The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol \rightarrow (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

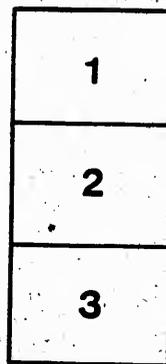

Archives of Ontario
Toronto

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

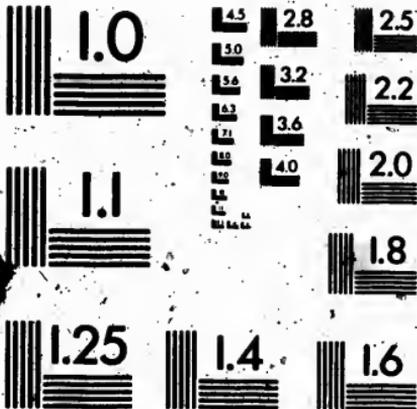

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole \rightarrow signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

THE RATIFICATION.

WHEREAS His Majesty, King George the Third, has been graciously pleased to issue his Royal Letters Patent, bearing date at Westminster, the twelfth day of May, in the forty-second year of his reign, in the words following :

GEORGE the Third, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great-Britain and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, to all to whom these presents shall come greeting :

WHEREAS we have declared our royal intention to establish, within our province of Nova-Scotia, in North America, a College for the education of youth in the principles of true religion, and for their instruction in the different branches of science and literature, which are taught at our Universities in this kingdom.

And Whereas the sum of four thousand pounds granted by our Parliament in that part of our united kingdom, called Great Britain, hath been applied in erecting a suitable building within the town of Windsor, in our said Province, on a piece of land which had been purchased by means of a grant of the General Assembly of our said Province for that purpose.

* And whereas the said building hath been fitted for the residence of professors and students, and an endowment of four hundred pounds, Currency, of that province (equal to three hundred and sixty pounds British sterling) per annum, hath been granted for the support thereof, by the said General Assembly.

And Whereas humble application hath been made to us by many of our loving subjects in our said Province, that we would be pleased to grant our ROYAL CHARTER for the more perfect establishment of the said College, and for incorporating the members thereof for the purposes aforesaid, and for such further endowment thereof as to us should seem meet.

We having taken the premises into our Royal Consideration, and duly weighing the great utility and importance of such an institution, are willing and desirous to condescend to their request : KNOW YE, therefore, that we, of our especial grace, certain knowledge, and mere motion, have willed, ordained and granted, and do by these presents for us, our heirs and successors, will, ordain and grant, that upon the said land, and in the building, or buildings so erected, or to be erected thereon at our town of Windsor, in our said Province of Nova Scotia, there shall be established from this time one College, the number of an University, for the education and instruction of youth and scholars, in arts and sciences, to continue for ever ; and to be called KING'S COLLEGE : and that our trusty and well-beloved Sir John Wentworth, Baronet, Lieutenant-Governor of our said Province, or the Governor, or the Lieutenant-Governor of our said Province for the time being ; the Right Reverend Father in God Charles Inglis, Bishop of the Diocese of Nova Scotia, or the Bishop of the said Diocese for the time being ; our trusty and well-beloved Samuel Salter Blowers, Chief Justice of our said Province of Nova-Scotia, or the Chief Justice of our said Province for the time being ; our trusty and well-beloved Alexander Croke, Judge of our Court of Vice Admiralty in Nova Scotia, or the Judge of our Court of Vice-Admiralty in our said Province for the time being ; our trusty and well-beloved Richard John Wink, act, Speaker of our House of Assembly, and Attorney-General of our said Province of Nova-Scotia, or the Speaker of our House of Assembly, and the Attorney-General for our said Province, severally, for the time being; our trusty and well-beloved James Stewart, Solicitor General for our said Province of Nova Scotia, or the Solicitor-General of our said Province, for the time being; our trusty and well-beloved Benning Wentworth, Secretary of our said Province of Nova-Scotia, or the Secretary of our said Province for the time being, together with such other person or persons as shall be elected in manner hereinafter mentioned, shall be GOVERNORS of the said College, and that the said College shall consist of one PRESIDENT, three or more FELLOWS and PROFESSORS, and twelve or more SCHOLARS, at such salaries, and subject to such provisions, regulations, limitations, rules, qualifications and restrictions, as shall hereafter be appointed by the statutes, rules, and ordinances of the said College, and until such statutes, rules and ordinances, shall have been framed, subject, in all respects, to the orders and directions, and eligible and removable at the pleasure of the said Governors, or of the major part of them. And that the said Governors, or the major part of them, shall have the power of electing the president of the said College, for the time being, to be a governor of the said College, and also of electing any other person or persons, not exceeding three in number (subject to such regulations as shall be appointed by the statutes, rules and ordinances, of the said College) to be a governor or governors of the said College.

And we do by these presents, for us, our heirs and successors, will, ordain and grant, that the said governors, president, and fellows, and their successors for ever, shall be one distinct and separate body politic and corporate, in deed and in name, by the name and style of the GOVERNORS, PRESIDENT and FELLOWS of KING'S COLLEGE at WINDSOR, in the Province of NOVA SCOTIA; and that by the same name, they shall have perpetual succession, and a common seal, and that they and their successors shall, from time to time, have full power to break, alter, make new, or change, such common seal, at their will and pleasure, and as shall be found expedient; and that by the same name, the said governors, president and fellows, and their successors, from time to time and at all times hereafter shall be a body politic and corporate, in deed and in law, and be able and capable to have, take, receive, purchase, acquire, hold, possess, enjoy, and retain; and we do hereby for us, our heirs and successors, give and grant full authority, and free licence to them and their successors by the name aforesaid, to have, take, receive, purchase, acquire, hold, possess, enjoy and retain, to and for the use of the said College, notwithstanding any statutes or statute of mortmain, any manors, rebovies, advowsons, messuages, lands, tenements, rents, and hereditaments of what kind, nature or quality soever, so long as that the same do not exceed in yearly value the sum of six thousand pounds above all charges: and moreover, to take, purchase, acquire, have, hold, enjoy, receive, possess and retain, notwithstanding any such statute, or statutes, to the contrary, all or any goods, chattels, charitable and other contributions, gifts and benefactions whatsoever: and that the said governors, president, and fellows, and their successors, by the same name, shall and may be able and capable in law, to sue and be sued, implead and be impleaded, answer and be answered, in all or any court, or courts of record or places of judicature within our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and our said province of Nova Scotia, and other our dominions, and in all and singular actions, causes, pleas, suits, matters, ters and demands whatsoever, of what kind and nature or sort soever, in as large, ample, and beneficial manner and form, as any other body politic and corporate, or any other, our liege subjects, being persons able and capable in law, may or can have, take, purchase receive, hold, possess, enjoy, retain, sue, implead or answer, or be sued, impleaded, or answered in any manner whatsoever.

