Points for consideration re sentence of C 20928
Pte Lawrence S.

① The most serious crime committed previously was in Canada - for which he received 14 days C.B plus 14 ~~days~~ hrs. pack drill. This was committed with a large number of men all of whom went A.W.L. after being denied embarkation leave. Pte Lawrence contends that it was a well known fact that the unit would not move for at least one week and he voluntarily returned to the Unit after bidding his family farewell.

② Other A.W.L. charges, of which there were not a large number, were for short periods but on his last appearance before my Commander he was told he would get the book" on his next appearance. When at the termination of his leave he missed a train from Wales he, with reasoning peculiar to private soldiers, decided he was for it in any event so he decided to take further liberty.

③ Loss of his time of A.W.L. and in hospital thus pay will be affected until January next which is itself a considerable punishment.

④ He is married and has 2 children.

⑤ No Coy officers available to give character evidence, due to absence on training duty.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

I am D-56228 Sgt. LeGUERRIER, J.L. (A & SH of C (P.L.)) P.E. on the strength of 19 Coy, 10 C.B.R. Bn. I am permanent draft Sgt. At 1330 hrs on 21 Apr 45 I was ordered to form a draft for the R.H.C. (B.W.). I went on the noon parade and called out the draft. The accused, Pte. Lawrence, C.E. whom I now recognize, was not present, so I immediately set out to look for him. Upon finding him in his quarters I warned him by word of speak that he was on draft for the RHC (B.W.) and was to be cleared immediately. I also told him that he was to proceed to 13 C.B.R. Bn., the next morning at approx 0800 hrs and that the fall in was at 0730 hrs. Hold nines were made on which the accused name, Pte. Lawrence, C.E. was on, a certified true copy of which I produce here at evidence. At 0730 hrs 22 Apr 45 I mustered the draft. I called the roll. The accused failed to answer his name and the draft proceeded forward without him. He was immediately replaced by a spare man. Upon returning to the Coy Orderly Room I reported him immediately as absent to C.S.M. MacIntosh, G.G. and turned in his kit to Q.M. stores. That is all I know.

R.P. 83 (b) complied with.

E3 Plea in Mitigation – Lawrence. 16.

Lawrence came to France in Nov 44, and was with the RHC from late Nov until Mar 45 when he went to hospital.

His conduct sheet has only two very minor entries on it after 3½ years of service.

He has been under close arrest for one month.

He is single, but supports his mother and I suggest that a light sentence would be appropriate now that the war is over.

Summing up by Defence - Lawrence

Lawrence states that he did not know he was on a draft on 21 Apr 45. The three men whom he states were with him at the relevant time have not appeared, although an effort was made to procure them. The case thus remains one of conflicting evidence and it is submitted that Lawrence's version is the more accurate.

Tending to confirm this are the facts that he was not absent very long and surrendered himself before the fighting was over.

Summing Up. by Prosecution

This case is one of conflict of evidence. The ~~pros~~ has brought before you to witnesses who have given clear evidence of their dealing with the accused.

The permanent draft sergent told you how he had occasion to single out the accused and so knew him well. He says he warned him individually took him on an individual parade to the M.O. & 2.M. ~~Issued~~ after that warning & that conduct there could be little doubt in any soldiers mind that he was warned for draft.

The 2.M. Sgt. collaborates this evidence regarding the parade. The defence is a wholesale denial. He denies hearing the warning though a parade seems to have been called. He tells of shouting from the rear to query what was going on. Then apparently lacks curiosity to find out what had occurred. Owing to the individual parades, & desires knowledge of the parades to MO by 2.M & Dentist might I mean.

He is not a new soldier. He went through the same ~~he~~ previously. There is ample evidence to support a conviction of desertion. His story hardly asks for credulity on your part to me and we had a slight argument. Denied then he has had it in for me. My eye was cleared satisfactorily when I left 2 CCD. I am sure the draft Sgt did not warn me at any time.

RP (83) B complied with.

In view of the evidence produced at the trial the defending officer requests an adjournment to ascertain if the two soldiers Pte Bell and Privalt are available as witnesses for the accused.

The request of the defending officer is granted and Court is adjourned sine die.

The Court re-assembles at 1030 hrs 4 Jun 46. Same members present.

The defending officer produces copy of letter attempting to locate witnesses to which there has been no reply. (Copy of letter attached to summary for information but not to form part of the proceedings)

The defence is prepared to proceed and requires no further adjournment

I left my unit 5 Mar. went to hospital was there for 2 days - then to 2 C E D for one week and from there to 10 Bn. It was around middle of March I arrived there and not middle of Apr as I had previously stated. The draft Sgt never spoke to me about sec 12(1) AA. or desertion. He never spoke to me about drafts. I first heard about desertion when I came back. The C S M. did know me through orderly room. The first two charges on my crime sheet. The draft Sgt was mistaken because I believe he is prejudiced against me. because before I was a runner at B O R and I came to 19 Coy A R. with some documents, and Sgt Liguerner was busy at the time and I did not want to bother him then and he called me over and asked me if I was a runner. I said yes and he told me I shouldn't have wanted I should have given the documents right away because they might have been important. I did not like the way he talked

My home is Midland, Ont. I went to senior 4th. I went absent on 21 Apr 45. The following morning I went to Knocke. I biked it there and stayed at 2 C C D. I slept in lounge that night and most the time. I came back to Ghent and slept at barracks 2 nights at Knocke I ate at 2 C C D & Ghent at the NAAFI. It was a surprise to me when I heard a draft had gone forward. I didn't want to go back to front. I don't think anyone wants to go back there. I did not know I was supposed to go.

By the Court:

I just waited in Pay Office and when Sgt Shirley brought my pay book, mine was not there. When the pay book was brought down the Pay Sgt marked in 3 days pay I had lost. I believe I received the pay book and then left. I did not see my friends after the parade. I don't believe anyone in my room was called out on the draft parade. at 0 A M. I told them what I was short and it was given to me. No bit evasion. I was not short very much

HB.

I did not talk to them afterwards. I got used to be supposed to not know what's going on in army so I was not curious to know what was going on. I have been in army 3 yrs. The visits to QM. MO and Pay aroused no curiosity in my mind. I thought it ordinary routine. I could not say if I went through that routine last Nov when I went on draft through 10 Bn. I don't remember. I never asked my friends what it was all about. They did not say anything and I didn't either. ~~The~~ Sgt B[illegible]guerrier has not told the truth. I was on the parade. He did not come into the room while I was there. I saw him on parade and when he paraded us to MO + QM Store, but I did not speak to him. CQMS Richardson is certainly wrong when he says I was paraded alone by Sgt Leguerrier to QM store. I believed that if I did not sign a draft warning I could not be ~~be~~ charged with desertion. I did not know I was going on a move. I knew nothing.

minutes of that period that I was waiting. There were several people in the room but I did not talk to anyone. No one came in to speak to me at all. I didn't see any NCO's in room. I then went ~~then~~ back to QM stores and from there to Pay. I was with the group at QM stores. I believe it was Sgt Shirley who conducted the group to QM. He was there all the time. I did not go through the dental officer. When I finished at Pay Office that was as far as I went. I don't know why my name was called out on Coy parade. Sgt Legarrier gave no reason why names were called out.

I arrived in UK. Jul 44. I came to Canada in Nov 45. I am single but sole support of my mother. There was one other lad who was on parade and went on draft. I did not know him very well, he was Pte Hart.

Cross-examination

I was fairly friendly with Trimmell and Bell had known them for about 2 months. They were in parade. I did not hear what was said.

the army and for the Q M parade I had a few kit shortages at the time and thought it was an ordinary Q M parade. I have only gone out on the one draft from Leopold Bks which was last Nov. and at that time I was not with the Black Watch. At that time I was more or less C I C. I went to the Black Watch at that time I served with that unit in action for 4 months. I left with eye trouble and went to 12 Can Gen Hosp from there to 2 C C D. and then to 10 Bn. after the middle of Apr. I was on only one previous draft for which I had not been warned. That was in Apr. previous to the one in question. I was A W L for 3 days and when I came back I found out that I had been on draft. The draft had gone out when I came back. I did not know about the draft when I went A W L. When I got to Q M stores on 21 Apr 45 with the group I waited in the hallway for about 1/2 hr. I was in my room for about 10 all 14 Coy personnel were to be on noon parade. I was on the noon parade (1330 hr parade) I was on the parade along with Pte Bell and Pte Grivault when my name was called out I joined the group that had already been called out before me and as I was in rear file I could not hear what Sgt was saying

I called to him to speak louder. He could not have heard me as we were immediately marched off the parade square.
We went to M.O. and had a "shot arm" and from there to the A.M. stores and the Pay Office. I was with the group and not by myself. I did not sign any draft notice which I have done in the past and believed was necessary. Ptes Bell and Grivault were with this group & and ~~if necessary~~ they went on the draft. and they can prove I was with the group. There are no others that I know of who knew I was with this group. I did not know what the shot have them every so often in

Cross-examination

I called all these roll calls on Coy parades myself.

as you enter the door. I turned accused over to Assistant draft Sgt. to be taken to Dental Office and Dr O. He was not escorted to M.O. they all go as a whole. The other men on draft went to quarters to check equipment then to A.M. and Pay. The accused had missed two drafts within a week previous. One time he was AWL and the other time we couldn't find him. The drafts moved quickly. It was never more than 24 hrs from time I received a demand for a draft until the time it went out.

By the Court

The accused was not warned for the 2 previous drafts because he could not be found. No orders ~~for~~ published that would indicate to accused that he was going to a fighting unit. I told accused that if he was not present to go on this draft he would be charged under AA 121) I believe I told him that was desertion. It was laid down that required signatures on draft warning order but demands were coming through so fast that we did not have time to obtain signatures personally. That was not the normal routine. I took him to Pay Office. Then I turned him over to Assistant draft Sgt. for completion of clearances. I told him the next parade would be at 0730 hrs 22 Apr 45 and it would be a muster parade. I had a roll call at that time. I called the roll myself the accused failed to answer. I produce Nominal roll that I used at the time. It is called "Roll 4". Marked exhibit "A". I then got a replacement for the accused. The accused was on strength of 19 Coy at the time. I reported the accused's absence to S.M. of 19 Coy.

Cross-examination

When there is a draft a Coy parade is called. I call out names of the draft. Leaving two groups. The draft group and remainder of Coy. I went off to look for accused as soon as last draft name had been called. I found accused in his room 36 or 38 with several others in there.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of D-58637 Pte. Charles Edward LAWRENCE (R.H.C.) on the strength of 19 Coy, 10 C.B.R. Bn., a soldier of the Cdn Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer this evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS
Prosecution

D-56228 Sgt. LeGUERRIER, J.L. (A & SH of C (P.L.)) P.E. on the strength of 19 Coy, 10 C.B.R. Bn. having been duly sworn states:

I am D-56228 Sgt. LeGUERRIER, J.L. (A & SH of C (P.L.)) P.E. on the strength of 19 Coy, 10 C.B.R. Bn. I am permanent draft Sgt. At 1330 hrs on 21 Apr 45 I was ordered to form a draft for the R.H.C. (B.W.). I went on the noon parade and called out the draft. The accused, Pte. Lawrence, C.E. whom I now recognize, was not present, so I immediately set out to look for him. Upon finding him in his quarters I warned him by word of mouth that he was on draft for the RHC (B.W.) and was to be cleared immediately. I also told him that he was to proceed to 13 C.B.R. Bn., the next morning at approx 0800 hrs and that the fall in was at 0730 hrs. Hold nines were made on which the accused name, Pte. Lawrence, C.E. was on, a certified true copy of which I produce here at evidence. At 0730 hrs 22 Apr 45 I mustered the draft. I called the roll. The accused failed to answer his name and the draft proceeded forward without him. He was immediately replaced by a spare man. Upon returning to the Coy Orderly Room I reported him immediately as absent to C.S.M. MacIntosh, C.G. and turned in his kit to Q.M. stores. That is all I know.

R.P. 83 (b) complied with.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

E-3 Plea in Mitigation - Lawrence FAB

Lawrence came to France in Nov 44, and was with the RHC from late Nov until Mar 45 when he went to hospital.

His conduct shet has only two very minor entries on it after 3½ yrs of service.

He has been under close arrest for one month. He is single, but supports his mother and I suggest that light sentence would be appropriate now that the war is over.

" P S Osler "

" F A Baillargeon "

Summing up by Defence - Lawrence FAB

Lawrence states that he did not know he was on a draft on 21 Apr 45. The three men whom he states were with him at the relevant times have not appeared, although an effort was made to procure them. The case thus remains one of conflicting evidence and it is submitted that Lawrence's version is the more accurate.

Tending to confirm this are the facts that he was not absent very long and surrendered himself before the fighting was over.

Summing up by Prosecution

FAB

This case is one of conflict of evidence. The pros has brought before you to witnesses who have given clear evidence of their dealing with the accused.

The permanent draft sergeant told you how he had occasion to single out the accused and so knew him well. He says he warned him individually. Took him on an individual parade to the MO & QM. After that warning and that conduct there could be little doubt in any soldiers mind that he was warned for draft.

The QM Sgt collaberates this evidence regarding the parade. The defence is a wholesale denial. He denies hearing the warning though a parade seems to have been called. He tills of shourting from the rear to find out what was going on. Then apparently lacks curiosity to ask what had occurred. Denys too the individual parades and denies knowledge of the parades to MO Pay QM & Dentist might mean.

He is not a new soldier. He went through the same bn previously There is ample evidence to support a conviction of desertion. His story hardly asks for credibility on your part.

" L A Kitz " Lt.

In view of the evidence produced at the trial the defending officer requests an adjournment to ascertain if the two soldiers ptes Bell and Frivault are available as witnesses for the accused.

The request of the defending officer is granted and court is adjourned siene die

The court re-assembles at 1030 hrs 4 Jun 45, same members present.

The defending officer produces copy of letter attempting to locate witnesses to which there had benn no reply. (Copy of letter attached to Summary for information but not to form part of the proceedings.)

The defence is prepared to proceed and requires no further adjournment.

At that time I was more or less CIC. I went to the Black Watch at that time. I served with that unit in action for 4 months. I left with eye trouble and went to 12 Cdn Gen Hosp from there to 2 C.C.D. and then to 10 Bn. After the middle of Apr. I was on only one previous draft for which I had not been warned. That was in apr previous to the one in question, I was AWL for 3 days and when I came back I found out that I had been on draft. The draft had gone out when I came back. I did not know about the draft when I went AWL. When I got to QM stores on 21 Apr 45 with the group I waited in the hallway for about ½ hour. I was in my room for about 5 or 10 minutes of that period just waiting. There were several people in the room but I did not talk to anyone. No one came in to speak to me at all. I didnt see any NCO's in room. I then went back to QM Stores and from there to Pay. I was with the group at QM Stores. I believe it was Sgt Shirley who conducted the group to QM He was there all the time. I did not go through the dental officer. When I finished at Pay Office that was as far as I went. I don't know why my name was called out on coy parade. Sgt Legeurrier gave no reasnn why names were called out.

I arrived in UK Jul 44. I came to continent in Nov 45. I am single but sole support of my mother. There was one other lad who was on parade and went on draft. I did not know him very well, he was pte Hart.

Cross examination.

I was fairly friendly with Frivault and Bell had known them for about 2 months. They were in parade. I did not hear what was said. I did not talk to them aftereards. I got used to be supposed to not know whats going on in army so I was not curious to know what was going on. I have been in army 3 yrs. The visits to QM, MO and Pay aroused no curiosity in my mind. I thought it ordinary routine. I could not say if I went through that routine, last nov when I went on draft throug 10 Bn. I can't remember. I never asked my friends what it was all bout They did not say anything and I didn't either. Sgt Leguerrier has not told the truth. I was on the parade. He did not come into the room while I was there. I saw him on parade and when he paraded us to MO & QM stores but I did not speak to him. CQMS Richardson is certainly wrong when he says I was paraded alone by Sgt Leguerrier to QM Stores. I believed that If I did not sign a draft warning I could not be charged with desertion. I did not know I was going on a move. I knew nothing. My home is Midland, Ont. I went to Senior 4th. I went absent on 21 Apr 45. The following morning I went to Knocke. I liked it there and stayed at 2 CCD. I slept in lounge that night and most the time. I came back to Ghent and slept at barracks 2 nights. At Knocke I ate at 2 CCD & at Ghent at the NAAFI. It was a surprise to me when I heard a draft had gone forward. I didn't want to go back to front. I dont think anyone wants to go back there. I did not know I was supposed to go.

By the court

I just waited in Pay Office and when Sgt Shirley brought my pay book which was not there. When the pay book was brought down the pay sgt marked in 3 days pay I had lost. I believe I received the pay book and then left. I did no see my friends after the parade. I dont believe anyone in my room was called out on the draft parade. At QM I told them what I was short and it was given to me. No kit inspection I was not short very much. I left my unit 5 Mar went to hospital and was there for 2 days then to 2 C.C.D. for one week and from there to 10 Bn. It was around middle of March I arrived there and not middle of Apr as I had previously stated. The draft sgt never spoke to me about sec 12(1) A.A. or desertion. He never spoke to me about drafts. I first heard about desertion when I came back. The CSM did know me through orderly room. The first two charges on my crime sheet. The draft sgt was mistaken because I believe he is prejudiced against me, because before I was a runner at BOR and I came to 19 Coy O.R. with some documents and Sgt Leguerrier was busy at the time and I did not want to bother him then and he called me over and asked me if I was a runner. I said yes, and he told me I shouldn't have waited I should have given the documents right away because they might have been important. I did not like the way he talked to me and we had a slight argument. Since then he has had it in for me. My eye was cleared satisfactorily when I left 2 C.C.D. I am surethe draft Sgt did not warn me at any time. RP 83 (b) complied with.

The accused B58637 Pte Lawrence C.E. (RHC) on strength of 19 Coy 10 CBR Bn being duly sworn is examined by the Defending Officer.

I remember 21 Apr 45. On that morning I was warned that all 19 Coy personnel were to be on noon parade. I was on the noon parade (1330 hrs Parade). I was on the parade along with Pte Bell and Pte Frivault when my name was called out I joined the group that had already been called out before me and as I was in rear file I could not hear what Sgt was saying. I called to him to speak louder. He could not have heard me as we were immediately marched off the parade square. We went to MO and had a "short arm" and from there to the QM Stores and the Pay Office. I was with the group and not by myself. I did not sign any draft notice which I have done in the past and believed was necessary. Pte Bell and Frivault were with his group and they went on the draft and they can prove I was with the group. There are no others that I know of who knew I was with this group. I did not know what the short arm was for as I believe we have them every so often in the army and as for the QM parade I had a few kit shortages at the time and thought it was an ordinary QM parade. I have only gone out on the one draft from Leopold Bks which was last November and at that time I was not with the Black Watch.

B58637 Pte Lawrence C.E. (RHC) 19 Coy 10 CBR Bn. FAB

D3
1st Witness for the prosecution

D56228 Sgt Leguerrier J.L. A&SH of C (PL) 19 Coy 10 CBR Bn having been duly sworn is examined by the Prosecutor.

I am on P.E. 19 Coy 10 CBR Bn permanent draft sgt. At 1300 hrs 21 Apr 45 I received a draft demand for RHC. I called a parade at 1330 hrs. There was one absentee on that parade, the accused Pte Lawrence. I immediately went to look for accused and found him in his quarters. I told him he was on the draft for RHC and that I would clear him through the proper channels that afternoon. I told him he was to proceed to 13 Bn as reinforcement for "Black Watch." I had accused on draft twice previously but he did not go. That fact influenced me to explain this draft to accused. I then took him to QM Stores to be fully equipped. The accused was alone. I took him personally. That was not the normal routine. I took him to Pay Office. Then I turned him over to Assistant draft sgt for completion of clearances. I told him the next parade would be at 0730 hrs 22 Apr 45 and it would be a muster parade. I had a roll call at that time. I called the roll myself the accused failed to answer. I produce nominal roll that I used at the time. It is called "hold 9". Marked Exhibit "A". I then got a replacement for the accused. The accused was on strength of 19 Coy at the time. I reported the accused's absence to S.M. of 19 Coy.

Cross examination

When there is a draft a coy parade is called. I call out names of the draft, leaving two groups. The draft group and remainder, of coy I went off to look for accused as soon as last draft name had been called. I found accused in his room 36 or 38 with several others in there.

I think accused was in 3rd of 4th bed on left hand side as you enter the door. I turned accused over to Assistant draft sgt to be taken to Dental officer and M.O. He was not escorted to M.O. They all go as a whole. The other men on draft went to quarters to check equipment then to QM and Pay. The accused had missed two drafts within a week previous. One time he was AWL and the other time we couldnt find him. The drafts moved quickly. It was never more than 24 hrs from time I received a demand for a draft until the time it went out.

By the Court

The accused was not warned for the 2 previous drafts because he could not be found. No orders published that would indicate to accused that he was going to a fighting unit. I told accused that if he was not present to go on this draft he would be charged under AA 12(1) I believe I told him that was desertion. It was laid down that required signatures on draft warning order but demands were coming through so fast that we did not have time to obtain signatures. No one else was absent from parade. 10 CBRBn is reinforcements from Infantry units. 13 CBR Bn was a forward reinforcement Bn at that time. Accused had previously to my knowledge served with RHC and that was the reason he was being sent to RHC.

DO through Court

The other name crossed off on nominal roll exhibit "A" was not an AWL but that man had just returned from Italy and was due for Italy leave.

RP 83 (b) complied with.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

Defence Statement in Mitigation of punishment.

Two or three days previous to 3 Sept 44 Pte Lawrence requested an interview with the C.O. in the usual manner. This interview could not be granted at the time & had not taken place up until 3 Sept 44. The result was that when Pte Lawrence was put under arrest he came out with the statement as charged. He meant of course that now it was even more vital than that he see the C.O. I suggest that the use of the objectionable word was not meant in an insubordinate manner but rather was a common place Army Adjective - heard all over that word used in connection with almost anything & anybody that comes into a soldiers life.

On 3 Sept 44 Pte Lawrence was charged with refusing to dig a hole. On 7th/44 Pte Lawrence was placed on a diet of hard tack & water; consequently he missed supper on the 7th & breakfast on the 8th. According to the evidence in the summary of Evidence Pte Lawrence in refusing to dig the hole said "let us go down to the M.D. & see whether or not a man can work on an empty stomach". The reason finally given that Lawrence was put back on normal diet.

Finally I would like to point out that the accused has a lot of service in the army, well over 3 yrs overseas, & he has been in most of this theatre of war. His last leave was 15 Oct 43 & he has been category A & now B-3, which means of course that he is nervous & the type of man that will jump at even a wrong decision & I feel the court should take these matters into consideration.

~~Prisoner~~
Defending officer's statement

When Sgt Crank asked the accused to rectify, Sgt Crank had no badges of rank displayed & the accused at that time had been with 17 Sqn Spec Emp Coy a matter of seven eleven days. The accused is prepared to swear that he did not recognize Crank as his superior officer & that Sgt Crank did, at no time, declare himself to the accused. The first intimation the accused had of Crank's rank was when he was placed under arrest by the Sgt & a No. 1 off.

With regard the second charge, the accused had applied for an interview with Maj. Bray, Comd, 17 Cdo Spec Emp Coy, two or three days previous the incident. When this incident occurred he felt that the time had come to see the C.O.

First witness for the prosecution

H20172 SGT CRONK, S.E. having been duly sworn, states.

I am H20172 Sgt. Crank, S.E. 17 Cdo Spec Emp Coy On the day & date mentioned I was ordered by the Adjutant & put up to Orderly Room but using the 'phone as fatigues. I asked the Cpl if I could take his meal over. He said at the time he was quite busy & asked me if I could mind getting the report. I went down to the RE lines & as a general order to all the Sgts there I instructed them to come up & report to me. Pte Laurence was the only one that refused. I had an argument with the accused & asked him if he was coming & he answered "No". I went back up & reported to him with what help I had & after so doing I went back & asked Pte Laurence if he still refused to go he answered "No". I then met the L/Cpl & R.S.M. & took him where Pte Laurence was & I then placed Pte Laurence under close arrest & accompanied the L/Cpl down & he acted him to the guard room.

Cross-examination by Defence.

Q. Were you wearing badges of rank when you got inside?
A. No Sir.
Q. Did Pte Laurence say that he had a temperature?
A. He said he was a bit fed up with it.

Re-examination by prosecution

Q. How did the accused react to your order?
A. He immediately dropped what he was doing & started me.
Q. Did the accused ask you what authority you had?
A. No Sir.
Q. Was your report mentioned?
A. Yes I think it was in.

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(*1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

DEPARTMENT OF NEURO - PSYCHIATRY REPORT

D-114503 Pte. Lawrence, B.E., #1 RCASC M.D.
(Age 18)

July 21, 1941.

REPORT:-

COMPLAINTS — Under Court-martial and brother states "he is not responsible because of a head injury 1937". He was struck on head by a piece of wood and was unconscious about a half hour. He did not go to hospital for several days, then because of an infected scalp was kep at home for about six weeks. In 1939 he was admitted to the Montreal General for headaches, and what sounds to have been an encephalogram was done and he was told that no cause for these headaches could be found. He says that he has had frequent headaches since then which were treated at 15th Gen.Hospital.

PAST — School 6-14, one failure; childhood essentially normal but rather nervous and afraid of dark; Work - on leaving school worked 3 years as delivery boy for one man. Army - enlisted Aug.1940, working until enlistment, joined for adventure, England March, 1941; has had 4 - 5 minor charges, working on fatigues, feels his C.O.s. have it in for him because he is young.

MENTAL — Low average normal, no disturbance of memory, calculation or discrimination.

NEUROLOGICAL — Fundi normal; cranial nerves, reflexes, motor and sensory normal.

X - RAYS — Report to follow(Nothing abnormal on wet film.)

IMPRESSION — Head injury was probably minor concussion and later scalp infection. If X-rays are negative I would thing that his head injury has nothing to do with conduct disorders, and was of a minor character. No evidence of mental disturbance or deficiencies at present.

SWORN STATEMENT (UNDER OATH) BY D-114503 BOY LAWRENCE, B.F.

D-114503 Boy Lawrence, B.F., having been duly sworn states:-

On June 25th, 1941, at approximately 1330 hours, I was coming in to the Barrack block when I was stopped by Sgt. O'Grady and asked to go down to the M.T. Garage for a vehicle. I told Sgt. O'Grady that there were not any vehicles available because of the coming inspection. Sgt. O'Grady insisted that I still go and I told him for the second time it would be useless to go. Sgt. Gale then came along and told me about two buttons missing on my greatcoat. I answered him that I had already been told by C.S.M. Jones and that I was waiting to get other ones to replace the missing ones. I was about to leave when Sgt. O'Grady checked me up on not standing to attention while being spoken to by Sgt. Gale. I did not think it necessary to do so as I was just ready to go away. He then placed me under open arrest because I failed to stand to attention. I went outside and was ordered by the Company Sergeant Major (C.S.M. Jones) to sweep the hall-ways. On re-entering the Barrack block Sgt. O'Grady told me to put my equipment on to go over to the Guard Room.. I called to the C.S.M. but apparently he did not hear me. Sgt. O'Grady then said to me in a very low voice that could only be heard by myself, "If I did not have these three stripes, I would punch you in the jaw". This upset me and I replied, "If I had a bayonet I would put it in you". I was then placed under close arrest by Sgt. O'Grady and escorted to the Guard Room by Cpl. Barry.

3rd Witness

D-91935 Cpl. Barry, J.B., having been duly sworn states:-

On June 25th, 1941, at approximately 1330 hours, while on duty in Barrack block, assisting in fatigue work, I was in the hall-way talking to Sgt. O'Grady and Sgt. Gale, when Pte. Lawrence came along. Sgt. O'Grady asked him if he would go to the M.T. Garage for a vehicle. A discussion arose between Sgt. O'Grady and Pte. Lawrence. Pte. Lawrence stated, (or words to that effect), that it would be impossible to get a vehicle that day because of M.T. maintenance. As Pte. Lawrence was leaving, Sgt. Gale told him that the buttons of his greatcoat had not been polished, Pte. Lawrence answered back, in a hot-headed manner, that C.S.M. Jones had already checked him on this point. Sgt. O'Grady then pointed out to Pte. Lawrence that he should stand to attention while, either talking to or listening to a Senior N.C.O. Sgt. O'Grady warned Pte. Lawrence at least twice to comply with this order. I did not pay very much attention to the ensuing conversation until I heard Pte. Lawrence say, (or words to that effect), "If I had a bayonet I would run it through you" (meaning Sgt. O'Grady). Sgt. O'Grady placed Pte. Lawrence under close arrest and ordered me to escort him to the Guard Room.

4th Witness

D-91663 Pte. Kirkman, W.G., having been duly sworn states:-

On June 25th, 1941, at approximately 1330 hours, I was in the Barrack block, off duty, when I heard Sgt. O'Grady tell Pte. Lawrence to go and get a vehicle from the M.T. Garage. Pte. Lawrence said he was employed as runner at the Company Orderly Room, and did not have time to go over there, or words to that effect. Sgt. O'Grady seemed displeased over these remarks and had to check up on Pte. Lawrence for not standing to attention when spoken to by a Senior N.C.O. I did not hear Pte. Lawrence definitely refuse to stand to attention but Pte. Lawrence evidently did not obey same as Sgt. O'Grady placed him under open arrest. At this, Pte. Lawrence, apparently losing his temper said "If I had a bayonet I would run it through you" (meaning Sgt. O'Grady). Sgt. O'Grady then placed him under close arrest.

D-91654 Pte. Smith, J.J.L., having been duly sworn states:-

On June 25th, 1941, at approximately 1330 hours, I was on fatigue in hall-ways when Sgt. O'Grady asked Pte. Lawrence to go to the M.T. Garage for a vehicle. Pte. Lawrence told Sgt. O'Grady it would be useless because it was impossible to get one. Later on I saw Pte. Lawrence talking to Sgt. Gale. Sgt. O'Grady ordered him, at least twice, to stand to attention.

This is all I know or can say in this case.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE IN THE CASE OF D-114503 BOY LAWRENCE, R.F.

THE COMMANDING OFFICER DIRECTS THAT THE EVIDENCE SHALL BE TAKEN ON OATH.

1st Witness P-3148 Sgt. O'Grady, D., having been duly sworn states:-

On June 25th, 1941, at approximately 1330 hours, I was N.C.O. in charge of fatigue party. I met Pte. Lawrence coming along hall-way. I stopped the said soldier and asked him, being the Orderly Room runner, would he go over to the M.T.Garage and see Cpl. Ireland, i/c M.T., to find out if a vehicle was available for work being undertaken. Pte. Lawrence replied very insolently when asked to do this. I then warned Pte. Lawrence that his manner of speaking was incorrect. I then returned to my fatigue party which was approximately a few feet away. I turned around and noticed Sgt. Gale and Pte. Lawrence in conversation. Pte. Lawrence was standing with his hands in his pockets, an unsoldierly-like attitude. I commanded Pte. Lawrence to stand to attention when talking to a Senior N.C.O. He refused. I then commanded him to stand to attention. He again refused. I then placed Pte. Lawrence under open arrest. As I left him Pte. Lawrence remarked, "If I had a bayonet in my hand I would run it through you". I then placed Pte. Lawrence under close arrest.

At no time did I use any threatening language to the accused.

Accused declined to cross-examine witness.

2nd Witness

R-82997 Sgt. Gale, M.R., having been duly sworn states:-

On June 25th, 1941, at approximately 1330 hours, I was in the hall with fatigue party, near wash-room, when Sgt. O'Grady accosted Pte. Lawrence. I did not pay much attention to conversation between Sgt. O'Grady and Pte. Lawrence but was waiting to inform Pte. Lawrence on instruction of C.S.M. Jones, of his minor defects in lay-out of equipment prior to inspection. Pte. Lawrence replied "I have already been informed by the Sergeant Major". Sgt. O'Grady checked him for not standing to attention while being spoken to by a senior N.C.O. Our conversation was finished. Pte. Lawrence walked out towards the main hall-way and stopped there. Sgt. O'Grady continued his remarks about Pte. Lawrence not standing to attention. I heard Pte. Lawrence make the statement "That if I did have my bayonet I would run it through you". (meaning Sgt. O'Grady). Sgt. O'Grady then placed Pte. Lawrence under close arrest.

I, D-114503 Boy Lawrence, B.F. having been duly cautioned under R.P. 4(c) wish to make the following statement under oath.

"About ten days previous to 2-7-41 I was lying behind the Dental Clinic. I saw something shining on the ground and picked up a belt with badges on it which I now recognize as Exhibits "A", "B" and "C". I took it back to Barracks and put it in my kit bag. Pte. Kuzak asked me if I knew anyone with any badges. I said, "I have some", so I sold him three and gave him one. Just as Pte. Kuzak was going Cpl. Berry came over and asked me to let him see the belt. I showed him the belt. We were scuffling around and I ran down into the Air Raid Shelter, where the belt dropped out of my hand. I was excited so I just told Pte. Clarke who had come over and asked me about it that it was in Barracks. He asked to let him see it and I went into the Barrack Room to get it. Then I remembered I had dropped it and came out of the Barrack Room as Pte. Clarke came out of the Shelter with the belt. He asked me where the missing badges were. I told Him Pte Kuzak had four. The next day having tried to locate Pte. Kuzak the previous night I turned the remaining two badges into Cpl. Kocourek

THE COURT: Is that satisfactory?

DEFENCE: That is perfectly satisfactory, sir.

A285. Yes, sir.
Q286. Some other witness said you had indicated the fact you got it behind or near the dental clinic?
A286. Yes sir, that is on the edge of the sports field?
Q287. That was alongside the dental clinic?
A287. Yes, sir.
Q288. Did you know whose it was?
A288. I didn't; I had never seen it before.
Q289. How long had you had it before 2 Jul 41?
A289. About a week and a half.
Q290. Have you ever been charged in civilian life or in army life for any offence having to do with theft?
A290. No, sir.

A292. I knew it must have belonged to somebody.
Q293. Did you know that it belonged to anybody you knew?
A293. No, sir.
Q294. Had you heard Clarke or anybody else inquiring about a belt similar to that?
A294. No sir, it was never mentioned in the orderly room so far as I know.
Q295. Did you know Clarke?
A295. Yes sir, very well.
Q296. Have you been in his quarters?
A296. I used to go in and get different things for him. He used to borrow things from us in the orderly room and I would have to go and get them back, to retrieve things he had left there.
Q297. Do you recognise this belt (Exhibit A)?
A297. Yes, sir.
Q298. Is it as you found it?
A298. I took some badges off the belt.
Q299. When you were in Clarke's quarters did you ever see a belt anything like that belt?
A299. I never saw that belt before, not even in his quarters. The first time I knew it was his was when he mentioned it.

A300. No, sir.
Q301. Is that what you thought about it?
A301. No, sir.
Q302. Did you sell Pte Kazuk four badges?
A302. Three badges, and I gave him one.
Q303. The witness Clarke testified there were six badges missing?
A303. The others fell off; they were loose and they fell off.
Q304. The whole thing adds up to the fact you did not know who the belt belonged to?

Q263. What was Sgt O'Grady's reaction to that?
A263. He insisted I go and get one and I said it was useless and a waste of time going down because I wouldn't get one.
Q264. What was the next thing that occurred?
A264. I turned away and I saw Sgt Gale about a foot and a half away and he told me there were a couple of buttons missing from my greatcoat, and that my equipment was not properly laid out on the bed. Q265. Was there any unpleasantness between you and Sgt Gale?
A265. No, sir.
Q266. What next happened?
A266. I took about two or three steps away from Sgt Gale, we were finished, then I turned to the left and I was two or three paces away when Sgt O'Grady said, "Stand to attention when talking to a senior NCO."
Q267. You were not at that time talking to any NCO but walking away?
A267. Yes, sir.
Q268. What did you do?
A268. I kept on walking and he called after me.
Q269. Did you say anything to him?
A269. No, he called after me and said, "Consider yourself under open arrest." Then I met the Sgt-Major just outside the barrack room door and he told me, he said, "Lawrence, go and sweep out the barrack room," and I got as far as my own barrack room and Sgt O'Grady said, "Put your equipment on, you are going to the guard room."
Q270. All right. What happened after that?
A270. So when he told me that I called for the Sgt-Major who was in one of the rooms off the hallway and I said, "Sgt-Major, come here," and he didn't hear me. That is when Sgt O'Grady threatened me.
Q271. You were apparently calling for the Sgt-Major to have him intervene for you?
A271. Yes, and the Sgt-Major didn't hear me, and Sgt O'Grady threatened to punch me in the jaw; he said, "You little bastard, if I didn't have these three stripes I would punch you in the jaw."
Q272. What shape was Sgt O'Grady in?
A272. All right; he was not mad or anything like that. (sic)
Q273. How far did you go in school?
A273. First year High.
Q274. How old were you when you left?
A274. 14.
Q275. Were you examined mentally by some neurologist?
A275. Yes, sir.
Q276. While you have been awaiting this trial?
A276. Yes, sir.
Q277. Did you see his report on you?
A277. No, sir.
Q278. Did he tell you what it was?
A278. As far as I know he said I was normal.
Q279. What did Sgt O'Grady act like when he said, "You little bastard, if I didn't have these three stripes I would punch you in the jaw?"
A279. Well, he did act a little sore, but with those rosy cheeks it is hard to tell.
Q280. What did you do then?
A280. I got mad and said, "If I had a bayonet I would put it in you."
Q281. Did you have a bayonet?
A281. No sir, you say things you don't mean when you are mad.
Q282. A bit silly, wasn't it?
A282. Yes, it was; I realised that after thinking it over; I realised it was silly.
Q283. Are you sorry you said it?
A283. Yes, sir.
Q284. Now about this belt, where did you get the belt?
A284. I found it on the football field behind the dental clinic.

Q242. Please continue?
A242. Later on Clarke advised me he had located four of the badges, so on the following morning I found out there were still two RCASC shoulder badges missing, so I asked Pte Lawrence where they were and he said they were in his barrack room. I asked him to go and get them and he did so, and I then turned him over to the C.O.
Q243. Tell the court what these are (producing two RCASC shoulder badges)?
A243. RCASC shoulder badges.
Q244. Can you tell the court anything further about them?
A244. They appear similar to the badges Lawrence turned in to me.
Q245. They were turned in to you?
A245. Yes sir, and I turned them over to Major Gibb, O.C. No. 2 Coy.
Q246. Who ordered Lawrence into close arrest?
A246. Cpl Barry.
Q247. At what time?
A247. He was brought into the orderly room and placed under close arrest, and on instructions from Sgt-Major Jones he was released under open arrest and then, when he appeared before the Coy Comdr, he was placed under close arrest.

Defending Officer declines to cross-examine this witness.
The prosecution is closed.
Q248. THE COURT: Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness?
A248. THE ACCUSED: Yes, sir.

A257. Twice.
Q258. How old are you, Lawrence?
A258. I am 18 now.

Q260. On 25 Jun it has been said you were acting as orderly room runner?
A260. That is correct.
Q261. And Sgt O'Grady, who was i/c of the fatigue party, asked you to go to the M.T. garage to get a lorry; is that right?
A261. That's right.

CROSS EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q233. Following the finding of the belt in the air raid shelter, did you use any words to Lawrence capable of being understood as to putting Lawrence under either open or close arrest?
A233. I did; I said to Pte Clarke, "Do you want me to put the man under arrest?"
Q234. Go on?
A234. That is all, sir.
Q235. That is all that was said about arrest?
A235. Yes, sir.
Q236. By you?
A236. Yes, sir.
Q237. I wish you would finish your evidence. You asked Clarke a question; what was his answer?
A237. He said he would see the Sgt-Major first.
Q238. Were you aware of the proposition Clarke put up to Lawrence that evening about Clarke getting back all of his badges by noon the next day, in which event there would be no charge?
A238. I heard some talk about that but I heard one of the boys say it; we had a new draft in and I don't know who it was ---

THE COURT: That is absolutely hearsay, but if you wish it in as evidence, all right.

DEFENCE: I appreciate that; thank you, sir.

THE COURT: It is straight hearsay.

DEFENCE: Actually, he volunteered that. That is all, sir.

(Prosecutor states that at this stage he would like to have called No. B-81735, Pte KAZUK, W., No. 1 RCASC H.U. but is unable to do so owing to the fact Pte KAZUK is in hospital. Prosecutor granted permission to read into evidence the sworn statement of Pte KAZUK given at the taking of summary of evidence 9 Jul 41. Said evidence on summary duly read).

7th witness for prosecution) No. M-20937, CPL W.C. KOCOUREK, No. 1 Royal Canadian Army Service Corps Holding Unit, being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor:-

Q239. You are No. M20937, Cpl W.C. Kocourek of No. 1 RCASC H.U.?
A239. Yes, sir.
Q240. Tell the court your duties?
A240. I am Cpl i/c No. 2 Coy orderly room.
Q241. Will you tell the court what you know about this case?
A241. On the night of 2 Jul 41 about approximately 2245 hrs Pte Lawrence came into the orderly room with Cpl Barry and Pte Clarke. In Clarke's possession was a leather belt with some badges on it. I was in bed at the time because I slept in the orderly room, and Pte Clarke preferred charges against Pte Lawrence as to the theft of his belt. He was placed under open arrest that night and the following morning he was tried before the Coy Comdr. At that time on bringing him into the office Clarke asked him where the six badges missing off the belt were and Pte Lawrence declared he had found the belt the week or so previous behind the dental clinic, and that the belt was the way he found it, with no badges missing.

Q218. I thought you said this Cpl Barry had placed him under arrest?
A218. He did, on his own initiative.
Q219. Did you have Cpl Barry's authority to make this proposition to Boy Lawrence?
A219. No, sir.
Q220. Your intention was not to prosecute the matter if you got your articles back?
A220. Yes, sir
Q221. How long have you known Lawrence?
A221. Since he arrived from Canada, I think some time in March.
Q222. Do you know his age?
A222. I don't know, but I knew he was a boy at the time.
Q223. How did you get along with him?
A223. Fine.
Q224. What sort of a soldier is he?
A224. I don't know, sir, I am in the QM stores and don't know anything about the parade square at all.

Q225. PROSECUTOR: Under what circumstances did you see your belt before you missed it?

DEFENCE: He already swore to that, sir - on his bed in the QM stores.

COURT: I don't think this is a new matter arising out of cross-examination. It is in the examination in chief that the belt disappeared from the barrack room bed.

Q226. PROSECUTOR: One other question. You are under oath. Are you prepared to say in the light of that, that Cpl Barry placed Lawrence under arrest at the moment you stated?

THE COURT: That is already in evidence.

PROSECUTOR: It is in evidence, but I am trying to find out if he is absolutely sure of this. Is the witness sure Cpl Barry did this, because I am not satisfied he did.

DEFENCE: I doubt very much if the prosecution is in the position of being able to challenge the sworn testimony of his own witness.

THE COURT: The shorthand reporter will read that eglience.

(Previous evidence read by the shorthand reporter).

