another soldier, we then went to a tent where my son was. There was an officer there who questioned me, and then left and came back a few minutes later.

EXHIBIT "A"

STATEMENT OF MR. M. LOUIS, 44 RUE PASTEUR LA HOG, DEAUVILLE, NORMANDY FRANCE

At approx 1700 hrs 17 Sep 44 four Canadians came into my cafe. One of my assistants served these soldiers with drinks. While they were drinking I was playing cards with MR. M. DURAND and his son. We then got talking to these four Canadian soldiers as they seemed nice and polite. We asked them where they came from and they said DOUVRES. While talking they told us that that they had missed their truck in which they were coming home. Three of these Canadian soldiers could not speak French but the fourth, a French-Canadian, was used as an interpreter. He was quiet and polite and did not drink while he was in my Cafe. I had left my truck outside which they might have seen as they asked me if I could take them home. I said I have not got enough petrol to go there and back. The small Sergeant of the two, said through the interpreter that he would give me two jerry cans of gas for five bottles of champagne. I said "yes" just to accommodate them. The two sergeants then said "We have left our leather coats at the Royal Hotel." I said, "I will drive you over to pick up your coats", and on the way back I picked up the other two soldiers and also my two friends Mr. M. DURAND and his son and five bottles of champagne and then headed for DOUVRES. On the way home the two sergeants and one corporal drank one bottle of champagne each. When we arrived at DOUVRES the two sergeants and corporal were asleep. The French-Canadian woke them up. They were still drunk, the smallest sergeant was so drunk that the corporal and the French-Canadian took him to his quarters, but before leaving the French-Canadian told me to wait, as they would get me the petrol. After they left the tall Sgt woke up and said. "Oh, Petrol" and made signs for me to wait there. He made 6 trips and fetching 2 jerry cans each time except for the last trip he brought only 1 can, he then left and I never seen him again that night. I waited for him about 30 minutes, as I still had a bottle of champagne in the truck which was for him.

The accused was cautioned as follows:-

Q Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

A I want to make a statement.

Q On oath or not on oath?

A On oath.

The accused, sworn, states:-

"I left with a party of men at approx 1000 hrs on a trip to TROUVILLE. We arrived at approx 1200 hrs. I left the truck with Sgt. McNeil, Cpl. Penwarden, Pte. Deziel and we went into a place called "LITTLE HOTEL" where we had on drink and dinner. We left there and went to another cafe and we started drinking extremely heavy. We stayed there most of the afternoon. From there we went to the brothel house where we had a few more drinks. I went to a room with a woman, after first paying the Madame 200 francs. After I came down stairs we all left. We made our way back to the truck. We stopped at another cafe and had just one drink there. From there we went to a cafe that was deserted except for the proprietor. We had quite a number of drinks in there. S/Sgt. Cox who was in charge of the party came in and said "finish your drinks as the truck was waiting to go home". The proprietor then drove us in his truck to where our truck was parked. We got out of his truck and talked with the rest of the boys. I didn't know where the proprietor was after that. We then decided to go back to the same cafe as we had just left and had a number of drinks. The proprietor then went down the celler and brought up some champagne and said we owned him so much money. We all chipped in and paid him. He then took all the champagne out to his truck and he had two civilians with him. We all drank two of the bottles of champagne on our way home and we started the third one. After that I didn't remember a thing until the next morning I woke up in bed undressed To my knowledge, no deal was made in the cafe.

"At approximately 2230 hours 17 Sept 44 we were notified by the Orderly Sgt. (Sgt W. CRUMLEY) of 12 CBRB that they had detained three civilians. One of whom had been caught in their petrol compound by Pte. ATKINSON, C.L. and Pte. MATSON, R. both of 47 Coy., 12 CBRG.

On making inquiries we found that the a/m civilians had eleven Jerry cans of [illegible] petrol in their truck, which was parked approximately 25 yards from the compound. We also found that there had been four soldiers involved in the incident.

We took the particulars of the civilians and found them to be Mr. M. LOUIS, Mr. M. DURAND (senior) and Mr. M. DURAND (junior), all of DEAUVILLE, NORMANDY. When asked if they could identify the soldiers who were involved they replied that they could. We then notified the GENDARMES who took them in custody for the night.

The following morning an identification parade was arranged with the O.C. of 12 Bn. CBRG for 0815 hours, at that time we had the civilians present, but they were unable to find any of the soldiers on that parade. Through further investigations we suspected that the soldiers belonged to the Dental Corps personnel attached to 9 Bn. CBRG. An identification parade was arranged for the a/m personnel, A-66946 Sgt. The four men were immediately placed under close arrest pending further investigations.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE:

In the case of No. A99846 Sgt. LAURENCE, K.E., #12 Base Dental Coy., C.D.C., charged with Illegal Disposition of W.D. Petrol.

By Direction of the Commanding Officer, the evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS: M41271 Sgt. McNEILL E., No. 12 Base Dental Coy., C.D.C., sworn, states:

"On 17 Sept 44 at approx 1000 hours I left in a 60 Cwt with a party to go to TROUVILLE. We arrived at approx 1200 hours. I left the truck with my friends who were Sgt. Laurence, Cpl. Penwarden, Pte Deziel. I took my friends to a cafe which I had been to before. We had our luch and a few drinks, then we left and went to another cafe where we stayed all afternoon drinking. We did not know what time it was when we left there, but went to several more cafes. At the last cafe we went to, the proprietor seemed quite friendly to us. We had a few drinks while we were there. We sampled several different kinds of drink I was getting pretty drunk by this time. The next I remember was getting into a Vehicle what looked to me like a civilian truck. I must have passed out in the truck. The next thing I remember was being helped out of the truck and taken to my tent by two soldiers whom I do not know. I was then sick and flopped on my bed.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

SECOND WITNESS: R100704 Pte. DEZIEL, G., No. 12 Base Dental Coy., C.D.C., sworn, states:-

"I left here at 0945 hours 17 Sep 44 on a truck to TROUVILLE. Sgt. McNeill and Sgt. Laurence said they were going to take me along with them to act as an interpreter. When we arrived at TROUVILLE we went to a cafe accompanied by Cpl. Penwarden. Everyone had a few drinks. After a meal we went to a club where all but myself had more to drink. They drank champagne and many other types of liquor. I, myself, drank only lemonade and other soft drinks. We then went from the club to a brothel called "Bermont Castle". Sgt. McNeill was the only one who did not go up to the rooms with the girls. He stayed downstairs and had more to drink. After we left the hostel we went to a couple of hotels and had more to drink. I still only had soft drinks. From there we went to another cafe where the others drank some more. By this time they were becoming quite drunk. The proprietor of the cafe came over to me and said, "You must have lots of petrol". I said, "Yes, you must know that we have lots of petrol in the Army". The waitress then came over and told the proprietor that we owed 180 francs. The proprietor said to her, "Never mind, I shall fix that up". He did not ask if we had any money. The proprietor then said to me, "How about making a bargain with petrol". I said, "For myself, I don't care". The proprietor then asked me to interpret the request to the others which I did. The two sergeants conversed together on the matter. The corporal was not included in this conversation. Sgt. Laurence told me to tell the proprietor that if he would give us one bottle of champagne each we would get him more petrol. The proprietor then brought up four bottles of champagne in a wicker basket, but laid it on a nearby table. Sgt. Laurence then asked me to ask the proprietor how much Petrol he wanted. The proprietor said he wanted 500 litres of petrol. Sgt. Laurence then winked at Sgt. McNeil and said, "That will be O.K." The proprietor then gave us the four bottles of champagne and said that we be received the 500 litres of petrol it would cover the cost of the four bottles of champagne and the 180 francs which we owed him. The others then took another drink and then we went out and got into the proprietor's civilian truck to return back to camp to get the gas. There were three civilians and four soldiers. On the road back each one of my friends had a bottle of champagne which they drank. When we arrived home I hear d Sgt. Laurence tell the three civilians to wait as he would get the gas. Cpl. Penwarden and myself helped Sgt. McNeil back to his tent as he was helpless, and put him to bed. Cpl. Penwarden then said he was going to bed and I said, "So am I". When I got into bed a few minutes later, I heard someone calling my name. I recognized the voice as being from one of the new sergeants who had just recently arrived at the camp. I did not answer as I wanted to sleep.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER ADDRESSES THE COURT
PLEA IN MITIGATION

It is clear from the conduct sheet that this man has a good record. The facts of the case have been shown that this was one big party. The men had been working for a long time before, since coming over, under hard conditions and this trip to DEAUVILLE was one big blow-out and seeing that the circumstances were a big blow-out in DEAUVILLE after a very tedious period of work, it is admitted that the accused had to much to drink but as soon as he got drunk returned to his lines and got to bed and there is no record of his not being on the job the next day.

All this information is known to the Court and I just ask the Court to take these things into consideration when awarding punishment - that this was just a lapse of human nature and lots of people do this and get too much to drink and get into trouble.

I ask the Court to take these facts into consideration.

for a period of approx 3 hours and 20 minutes which happens to be the same 3 hrs and 20 minutes during which the alleged offence would have taken place. I will leave that to the Court to decide.

It is my duty to also point out to the Court that the question of drunkenness must be considered and I refer the Court to MML, Chapter III, para 48, which states that:

"Drunkenness often has to be considered by courts-martial not as an offence itself, but in relation to greater offences, which it accompanies. It is a principle of English law that drunkenness is no excuse for crime. But where intention is of the essence of the offence, drunkenness may justify a court-martial in awarding a less punishment than the offence would otherwise have deserved, or reduce the offence to one of a less serious character."

And again, at Chapter VII, para 9:

"Temporary intoxication (from liquor or drugs) as distinct from mental disease, which alcoholism, etc, may bring on, is not (if voluntary) in itself any excuse for crime; but evidence of drunkenness which rendered the accused incapable of forming the specific intent essential to constitute the crime must be taken into consideration together with the other facts proved in order to determine whether or not he had that intent. Evidence of drunkenness falling short of a proved incapacity in the accused to form the essential intent, and establishing merely that his mind was affected by drink so that he more readily gave way to some violent passion does not rebut the ordinary presumption that a man intends the natural consequences of his acts."

I am advising the Court on this phase of the matter not as it affects the second charge, as the accused has pleaded guilty to the second charge, but as it affects the finding on the first charge.

I wish further to remind the Court that the accused is entitled to the benefit of any reasonable doubt, and a reasonable doubt has been defined as a doubt that any ordinary reasonable person would entertain in like or similar circumstances and not an imaginary or fanciful doubt. If the Court after weighing the evidence has a reasonable doubt then the accused is entitled to the benefit of that reasonable doubt.

I further advise the Court that it is for the Prosecution to prove that the accused is guilty and not for the accused to prove that he is innocent. In other words there are certain essential ingredients of that charge each of which must be proved by the Prosecution. If the Prosecution has not proved these ingrediants then it is not for the accused to prove his innocence. The accused is innocent until he is proven guilty.

Mr President is there anything further on which you wish me to advise the Court?

No.

Mr Prosecutor?

No Sir.

Mr Defending Officer?

No Sir.

THE JUDGE-ADVOCATE ADDRESSES THE COURT
SUMMING UP

The accused is charged with two offences, the first charge being under Sec 40 AA, Conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline, in that he, improperly disposed of a quantity of government petrol, 49½ gallons, and secondly a charge of drunkenness. He has pleaded guilty to the second charge so that at this phase of the proceedings the Court is only concerned with the first charge.

The duty cast upon the Judge-Advocate is mainly concerned with advising the Court on the law and accordingly anything I say which might indicate my personal opinion as to the facts is to be taken as my own personal view only and not as advice to the Court on the facts. The Court and the Court alone is the sole judge of the facts.

The first charge is not a difficult type of charge. It is mainly a question of fact. Did the accused or did he not improperly dispose of 49½ gallons of petrol.

The Prosecution has adduced evidence which is not in many phases entirely clear, in fact it is confused. There is evidence before the Court that some sort of a discussion took place between the accused and companions and a civilian, one M. LOUIS. This discussion had something to do with the supplying of petrol to the civilians in return for a ride home and some champagne. There is some evidence to that effect by witnesses other than the civilians. The Prosecution then called the three civilians who gave evidence which I do not propose to deal with in detail. The evidence of these witnesses was to the effect that the accused carried 11 jerry cans of petrol from the petrol compound in 12 CBR Bn to the civilian vehicle.

It is my duty to point out that where the evidence of an accomplice is concerned the Court, while it may convict on such evidence, should not do so unless there is additional or some corroborative evidence. In other words, while in strict law the evidence of an accomplice is sufficient to enable a Court to convict it is dangerous for the Court to convict on the uncorroborated evidence of an accomplice. An accomplice has been defined as one who willingly takes part in an unlawful transaction or a crime. The evidence is not very clear but there would seem to be ample reason to believe that M. LOUIS as well as the other civilians were interested in obtaining some petrol and accordingly might have been interested to the extent that they were parties to the entire transaction and accordingly were parties to an unlawful act and therefore would be accomplices.

The Court will then have to consider whether there is any corroboration of the evidence of these accomplices, if the Court is satisfied that they are accomplices. I advise the Court that there must be corroboration. That is there must be independent evidence which not only shows that petrol was improperly disposed of but that the accused was the one who improperly disposed of same. The evidence of one accomplice can not corroborate the evidence of another. There must be independent evidence which confirms that petrol was improperly disposed of and that the accused was directly implicated in that improper disposal.

There is some corroboration of improper disposal of petrol because there is evidence before the Court by L/Cpl HENDY of the Pro Corps who has sworn that 11 tins of petrol were found in or near the civilian vehicle. Now that is corroboration of an independent nature for the improper disposition of the petrol but that is not corroboration of the civilian's story that the accused was directly connected with that disposal.

The Court will have to consider whether there is any corroboration of that additional material evidence. As opposed to that there is the evidence of a fellow sgt who swears that the accused was in his company

THE PROSECUTING OFFICER ADDRESSES THE COURT
SUMMING UP

There are only two points I would like to bring out. The Defending Officer more or less stated that three men have come here in this Court and committed perjury. I ask the proof of perjury. These three men swear and say that they saw the accused carry petrol.

He mentions times. There is widely diversified ideas of time and if they arrived at the cafe at 1715 hrs as stated and had several drinks there and then a good long ride from TROUVILLE to DOUVRES, it is quite a long ride, it might have been later than they said that they arrived back in DOUVRES.

The Defending Officer has stated definitely and quite emphatically that if a man carries petrol his hands will get very dirty. I will ask why the accused hands were not ditry after riding in a civilian truck for that distance. Unless that truck has been cleaned up every day your hands will be dirty. I contend that his hands must have been dirty.

We have the evidence of L/Cpl HENDY who stated that the cans were petrol cans, that the MT Officer of 12 CHR Bn accepted these cans and returned them into his compound. An MTO who would accept cans marked as petrol cans, and they are the only cans in the army which contain petrol and they are duly marked as petrol and the MTOs usually know their jobs. The L/Cpl definitely stated they were not water cans.

The Defence attempted to bring in the fact that the accused was not physically fit to carry these cans. Well to prove that he must bring in an MO's certificate. If a man's PULHEMS profile is 1111111 he is still physically fit to carry the cans.

