Closing address of Defending offr

Evidence shows Leblanc was nervous. Had been caught in our own barrage Evidence of two witnesses differed. Leblanc might have missed Coy HQ in dark. Tope was in ploughed field and would be hard to see. If he had reached river bank he would have had a hard time finding Coy objective, if alone. Coy moved next morning. Might easily take two days to find his pl, if he became lost.

E3

Plea in Mitigation

Leblanc in action with WNSR from Orbois to Hitler Line. He was pinned down for two hours by enemy and our artillery fire at Hitler Line. Most of Coy HQ including Leblanc was wounded. Came to C.B.H in Sept 44 from hospital. Again wounded in Elvio attack. As crime sheet shows, his behaviour has been good.

accused looked normal. He said he was nervous. On night of 10th I was with B Coy HQ. Right hand crossing was taped. The tape ran by a road. It was not always easy to see tape. I could not see more than 10 feet ahead. It was pretty dark. There was quite a bit of shell fire. I had trouble trying to round up men that night. B Coy objective was in a group of houses about 300 yds from river bank. It would be hard to find if someone was on his own. We left our objective on the morning of 11th and went ½ mile to 1 mile away. There were other units in the area.

Questioned by Court:- I don't think you could see a man skylined on far bank of river. B Coy HQ crossed about 2300 hrs. It was also dark about 1930 hrs. There were no searchlights but I can't be positive. I ran into Mr Nelson in the dark one time that night.

(RP 83(B) complied with) charge of left hand site. Leblanc was on duty ~~Pte~~ shells have been on the right hand site. My checks covered both sites. I think it was Leblanc who told me about being shelled in the Kitler line. I don't think Leblanc ever saw me re his nervousness. I have no doubt every man knew his duty and when to go Question by JA :- The accused gave me no explanation when he surrendered & cant recall any.

(RP 83 B complied with)

Second Witness Prosecution — F 55219 Sgt Moss W.G., B Coy C B Highrs, having been duly sworn, states.

On morning of 12 Dec 44 at 1330 hrs I was on duty at Pl HQ when Pte Leblanc, the accused, reported to HQ. It was the first time I had seen him since we crossed the Lamone River on the night of the 10th. I don't remember Leblanc making any explanation when he returned.

Cross Examination :- I was not with 11 Pl when Lamone was crossed. Both Lt Nelson and myself were present on 12th

The tape ran alongside a hedgerow straight to the river bank. There were some houses nearby en route. I could see 50-75 yards on the way down to the river. Boats were stacked on both sides of tape in pl. lots. near log HQ. When I got to the river I could see next pl 50 yds behind. Searchlights were on all the time. I could have seen a man standing on the bank across the river, if he had moved. If he kept still he might have blended into the houses. The river was about 25 yds wide. From top of one bank to the other was about 90 yds. I searched in about 20 slit trenches on side of ~~across~~ the river from which we started. I didn't know the accused was missing till check was complete. I didn't call for Leblanc. The only ones in the slit trenches were paddlers or members of covering party. When we got to our Coy objective across the river, after all the paddling operation was over, Leblanc was not present.

Question by Court: I made my first search to reorganize paddlers for next crossing. Leblanc was missing then. The next check was after the second Coy crossed. The reorganization was carried out and searches made on the side of the river from which the assault commenced. There were two crossing sites. I was in F.O.L with the Coy HQ. I left about 1815 with forward pl, losing touch with all paddles except those with forward pl. After C Coy was across the river, I made a search with a Sgt and collected all the paddles into one house. I made a thorough check and could not find Leblanc. This was about 2100 hrs. after we took B Coy across the river we reorganized in another house about 2200 or 2230 hrs and Leblanc was not present then either. Later I had my pl back. I didn't see Leblanc again till he reported to me and Sgt Moss on 12 Dec 44 at about 1330 hrs.

Cross Examination: Distance from obb loading point to river was about 900 yds. Obb loading point was about 30 yds from C Coy H.Q. Accused said "can't stay out there. My nerves are too bad" He was only one on guard there but others were around. I could see from Coy H.Q to the boats. Route was taped to the river. Most of the route was a ploughed field. Leblanc was detailed to go with Coy H.Q as boat crew. I have had Leblanc in the line before. He had appeared nervous before. He told me he had been caught in one of our own barrages in Kitchener Line.

First Witness Prosecution — Lieut W.A. Nelson, Cape Breton Highrs. having been duly sworn, states

I have commanded 11 Pl B Coy C D Highrs since June 44. on 10 Dec 44 the accused, whom I recognize was in my pl. About 1400 hrs that day I gave operational orders to pl for crossing of Lamone River in Italy. The crossing was to be that night, zero hr being 1930 hrs. Pte Leblanc was present then and was detailed by me to be a member of a spare boat crew and to work with C Coy. The pl. were paddlers. Every man was put in picture as to time and place on the map. The spare crews and myself arrived at C Coy HQ at about 1730 hrs that night and 5 or 10 minutes afterwards I detailed Leblanc to stand guard at a spot where boats ~~had been~~ were off loaded from vehicles. Shortly after I was called away from Coy HQ & I saw Leblanc near the HQ. Leblanc told me he could not stay out there because his nerves were bad. There was no enemy fire around there at the time and I considered it unnecessary to change him with another man. I told him to stay at the boats until coy left for the F.U.P. Leblanc had previous orders to cross to

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your pleas to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your pleas and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans .....(5)

(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex ....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(*1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). 29 December, 1942.

Third Witness for Prosecution

M-27130 Sgt Cousineau, E.W., H.Q. Sqn, 1 Cdn Army Tank Bde, having been duly sworn states:-

I am 27130 Sgt Cousineau, E.W. I put a bundle of laundry in the laundry basket at H.Q. Sqn on Tuesday December 8th, 1942. On Saturday Dec 12th, 1942 I called for my laundry and was informed by L/Cpl Carr, who was in charge of the laundry, that there was no laundry for me, nor was there any record of my laundry on the list that came back from Wilson's Laundry. On Monday, Dec 14th, 1942 I went into Wilson's Laundry to try and trace my laundry. There I was told that all laundry picked up at H.Q. Sqn was checked in and that no bundle was received from me. I came back to H.Q. Sqn and reported my laundry missing to the O.C., H.Q. Sqn. On thursday, December 17th, 1942 I was asked by Sgt Weatherby to accompany Tpr Albert down to Mrs Taylor's house. On my arrival there, after a conversation with Mrs Taylor, she showed me some laundry, some of which I indentified as my laundry because of the laundry marks on them. I also identified a tea towel which I used as a duster in the Pay Office. This I identified because of the ink marks on it due to having cleaned the Roneo machine with it. Among the articles I recognized due to the laundry marks were an undershirt and one pair of socks. The laundry mark was M.215. I have at present other laundry with that same mark on it.

Cross-examined by the accused.

Question 1

What were the contents of the parcel of laundry you say you lost?

Answer

Two khaki dress shirts, three undershirts, two pair of underwear shorts, nine handerchiefs, three pairs of socks, two hand towels, and a tea towel, also another khaki shirt.

Question 2

What did you bring back from Mrs Taylors house?

Answer

Nothing.

Question 3

Was the laundry you recognized at Mrs Taylors', part of the laundry you had lost?

ANSWER

Yes.

Question 4

Did you recognize all the laundry at Mrs Taylors' that you had lost?

Answer

No.

M-27130 Sgt Cousineau, E.W.

Second Witness for Prosecution

Mrs. A.E. Taylor, 5 Park Crescent, Rottingdean, having been duly sworn states:-

I am Mrs. A.E. Taylor, 5 Park Crescent, Rottingdean. On the 14th December, 1942 a kit bag, which I produce as Exhibit "A", which contained laundry, was brought to me for washing. On the kit bag was the name E.J. LeBlanc. I turned the kit bag up and emptied the laundry on the floor. Amongst the laundry I found a Wilson's Laundry list with the name of Sgt Cousineau on it. From the amount of laundry and the laundry slip this appeared strange to me, as there was much more than usual. I thought he was sending laundry that did not belong to him. For example, instead of the usual one or two towels I received in the last two weeks washing there were ten towels.

My husband always takes the laundry back to the men but on December 16th Tpr LeBlanc came to my house for the first time. I asked what the sergeants list was doing in his laundry and he said as near as I can remember, "Have you still got the list?" I got up and looked for it but couldn't find it. He then said, "If you find it destroy it and don't mention it to Freddy Albert". I said I would give it to my husband but he said not to do that, but to destroy it. Again as he left the house he said if I found the list destroy it.

The next morning Sgt Cousineau, together with Tpr Albert came to my house. After conversation with Sgt Cousineau I showed him the laundry, some of which he identified as belonging to him. These which he identified as his and which I now produce are one undershirt, which is marked "Exhibit "B", one pair of socks, which is marked Exhibit "C", and one tea towel, which is marked Exhibit "D". On the undershirt and the pair of socks were laundry marks which Sgt Cousineau identified.

Cross-examined by the accused.

Question 1

Did you say I asked you to destroy the laundry list?

Answer

Yes.

Question 2

Was there anybody else in the room?

Answer

No, only the two of us.

Question 3

Did you say there were ten towels in two of my laundries?

Answer

Yes.

Question 4

Were they all my marking?

Answer

No.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

First Witness for Prosecution

Mr. A.E. Taylor, 5 Park Crescent, Rottingdean having been duly sworn states:-

I am Mr. A.E. Taylor. On the 14th Dec, 1942 Tpr E.J. LeBlanc gave me a kit bag with laundry in it to take home to my wife to wash. The kit bag had Tpr E.J. LeBlanc's name and number marked on the bottom. I have collected it many times and I know it. I took it home, gave it to my wife and while I stood watching she turned the laundry out on the floor. Amongst the laundry I saw a laundry slip from Wilson's Laundry. On this slip was the name of a Sgt. I cannot pronounce the name. It started C O U .

Question 1.

Did you examine the slip?

Answer

Yes.

Cross-examined by the accused.

Question 1

When the laundry was turned out on the floor was it all in one bundle?

Answer

Yes.

Question 2

Did you say Sgt Cousineau's Laundry slip was in it?

Answer

The evidence of the witnesses for the defence, including that of the accused, if he is a witness, will be taken here in the order in which they give evidence.

First Witness for the Defence | 22. 3rd Hvy. Regt. R.C.A. | the accused, already sworn is examined by the Defending Officer:

I admit asking Mrs Taylor if she had the list of Sgt. Cousineau's. I asked her if she still had the list. She said "no." I inquired if I could get hold of the list I would inform Sgt. Cousineau and he could get his laundry back. I never have seen Sgt. Cousineau laundry. I was on pass on Dec. 16th. Consequently did not have a chance to see Sgt. Cousineau because I was on pass and had a late start night. I did not at any time ask Mrs. Taylor to destroy the list if it was found. ~~The~~ list was instructed by Capt. Gray. S/L Weatherley and Sgt Cousineau. None of the allegedly stolen clothes were found in my kit.

Cross examined:

I have known Mrs. Taylor for 6 mos. last year. Recently I've started sending my laundry to Mrs Taylor. I've always paid Mrs. Taylor for my laundry. We are good friends. I did not tell Mrs. Taylor to destroy the ~~list~~ slip. There was no reason giving the ~~list~~ slip to Sgt. Cousineau with out the laundry. The last thing I said to Mrs. Taylor was - "You get hold of the laundry list and let me know."

Re-examined. "between 2230 and"

I got back from pass at 2300 hrs. On 16 Dec 42 I was first placed on charge on 17 Dec 42. So I had no chance to tell Sgt. Cousineau about his laundry. Some of the parcels of laundry are wrapped in brown paper and some are tied by shirt sleeves.

The parcel was severely scrapped up. It was not likely to come undone. We had a bit excitement. The accused hit at the unit was searched. Sgt. Third Witness for the Prosecution } M. 27130 Sgt. Cousmaker E.W., HQ Sqn 1 Corps Army Tps Coy.

being duly sworn is examined by the Prosecutor.

I recognise the accused. On 8 Dec 42 I brought a bundle of laundry of mine and put it in the basket held for the main laundry. On 12 Dec. 42 I called for my laundry at the unit post Office where it was pushed up. There was no laundry for me. R.P. L/Cpl. Carr in charge checked with the list he had got from Wilson's laundry and there was none for me. The following Monday I checked at Wilson's laundry in Brighton and ascertained they had received no laundry for me. I reported this. On 17 Dec. 42 I had a conversation with Sgt. Weatherley and as a result of that I accompanied Gnr. Albert to the home of Mrs. Taylor in Rottingdean. There I discovered some of my laundry. I recognise this shirt (Exhibit H) and these socks (Exhibit I) by the laundry mark M 215 and the towel (Exhibit J.) which was used to clean the sewing machine in the pay Office where I work by the substance on it, as my property. They were all in Mrs. Taylor's house. I reported the matter to Major Humber. I send my laundry to Wilson's laundry as do the majority of men in the unit. The M 215 stamp is a Co-op laundry mark. In my laundry on 8 Dec 42 there were two hand towels and the tea towel (Exhibit J.)

Cross examined:
The baskets are outside L/Cpl. Carr's Office in the hall. We do our laundry up as neatly as possible and place it in these baskets. I do mine up pretty carefully. I put a typewritten list in the inside of my laundry. Anyone could go by when these baskets are kept. I did not give my laundry to L/Cpl. Carr.

Re examined:
The laundry baskets are subject to access by others. Anyone could pass by, pick out a bundle and walk on going.

Second Witness for the Prosecution } Albert Edward Taylor. 5 Park Crescent, Rottingdean.

being duly sworn is examined by the Prosecutor.

I recognise the accused. On 14 Dec '42 I collected the washing from 180, Sqn. about between 7.30 and 8 o'clock. The accused gave me his washing I took it home to the wife. The accused gave me this kit bag (Exhibit B) which I recognise. The wife turned the kit bag out. She picked the washing up and carried each piece separately and made a list up of what was in the bag. As she was picking it up a Wilson's laundry slip fell out. ~~The accused~~ My wife dumped out the laundry. It was not in separate bundles. It was all together. I was having my breakfast at the time. I looked at the Wilson's laundry slip. I noticed Sgt. Cousineau's name on the slip but I did not pay much attention to the articles listed on it. WBB

Cross examined:
The accused brought the laundry down to me in the kitchen personally. If someone gave me a loose bundle of laundry I should fold it up and put it in a kit bag if there was room in one for it. I usually get three kit bags at a time. My wife does about 8 men's laundry. I do not wash up the men's laundry. It is done up for me. Sometimes it is tied up in brown paper. Sometimes it is just tied up with string. My wife knows out the laundry. I do not. I have never heard my wife remark about a piece of another man's washing in another man's laundry. My wife leaves the laundry accumulating on the floor until she begins washing. When I pick up the laundry there are usually only the three kitchen staff present. I put the men laundry in the kit bag. I take particular notice that they are tied up either with, string or by the shirt sleeves. WBB WBB

Re-examined:
We only do eight laundries and I am familiar with them. I do not recall any laundry ever getting mixed up.
By the Judge Advocate:
Sgt. Cousineau has never given me any laundry. WBB

He also asked me not to mention it to Mr. Albert. The accused said you know what the army will make of it. The following morning Sgt. Cousineau and Mr. Albert came to my house. I showed him the washing after some conversation. It was packed in Mr. le Blanc's bag (Exhibit G1). Sgt Cousineau recognised some of his things in it. He recognised two socks, a tea cloth and socks. I produce one undershirt (Exhibit H1). marked M215. I do not wash laundry with ink. It fell out of the bag (Exhibit G1) when I emptied the laundry on the floor. I produce a pair of socks (Exhibit I) which also fell out of the bag (Exhibit G1) at the same time. On a piece of tape inside the socks was a number under M215. I also produce a towel (Exhibit J) which also dropped out of the bag at the same time. Sgt. Cousineau recognised it also.

Cross examined:

I recognise the accused as Mr. le Blanc. I was receiving three bit bags of laundry when I received that one on 14 Dec. 42. I do laundry for between 8 to 10 men of this unit. My husband brings it to me every Monday morning. My boy helps him. My husband uses a bicycle to transport the laundry. When my husband comes in he generally puts the laundry down for me to check. There have been occasions on which two men's laundry are in one bit bag. There is never been any loose laundry in a bit bag belonging to another man. It was tied 16 Dec 42 that I had the conversation with the accused regarding the washing. The last words he said when he left were "If you find that list destroy it." Once when the accused came back from holiday I had one big washing for him. He had two towels that time. There were 5 towels in each of the last two bags of laundry from the accused. I check the laundry separately and carefully. Mr. Taylor was present when I opened and checked the laundry he was having he returned his breakfast. I do the checking. He doesn't do it at all. I grasp the laundry all comes separately. Sometimes my husband puts one of the separate parcels on the top of a bit bag of another laundry.

being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor.

On 11th Dec. 42 I turned out the laundry of Mr. Leblanc and a slip with Sgt. Cousineau's name fell out. This was a slip from Wilson's laundry in Brighton. It fell out with the clothes. I produce a bag (Exhibit 91) which I recognise. It was given to me by my husband, Albert Edward Taylor, who collects the laundry. I have received laundry from Mr. Leblanc before. As a rule it consisted of one or two towels, a set of underwear, a shirt and sometimes socks. This time there was more laundry than usual: 5 towels, 6 vests 5 prs. of pants, 4 handkerchiefs and 1 shirt, 4 prs. of socks. On Mr. Leblanc's laundry I have my own private mark, which I put on the laundry. On the other clothes there was another laundry mark H215. I had a conversation with Mr. Leblanc, when I recognise on 16 Dec. 42 regarding the laundry. I asked him what the laundry slip was doing in his bag. He asked me if I had still got it. I got up to look for it but unfortunately I couldn't find it. He then said if I found it would I destroy it.

Second Witness for the Defence } Major C. H. Humber. HQ. Sqn 1 Cdn. Army Tk. Bde.

being duly sworn is examined by the Defending Officer:

Q. The accused was up before me, as O.C. HQ Sqn. 1 Cdn. Army Tk. Bde. in company orderly room. He was charged under sec. 15(4) of the Army Act. I awarded the accused 28 days field punishment. I do not recollect if at any time the accused was asked if he pleaded not guilty or guilty. The punishment which I awarded was null and void for the reason that I did not have the authority to award the punishment I had tried to award. On the morning of 29 Dec. 42. I advised the accused accordingly and that the award was not operative. Subsequently I realized shortly after purporting to make the award that it was null and void, without authority from Brigadier Wigmore. I then saw him that morning to try and get the authority but he would not grant it. I then had the accused paraded before me this was before lunch I think - and told him that the award I had purported to make was inoperative and that he was being remanded for the taking of a summary of evidence. I do not recollect ever telling the accused that he was being remanded because new evidence was going to be taken.

No cross examination.

By the Court:

I have the powers of a Commanding Officer. The Charge sheet which was read out to the accused when he appeared before me in company orderly room has disappeared or been mislaid. The accused was charged with theft of laundry belonging to Sgt. Cousineau. The items supposedly stolen were not detailed in the charge sheet.

R.P. 83(B) complied with.

The Defending Officer addressed the Court, reserving the authorities he had already mentioned.

The Prosecutor replied, stating that the award purporting to have been awarded by Maj. Humber was no award and that the accused had consequently, not been previously convicted.

The Judge Advocate, in summing up referred to A.A. 46, pp. 13 thereto and the Cdn. Law as set out in Dinsmore R.C. 2616

The accused, before the plea of "not guilty" offers a plea in bar of trial on the ground that the accused has already been tried for the same offence and received an award 28 C.B. by his C.O., Major C.H. Humber.

The Defending officer referred to A.A.46(7), R.P. 36(A)(i) and M.M.L. ch. IV. p.40.

First Witness for the Defence, S. 37063 Gnr. Le Blanc E.J., the accused having been duly sworn is examined by the Defending Officer.

On 29 Dec. 42 I reported to the Orderly room and was paraded to Maj. Humber. He reads out the charge to me. He asked me if I would accept his punishment. I told him "I didn't know for sure." He said I want to know if you will accept my punishment and I said "Yes". He sentenced me to 28 days field punishment. This happened about 1030 hrs. In the afternoon at about 1400 hrs I was again paraded before Maj. Humber who told me the 28 days were remanded until further evidence came up from the Bde. Commander. I was in close arrest from the time I was paraded in the morning of 29th Dec. 42.

Cross examined:
When I was before Maj. Humber I did not plead either "guilty" or "not guilty".

Re examined:
The first time I knew of the charge was on 14 Dec. 42. I was never asked at any time prior to appearing on this Court to plead guilty or not guilty.

MEDICAL OFFICER'S CERTIFICATE

I certify that No. 6.13245. Pte. Leblanc, E. J. ... 1 R. Regt. C is. fit ..... to undergo trial by Court-Martial today.

IN THE FIELD
24 March 1918

... Captain Medical Officer

6 - 13245. - Leblanc Edmund Joseph.
Private Leblanc is 23 yrs of age and single. Called up in Sept 41 signed for active service in Sept. 42. Transferred from Artillery after over 3 yrs service in that branch of the army. While it is the duty of a soldier to accept this sort of treatment Leblanc was not particularly happy about leaving the service he had had long training for and being sent to the Infantry. ~~Signed the~~ ~~R.C.R. Regt Reinforcements~~. He had a good record while serving in Canada being up for office only once and forfeiting 2 days pay for being late in from a leave owing to train connection difficulties. He served with the Royal Regt from the end of July until 9 Oct 43 at which time the Bn was in position north of Assendrecht. While living in cold wet slit trenches he picked up a cold in his kidneys and reporting sick to the R.A.P. a two occasions was sadden by the treatment he received and in disgust went absent without leave to Antwerp. I would plea for lenient treatment in this case as Leblanc was led to his action which he regrets by a series of incidents which he felt were very unfair to a soldier who was trying to do his best. He was on his ~~duff~~ and was going to surrender himself the next day when he was picked up.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE.

In the case of R-144237 Pte Leblanc E.A. of the Cdn Inf Corps, on the strength of 4 Cdn Inf Trg Regt.

By direction of the Commanding Officer, this Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

D-56219 Sgt Brais J.N., of the Cdn Inf Corps, on the strength of 4 Cdn Inf Trg Regt, having been duly sworn, states as follows:

" I am NCO i/c 4 CITR Guard Room. At 1515 hrs 31 Jul 45, H-46526 Sgt Faulkner C.K., who had been sent along with 9 other Sgts to give me assistance, shouted to me: "Hey, Sergeant, some of your men are escaping" or words to that effect. I immediately gave the alarm and checked on the rear sentry post, where the accused, whom I now recognize, was at his post, standing up. He had been detailed to that post by Pte Berthelet who was in charge of that shift. The roll was then called and the following prisoners were missing:

C-21582	Pte O'callaghan C.P.
K-51489	Pte Worthington J.H.
D-46709	Pte Fryer W.S.
D-186502	Pte L'abbé H.
K-53763	Pte Ferguson A.E.
K-45833	Pte Foster A.E.
C-475	Pte Chaters R.

The responsibility of the rear sentry guard was to observe the entire area of the barbed wire enclosure which measures about 40 feet by 40 feet and see that no prisoners escaped.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

D-61764 Pte Berthelet M., of the Cdn Inf Corps, on strength of 4 Cdn Inf Trg Regt, having been duly sworn, states as follows:

" On 31 Jul 45 I was on duty at 4 CITR guard room, in charge of the 0745 hrs to 1545 hrs shift. At 1510 hrs Pte Paquette was on duty at the rear post. He was relieved by Pte Verreault and then, sometime after Pte Leblanc came to my office saying: " I am going to the rear to relieve Verreault." To which I answered that that was all right. When Pte Verreault returned to my office, I asked him who was in the back. He replied: " Leblanc." At about 1505 hrs I heard somebody shouting, catching these words: " Sergeant " and " Running ". I went into the enclosure immediately and counted the prisonners. There were 22, when at noon time there were 29 of them. I saw a hole in the rear left hand corner of the eclosure, a hole made through the barbed wire and big enough for any man to pass through it. I was in my office continually during my tour of duty and the prisonners did not escape through the front; they escaped from the rear. If they had escaped by the front, they would have had to go through my office, which they did not. Before starting to count the men, I looked for the accused and he was at his post.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Q. Are you allowed to do anything except watch during your tour of duty?
A. No.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B)

THE DEFENCE IS CLOSED

STATEMENT BY THE PROSECUTOR ON THE FINDING

At the time of the escape all the prisoners were in the compound, the accused was the only gd in the rear part of the compound and he was solely responsible to see that the prisoners did not escape. Seven of the prisoners got away, and the only conclusion is that the accused is guilty of the charge.

STATEMENT BY THE DEFENDING OFFR ON THE FINDING

First of all, I'll say that the Prosecution have not succeeded in proving the charge against the accused. He is accused of allowing 7 prisoners to escape and none of the witnesses can swear that 7 prisoners escaped during his tour of duty. There is doubt I'm sure in the minds of the Court as to this, and you cannot condemn a man of the charge as it is now laid.

Secondly, nobody could prove that when the accused took over the 29 prisoners were there. The roll call was made at 1310, a check by numbers, and the accused took over at a quarter to two, 1345, so, some of the prisoners must have escaped during Pacquette's duty tour or during Verreault's, and you must remember that the accused is accused of allowing to escape 7 prisoners and you must judge him according to what has been proven against him. You cannot allow yourself to think that this might have happened during his tour of duty because you have no proof of that and the Prosecution have not proven it. Besides, remember the apparent mess of the administration there at the dtn bks, and remember also that no orders were given whatsoever to the RPs, and you cannot accuse a man of not carrying out a duty if he did not get an orders about it. It would have been different if he had been told to inspect the wire, but nobody told him and nobody could prove that the hole was not made during the tour of duty of another RP, and therefore it is not proven that 7 prisoners escaped during the accused's tour of duty. Shifts were relieved by themselves, and there was no proper authority to relieve them. I must also call to your attention that a week later 3 other men again escaped. This is certainly not the responsibility of the accused and there must be something wrong there. Besides that, some of the witnesses said that there were no prisoners in the hut and Pte Verreault swore that there were some men in the hut. Besides that, the accused was unafraid to be cross-examined by the Prosecution and gave evidence under oath, and said that 3 prisoners escaped, but I know this to be under very bad ci cumstances. Even the Sgt says the wire could have very well been loosened before, and remember too, the wire was not cut. Finally, the Sgt admitted to this Court that the compound was absolutely no good or words to that effect to gd prisoners, so I ask the Court to give a decision of not guilty because I'm sure it would be absolutely unfair to have the accused's shoulderscarry this responsibility when so many others are concerned, as he is simply a helpless Pte surrounded by bad circumstances.

THE COURT IS CLOSED TO CONSIDER ITS FINDING

THE COURT IS REOPENED AND THE PRESIDENT ANNOUNCES THAT THE COURT FINDS THE ACCUSED NOT GUILTY OF THE CHARGE.

FIRST WITNESS

The ACCUSED, having been duly sworn, states:

Q. Will you tell the Court about the events that took place during the afternoon of 31 Jul 45?
A. Yes, as it was my turn to have a tour of duty behind the Gd House I relieved Pte Verreault about 1400 hrs. During the hour that I was there about 25 past 2 I was replaced by Pte Shadt for the next 25 mins by permission of Sgt Brais in order to change battledress in my hut because I had an order to change it on account of I had scabies. Sgt Brais was in front of the office when I asked him and he said "yes, you may go", and I told him I had an RP to replace me. I changed and I went back in the back and told Shadt that I was taking over. The time then would be about a quarter to three. I didn't inspect the wire when I returned. The reason I went to change my battledress at that time was because I thought it would be a good time when I had an RP to replace me.
Q. Where were you standing when you came back?
A. In the corner where we always stand, around where the table

SECOND WITNESS

D.61764 Pte BERTHELET M, 4 CITR, having been duly sworn, states:

I recognize the accused and on the afternoon of 31 Jul 45 I was IC of the shift from 0745 hrs till 1545 hrs. All was under control in the morning and at 1310 hrs Pte Pacquette who was on the rear post, asked me to be relieved. At the time I was opening the door to send the prisoners into the compound. He asked me this across the enclosure, he being on his post. To relieve him I sent Pte Verrault. A few mins after the accused came in the office and said "I'm going in the back". I told him Pte Verreault was there and he said "I'll release him". Then Verreault walked in the office and I asked him where the accused was and he said he was in the back. About 1500 hrs I heard someone shout "sgt, running", so I said to Verreault to WATCH THE DOOR AND I went in the dtn compound and I saw a hole in the left in the corner of the rear of the compound through the bottom of the barbed wire. I counted the men, there were 22 in the enclosure, and after dinner before I sent them out, about 1310 hrs, there were 29 men present. While I counted the men in the enclosure the accused was standing up at the rear post.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. You made a roll call at 1310 hrs?
A. I counted the men, Sir.

Q. Pacquette was on duty then, relieved by Verreault, and then by the accused?
A. Yes.

Q. Can you swear that the men escaped while the accused was on duty?
A. No, I cannot swear to that, but he was there at the time I counted the men.

Q. Did you know that the accused had permission to absent himself and to be replaced during his tour of duty?
A. No.

Q. Did you make an inspection of the wire?
A. No.

Q. Did you check with the Cpl?
A. Yes, at a quarter past 3.

Q. Did you see the accused then?
A. Yes.

Q. As an NCO did you not give any orders to the Ptes of whom you were in charge?
A. That was my first experiment and I didn't know what I was to do.