Q227. THE COURT: Is there anything wrong or incorrect in that?
A227. No sir, only in the first place I believe Cpl Barry was going to place him under close arrest and then it was changed to open arrest.:
Q228. Is this (Exhibit A) the belt that you found in the air raid shelter?
A228. Yes, sir.

3rd witness) for prosecution) No. D-91935, CPL. J.B. BARRY, No. 1 Royal Canadian Army Service Corps Holding Unit, previously sworn, recalled and examined by the prosecutor:-

Q229. Tell the court what you know about this third charge?
A229. On the day and date mentioned about 2230 hrs I was returning home from Kingston and I saw Boy Lawrence showing a belt to a few friends. I was looking at the belt and calling the names of the badges out. In the meantime Pte Clarke was on the orderly room balcony and he happened to hear us and he came over and said to Cpl Barry, "Is there somebody here with a belt with some badges on it?" I said, "Yes, Boy Lawrence has." Just then Boy Lawrence disappeared down the air raid shelter and came back up again, and Pte Clarke said, "Can I see your belt?" He replied that it was in the barrack room, that he did not have it there. I said to Pte Clarke, "Go down the air raid shelter, it may be down there." Pte Clarke went down and found it and I identified it as the one Boy Lawrence just had. The next thing I knew he was under arrest.

CROSS EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q200. Is it true that as a result of a conversation you had with Lawrence you told Lawrence you would give him until the following day at noon to find the missing badges?
A200. I told him that evening if he returned the badges by the next day I would drop the charges.
Q201. On what date was this?
A201. When I told him this?
Q202. I mean the date you have just described, the evening of this deal, what date was that?
A202. 2 Jul 41.
Q203. On 2 Jul 41 you found out about the belt?
A203. Yes, sir.

DEFENCE: Mr. Prosecutor, will you please tell me the date of the charge sheet. For my own satisfaction I want to know whether the accused man was facing court martial at the time the question of this belt arose. I am interested in knowing whether Lawrence was already remanded for court martial on the first two charges at the time this incident with the belt arose. The other offences were on 25 Jun 41; what does it show on the original charge sheet as the date of remand?

PROSECUTOR: Remanded on 26 Jun 41 for summary of evidence.

Q204. DEFENCE: Did you know on 2 Jul 41 that Lawrence was already under arrest awaiting trial by court martial?
A204. I wouldn't swear to it, but I believe I did.
Q205. In the conversation you had with him on the evening of 2 Jul 41 what explanation if any did Lawrence made as to the manner in which he had come into possession of this belt?
A205. He said he found it on the sports field.
Q206. Is that the sports field adjoining the Martinique Bks?
A206. Yes, sir.
Q207. Did he tell you under what circumstances he found it?
A207. He said he had been lying on the grass in the afternoon, sleeping, and when he got up he found this belt a few feet from him.
Q208. Was your name on the belt?
A208. No sir, but my initials were on the buckle.
Q209. I take it you reported the matter to your orderly room?
A209. Yes, sir.
Q210. Did any notification appear in the coy or unit orders regarding the loss of the belt?
A210. Not to my knowledge.
Q211. You would be interested surely?
A211. Yes, sir.
Q212. Well, did it or didn't it?
A212. It didn't, as far as I know.
Q213. Did Lawrence have anything further to say about the belt?
A213. He said that the belt, as he gave it back to me on the evening of 2 Jul 41, was just as he had found it, and the following day he returned the two shoulder badges to the Cpl in the orderly room.
Q214. This is all very important, and it was left out before. The fact is, he did go out and recover some of these badges; did he get them all?
A214. No, sir, he returned two he had in his possession.
Q215. Did he give you any information as to whether the others had gone to?
A215. No sir, but other witnesses told me ---
Q216. Never mind that. What did Lawrence say about meeting your wish?
A216. He went out after that to get the badges, but was unable to get them.
Q217. What authority did you have to tell Lawrence if he did what you wanted him to do by noon the following day, you would drop the charges?
A217. At that time I had not laid any charge against him. I told him I would not press any charges if the badges were returned.

approximately two weeks before I had lost a belt containing a number of badges. I walked over to where Cpl Barry and Boy Lawrence were and when I got there there was no sign of any badges or belt. Just after I got there Boy Lawrence went into an air raid shelter and when he went down the air raid shelter I asked Cpl Barry if he had a belt there and he said Lawrence did.

THE COURT: Just a minute. You can only give evidence of what was said when the accused was present, in fairness to the accused.

THE WITNESS: Yes, sir. Boy Lawrence came out of the air raid shelter and I asked him if he had a belt there and he said No, that it was in his room. I asked him if he would let me see it and he said it was his belt. I said I had lost one previously and I would like to see it and if it was his belt there was nothing to worry about. He went into the barrack room to get the belt and I went down the air raid shelter in the presence of Cpl Barry and found the belt there. When Lawrence came out of the room Cpl Barry placed him under open arrest. Previous to this, in the absence of Boy Lawrence, I described the belt to Cpl Barry, naming the number of badges on it and describing the buckle.

Q193. THE PROSECUTOR: Can you describe this belt to the court?

DEFENCE: I am quite prepared if you show the witness the belt and he recognises it, that settles it.

Q194. BY PROSECUTOR: What is this (producing belt)?
A194. The belt that disappeared from my bed in the QM stores in Martinique Barracks.
Q195. BY THE COURT: That is the belt which disappeared about two weeks prior to the 2 Jul 41?
A195. Yes, sir.
Q196. BY PROSECUTOR: Is that belt as it was when it disappeared from your bed?
A196. No sir, there were six other badges on it.
Q197. Can you remember the badges which are missing?
A197. Two RCASC shoulder badges, one HLI badge, one badge I don't know what unit it was, and there was a badge of the Australian Forces and some other badge.

EXHIBIT 'A' - Belt identified by witness Pte J.H. Clark as being his property.

PROSECUTOR: I submit to the court the six badges.
COURT: Have the witness identify them.
PROSECUTOR: Yes, sir.

Q198. Tell the court what these are (producing badges)?
A198. Two RCASC shoulder badges; a badge of the Australian Forces; a badge with a bugle on it, I don't know what unit that is; the Royal Fusiliers; and the H.L.I. - they are the badges that were missing from the belt when I received it back.

EXHIBIT 'B' - Six misceallenous military badges.

Q199. When you picked the belt up from the air raid shelter did you know where the six missing badges were?
A199. No sir, I did not.

(Cross-Examination follows)

Q173. That has nothing to do with my question. I am going to insist upon you thinking about just what occurred. You have already sworn that you heard Lawrence tell Sgt O'Grady that it was impossible to get a vehicle that day; do you remember swearing that?

A173. Yes, sir.

Q174. Just keep that conversation in your mind. Now I ask you again, when Lawrence told Sgt O'Grady it was impossible to get a vehicle that day what explanation did Lawrence make as to why a vehicle could not be got that day?

A174. I can't remember that. All I know is Pte Lawrence told him he could not get a vehicle because he said there was none over there to get, that they were all out or busy or something.

Q175. You are just making that up out of whole cloth. You don't have to try that hard. Did you get along all right with Lawrence?

A175. Yes, sir.

Q176. What sort of a chap is he?

A176. He is all right with me.

Q177. Do you know how old he is?

A177. Yes, sir.

Q178. Is he pretty well liked among the boys?

A178. Yes, sir.

Q179. Is he the smart aleck type, or does he do his best to be a good soldier?

A179. All I know is he is all right and a good soldier as far as I am concerned.

Q180. Did he appear to be upset this morning after talking to Sgt O'Grady?

A180. No sir, he was not upset; he was normal.

Q181. Was Sgt O'Grady?

A181. He was normal, too.

Q182. How does he act when he is normal?

A182. Like anybody else, I guess, when anybody else is normal.

Q183. Did you hear Sgt O'Grady say to this youngster here, "I will fix you, you little bastard?"

A183. No, sir.

Q184. Was any profanity used?

A184. No sir, I didn't hear anything like that. All I know is what I have told the court.

Q185. THE COURT: I would like to refresh all our minds on what you actually did about 1330 hrs on 25 Jun 41. There is a lot of confusion it seems to me among all of us. I think you said you heard Sgt O'Grady either tell or order or request Boy Lawrence to stand to attention when he was talking to a senior NCO?

A185. Yes, sir, I heard that.

Q186. What did Sgt O'Grady say? What words were used?

A186. He said, "Stand to attention when talking to a NCO."

Q187. You are on oath, you know?

A187. Yes, sir.

Q188. And you can swear definitely that Sgt O'Grady used those words? You see what I am trying to get down to?

A188. Yes, sir, it was something like that.

Q189. To the best of your ability, what words were used by Sgt O'Grady?

A189. All I can recall is, "Stand to attention when talking to a NCO."

Q190. Then you said after that Boy Lawrence refused to do so?

A190. He didn't say anything; he just didn't stand to attention.

6th witness for prosecution) No. M-42009, PTE. J.H. CLARKE, No. 1 Royal Canadian Army Service Corps Holding Unit, being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor:-

Q191. You are No. M42009, Pte J.H. Clarke, No. 1 RCASC H.U.?

A191. Yes, sir.

Q192. Tell the court what you know about this case?

A192. Sir, on the 2 Jul at approximately 2230 hrs I was standing in front of the orderly room in New Martinique Bks when I heard Cpl Barry and Boy Lawrence talking about badges. Previous to this, at about Q156. Did you hear Sgt O'Grady say to Lawrence, "I will fix you, you little bastard?"

A156. No, sir.
Q157. Was any profanity used at all?
A157. No, sir.
Q158. It is not unusual for a man to get flushed and angry and start handing out orders and to use a little profanity?
A158. No, sir.
Q159. That has happened?
A159. Yes, sir.
Q160. You didn't hear anything like, "I will fix you, you little bastard?"
A160. No, sir.

5th witness for prosecution) No. D-81654, PTE. J.J.L. SMITH, No. 1 Royal Canadian Army Service Corps Holding Unit, being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor:-

Q161. You are No. D81654, Pte J.J.L. Smith, 1 RCASC H.U.?
A161. Yes, sir.
Q162. Tell the court what you know about this case?
A162. On 25 Jun 41 at 1330 hrs I was on a fatigue party with Sgt O'Grady and Sgt Gale. Sgt O'Grady asked Pte Lawrence to go to the M.T. garage and get a vehicle. Pte Lawrence answered that it was impossible to get one. Then Pte Lawrence was talking to Sgt Gale and Sgt O'Grady told him to stand to attention when talking to a NCO. Pte Lawrence refused to stand to attention and he checked him once, then he was put under open arrest. That is all I know about it.
Q163. What did you do then?
A163. I went back to my barrack room.
Q164. And he was put in open arrest, was he?
A164. Yes, sir.
Q165. How far away were you from all these proceedings?
A165. About five ft.
Q166. You could hear the conversation quite easily, could you?
A166. Yes, sir.
Q167. Were both Sgt O'Grady and Boy Lawrence talking in a loud tone of voice?
A167. Quite loud, sir.
Q168. Shouting?

DEFENCE: Everything you are asking is suggesting the answers to this witness and all he is saying is "Yes." It goes right to the root of the whole matter. My learned friend readily understands and the court appreciates, for whatever value it is worth, that there is some attempt being made on the part of the defence to show that there was some provocation.

THE COURT: (To prosecutor) Your questions are leading.

THE PROSECUTOR: I am sorry.
Q169. How was the conversation between Lawrence and Sgt O'Grady carried on?
A169. Quite clear - not too loud.

CROSS EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q170. How far away from Lawrence were you at the time he made reference to the bayonet?
A170. I was not in that. I didn't hear that part of it at all. That was done after I left for my barrack room. I don't know anything about the bayonet part.
Q171. Then we will go back to the beginning. You heard Lawrence say there was not a vehicle available; is that right?
A171. Yes, sir.
Q172. I want you to think for a moment and see if you can remember what explanation Lawrence made about why it was not possible to get a lorry on this particular day?
A172. I don't know anything about that. All I know is that Lawrence was a runner at the orderly room.

4th witness for prosecution) No. D-91663, PTE. W.G. KIRKMAN, 1st Corps Tps Ammn Coy, Royal Canadian Army Service Corps, being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor:-

Q136. You are No. D-91663, Pte W.G. Kirkman, 1 Corps Tps Amn Coy, RCASC?
A136. Yes, sir.
Q137. Tell the court what you know of this case?
A137. On the 25 Jun 41 at approximately 1330 hrs I was in the barrack block off duty when I heard Sgt O'Grady tell Boy Lawrence to go to the M.T. garage and get a vehicle. Boy Lawrence stated that he was employed in the orderly room as runner and would not have time to go. Sgt O'Grady seemed to be displeased with this and ordered Boy Lawrence to stand to attention, but he did not do so and Sgt O'Grady said he would place him on a charge.
Q138. Did Sgt O'Grady order Lawrence to stand to attention while talking to him?
A138. I can't say definitely, sir, it is so long ago, but I remember him telling Lawrence to stand to attention when talking to a senior NCO. Pte Lawrence got mad when Sgt O'Grady placed him on a charge and he said if he had a bayonet he would run it through him, and then Sgt O'Grady placed him under close arrest.
Q139. At this time was any other NCO involved in the conversation at all?
A139. I could not state definitely, but I believe Sgt Gale was there, sir.
Q140. Just tell the court how Sgt Gale was involved in the conversation?
A140. I don't know; I was passing through to the washroom because I was off duty.

CROSS EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q141. How far away were you from Lawrence when you heard Lawrence make this remark about the bayonet?
A141. Four or five ft.
Q142. Before he made the remark about the bayonet was there some further conversation between Sgt O'Grady and Lawrence?
A142. Yes, sir.
Q143. What was it all about?
A143. That was when Sgt O'Grady was ordering Lawrence to get the vehicle.
Q144. That was the first conversation you heard?
A144. Yes, sir.
Q145. And you heard Lawrence say he was the runner at the orderly room?
A145. Yes, sir.
Q146. Did you also hear Lawrence say the vehicles were going to maintenance getting ready for some inspection?
A146. No, sir.
Q147. You indicated Sgt O'Grady was displeased. How did Sgt O'Grady indicate he was displeased?
A147. He seemed to be getting mad because Lawrence was not carrying out the order.
Q148. I am quite interested in the demonstration that Sgt O'Grady would put on in order to have it register in your mind that he was displeased?
A148. By his tone of voice.
Q149. Describe that?
A149. He told Lawrence to stand to attention while talking to a senior NCO, and from the tone of his voice I gathered he was getting mad.
Q150. Describe it as what - would you describe it as an angry tone?
A150. Yes, sir.
Q151. Did his appearance indicate he was angry?
A151. He was sort of flushed.
Q152. What time of the day was it?
A152. 1330 hrs.
Q153. Did you hear Sgt Gale refer to Lawrence's buttons?
A153. No, sir.
Q154. You missed that part of the conversation, if it did take place?
A154. I don't know, sir.
Q155. You were going through, just passing through at the time?
A155. Yes, sir.

III.

this explanation about the trucks undergoing maintenance. Then was Sgt Gale involved in that conversation?

A114. He was talking, sir.

Q115. Your impression is that all three of them were together throughout?

A115. Yes sir, they were all standing in the hallway within three feet of each other.

Q116. What were they discussing?

A116. There was a discussion between Boy Lawrence and Sgt O'Grady about the truck, and there was a discussion after between Lawrence and Sgt Gale about buttons, and then it came to the question of his not standing to attention, Sgt O'Grady bringing that up.

Q117. Is it a standing order in your coy that a private soldier at all times stands to attention when speaking to a NCO?

A117. It is an army rule.

Q118. I am quite aware of army rules. Is it the standard custom in your coy?

A118. It is the custom in the army, sir.

Q119. I think I will stick to the question I am asking you. Is it the standard custom in your coy for private soldiers to stand to attention to NCOs of all ranks?

A119. They do so, sir.

Q120. To L/Cpls?

A120. We have none now, sir.

Q121. To Corporals?

A121. Yes, sir.

Q122. To Sgts?

A122. Yes, sir.

Q123. At all times?

A123. At all times on the parade square or anywhere on duty.

Q124. In barrack rooms?

A124. If we are on duty, sir.

Q125. When reference is made to the refusal to obey this order, I take it Lawrence didn't say, "I won't do it," did he?

A125. No sir, he just stood there and just wouldn't do it. The second time he said he would not do it.

Q126. This is interesting. He said, "I will not do it?"

A126. He said something to the effect, "I will not stand to attention."

Q127. Would it strike you as being very amazing that neither O'Grady nor Gale can recall the definite words of refusal, but only you can remember?

A127. I was a witness to it, but I was not in the discussion.

Q128. You are now swearing to something you say you heard, and you say something neither of the others could swear to, and that is that Lawrence made a definite verbal refusal to carry out the order?

A128. He did.

Q129. How long have you known Lawrence?

A129. Ever since he came over here,

Q130. You don't think much of him, do you?

A130. I do.

Q131. Why?

A131. I have never seen him do anything wrong before this.

Q132. He is a pretty good soldier?

A132. Yes, sir.

Q133. Was he a little upset on this morning?

A133. I think he was.

Q134. Was Sgt O'Grady?

A134. I don't know, but I know Lawrence was. I called him that morning the same as before because I always considered him as a boy.

Q135. You tell the court Lawrence was upset. Why hesitate when it involves O'Grady? Was Sgt O'Grady upset?

A135. I don't know him that well, sir; he is a man who changes a lot.

this explanation about the trucks undergoing maintenance. Then was Sgt Gale involved in that conversation?

A114. He was talking, sir.
Q115. Your impression is that all three of them were together throughout?
A115. Yes sir, they were all standing in the hallway within three feet of each other.
Q116. What were they discussing?
A116. There was a discussion between Boy Lawrence and Sgt O'Grady about the truck, and there was a discussion after between Lawrence and Sgt Gale about buttons, and then it came to the question of his not standing to attention, Sgt O'Grady bringing that up.
Q117. Is it a standing order in your coy that a private soldier at all times stands to attention when speaking to a NCO?
A117. It is an army rule.
Q118. I am quite aware of army rules. Is it the standard custom in your coy?
A118. It is the custom in the army, sir.
Q119. I think I will stick to the army, sir. Is it the standard custom in your coy for private soldiers to stand to attention to NCOs of all ranks?
A119. They do so, sir.
Q120. To L/Cpls?
A120. We have none now, sir.
Q121. To Corporals?
A121. Yes, sir.

A122. Yes, sir.
Q123. At all times?
A123. At all times on the parade square or anywhere on duty.
Q124. In barrack rooms?
A124. If we are on duty, sir.
Q125. When reference is made to the refusal to obey this order, I take it Lawrence didn't say, "I won't do it," did he?
A125. No sir, he just stood there and just wouldn't do it. The second time he said he would not do it.

A126. He said something to the effect, "I will not stand to attention."

Q130. You don't think much of him, do you?
A130. I do.
Q131. Why?
A131. I have never seen him do anything wrong before this.

A132. Yes, sir.
Q133. Was he a little upset on this morning?
A133. I think he was.

came along and Sgt O'Grady cautioned him to get a truck from the M.T. He answered back by saying there were no MTs available that day on account of maintenance. During the discussion Sgt Gale told Boy Lawrence his buttons were not shined on his greatcoat. Boy Lawrence said he knew about it, that the Sgt-Major had told him about it. Sgt O'Grady told him to stand to attention when talking to a senior NCO. He didn't do so. He was cautioned twice. A couple of minutes later Boy Lawrence threatened to run Sgt O'Grady through with a bayonet. I was then told to take Boy Lawrence to the guard room and he was placed under arrest on the orders of Sgt O'Grady.

Q99. You say he threatened to run Sgt O'Grady through with a bayonet, but did he have a bayonet with him at the time?
A99. No, sir, he didn't. He said if he had a bayonet he would run it through Sgt O'Grady. He said that twice, sir.
Q100. How close were you to them?
A100. Between four and six ft away, sir.
Q101. Did Sgt O'Grady say anything that would make Lawrence make a remark like that?

DEFENCE: I object. The prosecutor may ask the witness what was said but he cannot possibly suggest anything to the witness.

THE COURT: Your question, Mr. Prosecutor, is a matter of opinion.

Q102. BY THE PROSECUTOR: Did Sgt O'Grady say anything to Boy Lawrence?
A102. He didn't say anything, sir.
Q103. Immediately previous to Lawrence making that remark?
A103. No sir, I never heard anything like that, sir.

Q104. BY THE COURT: Don't misunderstand. Did Sgt O'Grady say anything to Boy Lawrence?
A104. The only thing he said ---
Q105. Then he did say something. Now, be careful; you are under oath. You are asked if Sgt O'Grady said anything to Boy Lawrence?
A105. He was just telling him that if he didn't do what he was told he would be placed under arrest.

CROSS EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q106. You were on a fatigue party with Sgt O'Grady?
A106. Yes, sir.
Q107. And you were present when Sgt O'Grady told Lawrence to go and get a M.T. truck?
A107. Yes, sir.
Q108. You heard Lawrence's explanation about the fact that the trucks were undergoing maintenance or inspection?
A108. Yes, sir.
Q109. If Sgt O'Grady swears that Lawrence did not make any such explanation to him, then Sgt O'Grady would be in error?
A109. Yes, sir.
Q110. Do you recall Lawrence being engaged in conversation with Sgt Gale?
A110. Yes sir, he was engaged in conversation with Sgt Gale and also with Sgt O'Grady.
Q111. Is it fair for the court to understand that this first conversation about the truck between Lawrence and Sgt O'Grady was over with and finished when the next conversation between Lawrence and Sgt Gale took place; is that right?
A111. They were still discussing it, sir.
Q112. I am a little confused ---
A112. There was a sort of argument, discussing it between Sgt Gale and Sgt O'Grady and Boy Lawrence, but I was not paying much attention to it at the moment because they seemed to be rather talking in a mess and everybody between the three of them was butting in on it.
Q113. What was it all about?
A113. I was not paying much attention to it. It was, as I thought, just another conversation.
Q114. Well, does this assist you in any way - Sgt O'Grady asked Lawrence to run an errand for him and get a lorry, then you hear Lawrence give Q81. You had instructions from the Sgt-Major to point out certain defects of kit to Lawrence?

A81. Yes, sir.
Q82. And Lawrence informed you that the Sgt-Major had already drawn his attention to it?
A82. Yes, sir.
Q83. At that point you might tell us what was Lawrence's manner to you when he made that explanation?
A83. Well, more or less off-hand; he was quite heated up about Sgt O'Grady asking him to do something about some truck.
Q84. When Lawrence left that conversation he was quite upset, was he?
A84. He was flushed in the face; he did not give me a very decisive answer and I said, "Now look, I asked you a decent question and I want a decent answer," and he turned around but did not stand to attention.
Q85. Now you have told us what the reaction of Lawrence was after this first conversation with Sgt O'Grady, and one realises the risk of asking you this question when it affects another of the same rank as yourself, but would you kindly indicate to the court whether Sgt O'Grady was not a little upset, too? Remember the oath you took on the bible, and that is a fair question. What about Sgt O'Grady?
A85. I wouldn't say that he ---
Q86. Just take the smile off your face. It is a fair question and I want your answer under oath?
A86. I would say he was upset in this respect, that when he asked Pte Lawrence to get this truck or find out about it Pte Lawrence said, "There is no use going, there is no use going," and he gave some explanation about his not being able to go and yet Sgt O'Grady suggested he should still go.
Q87. Then it is a fact Lawrence said to O'Grady, "There isn't much use going," and made some explanation?
A87. He said something about the trucks, but I didn't pay much attention to it, but I do know an explanation of some kind was made but I could not tell you what the explanation was.
Q88. Even if Sgt O'Grady denies that Lawrence made any explanation about the impossibility of getting a truck, you will still say under oath that Lawrence did give a reason?
A88. He gave some reason, yes sir.
Q89. How long have you known this soldier, Lawrence?
A89. I have been Pte Lawrence's Sec Sgt for some time.
Q90. It has been said he was in the sec for about four months before this incident arose?
A90. Yes, sir.
Q91. Did you ever have occasion to charge him with any offence?
A91. No, sir.
Q92. Or have you had occasion to have him up on a report?
A92. No sir, but I have checked him personally.
Q93. Did you know his age?
A93. I knew he was a boy soldier, but his age I did not know.
Q94. It is a fact he was the orderly room runner on that particular date?
A94. Yes, sir.
Q95. You say you could not hear what conversation went on finally between Sgt O'Grady and Lawrence and there was quite a commotion?
A95. I did not pay any attention to it; I was busy at the time.
Q96. Now this matter about the bayonet, did Lawrence have a bayonet with him?
A96. No, sir.

3rd witness for prosecution) No. D-91935, CPL. J.B. BARRY, No. 1 Royal Canadian Army Service Corps Holding Unit, being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor:-

Q97. You are No. D91935, Cpl J.B. Barry of No. 1 RCASC H.U.?
A97. Yes, sir.
Q98. Tell the court what you know about this matter?
A98. Sir, on the 25 Jun 41 at approximately 1330 hrs, while assisting on fatigue work in New Martinique Bks, we were discussing the question of men, we were pretty short of men, when Pte Lawrence or Boy Lawrence

THE COURT: I would like to hear that question first. I do not want the witness to answer the question, but what were you going to ask him?
THE PROSECUTOR: If Sgt O'Grady had said what Mr. Haney said he might have said or was supposed to have said, that is, called Lawrence a little bastard or words to that effect.
THE COURT: I think you are off on the wrong foot.
DEFENCE: The question I put to Sgt O'Grady was, "If Lawrence gives testimony later on here to the effect that you said, 'I will fix you, you little bastard,' would that be correct or not?"
THE COURT: Oh, I see.

Q77. BY THE PROSECUTOR: If Sgt O'Grady had said words to that effect -- you say you heard the conversation but were not paying much attention to it -- if those words were uttered by a NCO would you not prick up your ears?

THE COURT: Don't answer.

DEFENCE: Would you mind noting my objection to that? I will put it on another ground. This witness has already sworn a few minutes ago that "O'Grady might have said words I could not hear," so I am going to take full advantage, whatever there may be, of that sworn evidence of this witness.

THE COURT: I do not think that question should be answered anyway. It is impossible to answer conscientiously and it has no relevancy, whether he would have pricked up his ears.

Q78. THE PROSECUTOR: You did not hear Sgt O'Grady say anything, but did you hear anything else?
A78. That is all I heard, the statement of Boy Lawrence to the effect that if he had his bayonet he would put it through Sgt O'Grady. There was quite a commotion there at the time and I was interested in getting this work done. I could not help hearing that, but outside of that I paid no more attention to what was going on. I let Sgt O'Grady perform his duty and I performed mine.

CROSS EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q79. Before questioning you on one particular point I might, with the court's permission, draw attention to one feature of your evidence that you gave on the summary. I will read what you said then to you, this is midway through the evidence you gave on that occasion:

> "Sgt O'Grady checked him for not standing to attention while being spoken to by a senior NCO. Our conversation was finished. Pte Lawrence walked out towards the main hallway and stopped there. Sgt O'Grady continued his remarks about Pte Lawrence not standing to attention."

Now the evidence you have put on the record this morning, at least the impression I got was that you were still continuing your business with Pte Lawrence at the time Sgt O'Grady came to the two of you and went into the whole business of Lawrence not standing to attention, and I suggest there is a difference between the interpreation you gave on the other occasion and that which you gave this morning?
A79. I wished to imply in that statement on the summary of evidence what I meant by my conversation being finished with Pte Lawrence, what I meant was that Sgt O'Grady continued the conversation in respect to his having been checked in the first place. He checked him once and then after I had finished the conversation, I said our conversation was finished, and Sgt O'Grady then continued on in regard to him not standing to attention, but as far as I am concerned I meant that so far as Pte Lawrence was concerned I had finished my conversation with him and Sgt O'Grady took it up from there on.
Q80. You had finished it completely?
A80. Yes.

Q63. What was the order you gave him?
A63. I told Sgt Gale, first I said, "Is that the way you let a soldier speak to you?" Sgt Gale didn't do much about it.
Q64. What did he do, if anything?
A64. Nothing, sir.
Q65. Your first comment was directed to the Sergeant, was it?
A65. Yes, sir.
Q66. And the Sgt didn't take any action?
A66. I couldn't say whether he did or didn't, but I warned Boy Lawrence to take his hands out of his pockets and stand to attention when talking to a senior NCO, but he made no move to do so and stood there just the same and I warned him again and he did it in a very slovenly manner.
Q67. What words did you employ when you warned him?
A67. I called him by his proper name, but I called him "Pte Lawrence" then. I said, "Pte Lawrence, is that the way you have been taught to talk to a NCO?" and I told him to take his hands out of his pockets and he refused and on the second warning he took them out as though he didn't care, and then I put him under open arrest.
Q68. If Lawrence swears that you said to him, "You little bastard, I will fix you," or, "I will fix you, you little bastard," what would you say about that?
A68. I would say it is a false statement, sir.
Q69. That would be definitely false, would it?
A69. Yes, sir.

2nd witness) No. B-82997, SGT. M.E. GALE, No. 1 Royal Canadian for) Army Service Corps Holding Unit, being duly sworn, is examined prosecution) by the prosecutor:-

Q70. You are No. B82997, Sgt M.E. Gale, of No. 1 RCASC H.U.?
A70. Yes, sir.
Q71. Will you tell the court what you know about this case?
A71. Sir, on the 25 Jun 41, which I believe was on a Wednesday, I was with a fatigue party, I was i/c of a fatigue party. There was quite a shortage of men at the time.
Q72. Approximately what time is this you are telling us about?
A72. About 1330 or 1345 hrs, and Pte Lawrence was in conversation with Sgt O'Grady at the time and I was waiting to see him. The Sgt-Major gave me instructions to check Pte Lawrence in regard to minor deficiencies in his equipment, such as a couple of buttons off his coat and so on. Pte Lawrence started coming through the hall and I stopped him about a foot or two away from Sgt O'Grady and I said, "The Sgt-Major told me to tell you about these difficulties with your equipment," and he said, "I know about that, the Sgt-Major saw me about it, I am going to get some buttons," and he was standing more or less at ease position. Sgt O'Grady checked him up for not standing to attention when talking to a NCO and requested him to stand to attention. Pte Lawrence ignored Sgt O'Grady entirely.
Q73. Did Pte Lawrence say anything then to Sgt O'Grady?
A73. He never opened his mouth. At that moment the conversation I had had with Pte Lawrence, right after he had been told to stand to attention, was finished and he went to the end of the hall, about five or six ft away from the end of the hall, and Sgt O'Grady took up the conversation from then on. While I was getting Pte Smith at the window and one other, Sgt O'Grady was in conversation with Lawrence again, and I distinctly heard Lawrence say that if he had his bayonet he would shove it through him.
Q74. How far were you away from them at the time?
A74. About four or five ft.
Q75. Would it have been possible for Sgt O'Grady to have made any statement which you would not hear?
A75. Quite possible because I was more interested in my own work.
Q76. If Sgt O'Grady had said ---

DEFENCE: Watch that now; I might object to it.

of the business and there was no grief up to then?
A44. No, sir.
Q45. Then you turned around and saw Lawrence talking to Sgt Gale?
A45. Yes, sir.
Q46. Sgt Gale being senior to you in your company?
A46. Yes, sir.
Q47. Did you know what they were talking about?
A47. I didn't know.
Q48. Splendid. Then you elected to butt into their business?
A48. It is my job as a NCO.
Q49. When he is talking to a senior Sgt do you say it is your job to butt into their business?
A49. My job is to check a man up if he is not standing to attention when talking to a NCO.
Q50. Did it occur to you it might be the job of the senior NCO to check him up?
A50. I realised it then and mentioned it to the Sgt-Major. He was there.
Q51. Was the Sgt-Major there?
A51. He was around the area.
Q52. What is his name?
A52. Sgt-Major Jones, No. 2 Coy.
Q53. How far away was he?
A53. He was around the area.
Q54. You said he was there?
A54. He was in the wash-house right near my area.
Q55. All I want to know is, was the Sgt-Major in such a position to see this whole incident?
A55. He couldn't see it; he was around the area, though.
Q56. You saw Sgt Gale and Lawrence in conversation?
A56. Yes, sir.
Q57. Suddenly you let a roar out of you and said, "Stand to attention!"
A57. I didn't let a roar out of me. I walked up and said, "Stand to attention."
Q58. Did you excuse yourself to the Sgt?
A58. I told Sgt Gale, I said, "Have that man stand to attention."
Q59. You issued the order to Sgt Gale to have that man stand to attention?
A59. It seems I had to.

THE COURT: Sgt O'Grady is not on a charge here. It is Boy Lawrence who is charged with an offence. I have let you go because I thought you were building up to something.

DEFENCE: I will be glad to explain my point. One of the ingredients of the charge brings in a superior officer, and I thought ---

THE COURT: It is within the military knowledge of the court that a NCO is the superior officer of a private soldier or a boy, and I do not think it matters if there was a Brig present. Sgt O'Grady is the superior officer of Boy Lawrence.

DEFENCE: I express my regret to the court.

THE COURT: You have great latitude in defence, but I fail to see what you are arriving at.

Q60. DEFENCE: When you say Lawrence refused did he utter any words to indicate he was refusing to obey your command?
A60. No sir, he paid no attention to my order to stand to attention but just stood there with his hands in his pockets. I warned him a second time and then he took his hands out in an unsoldier-like manner.
Q61. If Lawrence swears he was in the act of walking away from Sgt Gale when you told him to stand to attention, is that correct?
A61. No, sir.
Q62. Your evidence is he was still in conversation with Sgt Gale?
A62. Yes, sir.

Q21. I didn't ask you for that, and thanks for throwing that in. Had you had him on a report before his Coy Comdr?
A21. No, sir.
Q22. Did any NCO under your charge act on your instructions to have him paraded before his Coy Comdr on report?
A22. No, sir.
Q23. Might it be fairly inferred by the Court that any things he might have done that did not suit you were of such a minor character you did not feel it proper to lay any charge against him or have him up on report?
A23. I have warned ---
Q24. Is it a fair proposition for the court to infer that his conduct was such that you did not feel you were justified in having him up even on report, let alone a charge?
A24. I think I did have him up on report through the Sgt-Major. I cannot remember all the times in the orderly room, but I am not the senior Sgt in the coy.
Q25. Who is?
A26. Sgt Gale is senior to me in this country; I don't know the way seniority goes. If it goes by service I would be senior to him, but I think the way they count seniority is by the time you have been in this country.
Q27. After all that, are you senior to Sgt Gale?
A27. No, in my estimation he is senior to me.
Q28. It has taken a long time to get that out. On the morning in question you were short someone and had some sort of a job to do which was to be done by M.T. truck; is that right?
A28. Yes, sir.
Q29. As I understand it, Lawrence was the orderly room runner?
A29. Yes, sir.
Q30. Did you mention that to my friend?
A30. I didn't think there was any need of mentioning it.
Q31. He was not in your fatigue party?
A31. He was in the area.
Q32. I would like you to take one of my questions and give me a true answer. Lawrence, being the orderly room runner, was not part of your fatigue party?
A32. No, sir.
Q33. Consequently he was not directly under your control?
A33. I think it is my job to check any man up.
Q34. When you first spoke to Lawrence it had nothing to do with Lawrence committing any crime against the army; is that correct?
A34. I don't get that question.
Q35. When you first spoke to Lawrence it was to have him carry out an errand you wanted him to do?
A35. It was a duty; he was on call for all jobs as a runner.
Q36. I suggest to you, as orderly room runner he was directly under the orderly room staff and not directly under you i/c fatigue party?
A36. He was under my jurisdiction; if he is in the barrack block he is under my jurisdiction.
Q37. When you are i/c fatigue party you say the orderly room runner is under your discipline?
A37. Yes, sir.
Q38. You can grab him and order him to run off after a truck or something?
A38. I didn't order him; I requested him to go.
Q39. Is it a fact that Lawrence told you all the vehicles were going through maintenance and he had heard no vehicles were available?
A39. No sir, he did not make that statement.
Q40. Are you quite sure about that?
A40. Yes, sir.
Q41. Then you turned around to your fatigue party some six ft away?
A41. Five or six ft, sir.
Q42. There is no grief up to that point?
A42. No, sir.
Q43. Then you turned around and saw Lawrence talking to who?
A43. To Sgt Gale. First, sir, I turned around and walked to the fatigue party, though.
Q44. All right; you are at the fatigue party. That finishes the first part PROSECUTOR: The prosecution will take the first two charges together, sir, and the last one after.

THE COURT: Is that satisfactory to you?
DEFENCE: Yes, sir.

Q7. Just tell the court what you know about this case?
A7. Sir, at approximately 1345 hrs on the 26 Jun 41 I was Sgt i/c of a fatigue party then stationed in Martinique Bks. We were very short of men at the time.

Q8. THE COURT: What date?
A8. The 25th, sir; my mistake; I am sorry. I was i/c of a fatigue party in Martinique Bks and we were very much down on strength for men. I met the said soldier walking down the hallway in D block at Martinique Barracks.
Q9. What 'said soldier?'
A9. Boy Lawrence, the accused. I stopped Boy Lawrence, sir, and requested him to go to the M.T. Corporal and see if it was possible to get a truck to remove straw that had to be burnt. Boy Lawrence spoke to me in a very insolent manner. I warned him.

DEFENCE: I might draw the court's attention to the fact that on a charge of this particular nature it would be the function of the court to judge whether the manner was insolent or not, and I think the witness should state just what did occur. He is not a judge of whether it was insolence or not; that is the function of the court.

Q10. BY PROSECUTOR: I suggest you withdraw that statement and put a little softer term on it?
A10. He did not speak in a very soldier-like manner, sir. I warned him and turned around. When I went to my fatigue party about six feet away I was carrying on with the job and I turned around again and saw Boy Lawrence in conversation with a Sergeant; he was standing in a very slovenly-like manner, with his hands in his pocket, and I checked him up and told him to stand to attention when talking to a NCO. He refused to do so. I warned him again. He still refused to stand to attention. I placed Boy Lawrence under arrest and just as I was leaving Boy Lawrence he passed the remark that if he had a bayonet he would run it through me. I then fell in an escort and put Boy Lawrence in the guard room.
Q11. Did you at any time use any language one could call threatening to the accused?
A11. No, sir.
Q12. When you said, "Lawrence, stand to attention," did he say anything or simply not act?
A12. He simply did not carry out the order, sir. He just stood there, sir.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q13. How long had the accused prior to 25 Jun 41 been in your company?
A13. I couldn't say that, sir. The only place where you could get that information would be our own orderly room.
Q14. A short time or some months?
A14. To my estimation, about four months.
Q15. Are you aware of the fact that Lawrence had his eighteenth birthday last month?
A15. Yes, sir.
Q16. So that at the time, say four months before this incident you referred to, you knew you were dealing with a 17-year old, did you?
A16. No, sir.
Q17. You assumed he was the proper army age?
A17. Yes, sir.
Q18. Even on the 25 Jun when you were involved in this matter with him?
A18. Yes, sir.
Q19. You thought he was how old?
A19. I understood sir, by the orderly room report, that he was 18.
Q20. Had you had any previous occasion during the four months to lay any charge against him?
A20. No, but I had previous occasion to check Boy Lawrence up.

PROSECUTOR ON THE FINDING

The accused notwithstanding the warning order absented himself without leave, knowing the consequences. I submit that in these times of emergency the accused was aware that he was avoiding an important military duty in as much as he did absent himself after having received a warning for overseas duty, and that he should therefore be found guilty of desertion. If the Court cannot agree that this charge is one of desertion I would ask that under AA 56 subsection 3 that he be found guilty of absence without leave.

DEFENDING OFFICER ON THE FINDING

I submit that the accused did not absent himself for the purposes of avoiding an overseas draft. His intention was to see his brother who was returning to Canada. He had every intention of returning and did in fact return to CCRU of his own free will in time for the next draft or the present one if it had not gone. The accused has said in his own statement that he did not intend avoiding service in Italy by absenting himself. While serving in Sicily and Italy he was in hospital 4 times. He served in the Mediterranean from Jul 43 to the end of Jul 44 with the Cdn Corps and during that time was in hospital twice with malaria, once with dyssentery and once by an accident. The MVM 6 of the accused is absolutely clear despite the fact that he has had 5 yrs service less one week. The accused is 23 yrs of age and is not married. I submit that the case was aggravated, that the accused had no leave for 18 months and his brother being returned to Canada he wanted to see him. The reason he absented himself was to see his brother - he did not absent himself with intent to avoid the draft.

THE COURT IS CLOSED TO CONSIDER THE FINDING

PLEA IN MITIGATION

THE DEFENDING OFFR STATED THAT HE HAD COVERED MITIGATING CIRCUMSTANCES IN WHAT HE HAD SAID TO THE COURT ON THE FINDING.

D-5 - D E F E N C E -

FIRST WITNESS

The accused, K.52183 Cnr LAWLEY, J.H.L., 1 CGRU, having been duly sworn, states:

Q. You stated that you intended to go back to the next draft?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q. You knew that when you left and absented yourself what the probable consequences might be?
A. We had them read out to us.

Q. You were properly warned what the consequences might be?
A. The warning order was read out to us but it was pretty noisy in there at the time my name was called out in there, sir, by Maj Lawrence. I was told by one of my chums that my name was called.

Q. Did you hear the statement that you were liable to be charged with desertion?
A. Yes, sir, I did.

Q. And you did answer to your name and give your regimental number?
A. Yes, sir.

Q. You have stated that when you went on this leave of absence without permission that you didn' want to go back to
A. Sir, I didn't know how long it would take. I had gone to 1 CARU and found out that he had gone to NETD., I went down there and found him. We got talking, and we didn't take any notice of the time at all but I figured that I would be home in time for the draft.

Q. Is it a fact though, that you went on leave with the thought in your mind that you didn't want to go back to Italy.
A. No, sir. I had every intention, but I was late in getting back, but when I found that the draft was gone, I thought that I might as well take my seven days leave.

NO CROSS-EXAMINATION

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B).

THE DEFENCE IS CLOSED

Office 1 CGRU. At approx 1400 hrs 30 Aug 44 the accused reported in from AWL. He was sober and properly dressed. I reported this to Lt Simister who then instructed me to escort the accused to the Gd Room where I turned him over to the Provost Cpl on duty.

FOURTH WITNESS

Capt S.T. STRATHY, 1 CGRU, having been duly sworn, states:

I recognize the accused. On 31 Aug 44 the Adjt 1 CGRU warned me to take a Summary of Evidence in the case of Pte Lawley and accordingly that afternoon I called together the witnesses and Pte Lawley. Before taking the Summary I called in the accused and informed him of the reason for taking the Summary and told him that he could question the witnesses after they had given their evidence and that after all the witnesses had been called that he could make a statement if he so desired, but that he did not have to, and that he could make the statement on oath or not on oath as he desired. The CO 1 CGRU had directed that the evidence be taken on oath. The witnesses were called in order and sworn and each witness gave his evidence. After each witness had given his evidence the accused was asked if he wished to ask any question of the witness and in each case he said no. After they all had given evidence I then cautioned Lawley in accordance with RP 4(E) and asked him if he would like to make a statement which he did on oath. The statement is in the Summary of Evidence.