EEP

of champagne which M. DURAND had been waiting around to give this bottle to Sgt LAURENCE, he waited long after dark

It is not thought that these civilians would be waiting around till after dark to specially give this extra bottle of champagne to the sgt. And when one of these civilians, waiting around, was found in the compound he said that he had been there to tell Sgt LAURENCE to come and get his bottle of Champagne. Now they have never produced this bottle of champagne. Now Sgt LAURENCE evidently took this bottle of champagne with him when he left earlier in the evening.

The other point is about the hands. Anybody who takes petrol from a petrol dump is bound to get his hands very dirty and greasy. There is no such things as new petrol tins. I do not think any of us has ever seen a petrol can which has just been wiped and washed and just come out of the dump.

One more incident which was never proved, that any petrol was in these tins, that any petrol has been stolen or that any petrol ever existed. The Prosecution never proved that any petrol ever existed. But petrol tins definitely can not be clean and if any member of this Court wishes to carry petrol cans for 150 yards or 100 yards back and forth I guarantee that their hands will be very dirty. Even after a few yards as the witness states the dirt gets ground into your hands. They went to have tea together and he handed him food and naturally anybody who hands food to anybody is going to notice the condition of a mans hands.

Now sir I do not think there is any sense in my unduly prolonging this argument. The facts are here and the Court has been able to analyse the evidence of the witness as well as I have.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER ADDRESSES THE COURT
SUMMING UP

Sir, the testimony for the Prosecution against the accused which consists of evidence given by three French civilians is very confusing. Their memories are good in some things and bad in others. At many times during the course of their evidence they made statements as to fact which upon their being closely questioned were found to be entirely wrong.. I might mention in connection with that the statement made by M. DURAND Sr, regarding the conversation which he was supposed to have had at DOUVRES after the other soldiers had left and he had no interpreter. Until he was reminded of the fact he reported quite a considerable conversation and then he covered up and said it was done with signs. The stories told by these witnesses are obviously told so that in no way should they be incriminated by the crime but the accused should be made the scapegoat to foist the blame upon when they were caught red handed with army petrol in their car and one of the members caught in the petrol compound and when seen there tried to conceal himself. When ordered to come out he said he was in there looking for the accused, clearly a very flimsy story.

This man whom I have examined is a robust young man. He said he had never handled a petrol tin. Their story was that the petrol was carried back to the truck by the accused and was lifted into the truck by M. LOUIS.

I question the Court that a man like M. LOUIS would be lifting petrol into the truck, that this corpulent gentleman would have done so with a young man there to do it. Surely he would have handled the petrol and instead of that he said he had never lifted a can of petrol and he had no idea of its weight.

The obvious answer is that the evidence of these witnesses can be of very little value because these witnesses who have given evidence before this Court have just said what they like to say.

Also these three civilians before they were examined, that is when they were handed over to the Gendarmes, it was nearly two days before their statements were taken, and they had a chance to make up a story which would incriminate somebody else but themselves and the obvious person to incriminate was the accused. They were quick to state that they were along with him and they were with him when he was supposed to have committed the crime of carrying the petrol to the truck during the lapse of time.

One witness M. DURAND, Sr, said that it was about 4 or 5 minutes after the other three soldiers left, including Sgt McNEILL who was escorted back to his tent in 9 CBR Bn lines which have now been described to the Court as being 1000 yards from the truck and a walking distance of 5 or 6 minutes. There must be some variation in the two, you could hardly walk 1000 yards in 5 or 6 minutes. Perhaps the Members of the Court know the exact location of these lines as they were in DOUVRES.

According to M. DURAND, Sr, it was 4 or 5 minutes after DEZIEL and McNEILL and company left for 9 CBR Bn lines that they woke up the accused. Then this immaginary conversation ensued between M. DURAND Sr and the accused. After that according to them the accused started to carry petrol from the compound to the truck. It took him from 10 to 15 minutes to make a trip. He made six trips making a lapse of time of from 1 hour to 1½ hrs. In the mean time the accused has been joined by two reputable witnesses and is said to have arrived in 9 CBR Bn lines, 1000 yards from the scene of the alleged crime 5 or 6 minutes after DEZIEL went to his tent, an approx time according to Sgt SLACK of 2010 hrs. Now at 1945 hrs the other witness Sgt PAQUIN traversed this cross-roads, at 1945 hrs he had gone over this cross-roads and had seen the civilians and the truck and had not seen Sgt LAURENCE and also it was bright day-light and the little hole in the wall through which he had to come with the petrol was located one side of a sentry of an English unit. Even if Sgt LAURENCE had been capable of making these six trips between the time he got up to 9 CBR Bn lines and the other soldiers got up there he could not have carried petrol to the civilian's truck during the hours of day-light.

Another point, when he arrived up with these radishes, a bottle of champagne and tomatoes he had obviously had to go and get the radishes and there was something gone out of this champagne bottle and there is this bottle personal knowledge. He has done well. I have found him to be efficient, I have never known him to be in trouble and any time he has spent in my sight he has conducted himself as a sgt should. I have never known him to be in any difficulty.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge-Advocate RP83(B) need not be complied with.

A.161 Right around 8 o'clock, I would say 8:10, 2010 hrs.

Q.161 And how long did you stay with him?

A.161 I was with him until about 2330 hrs.

Q.162 Continuously?

A.162 Yes sir.

Q.163 Where.

A.163 In one of the tents where we were working in.

Q.164 You stayed in that tent?

A.164 We stayed in that tent until I walked home with him.

Q.165 You never left him for a moment from 2010 hrs until 2330 hrs?

A.165 No sir.

Q.166 What were you doing?

A.166 We made coffee and were eating sandwitches and were talking about different things in general.

Questioned by the Judge-Advocate.

Q.167 Do you know where the petrol compound of 12 CBR Bn is?

A.167 No sir.

Q.168 Approx how far is the entrance to 12 CBR Bn from where you were to 9 CBR Bn?

A.168 I would say approx 1000 yards.

Q.169 What time was it when you last left the accused?

A.169 2330 hrs sir.

Q.170 How do you know it was that time?

A.170 I looked at my watch sir.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge-Advocate RP83(B) need not be complied with.

Witness withdraws.

THIRD WITNESS - For the Defence - duly sworn.
Major W C OSBORNE, 12 Base Dental Coy, CDC.

Q.171 You are Maj W C OSBORNE, 12 Base Dental Coy, CDC?

A.171 Yes I am.

Q.172 Do you know the accused Sgt LAURENCE?

A.172 I do.

Q.173 How long have you known him?

A.173 Since the formation of the coy around the 4th or 5th of Jun.

Q.174 Will you tell the Court what you think of Sgt LAURENCE as a technician and a member of the personnel of the coy?

A.174 Sgt LAURENCE came to this coy as a reinforcement on or about 4 or 5 Jun of this year. I have known him over that time and since then he has been an efficient technician. I have never heard of him being in trouble at any time. As far as his qualities as a technician I can speak from

Q.146 Was he requiring any assistance?

A.146 No he was walking quite well by himself.

Q.147 Did you have anything to drink with Sgt LAURENCE at the camp?

A.147 Yes sir.

Q.148 What did you have to drink?

A.148 Champagne sir.

Q.149 Did he have the champagne?

A.149 Yes he had the champagne.

Q.150 Was the bottle of champagne a full bottle?

A.150 No there had been several drinks taken out of it.

Q.151 What time was this when he came in?

A.151 Around 2000 hrs.

Q.152 Did you have anything to eat that night?

A.152 Yes we had tea in the tents where we were working.

Q.153 Is that your usual habit or do they have tea anywhere else?

A.153 They have tea at 9 CBR Bn but we used to make our own tea from parcels sent from home.

Q.154 What did you have to eat this night?

A.154 Tomatoe and radish sandwitches and I had a tin of spam.

Q.155 Did you notice when you were eating with Sgt LAURENCE that his hands were unusually dirty?

A.155 No sir, I noticed his hands because he was eating tomatoes.

Q.156 Have you any idea how dirty a mans hands would get if he had to go to the petrol dump to get some petrol and carry it any considerable distance?

A.156 Yes sir.

Q.157 Do they get very dirty?

A.157 Yes sir.

Q.158 Are they hard to get clean afterwards?

A.158 Yes sir, very hard to get clean.

Cross-examination by Prosecutor.

Q.159 Sgt, you said that a person carrying petrol gets their hands very dirty and they are very hard to get clean. May I ask why?

A.159 You get the gasoline and grease on your hands.

Q.160 If these cans were new from Ordnance they are freshly painted cans and have not been handled in such a manner to get grease on them from repeated handling would a persons hands get dirty?

A.160 I believe they would from the gasoline. I know as we handle a lot of gasoline for the dental stores. There is always a certain amount of dust and the least amount of gasoline would make the cans dirty.

Q.161 What hour was it when you first saw the accused on the evening of the 17th Sep?

D.6 p.2 Questioned by the Judge-Advocate.

Q.132 Do you know where the petrol compound of 12 CBR Bn was?

A.132 No sir.

Q.133 When you first observed this civilian vehicle was it 1945 hrs?

A.133 yes.

Q.134 What first attracted your attention to it?

A.134 It was parked right there around our place.

Q.135 Were there any civilians in it?

A.135 No they were out on the road.

Q.136 What were they doing?

A.136 As far as I could make out they were just hanging around there.

Q.137 Did you notice any jerry cans?

A.137 No sir.

Q.138 How many civilians were there?

A.138 Three civilians sir.

Q.139 Could you describe them.

A.139 No I could not sir.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge-Advocate RP83(B) Need not be complied with.

Witness withdraws.

SECOND WITNESS - For the Defence - duly sworn.
L-34069 Sgt SLACK H R, 12 Base Dental Coy.

Q.140 You are L-34069 Sgt SLACK H R, 12 Base Dental Coy?

A.140 Yes Sir.

Q.141 Do you remember seeing the accused Sgt LAURENCE on the night of Sep 17th this year?

A.141 Yes sir.

Q.142 Will you tell the Court the circumstances of your meeting with Sgt LAURENCE that night?

A.142 I was in camp that night and was just returning from my billets and I saw Pte DEZIEL going into the tent, they usually have something to eat at nights and I was looking for Sgt LAURENCE and I went over to the operators tent. This was at 9 CBR Bn and I was talking to Sgt GRIFFIN which was the chair assistant and Sgt LAURENCE came into the tent, he had been drinking and he was under the influence.

Q.143 Was he drunk or was he sober in your opinion?

A.143 No I would not say he was drunk but he showed signs of drinking.

He had tomatoes and radishes and he went into the tent with me. This was about 5 minutes after Pte DEZIEL arrived at his tent. We had something to eat and I took him down to his quarters.

Q.144 Whom, Sgt LAURENCE?

A.144 Yes.

Q.145 Why did you have to take him back to his quarters?

A.145 I just walked home with him.

FIRST WITNESS - For the Defence - duly sworn.
C-97025 Sgt PAQUIN O D, 12 Base Dental Coy, CDC.

Q.118 You are C-97025 Sgt PAQUIN O C, 12 Base Dental Coy, CDC?

A.118 Yes I am sir.

Q.119 Do you remember the night of 17 Sep this year?

A.119 I do sir.

Q.120 Will you tell the Court what you were doing between 1900 and 2000 hrs and from then on on that night?

A.120 At 1930 hrs I went out for a walk. At 1945 hrs I passed a civilian vehicle on the road and I saw standing there some civilians.

Q.121 Would you tell us where that vehicle was?

A.121 It was on the main road heading into the town right on the road which runs across from HQ our unit to our QM stores.

Q.122 That is the cross-roads on the main road going into town and on the corner, one corner, of the cross-roads is 12 CBR Bn lines?

A.122 Yes. I saw them there at 1945 hrs, the vehicle and the civilians.

Q.123 Did you see Sgt LAURENCE?

A.123 I did not. At 2155 hrs I returned along the same road and I saw the vehicle and a soldier on guard.

Q.124 About how far was that vehicle from the little door going through the stone wall into 12 CBR Bn?

A.124 I would say around 100 ft.

Q.125 Where there any sentries posted habitually along the main road near that door entering 12 CBR Bn and on this night?

A.125 Yes sir there was a sentry on duty that night and he is with the British REs.

Q.126 He was posted on the main highway close to that door?

A.126 Yes sir.

Q.127 Do you know whether or not with any degree of certainty, whether or not, Sgt LAURENCE is very strong?

A.127 He is not.

Q.128 Why?

A.128 I would not say for certain sir.

Cross-examination by Prosecutor.

Q.129 Sgt PAQUIN , was that night very dark at 1945 hrs?

A.129 It was not dark.

Q.130 At 2155 hrs it was dark?

A.130 Yes.

Q.131 Have you a luminous watch?

A.131 I have sir.

SIXTH WITNESS - duly sworn. Prosecution calls this witness at the request of the Defending officer.
H-195545 Pte MATSON R.

Q.113 You are H-195545 Pte MATSON R?

A.113 Yes sir.

Q.114 Where are you employed?

A.114 I am employed at the 35 Tps Composite Coy.

Q.115 On the 17th of Sep where were you employed?

A.115 I was at 12 Bn, 2 CBRG.

Cross-examination by Defence.

Q.116 On the night of Sep 17th will you tell the Court what happened on your way into camp? Did anything unusual happen?

A.116 As I was coming home this night with a friend I noticed a civilian inside the camp area. He tried to hide but we noticed him and it looked very suspicious to us.

Q.117 Where was he?

A.117 He was inside the petrol compound. I apprehended him and took him to the guard and he told us to take him right to the Adjutant and question him there. I did not get his name, he was a civilian.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge-Advocate RP83(B) need not be complied with.

Witness withdraws.

The Prosecution does not intend to call Sgt McNEILL, Bdr PENWARDEN and Cpl NEWMAN whose testimonies appear in the Summary of Evidence.

The Defence does not require the attendance of these witnesses.

The Prosecution is closed.

A.99 There were 11 full ones and there is about 4½ gallons in each jerry can.

Q.100 Do you know the names of any of the civilians?

A.100 Later I found out the civilians to be M. M LOUIS, M. M DURAND, Sr, and M. M DURAND, Jr.

Q.101 Were they in the vehicle when you arrived?

A.101 No they were in a tent when I arrived.

Q.102 You say the next day there was an identification parade?

A.102 Yes sir. The parade was held at 12 CBR Bn in front of their Orderly Room.

Q.103 Who were the persons who were to identify somebody?

A.103 The three civilians.

Q.104 Did they identify anyody at that parade?

A.104 No sir.

Q.105 Was there another identification parade?

A.105 Yes there was one at the Base Dental Coy.

Q.106 Was there anybody identified at that parade?

A.106 Yes sir, three men were identified.

Q.107 Are there any persons present who were identified?

A.107 Yes the accused Sgt LAURENCE.

Q.108 What happened after that?

A.108 The three men were placed in close arrest.

Q.109 Were any further investigations carried out?

A.109 Yes sir to try and locate the man known as the Cpl later found to be a Bdr.

Cross-examination by Defence.

Q.110 When you went up to the truck and when you escorted the civilians down and handed them over to the Gendarmes did you at any time see a bottle of champagne in the truck or in possession of the civilians?

A.110 No sir, I did not sir.

Questioned by the Judge-Advocate.

Q.111 Did you see the accused on the evening in question?