And we do by these presents, for us, our heirs and successors, will, ordain and grant, that the Governors of the said College or the major part of them, shall have power and authority to frame and make STATUTES, RULES, and ORDINANCES, touching and concerning the good government of the said College, the performance of divine service therein, the studies, lectures, exercises, degrees in arts and faculties, and all matters regarding the same; the election, qualification and residence, of the president, fellows, and scholars, the management of the revenues and property of the said College, the salaries, stipends; and provision for the president, fellows, scholars and officers of the said College, and also touching and concerning any other matter or thing which to them shall seem good, fit, useful, and agreeable to this our Charter: and also from time to time, to revoke, augment, or alter all, every or any of the said statutes, rules, and ordinances, as to them or the major part of them, shall seem meet and expedient. Provided, that the said statutes, rules and ordinances, or any of them, shall not be repugnant to the laws and statutes of this our realm, and of our said Province of Nova-Scotia; provided also, that the said statutes, rules, and ordinances, or any revocation, augmentation, or alteration thereof, be subject to the approbation of the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, for the time being, and shall be forthwith transmitted to the said Lord Archbishop, for that purpose; and that in case the said Lord Archbishop shall signify, in writing, his disapprobation thereof, within three years of the time of their being so made and framed, or of their being so revoked, augmented, or altered, the same or such part thereof, as shall be so disapproved by the said Lord Archbishop, shall, from the time of such disapprobation being made known be utterly void and of no effect, but otherwise shall be and remain in full force and virtue.

And we do hereby for us, our heirs and successors, charge and command that the statutes, rules and ordinances, aforesaid, subject to the said provisions, shall be strictly and inviolably observed, kept and performed, from time to time, so long as they shall respectively remain, in full vigour and effect, under the penalties to be thereby, or therein, inflicted or contained.

And we do by these presents for us our heirs and successors, will, order, direct, and appoint that the said Lord Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, shall be PATRON of the said College, and the Bishop of Nova-Scotia for the time being, shall be VISITOR of the said College.

And we do further will, ordain and grant, that the said College shall be deemed and taken to be an UNIVERSITY, and shall have and enjoy all such and the like privileges as are enjoyed by our Universities in our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, as far as the same are capable of being had and enjoyed, by virtue of these our Letters Patent. And that the students in the said College shall have liberty and faculty of taking the degrees of Bachelor, Master, and Doctor in the several arts and faculties at the appointed times: and shall have liberty within themselves of performing all scholastic exercises for the conferring such degrees in such manner as shall be directed by the statutes, rules, and ordinances of the said College.

And

THE RATIFICATION.

And We will, and by these presents for us, our heirs and successors, do grant and declare, that these our Letters Patent, or the enrolment or exemptions thereof, shall and may be good, firm, valid, sufficient and effectual in the law, according to the true intent and meaning of the same, and shall be taken, construed and adjudged, in the most favourable and beneficial sense for the best advantage of the said Governours, President and Fellows, of the said College at Windsor aforesaid, as well in all our Courts of Record as elsewhere, and by all and singular Judges, Justices, Officers, Ministers, and other subjects whatsoever, of us, our heirs and successors, any mis-recital, non-recital, omission, imperfection, defect, matter, cause or thing, whatsoever, to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding; without fine or fee, great or small, to be for the same in any manner rendered, done or paid to us in our Exchequer, or elsewhere to our use.

And lastly, we do hereby promise and declare for us, our heirs and successors, that we and they shall and will, at all times hereafter, give and grant to the aforesaid governours, president and fellows, and their successors, such other reasonable powers and authorities, as may be necessary for the government of the said College and the more effectual execution of the Premises.

In WITNESS whereof, we have caused these our Letters to be made Patent.—Witness ourself at Westminster, the twelfth day of May, in the forty-second year of our reign.

WE, Sir JOHN WENTWORTH, Baronet, Lieutenant-Governor of the Province of Nova-Scotia; the Right Reverend Father in God, CHARLES INGLIS, Bishop of the Diocese of Nova-Scotia; SAMPSON SALTER BLOWERS, Chief Justice of the said Province; ALEXANDER CROKE, Judge of the Court of Vice-Admiralty in the said Province; RICHARD JOHN UNIACKE, Speaker of the House of Assembly, and Attorney-General of the said Province; JAMES STEWART, Solicitor-General of the said Province; and BENNING WENTWORTH, Secretary of the said Province; being the Governours appointed by his Majesty, in the said Charter, or the major part of them, in virtue of the power and authority so vested in us, for the good government of the said College and University, and for other good, fit, and useful purposes, agreeable to the said Charter, have framed and made, and do hereby enact, establish, and promulgate, the Statutes, Rules and Ordinances, hereafter following; and we do hereby, for us, and our Successors, order, direct, and appoint, that they shall henceforth be diligently and literally observed, kept, and performed, by all persons whom they shall concern, without subterfuge, or evasion, and according to their true intent and meaning, so long as they shall respectively remain in full vigor, and effect. IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereunto affixed our Seals and Signatures, this Eighteenth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and three.

OF THE
UNIVERSITY OF KING'S COLLEGE, AT WINDSOR,
IN THE PROVINCE OF NOVA-SCOTIA.

BOOK I. OF THE COLLEGE.
OF PERSONS.

Title I. Of the Governors.

§ 1. The Governor, or Lieutenant-Governor, of the Province of Nova-Scotia, for the time being; the Bishop of the Diocese of Nova-Scotia, for the time being; the Chief Justice of the said Province, for the time being; the Judge of the Court of Vice-Admiralty, in the said Province, for the time being; the Speaker of the House of Assembly, and the Attorney-General for the said Province, severally, for the time being; the Solicitor-General of the said Province, for the time being; the Secretary of the said Province, for the time being; together with such other person, or persons, as shall be elected in manner herein after mentioned, are Governors of the College.

§ 2. The Governors, or the major part of them, have the power of electing the President of the College: for the time being, to be a Governor of the College, and also of electing any other person, or persons, not exceeding three in number, (subject to such regulations as shall be appointed by the Statutes, Rules, and Ordinances of the College) to be a Governor, or Governors, of the College.

§ 3. The Governors, or the major part of them, have power and authority to frame and make Statutes, Rules and Ordinances, touching and concerning the good government of the College; the performance of divine service therein, the studies, lectures, exercises, degrees in arts, and faculties, and all matters regarding the same; the election, tion, qualification, and residence of the President, Fellows, and Scholars, the management of the revenues and property of the College, the Salaries, Stipends, and provision for the President, Fellows, Scholars, and Officers of the College, and also touching and concerning any other matter or thing, which to them shall seem good, fit, useful, and agreeable to his Majesty's Charter; and also from time to time, to revoke, augment, or alter all, every, or any, of the said Statutes, Rules and Ordinances, as to them, or the major part of them shall seem meet and expedient. Provided that the said Statutes, Rules, and Ordinances or any of them shall not be repugnant to the Laws and Statutes of the Realm, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and of the Province of Nova Scotia. Provided also that the said Statutes, Rules, and Ordinances, or any revocation, augmentation, or alteration thereof, be subject to the approbation of the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, for the time being; and shall be forthwith transmitted to the said Lord Archbishop for that purpose; and that in case the said Lord Archbishop shall signify in writing his disapprobation thereof, within three years of the time of their being so made and framed, or of their being so revoked, augmented, or altered, the same, or such part thereof, as shall be so signify proved by the said Lord Archbishop, shall, from the time of such disapprobation being made known, be utterly void and of no effect, but otherwise shall be and remain in full force and virtue.

§ 4. The President, Professors and Fellows, Scholars, Librarian, Steward, and all other Officers, and Servants, of the College, whenever and as often as any vacancy shall happen, unless where it shall be otherwise provided by the Statutes, shall be elected and appointed by the Governors, or the major part of them.

§ 5. The Governors, or the major part of them, as Trustees, shall have the sole disposal and management of the funds of the College, of the buildings, and of all other property belonging to it, whether fixed or moveable; and shall have the sole power of affixing the College seal to any paper, or instrument whatever; by which any property shall be transferred, or acquired.