Q. Do you recognize this as the Summary of Evidence (Prosecutor hands the witness all of Summary of Evidence).
A. Yes, this is the statement I took and this on page two is the statement by the accused. I saw him sign it and I offer it in evidence.

STATEMENT MADE UNDER OATH BY THE ACCUSED AT THE SUMMARY ADMITTED IN EVIDENCE AND MARKED EXHIBIT 2.

THE WITNESS THEN READ THE STATEMENT TO THE COURT.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. Can you explain the just of RP 4(E).
A. Yes. When I cautioned the accused under RP 4(E) I used the following words "do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence upon oath. You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence".

Q. In your mind did you believe the accused understood the nature of that warning?
A. Yes, because I warned the accused before the witnesses were called. I explained to him in simple language after the witnesses had been called why he would be given a chance to make a statement.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B).

THE PROSECUTION IS CLOSED

Q. WHAT happened when you got there?
A. As Warning Offr I was present and the accused Ite Lawley was absent. The roll was called by the Records Offr and Lawley was not present The draft left approx an hr later on 20 Aug 44.

Q. Did the draft go overseas?
A. It was a special draft for overseas.

Q. Did the draft return?
A. No, it did not. The accused was still absent when the draft went and did not go with it.

SECOND WITNESS

Lt J. SINISTER, Gen Coy 1 CGRU, having been duly sworn, states:

On the date in question t e 19 Aug I was the Admin Offr of Gen Coy 1 CGRU. I attended the warning parade on UKIT 3 as a witnessing offr at 1030 hrs 19 Aug 44. Maj Lawrence called the roll at that parade and the accused Gnr Lawley answered his name. I knew the accused because he had been paraded to me a few minutes before the prade and I actually noticed that the accused did answer his name.

Q. The next parade?
A. The next parade was called for 2030 hrs 20 Aug 44 and I was present, and when the names were called the accused was not present and did not answer his name. The accused did not proceed with the draft. Gnr Lawley came to me as I said just before, before the first parade. His brother was a Sjt in one of the Arty RUs. He requested to be posted to the Arty RU with his elder brother. I got in touch with the Adjt of 1 CGRU to find if it was possible and he assured me that nothing could be done and the accused was so informed.

Q. Did the accused bring up any question asking for leave?
A. Yes, I forget the exact date he came to me. He paraded with another soldier who had returned from Italy with him and asked for leave. This would be a day or two before the first warning of this draft. I again talked to the Adjt of 1 CGRU and was told that nothing more than a 24 hr pass could be given him. The last time he paraded to me he did not ask for leave.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. Would you say again that the accused applied for when he came in about 15 mins before the draft was warned?
A. He asked to get his transfer affected to the Arty RU as his brother had put in a claim for him.

Q. The accused applied for a 48 hr leave at that time?
A. No, not at that time, he did apply 2-3 days beforehand. I particularly remember that his brother was with him when he saw me 15 mins before the draft was warned.

- PROSECUTION -

FIRST WITNESS

Maj E.J.L. LAWRENCE, OC Clerks' Coy 1 CGRU, having been duly sworn, states:

I was appointed as Officer in charge of a warning parade for a special draft UKIT 3. The warning parade was held in the Stanhope Theatre at approx 1030 hrs on 19 Aug 44. All personnel of the draft were assembled and I checked the personnel against the nominal roll. It was done by calling the names in the case of offrs, the offrs stood up and showed themselves and in the case of ORs I instructed them to stand up, answer to their name and repeat their regtl number. The accused's name was called, an OR stood up and answered and repeated the correct regtl number. On that parade there were several who failed to answer their names but the accused did not fail to answer his name. I then read the following warning to the members of the draft.

"The u/m personnel will proceed on draft at times and dates indicated below, having been duly warned on 19 Aug 44. You have been selected to proceed on draft and you are now warned that you must be present and ready to go when the draft is sent off. Any unauthorized failure on your part to go with the draft when it leaves will result in you being charged with desertion on active service. If you are convicted of desertion the Court has the power to sentence you to a maximum of penal servitude for life. You have been, or are in the process of being fully equipped with kit and equipment. You are now warned that if you arrive at your destination deficient any item of kit and equipment which you have been issued, you will be required to replace the deficiency on repayment and disciplinary action will be taken. You will parade ready to move off from the Maida Men's Mess Maida Bks at 2030 hrs, 20 Aug 44".

I offer in evidence Pt 1 Order of 1 CGRU No 232 dated 19 Aug 44 which contains the words of the warning and the nominal roll of the members of the draft.

PT 1 ORDER OF 1 CGRU 232 DATED 19 AUG 44 OFFERED AND RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE AND MARKED EXHIBIT 1.

(Witness continues)

The accoustics in the Stanhope Theatre are average, and I am satisfied that everyone on the draft could hear everything that I had said. The next parade was at 2030 hrs the 20 Aug 44 at the Mens Mess at Corunna Barracks.

Q. What notice was given of the change?

A. The offrs in charge of the draft had been informed of the change, and they had been instructed to inform all members of the draft.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of G-27423 Private Lawler, S.D. (Carleton and York Company), No. 1 Canadian Division Infantry Reinforcement Unit.

By direction of the Commanding Officer, this Summary is taken on oath.

1st Witness G-17815 Cpl. Richard, J.A., having been duly sworn, states:

For the week ending 2400 hours, March 22, 1942, I was acting Orderly Sergeant for the Carleton and York Company, No. 1 Cdn. Div. Inf. Reinf. Unit. On March 22, 1942, G-27423 Pte. Lawler, S.D., the accused, whom I now recognize, had a pass permitting him to be absent from camp till 2359 hours on this date. I was on duty till 2400 hours on this date, but the accused had not reported in up to this time.

I called the roll at 0630 hours on the 23rd March, 1942, and found that the accused was absent. From this time on, until the 29th March 1942, I was acting Orderly Sergeant, but as there was a night N.C.O. on duty from 1800 hours till 0630 hours each day, I did not call the roll again, but I fell in the parade every morning, and frequently checked the huts. The accused was not on any parade, nor did I see him at any time from about 1200 hours on the 22nd of March until after he returned to camp on the 29th of March.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Cpl. Richard J.A.

2nd Witness G-23017 Cpl. Huard, C., Carleton and York Regt. No. 1 Cdn. Div. Inf. Reinf. Unit, having been duly sworn, states:

I started my tour of duty as night N.C.O. for the Carleton & York Coy. at 1800 hours on the 29th of March 1942. I called the Roll at 2200 hours on this date and found that G-27423 Pte. Lawler, S.D., the accused, whom I now recognize, was absent. At about 2359 hours on this date I was in the Coy. Orderly Room and the accused came in and reported to me.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Cpl. Huard C.

The accused having been duly warned in accordance with Rule of Procedure 4(E), reserves his defence.

Certified that Rule of Procedure 4(C)(D)(E)(F) and (G) has been complied with.

Taken down by me in the presence and hearing of the accused, this 1st day of April 1942, at Algonquin Camp, Witley, Surrey.

BRIEF SUMMARY OF STATEMENT IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT AND EVIDENCE AS TO CHARACTER.

Lieut. H.E. Belyea (Defending Officer) makes the following statement:

Gentlemen, the accused first enlisted in the Cdn. Army on 9th of Sept. 39 he joined just like the rest of us with the intention of going overseas and to get into action. At that time gentlemen I was C.S.M. in H.Q. Coy of the New Brunswick Rangers, and the Platoon Commander of the accused. Pte. Lawler was with us 2 months, all that time he gave us no trouble, except one case of 4 days AWL, the reason for this was because his Mother was sick and he was refused leave to go and see her. A few days later he received another letter from his brother stating that his Mother was still sick, so he went A.W.L. When he returned he was brought before the Col. who was very easy on him, and only gave him 7 days CB. The accused, Pte. Lawler, was picked as one of our best drilled and smartest soldiers, as far as our training went at that time, and he was sent to the Carlton York Regt., at Woodstock, N.B., and came overseas. After being here for some time he went, via hospital, to the Holding Unit, this seems to be where the accused's troubles started. I would like to say to the Gentlemen of the Court that some of you might not be familiar with a Holding Unit, there are lots of fatigues, work parties etc. which are very tedious and tiring to a soldier. I was also C.SM of the Carl. Y. Reinf Coy., (No 1 CIHU) and was in close contact with the accused, and I think he was one of the smartest and best soldiers in the company, and I ask leniency before the Court passes sentence.

Prosecutor, sworn, produced AF B-09 and copy of NFM-6.

On the 5th day of November, 1940, I was Guard Commander. At about 1905 hours, Pte. Carbonne was coming back from the washroom, escorting Pte. Lecompte, when Pte. The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Third Witness for Prosecution — D-51064, Pte. Carbonne, R., having been duly sworn, states:

At about 1905 hours, 5th November, 1940, I was escorting a prisoner to the washroom when I came back to unlock the door to the Guard Room, two of the prisoners in the Guard Room pushed me aside and then ran from the Guard Room. I did not know who had escaped until the roll of the prisoners was called and Lawler was one of them.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

H.H. Graham .....Lieut.,
Officer detailed by C.O. # 2 C.I.H.U. to take Summary of Evidence.

Q12 - (Defending Officer): Tell us why you broke arrest?
A12 - The guard room wasn't in good condition and we were being treated very bad. The condition of the guard room was vermonous. We got a bath every two weeks.

President: Q13 - Will you answer some questions I wish to put to you?
A13 - Yes, sir.
Q14 - How old?
A14 - 19 years, sir.
Q15 - When did you come over to England?
A15 - 16th of December 1939.
Q16 - What Regiment?
A16 - Carleton & Yorke, Sir.
Q17 - When did you go to the Recce Squadron?
A17 - About eight months ago.
Q18 - How long before you first went A.W.O.L.
A18 - I was in the Recce Squadron about two months before the 15th of August, when I went A.W.O.L.
Q19 - Didn't you like that job?
A19 - Yes, sir.
Q20 - Motor cycles to run around with, pretty good sort of a job, eh?
A20 - Yes, sir.
Q21 - What made you go A.W.O.L.?
A21 - I was having trouble with a sergeant.
Q22 - What was the trouble with your sergeant?
A22 - I wanted a pass once in a while and he told me I couldn't get one.
Q23 - You didn't think that this conduct sheet of yours would have anything to do with that, did you?
A23 - I don't know, sir.
Q24 - There are A.W.O.L.'s in your conduct sheet as long as your arm, six charges.
A24 - I don't think it was that, sir.
Q25 - You admit you have had quite a bit of unauthorized leave?
A25 - Any I had before this was for only two or three days, sir.
Q26 - You would think that it was almost a right to go A.W.O.L. any time you wanted?
A26 - No, sir.
Q27 - You have had no training practically since the 15th of August, have you?
A27 - No, sir.
Q28 - Haven't done a bit of soldiering at all, have you?
A28 - No, sir.
Q29 - So you have lost all that training since that time, haven't you?
A29 - Yes, sir.
Q30 - Anything else to say?
A30 - No, sir.

President: Apparently you are a young man who got the bit in your teeth and thought you could beat the army game. Let me warn you that it can't be done. Since you have been in this country you have gone A.W.O.L. a number of times and then just because you felt that some sergeant wasn't giving you enough leave you decided to go absent for 41 days. You had this interesting job in the Recce Squadron and you chose to throw it away. In the first instance when you joined the Army you felt you wanted to do a good job, didn't you?
Accused: Yes, sir.
President: If you ever get out in civil life this long crime sheet will follow you. You wont be able to get a job because of your record in the army. You realize that, don't you?
Accused: Yes, sir.
President: When you come out of detention you will have lost all that training. Will you behave yourself from now on?
Accused: Yes, sir.

The Court was closed to consider the sentence.

C 27423 Pte. Lawler, S. D. No. 2 Can Infantry Holding Unit, tried by Field General Court-Martial at Whitley, March 4, 1941.

The order convening the Court, the charge sheet and the summary of evidence are laid before the Court.

Prosecutor: Lieut. G. A. Addy,
Defending Officer, Lieut. L. J. Kronger.

At 1000 hours the trial commences.

The names of the President and members of the Court are read over to the accused and they severally answer to their names.

Q1 - Do you object to be tried by me as President, or by any of the officers whose names you have just heard read over?
A1 - No, sir.

The President and members are duly sworn.

Q2 - Do you object to B 88581 Sgt. James Lonergan, Royal Canadian Artillery, C.M.H.Q., acting as Court Reporter?
A2 - No, sir.

The Court Reporter is sworn.

The charge sheet is signed by the President and annexed to the proceedings.

The accused is arraigned upon the charges in the above-mentioned charge sheet.

Q3 - Are you guilty or not guilty of the first charge against you, which you have heard read?
A3 - Guilty, sir.
Q4 - Are you guilty or not guilty of the second charge against you, which you have heard read?
A4 - Guilty, sir.
Q5 - Are you guilty or not guilty of the third charge against you, which you have heard read?
A5 - Guilty, sir.

R.P. 35(B) complied with.

Q6 - Is there any evidence as to the character and particulars of service of the accused?
Prosecutor is duly sworn.
A6 - Yes, sir, I produce A.F.B. 296 and certified true copy of M.F.M. 6.
Q7 - Is the accused the person named in the statement which you have read?
A7 - He is, sir.
Q8 - Have you compared the contents of the above statement with the regimental books?
A8 - Yes, sir.
Q9 - Are they true extracts from the regimental books, and is the statement of entries in the conduct sheets a fair and true summary of those entries?
A9 - Yes, sir.
The accused declines to cross-examine.

Q10 - Do you wish to make a statement in mitigation of punishment?
A10 - Yes, sir, under oath.
Q11 - Do you wish to produce any witness as to character?
A11 - No, sir.

Plea for Mitigation

Sirs

The defence pleads of leniency for Pte. Sanford. in that this is the first time that he has been brought up on a charge of drunkeness and if he was drunk on 15 Feb 45 his state was certainly not serious.

I myself am also vexed for the fact that Pte Sanford is one of the best dressed and smartest soldiers this Coy has. He rarely does a guard duty as this is a staff man for he is nearly always chosen as such.

Also Pte Sanford was in the air force at the outbreak of war and while returning from operations he crash because his plane was so badly damaged by enemy action. He was a pilot. This cost him almost a year in hospital and a final discharge from the air-force. Only one year after this Pte Sanford enlisted in the army and was overseas.

by going on the stand and stating that he was first told to rove through the harbour, and that while he was doing this the O.O. came and could not find him. In fact, the O.O. states that when he asked the accused where he had been he indicated that he had been outside the harbour altogether.

The salient points are, then, that the accused was warned for guard, and did in fact relieve the former guard. He was therefor properly posted. At 2310 hrs or thereabouts, he was not at his post, and could not offer any reason why he had left it. Quite properly he was immediately placed under open arrest. The O.O., the guard NCO, and the Cpl on guard with him all state that they did not order or give him permission to leave his post, except that later Sgt Hastings was forced to pull him off as unfit for duty.

What happened is plain to see. He went on guard, having had a few drinks, and then went off to get some more to drink. He must have got hold of plenty of it because not long afterwards Sgt Hastings had to relieve him of his duty because he was drunk.

On the second charge there is no defence whatsoever. The man was unfit for duty and could not be trusted to carry on. You will note that while on duty if a man is merely under the influence, the charge of drunkenness is proven.

I ask the court to find the accused guilty on both charges. The security angle involved is quite obvious.

Closing Address - Prosecution. JOD

Gentlemen. The accused is charged, first, with "When on active service leaving his post without orders from his superior officer". You will note that section 6(2) f includes "guard, piquet, patrol, or post". Now, in a tank park such as this one in Florence, a 'post' is undoubtedly some part of this park from where a proper view can be had of the park. This, according to two witnesses, Lieut O'Dell and Sgt Hatforge, was at each end of the street in which the tanks were parked. The NCO of the guard for that night, Sgt Hatforge, is quite definite that his instructions did not refer in any way to a roving piquet. That was not the idea at all. The Orderly officer for the night is equally definite — there were to be two guards posted at each end of the park, and nothing was said regarding their roving through the park. One witness for the defense claims that he was told it was a roving duty — but when he was told this, the accused was not present. Evidently, there was some misunderstanding at the time, because there is no doubt about Sgt Hatforge's evidence - he was recalled, and re-affirmed that the instructions he gave said nothing of roving at all, and he gave a logical reason for the order - They were to prevent any civilians from coming into the tank park from nearby streets.

2 If the accused was told his duty was to rove, why did he not give evidence to that effect? No explanation of his absence was offered at all — where was he? He does not even try to defend himself accused must have left with his permission for no evidence has been brought to show that Cpt Stewart ever attempted to detain him.

The only proof of drunkenness brought forward by the prosecution is that the accused was belligerant and thick of speech. Surely every man who is belligerant is not drunk or there would be a lot of drunkenness charges. If the court also listens to the accused speech they will find that at normal it is not exactly clear or sharp. This is also the first time Cpt Stanford has ever charged.

The defense would like to point out to the court that Cpt. Stanford has spent much of his time in the air force and has few close contacts in the army among commissioned ranks. The only character witness that the defense feels would bear any weight with the court is at present on leave in England and unobtainable.

Sirs:

The prosecution has put before you the evidence that is supposed to prove Pte. Lawford guilty leaving his post without orders from a superior officer.

First of all the prosecutor cannot establish where the post was or whether it was a post or a beat. Also he has failed to prove where Pte. Lawford was except that he was not with Cpl Stewart and Cpl. Stewart certainly was not his post. You have heard Cpl. Kilbirth say he was ordered to be roving guard and that he did it. Pte. Smith states that the guard he relieved told him he was to rove half way down the tank and that he did this. Therefore the defence fails to see how the court can find Pte. Lawford guilty of leaving his post when he where about are not know nor where he looked for and also when there has been no post established.

The evidence brought forward by the defence is very conflicting. Sgt. Hughes says all guards were present at roll parade and warned by him. It has been proved that Pte. Smith was not there and that no roll was called.

Wm. O'Dell states that Cpl Stewart said that he knew where Pte. Lawford was while Cpl Stewart himself has two stories One that he told Wm. O'Dell that he did not know where ~~he was~~ Pte. Lawford was, and ~~two~~, that he said he thought he knew where Pte. Lawford was.

How can the Court possibly find Pte. Lawford guilty of leaving without permission when it has not been proved that the Cpl. knew where Pte Lawford was or even thought he knew, the Cpl. knew where Pte Lawford was

The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your pleas and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement on sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

At approximately 10.05 hrs 27.5.42 I was passing West Croydon Station, when I recognised the a/m man as an absentee from this Unit from 11.5.42.

He gave me the impression that he was waiting for a train, and as I had no escort and I could see no Civil Police, I had no alternative but to challenge the man myself. On demand he produced his A.B.64 Part I which proved his identity and I then told him that I would escort him back to Barracks, where I would place him under close arrest.

He asked me if I would take him to the Y.M.C.A. as his haversack was there. I agreed to this, as I had noticed that one of my Unit's trucks was stationary opposite the Y.M.C.A. and I intended to use the truck to bring him back to Barracks. As I entered the Y.M.C.A. I asked the Sergeant who was on the truck to wait, which he did.

I escorted Tpr. Law downstairs being a few yards behind him. He turned left and disappeared from view. I immediately searched the dormitory, ablution rooms, etc. and satisfied myself that he was not there. I then searched the remaining public rooms and satisfied myself that he was not on the premises. I later found a door in the lower building, which led out into the street. I then returned to Barracks and telephoned the C.M.P. Unit at Croydon and gave them a description of the man.

: Defence of D16654 A/L/Cpl Law C.R.

Thirdly, the character and efficiency of this soldier since joining this unit over a year ago have been above reproach. As a result of his efficiency in the SICILIAN CAMPAIGN he was made an A/L/Cpl. I will later call L/Cpl Law's Platoon Offr as a character witness. Further proof of L/Cpl Law's good character is shown by his AF B 6 which shows no entry.

Secondly I would draw the Court's attention to the fact that L/Cpl Law is up for Court Martial only because the charge is so framed that his Commanding Offr can not try him summarily.

Thirdly I am having my defence of L/Cpl Law in extenuating circumstances & I will call him & the events leading up to the alleged Offence.

On the 9 Sep 43 our light scale Gpt & personnel were still in SICILY waiting to rejoin their Coy. From 9th Sep date until the morning of the 12th L/Cpl Law spent one night on MCC Vc guard, one night aboard an LST & one night in a transit camp, in all an absence of eighteen hours & twenty minutes short. L/Cpl Law admits quite freely that he was a bit homesick & irritable & did swear at CSM's Mc Callum as stated in the charge sheet subsequently very sorry for his action as there had never been any previous ill feeling between L/Cpl Law and CSM's Mc Callum. L/Cpl Law agrees that he should plead guilty however I would direct the Court's attention to Mil Law Gde Bk Para 71 where it states "_____ (The Defence read this to the Court)

This paragraph covers the situation as it existed at the time of the alleged Offence. I therefore respectfully submit that on these grounds, L/Cpl Law is NOT GUILTY.

NOTICE UNDER RP 76

Take notice that at your forthcoming trial by FGCM, Supervisor R G ALLISON, Cdn Legion War Services, will give evidence as follows:-

"I am a Supervisor for Cdn Legion War Services Inc, which organization operates the Canada Club in Rome. The Snack Bar is operated, and was operated on 7 Nov 44, by the said organization and all money which is taken in by the cashiers from the sale of tickets for the Snack Bar is turned over to Cdn Legion War Services. They have control of the money and eventually it is accounted for through various channels to the Cdn Government."

statement was purely voluntary and that he did not have to sign if he did not want to. The accused soldier signed the statement, and I recognize his signature at the bottom. The statement was turned over to Sgt Nicol for his file on the case. I produce the statement. (Marked Exhibit "B")."

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

FOURTH WITNESS: H4011 Sgt NICOL W J, No 3 Cdn Provost Coy, Rome Det, having been duly sworn states:

"On 7 Nov 44 I was in charge of the Provost Det in Rome at the Canada Club when a soldier was brought to me by L/Cpl Laird. This was about 1530 hours. I would recognize the soldier if I saw him again. That is him (pointing to accused). L/Cpl Laird informed me in the presence of the accused that he was brought down for questioning in connection with theft of money from the Snack Bar of the Canada Club. The accused was not under arrest at that time. I questioned him in connection with the incident upstairs. He said "Yes, I was upstairs by the Snack Bar". I then asked him to turn out his pockets, which he did. He had a quantity of Allied Military Notes in his possession. There was 2972 lire in bills of the denominations of one hundred, fifty, ten and five lire notes. Of the money that was taken from the accused 2420 was returned to Signorina BRILSDROWSKY, who is the head cashier for the Canada Club. The rest of the money was turned over with the personal effects of the accused to the Central Guard Room, Rome. I saw the money turned over to Signorina Brilsdrowsky and I produce the receipt she signed. (Marked Exhibit "A"). I asked the accused where he came by all that money and if he knew who took the money at the Snack Bar. He admitted it, saying, "Yes, I took a handful of money". No threat or promise or inducement was made to the accused prior to taking the statement. After, I put him under arrest I warned him that he would be charged and that anything that he said would be used in evidence against him. He made no further statement. The accused had had quite a few drinks but he was capable of walking by himself."

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

FIFTH WITNESS: F44925 Cpl HARTLING G J, No 3 Cdn Provost Coy, Rome Det, having been duly sworn states:

"At approximately 1545 hours, on 7 Nov 44, I was in the office of the Provost Det at the Canada Club in Rome. L/Cpl Laird brought a Cdn soldier into our office, who I recognize as the accused. He was accompanied by the cashier of the Snack Bar and the electrician of the Club. I know the cashier of the Snack Bar personally, but I do not know her name. She was one of the witnesses here this afternoon. Sgt Nicol was in the office at the time and I turned the accused over to him to be searched. I was present when the accused was searched. Approximately ten minutes later I returned to the office and Sgt Nicol was questioning the accused. I asked Sgt Nicol if the accused had been placed under arrest. He said "Yes". I also asked if the accused had been cautioned. He said "Yes". The accused was asked by Sgt Nicol if he knew anything about this money or if he was up at the Snack Bar. The accused said "Yes, I was up at the Snack Bar". He mumbled something about grabbing a handful of money but "Do not know what I have done". I took no part in the questioning on that day. I escorted the accused to the Central Guard Room in Rome, to be held pending further investigation. I left the accused there from the 7th to the 12th of Nov 44. On 12 Nov 44 I went down to see him and have him tell the story in his own words. I cautioned him in the usual way and told him that his statement was voluntary. The words of the caution were "You have nothing to fear from threat or promise. Anything you say will be taken down in writing and used in evidence at your trial". He then dictated the statement and I wrote it down. After the statement was written I read the statement over to him. I told him he could either take away or add or make any alterations he might see fit. I told him the

I went to the gate where the MP was and tried to explain to him in Italian what was happening. The MP came back with me to where the soldier and the girl were. THIRD WITNESS: K98067 L/Cpl LAIRD A, No 3 Cdn Provost Coy, Rome Det, having been duly sworn states:

"On 7 Nov 44 I was employed on duty in the Canada Club as Provost just inside the door in the main hall. I do not remember the exact time. An Italian came down to me, the electrician from the Canada Club, whose name I now know to be Bernucci ALBERTO. He began talking in Italian. I could not understand what he meant. I went along with him. Going up the stairs toward the Snack Bar I saw a soldier with the girl from the cashier's desk whose name I now know to be Rina TASSI. She was crying and wringing her hands. I would know the soldier if I saw him again. That is him (pointing to accused). The electrician returned with me as far as the first landing of the stairs where the accused and the girl were. I took the accused to the Provost office at the Canada Club and turned him over to Cpl Hartling for questioning. The accused was not under arrest at that time. The accused was brought into the office to see what all the trouble was about. Cpl Hartling did the questioning and I believe Sgt Nicol was also present. I heard the accused say to Cpl Hartling as near as I can remember "I admit taking the money from the desk, but I don't know why I did it", or words to that effect. I noticed the accused had been drinking. The accused said he had taken a handful of money from the desk. There was a sum of money, which I saw myself, taken from the accused, which amounted to about 2900 lire. The accused was not searched prior to being brought into the Provost office for questioning."

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

in the case of

B44260 Pte LAVOIE T Z, 4 Bn 1 CBRD att Cdn Sec GHQ 1 Ech AAI

FIRST WITNESS: Rina TASSI, Via Amerigo Vespucci 41, having been duly sworn states through the interpretation of Lieselotte KLONCKA, also having been duly sworn:

"On 7 Nov 44 I was cashier of the Snack Bar operated by the Canada Club situated in Rome. I receive tickets from the management and then sell them to the soldiers. Each ticket costs five lire. I just sell the tickets and have nothing to do with giving out the actual goods. My stand is just an ordinary low desk with two drawers, one on each side of where I sit. The tickets and cash were kept in the drawers. The left drawer contained the tickets and the cash was kept in the right drawer. About 3:30 on the afternoon of 7 Nov 44 a soldier came up to my desk and he was drunk. He said something that I didn't understand because I do not understand English. He put his hand into the drawer and took a handful of cash. It was the drawer on the right side of the desk - the one with the cash. I think I would recognize the soldier if I saw him again. I think it is him (pointing to accused).

The soldier who took the money reached across the desk to get it. I actually saw the money in the soldier's hand. The soldier went down the stairs and I followed him until reaching the bottom of the stairs. As I had left the desk open with all the money I returned leaving him with the electrician. I would know the electrician if I saw him again. That is the electrician (pointing to Bernucci ALBERTO upon his entering the room). The Snack Bar is the first floor up from the main floor of the Canada Club. Before I left to go upstairs the MP came and took the soldier. Both the electrician and the MP were there before I left to go upstairs. I do not know which MP it was. Before I left I saw the soldier who took the money being led away by the MP. The soldier at this time was at the bottom of the stairs. I went back upstairs and after I got back to the desk I shut and locked both drawers of the desk. At this time there was no one near the desk. I went down to the MP office on the ground floor of the Canada Club and the same soldier who took the money was in the MP office. Later I returned the second time to my desk and there were soldiers waiting to buy tickets so I continued selling tickets to them until 4:00, after which time I closed the ticket office and counted the money. I am given a certain number of tickets and should have cash for the tickets which I have sold. The tickets are numbered. Every few days I get a certain number of tickets and I always have one thousand lire cash to start with. I was short on the count of cash, on the evening of 7 Nov 44, 2420 lire. As far as I know the money that was taken belongs to the people who run the Canada Club.

I was away from the desk four or five minutes during the time I followed the soldier who took the money downstairs. There was no one around the desk when I got back the firt time. I saw the soldier who took the money take a bundle of one hundred lire notes, but I can not say for sure how many notes were in the bundle. He had a big handful of bills of various denominations. I did not take any of the money that was short that day.

Cross-Examined by accused:

Q1 Where were you when the soldier got picked up?
A1 Near the dance floor.

Q2 How far away from the soldier were you when he was picked up?
A2 I was holding his arm until the police came.

are any points on law on which they are not clear that they call the Judge-Advocate into the room. They may consult the Judge-Advocate at any time they desire and the court can be re-opened for that purpose. With reference to the special finding - if the court feel that the evidence has established the theft of some lire and are satisfied that all other elements have been proved, and that the accused has not established any defence, they may make a special finding of guilty, except that the accused stole only so much lire, whatever the amount. In order for such a special finding to stand it must be supported by evidence adduced before the court. It is for the court to determine whether they will believe the evidence of one of the witnesses that she saw in the hand of the accused several one hundred lire notes, a fifty lire note, a ten lire note and a five lire note. If they believe the evidence of that witness they are at liberty to make a special finding that the accused stole only so many lire, whatever the amount may be.

E1 B44260 Pte Lavoie T Z, att fap Cdn Sec GHQ 1 Ech AAI, having been duly sworn, states as follows:

Sir, I enlisted on 20 Sep 42. I have been with the Carleton & York Regiment since 15 Oct 43. I saw action from 1 Dec 43 until up to the Ortona front and went through the big push at Cassino after I went back with the Regiment to the Gothic Line until 16 Sep 44 when I was evacuated because I was wounded. I am 22 years of age.

E3 Defending Officer to Court

In considering the sentence, with reference to the conduct-sheet of the accused, I would like to point out that three of the five fallings from grace took place while he was in hospital or convalescent camps. They are all of a minor character, particularly as to the punishments imposed. Particularly, I would like to point out that all during the hard winter of 1943 nothing appears on his conduct-sheet. From Oct 43 until Apr 44 the accused has had a clean conduct-sheet - that is probably the hardest time anyone in the Canadian Army has ever spent. The circumstances under which this crime, which has now been adjudged a crime, took place should be taken into consideration in awarding the punishment. They are, I suggest, entirely out of normal circumstances and perhaps more than in normal circumstances should be taken into consideration. In the sense that I spoke with respect to those circumstances, while the court may have felt that the accused was not in a condition such as to deprive him of the ability to form an intention, nevertheless I suggest that the evidence is clear that his intention was far from normal and that he did'nt do it in flagrant violation. His intent was a sudden impulse and, having seized him, he was not in a mental condition to restrain himself.

I hereby certify that the above is a true transcript of the evidence taken down by me on 19 & 20 Dec 44.

Judge-Advocate Sums Up (Cont'd)

It is the duty of the Judge-Advocate to sum up the case and advise the court on the law. The court should be guided by the opinion of the Judge-Advocate in matters of law and should not disregard it except for very weighty reasons. The court is the sole judge of the facts and if in the course of my summing up I should express any opinion as to the facts the court should disregard it. It is for the court alone to find the facts on the evidence. There are certain general principles of law on which Idesire to advise the court. They are: First, the accused is presumed to be innocent until he is proved guilty. This principle requires no elaboration. It means that you should not be influenced in any way by the fact that he stands accused before the court and he is presumed in law to be guiltless of the offence charged until he is proved guilty. Second, the burden of proving the accused guilty of the offences with which he is charged rests upon the prosecution. The accused does not have to demonstrate his innocence. The prosecution must discharge the burden of adducing sufficient evidence to prove that the accused is guilty of the offences charged. Third, the proof adduced by the prosecution must be sufficient to prove the guilt of the accused beyond reasonable doubt. It is not enough that the evidence shows the defendant very likely guilty. Before the court can properly find an accused guilty on evidence which is wholly or partly circumstantial it must be satisfied that such evidence is not only consistent with his guilt but also inconsistent with any other rational conclusion, namely, his innocence. If there is any reasonable doubt about the guilt of the accused it is your duty to acquit him. The doubt must be a reasonable one not based on caprice, fear or favour but such a doubt as you would reasonably have when dealing with your own business matters. Fourth, Where there is a conflict in the evidence of witnesses it is for the court to decide which witnesses it will believe. In other words the question of credibility is entirely a matter for the court to decide.

There are one or two special observations I wish to make. First, there has been some evidence before the Court that the accused may have been guilty of some other offence. I instruct the Court that they should totally disregard the portion of the accused' statement in which he speaks of missing a draft or words to that effect in determining his guilt or innocence on this particular offence. What he did on that occasion has nothing to do with this offence with which he is now charged. It is the duty of the Judge-Advocate to set out the law and where necessary to direct the attention of the court to pertinent evidence on various points. First of all the offence is theft, stealing, and the Prosecuting Officer has given you references to different texts which you can consult yourselves. The taking must be proved, the intention of converting the property to the use of the accused with the intention of depriving the owner of it must be proved and lastly the ownership of the property must be proved. On the question of taking there was no controversy; on the question of the intention there is controversy and the Prosecuting and Defending Officers have made their submissions; on the question of ownership you have heard what the Prosecuting and Defending Officers have had to say. In connection with the defence of drunkenness I ask the court to consider the reference at p 17 of Archbold's Criminal Pleading Evidence & Practice. There is one point I wish to clear up. Some argument has been directed to the word lire. That argument is properly one which affects the validity of the charge. I am advising the court that the charge which contained the word 'lire' is a proper charge. I ask the court to act on that presumption. If I am wrong, I will be so advised by the Judge-Advocate's Branch.

The last point is that the Court can make a special finding if the evidence fails to prove that the accused stole twenty four hundred and twenty lire. They can make a special finding and can receive my direction, in that event, as to the wording. I ask the court to consider the various references already mentioned and if there keep it. The Defence is trying to show that the accused was incapable of forming an intent - that/presumption is rebutted by evidence given, by various witnesses, in this trial. They say the presumption in law has no application in this case and definite evidence was adduced that the accused was incapable of forming intent. There are various things which may result in affecting a person so that he is incapable of forming an intention or intending to do anything. Drunkenness is one which may. The circumstances under which drunkenness in this connection may be a defence is laid down in Archbold's Criminal Pleading etc at the bottom of p 17, the reference which the Defending Officer has already given to us. It states, "There is a distinction between the defence of insanity in the true sense produced by excessive drinking and the defence of drunkenness which produces a condition such that the drunken man's mind becomes incapable of forming a specific intention, and the test of criminal responsibility which is applied to the former should not be applied to the latter defence. Evidence of drunkenness which renders the accused person incapable of forming the specific intent essential to constitute the crime charged must be taken into consideration with the other facts proved in order to determine whether or not he had such intent. But evidence of drunkenness falling short of this, and merely establishing that the mind of the accused person was affected by drink, so that he more readily gave way to some violent passion, does not rebut the presumption that a man intends the natural consequences of his acts". My submission is that before drunkenness is an excuse, a defence to a crime such as this, a man must be so drunk that he would not know what he was doing and that he was incapable of forming any intent. We have evidence that the accused put his hand into a drawer, took some money and held on to it. Granted, two Italian witnesses say that he was drunk. I submit the defence of drunkenness in this case is not applicable. The man was able to walk and able to answer questions in the Provost office and I submit that these things show that he could think, he could answer questions. He knew what was said to him and, therefore, I submit that he must have realized what he was doing. The man may not have had the intention prior to coming up to the desk to take the money but on seeing the money could form an intention on the spur of the moment and take it without premeditation. The three Provost witnesses all state that he was not drunk; that he showed signs of drinking but was not drunk. They talked to him over a considerable period of time. I submit that the Court should take this into consideration. The Court should remember that this was immediately after the incident in question and, therefore, the state of the accused would not have changed materially during the lapse of time. The Defence pointed out that the witnesses testified that the accused was very quiet - he didn't speak much - he was docile. I ask the Court to consider the attitude of the accused at the trial. In answering questions he has been very quiet-spoken and that you consider this in weighing the statements which have been made by the various witnesses. In summing up on this point I would say that a person who seeks to establish a defence of drunkenness in a crime such as this, which is alleged here, must show that he was in a condition that would render him incapable of forming an intent. We know that people are often charged with being drunk and still are quite capable of thinking and talking and so on. To be a defence to a crime such as this you must go much further than this. The Provost witnesses were not prepared to go as far as to say that the accused was drunk in order to support the charge of drunkenness. I submit, in closing, the Prosecution has established the necessary ingredients of the charge.

Judge-Advocate Sums Up

The law and the facts have been plainly and thoroughly covered by the Prosecuting and Defending Officers, and I will make my remarks as short as possible. There are certain things I wish to call to the attention of the Court to refresh their memories although they are entirely familiar with them.

..../39

Prosecutor to Court (Cont'd)

sheet or charge there shall be presumed in favour of supporting the same every proposition which may reasonably be presumed to be impliedly included, though not expressed therein". If the Court wishes to presume in the charge that lire is money, or that lire has certain value, whether or not it is particularly expressed, I submit they are entitled to do so. Therefore, the thing which has been alleged to have been stolen, that is twenty four hundred and twenty lire, is a thing having some value. Coming to the amount, I agree with the Defending Officer that it is not beyond the realm of possibility that during four or five minutes the witness, Rina Tassi, was absent from her desk that somebody could have taken some money or tickets from the drawer. I point out, however, that three or four witnesses in describing the money describe it as a lump of money which was crumpled up and which was removed from the pockets of the accused and that amount was approximately twenty nine hundred lire. It is an element from which the Court can infer that that is the money that was taken from the drawer - that it was taken and crumpled up in the accused' hand and later stuffed in his pockets. If, however, the Court feels that there is some doubt and it is possible that other people may have taken a small amount of money which is included in the sum of twenty four hundred and twenty lire which is charged I submit that the Court has definite evidence that it was more than one one hundred lire note plus a fifty lire note, a ten lire note and a five lire note which was seen by the witness, Rina Tassi, in the hand of the accused after he took it out of the drawer. That being so, under RP 44(D), the Court may, if it sees fit, make a special finding. The Rule is as follows: "Where the court are of opinion as regards any charge that the facts which they find to be proved in evidence differ materially from the facts alleged in the statement of particulars in the charge, but are nevertheless sufficient to prove the offence stated in the charge, and that the difference is not so material as to have prejudiced the accused in his defence, they may, instead of a finding of 'Not Guilty', record a special finding". I submit that the accused would not be prejudiced if the Court sees fit to make a special finding. They could find the accused guilty of the actual amount that was seen in the hands of the accused, that is, more than one hundred lire note and one of each of the other notes I have mentioned. How that special finding is expressed, I submit, will not be material, that is as to whether it is expressed to be lire or money, or whatever it is, by reason of RP 12 which I have already mentioned. The Defence has raised the question as to the ownership of the money, or the lire, and I refer the Court in this connection to Archbold's Criminal Pleading etc at p 513 under the heading "The Owner", part of which reads as follows: "The essence of larceny is the taking of property without the consent of the owner, but the expression 'owner' is not limited to the person who is legal owner of the property stolen", --------"'owner is defined to include any part owner, or person person having possession or control of, or a special property in, anything capable of being stolen". The money in question is taken in from the sale of tickets in a club operated by the Canadian Legion War Services Inc through a Snack Bar operated by the same organization, and by an employee of the same organization. It was later turned over to the supervisor who is in charge of the club and, eventually, he accounts to another organization for it. I submit while it is in the club, and after it has been collected, that is is in possession and under the control of the Canadian Legion War Services Inc within themeaning of the definition I refer to. The main point of defence, as I see it, is that the accused, by reason of drunkenness, was incapable of forming the necessary intention to take the money and there must be intention as laid down in the definition I have read. The last para of Section 51, MML at p 119, states that "The property must be taken with the intention of permanently depriving the possessor of it. Whether such an intention existed is a question of fact to be decided in the light of all the circumstances of the case". There is a proposition in law that a person who does a thing is presumed to intend the consequences of what he does. So, if a person puts his hand into a drawer and takes money it is presumed that he intended to do so. The Court may infer that he intended to in the stead of the words lire and amount. The evidence given, and it is in the charge, is that the lire in question were the property of the Canadian/War Services Inc. The witness, Rina Tassi, was clearly in charge and in official custody of the lire at the time in question and was in the employ of the Canadian Legion War Services Inc. The twenty four hundred and twenty lire were handed over by the Provost to one described as Signorina Charlette who Supervisor Allison states is also a member of this Coy. Supervisor Allison says the money is in my control until it is deposited with someone else who is described as supervisor of the Canadian YMCA. I do not wish to argue as to whose property these lire were. I am, however, submitting that there has not been sufficiently definite allegation of control or sufficient clear proof as to who actually had control, ownership or special property right. The accused has made a statement for reasons which, I submit, should be obvious to the Court and which should cast no reflection upon him and have no direct relation to his guilt or innocence. He states that on 16 Sep 44 he was evacuated from the front with a fractured skull and until shortly before the afternoon in question he was in hospital and convalescent depots. He then went absent from a draft and went on a drinking bout. He says He has no definite memory past that evening he went AWL until he found himself in the hands of the Provost who subsequently explained why he was under arrest and told him, so he says, what he had done. He said he didn't remember at that time and doesn't remember now, except what he has been told as to what happened. I submit that the conduct of the accused on the afternoon in question, as described by the only disinterested witnesses, Rina Tassi and Bernucci, makes that story entirely reasonable and that the Court should consider this with respect to the taking and carryying away of the money. I strongly urge that he had not the intent to commit the crime of larceny as alleged.