A.111 No sir I did not.

Questioned by the President.

Q.112 When did you first see the accused?

A.112 When he was identified at the Dental Coy parade.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge-Advocate RP 83(B) need not be complied with.

Witness withdraws.

Cross-examination by Defence.

Q.90 Are the petrol tins heavy?

A.90 I do not know as I did not carry them myself.

Q.91 Which direction did the accused go when he left the truck the last time?

A.91 In the same direction as where he had come from with the containers.

Questioned by the Judge-Advocate.

Q.92 Did anyone help the accused carry the jerry cans?

A.92 No sir.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge- Advocate RP 83(B) need not be complied with.

Witness withdraws.

FIFTH WITNESS - For the Prosecution - duly sworn.
F-21446 L/Cpl HENDY G A, No.9 Cdn L of C Pro Sec.

Q.93 You are F-21446 L/Cpl HENDY G A of 9 Cdn L of C Pro Sec?

A.93 Yes sir.

Q.94 Could you tell the Court what happened on the night of 17 Sep 44?

A.94 I was called upon by the Orderly Sgt of 12 CBR Bn and together with Cpl NEWMAN I went to 12 CBR Bn Orderly Room. There I found three civilians and an RCASC officer. The officer was questioning the civilians in French and he explained to me that the civilians had had some dealings with stealing petrol. I then went down to LA DELIVERANDE to get the Gendarmes. The Gendarmes came back with me and took the civilians into custody for the night. The following day an identification parade was held at 12 CBR Bn at which the civilians were unable to identify anyone. Then another parade was held at the HQ of 12 Base Dental Coy and at this identification parade three soldiers were identified one of which was the accused Sgt LAURENCE.

Q.95 As a result of information you received what investigation did you carry out if any?

A.95 I went down to the civilian vehicle which was on the road parked 25 yds from the main entrance of 12 CBR Bn gate. Upon arrival I saw jerry cans in the vehicle, there were approx 11 jerry cans. I had the vehicle moved from there and put it under guard. The civilians were placed in custody over night by the Gendarmes.

Q.96 What were the contents of these jerry cans?

A.96 I believe they were petrol cans.

Q.97 Is there any distinguishing features about these cans?

A.97 The only distinction between these cans and water cans is that the petrol cans are painted green or yellow while the water cans are brown with a dash of white and have the word water printed on the base of the can. These were not water cans. I did not examine the contents.

Q.98 Were these cans full?

A.98 The following day when I got a release from the DAPM I put them back in the petrol compound and the transport officer was with me at the time. I did not examine them or smell them to determine whether they contained petrol or were full.

Q.99 Approx how much petrol would they average?

FOURTH WITNESS - For the Prosecution - duly sworn.
M. DURAND M, Jr, TROUVILLE, NORMANDY.

Q.77 You are M. DURAND M, Jr of TROUVILLE?

A.77 Yes sir.

Q.78 Do you remember the night of Sep 17th 44 and what took place that night? Is there any person present in this Court room whom you saw that night?

A.78 Yes I remember the 17 Sep 44 and the Sgt present here I remember as having seen that night. Witness indicates the accused.

Q.79 What took place on the night of 17 Sep 44 in the cafe of M. LOUIS in DEAUVILLE?

A.79 We were playing dominoes when some soldiers came in.

Q.80 Is there any soldiers in this room whom you recognise as having seen that night in the cafe of Mr LOUIS?

A.80 Yes I recognise the sgt over there - indicates the accused - .

Q.81 What happened after you had finished playing dominoes?

A.81 I did not pay very much attention to what the soldiers were doing in the cafe.

Q.82 Where did you go when you left the cafe?

A.82 After leaving the cafe we went into M. LOUIS' car and then we went to LA DELIVERANDE.

Q.83 What if any conversation did you hear between the Cdn soldiers through the interpreter and M. LOUIS?

A.83 There was an interpreter but I did not bother to listen to the drift of the conversation.

Q.84 You arrived at DELIVERANDE, what happened there?

A.84 Three of the soldiers who were in the car left and the only one left was the accused and then we woke him up. He then came down from the car and looked for his other soldier friends and saw that they were gone, then waited for a few minutes and then mention petrol. And then he came back with some containers. I do not know the name of the containers but I have seen many of them on the army trucks. (interpreter apparently asking questions of the witness before they are asked by the Court).

Q.85 What was in these containers?

A.85 I did not open them but I was told that it was petrol.

Q.86 Were any of the contents of these containers put in the petrol tank of M. LOUIS' car?

A.86 I do not know sir.

Q.87 After the accused finished his trips what happened?

A.87 After bringing the containers he left for the camp leaving behind one bottle of champagne.

Q.88 What did you do?

A.88 Then I went in the camp to see if I could find the soldier to return the bottle of champagne that was left behind and then a sentry came and asked me what I was doing in the camp.

Q.89 What part of the camp were you in when you were halted by the sentry?

A.89 At the edge of the camp on the left.

Q.65 After you left for LA DELIVERANDE what transpired?

A.65 Then the accused and the other soldiers drank champagne enroute to LA DELIVERANDE.

Q.66 On arrival at LA DELIVERANDE what happened?

A.66 The other sgt left in company with the interpreter and the accused stayed in the vehicle. With movements of his hands and mention of the word petrol I understood that he meant that he wanted us to stay and he proceeded to the camp. I understood from his motions and the word that he wanted us to stay in the car after he left. And the accused then made 5 or 6 trips to and from the car with jerry cans.

Q.67 What was in these cans?

A.67 I did not look to see if it was petrol.

Q.68 Was any of the liquid from these cans put in the petrol tank of M. LOUIS' truck.

A.68 I think that M. LOUIS put some in but I am not sure.

Q.69 After 5 or 6 trips of the accused what happened then?

A.69 And then before the accused left with gestures I and M. LOUIS understood that he meant that we were to wait and that he was going to bring his friends to consume the last bottle of champagne. Upon his not returning I sent my son in search of the sgt.

Q.70 What had been done with the jerry cans?

A.70 They were placed in M. LOUIS' car.

Cross-examination by Defence.

Q.71 Did you clearly hear this conversation in the cafe between M. LOUIS and the soldiers?

A.71 No I sat at the table and only heard a few words mentioned about petrol and champagne.

Q.72 How long did it take the accused to make each trip for petrol back and forth.

A.72 Around 10 minutes each trip, About 10 to 15 minutes but I am not sure as it has been over two months.

Q.73 For each trip?

A.73 Yes sir for each trip.

Q.74 For a round trip?

A.74 As the car was parked approx 100 metres from the camp it took him approx 10 to 15 minutes for the round trip with two jerry cans.

Q.75 When the accused left did he take any champagne with him?

A.75 I did not see him take any. I did not see him take any champagne, the only thing I know is that there was one bottle of champagne left in M. LOUIS' car.

Q.76 How many bottles did they drink in the trip back?

A.76 I do not know how many bottles were consumed but I know that 4 bottles of the 5 were missing in the basket.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge-Advocate RP83(B) need not be complied with.

Witness withdraws.

Q.52 When you woke up the accused did you ask him when he was going to get the petrol or did you say anything about the petrol?

A.52 No I did not mention anything about petrol he is the one who remembered the bargain we had made.

Q.53 What was the condition of the accused when you made this so called bargain with him?

A.53 Normal sir.

Q.54 Had he not been drinking anything?

A.54 Before that he was normal he had taken only a few drinks in my cafe.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge-Advocate RP83(B) need not be complied with.

The Witness withdraws.

THIRD WITNESS - For the Prosecution - duly sworn.
M. M DURAND, Sr, TROUVILLE, NORMANDY.

Q.55 You are M. M DURAND, Sr, of TROUVILLE?

A.55 Yes sir.

Q.56 What is your occupation?

A.56 I am a butcher.

Q.57 Do you remember the night of September 17th 44?

A.57 A little sir.

Q.58 Is there anyone present in this room whom you saw that night?

A.58 Yes I recognise the sgt - indicates the accused.

Q.59 Where did you see the sgt?

A.59 In the cafe restaurant of M. LOUIS in DEAUVILLE.

Q.60 Did you hear any conversation between the accused and M. LOUIS either through the interpreter or directly?

A.60 No sir.

Q.61 What happened on the night you were in the cafe?

A.61 I was playing dominoes with M. LOUIS and some Cdn soldiers came in the cafe and then a conversation was struck between M. LOUIS owner of the cafe and the interpreter and then they said that they had missed their vehicle to go back. And then asked M. LOUIS if he would drive them back to LA DELIVERANDE and then I heard M. LOUIS say that he did not have enough petrol for the whole trip. And then I do not know exactly what transpired but finally the soldiers went to the Royal to pick up their leather jerkins.

Q.62 How was this conversation carried on between the soldiers and M. LOUIS.

A.62 The interpreter spoke from words uttered by a sgt but not the accused present in this room.

Q.63 Was the accused present during that conversation?

A.63 Yes the accused was present.

Q.64 Was the conversation in English or French?

A.64 The interpreter was speaking to the accused in English and translating it to M. LOUIS in French.

Q.39 Describe the cans?

A.39 It is the same kind of container as the army truck has with three handles and I have heard it referred to by other soldiers as jerry cans.

Q.40 Where they empty or full?

A.40 I do not know if they were half-full or full but I know they contained some liquid.

Q.41 What did you do with the cans?

A.41 They were given to me by the accused and I placed them in the vehicle.

Q.42 And then what happened?

A.42 And then he left and said to me "I will be back" I waited for a few minutes and then noticing still one bottle of champagne in the car I sent a friend of mine to look for him in the vicinity of the camp and then police arrived.

Q.43 When did you next see the accused?

A.43 I did not see the accused until the following day and I identified him in a parade of soldiers.

Cross-examination by Defence.

Q.44 In the cafe how much petrol did you ask for in exchange for the champagne?

A.44 I did not state the quantity I said that if you can obtain me some petrol I will give you 5 bottles of champagne.

Q.45 How long after the three soldiers left your car, how long after that did you wake up the accused?

A.45 About 4 or 5 minutes.

Q.46 How large were these bottles of champagne?

A.46 75 or 80 centilete, the usual average champagne bottle.

Questioned by the President.

Q.47 When the accused woke up in your truck what was his condition?

A.47 When I woke up the accused he was neither drunk or sober he knew what he was doing.

Q.48 Did the accused when he woke up have any conversation with you?

A.48 After I woke up the accused he asked me where his friends were and I answered that they were gone and then he mentioned, "oh yes the petrol, wait here for me."

Q.49 Do you understand English?

A.49 No.

Q.50 Did the accused speak French to you?

A.50 No.

Q.51 How do you know what he said?

A.51 Then he looked around and kept looking in the car and outside and in the car and said, "comnarade" and I imagined he meant his friends so I said partie which means gone.

Questioned by the Judge-Advocate.

Q.25 What is your occupation?

A.25 I am the proprietor of a cafe and restaurant.

Q.26 Do you recognise any person in this Court?

A.26 I recognise the Sgt - indicates the accused.

Q.27 When did you see that Sgt before?

A.27 I saw the Sgt on a Sunday in September.

Q.28 What happened on that Sunday in September?

A.28 That Sunday 4 Cdn soldiers came in my cafe while I was playing cards and then I and the other soldiers entered into a conversation and then after the soldiers told me they were from DOUVRES and that they were looking for a vehicle to take them back to their camp and then the soldiers saw my vehicle in front of my cafe and asked me to take them back to camp.

Q.29 Was the accused in your cafe?

A.29 The accused was in my cafe at the time.

Q.30 Was he close enough to hear the question put through the interpreter?

A.30 Yes sir.

Q.31 What happened after this?

A.31 Then I told the soldiers that I did not have sufficient petrol to take them to their camp and then I told them that I had enough petrol to take them to their camp but not to return and then through the interpreter I was told that they would give me some petrol if I took them to their destination.

Q.32 What was the bargain reached?

A.32 Then I was told that if the soldiers gave me petrol they expected 5 bottles of champagne.

Q.33 What happened at that stage?

A.33 Then some of the soldiers left and proceeded to their vehicle to pick up their leather jerkins and then we loaded the 5 bottles of champagne into my car and proceeded to DOUVRES.

Q.34 After you arrived in DOUVRES what happened?

A.34 Some of the chaps were sleeping in the car.

Q.35 Was the accused present?

A.35 Yes the accused was present in my car. Then three of the soldiers left my vehicle and the interpreter helped another sgt as he was a little wobbly at his knees. And then the accused, after the others left, the accused was still sleeping in the vehicle. Then I woke up the accused and upon waking up he said "ah yes the petrol". And then he made six trips and brought 11 jerry cans of petrol to my car.

Q.36 He made six trips, where from?

A.36 On the side of the street and he seemed to come from the camp.

Q.37 What was in these 11 cans?

A.37 As far as I was told it was petrol but I do not know.

Q.38 You did not examine them?

A.38 No sir.

EBS

A.14 I stayed in the cafe and the civilians left in company with both sgts when they proceeded in their vehicle to pick up their leather jerkins and then the other soldiers came back to the cafe to pick me up and they loaded the bottles in the civilian's car. On returning back in the civilian car three bottles of the champagne were consumed enroute to the best of my knowledge and then not long after the bottles of champagne were consumed the three soldiers were sleeping in the car. We returned by the LA DELIVERANDE road and stopped on the road in DOUVRES at the right of the street.

Q.15 How far was that from the camp where you were situated at?

A.15 About 5 or 6 minutes walk from my camp.

Q.16 After you stopped there what happened.

A.16 Then I woke up the three soldiers and told them that we had reached our destination. When I left in company with Sgt McNEILL Sgt LAURENCE was still in the civilian vehicle.

Q.17 Did you see the accused again that evening?

A.17 When I returned to my tent, about 5 minutes after I was in my tent the accused came in to see me. He came in my tent and consumed the last bottle of champagne in company of two other sgts.

Q.18 Were you engaged in interpreting after you left the cafe?

A.18 Yes sir. The civilians had the champagne in the front of the car and when the soldiers wished for some more champagne they asked me and I interpreted to the civilians.

Q.19 Was there any further conversation?

A.19 No sir.

Cross-examination by Defence.

Q.20 Did you spend much time in Sgt McNEILL's tent when you took him home?

A.20 I came in his tent and I asked him where his bed was and I put him down on the bed and asked him if he was alright and he said "Yes" then I left the tent.

Questioned by the Judge-Advocate

Q.21 What was the condition of the accused when you left the civilian vehicle to go to your tent?

A.21 He was fairly reeling from the drinks he had taken.

Q.22 Was he drunk?

A.22 He was drunk.

Q.23 Why do you say he was drunk, how do you know? What made you form the opinion that he was drunk?

A.23 Because he was staggering from one side to the other and once nearly fell from the side of the car.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge-Advocate RP83(B) need not be complied with.

Witness withdraws.

SECOND WITNESS - For the Prosecution - duly sworn.
M. M LOUIS, 44 Rue Desire La Hog, DEAUVILLE, NORMANDY.

Q.24 You are M. LOUIS M, of 44 Rue Desire La Hog, DEAUVILLE, NORMANDY?

A.24 Yes sir.

FIRST WITNESS - For the Prosecution - duly sworn.
E-100704 Pte DEZIEL G, No.12 Base Dental Coy, CDC.