§ 6. They shall have a general superintendance over all the affairs of the College, and over the conduct of the President, Professors and Fellows, Scholars, and all other Members.

§ 7. They shall have power and authority, both originally, and upon appeal, to suspend, to deprive and to remove from their offices, or to expell, the President, the Professors, and Fellows, the Scholars, and all other Officers, and Members of the University and College, according to their discretion, in the cases prescribed by the Statutes for gross neglect of duty, for legal crimes, and great enormities, and upon other just occasions.

§ 8. In order the better to enable them to carry into effect the powers aforesaid, they shall be authorised and impowered, at their annual or any other meetings, to summon before them the President, the Professors, and Fellows, the Scholars, and all other Members of the University or College, and all other persons belonging to the same, and to examine them upon their oaths, which they are hereby authorised to administer, or otherwise touching all matters whatsoever, relating to the University or College, or any of its Officers, or Members.

§ 9. They shall hold an annual meeting, at the College at Windsor, upon the Monday pre-

OF THE COLLEGE.—OF PERSONS.

preceding the third Thursday in September, which shall be continued, by adjournments, for so many days as the business to be done may require.

§ 10. At their annual, and any other meetings which they may think proper to hold at Windsor, they shall be entitled to the free use of the Hall, the Common Room, the Library, and all other public rooms, buildings, or gardens, belonging to the College; and they shall be supplied with dinners, and other meals, with wine, and other necessaries, according to their own choice, and at their own expence, by the Steward, and shall be waited upon, and attended, by the College Servants.

Title 2. Of the Patron.

§ 1. The Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, for the time being, is Patron of the College.

§ 2. All Statutes, Rules, and Ordinances, framed and made by the Governors, and all revocations, augmentations, or alterations thereof are subject to the approbation of the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, for the time being, in the manner before declared.

Title 3. Of the Visitor.

§ 1. The Bishop of Nova Scotia, for the time being, is Visitor of the College.

§ 2. It is the office of the Visitor to take care that the Statutes be observed, to enquire into all irregularities that may arise, to inspect the conduct of the President, the Professors and Fellows, the Scholars, and all other Members of the College; more particularly in what concerns their religious principles, and behaviour, to admonish offenders, to reform abuses, and to punish offences according to the tenor of the Statutes. Provided always, that he shall not suspend, or remove from any place, or office of emolument, banish for a longer time than two terms, expell, or totally deprive of his degree, any Member of the University, or appoint to any office, or place, within the University or College, without the consent, and concurrence, of the Governours, or the major part of them.

§ 3. In order the better to enable him to carry into effect the powers aforesaid, he shall be authorized and empowered to summon before him the President, the Professors and Fellows, the Scholars, and all other members of the University or College, and all other persons belonging to the same, and to examine them upon their oaths, which they are hereby authorized to administer, or otherwise touching all matters whatsoever, relating to the University and College, or any of its Officers or Members.

Title 4. Of the College.

§ 1. The College consists of one President, three or more Fellows, and Professors, and twelve or more Scholars. It is likewise necessary to the establishment that there should be a Vice-President or Dean, a Treasurer, Tutors, a Bursar, Proctors, a Chaplain, and a Librarian, besides a Steward, and other inferior Officers, and Servants. There may also be Members who receive no salary, or emolument from the College.

Title.

Title 5. Of the Internal Government of the College.

§ 1. The immediate government of the College shall be vested in the President and all the Fellows, who shall hold Meetings, for that purpose, as often as there may be occasion, at which every question shall be determined, by the majority of votes, and in case of an equality of votes, the President shall have the casting voice. But nothing agreed upon shall be valid without the consent of the President.

§ 2. All College Meetings shall be convened by the President, whenever he may think proper.

§ 3. The President shall convoke a College Meeting, within one week after a request in writing to that effect, signed by one of the Fellows, shall have been delivered to him.

§ 4. Nothing transacted at any meeting shall be valid unless notice of time and place, and of the subjects proposed to be discussed, shall have been given, at least one week before the meeting, to each individual Fellow, nor shall any meeting be valid which shall be held in vacation time; unless, in either case, all the Fellows shall be present at such Meeting.

§ 5. But, after notice as aforesaid, no transaction of any meeting held in term time shall be invalid on account of the absence of any Fellow, provided there be present a majority of the whole number, including the President.

§ 6. At such Meetings, the President, and the major part of the Fellows, shall have power to make and establish temporary Rules, Orders, and Regulations, not contrary to the Statutes, whenever it shall be necessary, or expedient, for the better carrying the Statutes into effect, or in cases for which no provision is made.

§ 7. At those Meetings all other affairs of the College shall be transacted, whether relating to morals, learning, the good government and economy of the house, or the election, or removing of officers, and servants, in so far as any such matters are intrusted by the Statutes to the management of the President and Fellows.

§ 8. The President, and Fellows, shall have no power to dispose of the property of the College, either by Lease, or otherwise, or to affix the College Seal to any paper, or instrument whatever for that purpose.

§ 9. All Rules, Orders, Regulations, Elections, and Appointments, made by the President and Fellows, and all regular proceedings at the College Meetings, shall be communicated and submitted to the Governors, at their annual, and other, meetings, who may annul, alter, or confirm them.

Title 6. Of the President.

§ 1. The President, whenever the office shall be vacant, shall be elected and appointed by the Governors, or the major part of them.

§ 2. Whenever a vacancy shall happen, the Vice-President, or senior Fellow then in College, shall give notice thereof, within three days, to all the Governors. The Vice-President, or, if there be no Vice-President, the senior Fellow, then in College, shall execute the office of President, during the vacancy, unless the Governors, or the major part of them, shall otherwise direct, who may assign a proportionable part of the President's Salary to the person who shall execute the office.

§ 3. No person shall be elected, or appointed President, who shall not have taken the degree of Master of Arts, or Bachelor in Civil Law, in the regular manner, not by Diploma; (usually so called, in contradistinction to degrees conferred upon Students, who have kept the residence, and performed the exercises, required by the Statute) by special favor, or honoris causa, in the Universities of Oxford, or Cambridge, in the Kingdom of Great-Britain, or of Windsor, in Nova-Scotia.

§ 4. Every person who shall be elected President, before he shall receive his appointment, shall take the oaths of allegiance, and supremacy, and shall subscribe the thirty-nine Articles, and the three Articles of Religion, and shall likewise take the oath of office.

§ 5. The President shall continue in office during life, and good behaviour, but he may be removed by the Governors for non-observance of the Statutes, and for other just causes.

§ 6. The President shall receive an annual salary of five hundred pounds sterling, and shall be allowed a house, or suitable apartments in the College.

§ 7. He shall reside in the College during the whole of every term, and shall forfeit the sum of forty shillings, sterling, for every day of absence in term time; which forfeiture he shall be bound, under his oath of office, without being thereunto required, to pay to the Bursar, or Treasurer, for the use of the College fund; and besides, in case his absences shall be long, or frequent, he shall be liable to be removed from his office by the Governors.

§ 8. He shall not take any boys, or young men, as pupils, or scholars, who shall not be members of the College, nor shall he keep a school, or assist in teaching in any school, under any pretence whatsoever.