Prosecutor to Court

Gentlemen - the charge in this particular case is under Section 41 of the Army Act which, in short, provides that any crime which, at the time it was committed, is punishable by the laws of England is punishable as a military offence whether the crime was committed in England or not. Section two of the Larceny Act of England provides for any type of larceny which is not specifically dealt with in the Larceny Act of 1916. It is often referred to as simple larceny. That is the reason the charge has been laid under that particular section. Larceny is another word for theft and theft is defined in MML, at p 118, as follows - "A person steals who, without the consent of the owner, fraudulently, and without a claim of right made in good faith, 'takes' and 'carries away' anything 'capable of being stolen" with intent, at the time of such taking, permanently to deprive the owner thereof". The taking and carrying away are described in the same Sections, fifty and fifty one, on p 118 of MML and also in Archbold's Criminal Pleading Evidence & Practice on p 484 and following pages. I submit there is no point in going into the definitions. If the Court wishes to look they will see that what was done on this occasion amounted to taking and carrying away. The next point is 'anything capable of being stolen'. I refer the Court to Archbold's Criminal Pleading etc at p 520 under the heading 'What can be stolen', parts of which read as follows: "Everything which has value and is the property of any person, and if adhering to the realty then after severance therefrom, shall be capable of being stolen" and "The above definition of what can be stolen practically sweeps away the common law restrictions, by which certain kinds of property could not be the subject of larceny". The Defence makes a point that what is stolen is lire. I submit that the Court may take judicial notice of the fact that lire has some value. I do not propose to go into a legal argument as to whether lire is money within the meaning of various definitions which may have been laid down in cases in the civil courts. I refer the Court to RP 12(C) which applies to all charges which are before courts-martial, and which reads as follows: "In the construction of a charge-reluctant to describe the accused, unless the accused is actually charged with the offence, as drunk. The Provost witnesses are definite that he was not drunk and the witness Sgt Nicol states this "He was not drunk because he could walk and talk". That, I suggest, is a very elementary test to drunkenness. It might be, or rather may be, a sufficient test where the question is as to a charge of drunkenness but where the question is as to the intent a man has formed in relation to his crime I submit that an observation upon whether a man can walk and talk should be made. L/Cpl Laird also says the man had been drinking but was not drunk, but L/Cpl Laird also states there were no civilians present when the accused went into the Provost office whereas the witness, Bernucci, whom I doubt was quiet at the time, says he was in that room and gave evidence as to what he saw there. The observation, at that time, of L/Cpl Laird is not of such particularity that his evidence that the accused was drunk should prevail against the repeated definite and substantial statements of the witness, Rina Tassi, as to his condition. We rely upon that condition which we say was not a condition in which he could have formed an intent to deprive anybody of anything permanently. There are degrees of drunkenness which will deprive a person of the ability to form an intention, depending largely upon the mental abilities of that person. A person with a strong mind and a strong will would require a great deal of drink. A person who would not have that strong mind and will can, with excessive drinking over a period of time, in a rowdish and stupid manner do things without any intent whatsoever, - stumble into situations without reason and without excuse. I submit that is exactly what happened to this accused in the Canada Club that afternoon. On the question of degree of drunkenness I refer you to Archbold's Criminal Pleading Evidence & Practice, at p 18, in which the distinction between the defence of insanity and drunkenness is clearly pointed out. There was some attempt made to discover how much money actually was taken from the cashier's desk in that afternoon and to link up that amount with the amount which was found, so it was said, in the accused's pockets on that afternoon. The accused had money of his own and it was mingled with the money that, shall we say, he took and it was necessary to arrive at some amount. The cashier came down and said we are short a certain amount. The amount they took from the accused' pockets was in excess of that amount so the Provost gave to the cashier the amount she demanded and returned the balance to the accused and the amount in the charge is the amount that the witness, Rina Tassi, says she was short that day. How do they arrive at that amount? The witness, Rina Tassi, collected from the Snack Bar operator certain chits which had to be cashed there. She totalled those chits up. She added to the amount she discovered the one thousand lire that she had had at the beginning of the day. She then counted the money she had in the cash box and deducted the sum from the other total and discovered that she was short the amount of twenty four hundred and twenty lire. But, the witness, Rina Tassi, says that when she left her desk she shut the drawer. She made adefinite statement that she had placed the tickets in the cash drawer and had shut the cash drawer completely. She walked away for about five minutes. When she returned the cash drawer was half open. At the time the accused had gone to her desk there were many other soldiers about. At the time she returned there were not any soldiers, I believe. That is immaterial. However, had any of those chits been taken during her absence and cashed in the Snack Bar it would have decreased the amount of her shortage that night. Although there is considerable examination on the point I do not think it has been established that there was any check made in particular on the evening in question as between the stubs in her ticket books and the tickets which were cashed in the Snack Bar. I submit, for the various reasons I have stated, there is no possibility of reaching a definite conclusion as to the amount of her shortage for which the accused is responsible. What the Court is to do under those circumstances I do not know. I would, however, point out that an amendment I would object to is an amendment using the word money

Defending Officer to Court

If the theft was committed as alleged by the Prosecution it was a very, very strange affair, a very comic opera type of crime. The Prosecution would have you believe that the accused formed an intent to steal money from the cashier at the Canada Club, and in pursuance of that he went to the Club during the busy yours of the afternoon at a time when he must have expected there would be many others in the Club;that instead of going straight to the source of the money he went first into the Snack Room. From there he went to the cashier's desk where there were many other soldiers quite close enough to interfere. He reached over taking a handful of money and then walked very slowly away. The evidence discloses from that time he was quite well mannered and lethargic in his actions. The spectacle of a man intent on committing a crime and doing it in this manner is surely one that does not appear sane or rational. Any man, no matter how stupid, who had at any time formed the intention of taking money, intending to keep it to deprive the owner of it, would surely have acted in an entirely different manner. The sworn evidence given by the witnesses for the Prosecution testify as to the manner of the accused. First, there is the witness Rina Tassi. She has stated that a drunk soldier approached. He said some words which the witness did not understand. He was leaning on the table. There were many other soldiers around. Some of those soldiers were as close as four feet away, two paces was the original answer. He reached over a comparatively narrow table and put his hand into the drawer. The witness does not say that he snatched the money, that he grabbed the money, she says he reached over and put his hand into the drawer and he took his hand out and in it were clutched certain bills. Without rising from her chair she grabbed at his hand and had the time before he withdrew it to pull at the bills in an attempt to take them out of his hand. He had a sufficiently good hold and she was unable to dislodge them. He walked very slowly away. From his manner of moving she concluded he was drunk. She then took the time to remove the tickets from the desk, place them in the cash drawer and close the cash drawer and proceeded to follow the accused. She did not find it necessary to hurry but caught up with him quite easily halfway down the stairs on the landing which apparently exists there. From there she says she just led him, that he let himself be led by her. When they reached the foot of the stairs she said the accused just stood there dazed. She attracted the attention of the witness, Bernucci. He went and obtained the Provost. The Provost came back and when the Provost came to where the girl was wringing her hands and crying at this stage he did not pay much attention to the soldier. There was nothing in the demeanour of the soldier to indicate to the Provost, despite the girl wringing her hands and crying and the somewhat excited Bernucci talking to him, that this particular soldier had been involved in any crime or incident whatsoever . As L/Cpl Laird said, " I didn't pay much attention to the soldier." Those are the circumstances of the crime alleged by the Prosecution and we are asked to believe that the accused formed an intention to steal money and did so in this manner. As to his intention, in answer to questions put by the Court the one person best able to speak as to his condition at the time of the taking and at the time of the carrying away, the witness Rina Tassi says this - "He didn't seem to know there was anything wrong". She is speaking there of the time she first went up to him and of the time she led him down and the time she stood there and she says he didn't seem to know there was anything wrong. And in answer to a question which I would not dare to put, but which was put by the Court, she says he didn't realize what he was doing, that he was very drunk. The witness, Bernucci says "I have the impression that the accused was drunk, that he was rather dazed. He walked as though he were rather tight". The witness, Rina Tassi, in giving her reasons for forming her opinion as to his condition says that from his expression and his manner of moving she concluded that he was drunk. Now, we have the evidence of the Provost as to his condition - his subsequent condition. Some minutes later, that is. Now, it has been my observation that themembers of Provost take their responsibilities very seriously and are extremely

Judge-Advocate

The admissibility of the statement depends upon the law and it is the duty of the Judge-Advocate to advise the Court on law. I refer the Court to the Manual of Military Law at pages 90 to 93. By way of explanation, it states that the Judges have laid down certain rules which should be observed but if they are not observed the statement may nevertheless be admissible. The text is this: "The rule as to confessions is that before a confession can be received in evidence, it must be proved affirmatively by the prosecution that it was free and voluntary". I was quoting from para 74, and from para 75 "For this purpose a confession is deemed not to be free and voluntary if it appears to have been caused by any inducement, threat or promise proceeding from a magistrate or other person in authority or concerned in the charge (e.g. the prosecutor or the person having the custody of the accused), and having reference to the charge against the accused person, whether addressed to him directly or brought to his knowledge indirectly; and if, in the opinion of the court, the inducement, threat, or promise gave the accused person reasonable grounds for supposing that be making a confession he would gain some advantage, or avoid some evil in reference to the proceedings against him". The statement tendered was obtained from the accused by a person vested with the proper authority. The question is for the Court to determine whether it was made freely and voluntarily on thepart of the accused. I might add that there is a great deal of conflict on the part of two of the witnesses. I ask the Court to refer to the questions which are set out in the Judge's Rules. ~~There is~~ No question about the admissibility of the statement. The statement may still be admissible if the Court is satisfied it was made freely and voluntarily without any inducement, threat, promise or hope of favour being held out to the accused. I point out to the Court that in this case there is a great conflict of evidence. Cpl Hartling says he used words which the accused says he did not use. If you believe Cpl Hartling you must still be satisfied that the words which he used were enough to convey to the accused that he was under no obligation to make the statement and that it was made freely and voluntarily.

The Court is closed to consider the admissibility of the statement.

The Court is re-opened. The accused is brought before the Court.

Judge-Advocate to Defending Officer

The Court has decided to exclude the statement.

At 5:30 o'clock, 19 Dec 44, the Court adjourns to re-assemble at 9:30 o'clock, 20 Dec 44.

At 9:30 o'clock, 20 Dec 44, the Court re-assembles. The accused is brought before the Court.

D6 B44260 Pte Lavoie T Z, att fap Cdn Sec GHQ 1 Bch AAI, states:

On 13 Sep 44 I got wounded and on 16 Sep 44 I was evacuated from a fractured skull. I was sent to 5 Cdn Gen Hosp in ROME. On 4 Oct 44 I was evacuated from the hospital and sent to the Convalescent Camp. On 3 Nov 44, I was sent to the Transit Camp No 159. I was put on draft for 4 Bn on 5 Nov 44. I went AWL from the RR station on 5 Nov 44. It was between 10:00 and 11:00 o'clock Sunday morning. I went in the bar and started drinking with a fellow I met in the bar. To start I had two thousand lire. I bought one bottle of Vermouth that cost two hundred and fifty lire. For dinner I went in the restaurant also drinking with friends I met in the restaurant. From there I do not remember. When I sobered up I was in the Central Guard Room in Rome. That was on the 8th of November. I did not know what I was in the Guard Room for until one day I was escorted to the Canada Club for a summary of evidence. They told me everything that happened. If I took the money I am sorry. I want to go back to the front line.

Judge-Advocate to Defending Officer

You have objected to the tendering of the statement in question. Do you wish to put Pte Lavoie in the box?

Q383 Why at this stage could you remember the definite wording and phrasing andyou can not remember today?

A383 Because that is what is laid down and that is what I do at all times.

Q384 So you remember it because of that?

A384 Yes, sir.

Q385 Did you have your pad and pencil, or pen, out at the time you gave that caution?

A385 It was on the table.

Q386 Did you have anything written down?

A386 Nothing.

Q372 That is the way you would give it?

A372 That is the way I did give it.

A373 No, sir.

Q374 I want to get exactly what you said at this stage; what you said, not what you would say or what you believe you said but what you said at this extremely important moment. What was it?

A374 I said "You need not say anything. If you wish to make a statement it is entirely up to yourself".

Q375 So you finally remember that these were the very words you used at this moment "You need not say anything but if you wish to make a statement it is entirely up to yourself"?

A375 That is right.

Q376 That is not what you said to the examining officer or what you indicated a few minutes before.

A376 It was the same words phrased different.

A377 You are asking me to remember something that happened a month ago.

Q378 Do you remember giving evidence on the summary of evidence?

A378 I do, sir.

A381 Yes, sir.

Q382 Was it read over to you before you signed?

A382 It was, sir.

Q359 Would you repeat to the Court the exact conversation between you and the accused after the document to which you have referred was written and before it was signed?

A359 The only conversation was "Have you any alterations or corrections to make? If so, the opportunity is yours to make those alterations or corrections in the statement". Then he was asked if he wished to sign. He took thepen and signed the statement.

A361 When I took him out of the guard room?

A362 It is pretty hard to remember the exact words. The general thing I asked is "How are you feeling this morning?" I spoke to him for a while.

Q363 What did you speak to him about?

A363 How he was being treated at the guard room. I asked if he wished to make a statement and explained that it was not necessary.

Q364 What words did you use when you told him that it was not necessary to make a statement? Give the entire sentence you used at that moment?

A364 I couldn't exactly remember. I can't frame the sentence. That was the phrase which I used.

Q365 That is because the phrase is so familiar to you?

A365 It was not the phrase I used.

Q366 What were your actual words?

A366 I told him that if he wished to make a statement me could, that it was not necessary, that it was entirely up to himself.

Q367 You say that you used these words "Do you wish to make a statement? It is not necessary, it is entirely up to yourself"? Are you saying those are the very words you used?

A367 Yes, sir.

Q368 Were those the very words you used? Did you say to him "Do you wish to make a statement? It is not necessary. It is entirely up to yourself"?

A368 That is the wording, sir, but I can't say I said it exactly in that manner.

Q369 Words to that effect?

A369 Words to that effect.

Q370 You don't remember the exact words?

A370 I don't remember the exact phrasing.

Q352 Was the accused under arrest at that time?

A352 Yes, sir, he was placed under arrest on the evening of 7 Nov 44.

Q353 Were you a Cpl at that time?

A353 Yes, sir.

Q354 Were you wearing your badges of rank?

A354 Yes, sir.

Q355 Did you question the accused before you cautioned him?

A355 No, sir.

Q356 What did you say to him before cautioning?

A356 I explained the circumstances and the position he was in. I explained to him that it was up to him whether he wished to give me a statement or not.

Q357 Did you make any threat or any promise to the accused or hold out any inducement to persuade him to make a statement?

A357 No, sir.

Q358 Then what was done?

A358 As I dictated the statement he wrote it down. After the statement was completed Pte Lavoie read the statement over. I asked him if there were any alterations or corrections which he wished to make. He stated there was none. I asked him if he would voluntarily sign the statement. He signed the statement.

Q201 Did you completely close the drawer or did you half close the drawer?

A210 Yes - I have seen many.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge-Advocate it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B).

Q183 It is possible?

A183 It never happens.

Q184 Have you ever been short in your cash before?

A184 No.

Q82 Is he in this room today?

A82 Yes.

Q83 Would you show him to the Court?

A83 (Witness points to accused).

A84 He walked very slowly away.

Q85 Was he walking straight or in some other way?

A85 He walked down the stairs.

Q86 Was he steady on his feet?

A86 Not very.

Q87 You have already stated that you considered the soldier drunk. Why did you say that?

A87 Because I saw from his expression and his movement that he was not normal, that he was drunk.

Q88 You mentioned going downstairs following the soldier. How far behind him were you?

A88 Very hear because I grabbed him by his arm.

Q89 You mean you were holding his arm all the way or just at one part of your journey downstairs?

A89 He went downstairs. I followed him. I reached him on the middle of the stairs and there I took his arm.

A90 Were there any other soldiers around at that time?

A90 When it happened there were many soldiers around. Then I did not see anybody any more.

Q91 Are you sure you followed the right soldier?

A64 Yes, I remember.

Q65 Was there anything unusual happened that day?

A65 Yes.

Q66 About what time?

A66 About 3:30 in the afternoon.

Q67 Tell the Court what happened?

A67 At 3:30 a drunk soldier approached my desk. He told me something I could not understand. It was in English. He approached the desk, reached with his hand across the table and took a handful of cash out of the drawer. He escaped and ran down the stairs. I followed him. I called for some help. The electrician happened to be near.

Q68 At the time the soldier took the money where was he standing in relation to yourself?

A68 Opposite me.

Q69 Will you show the Court just what the soldier did?

A69 (The witness illustrates by reaching over an imaginary table).

A73 Yes, I was able to see.

Q74 Which hand?

Q75 And what did he have?

A75 A handful of cash.

Q76 You saw something in his hand which you said was cash. Can you tell the Court whether you saw any particular denomination of note. Were you able to recognize any particular denomination in his hand?

A76 I saw one hundred, fifty and ten lire notes in his hand.

Q77 Can you say how many of each you saw for sure?

A77 No, I could not say.

..../7

Q50 Are the tickets which you sell numbered?

A50 Yes, they are numbered.

Q51 And do you keep any part of the ticket which would have any similar number on it to the ticket you sell?

A51 No, I do not keep any part of the ticket.

Q52 How would the head cashier know whether or not the barman turned over the tickets that you sold?

A52 The cash I turn over to the head cashier has to answer the tickets which the barman has.

Q53 Is there any way of your telling the number of any ticket that you have sold - that is, do you keep a book with a stub? Do you tear out a ticket and is there a stub left with a corresponding number?

A53 The books contain a hundred tickets.

Questioned by President

Q54 What you are saying is the book is consecutively numbered. Is that right?

A54 Yes, every book has one hundred tickets.

Examined by Prosecutor

Q55 Give again the value of the tickets which you sell.

A55 Five, ten and twenty lire.

Q56 Have you a separate book for the five lire tickets, separate book for the ten lire tickets and a separate book for the twenty lire tickets or are they all mixed up in the book?

A56 I have books for five lire, ten lire and twenty lire.

A36 Charlette Bielschofsky.

Examined by Prosecutor

Q37 How much cash do you get each day to start?

A37 1000 lire.

Q38 What value of tickets?

A38 I can not tell.

Q39 Is it the same every day or might it be different some days?

A39 It is always the same.

Q40 Do you remember the total of the cash and the tickets given you each day?

A40 I get the tickets when I finish the old ones. It is not always the same amount.

Q41 How often do you account for your cash and tickets?

A41 Every day at 4:00 o'clock.

Q42 And every day do you turn in all the cash that you have and the tickets or do you keep some until the next day?

A42 I turn over all the cash to the cashier and the sold tickets, not the tickets I have not sold.

Q43 After you sell the tickets to the soldiers what happens to them?

A43 They get a drink or cake or whatever they want for the tickets.

Q44 Then who gets the tickets?

A48 The tickets return to thehead cashier. I do not get them.

Q49 When you turn in your cash is any check made against the tickets whichhave been received from the barman?

A49 Yes, because I sell so many tickets and there must be so much cash.

..../5

Q24(Cont'd) identity of the bills handed over in her accounting?

A24 I have to be concerned. There is a lot of money involved, some of it counterfeit. The money must be checked.

Q25 If counterfeit money should turn up what would you do?

A25 If counterfeit money does turn up we have to report and attempt to have it traced to the soldier who gave it to the cashier.

Questioned by Judge-Advocate

Q26 Who is the head cashier?

A30 No, sir.

Q13 Was this the system on 7 Nov 44?

A13 Yes, it was.

Cross-Examined by Defending Officer

Q14 What is the system of operation of the canteen in question - the accounting system?

Q16 What happens from the morning of a day when the cashier comes in and starts to work?

A20 That's right.

Q21 Providing she does that it is no concern of yours as to where the actual money comes from?

A21 It certainly is a concern of mine.

Q22 In what way?

A22 It must come from the soldiers who purchase the tickets.

Q23 I am speaking of the actual money in question, the bills and notes.

A23 I don't understand the question.

Q24 Are you at all concerned that she sells the tickets only to those entitled to use the facilities of the Club, as to the actual

Where I saw the A/T Men playing billiards on seeing these men yesterday at approx the same time I had reason to believe that they were absent without leave. I questioned them and they stated they were on convoy duty and had left the convoy in some unknown Town on the 17.8.42. This I knew to be a falsehood as I have stated ~~above~~ above I saw these men at approx. 1100 hrs 17/8/42 in the St MARYS HALL WATFORD. and they stated that they left the convoy on the night of the 17/8/42.
They stated they were given permission to absent at the Drill Hall 3rd Rs Med Regt RA. on the night of 17/8/42. also to obtain breakfast on 18/8/42.
I was not satisfied with their statement so I placed them in close arrest at KING ST GUARD ROOM. 3rd Rs Med Regt RA. WATFORD. and informed Regimental Headquarters.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)[1], and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.[2]

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).[1] If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty[2], or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined[3], we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.[4]

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans.....[5]

(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 3 para 3. MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.[1] The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on.....charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on.....charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.[1]

(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex....., initialled and read aloud by the President.[1]

(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 20(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.[1]

(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.[1]

(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? (1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)

NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.[1] You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.[2] You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.[3] But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.[4] You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

TRIAL ON THE SECOND AND THIRD CHARGES:

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION:
D-142518 L/Cpl. POPIEL, P., SIS Cdn Provost Corps, having been duly sworn states:

Q. Will you tell the Court what you know about the accused?
A. Yes sir.

On about 2200 hours the 30 Nov.44 while on duty at Headquarters I received a call, and as a result of this information, I proceeded to 182 Camberwell Rd and upon making inquiries I noticed a Canadian soldier lying on two chairs by a fire-side. I told him who I was and I asked him whether he was on leave. He replied, " Yes ". I asked to see his pass or his Pay Book and he then replied, that he had no pass, but produced his pay book.

Q. Is this the Pay Book.?
A. Yes this is the Pay Book(Examines Pay Book).

MARKED EXHIBIT "A" BY THE COURT.

Q. What Rank did this man have when you saw him?
A. He was wearing Sgt. Chevrons(Produced).

Q. How did you get these Chevrons?
A. They were taken off him at the Detention Barracks.

Q. Did you see them when they were being taken off this man?
A. Yes sir.

CHEVRONS ARE MARKED EXHIBIT "B" BY THE COURT.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

Q. Why did you go and arrest this man?
A. I had been detailed.

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT.

Q. Did the accused say anything about this Pay Book to you?
A. Yes, He told me that it was his.

Q. Did he say anything else, other than that?
A. I asked him if he had made the entries as L/Sgt; at first he denied this, but later he made a statement.

In the Opinion of the Court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B)

DEF OFFR: I object to this statement being admitted as evidence as it was not included in the summary.

PROS OFFR: I do not wish to use this statement as evidence.

CASE FOR THE PROSECUTION IS CLOSED.

PLEA IN MITIGATION NOTE E-3

I wish to bring to the Courts attention the M.F.M.6 of the accused which reads; AWL 9 hours 15 minutes, 4 days, etc and other small crimes. It would appear that whether it was 9 hours, 15 minutes or 4 days, the sentence was always given from 5 days CB up. This man's mind worked in such a way, that he thought regardless of how long I am away, my punishment will be the same. That is if he was away 1 day, he would get the same punishment as if he had been away for 10 days, and this last AWL of his being due to missing the last train from Waterloo; he therefore thought that he might just as well stay away a few days as he thought he would get the same punishment anyway. His work in the army other than training has been with the band and he took part in all Musical arrangements for entertainment purposes. On the bases of the information we have it appears that he gradually kept going away longer each time as he felt they would hook him anyway.

THE COURT CLOSED TO CONSIDER THE SENTENCE

Summary of Evidence in the case of G 4315 Gunner Fred LEBLANC of "P" Training Wing, No 2 Cdn Arty Rft Unit, a soldier of the Cdn Army Overseas.

2nd Witness for the prosecution

D 142518 L/Cpl Popiel, P., S.I.S. Cdn Provost Corps a soldier of the Cdn Army Overseas having been duly sworn states :

"While on duty at HQ information was received to the effect that a Canadian soldier frequently visited the premises of 182 Camberwell Rd, also suspected of being a deserter. I proceeded to the a/m address where it was found that a Mr.Penfold was living at the address. I then made inquiries and I saw a Canadian soldier sleeping on two chairs by the fireside. I told him who I was and asked him whether he was on leave. He told me he was. I asked him to produce his pass or paybook. He then replied: "that he had no pass", but produced a Paybook in the name of L/Sgt which I now produce marked as exhibit "C" and is annexed to this Summary of Evidence. Not being satisfied with this soldiers story I asked him to accompany me to the Police Station where he was detained and I made further inquiries at HQ finding this man to be a deserter since 16 Sep 44. I produce a set of Sgts' chevrons which he was wearing at the time of the arrest.(marked exhibit "D" and annexed to this Summary of Evidence). I apprehended him at 0030 hrs 1 Dec 44.

P. Popiel

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

The accused was cautioned as follows. "Do you wish to make a statement or to give evidence on oath ? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

The accused declines to make a statement and reserves his defence.

1st Wit Pros] mrs Ruth de Barge Nuibert, The white Cottage Mannings Heath, Horsham, Sussex duly sworn states:-

2 recall 16 + 17 Apr + recognize the accused in connection with events occurring on that day. On 16 Apr 2 missed my last bus home. 2 was with a friend Mr Thomas by name. We saw a staff car + decided to try + get a lift home. It was 3 miles away. The car was standing outside the Kings Head in the Carfax, Horsham + we both approached the accused + requested that he take me home. He said he had a job ~~to~~ to do + would then give us a lift. However he wasn't in the car for 15 or 20 mins later so we started to walk. We got to Keynes Lane Horsham where my friend lives + just at that moment the driver pulled up beside us. My friend asked if he would be able to drop him back but the accd said no he wasn't coming back that way. So 2 told my friend to go home so he wouldn't have to walk back. 2 got in the car + my friend left for home

We drove as far as my house about 2½ miles from where we left my friend Mr Thomas. During drive the accd asked me if 2d like some cigarettes & having reason to wish to see him in daylight 2 said "yes". On the 17th during the morning he returned with cigarettes, 200. Sweet Caporals and 2 think one Wing packets. 7 pkts Sweet Caps & 1 of Wing. 2 rang up Military police as soon as he left the house. They came up at once. 2 gave the cigarettes to the MP.

Cross-exam.

2 can't really remember whether 2 asked the accused. He said he had to take some officers back & would return. We did not stop out & flag the car. 2 objected to his behaviour on drive home so wanted to see him next day — the car did not stop on the way home. 2 did not suggest 2 was out of cigs. It was my only hope of identification, 2 was quite sure 2 would not be able to recognize him again — got into car about 20 mins to 11. Cannot produce sufficient evidence to proceed with the civil charge.

No Re-exam.

Court. Hadn't a watch but was about 20 mins to 11. about ¾ mi from Carfax to Kennedy Lane. It was dark & a moon when first saw the accd. On the night of 16th 2 could not see him it was dark therefore 2 had to see him in daylight to be able to identify him again. Knew him next day because he brought cigs, a belt & a bangle belonging to me & said do you remember me. It was on this basis that 2 recognized him next day, also by his voice. The accd got out of the vehicle once during the journey. The incident on the way home had already occurred when question of cigs was brought up. got into car about 20 mins to 11 & got home about 12 o'clock — accused was with me during all this time.

B4211 Sgt Harrow, J., CMSC, HQ 2 Cdn Div duly sworn, states:-

2 recognize copy of Pt I order No 10 dated 27 Jan 43 (Exh "A"). Was published. 2 published the order as duty clerk. One copy on notice board outside orderly room, one copy on A notice board, both orderly rooms adjoining, a copy to each branch in HQ. Accd was staff car driver in Jan. 3 copies of orders were sent to MT section, 1 for office & a copy for each of the sleeping huts.

No cross-exam.

3rd Wit Pros] M 11384 R/Cpl Williscroft, W.F., RCASC, HQ, 2 Cdn Div, duly sworn, states:-

Was NCO on duty on night of 16 apr on MT. Sent accused out to pick up Capt Hyman at B mess to proceed to Horsham. Left at 2140 hrs & returned at 2250 hrs. Stn Wgn CM 4202297, Ford V8.

Cross-exam

Was on duty from 2250 hrs on.

No re-exam

Court

Orders are put on file in MT office. Copy of Exh A is at MT office. Do filed on orders file. Accsd stayed in MT office after 2250 hrs until he went on next trip. Can say that he was there from 2250 to 2400 hrs. He turns in log book & key & I give it back to him on the next trip. Can't say for certain whether he turned in log book & key when he returned at 2250 hrs 16 Apr.

Def after through court:- Orders just posted - are not read on parade. Board is up - all MT drivers know where file is. Duty drivers do turn in key & book - also turn in work ticket. Won't swear that LeBlanc did turn in key & log book but it is my standing practice to see that it is done.

Court: about 5 miles from car park to Carfax. medium width road & crooked.

4th Wit Pros] B 95615 R/Cpl Currie J. R., # 3 Cdn Provost Coy. duly sworn, states:-

Have seen LeBlanc, the accused before. Met 1520 hrs on 17 Apr as a result of info & instructions I proceeded to investigate movements of a Cdn soldier. As a result of investigations I interviewed Mrs Hubert & from her obtained a description of a soldier - she gave me number of WD transport utility wagon which had come to her house on 17 Apr. & through this I contacted LeBlanc, F.A. I produce 7 pkgs of Sweet Cap cigs & one pkg of Wings which were given to me by Mrs Hubert on 18th evening the 18th of Apr.

Cross-exam.

Proceeded to see Mrs Hubert as a result of a phone call.

No re-exam

Court: First visited her 17 Apr & saw her again on 18th when I got the cigs. Knew on 17th that cars were cigs involved but didn't pick them up because I thought civilian police might be involved.

Prosecution closed.
R.P.40 complied with.
Accused does not wish to give evidence, make a statement or call witnesses as to facts.

Prosecutor says that accused did take civilian in govt vehicle & did give her cigs.
Defe offer:- evidence for prosn is Mrs Huberts statement & submits that it is unreliable - dropped civilian charge because lack of evidence - Was dark, not sure of identification, during time she says accd was with her he was on duty at MT 5 miles away. He returned to MT at 2240 hrs & remained there until despatched. Mrs Huberts story is unreliable to the extreme. Submits charge not proven. Accd has absolutely clean conduct sheet & is exceptionally fine soldier, certainly most unlikely to commit such a crime. Provost did find 8 pkgs of cigs but nothing other than Mrs Huberts evidence.
Judge advocate sums up.
Court closed to consider finding.

2. The vehicle used was a Station Wagon, W.D. No. CM-4202297, with which Pte. LEBLANC picked up Mrs. HUBERT between 2225 hrs and 2240 hrs, 16 Apr 43, nr. JORSHAM and drowe her to her home at MANNINGS HEATH. Pte. LEBLANC was duty driver on this night and this vehicle is a pool car.

TRIAL OF

C.50758 Pte LEBLANC F.C. 2 CITR

PROSECUTION

C.123406 Pte KILMARTIN HD, 2 CIDB, 2 CITR, having been duly sworn, states:

I'm employed in the Unit PO and I recognize the accused who on 15 Jun 45 gave me a parcel chit for 900 cigs. The lighting system was very bad and I could not make out the writing on it, and I asked him his name and he said Pte LeBlanc, so I looked up his card and gave him the card to sign and then I looked at his Service Book and took a quick glance at it and saw it was Pte LeBlanc and then I went on with the next fellow.

Q. What was the name and number on the parcel chit?
A. C.2425 Pte LeBlanc H.

Q. I produce herewith a cig card?
A. Yes, it is a parcel and cig card kept by the PO.

CARD MARKED EXHIBIT 1

Q. There are 6 signatures on Exhibit 1, did the accused sign this card in your presence?
A. Yes, the last 3 signatures by the accused and the date is 15/6/45, and 900 cigs were handed to the accused.

Q. Did you know him prior to this incident?
A. When anybody comes to the wicket for parcels we very seldom forget their face.

Q. Did you know the accused as Pte LeBlanc?
A. Not exactly, but one of my chums at the wicket knew him pretty well, but he's gone now.

Q. Prior to this incident you wouldn't be prepared to swear whether this was LeBlanc FG or LeBlanc H?
A. That's right, Sir.

Q. But you assumed that the Ord Room had handed the right chit to the right man?
A. Yes.

Q. Did you check the number in his Paybook?
A. The number I couldn't see, all I could make out was the name. He had his thumb over the number.

Q. I produce a card for Pte LeBlanc FG, serial C.50758?
A. Yes, that is his card.

CARD MARKED EXHIBIT 2

Q. Is Exhibit 2 and 1 similar?
A. Yes.

PROSECUTOR: I tender to the Court the MFM Pt I, C.50758 Pte LeBlanc F.C. His signature is on P.3. I tender this under para (bb) CAORO 5352.

PAYBOOK MARKED EXHIBIT 3

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. How long have you been at this unit?
A. Since Jan of this year.

Q. And where else have you been employed?
A. "H" Wing, and prior to that I was in Tpt.

Q. When were you employed in the PO?
A. Feb.

Q. What sort of work have you been doing there?
A. Piling parcels and cigs on the shelves when I first started.

Q. How many parcels do you generally distribute a day there?
A. We handle between 100-120 bags a night and 20-25 bags of that stay and the rest go out.

Q. How many people are employed doing this?
A. In the day shift I don't know, but the amount I saw there were 6 fellows giving out parcels in Witley Camp, and in this Camp there were only 2 of us until they got 2 spare men.

Q. On the 15 Jun?
A. Two of us, the other chap and I.

Q. Do you remember everyone that comes to take parcels from you?
A. We know most of the old fellows except the new ones that have come in recently. To tell the truth I very seldom forget a face.

Q. If this particular man was coming down the street you could tell who he was?
A. If I saw him once, yes.

Q. How did you identify the accused?
A. Lt Saperia brought me down to the Dtn Bks and he sent an RP to go in and bring him out and as he was coming out I told him he was the fellow I had given the 900 cigs to.

Q. On Exhibit 1, 2 parcels were recd by LeBlanc, one in Jan and one in May 45; are you going to suggest to me that from one visit the accused made to the PO you could recognize him?
A. When I see a fellow again I recognize them.

Q. If the accused were to suggest that you were not the person from whom he recd the parcel on 15 Jun, would that be false?
A. I'm not sure, but I know I did give cigs to a Pte LeBlanc. If it would have been the other LeBlanc I would have recognized him because I know him.

Q. You aren't positive it was this particular man?
A. In one way it is Sir, but I did see him before.

Q. Was he brought up to the PO for interview?
A. I don't know.

Q. Would you tell the Court the category of the accused from this book, Exhibit 3?
A. M2, Sir.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH 83(2)

SECOND WITNESS

C.2524 Pte LeBLANC H, 3 Cdn Repat Depot, having been duly sworn, states:

I know the accused, that is, I know him since this incident. On 22 Jun I went to the PO to see if I had some cigs coming to me and I saw a Pte Greenwood there and he told me something that had happened, and checked my parcel and cig card. Exhibit 1 is the card, and I had ordered cigs prior to 22 Jun, 900 of them, 300 before the end of May and before that.

Q. Did you sign for cigs on 15 Jun, Exhibit 1?
A. No.

Q. What happened after talking with Greenwood?
A. He showed my card to Sgt Newman and after that I don't know.

Q. Did you give authority to anyone to go to the PO and collect cigs for you?
A. No.

Q. Are you any relation to the accused?
A. No.

Q. You aren't aware of what happened as a result of your complaint to the P.O.?
A. No.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. When did you go to 3 Repat?
A. 23 Jun.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B)

THIRD WITNESS

It JH SIMPSON, Offr IC Post Office, 2 CIDB, having been duly sworn, states:

I am the Offr IC of the PO at 2 CIDB, and I know the accused. On the afternoon of 22 Jun the Postal Sgt brought me 2 cards both in the name of LeBLANC, one being FG and the second H. Exhibits 1 and 2 are the two cards. As a result of the infm I recd from the Postal Sgt I made certain only 2 LeBlanc's were in our files and I sent to "H" Wing, the Coy that LeBlanc FG belonged to, and asked if I could have that man. He was sent to the PO and I questioned him as to whether he had recd any cigs.

DEF OFFR: This is in the nature of an investigation, and in view of the lack of caution having not been given, no answers by the accused are admissable.

PROSECUTOR TO WITNESS .... Had any charge been laid against the accused at that time?
No.

Q. What was the nature of sending for the accused?
A. To try and find out at that time where the cigs were that were missing. I didn't know or suspect if the cigs had been recd by the accused at the time. I didn't know who had recd them.

Q. And being the offr in charge it was your duty to investigate generally?
A. Yes.

Q. Did you contemplate at the time, laying a charge against him?
A. No, I didn't know anything about it at all.

Q. As a result of your investigation what did you do?
A. After I had questioned the accused I went with my Sgt and asked LeBlanc to accompany me and we went to "B" Wing Office. I asked for the CO and told him what I had found out and asked him to take care of this man. I did not lay a charge myself, but I was called as a witness when the case was brought up.

Q. When the accused was brought before you did you show him the cards, Exhibits 1 and 2?
A. I showed him Exhibit 1 during our talk and asked if he had signed for 900 cigs as H LeBlanc and he replied he had.

DEF OFFR: I object.

PROSECUTOR: I refer the Court to sub para 1 on P. 91 MML and to the proviso at the bottom of Page 92 and the top of Page 93 MML. In view of Lt Simpson's position in the PO it was his duty to make the inquiry and the question of whether a charge would be laid or not didn't come within his jurisdiction. His duty was to make the investigation and lay the facts before the CO of the accused who would decide, and therefore the question of what he asked the accused in his interrogation doesn't enter into the question at all.

DEF OFFR: I take strong objection to this. This witness here is acting in the capacity of a person in authority and if he had not made up his mind that a charge should be laid against the accused at this phase he should have made up his mind.

THE COURT IS CLOSED

THE COURT REOPENED AND THE PRESIDENT STATED THAT IN VIEW OF THE ANSWERS WHICH THE ACCUSED HAD GIVEN TO THIS WITNESS THAT FURTHER EVIDENCE OF THE CONVERSATION WOULD NOT BE ADMITTED BECAUSE NO CAUTION HAD AT THAT POINT BEEN GIVEN BY THE WITNESS TO THE ACCUSED.

THE PROSECUTOR:
I must say most respectfully that I cannot agree with the decision which the Court has arrived at.

PROSECUTOR TO WITNESS: I show to you Exhibit 2 Lt Simpson, what is it?
WITNESS: It is the parcel and cig card of the accused.

Q. Did he receive any cigs during the month of Jun according to his card?
A. No.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. How many bags of mail do you distribute to Depot Bn in a day?
A. 30 to 50 roughly.

Q. And how many of these would be parcels?
A. On an average we run about 30 bags of cigs daily.

Q. How many cartons roughly in a bag?
A. 24 to 28.

Q. So that there would be approx 700 cartons distributed daily?
A. They aren't all distributed, they are only handled.

Q. In view of the large number of parcels distributed daily it would necessarily be very difficult for the men distributing same to remember all the faces of those receiving them?
A. To a large extent, yes.

FOURTH WITNESS

D.72119 A/Sgt NEWMAN BR, 2 CITR, having been duly sworn, states:

I'm the senior clerk in the PO at 2 CIDB and I recognize the accused. On 22 Jun during the noon hour a Pte Greenwood brought to me 2 cig cards, one of which was Pte LeBlanc's F.C., and the other Pte LeBlanc's H. Exhibits 1 and 2 are the two cards. As a result of what Greenwood told me I referred the matter to Lt Simpson who is the Offr IC of the PO.

Q. Did you question the accused at all yourself?
A. I asked him one question; if he was aware that he had signed H LeBlanc when his initials were FC.

DEF OFFR: I object to that question and answer.

Q. Was Lt Simpson there at the time?
A. Yes.

Q. And had he been questioning the accused?
A. Yes.

Q. And had any caution been given to the accused?
A. No.

PROSECUTOR TO THE COURT:
The caution would not be given to the accused by either Lt Simpson or Sgt Newman because they were merely carrying out routine duties. It was a straightforward question and it was the most natural thing in the world to question him. The accused didn't have to answer I submit.

PRESIDENT:
The Court has ruled that answers will not be admitted in evidence as no cuation was given, and this Sgt was a person in authority.

PROSECUTOR:
In view of the Court's ruling I have no further questions, Sir.

NO CROSS-EXAMINATION

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B)

THE PROSECUTION IS CLOSED

MOTION BY THE DEF OFFR

This case should be dismissed because the very essential part of the case that the accused recd the cigs in question has not been firmly established by the Prosecution. The chief witness for the Prosecution, Pte Kilmartin....his evidence is not clear at all, nor was it given straightforward, and he was quite hesitant in his answers, and was not certain, and I take strong objection to the manner in which this witness was introduced to the accused in that he obviously heard conversations in regard to this inquiry. The accused was also paraded out of the Cd Room and in my opinion it would be very difficult for the Court to accept his identification established in that manner as satisfactory. We have it in evidence that this particular person only recd one parcel of cigs and on the basis of that one statement the witness is attempting to identify this particular person who recd the cigs. I would ask the Court to dismiss this case because the Prosecution has not made out a case.

PROSECUTOR'S REPLY

I submit that the Prosecution HAS made out a prima facie case and has shifted the onus to the accused. First of all I would call the Court's attention to Exhibit 1 and the signatures on the last three lines of this card opposite dates 15 Jun 45 and how they compare with the first two signatures on the card which Pte LeBlanc H has stated, is his signature, and also to compare the writing with Exhibit 3, of Pte LeBlanc FG, the accused, with the signature of H LeBlanc appearing on the said cig record card. It is obvious that H LeBlanc did not sign the last three and I would ask the Court to compare the signatures of the accused and the signature appearing on Exhibit 1. Secondly, I will ask the Court to recall Kilmartin's evidence that the accused did sign Exhibit 1, H. LeBlanc and that he had been handed 900 cigs. It is very easy to become confused, especially if a witness is in the hands of an expert legal man like my friend the Def Offr is. As far as Lt Simpson's evidence is concered, the Court has admitted the first two answers of his evidence, namely, that the accused admitted in his presence that he had recd 900 cigs and that he had signed Exhibit 1. I suggest that this alone is sufficient to call upon the accused for his defence.

THE COURT IS CLOSED TO CONSIDER THE SUBMISSION

THE COURT IS REOPENED, AND THE PRESIDENT ANNOUNCES THAT THE SUBMISSION BY THE DEF OFFR IS DISALLOWED, AND THAT THE TRIAL WILL ACCORDINGLY PROCEED.

- D E F E N C E -

FIRST WITNESS

The ACCUSED, having been duly sworn, states:

Q. Are you sometimes called H LeBlanc?
A. Yes.

Q. And what does the H stand for?
A. Harry, Sir, and I've recd 3 letters in this country addressed H LeBlanc and I had a parcel in France addressed H LeBlanc and it was for me, as it had my number on it.

Q. I have a document here addsd to Mr George LeBlanc, Inverness County, Cape Breton...to whom does that refer?
A. My father, Sir.

Q. And are you the person referred to in that letter?
A. Yes.

LETTER MARKED EXHIBIT 4

PROSECUTOR:

This letter, Exhibit 4, is not evidence, and I object to it being introduced.

DEF OFFR TO WITNESS — How did you happen to get this particular document?

A. Sir, I had bought a War Bond and I signed for it to be delivered home. Later I inquired about it and I got this answer back, and the reference is to G.50758 Cnr HG LeBlanc.

Q. What do your parents sometimes call you?
A. Harry.

Q. Your friends?
(The President warned the Def Offr that he must refrain from asking such questions to the witness)

Q. Why do they call you Harry?
A. It's a sort of a nickname.

Q. On this particular day did you believe this parcel was for you?
A. Yes.

Q. Why?
A. Seeing as I got letters before in the name of H LeBlanc I thought this would be for me.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. What is your number?
A. G.50758.