Q.1 You are E-100704 Pte DEZIEL G, of No.12 Base Dental Coy, CDC?

A.1 Yes sir.

Q.2 Where do you work?

A.2 I work at the laboratory of 12 Base Dental Coy.

Q.3 Do you have any recollection of the 17th Sep 44?

A.3 Yes sir.

Q.4 What are those recollections?

A.4 At that date I left at 0945 hrs with some of the soldiers in a truck and then we went to TROUVILLE.

Q.5 Do you recognise any person in this Court as having been with you on that date?

A.5 Yes I recognise Sgt LAURENCE who was with us.

Q.6 After you arrived in TROUVILLE what happened?

A.6 It was noon time so I went to dinner. After that I and the other chaps went to various cafes for drinks. After visiting all these cafes I and the other chaps went to the Whore house. After that I and the other chaps also went back to some more cafes. And then after that I came to this cafe where I met some civilians.

Q.7 Was the accused present in that cafe?

A.7 Yes the accused was with me in that cafe.

Q.8 What happened in that cafe?

A.8 After a few drinks around I and all the other chaps spoke to the civilians who were playing at the table and one of the civilians mentioned petrol.

Q.9 Did you reply to him?

A.9 The civilian said to me, "Ask the other chaps if they can find me some petrol." And I answered, "there is lots of petrol in the army."

Q.10 Did you ask that question of the other chaps?

A.10 No

Q.11 What happened after that?

A.11 After that the lads still wanted to drink and the civilians proposed a bargain and the bargain was that the soldiers were to supply the civilians with 500 litres of petrol in exchange for 4 or 5 bottles of champagne.

Q.12 Did you interpret this suggestion to the accused?

A.12 To the best of my knowledge of French and English I translated the request to the accused now in this room.

Q.13 What did the accused say if anything?

A.13 Then the accused left in company with another Sgt and proceeded to an apartment and then came back. On returning both of them winked and said, "It's all right", I dont know which of them said "It's all right", whether it was the accused here or the other sgt who said "It's all right".

Q.14 What happened after that?

INSTRUCTIONS ON PROCEDURE AFTER ARRAIGNMENT.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated :

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See MML p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C) ; powers and duties of JA see RP 103 ; duty of Prosecutor see RP 60(A) (B) ; duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92 ; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82 ; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 83-85 ; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court, etc, see RP 75-79, 86, 116 ; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6 ; and responsibility of JA or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans No sir. (5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. ~~The Court considers the accused's statement (s) - The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on charge(s). - The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) changes (his) (their) plea(s) on charge(s). - Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.~~
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex "A", initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused : Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? Ans No Sir. (1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (~~no~~) (no) opening address.(1)
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)
(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Can 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) ~~The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the charge(s) (s). - The Court is cleared, and considers the submission (.) - The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the charge(s), and allowed on the charge(s); and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).~~ (1) BF 3
(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)
NB : If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither ? Ans do neither. Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf ? Ans Yes sir. Are they witnesses as to character only ? Ans one as to character and two as to fact.
(1. RP 115. 2. RP 40(A), see 60(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)
(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order, CF A95. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 86(C). Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 103(e).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.
(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the second charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1) EF ~~He directed announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated - Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.~~(2)
(1. AA 54(3) (6), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character ?(1)
Ans No Sir,
(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), and certified true copy ~~copies~~ of Conduct Sheet(s)(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(1) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex "B" and Ex "C" respectively.(3)
(1. MFB 355 or AFB 29a. 2. MFM 6. 3. RP 46, KR Can 558. If above documents not produced, see RP 46 fn 1 para 1.)

E3. President to accused : Do you wish to address the Court on the Statement(s) and Conduct Sheet(s), and in mitigation of punishment ?(1) Ans Yes through my Defending Officer. (2)
(1. RP 37(C), 46(D). 2. Address, if any, recorded per Notes. Court should permit accused or his witnesses to prove on oath anything here or previously stated which would affect the amount of punishment. RP 37(F) fn 7.)

E4. The President states that the Court is closed to consider the sentence, and that the sentence to be awarded by the Court, being subject to confirmation, will not be announced, but will be promulgated later, and the proceedings in open court are accordingly terminated.(1)
(1. AA 54(6), RP 120(A).)

E5. The Court considers the sentence.(1) The President records the sentence in Part I of the Schedule, which is dated and signed by him and the JA, if any.(2)
(1. *When several accused tried separately see RP 71 (D). One sentence only, comprised of the punishment or punishments laid down in AA 41, 44 and its proviso, is to be awarded to cover all charges in all charge sheets on which accused found guilty. RP 48. As to sentences see AA 44, 138, 182, RP 46-50, 69, 118, 119(6), KR Can 308, 330, 563-566, Overseas RO 309, 2323, MML p 60, 757-759. As to sentences assigned for civil offences by the law of England see AA 41(5), MML p 130. 16. A. No Sir.

17. Q. Comparing his efforts to the efforts of other men in your gang, how did his work stack up with theirs?

A. Very very poor.

J.G. McCombe Sgt.

To the Accused

As in the case of the first witness you now have the right, if you wish, to cross-examine this witness or reserve that right until a Field General Court Martial.

K 37164 Pte. Lawrence, J.D.

I wish to reserve that right until a Field General Court Martial.

To the Accused

Do you wish to make a statement or give any evidence under oath? You are not obliged to do so, but if you do I now warn you that anything that you might say will be taken down in writing and may be used as evidence in your trial by Field General Court Martial.

6. Q. Did you mention that they were holding up their end?

A. I did Sir.

7. Q. What was his reply?

A. He replied to me again that that was because they wanted to. I answered him by saying that you don't want to work because you don't want to hold up your end. He replied that he didn't want to work in this Company and had never wanted to be in it. I told him at that time that I was not interested in where he wanted to be, that as far as I was concerned that he would have to do a day's work. He then definitely stated that he did not intend to do any more than he was doing. I told the Accused that if he persisted in this attitude I would have to parade him before his Commanding Officer.

8. Q. What did he say to that?

A. He replied that he believed the Officers of No. 11 Company already knew his attitude and he again said that he did not intend to work any more than he was at that time.

9. Q. Did you definitely order him?

A. I did Sir.

10. Q. Was his attitude one of defiance?

A. It most certainly was.

11. Q. Then what transpired?

A. I told the Accused that I would parade him in front of his Commanding Officer next morning.

12. Q. What did he say to that?

A. He said nothing Sir. I then reported the matter to the C.S.M. and asked him to see that the Accused was paraded at the first opportunity.

13. Q. Was there any other conversation or anything else included in your discussion with Pte. Lawrence.

A. Yes. To the extent that I had to listen to all his sorrows about how he was wronged in Canada by not being given his own line of work and also of being sent overseas in the Forestry Corps against his will.

14. Q. Did he continue on the job for the balance of the day?

A. Yes Sir.

15. Q. Was there any improvement in his work?

A. There was not Sir.

16. Q. Anything that you know of with regard to his health that would make him incapable of doing the additional work you required of him.

B 20000 C.S.M. Edgar (Cont'd)

11. Q. With what result?

A. He still wished to go before a Field General Court Martial.

12. Q. Regarding the remand made by his Commanding Officer, were any changes made in the orders regarding his custody?

A. No Sir.

13. Q. Then his present status is close arrest pending a Field General Court Martial?

A. Yes Sir.

A. I did Sir.

3. Q. You recognize the Accused as being the man against whom you laid this charge?

A. Yes Sir.

4. Q. You recognize the Accused as being K 37164 Pte. Lawrence, J.D.

A. Yes Sir.

5. Q. Tell us the circumstances under which you laid this charge.

A. Sir: On the day and date as mentioned by you, Pte. Lawrence was working under me in the lumber yard of No. 11 Company, C.F.C. I gave him a job of laying slabs for a new road in the lumber yard, warning him that I expected that he would do a day's work. During the morning he did very little, and after dinner I spoke to the Accused and told him that he would have to do a great deal more. I mentioned to him the fact/

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

IN THE MATTER OF K 37164 Pte. Lawrence, J.D.
(Posted to Reinforcement Section, H.Q., C.F.C. and attached to No.11 Company, C.F.C.)

CHARGE

Army Act Section 40. While on Active Service - Conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline in that he, at Dall Camp, on Friday the Fifth day of December, A.D. 1941, when ordered to work by Sgt. McCombe, said that he was doing all he intended to do, thereby being insolent and defiant to a superior officer.

WITNESSES

B 20000 C.S.M. Edser, M.R.

1. Q. You are the Company Sergeant-Major of No. 11 Company, C.F.C.?

   A. Yes Sir.

2. Q. Your Company is now located at Dall Camp in Perthshire?

   A. Yes Sir.

3. Q. On or about the 6th day of December, 1941 you paraded the Accused before his Commanding Officer?

   A. I did Sir.

4. Q. Will you relate the circumstances under which the Accused was paraded.

   A. The Accused was reported to me by Sgt. McCombe. I made out a charge against him and had him paraded before his Commanding Officer, and at his own request, he was remanded to D.O.C. No. 4 District, C.F.C. I took him under close arrest and had him placed in custody at 0940 hours.

5. Q. Has the Accused been held in close arrest since?

   A. Yes Sir.

6. Q. Did the Accused appear before the D.O.C. No. 4 District, C.F.C.?

   A. Yes Sir.

7. Q. With what result?

   A. At his own request he was remanded for a Field General Court Martial.

8. Q. Was he then released from close arrest?

   A. No Sir.

9. Q. Were any further instructions received regarding the Accused?

   A. Yes. He was ordered to be paraded before his Commanding Officer on 8-12-41 and given the opportunity to change his decision if he desired to.

10. Q. And was he paraded before his Commanding Officer on 8-12-41?

    A. Yes Sir.

PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE

x

THE COURT BEING RE-OPENED, THE ACCUSED IS AGAIN BROUGHT BEFORE IT.

Evidence of character, etc.

Captain R.E.Beanish, prosecutor is duly sworn.

Question by the President.

Have you any evidence to produce as to character and particulars of service of the accused? Answer by the Witness. Yes sir.

The above statement (with the schedule of convictions and of cases in which trial has been dispensed with) is read, marked EXHIBIT 'A', signed by the President, and annexed to the proceedings.

Question by the President

Is the accused the person named in the statement which you have heard read? Answer by the Witness. Yes.

Question.

Have you compared the contents of the above statement with the regimental books? Answer. Yes sir.

Question.

Are they true extracts from the regimental books, and is the statement of entries in the conduct sheets a fair and true summary of those entries?
Answer. Yes sir.

Cross-examined by the accused.

Question to the accused.

Do you wish to address the Court? Answer. No sir.

THE COURT IS CLOSED FOR THE CONSIDERATION OF THE SENTENCE.

I maintain that it has not been proved by the Prosecutor that these words were uttered, and if these words were uttered it is the responsibility of the Prosecutor to prove them uttered. The accused stated it not to be insolence or defiance.

The Court is closed for the consideration of their findings at 1230 hours.

danger of convicting a prisoner on the uncorroborated evidence of an accomplice and, in his discretion, advise them not to do so, thought the the same time pointing out that it is withing their legal province to convict upon it if they choose. In a trial by court-martial, where the Court performs the functions of both judge and jury, they should very carefully consider the danger before convicting on the uncorroborated testimony of an accomplice; and, if there is a judge-advocate, it is essential that he should direct their attention to the point. Except where a statute makes provision as to the nature of the evidence necessary, the corroboration required is independent testimony which confirms in some materiql particular not only the evidence that the crime has been committed, but also that the accused committed it.

We have provided you with a credible witness, an N.C.O. wearing three stripes. The defence is not suggesting that there is any animosity between the two men, it is primarly the Sergeant doing his duty. It is now the duty of this Court to judge whether the evidence of the Sergeant is more credible than the evidence of the accused. I will not attempt to suggest an answer for that is the duty of the Court.

Summary by the Defence: May I call your attention to Courts-Martial Page 58, Chapter V, Section 67- " At the outset of their deliberations the court must remember that it is a principle of the English law that the accused is presumed to be innocent until he is proved to be guilty, and that the burden of proof rests upon the prosecution. Unless, therefore, the guilt of the accused has been established beyond reasonable doubt, the accused must be acquitted, as the prosecution has failed to sustain adequately the burden of proving his guilt.

Generally speaking, it is legally open to a court to convict an accused person upon the evidence of one credible witness. But in some cases corroboration of such witness is required by law; in others it is required by practice almost amounting to a rule of law. In some instances it is desirable that corroboration should be looked for though not actually required by law or practice.

We have in this case two witnesses, one for the Prosecution and one for the Defence. Witness for the prosecution used certain words. Accused claims that he used other words. I maintain that it is the duty of the Court, by additional witnesses, or by any method they see fit, to prove that the statements of the accused are not correct. If I may be permitted to take a little of your time, I would wish to say a little about the work performed by the accused.

Prior to his enlistment he was a salesman. He knows nothing of Forestry work and is not happy in his work for he does not know anything about it. It is natural to assume that this type of man would not know anything about the Forestry Work. That this man was detailed to do a job of laying slabs and sorting slabs it is natural to assume that he would be slow in his task. It is submitted that to prove insolence and defiance the prosecution must prove that the man intended to be insolent and defiant. I submit that the prosecution has failed to prove this point. This is again brought out in the cross-examination of the first witness. I know this man has asked to be paraded. The permission was refused. Under our rules and regulations any soldier has the privilege of seeing his Commanding Officer and airing his grievances. I submit that the accused has been discriminated against and I see just cause that th he felt that he had been prejudiced against, and that might have a lot to do with the tone used. In conclusion may I read the charge. "Conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline in that he, at Dall Camp, Perthshire, on or about the 5th day of December, A.D., 1941, when order to work by Sgt. McCombe, said that he was doing all he intended to do, thereby being insolent and defiant to a superior officer, a person subject to military law, contray to Army Act, Section 40."

/I maintain

The accused, K 37164 Pte. Lawrence, J.D., cross-examined by the Prosecutor (Con't).

6. Q. The Sergeant testifies that you said "that you were doing all you intend to do". Did you make that statemen?

A. No Sir.

7. Q. Did at any time during the afternoon did Sgt. McCombe tell you that if you did not work harder he would lay a charge against you?

A. He did make that statement.

8. Q. You mentioned that you enlisted on August 28th, 1939. In what unit did you join?

A. The Duke of Cannoughts.

9. Q. How did you get into the Canadian Forestry Corps?

President ruled the question irrelevant.