§ 9. It shall be the office of the President, to enter Students of the College; to take care that the Statutes be faithfully executed, as well by the Professors, Tutors, and other Officers of the College, as by the Students, in their respective stations; to enforce discipline, by inflicting just punishments upon offenders, and where these shall be found insufficient, by giving information to the Visitor, or Governors, of all offences, and of every neglect of duty; to be the parent, and guardian, of all young men intrusted to his protection, by directing their studies, and by furthering and promoting, by every means in his power, their progress in religion and learning; to order and preside over all the College exercises, to have an active inspection over all the affairs of the College; and, therefore, with the Bursar, to attend to the economy of the house, and, with the Librarian, to the care of the Library, and to regulate the inferior Officers and Servants.

Title 7. Of the Professors and Fellows.

Chapter 1st. Generally.

§ 1. The Professors and Fellows shall be elected and appointed by the Governors, or the major part of them, and shall continue in office during life, and good behaviour.

§ 2. Upon the vacancy of a Professorship, by death, or otherwise, the President shall immediately give notice to the Governors, and shall appoint some person, duly qualified, to read the usual lectures, till a new Professor shall be appointed, or the Governors, or the major part of them, shall otherwise direct. And the person so appointed shall receive a proportionable share of the salary for the time he shall perform the duties of the office.

§ 3. No person shall be appointed to any Professorship, who shall not have taken the degree of Master of Arts, or Bachelor in Civil Law, in the regular manner, and not by Diploma, special grace, or honoris causa, in one of the Universities of Oxford or Cambridge, in the Kingdom of Great-Britain, or in the University of Windsor, in Nova-Scotia.

§ 4. The Professor of Divinity shall likewise be a Clergyman, in full Orders, of the Church of England.

§ 5. Every person, who shall be elected to a Professorship, before he shall receive his appointment, shall take the oaths of allegiance and supremacy, and of office, and shall subscribe the thirty-nine Articles, and the three Articles of Religion.

§ 6. Each Professor shall receive an annual salary of Two Hundred Pounds, sterling; of which, Twenty Pounds shall be allowed in commons only.

§ 7. Every Student shall pay the Professors for each course of lectures which he shall attend, Twenty Shillings, sterling.

§ 8. Every Professor shall reside in the College from the beginning to the end of every term, under the penalty of Ten Shillings sterling a day, for every day of absence, and shall besides be liable to expulsion in case his absences shall be long or frequent. One Fellow or Professor, taking it in rotation, shall remain in College during every vacation. The Fellows will be expected to dine in the Hall, generally, but one at least shall always dine there.

§ 9. No Professor shall take any boys, or young men, as pupils or scholars, who shall not be members of the College, or shall keep a school, or assist in teaching in any school, under any pretence whatsoever; nor shall any persons, not members of the College, be admitted to attend any of the Professors Lectures.

§ 10. Every Lecture shall be read in the College Hall, in the Professors apartment, or other convenient place within the College, to be appointed by the President, and shall continue for one hour at least.

§ 11. Every Professor shall read his Lectures in person, and not by deputy; unless in case of sickness, or other absolutely unavoidable impediment, which shall be allowed of by the President; who, in such case, shall appoint some person, properly qualified, to execute his office, and shall allow him a reasonable stipend for his trouble, which shall be deducted out of the Professor's salary.

§ 12. Every Professor, for the omission of each lecture which he is appointed to read by the Statutes, except in the cases before mentioned, shall forfeit the sum of Five Shillings, sterling.

§ 13. No Professor, directly or indirectly, shall teach, or maintain, any atheistical, deistical, or democratical principles, or any doctrines contrary to the christian faith, or to good morals, or subversive of the British constitution, as by law established, on pain of the forfeiture of one year's salary, of removal from the Professorship, degradation from his degrees, and expulsion from the University: the infliction of these penalties shall be vested in the Visitor, or Governors as the case may be.

§ 14. Every Professor shall be ready and condescending to explain to his Pupils any difficulties which may occur in his lectures, either at the time, or after each lecture is concluded.

§ 15. Every Professor shall have power and authority to punish his Pupils for neglect of duty.

§ 16. The Fellows and Professors shall act as Tutors to such Students as shall be assigned to their charge by the President.

§ 12. Persons, not entitled to the use of the Library shall not be admitted to view it from from curiosity, whether members of the College, or not, unless they shall be introduced by the President, a Professor and Fellow, Master of Arts, or a Bachelor of Civil Law, who shall be answerable for the persons so introduced.

§ 13. All books taken down from the shelves shall be returned to their proper places, and shall not be soiled, written in, blotted, dogs-eared, folded down, or otherwise injured.

Title 7. Of the Walks, Gardens, and Piazza.

§ 1. It is expedient that there should be walks, gardens, and a covered piazza, or cloister, for exercise, and recreation.

Title 8. Of the Houses and Apartments.

§ 1. The President shall be provided with a house, and garden, paying the annual rent of four pounds sterling, for the same.

§ 4. The Professors and Fellows shall be allowed apartments, paying the annual rent of two pounds sterling, for the same.

§ 3. The scholars shall be allowed apartments, each scholar paying the annual rent of twenty shillings sterling, for the same.

§ 4. When an apartment shall be vacant, the Fellows first, and afterwards the Scholars, shall have their choice of taking it, according to seniority.

§ 5. No member of the College shall occupy more than one set of apartments; nor shall two, or more, students occupy the same set of apartments, unless by the special permission of the President.

§ 6. No house, or apartment, shall be let or lent to, or occupied by any persons who shall not be members of the College, either originally, or by the members to whom they shall be assigned; in the latter case, under the penalty of the forfeiture of the apartments, and of being considered as non-residents, and liable to all penalties as such, till they shall have procured others.

§ 7. When there shall be rooms sufficient to supply all the Fellows and Scholars, but not otherwise, the remainder may be let to independent members, or commoners, who shall likewise take their choice according to seniority, at a fixed rent of three pounds, which shall go to the College Fund.

Title 9. Of Caution Money, Commons, and Battels.

§ 1. Every member of the College, except persons on the foundation, upon his admission, shall deposit in the hands of the Bursar, for caution money, if an inhabitant of the Province, ten pounds sterling; if not an inhabitant of the Province, he shall deposit fifteen pounds sterling; which shall be returned to him upon quitting College, or taking the degree of Bachelor of Arts, or becoming a Civilian, unless he shall be indebted to the College.

§ 2. Every Professor, Fellow, and Scholar, whatsoever, during term time, and every other

other member of the College, under seven years standing, during his time of residence, shall be charged and pay one shilling a day, every day in term time, for Commons at dinner, whether he shall dine, or be absent, with or without leave; and every independent member, above seven years standing, shall pay the same, unless he shall give notice of absence the day before to the Steward.

§ 3. The surplus of the expences, beyond the Commons, in providing each dinner, shall be paid by the members present at it, at each table respectively, and every other person who commons at the same table, unless he shall have given notice of absence the day before to the Steward. This surplus, with all other expences in the kitchen, butlery, and cellar, are called Battels.

§ 4. Members of the College, who shall introduce strangers to dine with them in Hall, shall pay a proportionable share of the expence.

§ 5. No Undergraduate, except Civilians, without leave from the President, shall exceed nine shillings sterling, a week, for his commons, and battels.

§ 6. The Bursar, and Steward, at the end of every term, shall make out a bill of what shall be due from each member for commons, battels, rent, tuition, Professor's stipends, officers and servants wages, dues, forfeitures, and all other charges, which shall be paid before he shall quit College for the vacation.

OF DISCIPLINE.

Title 1. Of Terms, Vacations, and Holydays.