A. F.G.

Q. What do they stand for?
A. Francis George.

A. H.

Q. Ever recd any cigs prior to 15 Jun?
A. No.

Q. I show you Exhibit 2, whose is that?

A. Yes.

Q. Any brothers or sisters?
A. Yes.

Q. What is your brother's name?
A. Thomas.

Q. Any brothers or sisters by the name of Harry?
A. No.

Q. Didn't you think it strange to receive 900 cigs when you hadn't ordered them?
A. No.

Q. Do you recall being brought to the PO on 22 Jun?
A. Yes.

Q. And speaking to Lt Simpson?
A. Yes.

Q. Do you recall being asked by him if you had examined the parcel carefully to make certain it was your name and number on the outside and your reply was that you hadn't?
A. That's right, Sir.

Q. Do you recall being asked whether there were any cigs or parcels in your possession and your answer was no?
A. Right.

Q. Do you recall being asked whether you had signed the name of H LeBlanc and had recd 900 cigs?
A. Yes.

Q. Do you recall being asked that the number and initial of the chit that you recd from your Coy was in your name, number and initial and that your answer at that time was that you were aware of that fact?
A. I don't recall that.

Q. You deny that?
A. Yes.

Q. Do you recall telling him that if there was any trouble about you having recd these cigs that you would pay for them to the other LeBlanc?
A. Yes, I thought if there was a mistake and I got his cigs that it would be right for me to turn around and pay for them.

Q. How did you obtain possession of the chit from the Coy?
A. It was given to me at "H" Wing Office.

Q. How do you pick these chits up?
A. They are part of your mail, Sir.

Q. Any recd any mail or chits that didn't belong to you before?
A. No.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B)

THE DEFENCE IS CLOSED

STATEMENT BY THE Pros OFFR ON THE FINDING

Sir, I repeat all I said in my reply to the Def Offr's submission a little while back, and add the following:
The accused is charged under Sec 18(4) of the AA and I refer the Court to the footnote of that Sec, and also to P.118, para 50. (PROSECUTOR QUOTES FOOTNOTE AND PARA FROM MML). In other words in this particular case the PO had the possession of the cigs and therefore can be construed as being the owner. I submit that the accused obtained the 900 cigs from the PO who are classified as the owners thereof, and that at the time of taking the accused had the intent to permanently deprive the owner of the cigs, and all this is borne out by the fact that he signed the card H LeBlanc three times on the 15 Jun, whereas on his own card he signed before his own signature, FG LeBlanc. He has admitted this to the Court and the only explanation he can give is that sometimes he is called "Harry". I'll leave this to the Court to believe or decide whether this is true or not. I submit that the accused should be found guilty as charged.

STATEMENT BY THE DEF OFFR ON THE FINDING

I would like to draw the Court's attention to the MULHEM category of the accused. The same degree of care and observance is not to be compared with a greater degree of intelligence. He assmumed that the cartons were for him, and in view of the letter which I have submitted it coroborates that he has been called Harry LeBlanc in the past and there is nothing to suggest that there has been any mischief on his part in producing this particular letter, and also, there is no reason to doubt the word of the accused either that he has recd cigs and parcels and letters in the name of Harry LeBlanc, before this. When the accused became aware that they were not his cigs it was perfectly natural of him wishing to make restitution. The alleged offence took place on 15 Jun and the witness alleges that the accused had his finger over the card, and yet this investigation didn't take place until the 22 Jun, so I suggest to the Court that this is pursly an explanation and not a fact. He had every reason to believe that they were his cigs; his intelligence is not as great as some others, and the contents were not examined as would be made by a person of more intellect. I ask the Court to find the accused not guilty of this charge.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of G.50758, Pte. Francis George LeBLANC, CIC, on strength of 2 Cdn. Infantry Training Regt., a soldier of the Cdn. Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer, this Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

First Witness Prosecution, G.2524, Pte. LeBLANC, H. of #3 Cdn. Repat. Depot, having been duly sworn, states as follows:-

"I am G.2524, Pte. LeBlanc, H. of #3 Cdn. Repat. Depot.

About noon on the 22 June 45, I went to the Post Office at 2 C.I.D.B., 2 C.I.T.R. where I was then stationed, to see if there were any cigarettes for me as I had not received any for some time. I inquired of Pte. Greenwood, W. at the Post Office and was told that I had received 900 cigarettes on the 15 June 45. I had not been in 2 C.I.D.B. on that date and had not gone to the Post Office and did not receive 900 cigarettes on 15 June 45. I told Pte. Greenwood this and he showed me my cigarette and parcel card which bore a signature "H. LeBlanc" for 900 cigarettes on the 15 June 45. It is not my signature, but it is my card as my signature does appear for previous entries. I have not given anyone authority to go to the Post Office and collect for me any cigarettes or parcels. Pte. Greenwood reported my complaint to Sgt. Newman and I also told him the facts."

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Second Witness Prosecution, D.72119, A/Sgt. Newman, B.R., Regimental Post Office, 2 CITR, having been duly sworn, states as follows:-

"I am D.72119, A/Sgt. Newman, B.R., Reg. Post Office, 2 CITR.

During the noon hour of 22 June 45, Pte. Greenwood, W., who was on duty in the parcel and cigarette room, brought me two parcel and cigarette cards, one in the name of G.2524, Pte. LeBlanc, H. and the other in the name of G.50758, Pte. LeBlanc, F.G. He said that Pte. LeBlanc, H. denied having received 900 cigarettes which were shown on his card as having been received by someone who signed "H. LeBlanc" on 15 June 45. I talked to G.2824, Pte. LeBlanc, H. and told him I would investigate the matter immediately. I referred the matter to Lieut. Simpson who instructed me to call Pte. LeBlanc, F.G. over to the post office for questioning. I heard Lt. Simpson ask Pte. LeBlanc, F.G. if he had received any cigarettes lately and he said "Yes". Mr. Simpson then asked him how many he had received, and he answered "900". Mr. Simpson then asked him if he had any of the cigarettes or cartons left. Pte. LeBlanc answered "I have a few cigarettes but no cartons. He was shown Pte. H. LeBlanc's card and asked if this was his signature and he answered "Yes". I asked Pte. LeBlanc if he was aware that he had signed "H. LeBlanc" when his name was "F.G.LeBlanc". He answered that he had signed "H. LeBlanc" because at some time back home he had been called "Harry" and had received mail addressed to "H.LeBlanc"

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of G.50758, Pte. LeBlanc, F.G., 6IC, on strength of 2 C.I.T.R., a soldier of the C.A.(O).

(Cont'd.)

I heard Mr. Simpson ask Pte. LeBlanc, F.G. if he knew that signing "H. LeBlanc" was forgery, but do not remember what Pte. LeBlanc answered. I remember hearing Pte. LeBlanc when asked if he knew that the cigarettes were not his, say something like "I had been thinking about it". Pte. LeBlanc, F.G. also stated during the questioning that if there was any trouble about him receiving the wrong cigarettes he would order cigarettes for Pte. LeBlanc,H.".

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Third Witness Prosecution. Lieut. J.H. Simpson, Officer i/c Post Office, 2 CIDB, 2 GITR, having been duly sworn states as follows:-

"I am lt. J.H. Simpson, Officer i/c Post Office 2 GITR.

On the afternoon of the 22 June 45, Sgt. Newman of the Post Office Staff draw my attention to two parcel & cigarette cards, one in the name of G.2524, Pte. LeBlanc, H. and the other one in the name of G.50758, Pte. LeBlanc, F.G. This was being investigated because Pte. LeBlanc,H. had inquired on 22 June 45 for cigarettes. When advised there were no cigarettes for him as he had received cigarettes on the 15 June 45, he denied this. He was shown the parcel & cigarette card which showed that 900 cigarettes had been received on the 15 June 45 and had been delivered to someone who signed the name "H.LeBlanc" on the 15 June 45. He denied that this was his signature. Our Index Cards were checked and the only other LeBlanc on the files was "F.G. LeBlanc". I sent for this man and when he arrived I questioned him as to whether he had received any cigarettes of late. He admitted receiving 900 cigarettes on the 15 June 45. I asked him if he had examined the parcels carefully to make certain that they were in his name and number and he stated he had not. I asked him if he had any cigarettes or cartons still in his possession, and he said "No". I showed him the parcel card of "H. LeBlanc" and asked him if he had signed "H. LeBlanc" in receipt of 900 cigarettes on 15 June 45, and he replied "Yes". I asked him if he knew that that was forgery and he admitted that he had been thinking about it. I then asked him if he had not noticed that the number and initial of the parcel chit that he had received through his Coy was not his own number and initial and he remarked that he was aware of that fact. When questioning LeBlanc,F.G. about the cigarettes, he stated that if there was any trouble over his having received these cigarettes that he would pay for cigarettes for the other chap.".

I recognize the accused as Pte. LeBlanc, F.G. whom I questioned on 22 June 45.

In Canada I was assist. band master with the Loyal Rifles of Canada regtl band at I was not getting paid for it. I enjoyed my work very much. When I was taken away from that kind of work & sent to England with a strange unit, I didn't feel like soldiering with a strange outfit. I was in 3 C I R.U for a few months & passed my T.O.E.T. & applied for an audition before the Director of Music. I ~~did~~ fulfilled the required musical standards. after that I couldn't put my heart into anything ~~The~~ I had been here 6 months without hearing from home & when I left Canada my grand father was on his death bed & both my children were sick at the same time. I had'nt heard from home & did not know how they were. I just got fed up & became restless & went A.W.L..

1st witness) for prosecution) WILLIAM MILNE, 50 St Mungo St., GLASGOW, Scotland, being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor:-

The witness identifies himself.

Q9. Can you identify Gnr LeBlanc in this court room?
A9. I can (indicating accused).
Q10. Will you tell the court what you know of the circumstances in connection with the alleged theft?
A10. Sir, about last Sep or Oct Gnr Deveau was in the vicinity of my house, with Gnr LeBlanc, and being an ex-member of the army myself I went to speak to these two gentlemen and they said they had nowhere to go. I asked them to the house for tea. After tea they said they would give me a call at New Year or Xmas if they got leave. On New Year's Day, in the evening about 11 o'clock Gnr Deveau and Gnr LeBlanc came to my house and said they were broke and they asked me if I would put them up for the night, and I did so. The next day they said they had up until Thurs for their leave, that was five days, and I said I was prepared to put them up for the five days, sir. Anyway, the next day they came in and one of them gave me 4s., Gnr Deveau did, and they had had a drink or two. I said, "Where did you get the money?" and they said they had met some pals down the road. They were both there together. They were both there at the time when they said they had met some pals down the road. That was all right; I didn't bother. The next day, that was Fri, was all right, Sat was all right, and Sun was all right, and when I came in at dinner time from my work, expecting to see them in the house, the boys there said they were down at the Union Jack Club. How is that, I said to myself, I thought they were broke. I got suspicious and then I thought I had better have a look around, and I went into my wardrobe and I noticed my wife's ring had gone from the pocket wallet. I said to my boy, "Georgie, your mother's ring is gone," so I made a bee-line for the Lion Club and I didn't see them there. At night time I went to the Central Station. I didn't find them. When I got home at ten o'clock Gnr Deveau was in the house. I said to him, "I don't want to accuse you of anything, but my wife's ring is gone," and he turned around and he said ---
Q11. Was the accused present at the time?
A11. No sir, he wasn't there when the other fellow accused him. I said to him, "Where is it?" and he said, "I don't know." Of course I was mad. He said, "I will go out and try to find him." When he went out I went to the police station. The next day at dinner time when I came in the boy said to me, "Daddy, I saw LeBlanc standing outside the Lion Club." I went down and he was standing there and I said to him, "What about it, what did you do with the wife's ring?" He did not beat about the bush; he said, "I have nothing to do with it, he took your wife's ring," he said, "He put it in the bullion store." My boy was along with me at the time and I said, "You stand here while I go for the police." I went to get a policeman, I went about 10 yds down the street when the boy came after me and said, "Dad, he has run." The next day at dinner time he was standing there and I said, "Come on and show me the pawn shop where you pawned my wife's ring." I walked along with him to Buchanan St where a PC was on duty, and I informed the police that they had pinched a ring from my house, and he was arrested then. He was taken to the police station and cross-examined. That is all I want to say.
Q12. You say you were told by your child that LeBlanc had gone down to live at the Lion Club/on Mon?
A12. That is right.
Q13. When did you first miss the ring?
A13. When the boy said they were at the Lion Club I went into the room to see if it had gone. When he told me that and knowing they had no money, that is when I missed the ring.
Q14. It was after Mon, was it?
A14. It was Mon -- no, it was Mon right enough, because I was working until 12 o'clock.
Q15. It was quite a long time ago. On Fri or Sat Gnr LeBlanc in coy with Deveau came and gave you some money, did he?
A15. Yes.
Q16. And you inquired where they got the money?
A16. Yes, sir.

Q17. Then you said when you came back from work on Mon you were informed they had moved out to the Lion Club?
A17. Yes.
Q18. I wanted to know where your discovery of the loss of the ring fits in; was it before they had gone to the Lion Club or after?
A18. It must have been before, because that was how I tumbled to it that that was where they had got the money to stay at the Lion Club.
Q19. On what day did you discover the money gone?
A19. Sat we were all right; I think it was Sun. You have me guessing there; I am not sure.
Q20. You say they had had some drinks when they gave you the money?
A20. Yes.
Q21. And you asked them where they got the money from?
A21. Yes, and they said they had met some pals.
Q22. Then on Mon you were told they went to the Lion Club?
A22. Correct.
Q23. Do I understand it was not until after that the discovering that the ring was missing was made?
A23. That is just what I can't remember now; I think it was Mon.
Q24. Was it before or after they moved out of your house that you discovered the loss of the ring?
A24. It was Mon they went to the Lion Club. I came to the conclusion they took the ring; that is why I went after them. It was Mon dinner time when my son told me they were staying at the Lion Club.
Q25. This man arrived on New Year's Day?
A25. That is right.
Q26. Did they have a free run of the house?
A26. Yes.
Q27. Were they in possession of a key to the house?
A27. No.
Q28. When you were away from the house, working and otherwise, do you know if they were left alone in the house?
A28. No, I don't think know, but either my boy or my girl would be in the house; of course, I could be at work and they might run out of the house.
Q29. If you and the accused were out of the house, and your children were out of the house, would the house be locked or unlocked?
A29. Always locked, sir.

CROSS EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q30. About how long was it since you last saw the ring in question until you discovered its loss?
A30. A fortnight or three weeks previous.
Q31. Where was the ring when you last saw it?
A31. In the wardrobe, inside the jacket pocket, in the wardrobe.
Q32. When and where did you next see the ring after you reported it to the police?
A32. At the police station, it was handed to me by a detective.
Q33. And that was your ring, was it?
A33. Yes, I am sure of it.

Q34. JUDGE ADVOCATE: Was anyone else in the House during the times these two soldiers were staying with you?
A34. No sir, no-one at all.
Q35. Was anyone else in the house for the period of two weeks before that?
A35. No sir, there was only myself and the two children there. I did have a housekeeper but I couldn't afford to keep it up.
Q36. When did you let the housekeeper go?
A36. About six mos ago, sir.

Q58. Did you stay anywhere else in Glasgow other than at Mr Milne's house?
A58. No sir, I didn't.

CROSS EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q59. Did you ever see the ring which Mr Milne told you he had?
A59. I saw one ring, but I am not positive it is the one he says he lost.
Q60. When did you see a ring?
A60. One Saty going down the street. I was given a ring and didn't know what to do with it.
Q61. Answer my question. Where did you see a ring while in Glasgow?
A61. I saw it on the Saty, but I don't remember the exact date.
Q62. Where did you see it?
A62. Going down Parliamentary Rd, in the accused's possession: it was in LeBlanc's possession.

Q63. Why did you see the ring?
A63. He wanted to get rid of the ring and he said he didn't know anything about pawning it, and I said, "What ring?" and he showed it me and I said it would be easy to learn, so we went to the pawn shop and pawned it.
Q64. Have you seen the ring since then?
A64. No, sir.
Q65. If you saw the ring now could you identify it?
A65. Yes, sir.

DEFENCE: (To prosecutor) May the ring be produced, please?
PROSECUTOR: Yes. Call Mr Milne.

1st witness for prosecution) WILLIAM MILNE, 50 St Mungo St., GLASGOW, Scotland, previously sworn, recalled, and examined by Judge Advocate:-

Q66. Is this the ring (producing ring) you refer to as being taken from the wallet?

A75. No, sir.
Q76. Did you ever see that ring before?
A76. No, sir.

A78. No, sir.

RE-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR

Q79. You pawned the ring which the accused had in his possession?
A79. Yes, sir.
Q80. To all intents and purposes it was his ring, so far as you know?
A80. It was, as far as I am concerned.
Q81. Will you describe to the court again what that ring looked like?
A81. A plain ring with a small stone set in it; a plain gold ring.
Q82. Something like the one you have just seen?
A82. No, it was a small stone.
Q83. Was the stone set into the gold band?
A83. Into the band itself.

Q88. He did not want the ring back?
A88. No, sir.
Q89. You said you spent this money; why did you have to spend it?
A89. We didn't have to spend it, no sir.
Q90. You said Gnr LeBlanc had inferred to you that he had a girl he was going to give this to?
A90. No sir, I didn't say that.
Q91. Well, didn't you think it belonged to him?
A91. I didn't refer to any girl he was going to give it to.
Q92. Did he have a ring which he was going to wear himself?
A92. He said he might get married.
Q93. Was it a nice ring?
A93. Yes, sir.
Q94. Gold?
A94. I wouldn't swear to that.
Q95. Then correct me if I am wrong. The impression I have got is that this was a nice ring that LeBlanc got you to pawn for him, for which he got £0.9.9, and then tore up the pawn ticket because he was not going to redeem it again?
A95. Yes, sir.
Q96. And he did not need the money at all?
A96. He didn't need it.
Q97. What sort of a stone was it?
A97. A white stone.
Q98. THE COURT: You wouldn't know whether it was a diamond or not?

A99. Yes, sir.

The prosecution is closed.

Under note 1, R.P.40, MML, defence submit prima facie case has not been established, and moves for dismissal of the first and second charges.

The Court is closed for their decision.

The Court being re-opened, the accused is again brought before it.

THE COURT: The Court, after due consideration, sustain the submission of the defending officer, and we hereby find the accused Not Guilty of the first and second charges.

Q100. THE COURT: In connection with the other charges, do you wish to make any statement in mitigatibn of punishment?
A100. No, sir.
Q101. Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to character?
A101. No, sir.

The Prosecutor, MAJOR A.M. CLARKE, No 3 CARU, being duly sworn, is examined by the Court:-

The witness identifies himself.

Q102. Have you any evidence to produce as to the character and particulars of service of the accused?
A102. Yes sir, I produce AF B296 and copy of AFM-6.

The above statement is read, signed by the President, and annexed to the proceedings.

Q103. Is the accused the person named in the statement which you have heard read?
A103. Yes, sir.
Q104. Have you compared the contents of the above statement with the regimental books?
A104. Yes, sir.

Q105. Are they true extracts from the regimental books, and is the statement of entries in the conduct sheets a fair and true summary of those entries?

A105. Yes, sir.

No cross-examination.

Q106. THE COURT: Do you wish to address the court?

A106. DEFENDING OFFICER: Just a word in connection with the conduct of this soldier while in the army. He has been soldiering now for over a year, and his offences in the past have not been of a serious nature. He is not an incorrigible soldier. His last punishment was 14 days detn for an absence of two days and two hrs. On completion of that 14 days detn he reported back to the A Wing office and he was told he did not belong to that Wing, but that he belonged to C Bty. When he reported to C Bty office he was told he did not belong to C Bty. All this was very confusing to the man, and apparently it seemed to appear nobody required his services. He is the type of man who is easily led and influenced. He got no satisfaction, so he went AWL. In view of the fact he has spent some considerable time in close arrest awaiting this trial, and in view of the fact of his previous record not showing him to be a bad soldier, although his military character is not good, I would ask for leniency. I think this man does deserve the court's consideration for a lenient sentence.

THE COURT IS CLOSED FOR THE CONSIDERATION OF THE SENTENCE.

J L Goldie - Lieut

I now produce and read to you a letter purporting to be written by the said William Milne:-

"Ptes. John Clayton De Veau and Pte. Joe Le Blanc resided with me for five days. I gave them food and sleeping accommodation. They gave me 4 shilling money I think they got from pawning my wedding ring of which they stole. My wife is in a mental hospital and I have a son 13 years old and daughter 10 to support and as I have a wage averaging £3:10: 0 per week I think that the guilty one should be made to pay the £1 that it cost me to get the ring from the pawnshop, the Clearance Line you will receive from the Glasgow C.I.D."

"I sincerely hope that I have taken the proper method by writing to you."

"Yours most respectfully,"

(Sgd.) " Mr. W. Milne"

I now produce and read to you a statement in evidence purporting to be made by the said William Milne to the City of Glasgow Police:-

"I am a brushmaker by occupation and reside with my two children at the address given."

"For the past seven years my wife has been a patient in Woodielee Mental Institution. When she entered the institution I retained her wedding ring which I always keep in my wallet."

"About four months ago while in McAslin Street, I met a Canadian soldier. After some conversation I invited him to my house where we had tea together. When leaving I informed him that should he be in Glasgow at any time to give me a look up. He told me his name was John Clayton De Vaux."

"About 11 a.m. on Thursday, 1st January, 1942, De Vaux called at the house accompanied by another soldier whom I now know to be John Le Blanc. I noticed that De Vaux wore Sergeant's stripes, while Le Blanc had one stripe up. They informed me that they were broke and asked if I could put them up which I immediately agreed to do."

"On Sunday 4th January 1942, I had occasion to go to my wallet which was inside the wardrobe and in my coat pocket. On examining the wallet I missed the ring. I recalled having last seen it on 31st December 1941, and immediately suspected the soldiers for the theft."

"I did not say anything to them at the time, but on my return from work the following day I was informed by my children that the soldiers had gone to stay in the Lion Club in North Frederick Street. On hearing this I went there, but could not find them. On my return home and as I entered the close I found the Sergeant (De Vaux) standing there. I invited him into the house and he stayed with me overnight. I questioned him regarding the ring and he "remarked, "That is where Le Blanc has got the money". I asked him to try and get it for me and he left the house to try and trace Le Blanc, but he returned without him or any word of the ring. He left my house on 5th January, 1942, and I have not seen him since."

"I made enquiry with a view to tracing Le Blanc but as I could not find him I called at the Central Police Office and reported the matter."

"About 1.p.m. on Tuesday, 13th January, 1942, I was passing the Lion Club in North Frederick Street, when I saw the accused Le Blanc standing at the door. I went forward and asked him about the ring. He informed me that he had seen De Vaux with the ring and that he had pawned it in Parliamentary Road. I was not satisfied and asked him to accompany me to Parliamentary Road, where I handed him over to a Constable after explaining the circumstances. I accompanied them to the Central Police Station."

"I was later shown a gold wedding ring by Detective Sergeant Robertson and I identified it as my property."

"The value of the ring is £2 and I signed label attached."

The accused requests that William Milne be present at the trial for the purpose of cross-examination.

I now produce and read to you a statement in evidence purporting to be made by the said Marshall Liddell to the City of Glasgow Police:-

"I am manager in Pawn Office of A. J. Liddell at 8 Sauchiehall Street, Glasgow."

"On Saturday, 3rd January 1942, two soldiers called at the premises. The one who was wearing Sergeant's stripes pledged a gold wedding ring and was advanced £1."

"He gave his name as John Le Blanc, 5th Light A.A. C.E.F. England."

"On Wednesday, 14th January, 1942, Detective Sergeant Robertson called at the premises and took possession of the ring."

"He was accompanied by a soldier, but I was unable to identify him as the soldier who accompanied the Sergeant when he pledged the ring."

"I could not identify the Sergeant."

"I signed label attached to ring."

The accused requests that Marshall Liddell be present at the trial for the purpose of cross-examination.

J. L. Goldie Lieut

I now produce and read to you a statement in evidence purporting to be made by the said Constable Ralston.

"About 1.10 p.m. on Tuesday, 13th January, 1942, I was on point duty in Parliamentary Road, when I was approached by the witness William Milne, who was accompanied by the accused Le Blanc. Milne informed me that Le Blanc and a sergeant of the Canadian Army had lived with him between 31st December, 1941, and 5th January, 1942, and that after their departure on the latter date, he had missed a wedding ring from his house."

"I informed the witness, Constable Milne, of what I had been told, and the accused Le Blanc was asked after being cautioned, if he knew anything about the ring. He replied, "The first time I saw the ring it was in possession of the Sergeant on the street." "I accompanied the Sergeant to a pawn office, where he pledged it in my name for £1." "I did not know where the ring had come from, and I did not receive any money from the Sergeant"."

""As the witness William Milne had previously reported the theft at the Central Police Office, I conveyed the accused there, where he was questioned by Detective Sergeant Robertson."

The accused does not require the presence of this witness at the trial for the purpose of cross-examination.

6th Witness for Prosecution.

Alexander Milne, No. 80 Constable, Central Division, Glasgow City Police.

"About 2.15 p.m. on Tuesday, 13th January, 1942, I saw the accused Le Blanc in the Central Police Office where he was brought by Constables Ralston and Milne. I cautioned and questioned him regarding the ring and he stated that on Saturday, 3rd January, 1942, he was in Parliamentary Road along with the boy, De Vaux, when he showed him a ring, and that he had accompanied him to a pawn shop in Parliamentary Road, where it was pledged for £1. When pledging De Vaux gave his (Le Blanc's) name and that he did not receive any of the money."

"De Blanc also stated that being a stranger to Glasgow he did not know where the pawn office was situated but that he could point it out. Le Blanc was then charged with the theft as now libelled and cautioned in the usual manner to which he replied, "I was with De Vaux when he pawned it but I did not steal it"."

"He was taken to the bar of the Central Police Office where he was again cautioned and charged and replied, 'I was with the other fellow when he pawned it'."

"The following day he was taken out in the Police car and he pointed out the pawn office at 8 Sauchiehall Street, Glasgow, as the one in which the ring was pledged. I took possession of the ring which had been pledged for £1 under the name of John Le Blanc."

"He further admitted that neither he nor De Vaux were non-commissioned officers but that they had obtained the stripes and put them up themselves. He also stated that he had been an absentee from his unit since 24th December, 1941, and that, as far as he knew, De Vaux, had returned to his unit."

"I signed the label attached to the ring."

The accused requests that Detective Sergeant John Robertson be present at the trial for the purpose of cross-examination.

8th Witness for Prosecution. Harry Duncan, Detective Constable, Headquarters, City of Glasgow Police.

I, J. L. Goldie, Lieut., R.C.A., the officer taking this Summary, certify that owing to the expense and loss of time involved, the attendance of Harry Duncan cannot, in my opinion, be readily procured.

To show he understood the caution he signed it. I could identify this statement as I witnessed it.

DEFENCE.

The accused elects to give evidence on oath.
The accused sworn states:- On 11th Dec 44 I was late for my convoy from 6 C.O.D. to Base Belgium where I met my officer. My officer told me to put my truck around the other side of the park which I did. After parking my vehicle I returned to where I had been speaking with my officer but found he & convoy had gone. I could not go back to the depot because it was too late so I waited until the next day & then went into Brussels. When I arrived in Brussels at St. John's Barracks I found the convoy had left for Ghent. I decided to take rest because I was tired of one as I had been working quite hard lately & had been refused a pass which was due to me. I remained in Brussels. I stayed there 3 or 4 days & met a girl. I decided to stay with her for awhile & then return to my unit in Ghent. I remained there with all intentions of going back. I was in uniform when apprehended & had all my papers with me. Furthermore I had my suit case packed ready to leave as I had had a quarrel with the girl. but people did not do so because they had locked the door and kept the key. Although she was in the house I couldn't find the key. About 10 mins. after the M.P. & the civ, arrested me & took me to the guard room. When I reported to St. John's Barracks I found an English detachment there who told me the convoy had gone to Ghent. When I parked my vehicle & talked with my officer I was only away about 5 mins. I had money when I arrived in Brussels, approx 1500 frs. which lasted me for some time, the rest of the time the woman kept me. Twice I made up my mind definitely to go but changed my mind because the girl did not want me. On two occasions when I was about to leave me a short time before my apprehension. The reason I had made up my mind to leave was because I was fed up with the girl & realized I had to return to my unit. When the M.P. came to the house I told the girl to [illegible] the door immediately. She did so, & I made no effort to evade arrest. When I first decided to take my rest I had decided to have 7 days.

Cross exam from P.C.

The reason I was wanting to return was not only because of the quarrels but because I wished to go back to my unit. Her name was Mademoiselle Francoise Framette - 93 Rue Jobie Brussels.

P.C.P. (83) (b) complied with.

"Summing Up for Prosecution."

D. 140584 - Pte Leblanc, Gerard

The accused, although he expressed his intention of returning to his unit, made no effort to do so and it was necessary for the Military Authorities, after a lapse of 89 days, to arrest him. The accused, if his intentions were sincere, had ample time to return and 89 days is definite proof that he did not have the intentions of returning.

Gentlemen:-

I would like to bring to your attention, for your consideration in sentencing the accused, that he is the ~~son~~ of a poor habitant French Canadian family, which resides in the less habited part of Gaspe and for these reasons, did not have the opportunity to receive an education. Due to this fact he does not quite realize the seriousness of his offence. Furthermore he is but 21 years of age. Having joined the Army when 18 yrs old, came overseas, and landed in France on July 7, 1944 ~~on~~ with his Unit. On July 22, was evacuated to a Hospital in England. Upon been discharged from Hospital, was promised leave, but due to the fast movements of reinforcements leave was not granted, but once again re joined his Unit. Sprained an ankle and evacuated once more. After 10 days in hospital, was sent to C.B.R.D. refused leave again, and was sent to #1 C.C.O.D.

One day after having worked hard for quite sometime, he proceeded to Boom, but upon reaching there, the convoy on which he was to return had left. So he proceeded to Brussels, St. Johs Barracks, trying to catch up with his convoy but it had already left so he decided to rest for a few days. Unfortunately he met a young girl, who round him to live with her. Naturally being young, did not resist her supposing charms and was kept there Twice during his stay, he had decided to return to his Unit, but each time the pers. managed to make him change his mind. The third time, she locked him in and hid away the key.

The pre gentlemen, it would be appreciated if the court would take this facts into consideration, and be as lenient as possible in their sentence.

Yours Truly Lieut.
Defending Officer

R-140584 Re. LeBlanc, G. (Fus. M.P.).

Gentlemen:—

So far the Prosecution has not yet ~~taken~~ proved to the Court that the accused did not have the intentions of returning to his unit.

The accused whereas, while under oath has brought the fact that on two occasions did pack up to return, but was held back by the girl whom he was living with, the third time, she locked the door and hid the key away. Furthermore, Gentlemen when the Military Police did arrive to the girl's home, he had all opportunity to escape arrest, but did not put up any resistance.

These points gentlemen should go to prove that the intentions of the accused were really & sincerely of returning to his unit.

The Court Stenographer is duly sworn.

The accused is arraigned upon each charge in the above mentioned charge-sheet.

Q3 - Are you guilty or not guilty of the first charge against you, which you have heard read?
A3 - Not guilty, sir.
Q4 - Are you guilty or not guilty of the second charge against you, which you have heard read?
A4 - Not guilty, sir.
Q5 - Are you guilty or not guilty of the third charge against you, which you have heard read?
A5 - Guilty, sir.
Q6 - Are you guilty or not guilty of the fourth charge against you, which you have heard read?
A6 - Guilty, sir.

R.P. 35(B) is complied with in connection with the third and fourth charges.

Prosecutor - The witnesses are not easily available as they belong to the Provost Corps in London and if the defence will admit it I will produce written evidence.

Defending Officer - We have no objection.

First witness for the prosecution, Lieut. L. Canon (Prosecutor) being duly sworn, states:

I produce in evidence A.F.B. 252, Certificate of Apprehension; also, the Declarstion of a Court of Inquiry which establishes the date of the man going absent from Louisburg Barracks, Bordon, Hants.

Prosecutor -- There seems to be a general impression that there has to be intention to prove desertion -- that is true. On the other hand the intention of the prisoner to desert is generally previous to his apprehension and we find that in most cases once the accused is apprehended by civil or military authorities he will make a statement that he had no intention of deserting. I would like to point out that in this particular case the man left Louisburg Barracks on the 14th November, got rid of his military clothing and donned civilian clothes. He certainly intended staying away from the army as he did not surrender himself but was apprehended on the 17th December, 1940. The Manual of Military Law says that if a man disguises himself so that he may not be given orders by the military, or to avoid any military duties, he should be declared a deserter. Today the Canadian Army is on active service and it is important that every company commander either in the holding units or in the regiments in the field should know where their men are at a moment's notice. They are not in Canada any more and things might change from day to day and certainly if a man goes absent without leave and disguises himself in civilian clothes I think the man is a deserter and has proved the intention to desert from the army. Whether he stays away two or three hours, or thirty-three days, or a hundred and thirty-three days, he may be a deserter. The point I would like to underline is that a man on active service who leave without permission and, especially one who disguises himself in civilian clothes, I repeat, shows his intention to desert whether that intention lasts only for a minute or an hour or for two days. Naturally he will tell us he had not any intention of deserting but, as I pointed out before, it was the intention he had when he went absent without leave.

Defending Officer -- In dealing with a charge of desertion the one thing that must be proved is intention. In this case of a man wearing civilian clothes there is not any proof of intention and it has not been proved that the military clothes were disposed of and nothing else has been proved. I quote Chapter 3(17) M.M.L. Nothing has been proven to show intention of escaping an important service.

Q7 - Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness?
A7 - Yes, sir.
Q8 - Do you intend to call any other witness in your defence?
A8 - No, sir.

First witness for the defence, E-4713, Pte. LeBlanc, H., No. 2 Cdn. Inf. Holding Unit, being duly sworn, is examined by the defending officer.

Q9 - Will you tell the Court about your first absence and why you were wearing civilian clothes?
A9 - I had a uniform and it was pretty dirty and I had it washed down at a laundry in Coventry Street and when I received it I didn't have a room then to change and there was a woman in the shelter and she said she would take it for me. When I went with the M.P. to get the uniform she wasn't there. If I had any intention of deserting I wouldn't have told the police I was a soldier.
Q10 - Have you any receipt for the cleaning of the uniform?
A10 - No, sir, but I think they should have it on the books of the laundry.
Q11 - How many days were you wearing the civilian clothes?
A11 - I couldn't be sure.
Q12 - You think the laundry could give you the date?
A12 - I think so, sir. I had worn it quite a bit and it was pretty dirty.
Q13 - How long, one or two days, or a week, or two weeks?
A13 - A little over a week, sir.

Cross-examination by the prosecutor

Q14 - You said the reason you were wearing civilian clothes was because your uniform was dirty?
A14 - Yes, sir.
Q15 - You knew it was against army regulations to wear them?
A15 - Yes, sir, but I was told that a man on seven days leave could wear a suit of civilian clothes. I think I was a disgrace to the army with the uniform I was wearing as it was pretty dirty.
Q16 - How long have you been in the army now?
A16 - Fourteen months.
Q17 - How long had you been in the army when you sent absent from Louisburg?
A17 - About nine months.
Q18 - You had been in the army for a year when you went a.w.l. from Louisburg, isn't that right? You joined the army in November, 1939.
A18 - Yes, sir.
Q19 - In a year you could learn the army regulations couldn't you?
A19 - I haven't done any drilling in England.
Q20 - You have talked to other soldiers and they have told you what to do and what not to do?
A20 - Not that I know of.
Q21 - You were in the army for a year and didn't learn anything?
A21 - I heard many things but not about that.

Q21 - You want us to believe that in over a year in the Canadian Army you didn't know that you couldn't wear civilian clothes?
A21 - I just told you that somebody tole me we were allowed to wear civilian clothes on seven days leave.
Q22 - But you weren't on leave.
A22 - No, sir.
Q23 - When you left Louisburg Barracks on the 14th November where did you first go to?
A23 - I went to London.
Q24 - Did you have a girl friend in London?
A24 - Yes, sir.
Q25 - Did you live with her?
A25 - No, sir.
Q26 - And you stayed in London for 33 days until you were arrested?
A26 - Yes, sir.
Q27 - And if you had not been arrested you would never have come back?
A27 - I would have come back, sir.
Q28 - But you had to be apprehended.
A28 - I was apprehended but I would have come back.
Q29 - When? You want us to believe that you left Bordon with the intention of going away for about forty-five days and then coming back?
A29 - I had the intention of staying about seven days.
Q30 - Then you got to London and decided to make it a little longer?
A30 - I didn't know how long.
Q31 - You hadn't made up your mind?
A31 - I had intentions of coming back around Christmas.
Q32 - You wanted to be with the boys for Christmas?
A32 - Yes, sir, I didn't know many people there.
Q33 - You didn't know when you were coming back?
A33 - I had intention to come back around Christmas.
Q34 - But you were not sure; you were dressed in civilian clothes.
A34 - I had to wait for my uniform before I could come back. I was waiting for it for a few days.
Q35 - Just one more question and answer yes or no. When you went absent and went down to London did you, or did you not, know when you would be coming back?
A35 - I did know then, sir.
Q36 - You just told me that you didn't know; you said you might come back around Christmas.
A36 - I said that when I left Bordon I was coming back in seven days; after that I said around Christmas.
Q37 - But you weren't sure?
A37 - I was pretty sure, but I didn't have my uniform.

Questions by the Court.

Q38 - Could you give the address of the home at which you left the uniform?
A38 - I know it is on Old Compton Street but I'm sorry I don't know the number.
Q39 - Could you give us the name of the woman?
A39 - I'm sorry I don't know the name, sir.
Q40 - How about the laundry?
A40 - The Ninety Minutes Laundry at the corner of Coventry Street in front of the Corner House.

The Court is closed for the consideration of the finding.

President -- Is the prosecution ready to proceed with the second charge that we have to deal with?

Prosecutor -- I think the defence has evidence which is acceptable to the accused. I have already submitted in evidence in the form of the Declaration of a Court of Inquiry, the evidence showing the amount of kit and equipment the accused is charged with as being deficient.

E-4173, Pte. LeBlanc, H., being duly sworn, is examined by the defending officer.

Q41 - Will you tell the Court how you got this receipt for your kit. (Shows receipt to accused and then files it in evidence for the defence)

A41 - Sir, I was a category man and supposed to go back to Canada and from Bordon was sent to the Base Depot at Guillemont Barracks. Everyone turned in their kits and one morning they told me to and I brought it down and they gave me a receipt. Well, I didn't go back to Canada. About the sling, it was on the rifle and the thing you put the bayonet in was there too.

Cross-examination by the prosecutor.

Q42 - Tell us why, when you were apprehended on the 17th December, 1940, and brought to Witley Camp, was the inventory made of your equipment made here when you came back?
A42 - It was at the Q.M. Stores.
Q43 - Why didn't you produce that receipt then?
A43 - I didn't have the receipt then; it was brought over afterwards.
Q44 - You didn't have the receipt when you came back?
A44 - They gave it to me because my name was on my kit bag. They gave it to me in Witley.
Q45 - When was that?
A45 - Quite a while ago.
Q46 - You never thought of giving it to he C.Q.M.S. of your company to check against the articles you were deficient. At the time C.Q.M.S. Gagne made the inventory of your kit why didn't you produce that receipt?
A46 - I did produce it but they told me to produce it at the court-martial.

The Court is closed for the consideration of the finding.

Lieut. L. Canon, No. 2 Cdn. Inf. Holding Unit, is duly sworn.

Q47 - Have you any evidence to produce as to the character and particulars of service of the accused?
A47 - I produce A.F.B. 296 and M.F.M. 6, sir.
Q48 - Is the accused the person named in the statement which you have heard read?
A48 - Yes, sir.
Q49 - Have you compared the contents of the above statement with the regimental books?
A49 - Yes, sir.
Q50 - Are they true extracts from the regimental books, and is the statement of entries in the conduct sheets a fair and true summary of those entries?
A50 - Yes, sir.

The accused declines to cross-examine.

Q51 - Do you wish to address the Court?
A51 - No, sir.

The Court is closed for the consideration of the sentence.

STATEMENT of EVIDENCE in the case of No. H.4715, Pte. H. Le BLANC, Infantry Holding Unit, Canadian Royal Sand. Regt. stationed at Bordon Camp.

Sir,

At London on Tuesday, 17th. December, 1940, at about 8 p.m., I was on duty in Piccadilly, W.1., accompanied by L/Cpl. MOFFAT, C.M. Police, when, acting upon information received I stopped the above named soldier, who was dressed in civilian clothes and asked him to produce his pass. He produced the attached Army Forms B.205, which, on examination, appeared to have been altered. I pointed this out to him and told him I had reason to believe he was an absentee and he replied, "All right, I'll tell the truth. I made those passes out myself." I then cautioned him and told him in the prescribed manner and he replied "I have been absent about a month". The soldier further stated his uniform was in a house at New Compton Street, number not known. He was arrested and taken to the Central London Recruiting Depot and handed over to the Canadian Military Police to be placed under close arrest.

1. Proceedings in connection with the m/n are returned herewith for revision of the finding on the 2nd charge pursuant to Sect 54(2) Army Act and R.P.120 for the following reasons.

(a) The written statement of P.C. Henry Clark should not have been allowed in evidence, without the Police Constable being personnally present to give his testimony.

(b) The improper admission of this evidence was definitely prejudicial to the accused containing as it did an allegation that he was in possession of a civilian Identity Card.

2. In my opinion therefore desertion was not legally proven. However,admissible evidence was adduced to prove the accused guilty of absence without leave from 2200 hrs 5 Apr 41 to 11 Sept 41. A special finding may be made under Army Act Sect 56(4).

3. I direct you to re-assemble the court to consider a revision of the finding on the 2nd charge. Revision of finding will necessitate the passing of a new sentence.

4. You will be guided in your revision by R.P.120 and form on pp 759 - 60 M.M.L.

Q14. PROSECUTOR: What were you doing on the 5 Apr 41?

DEFENCE: I object again, sir.

THE COURT: You must think the matter over a little and figure out your own questions.

Q15. PROSECUTOR: Will you tell the court what you know in the case of the accused, Pte LeBlanc?
A15. I was on Cpl Jollimore's shift on the 5 Apr, and I went outside and took a walk around the det bks. I came to a window, it was open, and one of the cross bars was sawed out. I reported to Cpl Jollimore; he called the roll and found LeBlanc was missing.

Q16. THE COURT: Do you identify the accused as Pte LeBlanc?
A16. I do, sir.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q17. Are you quite sure this was the night of the 5 Apr 41, and not the night of the 4th?
A17. Sir, I know it was the 5th.
Q18. You are quite positive it was the 5th?
A18. Yes, sir.
Q19. At what hour?
A19. I don't just know, but between nine and half past nine, if I am not mistaken.

Q20. THE COURT: What time of day?
A20. In the evening, sir, between nine and half past nine.