Summary by the Prosecutor:

President and gentlemen of the Court:- The case that we have heard this morning is one that comes in the category of a petty grievance but still a crime. Actually cases of this type have been dealt with in Company Orderly Rooms all over the Empire. It is, in fact, surprising that such a matter should come before a Court-Martial at all. The fact that it is a particularly small charge should not change the specific fact which the Court must face to do justice, whether the accused made the remarks as charged or whether he was insolent. I was trying to bring out the background of this man for many actions of a man can be accounted for by his background. It is not for me to say whether he was happy or not happy with No. 11 Company, he would still have to show proper respect to an N.C.O. With only one witness for the prosecution to state what this man said and with the accused taking the witness stand to off set the statements, it is a case to decide which witness to believe or which one speaks the truth. Sgt. McCombe says specifically that the accused said "I do not intend to do more than I am doing". It is also a question as to the voice in which these words were uttered. I submit that an N.C.O. is very unlikely to arrest a man who stated "I am doing all the work that I am able to do". It may be submitted by the defence that one witnesses' testimony is as good as the other man's. It may be as good as the other provided that the one man is as good as the other. I refer to Sec. 44 Chapter VI of the Evidence Act. "The rule which requires production of the best obtainable evidence does not require the strongest possible assurance: in other words, does not require the fullest proof of which the case will admit, nor the repetition of evidence beyond that which is sufficient to establish the fact. For instance, it is not necessary, in order to prove handwriting, to call the writer himself; nor, if a whole regiment should be present at some overt act of mutingy or insubordination, as the striking of a commanding officer in fron of his regiment, would the law require the production of all the persons present; for if one witness only were produced, and, if, from his situation at the moment of the occurrence, he had as favourable an opportunity of observing what took place as any person present, his evidence would be complete, and not inferior in kind to any that could be produced.
Sec. 45 - On the same principle the law admits as sufficient the uncorroborated testimony of one credible witness, subject to statutory exceptions in the case, e.g., of treason, procuration of women and girls, and in certain cases where a child of tender years is allowed to give evidence without being sworn; and to the further exception that in a trial for perjury one witness alone is not sufficient, without some material and independent corroborative evidence in proof of the statement as to which the perjury is charged. Apart from any such statutory requirement the evidence even of an accomplice is in strict law sufficient, if the jury consider him credible; but it is now held to be the duty of the judge to war the jury of the /danger

The accused, K 37164 Pte. Lawrence, J.D., examined by the defence (con't)

16. Q. He told you about working and holding your end up?

A. Yes Sir.

17. Q. What did you tell him?

A. That the other men were more used to it.

18. Q. He told you that you did not want to work because you did not want to hold up your end?

A. Yes Sir.

19. Q. When the Sergeant told you that you would have to work faster what did you say?

A. In the afternoon you mean?

20. Q. In the afternoon?

A. I told him that I was doing all I was able to do.

21. Q. That was what you said?

A. Yes Sir.

22. Q. Was the Sergeant angry when he came around to see you in the afternoon?

A. He was very preturbed about the situation.

The accused, K37164 Pte. Lawrence, J.D., cross-examined by the Prosecutor.

1. Q. I do not like to thresh over old straw, but would you tell me in your own words exactly what happened from the time you reported to Sgt. McCombe? We understand about the work that you were doing so you can begin from the time he came around in the morning.

A. He came around in the morning and told me to hurry up. I told him that I was doing all the best I could. He went away. Then he came around after dinner and told me that the other men were holding up their end and I answered that they were more used to the work. He then told me that I should do more and I told him that I was doing all I was able to do.

2. Q. Did you say that you did not want to work and that you did not want to be in the Company?

A. I did not mention any special Company but I told him that I did not want to be in the Forestry Corps at all.

3. Q. But you did tell him that you did not want to be in the Canadian Forestry Corps?

A. I did Sir.

4. Q. And when was it, in the morning or in the afternoon?

A. It was in the morning that he said that.

5. Q. Was it in the afternoon that you told him that you were doing all you were able to do?

A. In the afternoon.

The evidence of the witnesses for the defence, including that of the accused, if he is a witness, will be taken here in the order in which they give evidence.

The accused, K 37164 Pte. Lawrence, J.D., Reinforcement Section, H.Q., C.F.C., attached to No. 11 Coy., Canadian Forestry Corps, having been duly sworn is examined as follows:

Q. 1. Pte. Lawrence, when did you enlist in the Canadian Army?

A. August 28th, 1939.

2. Q. When were you sent overseas?

A. In the middle of October of this year.

3. Q. You were sent to No. 11 Company?

A. Yes Sir.

4. Q. What was your occupation before you enlisted?

A. I was a salesman.

5. Q. What were you doing when you first came over?

A. I was laying slabs in the camp yard.

6. Q. How many were there?

A. Two or three or more. It was never a definite figure.

7. Q. How long were you on the job?

A. Two or three weeks.

8. Q. Were any complaints made?

A. Not to me.

9. Q. On the 5th December whom did you report to?

A. To Sgt. McCombe.

10. Q. What did Sgt. McCombe tell you?

A. He told me to lay some slabs, or whatever you call them, on the road and some of the larger ones were to be sorted and piled at the side of the road.

11. Q. In other words you had to lay some on the road and some along the road?

A. Yes Sir.

12. Q. How many times did he come to you in the morning?

A. Once only he spoke to me but he came two or three times.

13. Q. When he spoke to you what did he say?

A. He told me that I had better work more.

14. Q. He did not say anything more till afternoon?

A. No sir.

15. Q. When he came around in the afternoon he warned you about working?

A. Yes Sir.

The prosecution is closed.

Defence.

Question to the accused. Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness ?

Answer. Yes Sir.

Question. Do you intend to call any other witness in your defence ?

Answer. No Sir.

Question. [redacted]

INSTRUCTIONS TO THE COURT.

(i) When the answers to the above questions have been recorded, the Court will follow the provisions of Rules of Procedure 40 and 41 respecting the order of evidence and addresses which is applicable to the circumstances of the case.

(ii) All addresses by prosecutor, counsel or defending officer, whether recorded by the Court or handed in in writing will be attached to the proceedings in the order in which they are made. Any address which the accused is entitled to make pursuant to Rules of Procedure 40 (C) (iv) and 41 (A) (i) and (ii) will be similarly dealt with. Written addresses will be read to the Court, marked and signed by the President. If any person who is entitled to make an address declines to do so, a record will be made to that effect.

(Where any evidence is given for the defence.)

The evidence of the accused (and of the witnesses for the defence including witnesses as to character) is recorded on a separate page (see overleaf).

(Where the accused does not give evidence upon oath.)

Question to the accused. Have you anything to say in your defence ?

Answer. The accused in his defence says†

[hands in a written address which is read, marked , signed by the President and attached to the proceedings.]

Instruction. † In this space will be recorded any oral statement or address made by the accused in his defence when he has not given evidence as a witness. (For any additional address which he is entitled to make, see Instructions to the Court above.)

Cross-examination of Second Witness, H 19752 Sgt. McCombe, J.G., Con't.

17. Q. Did the accused say anything further to you than that he did not intend to do more than he was doing?

A. He told me about the grievances he had. At the time he told me this I said that I could have to parade him. He said that the officers knew hoe he felt about the work already.

Second Witness, H 19752 Sgt. McCombe, J.G., re-examined by the Prosecutor.

Q. 1. You said during the examination Sergeant, that you brought to the accused's attention the work that the other man had done in one and a half days?

A. Yes Sir.

2. Q. And that it was 90 feet of road?

A. Yes Sir.

3. Q. How much road did this man do in the morning?

A. I could not say in the morning but at the end of the day I measured it to be twenty-one feet.

B 20000 C.S.M. Edgar, R.H., First Witness recalled and is examined by the Defence.

1. Q. There is just one question that I would like to ask you. Did the accused ask you to parade him to his Officer Commanding?

A. A number of times. I spoke to the Officer Commanding at the time and it was not convenient for him to see him.

2. Q. Would you say four or five times?

A. Yes Sir.

3. Q. This man has been charged with insolence and defiance. The evidence which has been submitted has more to do with the amount of work done or not done. There has been no evidence to prove the charge as read and I request that the accused be dismissed for lack of evidence.

Defence rests.

Prosecutor: Sgt. McCombe states on testimony and on oath that the accused said these words "I do not intend to any more work". Sgt. McCombe has further given evidence that there was no conflict between the Sergeant and the accused, and nothing in their past relationship which is not normally found in the relationship between a Private and Sergeant. This Court might quite properly dismiss the case on the grounds of insufficient evidence without requiring any defence testimony to be heard but it may only do so if the prosecution has not established a pri facie case. The question of judicial notice must be taken into consideration before the Court can reach this decision. Under the Rules of Evidence judicial notice may be taken of the fact that we are at war for instance. Judicial notice may be taken of the matter of the respect that one rank must pay to another superior rank. The Sergeant's evidence states that the accused said certain words in a manner in which private soldiers should not speak to their superiors. I submit that it rests upon the defence to show that there was such aggravation to excuse the remarks or that the remarks were not uttered.

Cross-examination of Second Witness, H 19752 Sgt. McCombe, J.C., Con't.

2. Q. It was stated in the summary that he reported to you for work on the 5th. Why did he report?

A. The Sgt.-Major said that we were one man short and that he was sending up Pte. Lawrence.

3. Q. You gave him his instructions?

A. I showed him what to do and gave him full instructions as to the work.

4. Q. You left him to carry it out?

A. Yes sir.

5. Q. Did you come back to supervise at any time?

A. I came back a couple of times.

6. Q. Did you give him instructions each time you came?

A. No Sir.

7. Q. How many times did you actually come back to the road?

A. I came four times Sir.

8. Q. Each time did you complain?

A. No Sir.

9. Q. How many times did you complain?

A. Once Sir.

10. Q. When you came around in the afternoon, naturally you were preturbed about the amount of work done, what did you say?

A. I told him that he was not doing as much work as he could and he replied that he did not intend to do any more.

11. Q. Was that what he definitely said to you?

A. As far as I can remember.

12. Q. Not what you remember but what he actually said?

A. I do not intend to do any more work.

13. Q. When you came back in the afternoon you were naturally preturbed that there was no more work done?

A. Yes Sir.

14. Q. Were you angry?

A. No Sir.

15. Q. You told him that there was not enough work done?

A. Yes Sir.

16. Q. You say this man was insolent. How was he insolent?

A. By the way he answered.

Second Witness for the Prosecution, H 19752 Sgt. McCombe, J.C. (Con't)

4. Q. The instructions you gave him were in the form of a direct order?

A. Yes Sir.

5. Q. Did he understand that it was a direct order?

A. I do not see how he could not.

6. Q. Had anyone been working on the road previously previously to the accused?

A. Yes Sir.

7. Q. Was that how you could compare what work he was doing to someone else's?

OBBCTION BY THE BEFENCE: Due to the nature of the charges, insolence and defiance should be proven and the amount of work done is irrelavent.

OBJBCTION OVERRULED. A. Yes.

8. Q. You have told us that the accused said that he was doing as much work as he was going to do or words to that effect?

A. Yes sir.

9. Q. What was the attitude taken in his statement?

A. I would say it was insolent.

10. Q. Did he complain about the work?

A. He said that he did not have a square deal, and that he did not want to be in the Forestry Corps and that he did not intend to do more than he was doing.

11. Q. Were his replies the replies such as a private soldier would use to a Sergeant?

A. Definitely not Sir.

12. Q. He remained on the job all day?

A. Yes Sir.

13. Q. Was there anything other than his work that he complained about?

A. No Sir.

14. Q. When he was complaining about conditions did he complain about his health?

A. No sir.

15. Q. As far as you know what would you say his health was?

A. I would say it was very good Sir.

Second Witness for the Prosecution, H 19752 Sgt. McCombe, J.C., cross-examined by the Defence.

1. Q. That morning Sergeant, this man reported and was put on the job of laying slabs on the road, how much road was there to lay?

A. There was a considerable piece to lay and the man on the previous day, that was working on the last day, laid 90 feet.

9. Q. At that time was he left in open arrest?

A. No Sir, immediately that he was disposed of by his Company Commander I placed him under close arrest.

10. Q. And he remained in close arrest since that time?

A. Ever since he was in Dall Camp.

11. Q. And ever since then as to your knowledge?

A. Yes Sir.

12. Q. You heard the charge that was read before the accused today?

A. Yes Sir.

13. Q. Is the charge the same as the one originally charged with?

A. Yes Sir.

First Witness cross-examined by the Defence.

1. Q. The charge was reported to you?

A. It was Sir.

2. Q. In other words you know nothing about it except what you heard from the man who made the charge?

A. Yes Sir.

3. Q. He was reported as having disobeyed orders when he was not working, when ordered to work?

A. Yes Sir.

4. Q. That is all.

Second Witness for the Prosecution, H 19752 Sgt. McCombe, J.G., No. 11 Coy., Canadian Forestry Corps, having been duly sworn is examined by the Prosecutor.

1. Q. Will you give us your number, name, rank and unit?

A. H 19752 Sgt. McCombe, J.G., No. 11 Coy., Canadian Forestry Corps.

2. Q. Do you recognize the accused?

A. Yes Sir.

3. Q. Can you tell the Court what dealings you have had with the accused in the morning?

A. On the morning of the 5th December or thereabouts, the accused was sent to the Mill Yard to work under me. I gave him the job of laying a Slab Road in the yard. During the morning he did very little work but I thought that he might improve and I spoke to him in the morning and I told him that I expected to get a day's work out of him. After dinner, when I had saw what he had done, I told him that he was not doing as much as he was able to do. I told him that he would certainly have to do more. I did mention at the time that he would have to hold his own end up as the other boys in the business were holding up theirs and he answered that he did not intend to do any more than he was doing. I told him that if he persisted in this attitude I would have to parade him to the Commanding Officer. He then told me that he did not intend to do any more than he was doing. I then told him that he would be paraded before the Commanding Officer next morning.

Form for Assembly and Proceedings of Field General Court Martial on Active Service.

PROCEEDINGS.

A.

Order convening the Court.

On Active Service, this Twenty-third day of December, 1941.

Whereas it appears to me, the undersigned, an officer in Command of Canadian Forestry Corps Canadian Army Overseas, on active service, that the persons named in the annexed Schedule, being subject to Military Law, have committed the offences in the said Schedule mentioned.

And whereas I am of opinion that it is not practicable that such offences should be tried by an ordinary General Court Martial; *[and that it is not practicable to delay the trial for reference to a superior qualified officer.]

I hereby convene a Field General Court Martial to try the said persons, and to consist of the Officers hereunder named.

*[I am unable to appoint—

*(1. Three Officers to form the Court.)

*(2. A Field Officer as President.)

*(3. Three Officers having more than one year's service.)

for the following reasons, namely:—]

* Omit where Convening Officer is a Commanding Officer of rank of Field Rank.

* Omit if not applicable.

Finding.*

*To be struck out except in cases where trial has taken place on a plea of "Not Guilty."

The Court is closed for the consideration of the finding.

The Court find that the accused B.36987 Pte. Vernon Arthur Lawrence is guilty as charged.

*When the Court is already open this sentence will be struck out.

Proceedings on Conviction before Sentence.

*The Court being re-opened, the accused is again brought before it.

The Prosecutor Lt.W.D.Parker RHLI is duly sworn.

Evidence of character, &c.

Question by the President. Have you any evidence to produce as to the character and particulars of service of the accused? Answer by the Witness. Yes - a copy of Regimental Record and AFB 296.

The above statement [with the schedule of convictions and of cases in which trial has been dispensed with] is read, marked "J" , signed by the President, and annexed to the proceedings.

Question by the President. Is the accused the person named in the statement which you have heard read? Answer by the Witness. Yes Sir.

Question. Have you compared the contents of the above statement with the regimental books? Answer. No Sir.

Question. Are they true extracts from the regimental books, and is the statement of entries in the conduct sheets a fair and true summary of those entries?

Answer. These were sent from CMHQ.