§ 1. The Academical year shall begin upon the first day of September, and shall contain four terms, in which all scholastic exercises shall be performed, and all degrees conferred. The first, or Michaelmas term, shall begin upon the first day of September, and shall end upon the eighteenth of December.

The second, Hilary, or Lent term, shall begin upon the ^{16th} second day of January, and shall end upon the Saturday preceding Palm Sunday.

The third, or Easter term, shall begin upon the Monday after Easter Monday, and shall end upon the Saturday seven night before Whit-sunday.

The fourth, or Trinity term, shall begin upon the morrow of Trinity Sunday, and shall end upon the first of July.

§ 2. Upon the first, and last days, of every term, the Chaplain shall perform divine service, which shall begin at ten o'Clock in the morning, according to the Liturgy of the Church of England, and the President, if in holy orders, or the Professor of Divinity, shall preach a Sermon in the College Chapel, or other place in the College appointed for divine service, or in the parish Church of Windsor, when all the members of the University shall attend in their proper habits.

§ 3. The Holydays appointed by the Church of England, namely, of St. Matthew, St. Michael, St. Luke, St. Simon, and St. Jude, All Saints, St. Andrew, St. Thomas the Apostle, the Nativity of Christ, St. Stephen, St. John, Innocent's-day, the Circumcision, the Epiphany, the conversion of St. Paul, the purification of the Virgin Mary, St. Matthias, the annuntiation of our Lady, Good Friday, Easter evening, the Monday and Tuesday in Easter week, St. Mark, St. Philip, and St. James, Ascension day, the Monday and Tuesday in Whitsun week, St. Barnabas, St. John the Baptist, St. Peter, St. James, St. Bartholomew, the fifth of November, the martyrdom of King Charles the first, the restoration of the Royal Family, and the day on which His Majesty began His reign, shall be observed in the University, and College, divine service shall be celebrated upon them, and no lectures shall be read, except by the Professor of Divinity, or any other Scholastic or Academical business performed.

Title 2. Of Matriculation.

§ 1. The Registrar of the University shall keep a Matricula or Register, in which the names of all persons who shall be admitted members of the University shall be enrolled; with their age, places of birth, and education, and the names, rank, trade, or profession, and place of residence of their parents.

§ 2. Matriculation shall be the office of the President.

- § 3. No person shall be matriculated who shall not have completed his sixteenth year.
- § 4. No person shall be matriculated who shall not be competently skilled in the Greek and Latin languages, and who shall not be able to construe the books usually read by boys in the higher classes in the public schools in Great-Britain. Every person who shall apply for admission shall be examined by the President, and one of the Professors.
- § 5. Every person, before he shall be matriculated, shall subscribe the thirty-nine articles of the Church of England, and shall take the oaths of allegiance and supremacy, and for the observance of the Statutes, in the presence of the President.
- § 6. Any person may be matriculated in vacation, and the term following shall be reckoned as his first term.

Title 3. Of Lodging.

- § 1. All the members of the University shall lodge in the College, if there shall be sufficient apartments to accommodate them.
- § 2. If there shall not be rooms sufficient to receive all the members, they who shall not be able to procure apartments, may lodge out of the College, with the consent of the President, and with his express approbation of the place of lodging. And it shall be his duty to take care that they shall be placed in respectable houses, as near as may be to the College, and not in any inn, tavern, hotel, coffee-house, common bearding-house, or other public house.
- § 3. No Undergraduate, or Bachelor of Arts, shall sleep out of the College, without leave from the President.
- § 4. No member shall permit any person to lodge with him in his apartments.

Title 4. Of Board.

- § 1. All Undergraduates and Bachelors of Arts shall take their commons at dinner in the Hall every day, and shall not dine out without leave from the President. They shall breakfast in their own apartments, and may sup, either in the Hall, or in their own apartments, at their option.
- § 2. All Fellows, Professors, and Scholars, shall pay for their commons in Hall, every day in term time whether they shall dine there or not.
- § 3. All Undergraduates, and Bachelors of Arts during their residence shall pay for their commons in Hall, every day in term time whether they shall dine there or not.
- § 4. Masters of Arts, Bachelors in Civil Law, and members of higher degrees, not on the foundation, shall pay for their commons in Hall every day during their residence unless they shall give notice of their absence to the Steward the day before.
- § 5. If any member be sick, he may obtain permission from the President to have his commons in his own apartment.

§ 6. No member, under seven years standing, shall entertain any company at dinner in his own apartments, or shall have any dinners, or hot suppers, dressed in the College kitchen to be sent to his apartments, without permission from the President.

§ 7. Members of the College may occasionally introduce strangers to dine with them in the Hall, for whom they shall pay a proportionable share of the expence of the dinner. But no member under seven years standing shall introduce a stranger without permission from the President.

Title 5. Of Habits

1. The dress of all the Members of the University shall be plain, decent, and cleanly, without lace, or any other expensive, or conceited, ornaments.

2. The Academical habits shall be the same with those which are worn in the University of Oxford, consisting of gowns, caps, hoods, and bands, as they are appropriated to each degree, faculty, standing, station, or situation, respectively.

§ 3. No member of the University shall appear out of the College, within the town, or township of Windsor, without his Academical habit, unless with the permission of the President.

Title 6. Of Lectures.

§ 1. Every Student shall attend the lectures appropriated to his standing, or degree, every day, in term time, except Sundays and holydays, the first, and the two last days of every term, and shall not absent himself from any lecture without the permission of the President, for some reasonable cause, signified in writing, and approved by the Professor.

§ 2. Every Student during his first year shall attend lectures in Grammar and the Greek and Latin Classics, with his Tutor; and, under the Professors, in Rhetoric, and in Logic. During his second year, in the Greek and Latin Classics with his Tutor; and in Ethics, in the higher Arithmetic, and Geometry, with the respective Professors. During his third year, in the Greek and Latin Classics with the Professors; in General Jurisprudence, the Laws of Nature and Nations, the Civil and Municipal Laws, in Political Science and Economy, in Algebra, Trigonometry and the Conic Sections, under the respective Professors. During his fourth year, in the Greek and Latin Classics, in Natural Philosophy, and Astronomy, in the Science of Theology, in Metaphysics, in History, Geography, and Chronology, in the Polite Arts, and the application of Science under the respective Professors. Candidates for Holy orders, and all other Students who shall choose it, shall attend the lectures upon the Hebrew Language in their fourth year. All Students during their three first years shall attend the Catechetical Lectures, and the Lectures upon the principles of the Christian Religion.

§ 3. Every Student, who shall absent himself without leave, as aforesaid, shall translate the lecture so neglected, or perform some other equivalent exercise.

§ 4. Every Student shall come to Lecture properly prepared, by previously looking over that part of the book in which he is to be lectured; if it be a printed book.

Title 7. Of Exercises.

§ 1. All Undergraduates, except Civilians, shall compose a Thema every week in term, either in prose or verse, in English and Latin alternately; the subjects shall be given out every Saturday by the President, or Vice-President, and the Thema shall be delivered in to them upon the Saturday following.

§ 2. Two Declamations, the one in English and the other in Latin, shall be composed and publicly repeated in the Hall, every Saturday in term, by the Undergraduates, and Bachelors of Arts, in rotation; the subjects shall be given out by the President, or Vice-President, and no theme will be required of any Student in the week in which he shall declaim. Or the Declamations may be both in the same language, upon different sides of the same question.

§ 3. Every Saturday in term, select passages from English, Latin, or Greek authors, shall be recited memoriter, in the Hall, by two or more Undergraduates.