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT:

Q. Did you have another patrol in front of the dtn hks?
A. Yes, but he couldn't see the compound well. The front sentry doesn't get a very good view of the compound only between the huts.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B)

Q. Where did you tell the accused to stand?
A. It was not a question of standing, it was a question of watching.

Q. Is one man sufficient to keep a close watch on the compound as it was then?
A. No, they couldn't give me the men I wanted, and that was all I had.

Q. Do you think it was possible for the men to make a hole without the gd seeing them?
A. Impossible if the gd is watching and doing his duty.

Q. Have you any orders about the duties of a sentry?
A. No.

Q. Had you inspected the wire yourself that day?
A. That morning and every morning.

Q. Do you know if the men made any attempt to distract the attention of the accused while they escaped?
A. I don't know, but they could have done so.

Q. How many men did he guard?
A. 34.

Q. Can you say that he was on duty when it happened?
A. Yes, I saw him standing toward the front of the compound after they escaped.

Q. How many sentries could you have placed around the compound?
A. They sent me 30 after the escape.

Q. Did you place any of them around?
A. They didn't want to do it because they were Sgts.

Q. When did you make a roll call?
A. I sent the Cpl to make it.

Q. Do you remember the accused coming to you to ask you if he could go and change his battledress that day about 1430 hrs?
A. No.

Q. Did he speak to you outside your office?
A. I don't remember, maybe he did.

TRIAL OF

B.144237 Pte LEBLANC EA 4 CITR

-PROSECUTION-

FIRST WITNESS

D.56219 Sgt BRAIS JN, 4 CITR, having been duly sworn, states:

I recognize the accused. On 31 Jul 45 I was the Pro Sgt of 4 CITR and at approx 1515 hrs I was informed by another Sgt that some of my men were escaping at the back of the compound. I already checked to see if there were any gds at the back and also gave a holler to send someone after the men that had escaped, then I went and reported this to the Adjt and he told me to get the name of the gd at the back of the compound and this I found to be the accused. There are three shifts split up in 8 hrs and there were 6 to 7 men per shift. The man at the back of the compound watches that nobody escapes. According to the one IC of the shift the accused started on duty around 2 o'clock and should or probably would have been relieved at 4. The men who escaped were O'Callaghan, Worthington, Fryer, L'Abbe, Ferguson, Foster and Chaters.

THE WITNESS WAS ASKED TO PREPARE A CHART OF THE AREA, WHICH HE DID.

BOTH THE PROSECUTOR AND DEF OFFR SAID THEY WERE SATISFIED WITH THE CHART.

Q. Did you see these men escape?
A. I saw the last three, Sir, but I didn't recognize who they were.

Q. How did they get out?
A. In the corner at the back of the compound we found a hole where they had spread the concertina wire through which they sneaked.

Q. Was the wire cut?
A. No, it was twisted.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. Didn't you say at the Summary that you had required the services of 9 other NCOs to help you?
A. Yes, because I didn't have any men and before that happened I told all my men to do their best as I felt there was going to be an escape. Three men had told me to watch out and watch my step, that I was going to lose 13 men, so I got some good NCOs.

Q. What were these NCOs doing at 1515 hrs?
A. Taking their stuff to move away, they weren't staying on.

Q. Where was Sgt Faulkner?
A. At the corner of the compound at the front and from there he could see them running away after they got out.

Q. Would you say the compound is inadequate to keep prisoners in?
A. Yes.

Q. Did any escape after that date?
A. Yes, a couple of days later 5 did.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans.....(5)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

I asked to see his pass and he said "I have no pass" Consequently I arrested and conveyed him to C.M.P. Guard Room, ARGYLE ST. On the night of 29th November, 1940, I was in charge of the shift on guard at Bordon Detention Room from 1600 - 2400 hours. At about 1930 hours, I made a check on all prisoners and found that Pte. E.H. Bartholomew Pte.

Accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Q11 - Are they true extracts from the regimental books, and is the statement of entries in the conduct sheets a fair and true summary of these entries?
A11 - They are, sir.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Q12 - Do you wish to address the Court?
A12 - (Defending Officer) I have nothing to say, sir, except the accused apparently recognizes his conduct has not been very manly and on pleading guilty to all the charges he wishes to prove that it is his desire to soldier in future.

The Court is closed for the consideration of the sentence.

B-4557, Pte. Leblanc, E., R22eR. Fd. Unit, No. 2 Cdn. Inf. Holding Unit, tried by Field General Court-Martial at Witley, Surrey on the 16th day of January, 1941.

The order convening the court, the charge-sheet and the summary of evidence are laid before the court.

At 1000 hrs the Trial commences.

The names of the President and members of the Court are read over in the hearing of the accused and they severally answer to their names.

Q1 - Do you object to be tried by me as President, or by any of the officers whose names you have heard read over?
A1 - No, sir.

The President and members are duly sworn.

Q2 - Do you object to M-15577 Sgt. Stanley Fidler, The Edmonton Regiment, C.W.H.C., acting as Court Stenographer?
A2 - No, sir.

The Court Stenographer is duly sworn.

The charge-sheet is signed by the President and annexed to the proceedings.

The accused is arraigned upon each charge in the above mentioned charge-sheet.

Q3 - Are you guilty or not guilty of the first charge against you, which you have heard read?
A3 - Guilty, sir.

Prosecutor - Before the accused pleads to the second charge, I might say that I understand that he has certain articles of equipment for which he is charged as being deficient. If that is so the defence may agree to plead guilty to an amended charge, if the court agrees, and we will thereby save the time of the court.

The defence is able to produce certain of the articles with which the accused is charged as being deficient.

Q4 - Are you guilty or not guilty of the second charge as amended, and which you have heard read?
A4 - Guilty, sir.
Q5 - Are you guilty or not guilty of the third charge against you which you have heard read?
A5 - Guilty, sir.

R.P. 35(B) is complied with by the court.

The summary of evidence is read, signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings.

Q6 - Do you wish to make any statement in mitigation of punishment?
A6 - No, sir.
Q7 - Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to character?
A7 - No, sir.

Lieut. W.H. Beber, Records Officer, No. 2 Cdn. Inf. Holding Unit, being duly sworn, is examined by the President.

Q8 - Have you any evidence to produce as to the character and particulars of service of the accused?
A8 - I produce certified true copies of A.F.B. 294 and M.F.W. 6 of the accused.
A9 - Is the accused the person named in the statement which you have heard read?
A9 - He is, sir.
Q10 - Have you compared the contents of the above statement with the regimental books?
A10 - I have, sir.

CLOSING ADDRESS by Prosecution

The prosecution, on the first charge against the accused, has shown clearly that he absented himself without leave from his platoon at 1030 hrs 9 OCT. 43. That the platoon was under shell fire. Both the pl. Commander and pl. Sgt state so clearly. The evidence also shows that the accused had been warned by the pl. commander himself that if he ran away he would be considered a deserter. The accused left anyway. The court therefore should find him GUILTY. of Desertion.

The Accused whom I now recognize belongs to my Platoon. On 9 Oct. 43 I made sure that all men of my Platoon were present. The Accused was there. I advised them all that the company was moving forward towards the enemy and that I didn't want anyone to leave the Platoon without my own permission. During the route march which followed Pte. LeBlanc left for a few minutes. I told him personally that if he left the Platoon I would consider him a deserter. He replied, "Yes, sir, I know." At 1030 hours we were under enemy shelling. The Accused ran away without permission. He reported back on 14 Oct. 43 at about 1030 hours. Our company was then at rest. The Accused was put in close arrest. The first Summary of Evidence was taken and a charge of Desertion was laid against the Accused. On 22 Oct. 43 as his case had not yet been handled by Bde, the Accused was temporarily released from Detention and sent back to his company. Before leaving the Guard Room he was told by Major Allard, 2 i c Royal 22e Regt, that his good behaviour in the next operation would make this charge of Desertion drop. The same date, after

The prosecution, on the first charge against the accused, has shown clearly that he absented himself without leave from his platoon at 1030 hrs 9 Oct 43. That the Platoon was under shell fire. Both the Pl Commander and Pl Sgt state so clearly. The evidence also shows that the accused had been warned by the Pl commander himself that if he ran away he would be considered a deserter. The accused left anyway. The court therefore should find him GUILTY of Desertion.

Case of E-6161 Pte. LEBLANC, D.

First Witness: For the Prosecution. Lieut. C. Levesque, R. 22e R., "A" Coy, having been duly sworn, states,

The accused whom I now recognize belongs to my Platoon. On 9 Oct 43 I made sure that all men of my Platoon were present. The accused was there. I advised them all that the Company was moving forward towards the enemy and that I didn't want anyone to leave the Platoon without my own permission. During the route march which followed Pte. Leblanc left for a few minutes. I told him personally that if he left the Platoon I would consider him a deserter. He replied, "Yes, Sir, I know." At 1030 hours we were under enemy shelling. The accused ran away without permission. He reported back on 14 Oct 43 at about 1030 hours. Our Company was then at rest. The accused was put in close arrest. The first Summary of Evidence was taken and a charge of Desertion was laid against the accused. On 22 Oct 43 as his case had not yet been handled by Bde, the accused was temporarily released from Detention and sent back to his company. Before leaving the Guard Room he was told by Major Allard, 2/i-c Royal 22e Regt., that his good behaviour in the next operation would make this charge of Desertion drop. The same date, after we had advanced in trucks, I again made sure that the accused was present in my platoon. He was there. I advised them all that their going away would be considered as Desertion, or words to that effect, and told them we were going directly into the front line. We could hear enemy shelling at that moment. At 1830 hrs the accused had disappeared without permission. Moreover, he left with one of his companions' rifle, the 2" Mortar man's which I had lent him for his own personal defence. He reported back to my Platoon at about 1030 hours the 3rd Nov 43.

No Cross-examination by Defence.

Question by the Court.

Q. - In your evidence you state that the accused ran away. Were you personally an eye-witness to this act?

A. - Yes.

Q. - In which direction did he run, toward the enemy, or away from the enemy?

A. - Away from the enemy.

Q. - Could it be that he was acting as a runner delivering a message?

A. - No, Sir it was impossible.

Plea in Mitigation
In the case of:

G-27578 Pte LeBlanc C J.

The reason for my going absent without leave is that I dont like serving in this Regiment. I have asked for transfer several times to the RCA and have had no satisfaction.

I have in the past been a good soldier. My records will show that after 4 years of service there were no entries until I joined this Regiment. I would still be a good soldier if I could have had satisfaction on my transfer request.

I ask for a light punishment in view of past good character and wish to state that if transfer could be granted after punishment for this offence is served I would serve as a good soldier.

The reason for my going absent without leave is that I dont like serving in this Regiment. I have asked for transfer several times to the R.C.R. and have had no satisfaction.

I have in the past been a good soldier. My records will show that after 4 years & service there were no entries under I joined this Regiment. I would still be a good soldier if I could have had satisfaction on my transfer request.

I ask for a light punishment in view of past good character and wish to state that if transfer could be granted after punishment for this offence is ~~over~~ I would serve as a good soldier.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans. Nil. (5)

(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE in the case of L-74055 L/Cpl. Conrad, Joseph, Le Blanc, 85 Cdn Bridge Coy RCASC, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

" I am B-81369 Pte. Alexander, Freedman.

At 1615 hrs on Thursday the 9 Dec 1943, I was playing a game of checkers with one Pte. Doucet. My partner was sitting on the bed of B-81387 Pte. Frank, HERBERT. L/Cpl. LeBlanc came over and sat on Pte. Herberts bed, beside Pte. Doucet. Suddenly the bed collapsed. Then the soldiers in the hut started to tease L/Cpl. LeBlanc about having to get Pte. Herbert another bed. Pte. Herbert, who was writing a letter in another part of the hut, said " Alright, LeBlanc you will get me another bed". L/Cpl. LeBlanc replied " go get your own bed, you know where they are", or words to that effect. Immediately, Pte. Herbert upset L/Cpl. LeBlanc's bed. He said to L/Cpl. LeBlanc " You broke mine so I'll break yours" or words to that effect. L/Cpl. LeBlanc seen what had happened, took off his jacket and said " Alright Herbert" and walked towards him. Pte. Herbert continued to write. I heard a noise of scuffling, and Pte. Herbert was clutching at the stove pipe. Everything had happened so quickly, that nobody had a chance to intervene. Pte. Herbert said " That is a hell of a way to hit a man, the least you could have done was to ask me to step out side". L/Cpl. LeBlanc said "well come on outside now". Pte. Summary of Evidence Summary of Evidence in the case of F96122, Pte. Le Blanc, Arthur Lewis, No 3 C.I.T.R., a patient in Romon Way Convalescent Hospital, R.C.A.M.C., a Soldier in the Canadian Army, Overseas, charged under Section 15. Army Act.

By order of the Commanding Officer, this Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

D92516 S/Sgt. Miller, N. J. S. K. on staff of Romon Way Convalescent Hospital having been duly Sworn States as follows:

At about 2200 hrs, 21 Dec 44, while on duty, I checked Ward 6, Spider F, and found Bed No 2, unoccupied. I checked Spider nominal roll and found Bed No 2 was normally occupied by Pte. Le Blanc, whom I have recognize. This ward was checked at intervals, during the night, by me, and at 0630 hrs 22 Dec 44. Pte Le Blanc was not occupying his bed.

Roll calls were made each night at about 2200 hrs and Pte Le Blanc did not answer ~~to his~~ to his name.

Plea in Mitigation of Sentence by Defending Officer.

The accused has 3 years of reasonably good conduct. All his A.W.L.'s while with the field forces were short ones the longest being two days. His three long A.W.L.'s have occured ~~of~~ while he was in hospital and there has been very little time between them. There can be no doubt that something is wrong with the man and that something is causing him to go A.W.L. It would seem that he is very dissatisfied with his treatment in hospital and although it may be purely in his head such dissatisfaction is very real to him and without doubt the pain he says he suffers is very real to him also. If the Court can consider this together with the man's good service it is submitted that no harsh sentence should be awarded.

the Officer Commanding the hospital and he told me P.T. was good for me and that I would not get reboarded until I left the hospital. I went A.W.L. I was punished by forfeiture of pay and then I saw in Orders that there was Christmas leave for married men. I asked the M.O. for leave and he told me that since I had been A.W.L. I would not be able to go. I went A.W.L. to London and stayed there for Christmas and New Years. This is the offence for which I am now being tried

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President ~~or JA, if any~~, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans. No (5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex B, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence. You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(1) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(2) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(3) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

FIRST WITNESS E-0188 S/Sgt George WJ after having been duly sworn, states:

I am E-0188 S/Sgt George WJ of 2 Cdn Armd Bde Wksp ROYCE and am in charge of a crew in the tank section. The accused, Cfn Leblanc AJ, is a member of my crew. At 1300hrs 10March 45 I was told we were to move so I assembled my crew in order to pack. The accused was not present and could not be found throughout the area. His equipment was packed by the remainder of the crew. I did not see him again until 13 March 45 when he reported to Lieut Agnew. I am in constant contact with my crew and would have seen him had he returned prior to this.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

IN THE CASE OF

E 22619 CFN LEBLANC AJ 2 CDN ARMD BDE WKSP RCEME

a soldier of the Cdn Army placed on Active Service

CHARGE Absence Without Leave AA Sec 15 (1)

THE OC HAS DIRECTED THAT THE EVIDENCE BE TAKEN ON OATH

Statement by defending Officer Capt. P.W. Platt.

The accused has pleaded guilty but I would ask that it be taken into consideration that he is twenty three years old and has been in the army over two years. His character witness has made the statement that he is a temperamental type of man. The charge of ~~the~~ A.W.L was from 1300 hrs 10 march 45 until 1200 hrs 13 march 45. The accused has stated that he approached the provost in Cleves when he could not find the unit. I suggest that he was rather frightened of admitting to the provost that he was AWL at that time. If he had done so he would have shortened the period of being A.W.L. by nearly 36 hrs. Sir I ask these points be taken into consideration when passing sentence.

P.W.P

M36415 S/Sgt. Norman T.A. 2 Cdn Armd Bde Wksp RCEME having been duly sworn states:-

Sir I have known the accused 6 fm Leblanc since he has been with us in the tank section since we came to France. I have observed that he has done a lot of hard work on tanks as a mechanic. He is inclined to be rather temperamental especially when there is not very much work to be done.

PPS

Statement by the accused.
E22619 Cpn. Leblanc A.J.

Saturday 10 March 45 at one oclock there was no work in the shops. I went to a show in Nijmegen coming back on Sunday evening the work shop had moved. On Monday morning I asked the provost if they had seen the work shops. They said they never seen the work shops. And on Tuesday I found the work shops.

Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).*

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated:

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See MML p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 39, 60(C); powers and duties of JA see RP 105; duty of Prosecutor see RP 60(A) (E); duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 83-85; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court etc see RP 75-79, 86, 116; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6; and responsibility of JA or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 2. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s)(1). If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans YES (5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 3 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on THE charge(s). The accused is (not) so informed, and (does) (does not) change his plea(s) on the charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (was) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? Ans.....(1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)

(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)
NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither?
Ans...... Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf?

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of No E-4141, Private Augustin LEBLANC, of the Royal 22e Regiment, on the strength of 6 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer, this Summary of Evidence was taken under oath.

First witness for the Prosecution. Lieut C. Gagnon, Royal 22e Regiment, 6 CIRU, having been duly sworn, states:

I am Lieut C. Gagnon, of the Royal 22e Regiment, 6 CIRU. On 17 Mar 43, I was in Sunningdale with Lieut Boulanger when, at about 2245 hrs, as we were going by the station, I saw two soldiers arguing violently with a civilian. I thought nothing of it at the time and continued on my way. A few seconds later the civilian caught up with us and passed us walking very fast and even running at times. Behind him were two soldiers. As these soldiers went by I recognised on of them as Pte Leblanc. I called his name, but looking back he kept on going. Suddenly the civilian started to run with the two soldiers in pursuit. They caught up with him and pushed him into an alleyway. I could see this quite plainly in the moonlight. I crossed the street in their direction to see just what they were up to. I asked what they were doing but got no answer. Just then Duguay threw the civilian on the ground. I ordered him to stop. He suddenly lunged forward and struck me on the nose with his fist, knocking me backwards and causing me to split my head on the pavement. While this was going on Leblanc stood to one side and did nothing to interfere. After I was down Duguay and Leblanc took to their heels and ran away.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

C Gagnon .....Lieut.

Second Witness for the Prosecution. Lieut R.L. Boulanger, Regiment de la Chaudiere, 6 CIRU, having been duly sworn, states:

I am Lieut R.L. Boulanger, of Le Regiment de la Chaudiere, 6 CIRU. On 17 Mar 43 at about 2230 I was in Sunningdale with Lieut C. Gagnon. As we were walking down the street in the direction of the camp, I saw two soldiers going by, which I recognised as Ptes Duguay and Leblanc. I called out Duguay's name but he didn't seem to take any notice. Suddenly I saw them run into an alleyway, from which I heard noises that seemed to indicate that a fight was in progress. Lieut Gagnon crossed the street to try and stop the fight. Suddenly in the moonlight I saw a man fall and two others take to their heels. Realizing that the man who had fallen was Lieut Gagnon, I rushed to his assistance. He was down on the ground and his nose was bleeding profusely. Just then a man arose from out of the shadows where he had been lying. He was a civilian and I tried to question him as to what had happened. He did not seem eager to answer my questions and so I walked away. I am positive, having seen them go there and having recognised them as they went by, that the two men who ran away after knocking down Lieut Gagnon, were Ptes Duguay and Leblanc, although I was too far away at the time to actually see which one of them did strike Lieut Gagnon.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

R.L. Boulanger ..Lieut.

The accused, having been duly cautioned in French in accordance with RP 4 (2) and RO 1424, reserves his defence.

Having been duly sworn states.

On the 17th march 1943 my intention in going out was to go to a Dance in Cunningdale Surrey, on the way I stopped to a pub to have a few glasses of beer, then we proceeded to the Dance hall, it must have been then approximately 2000 hrs we stayed there until 2130 hrs a few minutes before leaving I looked at the time coming out of the dance hall, I was then with Pte Deguay, our intention was to go back to camp and go to bed. Four of us left together to go back to camp. We met a civilian, I don't know what came into Deguay's head, I could not say if he hit him or pushed him, I asked Deguay what he was doing, he did not answer. Then we saw two ~~officers~~ ~~at that~~ ~~me~~ ~~man~~ in uniform, one crossed the road next minute I saw ~~the~~ man in uniform on the ground, I was very nervous so I ran away then I came home to bed. Deguay is ~~not~~ no friend of mine I just happened to be with him that evening. I am in the army since 1939. It is ~~the~~ This is the 1st time I ever was mixed up in trouble of that sort. I had never seen that civilian before in my life. Deguay never told me of his intention to attack any civilian. I never struck any one that evening.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of E-13123 Pte Achille Leblanc, 1st Bn Le Régiment de la Chaudiere a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, placed on Active Service.

The C.O. directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

1st WITNESS — Captain C.R. Lamoureux of Le Régiment de la Chaudiere, having been duly sworn states:

On the 11th of November 1943, at 2220 hrs, I was coming back to my billet with Lieut. Y. Gosselin of Le Régiment de la Chaudiere. We were walking on Charminster rd and few yards before arriving to Queens Park Ave, I noticed on Charminster rd three soldiers urinating along a wooden fence separating a private house from the sidewalk. The three men were on the sidewalk of Charminster rd. We stopped few yards further to find out who were the three soldiers. When they had finished urinating we turned to see who they were. The night was very bright so y. that persons were almost as distinguishable as in the day. Pte A. Leblanc came to me and asked me:"What do you want?" I answered him:"What?" Again he said:"what do you want?" I then answered him that I wanted to find out what was happening. I noticed that Pte Leblanc was not wearing his cap. Pte Leblanc then said:" I do not bother you, don't bother me and go your way or be careful of your face." Lieut. Y. Gosselin was at the time at my rear facing Leblanc. I did not say anything more and went my way. I had not walk more than few steps.when Leblanc insulted me again with phrases like " Christ de baveux." etc.(Christ) I have been in Le Régiment de la Chaudiere since July 1941 and did once belonged to D coy in which Leblanc was at the time. I am sure by saying that the man to whom I was speaking that night was E-13123 Pte Achille Leblanc. For the two others I cannot say who they were as one of them escaped while I was speaking to Leblanc and the other, smaller than Leblanc, was behind him when Leblanc was speaking to me. I noticed that he looked over his shoulder but I can not say surely who he was.

The accused declines to crossexamined the witness.

2nd WITNESS — Lieut. J.Y. Gosselin 1st Bn. Le Régiment de la Chaudiere, having beeen duly sworn states:

On the 11th of November 1943, at 2220 hrs, coming back from Bournemouth with Captain C.R. Lamoureux, we met on Charminster rd between "Elizabeth Cafe" and the "Five Ways Pub" three soldiers urinating on the sidewalk. We passed by and few yards away we stopped. When they had finished Capt. Lamoureux and I turned to see who they were. One of the three that I knew to be E-13123 Pte Leblanc A asked Capt. Lamoureux what he wanted. Capt. Lamoureux answered that he wanted to find out what was happening. Pte Leblanc was standing right in front of Capt. Lamoureux; he raised his hand and said:" I do not bother you, don't bother me and go your way or be careful of your face. Without saying anymore we went our way. We had not walked more than fifteen feet when Leblanc swore at Capt. Lamoureux and said:" Go and see the Pears ." When speaking to Capt. Lamoureux, Pte Leblanc had not his Cap on his head.

Plea in mitigation of sentence by defending officer

The accused is a young man physically fit and fully trained. He has been in the army for over three years and is consulting his M.F.M.C. you will see that his conduct has been good, no serious entries. I ask that the court consider his good record and be as lenient as possible with him.

was at the time, mentioned by the charge sheet, not in the street by in his billet. One more thing before closing my address. I would like to point out to the court the admt 30 of June 42. concerning the first charge. The amdt is her read,

Now gentlemen of the court because of these fact and of the other that I don't thing at the moment out have been said in this case, I demand that the accused should be found not guilty on both charges Also gentlemen, I would like to say that an accused person is not guilty until proven guilty.

The last witness brought up by the prosecution only collaborate with the statement of the defence.

I thank you gentlemen

CFA (TOC693) PLEASE WRITE ON BOTH SIDES

On the other hand the accused's statement and the statement made by Sergeants are very explicite and should be taken in consideration having been made on oath. They both stated that a few minutes before the first close they came right back to the billets and that they did not stop to urinate anywhere, and also that they did not speak to anyone else then themself. The third witness confirms these statement, as he stated that he made tatoo at 2220 hrs, that night and the accused was in his billets. Now according to Capt Lamoureux it should take the accused more then five and less then ten minutes to get back to his billets. This offence taking place at 2220 hrs the accused could not be at both places at the same time.

Another thing important in the first and second charge, the offence took place at exactly 2220 hrs and gentlemen I have prove different meaning that the accused Gentlemen of the Court.

After hearing the different statements made by the witnesses both for the prosecution and the defense, I would like with the permission of the court to review these statements.

The witnesses for the prosecution stated that on the 18th Nov 43 they met at exactly 2220 hrs, three soldiers and that Capt Lemoureux was insulted by these soldiers. They also stated that these three soldiers were urinating on the sidewalk. They both recognized the accused as one of these three soldier.

Now, gentlemen of the court, I must remind you that this took place after 2200 hrs and that at any night after 2200 hrs, it is really black especially with the black out. and therefor difficult to recognize anyone, even if the night is bright because of the moon.

Closing address by the prosecution.

First all the writers agreed that on 11 Nov 43 between 2200 and 2230 hr they had been on Chamoisin Rd between Elizabeth Rd and the pub. Witness for the defence do not deny that. Capt Lamoureux Second point Capt Lamoureux and Lt Gosselin met three soldiers on the afore said night. These three were urinating on the street. Ptes Chamberland Leblanc & Langlois had spent the evening together.

These officers identified these men positively These officers both said stated the terms used by soldiers

No discrimination towards Pte Leblanc. On the other hand writers are close friends The officers claim the time to be 2220 hrs. Absolute denial on the part of Leblanc to speaking to Capt Lamoureux.

At that very moment Pte Leblanc asked Lamouroux what he wanted. Capt Lamouroux answered "I wanted to see what's going on here". Then Leblanc standing about six inches from Capt Lamouroux raised his right arm and told him "I don't bother you don't bother me and go your way. ~~So long town~~ Lamouroux Also he said Be careful of your face." Then Capt Lamouroux and I turned about and took the way leading to the officers mess. As we had gone a few paces he started swearing and said these words. "Christ de bleu" "Je and see the Padre" and many other words I can't remember now. I'm very sure that it was Leblanc because I noticed his curly hair and his voice. Leblanc had no field cap on his head. It was ~~in~~ his shoulder. I don't remember who were the two other soldiers who were with Leblanc at the time.

I had not gone three feet when he started to insult me with words such as "Christ de tapeur" etc. (IN EVIDENCE) I did not have time to find out the identity of the two other men but I am positive of one fact and it is that it was Pte Leblanc who threatened me that night and I am also positive that it is not a case of mistaken identity

STATEMENT of No. K. 65479 Pte Legg, A.C. 3 Canadian Repat Depot, C.A.O.

About 1535 hrs 31 October 45 I was standing on the highway at the main gate of "A" Wing, 11 Canadian Repat Depot, waiting for the bus from Nutley, when I saw a Canadian Military vehicle (a 60 cwt) with canvas top, drive out of the main gate of "A" Wing and turn toward Nutley. As the vehicle made the turn I saw the co-driver's door open. He put his hand on it and at the same time a Canadian khaki beret fell out of this door onto the roadway. I picked this beret up and put it on a post at the Nutley side of the main gateway. The vehicle did not stop but continued up the highway toward Nutley. ~~There were only two soldiers in the vehicle, the driver and the co-driver.~~

STATEMENT OF:
Police Constable 880 Leslie Stace, Kent County Constabulary, Tunbridge Wells, Kent.

About 1710 hours, 31 Oct 45, as I was coming down the hill on Montacute Road, Tunbridge Wells, on my motorcycle, I saw two soldiers, in battledress, one without a headdress, walking quickly up the same hill. They were laughing. On reaching the Pantiles I saw Canadian Military Vehicle No. CL. 4235282 standing unattended on the public walk near the front door of the Duke of York Public House. The vehicle was facing towards Nevill Street, and had a tear in it's canvas top. Part of the facia had been torn from the building and was lying on the ground. In the driver's cab, I found a Canadian soldier's battledress blouse in the pocket of which was an army pay book and other documents in the name of No. G.50018 Pte. Hachey, Euclid Joseph, 11 Can. Repat. Depot. I spoke with William Anthony Hart, proprietor of Duke of York Public House, Mrs. Frances Ellen Skipper and Alfred Shoebridge all of Tunbridge Wells who were present when I arrived at the truck.

STATEMENT OF NO. G.50018, Pte. HACHEY, E.J. made 13 Nov 45, at R.H.Q., 11 Canadian Repatriation Depot.

About 1525 hours I was on duty as driver of Canadian Military vehicle No. CL 4235282 (60 cwt). I then parked the said vehicle on the roadway in "A" Wing, 11 Canadian Repat. Depot Camp beside the power house facing toward the gate near the guard house. The front of the said vehicle was about flush with the gate to messing stores. The vehicle was then undamaged. I got out of the vehicle to notify a Sgt. that I was ready to drive him to CSD. I walked into the little room beside messing stores. About 1535 hours, that day, I came out and noticed that the truck was missing. It had not been locked in any way. I did not hear it moving away. I searched the area but could not find it. I could not locate any person who had seen it taken away.