Questions.—If in respect of the service of the accused in a supplementary capacity or otherwise, the finding of the Court contains facts in any exceptional circumstances in addition to that to be asserted by the Court the prosecutor must call the attention of the Court to the fact, and the Court must inquire into the matter and append to the sentence the additional particulars.]

Cross-examined by the accused.

Accused declines to cross-examine this witness.
The accused does not object to the record being produced to the Court and says it is a true copy of his record. The Defending Officer in turn does not object.

Question to the accused. Do you wish to address the Court? Answer. No sir.

The Court is closed for the consideration of the sentence.

G.A. Ponsford. Lt.

Q. Did you see anyone in the tent.
A. No one.

Q. Next morning did you examine your equipment?
A. No Sir.

Q. Do you know if the other men examined their equipment?
A. I don't think so.

Q. What kind of kit bags did Lawrence have?
A. Two of the Army issue.

Q. Were they full of equipment?
A. I don't know.

Q. Were they full or empty?
A. I think one was full & the other ¾ full.

Q. Were they tied at the top or locked?
A. I don't know.

Q. Are you in the same platoon as Private Lawrence.
A. I am Sir.

Q. Same Section?
A. Yes Sir.

Q. Do you chum around with Pte. Lawrence.
A. No only in the Section.

Questions by the Court.

Q. About what time did the conversation between Rilley and Lawrence take place?
A. I don't know but I think it was about Midnight.

Q. I think you said you could'nt see the door from where you were sleeping?
A. Yes Sir.

Q. What do you sleep on?
A. Palliasse.

Q. And you still could'nt see?
A. No Sir.

This concludes the case for the Defence.

Defending Officer says in closing.

No question there, but were they there with his knowledge and consent? He states he has no knowledge of any exhibits whatsoever and he has produced evidence which shows it possible for some authorized person to have been in his tent on the night before he went to the hospital at which time the large pack could have been tampered with. You will notice on diagrams of the tent that Pte. Lawrence's kit was next to the opening which would have made it possible for someone to get at that kit.

Cross-examination by the Prosecution.

Q. You say immediately on left as you enter the tent was the equipment of Pte. Lawrence?
A. Yes Sir.

Q. Does he own two of the large size kit bags?
A. Yes I think so.

Q. What time was it when you first heard someone in your tent?
A. I don't know I haven't a watch.

Q. Where in the tent did you see the person?
A. In the doorway.

Q. The only time you saw him he was standing in the doorway?
A. Yes Sir.

Q. Was he facing you or did he have his back to you?
A. I don't know.

Q. Did he return again?
A. Not as far as I know.

Q. After he left did you examine your kit bags?
A. There was no sense in opening them as it was too dark to see if anything was missing. I felt my tunic pocket to see if my pen and pencil set was gone & went back to bed.

Q. Did you examine your equipment next morning?
A. Yes Sir.

Q. Did you find anything had been touched?
A. Nothing of mine.

Q. Do you know of any equipment other than your own had been touched.
A. Nobody mentioned anything to me.

Q. Are you in the same platoon as Pte. Lawrence?
A. Yes Sir.

Q. Same Section?
A. Yes Sir

Q. How long have you known Lawrence.
A. Since coming to Unit - two months.

Q. Is he a Buddy of yours?
A. Yes Sir.

3rd. Witness for the Defence.

B.38467 Pte. Flood D.I. 1st. Bn. Royal Hamilton Light Infantry, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas after having been duly sworn is examined by the Defending Officer.

This witness produces a diagram showing a sleeping plan of the tent in which he and the accused sleep. It is produced to the Court and marked Exhibit "I" and attached to the proceedings.

Q. Will you describe any instances that occurred on the night previous to Pte. Lawrence going to Hospital.
A. On that night I had been asleep and I was awakened by voices of Pte. Lawrence and Rilley talking. From where I was in the tent I could'nt see the door for the uniforms that were hanging on the tent pole. Lawrence asked Rilley where he was & Rilley also asked Lawrence. They both replied they were in bed.

Cross examined by Prosecutor.

Question by the Court.

Q. Can you tell me what Unit Hodge and Ross belong.
A. No Sir.

Q. Can you tell me why you particularly noticed the Pay Books.
A. Because I saw two pay books & I know it is not customary for a soldier to have two pay books.

Q. Why was the inspection made?
A. I was looking for two revolvers.

FAW ~~FAW/Defence-at-//~~

This is the case for the Prosecution .
at this Point the Defending Officer submits no case and asks for dismissal at this point on the grounds

(1) Onus on the Prosecution to prove their case.
(2) No Prima Facie case established against the accused.

In reply the Prosecutor says

(1) The fact that he had the documents on him is sufficient to put him on his defence.

The Court refuses to accept the submission of the Defence.

DEFENCE

The accused wishes to make a statement NOT on oath. It has been explained that the court does not give as much weight to evidence Not under oath as under oath.

1st. Witness for the Defence.

The accused B.36987 Pte. Lawrence V.A.

NOT sworn states.

On returning from leave on the 25th. July I was put under close arrest with no kit because I was three days overdue on my leave. I was under close arrest until the following Saturday at 1630 hours. I had no access to my kit all this time. When I was given 21 days F.P. the Quartermaster was not in his Company Stores where my kit was being held. Returning after 1730 meal parade I was able to secure my kit from the Stores where I took it back to my tent and placed it in its normal position. I had no reason at that time to go into my kit. Being on F.P. I had to do General Duties until 2130 hrs. The following day being Sunday I worked in the kitchen all day until ~~1630~~ 2130 hrs. FAW

All this time having no reason to go into my kit.
The following morning I reported sick and was told that I would be going to hospital right away. A lorry took me back to my tent where I loaded my kit and was taken to hospital. That kit, holding nothing which I needed was not opened till the Horsham Police came down to examine my kit. On the previous night before going to hospital Pte. John Riley woke up saying there was somebody in our tent. As he woke us up the person or persons took out (left).

2nd. Witness for the Defence.

B.41964 Pte. Rilley J. 1st. Bn. R.H.L.I. a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas after being duly sworn ~~states~~ is examined by the ~~Prosecutor~~ Defending Officer.
FAW

This witness produces a diagram showing a tent and the equipment in it. This is marked Exhibit "H" and attached to the proceedings.

Q. On the Night previous to Pte. Lawrence going to the Hospital can you tell me af any event that took place in that tent?
A. Late that night I woke up and found somebody standing in the door of the tent. I was in the act of getting up when Pte. Lawrence happened to say something. Thinking it was Pte. Lawrence I laid down and started

G.M Ponsford. Lt.

I also found two passes made out as follows:-
(1) In the name of B.36892 Pte. Hodge L.B..
This pass is produced to the Court and marked EXHIBIT E and attached to the proceedings.

(2) In the name of B.36774 Pte. Ross A.J. This pass is produced to the Court and marked EXhibit "F" and attached to the proceedings.

In addition I found 13 blank passes bearing the Royal Hamilton Light Infantry Orderly Room Stamp. These passes are produced to the Court and marked exhibit "G" and attached to the proceedings.

Q. Was Private Lawrence present when this examination was made?
A. Yes Sir.
Q. Did he offer any explanation when these passes were found?
A. He said he had no idea where any of the documents came from. He said however that he knew Pte Hodge and Pte. Ross.

Cross-examination by Defending Officer.

Q, Was there any attempt on the part of Pte. Lawrence to conceal these documents?
GAP
FAW A. ~~When he tipped the bags article by article~~ When he tipped the articles out of the bag everything came out except the Pay Books.

Q. How many bags did Pte. Lawrence have?
A. I'm not sure Sir.

Q. Did he have more than one?
A. Yes Sir.

Q. Can you remember which bag these pay books fell out of?
A. I believe Sir it was the Pack.

Q. Can you remember what else was in the pack.
A. No Sir.

Q. In your statement you said "All the articles fell out" were there a lot of articles?
A. More than one Sir.

Proceedings on Plea of Not Guilty.

*Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity for preparing your defence?

Answer. No Sir.

The prosecutor makes an opening address [hands in a written address which is read, marked , signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings.]

The prosecutor proceeds to call witnesses.

First witness for prosecution. D. 98661 Q.M.S. MacIver, R.C.A.M.C. attached #1 Cdn. General Hospital, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor.

Q. You are Q.M.S. at #1 Cdn. General Hospital?
A. Yes Sir.
Q. Were you present when the kit of Private Lawrence V.A., R.H.L.I. was examined on the 16th. of Aug. 43.
A. Yes Sir.
Q, Will you tell the Court what was found in that kit, if anything.
A. I found two pay Books which I initialled, one Pay Book was made out to B.36892 Larry Baden Hodge, this Pay Book is produced to the Court and marked Exhibit B and attached to the proceedings, the other Pay Book was made out in the name of B.36774 Pte. FOURTH WITNESS for the prosecution RECALLED

B.173, Cfn. GLENNIE, J. on the strength of 1 C.B.W., R.C.E.M.E. having been duly sworn, states:-

I did not give anyone authority to take my pen and pencil from my battle dress blouse pocket on the 24 or 25 June 1944. I did not give the accused authority to take my pen and pencil from my battle dress blouse or to use my pen and pencil.

I do not make a habit of lending my pen and pencil to anyone, unless they have my permission. Only once have I loaned my pen and pencil to another person. That was in April or May 1944 and that person secured my permission use only the pen, which I myself gave to him to use.

The accused declines to question the witness.

The above record is read to the witness.

Signed. J. GLENNIE

The accused was cautioned as follows:-

Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence under oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say, or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

The accused declines to make a statement and reserves his defence.

I certify that the foregoing Summary of Evidence consisting of one page was taken down by me in the presence and in the hearing of the accused this 1st day of July 1944 and that the Rules of Procedure 4(C),(D),(E) and (F) have been complied with.

G.I. KING, Lieut.,
Officer detailed to take the Summary of Evidence.

On Monday morning, 26 Jun 44, I reported that my pen and pencil were missing from my battle dress blouse to C.S.M. HILL of "C" Coy. on whose strength I am.

The accused declines to question this witness.

The above record is read to the witness.

Signed. J. GLENNIE

The accused was cautioned as follows.

Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence upon oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

The accused having been duly sworn, states:-

On Sunday morning, 25 June 1944 I was "browned off" I wanted to get away from camp but didn't have sufficient money. I could see no one around "C" Coy. Lines who would have loaned me money, so I took Glennie's pen and pencil to see if I could get a loan on them from Sgt. Kelly.

When Cfn. Glennie asked me if I had seen his pen and pencil on Sunday night, 25 Jun 44, I was too ashamed to admit that I had taken them from his tunic. As soon as I had repaid the loan from Sergeant Kelly, I would have returned the pen and pencil to Cfn. Glennie's tunic.

Similarly on Monday morning 26 June I did not confess to Major Penney, my Coy. C.O. when he questioned me about the pen and pencil as I was too ashamed to admit this to him.

When questioned by the Regimental Police, 1 C.B.W., R.C.E.M.E. I felt I wanted to confess and have this deception off my mind.

Signed. J.R. LAWRENCE

I certify that the foregoing Summary of Evidence consisting of three pages was taken down by me in the presence and in the hearing of the accused this 28 day of June, 1944, and that the Rules of Procedure 4(c), (d), (e) and (f) have been complied with.

a pencil. I recognize Exhibit "A" of this Summary of Evidence to be the pen and Exhibit "B" to be the pencil given to me by Captain Beck and which he told me to investigate.

In course of the investigation I questioned K-98151 Cfn. Lawrence, J.R. whom I recognize as the accused. I produce Exhibit "C" the Statement made to me by the accused and which is marked "C" and attached to this Summary of Evidence. I duly cautioned the accused before he made the statement.

After the accused made the statement, I placed him under close arrest at approx. 1700 hours 27 Jun 44.

The accused declines to question this witness.

The above record is read to the witness.

Signed. Sgt. HALEY, R.

THIRD WITNESS for the prosecution

B.57677, Cpl. SPROULE, L.L. on the strength of 1 C.B.W. R.C.E.M.E., having been duly sworn states:-

I am Provost Corporal of 1 C.B.W., R.C.E.M.E. I recognize the accused as K.98151, Cfn. Lawrence. I was present at 1645 hours, 27 Jun 44 when statement was taken by Cpl. Budd of "C" Company Orderly Room from the accused. I recognize Exhibit "C" to be the statement taken from the accused.

I was present when accused was duly cautioned by Sgt. Haley.

The accused declines to question this witness.

The above record is read to the witness.

Signed. B.57677 Cpl. SPROULE, L.

FOURTH WITNESS for the prosecution

B.173, Cfn. GLENNIE, J. on the strength of 1 C.B.W., R.C.E.M.E., having been duly sworn, states:-

I recognize Exhibit "A" to be a fountain pen belonging to me, also Exhibit "B" to be a pencil belonging to me.

I have owned the pen for approx. 18 months and the pencil for more than 4 years.

On Saturday night, 24 Jun 44, I saw the pen and pencil in my battle dress blouse pocket which was hanging on the wall behind my bed in Hut 4 of "C" Coy. 1 C.B.W., R.C.E.M.E.

At approx. 2030 hours, Sunday evening, 25 Jun 44, I was going to write some letters and went to get my pen and pencil. My battle dress blouse was in the same place, that is hanging on the wall behind my bed but the pen and pencil were not in the pocket of my battle dress blouse. I asked several men, including Cfn. Lawrence, if they had seen my pen and pencil. I recognize the accused to be Cfn. Lawrence. Every man I questioned replied that he did not know anything about the pen or pencil.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

in the case of

K.98151, Craftsman James Rezeau LAWRENCE, Royal Canadian Electrical Mechanical Engineers, on the strength of 1 Canadian Base Workshop, R.C.E.M.E., a soldier of the Canadian Army, Overseas:

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS for the prosecution

K.42835, Sergeant KELLY, C.J., on the strength of 1 Canadian Base Workshop, R.C.E.M.E., having been duly sworn, states:

At approximately 1400 hours, Sunday, 25 Jun 44 the accused, whom I recognize to be Cfn. Lawrence, asked me to lend him fifteen shillings on the security of a fountain pen. I told the accused that the fountain pen was not sufficient security for the loan. I gave him ten shillings on loan taking the f fountain pen as security.

I produce the fountain pen which was given to me by the accused as security of the loan. The fountain pen is tagged Exhibit "A" and attached to the Summary of Evidence.

At approximately 1630 hours, Sunday 25 June 44, the accused gave me a pencil as security for the loan of an additional five shillings. I gave the accused the five shillings, taking the pencil as security of the loan.

I produce the pencil which was given to me by the accused as security of the loan. The pencil is tagged Exhibit "B" and attached to the Summary of Evidence.

I asked the accused when he would repay me the loan of fifteen shillings. He told me that he would repay the loan on 15 July 44, or when he received some money which he was expecting, whichever came first.

At approximately 0830 hours, 26 June 44, Cfn. GLENNIE asked me if I had a fountain pen and pencil which he described to me. He said that the pen and pencil belonged to him. On hearing this, I went to my quarters to get the pen and pencil. Then I turned the pen and pencil over to C.S.M. Hamilton of E Company, on whose strength I am.

The accused declines to question this witness.

The above record is read to the witness.

Signed. Sgt. C.J. KELLY

SECOND WITNESS for the prosecution.