§ 4. In these Declamations, Recitations, and in all other exercises, in which the Students shall read aloud, or speak in public, great attention shall be paid to their pronunciation, that they shall avoid all Provincial accents, and other improprieties, and shall deliver themselves with correctness, and a proper emphasis, and spirit.

§ 5. Some book, or part of a book, in English, Latin or Greek, shall be appointed, by the President, or Vice-President, at the end of every term, for each Undergraduate, except Civilians, from which he shall make Collections; either by abridgement, by a logical analysis and resolution of arguments into syllogisms, or by making extracts of the finest, or most material, passages, together with his own criticisms, and observations upon them. They shall be written fair in a book, and shall be delivered in to the President, or Vice-President, upon the last day but one of the following term.

§ 6. Every Saturday in term there shall be Disputations either logical, or rhetorical, under the directions of the President, or Vice-President.

§ 7. Bachelors of Arts, and Civilians, designed for Holy Orders, shall compose a Sermon, every term, upon a text given them by the Professor of Divinity, which they shall read in Hall after it shall have been revised, and corrected by the Professor.

Title 8. Of Tuition.

§ 1. Every Undergraduate shall attend his Tutor's lectures, or whenever else his Tutor shall require it, and shall respectfully submit to, and obey his advice, reproofs, and directions, whether they shall relate to his Studies, his behaviour, or any thing else.

Title

Title 9. Of Examinations.

§ 1. Upon the last day but one of every term, all the Undergraduates, except Civilians, shall produce their Collections, and shall be examined by the President, and Professors.

§ 2. At these Examinations, the place and rank of each Undergraduate shall be assigned according to his merit, and rewards of books, or other marks of honor, shall be bestowed upon those who shall pass the best examinations.

§ 3. If any Undergraduates, not being Civilians, shall be found to have neglected their studies, or to have been guilty of great irregularities, the President and the Fellows may declare their term not to have been kept; which judgment shall be entered in the College books, and the term shall not reckon towards their degree.

§ 4. At the annual meeting of the Governors, there shall be a more solemn examination of the Undergraduates, not Civilians, some of their compositions made in the preceding year shall be produced, and rewards and honors of higher value shall be bestowed by the Governors upon the most deserving: But no Students shall then be examined, except those who shall be designated by the President, or Professors, or who shall voluntarily offer themselves for examination, or shall be selected by the Governors themselves.

Title 10. Of Divine Service.

§ 1. All Undergraduates, and Bachelors of Arts, shall attend the College prayers, every day both in the morning and the evening.

§ 2. The Lessons shall be read by the Undergraduates, and Bachelors of Arts, in rotation, and it shall be the duty of the President, and Vice President, to take care that they be read with distinctness, propriety, and becoming solemnity.

Title 11. Of Moral Conduct and Behaviour.

§ 1. No member of the University shall be guilty of any vices, or of any immoral, or improper conduct, such as sabbath-breaking, swearing, lying, obscene or profane conversation, adultery, fornication, or being in the company of bad women, gaming, drunkenness, or of frequenting taverns, quarrelling, fighting, or the like.

§ 2. No member, under seven years standing, shall resort to any inns, taverns, or other public houses, unless upon some necessary, urgent, or particular occasion, to be allowed by the President, or shall spend their time in the Town.

§ 3. No member of the University shall hold, maintain, or teach, any atheistical, deistical, or democratical doctrines, or any principles contrary to the Christian faith, or to good morals, or subversive of the British Constitution as by Law established, under pain of expulsion.

§ 4. No member of the University shall frequent the Romish mass, or the meeting Houses,

4 Houses of Presbyterians, Baptists, or Methodists, or the Conventicles, or places of Worship, of any other dissenters from the Church of England, or where Divine Service shall not be performed according to the Liturgy of the Church of England, or shall be present at any seditious, or rebellious meetings.

§ 5. No Undergraduates, or Bachelors of Arts, shall be out of the College after ten o'clock at night, without the permission of the President.

§ 6. Undergraduates, and Bachelors of Arts, shall not quit College without leave from the President, and shall wait upon him immediately upon their return to it.

§ 7. No member of the College shall break, deface, defile, or otherwise injure, the buildings, walls, fences, doors, windows, or other property belonging to the College.

§ 8. No member shall keep any dogs in the College.

§ 9. The President, Vice-President, Proctors, and Tutors, shall have power and authority to enter the apartments of all Undergraduates, and Bachelors of Arts, at all seasonable, or unseasonable, hours, whenever they shall have reason to suspect that any improper proceedings are carrying on there.

§ 10. The senior member in each stair case shall be Conservator of the Peace, to take care that no disturbances be made there, and to report any improper conduct in the members, or servants, to the President.

§ 11. Juniors shall pay due and proper respect to their seniors, both in public, and in private, by taking off their hats, or caps, by giving place to them, and by all other the usual modes of attention, and civility.

§ 12. Every member who shall strike the President, the Professors, or Fellows, the Proctors, or his Tutor, shall be expelled.

Title 12. Of Residence, and keeping Term.

§ 1. No Term shall be kept, or shall reckon towards a degree, without academical residence, during the whole term, from the first day to the last inclusive.

§ 2. Academical residence shall consist in lodging and boarding in the College, in wearing the proper habit, in attending chapel, lectures, and exercises, and in complying with all other collegiate, and academical regulations, according to the Statutes.

§ 3. No member shall be allowed to keep a term unless he shall have paid his commons, battels, and all other College dues, for the preceding term; so if he shall have contracted other debts, upon the just complaint of a creditor to the President and Fellows, he may be prevented from keeping any more terms till such debt be paid.

§ 4. The keeping of a Term may be disallowed by the President and Fellows, for neglect of duty, for great irregularities, for not paying the dues of the preceding term, and for debts contracted.

§ 5. The Term, in which a Student shall have been matriculated, and that in which he shall take his degree, shall be reckoned as kept, without further residence.

Title 13. Of College Dues and Fees.

§ 4. He shall compose two essays, one in Latin, and the other in English, upon medical subjects.

§ 5. He shall undergo a strict examination by the respective Professors in the medical sciences.

§ 6. He shall take an oath that he has applied himself to the study of medicine, for three years, and shall produce certificates thereof.

§ 7. Bachelors in medicine may receive a licenee from the Convocation, to practice Physic, provided they procure from the Professor of medicine, and one other Doctor in medicine, or from three Doctors in medicine, a certificate that they are properly qualified, and shall take an oath to perform the duties of that profession.

Title 15. Of the Degree of Doctor in Medicine.

§ 1. No person shall take the Degree of Doctor in Medicine, who shall not be a Bachelor in Medicine of four years standing.

§ 2. The Exercises for this Degree shall consist of six solemn lectures, upon Medical Subjects, which shall be read in Hall, and shall continue an hour each.

Title 16. Of the Degree of Bachelor in Divinity.

§ 1. Every Candidate for the degree of Bachelor in Divinity shall be a Master in Arts of seven years standing, from the time of admission to his regency.

§ 2. He shall have attended the Professor of Divinity one complete course of lectures upon Theology, and the thirty nine articles.

§ 3. He shall understand the Hebrew language.

§ 4. He shall undergo an examination by the Divinity Professor.

§ 5. He shall compose two dissertations upon Theological subjects.

§ 6. He shall preach a Latin sermon before the University.

Title 17. Of the Degree of Doctor in Divinity.

§ 1. Every person before he can be admitted to the Degree of Doctor in Divinity must be a Bachelor in Divinity of four years standing.