EXAMINED

EIGHTEENTH WITNESS

Police Sergeant 303, Albert Peacock, Kent County Constabulary, Tunbridge Wells, Kent, having been duly sworn states:-

At 1900 hrs, 31 Oct 45, I saw the two accused Canadian soldiers whom I now recognize and identify as No. B.55488 Pte. Lebitt, L.H. the shorter of the two and No. F.97488 Pte. Langer, J., the taller of the two, in the Charge Room at Tunbridge Wells Police Station in the custody of L/Cpl. Setterfield and L/Cpl. Morgan, J.B., both of 192 H.Q. Provost Company, Corps of Military Police. One of the Provosts asked in the hearing of both accused if the accused could be detained at the Police Station until the Canadian Provost take them in custody. Each accused was wearing canvas shoes (plimsolls). Each smelt of drink, but neither was drunk. I told both of the accused that they had been brought to the Police Station on suspicion of having stolen a Canadian Army lorry. They both said that they were told by the Military Police that they would be questioned only as to improper dress and then would be allowed to go. The accused Lebitt threatened to strike me over the head with a chair. They were very abusive and were cursing and swearing at the military and civil police. Each refused to account for his actions during the afternoon and evening of that day. About 1930 hrs, at their own request, they were placed in No. 2 male cell. They walked there quite willingly. About 2000 hrs that evening I heard a noise in that cell and on looking in through the peep-hole, I saw the accused Langer holding above his head a large jagged piece of porcelaine which had been broken from the lavatory pedestal bowl. He shouted at me "I will brain the first bastard that comes through the door with this". I told him to be quiet and not create any further damage, but each of the accused continued smashing the lavatory bowl and throwing the pieces up at the overhead window, thereby smashing the panes of glass. The heavy wooden headrest was torn from the bed. I saw the accused Langer use this piece of wood to batter the cell food tray trap door in the main door. Later I saw the accused Lebitt doing the same thing and still later I saw both of the accused together using the said piece of wood as a battering ram. The white mattress cover which is made of white sheeting material was torn in strips, the strips were tied together and shoved through the said trap door into the corridor, then one of the accused pulled them back in. The broken pipe discharged water and flooded the whole cell block. I noticed that a Bible which had been in the cell had been burned by one or other of the accused. The cell and its fixtures and equipment were in perfect condition at the time the accused were placed therein. All of the damage, injury and spoil to and upon the said cell was committed by the accused acting jointly. The major part of the damage, injury and spoil was accomplished before either the military or civil police could get into the cell to prevent such destruction. As the Canadian Provost were taking both the accused away, the accused Langer said to L/Cpl. Morgan "I will get you if it's the last thing I do". He then said that he would be in Tunbridge Wells next week with some of his pals to get L/Cpl. Morgan.

SEVENTEENTH WITNESS. No. 1601929 L/Cpl. Morgan, J.B., 192 H.Q. Provost Coy., Maidstone, Kent, having been duly sworn states:-

About 1820 hrs 31 Oct 45, when I was on duty opposite Central Station, Tunbridge Wells, Kent, I saw the two accused Canadian soldiers whom I now recognize and identify as No. B. 55488 Pte. Lebitt, L.H. the shorter of the two and No. F. 97488 Pte. Langer, J., the taller of the two standing outside the Clarenden Pub. In company with 7018356 L/Cpl. Setterfield of the Provost Coy., I crossed the street and waited about six yards away from the two accused until their conversation with Det Insp Siggers, Tunbridge Wells Police. As the two accused turned to go into the Clarenden Pub, L/Cpl. Setterfield and I checked them for their dress irregularities. The accused Lebitt was wearing canvas shoes and had no headdress. The accused Langer was wearing canvas shoes. Each accused had all the buttons on his battle dress tunic fully open. Each accused on being checked for his dress told us that the British Military Police had nothing to do with them. They each said that only the Canadian Provost could check them. I told the accused Langer that he was wearing the King's uniform and while In Tunbridge Wells must dress properly. He replied to me "I am wearing the Canadian not the King's uniform". On being asked where they came from, one of them replied, "we got a lift in from Nutley on a 3 ton truck which had about 15 men aboard". Lebitt asked me why they were questioned. I then told him we had received a report that a truck had been stolen from Nutley. As you have come from Nutley we should like you to accompany us to the police station for identification purposes. Each accused heard me make this statement. Langer immediately drew back his arm and clenched his fist in a threatening manner, at the same roughly grasping my tunic front in his left hand and saying to me "you are accusing me of stealing this truck". While we were waiting for a civil police vehicle, the two accused went into the Clarenden Pub for a drink. When the police vehicle arrived, the accused Langer came out on request and later the accused Lebitt came out. At the police station the Civil Police Sgt Peacock told each accused that he would be dealyed until Cdn Provost arrived. The accused Lebitt then threatened to strike the said Police Sgt over the head with a chair. Accused Langer said "if you don't put us in the cells we will wreck the joint". They were locked in Cell 2, which I noticed was in perfect condition as they entered it. After the two accused had been in Cell No. 2 for about 10 minutes. I heard one of them pounding on the cell door. Looking through the small peep hole in the door, I saw accused Langer trying to lift the bed from the floor. There was no damage then. About 10 minutes later I heard a wrenching noise and a loud pounding on the door. I walked to the door and found that the small metal food tray door in the main cell door was broken off and lying on the corridor floor. I looked in the cell and saw both accused sitting over the Bible which had been in the cell. It was burning. The heavy wood head rest was ripped off the bed and lying on the floor. They were swearing and cursing and demanding to be released. I then heard the window glass breaking. The bed sheets were torn and tied in one long strip and shoved into the corridor, through the food tray door. When I went to pull the sheets out completely, they were entirely pulled in again by one of the accused. I then noticed that the porcelaine lavatory was smashed. Then broken pieces of the lavatory were thrown into the corridor by one of the accused. A few minutes later there was a very lous noise and water came out from the cell No. 2 into the corridor. The water cistern over the lavatory had been pulled down by one of the accused. About 2150 hrs that day the Cdn Provost took both the accused away. Just as the accused Langer was getting into the Cdn Provost vehicle he turned and said to me "I'll get you if it is the last thing I do". He then said that he would be in Tunbridge Wells again the next week with some of his pals and get me. Each accused had been drinking but neither was drunk. Their speech was clear, they walked properly.

Lebitt, L.H. sitting in the co-driver's seat on the left hand side of the lorry. He had no hat on. Mrs. Ellis and I then walked toward the bottom of the Pantiles. A few minutes later I heard a crash in the direction of the Duke of York Pub. A few minutes afterwards I saw two Canadian soldiers running very fast out of the Pantiles. SECOND WITNESS

Gladys Ralph, barmaid, Nutley, Sussex, having been duly sworn states:-

About 1345 hrs 31 Oct 45, I was working behind the bar in the private barroom at the Shelly Arms Public House, Nutley, Sussex. No. F.97488 Pte. Langer, J., whom I now recognize and identify as the taller accused was playing darts, No. B.55488 Pte. Lebitt, L.A., whom I know recognize and identify as the shorter accused was also there. There were about six other soldiers present, one of whom was No. F.89420 Pte. MacLennan, J., all of 11 Canadian Repatriation Depot. The two accused and Pte. MacLennan were using vile and obscene language in a loud voice. I told them to stop swearing but because they paid no attention I called from the window to No. M.11770 Sjt. Scott, J.C. of the same Unit to come in and make the soldiers be quiet. He came in immediately. As a result of what I told him he stood at the bar, ordered a beer and watched the two accused and Pte. MacLennan. I remember them talking of going to Tunbridge Wells and still using vile language. Sjt. Scott told them to be quiet and stop using such language in front of a woman. Pte. MacLennan immediately approached Sjt. Scott in a threatening manner. I thought that he would strike Sjt. Scott. He would not be quiet. The accused Langer shouted at Sjt. Scott from the end of the bar saying that they wouldn't control their language and that they would speak the way they liked. Sjt. Scott told accused Langer that he wasn't talking to him and to mind his own business. Accused Langer did not obey this order, but continued to swear and curse. One of the soldiers told Sjt. Scott that he had no authority to give an order in a pub. Sjt. Scott turned to one of the three soldiers and gave him a direct order to shut up. This order was not obeyed. The accused Lebitt threw a pint of beer on the bar room floor. When I told him to mop it up he said that the accused Langer dared him to do it. He said he was sorry and that if I would get him a mop he would clean it up. Accused Langer then said "if you clean it up I will throw a glass through the window". To avoid this happening we left the mess and cleaned it up later. Accused Langer was the ring leader. The Regimental Police took the two accused and Pte. MacLennan away about 1500 hrs. Neither accused was drunk.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE, in the case of R-55488 Pte Lionel Albert LEBITT, Canadian Infantry Corps, 11 Canadian Repatriation Depot, C.A.O.

FIRST WITNESS

No. W.11770 Sjt. Scott, J.C., 11 Canadian Repatriation Depot, having been duly sworn states:-

About 1345 hrs 31 Oct 45, I was riding a motorcycle past the Shelly Arms Pub in Rutley. As I slowed down to speak to No. C.28224 Pte. Boyer, E.W. of 8 Canadian Repatriation Depot, two barmaids called from the Shelly Arms asking me to come in immediately. Pte. Boyer and I walked into the Shelly Arms and as a result of what the barmaids told me I watched the soldiers. There were about eight soldiers in the bar room. No. F.97488 Pte. Langer, J., whom I now recognize and identify as the taller accused was playing darts. No. R.55488 Pte. Lebitt, L.A. whom I now recognize and identify as the shorter accused was sitting at a table drinking with No. F.89420 Pte. MacLennan, J. All three soldiers are of 11 Canadian Repatriation Depot. As a result of what Gladys Ralph, one of the barmaids told me, I ordered a beer and watched the soldiers. Pte. MacLennan in the hearing of both accused was talking about a party at Tunbridge Wells. Tunbridge Wells was mentioned two or three times in the conversation. After Pte. MacLennan had used crude and vulgar language, I called to him "say Mac would you mind controlling that language". Pte. MacLennan immediately got up from his seat saying in a loud voice "just who in hell does he think he is telling somebody to shut up in a pub, control my language? control my language hell". While Pte. MacLennan was walking toward me, Pte. Langer said to me "what the hell do you mean control your language? We are having a party and we will talk whatever way we want". I said to Pte. Langer "I am not talking to you, mind your own business". Pte. MacLennan came right up to me and said that I had no business telling anyone what to do in a pub and that he was as big as I was and being a Sergeant didn't make any difference as he had shot better men that I was. His attitude was very threatening toward me and I was expecting him to strike at me. Pte. Langer was during this time shouting profane and insubordinate language at me from the end of the bar. Pte. Lebitt told me I had no authority to give orders in a pub and that he was brought up to curse and swear when the hell he pleased and that the presence of women didn't make a God damned bit of difference to him and that I was not going to tell him to shut up. I turned to Pte. Lebitt and speaking to him personally said "look I am giving you a direct order to shut up". Pte. Lebitt hesitated for a few moments and then replied to me in a defiant manner "I am not going to shut up". He did not obey my said order but continued to talk and curse and interfere with my efforts to quiet Pte. MacLennan. In a short while the two accused and Pte. MacLennan returned to the table. All three continued using foul language in a very loud voice. They would talk of wanting to go to a party at Tunbridge Wells but seemed to be waiting for me to go outside. First one would say "are we going to take this from a fucking Sergeant"? then another would say something similar and then the third would make some like remark. Each was inciting the other two to start a fight with me. At the request of the bar maids I phoned for the Regimental Police who took Ptes. Langer, Lebitt and MacLennan to the guard room. Just as Pte. Langer was leaving and being escorted out of the pub, he turned and in a loud voice said "wait, I want to make damn sure I don't forget his (meaning my) face". As the both accused and Pte. MacLennan were leaving the guard room in open arrest at about 1525 hrs that day, I heard MacLennan and the accused Lebitt say "that's fair enough" the accused Langer replied to them "well it's not with me I'm not going to forget this nor him (meaning me)". Both accused and Pte. MacLennan walked away from the guard room on the roadway toward the power house and messing stores. About 1550 hrs that day I saw the broken telephone pole near the fork in the road on the Rutley - "A" Wing highway.

THE COURT IS CLOSED

THE COURT RE-OPENS

The Court find the accused Not Guilty on the 4th Charge. The findings of the court on the other charges cannot be communicated to the accused because they are subject to confirmation.

PLEA IN MITIGATION

I would ask that consideration be given to this man because the greatest crime that a man can commit and be implicated in other crimes is the lack of consideration and thoughtfulness in the choice of his company. I would like to mention that while this man was serving in his Regiment in the field he suffered a very serious injury, being blown up by a teller mine while in his vehicle and although it may have no apparent effect on his ability, physical or mental, it may have had an influence on his actions and conduct. I would ask the Court to give consideration in view of his service from 6 Jul 44 until 16 Aug 44 when he was wounded and became Category L3 on account of shrapnel in his legs. He is unmarried, has had a public school eduction and is a miner in civiliam life.

to the Court, from the evidence stated by Mrs Ralph, that Pte Lebitt was not one that used profane and abusive language in the pub, and in the evidence of Sgt Scott I would like to point out that he did agree that he addressed Pte Lebitt as an adolescent because he behaved not as a man but as an adolescent. I would ask the Court to consider whether a soldier that has served five years in the service of his country faithfully and conducted himself as this soldier has done should be treated in that manner and I would also ask the Court to consider that Sgt Scott's opinion was that this soldier was lead by other members of that party. I would come back again to 11 Cdn Repat Depot where the men were in custody of the regimental police and were released under open arrest without due consideration given to the offences that the men had allegedly committed and the condition that the men were in at the time of apprehension. I would submit to the Court that the Prosecution did not have any witnesses that saw this accused enter the said vehicle nor drive away in the said vehicle. I would also submit to the Court to consider the willingness of the witness, Mrs Skipper, to answer in the manner requested of her by the Prosecution and her admission that the truck passed very close to her and at the time it passed it was dusk. I would also ask the Court to consider that it is some 8 minutes walking time from the place where the truck passed until she met the men that she said came from the damaged truck. At the time of the impact of the truck to the pub the prosecution has brought forward no witness that actually identified the men as getting out of the truck, or the man that drove the truck into the pub. Other than that, sir, I would ask the Court to consider the record and character that this soldier has illustrated in his service in five consecutive years.

THE PROSECUTOR ADDRESSES THE COURT

The Court has heard the evidence of many witnesses, both for the Prosecution and the Defence. The charges now lie before you.

The Prosecution has presented to this court, the facts surrounding these charges. That is the only thing in which the prosecution is interested, facts.

You have heard the evidence which told the court of the embarrassing uncomfortable position of a civilian woman when forced to be an audience to vile and obscene language. Also the apparent disregard of these soldiers for military discipline demonstrated by the fact that insubordination to a Sgt took place seemingly as a matter of course. The evidence of the missing vehicle, the two absent accused, the accident involving a telephone pole was presented to you. The simultaneous appearance in Tunbridge Wells of the vehicle and the accused men, removes all doubt of a co-incidence. Especially since we know that the accused were under open arrest at the time, and therefore were not privileged to leave their barrack area.

The conclusive evidence that the court has heard from the civilian and Military witnesses, proves beyond all doubt that the vehicle involved was, in fact, the one which was missing from No. 11 Cdn Repat Depot. Is the court prepared to believe as the defence would like them to, that the presence of the accused in, at, or near the said vehicle was just pure co-incidence? I think not. The fact that the two accused caused damage to public property, while in arrest, is most regrettable as it casts the shadow of shame upon all Canadian soldiers. This must of course be kept in mind by the Honourable court when passing their sentence.

With reference to the apprehension of the two accused by the Br Mil Provost, the prosecution expresses its gratitude at the British Military Police recognizing their duty, and insisting upon detaining the accused, even though it may have meant bodily harm to themselves.

In view of these facts, Gentlemen, I ask you to weigh again the facts before you, and to return a finding of "Guilty" in all charges.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER ADDRESSES THE COURT

I would like to start back with the evidence of Capt Lougheed, where he did agree and admit that certain privileges were allowed men that were proceeding on draft and that they were given a consideration of 12 to 24 hours to prepare themselves in a necessary manner to proceed on draft, and I would like to point out in view of the closeness of the mentioned Pub, the Shelly Arms, that it is common practice of soldiers under that privilege to go that far, a matter of one-quarter of a mile. They realize that it is out of bounds but very little action has been taken against any that have participated in that privilege. I would also submit detained at the police station until the arrival of the Canadian Provost when they would be taken into custody by them. This was said in the presence of the accused. The accused smelt of drink but were not drunk and both were wearing canvas shoes. I told them that they were being detained on the suspicion of having stolen a Canadian Army lorry from a camp at Nutley and they both said that when the Military Police took them into custody they told them that they would be detained for questioning for not being properly dressed and would then be released. The accused, Lebitt, threatened to strike me on the head with a chair which he was sitting on. He made no action. Both accused were very abusive and swore and cursed at myself and the two Military Policemen. At about 1930 hrs at the request of the accused they were placed in No 2 Male cell and they walked there quite willingly. At about 2000 hrs I heard a noise from that cell and looked in through the peep hole and saw the accused, Langer, holding a large jagged piece of porcelain above his head and he stated to me "I will brain the first bastard that comes through the door, with this". The porcelain had been taken from the lavatory bowl which was in the cell. I told them to be quiet and not to create any further damage but both prisoners picked up pieces of the lavatory bowl and threw them at the overhead windows, breaking the small panes of glass. I saw both accused using the heavy wooden head rest from the bed, using it as a battering ram against the door and the food trap door was smashed off the door. It is a very heavy, strong door. Water came from the broken pipe of the lavatory bowl and flooded the cell block. One of the accused had torn the mattress cover in strips and it was pushed through the hole in the door and pulled back. The bible had been burned and some of the pages were charred. The Canadian Provost arrived later and took the accused into custody and when the accused, Langer, was leaving the police station he said to L/Cpl Morgan "I will get you if it is the last thing I do" and said that he would return to Tunbridge Wells next week with some of his pals. The articles in the cell were absolutely intact before this happened.

Q. Was there anything you or anyone else could have done to stop the damage?
A. When I first went to the cell after hearing the noise the main damage had been done and the bowl had been smashed and they were still breaking it up and the only thing to do was to leave them there.
Q. Let us go back in the evidence to the time they were being questioned in the charge room, did they account for their activities that afternoon?
A. I asked both of them to account for their activities and they refused to give any account of themselves at all.
Q. Do you believe that all the damage done to Male Cell No 2 was done by the two accused?
A. Yes, sir, it was.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. Is it the practice of the civil police to confine two prisoners in the one cell?
A. It all depends sir, if we have room or not.
Q. There was other room on this occasion?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. So they may have been separated?
A. They could have been.
Q. When you first heard the noise from the cell, did you go to the cell and was any effort made to separate them?
A. Yes, I went to the cell, but no effort was made to separate them.

SEVENTEENTH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION (CONT'D)

Q. Can you remember hearing the glass break in that cell?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. What did you take that to be?
A. A window, sir.

CROSS-EXAMINATION

Q. When you performed your duty in front of the Clarenden Pub did Pte Lebitt offer any violence?
A. No, sir.
Q. Did he offer any violence or threaten with abusive language at any time between there and the time he was brought into the police station?
A. They said "not even the British Army could take them in".
Q. Did Pte Lebitt ask you why they were questioned?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. What was your answer?
A. I told them we had a report about a truck being stolen and as they came from Nutley I would like them to come for identification.
Q. He made no comments?
A. No, sir.
Q. When they were brought to the police station and their particulars taken who put them into the cells?
A. They walked in themselves and we accompanied them.
Q. Was it the Military Police or the civil police who escorted them?
A. Both.
Q. Is it the custom of the civil police to confine two prisoners in one cell?
A. I wouldn't know sir.
Q. When the damage was being incurred in the said cell did you see Pte Lebitt break or destroy any of the property?
A. No, sir.
Q. Did you see Pte Langer destroy any of the property?
A. No, sir.
Q. Did you see the person or persons that pulled the cover of the mattress that was burned through the aperture of the cell door?
A. Pte Langer, sir.
Q. Lebitt was not pulling?
A. No, sir.
Q. Did you see Lebitt when that was happening?
A. I can't remember, sir.
Q. Was there any provocation for misbehaviour on the part of anyone at that time?
A. Definitely not, sir.
Q. Were the lights flicked on and off in the cell?
A. The civil police turned the lights out once for about five minutes to try and keep them quiet.
Q. Did the prisoners have any questions to ask after they had been placed in the cell?
A. No, sir.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B).

At 1900 hrs 31st Oct 45 I saw the accused Canadian soldiers, Pte Langer and Pte Lebitt. The accused is Pte Lebitt. SEVENTEENTH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

1601929 L/Cpl Morgan, J.B., 192 HQ Provost Coy., Maidstone, Kent, sworn, states:-

At 1820 hrs on the 31 Oct 45 I was accompanied by L/Cpl Setterfield and on duty opposite Central Station, Tunbridge Wells, when I saw two Canadian soldiers opposite the Clarenden Pub. The accused is one of them, Pte Lebitt. They were in conversation with Detective Inspector Siggers, Tunbridge Wells Police force. L/Cpl Setterfield and I waited until they were finished, standing about 6 feet away from them. After the conversation with the Detective Inspector, the accused went to go into the Clarenden Pub and I apprehended them on dress irregularities. Pte Lebitt was wearing no hat and canvas slippers and the tunic was undone. We apprehended them about their dress irregularities and they said the British MPs had nothing to do with Canadians and the Canadian Provost only would take them. I said to Pte Langer he was wearing the King's uniform and while in Tunbridge Wells he would do as we told him. He said he was wearing a Canadian and not the King's. While awaiting for a police truck the two accused went into the Clarenden Pub for a drink. I presume they had a drink. When the truck arrived Langer came out on request and Lebitt followed afterwards. At the civil police court their particulars were taken and Sgt Peacock told them that they would be detained until the Canadian Provost arrived. Immediately Lebitt threatened to strike Sgt Peacock over the head with a chair and Langer said if they were not put into the cells immediately they would wreck the joint and they were put into Male cell 2 which was in perfect condition. About 10 minutes later there was a noise in the cell and I looked through the cell door through an opening about 6 inches square and I saw Pte Langer trying to lift the bed from the floor; no damage was done. About 10 minutes later I heard a wrench and a banging on the door. I went back and the meal tray rest on the cell door was lying on the floor inside the cell and the two accused were sitting over the bible which was burning. The bed sheet was ripped and they shoved that through the hole in the door. I tried to pull them out and they tried to pull them back and then I noticed that the porcelain lavatory was all smashed to pieces and that the windows were broken, that is the windows to the outside of the cell. Afterwards water began to come through the door and flood the police station. I then noticed that the cistern had been pulled down and the two accused were swearing and cursing and demanding to be released and then they started to push the porcelain pieces through the hole in the door. At about 2150 hrs the same day the Canadian Provost arrived and when the accused were being put in the truck, Pte Langer turned around and said "I'll get you if it is the last thing I do" and said he would be in Tunbridge Wells again the next week with some of his pals. The two accused had been drinking but were not drunk and walked steadily.

Q. Let us go back to the time you came up to these two accused and they were talking to the Detective Inspector, then when you began talking to them and asked them where they came from?

A. Yes, sir, I asked Pte Lebitt where they came from and he said "Nutley" and I asked them how they got into town and they said in a three ton truck which had 15 men aboard and I was asked "Why all the questions?" and I said we had a report that a truck had been taken from Nutley by two Canadians and they were to come to the station for identification purposes. Langer said to me "you are accusing me of stealing this truck" and grabbed me by the tunic and held his hand up in a threatening manner.

Q. I am not familiar with the name of the road that enters in The Pantiles?
A. It is the back of the Pantiles.
Q. Where did the vehicle pass you on Montacute Road, was it before it came around the bend?
A. Yes.
Q. So from there to the Duke of York Pub is some considerable distance?
A. About an eight minutes walk.
Q. So that the soldiers you saw coming back up the road may have been coming from some other place?
A. I knew they were the soldiers coming from the lorry by the way they were running away.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B).

About 1710 hrs on Wednesday 31 Oct 45, in consequence of instructions I had received from the Police Office, I was proceeding down Montacute Road, Tunbridge Wells, on my motorcycle, on my way to the Pantiles. I then saw two soldiers, both wearing battledress, one without a headdress coming up the same hill. They were walking quickly and were laughing. On my arrival at the Pantiles I saw Ford Canadian Military Vehicle No. CL.4235282 standing unattended on the public walk near the front door of the Duke of York Public House. The vehicle was facing towards Nevill Street and had a tear in its canvas top. Part of the facia had been torn away from the Duke of York pub and was lying on the ground. In the driver's cab I found a Canadian soldier's battledress blouse in the pocket of which was a paybook in which was the name "No G.50018 Pte Hachey, Euclid Joseph, 11 Cdn Repat Depot." I spoke with William Anthony Hart, proprietor of Duke of York Public House, Alfred Shoebridge and Mrs Frances Ellen Skipper, all of Tunbridge Wells, who were present when I arrived at the truck.

At about 1700 hrs 31 Oct 45 I was sitting in a room upstairs of the Duke of York Public House, Tunbridge Wells. Suddenly there was a terrific crash. I went downstairs to investigate and through the glass door I saw an army lorry and a hatless soldier standing near the driver's seat of the lorry. I returned upstairs to ask my wife to phone the police. I then went downstairs and out of the building. As I went out of my door I saw a hatless soldier just disappearing around the corner of the information bureau. A few minutes later two ladies approached me from the same corner. I did not know their names. One is a Mrs Ellis, which I have learned since. I then went to investigate the damage and the lorry had taken about 5 feet off of the wooden facia of the front of the building and there was a rent in the canvas covering of the righthand side of the lorry. That was the point that contacted. It was definitely a Canadian lorry. I just felt the tires of the lorry and the hub of the rear wheel and they were very warm.

A. They are of a frosted nature for a matter of about 10 inches up?
Q. Through the aperture that you were looking it is considerably smaller than we understand the glass on the door?
A. Yes.
Q. And it does tend to obstruct your vision from the left to the right?
A. No, not at the angle I was standing at.
Q. But you would not have the full angle of sight that you would have if it were unglazed?
A. Yes
Q. You also would have difficulty seeing the rear portion of the truck as your vision would be directly in front of you?
A. I saw the front of the truck, the centre was obscure and I could see the rear of the truck.
Q. Did you see this soldier getting out of the vehicle?
A. No, sir.

Q. He immediately came in?
A. Yes.
Q. Where did he put his motorcycle?
A. I have no idea.
Q. Did you meet him as he was coming in and speak to him of the mis-conduct of the soldiers in question or did you wait until he had ordered a beer and then discussed it with him?
A. Yes, I told him as I was serving the beer.
Q. You didn't hear the accused make any utterance of obscenity or profanity?
A. No.
Q. But you do recall other soldiers making utterance of obscenity and use profane language?
A. They were all swearing but no particular person that I know here.
Q. When the beer was spilled on the floor the accused willingly offered to clean it up?
A. Yes, he apologized.
Q. Did you see him throw it?
A. Yes.
Q. Had you asked the soldiers to leave the bar?
A. No.
Q. You didn't ask them?
A. No, I had no cause to ask them.
Q. There language was not sufficient to warrant their expulsion from the bar?
A. No, I did not think so.
Q. There was no other attendants with you in the bar?
A. No, the other bar maid had gone to lunch.
Q. Did she assist you in calling Sgt Scott?
A. She was there I think but she didn't do much about it.

Q. In your opinion the accused was not one of the members that Sgt Scott directed his orders to use more conservative language?
A. He was at the end of the bar and playing darts with Langer and while there Langer said they would not control their language.
Q. There was no mention of this accused saying he would not control his language?
A. No, sir, I did not hear him say it.
Q. Sgt Scott was directing his orders to Langer?
A. Yes, that particular order.
Q. The accused Lebitt was playing darts?
A. Yes.
Q. Is this a customary practice in your bar for soldiers to have drinks and play darts?
A. Yes.
Q. They were behaving normally at that time?
A. Yes, apart from the swearing in the course of their conversation.
Q. In the group of soldiers that were present in the private bar, do you remember a certain Sgt that was there other than Sgt Scott?
A. No, I don't.
Q. You wouldn't say he was not there?
A. I didn't know anyone in particular in the bar.
Q. Would it have been necessary to call the Sgt from outside if you knew a Sgt was in there?
A. Not if I knew a Sgt was in the bar.
Q. Had you known Sgt Scott previously?
A. No.
Q. He has visited the bar since the incident, has he not?
A. I have seen him since.
Q. If Sgt Scott says that he has not visited the Shelly Arms on other occasions is that untrue?
A. Yes he has been in.
Q. On what occasions?
A. I am not certain.
Q. He has been in several times and if he says he was not in it is untrue?
A. Possibly.
Q. When you called for Sgt Scott did you call from behind the bar?
A. I called from across the window.
Q. Would you interfere with the accused and Langer in their game of darts?
A. No.
Q. The dart board is between the bar and the window, you passed between them, is that correct?
A. I might have done.
Q. You would pass between the boys playing darts and the dart board?
A. They were not playing darts all the time they were playing darts some of the time.
Q. The distance between the dart-board and the wall is approximately three feet?
A. Approximately yes.
Q. That means if one man is throwing darts the other men can lean against the bar?
A. Possibly yes.
Q. Did you walk between them?
A. I couldn't say.
Q. Did you see Sgt Scott outside the window prior to the time you called him in?
A. I didn't even look.
Q. What may I ask would direct your attention to that particular soldier?
A. It was embarrassing to me to listen to them swearing and I was walking from one bar to the other to keep away from it and so I wouldn't hear them swear and my brother was in the basement and not around and I couldn't call him up to tell the men off and that is why I suppose I called Sgt Scott.

and Langer were playing darts. The accused is Lebitt. There were about 6 other soldiers in the bar, one of them was MacLennan, and they were all using bad language, obscene and abusive language. I asked them several times to be quiet, they paid no attention to me, so I called to Sgt Scott through the window and asked him if he could come in and make them behave. He came in and ordered a beer and ordered them to stop and they still kept on swearing and he told them to control their language in front of women and MacLennan got up and went outside and I thought he was going to strike Sgt Scott and Langer shouted from the end of the bar that he would not stop. Sgt Scott told him he was not talking to him and to mind his own business and they kept on swearing and he ordered him to shut up and one of them told Sgt Scott he could not give an order in a public bar and they kept on swearing and Lebitt threw a pint of beer on the floor. I told him he would have to clean it up and he said he was sorry but Langer had dared him to do it but he would clean it up if I would give him a mop. Langer said if you clean it up I will throw a glass through the window, which he would have done and we left it alone and cleaned it up ourselves. The police came and took the men away a little after closing time.