Q21. DEFENCE: Was it the night of the 4th to 5th Apr, or the night of the 5th to 6th Apr?
A21. I think it was the night of the 5th.
Q22. The 5th to 6th, or the 4th to 5th?
A22. I am not quite sure of that, sir; it is so long ago.

Q23. That is rather important?
A23. I think the 5th to 6th, if I am not mistaken.

Q24. THE COURT: You say that the bar on the window was cut?
A24. It was sawed.
Q25. What kind of bars were they?
A25. A white one that ran across the window.

(3rd witness for prosecution) No. U-5154, S/SGT G.L. AYRE, Special Investigation Department, Canadian Provost Corps, LONDON, being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor:-

Q26. Identify yourself to the court, please?
A26. I am No. U-5154, S/Sgt G.L. Ayre, SID, CPC, London.
Q27. On the night of the 12 Sep 41 you were in London, and doing what?
A27. About 1000 hrs I attended Marleybone Police Court.
Q28. Why did you attend the police court?
A28. Pte Leblanc, whom I now recognise in the court here, appeared there on a charge of being a deserter from the Cdn Army.
Q29. He appeared there on a charge of desertion?
A29. Yes, sir.
Q30. How did he plead to that charge?
A30. He pleaded Guilty to that charge in my presence.
Q31. Then what did you do?
A31. He was handed over to me by the Magistrate to be dealt with by the military. I escorted him to the CPC HQ, London, where he was turned over to the NCO i/c of cells to be detained.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q32. You say the accused pleaded Guilty in your presence to a charge of desertion, or absence?
A32. No, the charge was read, "Are you a deserter from the Cdn Army?" and he said, "Yes." He understood it because he signed the form.
Q33. He was not convicted in that court?
A33. No, he was handed over to be dealt with my the military.

Q34. THE COURT: How was the accused dressed when you saw him in court?
A34. I don't just remember now, sir. Yes, I do: he was dressed in civilian clothes, and I brought him back and then he was sent to hospital. Yes, he was dressed in civilian clothes.
Q35. What identification had he on his person?
A35. I am not quite sure of that, sir. I did not know I was being called in this case this morning or I would have looked it up; I didn't know I was to be called until I arrived here.

LIEUT. W.A. LEASK, No. 2 Canadian Infantry Holding Unit, being duly sworn, states:-

I am Records Officer of No. 2 CIHU and have in my custody the documents of personnel of that unit. I wish to state that on the 11 Sep 41 No. E4713, Pte LeBlanc H., whom I now identify, had no permission to wear civilian clothing. I produce here the following documents:- Certified true copy of the Record of the Declaration of a Court of Inquiry; AF O.1618 dated 11 Sep 41; National Registration Identity Card issued to Dennis HEATON, 15 Stuart Avenue, West Hendon, N.W.9; AF B252 dated 11 Sep 41; AF B252 dated 26 Sep 41; AF O.1618 dated 26 Sep 41; and a statement by Henry CLARK, P.C. No. 108, of the Metropolitan Police.

No cross-examination.

Q36. THE COURT: Where did this identity card come from? How did it come into your possession?

A36. It came into my possession along with the charge when he arrived from the Pro Corps.

PROSECUTOR: That civilian identity card is in support of the statement by the P.C. He was supposed to be a witness here this morning but was unavailable; he could not come, but that is his statement.

The above mentioned statement was duly read, signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings.

DEFENCE: In the copy of the summary of evidence, the carbon copy which I have here shows the name of the accused as "Henry Lee Blanc." I don't know whether the court would be inclined to consider that, if a witness whose documentary evidence is before the court, he did not understand the accused's name or didn't take it down carefully. I am wondering if, in view of that, he properly cautioned the accused that he was being charged with desertion or whether there might have been some confusion in the accused's mind as to whether he was charged with desertion or AWL.

PROSECUTOR: I fail to see how the incorrect spelling of the name like that would have any effect on the case.

DEFENCE: I submit the incorrect spelling of the name at least shows carelessness, sir.

The prosecution is closed.

Q37. THE COURT: Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness?
A37. THE ACCUSED: Yes, sir.
Q38. Do you intend to call any other witness in your defence?
A38. Yes, sir.

R.P. 40 & 41 duly complied with.

I was only AWL, and I understood that pretty well, and I was in possession of an identity card. identification card I would be able to do so, but then I found out I would have to change my name and I didn't want to do that, so that is why I kept the card with me, otherwise I would have thrown it away. So far as the civilian clothes are concerned, my uniform was blown up in May. On Wed there was a raid and there was another Canadian and another civilian there and we were helping people out of some buildings and fire bombs, and I tore my pants, and the next day I borrowed a pair from an English soldier on leave, but he had to go away and I had to give them back to him. The person who put my uniform away for me lent me a civilian suit. On the Sat night - I don't know whether the first Sat night or the one after that - a week later, there was another raid, and a few days later my uniform was blown up, because I hadn't seen the person who put it away for me since then, so I didn't give him back his suit either. About this charge of desertion, I can't swear that they charged me with desertion in the police court, I can't swear to it, because I must have been too confused or something, because I am sure I wouldn't have pleaded Guilty of desertion, because I had intentions of getting married and going back to the Army.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR

Q40. When did you leave your unit?
A40. Sir, I couldn't tell you just the date.
Q41. If you can't remember the date, how about the month?
A41. Sir, the month was in Apr.
Q42. Then you did leave; you didn't stay around. Where did you go to?
A42. I went to London.
Q43. What did you do in London?
A43. I didn't do anything; just walking the streets.
Q44. Where you in uniform or otherwise?
A44. To start with, yes.
Q45. I was not quite clear about your uniform being blown up?
A45. Where my uniform was was supposed to have been the place I was going to get it and have it fixed; it was a sort of Club; and they told me it was lost, and after that I have never seen the man since, but I knew where the uniform was.
Q46. What were you wearing in the meantime?
A46. At the time I saw the soldier I was wearing English uniform, and then I got a civilian suit when the soldier's leave finished, and I had to give him back his uniform.
Q47. When apprehended you were in civilian clothes; how is that?
A47. Because I had these civilian clothes from this other person who had put my uniform away. I don't know whether he removed the uniform or not, but I knew where the uniform was ; it was blown up.
Q48. You were away more than five months, and you say that you intended to return?
A48. Yes sir, I did intend to return.

RE-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q49. During the months you were in London had you any information either directly or indirectly to the effect your unit was required anywhere except at WITLEY on any duty more important than the duty your unit was doing at that time?
A49. I saw some soldiers nearly every day from the Regt on leave in London and I talked to them, and they never told me anything about the Regt leaving or anything; they said they were still at WITLEY.
Q50. As far as you know, or knew at the time, there was, apart from the regular routine duties being carried out, no special duty which would have required your services here?
A50. That is right, sir.

Q51. THE COURT: Pte LeBlanc, unless you are given permission to be away from the camp, where are you supposed to be? Where your unit is stationed, aren't you?
A51. Yes sir, that is correct, sir.
Q52. You admit having left the camp?
A52. Yes, sir.

Q53. On your own accord?
A53. Yes, sir.
Q54. Without permission?
A54. Yes, sir.
Q55. Deciding yourself as to how long you were to remain away?
A55. Well, I will tell you, sir, on the morning I left I was sick and I went to the M.O. and he said I wasn't sick -- no, it was the morning before, sir -- yes, the same morning I left I went to the M.O. because I was sick, and I think I know more than the doctor whether I am sick or not, and I am sure 24 hrs or 48 hrs bread and water wouldn't have done any good to my pains.
Q56. After you reached your destination, when you decided to leave, you claim that on account of the blitz you dressed yourself in civilian clothes?
A56. Yes, sir.
Q57. Had you stayed in camp you would not have had to dress yourself in civilian clothes?
A57. That is right, sir.
Q58. Then being away and having lost your army clothes due to the blitz, you found yourself very comfortable in civilian clothes?
A58. If I had been able to get into uniform I would have worn it.
Q59. You knew you could have got a uniform at the camp?
A59. I didn't want to come back.
Q60. You didn't want to come back - that is it.
A60. I didn't want to come back in civilian clothes; I could have got a uniform in London but I didn't have enough money to buy one.
Q61. When did you come back?
A61. When they brought me back.
Q62. That is it.

CLOSING ADDRESS OF THE PROSECUTOR

In summing up the case against the accused, I have proved the date of his absence, the fact he did go absent, the fact he was apprehended and did not surrender himself, and that when apprehended he was dressed in civilian clothes, with a false civilian identity card, and I submit, sir, that proves the case. He was away for more than five months and had he intended to go away for only a short time he would have surrendered himself, and I think the evidence conclusively proves that he really intended to desert and stay away.

The defending officer makes no closing address.

The Court is closed for the consideration of the finding.

The Court being re-opened, the accused is again brought before it.

The Prosecutor, LIEUT. J.E. FOX, No. 2 Canadian Infantry Holding Unit, being duly sworn, is examined by the Court:-

Q63. Have you any evidence to produce as to the character and particulars of service of the accused?
A63. Yes sir, I produce AF B-296 and certified true copy of AFM-6.

The above statement is read, signed by the President, and annexed to the proceedings.

Q64. Is the accused the person named in the statement which you have heard read?
A64. Yes, sir.
Q65. Have you compared the contents of the above statement with the regimental books?
A65. Yes, sir.
Q66. Are they true extracts from the regimental books, and is the statement of entries in the conduct sheets a fair and true summary of those entries?
A66. Yes, sir.

No cross-examination.

Q67. THE COURT: Do you wish to make any statement in mitigation of punishment?
A67. DEFENCE: No, sir.
Q68. Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to character?
A68. No, sir.
Q69. Do you wish to address the Court?
A69. Yes, sir.

DEFENDING OFFICER:- I have only this to say, that the accused is obviously not a very responsible person. While he has pleaded Guilty to AWL and is quite willing to be punished for it, since there seems to be some doubt that he actually did intend to desert the service and never come back to it, if he should be found technically Guilty on the second charge, the fairly obvious cause of his irresponsibility is that there are long periods of comparative inaction here that naturally tend to make an irresponsible person restless. May I respectfully submit that that should be taken into consideration in mitigating the severity of any sentence that may be imposed upon him. Also some degree of clemency might, I submit, be charitably shown to him in view of the fact that he is defended by an officer who never saw a Court Martial before and who has had the case in hand only since yesterday afternoon.

THE COURT IS CLOSED FOR THE CONSIDERATION OF THE SENTENCE.

Third Witness Prosecution DOCUMENTARY

STATEMENT OF HENRY CLARK P.C. 108 d of Metropolitan Police:

"On the 11th September 1941 at 2-15 p.m. I was on duty in Star Street, Paddington, W,2, when I saw a man who stated his name and address as Dennis Heaton, 55 Goodge Street, W. 1, carrying a lady's fur coat. I questioned him respecting his possession of the coat and he said:"I am trying to sell it for my mate's girl friend." I asked him how I could verify this, and he said "See the girl at 55 Goodge St." I told him that I was not satisfied with his statements and that I was going to take him to Paddington Police Station for enquiries to be made, and he said, "Alright you send for the girl." While I detained at the Police Station I searched him and found an Identity Card in the name of Dennis Heaton, Card No. BKA/652668 address, 35, Stewart Avenue, West Hendon N.W. 9. I asked him if the card was [redacted] he said"Sure it is." After interrogation he admitted that he had deserted from the 2nd Infantry Holding Unit, Royal 22nd Regiment, Whitley, Guildford, and that his name was Henry Lee Blanc and that the identity card was not his. Enquiries were made at 55, Goodge Street, respecting the fur coat, and the statements found to be true. The coat was then handed back to the owner Miss Ethel Parry, 63, Whitfield Street, W.1. He was later charged with desertion and he made no reply.

As far as we are concerned, as orderlies, where they go is none of our business. If they leave the ward they know they have to be back in at a certain time for meals. I knew that the man was under close arrest, but there were no orders posted regarding such cases. I never saw any such orders. Anyway he had an escort. I last saw him that day at about 1400 hours in the afternoon. I did not see him again. He left a small shaving kit, with the razor missing. It was a Red Cross issue. Address

Age 24 . Occupation Police Constable

Statement On the 11th September 1941 at 2-15 p.m. I was on duty in Star Street, Paddington, W.2. when I saw a man who stated his name and address as Dennis Heaton, 55, Goodge Street, W.1. carrying a ladys fur coat. I questioned him respecting his possession of the coat and he said " I am trying to sell it for my mate's girl friend". I asked him how I could verify this and he said " See the girl at 55, Goodge Street". I told him that I was not satisfied with his statements and that I was going to take him to Paddington Police Station for enquiries to be made, and he said " Allright you send for the girl." While detained at the Police Station I searched him and found an Identity Card in the name of Dennis Heaton, Card No. BKA/652668 address, 35, Stewart Avenue, West Hendon, N.W.9. I asked him if the card was his and he said " Sure it is." After interrogation he admitted that he had deserted from the 2nd Infantry Holding Unit, Royal 22nd Regiment, Whitley, Guildford, and that his name was, Henry Lee Blanc and that the identity card was not his. Enquiries were made at 55, Goodge Street, respecting the fur coat and the statements found to be true. The coat was then handed back to the owner Miss Ethel Parry, 65, Whitfield Street, W.1. He was later charged with desertion and he made no reply.

BRIEF SUMMARY OF STATEMENT IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT AND EVIDENCE AS TO CHARACTER GIVEN BEFORE THE COURT IS CLOSED FOR THE CONSIDERATION OF THE SENTENCE

Statement by the accused in mitigation of Sentence.

At the outbreak of War I enlisted in the Navy but after two months I transferred to the army thinking that we could go into action sooner. Because what I want is to fight the Enemy and if I am a bad boy it is because I have been so long not going into action. I ask to the court if I could not transfer to commandos, where I could go to fight. If I get a long sentence I'll be a burden to the Canadian Army instead of an asset.

The Court is then closed for the consideration of the Sentence.

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)

NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

NORTH SHORE (NEW BRUNSWICK) REGIMENT

This is to certify that I have examined , G/2137 Private Henry Joseph LeBLANC, North Shore (New Brunswick) Regiment, and in my opinion he is fit to undergo trial by Field General Court Martial.

In The Field.
12 May 1945.

(J McCabe, Capt) RCAMC.
M O, North Shore (NB) Regiment.

FIRST WITNESS: FOR PROSECUTION

Lt. Mc Kenna J.P. having been duly sworn states:

While in command of number nine platoon, "C" company, North Shore Regiment my duty was to inform my platoon that operation Plunder was to take place at approximately 11.30 hours the 24. Mar. 45. I did this to what I thought was my complete platoon. I warned them that any person absenting himself from the company would be considered as a deserter. From the time we left our concentration point and just before we arrived at our off loading point I checked my platoon and found Pte Leblanc J. F. absent from my platoon at approximately 23.30 hours 24 Mar 45. I went through the natural procedure of informing my Company Commander.

Cross Examination

Ques: Lt. Mc Kenna did you personally inspect your platoon before briefing it.

Ans: No.

Ques: Do you remember having seen the accused at the briefing

Ans: No.

Ques: When you left concentration area was your platoon complete.

Ans: Yes. RP83(b) Complied with.

2nd WITNESS FOR PROSECUTION

Sgt. M. Goldin having been duly sworn states:

I am platoon sgt. of number nine platoon, "C" company, North Shore Regiment. We had our morning parade and a little scheme and the Commanding Officer spoke to the men and explained that we were going into action shortly. And after that Mr. Mc Kenna briefed the platoon and told us that any man a.w.l. from noon that day would be charged with desertion. He asked me if the platoon was present and I told him I thought they were all there.

Prosecution Ques:

Was there any possibility of another attack across the Rhine River that day.

Ans: Yes.

Cross-Examination:

Ques: When Mr. Mc Kenna called his platoon together the morning of the 24 March 45 for briefing, did you call the roll of your platoon before turning it over to Mr. Mc Kenna.

Ans: No, sir.

Ques: Did you call the roll of your platoon at the concentration area that same day.

Ans: No, sir.

Ques: When did you first notice the absence of the accused.

Ans: About 15 minutes before we embarked on the boats. R183(b) Complied with.

Certificate of Apprehension produced to Court and marked Exhibit "A"

Defence Motion

In the evidence given by the witness for the prosecution, there is nothing to prove that the accused Pte Leblanc was ever warned or briefed for the forthcoming operation. On no occasion on the 24th Mar 45 did sergeant Holden ever call the roll of his platoon.

Plea of Mitigation

The accused is 19 years of age. He joined the army voluntarily at the age of 18, in Oct. 1943. He came overseas in Oct. 1944, later coming to the continent where he served 4 months in action with the North Shore Regiment. His conduct sheet does not show any serious crimes and with the length of service he has given, his conduct on the whole has been quite good. He was very young for a man to serve in action and added to this nervous condition which he claims to have, is reason enough to excuse this man for any serious crime that he may commit. I would ask the court to take these facts into consideration when passing sentence and to show leniency towards a man of such age.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE IN THE CASE OF G/2137 Pte. Henry Joseph LEBLANC, "C" Coy, North Shore (New Brunswick) Regiment.

By direction of the Commanding Officer the evidence is taken on oath.

1ST WITNESS

Lieut. J P McKenna, 9 Platoon, "C" Coy, North Shore (New Brunswick) Regiment, having been duly sworn, states:

"At 2300 hrs 24 MAR 45 I was in command of No 9 Platoon, "C" Coy, while proceeding from our debussing point to our off loading point. I checked my platoon and found Pte. LeBlanc missing.

Prior to 2300 hrs that same day, I briefed my platoon for an attack upon the enemy during Operation "PLUNDER" and warned them that any one absenting himself from then on would be classed as a deserter. The Platoon Sgt. reported to me that the platoon was present but I didn't particularly notice if Pte. LeBlanc was present.

I also present a certificate of surrender under A A Sec 163 which states that Pte. LeBlanc surrendered himself to No 7 Cdn Pro Coy at 2330 hrs on 29 MAR 45 and is att as Exhibit "A".

The accused declines to cross examine the witness.

2ND WITNESS

"I was Platoon Sergeant of No 9 Platoon until 1 MAY 45 at approximately 2300 hrs on 24 MAR 45 I found that one man of my platoon was missing. I immediately called the roll and found that the accused, Pte. LeBlanc who I now recognize was absent I had seen him about 15 minutes before that. Pte. LeBlanc has not been with his Platoon since. I was present when No 9 Platoon was warned for operations, "PLUNDER" by our Platoon Commander, Lt. J P McKenna. To the best of my knowledge all the platoon including Pte. LeBlanc was present at that warning."

The accused declines to cross examine the witness.

1st Woodcock having been duly sworn states The accused was in my platoon and during the time he served with me his services were satisfactory.

Plea on mitigation of punishment

The accused has given good and faithfull service. He has a clean charge sheet. This is the first crime. His services would be of value to the regiment. He left the LOB camp when only a Pte was in charge. which I think is not conducive to good discipline. In consideration of the existing reinforcement difficulty I feel that the accused should be given a ~~lent~~ lenient punishment rather than be allowed a spell a long period in detention.

PROSECUTION 1st Witness 1. (10)

K 92313 Pt MacDougall, J. having been duly sworn states — On the day of the accused's injury, I was laying, with my back towards him, next to him. I now recognise the accused. I heard a shot, getting up quickly LeBlanc was laying back on his right side the Bren gun had fallen, partially into the ditch, I shouted to the S. B.'s and pulling the Bren gun out of the ditch I set it to one side clear of the ditch. Before laying down I saw LeBlanc clearing the gun — he had the gun stripped at the time, the magazine was definitely off when he was clearing the gun; as the weapon was stripped down.

After the shot was fired and I went to LeBlanc's assistance the weapon was completely assembled. The magazine was on the gun. Pte. LeBlanc was on the Bren gun, a lot he had for about a week. At the time I heard the shot - I heard LeBlanc say "Jesus Christ, I'm shot!" he offered no explanation as to how it occured. He was laying on his right side, his feet in the ditch, and the gun was pointing into the ditch.

X by Defence - I don't know for how long LeBlanc had been with the unit before this happened — he was with the section for about a week, in that week the unit was not under fire ~~that week~~. I didn't notice any mags around when he was cleaning the gun. (By sec had done no firing during the week) LeBlanc was with us.

Question by court After the shot I took the mag off the gun there were more than one round on it. I did not notice the position of change lever.

RP 83 (6) complied with.

Re Exam by Pros

All the mags belonging to the gun were filled — at all times. It was daylight when the shot was fired.

Re Exam. by court - When we took over as #1 & #2 on the gun, the mags had already been filled - LeBlanc and I checked them together. It was usual to carry a full mag on the gun, with the action left forward.

At the time of LeBlanc's injury I was taping down, I heard a shot I got up and saw MacDougall taking the Bren gun out of the way - and heard someone shouting for S.B's. I did not see LeBlanc shooting the gun. ~~I saw~~, when the shot was fired I lifted my head and the first thing I saw was MacDougall lifting the gun. R.P. 83(6) complied with.

On the 2 June 44 Pte LeBlanc was brought to my R.A.P. he was then suffering from a gsw of the right foot, I rendered F.A. treatment and he was then evacuated to the 9th Can. fd. amb. the bullet passed thru the foot entering the dorsum (instep) of foot and coming out thru the sole

Statement by Pros. - re LeBlanc (13)

I submit that the injuries of the accused were caused by his negligence. The question is not whether this negligence was wilful or [redacted], it is not a question of intent. We have no means of determining the intent of the accused. The test is not whether he meant to injure himself, we know that the accused was injured while he was handling a Bren gun. The Bren is a fool proof weapon, the accused must have placed a magazine on the gun which he knew to be loaded, he cocked the gun and he released the trigger so that a round was discharged into his foot. For this to be done accidentally is too much of a stretch of the imagination. Under these circumstances the test of negligence is answered conclusively by the fact the accused was wounded. The fact that the accused was wounded by a Bren gun held in his own hands is proof of his negligence.

H Pros.

Statement by defending officer: re LeBlanc (14)

Prosecution suggests that the test of negligence in this case is the fact that he has been wounded by a fool-proof weapon - the bren gun. But as in all criminal charges - so in this one - the prosecution must prove guilt beyond a reasonable doubt. "neglect" required to be proved under sec 40 is wilful or culpable neglect - not merely the result of forgetfulness, error of judgement, or inadvertence. If we applied the test laid down by the prosecution then the burden of proof would shift to the accused - and the accused would, in effect, have to prove that he was not guilty.

The only evidence against the accused is that he cleaned the bren gun, put on a full magazine as was the custom with his coy. Up to that point he is just doing his duty. Whether the gun was cocked & safety catch not applied or whether the gun was mechanically defective we don't know. In any case it cannot be said that the wound as a result of wilful or culpable neglect. Criminal negligence must be shown before the accused can be convicted. I submit that there is more than a reasonable doubt in this case and that the accused must be acquitted.

Plea for mitigation—

The accused had only been in the army less than a year up to the time of the accident, he only has four charges on his conduct sheet and only one involves a sentence of detention — the accused had not been with the W.D.S.R very long and in view of his short period of Training I think he should be shown leniency.

Prosecution

1st Witness. Mrs A. Munkes, of Leuven, Louvain, Belgium, sworn, states:

At about 01.00 hrs on 19 Feb. my husband & I were in bed. Six soldiers came & awakened us. It was the accused, whom I recognise. We had a piece of pork of about 3 lbs. and a pot of coffee of 3 or 3½ litres. He asked if my husband would like to buy them. My husband replied, asking if he would get into trouble. Accused replied that there was too much pork & coffee in the kitchen. He brought the pork and the coffee, charging accused about 7.50 Belg. francs altogether.

We ate both. In the morning my husband went to see the soldiers. Later he returned the pork & coffee to another soldier, whom we call 'Stoffi'. I do not know his name.

Later I met accused in my kitchen. He never returned the 7.50 frs. he owed. It has never been returned.

Cross-ex.

I have had soldiers living in the kitchen, since the Mobilisation came to Belgium. No food is kept in the kitchen.

Accused slept in the kitchen with another 3 soldiers. I do not know if the name of one was Mayer.

Accused had lived in my house for nearly 6 weeks.

There were 2 kitchens - my kitchen & the soldiers' kitchen. The soldiers' food was kept in their kitchen. My husband's living room was three doors away from the kitchen. The rooms between were unlocked. There is a door between the room in which I am now & the kitchen - they used to come thro frequently.

I thought it very unusual for a soldier to come into my room at 2 o'clock. We always keep the light on.

I could have left him any time in the day. He never discussed selling food, nor did any other soldier.

before the soldier came in. I did not know it was wrong to buy Army food. I had never seen a notice put side on it.

There was always a soldier in the Army Canteen.

No Re-ex.

To Court.

There were 2 Canteens, mine & the Army Canteen. Inside of my food was sold with the Army Canteen. No Army food ever came into my Canteen.

2nd Witness. Pte. T. O. Munsters, 4th Queens, Mounted Infy, Belgium, Ypres, Sworn, States:

About 9. Munsters is my unit. On 19th Oct at 8 o'clock my wife & I were asleep in bed. Accused, whom I knew recognised, came in under influence of drink. He asked me if I would like to buy 3 lbs. of pork + 3½ lbs. of coffee, because he said there was too much salvage in the Canteen. He was allowed to sell it. I & my wife purchased it by buying it. I bought the coffee + pork, for which I handed accused 700 frs. Later in the morning I went & spoke to "Staff" ~~who had him if accused was~~ Q 4 ~~at~~ As a result of this conversation I returned pork + coffee to the Canteen. I never received the money.

Cross-ex.

I have had soldiers in my house for 5-6 weeks. It has been only Canadians we allot for the Messes before that.

I have never seen or heard any rule forbidding the furnishing of food for Allied soldiers, we have I dare say shared this subject with friends. I have handed accounts for about 6 weeks.

I was always working during the day - during May wife does not go out to work. The soldiers food was kept in the soldiers Canteen, a separate one in the same house as our kitchen. The front room was Canteen of the soldiers, the second shop adjoin, the third was our kitchen & the 4th our bedroom. The soldier would have to pass through 2 doors & get to the bedroom.

I last saw accd in his house at 1.30 hrs. I was found asleep & awoke in a fright. There was no light in the room, but the light from the kitchen shone through the glass door. It was fairly dark. It was light enough, when the door was open.

I only talk Flemish, and language accused spoke was in Flemish. I did not understand a few words. A few French words came into it.

Cross-e

I recognised accused's voice very well.

To Court

I was away every day until after 19 o'clock & any time accused to my food evening 6. I actually saw the pot and the box containing coffee was closed.

3rd Witness M 66482 Pte x C A Blain, F Bradley Police. Of Can. Brigade Gp Rec Pte, Aldershot:

I am serving in Canada in the police as Staff. I was billeted in house of pre-war Munters in Summerdale. They used to call me Staff. On 19 Feb 1941 at about 0 hrs Mrs Munter came into the hall way with my kitchen after a conversation she went away returned with a while after with tea & coffee. There was 1 lb of coffee & about 3 lbs of Pork. (7½ lbs)

Cross-e

The soldiers kitchen was in the same house as the Munters I slept in the room next to the kitchen. The next room was the Canadian kitchen. The Cooks & Officers accused to sleep in the room. So far as I know, accused does not speak Flemish. There is a light in the Munters bedroom

At no time have I seen a soldier remove any food. I have never known any food be missing other than the food and coffee. I have been working in the kitchen for the last 6 weeks. All the doors were kept unlocked. There was always somebody in the cook house. Mrs Mewett came in the kitchen & talked but many in town.

Re Cr.

The bacon was Canadian ration. I cannot say about the coffee. The tin was of the Canadian type.

To Court

I am a helper in the cook house. The tins of coffee were of the same type as is always issued as Canadian Ration.

Our ration is one 7 lb tin of coffee for 50 for 2 days. We draw once a week. I think. I am not sure.

4th Witness. Sworn. J. R. R. Glendon O. C. For Bailey

Pte Cpl Cobb. Bridge Coy RCASC, Sweden, States.

On 19 Oct 1945 Pte Mayer made a report to me. As a result I went to see Mrs Munter. As a result I called on three accused, whom I recognise. I asked accused if he had sold any food to Mrs a Mrs Munter. Accused denied having done so.

I asked Mrs Munter, in front of accused, if she had bought any Army rations & if so from whom. She admitted having bought rations. She seemed afraid to say from whom.

She indicated with her eyes that it was accused but said nothing. I then accused under the arrest.

Cross Ex.

Mrs Mayer, Blain, Pte Boyd & accused all, I believe, there in the house. I have never seen the kitchen unattended, though it could be. May have moved often so down to Blain for the evening. I spoke to Mrs Munter first, before speaking to her in front of accused.

Re Cr.

I spoke to Mrs Munter in French.

To Court

Mrs Munter spoke French very well. I am a French Canadian. Accused spoke a few words of French. I have heard him talk half French - half English - half French.

5th Witness. 3/12/98 Cpl W. Hurand, 85th Coy. Bridge Coy RCASC, Aldon, Staffs.

At about 7 or 8 hrs. on 19.2.45 I was on duty in the guard room. Accused, whom I recognise, was brought in under a escort. One had a dirk saying the man was to be held in close arrest. The dirk was produced by Capt. Allandyce, until he identified the name of the man to be held. One escort said they didn't know who the prisoner was. Accused admitted to it. I ordered accused back to his hut, with the 2 escorts, to get his equipment. He went and returned with his equipment. I began to get a room ready for his equipment. As a result of what I heard, I ran out of the guard room. I ran on the road and saw accused running away from the guard Room. I shouted to him to stop - he kept on going.

I halted on hearing rebuke of it; I saw accused passing through a gate into a field, and left the road.

I ran after him and saw him in a field, still running. Capt Lewis had caught him up - he had a stick from accused continued running across field. I shouted again for him to come back. He still kept going. Capt Lewis fired his Sten in the air.

We kept on following accused. We doubled back past the guard room. Capt. Lewis picked up a rifle and fired towards accused, who then stopped. We caught up with him and brought him back to the guard Room.

Cross-ex.

When accused first went off, he was in the guard Room. There were in the guard room 2 guards, 2 escorts, Capt. Lewis & myself.

Accused did not attempt to steal while running away.

I don't think accused knew where he was heading for. He was running aimlessly.

I collected the body with Pte Knaylet, who should have been a witness. I brought them down here. Pte Knaylet is now AWOL, since last night.

No Re-ex.

K 75643 Cpl. A. Lewis, RE CRA. Bridge Gp Reserve, Nairobi Sworn:

At about 1015 hrs on 19 Feb I was on duty in the guard room. Accused when I recognise, was brought in under 2 escorts. A note was handed to Cpl Howard & then to me. He said "Place this man under ck arrest". The escort, when asked, said it was accused. I don't remember accused saying anything.

Later accused broke away from the guard room: I chased him eventually brought him back to guard room.

Cross-ex.

Accused made no attempt to hide whilst running away. There was no resistance. He did not struggle but kept looking towards a wood, but not in any other direction.

No Re-ex.

Prosecution closed.

Accused, sworn, states:

I have been in employment for over a year. I was about 6 months in Kumasi before this happened. After this I left my employment [illegible] Q for private reasons. On a about 8 Feb. I went approached anybody at about 9 or 10 hrs + attempted to sell them any goods. I slept in the same house as Mr. [illegible] Hunter.

PW 1 Cobbs, Blair Thayer slept in the same room with me. I do not speak Fulani at all. I know no Fulani words.

On my way to HQ. when I arrest, me & Cobbs had at a café, and had each a cognac. Then I bought a bottle of cognac, to drink it on my way down to HQ. The guard was PW 1 Roy and the other guard was really the driver. I went to school until I was 16. I was in class VI.

Cross Q.

I do not know who took the food, nor who went to Mr. Hunter's bedroom at 9 or 10 hrs. I [illegible] Q never saw them until well. We have been quite good friends. I don't know why they should lie now. They are certainly not telling the truth. I never had 700 frs. I do not know who had. I paid 250 frs for the cognac. I paid about 20 frs. each of the three cognacs we had first. I drank all the cognac & left the drink which PW 1 Roy had. I drank the cognac because I thought it would be of no use there, after reaching the guard room.

I do not remember who handed me the shirt, but I saw it handed me. I don't remember telling Cpl. Howard I was under arrest. I do not remember giving the statement.

I do not know what happened to my equipment.

I don't remember swimming. I bathed because there was a Canal. Everything went blank. I do not remember what I did at. I must have been drunk. I have been drunk before. I do not remember swimming. I do remember the Canal.

2nd Witness.

3/143330 Pte Payette - G. 85 Coy. Bridge Co RCASC. Arras, Photos.

I was asked to devise a mission for Summers to lay hold of. I was accused, whom I recognised. The other escort was Pte Roy.

On the way down, I noticed accused had a Bottle. I cautioned him saying: it is not allowed to carry liquor. The Bottle was about half empty when I saw it.

When I was stationary, accused drank the other half of the Bottle. I do not remember anything happening between the cafe & the way down. This witness accused entered the cafe, but he may have,

Cross Ex.

I cautioned the accused + offered him cigarettes from my packet. I never entered the cafe. I did not see any Army Form entered the cafe. It is not because a coupon.

Accused fastened down in the vehicle - the Bottle was protruding out of his blouse. The Bottle had white on it Fine Vieille. I don't know what else: I think it would be a 20 oz Bottle.

I asked accused the both time it was liquor.

I showed my accused was feeling "all right". I think he understood whatever I say as he was struggling and not with him. Accused worked in the kitchen.

Re Ex.

There are about 6 5 tons in a Bridging Park.

Defence Closed.

Closing Address by Defending Officer.

The two charges should not be closely related to each other.

No reasonable evidence of guilt on first charge.

Accused could have called Mrs. Munster at any time during the day - & Mrs. Munster any evening. Opportunity is not a normal term.

Conflicting evidence of lights in bedroom.

Accused is not sufficiently [illegible] in Kilmuir Magistrate a dead & short page. Transaction is alleged to have been carried on in Clonmel with the husband right [illegible] the wife

Kilcullen could have been left unattended.

It may not be significant, but it is conclusive that Mr. Magee has disappeared.

Accused is not the right who would "reason" his cause of action & [illegible] witness for defence may be evading himself, by denying taking any drinks.

Accused was scared, inflamed by drink, & ran aimlessly. This was hardly an organised attempt to escape.

Closing Address by Prosecutor

If the Munsters are to be believed, accused is finished. Mrs. Munster said there was light in bedroom - Mrs. Munster has clarified this.

Mrs. Munster may not talk French - Mrs. Munster says, & she was present during the transaction.

Drunkenness is no excuse. May be considered in mitigation. No confirmation of accused's drunkenness asked for by Ct's Lewis & Hurd.

If so drunk, could he have run so fast!

He broke away for his escape made a fair attempt to escape.

Inspt J. P. R. Glendon, Acting as former court stated:

Accused is a good worker. I have never heard any difficulties she has always been obedient & willing.

I should be glad if accused back in my pltn. She has been in my pltn for about 6 weeks, but I have known her for longer than that.

Plea in Mitigation.

Smallness of offence should be considered.

Method of running away suggests the action of a scared woman, scared by the unusual circumstances in which she found herself.

Refers to accused's record.

Education & abilities are low.

Asks that if he is sentenced to detention, he should go to a Canadian Detention Barracks, where French with which he is more familiar than English, is spoken.

The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans. No.(5)

(1. RP 25(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)

Plea in Mitigation

G24014 Pte LEBLANC J.A.

The accused is 21 yrs of age, enlisted in July 42 and arrived overseas in April 44. He went into action 20 Jun 44 and served two months in the line until 13 Aug 44 when he went absent from his Unit while in the rest area.

The accused states that he went absent simply because he was discouraged because of no mail from home.

I ask that the Court consider this man's previous good record and show some degree of leniency when determining sentence. He has been in close arrest 90 days.

TRANSCRIPT OF EVIDENCE IN THE TRIAL BY FGCM OF F-97535 Pte LeBlanc, J C, Calg Highrs, HELD ON 8 JAN 45.

JA to accused

Now I want you to understand on behalf of the Court that these are very serious charges. You can be sentenced to penal servitude on the first charge and I want you to understand that. On a charge of manslaughter, by pleading guilty it means that you admit that you did unlawfully kill M-106339 Pte Melidones, S, of the Calg Highrs. It means that you killed Melidones with the highest degree of negligence. Now I want you to understand that and I want you also to understand that no witnesses will be called here today after you plead thus. The Court will merely read the summary of evidence and hear any statement from you that you wish them to hear and any plea in mitigation that either you or your Defending Officer wish to make.

Defending Officer

There is only one thing I wish to say then at this point, I withdraw the plea. My understanding of manslaughter was that not the highest degree of negligence was necessary but only the amount of neglicence that would involve conviction under the criminal code.

JA

We are not operating under the crominal code but under English criminal law and as I have shown the amount of negligence must be of the very highest degree and I shall so advise the Court. If you have a different conception of the degree of negligence involved, I advise you to change your plea to not guilty.

Defending Officer

In that case I am forced to.

JA to accused

You must now understand that as a plea of not guilty has been tendered on the first charge, the Court will automatically enter a plea of not guilty on the second charge as we cannot accept any other plea.

First Witness for the Prosecution, B-135587 L/Cpl Kisur, M, Calg highrs, being duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor.

Q.1 - Will you give the Court your number, rank and name?
A.1 - I am B-135587 L/Cpl Kisur, M, 16 Pl, D Coy, Calg Highrs.
Q.2 - On 1 Dec 44 around 1300 hrs where did you go?
A.2 - That day it was just after lunch and I went upstairs.
Q.3 - Will you tell the Court in your own words just what happened after that on that day?
A.3 - I went upstairs and went to a room and found Ptes BanDriel, Melidones, LeBlanc and Grant in the room. Melidones was lying on the bed in the meantime so I went and laid down right beside him on his right. Then I asked him for an envelope. He reached in his blouse pocket and felt out some envelopes. It was stuck together so he raised himself up a bit to try to undo the envelopes. Then I heard a rifle bolt action and Pte LeBlanc says "Mel" and the rifle went off, sir.
Q.4 - Where was this house?
A.4 - Where we went on our forward position, where the regiment was located at this time. I just forget the name of the place - in this area.
Q.5 - Did you just hear the rifle bolt in action once?
A.5 - Yes, sir.
Q.6 - And after the rifle went off?
A.6 - LeBlanc hollered "Mel Mel". He was in pretty bad shape there for a while.
Q.7 - Where was Pte Melidones hit?
A.7 - I can't tell you. When he got hit he just went slowly back and I ran downstairs for a stretcher bearer.
Q.8 - You were on his right and he was lying on the bed on which side?
A.8 - On his back, sir.
Q.9 - Do you know who was handling the rifle?
A.9 - Well no, sir, I wasn't paying attention. I was waiting for Mel to get these envelopes that werestuck together.
Q.10 - You heard the rifle discharged?
A.10 - I just heard the bolt pushed, sir.
Q.11 - You can't tell the Court who was handling the rifle?
A.11 - LeBlanc had the rifle in his hands after the shot went off and yelled "Mel Mel".
Q.12 - When you got off the bed and ran out of the room was anything said?
A.12 - I don't really know. I didn't know what was wanted but when he went slowly back I got scared and ran downstairs. I figured he was hit but I didn't even know where he got hit.
Q.13 - Did you see LeBlanc check the rifle?
A.13 - No, sir.
Q.14 - Do you know how long LeBlanc has been in the army or with the Calgarys?
A.14 - Way before me, sir, I just come in October, sir.
Q.15 - Since before October, as far as you know?
A.15 - Yes, sir.
Q.16 - Do you know whose rifle was involved in the shooting?
A.16 - Grant said it was his rifle, sir, after the shooting occurred.

JA

Q.17 - You did not know until after the shooting?
A.17 - Yes, sir.
Q.18 - Was the accused present when Grant said that?
A.18 - No, sir.
Q.19 - Was it said in the presence of the accused?
A.19 - No, sir.

JA

Then I will instruct the Court to disregard that.

Prosecutor

Q.20 - Where is Pte Grant today?
A.20 - I will tell you, sir, we were up in a forward position and Gerry fired a grenade into a slit trench. He picked it up to throw it out and it went off in his hand.
Q.21 - Is he in the hospital?
A.21 - Yes, sir.
Q.22 - You didn't see Pte LeBlanc check the rifle, you just heard the bolt action?
A.22 - Yes, sir.
Q.23 - If you take your rifle, and have ten rounds in the magazine, and pull the bolt action open and slide it back what happens?
A.23 - You shove a round in the breech.
Q.24 - If I pull the bolt action back, put my finger on the magazine and then push the bolt shut what happens?
A.24 - The barrel is empty, sir.

Cross-examined by the Defending Officer.

Q.25 - Cpl Kisur, did you ever notice any ill feeling between Melidones and the accused?
A.25 - No, sir, they were the best of friends.
Q.26 - Now dealing with this handling of the rifle. Assuming there are ten rounds in the magazine, you pull the bolt back. Have you ever experimented with pulling the bolt back, putting your thumb in the chamber and shoving the bolt forward to see whether or not with certain actions a round would be put forward in the chamber?
A.26 - I don't know, sir, I have never tried it.
Q.27 - You are not suggesting to the Court that you are an expert on the action of a rifle?
A.27 - No, sir.
Q.28 - What you would expect is if you pulled the bolt back all the way there would not be a round in the chamber?
A.28 - Yes, sir.
Q.29 - You would be greatly surprised if you did not pull the bolt all the way back, then pushed it forward, and found a round in the chamber?
A.29 - Yes, sir.
Q.30 - Were you watching the actions of the accused before the round was fired?
A.30 - No, sir.
Q.31 - If you didn't see him check the rifle it would be because you weren't watching?
A.31 - Yes, sir.

Questioned by The Prosecutor declines to re-examine the witness.

Questioned by the Court.

Q.32 - Could you tell us what the accused did in the Calg Highrs?
A.32 - No, I can't tell you that, sir.

A.33 - D Coy, sir.
Q.34 - What sort of a Coy is D Coy?
A.34 - A good Coy, sir.
Q.35 - I don't doubt that, but is it a rifle Coy?
A.35 - Yes, sir.
Q.36 - Was the accused a rifleman?
A.36 - I believe he was a Bren gunner, sir. I am not quite sure.
Q.37 - That town you didn't remember the name of, if you heard it would you remember it?
A.37 - Yes, sir.
Q.38 - Was it Groesbeck?
A.38 - Yes, sir.

The Prosecutor puts the following questions to the accused with permission of the Court, through the Court.

Q.39 - What was going on in the room before this? Was there any fooling around?
A.39 - Yes, sir, we were fooling around. After luncheon, we had finished our guard, and we always went upstairs and fooled around, joking around.
Q.40 - Did Pte LeBlanc say anything besides "Mel Mel" after the shooting?
A.40 - I just heard him say "Mel Mel".

JA

Q.41 - How big was this room?
A.41 - It was one with a large bed and another small bed for one person, and a little space in between the two beds.
Q.42 - The size of a normal bedroom in these Dutch houses in which we have billets?
A.42 - Yes, sir.