§ 2. But Candidates who shall have taken the Degree of Bachelor in Divinity, and shall be eighteen years standing from their Matriculation, by dispensation from the convocation, may take their degree of Doctor immediately after that of Bachelor.

§ 3. The exercises shall consist of six solemn lectures upon Theological subjects, to be read in the Hall, and to continue the space of an hour each lecture, and he shall preach a Latin sermon before the University.

years, and shall compose, and cause to be performed, in the public Hall, a piece of vocal and instrumental music, in five parts, before they shall be admitted to the degree of Bachelor in Music.

§ 2. Every Bachelor in Music, shall have applied himself to the study, or practice of music, for five years, after taking his degree, which shall be certified likewise, under the hands of persons worthy of credit, and shall have composed, and caused to be performed in public, in the College Hall, a piece of vocal, and instrumental, music, in six or eight parts, before he shall be admitted to the degree of Doctor in Music.

Title 19. Of Dispensations.

§ 1. No dispensation shall be granted but for matters, and causes, expressly defined by the Statutes.

Title 20. Of the ceremonies, and manner, of conferring Degrees.

§ 1. Every Student, who shall be desirous of taking a degree, shall apply to the House of Convocation for a Grace, by a petition, which shall be presented by a member of the House.

In this petition the candidate shall state, specifically, that he has performed all the acts, and possesses all the qualifications, required by the Statutes, and pray to be admitted to his degree.

§ 2. When the petition shall have been admitted, the degree shall not be proposed in the Convocation till the facts therein alledged shall have been proved by sufficient evidence, to the satisfaction of the House. That the candidate be a member of the University, and of proper standing, shall have been ascertained by inspection of the matricula. That he be a member of the College, and have resided a sufficient number of terms, by a Testimonium signed by the President and Bursar, upon reference to the College books. That he have attended the lectures and exercises of the College, by a Testimonium from the President, and the respective Professors. A Testimonium of his principles and moral conduct shall be exhibited as before directed, likewise a Testimonium from the examiners, and another from the President, or Proctors, that he have performed the exercises for his degree.

§ 3. When the House shall be satisfied upon these points, the degree shall be proposed, and put to the vote.

§ 4. If the question be carried in the affirmative the Candidate shall subscribe the thirty nine articles, and the three articles of Religion, in the presence of one of the Proctors, who shall certify the same to the house.

§ 5. He shall then be introduced into the convocation House, and lead up to the President's Chair, by the Proctor, if it be a Degree in Arts, or otherwise by the Professor of his faculty, and presented in solemn form.

X § 6. He shall take the oaths of allegiance and supremacy, the oath to observe the Statutes of the University, and the Library oath, if he shall not have taken it before.

§ 7. He shall then kneel down before the President's chair, who shall confer the Degree in solemn form, and shall admit him to the use of the library, if not before admitted. The Graduate shall then rise, and, after making his obeisance to the President and the House, shall retire into another room, where he shall assume the habit of his Degree. He shall then return to the Convocation House, attended by his presenter, shall repeat his obeisances, and depart.

§ 8. The Degree shall be entered in the Register of the Convocation, by the Registrar, under the directions of the President; and Letters Testimonial shall be made out, and granted to the Graduate, if he require it, under the seal of the University.

Title 21. Of Incorporation and Honorary Degrees.

§ 1. The House of Convocation shall have power to incorporate members of the Universities of Oxford, Cambridge, and Dublin, in the United Kingdom of Great-Britain, admitting undergraduates to the same standing, and graduates to the same degrees, which they shall enjoy respectively in their own Universities.

§ 2. No Graduates shall be incorporated but such as shall have taken their degrees in the regular manner, by residing the time, and performing the exercises required by the Statutes of their respective Universities, and not such as shall have taken their Degrees by diploma, usually so called, or honoris causa.

§ 3. Every Graduate who shall be admitted by incorporation, whatever shall be his standing in his own University, shall rank after all members of this University who shall take the same degree within the same year in which he shall be incorporated.

§ 4. No degrees whatever, in any art, or faculty, unless by incorporation, as before limited, shall be conferred by special grace, by diploma, or otherwise, upon any other persons than members of the University, who shall have kept the residence, performed the exercises, and complied with all the other regulations, prescribed by the Statutes.

§ 5. Except that the House of Convocation, with the consent of the Governors, or the major part of them, shall have power to confer Honorary Degrees upon highly eminent, or illustrious personages, either British subjects, or Foreigners, who shall visit the University—And all persons who shall receive this honor, shall enjoy the title, and rank, of the respective degrees which shall be conferred upon them, but shall not be entitled to, or exercise, any other powers, authorities, or privileges, belonging to such degree, within the British dominions, which restriction, and exception, shall be expressed in their Letters Testimonial.

§ 6. Before any person shall be admitted by Incorporation he shall produce letters testimonial from the University of which he shall be a member, testifying his standing, or degree, and shall take the oaths, and subscribe the articles as required upon matriculation.

Title

Title 22. Of the Encænia, and Public Act.

§ 1. A Feast, to be called the Encænia, shall be celebrated annually upon the Monday preceeding the third Thursday of September, in commemoration of the Foundation of the University by his most gracious Majesty King George the Third.

§ 2. On this day the Governors, with the President, Professors, and Fellows, Scholars, and all other members of the University, in their proper habits, shall proceed to the College Chapel, or the parish Church of Windsor, where they shall hear divine service, and a sermon shall be preached by the Professor of Divinity.

§ 3. After divine service they shall repair to the College Hall, where shall be held the public Academical Act.

§ 4. An oration, in praise of the institution, and in commemoration of the Founder, and other benefactors, shall be delivered by the President, or such other member of the University as he shall appoint.

§ 5. The candidates, for degrees, shall speak their declamations, and perform such other parts of their exercises, as the Governors shall think proper.

§ 6. Degrees shall then be conferred, as at other times, in the regular manner, according to the Statutes.

§ 7. Masters of Arts, Bachelors in Civil Law, and Doctors in Divinity, Law, and Physic, who shall have taken their degrees previously, shall be admitted to their regency, as members of the house of Convocation, and shall take the oath inserted in the Appendix. They who shall have been admitted to their regency as Masters of Arts, or Bachelors in Civil Law, shall receive a new admission upon taking the degree of Doctor, in any of the Faculties.

§ 8. There shall be an examination of Undergraduates, and rewards shall be bestowed upon the most deserving.

§ 9. Two Prizes shall be given annually consisting of books, to the value of ten pounds sterling each for the two best compositions, in Latin, or English, in prose or verse, shall be directed by the Governors, who shall give out the respective subjects at their annual Meetings. The competitors shall send their compositions to the Treasurer before the Easter vacation. At the bottom of his composition each author shall affix a motto, and shall write his name upon a separate paper, which shall be carefully sealed up, and distinguished on the outside by a motto, corresponding with that on his composition. The Governors, without opening the sealed papers, shall consider the different compositions and decide upon their merits. The sealed papers according with the compositions, which shall be judged worthy of the prize, shall then be opened, the successful Candidates shall be declared, and the other compositions, with the sealed papers unopened, shall be destroyed. The Prize compositions shall be publicly recited at the Encænia.

§ 10. Speeches, disputations, or other Academical exercises, shall be spoken, or performed, by any members of the University, who shall obtain the President's permission.

§ 11. The Public Act shall then be closed, by the President, in solemn form.

Title 23. Of Rank and Precedence.