B.57592, Sergeant HALEY, R. on the strength of 1 Canadian Base Workshop, R.C.E.M.E., having been duly sworn, states:

I am Provost Sergeant, 1 C.B.W., R.C.E.M.E. The Adjutant of 1 C.B.W., R.C.E.M.E., Captain Beck, called me to his office at approximately 1600 hours, 27 Jun 44 to investigate the alleged theft of a fountain pen and

PLEA OF MITIGATION

In the Case of Cfn. James R. Lawrence

We have in the accused a very young man who has been in the Army Four Years without a crime against him and then like "a bolt from the blue" he gets himself ~~xxxx~~ tangled up with two very serious charges against him. Stealing and being improperly in possession of certain articles belonging to a comrade.

Did this young man stop to think what he was doing; no he did not.
Did this young man deliberately take those articles belonging to Pte. Glennie with the idea of stealing; no he did not. He took pen and pencil with the idea of giving them back when he redeemed them from Sgt. Kelley whom he pledged them with.

Now if this man was a thief and deliberately stole those articles would he go to a person whom he knew to try and borrow money using the articles as security; no he would go to some stranger who did not know him and may never see him again, so you can readily appreciate the fact that the accused did intend to pay the money back to Sgt. Kelley, redeem the pen and pencil and return them to the rightful owner. He was improperly in possession but ~~it~~ he did not steal.

So gentlemen of this Court Martial before passing sentence on this unfortunate young man take into consideration two facts:

1. His youth.
2. His clean record.

Sgt. Haley R.

First Witness (for the Prosecution)

K #2135 Sgt Kelly C J. on the strength of 1 C B W R C E M E, having been duly sworn, states: —

At approx. 1400 hrs Sunday, 25 June 44 the accused, whom I recognize to be Gfn Lawrence asked me to lend him fifteen shillings on the security of a fountain pen. I told the accused that the fountain pen was not sufficient security for the loan. I gave him ten shillings on loan taking the fountain pen as security.

I produce the fountain pen which was given to me by the accused as security of the loan. The fountain pen is tagged Exhibit A and attached to the Summary of Evidence

At approx. 1830 hours, Sunday 25 June 44, the accused gave me a pencil as security for the loan of an additional five shillings. I gave the accused the five shillings taking the pencil as security of the loan.

I produce the pencil which was given to me by the accused as security of the loan. The pencil is tagged Exhibit B and attached to the Summary of Evidence.

I asked the accused when he would repay me the loan of fifteen shillings. He told me that he would repay the loan on 15 July 44 or when he received some money which he was expecting, whichever came first.

At approx. 0830 hrs 26 June 44, Gfn Clemens asked me if I had a fountain pen and pencil which he described to me. He said that the pen and pencil belonged to him. On hearing this, I went to my quarters to get the pen and pencil. Then I turned the pen and pencil over to C.S.M. Hamilton of E Coy on whose strength I am.

The accused declines to question this witness.

The above record is read to the witness.

Summary of Evidence
in the case of

K 98157 Draftsman Lawrence J.R. on the strength of 1 Canadian Base Workshop RCEME, a soldier of the Canadian Army overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the Summary of Evidence is taken on oath

The accused was cautioned as follows

do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence upon oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

The accused having been duly sworn, states -

On Sunday morning, 25 June 1944 I was "browned off." I wanted to get away from camp but didn't have sufficient money. I could see no one around the B Coy lines who would have loaned me money, so I took Glennie's pen & pencil to see if I could get a loan on them from Sgt. Kelly.

When Glennie asked me if I had seen his pen and pencil on Sunday night, 25 June I was too ashamed to admit that I had taken them from his tunic. As soon as I had repaid the loan from Sergeant Kelly, I would have returned the pen and pencil to Sgt. Glennie's tunic.

Similarly on Monday morning 26 June I did not confess to Major Penney, my Coy C.O. when he questioned me about the pen and pencil as I was too ashamed to admit this to him.

When questioned by the Regimental Police, I felt I wanted to confess and lose this deception off my mind.

J.P. Lawrence

I certify that the foregoing Summary of Evidence consisting of six pages was taken down by me in the presence and in the hearing of the accused this 28 day of June, 1944, and that the Rules of Procedure 44 (C), (D), (E) and (F) have been complied with.

Officer detailed to take the Summary of Evidence.

I, K.98151 Cfn. Lawrence, J.R., being duly cautioned, that anything I may say may be taken down in writing, and used as evidence, make the following statement.

"After spending Sunday, 25 June 44, in camp, I had the urge to go somewhere, and seeing as I was rather broke, and wondering where I could get some money, to get out of camp for the evening I saw Cfn. Glennie's tunic, with his pen and pencil set showing, and I decided to borrow it, and see if I could get some money on security of said pencil set.

I saw Sgt. Kelly and he let me have fifteen shillings and was to be redeemed on the fifteenth July '44. After redeeming said pencil set, it would have been returned to the owner.

I make this above statement voluntarily, and without duress, at above time and date.

Signed.

I have known Sgt Kelly since Jul 42. I took the articles out of Glennie's pocket, it was a Sunday afternoon, I was browned off and wanted to get out of camp but could find no one with any money to lend me. I was sitting on Glennie's bed and saw the pen and pencil and took them without saying anything. I took them to Sgt Kelly to get a loan. He gave me 15 shillings on them, I was to get them back on the 15 July or when some money came from home which I was expecting. I have given other things to Sgt Kelly as security on the odd little loan. My father lives separate from my mother and has done for 14 years, I have a younger brother and sister living with my mother and have $25.00 a month assigned to my mother. I worked for this drug store for three years when I worked all day I opened the store in the mornings, and at night if the boss were away at a meeting or some other place I was responsible for putting away the money and closing up the shop.

EVIDENCE AS TO CHARACTER

1st WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE - Capt A.L. McLean, 1 CBW, RCEME, sworn:
I have known the accused approximately two years. I believe he came over with the B.W. He came to my section about nine months ago, he is a storemaster by trade and works in the tool cribbing shop which comes directly under my jurisdiction. His behaviour has been very good, as a tradesman he is reliable as a soldier he has been excellent, no trouble at all in any way. As far as I know he is well liked by all the men with whom he comes in contact. He is regarded by other officers quite well. He is responsible for the cribb and all the tools in his shop, he takes very good care of his tools and has never been short of any or lost any of the tools on his charge.

2nd WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE
~~B 6619~~ Sgt MOSS, D.L., 1 CBW, RCEME, sworn states:

I know the accused, he has worked under me for nine months, his work assumes a certain amount of responsibility and he has accepted it willingly and has not given me any reason to doubt either his ability or integrity. I have found him one of my best men, and during the past week I have missed him very much. I know that he got along with everyone in the shop and in his hut. He is in charge of tools and some are very light and expensive, and I have found him very good at taking care of them. From what I've heard concerning this trouble his comrades are much surprised, as I am, no one ever expected it of Lawrence, we always trusted him. During the time he has worked in this shop it would seem to me that the temptation to steal something from the shop would be more tempting than what he took, some of our tools are very valuable and small and easily carried away, he could have taken any of them but nothing was ever missing.

COURT IS CLOSED TO CONSIDER THE FINDING

PLEA IN MITIGATION WRITTEN AND ATT.

4th WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION
B 173 Cfn GLENNIE, J., 1 CBW, RCEME, sworn states:

I recognize the accused as Cfn Lawrence. On the 24 Jun 44 my pen was in my tunic and on the 25 Jun at approximately 2030 hours I went to write a letter and found my pen and pencil was gone. I asked all the men in the hut if they had seen it including Lawrence, nobody had seen it. I had left my tunic hanging up behind my bed in my hut. I share the same hut as the accused (witness is shown Exhibits "A" & "B") these are my pen and pencil, I have had the pen for 18 months and the pencil for four months.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

I have never lent my pen or pencil, I did have my tunic hanging up at the top of my bunk, the accused sleeps in the bunk above me, my tunic was hanging up with the pen and pencil in it.

Q Are you sure you never lend your pen or pencil?
A I remember lending my pen~~cil~~ but once and pen never. I lent my pen once to a chap to address a letter, that was about last Christmas. The accused has been sleeping in my upper bunk since he came off the night shift, not three months, maybe one month.

Q Do you not think that the accused could have taken it to use it?
A No Sir, I ask if anyone had taken it or seen it, the accused heard and did not say anything, if he took it he did so without my permission.

BY THE COURT

Q Did you ever lend your pen to the accused?
A No Sir, it was someone else that I lent it to.

Q Can you recognize this pen and pencil as yours?
A Yes Sir, by the colour, the loose end on the pen, the make and the fact that I only had two pieces of lead in the pencil.

In the opinion of the Court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B)

PROSECUTOR, Lt G.I. KING, 1 CBW, RCEME, sworn states:

After duly cautioning the accused in the words which I wrote in the Summary, he elected to give evidence under oath. He then made a statement which I wrote down at his dictation. After I wrote it down I read the statement back to him and gave it to him to read and asked him to affix his signature to it. He signed it.

(Top portion of page 6 of the Summary marked Exhibit "D")

CASE FOR THE PROSECUTION IS CLOSED.

STATEMENT BY THE ACCUSED

Sir,

I have four years high school a junior matriculation. My father and mother are alive, my home was a happy life, I joined in 1940, before that I was temporarily employed in a drug store, I worked after school and weekends and holidays etc. After I completed my junior matriculation I intended to go in for pharmacy. I joined the army for patrotic reasons and to fight for my way of life. It is five months since I have had any leave. Glennie sleeps in the same hut, I sleep in the upper bunk of his bed. I have know Sgt Kelly since

RE-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR

Q Did you see the articles?
A I did Sir.

Q Did the accused make a statement?
A Yes Sir. (Witness is shown a document) This is the statement that Lawrence gave voluntary after being duly cautioned regarding the missing articles. This statement was given to the clerk who typed it as it was dictated by the accused, I was present at the time and heard it all, after it was typed the accused signed it.

PRESIDENT TO THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q Have you any objection to this statement?
A None Sir.

(Statement received in evidence and marked Ex "C")

In the opinion of the Court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B)

3rd WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION
B 57677 Cpl SPROULE, L.L. I CBW, RCEME, sworn states:

I recognize the accused as Cfn Lawrence, I am the Prov cpl of this unit. On the 27 Jun at approximately 1700 hours Sgt Haley asked me to accompany him on an investigation. I accompanied him and Cfn Lawrence, the accused, to "E" Coy Orderly Room. Sgt Haley questioned the accused about a pen and pencil. After some time the accused said he would tell the truth. To begin with he said he had bought the pen, it was his pen and also the pencil was his. Then he told us he had taken this pen and pencil from Glennie's pocket. We then got the stenographer and after Sgt Haley gave the accused the caution which was just after the accused said he would tell the truth that he was warned and made his statement, as he made it the stenographer typed it. (Witness is shown ~~a document~~ Exhibit "C") This is the statement that Lawrence dictated to the stenographer, he read it over after it was typed and then signed it in my presence.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q What was the conversation pertaining to previous to the accused being warned?
A Sgt Haley asked where he had got this pen and pencil, he said he had got the pencil for his 19th birthday along with another pen which he had lost, he said he had bought the pen from a man in "A" Coy some months previous, he did not know the man or if he was in the unit at that time.

Q Did you ask him to confess?
A We told him that it would be better to tell the truth and get it off his chest.

BY THE COURT

Q When did you tell him that?
A That was when we were questioning him in "C" Coy orderly room about 1600 hours.

Q Before or after the warning?
A Before the warning.

Q And what answer did Lawrence make at that time?
A None.

Q When was it he claimed it as his own pen?
A Previous to that Sir, he said it was his own pen.

In the opinion of the Court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B)

EVIDENCE FOR THE PROSECUTION NOTE D-3

1st WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION
K 42835, Sgt KELLY, C.J., 1 CBW, RCEME, sworn states:

I recognize the accused as Pte Lawrence. On the 25 Jun 44 at about 1400 hours the accused asked me for 15 shillings on a fountain pen. I told him I would give him 10 shillings. At 1600 hours he brought me a pencil and asked me to lend him five shillings on that. I did. He said he would pay me on the 1st or 15 Jul or when he received some money from home, he would pay me the first opportunity he had.

(Witness is shown a fountain pen) This is the fountain pen, that I was given as security for some money. I can identify this pen by the make, the colour, the loose end. (Witness is shown a pencil) This is the pencil that I lent five shillings on I recognize it by the colour and the fact that it only had two pieces of lead in the barrel. (Pen received in evidence and marked "A", pencil received in evidence and marked Exh "B").

DEFENDING OFFICER DECLINES TO CROSS-EXAMINE THIS WITNESS

BY THE COURT

Q Have you had your money back?
A No Sir.

In the opinion of the Court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B)

2nd WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION
B 57592, Sgt HALEY, R, 1 CBW, RCEME, sworn states:

I recognize the accused as Cfn Lawrence. I am the provost sgt in this unit. At 1600 hours 27 Jun 44 as a result of information and instructions I received from the Adj I proceeded to "E" Coy tool room where I picked up the accused and questioned him regarding the theft of a pen and pencil set. After questioning him at about 1700 hours the accused was cautioned that anything he might say would be taken down in writing and would be used as evidence.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q What was the nature of your questions before you gave him the warning?
A The questions were concerning the pen and pencil set, there was at that time two people who claimed ownwership of the set. The accused said he owned it and another party said he owned it and lost it. We were trying to ascertain which of the two did own it. The accused stated that he had had it for some considerable time and that the set belonged to himself, he did not actually deny that it belonged to the other soldier, who of course claimed the set.

Q Is it correct that this conversation went on before you warned the accused?
A Yes, the conversation pertaining to the question of ownership took place before the accused was warned.

Q When did you place the accused under close arrest?
A At 1700 hours.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? Ans No Sir (1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)
(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Can 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) ~~The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the ..... charge(s).(2) The Court~~ is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission ~~is disallowed on the ..... charge(s), and allowed on the ..... charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)~~
(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)
NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither?
Ans No Sir. Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf?
Ans No Sir. Are they witnesses as to character only? Ans .....
(1. RP [redacted] 115 2. RP 40(A), see 60(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)
(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order, CF A95. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 86(C). Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 103(e).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.
(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the 2nd charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1)
Or, The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is ~~and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.~~ to be released forthwith.(2)
(1. AA 54(7) (c), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character?(1)
Ans Yes Sir
(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), and certified true copy (~~copies~~) of Conduct Sheet(s)(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(l) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex C and Ex E respectively.(3)
(1. MFB 355 or AFB 296. 2. MFM 6. 3. RP 46, KR Can 558. If above documents not produced, see RP 46 fn 1 para 1.)

E3. President to accused: Do you wish to address the Court on the Statement(s) and Conduct Sheet(s), and in mitigation of punishment?(1) Ans Yes Sir (2)
(1. RP 37(C), 46(D). 2. Address, if any, recorded per Notes. Court should permit accused or his witnesses to prove on oath anything here or previously stated which would affect the amount of punishment. RP 37(F) fn 7.)

E4. The President states that the Court is closed to consider the sentence, and that the sentence to be awarded by the Court, being subject to confirmation, will not be announced, but will be promulgated later, and the proceedings in open court are accordingly terminated.(1)
(1. AA 54(6), RP 120(A).)