Q.43 - Would you tell the Court your rank and name?
A.43 - Capt A R Turnbull.

Q.45 - Then you didn t see the body of Melidones?
A.45 - No, I didn t see the body.
Q.46 - Not later?
A.46 - No.
Q.47 - You never saw it?
A.47 - No.

The Defending Officer declines to cross-examine the witness.

JA

Q.48 - Capt Turnbull, you are in the Medical Corps?
A.48 - Yes, sir.
Q.49 - In civilian life you practiced medicine?
A.49 - Yes, sir.
Q.50 - As a doctor, if a bullet or missile were to enter a body below the right eye and to come out at the base of the skull what effect would that have on a person?
A.50 - In my opinion I would say it would kill.

No questions by the Court.

In the opinion of the Court and JA it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(B).

The witness withdraws.

Third Witness for the Prosecution, M-38167 Pte Mammel, A, Calg Highrs, being duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor.

A.55 - I felt his pulse and listened for a heartbeat.
Q.56 - You assumed he was dead?
A.56 - I did.
Q.57 - Was Pte Grant there at that time?
A.57 - No, sir.
Q.58 - Was Pte VanDriel in that room?
A.58 - No, sir.

The Defending Officer declines to cross-examine the witness.

Questioned by the Court.

Q.59 - Whose body did you see?
A.59 - Pte Melidones', sir.
Q.60 - What action did you take after you thought the man was dead?
A.60 - I had brought a stretcher along, and we made it up and took him down to the RAP.
Q.61 - Who saw him at the RAP?
A.61 - Sgt MacIver, sir.
Q.62 - Did no doctor see him?
A.62 - I have no proof of that as I left him in charge of Sgt MacIver, sir.
Q.63 - Do you think you were quite qualified to say the man was dead at that particular time?
A.63 - Well, of course I am just a stretcher bearer, sir, not a doctor of ~~anaesthesiology~~ medicine. But I have certainly seen plenty of dead people.

In the opinion of the Court and JA it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(B).

The witness withdraws.

Fourth Witness for the Prosecution, B-113286 Pte VanDriel, L W, Calg Highrs, being duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor.

Q.64 - Would you give the Court your number, rank and name?
A.64 - I am B-113286 Pte ~~Van~~ Driel, L W, Calg Highrs.

Q.67 - Where was Pte Melidones?
A.67 - Lying on the bed, sir.
Q.68 - Was anybody else on the bed?
A.68 - Yes, sir, Pte Kisur.
Q.69 - Where was Pte LeBlanc standing?
A.69 - At the end of the bed, sir.
Q.70 - Where was Pte Grant standing?
A.70 - As close as I remember, I believe he was lying on a cot in the room beside the bed.
Q.71 - Where were you?
A.71 - leaning against the cot, sir.
Q.72 - Tell the Court in your own words just what happebed after that?
A.72 - LeBlanc picked up a rifle then, opening the bolt and looked at it and closed the bolt, pointed it at Melidones and said "Hey Mel", and the rifle was discharged. Just after the rifle was discharged LeBlanc sort of went to pieces. Pte Kisur and I ran down for a stretcher bearer.

Q.73 - What did [illegible] Pte LeBlanc do?
A.73 - He jumped on the bed, yelled "Mel Mel", went to pieces.
Q.74 - Did you see Melidones open and close the bolt?
A.74 - It was LeBlanc, sir.
Q.75 - He opened and closed it?
A.75 - Yes, sir.
Q.76 - If you take a rifle, open the bolt, with ten rounds in the magazine, then closed the bolt, what would happen?
A.76 - Put one in the barrel, sir.
Q.77 - If you took a rifle and opened the bolt, kept your thumb over the magazine, then closed the bolt, what would happen?
A77 - The rifle is empty.
Q.78 - Did you see LeBlanc discharge the rifle?
A.78 - It all happened so fast I can't say. He sort of pointed the rifle at Melidones and it went off.
Q.79 - Did you shoot Pte Melidones?
A.79 - No, sir.
Q.80 - Did Pte Kisur shoot him?
A.80 - No, sir.

A.81 - No, sir.
Q.82 - Did Pte Grant shoot him?
A.82 - No, sir.
Q.83 - Did Pte Melidones shoot himself?
A.83 - No, sir.

Defending Officer

I object, sir. Those are leading questions.

JA

I don't think they are. Not that sort of questions.

Prosecutor

Q.84 - Where was Pte Melidones hit?
A.84 - In the face.
Q.85 - While he was lying on the bed?
A.85 - Yes.
Q.86 - Did you know he was killed?
A.86 - I knew he was hit.

JA

I don't think we can allow that question, and I advise the Court to disregard it.

Q.87 - Whose rifle did you see Pte LeBlanc pick up?
A.87 - At the time I didn't know whose rifle it was, sir.
Q.88 - Where is Pte Grant today?
A.88 - In hospital, sir.
Q.89 - What was going on in the room before the rifle was discharged?
A.89 - We were more or less just talking, laughing, joking around.
Q.90 - Was there any fooling with rifles?
A.90 - No, sir.
Q.91 - Did Pte LeBlanc while you were in the room say anything after the shooting?
A.91 - He just went hysterical and started more or less crying. It's hard to describe it.
Q.92 - Did he say any words?
A.92 - He started to yell "Heh Mel Mel" and grabbed him on the bed.

Cross-examined by the Defending Officer.

Q.93 - What relationship was there between Melidones and the accused? Were they on friendly terms?
A.93 - They were on friendly terms.
Q.94 - Was everybody in good humour at that time?
A.94 - Yes, sir.
Q.95 - There were no hard feelings?
A.95 - No, sir.
Q.96 - Were you watching closely when LeBlanc checked the rifle?
A.96 - I would not say closely, sir.
Q.97 - Did you notice how far he pulled the bolt back?
A.97 - No, sir, I just saw him open it.
Q.98 - You just saw him open it, check it and push the bolt forward?
A.98 - Yes, sir.
Q.99 - You did not know if there was a round in the chamber before he picked it up?
A.99 - You don't know what rifle LeBlanc looked at?
A.99 - No, sir.
Q.100 - You don't know if it was defective in any way?
A.100 - No, sir.

Re-examined by the Prosecutor.

Q.101 - It was not your rifle?
A.101 - No, sir.

Q.105 - Were you at Hoogerheide?
A.105 - Yes, sir.

Q.107 - He could have been in action and you didn't know about it?
A.107 - Yes, sir.

No questions by the Court.

In the opinion of the Court and JA it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(B).

The witness withdraws.

Fifth Witness for the Prosecution, M-11617 Sgt MacIver, D T, Calg Highrs, being duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor.

Q.108 - Would you tell the Court your number, rank and name?
A.108 - Sir, I am M-11617 Sgt MacIver, D T, Calg Highrs.
Q.109 - On 1 Dec 44 at about 1300 hrs I understand you were called in to view a body. Will you tell the Court in your own words just what happened, whether you fulfilled that mission?
A.109 - I went to D Coy area at approximately 1330 hrs.
Q.110 - Where was the area?
A.110 - It was near Groesbeck, sir, and I examined the body of Pte Melidones and I found that a missile had entered his face just below the right eye and had come out at the back of the head just by the base of the skull. I reported this to the MO, sir.
Q.111 - Was he or was he not dead?
A.111 - My own opinion is that he was, sir.
Q.112 - What did you base that opinion on?
A.112 - Just the type of wound, sir, and the fact that the way the body was lying, the eyes, and I definitely noticed that the pupils of the eyes were wide open and didn't change as I flashed my hand across them.

Q.113 - Did you check his pulse?
A.113 - I can't say for sure, sir, but I believe I did.
Q.114 - There was no doubt in your mind whether he was dead or not. Then why did you go to the MO?
A.114 - He was the man I should report it to, sir.
Q.115 - Who is the MO?
A.115 - Capt Kipling, sir.
Q.116 - How long have you been in the Medical Service?
A.116 - Six months, sir.
Q.117 - You have seen lots of dead bodies during that time?
A.117 - Yes, sir.
Q.118 - Where was the body?
A.118 - It was in a field, sir.

The Defending Officer declines to cross-examine the witness.

No questions by the Court.

The witness withdraws.

Sixth Witness for the Prosecution, Capt C L Keatley, Calg Highrs, being duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor.

Q.119 - Would you give the Court your rank and name?
A.119 - I am Capt C L Keatley, "A" Coy, Calg Highrs, C A O.
Q.120 - I hand you a paper. Is that your signature.
A.120 - That's right.
Q.121 - This is the summary of evidence in the case of Pte LeBlanc. Were you the officer detailed to take this summary?
A.121 - Yes.
Q.122 - You took this summary?
A.122 - Yes.
Q.123 - The accused made a statement in the summary. What warning did you give the accused?
A.123 - Before the accused made any statement or before the summary was taken I warned Pte LeBlanc that if he gave any evidence it may be used against him in the court-martial.
Q.124 - Did you read the warning to him out of the MML?
A.124 - No, we only have one copy of MML and it was needed in the Bn Orderly Room.
Q.125 - Is this the warning you gave here at page 617 of MML, RP 4(E)?
A.125 - Yes, but perhaps not in those exact words.
Q.126 - The statement which Pte LeBlanc made in the summary is the one he gave verbally to you?
A.126 - That's right.
Q.127 - Will you read that statement?

Defending Officer

I object to the reading of that statement. I would like to cross-examine the witness at this point on the taking of that statement from the accused.

JA

All right, on the matter of the statement, as a trial within a trial, you can cross-examine now.

Defending Officer

Q.128 - In point of fact you did not use the words set out in this summary of evidence in your warning to Pte LeBlanc?
A.128 - Yes, these words in the summary are the ones I used in my warning. I had a copy of a summary taken for a previous court-martial with this warning on it and I gave this same warning to Pte LeBlanc.

Defending Officer

In that case, then, I have no objection whatsoever.

Prosecutor

Q.129 - Will you please read from this Summary of Evidence both the warning you gave the accused and his statement?
A.129 - Yes (reads reads the warning and Pte LeBlanc's statement from page 3 of the Summary of Evidence).

The Defending Officer declines to cross-examine the witness.

No questions by the Court.

In the opinion of the Court and JA it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(B).

The witness withdraws.

The Defending Officer makes the following motion.

I move that the case now be adjourned until Pte H E Grant can be produced, for purposes of cross-examination, being named in the summary. I want to obtain the details about this rifle, how it was loaded, whether or not it was loaded and so forth. They have a great deal of bearing on the defence. I would also like to find out if possibly the rifle was defective and nobody but Grant can be produced to testify as to this unless the prosecution can produce another competent witness. And I move that there be an adjournment for that purpose.

The Prosecutor replies to the motion of the Defending Officer.

I think before we can go on a motion such as that, Grant - as we have heard - has gone to hospital and that means he might never come back to this theatre of war. He might be in Canada in a month's time. That motion would then frustrate justice altogether. We are obliged to bring witnesses here only if they are available. I myself want to go definitely on record and state I object to that motion.

President

The Court will close to consider the motion of the Defence.

The Court is closed.

The Court is re-opened and the accused is again brought before it.

President

The motion has been disallowed by the Court.

JA to accused

Pte Leblanc, you now have three choices as to what you wish to do in your own defence. In the first place you need not say anything at all. In the second place you can give evidence upon oath in the same manner as any other witness but if you do so you are liable to be cross-examined on that evidence by the Prosecutor, by the Court and by myself. In the third place, you may make a statement no upon oath and if you do so you cannot be questioned by anyone. It is only just to tell you however that a statement not on oath will not carry as much weight with the Court as a statement upon oath.

Defending Officer

Pte LeBlanc does not wish to give evidence upon oath nor to make a statement, sir.

First Character Witness for the accused, Major Bruce McKenzie, Calg Highrs, being duly sworn, is examined by the Defending Officer.

Q.130 - Will you tell the Court your name and rank, please?
A.130 - Yes, I am Major Bruce McKenzie of the Calg Highrs, C A O.
Q.131 - Do you know the accused, sir?
A.131 - Yes, I know the accused.
Q.132 - Would you tell the Court what he is considered to be as a soldier?
A.132 - The accused came to my Coy approximately the first week in Sep 44. I was not there at the Coy at the time, being in hospital, but returned there 17 Sep 44. I then saw the accused and knew he was one member of my fighting team. From that time the accused fought under my command from 17 Sep 44 up until he was wounded in Hoogerheide and during that time I have never had any cause to judge him other than as being a good soldier. No report came in to me that he was not a good soldier, and I do remember at times seeing his work carried out very satisfactorily. He worked right up with the Coy, came in the battle of then up to the Albert Canal, through St. Leonard's, up towards Hoogerheide and did a good job at the Hoogerheide show until he was wounded. When he did returned to the Coy it was just before we came to this area. None of his Sec Comnds, Pl Commds ever had a word against him but have always said he was a reliable soldier and at no time ever showed any thoughtlessness or carelessness.
Q.133 - What were his duties?
A.133 - He was a member of a section.
Q.134 - As a rifleman or Bren gunner?
A.134 - He was a rifleman first, I believe, and then took over the Bren gun.
Q.135 - Do you happen to recall his age, sir?
A.135 - No, I am not just sure of that I judge him to be about 23.

JA

You can tell the Court that.

Defending Officer

As a matter of fact he is 21 years of age, sir.

The Prosecutor declines to cross-examine the witness.

No questions by the Court or JA.

In the opinion of the Court and JA it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B).

The witness withdraws.

The Prosecutor makes the folllowing closing address.

Mr. President and Members of the Court. We have heard one witness Pt Kisur, he stated he was in the room with Pte VanDriel, Pte LeBlanc, Pte Melidones, and Pte Grant. And he stated that there wasa rifle fired in that room but he did not hear the actual shot fired. Then we have the evidence of Pte VanDriel who stated he saw LeBlanc pick up the rifle and heard the shot fired and he stated what reactions LeBlanc had after the shot was fired. We did not have the evidence of Pte Grant because he is not available, being wounded with a hand grenade, evacuated to hospital and more than likely is going back to Canada. Then we have the evidence of Pte Mammel, the stretcher bearer, which is of little value of course in that he was not competent to say whether Pte Melidones was dead or not. Then we have heard the evidence of Sgt MacIver, the medical orderly and also that of the MO, Capt Turnbull, who gave us their opinions. Then we had the statement of Pte LeBlanc as given to Capt Keatley at the summary of evidence and In that statement I just wish to draw attention to a certain sentence. I quote, "I then got up and moved to the end of the bed by the window. I picked up a rifle that was leaning against the wall. A few minutes before this I saw Pte Grant cleaning this same rifle. I turned to Pte Grant and said to him 'This is a nice clean rifle.' I then opened the bolt, looked into the chamber, found it clear and closed the bolt. The bolt closed very easily and I was sure there wasn't a round in the chamber." That is the facts of the case. I draw your attention to it for one reason, and one reason only, that action of opening the bolt and closing it shows the highest degree of negligence, and then in firing the rifle after closing the bolt. To point a gun at a person is an unlawful act. I will leave the explanation of the law on that point to the JA. I do wish however to point out to the Court and in doing an unlawful act, pointing a rifle at someone, the accused has shown the very degree of negligence described by law, and I wish to draw the attention of the Court to page 110 of MML, starting at the bottom of page 109, sec 26 and continuing to the end of the second paragraph on page 110. (reads the citation to the Court). In this case the evidence shows that a soldier picked up a rifle, negligently examined the rifle and negligently discharged the rifle. To continue to the end of Sec 26 on page 110 of MML and then I wish to read to you Sec 27 on Page 110 (reads the citation to the Court). Now Mr. President and Members of the Court here we have a situation which fits right into that example shown in the book. Again, a man who picks up a rifle and points it at someone else is committing an unlawful act under the Army Act, sec 40. He examines therifle to see whether it is loaded or not. On the evidence of the witnesses here this morning, I would not say that there was negligence in that act, but in closing the bolt and firing the rifle we have the negligence. So much for the law in the case. We have an example of this charge of manslaughter right in the army act and that example applies to this particular instance. In this case there is no doubt orquestion as to what happened, or who is dead. As to the accused's character evidence given by Major McKenzie, I might say that it was a very good estimate of the accused but I would like to point out to you that I was with the Calg Highrs for three months, with a MG Pl, and I know Pte Leblanc as a very competent soldier, very cool under fire. Also I was unfortunately in the hospital with Pte LeBlanc's Pl Comd and LeBlanc even at that time was so loyal to him that he walked to the hospital bringing him fruit, etc., showing that his mind was definitely on the army and he was always loyal.

The Defending Officer makes the following closing address.

May it please the Court, the law on this subject has been well quoted by the Prosecutor and the only thing I draw to your attention, I quote from Stone's Justices' Manual, page 1526, footnote (6) (reads the citation to the Court). The evidence before the Court is that the accused did take precautions. The evidence before the Court is that the accused did take precautions. Any witness who was watching the accused stated the accused LeBlanc did look in the rifle, that he pulled the bolt back and looked into the chamber. The Prosecutor has assumed in his address and also in his examination-in-chief, that there were rounds in the magazine. The evidence of the witnesses before the Court contains no evidence that anyone saw any rounds in the magazine or in the chamber of the rifle. The rifle is not here. The defence is hampered. What caused the rifle to be discharged after it has been inspected? I am not in a position to tell the Court what could have happened. The rifle is not here. Whether it was defective in any way I am not able to show. Or of there was a round in the chamber or in the magazine. Whether, if there was one, it was covered up by something or obscured. We can't tell. It is not here. We can't see it. We can conject but you cannot convict a man on a charge of manslaughter on conjecture. It is the duty of the Court we say to produce positive evidence, not for the Court to mame good guesses. We can all make a good guess that of course this rifle was not defective. But there is not a tittle of evidence to support the assumption of the prosecution that there was one round or ten rounds in the chamber or the magazine, or that the rifle was not defective. The only evidence is that the accused did examine it before pointing it. He saw it before the trigger was pulled. Whether he examined it sufficiently would depend a great deal on what he saw in that gun. As I see it there is a complete gap, not the slightest bit of evidence, as to where that round came from. Was it covered up? Could it have been seen? There is no doubt from the evidence before the Court that LeBlanc was complete amazed by the result, amazement which could spring from the fact that he had checked the rifle. You have heard quite plainly from people who thought well of Pte Melidones and state nothing but praise for the accused. You heard the evidence, how the accused spoke and became hysterical after it happened. You have no intent of the accused. It was not wilful. On the contrary he certainly was broken hearted about it. As I say, if he had not checked it he would not have cared whether it was loaded or not in view ofhis training. How well did he check it? The evidence shows he looked at it. All that is required normally. We have no evidence to the contrary. No evidence as to whose rifle it was. He looked at it, something happened, and thereafter the rifle was forgotten. Nobody examined it or looked at it, and Pte Grant is not here so he can't tell you, I can't tell you and the accused can't tell you. We are assisted to some extent by Stone's Jusrices' Manual, just as reputable a book as MML in dealing with civil law, in determining from the evidence we have heard whether this case is proven. I would like to read to you the law on manslaughter as it is set out by Mr. Justice Brett (reads to the Court). He checked the rifle but how well he checked it but I submit to the Court that we do not know beyond a reasonable doubt and it must be resolved in his favour. I submit to the Court that the finding on the first charge should be not guilty. Now dealing with the second charge (reads the charge to the Court). You again must have an element of negligence and I submit that the mere fact that the rifle went off after he looked at it does not mean he did not look at it carefully. To point a rifle at a soldier after you have checked the rifle is not negligence at all. We point rifles at people in practice, in training and we put bayonets on them too. There is a greater amount of negligence than just pointing a rifle and how well he checked it again cannot be determined unless we know what condition the rifle was in. So on the second charge all that has been established is that he did take care which maye have been sufficient if the rifle was in perfect order. We can't state what order it was in. The natural tendency is to say of course the rifle is all right. But can you make that assumption? I submit that in no case of this kind can we make that assumption, and if the rifle is not all right, and he had looked carefully at the barrel and magazine, then he is not guilty of the second charge. To point a gun at a soldier I submit is not in itself an offence. We do it in many circumstances.

The JA sums up as follows.

Mr. President and gentlemen. The accused stands before you today charged with two very serious charges, laid in the alternative. A life has been taken, there is no doubt as to that, and it is now your duty to decide from the evidence put before you today whether or not the accused is guilty or not guilty of alternatively either manslaughter or negligence as contemplated by AA 40 or whether he is not guilty of both. I am only endeavouring to advise you on the law on a difficult charge and if in so doing I happen to touch upon the facts I wish to remind you that you are the sole masters of the facts and that anything I may say concerning them will merely be an expression of my own opinion. I ask you to regard it as such. The charges are laid in the alternative. That means that you must decide the first charge before you proceed to considering the second charge. If fact it is only if you find the accused not guilty of the first charge that you even have to consider the second charge. The net result of this advise is that you may only find the accused guilty of one of these charges but you may, of course, find him not guilty of both. Now thefirst charge is manslaughter and we have heard the law about it from both the Prosecuting and Defending Officers. As I have said, it is an exceedingly grave charge. Archbold, in Criminal Pleading, Evidence and Practice tells us on page 859 this (reads the citation to the Court). Still that does not help us very much in this case. Going on to Stone's Justices' Manual which the Defending Officer has already cited, I would like to read from page 1526 thereof (the citation is read to the Court). That I believe is as close as we can come to it. And at page 1527 there is the following (reads the citation to the Court). From that you will appreciate that an essential ingredient of manslaughter is negligence of a very high degree, a negligence showing such disregard for life and safety of others as to amount to a crime against the state. I have given you now two of the best civil authorities on the subject and I would now like to turn to the MML which is the most important military authority and in most cases is as sound as any civil authority. At page 117, the second and third paras of that page read as follows (reads the citation to the Court). And we have the same principle there as was given to us by Stone. And again I repeat I think that it the best application of the law that I can find. Now you have heard the facts of the various witnesses, with the exception of Pte Grant. You have to decide today, and I believe I am being fair when I say there is no great dispute as to the facts; there can be no doubt that the accused picked up the rifle and that prior to this he had seen Pte Grant cleaning the rifle although Pte Grant is not here to tell us, but we have had that from the accused's own statement; it is equally clear that he opened the bolt, closed it, pointed it in the direction of Pte Melidones and then the rifle was discharged. Pte LeBlanc swears there was no round in the chamber when he pushed the bolt back. Yet we have the tragic fact that the rifle did discharge and as a result of that discharge Pte Melidones was killed. That is the act gentlemen as put before you by the Prosecuting Officer and it is not your task to decide whether or not the manner in which the accused handled that rifle showed negligence so gross and culpable as to be a crime against the state. I ask you to consider this from every angle. You have heard the history of the accused so far as is allowed. I ask you to consider all the circumstances of this occurrence and then decide whether this accused soldier is guilty or not guilty of manslaughter. Passing on to the second charge. This charge deals also with negligence. To a military court, however this is a far more familiar negligence. This neglect as contemplated by the Army Act under Section 40 is one which every regimental officer knows very well. The neglect contemplated by Section 40 must also be culpable, that is, it must be blameworthy. It is that type of neglect which is prejudicial to both good order and military discipline, and please note, gentlemen, I have stated that this must be prejudicial to both good order and military discipline. Amendmat 30 to Section 40 says of neglect (reads the citation to the Court). I can't put the composition of neglect as contemplated by the Army Act any clearer. Now in considering both these charges you must first decide whether or not the particulars of the charges have been proved. Then if you should decide that they have been proved, you must decide whether or not these proved ~~charges~~ particulars constitute the offence charged. Ask yourselves how great the degree of negligence was in the light of my remarks thereon with reference to each charge. As a result of this occurrence a life has been lost. That is a most sad and unfortunate affair. If a crime has been committed then the perpretator of that crime should be punished. But please do not consider that some one person must be punished purely because a life has been taken. The loss of life makes the offence more serious but remember that there must be an offence. You must be satisfied that negligence, to either one of the drgrees I have given you, exists before you can punish. For if it does not exist there has been no offence committed and the accused must be found not guilty. The gravity of the offence must not have the effect of influencing your judgement as to the existense of the offence. We carry British justice with us wherever we go. Discipline must be maintained and justice must be administered. Lives are being lost daily operationally but this life was not lost in such a manner. You, as a tribunal, must decide this case by British criminal law. Under such law the onus of proof rests upon throughout on the prosecution. Under such law every man is deemed to be innocent until the contrary is established beyond a reasonable doubt. Under such law no accused person need ever find himself in the position of having to prove his innocence. I have used the words reasonable doubt and although most of you are probably familiar with that expression I must give you its legal meaning. Reasonable doubt is a doubt which arises out of the evidence or lack of evidence. It is such a doubt as would make a reasonable man in the conduct of his own affairs and in a matter of importance to him, pull up, hesitate and seriously consider whether the thing he thinks of doing is right and wise. It must however be a real and substantial doubt and not the idle reflection that nothing in this life is 100% certain. It is a doubt that bases itself on ~~gaps mon hom~~ serious gaps or loopholes in the evidence, a doubt that persists actively and positively. It is the doubt of a man who has heard all the contentions of the prosecution and yet who is not satisfied that the accused must have done what he is charged with doing. If such a doubt exists in the minds of any members of this Court then he is bound by law to interprete that doubt on behalf of the accused.

Mr. President, are there any further matters on which you wish me to advise the Court?
A. - No.
Mr. Prosecuting Officer, are there any further matters on which you wish me to advise the Court?
A. - No, sir.
Mr. Defending Officer, are there any further matters on which you wish me to advise the Court?
A. - No, sir.

The Defending Officer makes the following plea in mitigation.

As the Court has seen now the accused has had only one ~~anima~~ offence since joining the army and that is a minor offence under AA ~~#~~ 15(1). You have heard how the accused has conducted himself while in action and if given the opportunity will no doubt do so again. In view of that I ask the Court to take into consideration that the accused has already been sentenced in his own mind. From now until the day he dies the accused cannot forget that he killed, or at least was involved in the death, of his friend; ~~Am~~ a ~~Man~~ who was well liked and respected in the Coy and in the Bn. I ask the Court to this extent to put themselves in his place. If you caused ~~the~~ death of a friend of your own it is something you can't foeget morning, noon or night, that is always with you. And by looking at the accused you can see the effect it is having on his mind. He certainly was conscious of of what he had done as soon as it happebed. I ask the Court to bear that in mind in determining the punishment necessary to prevent the accused from doing this again or discouraging others from doing it. As regards LeBlanc, actually no further punishment is necessary for that purpose. What further punishment is awarded him is now in the hands of the Court, but I certainly submit it will be no greater than that under which he is already suffering. Just one thing more. The accused is not a ~~nnn~~ careless type, you can tell that, in fact I hate to think what when this case is over it will lead to. I ask the Court not only to remember the dead but also the living., to regard the accused as a soldier, and to consider the load he bears ~~until~~ in his mind until the day he dies.

On the 1 DEC 44, right after lunch, I went upstairs in the house we were billeted in and I saw Ptes. LeBlanc, Grant, VanDriel and Melidones in one of the rooms. We were chatting and joking and fooling around. Pte. Melidones was lying on a bed and I went over and got down beside him. I asked Pte. Melidones for an envelope for a letter I had just written. The envelopes he had were stuck together and he was trying to get them a part, as he was doing this he raised himself slightly from the bed. Just at this time I heard a bolt action on a rifle and Pte. LeBlanc yelled " Mel " and just then a rifle was discharged. Pte. Melidones sank back very slowly onto the bed. I realized Pte. Melidones had been hit and I then ran downstairs to get an attached stretcher bearer. Pte. VanDriel came down stairs right behind me. The stretcher bearer went upstairs immediately. I did NOT go back up stairs.

B-155587 Pte. Kisur, M. was cross-examined by the accused.

Question (i) Have you ever noticed any ill-feeling between Pte. Melidones and myself?

I had just finished cleaning my rifle and it was leaning against the wall. The magazine of my rifle was fully charged with ten rounds and there was NOT a round in the chamber. I saw Pte. LeBlanc pick my rifle up open the bolt and look to see if there was a round in the chamber. He then closed the bolt and pointed it at Pte. Melidones. He called out " Mel " and then the rifle was discharged. I looked over at Pte. Melidones and saw blood on his face. I left the room immediately and then saw the stretcher bearer go upstairs.

I am F97555 Pte LeBlanc, J.C., of 16 Platoon, "D" coy, The Calgary Highlanders, CA(O). Shortly after lunch on 1 Dec 44 I was in a bedroom upstairs in the house that 16 Platoon "D" coy were using as billets. In the room there were Pte Melidones, Pte Grant, Pte Vanderlei and Pte Kisur. We were all chatting to one another. I was lying on the bed and Pte Melidones was beside me. I then got up and moved to the end of the bed, by the window. I picked up a rifle that was leaning against the wall. A few minutes before this I saw Pte Grant cleaning this same rifle. I turned to Pte Grant and said to him, "This is a nice clean rifle." I then opened the bolt, looked into the chamber, found it clear and closed the bolt. The bolt closed very easily and I was sure that there wasn't a round in the chamber. At this time I was facing the bed. Pte Kisur was on the bed with Pte Melidones. I had the rifle in my hands at the "on guard" position, with the rifle pointed half way up to the ceiling of the room. I said "Mel" and as he looked up I squeezed the trigger and the rifle discharged. I couldn't believe that I had hit him. I ran over to the bed when I realized he was wounded and said to him "Mel, Mel" and then I don't seem to remember what happened. Pte Melidones and I were the best of friends and I certainly had no intention of injuring him in any way.

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. *If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. Statement in mitigation of punishment

I want the Court to consider that P 6 Leblanc Leonard has fought in the BRESKENS POCKET. On the 24 Oct 44 the fight was very bitter, when his company having made an advance of two miles was encircled and taken heavily shelled. The company to which P 6 Leblanc belonged was taken prisoner and taken to KNOCKE by the Hs. There the Nations were of a poor quality and there was a NON-STOP shelling, even aerial bombardment.

On the 31 Oct 44, when the company men were freed, the were exhausted physically and their morale was down. No rest was granted to them and they kept on going with the Hunt

Those are the facts that the Court must consider.

PROSECUTION

Fourth Witness

K5067 BQMS Sanders, J.V. having been duly sworn states:

I am K5067 BQMS. Sanders, J.V.

Q. Tell the Court in your own words what you know about this case.

A. On the morning that the unit left on manoeuvres I locked the Battery Quarter Stores and left the keys with L/Bdr. LeBlanc one of the N.C.O.s of the rear party. He stated that he was going on a course in a short time so I instructed him to turn the keys over to L/Bdr. Vansickle another of the Battery N.C.O.S. on rear party. He was in turn to hand the keys over to Sgt. McPhee who was away on pass.

About 2 or 3 weeks later whilst still on manoeuvres the Battery Commander called me to the Battery Office, showed me a statement made by L/Bdr. LeBlanc to the Provost Corps concerning the sale of 2 pairs of Army Boots.

He asked me what I knew about it and I explained to him that I had left the keys with L/Bdr. LeBlanc when we left the unit.

The next day the Bty. Commander and myself journeyed back to the unit to check the stores left behind. I checked the stores by an inventory made by myself at the time the unit left and found a few articles missing which are: 2 pairs of Boots ankle, 2 prs. Rubber Boots half high, 2 prs. of Denim Trousers, and 10 tins of corned beef, I reported these articles to Capt. Dawes.

Cross Examined by the Defence

Q. Can you tell us if the statement which was shown to you is the same as is presented in this court today ?

A. I believe it to be the same but I am not positive of the word sale.

Q. Did your check include the stores in the field or only those in the unit ?

A. Only the stores at the unit.

Q. Has L/Bdr. LeBlanc's private kit been searched for the remainder of these missing articles ?

A. No not to my knowledge.

Q. Then having recovered the 2 prs, of boots ankle your are still deficient the remainder of the articles.?

A. Yes I am .

Q. Have you reissued to L/Bdr. LeBlanc a pr. of boots since your return from the exercise ?

A. Yes I have a pr. of his own boots.

Q. Do you know of any other prs. of boots in your stores which were at any time on issue to L/Bdr. LeBlanc.

A. No. there are not any.

Q. How many prs. of boots are on issue to L/Bdr. LeBlanc.

A. He should have two prs.

Q. Is he in possession of a new pr. of Boots.

A. Not to my knowledge he has not been issued a new pr. pf boots.

In the opinion of the Court it is unnecessary to comply with R.P.43(B)

DEFENCE

L/Bdr. LeBlanc being duly sworn states:

I am G43002 L/Bdr.LeBlanc L.J.

Q. Will you tell the Courtin your own words how you came into possession of these boots and how you were trying to raise money on those boots for a certain period of time.?

A. I obtained the boots which were given in as exchange throught a medium of indirect exchange. At no time have I had more than 2 prs. of boots These boots were to act in turn as a medium of exchange for cash on a loan basis. I believe this to be quite possible as a week or 2 previous I ha had done so with a pr. of skates. The skates were not in what is known as in a dramacular ~~xxxxxx~~ sense of the word a pond shop, still they were redeemable the same as the boots were to have been had the sale been allowed to be completed.

Q. I understand that you obtained these boots on exchange from our stores while you were in charge of Q.M.Stores.

A. Yes Sir.

Q. Is there anything else that you would like to add to the statement you made in London?

A. No Sir.

Cross-Examined By Prosecution.

Q. How many prs. of boots have you on charge now ?

A. 2 prs. of Boots.

Q. How many prs. of Boots did you have on your charge on 31 Aug. 43.

A. I have been charged by signature for 2 prs. of boots.

Q. Did you take these boots from the Q.M. Store in the presence of the Q.M. Sgt. or his Clerk?

A. No Sir the QMS. and his clerk were away at the time making it thus impossible to deal with the said issue at that time.

Re-Examined by Defence

Q. Where are the boots now on charge to you?

A. The other pr. of boots to the best of my knowledge are stored with the rest of my surplus kit in a building known as the Technical Stroes.

Q. Is that building under the jurisdiction of the BQMS.

A. Yes Sir.

To qualify the statement as to the intention of selling the boots on a loan basis, I may support it by the fact that they were brought to a store in the heart of London, in an area heavily policed by the R.C.M.P. rather than to a civilian who once having had the boots could not or would not return the same for the sum of money to regain the boots to my possession.

In the opinion of the Court it is unnecessary to comply with R.P.83(B)

PROSECUTION

Summing up By Prosecuting Officer

May I point out to the Court while considering the facts of the case that L/Bdr. LeBlanc is charged with stealing and not selling W.D. Property.

He has made several attempts to justify the sale of the boots but admits in his own evidence taking the boots in question from the Q.M. stores, full knowing they were not his property.

I might also point out that the accused was left in a position of responsibility by his Commanding Officerand ask for consideration of the fact that he violated this responsibility which the C.O. had placed on him.

The Prosecuting Officer having been duly sworn States:
I am Capt. J.P. Hall and I hereby produced and submit AFB 296 statement as to character and record of service and MFM 6 Field Conduct Sheet relating to the accused.
These are read and marked by the President as exhibits "E" &"F" respectively and attached to proceedings.

In the opinion of the Court it is unnecessary to comply with R.P.83(B)

STATEMENT IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT BY DEFENDING OFFICER

To draw attention to the present MFM6 . In the last year 3 minor offences were committed.

1. Neglect under Sec. 40 when A/L/Bdr. LeBlanc acting as an instructor in C.G.S. forgot to warn a junior for duty for the next day.
2. Under Sec. 40 Improper possession of a pr. of civilian shoes. This occurred when L/Bdr. LeBlanc returned from a course and was ordered by his unit to move to another location. In the unpacking and repacking of his kit all the accumulation of kit one picks up in a year or so with a static unit he was assisted by friends and it was ultimately found that there was a pr. of civilian shoes of ~~xxnix~~ size which did not fit him which had been inadvertently placed in his kit.
3. 59mins. A.W.O.L.

I would like to point out that these three charges are very slight for this young man who has been on active service since 2 Sept. 39. As L/Bdr. LeBlanc has not been with this unit very long I would like to submit to the Court an indication of the opinions held by his senior Officers in his last unit when he was reccommended for O.C.T.U.

I will submit these as exhibits of character and refernce.

1. one signed by Lt. Col DePencier
2. One signed by Major J.M. Savage.
3. An application for O.C.T.U. recommended and signed by Major Wingert.
4. An application for O.C.T.U.

These are read by the President and marked as exhibit "H" and attached to the proceedings.

In the opinion of the Court it is not necessary to comply with ~~xxPxx3~~ R.P.83(B).

I heard him say to the woman in charge of the shop. "Will you buy a pair of boots". She replied "I don't buy boots". He then said "I am hard up and want some money". I then said to Le Blanc "What kind of boots are they". He replied "Army Boots".

I said to him "I am a police officer, let me see the boots" He said "Why they are my own boots" He then opened the case and took out a pair of new Canadian Army issue boots marked size 7E. I looked in the case and saw another pair of similar boots marked 8½.

I said to him "I am not satisfied you are rightfully in possession of these boots and will take you to the police station so that further enquiries can be made" I cautioned him, and he replied "I handed in an old pair to the stores for exchange. He was taken to Gerald Road police station where he was detained until being handed over to escort of Canadian Provost Corps

I Reg. No. G.4300, L/Bdr. LeBLANC, L.J. have been cautioned that I am not obliged to say anything unless I wish to do so, but w hatever I do say will be taken down in writing and may be used in evidence.

This is to certify that I have read over the above caution and to show that I understand its meaning, I sign my name here.

L/Bdr. LeBlanc L.J.

On August 31, 1943 at approximately 1645 hrs. I was apprehended by 2 civil policemen in plain clothes in the region of Victoria. I am alleged to have been trying to dispose of a pair of army boots for a sum of money.

The reason for the act is:- Approximately 3 weeks ago I received a letter from Canada from the girl I had intended to marry on my return, saying that she had fallen in love with another man during my absence. I felt needless to say very badly over this. I determined that in future that I should let nothing come between myself and any other nice girl I was taking out that would cause a parting; for naturally after having spent seven years in the service I had begun to feel that I was letting the best portion of my life slide away without accomplishing anything toward my future happiness.

Hence, owing a debt of £30- to the mother of a girl in Seven Kings, and having been reprimanded by this girl Sunday morning August 29 I gave her my word that I should repay the money this week. I had made this promise, I was bound to keep it.

Joe, I was part of the rear party of my unit and at some time had access to the S/H Store of my battery I decided after weighing the matter thoroughly, that owing as I had money owing to me by some of the lads in my unit, and couldn't collect as they were away, 2 A telegram home would not dispense any funds within at least 2 to 3 weeks 3. the remainder of the rear party were broke, 4. any negotiable goods were packed away with my regiment (my own convertable goods of course) 5 All circumstances and bad breaks mounting up during my period of service overseas decided to build the debt into an paramount event.

I felt that by using the same number of boots that I was issued with I could convert them into cash on a loan basis and that having them done I could straighten up the whole affair with my unit when I came into money through ordinary channels

About 7 Sep 43, I was called to the Battery Office by Major D.J.Halfhide, Battery Commander 113 Bty., and was shown a copy of a statement concerning Army issue boots in L/Bdr LeBlanc's possession signed by Sgt L.A. Denton Cdn Provost Corps S.I.B. He then asked me what I knew about the affair and I explained to him that the morning the Bty left Paxhill Park I locked the Bty., Quarter Stores and left the keys with L/Bdr LeBlanc who said he was going on a course in a few days, so I gave him instructions to turn the keys over to L/Bdr Vansickle the other N.C.O. on the rear party. On 8 Sep 43, Capt D.K.Dawes Bty., Capt 113 Bty., and I journed back to Paxhill Park to check the stores which were left behind. I checked stores with the inventory ~~inf~~ made at the time the Bty., left Home Station and found some articles missing i.e. Two pairs boots ankle, Two pairs rubber boots half-high, 2 pairs denim trousers and 10 tins of tinned beef. I reported these deficiencies to Capt Dawes.

The keys left for the Q.M.Stores 113 Bty., were turned over to me on Monday 23 Aug 43, when I returned from pass by L/Bdr Vansickle of the rear party. As I was working at R.H.Q. at the time and there were some kits to go into the stores I returned them to L/Bdr Vansic kle who retained them until Saturday 28 Aug 43, when he delivered them to me saying he was proceeding on course the following day. On 1 Sep 43, following a telephone call from Cdn Provost Corps C.M.H.Q. I went into the stores. The lock was still on the door, but the screws on the hasp had been freshly burned. I pointed this out to two members of No. 3 Provost Coy., who called to investigate the case. I had no means of checking any losses in the stores as the BQMS was away on manoeuvres. L/Bdr LeBlanc was turned over to me at Haywards Heath Station under escort on 2 Sep 43, and I took him in charge.

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

Plea in Mitigation in the case of B 118399 Pte LeBlanc L.J.

Pte LeBlanc has been in the army since 26 Oct 43. He enlisted voluntarily at the age of 18 and came overseas as soon as he reached the required age of 19 this year.

Pte LeBlanc has had a troubled domestic life as his mother died in March 42 and approximately 3 months ago, his father died. Undoubtedly these recent bereavements have had a serious effect on this young soldier and his present crime until now was committed when he learnt of his father's death.

The accused has been in military custody for 46 days awaiting his trial, part of the time of which was spent in hospital due to an old knee injury that is troubling him again. Apparently the accused is to have an operation on this knee as soon as the present case has been cleared up.

Pte. LeBlanc surrendered himself voluntarily to the civilian police and in my opinion, should be given the lightest punishment possible.

ROMAN WAY CONVALESCENT HOSPITAL
R.C.A.M.C. C.A.(O)

13 Apr 45

This is to certify that I have, this morning, examined Pte. LEBLANC, L.J., B-118399 of No. 2 C.I.R., patient in Roman Way Convalescent Hospital, and in my opinion he is fit/~~unfit~~ to undergo trial by Court Martial.

Medical Officer.

Offrs. Plea in Mitigation of Sentence by Defence

Mr. President and gentlemen of the court in view of the fact that the accused has pleaded guilty there is little I can say. However there are certain facts which I feel should be placed before the court before any decision be arrived at as regards the nature and amount of punishment to be awarded.

Pte Leblanc for some time prior to his army life was separated from his family & his home in N.B. his brothers like any solid Canadian citizens with guts did had joined the army at the age of 18 and also to be sent overseas as soon as he had turned 19. During that time the accused had not a single crime to his record in fact he was such a good soldier that he was sent to the school of instruction and made a 4gtl.

A few days before his departure to this side of the world during the latter part of 1944 Pte. Leblanc received word of his father's death. I imagine the state of this lads mind upon landing in England filled with grief and worry, away from the rest of his family and friends and possibly never to return to see them again and add to this the monotony of a training camp. Naturally he had to see some ship and unfortunately about the only go A.W.O.L. about the only course open to a pte. Soften wonder how you, or any other officer would what under similar conditions. Not much difference I'm afraid.

Examine his record and you will find only two previous crimes both AWOL appearing on his sheet for 1½ yrs service. Not a bad record by any means. I am sure you will admit & yet with only an AWOL of approx 6 days this lad was rewarded for courts martial. Look you do you think he has been tried fairly when one considers the long & frequent periods of absence which exists in the Can army today.
Naturally the young wants weird rebels at such treatment & consequently be bob out of confinement until he realized the useless-

was of his gratuo and surrendered himself to the military police.