Q. Do you remember definitely whether this accused used any bad language?
A. I don't remember any particular individual and they were all swearing, but they were not swearing at me and it was very embarrassing.
Q. Do you remember any conversation as to what they had planned?
A. They kept talking of going to Tunbridge Wells but no reason given.
Q. Sgt Scott from your evidence told these men they should be quiet and not use this language, did they comply with his words and warning?
A. No, sir.
Q. Did anyone appear to be the ringleader?
A. Yes, Langer definitely was.
Q. The accused left at what time and in whose company?
A. The regimental police I think you call them, they took them away five minutes after closing time. We close at 1430 hrs.
Q. Did they seem to be drunk?
A. They were not drunk but had been drinking.
Q. Had they been drinking beer?
A. Yes.
Q. Anything else?
A. Not that I am aware of.
Q. In your opinion it would take a lot more than what they had to be drunk?
A. Yes, sir, they were just acting foolishly.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. In your evidence just now you say that you were on duty at 1430 hrs?
A. 1430 hrs is closing time.
Q. What time did the disturbance start?
A. 1330 hrs, sir.
Q. What in your opinion would cause the disturbance as you say it started?
A. The men were swearing when I went into the bar at 1345 hrs.
Q. You didn't receive any present from any member in the bar in the form of sweets at the time you went into the bar?
A. I believe the accused gave me a bar of chocolate for my little boy.
Q. You believe this soldier did tender a gift over the bar to you?
A. I wouldn't swear to it but I believe he did.

FIRST WITNESS FOR PROSECUTION (CONT'D)

Q. Did you think it wise and necessary to direct him as one would an adolescent and not as a man who has served his country faithfully and for a considerable time, by telling him to shut up.
A. I told him at the time that he was in the army long enough to know what he was doing and that as a man he should have some sense.
Q. Are you accustomed to treating men as babies?
A. No, sir.
Q. Was he there as a customer of the pub or was he there on parade?
A. As a customer of the pub.
Q. He therefore had the right of free speech?
A. To a certain extent, yes.
Q. So the order to shut up then was not an order?
A. It was an order as far as I was concerned.
Q. At the time these soldiers were leaving the pub was there any swearing from Lebitt?
A. No, sir, he went along willingly and used no profane language.
Q. So the only profane language you say that this man used was "I was brought up to curse and swear when the hell I please and the presence of women does not make a God damned bit of difference to me." Are those the exact words of the accused?
A. They are.
Q. I suggest that you have a very excellent memory?
A. I have, sir.
Q. Do you remember the exact words that the other accused persons used?
A. I remember some of them.
Q. Remember, Sgt Scott, you are reporting the words of three soldiers and they were not all directed to you.
A. They were all talking together and I take it as I remember it.
Q. What I am getting at is that you are not sure whether it was Pte Lebitt or Pte MacLennan that said it?
A. There is no doubt in my mind.
Q. When the accused were released at the guard room, you heard Pte MacLennan and Pte Lebitt say "that's fair enough"?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Had you laid any charge?
A. Not at that time.
Q. Then these men were not charged with using obscene and profane language in a public house and the charges followed the inquiry after they had been detained in Tunbridge Wells?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. And they were not laid by you?
A. No, sir, but the evidence was taken from me.
Q. And in the summary you say that after they left the guard room Pte Lebitt and Pte MacLennan both walked away toward the power house and messing stores?
A. They were walking towards it and had not yet reached that point.

Mrs Gladys RALPH, Barmaid, Nutley, Sussex, sworn, states:-

Q. Will you please tell the court what happened as you remember it on 31 Oct 45, starting at 1330 hrs.

A. At half past one on 31 Oct 45 I was working in the Private Bar in the Shelly Arms public house, Nutley, Sussex. Lebitt

FIRST WITNESS FOR PROSECUTION (CONT'D)

Q. And in passing the bar to the end of the bar I suggest that you passed several soldiers?
A. I did.
Q. And one of them was an NCO of the same rank as yourself?
A. I don't recall that.
Q. After you were in there did you notice it?
A. No, sir.
Q. You took your friend, Pte Boyer, who you met outside in with you when you entered the pub, did you not?
A. He did not come in with me, but followed me in.
Q. And you immediately walked to the counter and ordered beer?
A. No, sir, I spoke to Mrs Ralph first.
Q. Do you recall the conversation you had with Mrs Ralph at that time?
A. I asked what was going on and she said they were cursing and swearing and making a nuisance of themselves. I did not take her word for it but ordered a beer and watched them.
Q. As an NCO performing his duty as a soldier, did you think that it was advisable to be drinking beer at that time?
A. Under the circumstances, yes.
Q. Then you would be accepting the responsibility of being concerned in the disturbance that took place in the bar?
A. No, sir, I was trying to stop the disturbance.
Q. But you did drink beer?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. And made yourself a party to it by ascertaining whether there was a disturbance or not.
A. I was not a party to what was going on and was definitely away from it all.
Q. Taking time to review the happenings in that bar or room, can you tell the Court what these men were doing in there?
A. Pte Lebitt and Pte MacLennan were at a table. MacLennan was sitting down but I would not go so far as to say that Lebitt was sitting down because I did not notice it at the time. Pte Langer was standing up at the end of the bar. He had been playing darts.
Q. Who was he playing darts with?
A. Some of the soldiers. I don't know who.
Q. Who were you particularly concerned with in your duty of keeping these men quiet?
A. Pte MacLennan first.
Q. Then there was no complaint against the accused Pte Lebitt?
A. Not up to that time.
Q. Then you say you spoke to Pte MacLennan and when he replied with some remarks you argued with him?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Then after considerable time, as I presume it took some time for you to convince Pte MacLennan that you were in a position to exercise authority, Pte Lebitt asked you what your authority was based on in exercising it in a public house?
A. Pte Lebitt told me I had no authority to give orders.
Q. While you were talking and arguing with another soldier, you distinctly remember that he told you?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. What did he say?
A. He just said I had no authority to give orders in a pub and that he was brought up to curse and swear where he pleased. He was standing about three feet away from me.
Q. Was it possible that he was directing his conversation to another person in the pub?
A. No, sir.
Q. But there were other persons there?
A. Outside of Pte MacLennan and Pte Lebitt they had nothing to do with it. I was expecting to get a poke in the jaw at any moment.
Q. Then you were not paying a great deal of attention to Pte Lebitt?
A. Yes I was because I had to watch him too.

FIRST WITNESS FOR PROSECUTION (CONT'D)

Q. Did you at any time visit the highway leading from this camp to Nutley after that on that same day?
A. I continued on my way to C Wing to finish my business there.
Q. Did you notice anything at that time?
A. Yes, sir. Just before I came to the fork in the road by the Shelly Arms, on the lefthand side, a telephone post was broken off. That would be about 1550 hrs.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. From the evidence that you have just submitted to this Court, you mention riding past the Shelly Arms on a motorcycle. Is this motorcycle military property?
A. No, sir, it belongs to me.
Q. Are you accustomed to using your own property on military business?
A. I sometimes use the motorcycle.
Q. Do you use petrol from military stores?
A. No, sir. I have ration coupons.
Q. And you use them?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. You mentioned also that you slowed down to speak to someone that you had not seen in a considerable time?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Did you make arrangements for that person to meet you there?
A. No, sir.
Q. Then you were very quick to recognize the soldier when you saw him?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Is it a custom of yours to inspect soldiers along the road when you are coming to an intersection?
A. I was past the intersection.
Q. But you had to take your eyes from the road to see him?
A. Yes, sir, but I just glanced at him.
Q. On which side of the road did you stop?
A. On the lefthand side. I pulled into the Shelly Arms when I saw him.
Q. This is not the first time you had visited the Shelly Arms, is it?
A. I had been there once before.
Q. If Gladys Ralph says that you have been there several times other than this one particular time, is it untrue?
A. Yes, sir, it is untrue.
Q. Then, Sergeant, in view of the answer that you have just given, how do you account for your familiarity with the said pub?
A. I was not familiar with it before 31 Oct 45. I am now because I have been there since.
Q. Which window did the barmaids call you from?
A. The first window on the left as you are facing the pub.
Q. Would she have to come out from behind the bar to call you from that window?
A. Yes, she would, sir.
Q. In the summary you mention two barmaids. Were there two or one and did both or one call you?
A. I can't say whether both called to me, but the two barmaids were both at the window.
Q. How far is the window from the road?
A. About 70 feet.
Q. There are two doors on that side of the pub?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Which one did you enter?
A. The lefthand door.
Q. When you entered that particular door which end of the bar did you go to?
A. I went to the far end, not the extreme end but about three-quarters of the way down the bar.

TRIAL OF

B.55488 Pte LEBITT, L.A., ---- CIC, 11 Cdn Repatriation Depot.

PROSECUTION

M.11770 Sgt Scott, J.C., 11 Canadian Repatriation Depot, sworn, states:-

At approximately 1345 hrs on 31 Oct 45 I was passing the Shelly Arms in Nutley on my motorcycle on the way to C Wing. I was slowing down to speak to a friend I had not seen for quite a while, Pte Boyer, and had not quite stopped when the barmaids of the Shelly Arms called from the window for me to come in. I immediately went inside. I went to the back end of the bar and because of what the barmaid told me I ordered a beer and while I drank it I watched the soldiers. There was a lot of talking, swearing and cursing when we went in the pub. I heard Pte MacLennan using obscene language and I asked him to control his language. Pte Langer shouted from the end of the bar "what do you mean, control our language; we will talk as we please." While this was going on there was still the same crude and vulgar language coming from Pte MacLennan and he made a statement to the effect that he was as big as I was and my being a Sergeant did not make a damn bit of difference to him. Then Pte Lebitt came into the picture and said I had no authority to give anyone orders in the pub. I told him that as a man there was no reason for swearing before women and he said he was brought up to curse and swear when and where he pleased and the presence of women did not make a God damn bit of difference to him.

Q. Is Pte Lebitt here now?
A. Yes, sir (indicates accused).

I then spoke directly to Pte Lebitt and gave him a direct order to shut up. I said "look I am giving you a direct order to shut up." He kind of hesitated a few minutes and my impression, if that means anything here, was that the presence of the others had bolstered him up and he said "I am not going to shut up." Both Pte Lebitt and Pte MacLennan left me after that and went over to a table. Everything quietened down and then one said to the other "are we going to take this from a fucking Sergeant?" Things would quieten again and then one of the others would come out with the same thing. All the time they were still cursing and swearing and talking about going to a party at Tunbridge Wells. I spoke to the barmaid and asked her if she wanted the pub cleared and she said "yes", so I phoned the RP at 1435 hrs. Just as Pte Langer was being escorted out the door by the RP he turned and said in a loud voice "wait, I want to make damn sure I don't forget his face". I followed the RPs up to the Guard Room. They were released under open arrest and as they were leaving the guard room and were passing me Pte Lebitt and Pte MacLennan said "that's fair enough" and Pte Langer said "well it's not with me I'm not going to forget this nor him".

Q. What meaning did you take from this?
A. That they were not going to forget me.
Q. Were there other soldiers in the room?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. When you gave Pte Lebitt the direct order to shut up, did he comply with it?
A. No, sir, he did not.
Q. Did he continue to carry on with what he was doing, uttering profane language?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Can you give me the time you left the guard room?
A. I left at approximately 1525 hrs.

B1. The President ~~or JA, if any~~, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

Having decided I had every intention of coming back to my unit as soon as I could make a little money to give her to keep her a bit independant until I could secure permission through the army channels to get married.

my child mother was in straightened circumstances I had to go to work [redacted] I could not get married without the permission of the Army If I come back then I would automatically be on charge as A.W.L. and would not have been able to support the mother who as I said before was in very bad financial trouble. It was a hard thing to decide.

I left without it. When I arrived in London to see my child and mother I found that it had not gone as yet to the hospital. it was at the same time very ill. My girl and myself talked the whole situation over and realized that we would have to get married for the sake of the child. Having broke the Army Law and fully realizing that by this time worried about the child.

I did not know if it was serious or not. It seems I had tried my best to soldier. There was no further recourse for me then to again place my position as a soldier in jeopardy.
I waited all day Sunday thinking that may be they would grant me a pass in the last minute. On Sunday evening the pass did not materialized so

I came here and, immediately showed the telegram to L/Cpl Meichel in charge on garden fatigue. He told me he would do his best for me. I waited until Saturday and still no pass. The above L/Cpl told me to dress and try and see the Major. I asked Sgt Dexter to arrange to parade me to the Major, he refused and said no pass. I was

I was only given a

Monday stating my

for a pass the Captain

seemed a bit too much for my crime. However I served my sentence and was awarded my remission. When my sentence was nearly completed I received a telegram stating that the child was ill. I immediately on my release applied for a pass as it was imperative that I see the child and the mother. For I did not know if the illness was of a serious nature. I asked for a

However when the child was due to be born I asked for a pass to proceed to see the mother and was refused. I had no other recourse as a man but to go A. W. L. When the birth was complet and both out of danger I immediately reported back to my unit. For this I received a F. G. C. M. and sentenced 6 months. The sentence at that time to me to transfer to another unit

I did not receive any cooperation so settled down to make the best of my position.

During my stay in the country I had met a girl of whom
I thought quite a lot.
I above all did not wish to break the army law. My lady friend had got into a state of pregnancy. I at that time did not want to consider matrimony nor did she.

D-57259 Sgt, Roy, F. continues.

Third Witness For the prose-cution.

Lebel and the two of them started running towards the orderly room demanding to see the C.O. immediatly. I told them they could not do that unless it was arranged through the C.S.M. and told them to go back to the guard room, but they both refused to do so. Then I got hold of Pte. Lebel sround the waist and told him that he had better come with me and he answered "That will be the fucking day". In the meantime while I was holding Pte. Lebel and struggling with him, Pte. Michaud appeared with a pair of handcuffs in his hand came up to me swearing and said:"Let Pte. Lebel go or I will hit you on the head with these handcuffs". I released Pte. Lebel and took the handcuffs away from Michaud. Then Pte. Michaud ran down past the barracks and climbed over the fence. I immediatly reported the incident to the Adjutant. At 2100 hours the same night Pte. Lebel and Pte. Michaud reported themselves back to the guard room, I placed them under arrest and in custody.

At approx. 1705 hours 8 DEC 44. I was standing at the window in Adjutant's Office of No.24 C.S.E.COy. when I heard shouting outside the window and noticed Pte. Sgt Roy and two other members of the Reginebtal Police, Sgt Roy stated that Ptes. Lebel and Michaud had been placed under close arrest by the Orderly Sergeant and that Pte Michaud demanded to see the Commanding Officer immediatly. I told Pte.Michaud that it was impossible to do so and that he would see the Commanding Officer at nine o'clock in the morning. I closed the window and went outside. Sgt. Roy ordered Ptes. Lebel and Michaud to return to the guard-house peacefully, with himself and the other R.P.'s. They refused to do so and started to walk towards the front gate of the camp. Sgt Roy again ordered them to return and when they refused to do so he attempted forcefully to take them to the guard-house. Sgt Roy seized Pte. Lebel and one of the R.P.'s seized Pte. Michaud and attempted to take them to the guard-house. Pte. Michaud then grabbed a pair of handcuffs from the R.P. touched him was struggling with and told him that if he would hit him on over where Sgt. Roy was struggling with Pte.Lebel and told Sgt. He and the RP then tried to take them forcibly to the Gd Room. Roy seized Lebel from behind to carry him to the Gd Room. Lebel resisted by attempting to get away from him. Later then ran down towards the barracks and over the fence after Michaud seized a pr of handcuffs from the RP and ran over to where Sgt Roy was struggling with Lebel and threatened to hit him over the head with the cuffs if he didn't let Lebel go - and Roy let Lebel go.

STATEMENT BY THE PROSECUTOR ON THE FINDING ON THE SECOND AND THIRD CHARGES

THE PROSECUTOR STATED THAT THE PROSECUTION HAD PROVEN THE TWO CHARGES.

STATEMENT BY THE DEF OFFR ON THE FINDING ON THE SECOND AND THIRD CHARGES

In my opinion the charges do not seem to be justified due to the fact that there does not seem to be proven the fact that the accused offered violence.

His tension is very nervous, and he has served his country well - and with this in mind I ask the Court to consider his record.

TRIAL ON THE SECOND AND THIRD CHARGES

-PROSECUTION-

THIRD WITNESS

D.57259 Sjt ROY, F., 24 C.S.E.C., having been duly sworn, states:

I recognize the accused as Pte Lebel. I am the Pro Sjt of 23 & 24 CSEC. At approx 1630 hrs 8 Dec I was going to the kitchen to take up duty when I met the Orderly Sjt there and he told me that Ptes Lebel and Michaud were under close arrest and I detailed 2 RPs to take them to the Gd Room. At approx 1645 hrs I told Lebel and Michaud to get their eqpt at their billets to take to the Gd Room. I went out with them with 2 escorts and Pte Michaud broke away from the escort and ran to the Orderly Room followed by Lebel. They both demanded in French to be paraded to the OC. I might say here that all the conversation from then on was in French except my conversation with Lt Bradley. I told them I couldn't let them see the CO unless it was through the CSM and told them in French to come back to the Gd Room. I took Lebel around the waist and that is when Michaud came up with a pr of cuffs threatening to hit me on the head with them unless I let Lebel go. Lebel stepped on my toes with his heel and scratched my hand in trying to get away from me, causing my thumb to bleed. Then I let Lebel go, and then took the cuffs away from Michaud who ran up to the end of the bldg and they both jumped over the fence towards town. This was in Wilheim Bks, Aldershot. The accused and Michaud reported back to the Gd Room at 2100 hrs that evening, sober. They both were sober throughout this whole incident. When I had Lebel around the waist and told him he had better come back he said "that'll be the fucking day".

Q. Did you swear?
A. Not that I know of.

Q. Did you ever swear - that is, do you ever swear at any time?
A. Yes.

I recognize the accused as Pte Lebel. On 8 Dec 44 at 1705 hours or so I was standing in the Adjt's Office and heard considerable shouting going on ougside the window and noticed Pte Michaud making signs to me to come outside. I opened the window and asked in French what he wanted. All the conversation that followed was in French. He stated that he wanted to see the CO immediately. I told him that this was impossible and that he would see him at 9 in the morning. He was accompanied by the accused, Sjt Roy the Pro Sgt, and another member of the Regtl Police. I closed the widow and went outside. Sjt Roy then ordered Ptes Lebel and Michaud

SECOND WITNESS

I recognize the accused as Pte Lebel. At approx 1630 hrs 8 Dec I was standing in the early meal parade and he was ahead of me. Sjt Pearson came up to Lebel to warn him that if he accepted food he would be under close arrest. Lebel accepted the food not paying any attn, and went to the dining room and sat down. Pearce came up to me and said I would have one more man to take back to the Gd Room referring to Lebel. As I had 2 more prisoners at the time I couldn't comply with his order right away so I had to wait for the RP Sjt to come.

Q. Did you hear Lebel say anything in English to the Sjt?
A. No.

Q. Did you hear him say anything in French to him?

3rd Witness for the Prosecution

G2766 Pte Jones B.C., North Shore New Brunswick Regiment being duly sworn is examined by the prosecutor:-

The night of the 24 Mar 45 we moved up to the west bank of the Rhine. We were warned not to go out of voice control.

Around 2145 hrs we were moving off to cross the Rhine, Pte Lebel was not there. I helped the section comd to search the area. He could notbe found, and we crossed the Rhine without him.

No cross-examination

In the opinion of this Court RP 83 (b) need not be complied with.

The witness withdraws.

The Prosecution is closed.

The Prosecution presents to the Court AFB 115, being certified true copy of Record of Declaration of Court of Enquiry and a certificate of apprehension under PC 2797, referring to the accused.

The above documents were accepted by the court, read and marked exhibits "A" and "B" respectively.

STATEMENT BY DEFENDING OFFICER IN MITIGATION

The accused is 20 years of age. He joned the army at the age of 18. He came overseas in June 1943 and served with the North Shore Regiment in England and again on the continent from Sept 44 until he went A.W.L.

During the time spent in action he was evacuated on two occasions on account of his nerves. He claims that when he went away this time he could not have gone further, as his nerves had already started to give way. He was evacuated to hospital in the early part of March and was detained thee 7 days. During this period he was under observation. At the end of this period he was discharged from hospital and returned to his Unit.

I would like the Court to take his nervous condition into consideration before passing sentence and also the fact that the accused is still a very young man.

1st Witness for the Prosecution

Lieut M H Rogers, 3 Platoon "A" Coy, being duly sworn is examined by the Prosecutor: -

On the morning of the 24 Mar 45 I was ordered to brief my platoon, giving details of the Operation Plunder. I did this during the afternoon explaining the crossing of the Rhine and the action which was expected to take place following the crossing. Pte Lebel L.P., was present in this briefing.

At approximately 1800 hrs I was ordered to act as Coy Comd and lead the company to the concentration area near the Rhine. On ariving in this concentration Area, I ordered the Platoon Commanders to keep their men within voice control while in the area since we were liable to move at any time. I checked that this was done.

At approximately 2145 hrs as we were ready to move off the Acting Platoon Comd of No 3 Platoon reported to me that Pte Lebel L.P. and 2 others were absent.

On reassuming the command of my platoon after crossing the Rhine, I did not see Lebel during the action which took place nor until we had been notified of his apprehension by the Canadian Provost Corps.

Cross-examined by Defending Officer

Q Mr. Rogers, regarding the briefing you gave your platoon on the afternoon of the 24 Mar 45, was it just general or the final briefing?

A This was the final briefing, and included much detail that we had been given.

Q Did you personally check the platoon to see if everyone was present before the briefing?

A I checked the count of the platoon only. The acting Platoon Sgt. having reported to me that the platoon was present.

No Re-examination

In the opinion of this Court RP 83 B need not be complied with

The Witness Withdraws.

2nd Witness for the Prosecution

G22184 Cpl Dube L J, being duly sworn is examined by the Prosecutor:-

On the night of the 24 Mar 45, we were ordered to proceed on exercise Plunder. We proceeded to a Concentration area and as I was Acting Platoon Commander, I was given orders by the Acting Coy Comd to keep my Platoon within voice control. Pte Lebel was present when I gave out the order. At 2145 hrs we were ordered to proceed to the Rhine crossing point. I fell in my platoon and made a check to see that all were present. Pte Lebel was absent. I searched the area and could not find him. I then reported the matter to the Acting Coy Comd and reported him absent. We then proceeded on our way.

No Cross examination

In the opinion of this Court RP 83 (b) need not be complied with.

The Witness Withdraws.

Prosecutor: Opening Address

Gentlemen, I have to bring before the Court a case of desertion. I will prove that the accused went A W L after having been warned to take part in an action against the enemy and by going absent was not present during the action for which he was warned.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)[1], and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.[2]
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).[1] If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty[2], or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined[3], we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.[4]

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans.....[5]
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.[1] The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on.....charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on.....charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.[1]
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex....., initialled and read aloud by the President.[1]
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any pleas standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such pleas and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.[1]
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.[1]
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? Ans. No.[1]
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement re evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) ~~addl~~ opening address.[1] JS

D4. The Prosecution is closed.[1] ~~The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the charge(s).[2] The Court is closed, and considers the submission.[3] The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the charge(s), and allowed on the charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).~~ JS
(1. Delete remainder of this para. If submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)
NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.[1] You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.[2] You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.[3] But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.[4] You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither?
Ans. No. Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf?

(1. RP 42, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

(1. AA 54(3) (6), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 42, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

Camp pour Zele où je suis resté jusqu'au 12 Avril 1945 à midi, quand j'étais arrêté par un M.P. et un Sgt des Prov. Corps. Je suis sur que c'était le 24 février 45 quand je m'enfuyais.. C'était un samedi.

Le jour que je m'enfuyais du 25 Cdo Army, je possédais 3500 frs belges, au moyen desquels je pourvoyais dans mes besoins.

Tout le temps de ma désertion, je suis resté à Zele, où j'ai loué une chambre dans un café. Je sais que c'était le café TIVOLI, où je disais à la tenancière que j'étais attaché à la 20 Coy, car si cette femme aurait su que j'étais un déserteur, elle ne m'aurait jamais loué sa chambre.

Je tiens à dire que je ne recevais aucun congé de repos depuis le 21 janvier 1944.

Le 25 avril 1945 j'étais transféré au TOWN GUARD ROOM à Gand, venant de Zele, où j'étais dans la prison communale depuis le 18 Avril 1945

Je désire être accepté comme volontaire dans l'Armée d'Occupation pour l'Allemagne, après que j'ai fait ma punition pour désertion de l'Armée. Si possible, je désirerais obtenir un petit congé avant de partir pour l'Allemagne.

J'ai 35 ans et je suis marie. Je m'engageais dans l'Armée Canadienne le 26 Novembre 1940 et l'avait partie du Regiment de la Chaudière. Je quittais le Canada avec mon Regiment et arrivais en Angleterre en juillet 1941, en même temps que la 3ème division.

Je quittais l'Angleterre avec mon Regiment le 3 juin 1944 et arrivais en France le 6 du même mois.

Lors d'une attaque que mon regiment exécutait en Hollande, je fus fait prisonnier par les Allemands le 19 octobre 1944. Je fus délivré par les troupes Canadiennes à Tongelre le 2 Nov. 1944.

J'étais immédiatement envoyé en pleine bataille, pour remplacer les Armées Américaines, mais comme j'étais très malade, je demandais un repos de 48 heures, quelque chose qui me fut refusé.

Il avait été dit qu'au bout de six mois après le "D. Day, on aurait pu obtenir un congé de repos.

Je demandais mon congé à deux reprises, mais je ne l'obtenais jamais.

Le 2 janvier 1945 je quittais mon regiment pour l'hopital à Tilburg, de là je venais à l'hopital n° 12 à Bruges, et de Bruges je venais au 3CBRG. Quelques jours après, j'étais envoyé au 3 C.R.C. Là ils m'ont classé M.S.3. Après cela ils m'ont envoyé au 19 Sp. Emp. Coy. L.L. 4 Cdn Arm Del Regt

Reg de Chaud - att 25 Cdn Arm'd Del Regt

(Sgd) LeBel L

I am 35 years old and I am married. I enlisted in the Canadian Army, in the Regt de Chaudiere, on 26 Nov 40. With my Regiment I left Canada and arrived in England at the same time as the 3rd division, in July 41.

With my Regiment I left England on 3 Jun 44 and arrived in France on the 6th of the same month. When my Regiment attacked in Holland I was taken prisoner by the Germans, on the 19 Oct 44, and was freed by Canadian troops at HOOGE on 2 Nov 44. I was immediately sent to the front line to replace American troops, but being sick I asked for a 48 hrs leave, but it was refused.

It was said that six months after "D" Day everybody could obtain a leave. I asked for my leave but I didn't get it.

On 2 Jan 45 I left my Regt for the Hosp at TILBURG, from there I went to No 12 Hospital at BRUGES, and from Bruges came to 2 CBRD. Some days later I was transferred to 3 CBD where I was classified as M 4 S3. I was then sent to 19 Spec Emp Coy, and from there the following morning I went to 25 Cdn Arm'd Del Regt., it was then about 12 Feb 45, and was posted to permanent Guard duty. I told them I was able to do whatever They wanted, except sentry duty, as I was too nervous to take the responsibility as sentry had while on duty, especially in the darkness. I should fire at anything I supposed to be moving.

I think it was the 24 Feb 45, exactly at 1000 hrs when I went absent from 25 Cdn Arm'd Del Regt and went to ZELE, where I remained until midday of the 18 Apr 45 at which time I was arrested by a member of the Military Police and a Sgt of the Cdn Pro C - I am sure it was 24 Feb 45 when I went absent. It was on a Saturday.

When I went absent from 25 Cdn Arm'd Del Regt I possessed 3500 Belgian Francs, and with this I covered all my expenses.

The whole time of my absence I stayed at ZELE where I occupied a room in a Cafe. It was the Cafe "TIVOLI", the proprietress of which I told that I was attached to No 20 Coy. If I had told her I was a deserter the woman surely would not have let me have the room I asked for.

I want to say that I didn't have any leave since 21 Jan 44.

I was removed to the Ghent Town Guardroom on 25 April 45, from ZELE, where I had remained in the village gaol since 18 Apr 45.

I wish to volunteer in the Cdn Army for the occupation of Germany, after I have done my punishment for desertion of the Army. Before starting for Germany I wish to get a small leave if possible.