§ 1. The officers, and members of the University and College shall take Precedence according to the following table :

1. The President,
2. Doctors in Divinity,
3. Doctors in Civil Law,
4. Doctors in Physic,
5. Bachelors in Divinity,
6. Bachelors in Civil Law,
7. Bachelors in Physic,
8. Doctors in Music,
9. Bachelors in Music,
10. Masters in Arts,
11. Bachelors in Arts, and Civilians, or Students in the Civil Law, who shall have completed four years of residence, and shall have performed the exercises required by the Statutes; and who shall be entitled, in every respect, to the same privileges as Bachelors of Arts,

12. Undergraduates.

§ 2. All Graduates of the same faculty and degree shall rank amongst each other according to the time of their admission to their degrees.

§ 3. Every Graduate admitted by incorporation, whatever may be his standing in his own University, shall rank after all who shall take the same degree in this University within the same year in which he is incorporated.

§ 4. The Vice-President shall rank next to the President within the College, and all Professors and Fellows, within the College, shall have precedence before all other members of the College, however superior to them in degree or otherwise.

§ 5. Undergraduates shall rank according to the date of their matriculation, or according to the place, and station, which shall be assigned them at each terminal, or annual, examination.

Title 24. Of the University Dues and Fees.

§ 1. No fees shall be taken by the Officers of the University, on any account, or pretence whatsoever, except such as shall be allowed by the Statutes.

THE CONCLUSION.

Title I. Of the Sanction of the Statutes.

§ 1. Every member who shall commit an offence against the Statutes of the University, or the College, shall be liable to punishment.

§ 2. Where no specific punishment is annexed by the Statutes to any particular offence, the punishment shall be in the discretion of the person who is empowered to impose it; provided that no immoderate punishments be inflicted.

§ 3. Punishments may be pecuniary; or they may consist of impositions, or exercises; offenders may be confined to their rooms, or prohibited from leaving College for the vacation; their terms may be disallowed, their degrees deferred, or totally refused; they may be suspended, or removed, from their places or offices; may be banished from the University for a certain time, expelled, or degraded.

§ 4. The President, the Vice-President, and the Proctors, shall have the power of punishing in all cases of offences against morality or discipline, which shall be committed by Students under the degree of Masters in Arts, or Bachelor in Civil Law.

§ 5. The Professors, and the Tutors, shall have the power of punishing their pupils for non-attendance, and other offences relating to their particular offices.

§ 6. The President shall inflict all pecuniary fines, and forfeitures, imposed by the Statutes, upon all Professors, Fellows, Tutors, Scholars, Librarians, and all other officers and members of the College, who shall receive any salaries, or other emoluments from it, for non-residence, and other non-compliances with the Statutes; but the party may appeal to the Governors, or Visitor. It shall be his office likewise to give information to the Governors, or Visitor, if they shall neglect their duty.

§ 7. He shall likewise have power to impose punishments upon Masters of Arts, Bachelors in Civil Law, and members of still higher degrees, who shall receive no salaries or emoluments from the College, for offences against the Statutes, but the party may appeal to the Governors, or Visitor.

§ 8. The Governors, or the major part of them, shall have the power, both originally, and upon appeal, of suspending, or removing from their offices, and of expelling the President, and Fellows, the Scholars, and all other members of the University, or of inflicting any lesser punishments, in the cases prescribed by the Statutes, for gross neglect of duty, for legal crimes, and other great enormities.

§ 9. In every case where the party offending shall refuse to submit to lawful punishment, unless where an appeal is allowed, he shall be expelled.

§ 10. No degree shall be deferred, by way of punishment, beyond the time in which it might otherwise be conferred, but by the act of the Convocation.

§ 11. No member of the University shall be suspended, or removed, from a place, or office, of emolument, shall be banished for a longer time than two terms, expelled, or totally deprived of his degree, without the consent of the Governors, or the major part of them, them, except in cases where the Statutes have authorised the President, and Fellows, to remove certain officers at their discretion.

THE CONCLUSION.

§ 12. All fines, forfeitures, and pecuniary punishments, if not paid before, shall be stopped, or deducted, out of the quarterly payments of the salary of the offender, if he be entitled to any from the College. The officer, who shall impose them, shall give notice, in writing, to the person who pays the salaries, who shall thereupon be bound to retain such fines, and to pay them into the College's fund.

§ 13. All pecuniary fines, by whomsoever imposed, unless where, and in as much as, they shall be intended to make a just compensation to some person who shall have been injured by the offence committed, shall go to the use of the Library,

§ 14. Every member, who shall be expelled from the University, shall, by such expulsion, be deprived, de jure and de facto, of his Presidency, Professorship, or Scholarship, and of every other office, place, situation, salary, privilege, power, and emoluments, whatsoever, which he may enjoy, or be entitled to, in, or from, the University, or College.

Title 2. Of the Interpretation, and Promulgation, of the Statutes.

§ 1. If any doubts, difficulties, or differences, shall arise respecting the true meaning, purpose, or application of any of these Statutes, the Governors alone, or the major part of them, shall have power and authority to interpret, explain, and declare their intention therein, and of deciding and determining all such doubts, difficulties, or differences.

§ 2. Authentic copies of these Statutes, signed by the Governors, shall be deposited in the Archives of the College, and in the office of the Province.

§ 3. The Statutes shall be printed, and every member, upon his admission, shall be furnished with a copy.

§ 4. The Appendix, hereunto annexed, shall be taken, and considered, as part of these Statutes, and shall be carried into execution as such.

No. 1. The Oath for the Obedience of the Statutes.

I A. B. do solemnly swear that I will observe all the Statutes of this University, and College, of Windsor, to the best of my ability. So help me God.

No. 2. The Oath of Allegiance.

I A. B. do sincerely promise and swear that I will be faithful, and bear true allegiance to His Majesty King George. So help me God.

The Oath of Supremacy.

I A. B. do swear, that I do, from my heart, abhor, detest, and abjure, as impious and heretical, that damnable doctrine and position, that Princes excommunicated or deprived by the Pope, or any authority of the See of Rome, may be deposed or murdered by their subjects, or any other whatsoever.

And, I do declare, that no foreign Prince, person, prelate, State, or potentate, hath, or ought to have, any jurisdiction, power, superiority, pre-eminence, or authority, ecclesiastical or spiritual, within this realm. So help me God.

No. 3.

Three Articles, contained in the thirty-sixth canon of the book of Constitutions and Canons ecclesiastical in the Synod of London, begun in the year of our Lord 1603.

1st. That the King's Majesty, under God, is the only Supreme Governor of this realm, and of all other his Highness's dominions and countries, as well in all spiritual or ecclesiastical things or causes, as temporal; and that no foreign Prince, person, prelate, State, or potentate, hath, or ought to have, any jurisdiction, power, superiority, pre-eminence, or authority, ecclesiastical or spiritual, within his Majesty's said realms, dominions and countries.

2d. That the book of Common Prayer, and of ordering of Bishops, Priests, and Deacons, containeth in it, nothing contrary to the word of God, and that it may lawfully be used; and that I myself will use the form in the said book prescribed, in public prayer, and administration of the Sacraments, and none other.

3d. That I allow the book of Articles of Religion, agreed upon by the Archbishops, and Bishops, of both Provinces, and the whole Clergy in the Convocation holden at London, in the year of our Lord God, one thousand five hundred sixty and two; and that I acknowledge all and every the articles therein contained, being in number nine and thirty, besides the Ratification, to be agreeable to the word of God.