E5. The Court considers the sentence.(1) The President records the sentence in Part I of the Schedule, which is dated and signed by him ~~and the J.A. if any.~~(2) 7f
(1. When several accused tried separately see RP 5(D). One sentence only, comprised of the punishment or punishments laid down in AA 41, 44 and its proviso, is to be awarded to cover all charges in all charge sheets on which accused found guilty. RP 48. As to sentences see AA 44, 138, 182, RP 46-50, 69, 118, 119(A), KR Can 308, 330, 563-566, Overseas RO 309, 2323, MML p 60, 757-759. As to sentences assigned for civil offences by the law of England see AA 41(5), MML p 130. When accused already under sentence of imprisonment or detention see AA 44(18), 68(1), KR Can 564. 2. RP 50. C APPRAISAL: A quiet, hesitant soldier of sturdy build, Lawrence obviously is unstable and erratic. Aside from his sexual perversions he does not seem to have the ability to concentrate his attention or energy. Appears to live in a fog-world of his own and wanders about in it with little direction or meaning. Cannot explain his difference from the normal. Does not seem concerned about his acts themselves, although the consequences trouble him. Says that he has done wrong on several occasions, but as he speaks it seems the judgement is made because of the consequences of his acts rather than upon anything in the actions themselves. He does not seem to have a sharp focus upon events or his own thoughts. Bewitched, bewildered, and be-damned, he seems to be approaching the end of his mental tether.

RECOMMENDATION: Referral to psychiatrist, with M.O's concurrence.

4. Military History: (Continued) 7 and 8 day stretches. During this time was sent to #1 Neuro (Basingstoke) for psychiatric observation and was boarded B-2. The reason for this was, he says, because the M.O. found him "writing queer things on the sick reports". Returned to employment at RAP he was again sentenced by a civil court this time for sodomy. His penalty was 3 years penal servitude. Two young boys, aged 9 and 10, preferred the charges. After completing this sentence he was transferred to #10 Repat Depot in Jul 45, where he was again employed at the unit RAPs. Anyway, because he wasn't given the corporal's promotion he thought he deserved he went AWL again, for 23 days. He is now awaiting trial under a G.C.M.

During his military career he has qualified as a stretcher-bearer and medical orderly. He has been, he estimates, AWL at least a dozen times, this last being the longest.

5. Present Status: Claims he is not responsible for his actions and is in an almost continual state of mental depression. Goes AWL with no particular reason, "I just can't seem to get my mind on soldiering". Fairly healthy physically but says he neither eats or sleeps well. In sleep claims he dreams sexual adventures with both boys and women, but does not go out with the latter. Admits to 40-50 perversions of the sexual act with young boys, "all under fourteen". Has tried to commit suicide four or five times. Several of his attempts were while he was in civil prison serving his 3 year sentence. Has used a rope to end his life, once tried choking himself with his bare hands and once, he claims, with poison. Each time either the rope was too weak or he was caught in the attempt. (It is interesting that his attempts were always "safe" ones.) Admits to persistent bedwetting, which habit still persists. Says he has no army friends and only a very few civilian ones. One normal enjoyment seems to be farm work, in which he indulges on his leaves and his periods of being AWL. Tries to be normal in his friends and does not consort with others who share his sexual perversions. Claims to have a violent temper which strikes without warning and often without reason.

2. Educational, occupational, military background and other relevant information and appraisal.

A PRESENT PROBLEM: Referred by unit as personality problem.

B PERSONAL HISTORY:

1. Family History: This soldier is the youngest in a family of five. Three sisters are all considerably older than he, the eldest by 18 years. He and his brother are more nearly of an age but there is 5 years difference even there. Lawrence seems to have had a bitter and violent home life. Except for his eldest sister he quarrelled continually with his family. On several occasions he admits to having struck his father. He claims he was resentful of stern treatment.

His parents are living but in poor health. His father, a factory labourer, has a weak heart and his mother has dropsy. Lawrence very seldom writes them and there is little friendliness between the family and this soldier.

2. Educational History: Lawrence went through public school, "just skinned by", he says. He disliked school intensely and was glad to quit. Didn't get along well with either teachers or schoolmates and was continually bickering and fighting with them. Enjoyed rough physical sports like hockey, football, and boxing. The subject he disliked least was arithmetic. Had few friends and no girl friends. Began during these years the perverted sexual habits which have brought him trouble and jail sentence.

3. Occupational History: The longest period that Lawrence stayed at one job was two months. Says he "just drifted; I don't know why or what made me". Worked as a farm labourer and factory hand. Learned no skills and drifted farther into sexual perversion, being arrested for sodomy when about twenty. The charge was proved but he was placed on probation.

4. Military History: Volunteered 9 Sep 39. O/S Dec 39. Employed as RAP orderly at #1 CIRU and later with H & PE Regt. SOS Regt in 1942 when given 3 month's civil sentence of hard labour for accepting money under false pretences. (He was paid to supply clothing without ration tickets and never "produced".) On completion of sentence was employed at #1 CIRU RAP and was sent to #1 Base Hospital on guard duty for SUS. Enjoyed RAP and hospital work but had a series of AWLs during this period - going away for

Sir:

I, Lawrence H.G., wish to make this statement on behalf of myself, concerning my charge of Absenting myself without leave from 2330 hrs 31 August 1945 to 0600 hrs 24 September 1945.

FIRST, I would like to state my reasons for being absent so many times in the Canadian Army.

1. First, I would like to say something about my health, I would like to say that I am not responsible for my actions up to the present day. I think that if the people concerned were to get in contact with #1 Cdn Neuro Hospital and they would find that I was put "B-2" in 1940 for Mental Stages; and I was to be transferred to a Pioneer Corps, which I was never transferred to.

During the last 2 years I have been getting worse and these have been the results. I have tried to commit suicide four (4) times, and I have done bad things with little boys. Also, at one time I have tried to poison myself and I have been getting violent, lately.

So, in this first reason, I wish that the Court be remanded for a week for a certificate from #1 Neuro Hospital, as I am quite sure that this is one of my reasons for going absent.

2. I told Capt P.A. R. Blaker that I would make a statement ONLY to my defending Offr.

3. Well, all I can say is, that if I am given a chance, I will soldier like a man, as I have never had a chance since I joined up in 1939.

H.G. Lawrence

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE in the case of C-20928 Pte Lawrence, G.L. 8 Cdn Inf Bde Defence Pl (CH of O), Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Brigade Major, the summary of evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

C-118540 Cpl BANGS, E.T., 8 Cdn Inf Bde Defence Pl (CH of O) having been duly sworn, states:

"On 29 Oct 43, as our Pl Sgt was on leave, I was acting in his place, and while in the performance of these duties, I noticed at 1800 hours that C-20928 Pte Lawrence, G.L. had failed to return from his privilege leave which expired at that time on that day. He remained absent from all roll calls and tattoo reports from that time until about 1430 hours 7 Nov 43 when he was returned under close arrest.

At approx 2200 hours 6 Nov 43, the Bde Orderly Sgt came to my room and asked me whether we had a Pte Lawrence in our platoon. I replied that he was A.W.L.

At about 0930 hours the following morning, I was given a message from the Duty Officer stating that Pte Lawrence was being held by the civil Police in Winchester and that we were to arrange to have him picked up. I accordingly made arrangements with the Bde Tpt Office for a vehicle and driver, and detailed B-52502 Pte Williams, C.J. as escort to accompany the driver. They arrived back at Bde HQ with Pte Lawrence at about 1430 hours, and I reported this to Lieut Casselman, our Pl Commander.

At about 1600 hours, Lieut Casselman told me to take Pte Lawrence to the N Shore R Guard Room, as he was to be held in close arrest there. Pte Williams and I did so, and turned Pte Lawrence over to the Guard Commander at about1630 hours."

PART 1.

CERTIFICATE OF SURRENDER TO THE CIVIL POLICE OF A DESERTER OR ABSENTEE WITHOUT LEAVE.

This Form is ONLY applicable where a person surrenders to a Constable as being a Deserter or Absentee.

Instructions for the Guidance of the Police.

When a person surrenders himself to a constable as being a deserter or absentee without leave, the officer of police in charge of the police station to which he is brought shall forthwith inquire into the case, and if it appears to him from the confession of that person that he is a deserter or absentee without leave he may cause him to be delivered into military or Air Force custody without bringing him before a court of summary jurisdiction.

In such a case a telegram should be despatched to the Officer Commanding the Man's Unit*† in the case of soldiers and in the case of airmen the O.C. the station at which the airman last served, notifying that he has surrendered, and stating the number, rank, name and unit of the man, and that officer will at once arrange to send an escort for the man to be taken into military or Air Force custody. Where an absentee's unit is stationed overseas (outside Great Britain, Northern Ireland District and the Channel Islands) the telegram will be despatched to the O.C. Regimental Depot in the case of a soldier and in the case of an airman to the O.C. No. 1 R.A.F. Depot, Uxbridge, who will arrange escort. This certificate will be handed to the escort on arrival.

* Stations of Units and Depots are shown in the Monthly Army List.

† NOTE.—Special instructions apply in war for the disposal of absentees and deserters from the Army, who surrender to the civil police; e.g., such personnel will be taken over from the civil authorities by the O.C. the nearest military unit or the O.C. Troops at the nearest military station. (A.C.I. 489/1940).

Statement of EVIDENCE in the case of C-20928, Pte Lawrence, G.L. C.H.of O. att, 8 C.I.B. 3rd Cdn Div.

While on patrol on Southampton Rd. Winchester, at approx, 22.30 hrs 6-11-43 accompanied by L/Cpl.s, Tellum and Levallee I had the occassion to check the a/m soldier for a pass. The a/m soldier could not produce one so I placed him under Close arrest and escorted him to the Civilian Police Station, Winchester,

The a/m soldier was identified from his M.B.M.L. as, C-20928, Pte. Lawrence, G.L. A pass was found in his possession which was dated from the 22-11-43. to 1800 hrs 29-11-43. The a/m soldier then stated that he had been since 1800 hrs 29-11-43

His unit was notified and an escort was arranged for.

The a/m soldier was lodged under close arrest in the Civilian Police Station, Winchester.

INSTRUCTIONS ON PROCEDURE AFTER ARRAIGNMENT.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated :

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See MML p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C); powers and duties of JA see RP 103; duty of Prosecutor see RP 60(A) (B); duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 83-85; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court etc see RP 75-79, 86, 116; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6; and responsibility of JA or Pros to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans No (5)

(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 3 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on ..... charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on ..... charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty ■ (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)

(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex 'F', initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)

(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)

(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)

(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused : Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? Ans ..... (1)

(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)

(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)

(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Con 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the ..... charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the ..... charge(s), and allowed on the ..... charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)

(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 para 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)

NB : If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither ?

Ans ..... Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf ?

Ans ..... Are they witnesses as to character only ? Ans .....

(1. RP 115. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)

(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order, CF 495. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 86(C). Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 103(e).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.

(1. RP 42, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the ..... charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1)

Or, The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.(2)

(1. AA 54(2) (b), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character ?(1)

Ans No

(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), and certified true copy (copies) of Conduct Sheet(s)(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(1) (g) (b), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex 'G' and Ex 'H' respectively.(3)

(1. AFB 255 or AFB 296. 2. MFM 6. 3. RP 46, KR Con 558. If above documents not produced, see RP 46 fn 1 para 1.)

E3. President to accused : Do you wish to address the Court on the Statement(s) and Conduct Sheet(s), and in mitigation of punishment ?(1) Ans No. Just My Defending officer will speak. (2)

(1. RP 37(C), 46(D). 2. Address, if any, recorded per Notes. Court should permit accused or his witnesses to prove on oath anything here or previously stated which would affect the amount of punishment. RP 37(F) fn 7.)

E4. The President states that the Court is closed to consider the sentence, and that the sentence to be awarded by the Court, being subject to confirmation, will not be announced, but will be promulgated later, and the proceedings in open court are accordingly terminated.(1)

(1. AA 54(3), RP 120(A).)

E5. The Court considers the sentence.(1) The President records the sentence in Part I of the Schedule, which is dated and signed by him and the JA, if any.(2)

(1. When several accused tried separately see RP 90(D). One sentence only, comprised of the punishment or punishments laid down in AA 41, 44 and its proviso, is to be awarded to cover all charges in all charge sheets on which accused found guilty. RP 46. A Soldier on pass who requires medical aid must apply for it, personally if possible, to the nearest Military, R. Naval or R. Air Force hospital or other Medical formation, showing this pass. If, however, he resides more than two miles from such hospital, etc., he may apply to a civilian doctor, to whom he will show this pass, and the doctor will then be allowed the following rates for medical attendance on the soldier at the latter's residence:

VISIT AND MILEAGE	Half-guinea charge within 1 mile of surgery	Greater distances
Day	4s. 0d.	In addition 6d. for each mile or part of
Night 9.00 to 6.00 hrs.	6s. 0d.	mile with a limit of 21s. visit.

When the soldier visits the surgery of a civilian doctor, the fee payable in respect of such visit will be—in peacetime, the ordinary fee charged by the doctor to his private patients.

The soldier will also report the employment of the civilian doctor by a letter addressed to his Commanding Officer, to whom the civilian doctor will submit his claim on Army Form O-1267 for payment.

If hospital treatment is necessary, the soldier will at once report the fact, if possible, to the nearest Military, R. Naval or R. Air Force hospital, Military Reception Station or Medical Inspection Room, and failing that to his Commanding Officer, by whom arrangements will be made, wherever possible, for any necessary treatment to be given from military sources. If a soldier is admitted to a R. Naval or R. Air Force hospital, he will report the fact immediately to his Commanding Officer. If, in the event of emergency, a soldier is admitted to a civil hospital, he will inform the [illegible] Officer of Medical Services concerned.

When a soldier on pass is prevented by sickness, which must be properly certified, or by other unavoidable cause, from rejoining his Corps by the date on which his pass expires, he is to report himself before that date—

To the nearest General or other Officer on the staff of the Army or to the Commanding Officer of any unit or detachment of the Regular Army, or of some place to which convenient reference may be made, or to a Justice of the Peace.

It is for him to furnish the medical certificate to his C.O.

A Soldier on leave or furlough who requires emergency dental treatment must apply as in the case of military, Royal Naval or Royal Air Force Hospitals or Dental Centres.

If he resides more than two miles from such hospital or dental centre, he may apply to a civilian dental practitioner to whom he will show this pass, the dental practitioner will be paid only for emergency treatment and at the rates admissible under the National Health Insurance Act (Dental Benefit Regulations).

The soldier will at once report the employment of the civilian dental practitioner to his Commanding Officer, and the practitioner will submit his claim for payment on Army Form O-1267, and forward it to the Deputy Director of Medical Services at the headquarters of the district in which the soldier is temporarily resident.

These instructions, where applicable, will also be held to [illegible] to a member [illegible] than an officer of the Auxiliary Territorial Service or of a Voluntary Aid Detachment called out for service.

If on pass exceeding 24 hours a soldier must leave his address with the Captain of his company and he must at all times be prepared to rejoin on the shortest notice, or recall to do so.

Note.—The above instructions are not applicable to a soldier on Field Service overseas.

If a calling-out of the whole Army Reserve is ordered every soldier on pass must return immediately to his unit without waiting for instructions.