FIRST WITNESS Gaston VAN DEN ABEELE Int-Crresp to SIS 2 CBRG sworn states:

On the 25 May 45, I interviewed the accused E-10305 Pte Lorenzo LEBEL, attached to 1 Cdn Discipline Centre, whom I now recognize. After making known my identity I cautioned him in French as follows:-"Vous n'etes pas oblige de dire quoi que ce soit ni de rendre temoignage a moins que vous ne le desiriez mais tout ce que vous direz ou toute deposition que vous ferez sera pris ecrit et pourra servir de preuve." The accused understood the caution and signed his name to the statement which was read over to him. I now produce this statement and it is attached to these proceedings as Exhibit "A".

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Gaston VAN DEN ABEELE

Q. Desirez-vous faire une declaration ou rendre temoignage sous serment? Vous n'etes pas oblige de dire quoi que ce soit ni de rendre temoignage a moins que vous ne le desiriez mais tout ce que vous direz ou toute deposition que vous ferez sera pris ecrit et pourra servir de preuve.

I shall like to draw the attention of the Court to the sworn statement of the accused attached to the proceedings as an exhibit. In it Pte Udall gives his reasons for going AWL (read to Court)

Pte Udall joined the army 26 Nov 40, and saw service in July 1941 he landed at Normandy on D Day and went with his Regt to the front for 3 mths. He was a prisoner of war for some weeks and was badly wounded. On his return he was given a category B-3. He was able to do work which he knew was physically impossible - he was given no leave.

The circumstances of this case are unique and must have special consideration by the Court. This is the first serious charge against the accused. The accused has only 5 days under clean and unstained

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. Summary of Evidence in the case of
E.49674, Pte. Joseph Henri Hector Laurent LEBEL No.1 CGRU

"A" THE COMMANDING OFFICER DIRECTS THAT THE EVIDENCE BE TAKEN ON OATH.

Lieut. K.G. Cooke, No.1 Cdn Administrative Coy., RCASC, having been duly sworn, states:

About 1615 hours, Sunday 24 Oct 43 I approached the gate of our unit lines. The guard, Pte. Watters was checking out a station wagon. As I arrived at the station wagon, Pte. Watters asked the driver of said station wagon for his work ticket. The driver, whom I now recognize as the accused, stated that he did not have a work ticket but that he was going to the hospital where the Major; who had ordered him to come for the car was, and he would get his work ticket then. The guard refused the accused to leave and ordered him to put the car back where he had found it. After the accused had returned the station wagon to the lines and was walking out of the gate, I stopped him and asked for his pay book, which the accused could not produce. I asked him for his name and number. He said his name was "Pageau" and that he came from No.1 C.I.R.U. that he was attached to No.8 Canadian General Hospital as a driver. I became suspicious and took the accused to the A.T.O., Major Watmore who accompanied the accused and myself to the unit guard room where he, Major Watmore, instructed the guard to place the accused under close arrest. I questioned the accused again and he stated his name was "Lebel" from No.1 C.G.R.U. and had taken a station wagon to go back to No.1 C.G.R.U. The accused produced the keys for the station wagon and stated that a friend of his, whose name he did not know but whom he could recognize, belonging to No.1 Transport Company had given him the keys and informed him, the accused, the W.D. Number of the vehicle. In the station wagon with the accused was Pte. Hardy of No.1 C.G.R.U.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Kenneth G. Cooke

Kenneth G. Cooke, Lieut.

Second Witness for Prosecution.

G.52217, Pte. Watters, W.A., No.1 Cdn Administrative Transport Coy., R.C.A.S.C., having been duly sworn, states:

I was on R.P. duty at the gate of unit lines, No.1 Canadian Administrative Company, R.C.A.S.C. on Sunday, 24 Oct 43. At approximately 1600 hrs. motor vehicle bearing W.D. Number CM 195327 station wagon was stopped by me at the gate. I asked the driver, whom I now recognize as the accused, to sign the duty form. The accused signed the name of "Pageau" on said form. I asked the accused for his work ticket. He said he would have to go to the 8th Canadian General Hospital to get it. I informed the accused he would have to put the vehicle in the vehicle park, and then go and get his work ticket before he could get the vehicle out past the gate. The accused backed the vehicle to the vehicle park and Lieut. Cooke took charge of the accused. In the station wagon with the accused was another Canadian soldier. The accused and other soldier were placed in the guard room by

NO.1 CDN.GEN.REIN.UNIT.

STATEMENT IN MITIGATION OF PUNNISHMENT OF E49674, Pte, JOSEPH HENRI HECTOR LAURENT LEBEL.

1. The Accused was misled by some person unknown in that he was given the keys to the vehicle and told that it would be alright to go for a drive. He was also requested to call for this person at the Farnborough YMCA.

2. He enlisted at the age of seventeen and has been overseas for only a few months. He is now eighteen which is still too young for Overseas and in my mind, too young for the army for a boy of eighteen has not the sense of responsibility that is needed in a man who is going to handle expensive and vital equipment and who ~~xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx~~ has the many opportunities of doing the wrong thing.
He is full of life and devilment which we all like to see in a young lad but this time his urge to have a bit of fun backfired on him and he has to pay the penalty for it.

3. The charge reads that he did use the motor vehicle without authority; but he did have the authority of the man whom he thought was the driver of the vehicle and he thought this would suffice. He has a rather impetuous nature and just did not stop to think that he was doing something that was not allowed.

4. There was no harm done to the vehicle, not even wear and tear nor consumation of petrol as the vehicle was not driven more than a few yards.

5. I therefore recommend that this soldier be not punnished severely but given another chance to become an asset to the Canadian Army which I feel sure he will. I also recommend that an investigation be made as to why this boy was taken on strength and sent Overseas at the age of seventeen. (His age is shown clearly in his pay book) Perhaps a transfer to the Auxilliary-Services would be the answer.

6. I say again that the boys age and also the circumstances of the case should be carefully considered by the court before awarding any punnishment.

Prosecutor's Opening Address

Pte B. Wood

Sir I submit the above sketch which may be of some assistance to the court. Also the following remarks. The prosecution will prove beyond a shadow of a doubt that the accused did use a lowering gun to gain entrance to the house of our comrades of the country and also the house of our comrades of the country and also that they did assault Pte Simard and that in a manner which drew blood!

It appears to me that this was a premeditated result in that they broke into the house with the intention of assaulting the Simard what happened - Simard not certain what was said and had been drinking. - Neither witness qualified to tell what caused noise in room - did not see any gun fired - possible that Bennett mistaken about Weapon. - contradictory evidence regarding number of blows struck - submit reasonable doubt as to what happened."

Prosecutor - Prosn evidence given under oath only slight discrepancy as to number of blows - only one blow sufficient - accds condition - San Croce small town - lane dark & rocky - accd found way to brothel & were able to carry out an assault which was premeditated on Simard -

Judge Advocate - In opinion of Court & JA not necessary for JA to sum up.

Plea in Mitigation - Nil.

Pte Sylvester -

"Was with Libel on 3 Apr 44. Lemaid suggested they go to this house. Got to door and asked admission which was refused. When realized could not get entry decided to go back to billets. Lemaid got admission but not others. After Lemaid went in accd were on way when heard shots. Libel & I started running for door - were afraid for Lemaid - door open - we entered - dark inside & Lemaid tried to attack me - I did not take a chance & struck him. Left house then and went home."

First Witness. K43080 Pte Taylor, L.E. 5 Cdn Armd Inf Wksp duly sworn states:

On 2 Apr accd on gd & loaned Lemay gun to Pte Sylvester - quite a number of dogs around Les Croc - did not notice if weapon had been fired when Pte Sylvester returned gun.

Cross - Nil.

JA. - Gun returned day later - could not say for certain what day it was - did not examine weapon.

Court - Pte Sylvester on gd - was on around midnight - Recognize Pte Sylvester - not certain when I got weapon back.

R. P. 83(B) complied with. Witness withdraws.

Defence closed.

Def Offr - submits that Pte Sylvester shot ~~weapon~~ at dog when on gd. Reasonable doubt as to comes mad - all seemed to want to beat Semard up - spoke that way - pushed me out of way - they then proceeded to beat Semard up - saw Sylvestre strike Semard twice + Lebel struck Semard once - a little they left - they then went down the lane and proceeded to billets - accd left brothel first - opened door - noticed firearm on Sylvestre carrying it behind back - was TMC - they came in as soon as door opened - noticed no one else in alley - this (B) fair sketch of room - would say they embedded themselves in wall above bed - door splintered but that is all

Cross - did not see anyone fire weapon - have not had armourers course - can recognize different types of machine gun - accd offered violence when entered - was not clear on how many blows struck by Lebel - room not well lit up - was groping his way in room due to both drink + darkness - light enough to see accd certain was 3 Apr. - lady of house only wanted one to come in and not all - lamp to left of door on wall on mantle - Sylvestre struck me with left hand - did not let go of weapon.

Re-Exam -

Ft - lamp dimly lit - Semard made no attempt to attack them

Court - pushed woman out of bed because figured she might get hit - bullets coming close - were slightly intoxicated - got back to barracks alright - would not say accd crazed with drink + did not know what they were doing - saw Sylvestre had something behind his back - brought weapon to his side in room - saw only one gun - did not look close enough to see holes in door - would say were bullets coming through door - three chairs + bureau in room - chairs would be in line of fire.

so after shots - was a single shot and then automatic - more than one round - came thru door - lamp burning when they came - certain was accd who came in - both struck me Lebel once + Sylvestre twice - in face.

Court - Bennett opened door - had been drinking with accd - had two or three bottles of wine between us - was around midnight when they left - none of us had passes - no curfew then - tattoo at 9.15 - lights out 10 o'clock - went back couple days later to see door - woman standing in front of door obstructing my view - could not see any holes at right - was on right of door - had an argument before house - Sylvestre asked me to come down + have it out - before we went to brothel. - Lebel struck me twice + Sylvestre once - remember giving evidence on summary of evidence - not correct - Sylvestre struck once + Lebel struck me twice - must have been misunderstanding.

2nd Witness, C21632 Pte Bennett, L. Sladelands Tps Whp - duly sworn states:

"Recognise accd as Pte Lebel + Sylvestre - On night 3 Apr in brothel in bed with a woman. Came a knock on door. Heard 2 voices wanting admission - answer was house was closed for night - woman not working any more - repeated closed for night - swore a little + left - accd that is - remaind remained at door - let him in - in 15 mins accd returned - demanded admission or they would shoot - paid little attention to them until first two shots fired - fired at least four more shots - coming thru door - striking directly behind bed in which I was - accd entered + very ~~Crown intend to prove that accd gained entry to a house and also assaulted Pte Lenard.~~

First Witness D115806 Pte Lenard, B - 5 Coln Armd Sps Wksp duly sworn states.

"Recognize accd as Pte Lebel & Sylvester. On night 3 Apr 44 I and 2 accd stopped at brothel & knocked at door. Bennett inside answered closed for night and impossible to get in. Accd said to wait they would be back. As soon as they left Bennett let me in. Took off tunic & cap & lied on bed. Few minutes later knock on door and shooting. Opened door and accd came in and Sylvester hit me in face & Lebel hit me just above eye. Then Lebel said "Hand it over & I'll kill the bastard". Had AT machine C - both then left and Bennett & I left a few minutes after & I went to my billets. This was about 500' from church in low brick. Heard a single shot - did not see any arms when they entered house.

Cross - Was in company of accd previous to incident - was in wine shop with them, can say I recognize their voices behind doors. I judged by sound of shooting was T MC - heard more than one shot fired in single rounds - also heard a burst - do not know how many shots in burst - conversation in room - do not know what Lebel referred to when he said "Give me that" - coal oil lamp in room could recognize accd - did not see any arms.

Re-Exam - recognize sketch of room (submitted as Appx B) - represents room.

JA - was alright that night - had been drinking - heard accd same as I was - recognized both voices - before we opened - both said "Open up" - before shots - door opened a minute or

PLEA IN MITIGATION IN THE CASE OF D51292 PRIVATE LEBEL C 4 CDN RFT EN I C B R GP

Mr President and Members of the Court. With regards to Private Lebel the evidence produced shows he is guilty, we can see that, but with regards to his service in the Army for three years, served with Fus MR with Second Division in England and in October he came out here, been in action, has seen quite a bit, and has not had any leave for a time. He felt like a change in the New Year, get tight and let off thinking about the rest of the Army and took his own leave and I think the Members of the Court should be lenient in regards to punishment of the accused.

At about 2330 hours on 24 Sep 43, I was in my room at the Union Jack Club in company with AC 1 Lavery, When I heard shouts for help. We rusehd out. The shouts led us into another room, Where I saw two soldiers on the bed. One, Pte Reeves, was lying on the bed shouting for help. The other, whom I now recognise as Pte Lebel, was over him and they appeared to be struggling. Upon seeing us Pte Lebel rushed out of the room and disappeared down the hall. Reeve was bleeding profusely from a cut over the left eye. We assisted him down to the office for medical treatment.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Fifth Witness for the Prosecution.

C-41986 Sgt Carriere, J.R.R., Special Investigation Section, Cdn Provost Corps, having been duly sworn, states as follows:

On 25 Sep 43, I interviewed Pte Lebel, whom I now recognise. I warned him that he need not say anything, but that whatever he might say would be taken down in writing and might be used in evidence. I then questioned him in connection with an alleged assault upon Pte Reeve, J.A., RAMC. He elected to make the following statement, which I hereby produce as Exhibit "A", and which was signed by the accused in my presence:

"I have been warned by Sgt Carriere, J.R., of the Cdn Provost Corps, London, that I need not say anything unless I wish to do so, but that whatever I may say will be taken down in writing and may be used in evidence."

(SIGNED) Conrad Lebel, E-6054

"I came to London on leave for 7 days. My leave finished on Sept 28th. Last night, 24 Sep 43, I was at the Union Jack Club and there I met Pte Valliere for the first time. I told him I had only two pence and that I had nowhere to sleep. Valliere asked me to go and sleep with him in his room, No 41, at the Union Jack. It was then about 11 o'clock in the evening. When I again saw Valliere at the Union Jack. Valliere left me to take a cup of tea with an English soldier. Later I noticed that Valliere was gone with the English soldier. I went upstair looking for him and got to the English soldier's room. Vallier was there. The English soldier touched my private parts. I got mad and punched him in the face. He fell on his bed. Valliere ran away and, as I was going away, two men ran into the room. They took me by the arms, but I got loose telling them in French "He touched my private parts andI hit him." I then walked away Valliere met me and I accompanied him to his room. It was there that I was arrested by the military police. I had no intention of robbing him and I did not put my hands in his pockets. The blood on my trousers is that of the English soldier, with whom I fought. I have read. This is the truth.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of No E-6054, Private Conrad LEBEL, of the Canadian Infantry Corps, on the strength of No 6 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer, this Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

First Witness for the Prosecution.

No 14271987 Pte Reeve, J.A., of 162 Field Ambulance, RAMC, having been duly sworn, states as follows:

At the Union Jack Club, Waterloo, in the evening of 24 Sep 43, I was sitting in the bar having tea. A young soldier came and sat beside me. I now recognise this soldier as Pte Valliere. He said: "No tea. No Money." I bought him a cup of tea and some sandwiches. After we had finished eating I told him I was going to bed. He replied: "I go to bed." We walked up to my room on the fourth floor. No sooner had I opened the door that I received a blow on the back of the head. Turning around, I caught a glimpse of another man, whom I now recognise as Pte Lebel. I had seen this man in the bar earlier in the evening. I then received a blow on the side of the head and fell onto the bed. I received another blow on the back of the head and felt someone go through the pocket of my tunic. I shouted for help and 2 RAF men came to my assistance. My assailants ran away, before they could take any money from me. There was no light in the room, but there was a dim blue light in the corridor enabling us to see fairly well.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Second Witness for the Prosecution.

M-10792 L/Cpl Elliott, J., of No 6 Provost Company, Cdn Provost Corps, having been duly sworn, states as follows:

On 24 Sep 43, at about 2330 hrs, I was on duty in the Union Jack Club, Waterloo, in company with L/Cpl Johnson, S., when we were approached by Pte Reeve, who was supported by two RAF men. Pte Reeve said he had been attacked by two Canadian Soldiers. From the description he gave of them I suspected them to be two soldiers I had seen in the Club during the evening. Pte Reeve was bleeding profusely from a wound near his left temple and we sent him out for first aid. We then conducted a search of the Club, and fould the accused whom I suspected to be one of the guilty persons. With him was the other suspect, Pte Valliere. They were conducted to the office, where their particulars were taken and their passes checked, and they were detained for investigation. The accused had a large blood stain on the left leg of his trousers. He had several small spots of blood on his forehead and a smudge of blood on his right wrist. This blood appeared to be fairly fresh. He was not wearing his flashes of the Royal 22e Regiment, which I had seen him wearing earlier in the evening. His tunic however showed signs that the flashes had been ripped off. The two men were questioned but would not admit anything. Later Pte Reeve came in and instantly recognised the two men as his assailants. In the course of my investigation, I went up to Reeve's room, where I saw some bloodstains on the bed and on the floor.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

No 1564273 AC 1 Lavery, W., of 14 School of Technical Training, RAF, having been duly sworn, states as follows:

At the Union Jack Club, Waterloo, at about 2300 hrs on 24 Sep 43, I was in my room with LAC Turner when I heard shouts of help which we traced to another room. The door of this room was open. Going into this room I saw a soldier, whom I now know to be Pte Reeve, lying on the bed. Over him was another soldier, whom I

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President ~~or JA, if any~~, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)[1], and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.[2]
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s)[1]. If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty[2], or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined[3], we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.[4]

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans NO, SIR.[5]
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.[1]
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex. A, initialled and read aloud by the President.[1]
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.[1] You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.[2] You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.[3] But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.[4] You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

to his unit while the fighting in europe entued. Instead he has been kept around holding units, a status of a man who wishes active. He was at one time put on a draft for Canada but was taken off this to go to Germany as part of the occupation forces after the fighting was over. By this time he had volunteered to fight in the Pacific and repeatedly asked to be sent to the Pacific rather than go as part of the occupational force. It was when he could not gain this that he went A.W.L.

In conclusion - the war is over in europe. The accused will eventually go home or to the Pacific with a good military record. We submit that no useful purpose would be served in imposing a long sentence. A light sentence will free him for the Pacific rather than keeping him in custody where there is still fighting to be done.

TRIAL OF

H. 62861 RFM LEBAR W.R. - I.C.R.V.

(1)

(BY DEF OFFR)

In pleading guilty the accused is saving the court time and trouble and in avoiding any tricks or deception in the presentation of his evidence.

A human and reasonable sentence is asked for on the basis of his military record. Joining the army at the true age of eighteen, he transferred to a fighting formation - the Winnipeg Rifles on coming home at his own request.

After being promoted to a corporal he landed on D DAY and was eventually taken prisoner. After being in German hands for some time he escaped with considerable danger to himself and fought with the French FFI for some time. Eventually rescued by the Americans, he was awarded a Mention in Despatches for "gallantry and distinguished service" (see R.O. 5643 (attd to) March '45) He has also been wounded as well as being cited for the "Medaille Militaire" by a French Col. I submit as evidence the document given him by the interrogation officer after he returned as a repatriated P.O.W.

We now pray upon to send back

TRIAL OF

H.62861 Rfm LEBAR WR 1 CGRU

E-1 STATEMENT BY THE ACCUSED (ON OATH)

Sir, on the last court-martial I had I was tried by you and you asked me if I wanted to go back to the line and I said yes I would like to and I was given a very lenient sentence on that account.

When I got back I asked if I could go back but I was not sent. It was my category that was holding me up which is a floating category on acct of a bad foot but it's alright now. I went to 1 CITR and from there I thought I could get back to my regt, but I was put on a draft for Can and when VE Day came I was taken off this draft for Canada and put on a draft for occupational tps. I had asked to be sent to Burma instead of this but they said it wasn't possible. After that I went AWL because I don't want to go to Germany. I won't mind going to Germany to fight there but not as occupational tps - I want to go to Burma.

I'm unmarried, Sir, and in civil life I was a bushman.

she was in trouble and that he was responsible. Wishing to do the right thing if it were true and not wanting to be pushed into marriage if it were not true he overstayed his pass in London until he found out the truth. He has since seen the padre and has taken the first steps leading up to marriage with this girl.

This soldier's category is indefinite right now owing to the wounds he received but he expects to be given an "A" category shortly so that he may rejoin his unit at the front.

This man has a fine record so far, as is evidenced by his deeds in France and would be very useful at the front right now instead of spending away in detention. Therefore I asks that the sentence be made as light as possible.

Plea for mitigation of punishment for H 62861 Rfn. Le Bar W.B: E-3

This soldier joined the Canadian Army on the 16 Oct. 41, enlisting with the Can. Forestry Corps. In December 41 he came overseas with that unit and in March 1942 he transfered to the infantry at his own request, joining the R.W.R.

He stayed with the R.W.R. until D-Day when he landed in France with them as a L/Cpl. On the 7 June he was made an acting corporal in an infantry platoon. On the 9 June 44 he was captured by the enemy and held as a P.O.W. until 22 July 44 when he ~~succeeded~~ succeeded in escaping from a prison train en route to Germany.

After escaping he joined the F.F.I. and fought with them from the 22 July until the 7 Sept. This soldier made such a fine showing with the F.F.I. that he was awarded the French Military Medal by a Colonel of the French Foreign Legion. During the fighting with the F.F.I. he was wounded in the foot and on contacting the Americans at Tours he was sent to England by plane.

On arrival in England he reported to C.M.H.Q. who interrogated him and then sent him to 1 Can. Reception Depot. Here he was granted 14 days leave which he spent with his girl friend in London & then returned to 1 C.R.D. Shortly after he was granted a 48 hr. pass and returned to London again. When he returned his girl friend told him that

EVIDENCE IN MITIGATION NOTE E 1

The Accused duly sworn states:

Sir,

I joined the army on 10 Oct 41, I joined the Cdn Forestry Corps. I was with them from 10 Oct 41 until 16 Mar 42. I went from there to the Wpg Rifles at my own request. I was with Wpg Rifles from Mar 42 until 6 Jun 44 when we went to France, I was a L/Cpl in the unit at that time. On D-day we landed in France and on the next day I was promoted to full cpl. On the 9 Jun I was taken prisoner by the Germans and take away by prisoner train to a camp. I was at Rennes for a month and a half then they put us on another train to take us to Germany. We were travelling through Tours on the 2? Jul and myself and two Americans broke out of the prisoner train outside of Tours and escaped. We contacted the Free French Forces of the Interior and started to fight with them. I was wounded in the left leg and was also awarded the Medal Militaire by a French Colonel in the Foreign Legion. Shortly after I was wounded, which was on the 15 Aug, I contacted the Americans at Tours and was flown back to England. After arrving here I was interrogated in CMH? and sent to 1 CRD. There I was given 14 days leave and I went to London and spent it with my girl friend. On return from leave I spent about five days in camp and my friend wrote that she was in the family way. I asked for 48 hours pass and was given it, I went to see her and was not sure that she was pregnant so stayed to find out for sure. I had intended to marry the girl and still do, but I did not want to be rushed into it or bluffed into it and I wanted to make sure whether or not she was going to have a child before I did anything. I was apprehended by the civil police or I would have surrendered as soon as I could have. In civil life I was a bushman, I went to grade 8 in school. At the present time I am category L3 pending a reboard when I am told I will get an "A" back. I am anxious to go back to France or Italy to go on with this war.

Plea in mitigation of sentence for B40094 Pte. James Arold Leavoy, #33 L.A.D., R.C.O.C., att 13 Cdn Fd Regt., R.C.A.

Mr. President you have seen the statement of the accused taken under oath in the Summary of Evidence. I wish to elaborate on that.

The accused contracted VD in the spring of 1943 and spent 4 months in hospital at that time. He was first treated for the disease on 23 Apr 43. His record of treatment can be found in his Record of Treatment book which he has on his person. I submit, Mr President , that his bad nervous condition is a result of this disease. Since that time his nerves react violently with the least amount of excitment and he has stated to me that this has caused him to drink more than usual. His eyes have also been affected by his condition as well as xy his power of concentration. The accused states that his mind has gone blank a number of times. At one time for a number of days he did not even know his own name. His first offence of AWL with which he is accused today was further aggravated by the fact that he missed treatments at this unit over the 13 days he was away. The accused states that he did not even know what he was doing when he escaped confinement on the 29 Jan 44. That is up to the Court to decide. I submit that the guard was asleep at the time, should also be taken into consideration. It was a great temptation to any man .

I ask this Court to give this case a lot of thought. This man has never had a reboard although he has been told 3 times that he was going to be reboarded. The probable reason he was not reboarded is due to the fact that he has been shifted around xx from one station to another recently.

Mr President I submit that the accused would make a ~~b~~ good soldier if he was in good health. He joined the army voluntarily and as a civilian he had a good job in his trade, a plumber and pipe fitter with a Toronto firm. I plead leniency Mr President and suggest that the accused be sent to a Mental Hosp and his case dealt with there.

They were working at the truck - the accused was behind the truck. I did not get no reply and I do not know whether they heard me or not. At that time CSM Jamieson of B Coy appeared at the scene. He asked the accused and the other soldier who was driving the truck. They both said had not been driving. The CSM told Sgt Langlois to put them under arrest and take them back to camp. The soldier with the accused refused to go. I was ordered by the CSM to go back to camp to get a veh and an armed guard. I met the accused on my way back with the armd guard and veh. SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE IN THE CASE OF C-73757 Pte. LEAVER F.W. 3 Bn, Cameron Highlanders of Ottawa, (MG) (COF), a soldier of the Canadian Army Occupation Force.

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS - C-79000 CSM Jamieson E.D., 3/CH of O (MG)(COF) having been duly sworn states:

"I am C-79000 CSM Jamieson ED, 3/CH of O (MG)(COF). At about 2145 hrs 6 Jul 45 I was walking along the road which leads north from B Coy area. About half a mile north of B Coy camp I saw a WD vehicle No. CZ4228705 lying on its side at about a 45 degree angle on the left hand side of the road. The accused and another soldier and Sgt Langlois and Cpl Severin were near the vehicle. The accused was down underneath the back of the vehicle trying to fasten a chain. I immediately asked what had happened and who was driving and I received no answer. I repeated the question directing it to the accused and got an unsatisfactory answer - it was non-committal - it did not say anything. I asked a third time and the accused said he was not driving. I asked the accused and the other soldier in turn if they had any authority for the use of the vehicle. Either the accused or the other soldier answered that there was a work ticket but they did not know where it was. I told the accused and the other soldier that they were to consider themselves under arrest and ordered them to proceed back to camp immediately under Sgt Langlois and Cpl Severin. They did not go but remained standing in the centre of the road. I ordered them again to go and they refused so I ordered Cpl Severin to proceed back to camp and get an armed escort and a gehicle. Then the other soldier adopted a threatening manner and I asked him for his service book. The discussion got general and the accused said among other things, " I have been waiting for this for a long time. No God damn Sgt Major is going to push me around."

Q. 1 What was the condition of the accused?
A. 1 In my opinion the accused was not drunk. His speech was clear and his carriage straight.

The accused declines to cross examine the witness.

The evidence is read over to the witness. RP 83 (b) has been complied with.

SECOND WITNESS - C-44692 Sgt. Langlois, G., 3/CH of O (MG)(COF) having been duly sworn states:

"I am C-44692 Sgt Langlois, G., 3/CH of O (MG)(COF). I went for a walk on the evening of 6 Jul 45 with Cpl Severin on the road running north from B Coy camp. I saw the accused and another soldier standing near a truck that was in the ditch. I asked them how they got there and who was driving the truck but they shrugged their shoulders as if nobody knew. CSM Jamieson of B Coy came along and asked the accused and the other soldier for a work ticket. He said "No Sgt Major will boss me around" or something like that. The CSM told me to put the accused and the other soldier under arrest but I could not. The reason I could not put them under arrest was because the other soldier turned on the CSM and the accused and I tried to stop him.

INSTRUCTION.—If any matter in any of the above paragraphs cannot be stated from the regimental books the paragraph must be struck through.

"Military offences frequently consist in the use of threatening, insubordinate or obscene languuage. Great care should be taken to discriminate between mere agry or irritable expressions, and words indicating a deliberate intention to be insubordinate or to resist lawful authority. A soldier in an outhurst of momentary irritation or excitement often uses violent language without intending to be insubordinate. Again, allowance must be made for the coarse expressions which a man of inferior education will often use as mere expletives. Such expressions may be insubordinate if used to a commissioned officer but not so when used to a non-commissioned officer, or when used in one set of circumstances but not in another. Language, therefore, should be construed with due regard to all surrounding circumstances; and the intention of the user of it should be carefully considered before it is held to constitute the grave offence of using threatening or insubordinate language to a superior officer"

In closing I wish to remind you again that the accused must be given the benefit of any reasonable doubt you may have and if you have such doubt he must be acquitted

PLEA IN MITIGATION BY DEFENDING OFFICER

This soldier who is accused of this crime has been in the Army twenty-eight months. While serving in Canada he gotinto a M. D. accident for which he had to pay damage in the civil court and that is the only crime the man has had in twenty-eight months. He has served overseas in action and not hearing anything to the contrary hischaracter is good. In this case he told the sergeant-major that he was not going to be pushed around by any God-damned sergeant-major. Whether that is true or not I can see where it has in my opinion very little bearing for the very simple reason that there are no other witnesses who have been brought before this court.

Another point I want to bring out, that may have led to this thing was this, that he had a certain number of points - 61 to be exact and when he came to Holland with the H & PE he was told there by somebody that he would not be held for COF, that only men under 50 points would be held there and naturally on being automatically drafted into this Army of Occupation he felt an injustice had been done him and I think therefore the sergeant-major's attitude at the time that if there was anything said under the state of drunkenness or alcoholism he was in that it was said without prejudice or any meaning to it at all. I think it was just one of those things which just happen because he was drunk and was done on the spur of the moment without any real malice behind it. I think that point should be brought out and taken into consideration.