The defence agrees that the accused has committed a crime but is certain that the court will agree with me when I say that neither this nor his other crimes were malicious acts but resulted from a mind distraught from worry, grief and sorrow. Under the circumstances I beg the court to give this case special consideration and award the minimum amount of punishment as is possible under military law.

5 witnesses for the Prosecution
No 2495 Sgt Churchman A L 6 C I R U being duly sworn states
I duly arrested the accused. On 13 Sept 43 Sgt Fourdeau A/C.S.M of "A" Coy ordered me to order the Coy to parade at 1200 hrs for 1300 hrs Parade. We got about one half way to the Kitchen when the Platoon from Hut C 4 broke off and went some to parade and some to back door of Kitchen.
I reported to Sgt Fourdeau. At 1600 / 1645 hrs Sgt Fourdeau warned the men from Huts C 4 and C 5 to fall in at 1800 hours in battle order. I was on the parade at 1645 hrs it was just before break off. I then went into Hut C 4. at about 1650 hrs to take charge of the 1700 supper parade I sat on a bed. The accused got into the middle of the floor and called his friends about him. I think about ½ or ¾ of all the men in hut C 4 asked if they would join in a scuffle in so that they would not have to go on the parade at 1800 hrs Some men were on the bed but the accused did not see me. He said when anyone starts anything, the others then back out and only one or two get stuck for it. Others were talking but the accused was making the most noise and talk. He called them a bunch of "chieux" when one got caught there and only on occasions of no substitute and get caught. I sent nothing and called them to the supper parade. at 1750 hrs I went to C 4 and called the parade the men fell in as usual. I took the parade to Regt'l Parade Ground and I called out the accused and he reported what he had said in the hut to Sgt Fourdrian.

Cross Examined by D of Offrs

The accused was in hut C 4 when I went in at 16 50 hrs. The accused made his remarks not as a grumble or joking but as tho he wanted the men actually to do something. While the accused was talking I moved my position so that if he turned around he could not see me. I reported this because I did not want any trouble in the hut. He seemed to be the leader.

2nd witness for the Prosecution

P 48604 Sgt Fourdrian B. of 6 C I R C

duly sworn states on 13th Sept 1943 I was a/c's m of the day Sgt Charbonneau reported to me about an incident with the accused at 1650 hrs. I had the accused called out from the 1600 hr parade and Sgt Charbonneau asked him to report to me what he had said in the hut. Sgt Charbonneau asked him if he realized what he was doing in the hut before the supper parade and he said yes I was sure he would be punished in Canada about that. He repeated what he had said in the hut - I made up my mind then to lay a charge for what he had said on the net. I told him to get back on the parade. I laid the charge next morning.

Cross examined by Sgt Oppen.

The accused was ready to attention when he answered Sgt Charbonneau on Parade before me. No one cautioned the accused. I would have decided to lay the charge after hearing what accused said even if he had not said "I have been to court for that in Canada."

1st witness for Prosecution recalled at request of Sgt Oppen for further cross exam. with consent of Court & Defn.

The accused turned out on Parade properly dressed. When called out he came out without a cap. I did not caution him I merely asked him to repeat what he had said on the net. I had not laid any charge against him and had not made up my mind to do so but I wanted the C.S.M. to hear from the accused what he had said. I called him out myself not on orders of the C.S.M. when he had said something in front of the C.S.M. I said I am warning you as a friend that you could get into a lot of trouble for what you have said. He answered in an independent way that he didn't care the Major what he was doing and had just got out of 14 days detention in Canada for doing the same thing.

The case for the Prosecution is closed & the President advised the accused under Note 2 R.P. 40. accused elected not to give evidence

I didnt see Sgt Chatborn when accused came in someone was already talking about the 18.00 parade. I didnt see Sgt Chatborn until it was time for ~~supper~~ parade.
all this occured after the supper parade

"Plaidoyer"

Mr. le Président,

Vous avez devant vous un jeune homme canadien français, qui vivait bien tranquille dans son pays, qui ne connaissait rien de l'armée et des affaires militaires. Mais voici que un jour ses libertés sont menacés, il n'y a qu'un moyen de les conserver, c'est d'entrer dans l'armée et aller défendre ce qui lui est cher, sa liberté et celle de son pays. Il s'enrole donc et après un stage de huit mois dans différents Camp du Canada, il est envoyé en Angleterre loin des siens, mais plein de bonne volonté et désireux de remplir son devoir.

Mais voici qu'un mois à peine s'est écoulé depuis son arrivé en Angleterre, qu'il est amené devant une cour martiale pour répondre à une accusation d'une faute qu'il n'a pas commise et qu'il n'a pas même eu l'intention de commettre.

Vous avez entendu les témoignages des témoins Tremblay, et Gaillet, qui sont venus vous dire que l'accusé n'avait pas commencé la discussion, et que loin d'engueuler ses Camarades, ils les a dissuadés en leur disant qu'ils ne gagneraient rien à faire une mutinerie. Vous avez aussi entendu le Capitaine du Canada et lui aussi a été forcé pour cela.

Lorsqu'on lui demande de répéter, il se croit obligé de répondre, car il croit que c'est un ordre, et que la cour punit s'il ne s'exécute.

Mr. le Président, vous avez un devoir bien délicat à remplir. De votre sentence peut découler l'avenir de l'accusé. Si vous le punissez pour une faute qu'il n'a pas commise et qu'il n'avait pas l'intention de commettre, ce jeune homme peut être bien responsable de l'opinion canadienne, et Dieu sait le résultat. Vous avez des exemples tous les jours de soldats qui ont été mal compris ou mal jugés et qui aujourd'hui sont le ~~[illegible]~~ responsables de l'opinion canadienne. Mais je ne crois pas, vous déclarez l'accusé sur ce que j'avançais il était évident pour vous que Monsieur ... une faute ne pouvait commise et qu'il avait tout à fait raison, et non seulement l'accusé, mais tous ses camarades vous reconnaissent pour le bien juge vous avez fait de leur Camarade.

Mr. le Président Merci.

Plea in the case of Narcisse Leblanc.

Mister the President.

You have in front of you, a young man, who was living very quietly in his country, who did not know nothing of the army and his intrigue. But one day his liberty are threated. Their is only one way to keep them, its to join the army and fight to keep what it is dear to him, his liberty and the one of his relations and friends. So he joins the army and after eight months in different camp in Canada, he is send in England far from his relatives but anxious to perform his duty.

But one month after being in England, he is brought in a court Martial for an offense he did not commit and never indend to commit.

You have heard the witness Trumbay & Taillefer who come in the court to tell us that the accuse did not start the argument and far from stimulate them he indeed try to dissuade them in telling them that they had nothing to win and everything to loose in trying to do a ~~mutiny~~ mutiny and that he had an example in Canada and that he had been punish for the same reason. When the sergeant ask him to repeat he took he is oblige to answer because he though it was an order and if he does not answer he'll be punish.

Mr the President of the court, you have a delicate duty to perform. The future of the accuse is in your hands. If you punish the accuse for an offense he did not commit, this young man will be very disappointed of the Canadian Army and what will be the result. we have example every day of soldiers who have not been understood or misjudge and that now made the dishonor of the Canadian Army But if otherwise if you instruct the accuse that if he appear in a Court Martial for any offence he commit and what will ~~be the result~~ happen, the result will be reverse, and not only the accuse but all his commarade will be grateful to you for the good you made to one of their made.

Wr the President

Thanks you.

IN THE CASE OF Pte ~~PERRAULT~~ LEBLANC

The proof brought by Sgt Charbonneau has not yet been contrdicted by any of the defence witnesses. Sgt Charbonneau's statement proves that the accused is guilty of endavouring to persuade the occupants of Hut C-4 No 6 CIRU to join in a mutiny.

The statement of both the defence's witnesses is not valid beaause neither of them where present when the accused pronounced the guilty words

I therefore demand the court to find the accused "Guilty" on the charge pending against him to-day.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of No K-48716, Private Narcisse LeBLANC, of the Canadian Infantry Corps, on the strength of No 6 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer, this Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

First Witness for the Prosecution. E-5295 Sgt Charbonneau, A.E., of the Royal 22e Regiment, on the strength of 6 CIRU, having been duly sworn, states as follows:

On 13 Sep 43, at Algonquin Camp, the occupants of huts C4 and C5 were ordered on parade by the CSM of "A" Company, Sgt Gourdeau, to do 2 hours extra drill that evening and to fall in on parade at 1800 hrs. At about 1650 hours I entered hut C4 and sat on a bed. While I was there the accused, whom I now recognise, began talking to his comrades asking them to stick together and not go on parade that evening. He told them that if they stayed together and refused to go on parade, they would not have to do the extra drill. Upon receiving no favorable answer, he called them a lot of cowards, telling them that they were afraid to stick together and that they would leave one or two to get caught and be punished. Before he could say anything else, I ordered the men to fall in for supper parade. He fell in with the others talking and grumbling all the time. When the parade was called at 1800 hours, the accused was present. I had him come out of the ranks and repeat before the CSM what he had said to the men in the hut, which he did.

Cross-examined by the accused:

Q. 1 Did I see you in the hut ?
A. 1 You hadn't seen me before you spoke.

A. Charbonneau ..... Sgt.

Second Witness for the Prosecution. R-48804 Sgt Gourdeau, E., of the Royal 22e Regiment, on the strength of 6 CIRU, having been duly sworn, states as follows:

On 13 Sep 43, acting upon instructions received from the Company Commander, I gave orders to personnel occupying huts C4 and C5 that they were to fall in on parade at 1800 hours to do two hours of extra drill. When the men came on parade at 1800 hours, Sgt Charbonneau brought Pte Leblanc to me and asked him if he realized what he had done in the hut. The accused answered that he had already been punished in Canada for the same offence and that he knew perfectly well what he had done. He was asked to repeat what he had told the men in the hut. He said that he had asked them to stick together and refuse to go on parade so as not to do any extra drill that evening. He said he had not taken the matter further because he had realized that the men would not stand by him but would leave him to get caught with one or two others.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

E. Gourdeau ..... Sgt.

The following warning is then given to the accused in French: "Do you wish to make any statment or to give evidence on oath ? You are not obliged to say anything or to give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you may say or any evidence you may give will be taken down in writing and may be used in evidence."

The accused declines to make a statement and reserves his defence.

A8. Defg Offr submits that a ~~charge~~ was to be alternative. (1)
Prosec. Offr agrees it was in this form when sent to Bn H.Q. - Court advises that matter will be brought to attention of Convening Offr.

D3 B27397 Cpl. Godin L. - A Coy 3 Bn RCR sworn states On 30 Oct 44 about 7 to 7.30 when I was packing my equipment in a cupboard in a corner of the bldg. I suddenly heard a bang. Then I went to see what had happened. I saw Spr. Beauchamp jumping around nervously. He lifted up his pants to find a wound. I told Lt. Desrosiers to bring him to RAP & I followed a few minutes after. I do not know how the accident happened & saw nothing - Belgian rifle # 23731 is mine (Exh. A) identified. No one had permission to use it on 30 Oct & I know of no one in my section having instructions in handling Belgian rifles. Spr Leblanc is in my section - ~~no~~ treats the accused.

To Def. Offr.

I read Coy orders. I have read an order against having or using enemy weapons all enemy weapons were to be returned to QM stores. My order came out in Sept. 44 ~~[redacted]~~ I think. My recollection is it was for enemy weapons only & was before this accident.

To Prosecuting Offr

I never saw "A" Coy pt I DO #112 dated 10/44 that I remember.

To Court.

I couldn't say whether it was a Coy order or not that I saw. But we only saw Bn and Coy orders.

RP. 83(c) complied with

D15504 Spr Foster A. A Coy RCR sworn - through interpreter states. On 30 Oct 44 between 7 & 7.30. Spr Leblanc had a rifle in his hand. He cocked his rifle two or 3 times easing spring. Pressed on the trigger the 1st time nothing happened and then he recocked the gun pressed on trigger for second time. Then the bullet cement. In front of Leblanc there was a wooden box about 2' to 2½ ft from him. The bullet passed thru the wooden box, then hitting the floor, it Then when it came up it hit a tin can and went through Spr. Beauchamp's leg. This is how it happened. Witness identifies accus as Spr. Leblanc. The room had a concrete floor. There were 4 or 5 lbs solds in the room I read the log orders because I read them in Sq ts mess. I only came to the Coy 2 days before the accident occurred. I came on 28 Oct. I was on guard on 29. Coy. orders are posted in the Kitchen + mens mess at this time

To Adj Offr.

I have been in army since 6 June 71. I was in the room, sitting beside Spr. Leblanc when this happened. Leblanc had the rifle pointed at the floor. The floor was cement reinforced by sand + rock & was as hard as this — indicating the floor — it was so hard that the bullet would not penetrate. The floor of this room is insulation cement. The bullet made a white mark on floor indicating cement. I could not prove that it was cement

To Court.

Spr. Beauchamp was in same room. Spr. was walking from the corner to the stove. Spr. Beauchamp was about 15 to 18 ft from Leblanc Everyone was at one end + Beauchamp was at the other end near the door to the stove.

RP 8 3161 Completed will

E28419 Desrosiers P.E. A Coy 3 Bn. R.C.I. sworn.

Through the interpreter

About 7.30, 30 Oct. - Spr. Leblanc was showing Spr. Fortier how the rifle was working. The 1st time he cocked the rifle & pulled the trigger nothing happen - the 2nd time was the same. The 3rd time was the same. There must have been a bullet in the barrel because it went off. It hit the wooden box then the floor, then a tin can, then hit Spr. Blanchard in the left leg. I took him to the MO. I was in the room all the time. It was a Belgian rifle. Identifies Ex Lib. A as the rifle. I can't say how many people were in room at time. The floor was like the tile floor of this room. I read orders in the Coy not every day but often. Witness shown P.C. I DO. I A Coy. #112 of 10 Sept the has not been seen. I do not recall. I then. I have seen orders that German rifles & ammunition were to be kept - every thing which belonged to Germany.

To Def'g. Offr.

I can't tell when I saw the orders about German weapons. I think that the orders were in Sept between 5 Sept & 40 Oct. & 4, or it might even have been before that. Spr. Leblanc eased things twice & pulled trigger & 3rd time he pulled the shot went off. There was no one in front of the rifle when Leblanc was just showing it. Later Fraser had passed in front about at the time the rifle went off.

To Court.

He passed about 7 or 8 ft from the rifle. The order that I saw dealt only with German weapons. Nothing about clothing.

was careful but there was an accident
He had the rifle pointed at the floor. He would not have pointed the gun up as there was someone sleeping upstairs.
R.P. 83(6) complied with

S/Sgt. D15810 Boisvert A. — R.C.E. M.E.
Ammunner of 3 Bn. R.C.E. Sworn. by the interpreter
I remember inspecting a Belgian rifle.
23731 — Ex. B. It was in good condition.
That was after the accident. There was nothing wrong with it. I checked the extractor firing pin, spring magazine, ejector. I checked it with the Canadian ammunition.
There is nothing wrong with it.

To Adj. Offr.
It is not a rifle which we see often. It is a tricky rifle.

To Court.
The magazine is always on this type rifle.
I saw the rifle unloaded after it accident happened. A round could be locked in the magazine. After taking 4 rounds + removing the safety catch one round might stay in the chamber without being known. If there was magazine
a round in the chamber you would see it with the bolt pulled back. Then if a bullet comes up on the platform on its way to the chamber it can be seen. The magazine is supposed to take ten rounds. The Canadian method of easing spring would unload this rifle with the bolt is harder to operate.
that is stiffer.
RP 83(6) complied with

#D117263 Cpl. Laurin E. — Orderly room Cpl.
"A" Coy 3 Bn. Sworn — states.
I recognize Coy Pt I DO #112 d. 13 Sept 44.
It was typed by me. It was posted on the notice board at the mens kitchen and on the board at the mens quarters near the orderly room. I personally posted the orders in these 2 places. - Submitted as exh. "A."

To Adj. Offr.

I do not remember specifically whether I posted this order. I do not post all orders but ~~on 9 Sept~~ but this order was post on 9th for 10th & I was alone on Sat 9th Sept. & must have posted it. I do not consider that I could have forgotten to post them.

To Ct.

The orders were not protected from the weather. We have had cases before orders were ~~[illegible]~~ down & ~~[illegible]~~ after they were put up.

RP 83(4) complied with

Cpl. Godin recalled. by court.

I had some rounds of the ammo. that goes with the rifle. Spr. LeBlanc knew more about the rifle than I did he had examined it & cleaned it once. He knew I had live rounds, and he could get them if he wanted them. I did not know that LeBlanc had any live rounds for the rifle.

Prosecution closes its case.

Adj. Offr. moves under D4 to dismiss on grounds that no prima facie case has been made out.

Prosecutor says. handling a loaded rifle in billets with men around - a strong rifle - a concrete floor is prima facie a case of negligence - on 2nd charge evidence shows printing & publishing of orders.

Adj. Offr. in reply refers to AA sec 40 - the Adj. Offr. in reply refers to AA sec 40 - the amendment.

D5. 1st witness for accus.

C425339 Spr. Leblanc P.F. A Coy 3 Bn. R.C.R. Sworn. States.

On 30 oct 44 about 1930 I was sitting on a bed showing Spr. Fortier how the Belgian rifle "Ex. B" was working. The rifle was in the rifle rack when I took it + we had brought some bullets from a German pyet box. We had them in the hut with the rifle, + that night I was showing my friend how the rifle was working. I had fired it before. I had loaded the rifle + unloaded it + I was practically certain that no bullet was left in the magazine. I cocked the rifle once released springs, I fired + nothing happened. I cocked it again and fired + nothing happened. I cocked it a 3rd time fired it + it went off. I had it pointed at the floor + the bullet went off + hit a wooden box on floor, but the floor + went through a tin can + hit Beauchamp on the leg. After that Beauchamp took a few steps + said you shot me. He lifted his pants + I noticed a wound on his leg just above the knee. Cpl. Godin said "I never should have got that rifle here" + he went out + threw the bullets away. I had never been told not to handle the rifle by anyone. I took every precaution when handling the rifle I feel I was not negligent. I have always kept my own rifle in my room and have never been forbidden to handle my own rifle in my room.

To the Prosecutor -

I never handled the Belgian rifle in front of anyone in authority to tell me not to handle it. Sgt. Knew we had it except who.

it & it was always kept in the rack where anyone could see it. I have fired this rifle before. once when we found it & later one afternoon at the rifle ranges. I knew how it worked. I kept my own rifle loaded in the room. Sgt Michaud saw me handle the rifle & didn't say anything to me.

To the Court.

~~In this tent~~ everyone keep In my billets everyone keeps his magazine charged & on his rifle. When cleaning rifles we unload our rifles inside by easing springs. ~~Before the Belgian rifle was unloaded~~ by J.A. ~~I pressed the trigger each~~ I did ease & spring completely before pulling the trigger the first time. working the bolt 5 or 6 times. While easing springs 3 bullets flew out on floor. I had put in 3 or 4 bullets when I loaded it. There might have been a bullet left in from the ranges ~~that~~ the day before.

RP 83(a) complied with Prosec. sums up.

use of Belgian rifles in billets where there are men, not having counted the bullets was negligence. Under these circumstances the negligence was blame worthy Def'g Offr sums up.

Def'g Offr. refers to amend to 40.

J.A. Sums up.

(1) Explains to the ct its functions & that of the J.A.

(2) Explains the relations hip between the particulars of the charge & the offence itself and discusses

(3) Deals at length with the amendment to see 40 AA re neglect & the degree required to constitute an offence under this heading.

(4) Explains the onus that is on the prosecution & that accused not required to prove his innocence

(5) Deals with doctrine of reasonable doubt. Explains some & point out that if such doubt exists in mind of Ct. it must be resolved in favour of the accused.

(6) asks pres. - prosec & defy Off. if there are any other features of the case which they desire explained & they advise that there are not.

Blust
JA

The first charge is negligence

To handle a loaded rifle in closed billets when there are men around, is negligence

It is even more negligent to handle a rifle in billets when the floor is in concrete because even if the man knows that his rifle should point to the ground a concrete floor is still very dangerous for ricochets.

At last, if the rifle is a foreign one, and no special instructions have been given to the man who is handling it that is in itself a show of great negligence and accidents are bound to happen.

In our case, Spr Leblanc, the accused, did handle a foreign rifle loaded, in billets; there were 4 or 5 OR's in the room, the floor of which was of concrete

Spr Leblanc had never had instructions in the handling of a Belgian rifle which from the evidence is tricky. Further negligence was shown by Spr Leblanc when he did not do so, he was guilty of the 3 kinds of negligence I enumerated before and is therefore guilty of the first charge

(he did not count the cartridges he had on the way)

Was this negligence blameworthy? Yes. The wounding of Spr Beauchamp may not have been wilful, but the act of taking a foreign rifle, handling it in a loaded billet while it was loading, was a wilful act. He was not forced to do that by anyone, he did it of his own free will. Therefore the negligence was wilful & blameworthy.

FIRST WITNESS FOR PROSECUTION

D15754 CSM. OUIMET, W. CSM "A" Coy 3 Bn RCE, having been duly sworn states:

"On 30 Oct 44 at about 1930 hrs, I was in the Serjeants' Mess, when a Sapper whose face or name I do not remember came into the room and told me that D15655 Spr BEAUCHAMP, C, had been shot in the leg. I rushed over to the Medical Orderly's room, and found that Spr COUTURE, C was giving him first aid. I asked Spr BEAUCHAMP, C. what had happened; he said he had been shot in the leg but did not know how it had happened. I then sent for a transport and took him down to 12 Can Gen Hospital in BRUGGE."

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

The above evidence was read back to the witness.

THIRD WITNESS FOR PROSECUTION

D15504 Spr FORTIER, A. having been duly sworn states:

"On 30 Oct 44, between 1900 hrs and 1930 hrs I was sitting on a bed with spr LEBLANC, P.E. and Spr DESROSIERS, P.E. I was on Spr LEBLANC's left and Spr DESROSIERS was on his right. Spr LEBLANC had a Belgian rifle in his hands; he eased springs; there was ammunition in the magazine and the rounds came out. When there were no more rounds coming out, he pressed the trigger, but nothing happened. He eased springs again and again pressed the trigger; but this time the rifle fired. The bullet went through a wooden box, hit the concrete floor and bounced through a tin box and hit Spr BEAUCHAMP, C in the leg as he was walking in front of the tin box."

"On 30 oct 44 between 1900 hrs and 1930 hrs, I was sitting on a bed with spr LEBLANC and Spr FORTIER, A. I was on Spr LEBLANC's right and he was in the center. Spr LEBLANC was showing Spr FORTIER how a Belgian rifle worked. He eased springs and pressed the trigger and nothing happened. He did it again and still nothing happened. The third time, he cocked it again and this time, it went off. The bullet went through a wooden box, hit the concrete floor and made a ricochet through a tin box and hit Spr BEAUCHAMP in the leg. Cross-examined by accused.

Q1:- Did you test it with ammunition?

A1:- Yes, I did, and it worked very well.

Q2:- Is there a possibility that after the bullets had been extracted and the trigger pressed, no action occurred and that on cocking the action once more and pressing the trigger that the bullet was fired?.

A2:- The only explanation I have for this, is that in extracting say three or four bullets that the safety catch might accidentally have been applied thus leaving one bullet in the magazine. After cocking the bolt again twice, the safety catch might have been released and the bullet fired after the second time it was cocked.

The above statement was read back to the witness.

being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor.

G 17213 Sgt Pike S. B.

I am serving Pte Sgt of C.Y.R. at all times material hereto. On night of 5 Mar 43 I returned from looking for a broken down M/C at about 2230 hrs; outside of Yorkhill Transit Camp. I went inside to await for LAD staff to return & pick up broken down M.C. Shortly after I heard an M/C going by. I then went out to find out if it was the M/C I had been looking for. It was & I then guided him back to billets and did not come out again till next morning. When I came out I noticed that my M/C C45 46193 was gone. On way back in I was met by Pt Cook & then told me that my M/C had been taken. My M/C contained W.D petrol & pressing the Examiner [illegible] accused was present in court. I did not give either of them permission to use my M/C the night of 5/6 Mar 43.

Cross examined by defence.

Question: are vehicles not in authorised car parks immobilized.

J. H. Stobbart Pte

Answer - They should be if my card is on.

2nd Question - How long have you been an N.C.O. in the Transport Section?

Answer - Over 2 years, sir.

3rd Question - Have both the accused been drivers during that time?

answer - Yes, sir.

4th Question - Have they performed their duties efficiently?

answer - They have.

1st Question by Court. - Were both accused staying at Yorkhill Camp that night?

answer - Yes, sir.

2 Question - Was there a sentry near spot you parked M/C?

answer - Yes, about 2 yards away.

3rd Question - Was sentry on all night?

answer - I do not know.

2nd Witness for Prosecution. - Lt. Cmdr J. T. having been duly sworn is examined by prosecutor

I am Lt Cmdr J. T. Dpt Offr of C.N.R.

On night of 5/6 Nov we were stationed in Yorkhill Transit Camp, Glasgow. About 0745 hrs I was awakened by civilian police ~~told~~ ~~that~~ and as a result I went out to main dormitory where men were sleeping & found that the police had in custody the accused, whom I recognise now. I then went down to Anderson St Police Station where the police Inspector gave me the numbers of the M/Cs C 4598868 and C 4586103 on charge to the Transport Offr. and Transport Dpt respectively

P.W. Shelton

The accused were then cross examined by Inspector Campbell and he learned the accused were to my custody. I took the accused to a Casualty Clearing Hospital and had their wounds dressed & then returned to Transit Camp and sent accused to dormitory. On arrival at Camp I placed accused under close arrest. The damaged M/C's contained A.P. petrol. I did not give permission to either accused to use either M/C on night of 5/6 Mar 43. I visited scene of accident that night. It was approximately two miles from the Transit Camp. From Yorkhill Camp the ground is such that you could coast a vehicle down to main road and along road to a bridge over Clyde River where there was a slight rise, from there the ground was level up to scene of accident. A M/C could not be coasted from the Camp to scene of accident. A M/C could be pushed that distance. This would be difficult and would take a considerable time.

1st Question by Court.
- When did you first see the M/C.'s?

Answer. - Next morning at Transit Camp.

2 Question
- What was damage?

answer. M/C C4598868 had front wheel bent under and frame twisted, forks broken and other damage. M/C C458 had forks bent and headlight torn away. This M/C could be driven.

3rd Question
Was there petrol in these M/C?

Answer - I do not know.

Prosecutor's closing address.

I quote an extract from C.R.O. 2918 entitled "Discipline - Misuse of W.D. Vehicle." and refer to M.T. Drivers Regs. - auth. by C.R.O 2060 as amended by C.R.O 2172 & 2183 & 2701

The gist of this being that if a man is found guilty of stealing a vehicle he can be charged with stealing W.D. petrol.

The fact that the barrier was considerable distance from the staging camp and the consequent damage to the machines & the men precludes the theory that the M/C could have been pitched or coasting when they struck the barrier.

ST.

WILLIAM HORN, (69), Watchman, 59 Byres Road, Glasgow.

STATES:

I am employed as a Watchman by A & J. Inglis, Shipbuilders, Ferry Road, Glasgow and I reside at the above address. About 1.30 a.m. on Saturday, 6th March, 1943, I was in the gatehouse of the shipyard in Ferry Road, when I heard a crash.

After listening for a moment or two I went outside on to Ferry Road and I heard the sound of voices coming from the direction of the River Clyde which is situated on the opposite side of Ferry Road directly opposite the gatehouse.

I had a torch and on going in the direction of the voices I saw three soldiers struggling with two motor cycles on the south footway which is next to the river just where Ferry Road takes a turn at right angles. I saw that two of the soldiers appeared to be injured, one of them being bleeding from the hands and head while the other had a cut forehead.

The third soldier appeared to be uninjured and on speaking to the two soldiers who were injured I saw that they were very much the worse of drink, particularly the one with the injured head and hands who appeared to be dazed and did not know where he was or what had happened.

I saw two Military Motor Cycles on the footway the front wheel of one of them being through the barricade which divides the footway from the river, while the other was lying broadside on the footway and both appeared to be extensively damaged.

I asked the two injured soldiers to come into the gatehouse where I would give them medical aid and they came in but they started an argument in the gatehouse between themselves and went out without receiving attention. The other soldier disappeared while the two injured soldiers were in the gatehouse.

After the men went out I telephoned the Marine Police Office and a short time later the Police arrived but by that time the two injured soldiers had also disappeared leaving the motor cycles at the locus. I think I could identify the soldiers but I do not know what Regiment they are in.

A short time after the Police left, they returned with two soldiers in a van and I identified them as the two soldiers I had previously seen and who had come into the gatehouse.

It was very dark at the time I heard the crash and only a moment or two elapsed from the time I heard the crash until I went out.

The locus of the incident is some considerable distance from any habitation and I am quite satisfied that the men I saw are the men who were in charge of the motor cycles when the accident occurred.

I saw that the rear light of one of the cycles was illuminated but they had no other lights showing.

SP.

HECTOR HOSE, No. 252 Constable, Marine Division, City of Glasgow Police.

STATES:

I am 36 years of age and have 14 years police service.

About 1.45 a.m. on Saturday, 6th March, 1943, I was on duty in the Marine Police Office when I received instructions from Inspector Campbell, Officer on Duty, to go to Ferry Road as he had received information from the Night Watchman at Messrs. Inglis's Yard, Ferry Road, that a short time previously, two soldiers on motor cycles had collided with a barricade in Ferry Road, and that after the collision they had left the machines lying and had gone away, both were alleged to be under the influence of drink.

In company with William Stewart, No. 232 Constable and Daniel McGinlay, P.S.M.367, I went to the locus in the Police Patrol van and found the two motor cycles lying on the south footway in Ferry Road about 40 yards from Govan Ferry. I found that two spars had been broken from the barricade on the north side of the River Clyde at the locus and both machines were considerably damaged at the front.

We saw Horn the watchman and he informed us that he had heard the crash about 1.30 a.m. and found the soldiers standing alongside the machines, both cut about the head and one of them had his trousers badly torn, they both appeared to him to be under the influence of drink. While Horn was telephoning the Marine Police Office both men made off northwards in Ferry Road and as he had heard them mention Yorkhill he thought they must have gone there.

On proceeding to Yorkhill Drill Hall we found after some delay the accused Patrick Joseph Le Blanc (26), 18136, and Thomas Horsburgh Forret (23) G 32211, both of Carleton and York Regiment, Canada, at the wash-hand basins washing cuts about their heads, one of the men Forret had an extensive tear to his right trouser leg. On questioning them regarding their injuries they said that they had been in a fight, and one of them claimed to have been struck by a bottle. They denied all knowledge of the motor cycles, but finally the accused Le Blanc said that they might as well admit that they had been riding the cycles and had been involved in an accident. Forret however denied all knowledge of this, saying that if it were true he must have been very drunk as he had no recollection of it. Both men smelt strongly of drink.

After some delay, Captain Charles Brent and Lieutenant James Crook were found and informed of the occurrence and that the two men were being conveyed to the Marine Police Office on a charge of being under the influence of drink while riding motor cycles. When they were charged and cautioned Le Blanc replied, "Yes it was us". Forret replied, "I can't remember anything". They were first of all taken to Inglis's Yard where they were identified by the watchman. It was quite obvious by the smell of their breath that they had been drinking although the wash had sobered them up. Le Blanc was quite steady on his feet but Forret was staggering slightly and had to hold on to the wash-hand basin at the drill hall.

I was present when both men were examined by Dr. Black Assistant Medical Officer of the Glasgow Police, both men performed the tests satisfactorily, they were not certified. Prior to the examination both men had been charged and cautioned at the Bar but made no reply.

I am unable to say which vehicle caused the damage to the Clyde Trust property.

The/

Continued:

The men were taken to the Western Infirmary accompanied by Captain Brent and Lieut. Crook, where they were examined by Dr. Fraser who found La Blanc to be suffering from lacerations to the right frontal region and a cut on the right hand. Forret was suffering from lacerations to scalp, cut above left eye, and a cut on left thumb.

The men were taken charge of by the officers, the motor cycles Nos.C 4586103 and 4598868 were also handed over. The Clyde Trust Harbour Repair Office was informed of the damage by 186 Constable William McGill.

Plea of Mitigation in the case of G 53013 Pte Samuel Leblanc

G 53013 Pte. Leblanc S can neither read nor write & although since 1942 he has endeavored to be sent on a course for illiterates, he claims that this has always been denied him & as a result, his service in the army has not been as happy as it might have been.

He states that he has a girl in London, the mother of his 4 months old child, whom he had not seen in nearly three months time & being anxious about their welfare, in order to see them, he went absent without leave.

He claims that he did not realize the gravity of absenting himself without leave at this time as it was his understanding of a remark passed by an officer of 21 Bn 2 CBRG, Ordnance personnel were in no great demand as reinforcements.

In view of the man's illiteracy plus the fact that his mental processes function at a lower level than normal, it is respectfully recommended that favorable consideration be given to these factors when deciding sentence

A3165 Sgt. McGUIRE H.A. having been duly sworn & having identified the accused states

On the morning of 22nd November at 0740 hrs I mustered a draft at 46 coy 13 Bn. leaving for the front The accused was absent from this parade; he failed to answer his name When I finished calling the roll I made a search personally thro' the Barracks & found the accused in his room. I ordered him on parade He said he wanted to go sick I told him he was only going to 46 and his coy. where he could get medical attention. He failed to comply. I once again ordered him, again he failed to comply. I placed him close arrest and took him to the guard room.

The accused was warned at 1330 hrs 21 Nov. 44 that he was to parade for draft at 0740 hrs the 22nd Nov. He was warned in English by me did warned i Frents Sgt Codin who was himself on draft.

I recognise this as the draft waring of 28 I read out. The accused heard & understood the warning

I've sumitted a cert. true copy of signatures on which the accused's signature appears. it is a draft acknowledgment signed by accused, Exhibit 'B'
The N.C.'s parade was held immediately after the warning. The procedure carried out on the N.C.'s parade. Every man had a skin & short from inspection
Any men who did not pysha himself medically fit to proceed fwd I had fall out & paraded them to the N.C. Personally
I'm not sure whether or not the accused was on this parade or not. I do not recall any complaint made by the accused during that day in question.
If the accused had been pronounced unfit for draft the N.C. would have struck his name off the draft immediately this man to the best of my knowledge was fit to go.

The next morning he said he was going on sick parade and no further statement as to what his ailment was. Sgt Godin was present on sick parade just like the rest.

Submission by the defence

Pros & Court the chg against the accused is as your honor that the accused refused to obey a command by Sgt M^a Cure & the body of the chg it states that the accused refused to do so ~~said~~ the saying he would not go on draft as he was going on sick parade or words to that effect. And then the last part says that he was warned again & that he refused to do so. In the Pros evidence ~~then~~ the chg is not substantiated. The witness admitted that the accused never refused to go on the draft parade but rather asked to be paraded to the M.O. They have intimated that not proven that the accused might have had a medical examination the day before. Anything may happen in say 15 hrs. The accused might be dead, for that matter and the Sgt W Evans Statement that he had trouble previously with other reinforcements does not excuse him for performing his duties in connection with the accused in the manner which he did.

I submit that prima facie case has not been proven that the charge should be dismissed.

① The accused wishes to give evidence by a statement under oath. I have been duly sworn states.

After I was warned for draft on 21 Nov 41 I fell out & went into the billets. Then they read us the laws for those that were running away from draft. Sgt Bali read them in French & I understood them well. After this we went to the M.O. I did not see the doctor but we were inspected by the orderly. After this I went back to my room & then was a P.M. Parade. Night same & we were C.B. I went to see my friends in neighbouring rooms in camp. After this I went down stairs & on falling I hurt my hand. — how badly I did not know at the time & that night my hand did not hurt me too much & I did not think it would be serious enough to keep me off the draft. I told the Sgt about this & he said its O.K. & that there is much to be worried about.

Q I went to bed & the next morning I did not hear reveille, I was awakened I put on my boots & tunic because my hand was swollen I could not tie my boots. Sgt McGuire came in & told me to get dressed. After I was dressed he told me to put on my iqupment, I showed him my hand and told him I would like to go the M.O. before I went on parade. The Sgt told me it is an order to get on parade. I told him that I did not refuse the order but that I would like to see the M.O. Sgt McGuire asked me why I did not want to go on parade I showed him my hand. He second time he asked me if I was refusing the order. I repeated the same thing I was almost naked & was not able to dress myself & could not go on parade. Pte Brandon was detailed by Sgt McGuire to escort me to the guard room. When I arrived there I told them I wanted to see the doctor, did not see

(3) Cine until the day after. When he looked at my hand - I was evacuated right away I went to the hospital with 2 escorts & spent about 7 weeks there with both escorts. I had an Xray & my hand in a cast. The doctors sent me back here with a recomendation for a reboard for wounds which I received in Italy about 10 months ago. I'm still under treatment over here. I ask about the reboard and I'm sure my reboard come to the camp. When I was escorted to the guard room - My tunic was unbutton, my boots unlaced. the left side of my braces were not attached & I had my anklets in my hand.

I showed my hand to the Cpl. Sgt Wm & Pte Beaudoin that morn. The Cpl. I believe is back in Canada now. During that day I could not have lifted my rifle.

Q By Pro. What time did you start yourself

A About 2030 hrs, but I'm not sure

Q Did you get the M.C. that night

A No because I thought it was not bad enough & that he kept morning it would be o.k

Q About what time did you wake up the next morning

A I do not know exactly it must have been around 0800 hrs.

Q Do you always sleep in until 0800 hrs

A I ~~was awakened about~~ 0745 hrs I was starting to get up when Sgt McGuire came in & ordered me to get on Parade.

Q Did you know what time your parade was that morning

A I could not say yes or no but I believe it to have been about 0830 hrs.

Q Do you remember signing a paper with a draft wording on it

A I do not remember so I could not say no.

Q Did you ask anyone to wake you up in time

A No because there was supposed to be one bottle in the room.

Q Did the rest sleep in that morning

A: The majority did not have their breakfast but they were on parade

Q Why did you not go on the pick parade that morning

A Because when I woke up the first N.C.O. I saw was Sgt McGuire & I asked him to go on parade

Q How did you ask Sgt McGuire to go on pick parade

(5) A: There was someone there who went on draft that translated this request for me.

Re: by the Court

Q Did anyone go around the room to wake you up.

A. No but after what I was told by those in the room the Cpl told Sgt Codie not to wake me because my hand was broke.

Q. What time was Reveille

A. No definite time just for parade

Q What time was breakfast

A at 0700 hrs

Q What time was sick parade

The accused answered in French that he did not refuse to go on parade but that he would like to see the M.O. I'm not a doctor but his hand was swollen so that he could not lace his boots

The Sgt then told me to escort the prisoner. I did not understand the conversation which took place between the sgt & accused after he ordered the accused to get on parade.

RP83B complied with.

President and members of the prosecution in presenting their case against PC Leblanc, did nothing whatsoever to substantiate this charge.
This charge was laid under Sec 9 (2) N.D.A. it is required that the exact wording alleged to have been used by accused must be shown in the charge.
The charge is that "he refused to obey by saying he would not go on draft." This was never reported by Sgt Maguire in his evidence, the onus was on the prosecution to establish a prima facie case on this charge which they are admitting failed to do. The evidence which has been heard for the defence proves the following points. First that the accused was physically unable to obey the alleged command. Secondly he did not refuse to obey it. Thirdly that he had of wanted to avoid going on draft, and that was his intention he simply had to complain of his old wound which he did not do. Sgt. Maguire did nothing whatsoever to investigate the request of the accused, and from general practice in the army the first question a soldier is asked, when he requests to be paraded sick is "What is wrong with you"
The evidence produced suggests the statement of the accused that Sgt Maguire knew that he had an ingrown nail, yet instead of taking the soldier to the M.O. which he stated was too much of a bother he escorts him to the Guard house where he is subsequently expelled from the R.C.A.F. The fact that the Sgt and previous trouble with other soldiers on draft board matters should not have been held against the accused, and by the facts actions this innocent man has been held under close arrest since the 22nd of Nov.

11

1944. There is only one verdict that can be returned by the Court, and that is "not guilty"

Closing Address for Prosecution in the case of D 10576 Pte LeBlanc S.J.

Sirs

In summing up the evidence I wish to ask the court first to consider the actual charge against the accused.

The accused is charged with "disobeying a lawful command given by his superior officer". Keeping this in mind I feel that the evidence is quite conclusive. The fact that the accused did not actually say - "No I won't go because I want to go sick" does not disprove the charge. The words in the charge are not in quotation marks, simply words to that effect. In this case not only was there verbal defiance but more important is the actual non compliance of the order. When he was given the order he just remained on his bed & stated bluntly that he was going sick.

There is no denial of the fact that the order was given and that it was not complied with but there is an attempt made to justify the action. ~~At~~ I should like to point out that that there is no dispute as to whether or not the accused should have gone on draft. The accused is charged with disobeying a command & nothing else.

Pte Beaudoin who was in the hut with the accused brings out the fact that there was about half an hour's time between the time that the Sgt came in & the time that he saw the accused sitting on the bed. Now the accused was dressed as far as he could be when the Sgt came in - yet the accused made no effort to get on with parade but simply waited for the draft parade to go. When Sgt Maguire ordered him to get on parade he ~~for~~ still remained sitting on his bed. I feel certain that the Sgt would not send a man with a broken hand on draft if he was aware of the fact. Had the accused gone on sick parade there would have been no necessity for him to be in that parade. Had he made any effort at all that morning ~~probably~~ this would all have been avoided but instead he waited until the last minute & then bluntly refused to go on parade. I feel that there can be no doubt but that the accused is guilty of the charge as laid although the circumstances should be taken into consideration in determining the sentence respectfully submitted. A T Shannon

Plea in mitigation of sentence

The court has seen fit to find the accused guilty of the offence. This is the finding of the Court Gentlemen the accused has already spent no less than 87 days in arrest for the offence, he was discharged from hospital on the 7th of Jan, the charge sheet signed the 23rd day of Jan, and here it is the 17th of Feb. Is that not to be taken into account, his previous record as a soldier dates back to his enlistment in June 1916 the following month he came to England with the Regiment de C Canadiens, from there he went to R. 22nd Regt and landed in Italy route there on the 11th of July 1943. He was wounded after 11 months continous service and sent back to England, from there as medical evidence leads us to believe, he was rushed over here as an reinforcement before he was fully recovered. He is the type of a soldier who has earned for Canadian troops the praise they have been so generously given throughout the world. Are we going to see him punished further than the three months he has already lost in close arrest. ~~It is my duty to point out to the Court~~ The offence was simply a mistake on his part which might be entirely due to the fact he did not understand english, and I would like the Court to carefully reconsider all aspects of the case before they pass sentence on Pte L. J. he believe.