Certified to be a true transcript of the shorthand notes taken by me at the F.G.C.M. described on page 1

The only thing one can do in summing up is to say that the accused by his own admission was drunk. He does not remember swearing at the Sergeant-Major. Therefore, he does not know whether or not he swore at the Sergeant-Major so whether he did or not by his own evidence is nothing because he claims he was drunk. The Sergeant-Major who was the only witness who was in his own state of mind at the time swears on oath that the accused said to him the words as they appear in this charge-sheet.

Therefore, I will leave it to the court to decide whether or not the evidence that the Sergeant-Major gave is more valid or less valid than the evidence given by a man who claims he was drunk at the time and he couldn't remember having even seen the Sergeant-Major by his own admission

THE DEFENDING OFFICER MAKES THE FOLLOWING CLOSING ADDRESS

There is one thing I want to bring out there. This boils down now to the Sergeant-Major's word stating that the man said what he did in the charge. Now the Sergeant-Major not having any witnesses to back it up I can't see where that will affect the accused here. It is just a case of one man's word against another's and there just seems to be no proof. I can't see any proof that he did it so I say that the accused should be dismissed on the ground that there is no proof

THE JUDGE-ADVOCATE MAKES THE FOLLOWING SUMMING-UP

Again it is my duty to remind the court of its function which is that of deciding and adjudicating on the points of fact in this case as well as points of law although for the law part they should not disregard my advice.

Before going any further I would like to remind you that an accused man is presumed to be innocent until proved guilty. Therefore the accused stands before you charged with an offence in no way should be interpreted that he has committed that offence. The prosecution has on its shoulders all through the trial an additional onus, an additional burden which is the burden of proof. That is, it is up to the prosecution to bring evidence proving guilt on the part of the accused. That evidence should be beyond reasonable doubt by which I mean a common-sense doubt arising out of the evidence and not a doubt based on imagination, fancy or undue sympathy.

This charge is laid under A.A Sec 8(2) using insubordinate language to a superior officer. In this case the particulars allege that on the date in question when ordered into close arrest by S/M Jamieson he answered "I have been waiting for this for a long time and no God-damned Sergeant-Major is going to push me around"

Now, you have heard the defence giving evidence on its own behalf and he states that he had been drunk on that night to a considerable extent, some Dutch liquor and that as a result of that he forgot everything that happened. On the point of drunkenness it is a principle of military law that drunkenness is no excuse for crime. I will quote again MML p 25 para 48 - but drunkenness should be taken into consideration as far as mitigation is concerned. The only case where drunkenness might be a defence to a crime would be that quoted in MML p.106 para 9 where temporary intoxication goes to such an extent that it is tantamount to temporary insanity. In this case you have not got a specific intent but you certainly have in any offence an intent on the part of the accused.

Now on insubordinate language, there is also on p.58 MML para 71 -

Q. 7 - Will you tell the court in your own words just exactly what took place on the night of the 6 Jul before the accident occurred?
A. 7 - On the evening of 6 Jul I was sitting in the tent in camp listening to the radio. A Dutchman came up the road and asked me if I would sell him some cigarettes. I told him "No". He asked me if I would give cigarettes for whiskey. I said "Yes" so I took a bottle of whiskey. I met Pte Swant coming down the road before I moved very far, offered him a few drinks and he had a few drinks in him. He stayed there for a while and talked and drank and carried on up the road a ways and had a few more drinks and finished the bottle. We sat down and were talking and I don't remember anything after that
Q. 8 - When did you next remember anything?

THE PROSECUTOR MAKES THE FOLLOWING CLOSING ADDRESS:

D. 3 - Evidence for the Prosecution

1st Witness for the Prosecution, C.79000 CSM Jamieson, E. D., 3/CH of O (MC) (CAOF) having been duly sworn is examined by the Prosecutor.

Q. 1 - Sergeant-Major, do you recognize the man involved in this case?
A. 1 - Yes, sir
Q. 2 - Will you tell in your own words the story of the incident which took place on the evening of 6 Jul 45?
A. 2 - At approximately 2145 hours on the evening of the 6 Jul I was walking along the road which leads south from B Coy area. I proceeded about half a mile, turned a sharp corner and came across a W. D. vehicle lying on its side in the ditch on the left hand side of the road. The accused and another soldier, Sgt Langlois and Cpl Severin were standing beside the truck. I asked them what had happened and got no answer. I repeated the question and directed it in turn to the accused and the other soldier and got a sort of non-committal answer, - didn't say very much of anything. I don't remember the exact words. At the third question the accused said something to the effect that he had not been driving. I asked if there was a work ticket for the vehicle and after some hesitation either he or the other soldier said that they couldn't find it. I questioned them further as to how the accident happened. I couldn't get any satisfactory answers and ordered them into arrest and told them they were to proceed back to camp under escort of Sgt Langlois. They didn't go but remained standing in the centre of the road. I again ordered them into arrest and got an answer but what it was I don't know. I asked the other soldier for his paybook and the discussion got quite abusive. In the course of the discussion the accused said among other things that he had been waiting for this opportunity for a long time and that"no God-damned sergeant-major was going to push him around". I left the accused for the time being after ordering him back to camp again, went over to the side of the road to examine the vehicle and the accused then started off for camp. I told him to get properly dressed before going back to camp. I was then struck by the other soldier. The accused after some hesitation together with Sgt Langlois placed his hand on the arm of the other soldier and he went back to camp

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY DEFENDING OFFICER

Q. 3 - Was there anybody else near to hear the man say this to you?
A. 3 - As far as I know Sgt Langlois and Cpl Severin. They were close enough to have heard it. Whether they did hear it or not I don't know
Q. 4 - You say they should have heard it?
A. 4 - They were quite close enough to have been able to hear it, sir

QUESTION BY JUDGE-ADVOCATE

Q. 5 - In what condition was the accused?
A. 5 - He had been drinking, sir. He was not drunk. His carriage was straight and his speech was clear

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT

Q. 6 - Have you ever at any time before had any lack of respect shown you from the accused?
A. 6 - Yes, sir

The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

4th Witness B.94866 L/Cpl. Chapdelaine, J.E.A. No. 1 C.O.R.U., having been duly sworn, states:

"Some time in November I was in Room B.11 Martinique Barracks delivering mail when Sgt. Hood called me to the N.C.O's. room in B.11. He called me from the doorway. I went into the room where were Sgt. Hood and L/Cpl. Leathen and no one else. When I first went in Sgt. Hood gave me an application for a pass as I was Orderly Room clerk. I noticed two towels on the bed and L/Cpl. Leathen had one in his hand."

QUESTION BY MAJOR MILLER

Ques. 1 Is this L/Cpl. Leathen? (Pointing to accused)

Ans: 1 Yes sir. I had some conversation with Sgt. Hood but none with Cpl. Leathen.

Ques. 2 At the end of your conversation did Sgt. Hood say anything to Cpl. Leathen?

Ans: 2 He said put them away Jimmy. He told him to put them in the cupboard.

Ques. 3 What did Cpl. Leathen say or do?

Ans: 3 He took the two towels off the bed and the one he had in his hand and put them in the cupboard. I then left.

Ques. 4 I show you a towel exhibit ~~XXX~~ "A".

Ans: 4 That is about the length and the same material and same colour as the towels I saw in the room.

MAJOR MILLER TO ACCUSED

Ques. 1 Do you wish to ask this witness any questions?

Ans: 1 I would like to ask him some questions and have Sgt. Hood present.

MAJOR MILLER

You may call Sgt. Hood as a witness if you wish but any question you wish to ask this witness must be asked now and ~~IX~~ not in the presence of Sgt. Hood.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE ACCUSED

Ques. 1 What time was it?

Ans: 1 About ~~XXXXX~~ 11:15.

Ques. 2 Isn't that the busiest time of the day when Sgt. Hood and I should both be in the kitchen?

Ans: 2 It might be the time when you both should be in the kitchen but there could be exceptions. You were both in the N.C.O's. room at the time I was there.

Ques. 3 What was I supposed to be doing with Sgt. Hood at that time?

Ans: 3 I don't know what you were supposed to be doing. All I know is that you were there.

1st Witness Recalled — B.28025 Pte. Talbot, W.A. continues:

QUESTION BY MAJOR MILLER

Ques. 1 — I show you a towel. Where did this towel come from?

Ans: 1 — It came from the A.D. Stores.

(TOWEL MARKED EXHIBIT "B")

Ques. 2 — You got exhibit "B" from the A.D. Stores?

Ans: 2 — Yes, we called at the A.D. Stores on our way up here.

Ques. 3 — Is this towel (Exhibit "B") of the same kind as the towel xxx that you have already stated in your evidence you delivered to Cpl. Leathen?

Ans: 3 — Yes sir.

Ques. 4 — Were they all the same?

Ans: 4 — Yes sir.

Ques. 5 — Were any of them different in any way?

Ans: 5 — No sir.

The accused does not wish to cross-examine this witness.

Wm G Talbot

3rd Witness — Lieut. L.A. Winter, No. 1 C.O.R.U. having been duly sworn, states:

"I belong to the Edmonton Reg't. and am at present attached to No. 1 C.O.R.U. as A.D. Officer. The towel Exhibit "B" is described as Towel, bath, turkish and is one of the towels issued from government stores to the Unit A.D. I have checked the Unit A.D.Stores and find that there are missing 51 towels of this kind. I was present when Pte., Talbot called this afternoon (15 Jan. 42) at the A.D. Stores for this towel. The A.D.Store towels are all white towels of the same size and material as exhibit "B" but some of them bear different makers names. I have examined the A.D. Towels and have noted that the hem or border vary somewhat in the pattern but otherwise they are identically the same."

The accused does not wish to cross-examine this witness.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE in the case of B.94330 L/Cpl., Leathen, J. No. 1 Canadian Ordnance Holding Unit. By direction of the Commanding Officer, the Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

1st witness for the Prosecution

B.28025 Pte. Talbot, W.A. No. 1 C.O.H.U. having been duly sworn, states:

"I belong to the 2nd Field Park, R.C.E. and since the 26 July 41 have been attached to No. 1 C.O.H.U. From the 15 Sept. 41 until 26 Dec. 41, I was corporal in the A.D. No. 1 C.O.H.U. As such, I had charge of the keys to the A.D. Stores and during this period I took some of the A.D. articles and disposed of them. Among other things I took 40 Turkish Towels which are public property and which are valued according to the official price list at 3s and 3d each. I delivered them to L/Cpl. Leathen, J. of No. 1 C.O.H.U. and in return received 2s and 6d a towel. I delivered these in bunches of 10 to his quarters in Block B Room 11, over a period of about 6 weeks, the last delivery being about the end of November. He paid me for each delivery at the time. Most of my deliveries were made in the evening and one or two in the daytime. I usually carried them in a cardboard box and once I remember in my kit bag, which he gave back to me later. There were frequently other men in the room when I took these bundles in but we didn't open them while I was there and I [redacted] don't think anybody noticed what was going on. Leathen told me he was going to send them away for Christmas presents. These towels were stamped with the Government broad Arrow and Leathen said he could get them washed out by one of his relatives. I do not know which one or who it was."

Ques. 1 Did you sell any other stores to L/Cpl. Leathen?

Ans: 1 No sir.

Ques. 2 Did you know him before the formation of this Holding Unit in July 41?

Ans: 2 No sir.

W. J. Talbot.

The accused does not wish to cross-examine this witness.

2nd Witness Mr. William Chesham, Primrose Cottage, Hedley, Bordon Hants, having been duly sworn, states:

"I am a civilian fireman employed by the Royal Engineers i/c of Martinique Barracks and fireman at No. 2 Cook house in Martinique Barracks. On the 27 Dec. 41 I posted in the civilian Post Office at Hedley, a parcel addressed to Mrs. Leathen and I am not quite sure of the exact address but it was to a place in Scotland. The Question by accused.

How many men I brought me up to the Company Truck.

Answer. I think three men including Pte Lesk, but as I did not notice the party until they had started to mix with the troops around the truck, it is hard to say definitely

He became very annoyed and said, "you are chicken shit, all the Corporals are chicken shit. Especially you and Robb" Or words to that effect. He continued to make similar statements until I turned him over to C.S.M. Davies at Company Headquarters. Pte Leach was then sent back to Platoon Headquarters for his belongings as he was coming back to Company Headquarters I passed him on the road. He then said to me, "You had better get killed at the front or you will get killed on every street" Or words to that effect.

Plea in mitigation of Sentence 25th Nov 44

D.O. I would like to point out to the members of the court that the accused has previously been punished for the misdemeanour implied in the summary. To my mind the charge of disobedience is the more serious one than that of using insubordinate language. May I ask the court to bear this relation in mind when ~~the~~ considering the accused. In mitigation of the crime I say previous to the accused firing the german flare pistol others have fired it and not been apprehended accused naturally enough therefore had justification for his conveyance. It is also a point that in Canadian army terminology 'chicken-shit' is merely a vulgar interpretation of the word fussy and for this reason I think the implied insubordination is slight.

Fifteenth Witness (Cont'd.)

The sum of £5-10-0 which was handed to me by BSM JEFFREY as having been found on the person of the accused and alleged to belong to L/Sgt. ALLARD was composed in part of four new one pound notes bearing serial numbers as follows,

U47D474368
U47D474369
U47D474370
U47D474371

The total amount that I received from BSM JEFFREY as having been found on the accused's person and in a small khaki cloth bag ~~xxx~~ inclusive of the above mentioned £5-10-0 was £14-7-11 three farthings and one U.S. cent. This amount was £0-1-7¾ over the amounts stated to have been lost or stolen by the witnesses. I made an arbitrary division of this amount according to the amounts stated to have been lost and placed these sums in separate envelopes (£0-1-7¾ in separate envelope). I sealed all these envelopes, had them stamped with the Battery Stamp on the flaps and signed my name on each flap. I turned these envelopes and the small khaki cloth bag over to the Adjutant.

From the large pocket of his Battle Dress trousers he turned out £5-10-0 composed of one £0-10-0 note, four new £1-0-0 note, one old £1-0-0 note which was the description of the money that L/Sgt. Eighth Witness (Cont'd)

I looked in my trousers and found no money missing. I then woke Sgt. ROCHE and told him to look through his pockets. He found about £2-0-0 missing. We woke nearly everyone in the hut and decided to go over to Sgt. LEARMONTH'S hut.

Sgt. LEARMONTH was undressed in bed and apparently asleep. The lights were out in his hut. Someone went and got BSM JEFFREY who came and roused Sgt. LEARMONTH. BSM JEFFREY searched Seargeant LEARMONTH'S kit and found a small cloth bag which was hanging on the wall. This contained money in bills.

Accused declines to cross examine.

Ninth Witness. D-7659 L/Sgt. McCREA, D.E. 14 Cdn. Fd. Regt., R.C.A. having been duly sworn states:-

After Pay Parade 13 Mar 42 I paid to Sgt. ROCHE £1-0-0 that I had borrowed.

During the night 13/14 Mar 42 I was wakened by a noise. I saw a man strike Sgt. FINCH and run out of the door of the hut. Though the man was similar in build to the accused I could not positively identify him.

On the morning of 14 Mar 42 I turned over to Major BLAIKIE the £2-0-0 that I had left of my pay.

Accused declines to cross examine.

Tenth Witness. D-7513 Sgt. BRUNSTROM, T. 14 Cdn. Fd. Regt., R.C.A. having been duly sworn states:-

On 13 Mar 42 I was paid immediately before Sgt. EVANS.

During the night 13/14 Mar 42 I woke up and saw someone running out of the door of the hut. The lights were on. I went back to sleep.

On the morning 14 Mar 42 I turned my pay of £3-0-0 over to Maj. BLAIKIE.

Accused declines to cross examine.

Eleventh Witness. D-7554 BSM JEFFREY, J.T. 14 Cdn. Fd. Regt., R.C.A. having been duly sworn states:-

At about 0215 Hrs., 14 Mar 42 I was wakened by L/Sgt. METCALFE who tole me what had happened. He asked me to come over and take charge. I dressed and went with him. The lights in Sgt. LEARMONTH'S hut were on and BSM BENNETT, Sgt. ROCHE, Sgt. KEATING, L/Sgt. ALLARD and Sgt. FINCH were there. Three Sgt's in the hut were awake - Sgt. McCULLOCH, Sgt. WALSH and Sgt. SAUNDERS. I woke Sgt. LEARMONTH and got permission to search his kit. I asked Sgt. SAUNDERS which was Sgt. LEARMONTH'S kit.

Having gone through Sgt. LEARMONTH'S great coat I saw a small Khaki cloth bag hanging on the wall over Sgt. LEARMONTH'S table. I opened the bag and dumped the contents on a bed, some money fell out first. I did not count the money but took the money and the bag and turned it over to Sgt. BERESFORD 34 Cdn. Fd. Bty., 14 Cdn. Fd. Regt., R.C.A. who was Sergeant of the guard. He counted the money which came to £8-17-0 and some odd pennies. He then replaced the money in the bag and turned it over to the L/Bdr. of the guard. Two sentries were sent with the Guard Commander to put Sgt. LEARMONTH under close arrest in the Guard Room. I reported to Major BLAIKIE the battery Commander of the accused and Lieut. CHABOT the Regimental Duty Officer. I went to bed.

At breakfast 14 Mar 42 I checked on the total sum in notes reported to have been lost. Sgt. ALLARD'S loss of £5-10-0 seemed to be the difference between what had been lost and what had already been recovered.

Cont'd,

Fifth Witness. D-7561 Sgt. EVANS, F.A.L. 14 Cdn. Fd. Regt., R.C.A. having been duly sworn states:-

At about 0600 Hrs., 14 Mar 42, Sgt. ROCHE asked me if I had lost any money. I looked in my trouser pocket and £2-10-0 in notes was missing.

On Pay Parade 13 Mar 42, Sgt. BRUNSTROM preceeded me and Sgt. FINCH followed me.

Accused declines to cross examine.

Sixth Witness. D-7557 BSM BENNETT, W.R. 14 Cdn. Fd. Regt., R.C.A. having been duly sworn states:-

At about 0200 Hrs., 14 Mar 42, I was awakened by a noise and heard someone run down the hut and out the door. I asked Sgt. METCALFE what was happening. He told me that Sgt. LEARMONTH had been in the hut going through men's pockets, so I looked in my clothes and found that my pockets had been gone through and that £3-10-0 was missing from my pay book.

I went with Sgt. METCALFE, Sgt. ROCHE and L/Sgt. ALLARD to Sgt. LEARMONTH'S hut and found Sgt. LEARMONTH apparently asleep. Sgt. METCALFE went to fetch BSM JEFFREY. BSM JEFFREY woke Sgt. LEARMONTH and searched his kit. BSM JEFFREY found some money in a khaki cloth bag belonging to Sgt. LEARMONTH. BSM JEFFREY placed the accused under arrest.

Accused declines to cross examine.

Seventh Witness. D-7600 Sgt. FINCH, R.E.G. 14 Cdn. Fd. Regt., R.C.A. having been duly sworn states:-

During the night 13/14 Mar 42, I was wakened by someone prowling about the hut. At first I thought that it was the man in the next bed but the prowler seemed to be going from bed to bed. I tried to light a match but it only burnt long enough for me to see a form at the other side of the hut which humped behind a bed.

I got out of bed and turned the light on. Then I went over to the corner where the man was hiding under a bed. On the way over I shook L/Sgt. McCREA but he did not waken. The man was behind Sgt. METCALFE'S bed and Sgt. METCALFE woke up.

I shook the prowler by the shoulder and asked him what he was doing there. There was a pause and the man stood up. It was Sgt. LEARMONTH. He stood still for a moment, then he struck me on the left hand side of my face and knocked me onto Sgt EVAN'S bed. While I was still off balance he struck me again and then ran out the door. By this time others were awake and when I told them what had happened they examined their pockets and found money gone.

BSM BENNETT, Sgt. KEATING, L/Sgt. ALLARD , L/Sgt. METCALFE and I went to Sgt. LEARMONTH'S hut. One man went to get BSM JEFFREY. Sgt. LEARMONTH was in bed apparently asleep so BSM JEFFREY woke him and searched his kit after getting the accused's permission. BSM JEFFREY found a cloth bag hanging on the wall at the head of Sgt. LEARMONTH'S bed. The bag contained bills and change. Sgt. LEARMONTH was placed under arrest. The time was 0230 Hrs.

On Pay Parade 13 Mar 42 I preceded Sgt. KEATING and followed Sgt. EVANS. I gave the £2-0-0 that I had left of my pay to Major BLAIKIE on the morning of 14 Mar 42.

Accused declines to cross examine.

Eighth Witness. D-7582 L/Sgt. METCALFE, E.W. 14 Cdn. Fd. Regt., R.C.A. having been duly sworn states:-

At about 0200 Hrs., 14 Mar 42 I woke up and saw Sgt. LEARMONTH standing at the foot of my bed. Sgt. FINCH was standing at one side of my bed. The lights were on in the hut. Sgt. FINCH ~~said~~ said something to Sgt. LEARMONTH then Sgt. LEARMONTH struck Sgt. FINCH twice and ran out the door.

Cont'd,

Summary of evidence in the case of D-12537 Sgt. LEARMONTH, W.R. 81 Cdn. Fd. Bty., 14 Cdn. Fd. Regt., R.C.A. a soldier of the Cdn. Army (OVERSEAS)

First Witness. D-92703 A/L/Sgt. ALLARD, G.D. 14 Cdn. Fd. Regt., R.C.A. having been duly sworn states:-

At approximately 0200 Hrs., 14 Mar 42, I was wakened in the Sergeants Hut of the 66 Cdn. Fd. Bty., R.C.A. and was told by various Sergeants to look in my pockets to see if my money was still there. My Battle Dress tunic was on the floor with both pockets unbuttoned and from the left hand pocket £5-10-0 in bills was missing. From my right hand trouser pocket £0-5-6 was also missing. Some of the other Sergeants and myself went to Sgt. LEARMONTH'S hut and L/Sgt. METCALFE went to find BSM JEFFREY of 81 Cdn. Fd. Bty., R.C.A. who was Sgt. LEARMONTH'S BSM.

BSM JEFFREY arrived at Sgt. LEARMONTH'S hut and took charge. He woke Sgt. LEARMONTH who appeared to be asleep and asked permission to search his kit. After obtaining permission BSM JEFFREY proceeded to go through the kit of the accused. He found a small cloth khaki bag hanging on the wall which he emptied on the accused's bed. There were bills and change in it. BSM JEFFREY placed the accused under arrest and I went back to bed.

Accused declines to cross examine.

Second Witness. D-6702 BSM MANSFIELD, E.S. 14 Cdn. Fd. Regt., R.C.A. having been duly sworn states:-

On Pay Parade 13 Mar 42, I was paid immediately following BSM BENNETT. The bill I received was turned over to BSM JEFFREY and I watched him seal it in an envelope. The bill number was U47D473529.

Accused declines to cross examine.

Third witness. D-7532 Sgt. ROCHE, J.K. 14 Cdn. Fd. Regt., R.C.A. having been duly sworn states:-

At approximately 0200 Hrs., 14 Mar 42, I was wakened by L/Sgt. METCALFE who informed me that someone had been prowling in the hut and going through peoples' pockets. I looked in my trouser pockets and found that my change was missing. This consisted of £0-1-7 and a United States cent. £2-10-0 in bills was missing from my wallet, this was made up of a one pound note and three ten shilling notes.

I got dressed and accompanied BSM BENNETT, Sgt. METCALFE and Sgt. FINCH, to Sgt. LEARMONTH'S quarters. Sgt. METCALFE went to get BSM JEFFREY.

When BSM JEFFREY arrived he woke Sgt. LEARMONTH who appeared to be asleep and asked permission to search his kit. This was given. From a cloth bag hanging on the wall near Sgt. LEARMONTH'S bed BSM JEFFREY removed some bills and change. I returned to my quarters and went to bed.

The serial number of the pound note I lost ended in the numbers 07. The reason that I remember this is that L/Sgt. McCREA paid me £1-- which he owed me and when he paid me we had a discussion about serial numbers. Also after my money disappeared the numbers of the bills which L/Sgt. McCREA had left from his pay ended in the figures 08 and 09.

Accused declines to cross examine.

Fourth Witness. D-7664 Sgt. KEATING, J.K.C. 14 Cdn. Fd. Regt., R.C.A. having been duly sworn states:-

At approximately 0200 Hrs., 14 Mar 42, I was wakened by L/Sgt. ALLARD who said that Sgt. LEARMONTH had been prowling about, He suggested that I look to see if any of my money was missing.

I went through my trouser pockets and found three pence and one farthing missing. My pocket book which I carry in my inside tunic pocket was on the floor but my money in my pay book was still there. I went back to sleep.

Accused declines to cross examine.

By direction of the Commanding Officer the summary of evidence is taken on oath.

First Witness for Prosecution

G27092, Cpl Scott, W.R., "A" Company, Carleton & York Regiment, having been duly sworn, states as follows:-

I am and was at all times material hereto G27092, Cpl Scott, W.R., No. 7 Platoon, "A" Company, Carleton & York Regiment. On the night of 7/8 Jan 42 I was guard commander for "A" Company. At approximately 0200 hrs Major MacCallum ordered me to check on the men who had been issued with late passes that night. At 0200 hrs I found L/Cpl Leard absent from the billets. I kept on checking during the night all through the building that houses our company and at no time was L/Cpl Leard present. For the week 10 Jan 42 to 17 Jan 42 I was acting as orderly serjeant for "A" Company. L/Cpl Leard was absent every night I was on this duty, that is, until the night of 16 Jan 42.

Cpl. Wm R. Scott.

Accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

Lieut.

Lieut. J.R. Campbell, Carleton & York Regt., having been duly sworn states:

"I was posted to A Coy, Carleton & York Regt, last August and took over 7 platoon..Pte. Leard was in this platoon at that time. I knew that before this time Pte. Leard's record as to conduct was not so good, and he had been AWL two or three times before. After being in the platoon for some months I found that Pte. Leard had learned his lesson and was becoming a very good soldier, and he was promoted to a/l/cpl. He has been doing a very good job in his section."

Rule 83(3) was complied with mfc

The accused G17097 Pte.(A/L/Cpl) Leard, Carleton & York Regiment made the following address to the court:

" I didn't intend to go AWL. I had gone eight months without being AWL. I have been having some family trouble recently. I tried to staighten matters out over the phone, but was unable to do so. I kept thinking about it and went out and after a few drinks I went to try and arrange things personally."

and the Right to which he belongs. I want 15 to put before the court a hypothetical case which might easily have ensued had Pt Hand left his wife in her dilema. The child would of necessity have been neglected because of the mothers inability to give it proper care and the ensuing indispositions on the part of the child might quite easily have resulted in the serious illness of the present. Im not going to carry this point

I ask the court to remove charge one in the

Q. Will you tell the court what you know about the case of the accused.

A. At approximately 2100 hrs 30 may 42 ~~Sgt~~ Pte Beard reported to me at Sandgate Park saying that he was reporting back from an over due pass. He was with us until 1330 hrs 31 may 42 when he did not report at my defaulters roll call. I did not see him until after his apprehension.

Closing address by the defence.

I have placed before the court documentary evidence confirming the illness of the accused wife and I want the court to consider the following circumstances. The accused received special leave to visit his wife. On arrival he found her ill and quite unable to look after the infant child of which he is the father. His wifes mother who normally resides with her daughter was absent in Scotland by the Doctors evidence now gentlemen will you consider those facts and the problem confronting this lad. There is a code known as unwritten law which condones actions ~~framed or in so~~ which conflict with Statutary law. This case before you now comes under that category. Pte Beard absented his pass because his obligations to his family necessitated his doing so. In the particular circumstances now made known to the court I consider that the accused acted both in the best interests of his home ~~circle~~ circle.

QUESTION TO THE ACCUSED
"Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence upon oath. You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and maybe given in evidence."

A. Yes Sir, I wish to give evidence upon oath.

The accused A/28004 Gnr. Leaman, G.W. having been duly sworn states:-

On 29 Nov 43 I was asked by an Italian party if I could provide accomodation for a female friend of his who was slightly ill and was waiting for her brother to come and fetch her at 1900 hrs. I did so knowing full well that I was taking more chances than I should have done, but there was a young lad with her at all times and I myself did not stay in the building after I had let her in. I did not enter the building again until I opened the canteen at approximately 1705 hrs. At 1730 hrs R.S.M. McGowan and Sgt. Tremblay came in and found the young lady on my bed. I did not know they were there as I was busy getting the canteen supplies ready for the evening. The young lady's brother appeared at 1900 hrs but as she had already gone, I explained the story to him and gave him the things she had left behind.

The Defending Officer addresses the court: "The motive of the accused was a good motive. He felt that the girl was sick and had nowhere to go. The young Italian boy was with her throughout. Her freedom from venereal disease is testimony to her good character. The accused's statement was not questioned by the Prosecution. No conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline has been shown."

The Prosecutor addresses the court: "The accused is charged with having a woman in his quarters, nothing else. This has been proved beyond any shadow of a doubt. There can be no question that this is a military offence".

Questioned by the Court: "My immediate superior officer is Supervisor R.F. Guyton whom I saw within half an hour of accommodating the young woman. I spent about an hour that afternoon helping Supervisor R.F. Guyton at the theatre. I did not say a word to him about the woman in my quarters because it did not occur to me. There is valuable equipment and supplies in the canteen and when I went out and locked the entrance to the canteen at 1305 Hrs. I did not lock my quarters so that the young woman and the youth would have had access to the entire canteen in my absence. The nearest N.A.A.F.I. is about 200 yards from the canteen on the same street."

On the night of 28 Nov 43 I was on duty as a sentry. At approximately 1900 Hrs. I saw the accused across the street from my post. He was talking to an Italian. I saw the Italian leave a few moments later carrying a parcel.

subject to cross-examination if he gives evidence on oath.

First Witness (the accused) A28004 Gnr. Leaman, G.W. having been sworn states: "I am A28004 Gnr. Leaman, G.W. attached to 2 Cdn. Med. Regt., R.C.A. I am employed by the Canadian Legion War Services as canteen manager (military helper) at the 2 Cdn. Med. Regt. canteen where I have my quarters. At approximately 1230 Hrs 29-Nov-43 I was on the street just outside the canteen and was asked by an Italian youth if I could provide accommodation for a girl and her brother until 1900 Hrs. when (as I understood) they were to leave for Messina. I did not think there was any harm in doing so and asked to see the parties concerned. They were brought to me and the young woman in my opinion looked feverish and very tired. I agreed to let them rest in my room until 1900 Hrs. I left the premises at about 1305 Hrs. and locked the building up with the woman and youth inside. I went to the main barracks, then to the theatre where the Cdn. Legion Supervisor, Supervisor R.F. Ainton, was working. I left the Supervisor at about 1435 Hrs. and went to a laundry, returning to the main barracks for supper. I did not return to the canteen until 1700 Hrs. when I opened it up. From the time I opened the canteen until the RSM appeared there the canteen was filled with troops. After the young woman had been removed at approximately 1900 Hrs, I met an Italian who had been with the young woman at noon. I met him on the street outside the canteen. I gave him a bundle that had been left by the girl when she was removed."

Cross-Examined: "I had never seen the young woman or any of her companions prior to 1230 Hrs. 29-Nov-43. I speak a very little bit of Italian. I considered the young woman to be feverish and I am qualified to know because I hold am qualified to act as an interpreter. I asked this girl if she was ill and she said that she was not ill. I asked her what she had been doing in a soldier's billet and she replied that she did not know. It was not until after curfew on the night of 29. Nov. 43 that we could get this young woman admitted to the local prison. Prior to admission she fought and struggled violently with the police officers who had her in custody. I was with this young woman until she was lodged in the civil jail."

Cross-Examined: "When I reported to the governor of the prison on 30. Nov. 43 he informed me that he had released the young woman in question that morning as she had been examined by the prison doctor and had been found to be free of venerial disease. The governor said that he had sent her to her home in Piedemonte. I spoke to the prison doctor & verified this.

Not Questioned by the Court.

The court satisfies itself that the young woman concerned in the evidence of the third witness for the Prosecution, H29072 Pte. Halayko, E.W. is in fact the same woman who was stated in the evidence of the first and second witness for the Prosecution, B17527 R.S.M. (W.O.I) McGowan, D. and L6336 T/Sgt. Tremblay, L.T. as having been found in the accused's bed.

D3. PROSECUTION (continued).

Second Witness L6336 L/Sgt. Tremblay, L.T. having been sworn states: "I am L6336 L/Sgt. Tremblay, L.T. of the 2nd Medium Regiment, R.C.A. to which the accused (whom I recognize) belongs. At approximately 1730 Hrs 29 Nov 43 I was ordered by B2.8004 R.S.M. (W.O. I) McGowan, D. to accompany him, as regimental orderly sergeant, to the accused's quarters. We entered the accused's room and found a young native girl in the bed. Her age would be about 14 years. The R.S.M. sent me to get the accused who was in the next room. I brought the accused into the room where the R.S.M. questioned him. We subsequently took the girl out of the building, placed her under escort and turned her over to the Canadian Provost Corps".

Examined: "~~Did you notice any belongings of the girl in~~ The girl's coat was on a chair near the bed and her shoes were lying nearby".

Cross-Examined: "The girl was fully clothed except for her shoes and coat. I did not notice any one else in the room at time of entry. I did notice that a young lad was standing near the side door entrance at the time of our arrival at the building".

Not Re-Examined.

Questioned by the Court: "The age of this young lad would in my opinion be about 15 or 16 years".

Third Witness H29072 Pte. Halayko, E.W. having been duly sworn states: "I am H29072 Pte. Halayko E.W. No3 Coy., Cdn. Provost Corps. I have never seen the accused before to my knowledge. At about 1500 Hrs. 29 Nov 43 having been out on duty I returned to my H.Q. where I found a young woman in custody. First Witness B17527 R.S.M. (W.O.I) Mc Gowan, D having been sworn states: "I am B17527 R.S.M. Mc Gowan, D of 2 Cdn. Med. Regt. R.C.A. to which the accused (whom I recognize) belongs. At 1730 Hrs 29-Nov-43 I inspected the accused's quarters. He was not present at the time but was close by. I was accompanied by L63364 Sgt. Tremblay, L.T. There was a mosquito net covering the accused's bed which I lifted aside. I found a woman in the bed. She was a native girl of 16 or 17 years of age and was underneath the blankets. I pulled the blankets back and found her to be wearing a light street dress. I ordered her out of the bed and had her put on her shoes and coat which were lying close by. I removed her forcibly from the premesis and, putting an escort in charge of her, had her turned over to the Provost Corps. At the moment that I discovered the girl I sent Sgt. Tremblay, L.T. for the accused who was nearby. I asked the accused why this woman was in his quarters. He stated that she had arrived that morning and that he had permitted her to remain and that she was leaving for Catania at seven o'clock that evening."

Examined: "The accused was in a small room close by in the same building at the time the woman was discovered."

Cross-Examined: "At the time I entered the room there was no one other than the woman in the room but there was a small boy in the next room just at the door. The quarters referred to where the woman was found are in the building in which this court is now sitting."

Not Re-Examined.

Questioned by the Court: "I knew the woman was in the accused's bed because I knew where the accused slept from a previous inspection. I knew that the accused was nearby when I discovered the woman because I saw the accused when I entered the building."

In that camp he soon developed a feeling of opression and thought that he was being "buggered" about — So he thought he would go and have a good time for a change.

Well gentlemen he did — but I am asking you to overlook it — on the grounds that he has already done 2 y's 8 1/2 months of severe imprisonment in the hand of our enemies — plus twenty-two days in the Guard Room awaiting this trial. This is his first crime; and, for a man in his condition, not a bad one. As he only wants his discharge, to lock him up for such an offence, after what he has been through, would be an injustice. Gentlemen I am asking you to forgive him on these grounds, and also, that he has already suffered too much.

PLEA IN MITIGATION

L/Cpl. KREKAS, J. P.

He is a volunteer - he joined March 1940. In July '40 he was in ICELAND in October '40 in ENGLAND.

He took part in the DIEPPE Raid - was wounded on the beach and taken prisoner. For ~~2½~~ two years ~~and~~ eight and a half months he was a P.O.W. - with all that entails - scanty food opressive treatment - etc.

He was one of the Canadians chained. For 13 months - the first three with ropes binding his wrists - the next ten in French handcuffs.

Then from Stalag 8B he was moved to Stalag 2D in POMERANIA. When the Russians advanced and endangered the camp they were forced to march WEST for three months 18 - 20 miles a day on a diet of potato soup and a chunk of black bread. As they neared HANOVER they again turned EAST to escape the Americans. One night shortly before his liberation they were compelled to do a force march of 50 Kilos.

However he was soon liberated and flown to a Hospital in ENGLAND. Here he stayed two weeks and was given an "S" Category.

Third Witness: L-27216 Pte. Grimschied, P. 11 Bn, 2 C.B.R.G., having been duly sworn, states:
On the evening of the 24 Feb 45 at about 2000 hrs I was in Maxie's Cafe, 13 Petite Rue de la Station Straat, Ghent. I noticed three Canadian soldiers arguing with the manager trying to get him to accompany them outside. I recognize Pte. Switzer and Pte. Leakey as being two of the three soldiers. Pte. Switzer had an R.P. armband on his left arm. When the manager refused to go outside, Pte. Switzer took him be the arm and Pte Leakey pushed him from behind and they forced him outside. He was out about 20 minutes. About 2200 hours two of the soldiers came back. They were Pte. Leakey and Pte. Switzer. Pte. Switzer approached the manager and asked him to go outside again with them. He refused to go. The two soldiers then went outside. I later identified these two soldiers at Provost H.Q. as the same ones who had accosted the proprietor. The first time I saw Pte. Leakey and Pte Switzer in the cafe they were drunk.

Cross examined by the accused.

Fourth Witness: L-2319 L/Cpl. Olson, L.B., 2 Cdn L. of C. Provost Coy., Ghent Det., having been duly sworn states:
At about 2030 hrs 24 Feb 45 on infromation received and accompanied by L/Cpl. Sibley I proceeded to Maxie's Cafe, Klein Station Straat, Ghent. I was informed that two Canadian soldiers had caused a disturbance and taken some money from the manager. The soldiers had left before I arrived. At about 2150 hrs same night we were notified that they had returned and accompanied by L/Cpl. Sibley I returned to the cafe. Two soldiers were pointed out to me by a lady from the cafe as the two soldiers who had previously caused the disturbance. These two soldiers were standing on the street outside the cafe. The soldiers were taken to Det H.Q. where they were identified by the manager of the cafe. I recognize Pte. Switzer and Pte. Leakey as the two soldiers I arrested. Both soldiers were searched by the orderly Cpl in my presence at Det H.Q. On Pte. Leakey's person was 445 francs, on Pte Switzer's person 140 francs.

Summary of Evidence in the case of C-1361 Pte Philip Leslie SWITZER K-4 List, 58 Coy, 13 Bn, 2 C.B.R.C. a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas charged with:

Charge: (i) Creating a disturbance A.A. 41(5)
(ii) Committing a civil offence - attempted robbery A.A. 41(5)

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence to be taken under oath.

First Witness: Montho Janopullo, Ykstr 10, Ghent been duly sworn states I am Montho Janopullo, Ykstr 10, Ghent, manager of Maxie's Cafe, 13 Petite Rue de Lastation. On 24 Feb 45 at approximately 2030 hours I came out of my kitchen into the bar and noticed three Canadian soldiers arguing with the waitress about their bill. One of them whom I recognize as Pte. Switzer, took an armband out of his tunic bearing the letters R.P. and claimed to be a policeman. He then ordered me to follow him outside. The three soldiers, Pte. Switzer and Pte. Leakey, whom I recognize and the other forced me to leave the cafe, one pulling me by the arm, the other two pushing me. When we got outside, Pte. Switzer and Pte. Leakey, stayed with me, the other returned into the cafe. Pte. Switzer and Pte. Leakey demanded 4000 francs as far as I could understand and threatened to hit me if I didn't give it to them. To avoid being beaten up, I gave them 200 francs. The third soldier came out and I escaped while the three were arguing. When the Canadian Provost arrived the soldiers had gone. Pte. Switzer and Pte. Leakey came back later at about 2150 hours. Pte Switzer grabbed me by the wrist but immediately let go and he and Pte. Leakey went outside where they were arrested by the Canadian Provost. Pte. Switzer and Pte. Leakey were identified by me at H.Q. of the Canadian Military Police later. From the start both Pte. Leakey and Pte. Switzer were drunk.

(Montho Janopullo)

The accused declines to cross examine the witness.

Second Witness: B-67878 L/Cpl. Sibley, R.B. 2 Can L. of C. Provost Coy., Ghent Det. having been duly sworn, states: At approximately 2050 hours, 24 Feb 45 we received a call to Maxie's Cafe. On arrival there we were informed that two Canadians had created a disturbance and taken some money from the manager. I was accompanied by L/Cpl. Olson. The soldiers had gone. At approximately 2150 hours 24 Feb 45 the proprietor sent for us as the two men concerned had returned. L/Cpl. Olson and I proceeded to the cafe and on arrival the two soldiers were pointed out to me as being the two concerned in the earlier disturbance. I recognize Pte. Switzer and Pte. Leakey as being the two soldiers pointed out to me just outside the door of the cafe. We apprehended them then and escorted them to Det. H.Q. where they were identified by the manager of the cafe and two other witnesses of the earlier disturbance, whom I later learned to be Tpr Bell and Pte. Girmschied.

Cross examined by the accused.

Question: Approximately how far from the cafe were we when we were pointed out to you?

Answer: You were standing in front of the door.

Question: By whom were we pointed out?

E3/ Plea in mitigation by the defending officer.

Gentlemen,

These two lads, C44659 Pte Leakey G.A. and C1381 Pte Switzer P.L., have both served with the Canadian army in the field and in actual contact with enemy forces. Pte Switzer was 5 months and 27 days in the field with 15th fld regt. RCA. and fought through France, Belgium, and into Holland. Of his own will, he then applied for transfer into the infantry because he felt he could do more. The request was granted, and he was awaiting draft at the time he was arrested. In his four years of service, he has had his bits of trouble as any spirited youth will have and as his conduct sheet shows — but not once has it shown any signs of badness in the lads character. Pte Leakey has had a shorter army career, but has also been to the front in Holland where he took sick and was repatriated and was awaiting draft back to his unit at the time he was arrested. In his year and nearly one month of service, he has had but one minor offence of a few hours absence without leave. The two had met and been buddies in the army. They met again on the 2nd of February 1945, both expecting to go to their respective units at the front any minute. They decided, as you or I would have done, to taste the occasion which they did, and from the evidence, too well. This is not uncommon in this part of the world, nor is the state of drunkenness to which they succumbed ~~I suppose~~ ~~they were drunk, staggering~~ ~~after~~ ~~the parade with which they are accused took~~ ~~place and were not responsible for their~~

but this is not such a case. In cases it is required by practice almost amounting to a rule in law that some evidence of accomplice shall be looked for though not strictly required by law or precedent

The court in the first charge may

1) Find the accused guilty of Robbery
2) ~~Guilty of~~ Attempted Robbery
3) ~~Guilty of~~ Assault with intent to rob.
4) not ~~Guilty~~

If the court finds the accused not guilty on the first charge, they may consider the second charge. To prove the second charge the prosecutor must prove that the acts alleged or some of them did happen and that they constitute Consent to the Purposes of good order and Military Discipline

That is all I have to say unless the Court or the Prosecutor or Defending Officer require some explanation on some question I may have overlooked

Mr President have you any question to me?
Mr Prosecutor have you any question to me?
Mr Defending Officer have you any question to me?

The offence of Robbery has two names, The offence is defined in
M. M L. P 106. Sec 9. [Read]

To find the accused guilty, if all ingredients of Robbery are present, the court may convict both, even though the court should find that one actually did the robbing provided they acted with common intent and the other assisting the principal [M M L p 107 Sec 16
+ 17. read]

At the outset of this discussion the court must remember that it is a principle of English law that the accused is presumed to be innocent until he is proved guilty and that the burden of proof rests upon the prosecution Unless therefore the guilt of the accused has been established beyond a reasonable doubt the accused must be acquitted
A by a reasonable doubt that is some doubt based on the facts of the case and not some doubt which is purely imaginary.

Generally speaking, it is legally open to a court to convict on sworn person upon the sworn of one credible witness. In some cases corroboration is required by law

The manager also stated they were drunk and in his opinion did not know what they were doing but he could not be sure. The accused did apparently often go to Jones from room and he stated he gave it in fear.

The second witness Pte Tubby recognised the accused the room the accused were under the influence of liquor and spent strongly of it and were both sick at times. But thought they knew what they were doing, they could walk in a normal manner and carry on a rational conversation

The third witness is Pte Hemmerton, he saw the accused on the 20th on the evening of 24 Feb 45. It was crowded. He saw the accused, and stated Pte Smith pushed the manager by the arm and Pte Tubby pushed him.

He saw the accused when they came out the second time. He stated the second time they were in worse condition. His evidence corroborates the evidence of the first witness as to what occured on the corps He states they were drunk, but must have known what they were doing.

The final charge is Perjury and is against Aubrey - p. 597. Proof

Judge Edwards Addresses the Court Summing Up.

I want to point out that it is part of my duty as Judge Advocate to sum up the evidence and advise the court as to the law.

The court is however the sole judge of the facts over anything I say now, or while say or may previously have said indicating my personal views as to the facts should be entirely disregarded.

The court and the court alone is the sole judge of the facts

The evidence seems quite clear cut. The accused is charged. The corporal manager complains the accused and others on the evening of the 24th of September they found him outside of his cafe where they threatened him, and asked for 4000 francs. He gave them 250 francs. The manager states he does not understand English understanding only he means 4000 francs. This was another relevant point which is not mentioned but does not seem to have a great effect to do on the case.

The manager states he was afraid and for that reason he gave the 250 francs. He does however state at one point he gave them the money to get rid of them because they were drunk, and he was more afraid because they were drunk as a friendly one and went off with the money. There was no intent to do bodily harm or frighten money out of him. He could very easily had help in case the two did start to do him bodily harm.

On the alternative charge of creating a disturbance. Witness brought out very little of any disturbance in the Cafe. Quite a number of people in the Cafe and manager could very easily have called for help. He did not need to go out in the first place - need not to have been forced. I contend these two men are not guilty of either charge.

Summing up by Judge Advocate
(struck hasty.)

Summing up by the defending Officer

First of all we will set aside for the moment the idea these two chaps were drunk. I don't think it matters a great deal because the first witness, in that, by his own admissions and from what we have seen ourselves is not capable of defining or knowing these men were threatening him for the purpose of getting 4000 francs or borrowing that amount. He could not understand them. If they were under the influence when putting their plan over to the manager, he may have thought they were threatening because they are foreigners to him. I don't think the court should consider this man capable of forming an opinion as to what threat was - there was no actual harm - he jumped to a conclusion gave them 250 francs and told them to "scram". We can't tell if intended to pay back or not they were arrested right afterwards. You have evidence the accused were at 13 Bn and ready to go up and they went on a spree. All witnesses claimed they were under the influence and may have taken the managers gesture that the accused was sober enough to know what they were doing.

Drunkenness caused by a person's own voluntary act does not of itself excuse him from criminal liability.

Unless drunkenness renders the accused incapable of forming the specific intent essential to constitute the crime charged, or the evidence of drunkenness falls short of this, it merely establishes that the mind of the accused affected by drink more readily gives way to some violent passion and doesn't rebut the presumption that a man intends the natural consequences of his actions.

As for the 2nd charge, two witnesses told the court that the accused both of them, forced the manager of Nagi's Cafe outside on the 24 Feb 45 one by the arm, one pushing him. This in itself is quite enough for to be armed in a disturbance in Nagi's Cafe on 24 Feb 45

One witness testified that the manager was threatened + had to give the accused 250 Bely francs.

These facts are the very particulars of the same charge 21/3/45

"Robbery consists in the felonious & forcible taking from the person of another, or in his presence or against his will of any money or goods to any value, by violence or putting him into fear. Robbery is an aggravated form of stealing from the person accompanied by violence or threats of injury to the person robbed or to his property." The intent of stealing shall also be proved

According to the testimony of Pte Jansfills the accused on the 24 Feb 45 appr. at 2030 hrs together joined him to leave the Cafe, one pulling him by the arm, the other two pushing him. As far as he could understand, by their gestures and threats, they threatened to hit him if he did not give them their faces. To avoid being beaten up he gave them 250 frs, against his will. They had put him into fear, so he had to give the money.

Having money to anyone against his own will to avoid being beaten up is the same thing as stealing from the person accompanied by violence which is robbery.

The intent of stealing here is obvious. Two men came into a cafe, forced the manager out, threaten to hit him if he does'nt give them money, take the money 250 frs he has to give them; they keep the money go away with the money and never returned it. All these facts prove 1) the felonious & forcible taking from the person 2) against his will 3) by putting him into fear 4) intent of stealing 5) the carrying away of the object stolen.

The testimony of Mr Jansfills is corroborated partly by Pte Sermochard and by circumstances (accused were under the influence of liquor & it is fact that they forced the manager out of the cafe and stayed out with him for a while, also they were belligerent

L/Cpl Lebby told the court that at the time of the arrest the accused both of them, in his opinion knew what they were doing. They were under the influence of liquor but to his mind they were sober enough to know what they were doing around 2215 hrs.

Pte Sermochard ~~testified~~ said that at around 2045 hrs he in person the accused knew what they were doing. According to the same witness the condition of the accused was such the accused knew what they were doing

L/Cpl said that at 2230 hrs the accused knew what they were doing

Summing up of Judge Advocate
On Submission of Defending Officer

I advise the Court that the alternative charge is a proper alternative.

In considering a submission by a defending officer at the close of the case for the prosecution that a prima facie case for the prosecution has not been established against the accused the Court should disallow the submission if there is evidence which reasonably would justify a finding of guilty, that is more than a scintilla of evidence which supports the charge and which the Court at this stage are not prepared to disbelieve.

The Court in considering the application by the Defending officer is acting as Judge and jury and need not consider or assess credibility of witnesses or whether the prosecution has established its case beyond a reasonable doubt.

The robbery of such, and the disturbance of such took place in different spots and different times.

Reply by prosecutor

The Court has heard the facts and the evidence and I will leave it to the Court to decide whether or not a prima facie case has been established.

Summing up by the prosecutor
(attached hereto) pages 11 + 12.

Pte Switzer had manager by the arm and accused Pte Bailey was pushing him. When I first saw accused persons in cafe they were swaying when they walked. When two accused were talking to the manager on the first occasion I was about 8 yds from them. There were many people in the cafe at the time. Martin's is an average sized cafe.

R.P. 83(B) complied with

DB. L 2319 L/Cpl Olson L-B. who was a witness at the summary of evidence is not now available and the defence does not require the witness for cross-examination.

D4 Motion by the defending Officer

At this time I would like to submit that the prosecution has failed to establish a prima facie case in that the offence of robbery has not been proved as laid down in the definition in MML p122 and I'd further like to submit that the alternative chge as set forth is irrelevant and should be struck out in that it does not follow through from the primary charge as laid down in R.P. MML 1 pag 699 drunks. Some act different. In my opinion I would say two accused were drunk when I saw them. They were not creating much of a disturbance. I did not hear accused threaten the proprietor in any way. I would not say they were threatening him they just demanded him to go outside with them with a gesture. The accused appeared to be, I would say, on a belligerent frame of mind. I wouldn't say they were belligerent towards one another, not towards a waitress. I did not see them "buzzy" a drink. I saw nothing of what happened outside.

Re-examination

It looked as though the manager refused to go outside. It seemed he was dubious as to whether to go or not. When one soldier pushing manager and the another had him by the arm ~~the~~ he did not appear to be resisting but was a little slow. I would say the accused persons forced the manager outside of the cafe.

By the Court

When the accused persons returned to cafe the second time I think their condition was worse than on the first occasion it was the first time. The accused

The proprietor seemed reluctant to go One of soldiers had him by the arm and other persuaded him from behind. (Witness identified 2 accused as the two soldiers) He went outside with them and returned alone in about 20 minutes. Later about 2200 hrs the same two soldiers returned to cafe and again demanded the proprietor to go out, and when he refused to go this time the two soldiers went away. I was taken up to Provost HQ where I identified the two soldiers as the accused. When I first saw accused persons they appeared to be drunk to me. They seemed the same as most act when drunk. I cannot give you any reasons to prove they were drunk. They were not steady on their feet for one thing I did not hear them speak from where I was. They must have known what they were doing but they appeared to be drunk to me.

Cross-examination

As far as being in a drunken sense I mean they must have known what they were doing. I have been drunk. I have experienced a period during which I did not know what was happening. I am not an authority but I have seen many

Cross-examination

At time I arrived on scene no disturbance was taking place. They ~~were~~ two accused were just standing outside of the place. They were not arguing. I did not hear them speak. I did not in any way test their degree of intoxication. They came with me willingly. They did not have to be helped. About the had elapsed from time of alleged offence until we picked them up. In my opinion they could have been drunk one hour previously.

By the Court

The accused were able to walk in normal manner. They were able to carry on a rational conversation. Pte Bell and another soldier were the other two who identified the accused persons. Cpl Olson was the other Provost with me that night.

R.P. 83(6) complied with.

I recognize the two accused persons. They were in Matias Cafe on 24 Feb 45 at approx 2000 hrs. That was the first time they came in. I first saw them they were demanding the proprietor to go out with them. I had not heard what they had said

I recognize the two accused persons. On 14 Feb 45 we arrived at ~~Mathie's~~ cafe about 2030 hrs and saw the cafe manager and as result of conversation learned that two soldiers had left. At approx 2200 hrs as result of information received we returned to the cafe and two soldiers were pointed out to us as being concerned in the earlier disturbance. The cafe manager pointed out the soldiers. We apprehended them and escorted them to Detach Hdq. where they were identified by the manager of the cafe and two other witnesses. I would say both accused persons were under the influence of liquor. They smelled ~~both~~ strongly of liquor and were both sick after we took them in. It appeared to me that they knew what they were doing. They were sober enough to know what they were doing when we saw them. I saw both accused searched at Hdq that night. I believe Pte Hintzen had approx 540 francs and Pte Leakey had approx ~~220~~ "120" francs. ~~Pte Leakey~~".

they did not take it away from me I gave it to them

By the Court

Before I gave them the money. They were making gestures by showing their fists and making gestures to touch me but they never did. I was afraid that if I did not give them the money they would hit me. I was very afraid because they were drunk. If they had not been drunk I would not have been so afraid. I was not there when accused were drinking in my Cafe. I gave 250 francs to one who had the R.P. band (witness indicates, Sentry) I was the manager of Marie's Cafe at that time, but I am no longer there. The reason I was afraid because they were drunk, a man who is drunk is more apt to hit and if I started to fight with them they might pull out a knife or a gun. There was no evidence of weapons on these men. If I had been sure they were not armed but I was not, it might have been easier to evade a fight with a drunk man than a sober one. I gave these men 250 francs just to get rid of them one of them was being sick. When forced out of the cafe I stayed there 2 or 3 minutes. They were holding me by the arms. I didn't try to go away but when they started their discussion they released their grip and so then I got away. The money was not returned to me and I never saw it after.

RP 83(B) complied with.

Cross-examination

I cannot speak English at all. I don't understand English I can catch a word here and there but not enough for conversation. I did not phone for the P. Two women notified them a few minutes before I went to Police Station. They were drunk but to what degree I couldn't say. I think that they were too drunk to know what they were doing, but I couldn't say for sure. I understand the word 4000 thousand in English. I could not say if they wanted to borrow 4000 francs all I could say is that they wanted 4000 francs. They were not the gestures of a drunk trying to explain things to me. They were menacing gestures. I can tell difference between gestures of a drunk and menacing gestures. When he shows ~~fi~~ his fist I said I gave accused 250 francs. That was just to get rid of them.

understand them. I could understand that they were asking for 4000 francs. Then to get rid of them I gave them 250 francs. At that moment the 3rd soldier came back to us. Then they started discussion together and I took advantage of that moment to leave. I went to Cdn Mil Police and Police had already been notified by two women who had left the cafe. 203 members of the Police came with me to the cafe, but the soldiers were gone. About 3/4 hr later the two accused persons came back to the cafe. They wanted to take me again but they left me right away. I think it was because there was a security police there. The two soldiers went out of cafe and that security policeman went after them, and a few minutes later the same security policeman came back in the cafe. I then went to Provost Mth. and identified the two accused. The two accused had been drinking I don't think they knew what they were doing as I couldn't say how drunk they were. I think they did not know what they were doing because I could see they had been drinking because they were swaying from one side to the other and when I was at the Police station

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on.....charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)

(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)

(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

Summary of Evidence in the case of B-159012 Pte LEAHY SL 1st Bn Black Watch RHR of C, attached to 1 Cdn Disciplinary Centre, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

Plea in Mitigation.

I would ask the Court to take into very serious consideration the fact that this is the first offence of any kind that the accused has committed. He is a first offender.

The accused joined the Blackwatch the later part of Oct. 44 and served continuously with it until he went A.W.L. A man can not be blamed if he gets kyd jumpy after such a period. He has asked for a leave in Jan. but had not met with any success in getting it. He did not go A.W.L. from the line but from rest. He surrendered himself when his money was gone and when his so-called friends were no longer around him. He did not endeavour to support himself by illegal activities.

The accused is not an incorrigible sinner but a man who is honestly sorry for his mistake.

I ask the Court to extend all leniency to the accused. He is not married and has his life to make. He is only 22½ yrs old. I ask the Court to give him a good second chance. I am sure he will prove worthy of it.

Thank you Capt.

WITNESS ON OATH

B. 159012 Pte LEAHY S.L. 1 BN BLACK WATCH
Witness is sworn.

I have not had any other crimes in the army.
I have never been up for any offence.
This is my first offence.
I joined the B W in the latter part of OCT 1944.
I was continuously with the B.W until I went A.W.L.
I had not had any leave.
I had asked for it but it was not granted.
I was feeling rather jumpy at the time I went A.W.L. I did not go to the M.O because I figured it would not do me any good.
My unit was in a rest area when I went A.W.L.
I only figured on being away a few days I was not sure whether my unit would be there when I got back.
I was not very keen at the time to get back. I did not try to find my unit again.
I stayed away because I figured that I needed a rest and was going to eventually in when I met some of my chasers & came to Ghent.
I returned because I figured that I was gone long enough and wanted to get back.
I did not have any thing to do with the Black-market. I did not have very much money when I went back.

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. Plea for Mitigation of Sentence.

B-15902 - Pte Leahy, L. F. (R.S.R.).

It is the duty of the Court so justly try the accused and when found guilty to impose a sentence. A glance at his conduct sheet will show his enlistment on Feb 14. He was in battle 6 months later ~~in France~~ Europe. More than a year has gone before this soldier commits his first crime. Should a sentence be given as to disgust him with Army justice. While the object of the punishment is to make right his crime and to correct any further ~~tendencies~~ tendency to stray from the correct line of behaviour, it must be taken ~~into~~ into account the time he has been in the Army, his service on the fighting line and what is necessary to justly punish him for his offence.

A clean sheet in the record of the accused, should a first entry, by be one of a hardened criminal. I do not think so. One look at the accused is sufficient to satisfy the Court that he has had enough punishment just by going through this trial.

I am sure the Court will take all these points into consideration and be exceptionally lenient in the sentence.

B – 18902 – Pte Leahy, S. L. (R.H.R.).

The evidence given by the accused leaves no doubt whatsoever of his intentions of returning to his unit. He absented himself from his unit for a few days only. The very normal & human conduct followed of anyone enjoying himself is that he stayed away longer than he originally intended. He frequently wanted to report back and finally did so. The evidence given leave no doubt that the accused is not guilty of desertion.

Gentlemen:-

In reply to a question asked by the accused regarding if he knew that he would be leaving for the front line before 6 days, and he definately answered in the affirmative. Yet knowing this he persisted in keeping away from his Unit. Definately gentlemen, as yet the soldier has not seen very much action during the four months, if you remember, the Can. Army was then on a static position.

Furthermore gentlemen, I am still in the opinion that if the accused had had enough money to see him through instead of asking his friends, he would not have surrendered himself.

Thanks gentlemen, I would ask you to consider these facts in your findings.

Reply to Submission

B-159012 - Pvt Leahy SL (RHP of C)

Gentlemen.

In view of the fact that the defense did not bring out any point to prove the intentions of the accused, leaving the court still in doubt whether he had some definately reason to return or not. I would ask the court to leave the charge of Desertion. Stand as is.

Respectfully
Prosecution.

Request for Submission.

B-59012 - Pte Leahy, S. T. (RHR)

It is felt that the Prosecution has failed to prove a prima facie case in that no intentions of deserting by the accused has been brought forward by the Prosecution. This with the fact that the accused surrendered should erase any doubt in the mind of the Court as to the accused intention of deserting. Thus I request that the charges of desertion be dismissed.

The defence sums up.

I was in Holland, in Nijmegen, - where I met a couple of my chums. I came to Belgium with them. I was going to turn myself in every day but something happened & I didn't. I wanted to go back to my regiment & finally I turned myself in. I surrendered in Ghent.

Cross examination by Prosecuting Officer: -

I was in action from the last of October until the begining of March. My nerves were shot but I did not go to see the M.O. because I didn't think it would do any good. I went AWL because my nerves were bad & I thought six days rest would help. My unit was in a rest area when I went A.W.L. We had been in rest area about 1 day when I went A.W.L. I did not know how long the unit would be in rest, but I had a good idea it would not be there after six days. I went to Nijmegen first & then to Ghent. I had two hundred guilders, which lasted me about a month. I ~~earned~~ obtained money from friends in Ghent the rest of the time. I lived in billets & private homes, & did not have a girl. I turned myself in because I figured I had been gone long enough & I wanted to go back to my unit. If I had lots of money I would not have remained longer - I would have turned myself in anyway.

Cross examined by court:

I was in Nijmegen only a few days - &

Exhibit B – Certificate under A.H. Sec 53 (3)(j) of the surrender of B 154012 Pte Leahy S.L.

The prosecution closes.

The defending officer applies for a dismissal on the grounds that the prosecution has failed to make out a prima facie case.

The court closes to consider the submission. The court reopens & the President announces the submission has been disallowed.

The accused elects to give evidence on oath.

The accused B 154012 Pte Leahy S.L. having been duly sworn states:—

Since I came to the continent in October I have been in action at the front all the time. I asked for a leave and I had not received one. My nerves were getting pretty bad so I thought I would take a holiday. When I came out I only thought of staying a few days, five or six days.

First Witness for Prosecution.
A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:

(See RP 40 fns 8-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 61.)
(vi) Closing address by Prosecutor. (See RP 40 fn 7, 87(C), 92(C) (D). Prosecutor has no right to address Court on subject of sentence except as provided by RP 40(E), KR Can 563(a).)

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans.....(5)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex.....,initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

I went back to the guard room and asked Sgt Welsh if he knew a good defending officer he recommended Capt Bethersy Paymaster who was a lawyer in civil life in the town where Sgt Welsh came from. I got in touch with him and he was willing to accept my case I then informed Major Rodsen.

The same afternoon Sgt Welsh was paraded before Major Rodsen for being a barrack room lawyer.

I was kept under close arrest from Nov 15 until Dec 29. a total of 44 days, and during that time I was doing full duty as kitchen fatigue man, while I was awaiting trial, two other men commit the same offence but were only charged with (Neglect of duty)

On Dec 15 I was told my court would sit Dec 22 I informed my defending officer.

On the 21st of Dec I was told that the date had been changed until Dec 29. So the B.S.M. phoned my officer for me to inform him of the change in dates, the officer informed him that he could not appear as he is paymaster and had to pay out on that day, but to have to court cancelled, any where from Jan 2 to the 12th.

I asked Major Rodsen if the date could be changed he told me no, but that he would get a defending officer for me.

When the court sat on Dec 29 the defending officer done nothing on my defence

I went back to the guard room and asked Sgt Welsh if he knew a good defending officer he recommended Capt Nethercy Paymaster who was a lawyer in civil life in the town where Sgt Welsh came from. I got in touch with him and he was willing to accept my case. The same afternoon Sgt Welsh was paraded before Major Rodeen for being a barrack room lawyer.

I was kept under close arrest from Nov 15 until Dec 29, a total of 44 days, and during that time I was doing full duty as ketchen fatigue man, while I was awaiting trial two other men commit the same offence but were only charged with Neglect of Duty.

On Dec 15 I was take my court martial Dec 22 I informed my defending officer.

On the 21st of Dec I was informed that the date had been changed until Dec 29, so the B.S.M. phoned my officer for me to inform him of the changeing dates, the officer informed him that he could not appear as he is paymaster and had to pay out on that day, but to have to court cancelled, any time from Dec 2 to the 12th.

down, most of the time there was never any one there to relieve, and no one used to bother.

I was detailed for duty Nov 13 with two other men, the usual procedure was that after disembarking the following morning, upon were giving a pass for that night, we all put in our passes, the other two men received theirs but mine was refused, I did not mind as I really wanted a pass for the 15th a day I had arrangments made for.

The following day the 15th, I again put in a pass expecting to get it for sure. At about 11 00 hrs. I was told by Lt Kobb Captain that I was again on picquet.

The point is why should I be put on duty, whilst the other two men who were on duty with me on Nov 13 and who received their passes on the 14th were not put on in my place.

I went to my post at 1700 hrs and at about 1745 hrs I left my post to go and keep the arrangements that I had made for that night.

I reported back to camp 3½ hrs later. On Nov 17 I was paraded before Major Rodier charged with.

1) Whilst a soldier on active service acting as sentinal leaving his post without a proper relief.

2) Absent 3½ hrs.

He asked me if I had any thing to say, I told him about my passes, and asked to see the Colonel, he refused my request and

Jan 20-1943.

Sir.

The following is the reason for all the crimes that I have been involved in, in the past year.

In April of 1941 the battery went into the field under the command of Major E. M. Dodson, an officer who has hated me for the 4 years ever since he was a lieutenant in the P.F in peace time, and I was under his command.

When I arrived overseas in December of 1940, I intended to keep a clean crime sheet and to try for advancement, I kept my crime sheet clean from Dec 1940 until Nov 1941, but I was given no chance for courses or chances to go on the guns, all I was doing was general fatigues with B.H.Q.

The battery moved up to Rayleigh Essex of October of 1941, I was with B.H.Q as house orderly, and we had duties on M.T. picquet every third night.

There was an N.C.O and three men detailed every night by the B.S.M. at 17 00 hrs the N.C.O would give the man a rifle and tell him to go on the beat, and each fathom relief would relieve the other man on the beat for his

I was told that he received instructions from the Colonel of the 2nd. Regiment to look after the case himself, he then asked me if I would except his punishment. I told him "No"
I told him that I wanted to see the Colonel.
I was then remanded for 24hours.
I came up before the Battery Commander again on Thursday and again refused to except his punishment and asked to see the Colonel. I was again remanded for Field General Court-Martial. He then told me that I was no good as a Gunner or as a man. The Battery Commander seems to hold a grudge against me for some reason or other. I have been with this Battery since it was first formed in October 1937, and have had quite a few charges for A.W.O.L. This is the first charge since I have been in England, a year ago. I have always wanted to get along and ahead in this Battery, but have never been given the chance. I have been doing general fatuges and never been given a chance on any of the gun sites, or a course. I am charged with a serious crime but it is not very serious, for I was given a rifle in the guard room and told to go on the beat. We were given no orders as to where the beat extended or what we were to do.

Q. Had you been on the beat at all ?
A. Yes
Q. Had you taken the duty of a Sentry?
A. I would not say that I had ta ken the duty of a sentry, there was no beat and it was taken for granted that it was the trucks.
Q. Had you at any time guarded the trucks ?
A. Yes.
Q. Could you assume that the beat extended through Rayleigh?
A. No.

I would like to say that I was on duty Thursday night, November 13th. and put in a pass from after duty, Friday, which I did not get. On Saturday of the same week I was again called for duty. The men who were on duty with me Thursday received their passes for Friday, and were not placed on duty again until Saturday night.

On Monday morning I was brought before the Battery Commander, who heard the evidence. He asked me if I had anything to say. I told him about the passes. He said that it was no excuse. I asked him if I could see the Colonel and he said ,
"God damn you Leahy, you are not going to see the Colonel. You are recommended for a Field General Court-Martial."

Persuant to R.P.76

Take notice hereby that the Prosecution in the case of A.35327 Sgt.Leader,V.C.intend to call the following further witnesses to give evidence to the effect as stated below:-

1st WITNESS for the prosecution — D.118891 Gnr. Bain, A., No.1 C.A.R.U., on returning to St. Lucia Main Gate Guard House from sentry duty at about 0100 hours found Sgt. Leader, Bdr. Allardice and the prisoner (from the small cell), all in the main guard room, but that shortly after 0200 hours both the Sgt and the Bdr had left the main guard room and did not return, only leaving the a/m prisoner at the Guard Commander's table on which lay the bunch of keys for the main cell door. Between 0200 and 0345 hours, Gnr. Bain saw the a/m prisoner take a jug of cocoa to the main cell door. At about 0345 hours Gnr. Bain went to sleep but got up again to go to the toilet at 0430 hours and at that time saw neither the Sgt nor the Bdr nor the a/m prisoner in the Main Guard room (nor elsewhere). Gnr. Bain returned to bed and was later awakened at approximately 0500 hours by a member of the guard to go on sentry duty. Also at this time Gnr. Bain saw no signs of the Sgt or Bdr of the guard.

2nd WITNESS for the prosecution — B.131467 Gnr. Crone, D.H., No.1 C.A.R.U., also on sentry duty between 2300 and 0100 hours confirms the evidence of Gnr. Bain.

3rd WITNESS for the prosecution — M.35184 Gnr. Cave, C., a member of the same guard, was on sentry duty from 0300 to 0500 hours and saw neither Sgt. Leader nor Bdr. Allardice in the main guard room before he went out on duty at 0300 hours, nor when he returned shortly after 0500hours. The prisoner, (from the small cell), at 0300 hours was sitting at the guard commander's table, but was not in the Main Guard Room at 0500 hours. This prisoner was the person who waked Gnr. Cave at 0300 hours to tell him to go on sentry duty.

4th WITNESS for the prosecution — M.56586 Gnr. Gunther, A.W., also a member of the same guard, returned to the Main Guard room from sentry duty shortly after 0300 hours and found the prisoner from the small cell at the Guard Commander's table on which lay the keys to the main cell door. Neither the Sgt nor the Bdr were in the main guard room. At about 0900 hours on the 7 May 43, Gnr. Gunther noticed the main cell door was open and the prisoners wandering in and out of the cell.

GUARD REPORT.

Army Form B 160
(LARGE)

Certificate.

Before the old Guard marched off, I took over the soldiers in arrest or under sentence. They were washed and shaved.* The articles in charge of the Guard corresponded with the inventory, and were in good order except those noted on page 4; I received over the Guard-room and everything was in good order; walls, &c., not defaced, except -------- I received a duplicate copy of the previous day's Guard Report. I explained the orders of the Guard to the men before I dismissed them, and to the first relief on its return to the Guard-room. I visited my sentries at intervals by day, and at intervals by night, and found them alert, and acquainted with their orders. I inspected every relief going out and coming in, and found them correct. The Guard was under arms at reveille, retreat and tattoo. On each occasion I inspected the men, and found all present and correct. I sent out patrols at ..... o'clock during the night, which found everything correct. The men's meals were properly served. Each man of the Guard received a cup of hot ..... during the night. The soldiers in arrest or under sentence were visited every two hours, the boots of all charged with drunkenness were removed, and their clothes loosened, before they were placed in confinement.

The Guard was visited by the Field Officer of the day at ..... by day, and at ..... by night.

Q170:- How close was he to the keys ?
A170:- Right beside me.
Q171:- Is the front door of the guard room building ever locked ?
A171:- No, sir.
Q172:- When you were on guard and in charge and awake, and Henning was there, what could Henning have done if you had gone to sleep ?
A172:- He could have walked out of the guard room. I didn't go to sleep.
Q173:- And what would he have done about the door of the main guard room if you had gone to sleep ?
A173:- He could have unlocked the door, sir.
Q174:- If you went to sleep, would you leave someone else in charge ?
A174:- Yes, if I felt drowsy, I would wake the Bdr. and put him in charge.

CLOSING ADDRESS BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER:-

I think I have established that a custom did exist here. I think that custom was sufficiently established in this unit for any guard commander to follow it. A man cannot be held responsible where such a custom exists, when he has turned his guard over, he cannot be held responsible for the escaping of prisoners. We can only guess what happened when he turned his guard over to the Bdr.

CLOSING ADDRESS BY THE PROSECUTOR:-

The only thing I can say is that the custom may have existed, but the rules say that he will at all times have custody of the keys, which was not done. It also says that the guard commander is held responsible for all prisoners in the guard room. (Pros. quoted several passages from exhibit 2).

THE COURT IS CLOSED TO CONSIDER ITS FINDING.

The court re-opens, prosecutor presented AFB 296 and MFM 6, stating that they both related to the accused.
R.P. 40(B) complied with, and the defending officer and accused offered no objection to these two documents.

Pursuant to R.P. 37(C) the defending officer said that he would call one witness as to character on behalf of the accused.

1ST CHARACTER WITNESS: CAPT. H. KELLY, 1 CARU, sworn, states:-
I did not know Sjt. Leader very well until he came to this unit about the end of Novemeber last. I was not here at that time, I came in February, and since then the accused has been working with me as an instructor. In basic and advanced training he has impressed me as an excellent instructor and NCO, and very conscientious in his work. Altogether I think he is a very valuable NCO. As to his character, he has a clean crime sheet of course, and I have never noticed anything in his character other than that he is an excellent NCO.

PROSECUTOR DECLINES TO CROSS-EXAMINE THIS WITNESS.

DEFENDING OFFICER:-

I hardly think it necessary to add anything to what Capt. Kelly has just said, he is a competent and valuable NCO, and has a clear crime sheet. True he has done wrong, but here we have a valuable NCO, and I think he should be kept as an NCO.

C.A.R.O. 32b2 complied with.

THE COURT IS CLOSED FOR THE CONSIDERATION OF THE SENTENCE.

Q153:- Did you notice one prisoner sitting about ?
A153:- One prisoner was, and I was told that he had privileges. He was sitting at the table with the guard commander. I understood before I arrived that Henning, I think it was, was a privileged prisoner.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR

Q154:- How did you know this Henning was privileged ?
A154:- I was told by the orderly officer.
Q155:- What did you understand by that ?
A155:- That he was allowed out of the cell block into the guard room.
Q156:- Did you ever see any statement in writing that he was to be allowed out of the cell block ?
A156:- No, I asked the guard commander, and I took the guards commander's word that he was.

(Capt. Baird)

Q157:- What time did you visit the guard room ?
A157:- It was before eight O'clock on the morning of the 8th.
Q158:- It is stated on the guard report, about 0005 hours, would that be about correct ?
A158:- Yes.

3RD WITNESS FOR THE DEFENSE:- M 44020 SJT. MURRAY, W.E., 1 CARU, sworn, is examined by the defending officer:-
Q159:- Sjt. Murray, you have been guard commander on different guards in this R.U. I understand ?
A159:- Just once, sir.
Q160:- Did you have the understanding that a certain custom existed that the guard commander and the Bdr. under him exchanged being in charge of the guard ?
A160:- Yes, sir. That seemed to be the general custom. That is the only chance you have to get an hour's sleep, and while he is awake you get an hours sleep, as you have to go on duty the next morning.
Q161:-(Pres) That is the only NCO you have to assist you ?
A161:- Yes, sir, just the one Bdr.
Q162:- The time you were on, what did you do about the keys for the prisoners cells ?
A162:- Kept them right beside me, sir, or beside the Bdr, when he was awake.

PROSECUTOR DECLINES TO CROSS-EXAMINE THIS WITNESS

4TH WITNESS FOR THE DEFENSE:- L 9278 SJT. GLADOW, R.F., L 9278, 1 CARU, sworn, is examined by the defending officer:-
Q163:- Sjt. Gladow, you have been in this Reinforcement Unit for awhile ?
A163:- Yes, sir.
Q164:- You must have been on guard many times ?
A164:- I have sir.
Q165:- What arrangement exists between the guard commander and his Bdr. ?
A165:- Well, the arrangement is that during the night the Bdr. and the Sjt. of the guard will alternate in taking over the guard while one sleeps.
Q166:- About the keys of the cells, where are they kept ?
A166:- When I am on guard I keep them myself on the table in front of me, and when the Bdr.takes over they are on the table in front of him.
Q167:- You do not carry them on your person ?
A167:- No, sir.
Q168:- After you dismount your guard in the morning, you have to go on duty right away ?
A168:- Yes, sir, but at nine instead of 8.30 The day before we do our ordinary duties up to five o'clock, and then get ready to go on guard.

QUESTIONED BY THE PRESIDENT

Q169:- Do you allow prisoners out in the main guard room at night ?
A169:- The night that I was on guard, I was informed that Gnr. Henning was a privileged character, and was allowed out of his cell, and allowed to smoke, be cause he could not sleep, and the night I was on guard he sat at the table with me. He was sitting right beside me.

A134:- Yes, sir, and I signed here for the three prisoners who escaped.
Q135:- It says here that soldiers in arrest were inspected at intervals of two hours ?
A135:- Approximately that, when I was up, because you generally take a walk around.
Q136:- Is this whole sheet your writing ?
A136:- Yes, sir, I made it all out.

Pursuant to R.P. 56, the original guard report, and a copy thereof, certified to be a ture copy by Capt. Skinner, "Q" Wing, were produced and marked exhibit three, and the copy only will be attached to the proceedings, the original being urgently required elsewhere.

COPY OF GUARD REPORT MARKED EXHIBIT 3.

Q137:- Was Gnr. Henning a normal prisoner ?
A137:- Not according to my information, sir.
Q138:- You had no instructions that he was anything other than a normal prisoner ?
A138:- No, sir.

QUESTIONED BY THE PRESIDENT

Q139:- Did any prisoners escape that night ?
A139:- At 0500 hours I found out myself, as soon as the gunner came and woke me up, I dashed into the guard room, and opened the door of the main detention cell, and two prisoners were missing.
Q140:- Did you count them ?
A140:- I counted the prisoners, and there was only five there, and there should have been seven, and two of the beds were unrolled. I immediately went from there to the back room to the cell where Henning sleeps, and found that Gnr. Henning was also gone.
Q141:- Do you know the names of the other two men ?
A141:- No, sir, I checked the guard report and called the roll, and the prisoners found to be missing were Gnrs. Sharpe and Barritt, as well as Henning.
Q142:- Do you know anything about their escape ?
A142:- I don't know now or when they escaped, it was after I had gone to bed, after two o'clock, sir.
Q143:- Is it customary to keep the main door of the guard detention building locked ?
A143:- No, sir, not the main door. That is the door that leads in to where the guard sleeps.
Q144:- Is there a key and a lock for that door ?
A144:- Not to my knowledge, sir.
Q145:- When they get out the front door they are quite free ?
A145:- Yes, sir, quite free.
Q146:- Is there a corridor where the individual cells are located ?
A146:- Just for the main guard room, when you come through the door where the cells are. That door cannot be locked, to my knowledge.
Q147:- Is there anything else you wish to say ?
A147:- No, sir, that is all I have to say ?

2ND WITNESS FOR THE DEFENSE:- LIEUT. R.W.L. DUNNING, 1 CAMD, sworn, is examined by the defending officer:-
Q148:- Mr. Dunning, on the night of the 7th-8th of May, what were your duties ?
A148:- Regimental duty officer
Q149:- What did you do after twelve o'clock that night ?
A149:- Visited the various guard houses, I made the rounds.
Q150:- When you got to the main gate guard room, did you enter the guard room ?
A150:- Yes.
Q151:- Did you find the doors of the cells closed ?
A151:- Yes.
Q152:- Was the guard commander and the bdr. both there ?
A152:- I saw the Sjt., and spoke to him, I did not see the bdr.

Q113:- Start out from the time you took over the guard, did you sign for anything when you took over ?
A113:- Just the guard report. The prisoners are in the detention room, and I initialed that and for the equipment they have in the guard room. I did not sign for any keys.
Q114:- Was that your first time on that guard ?
A114:- No, sir, the second time, on the main gate guard.
Q115:- Would you say that the keys are not considered very important ?
A115:- No, sir, they are not handed over, they are left on the table practically all the time, even when the R.P's are in charge of the prisoners.
Q116:- You turned the guard over to the Bdr. at eleven o'clock ?
A116:- Approximately then, sir.
Q117:- Were the cell doors locked at that time ?
A117:- Yes, sir.
Q118:- All prisoners accounted for and locked in ?
A118:- All except Gnr. Henning, who was in the guard room. The only understanding I had was that he was a privileged character, and was allowed to go to the canteen under escort, and was to be let out in the guard room, as if he was locked up he got very despondent, and I had heard about his attempts to commit suicide.
Q119:- So it was not strange to have Henning out ?
A119:- When I took the guard over the first time the R.P. lead me to the detention room, and it was not locked at that time, and the prisoners were all sitting around the one bed.
Q120:- Was anything told you about Henning ?
A120:- No, sir, if anything was told me, it went over my head.
Q121:- So you understood Henning to be a privileged character ?
A121:- Yes, sir.
Q122:- The orderly officer came in ?
A122:- Around 12 o'clock, sir. I was up then, because the RSM was in about then.
Q123:- The cell block was locked then ?
A123:- Yes, sir. Gnr. Henning was out, and the rest of the prisoners were locked in.
Q123:- At approximately two o'clock, after the orderly officer left, I understand from previous evidence that you again turned the guard over to the Bdr. ?
A123:- Yes, sir.
Q124:- Did you give him any direct order ?
A124:- Yes, I placed him in charge and told him that if he were feeling sleepy to wake me up, if the guard was to be changed.
Q125:- When you are Sjt. of the guard, have you got the next day off to sleep ?
A125:- No, sir, you attend regular parades.
A126:- Did you get off any time before ?
A126:- No, sir. Sometimes if there is nothing to do you get the afternoon of the day previous off, but usually you take over at 0620 and dismount at 0630, and go on parade at nine o'clock the following morning.
Q130:- Is there some custom here that the guard commander and his Bdr. more or less share the guard between them, that is the being in charge of the guard ?
A130:- Yes, sir, apparently that is the custom, because when you have to go on parade the next day you share the sleeping hours.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR

Q131:- During the evening, where were the keys ?
A131:- On the table where I sat, in the middle of the guard room. It is the R.P.'s table for the day time. The guard commander and Bdr. sit there at night.
Q132:- Do you recognise this ?
A132:- Yes, it is the main gate guard report of the 7th-8th May, -3.
Q133:- Is this your signature here ?
A133:- Yes, sir.
Q134:- You signed for eight prisoners that night ?

Q92:- Was he there the rest of the night ?
A92:- No, sir, he came back. Then he left a second time, about 0200 hrs.
Q93:- Did you at any time go in the back room to see him there ?
A93:- I went right by that door.
Q94:- Did he remove any of his clothes ?
A94:- Not that I could see.
Q95:- Has it been a normal thing for the guard commander to take an hour off from 11 to 12, and from 2 to 6.
A95:- It has been done, sir.
Q96:- Is it a normal procedure ?
A96:- Most of the guard commanders do that.
Q97:- Then for a twelve hour guard they take roughly four hours off ?
A97:- Yes, sir.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENSE

Q98:- You say that it has been customary that your more or less share the guard between the Sjt. and the Bdr. ?
A98:- Yes, sir.
Q99:- When Sjt. Leader went off for a few winks or sleep at two o'clock, did he leave you in charge of the guard ?
A99:- Yes, sir.
Q100:- (Pres) Did any prisoners escape that night ?
A100:- Yes, sir.
Q101:- Who were they ?
A101:- Gnr. Sharpe, Henning, and Barrett.
Q102:- Do you know when ?
A102:- I cannot say the exact time, sir.

Q103:-(Pros) What time did the Sjt. take over from you again ? You said he left you in charge .
A103:- It was about 10 to 6, sir.
Q104:- He was away from the main guard room about four hours ? Is that customary ?
A104:- It all depends on who it is.

QUESTIONED BY THE PRESIDENT

Q105:- When did the prisoners escape ?
A105:- I don't know, sir, it was after three, and before six.
Q106:- Why do you say it was after three ?
A106:- After I took over from the Sjt. I read a pamphlet for an hour, and none had escaped during that hour.
Q107:- What did you do after three o'clock ? You don't have to answer.
A107:- I would rather not answer that, sir.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTION

Q108:- Exactly what words were used by the sjt. when he told you take over the guard ?
A108:- He said to me "just take over, I am going in the back of the guard room".
Q109:- Did he tell you if you were sleepy or anything to wake him to spell you off ?
A109:- Yes, sir, he did.
Q110:- Did you waken him after that ?
A110:- I won't answer that.

(CAPTAIN BAIRD)

Q111:- How was the fact that the prisoners had escaped brought to your attention ?
A111:- The one who was outside in the guard room, it is obvious that he opened the cell door.
Q112:- What time did you realize that they had escaped ?
A112:- I realized Henning was gone about ten to six.

CLOSE OF THE CASE FOR THE PROSECUTION

R.P. 40(A) note 2 complied with, and the Defending Officer stated that the accused would give evidence under oath, and also call witnesses on his behalf.

1ST WITNESS FOR THE DEFENSE:- THE ACCUSED, HAVING BEEN DULY SWORN, is examined by the defending officer:-

Q72:- Where were the keys when he left ?
A72:- They were on the table.
Q73:- Did he take them with him ?
A73:- No.
Q74:- He went in the back room, and left the keys lying there ?
A74:- Yes, sir.
Q75:- Who woke you for your next shift ?
A75:- The Bdr. went in the back part, and left this trusty in charge, and about half past two he was to call the guards. This trusty, at three o'clock, when I was getting read, wakened the rest of the boys, whose boots he had marked.
Q76:- Was this trusty actually mounting the guard at three o'clock ?
A76:- Yes. In the morning at 25 to six there was no one to waken the guards and they were late getting up. I came in about 25 to six and there was no one on duty at the table. I had no one to relieve me.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q77:- Would you say that Gnr. Henning was, in your opinion, more or less of a privileged prisoner ?
A77:- That was my third time on guard in five weeks, and he was given priveleges and allowed to roam around the guard room and sleep in a cell by himself, and only one night did he ask to be locked in with the prisoners, the night before this.
Q78:- You have been on guard quite often. All the time you were on guard did you see the keys lying around.
A78:- On the other guard they were hanging up on a nail or on the table.
Q79:- The keys were more or less sloppily and negligently handled ?
A79:- Yes. I don't know the rules about the keys, but they were always somewhere around.
Q80:- You say Sjt. Leader went out about one O'clock, and told the Bdr. to take over, and came back and went again at two o'clock, did you hear Sjt. Leader give the Bdr. and order to take over again ?
A80:- Yes, sir, he gave him an order he said "Bdr., take over. If you feel sleepy or anything be sure to wake me. Don't leave the room without letting me know, and if anyone comes in let me know".
Q81:- You thought that was a definite order ?
A81:- Yes, sir.
Q82:- Would you have taken that as a definite order ?
A82:- Yes, sir. I was right by the table, and heard that.

7TH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION:- K 7009 BDR. ALLARDICE, W.J., 1 CARU, sworn, is examined by the prosecutor:-

The president advised the witness that he did not have to answer any question that might lay him open to any military charge, forfeiture or penalty, and asked him to consider what questions he would answer.

Q83:- In the evening when Bdr. Valliere was turning the guard over to the Sjt., did you hear Valliere give any instructions that would imply that Henning was out of the ordinary ?
A83:- I was not there, I was checking the sentries.
Q84:- Were the cell doors open at any time during the night ?
A84:- Yes, about nine, to let some of the prisoners out to the lavatory.
Q85:- That was the only time ?
A85:- To my knowledge, yes.
Q86:- Were all the prisoners locked up ?
A86:- All but Gnr. Henning, he was in the main guard room.
Q87:- Where were the keys during the course of that night ?
A87:- They were on the table, sir.
Q88:- All night ?
A88:- As far as I know, sir.
Q89:- Did Sjt. Leader leave the main room of the guard house at any time ?
A89:- Yes, sir, he went in the back of the guard room.
